BRITISH CABINET TO MEET TUESDAY TO DISCUSS REPORT

Further efforts will be made to influence United States.

Reported division of opinion not confirmed.

Majority London Papers Favor Accepting American Terms At Once.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—It is understood that the cabinet will meet tomorrow to hear and discuss Stanley Baldwin's report on his American financial mission. The division of opinion generally attributed to the cabinet members on the question of accepting America's debt terms is not confirmed by any ministerial statement.

The popular hope that terms may be mitigated is based on the assumption that further efforts will be made through diplomatic exchanges to influence the United States; but most of the press opinion takes Mr. Baldwin's Southampton statement as the final word and does not build seriously upon such efforts.

It is regarded as certain that if the terms are not a gloomy one for the taxpayers who have been banking for some time upon relief from taxation.

The government would have the support of a majority of the London newspapers if it accepted the American terms forthwith. The Daily Mail and the Times alone today express their opposition.

The Herald, Labor's publication, while non-committal regarding acceptance or rejection, says: "The House of Commons must be in the forefront of the decision."

Harold Teegerstrom Wanted for Hearing Appears at Monroe

MONROE, La., Jan. 28.—Harold Teegerstrom, who disappeared from the bunkhouse of the Southern Carbon company near Bastrop, on the night of December 29 and was sought in connection with the open hearing into "hooded band activities" in Morehouse parish, appeared on the streets of Monroe at noon and declared to his acquaintances he was "back to stay."

Teegerstrom said he was not kidnapped and that he was not "scared away." He said he left because he believed that it would be best for his friends to go. He denied that he had been held prisoner; also said that he had not been hidden away by his friends.

"Neither the klanmen nor the department of justice nor the state had anything to do with my departure," he said. "I left of my own volition because I thought it was best to go. I did it for my friends' sake, back because I wanted to hear the truth about what was going on in Arkansas, Mississippi and in several other parts of Louisiana since I have been gone and possibly other states."

ARREST IS ORDERED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—Harold Teegerstrom, who appeared today at Monroe as suddenly as he disappeared from the plant of the Southern Carbon company near Bastrop last month, will be arrested immediately as a material witness in connection with the kidnapping and slaying of West Daniel and T. F. Richard, it was stated today at the office of Attorney General Cocco.

Teegerstrom will be held under bond until Monday, when a grand jury begins its investigation into operations of masked bands in the parish, it was said. The attorney general's office has stated it would be the second or third week in March before it is ready to go before the grand jury with a brief of testimony obtained at the open hearing, which was concluded at Bastrop plant Thursday.

BOHRAH TO PRESENT CONFERENCE PLANS DURING THE WEEK

IDAHO SENATOR IS THE CENTER OF INTEREST IN WASHINGTON.

MOVEMENTS WATCHED BY PARTY AND PUBLIC

Commands Greater Attention Than Any Man in National Congress.

By MARK SULLIVAN Political Correspondent of the New York Tribune and Wichita Daily Times.

(Copyright 1935, N. Y. Tribune, Inc.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The chief interest in Washington this week as work begins, revolves around the movements of Senator Bohrah.

Senator Bohrah will again recall his name to the attention of the public by his presence at the conference to consider reparations and other European questions.

Whatever the motive or meaning of this state of affairs, it is a fact. What is Bohrah going to do in the case of reparations, is an open question.

Senator Bohrah will rise in the senate and say something. People are a bit curious to know what he has to say.

Senator Bohrah is the one conspicuous spokesman of the policy of doing something other than merely talking about it.

Most, but not all, of this interest in what Bohrah may do in the nature of approval from outside of Washington is talking out to the people of the world over the heads of their governments.

IF GERMANY FIGHTS

"SUPER-GUERRILLA" WAR WILL BE RESULT, SAYS U. S. EXPERT

Public square at Marceau where riots of protest by Germans have taken place. Possibly the severest of a "super-guerrilla" warfare.

By HARRY HUNT NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The German "super-guerrilla" warfare, as the world's most expert military and political strategists, may become the world's most disorderly fighting.

This is the prophesy of experts of the war plan division of the United States army general staff who have given careful study to the military situation in Germany.

The intensively drilled Prussian soldier may become a super-guerrilla, carrying on irregular fighting of a type hitherto unknown, they say.

All this, if Germany, goaded by French encroachments, decides to resist its present passive resistance with active resistance.

Army regulations prohibit these officers from being quoted directly, but it can be gathered from the opinions of high officers secured in a series of interviews.

Army Staff News. "Germany knows she cannot match arms with France in a new war, these officers agree.

She has no heavy artillery, no tanks, no aircraft.

She has an army of 100,000, allowed by the treaty, and guard and police forces that might amount to a total of 200,000.

But the best present course for America. Fundamentally, the great difference between Bohrah and Hughes is that of the nature of the prevailing opinion.

LOCAL SCHOOLS TO RUN FULL TERM IN SPITE OF FINANCES

NO DANGER OF HAVING TO CLOSE EARLY, SAYS THE SUPERINTENDENT

CUT SESSION SHORT IN MANY DISTRICTS

Lack of Funds to Pay Normal Schools to Dismiss Unless Legislature Helps

There is no danger of Wichita Falls schools being forced to cut short their session on account of finances, Superintendent Clark said Monday.

While many public schools in Texas will have to close unless the legislature comes to their relief, the schools here are to continue for the full session, Mr. Clark said.

"There is a difference of about $10,000 between what we get this year and what we got last year," Mr. Clark said.

"That is enough money for us to pass it, but it is less than one month's payroll, and we can't make whatever other arrangements are necessary. There is absolutely no reason why we should not get the full term."

The state's appropriation for this year was $19 per pupil this year and only $16, and the difference is sufficient to postpone starting the school year in many districts.

County Superintendent Bryant was out of town Monday, and no estimate of the number of rural schools that might have to close could be obtained, it is thought, however, that the number in Wichita county will be small.

In other counties in north and west Texas, quite a number of the schools will have to close from one to three months early unless the legislature provides financial aid.

"But should Russia join Germany, then Poland would look for trouble with France."

Rumania and Czechoslovakia would shortly be drawn in, and we would have again the spectre of war running through the whole chain of similar governments in Europe.

Italy, Greece, Turkey, Bulgaria—no one could foresee where it would stop.

Early restoration of the night train over the Wichita Valley has been promised by Burlington officials, with whom the traffic department of the chamber of commerce has taken the matter up.

It is understood that the schedule will be independent of the daytime train, and there are apparently no plans as yet for through service between points south of Wichita Falls.

The night train was taken off last summer and points along the line are anxious that it be restored as early as possible.

Injunction Is Dissolved by Judge Rogers

A temporary restraining order which had enjoined Sheriff Pat Murphy from levying execution on a writ of habeas corpus, was dissolved by Judge Guy Rogers of the county court at law Monday morning.

The temporary writ of injunction had been granted last Wednesday.

John O'Neill, who had gone on the bond had asked for the restraining order.

Several months ago Judge Rogers granted judgment against Roy Bell and others in a suit filed against them by George Duff. The case was appealed, but last week the court of civil appeals affirmed the judgment and an effort to collect on the supersedeas bond was immediately begun.

John O'Neill, the petitioner for the writ of injunction had signed the bond when the case was appealed.

Mr. O'Neill, through his attorney, gave notice of appeal on the judgment of the court Monday morning.

EXCELLENT RECORD OF NEGRO WINS HIM FREEDOM MONDAY

A clear record for 34 years saved John Norfolk, a pioneer negro in this city, a fine in the city court Monday morning.

Norfolk was brought before Judge Martin on a charge of drunkenness as a result of a raid on his place Saturday night. He testified that he had been a resident of the city for 34 years and had owned the said place since 1854.

During that time he said he had never been arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and he had a good record for 34 years.

White character witnesses, persons for whom the negro had worked since he first came to the city, testified that he had never been arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and he had a good record for 34 years.

Judge Martin dismissed the negro on the condition that he should have made during his 34 years residence here.

Bonds of $10 each were forfeited for each of the defendants, and the defendants failed to show up for the charges.

Police officers said Monday morning that the number of arrests made for drunkenness over the weekend was unusually light. Only seven men were taken up at the Monday morning court.

WEST TEXAS WILL HAVE MANY FAIRS, ADOPT SCHEDULES

From 40 to 50 county and regional fairs will be held in west Texas next fall, according to plans announced last week at Abilene, where representatives of the various fair associations convened.

Hubert M. Harrison of the chamber of commerce represented the Texas-Oklahoma fair at the meeting.

The fairs will center their schedules around four regional fairs at Abilene, Lubbock, San Angelo, and Wichita Falls. The Abilene fair will immediately precede the Texas-Oklahoma fair, and Mr. Harrison arranged for the release of some of the exhibits to be shown here.

The football game between the teams of Simmons college and Austin college will be largely attended from Abilene, and Simmons route are arranging for a special train on which they expect several hundred to come here for the contest, Mr. Harrison reported.

TEMPERATURE DROP FOLLOWED BY RAIN OVER WIDE SECTION

A drop in temperature shortly after the noon hour Sunday with the air filled with moisture was taken as a good indication for rain.

At midnight it started raining slowly and continued throughout the early hours of the morning. The rain struck a wide section in this part of the state, according to the reports received from agents on railroad lines.

Rain was reported from Fort Worth to Vernon, from Dallas to Fredericks, and from Abilene to Brown. North of Fredericks, agents reported heavily overcast skies and with a temperature hovering around 40 degrees. Rain was expected there early Monday morning.

Locally at 8:30 o'clock the amount of rainfall was only one-tenth of an inch, but it was still raining and snowing for the entire day.

John O'Neill, who had gone on the bond had asked for the restraining order.

WHY CHILDREN ARE SICK IN WINTER

CHILDREN get sick in winter because they don't get the purest air and the best food.

They get the purest air and the best food when they are in the open air and when they are eating fresh, red meat, fish, and fruit.

COLD, DRY WEATHER NEEDED TO CHECK EPIDEMIC OF FLU

With a large proportion of Wichita Falls population under the weather's physician, say that a spell of dry cold weather would be the most effective means of breaking up the epidemic of influenza that has this city in its grip just now.

Most of the cases of "flu" are of a much milder variety than that which prevailed several years ago, and some physicians question whether the ailment should be called influenza at all.

Quite a few cases of pneumonia among young children are reported, but most of the absence from school are due to the so-called "croup," which is a mild ailment, but hard, and practically all the substitutes in the blank are said to be running low.

DECLARES ENGLISH SPEAKING PEOPLES CAN SAVE WORLD

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain, in a statement made public by the English speaking union yesterday, declared that English speaking peoples can, by working together, save the world from the decline and disaster which threatens it today.

"At present the world appears to be pretty close to chaos," Mr. Davis said, "and destined either to fall over the brink or through the saving influence of constructive forces to work its way back to stability. Nothing will help more to bring about the latter result than continued peace and wise practical cooperation between all the great English speaking peoples."

TWO KILLED AND TWO ARE WOUNDED IN INDIANA TOWN

RIOT IS STAGED AT NEGRO DANCE HALL AND SHOOTING FOLLOWS.

SHERIFF IS SLIGHTLY WOUNDED IN SHOULDER

Trouble Grows Out of Recent Order to Negroes to Leave the Town.

BLANDFORD, IND., Jan. 29.—An investigation into a report of an outbreak of the race troubles existing here resulted in a riot early today, during which two unidentified men were shot to death and Sheriff Henry Newland and an unidentified man were wounded.

Acting on a report that persons had fired on two negroes, proprietors of a store here, Sheriff Newland gathered a large force of deputies and visited the section near the store. The officials entered a dance hall nearby where a celebration was in progress by a crowd of people, mostly negroes, and the celebration turned into a riot. In the fight that followed shooting became general. Two of the dance hall patrons were shot to death by the deputies and another seriously wounded. Sheriff Newland received a bullet wound in the shoulder.

A sweeping investigation into the shooting started here, according to reports. Prosecuting Attorney W. A. Satterlee is expected to arrive here this morning from Clinton in time for the coroner's inquest into the deaths of the two men.

It could not be learned whether any additional action regarding the local situation was contemplated by Governor McGray. The governor last week ordered officials of the national guard to investigate the trouble in Indiana and to return to their homes if the situation was quiet. A new crisis arose over the weekend through the insistence of James Tusha and Rix Nur Bey that the massacre or failure of the conference depend on whether the allies would recognize the complete sovereignty of Turkey, abolishing the capitulations and agreeing upon an equitable distribution of the Ottoman debt.

Adoption of a set of principles embracing these points Rix Nur Bey told the correspondents could be followed later by the formulation of the treaty's details, meanwhile, Turkey's dignity as a nation would not be compromised.

BELIEVE MAN IS VICTIM OF FAMILY FEUD IN KANSAS

BONNER SPRINGS, KAN., Jan. 29. Police today were investigating a theory that Stanford Harrington, 44, who was beaten unconscious last night by two unidentified men, was the victim of a family feud which also resulted in the brutal slaying last November 7 of Leon Harrington, a brother.

Charles H. Griffith, attorney general, who was appraised of the attack, said at Topeka last night he believed the feud theory highly probable. J. W. Harrington, father of the Harringtons, died about 25 years ago a brother, "Doc" Harrington, killed John Dillingham, sheriff at Fairlee, Mo., and then at the age of 30, his wife's uncle, and Mrs. Bill Wallace, her mother. The same day "Doc" Harrington was killed by Henry Dillingham, 13, a son of the sheriff.

Mr. Harrington declined to discuss the possibility that Leon and his youngest son were victims of feudists. Rog. R. Hubbard, special assistant attorney general, and Harry Hayward, assistant warden, county attorney, were here today to make an investigation of the attack.

Stanford is believed to have been mistaken by the two men last night for another brother, Oliver Harrington, 21. Discovery by the assailants that they had the wrong man, as supposed to have said Stanford's wife, he was not seriously injured. Leon Harrington's mutilated and charred body was found near a burned motor car on a lonely road between Bonner Springs and Tonawanda the morning of November 8. Harry Skaggs, Bonner Springs barber, was taken to Kansas City, Kan. late in December on a charge of murdering Harrington, but was acquitted.

In fact, I had reached such a low state of health that I was advised to make my will as my time for this world was getting short. I could take only a spoonful of liquid nourishment at a time, was nothing but a living skeleton, and just seemed to be hanging on to life by a thread, so to speak.

HARDING CERTAIN TO BE NOMINATED FOR SECOND TERM

SUCH IS VIEW HELD GENERALLY IN OFFICIAL WASHINGTON.

RETIREMENT WOULD BE ADMISSION OF FAILURE

For First Time in Fourteen Years No Summer Session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The report that President Harding may not seek a second term is again going through the rounds of the "press," and the special writers are termed by the ordinary members of the press galleries as devoting much space in telling how weary the president has become and how the failure of his party, as represented in house and senate, to rally to the administration program has made him heart-sick, with an overbearing desire to return to the happy joys of running the Marion Star.

There may be a medium of truth in all this but no one in Washington who is conversant with the "press," as she is played, thinks for a minute that President Harding will retire voluntarily at the expiration of his second term. It is doubtful if he would if he wanted to for unless he had committed some all but unpardonable sin, his resignation would be a confession of failure. Should he really show a disposition to retire there would be a party council probably a very quiet one but none the less effective and following it there would be no more "loose talk."

It would be known, and generally known, that President Harding would not seek re-nomination but reelection because of the strong constructive policies for which his administration has stood. The party leaders know that the retirement of a president who has retained his health and vigor during his first term, as viewed by the public, is tantamount to an admission of failure and despite the absurdities among some of the republicans whose advice counts who will admit that condition either exists now or will exist at this time, they are not going to let the retirement of President Harding be undertaken because of the row it would start in the senate. Leadership of the "old guard" and the so-called "progressives" would be at one another's throats over night and the result would be a political "punch" to what would happen in the ranks of the G. O. P.

For the first time in 14 years there will be no session of congress this summer. President Harding is determined to have the country with him in this but the cordial support of congress, irrespective of political party, has been secured. The various supply bills and with them out of the way, as it now appears, the two big bills, the middle and the other, there appears no reason for a session of congress this summer unless a European configuration should force it.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS RUBADUB'S VALENTINE

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Mr. Stamp, the fairy postman, pushed back his cap and peered over Nick's shoulder. "So, looked! cried Nick one day, as he was sorting letters in the history tree postoffice. 'Here's a valentine for Mr. Rubadub, and it looks like Mr. Crow's writing.' Mr. Stamp, the fairy postman, pushed back his cap and peered over Nick's shoulder. 'Yes, since hub, it is that,' he declared. 'Chris doesn't like Rubadub because he hates soap and water, and Rubadub's always trying to get a hold of 'Chris to give him a good scrubbing.' 'I wonder," laughed Nancy. 'Chris is so black! I don't suppose the valentine has any lace and flowers on it, either. I'll bet it's as ugly as 'Chris' knew how to make it.' 'I'll bet you're too!' agreed Mr. Stamp. 'But how are we ever going to find it? It's almost as tight as a man of beans, besides it isn't honest to read other people's letters.' 'Benly Nick had an idea. 'Nancy and I can take Mr. Rubadub's valentine to him in Scrub-Up Land where he lives,' he suggested. 'And maybe he'll trade it for us. We have our Magic Shoes and we can wish ourselves there in a minute.' 'The very thing!' exclaimed Mr. Stamp. 'So Nancy wished and Nick wished and soon they were whizzing off to Scrub-Up Land where Mr. Rubadub lived, with the valentine tucked safely in Nick's pocket. 'Hello there!' called the funny little fairyman. 'I'm glad to see you. What's the news? A letter? My goodness! That's fine. What? A valentine? Better still. Maybe it's from Silver Wings or Star Bright or some of the other fairies.' He tore it open hastily, then suddenly he gave a yell. 'Ho, ho, ho!' he roared. 'Just listen to this! 'Oh Rubadub-dub, if you like me so much, why don't you begin on yourself? If you think you're a beauty, just make it your duty. To look in the glass in your shelf, 'And just look at the awful picture!' laughed Benly. 'I've a good notion to send Chris Crow one just to get even.' (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service)

Quick Quaker Oats

Now there's a new reason for insisting on Quaker Oats. Our experts have perfected a quick-cooking Quaker which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. So it means an oat dish almost ready to serve. It has our super-flavor. All Quaker Oats are flaked from queen grains only. We get but ten pounds from a bushel. But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that's all! And those small thin flakes cook quickly. Your grocer has both styles. Both offer incomparable flavor. Quick offers the quickest-cooking oats in the world. Say which you want.

INDIVIDUALITY HAS SCOPE IN GOWNS TODAY

There's latitude for individuality in today's styles. Tight sleeves, ending abruptly at the wrist, leave something to be desired, but with a frill covering the hands, as shown here, they're delightful. So is the wide flounce at the hips. The second model's sleeves, trimmed with arrow tufts, ample at the wrists, yet narrow from extremely wide elbows. Both models are mid-winter styles, expected to be good in the spring as well.

BRIDEGROOM WANTED TO EMPHASIZE SERIOUSNESS OF MATRIMONIAL VENTURE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—The marriage ceremony of A. M. Howes, 59, and Cora Gregory Will, 42, was performed in the Little Church of the Flowers, a funeral chapel in Forest Lawn cemetery, at Glendale, a suburb, because the bridegroom wished to emphasize the seriousness of matrimony, he said. The bride smiled and said nothing when asked what she thought about it. "I believe wedlock should be considered a serious undertaking and should be solemnized in a place of sacredness and serious thought," said Howes. "I am married for life. After we have departed from this earth, we will in all probability be brought to this same little chapel for our burial rites." About 100 guests attended the wedding.

TH WOULD JOIN PLAYERS IN MOVE TO GET MORE PAY

STON, Jan. 29.—Babe Ruth declared he was with fellow baseballers in any fight to get more pay. He made his position clear in a talk before the National Association here yesterday.

Billy Evans Says

Evans often has been asked if it isn't more difficult to umpire balls struck when some star pitcher is in the box. He says that with a couple of days practice he can handle any pitcher.

Evans says that a majority of the arguments that are made to justify a raise in pay of umpires are unavailing.

WALTER JOHNSON OLDEST MAJOR LEAGUE PITCHER IN POINT OF SERVICE—HOLDS MANY RECORDS

Walter Johnson, famous hurler of the Washington Americans, is the oldest pitcher in either of the big leagues in point of service.

Johnson broke into the big show in 1910, and therefore has seen 16 years of activity in the main tent, all of which have been spent in a Senator uniform.

During that time the once great speed-ball king has hung up many records. Doubtless the fact that he has always been under the handicap of working for a club which has been a consistent loser—a second-division outfit.

There is no telling what Johnson might have accomplished on the mound had he been supported by a winning aggregation. Doubtless he would have established some marks which would have been hard to equal, let alone surpass.

Regardless of the destiny of fate, Johnson's career has been an exceptionally brilliant one. In fact, many of the present-day records are held by the Washington star, who, by the way, is one of the few "big guns" of baseball who has never participated in a world series, because the Washington has yet to win its first pennant.

Johnson's best year was in 1913, when he won 36 games and lost but 12. He pitched for Boston in 1914, and in 1915 he hurled 55 scoreless innings, a mark that still stands, and with Joe Wood he also holds the consecutive victory title, winning 16 straight games in 1912.

Johnson set another record by pitching three successive shutouts, against the Yankees, in 1917. Johnson has whiffed over 2900 batters in the 18 years he has been in the circuit, surpassing the old mark of 2800 hung up by Cy Young over a 27-year span. And in 1921 he struck Eddie Rickenbacker's high mark of 202 victories. He also has one no-hit game to his credit, hurting that to the batter in the home.

Obviously, Johnson is going back. This is only natural considering the years he has been in harness. His famous fast ball, that was often wont to cast fear in the hearts of enemy batters, has lost some of its old-time zip, but Johnson's offerings are still plenty good enough to puzzle ambitious swatters, and with a winning combination behind him he should still be good for several more seasons of his league service.

A flatter that seems to hang in the air on its way to the plate. Shocker means work not only for the batter but umpire as well.

Carl Mays gives the umpire a day's work. Carl is hard to please. In addition, his underhand ball is kept constantly at the knee to be effective. The low ball is the difficult delivery for the umpire to judge.

Then again, when considering how difficult it is for the batsman to judge the offerings of the star pitcher, remember that he must hit the ball, while the umpire merely has to pass judgment on it.

I would much prefer working a dozen ball games with Walter Johnson doing the pitching, than one game in which two recruits were on the rubber.

WESTERN LEAGUE TO DISMISS PROPOSED NEW OPTION PLAN KANSAS CITY, Jan. 29.—The optional plan proposed by the major baseball league was scheduled for discussion at the annual meeting here today of the Western League. Awaiting of the franchise to either Pueblo, Colo., or Muskogee, Okla., and setting of the opening and closing dates for the 1923 season also were on the program.

Few pitchers in baseball hit them. First he steps the latter a spitball, then he comes back with a slow curve, then a fast one, next a different sort of spitter, followed up by a slider.

Bill Carrigan, a dangerous batter, always at his best in a pinch, broke up a batting rally quicker than I have ever seen a player turn such a trick.

Usually some sensational fielding play or effective pinch hitting by Carrigan, the pinch hitter, come to the assistance of the team in the field.

I have umpired any number of games in which a pinch pitcher would break up a rally on one pitched ball. Usually in such cases two were out and the batsman would be retired on the first ball pitched by the relief hurler.

I have several times seen double plays made on the first ball delivered by a relief pitcher, retiring the side.

To Bill Carrigan, in the role of pinch batsman, goes the credit of breaking up a promising rally on one hard-hit ball.

Boston was playing in New York. The Boston team was trailing by several runs and didn't seem to have much of a chance when the first half of the ninth opened. Then things began to happen.

NEW AMERICAN LEAGUE UMPIRES ANSWER TO MIGHTY FANCY NAMES

EMMETT ORMSBY

Presenting the two new American league umpires, Clarence Rowland and Emmett Ormsby.

Clarence and Emmett are rather good names for big league umpires. Fortunately few players know them by such a handle.

In the majors and minors Rowland is known by the name of "Pants," derivation unknown, while Ormsby answers to the shout of "Red."

As a manager Rowland was a good fighter. He got into many an argument with the umpire. If he does as well as an umpire he will get along all right.

Ormsby can take care of himself. He was with the Marines in France for two years and has a fine war record.

Cobb also remains of the players who were in the American league at the time of his debut. He has seen them all pass out.

Middle Collins and Walter Johnson are close behind Cobb in point of service. While Johnson is slowing up, Collins has been as good as ever last season, with a number of years ahead of him in the majors.

By NEA Service. DETROIT, Jan. 28.—Ty Cobb is the oldest player in the American league in point of service.

Cobb joined the Tigers in 1903 and is still going good. He has seen 19 years of service. Despite the strenuous game he plays, he has slowed down but little.

If Cobb continues to be a success as manager he can go on indefinitely in baseball, long after he is through as a player.

MELHORN CRACKS AGAIN ON 18TH AND HAGUE WINS TITLE

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 29.—By a sensational victory over Bill Melhorn of Shreveport, La., Walter Hague, American, holder of the British open golf championship today was also holder of the Texas open title.

Steady nerves won Hague this new honor on the 18th hole yesterday, in the playoff match between the two for the title and $1,500 prize money. They were tied for the championship at the close of Saturday's play.

Melhorn had an excellent opportunity to carry yesterday's match into a second tie on the 18th hole, but he missed a foot and one-half putt for a three, but rinned the hole.

On all but two holes Melhorn led Hague. The latter appeared to be off his putting, missing one and two foot putts. But his nerve steadied at the crucial moment and he sank the short putt that won him the match, one up.

Melhorn went to the 17th hole one down. Both used irons and placed on the green. Melhorn sank a ten foot putt while Hague made three tries before sinking the ball. As Melhorn went to the 18th hole the 16,000 spectators regarded him the victor. He drove the ball high and it sliced into the tree, hit a limb and rebounded to the fairway.

Hague drove 290 yards down the course. Melhorn's second shot fell 12 yards short of the green. His next placed him eight feet down from the pin. Hague attempted to sink a putt for a three, but rinned the hole.

Then Melhorn prepared to putt with the championship depending upon the shot. He missed and the ball rolled about a foot and one-half past the cup. He still was able to tie Hague again by making the shot apparently a cinch. But he wobbled and missed.

Hague shot a 72 for the 18 holes and Melhorn a 73. At the close of Saturday's play they stood 279 for the 72 holes.

Golf is Surely a Mocker of Time

HANS WAGNER WAS THROUGH AT 40

By ELLY EVANS. Golf is a mocker of time. In baseball, a player is a veteran at 40, a decrepit old man at 45.

Hans Wagner, famous National league star, managed to keep going until he was 45. Hans, however, is a rare bird, the decided exception in the fight game, the boxer is young at 18, old at 25 and usually through at 30.

Jack Britton managed to win a title at the 25-year-old mark, and hold it two years before being dethroned. The fight game, however, boasts few Jack Brittons.

College football players reach stardom at 19. Usually at 25 they have graduated and passed up the strenuous game of football for all time.

Then there is exception. Jim Thorpe is one exception to the rule. Out of Carlisle Indian school, where Jim gained fame on the gridiron for a dozen or more years, Thorpe continues to shine in a professional way on the gridiron. Jim is well on the way to 40.

But golf, well, that is an entirely different sport with an interesting story. Golf is literally played from the cradle to the grave. There is no age limit to starting or stopping. That is why golf is certain to continue in popularity with a constant increase in its devotees.

True, last year youth was served in golfing circles. Gene Sarazen, at 32, won the national open, Jessoro at 31, captured the national amateur, while Gullone Collett, only 18, was supreme among the women golfers.

The theory that youth must be served doesn't hold good in golf, despite the success that youth enjoyed in 1922.

Case of John Ball. Gene Sarazen in winning the national open, finished only one stroke better than John Flach, who is 43 and a granddaddy.

In 1920 Ted Hay won the national open at 43, while Harry Vardon, 51 years of age, finished in a tie for second place.

Jack in 1888 John Ball Jr. won the British open, while Jim won the national open, finished only one stroke better than John Flach, who is 43 and a granddaddy.

SANGOR IS REAL CONTENDER FOR FEATHERWEIGHT TITLE

JOEY SANGOR

Out Milwaukee way the boxing fans are convinced that the next featherweight champion of the world will be Joey Sangor.

Milwaukee fans are strong for Sangor. He enjoys much of the hero worship that was once showered on the Mitchell boys.

Sangor has come fast within the past year. While his fame is largely confined to the middle west, he is destined to make the eastern circles sit up and take notice very shortly.

Sangor has a great left hand and is very fast. His style in the ring greatly resembles that of Richie Mitchell.

By NEA Service. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—The first big problem that confronts Arthur Fletcher, new manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, is Leo Meadows.

Is Meadows loafing on the job or has he a sore arm? Fletcher must make a final decision in the matter.

For several years Manager Meadows has been a member of the staff of pitchers. That is the draw of the Nationals has been reason for the thought that Meadows may not be taking his work seriously.

Those who know Meadows doubt the idea that he is not doing his best. Others are of the belief that the knowledge that McGraw is after him may have something to do with his key of core arm and his inability to win.

Women know what they want

—and get it

A woman buys many different food products, dozens of fabrics and articles of apparel, shoes, things for the home, toilet preparations—quite probably in a year she makes a thousand purchases. Personally to judge the quality of each, she would need to be a chemist, an engineer, a metallurgist and a good many other things.

So, given the choice, of course she buys the goods she knows in preference to those she does not know. And she is going to have that choice for a good many years. She is boss.

Manufacturers who want to work for her must realize this:—They must put in their application at once; convince her of their intention and ability to give her merchandise of known value; and then live up to the standard.

For she is a just but ruthless boss. She neither forgets nor forgives. She rewards loyal service with loyalty, but her condemnation of broken faith is final.

Her favor is the sunlight of success; her indifference, the outer darkness.

WAYNE E. ADAMS NOW ON TRIAL FACING CHARGE OF ORDER

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE IS NOT GRANTED BY JUDGE H. R. WILSON.

BEGIN EXAMINATION OF JURORS LATE MONDAY

Defense Motion Set Up That Many Material Witnesses Were Not in Attendance.

The state will ask for the death penalty for Wayne Adams. The defense will endeavor to establish an alibi.

Questions asked the first veniremen examined for the Adams jury Monday afternoon indicated that the extreme penalty will be sought, and that the defense will try to show that Adams was in another part of the county at the time of the killing.

Wayne Adams went on trial for the murder of J. D. Turner Monday afternoon.

The special venire of 200 men was impaneled by Judge H. R. Wilson of the 20th district court after he had overruled a motion for continuance which was presented by the defendant on the grounds that a number of material witnesses who had been summoned had not appeared.

The motion was a lengthy one and in addition to the absence of witnesses, whom it was stated had been subpoenaed and all due diligence used to have them there, that the father of the leading counsel was seriously ill and that any time he might be called away from the case.

The court deliberated on the motion for fifteen minutes and then announced that he had overruled it. He began calling the names of special veniremen summoned at 2:15 o'clock.

It was estimated that approximately 110 men had answered the summons to appear.

Adams is charged by indictment with the murder of J. D. Turner which it is alleged occurred on or about November 18, 1922, near Newton on an oil lease. The body of Turner was found on the morning of November 18, lying in the doorway of his shack and next to a house on the back. Adams was arrested on the evening of November 18, after a court of inquiry had been held. Following preliminary hearing, he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff without bail bond.

An unusually large number of witnesses were called by both the state and defense and viewed from the stand. It is likely that should the trial begin that it will not be concluded until the latter part of the week.

NEGRO IS ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH MURDER OF COUPLE

MEMPHIS, TENN., Jan. 25.—A negro was arrested today in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Ruth McElwain Tucker, 28, estranged wife of Ellis Tucker of Franklin, Tenn., and Duncan Walker, 18, of Mayfield, Ky., whose bodies were found early yesterday near the village of Decatur, a suburb of this city.

It was also learned that detectives had before them a pathological report in support of the theory that Mrs. Tucker had been strangled and mistreated by the assailant who fired on the automobile in which she and Walker were seated on the road near Decatur.

SEEK MOTIVE FOR AND IDENTITY OF SLAYER

MEMPHIS, TENN., Jan. 25.—City and county detectives still had before them today the task of establishing the motive and identity of the slayer of Mrs. Ruth McElwain Tucker, 28, estranged wife of Ellis Tucker of Franklin, Tenn., and Duncan Walker, 18, of Mayfield, Ky., whose bodies were found early yesterday near the village of Decatur, a suburb of this city.

Both had been killed by pistol bullets which entered their heads from the rear.

Robbery and jealousy were among the theories advanced. Thus far the police have not indicated which, if either of these, their investigation has tended to confirm.

Appearance of $50 in money which the young man is reported to have had and two diamond rings worn by Mrs. Tucker is taken, however, as establishing that robbery was at least an after thought, if not the impelling motive for the slaying.

WORLD REARRANGE TERMS OF 30TH TO SATISFY COUNTIES

ALTERNATIVE IS SUGGESTED TO TAKE PLACE OF BILL THAT CREATES 92ND.

ATTORNEYS RETURN FROM INTERVIEW AT AUSTIN

Representative Avis In Written Communication Suggests Changes.

Attorneys John P. Marrs and W. F. Weeks have returned from Austin where they interviewed Governor Neff and Representative Avis and Gipson concerning the bill creating the 92nd judicial district which takes Clay, Archer and Young counties out of the 20th district court.

They presented facts which they claim shows there is no need for the new court, but suggested as an alternative measure, readjusting the terms of the 20th district court so as to give Young county four terms of the new court, and the other counties of four weeks each as is now the case.

They say that the dockets in Clay and Archer counties are clear and that the lawyers in these counties are opposing the new court; that Young county, the chief sponsor of the new court, has not cared for under the suggested arrangements, giving them 12 additional weeks of court.

Representative Avis had on last Friday, in a written communication to the governor, opposed the creation of the new court on the ground that it would be a burden on the state and that it would be a burden on the people.

Attorneys Weeks and Marrs report that Representative Gipson is willing to follow the suggestion of the Wichita County Bar association and do what is best for his home people and will use his influence which is perhaps greater than that of any other new member to prevent any radical change in the Wichita county courts.

The attorneys report that Governor Neff had not acted upon the measure and is taking time, awaiting replies from the numerous communications he has addressed to various officials in each of the four counties affected, and is making a thorough investigation of the facts.

It is known, the attorneys said, that the governor will not approve the additional expense caused by the creation of a new judicial district and several new offices, unless the situation imperatively demands that it be done.

GOVERNMENT MAY AVOID DEFICIT AND SHOW A BALANCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—A possibility that the federal government may completely avoid a deficit during the present fiscal year and start the new year on July 1 "with a balance on hand" was suggested by President Harding today in a message read at a conference of officials of the budget-bureau and other governmental agencies which hold the reins of public expenditure.

The figures for the fiscal year up to January 15 as announced in the president's message showed estimated expenditures of $3,574,531,132, as against estimated receipts of $3,481,994,925.

Whereas at the beginning of the 12-month period it had been estimated that expenditures during the year would exceed receipts by $93,000,000, the president said as matters now stand this deficit will not exceed $2,000,000 at the outside.

He declared an administration program of "aid economy" had made the reduction possible and he asked for such further curtailments as would wipe out the $2,000,000 discrepancy and show a balance sheet.
