THICE CONDEMNED TO DIE SIX NEGROES HAVE THEIR LIBERTY

CONTRADICTION OF ORDERS BRING ABOUT THEIR RELEASE MONDAY. AGREED BEFORE LEAVING TO MEET WITH ATTORNEY

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 24. (AP)—Six negroes, twice sentenced by Arkansas courts to be electrocuted after being convicted of murder in connection with the Elaine massacre in 1917, were granted their liberty today, as a misunderstanding of contradiction of orders having brought about their release, and unexpectedly as they stood knocking at the outside gates of the state penitentiary near here. Sheriff A. C. Callaway of the Lee county had brought them from the jail at Marianna on orders from Judge E. D. Robertson in the Lee county circuit court, he said. Warden Hump Martin had no orders to receive them, he said, and refused to admit them. They were set free. Recovering their bewilderment, the six, with attendant relatives and attorneys, climbed into automobiles to return to Little Rock and spend the night as they pleased since three and a half years ago they were arrested and charged with complicity in the uprising which resulted in the death of several white persons and an undetermined number of negroes. An opinion of the Arkansas supreme court yesterday directed the dismissal of the charges against the negroes on representation of a defense counsel which asserted that two terms of court in Lee county, where their trial had been set had passed without their having been brought to trial. The negroes, Joe W. Fox, John Martin, Alf Banks, Albert Giles and Will Wordlaw, agreed before leaving the penitentiary grounds that they would meet in the office of an attorney in Little Rock at 11 o'clock this morning. Further action on their status is expected at that time. Six other negro defendants in the Elaine affair are in the penitentiary here awaiting trial. Judge Triebel on their attorneys' habeas corpus plea which was based on the alleged violation of the Phillips clause of the locality of the insurrection.

Paving of Ten Blocks in the Residential Section of City Is Ordered By City Council Monday
Three bids on the repaving of one block of Indiana were opened and discussed at the Monday night meeting of the city council. The council is calling for bids to award the contract. Bids on brick and bituminous pavement were received from the Plains, Jordan and West Texas paving companies. A bid from the Plains Paving Company of $5,945 was the lowest of the three bids submitted and provided for a standard brick pavement over the old base. It was also specified in the bid that the city would furnish the portion of the labor and material for the work. Jordan Construction Company of Memphis, Texas, agreed to pave with brick for $7,157.30. West Texas Construction Company submitted two bids calling for different specifications. The bid on the bituminous pavement was $7,310.50 and $2,314.44; the difference in the cost was due to different thicknesses of the topping to be used. In submitting its bid the company requested that unless the street car rails were reconstructed the street car rails be reconstructed. The letter attached to the bid said "a good permanent improvement by reconstructing the street car rails cannot be had unless the street car rails are repaired in a way that will reduce the present movement of them." Paving of approximately 10 blocks in the residential section was declared a public necessity and the city clerk was authorized to call for bids to be opened on July 9. A petition from property owners on Eighth from Pittsburg to Denver, a distance of six blocks, on Van Buren from Sixth to Eighth, two blocks, and on Eighth from Rose to Denver, requested the council to declare the paving of these streets a public necessity and to ask for bids.

The council adopted resolutions calling for profiles and specifications from the city engineer, and authorized the city clerk to advertise for bids on all classes of paving. Bids were also called for on the paving of Lamar avenue from Seventh to Eighth streets, in response to a petition from tax payers in that section. Bids will be opened on July 9. I. E. Whitham was awarded a contract for the paving of 60 feet of concrete pavement between Brook and Bayon on Collins. The work called for in the contract is a strip that was left in the original pavement. A public hearing of protests on the paving of Huff, Thirteenth and Clark streets was continued for the second reading with-out objection. Several members of the water department, was discussed at length, but no action was taken. The ordinance met with opposition at a previous meeting and no amendments have been made. PLAN ENDURANCE AND SPEED TESTS AT FLYING FIELD

INCLUDES REFUELING IN MID-AIR AND OTHER FLYING THRILLS.

REMEDY ONE FAULT IN TRIAL FLIGHT MONDAY

Expect to Fly Day and Night at 90 Miles An Hour For Endurance Record.

SAN DIEGO, CAL., June 25 (AP)—Final tuning up of two airplanes, picked to serve in a thrilling test of endurance and speed tomorrow, formed today's program at Rockwell Field, where Captain Lowell Smith and Lieutenant John P. Richter, by flying day and night, and taking on fuel while rushing through the air at 90 miles an hour, hope to smash all records for endurance.

For one airplane to take on something of a task. He remembers that a few drops of gasoline, if sprinkled a few feet apart, while rushing through the air and that it takes a certain amount of time to adjust the supply tank to the tank of the airplane below. But the aviators at Rockwell Field and particularly Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter, who are going to be in a dangerous position in the test of flying in mid-air, speaking of that usually as a part of a day's work. They have done it once in several experiments.

They will have to refuel that way if they are to keep their fast airplanes in the air for four days and four nights, and they are going to use all their skill and experience to do it right.

Preliminary refueling in mid-air

"Efforts the agreement was reached to pay me $90 a month," said Mrs. Snyder, "he had told me that he would give me $180 a month. When I came to work, however, we agreed on $90 a month. When I approached Mr. Murphy about the $150 a day allowed me by this court in an order passed on January 2, he said that he had to pay the jailer more money than the county allowed him and that he thought it was alright only to pay me $90 a month."

Judge Sartin then turned to Mr. Snyder who was in the court room and said "The court passed an order allowing all of Mr. Murphy's deputies $150 a month, how much are you getting Mr. Snyder for waiting on the courts?" Mr. Snyder answered that he was only getting $125 a month.

ON BROOKLYN LINE

RAILS WERE 30 YEARS OLD AND CARS USED 35 TO

SEVEN PEOPLE KILLED
MORE THAN 50 INJURED

Mayor Will Demand Removal of Commission and Officials of Line.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Following the wreck in which two cars of the Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit Company, filled with passengers, plunged from the elevated tracks on two automobiles in the street below, killing at least seven and injuring more than 50 persons, Mayor Hylan announced that he would make an immediate demand on Governor Smith to call a special session of the New York legislature to urge the removal of the public service commission and officials of the transit company.

Within two hours after the wreck and while the mangled bodies of the dead and wounded were still being dragged from the splintered coaches, officials of the elevated line notified Mayor Hylan that the New York's old wooden "elevated" cars are to be replaced at once with all steel coaches.

The present rails have been up since the road was built about 25 years ago," said Mayor Hylan. "The cars that were wrecked were from 25 to 40 years old."

Recalls Transit Disaster. The wreck today, though on a smaller scale, recalls the Malbone street tunnel disaster on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit lines, November 1, 1918, when 99 were killed and 212 were injured.

Then, as now, Mayor Hylan insisted that officials of the line were responsible and sitting as a magistrate he held preliminary hearings, following which the Brooklyn Rapid Transit officials were indicted. They were not convicted, however. The wrecked train, carrying more than 90 passengers, jumped the rails, ran along the ties for 50 feet or more, broke through the weak guard rail, and plunged off the trestle to the busy street below. The dragging out of the dead and the hurt went on for many minutes. Strange tales of escape and rescue soon began to be whispered along with the crows of throngs that which brought death to others.

Tells of His Experience. A. J. Ryan, 61 Ashbury Park, N. J., told his impression as he was hurried through the air: "I was only a few feet from the front of the wrecked train when I saw it just as there came a screeching and grinding noise which I thought at first came from applying the emergency brakes, a 14-year-old girl near me became panic stricken, I noticed her jump for the window and I grabbed her by the dress."

"A moment later we fell to the street with a bang and a splintering of wood and glass. We hit the forward part of a big truck demolishing the front wheels and hood, but the driver escaped. We hit the truck, which was above me. I did not seem to have been hurt."

Men Went Wild. "As soon as the train jumped," he said, "the people in the car started in wild flight for the back of the car. Women were screaming and men went wild."

"When I found the car swinging to the left, I grabbed for a strap and hung on for dear life. I was still hanging to the strap when the train fell. When we hit the ground, the passengers came tumbling over me and glass from the windows was flying everywhere. Some of it cut the straw of my hat to ribbons."

Mayor Hylan was soon on the scene. Edward Parcell, motorman of the wrecked train was taken into custody while the mayor was investigating the wreck. The mayor saw an old pal of his own railroad days.

"Hello, Ed," said Mayor Hylan. "Hello, your honor," said Ed as he was led away under arrest to be later charged with homicide.

FORD TO CONSIDER
NOMINATION IF BY RESPONSIBLE PARTY

DETROIT, Mich., June 25. (AP)—Henry Ford would give serious consideration to an offer of the presidential nomination by any responsible person or party before rejecting or accepting it, according to E. G. Leibold, his general secretary. Mr. Leibold added that no such offer had been made to Mr. Ford.

The statement was made in connection with a letter made public yesterday by E. S. Fuller of Savannah, which quoted Mr. Leibold as saying Mr. Ford had no objection to further activities supporting him for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Leibold declined to verify the letter, saying he would not be sure of its authenticity without seeing the original or searching through his files for a copy.

"They have been thousands of letters in connection with Mr. Ford and the presidency," he said. "About 100 such letters are received daily. It is hard to say if the Savannah letter is authentic for this reason."

The trade trippers arrived at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning over the M. K. and T. and shortly after the train arrived, Wichita Falls was advised that a band of men with much pep were present.

Says Rag Pickers
Fighting Law For
"Truth In Fabric"

DEL RIO, June 24. (AP)—The fight in Washington and in Austin over the "truth-in-fabric" bill is a battle of rag pickers, the shoddy manufacturer, the unscrupulous merchant, against the sheep raisers and the public at large. Claude A. Brooms, San Angelo, president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, declared here today at the opening session of the eighth annual convention.

"The opposition to this measure comes from the manufacturers who buy the woolen rags from the sheep heap, the junk shops and the back doors," he said. "This measure had the endorsement of our national organization and every other organization touching our industry and should have been made into a law in Texas where one-tenth of the sheep in the United States are located."

Establishment of woolen and mohair mills in the southwest will materially increase the profit percentage of the producers to what it belongs, President Brooms said. Of every 100 cents paid by consumers for food and clothing, the producer gets only 10 cents, he asserted.

PROPOSE TO ESTABLISH
'BETTER GROCERS BUREAU'
ON FOOD DISTRIBUTION

ST. PAUL, June 24. (AP)—A movement which experts assert will mark the beginning of a new era in retail food distribution in the United States was launched at today's session of the annual convention of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Detailed plans for a "better grocers bureau" which will undertake to improve fundamental conditions in the present system of food distribution were presented to the delegates by a committee which has worked for the past 13 months developing the project.

"Textbooks or educational courses are to be compiled," it was stated, "and standards are to be established and grocers are to be classified. Ultimately it is hoped and contemplated that the unfit, incompetent and the inexperienced may be kept from getting into the business."

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., June 24. (AP)—Missouri's new dry law, which was passed by the legislature yesterday and became effective yesterday, is one of the most stringent state prohibition acts in the nation, its exponents declared today. The law provides drastic regulation of so-called "soft drink" bars, provides heavy fines and jail sentences for county and city officers who fail to enforce the law and exacts heavy penalties from those violating the prohibition act. A penalty of two years in the state penitentiary is provided for any person who uses in any way a still, worm, doubler or other distilling or brewing equipment for the manufacture of intoxicating liquors. The possession of distilling or brewing equipment in made a misdemeanor punishable by a jail sentence ranging from thirty days to a year, or by fines from $100 to $1,000.

During the program and social meeting of the circle Mrs. F. R. Collier gave a piano solo, Mrs. J. J. Houser a violin selection, and Mrs. Jerry Schaefer sang a song, all of which were much enjoyed. The hostess served ice cream and individual food cakes.

Meeting with Mrs. Titusa.
A meeting was held with Mrs. H. C. Tilden on Hays, and twenty members were present, with two visitors. Mrs. Hubert Harrison gave the devotional, taking a beautiful lesson from the 101st Psalm, and closing with a prayer. Mrs. H. W. Houser sang the hymn, "The Lord is My Shepherd," and a free will offering of $9.75 was collected.

Circle Two.
Mrs. Ray Bourland was hostess to the members of Circle Two. Mrs. W. H. Davis led in prayer, and after several victrola selections Mrs. T. L. Mevies opened the study meeting with the devotional service. The members repeated their favorite scriptures verses, and Mrs. Bourland taught the lesson from the stewardship of Life, bringing out the fact that a man may own millions and still be poor if he has not the love of God in his heart.

The circle voted to hold only one Bible study meeting each month during the summer. The members present included: Meadames T. W. Willis, Florence Cullen, F. T. Taylor, W. R. Higgs, W. C. Brown, E. L. The Tangle

Letter From Leslie Prescott to Her Friend, Sally Atherton
Dear Sally:
I know of course that dad would help you over your trouble, for you have always been to him just like one of his own daughters. He said to me he had given me this check for two thousand dollars, which I am enclosing:
"You tell that little girl to keep a stiff upper lip and I'll see that she gets through."
"Tell her to send her husband where he will, but the care of the best specialists and if she feels that it is too hard for her to keep her position, to throw it up and just turn her attention to that great big foolish boy that she married."
And here, Sally dear, is something that I would like to see you read. A couple of thousand dollars and I am sending one of them to you. I want you to use this, not for Sam but for yourself, and I am going to ask you to do something that you may think is foolish with it.
I want you to buy a couple of pretty frocks and above all two nifty hats. There is nothing in this world that makes a woman feel quite so good as to have a couple of absolutely friendly frocks to go around in shabby clothes.
Knowing you as I do, dear Sally, I expect that is just exactly what you are doing at the present moment while you are spending every cent you can rake and scrape to get Sam back where he can see again. Don't think I am frivolous, dear, or silly to ask you to do this. I know exactly the effect it will have upon your spirits and I also want you to know that I am not one of your fair weather friends. I had not only promised you, but told me to write you in this letter that anything you need or want to make you comfortable is yours.
Give my love to your mother. Beatrice Grimshaw sent me a letter that he wrote her that was very despairing.

Stir Created at Memphis Revival With Arrival of Klan Delegation Members of Congregation Protest

Special to The Times.
MEMPHIS, TEXAS, June 24.—A sensational ending was given the Entsmenger revival meetings, which closed here Sunday night, when a delegation of 20 Ku Klux appeared at the opening of services and presented the evangelist with a letter and an envelope containing money.
Upon the appearance of the klansmen, Dr. Ballew, a prominent physician and leader in the First Baptist church, made a vigorous objection to their presence. In a speech directed to the pastor, Rev. Chas. T. Whaley, he made the statement that the invasion was unwarranted and that the pastor could and should have prevented. He told the evangelist that if he would reject the donation he Ballew would double the amount from his own pocket.
A lady member of the church demanded of the pastor letters of withdrawal from the organization for herself, her husband and children. A man in the audience declared that if the visitors should unmask the features of three well-known local "woman-chasers" would be disclosed.
The klansmen marched down the center aisle in double file and turned with their backs together, facing either side of the tabernacle. They remained in this position some five or ten minutes while the minister was attempting to read their communication amid frequent interruptions from objectors. Very little of what the evangelist read could be understood, but the communication was said to be along the usual lines of such communications, commending the work and endorsing religious teachings.
The incident has aroused considerable feeling, particularly among members of the First Baptist church, many of the members of which are strongly opposed to the Ku Klux. The feeling is aggravated by the alleged fact that there has been an understanding among church officials that no such demonstration should be allowed.
Married at Cleardon.
Mr. Roy Guthrie and Miss Elsie Bass were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother at Cleardon. The bride holds the position of superintendent of public instruction in Hall county. The groom is an employe of the First National bank of this city. The marriage came as a surprise to the friends of the young couple, both of whom are well-known and popular throughout this section.
DESIRE FOR FINE CLOTHES LANDS NEGRESS IN JAIL
A desire to be well dressed and to shine socially at a festival in the negro quarter Monday night landed a young negress in the city jail and resulted in charges of burglary being filed against her Tuesday afternoon.
At 11 o'clock Monday night, a call from the home of J. H. Murphy reported that the home had been entered and Mrs. Murphy's wardrobe ransacked. Mrs. Murphy had been away from home and upon returning found that the house had been entered and an evening dress and cape taken.

In less than an hour after the theft was reported, the police located the woman attired in all of the stolen garments, at a negro dance hall. The clothing was identified by the owner and a confession was obtained from the negress. The woman was at one time employed in the Murphy home and was familiar with the place, police said.

Mrs. Autrey Says Stella Vitae Keeps Her Young and in Vigorous Health

"I reckon I am a Stella Vitae crank, but this splendid medicine is what keeps me young and able at 74 to do all my housework," said Mrs. M. C. Autrey, a well known and highly respected resident of Hooks, Texas, the other day. "I was badly run down and suffered constantly from pains in my back which hurt so I thought they would kill me. I was just miserable from one day to another and felt like my end was drawing near. One day an old lady stopped to see me and told me about Stella Vitae and I sent and got three bottles. They helped me and so much I sent for three more and became sound and strong again."
Stella Vitae may be obtained from any drugstore and the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief. Tipton's Drug Store, and Miller's Drug Store—Adv.

"My face began to break out with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were scattered all over my face and were hard, very large, and red. They scaled over and itched and burned so badly that I could not sleep. People began to tell me how awful my face looked. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and after using one box of Ointment with the Soap, I was healed." The name of a dealer who says that any imitation is like Palmolive Soap. Not for prosecution, but to correct him—for the good of all concerned.

Common soaps are colored, shaped and named to make folks think they get Palmolive virtues in them. But they do not bring what you seek—what you buy Palmolive for. They are nothing like Palmolive.

Stop and think. There are countless soaps. But Palmolive has become the leading toilet soap of the world.

It brings envied complexions. Then users tell others about it. Millions of beauty lovers now employ it daily. All because of a palm and olive oil blend which our experts alone have perfected.

Now some makers try to deceive you. They make soaps to look like Palmolive, with a name of some similar sound. Just because women prize Palmolive. They want the benefits it brings. So the way to sell you common soap is to make it seem Palmolive.

If Palmolive is the soap you want, be careful that you get it. This is the soap that won world-wide fame by fostering fine complexions.

This is the quality soap—a 25-cent quality—which volume produces for 10 cents, so all folks may enjoy it.

This is the oil blend that does for your skin what every woman wants. If you ever find a better soap, get it. A soft, rosy skin is worth any price you pay.

But avoid deception. Don't buy an ordinary soap made to look or to sound like Palmolive. That cheats you of something you prize. Look at the name and wrapper.

EUROPE FARTHER FROM PEACE NOW THAN WHEN ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED—SIMMS

This is the first of a series of articles by Wm. Philip Simms, noted war correspondent and author of "The War in Europe," recently completed a study of post-war conditions in Europe for NEA, Service and Wichita Daily Times. These articles summarize his findings.

By WM. PHILIP SIMMS NEA Service Writer Wounds laid open by the world war are not healing. They have only turned into sores, with nerves exposed and in danger of becoming chronic.

Europe and the world is farther from peace today than they were a year ago and much farther from peace than they were the day the armistice was signed in November, 1918.

All the elements for bringing on a crash of terrifying proportions are present in Europe.

I have just landed back in America after visiting 12 different European countries, where I talked with presidents and chancellors, prime ministers and dictators, generalissimo, business men and plain folk, and what I heard—not always for publication—from all these is enough to make your flesh creep.

There is scarcely a country in Europe where the people are not in a ferment of unrest.

Before the war, Europe had a "Balkan" trouble some, little war-breeding section down in its southeastern corner.

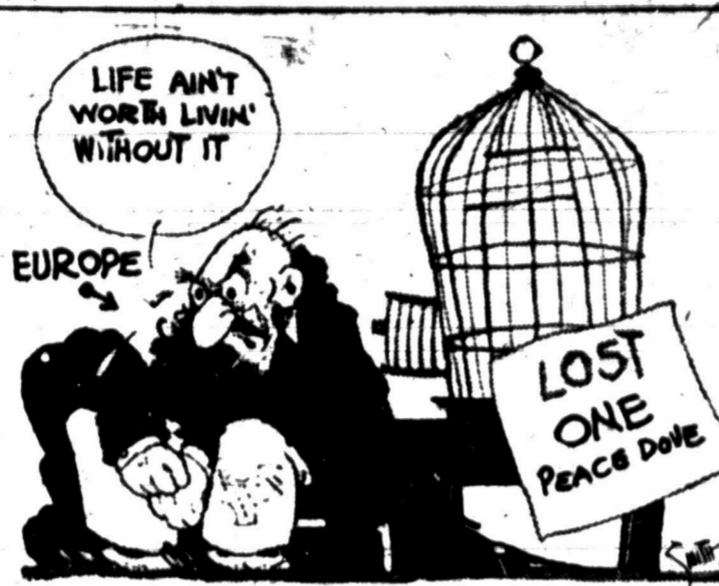

Now all Europe is a Balkans. The principal reason why hostilities do not commence at once is that most of the powers are afraid to make the first move, because of their size, or internal conditions, and the rest do not think the moment propitious.

Europe is like a room full of big and little burglars quarreling over a small amount of swag. The little fellows are afraid to start anything until somebody throws a brick at the lamp and puts out the light, they are all ready to pitch in, hoping in the general melee, to get away with something.

All "Great Powers" are in a state of ferment. The people want to go back to work with a feeling of security—without the sanker of fear of war and invasions gnawing at their vitals by day and by night and keeping them from earning their daily bread.

The one great obstacle to peace is the legacy of hate left to every man, woman and child in Europe by the world war. This and the natural suspicion each nation has for any peace project put forward by any other European nation.

The one great need of Europe is for some great moral force to make its presence felt among the hate- and suspicion-filled countries and point out a road to settlement. As things stand now, there is not a

BERGER SAVES DAY WITH HOMER IN NINTH WITH TWO GONE

George Stuekel Breaks In With Well Earned 3 to 2 Verdict Over Exporters in Last Game of Series

Maybe it wasn't the best ball game that ever has been played at Athletic Park. But it was one of the best. The one which the Spudgers won, 3 to 2, Monday afternoon from Pop Kitchens' Exporters is the one referred to. Almost like the story book, it was the last half of the ninth inning, two were down with a man on first and the home town was a run behind. Joe Berger, the "Bad Eagle" from the Western League, is the hero in this particular story. Josephus connected with one of Joe Bradshaw's offerings and the ball sailed far over the leftfield wall. Denver Grigby, who had gone to first on a base knock, trotted in ahead of Josephus and another ball game was registered in the won column.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

CHICAGO, June 25.—The National League work turned Monday but made little progress. It meant that Philadelphia, the lowest centipede in the major leagues, came within an ace of defeating New York, which ran its string of victories to seven, 11 to 0, and that Boston, after dropping a series to the Giants, smote Brooklyn, 7 to 4. Jess Barnes finally won a game for his new manager, Ed Delmonico.

Ed Delmonico, White Sox second baseman, stole his 35th base and now is far in front of the base stealers. With Kamm, Big Falk and Early, St. Louis is 1 to 1. Fred Toney was in uniform, apparently puffed after his tilt with his teammate Tuppercup.

Babe Ruth rejoined his teammates, clearing up his mysterious absence at Sunday's exhibition game at New York. He pitched a boy's excuse that he overslept, and the Yankees beat Boston, 14 to 4. They needed—Philadelphia, St. Louis, 2 to 1. Fred Toney was in uniform, apparently puffed after his tilt with his teammate Tuppercup.

Whether the ball glanced off Stuekel's bat or not, Blischoff never had made that throw to third. Tanner did not think it was a foul or he certainly would never have made that throw to third. Tanner did not think it was a foul or he certainly would never have made that throw to third.

It was simply one of those breaks that turned out the wrong way. Blischoff, casually, to do it. Blischoff, casually, to do it. Blischoff, casually, to do it.

Freddie Boons broke out in a new role. He now is chief money baseman for the club. He now is chief money baseman for the club. He now is chief money baseman for the club.

Fans in the stands made varied guesses as to the amount collected and showered on the field. One said it would be $1,000. Another said it would be $1,000. Another said it would be $1,000.

Stuekel certainly was deserving of a victory if any hurler ever was. He was the best pitching performance witnessed at Athletic Park this season. He was the best pitching performance witnessed at Athletic Park this season.

Staging of Title Bout at Shelby on Fourth Smacks of Tragedy

By DAMON RYUNTON. Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Copyright, 1923.

SHELBY, Mont., June 24.—Something that strikes the writer as touching on tragedy is going on in the little town of Shelby, still in the blood ray of municipal life.

It is the tragedy of a big idea that failed to grow up. If you ever heard of a town that failed, this is indeed tragedy. Sitting in a small room in a frame hotel last night, we heard the story of the Shelby fight.

It seems reasonably certain as it is written that the Dempsey-Gibbons fight will take place in Shelby, Mont. It is a tragedy of a big idea that failed to grow up.

Through an open window we could see the lights of Shelby. The Shelby fight is a tragedy of a big idea that failed to grow up.

A small group of men in Shelby wanted to do something big, wanted to attract attention to their little town. They had nothing in particular to sell. Oil has been discovered near Shelby.

Then, suddenly, it seems to have been a dream quite in the background. It was a tragedy of a big idea that failed to grow up.

NEW ORLEANS, June 24.—There will be no bull fight here or elsewhere in New Orleans. Local sponsors of the proposed attraction Monday night having called off the dogs.

The Lookout

Monday's game near losing Monday's ball game for the Spudgers is causing as much comment among the fans as the one which was the game, the latter being Josephus Berger's clout over the garden wall.

Some are prone to call it a "dinner" on the part of Blischoff, but the Lookout hardly can view it in that light. It was the queerest break in the game.

Whether the ball glanced off Stuekel's bat or not, Blischoff never had made that throw to third. Tanner did not think it was a foul or he certainly would never have made that throw to third.

Freddie Boons broke out in a new role. He now is chief money baseman for the club. He now is chief money baseman for the club. He now is chief money baseman for the club.

Fans in the stands made varied guesses as to the amount collected and showered on the field. One said it would be $1,000. Another said it would be $1,000. Another said it would be $1,000.

Stuekel certainly was deserving of a victory if any hurler ever was. He was the best pitching performance witnessed at Athletic Park this season.

OFFICIALS OF GAS COMPANY CONFER WITH CITY COUNCIL

RATES REQUESTED EXPLAINED BY J. W. HASSELL, GENERAL ATTORNEY.

MONTHLY CHARGE OF $1 TO BE ABOLISHED

"Readiness-to-Serve" Charge Of 50 Cents Takes Place Former Minimum.

Officials of the Municipal Gas Company met with the city council at the Monday night session with the formal petition to allow the company to assess a "readiness-to-serve" charge of 50 cents per month on each of the 5,540 meters in the city.

C. B. McKinney, president; J. B. McCabe, secretary; and J. W. Hassell, attorney, were the representatives of the company present at the meeting. S. A. L. Morgan, local attorney for the company, introduced J. W. Hassell, attorney for the Municipal Gas Company, who was formerly state railroad commission. Mr. Hassell read the petition and submitted the company's case to the council.

Judge Hassell pointed out in the petition that it was the duty of the city council to set the rates and charges made by the company at a figure which would allow them a "fair and equitable return on the investment." The company operated in this city during the past year at a loss, he stated, and with the present charges would continue to operate at a loss.

The petition called attention to the desirability of a 50 cent "readiness-to-serve" charge in place of a raise in rates. A point which had not been explained to the council

WILL SET COUNTY TAX RATE FRIDAY WHEN BOARD MEETS

Upon the promise of County Tax Assessor Irvin Deaton that he would complete totaling the valuations of the county, as they appear on the tax rolls for 1922 by Thursday, the county commissioners met Friday afternoon to meet Friday and set the tax rate for the county.

In the meantime County Treasurer T. W. McMillan and County Auditor H. F. Walsh will confer with County Judge B. D. Sartin and will arrive at definite figures for a budget for each of the various funds.

Mr. Deaton stated that a check up of the property owners whose surcharges begin with any one of the first seven letters of the alphabet showed a loss of a million dollars under that of 1921. With this as a basis the rolls will probably show a loss of four million dollars, or a total valuation of $61,000,000.
