THIRTY BILLION IN GOLD MARKS LATEST OFFER BY GERMANY

NOTE MADE PUBLIC GIVING TERMS OF PROPOSED PAYMENTS

PLAN TO RAISE FUND WITH ISSUE OF BONDS

Amount Declared to Be the Utmost Limit of Germany's Capacity to Pay

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The new German plan for a reparations settlement is so far from acceptable to France that the treaty of Paris is being held up by persons close to Premier Poincaré as inevitable. This rejection, it is stated, will probably be followed by an extension of the occupation on the right bank of the Rhine.

BERLIN, May 2.—Germany's latest reparations offer proposes that the sum total of her obligations in cash and kind after the Berlin treaty be fixed at 20,000,000,000 gold marks.

The German government, in a note made public today simultaneously with its receipt by the entente and Washington government, proposed that 20,000,000,000 of the total be raised before July 1, 1927, by a bond issue at normal rates of interest on the international money market.

The note asserts that Germany, in accordance with existing treaties, will also make payments in kind which are to be added to her account. The note expresses the government's conviction that the new proposals represent the utmost limit of Germany's capacity to pay, and expresses grave doubt as to whether the offer does not exceed her ability in view of the heavy disbursements and the economic organization caused by the Ruhr occupation.

In case the entente governments do not share Germany's belief that no unrepaired party could arrive at a higher estimate in view of her general economic condition, the government proposes that the whole reparations question be left to the decision of an international commission free from every political influence, as suggested by Secretary Hughes.

Payments in kind are to be guaranteed by long term private contracts, breach or violation of which would make offenders subject to fine.

The note proposes that the first 20,000,000,000 marks of the total of 20,000,000,000 be offered in a subscription immediately. Interest on bonds up to July 1, 1927, would be taken out of the loans themselves and not under control of the reparations commission.

It is noted that the first 20,000,000,000 marks of the total of 20,000,000,000 be offered in a subscription immediately. Interest on bonds up to July 1, 1927, would be taken out of the loans themselves and not under control of the reparations commission.

The note asserts that Germany is making her offer without desisting from her program of massive resistance which will be continued until the areas occupied in excess of the stipulations of the Versailles treaty are evacuated and until conditions on the Rhine are restored according to the terms laid down in the Rhineland agreement.

Fulfillment of Germany's obligations, the note continues, depends on the stabilization of her currency, therefore it is necessary in connection with the regulation of the reparations problem, to bring about a methodic and permanent stabilization in order to remove the apprehensions of other countries with respect to ruinous German competition.

Strengthening of her currency will also enable Germany to restore her internal finances, the note says. In order to realize this program it is also to safeguard the interests of those who finance these loans, the German government says it is essential that there be no more forcible seizures of securities, that no further sanctions be imposed, that Germany be freed from the onerous and burdensome reparations, and that she also be liberated forthwith from all political and economic restraints.

The proposals also suggest that in behalf of the economic rehabilitation of Europe, the countries concerned arrive at an understanding with regard to dealings in important commodities. The note expresses the opinion that in this connection long term private contracts (Continued on Page 4, Column 2.)

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Chief Magistrate McAdoo forces the American bride to go to the altar "with the family gun strapped to her waist," if the craze for carrying firearms stops.

In an address before the international police conference last night in which he urged a more vigorous control of firearms, he said: "The revolver is the badge of an American and we are known as a gun carrying, shooting nation. The ladies of America have taken to the gun in earnest."

After making his prediction about future brides, he added that if she is jilted, "off goes the gun."

It is the open season for shooting men, a good looking woman on the stand, chivalrous jurors, a tale of love. As a result, we are getting into an unenviable situation.

ATTACKS ALLEGED PLAN OF TEACHING EVOLUTION THEORY

EVANGELIST CHARGES PRACTICE IN THE METHODIST SCHOOLS IN TEXAS

STUDENTS TESTIFY AT FORT WORTH MEETING

Reported Threat Is Made to Excommunicate Evangelist

Fort Worth, May 2.—Attack on the alleged teaching of evolution in Methodist institutions of higher learning in Texas was made by Rev. W. E. Hawkins, Methodist evangelist, at the fifth world conference on Christian fundamentalism here last night.

It is reported that those in authority within the Methodist church had threatened to "excommunicate" Rev. Hawkins and this brought forth a statement from the fundamentalist convention that it would support him in the work of "evangelizing the schools of his church."

Hawkins launched his attack in an attempt to establish his case of alleged heresy against Texas church schools in general and Texas Women's College at Fort Worth in particular.

Miss Ruth Reed, a student of the school, was called to testify and stated that her professor had told her that "the virgin birth of Jesus was not an essential belief to salvation."

The convention, numbering approximately 6,000 persons, broke into an uproar when Miss Reed read a passage from her notebook alleged to have been dictated by a professor in one of her classes to the effect that "in many hospital museums you can find little human skeletons with tails that later were absorbed and became the complete backbone of man."

Students from other schools also testified. The outstanding testimony of the night sessions was given by Miss Margaret Pillely, a sophomore at Southern Methodist University at Dallas. Miss Pillely, a daughter of a foreign missionary in China, declared that her faith was nearly wrecked by the teachings she received in the university and that it was a common occurrence for her professors to pick out apparently conflicting parts of the scriptures in an effort to discredit it.

DENIAL OF STATEMENTS MADE AT FORT WORTH

DALLAS, May 2.—Denial of statements reported to have been made before the Fundamentalist Convention at Fort Worth last night concerning alleged teaching of evolution at Southern Methodist University was made here today. A number of students expressed willingness to publicly refute the alleged testimony of Miss Margaret Pillely, a sophomore at the local university. Miss Pillely was credited with having stated her faith had been nearly wrecked by teachings received in classes here.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—To-morrow probably will determine the success of the bill introduced by Patterson quo warranto bill in the special session. The senate this morning voted to set the measure on for consideration.

The bill proposes to authorize removal of county officers for failure to enforce criminal laws by suits instituted by the attorney general at the instance of the governor.

The senate today adopted a resolution by Darwin and Ridgeway expressing hope for success of conferences between representatives of Mexico and this nation looking toward recognition of the southern republic.

The house concurrent resolution involving Mrs. Rebecca Fisher, president of the Daughters of the Texas Republic to address a joint legislative session was adopted.

Alvin Couleky, American Legion national commander, informed the legislature today he would be unable to address the body as invited.

MEAGRELL TEXAS, May 2.—Interest in oil development around Meagrell is centered on the Hayter No. 1 of Simmons & McGarr drilling within a few feet of the depth at which oil was found in the Swastika field. The well log is checking between 25 and 30 feet higher than that of the discovery well. Location is two and three-quarter miles southwest of west of Meagrell on block 2416 T. E. & L.

The location is on a pronounced knoll and across a wide depression from the Swastika field. It is believed that the opening in the bottom of the Richardson No. 1. A. has discovered well, has been successfully plugged and preparations are now being made to install pipes and rods for pumping.

Richardson No. 2, the second well of the same company, is drilling around 600 feet. The derrick of the Eagle Creek Company on the Meagrell lease at the discovery well is held completed.

Timbers were hauled Tuesday to a location four miles southwest of Meagrell on land of W. H. Portwood and W. B. Mills in Baylor county. Marcus & Hale of Wichita Falls leased the land and drilled the well in 2153 of the T. E. & L. survey.

REQUEST FEDERAL AID IN SEARCH FOR CHILD

DALLAS, May 2.—Federal aid in the search for four-year-old Charles R. Parmelee Jr., alleged to have been kidnapped from a children's home in Dallas, Texas, last Friday, has been requested by W. F. Babb of Dallas, grandfather of the child. The request was made in a telegram sent yesterday to United States Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas.

Mrs. Babb said her husband had received unconfirmed reports that Mrs. Esther Black, Parmelee's mother, of the child, also had been kidnapped in Dallas, Texas, last Friday. The child was reported to have been taken to Los Angeles.

NEW YORK, May 2.—While women leaders in the boycott on high priced sugar today discussed plans to extend the strike nationally they analyzed statements made yesterday by Earl D. Babb, president of the American Sugar Refining Company, when he was cornered in his office by a delegation led by Mrs. Louis R. Weismiller, deputy markets commissioner.

"Who put the price up?" the women asked. "What are you doing to bring it down? What do you consider a fair price a pound? What does it cost to produce, to refine, to distribute a pound? Who gets the profit? How much sugar does your company handle in a year? Are you afraid of the boycott? Do you expect us women to sit tight until the price rises to 25 cents?"

After declaring that his company supplied about one-fourth of the country's sugar, Mr. Babb said: "We have sold sugar on a margin so narrow over its cost to us, that we are practically working for the public. At no time does the company make a profit of more than one cent, and that is only because of our efforts to protect others from speculation and also to keep the free flow of supplies from the tropics. Housewives in New York now should be able to buy sugar at retail at not more than 11 cents. If the housewives became parties to a boycott it will throw the whole machinery out of control. The boycott is a ridiculous, while she and her aides planned to ask families to cut their weekly sugar rations from five pounds to one-half pound."

WASHINGTON, May 2.—When an oil boom hits a one-man postoffice things begin to happen, as witnessed by the records made public today of the tribulations of the postmaster at Smackover, Ark.

Smackover was basking in the sun, a town of 200 last fall, when the oil was struck. Almost overnight the population swelled to 10,000 and this message came to the postoffice department from postmaster Fred O. McDonald, who, meanwhile, had grown wealthy in oil lands:

"The office is out of my control; letters arriving 8,000 to 7,000 daily parcel post by the ton; cannot open mail any longer; no time to put it; accept my resignation."

Thirteen assistants were rushed to Smackover and the mail was increased from 8,000 to $2500, but Postmaster McDonald refused to stay longer on the job than was necessary to get things running smoothly.

Many years there has been a tendency to put too many people on the state payroll," the message declared, regarding the consolidation of state departments. "Too much of our state government is on wheels. The state has grown too heavy in its governmental affairs. We need elimination, cooperation and coordination. Every department and bureau and every department, board and bureau of the state should be abolished. The department of public health, the department of agriculture, the department of livestock, department of mechanical, agricultural and mechanical college, and college of industrial arts, duplicating work at certain lines."

Labor department and mining and insurance agencies were other divisions mentioned by the governor in his proposal for consolidation of departments.

FREE STATE EXECUTES TWO MORE IRREGULARS

DUBLIN, May 2.—The execution of two more irregulars was announced today by County Clerk Ferguson. The men, Christopher Quinn and William Rhaneauy, had been found guilty of killing a free state soldier at Atlanta County, Ga., April 21. The executions took place at Kenia.

ST. JOSEPH, MICH., May 2.—A former disciple of Benjamin Purnell in his house of David could face one of his faithful followers today in the grand jury in an effort to break down the girl members of the cult and surround themselves with statements related by the ex-member were correct.

Representative Shires introduced a resolution for a house committee of three members to investigate the banks and life insurance companies that were controlled by "backsliders" where they have become agents of each other, to the end that the tax laws may be revised for "equitable and fair judgment." The resolution declared that by reason of "unfair and illegal" competition arising under "backsliders" some insurance companies are earning unreasonable profit and paying exorbitant salaries, dividends and commissions.

Resolutions by Moore and Cable, respectively, for public hearings on the proposed consolidation or abolition of certain state departments, and inviting the representatives to visit farms of the state to acquaint themselves with agricultural conditions of the state, were adopted.

The house voted down proposals for night sessions to avoid another call for session a week. Representative Lestourgeon recreation bill, including the licensing of public billiards playing, which was reported favorably by a committee, was introduced. Two additional bills, establishing standard containers and grades for fruits and vegetables, by Lestourgeon and a local measure were introduced.

TWO CASES AFFIRMED ANOTHER IS REVERSED

AUSTIN, TEXAS, May 2.—The court of criminal appeals today affirmed the case of W. H. Maddox, convicted of murder and given 15 years in the penitentiary, from Robertson county in connection with the killing of Jim Oden. The court also affirmed the case of Robert Beasley from Taylor county. Beasley was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary in connection with the killing of John Chadwick.

The case of Georgia Pearl Smith, convicted of murder in connection with the killing of her husband, J. T. Smith, was reversed and remanded by the higher court.

The court also denied the application of Sam Lowe, former Malone Bank cashier, for bail. Lowe is held in Hill county jail on charges growing out of the failure of the bank. Recently he was remanded to Dallas county jail pending charge of larceny in the county court. Three contentions in the case were overruled by the higher court.

CONTINUE WORK ON PLAN FOR VIGOROUS 'DRY' ENFORCEMENT

DECISION REMOVES SEVERAL COMPLEX QUESTIONS SAYS DAUGHERTY

PLANS TO EMPLOY EVERY AGENCY AT HIS COMMAND

Interpretation of "Transportation" and "Importation" to Aid Rigid Enforcement

NEW YORK, May 2.—The government, centering a triangular attack on the rum fleet off the Jersey coast today, has announced that the coast launch carrying provisions and fuel to the alien craft anchored outside the three-mile limit.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—Four general prohibition agents from the New York headquarters and are en route to the New Jersey coast in the vicinity of Atlantic City in an effort to stop smuggling of liquor into this country, Frederick A. (Fessie) prohibition division chief, announced today.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Government officials continued today to feel their way toward a satisfactory adjustment of the difficulties faced in applying the supreme court's interpretation of the dry laws prohibiting the carrying of liquor by any ship within three miles of United States territorial water.

For the department of justice, meanwhile, Attorney General Clegg has announced that the supreme court's mandate, becoming effective within 30 days from the handing down of the decision Monday, will be enforced "rigorously," adding the opinion that several complex questions in prohibition enforcement have been considerably clarified by the decision. In his statement last night Mr. Daugherty declared that "every agency at my command will be used to enforce the law without favor, partiality or discrimination."

Not only has the court's decision definitely established that no intoxicating liquor can be brought within three miles of the nation's shores, Mr. Daugherty said, but its interpretation of the terms "transportation" and "importation" will make for more rigid enforcement generally of the prohibition and customs laws. Department of justice officials asserted in this connection that the application given the latter term would help greatly in combating smuggling along the coast and the Great Lakes.

As to the government's policy regarding liquor serving on shipping board vessels in view of the established right of American ships to carry liquor outside the three-mile limit, on the basis of indications given by Chairman Clegg after conferring with President Harding yesterday, it appeared probable that the government fleet would remain dry.

OFFICERS COAST GUARD TO FIT THE SCREWS DOWN

WASHINGTON, May 2.—While government officials continued to puzzle today over application of the supreme court decision on ship liquor, coast guard headquarters issued an order today concentrating all available coast guard boats in the north Atlantic along the New Jersey shore. It was said that henceforth the rum fleet massed off Atlantic Highlands would be under surveillance of two coast guard cutters day and night.

Conclusion of the winter patrol work makes available a dozen or more boats for cutting off shore contact with the rum fleet. It is the declared purpose of coast guard headquarters to "put the screws down" on customers of the rum ships and the office of Assistant Secretary Clifford of the treasury in charge of the guard, is convinced the fleet can be driven out for lack of customers.

GREAT BRITAIN OFFERS FACETIOUS SUGGESTIONS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 2.—All manner of views "from across the way, from Italy to Norway," are aired in the London newspapers with reference to the United States supreme court liquor ruling; however, the grave and severe are most numerous.

Among the facetious suggestions is one that Great Britain declare on the United States to enforce the sacred right of her subjects to drink as much liquor as they like wherever they like, or alternatively, to retaliate by placing a ban on chewing gum and compel American ships to dump their supply of this commodity in the English channel.

ONE DEAD AND FIVE HURT IN MINNESOTA ELECTRICAL STORMS

ST. PAUL, May 2.—One death and five injured in addition to property damage was the toll of severe electrical storms in Minnesota yesterday. Arthur Cronin, of Pilot Grove township was killed when struck by lightning.

The most severe property damage reported was near New Ulm where two herds of cattle and swine and three large barns were burned in a fire caused by lightning. The loss was $100,000. Heavy rains fell in most sections of the state.

Returns from 469 out of 737 precincts in the district gave Captain Fredericks 12,752 votes.

WOMAN AND MAN HANGED FOR MURDER OF CANADA OFFICER

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, ALBERTA, May 2.—Mrs. Florence Lassandra and Emilio Piccirillo were hanged today for the murder of Constable Lawson last September.

Both protested their innocence on the gallows. Piccirillo paid the penalty first, and 41 minutes later Mrs. Lassandra was executed. She was the first woman to be hanged in Canada in 24 years.

Constable Lawson was slain at the Coleman provincial police headquarters after an unsuccessful attempt by the police to capture Piccirillo and his son, Steve, with an automobile load of liquor. Piccirillo and Mrs. Lassandra, wife of one of his chauffeurs, appeared at the Coleman police station, called the constable out and after a few words Mrs. Lassandra shot him four times.

CORONER DEMANDS LIST OF STUDENTS IN INVESTIGATION

CHICAGO, May 2.—A complete list of freshmen and sophomores who were attending Northwestern University at the time Leighton Mount, freshman, disappeared in September, 1921, will be demanded at the inquest today over the skeleton found Monday night and identified as that of the missing youth, according to Oscar Wolf, coroner. As many of them as can be found will be questioned, he said. That Mount was drowned as the result of a hazing episode and his body covered with some strong chemical and stuffed through a hole in the concrete pier where it was found by a 12-year-old lad is the opinion of Coroner Wolf and Charles W. Leggett, chief of police of Evanston, the exclusive North Shore suburb which is the home of Northwestern University. As her home from which she has for 20 months directed a nation-wide search for her son, Mrs. Mount sobs for the loss of her son, but is happy in that her faith in him has been vindicated. "It was bad enough to fear that God had taken away my boy," she said, "but then to have gossip, unfounded and malicious, try to take away his soul—I thought at times I could not stand it."

YOUTH HAD BEEN PROMISED NOT TO BE TRIED; FREED

Erie Newton, a youth who was called to trial in the 59th district court Tuesday afternoon, was set free by an instructed verdict of not guilty when it developed that he had been promised immunity by the constable's department before he made a confession concerning the offense with which he and Aral Duvall were charged. The young man was arrested in connection with the burglarizing of a store in Electra last fall and after being taken before the constable's department was promised that he would not be prosecuted if he would tell the truth about the entire affair. Judge Martin in instructing the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, stated that there was no doubt but what the boy was guilty of the offense as charged, but that the state could well afford to be generous enough to acquit this man and thereby keep faith as to the promise made by the officers.

for deliveries of coal and coke are especially important. The offer of an anti-aggression pact on the Rhine is renewed and the government suggests that all conflicts arising out of the question of national securities be submitted to an international court for arbitration.

GREAT BRITAIN HAD NO PART IN FRAMING TERMS

LONDON, May 2.—It was authoritatively stated here this afternoon that the British government has been at some pains to make clear to every party that Great Britain is in no way connected with the German reparations note and she had no hand whatsoever in framing its terms, as has been suggested in certain quarters.

ARBITRATION PLAN FOR DISPUTES IN FUTURE

By Associated Press. BERLIN, May 2.—Germany, in her reparations proposals submitted today, advances a proposition that security as between France and Germany be attained by an agreement to submit any future conflicts to arbitration or other conciliatory process. The German government, says the note, is prepared, as was its intention in proposing the conclusion of a Rhine pact, to accept any agreement calculated to secure peace based on reciprocity. The German government, it adds, is prepared to accept any agreement, binding on both Germany and France, to submit all conflicts which cannot be settled in the usual diplomatic way to some kind of peaceful international procedure, that is to say, judicial conflicts, administration and other conflicts, to a reconciliation process after the example of the Bryan agreements. The agreements are the series of administrative treaties negotiated by Secretary of State Bryan during the Wilson administration with Great Britain and other foreign governments.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WATCHING IN SILENCE

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The American government is watching very closely, but in complete silence, the latest attempt to smooth out the reparations tangle in Europe. State department officials had not yet completed today their study of the German note but there was no indication that when they had done so the government would have any public or private advice to give the allies as to acceptance or rejection of the German proposals.

Naturally there is gratification in Washington and Secretary Hughes' suggestion for an inquiry by an impartial commission of economists has been brought to the fore again. Even on that phase of the question, as well as regarding the suggestion for an application of the Bryan treaty principle there is a complete absence of authoritative comment.

E. C. ARBUCKLE IS FOUND NOT GUILTY OF BURGLARY

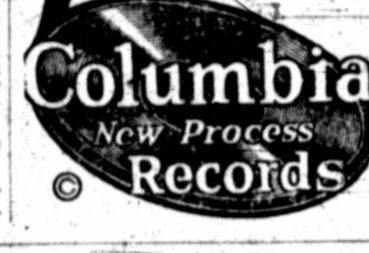

A jury in the 59th district court Tuesday evening returned a verdict of not guilty in the case against E. C. Arbuckle, in which he was charged with burglary of a chicken coop and stealing a number of chickens. The jury deliberated four hours before a verdict was reached. This was the second trial of the case. Pratt & Lambert's "61 Floor" varnish, Watson Paint Co., 307 Indiana.

Visiting Musicians Delightfully Entertained Tuesday; Dinner At Wichita Club; Guests of Players

The visiting musicians, executive board members and honor guests of the eighth annual convention, enjoyed two delightful hospitalities planned especially in their honor Tuesday as a little prelude to the regular business of the convention opening Wednesday.

The board session at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday was the call for the early assemblage of the executive members here, and the local hostesses took advantage of the extra hours very happily. Dinner at the Wichita Club at 6:30, with Mrs. Fred Barron representing both the Musicians Club and the Music Study Club in her duties as hostess, was followed at 8:15 by the little Theater entertainment at Kemp Library with the Players' Club members hostesses.

Club Dinner. Mrs. Walter Robertson acted as toastmistress at the Wichita Club dinner, being introduced by the chairman of the hospitality, Mrs. Fred Barron. A program of greetings and little talks followed, the introduction of Mrs. O. E. Nichols, president of the Musicians' Club, who toasted the guests; Mrs. C. Y. Tully, president of the Music Study Club; Mrs. Louella Thompson, director of the Women's Choral Club; Mrs. Hambrick, the State Music-Federation president; Mrs. J. E. Lovell, national president; Mrs. Blankenship, the "Lone Star District" president; and Mrs. Mary Dwyer, president of Dallas, program chairman of the state.

Hugh McAnnis of New York City, the noted organist, was also introduced as a special guest at the dinner, and Mrs. H. E. Perce of Fort Worth, who very delightfully gave something of the humorous side of a musician's experiences. The banquet table was beautifully decorated with a May day motif in the dainty little flower baskets which formed the place favors, and the hand-painted flower place cards. During the evening Mrs. Hambrick was presenting a love concert, and the guests included the following: Mesdames James Hambrick of Tyler, H. E. Perce of Fort Worth, P. L. Skiles of Dallas, J. J. Crum of Amarillo, H. B. Cole, W. S. Bramlett of Dallas, Charles Browder, Walter S. Robertson, Mills Dennis, Henry Roberts, Knowles Melton of Conway, Louella H. Thompson, C. Y. Tully, Fred C. Barron, and R. E. Shepherd; Misses Sallie Carr of Hillboro, Dorothy Lewis of Colton, Norma Chatham of Arlington, and Julia Owen of Navasota.

Guests of Players. The Players Club presented their most successful production of "Suppressed Desires" and "Poor Old Jim" counted two of the best plays they have prepared this year at the Kemp Library Little Theater, and the guests, who repaired to the dining room immediately after, were evidently very much diverted. Mesdames Will P. Pagan, Ben G. O'Neal, J. T. Harrell, John Thomas, and Leslie Humphrey were hostesses for the players, with Mrs. Glenn Williams and Miss Louise Jones as second prize for Miss Sara Chester. Miss Lillian Fain and Miss Madge Kate, the arrangement committee. At the intermission during the entertainment the ushers presented each guest with a pretty little bon bon corsage, the work of Mrs. George Paul.

GIRL RESERVES BIBLE CONTEST AT Y. W. C. A. Seven members of the Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A. held their annual contest in Bible stories at the Junior High auditorium, the contest resulting in a first prize victory for Miss Violet Johnson of the Fairview (Burkhardt) school. Mesdames second prize for Miss Sara Beth Boggs of Junior High, and third for Miss Grace Dryden of Fairview.

The girls who contested included Misses Violet Johnson, Grace Dryden and Edith McCrary, who were accompanied here by Miss Virginia Shaw and Sara Beth Boggs. Hettie May Spillman, Louise Hendricks and Maile Guider. They selected their stories from four—Daniel, Ruth, Joseph and Esther. Miss Johnson told the story of Daniel; Miss Boggs, the story of Ruth; Miss Dryden, the story of Daniel, Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman. The first prize was $1, the second $2, and the third $1, and all were offered by Mesdames Mrs. T. A. Hicks, chairman of the contest, assisted Miss Durnal in planning the contest. Miss Leon Bolin, president of the Junior High Girl Reserves, presided at the meeting.

LOOK AT GREEN BEGS; ACTIVE

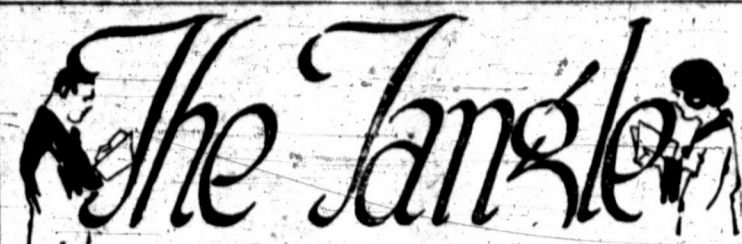

The green bugs—those horrid little blackish pests of the rose garden grower—are among us in hordes this spring, and if you haven't been watching your roses for the past several days, better get at it. The City Beautiful Department of the Civic League advises the liberal use of the nicotine spray for the pests, as it is thoroughly effective. There are probably four or five species without their armies of the bugs, and they are rapidly ruining the rosebuds and sprays. The Dorothy Perkins roses, other cherries, and with thousands of tender little shoots seem to be the particular victims of the bugs, but they are covering all varieties of roses as well.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS HIKE AND COOK THEIR SUPPER

The Wondaka Campfire Girls hiked to Haven Park Tuesday afternoon to study wild flowers and collect specimens. After an hour or so of work, and in order to fill a requirement for the rank of fire-maker, Misses Rebecca Meadows and Hazel Dell Herring built the campfire, prepared, cooked, and served supper, with a tempting menu of broiled bacon, scrambled eggs, toasted buns, banana cakes, oranges, and toasted marshmallows for the hungry hikers. After supper the girls sang, to ukulele accompaniment, told stories, and enjoyed various entertainment. Those who made up the hikers included Misses Theresa Kaufman, Edna Skaggs, Rebecca Meadows, Josephine Fiske, Hazel Dell Herring, Ruth Frank, Edna Stovall, Jewel Lee Hicks, Clarice Pitman, and Exia Darby, guardian.

Letter From Leslie Prescott to Her Younger Sister, Alice Hamilton
DEAR LITTLE SISTER: I have just had a letter from Vera Stokley. You know she started for London a day or two after my wedding to join her family. She tells me that your little friend Betty is writing a book and that it has the wildest plot which involves a string of pearls. I have an intuition that you two girls have in some way patched up a story about my pearl necklace. You seemed rather suspicious and mysterious about them when you gave them to me. Now that I have had time to think over them I have become rather curious about them. Everyone admires them so much. Jack had the cheek that they were the loveliest imitations he had ever seen. He makes me wear them on all occasions. I wore them the other night to a restaurant dinner and a man at the next table eyed me so much that Jack told me he was going over to punch his head up until I called his attention to the fact that the man was not looking at me at all but at my beads. "That makes it worse," said Jack, and I think he would have gone over and jabbed him if the man had not paid his check and left. Write me all about the circumstances of their purchase. I am sure they were not originally purchased in this country. Jack says they were brought to me by a string of real pearls whose owner did not want always to wear her real stones. He says they would be worth a fortune if they were real. Tell me about your friend Betty.

MRS. MORGAN ENTERTAINS KILL KAN "42" MEMBERS
Mrs. Eli Morgan was hostess to the members of the Kill Kan Club Tuesday afternoon, when five tables of players enjoyed the game. The living room and music room of Mrs. Morgan's home were beautifully decorated with pink roses, and the pink rose re-appeared on the attractive refreshment plate served by Mrs. West. A dainty little menu of broiled bacon, scrambled eggs, toasted buns, banana cakes, oranges, and toasted marshmallows for the hungry hikers. After supper the girls sang, to ukulele accompaniment, told stories, and enjoyed various entertainment. Those who made up the hikers included Misses Theresa Kaufman, Edna Skaggs, Rebecca Meadows, Josephine Fiske, Hazel Dell Herring, Ruth Frank, Edna Stovall, Jewel Lee Hicks, Clarice Pitman, and Exia Darby, guardian.

TUESDAY COLLEGE WOMEN STUDY A BARRIE PLAY

The Tuesday College Women's Club met at 7:30 at Miss Georgia Humphrey's "Security" Shop on Ninth street. The evening was devoted to a study of Barrie's play, "What Every Woman Knows." Miss Lily Hostetter summarized the first act of the play, making expository comments concerning stage setting, and giving interesting suggestions of play play as she went. It was from a presentation by Miss Adams, Mrs. J. C. Mathis followed with an accurate review of the second act, and Miss Lillian Bogue completed the story with an enthusiastic telling of the third and fourth acts.

Mrs. Sidney Cochran read a paper on "The History of Barrie's Plays," in which she pointed out many instances of the comic spirit in Barrie's stage settings, and many whimsically humorous effects in his character portraiture and plot development. Miss Elizabeth Brown told in an entertaining way of Maude Adams' presentation of "What Every Woman Knows" for the benefit of the Sales-Dramatic Club in 1908, mentioning in conclusion the clever and graceful manner in which Miss Adams responded to the announcement that she had been named an honorary member of the club. To conclude the program Miss

The Doctor Was Right

When the good old family doctor was asked about baking powders, he said:

"Use Royal. It is made from Cream of Tartar and is absolutely pure. You could dissolve a couple of teaspoons of Royal in water and drink it with benefit. That's a health test mighty few baking powders can meet."

The doctor was right.

Mrs. Jackson Urges All Suffering Women to Take Stella Vitae for Their Troubles

"I could praise Stella Vitae the longest day I live and would urge all suffering women everywhere to take this wonderful treatment for their troubles," said Mrs. A. P. Jackson, of Isabel, Louisiana.

"I had indigestion so bad that I could hardly eat a thing that would agree with me and I would feel greatly distressed afterwards. My legs would ache, and pain me, too, and at times the pain was so great as to make it hard for me to get about on my feet.

"Then without a sign of warning I would get so dizzy that everything would just be whirling around and I would turn right blind and almost fall down. My nerves were worn to a frazzle and I would jump and shake like everything if suddenly startled.

"I began to improve right from the first when I started taking Stella Vitae, and every bottle I took seemed to put more life in me and build me up. I think Stella Vitae is the greatest thing going and I just wouldn't be without it for anything."

Note—Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist, and is sold upon the positive guarantee that that purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief. Tipton's Drug Store and Miller's Drug Store.—(Adv.)

Twenty million proud users approve this gift

Eversharp and Wahl Pen will serve the graduate for life—will meet his every writing need, business and social.

The very weight of numbers suggests Eversharp. Only America's finest pencil could have twenty million users. And such popularity argues well for its reception as a graduation gift. Remember, Eversharp can't be copied. The rifled tip and the lead index are Eversharp features. One assures a firm lead free from slip or wobble; the other tells always the length of lead in the barrel. And Eversharp perfect balance suits the hand to a T.

Matching the beauty and accuracy of Eversharp is Wahl Pen—the greatest modern step forward in pen construction. It holds more ink, because the barrel is all metal. It cannot crack or break. The screw threads will not wear out.

Give both, matched in gold and silver. Buy them in the velvet-lined gift box. Eversharp, $1 to $10—Wahl Pen, $4 to $10. Solid gold at higher prices. Look for the name on each.

Contends Liquor Can Be Made For Medicinal Use Without A Permit From State, Asks For New Trial

OVER $7500.00 for Grape-Nuts Recipes

The Postum Cereal Company will buy not less than 101 Recipes or suggestions for new Uses of Grape-Nuts, paying $50.00 for each one accepted. And in addition—

Good Housekeeping Institute, conducted by Good Housekeeping Magazine, will decide an award of $2500.00 for the best four of the 101 or more Recipes or suggestions for new Uses of Grape-Nuts, so purchased:

- $1000.00 for the 1st selection $750.00 for the 2nd selection
$500.00 for the 3rd selection $250.00 for the 4th selection

Read carefully the terms of this offer, so that you may have the fullest opportunity to share in its benefits. The conditions are so simple and fair that every housewife in the United States can take part in this National Recipe Festival!

There Is No Other Food Like Grape-Nuts

WHILE practically every man, woman and child in the English-speaking world knows Grape-Nuts as a delicious, nourishing and wholesome cereal, and while it is common knowledge that Grape-Nuts with milk or cream is a complete food, many housewives do not know of the appetizing and economical dishes that can be prepared with Grape-Nuts. It lends itself, we believe, to more uses than any other cereal.

dressings for fowls, etc. No doubt there are thousands of women who are finding varied uses for Grape-Nuts in their home cooking, and even more thousands who will be glad to learn of those varied uses; for while we all cling to old favorite dishes, we also welcome and enjoy a change.

So that is the thought back of our offer of more than $7500.00 in cash for new ways of using Grape-Nuts. To those women who are already using Grape-Nuts in various ways, other than as a breakfast cereal or in the recipes given here, and to those women who would like to try their hand at developing some new way to use Grape-Nuts, we offer to buy at $50.00 each not less than 101 new Grape-Nuts Recipes. We plan to include these new Recipes in a beautifully illustrated cook book.

What Is Grape-Nuts?

Grape-Nuts is a highly nutritious food in the form of crisp, golden granules. It contains the full nutrition of wheat and barley, including vitamin-B and mineral elements required for building sturdy health. These elements are often lacking in the ordinary diet, chiefly through "over-refinement" in the preparation of food.

Every housewife in the Land should take advantage of this extraordinary opportunity to earn the tidy sum of $50.00 by a little pleasant and educational effort in her own home. Also the fair and equal chance to secure one of the liberal awards to be made by Good Housekeeping Institute.

No other food is so thoroughly baked as Grape-Nuts. More than 20 hours are consumed in the baking process which makes Grape-Nuts easy to digest, and also develops a natural sweetness from the grains themselves.

Moreover, there's the greater knowledge of the value of Grape-Nuts, not only as a delicious breakfast cereal, but in the preparation of a variety of appetizing dishes that add to the health and pleasure of the whole family.

The form and crispness of Grape-Nuts invite thorough mastication—a decided advantage because this not only provides proper exercise for the teeth, but makes for good digestion. Where you don't find Grape-Nuts you won't find people "There's a Reason"

The motion for new trial asserts that the court erred in instructing the jury as to the law of the case when he said that the fact that defendant stated that he had made the whiskey for his own use for medicinal purposes could not be used as evidence of his innocence but merely in mitigation of the penalty.

Several decisions of the higher court were presented to Judge Martin Wednesday morning in support of the assertion as set forth in the motion. The court took the matter under advisement.

NEW CUT IN CRUDE BRINGS PRICE HERE BELOW $2.50 BARREL

Over Production in California Has Demoralizing Effect on Situation Here

The 10-cent cut in crude prices, announced Wednesday, means that a number of producers are to get 40 to 50 cents per barrel less than they were receiving two weeks ago. The posted price has now dropped 20 cents, and in addition, payments of premiums have ceased except where unexpired contracts are in force.

Most of the Archer county oil, being around 41 degrees gravity, is now bringing $2.40 per barrel, and the less desirable grades proportionately lower. Most of the oil produced in Wichita and Archer counties is 37 degrees or better, bring $2 and up per barrel, without premium.

The crude market is in a decidedly unsettled condition at present, more so than for many months. With California's overproduction as a principal factor. One result of the situation has been that some of the pipe line companies in north-west Texas are refusing to carry "line balances" any more, and are asking owners of crude that has been delivered to get it out of the lines at once. As a consequence, some refineries that are overstocked have found it necessary to sell this crude at cut-throat prices, to take whatever they could get for it.

News from California that steps were being taken to curb production was received hopefully in local circles. At present, the California situation is such that gasoline can be delivered to New Orleans or to the eastern seaboard at prices that refineries here cannot meet, and they consequently are without a market for such of their gasoline as the immediate vicinity does not take.

ELECTRIC COMPANY OFFICIALS SPEAK AT TECHNICAL CLUB

W. P. Crews, chief engineer of the Wichita Falls Electric Company, spoke to the Technical Club and a large number of guests at their regular meeting Tuesday night in the Wichita Club rooms on "The Generation of Power."

Mr. Crews described in detail the operation of the 11,100-kilowatt plant here which furnishes the power for lights, street railway and manufacturing plants in this territory. In the local plant there are 12 fire boxes under six boilers which burn 400 barrels of oil daily, Mr. Crews said. He spoke of the plant as using five times as much water for condensing purposes as the city uses in a day.

Mr. Crews was followed by Pete Rogers, manager of the electric company, who told of the value of electricity in cooking. E. W. Heyser of the Callahan Construction Company spoke briefly on the part electricity was playing in the construction work at the irrigation dam.

Miss Katherine Weeks entertained the club with a piano solo, "Lone Negro," she was followed by "The Legend of the Twilight Bell."

Male Dancer Halts In Small Hours, But Female of Species Is Still In And Going Strong

Miss Jennie Mae McElroy is the sole survivor of the marathon dance which began in this city Monday noon, with about 10 contestants. Miss McElroy, who has danced with Louis Race, who has danced with her since the beginning, gave up Wednesday morning at 2:30 and left for his hotel with the word that he would return Wednesday afternoon and see her through the dance.

At noon Wednesday Miss McElroy had been dancing 48 hours and according to physicians and nurses who examined her, was in perfect condition. Her pulse and general condition was declared to be normal.

"It is remarkable that she shows no physical signs of fatigue," the nurse in attendance said after the examination.

Miss McElroy sent out at noon during the rest period and purchased new sandals and light refreshments. She expects to continue dancing until her 80-hour record which she made in Dallas has been broken.

Rumors were afloat Wednesday afternoon of two new contestants, who expect to enter Wednesday night when the public dance starts. Chas. Astoria who is in charge of the dance could not verify the report.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.—St. John 3:21.
A good man, through obscure aspirations, has still an instinct of the one true way.—Goethe.

HARDING WILL LEAVE WORLD COURT PLAN AT HOME
It is announced from the white house that President Harding has no intention of carrying on a campaign to obtain endorsement for the administration's world court proposals. It had been rumored that in his forthcoming tour President Harding would advocate the entrance of the United States into the world court.

But the administration's advocacy of the world court has met with considerable opposition within his own party and Mr. Harding is first a good party man and a believer in party government. He would not press an issue that did not have the support of a majority of the Republican senators opposed to entrance into the world court that he will not even press the matter in the senate. We may see the administration's world court plan just will down.

Then too President Harding does not want to appear discourteous to the senators by taking the issue of the world court directly to the people, and wishes to avoid all appearance of attempting to club the senate into acceptance of the plan. Roosevelt and Wilson did not hesitate to go to the people with their plans. Both did so successfully, except in the instance in which Mr. Wilson campaigned the country in behalf of the League of Nations. That may have marked a turning point of presidential leadership. Harding's conception is that the administration must deal with the party leaders and congress and not attempt to go over their heads directly to the people. That conception may be more in harmony with the constitution, and more effective after all. It is certainly less spectacular and cannot be as popular with the people who cannot help but be flattered by a direct appeal and who must enjoy at times the exercise of whip cracking over the heads of their representatives in congress.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND THE SUGAR BOYCOTT

Secretary of Commerce Hoover is reported to have given his approval to a movement to boycott the use of sugar. President Harding is said not to be unfavorable to the plans. Throughout the country there is indignation over the high cost of sugar and it is quite likely that the proposed boycott will gain considerable headway.

Such a boycott will likely remedy the situation in the sugar market. As pointed out several days ago the high cost of sugar will certainly tend to lessen its consumption and this lessened consumption will extend far beyond the period of high prices. This will happen without any organized boycott. Despite its effectiveness in such a meritorious enterprise as an attempt to bring down the price of sugar we hope that neither President Harding nor Secretary Hoover gives encouragement to the boycott plan. Boycotts are very often hateful and destructive. Most of them are. Boycotting is a practice that is outlawed by state and federal laws under certain conditions. It is a practice that ought not to be encouraged, and especially ought not to be encouraged with official approval. In the case of sugar a boycott will likely be unnecessary. At the present high price of sugar the consumption will drop rapidly. This in a short time will have a remedial effect.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BOY WEEK

There was once a time when it was regarded as the proper course with boys to drill into them some moral precepts and then to sternly forbid them from doing a large number of things. The training of boys was largely a matter of prohibitions. The system didn't work well. Its effect was either to cultivate a morose disposition or to encourage the exercise of the natural energies in boys along normal lines and to encourage play and work and to give a natural and normal outlet for the energies bound up in boys. It has been found that when this is done it is not necessary to devote so much attention to the list of prohibitions and don'ts. The new system to one of expression rather than of repression and it works better. To this end athletics have been encouraged, the Boy Scout movement has grown to great importance as an organization both for work and play and the teaching of proper ethics, and more and more the importance of providing proper outlets for boy energy is being recognized. This is Boy Week. This special week is important only in the measure that it stimulates work that is carried on through all the weeks of the year. Reason a man does things is because he wants to, and the reason a woman does things is because

TODAY'S TALK
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

TWO RED BOOKS.
A reader friend sends me two books—one "The Faith of Robert Louis Stevenson" and the other "Poetry and Philosophy of George Meredith." For many months these two visitors have been under my hospitality—a hospitality, I should say, that has been warm and appreciative. Some days they spend in my library. Today they are on my office desk as I write—while all the other folks are "out to lunch."
I like to take up these two lovely friends and talk to them. I open one or the other—and here and there are passages that the owner has marked, expressive of the appreciation of these two books when home. I note that one of the books was a gift from a famous and beloved actress to my reader friend. Books are no respecter of persons. Wherever they are wanted, they will go.
The poorest in knowledge may aspire to be the most learned; it was Elihu Burritt who learned more than forty languages while he pumped bellows at his forge—so that he became world renowned as "The Learned Blacksmith." In fact, he became a most useful citizen, putting forth great efforts, as far back as 1848, toward world peace.

But to go back to my two red-coated visitors. I pick up one or the other book every once in a while. I have purposely not read either book clear through in regular order. Because, you see, I wanted them to stay quite a while.
Some of these days, however, they will be sent home with the best good wishes I possess.
"How wonderful it is to send a book a-visit!"
A book on a visit awaits the mood of its host. So there is no possible chance for any jarring of association.
Sometimes you send two red books out on a visit—or green ones—or blue ones—and see how happy they come back.
For they do (sometimes) come back!

BROTHERHOOD.
Is it not queer, oh, brother of mine,
Some drink water and some drink wine,
And all are born with a spark divine.

Some must sweat at the heavy work,
One be the priest—and one the clerk,
One adventure where dangers lurk.

This man stands at a lathe all day,
That man toils in a cleaner way,
But both are serving the world for pay.

What if the priest should quit his beads,
And tell us that useless things are creeds?
Lost were much that this old world needs.

And what if the sailor should quit the sea,
Or the singer silence his melody,
Where would our pride and our glory be?

What if the man at the lathe should say:
"Never again will I stand all day
Fashioning things of steel for pay?"

Oh, brother of mine, you would find this true:
The humblest work that a man can do
Is done to make lighter the load for you.

The sound of the hammer, the hiss of the steam,
The tailor stitching a garment's seam,
Are vital things in the greater scheme.

Vain are the glorious deeds we boast,
Save that the commoner keeps his post,
For the lowliest man would be missed the most.

When mammoths fought
Youth and religion,
Capitalism not falling,
Criticisms wakes them.
By ARTHUR BRISBADE
(Copyright, 1923, The Star Co.)
In old days, when the mammoths and the sabre-toothed tigers got to fighting, it must have been painful for the little animals. They were frightened, stamping on their young, left trampled.
So it is when the modern mammoth and sabre-toothed tiger, she their financial fighting.
You are told by wise-ones that the trouble in Wall street is due to fight among the big oil men. The Standard Oil mammoth has decided to clean up independent oil concerns, that interfere with "harmony." Oil prices and oil stock prices are dropping.
The little gamblers are throwing overboard what they have, and running into their holes—Very sad for those that don't know enough not to gamble.
The Boston University School of Religious Education, gathering statistics on conversions to religion, says the chances are three to one that persons who have not joined a church 21 years of age will never join. In the Methodist Church, the biggest in membership in the United States, the majority that join are under 21 years of age. It is years old, the age used to be between 16 and 17.
Statistics show that susceptibility to religious conviction is being pushed back toward the age of childhood.
It proves the soundness of the Roman Catholic teaching that first seven years are most important in the life of a child as regards religious teaching.
Victor L. Berger, only Socialist member of congress, sailed for Europe yesterday. He goes to study conditions in Europe and the downfall of capitalism especially.
He was assured by this writer that many generations of Berbers will come and go before "capitalism falls down."
Capitalism is just starting in the United States. It is just beginning to get thoroughly organized.
First, the strong man's club ruled. That lasted a long time. The hope of the weak was that the strong man would predict the downfall of the club very soon.
Then the savage chief ruled, and that lasted for centuries. Then the king ruled, while the priest ruled him through his superstition. That lasted a long time. Then came military feudalism, lasting centuries. And now we have industrial feudalism, organized dollars in place of organized soldiers. That's the "capitalism" to which Berger refers. It also is just starting. Its downfall is a long way off.
Nobody ever changed a social system suddenly. You have to change the people first—and they change slowly.
In an excellent decision the Illinois supreme court declared that a city cannot bring suit against a newspaper or a citizen for criticizing the city or its government.
"Every citizen has the right to criticize the government must be considered absolutely privileged" is the court's decision, unless an effort is made to disseminate false information.
Nobody ever changed a social system suddenly. You have to change the people first—and they change slowly.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK
By LEE PAPP
Mrs. Hews was coming to drink tea and talk to me this afternoon, ma saying to me, Now Benny I want you to look nice and neat because Mrs. Hews is very particular and notices everything. So she said I should brush my hair and shine my shoes and here a clean handkerchief and for mercy sake keep it close with you on you with your handkerchiefs to get them so terrible looking?
I don't do anything special with them. I just leave them alone and they get dirty. I said.
It sounds very likely, ma said. And I went up and gave my shoes a healthy brush and then I went down to my room and I noticed my shoes were kind of dirty, so I dusted them off with my handkerchief almost dropping it in a puddle. I was doing it but not quite on account of it only falling on the edge and I was in a hurry but looking pretty hum every way and I went in the house again and Mrs. Hews was there already. Being a little bit more than one chub and her and ma was talking about different subjects, and all of a sudden Mrs. Hews said, O my goodness I have to go. I'm going to see and I can't find my handkerchief, what shall I do?
Benny's mind was there one, Benny and Mrs. Hews your handkerchief, ma said.
Mam! I said.
Can't you hear, don't be slow. Give Mrs. Hews your handkerchief, quick, she wants to see it, ma said. Maybe it's too smart, I said. Not worth the risk, ma said. Give it to her, just this minute, I don't know what else you.
Wich I did, taking it out of my pocket and handing it to Mrs. Hews, and when she saw it she looked as if she was going to faint instead of seeing, but she just sneezed, being one of the faintest sneezers for a lady I ever heard, and ma grabbed the handkerchief and told me to leave the room.
Wich I did.

WHISPERING SAGE

Higher ground where his trail turned to the south when he heard a horse whinny. He had to put his nose over his mounts nose to keep him from answering. The other horse called again; nearer this time. That boy did not wait. He wheeled and galloped back over the path he had just come from. When he had retraced his way some two miles, he turned to see why the horse below whinnyed. His pulse jumped as he caught sight of the flaming look—now so near the dam that the water where he watched it seemed they must strike any minute. What had gone wrong? What had set them afire? Had his companion been caught by the Double A men?
Estaban moved higher up to wait for the explosion. He had concluded that he intended to make another dash for Webster Creek. No matter where Estaban and Double A men were, he was counting the seconds when he saw a man dash for the buttes, intent only on reaching the valley. The horse going brought no sound to the ears of the man. He was on the bearings, and keeping ever within sight of the like, she stumbled to the edge of the cliff. She was a new tortoise. A glowing point of fire moved across the water, caught her attention. Its even, unsharpened teeth, it was beautiful, unreal, ghostly. But she watched it, the raft moved out, the little of the opposite shore into the full light of the moon.
She knew what it was then, even before the wind had sent it across the water to make recognition possible. The truth left her strangely unmoved. She even found herself admiring the cleverness of the men who were responsible for it. They had schemed well to beat Akkin's party. The black bill was rising from its surface, the glowing fuse held aloft as if it were a torch. The raft was moving from her lips. This was the thing she had come to stop.
It came so close to her that she could hear the quivering of the fuse. An eddy of a whirl of the wind caught the raft and sent it spinning along. She did not swim a stroke; just what she intended to do she did not know; but she knew she could never reach it. The raft was now some 50 feet from the bank. She found, however, that she kept abreast of it as she followed the margin of the lake toward the dam.
This was all very well for a time, but as she came to a cove that cut back to the shore, she began to despair. By the time she had rounded it, the raft would be far ahead. But without looking back she saw that the raft was not made more than half of the way when she started a glance at the moving raft. Her breath actually stopped at an instant as she beheld. If it had been a liner making port the craft could not have moved more accurately. The raft was more directly for the little cove on the shore of which she stood. Mercedes rode toward it. She saw its approach. She saw it when it seemed to stand still. The next minute the current was moving it back toward her.
Without stopping to ask herself what she would do, or how she would get to the land, if she was once on the raft, she jumped for it. The force with which she landed was impetus enough to send her bobbing through the water until the cove's edge was reached. She scrambled to her feet and with her boot-head ground the coal into the center of the log.
She lurched toward the center of the log, her arms lowered to help herself to a sitting position, when a sensation came over her. She felt a glowing coil that she had stung into the cedar was gone, but in its place rose a blaze of foot high!
A little distance off, she saw a seagull back to where she had crunched the end of the fuse. The wind had fanned an unseen spark to life.
The first she saw was a rather higher, sending out greedy tongues that licked at her body. In a moment she was surrounded, and raised her torn hands and struck and beat the iron thing before her. The cuts on her knuckles and fingers were bleeding. She was losing the power to feel pain. Salty tears ran into the corners of her eyes. From her lips came a wild, almost incoherent cry.

Then it came, without warning—a trembling of the earth. Thunder rolled in his ears. The dam was gone. They were down, knocked flat. My Man went to his knees. Pieces of rock, from the size of a pea to big jagged fragments of granite that would have killed had they struck, rained about them. Water splashed down in sheets. Mercedes did not move. Kildare rolled her over and over. The girl's body was cold; her pulse seemed to have stopped. Blaze slapped her face, and beat her with the fist of his hands. He continually raised her arms to expand her lungs.

WIFE DOING GOOD WORK

"I have been had off with stomach and liver trouble and bloating for many years. No doctor or medicine helped me. On the advice of my druggist, I bought a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and I don't want to take a single dose. It has given me more benefit than all the medicine I have ever taken. I feel I am doing good to recommend it to others. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the assimilation of food, thus practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will constructively cleanse the bowels. Mack Taylor and Druggists everywhere. (adv.)"

Several sub-contractors who have been at work on the irrigation project are leaving this week with their forces and equipment for Wyoming where they will work on a new railroad. Meine Brothers, Callahan & Walker, Shackelford & Murphy and R. C. Martin are among the sub-contractors who are going, all having completed the portions of the work here for which they had contracted. The Wyoming rail project is one in which C. N. Haskell, former governor of Oklahoma, is interested. It will comprise about 100 miles and will serve the Teapot Dome oil country.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, MAY 2.—Mexicans in San Antonio will gather May 5 in the annual "Cinco de Mayo" celebration. The celebration is to commemorate the battle of Puebla, when Gen. Ignacio Zaragoza defeated French occupation forces, May 5, 1862.

Notice to Oil Producers

Run Your Power Plant with a Crude Oil Carburetor.

Our crude oil carburetor will run your pumping station on the vapor from your crude oil. It does not burn any oil, but just the light vapors, which are an absolute loss, unless utilized in a crude oil carburetor.

We practically run your power without cost. Guaranteed to do the work, or it costs you nothing. Let us give you a demonstration.
