TEXAS FINANCIAL CONDITIONS ARE MUCH IMPROVED

WEST TEXAS PARTICULARLY SHOWS IMPROVEMENT RECENTLY.

ONLY FEW STATE BANKS NOW IN DANGER ZONE

Depth Texas Confronted With Most Serious Situation in Entire State.

AUSTIN, Feb. 1.—Texas financial conditions are better and show greater signs for improvement in the near future than at any time since the depression period set in. In the opinion of J. L. Chapman, state commissioner of insurance and banking, Commissioner Chapman said the state banks of Texas during the past three months have shown unexpected improvement in their condition and are now in a more sound and solid basis now than for more than a year.

Chapman stated that the financial situation regarding west Texas particularly has shown improvement recently. He said only a few banks in the entire state are now within the danger zone and that he expected these to be cleared up within a short time. South Texas is confronted with the most serious condition financially of any portion of the state, according to the commissioner.

The financial summary of the condition of 270 state banks on December 28, just issued by the state department, showed a decidedly healthy condition in the commissioner's opinion. In comparison with the call of September 15, deposits of the state banks increased in excess of twelve million dollars; bills payable and redemptions reduced a little less than $11,000,000; cash increased $2,500,000; loans decreased nearly $3,000,000, and total resources showed an increase of $1,600,000.

The condition of state banks at the close of the past year as compared with the close of 1921, is shown by the fact that loans had decreased at the close of 1922 more than twenty million dollars, cash and exchanges increased $19,000,000, deposits increased $25,000,000, and resources showed a total increase of $4,000,000.

A comparison of the resources of Texas banks at the last call and the December, 1922, call, follows: Loans and discounts, $181,974,447; decrease, $17,739,567.

Loans on real estate, $50,692,645; decrease, $2,214,147.

Overdrafts, $1,232,174; increase, $17,336.

Bonds and stocks, $17,450,000; decrease, $223,771.

Real estate, fixtures, $14,876,534; increase, $1,592,772.

Cash and exchange, $79,564,565; increase, $1,822,147.

Guaranty fund, $5,007,735; increase, $39,550.

Assessment for guaranty, $4,844,787; increase, $2,124,254.

Acceptances and bills of exchange, $19,932,115; increase, $517,610.

Other resources, $1,896,149; increase, $1,614,649.

Total resources, $228,628,801; increase, $3,758,042.

The per capita consumption of meat in the United States has been increasing since 1914, with the exception of 1917, and it is estimated that the 1922 consumption will slightly exceed 100 pounds for each person.

ALL ONE BIG JOKE, OFFICERS ARE TOLD BY MRS. CAVENDER

WOMAN ACCUSED BY MRS. 104 BELL DOESN'T TAKE IT SERIOUSLY.

SENTENCE PASSED ON HER ACCUSER THURSDAY

Mrs. Bell Tells Court She Is Ready to Begin Sentence of Five Years in Prison.

Another chapter, a brief and stirring one, was written Thursday morning in the story of Mrs. Ida Bell, to add to the record of a conviction for murder, an attempted escape and an accusation of another woman of having offered her $500 to slay G. A. DeLoach.

During a brief recess in the Wayne Adams case, Mrs. Bell appeared at the bar and accepted her sentence of five years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cavender, accused by Mrs. Bell of having made the $500 offer, arrived at 2 a. m. Thursday in custody of Deputy Sheriff Richard Smith.

Mrs. Cavender seemed to consider the accusation one big joke. She denied it, light-heartedly but emphatically, then went to her cell in the woman's ward. Officers said they had never seen a woman prisoner who seemed less concerned.

"Up In the Clouds" Mighty Pleasing For Large Crowd

"Up in the Clouds," the musical comedy presented Wednesday night at the Palace theatre, proved to be the sort of production that Wichita theatre-goers wish they could see more often.

It was witnessed by about 1300 people, that being the capacity of the theatre of the 3300, about 87 came in after the show started.

Ang while suggestions are thus being passed out, the orchestra might be tipped off to the fact that most of the singers could be heard as far back as the ninth row.

With all that off our chest, we began to reaffirm our hearty opinion and to record our thorough enjoyment of the show itself.

First District Has Not Expressed Itself in Matter of "West Texas"

The clubs of the First District, nor the First District Federation officers, have not expressed themselves in any way with regard to a West Texas Federation of Clubs separate from the state organization.

This was the statement of the first district president, Mrs. Walter S. Robertson, of Wichita Falls, Wednesday, commenting upon the article reprinted from the Arlene Reporter in the morning newspaper Tuesday.

In the article, the opening paragraph stated that "the women of west Texas, which includes the Wichita Falls district, are overwhelmingly in favor of creating a West Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, according to the Arlene Reporter," and went on to give an interview from Mrs. Dallas Scarborough of Abilene, recording secretary of the State Federation, with regard to sentiment in west Texas favoring the division; also an interview from Mrs. G. H. Sanderson, of Abilene, and also favoring the division.

The interviews were given out at an Abilene club meeting.

Mrs. Robertson, in declining an expression from the First District executive meeting, and that she would not take and had never taken the responsibility for making so broad a statement on behalf of the First District clubs without consulting them, whatever her own views might be.

Mrs. Robertson, however, is not personally in favor of a division of the State Federation.

TRIFLES ARE BLAMED MAJORITY DIVORCES

By NEA Service.

DETROIT, Jan. 30.—Dr. E. J. Forsythe is author of the "clinac method" of dealing with domestic troubles.

Judge Samuel of Oakland, Cal., attributes most divorces to "trifles," an offense for which he advocates the penitentiary. Judge Hurley of Chicago has tried the injunction as a weapon against the same evil.

Dr. Forsythe says: "Ninety per cent of domestic tragedies start with trifles."

He holds his "clinac" at Detroit's fashionable Fort Street Congregational church, of which he is pastor. Unhappy couples bare their hearts to him and in hundreds of cases his surgical skill has found the cause of trouble which otherwise would have led to the divorce court, and complete cures have been effected.

New Orleans correspondent says: "The husband," says the doctor, "who leaves cigar butts on the dining-room table may start a series of disputes ending in separation."

"One Detroit woman who attended a 'clinac' complained that her husband spent his spare time playing poker. He came at my request and said, 'My wife nagged me so for leaving shaving lather in the wash bowl that I took to poker to get away from it.' 'Why leave it there?' I asked. He answered that he forgot, because he was thinking. Then he explained that he was maturing an invention which occupied his mind constantly. I talked to his wife, who became more patient while he grew less forgetful. Later he invented a machine which made them rich."

"Another man, a mechanic, quarreled with his wife because she served meals on a perfectly ordered table when he wanted to eat in the kitchen. On account of this small quarrel they had separated. A short time later the husband learned that his wife simply was trying to improve their home standard."

"A third husband was jealous of the affection his wife lavished on a canary. I saw the trouble—a childless home. I induced them to adopt a baby and they became very happy."

"Another wife reproved her husband for quarrelling with his business partner and he slapped her face. They left one another. I convinced the husband that he was wrong and the wife that, after all, her husband's business was his own province. They were speedily reconciled."

"Such troubles generally can be settled, but on yb the right outsider. It is hard for men and women to analyze themselves, but not so difficult for another, versed in human nature, to do so."

BEAUTIFUL BRIDGE PARTY HONORS MRS. STEWART

Mesdames C. C. Randle and W. C. Withers were hostesses Wednesday afternoon at the Randle home on Eleventh street at one of the prettiest parties of the Valentine season in honor of Mrs. L. E. Stewart, who is leaving soon for Dallas to make her home.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and luncheon, with great bowls of red carnations and red roses making pretty scarlet splashes among the ferns and potted plants in the living room, music room and dining room, which were thrown en suite. Four tables were arranged for the players, who were favored early in the afternoon with little scarlet baskets of salted nuts. The tally cards were hand painted, and in the games, Mrs. D. H. White, an expert high score and was presented with a silver inlaid pottery tea set. Mrs. A. W. West was consoled for low score with a cut glass mayonnaise jar.

The hostesses served a lovely salad plate with salad, Saratoga chips, omelet, individual lemon meringue and food squares, and tea to the following: Mesdames Ralph Peterson, I. H. Kendall, C. C. Eckman, O. W. Wilson, Milton Gaines, Hugh Weaver, Robert Hamilton, A. M. Lewis, W. M. Gamble, L. A. Davis, F. A. Ray, Whitehill, West, and Stewart.

SHE WON PRIZE WITH A DAZZLING SMILE

Most of the entrants were budding or already celebrated beauties of cabaret and stage and there were a great many of them, so that the winner is entitled to congratulate herself on victory over formidable competition and plenty of it.

Good looks, to be sure, were not named an essential to participation in the test. It was the beauty of the smile on which the judges were pledged to base their decision, not on the features which wore it. Nevertheless, it is easy to see what an advantage a pretty contender naturally began with.

At any rate, the picture shows a competent board of experts' idea of what the ideal smile is. It might not be uninteresting to try a comparison with it in a mirror, just to see how many other girls there are who think they could have performed creditably against Miss McGuire if they'd been entered in the competition.

GIRLS CLUB SELLING TICKETS TO "BROKEN CHAINS"; GOOD SHOW

The girls' club of the High school is selling tickets to "Broken Chains," the picture at the Strand this week, and are having splendid success with their efforts. This is the third ticket sale benefit the Strand, on the first two of which they cleared $10.

The money will help pay the expenses for the entertainment of the girls' conference here next week.

In the play, "Broken Chains," Malcolm McGregor, who attracted considerable attention for his fine work in "The Prisoner of Zenda," has the leading male role, that of a wealthy young aesthete, Peter Wradham, who undergoes a spiritual regeneration and learns the meaning of courage through love. McGregor was a fine choice for this role, and he succeeds admirably in bringing out its psychological aspects.

Colleen Moore reaches a high point of her career in her characterization of the part of Mercy Boone, the girl wife of a brutal outlaw ranchman, played by Ernest Torrence. Torrence's performance is almost fearsome in its realism.

The whole cast is a particularly strong one. The beautiful Claire Windsor is a delight in the part of a New York society girl. Among the others are Beryl Mercer who is well remembered for her performance on the New York stage in "The Old Maid Shows Her Medals," James Marcus and Leo Willis.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT ALAMO SCHOOL FRIDAY

The Alamo Home and School Council will carry out the patriotic sentiment of the month with a patriotic program Friday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. Featuring the program, Supt. Hugh Porter of the high school and junior college will talk on "A Lesson in Patriotism."

The meeting will convene at 7 o'clock, and the members are invited to bring guests. Miss Kate Haynes will lead the devotional, which will be followed by a business session presided over by the president, Mrs. L. R. Buchanan. The Alamo chorus, comprised of boys and girls of the school, will sing the "Star Spangled Banner." Miss Elizabeth Carrigan will give a patriotic reading, and the Alamo orchestra will furnish music.

Miss Madeline Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Lucile Palmes of 1246 Grace, is very much delighted over a beautiful silver-tipped red fox skin which she has just received from a friend in Alaska.

and Mrs. Pierce in company with Turner on several occasions. On cross examination, Howell said Mrs. Grantland was probably 34 or 35 years old; she had a young daughter, he said, but she did not accompany Turner and sister mother on an automobile ride on which he saw the couple together. The state sought to test the witness' memory.

"Adams tried to borrow a pistol from you two or three weeks before the shooting, didn't he?" "Yes, sir." "He said something about getting a man, didn't he?" "He said somebody had done him wrong and he wanted the pistol for protection."

On redirect, witness said Kilpatrick was the name of the man he had had trouble with. Again questioned by the state, Howell denied that Turner's name was mentioned by Adams during the conversation about the pistol.

W. A. Beaverton, operator at Newtown, told of seeing Turner with several of the women whose names had been previously mentioned in the testimony. He said he saw Mrs. Grantland get in a car with Turner. On cross examination, he could not be sure that Grantland was not present at the time and could testify to nothing improper.

Madge Brunson, who testified on cross examination that she saw Turner on the morning of Nov. 14, 1922, was asked by the state whether she saw Turner on the morning of Nov. 14, 1922, and she testified that she did not see him on that day.

O. L. Davis and C. W. Milton, two oil field lease foremen testified at the morning session that they had inspected the tent in which Turner lived and where he was killed the morning that the body was found. Both testified to the fact that the body covering had been turned down and that the bed gave appearance as though it had been slept in.

Both witnesses told that Turner's glasses were still in position when the body was found on the morning of Nov. 14.

During the direct examination of the witness Milton, he was asked: "Do you know where Mrs. Penny's son, aged about 20, was on the night of November 14?" The witness replied that he did not.

Mrs. Penny to witness. Mrs. Penny who stated she was employed in a local beauty parlor told that she had met J. D. Turner a year ago in January. Her son, she said, who was crippled had been employed by Turner from March 1 to July 1, 1922. She said she had visited at Adams' lease near Newtown three times while her son was there.

On Saturday night, November 11, Armstrong day, the witness said that she in company with her daughter and Mrs. Ferguson had left Wichita Falls with Turner to go to his lease. They spent the night there and Sunday and left the place in two automobiles between 7:30 and 8:00 o'clock on Sunday that afternoon.

The episode about the search for the key to the tool house on Saturday night was related by the witness in answer to questions asked by the state to get some apples but that the key according to Mr. Turner was not in its proper place.

Accompanied by Daughter. On cross examination, she told of undergoing an operation the latter part of 1922, that after she went to her mother's home in Iowa and returned here in September. She said she had been to Turner's home in the fields probably five or six times but that on each occasion she was accompanied by her 19 year old daughter.

In answer to questions of state's counsel she most emphatically denied that any improper relations had existed at the lease between the day of the instance when she and her daughter visited there.

On cross examination she told that she knew Wayne Adams the defendant, had lived with Turner for some time but that on the eleventh of November that Turner had told Adams he was through with him and wanted him to get out.

C. C. Turner, who is engaged in the oil business in the K. M. A. field testified that he had spoken to Wayne Adams on the morning of Nov. 13 and had offered him a job at Kemp City and for him to begin work on the following Monday morning.

Was With Adams. Madge Brunson, sister of Kemp City was the witness who testified that she had had an engagement with the defendant on the night on which it was charged that he killed J. D. Turner.

She said she had gone to Burk Burnett and stayed at the Burk Burnett hotel on the night of Nov. 14, 1922, she saw the defendant and had lunch with him in the cafe.

"He made a date with me for that night. I was to meet him at 8 o'clock at the schoolhouse on the street adjoining the school, Wichita Falls. He met me there at the appointed time. We came to Wichita Falls had a drink at some place and then drove back to Burk Burnett. I got out at the school house, walked slow and went to my room in the hotel. I looked at the clock. It was 10 o'clock."

On cross examination she said she knew that Adams was a married man but that it didn't make any difference to her whether he was married when she went with him. She said that this was the only engagement she ever had with the defendant. She assigned her reasons for going to Burk Burnett on that occasion as she was in trouble and wanted to talk to a certain man who was going to meet her there and give her money.

Asked as to Connection. "Who told you to be all that point off your lips and cheeks that you had on yesterday morning?" County Attorney E. L. Fulton asked the witness.

stayed with Weir that night, he testified. He denied having been at the Cozy hotel in Burk Burnett on Nov. 12, with Adams, the state introduced Officer J. E. Turner of Burk Burnett who told of the finding of a pair of round topped overshoes at a point about 500 feet from the dirt road where it intersects the paved road and to the left of the paved road about 25 or 30 feet.

The shoes were introduced in evidence. C. Free, a groceryman, who said he had known Turner for 15 years, described in detail the tent in which Turner lived and where he was assassinated. Mr. Free also told of a conversation had with the defendant Adams a week or ten days before the homicide. A bullet hole in the screen was introduced by the state.

Test is Described. The witness said that the tent was 14 feet square and that it was floored up on the sides. From the floor to the top of the boards where the screen started he said it was three feet and a half inches and that from the ground on the outside to the top of the boards it was four and one-half feet.

The state brought forth several witnesses after B. C. Weir had testified in an effort to link up the chain of circumstantial evidence on which they must rely for a conviction. A service car driver who passed the road which led to Turner's shack on the night of the homicide told of seeing an automobile start from a spot near Turner's shack and start down the road towards him. When it reached a point probably 70 or 80 yards, he said, in front of him it swerved to the left and out across the road in front of him. The lights of his car shone directly into the car that had passed in front of him. He said that he saw one person in the car, he saw a white hat, glasses and had on a white hat. He said he believed that it was Wayne Adams, the defendant.

Wayne Is Recalled. The defense, after the character witnesses had been disposed of introduced witnesses in their attempt to impeach R. C. Weir, who earlier in the day had recited the alleged confession made to him by Adams within a few hours after the homicide was committed.

This question was met with objections on part of defense counsel. The woman answered that she had not taken any medicine.

She also told that the defendant had attempted to put his arms around her that night on the ride to Wichita Falls and return, but that she resented his familiarity.

Says Moore in Jail. Deputy Sheriff W. W. Belcher was the first witness of the witness. He testified that G. F. Moore was placed in jail at 11 p. m. Wednesday. "Where the defendant," said Judge McDonald.

was Wayne Adams in that car. I say I think it was Wayne Adams." The state announced that it rested its case.

Character Witnesses. There was no delay whatsoever. Four character witnesses from Dimmitt county had arrived earlier in the afternoon and they were sworn on the stand. Each testified as to the good reputation of the defendant for peace and quiet and for veracity in the community where he had formerly lived.

Mrs. Green, proprietress of the Stratford hotel in Wichita Falls, testified that on the night of Nov. 12, the night that the witness Weir said he and Adams stayed at the Cozy room, Weir was registered at her hotel. This testimony was designed to impeach Weir.

W. A. Mullins told that on the night of Nov. 14, the night on which the state claims Turner was killed sometime between 8:15 and 10:15, he saw Turner alive in Newtown at 11:05 o'clock. He stated that he had looked at a "Western Union" check and remembered what time it was. The witness was extremely positive, but could not give the time of any other happening of the evening.

Court adjourned at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening until 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Bailey, who conducted the regular parliamentary drill for the afternoon, James Hersey, Allan Duncan, Richardson, J. C. Crane, Otis Gorline, Dulaney, and Misses Clara Schulz and Helen Bengtson.

EXPECT DECISION SHORTLY ON PLANS FOR BIG CONTEST

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Everybody in pugilistic circles is on the qui vive today. Some are standing with their mouths open and ears pinned back; others are stuffing their auditory apparatus with cotton and preparing to smile. A few are preparing to attack the holder of the title, and approximately how much the gladiators are going to be paid.

The world may know today—unless Tex Rickard changes his mind overnight—when and where the world's heavyweight boxing championship is to be defended and who is going to attack the holder of the title, and approximately how much the gladiators are going to be paid.

Although late Rickard has appeared somewhat soured on the whole business he still is interested, especially today as his six day option on the attractive contender, Jess Willard, of the Kansas catamount, to fight Dempsey in that state for the title has just expired. In the year 1915, was only one more state added to the area that has forbidden the proposed meeting.

BASKETBALL STAR LEADS TEAM IN SCORING 5 YEARS

By NEA Service
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 1.—Leader of his team in scoring for five straight years, two as a member of the Central high school, champions of Kansas City, and three with the Missouri University quintet, always a championship contender in the Missouri Valley conference, is the record Arthur "Bum" Browning. Browning is captain of the University of Missouri five for 1932, and at present is the leading point get-ter of the entire conference, which includes Nebraska, Kansas, Washington, Drake, Oklahoma, Grinnell and Missouri universities, and the Iowa and Kansas Aggies.

To date this year Browning has averaged 19 points a game. He plays forward and is born in Kansas City and his home still is there.

United States, With Four Kings and a Queen, Holds Whale of a Hand in Golf and Tennis Circles

In baseball the United States has always been supreme. Baseball is the national pastime, and naturally no other country boasts ball players nearly so proficient.

In the fight game our country also has a decided edge. With very few exceptions, the foreign champions to invade the United States have met with disaster.

Baseball and boxing are peculiar to the United States, therefore it is to be expected that this country should reign supreme.

In two other sports possessing an international flavor, tennis and golf the United States has been making rapid strides.

COYOTES TO PLAY BURKBURNETT ON SATURDAY EVENING

The Coyotes will not participate in the county basketball meet which opens at Electro Friday, having the right to compete in the district meet without going into the county contest.

A game with Archer City has been scheduled for Friday night, but this was called off late Wednesday. It is possible that some other team will be lined up for a game for that date.

On Saturday night the Coyotes will journey to Burkburnett for a game with that team. The Burkburnett will enter the meet at Electro but apparently figures that it will not still be in the running Saturday night and hence will be free to meet the Coyotes. The old town boys have improved decidedly since their last appearance here and the Coyotes are looking for a hard battle.

Coach Jones is considering taking the Coyotes to Dallas early in March to participate in an association meet in which a number of north Texas teams will be entered.

Golfing Feud Is Still Raging

Golfers throughout the country will watch with interest the showing of Gene Sarazen and Walter Hagen in the various big tournaments this year.

Already the pair are at it on the Pacific coast. Hagen paired with Kirkwood are meeting Sarazen and Nicholson at stated intervals—these four players now being on a tour of that section.

One of the big surprises last year was the defeat of Hagen at Toledo in a special match, labeled the world series of golf.

Despite Sarazen's victory in the U. S. open the general impression prevailed that Hagen was a better money player. Sarazen beat Hagen after the British open champion had gotten away to a flying start on Sarazen's home course.

In the first four-ball match played on the coast, Hagen beat the best ball-and-putt opponents, Sarazen and Hitchcock.

Hagen, in so doing, broke the Olympic club's record at San Francisco with $1.

VERNON, TEXAS, Feb. 1.—This vicinity was visited with a two inch rain, Tuesday night. The rain began early Monday morning and a fairly good rain fell during the day. On Monday night another shower came, but the farmers were made glad Tuesday afternoon when the rain came in torrents. The rain continued at intervals until a late hour Tuesday night.

HAVE TWO GAMES CITY BASKET BALL LEAGUE THURSDAY

Texas vs. Battery D. Galena vs. Knights of Columbus. These are the two games in city league basketball that are scheduled for Thursday night at the American Legion hall, for the entertainment of lovers of the sport.

In the Texas-Battery contest much interest is centered; both teams are lining up the best material available and will come into the game with the order up and ready for a battle. The Battery were their first and only game in this half and Texas-Battery contest to a comparatively low score in their first contest.

Much depends on whether or not Sharp, forward for Texas, has sufficiently recovered to come into the game. He has been their mainstay all season and was taken from the last game on account of injuries. It is not known if he will play in the Thursday night game.

Apparently the second game scheduled for Thursday night will go to the Knights, but Mill Gaines will have his gang on hand with their fighting clothes. There is hardly a chance for a serious upheaval, but Gaines has some new material and has been asserting themselves in the last two games. At any rate, the Knights will have to battle to make good their claim to the victory.

MEHLHORN LEADING BARNES 1 STROKE AT CORPUS CHRISTI

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS, Feb. 1.—Interest in the open golf tournament of the Corpus Christi Golf and Country club today, the second and concluding day of the 72 holes of stroke competition, played in two strokes, continued. In the match between "Long Jim" Barnes and Bill Mehlhorn of Shreveport, La., Mehlhorn yesterday, in 36 holes, led with a 144 score, Barnes trailing him but one stroke. Johnny Farrell of New York, third man yesterday with 146, was paired today with Freddy McLeod, Washington, D. C. and former professional at the Corpus Christi Golf club, who in 35 holes, turned in 140, in fourth place. Barnes is from Palham Manor, N. Y.

OHIO STATE SHOWS WAY TO BIG TEN IN INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

By NEA Service
COLUMBUS, Feb. 1.—"More students are participating in intramural athletics at Ohio State than at any other school in the western conference," says Grant P. Ward, manager of intramural athletics at the Buckeye university and chairman of the Big Ten Intramural association.

"A total of 18,538 students were enrolled in the 18 branches of sport during the school year of 1931-32," says Ward. "A greater number is indicated by the enrollments so far for the present year."

According to conference reports, the increase of participants amounting to 4489 in 1931-32 over the figures of the preceding year represents more than the total number of students in the intramural departments of either the University of Illinois or the University of Michigan in 1931-32. Michigan, with its 19 branches of intramural sport, ranks next to Ohio in the size of the department. Illinois is third.

"One of the secrets for the success of intramurals at Ohio State is that the system is based on groups (instead of individuals)," asserts Ward. "More interest can be stimulated among groups than in individuals or even two or three."

When once the enthusiasm for competition is created, the department flourishes.

Intramurals at Ohio State were instituted in 1912, and the department in 1913-14. Previously, such contests were carried on under the optional challenges of various student groups. In 1912 the school officials established leagues in six major sports and presented trophies to the winning organizations. Eight hundred and forty students participated that year. In 1914-15, 20 other sports were added and 1232 students were enrolled. Since then the growth has been steady with unusual progress during the years following the world war. In 1919-20 the number of sports was increased to nine and 1611 students took part. Three extra sports were added the next year and the enrollment jumped to 3118. At the present time, 18 branches of athletics are on the schedule and one more will be added in the spring, according to officials.

The sports are: Soccer, cross country, football, indoor baseball, basketball, foil shooting, bowling, boxing, wrestling, fencing, football (track), base ball, outdoor track, playground ball, tennis, swimming, golf and horseshoe pitching.

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA., FEB. 1. A prize list totaling $24,000 has been hung up for the national horseshoe tournament to be held here the week of February 13.

The winner will be awarded a cash prize of $500 and a gold medal. There will be 25 prizes in all.

In addition to the cash prizes, merchandise prizes totaling $1,000 will be given by the committee in charge.

Most of the crack golfers of the country have already arrived on the scene. It looks as if the entry list will be the classiest in the history of the game.

C. C. Davis, who won the tournament staged last February, is playing exhibition matches around the state. He hopes to repeat his victory of last year.

An attraction that will vie with the main event in interest is the tournament that will be staged for the women who are expert at the horseshoe game.

It could be that Larry was honest in his remarks. Incidentally, when Larry had a kick to put me but I over without showing up the umpire.

"Go get the glove, you are back in the game!" I said. "No one knew I had put Larry out or sent him back in."

The next batter hit safely and the ball game was over. I am told Larry threw a lot of words at Ferring in the clubhouse.

Billy Evans Says

"Did you ever put a ball player out of a game and then the umpire and let him remain in the contest?"

At a fanning bee recently that question was asked me. Probably no more foolish question could be asked an umpire, yet it so happened that once in my career as an umpire I did that very thing.

When an umpire puts a ball player out of a game, the objection, which is invariably merited, stands. Regardless of the outcome of the decision, it goes. Often the umpire knows that his action means a riot at the close of the game, but that never receives the slightest consideration.

Who was the player I put out and then reinstated? None other than the great Larry Lajoie. Funny thing, but I met Larry, the other day, in Cleveland, the incident and both had a good laugh.

Because of injuries, the Cleveland infield at the time was all broken up. George Ferring, a recruit, was at third and an injury to Terry Turner had forced Lajoie to shift to shortstop, there being no other infielder on the club who could play that position.

Late in the game, with the score a tie and two out, the batter hit safely and by fast pitching went all the way to third on the hit. The throw beat him there, but Ferring,

The little doors on the toy auto hid Jack and Flip from the view of the many people who passed through the store. Jack peeked out now and then to see if the man who had ordered him to take Flip out of the store had returned. Finally he grew drowsy and both Jack and Flip fell asleep.

It seemed hours later to Jack, when he opened his eyes again. And it must have been some time later for when he peeked out of the auto doors there was no one in sight. Flip then started to whine. "We'll have to get out of here," Jack told his dog. Then he found that the auto door was locked.

"Hello there," shouted Jack, hoping to attract somebody's attention. "Won't someone let me out of this auto?" Then he heard tiny footsteps approaching, and a little doll walked up and said, "We'll open the door for you." Jack was very much surprised, but he quickly stepped out.

WITNESS MOORE RETURNED FROM SMACKOVER, ARK.

DEPUTY SHERIFF BELCHER MAKES RECORD TRIP AND FINDS MAN.

RETURNED CAVENDER WOMAN AT SAME TIME

Officer Reports That Many Faces Familiar to Boom Days Here in New Field.

G. F. Moore, who it is alleged by the defense in the Wayne Adams murder case left Newtowa and that country and had not been heard of since, was returned to this city at 10 o'clock Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriff W. W. Belcher.

DEATHS

W. E. Johnson, aged 62, a farmer of San Angelo, died at Lake Wichita at 8 a. m. Thursday. The remains will be forwarded to San Angelo by Merkle-Lunn, undertakers, for burial.

J. P. Cowan, 24, who died at his home, 261 Scott street at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday from self-inflicted gunshot wounds, were held from the residence at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. M. P. Grafton officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery. Mr. Cowan is survived by his widow and several children.

MANAGER OF VERDE PARK IS VISITOR IN CITY

J. P. Wood, general manager of the Verde Park ranch near Ratoon, New Mexico is here on a business trip. The above property is located in the famous Bartlett tract comprising 250,000 acres on which the original owners spent over $2,000,000. The above property is located in the most beautiful ranches in the west. Of late a limited number of special hunting and fishing privileges has been issued, and several prominent business men of Wichita Falls are among the number.

When Deputy Belcher left this city a few days ago to bring back Mrs. Elizabeth Cavender, against whom a charge of murder had been filed after Mrs. Ida Bell had made a statement following her own conviction, no one was aware but officials that he was going to Smackover, Ark.

It had been learned that Moore had gone to that new oil field and fell upon Belcher to make the trip. Mr. Belcher was chosen because of the fact that he knew the man.

The witness was found shortly after Belcher's arrival there and was brought back as a witness in the case and also to answer a felony charge of theft.

On the way back through Texas where the Cavender woman was being held, Deputy Belcher picked her up and brought her with him.

Deputy Belcher reports that hundreds of familiar faces were to be seen in the Smackover fields. Many of the men who resided in the oil fields of this country during the boom days have migrated to this new sensational pool. Mr. Belcher also reports that the place is "wide open."

JURY AWARDS PLAINTIFF $2,500 IN DAMAGE SUIT

FAT CARRIAGE POST TO HOLD MEETING

The Carrriage Post of the American Legion will hold their regular meeting in the Legion hall on Ohio Thursday night at 8 o'clock. This arrangement was made by Sam Beattie, post adjutant, Thursday morning. A report from the various committees will be read at that time; other matters of importance will come up. The hour for the meeting was set on as not to interfere with the members who wished to see the basket ball games immediately after the meeting.

FACE FULL OF LARGE PIMPLES Itched and Burned. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"My face was full of pimples and blackheads. The pimples were large, very red and hard. Some of the pimples scabbed over, itching and burning so badly that it was almost impossible for me to sleep. The trouble lasted about a year. I tried for a few months of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in about a week my face began to clear. I purchased more and now I am healed." (Signed) Miss Vera Wilson, Wichita, Kan., July 29, 1932. Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets for all skin purposes.
