VISITS HOME STATE OF SENATOR BORAH

It is about the greatest inspiration there is in life.
"If I were going to give a new name to the boys and girls who are listening to me at this moment, I would call them always to have a pride in what they undertake to do in life, for pride in accomplishment is always impelling humanity forward."
"Oh, it has been good to see you, and I wish I could leave with you an adequate impression of the hope and wonderful day we have here. It is good to come so far from this great center and find this distinctly American population working so hard and so confidently in the making of a greater America."
"You live in a wonderful state and you people of Utah are truly 'empire builders.' I am sorry I was not here today that the resources of Utah were so great and her industries so varied that although a wall were built around the state, shutting it off from the world, yet her people could live within and be a part of it. It is impossible to have a great country where one section prospers at the expense of another; we cannot have a country where one class of its citizenship is doing well while another is suffering. We can only have a happy, contented and thriving people when the common weal is in fact the common weal and everybody is a participant in the common good fortune. I wish you your share of the common good fortune of the United States of America."

Never drag it with a tiny blade. "Corn shaver" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, every corn, or corn between the toes, with the softness, without soreness or irritation.—Adv.

CONTEST "EXCESSIVE" FLOGGING CHARGE IN HIGGINBOTHAM CASE

LAKE CITY, Fla., June 23. (AP)—Efforts by the state to show that "excessive" flogging given Martin Tabert, young North Dakotan, by Thomas Higginbotham was directly responsible for Tabert's death, were vigorously fought today when the trial of the former convict whipping boss of the Putnam Lumber Company was resumed. Higginbotham is under indictment for murder in connection with Tabert's death.
The defense made no effort to deny that Tabert was whipped by Higginbotham, but will attempt to show that the prisoner was whipped in accordance with prison regulations which specify punishment by 10 lashes. The contention of the defense is that Tabert's death was caused primarily by pneumonia. Witnesses have testified that he was given from 16 to 17 lashes by Higginbotham.

GREGG GIBSON IS ASSASSINATED BY LIQUOR SMUGGLER

SAN ANTONIO, June 23. (AP)—Gregg Gibson, wealthy ranchman of Duval county, was assassinated yesterday afternoon by a notorious liquor smuggler who killed the ranchman in order to gain possession of the horse Mr. Gibson was riding, that he might escape customs officers, rangers and county officers who Monday had broken up a smuggler's gang and were running members of the gang to earth.
Gibson's body was found this morning after searching parties headed by the sheriff of Duval and Live Oak counties and other officers had conducted a search for him since late yesterday. Gibson had been shot in the back of the head while riding on his father's ranch, situated about 11 miles from Del Rio.

Witnesses were immediately organized under personal direction of Roy Campbell, collector of customs, and are searching the border country. The identity of the assassin is known and his apprehension is believed certain. Feeling is tense among the residents of the district where Gibson lived.
Gibson's body was found in the brush near a windmill. It is believed he was just watered his horse at the tank and that he was shot by the smuggler who was hiding in the brush. "The Most It Is Possible For Anyone To Give For The Money!"

"The most for the money!" It is a statement that is frequently flaunted in the eyes of a credulous public. What does it mean?
At the best, it can mean no more than that the merchant will give the most HE CAN in goods for the money you pay. Upon his ability to GIVE rests the true worth of the statement so far as you are interested.
If the merchant enjoys all the advantages of cash buying in large quantities direct from the lending shops, mills and factories of the country, he can select merchandise of reliable quality and buy at a price that will insure you a good value. "The most for YOUR money," you see, depends upon his ability to buy most for HIS money.
For all their present 371 Department Stores and the large number of new stores they will open this year, the J. C. Penney Company requires enormous quantities of goods; in round figures, something like $65,000,000 worth.
Naturally the best of everything the market affords is available to us. Thus goods of reliable quality are bought at prices which cash and large quantities earn.
Here the oft-repeated statement needs to be made to read: "The most it is possible for anyone to give for the money!"

SENATOR HARRISON SPEAKS AT VERNON ROTARY LUNCHEON

VERNON, TEXAS, June 28.—United States Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi spoke at the Vernon Rotary Club Tuesday afternoon. He was introduced to the Rotarians by the past president of the club, Roy D. L. Killough.

Senator Harrison spoke on some of the questions now before the American people and which will probably come up at the next congressional session. He favored introducing a bill to prohibit the publishing of any newspaper in the United States in any foreign language. He stated our balance of trade for the past three months had been against the United States and that this was the first time for some 20 years that this had occurred.

Dr. J. E. Dodson, Sr., was buried in East View cemetery Tuesday afternoon. He died in Dallas at the home of his daughter, Dr. Dodson had been a practicing physician in Vernon for a number of years. He was sick for several months but prior to that time had been active in the practice.

Dr. Dodson was 76 years old and was a graduate of Vanderbilt University. He had been married three times. His first wife was Mary Byron Thomas, who died in Oklahoma years ago. His next marriage was after he came to Vernon to Miss Lucy Lee of Decatur who lived only a few years after their marriage. He married again in 1902 to Miss Ida Buford, who died April 21, 1921.

His children were present at his death in Dallas and attended the funeral here. They are: Dr. James E. Dodson Jr. of Vernon, Robert E. Dodson of San Antonio, Mrs. Fannie Lomas of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Byron Fisher of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Jessie Squires of Dallas, Mecks Dodson of Ranger, Clara Dodson of Dallas, Dr. Ewing Dodson of Swanton, Ark.

The Vernon Company has made $10,000 worth of improvements at their ice cream factory on Marshall street. They have increased the capacity of the plant to 500 gallons of ice cream per day. The cooling which requires no ice is kept at a temperature of zero. The milk is pasteurized at a temperature of 150 degrees, cooled to 50 degrees and then frozen by means of pipes which pass through the mixture. Then it goes in to a huge freezer where it is frozen solidly. The ice cream is untouched by hands during the entire process. All milk and cream used is furnished by local dairies and is thoroughly tested before it is used.

Misses Gertrude and Willie Galbraith and their brother, Hugh Galbraith, are doing a large volume of business since the installation of the new equipment. Tuesday was the hottest day experienced during the summer by Vernon folks and in addition to the extreme heat the city was without water in the residence district and downtown for several hours in the evening.

THREE ARE ELIGIBLE FOR DENTON POSTMANSHIP WASHINGTON, June 28.—Eligible for the Denton postmanship, announced as a result of a civil service examination, are: Ray Bishop, John F. Schmitts and Robert H. Pender.

IOWA PARK HAS HEARTY WELCOME FOR AMARILLANS

IOWA PARK, TEXAS, June 28.—On Tuesday morning at 8:45 when the special train, bearing more than 150 Amarillo trade trippers arrived in Iowa Park, they found a rousing welcome awaiting them. More than 100 business men and ladies of the city were on hand proclaiming to the bunch from the "windy city" that Iowa Park, the gateway to the big irrigated valley, was very much alive.

The local chamber of commerce had been apprised of the coming of the special train, both by letter and wire, and committees arranged to meet the train upon its arrival. Both men and women wore cards designating the name of the wearer, his firm, etc., and in the case of the ladies, their likes and dislikes were shown. Some eight or ten ladies wearing placards bearing the inscription "Old Maids Club" made a decided hit as did others of the girls of the city, all of whom marched in the parade with Klara Temple Band members.

The delegation from Amarillo was headed by Toney (Sheik) Chisum, and music was furnished by the band mentioned above. The trippers were in charge of Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of trade extension committee of the Board of City Development, and O. V. Vernon, secretary of the Board of City Development, who promoted the trip. The party was on the last leg of a trip through Southwest Oklahoma and Northwest Texas, and it was one of the largest delegations that has visited the city.

Many compliments were heard from members of the party on the warm reception tendered them by Iowa Park, and as one member put it upon learning of the population of the town, "this is the liveliest town of 2,500 people on the Fort Worth and Denver." Unanimously they agreed that this was the most cordial reception they had received on their entire trip.

Manager Arnold of the chamber of commerce delivered a few words of welcome, stressing the spirit of co-operation that is found in all West Texas communities, and Iowa Park's future under irrigation, promising to furnish to Amarillo, when she had reached a population of 200,000, all the produce which might be desired. Mayor J. C. Hisee also addressed the gathering. These words were responded to by Ernest O. Thompson, who paid glowing tributes to Iowa Park's hospitality, and considerable pep singing was indulged in. The special train pulled out at 10:30 for Electra and other stops on the return trip.

Word has been received by W. R. Arnold of the illness of his mother at Lueders, Texas. At a late hour Mr. Arnold was awaiting word before leaving for her bedside.

Miss Lillie Morgan of Wichita Falls was a visitor in here, Tuesday. Mrs. Morgan was for years associated with Iowa Park, this being originally her trading point for the many years she was a resident of the Morgan farm on Red river.

E. W. Alley, formerly a resident of this place, but now cashier of a bank at Medley, Texas, has sold his residence in Block E to Curtis Sewell, manager of Marcus Brothers.

AMARILLO TRADE EXCURSION GIVEN HEARTY WELCOME

MEMPHIS, TEXAS, June 28.—AMARILLO trade excursionists were given a hearty welcome here on the arrival of their special train at 8:45 yesterday morning. A delegation of Memphis business men accompanied by the Memphis band met the train and escorted them uptown, where they were welcomed in a speech by W. B. Quigley of the Citizens State Bank. E. O. Thompson responded to this address and introduced Congressman Marvin Jones who extended an invitation to the Amarillo Tri-State Fair.

The excursionists, who were accompanied by the Klara Shrine band of Amarillo, paraded around the square, spending more than an hour here.

Burn is Burned. A large barn on the George Sawyer ranch four miles west of Memphis, was destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. Included in the loss was seven tons of ground feed and an oat crop, just harvested and stored in the upper story, where the fire originated. The total loss is estimated at $3,500, partially covered by insurance.

Web Worms in Cotton. Bob Nelson, a prominent farmer of the Newlin neighborhood, in Memphis yesterday, said that web worms were attacking the cotton in that section and that it was feared that serious damage might result, especially to the fields infested with weeds.

Wife of Editor Dies. Mrs. Mattie Johnson, wife of E. C. Johnson, editor of the El County Herald, died Tuesday afternoon at a sanitarium at Amarillo following an operation and was buried here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Johnson was 53 years of age and had been married seven years. Interment at Fairview cemetery.

Went to Farm. The present hot dry weather is a boon to cotton farmers in this section, many of whom have great quantities of weeds because of frequent replantings. Cotton, although a large part of it is late, is growing nicely and the farmers are rapidly catching up with their work. Luncheon for delegates.

Colorado-to-Gulf Highway officials and delegates to the convention at Alvarado, from Denver and intermediate points, were given a luncheon here Monday, by Memphis business men Secretary Sager, of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, Sheriff Joe Merrick and several other Memphis citizens joined the delegation here accompanying them to Alvarado.

Revival Classes. Reports of the revival meeting just closed at the tabernacle at the First Baptist Church state that more than 50 conversions were had and that 40 were received by baptism into the church.

R. E. Greene and family, Mrs. W. W. Clower and Archie Clower and wife left this week in their cars for a vacation trip in the mountains of New Mexico and Colorado; they expect to be away a month and to put in a part of the time fishing.

WOMAN CONVICTED OF KILLING WEALTHY BRONX CONTRACTOR

JURY FINDS MRS. ANNA SUZZI GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER.

PENALTY IN NEW YORK STATE IS ELECTROCUTION

Accused of slaying Frederick Schneider, whom she was living.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Convicted of first degree murder and being the electric chair, Mrs. Anna Suzzi, slayer of Frederick Schneider, wealthy Bronx contractor, with whom she lived several years, collapsed in the court room late last night when the jury in Supreme Court Justice O'Malley's court brought in the verdict after deliberating 16 hours.

White and shaking and with her composure broken for the first time since her arrest four months ago, Mrs. Suzzi was committed to the Bronx county jail to await sentence on July 9. The penalty for first degree murder in this state is electrocution.

Schneider, who was the builder of the world's largest apartment house, was found dead in his automobile with two bullets in his brain on a lonely road in the Bronx on February 26.

Mrs. Suzzi the following day was held as a material witness. Then William Turc, her brother-in-law, declared Mrs. Suzzi had quarreled with Schneider, and had requested him to get her a pistol, saying, "If I can't have Fred, no one else will."

She was indicted for first degree murder but continued to declare her innocence and openly charged Turc with the murder.

MARKED DECLINE IN CONSUMPTION OF BOOZE IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—American consumption of alcohol has had 250,000,000 gallons less during the past three years of national prohibition than they had in the previous three pre-Volstead years.

Commissioner Hayden said in a statement issued today.

In statistical administration of how the sponge of national prohibition has mopped up liquor supplies, Commissioner Hayden set forth the total withdrawals of alcohol, whiskey and other spirits during three years of prohibition aggregated only 22,000,000 gallons—approximately 22,000,000 gallons during the preceding years.

He also cited figures to show how liquor supplies had been dried up and to demonstrate the success of "preventive prohibition enforcement" by stopping the sources of alcoholic beverages.

The greatest decrease in withdrawal, according to Commissioner Hayden's figures, was in whiskey, 10 per cent of withdrawal in prohibition days. About 75 per cent of withdrawals since prohibition, he said, have been alcohol, high wines and cognac spirits, largely used for industrial purposes.

During the last 18 months, Commissioner Hayden declared, the record of liquor withdrawal shows only a third as much taken out as these of preceding years. He also stated that withdrawals in the first four months of the present calendar year were less than half of those in the same period in 1921, totaling respectively 3,512,318 and 4,511,734 gallons.

Western railroads were ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to suspend until October 31 new freight schedules on petroleum products moving from Kansas and Oklahoma producing points to South Dakota and Western Nebraska consuming territory.

The new rates would have gone into effect July 1, and would have almost doubled the existing rates on crude, fuel and gas oil.

Samples of the changes proposed, as given by the commission showed that rates on oil from Kansas and Oklahoma to Rapid City, Deadwood and other South Dakota points are at present 14 cents on the hundred pounds but would have been increased by the new rate schedules to 11.02 and 11.84 on 100 pounds.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 23.—The second day of the international convention of the Lions Club opened with a request of the speaker from all the various district governors. District Governor W. O. Mendonhall of Kansas, presided.

Club singing occupied a prominent position in the address of W. G. Higgins of San Antonio, Texas, on "The Ideal Luncheon Program."

Mr. Higgins brought forth a new smile when urging that the entire club sing at every luncheon.

"The music to which you listen must be good to be enjoyed, but the music which you make might be the worst in the world and still give you the physical stimulus which leads to mental satisfaction," Mr. Higgins said.

James E. Schick of Washington, D. C. spoke on "Local Civic Activity and Its Place in Club Work." Other speakers were Fred M. Davis of Lynchburg, Virginia; Frank G. McConch of St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada; Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick of Charlotte, North Carolina; and Clark A. Davis of New York City.

ORDER SUSPENSION PROPOSED FREIGHT ON OIL PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Western railroads were ordered today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to suspend until October 31 new freight schedules on petroleum products moving from Kansas and Oklahoma producing points to South Dakota and Western Nebraska consuming territory.

The new rates would have gone into effect July 1, and would have almost doubled the existing rates on crude, fuel and gas oil.

Samples of the changes proposed, as given by the commission showed that rates on oil from Kansas and Oklahoma to Rapid City, Deadwood and other South Dakota points are at present 14 cents on the hundred pounds but would have been increased by the new rate schedules to 11.02 and 11.84 on 100 pounds.

STOLEN TENNIS RACQUET RECOVERED IN ONE HOUR AFTER REPORT OF THEFT

Juvenile Officer W. G. Bailey received a tennis racket Wednesday evening within an hour after the report of the loss had been made to him.

KATY STOCKHOLDERS APPROVE PROPOSALS TO LEASE BRANCHES

ST. LOUIS, June 23.—Stockholders of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad today voted approval to the proposal to lease the Okmulgee Northern railway, a 21-mile line between Okmulgee and Henry, Okla. They also voted to lease to the Wabash with the option of purchase the 43 miles of track between Moberly and Hannibal, Mo. The action in both cases was approved by the votes of 728-288 out of a total of 1,016,194 shares, it was said.

Thirty years ago the track between Moberly and Hannibal was part of the main line of the "Katy" and through trains from Chicago to Texas points ran over it, but with the construction of the St. Louis line the road to Hannibal became a branch line, it was explained. The Wabash has been using the line for some time, it was said.

Hair Often Ruined by Careless Washing

Soup should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulford's coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and granuleless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Mulford's coconut oil shampoo at any drug store; it is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

TIGHT FOR SUPREMACY IN AIR SUPPLANTS SEA RACE BETWEEN ENGLAND AND FRANCE

This is the third of a series of articles by Wm. Philip Birkenhead, secretary of the House of Commons, who recently completed a study of the present inferiority in the air of the British Empire and which he summarized in his following article.

By Wm. Philip Birkenhead
M.P. and Secretary of the House of Commons.

France and England continue to arm, this time against each other. There is no more alarming symptom in Europe than the ever-widening breach between England and France. London and Paris no longer attempt to conceal their feelings of animosity, while press and public, in both countries, are openly hostile.

Two disquieting questions are being discussed in the chambers of the House of Commons. One is, will France and England ever get together to fight a common enemy? The other is, will an Anglo-German understanding be founded on the wreck of the Franco-British Entente Cordiale?

Says A. G. Gardiner, England's top-secretary, "The situation is such that the French air service has created profound concern, and a demand that the security be in a position to defend itself is too strong to be resisted."

In 1919 Lord Birkenhead was a member of the Lord George's committee of which laid down the terms that in view of the general conditions of Europe, there could be no major war for 10 years.

While I was in London, Birkenhead made a speech in the House of Lords, in which he said: "We can no more be content in the next three to five years with the present inferiority in the air than we could have been content with a naval inferiority in the year preceding the outbreak of war."

He would make any sacrifice, he said, to maintain friendship with France, but it was not possible for Britain to be satisfied with an air fleet less than that of any other power. The security formerly provided by the navy, he concluded, now depends upon the air force.

Despite the axiom laid down in 1919 that there would be no major war in Europe within 10 years from that time, the British air force, in 1922—three years later—was strengthened by the addition of 14 regular and 4 auxiliary air squadrons to be added by 1926 at a cost of some $10,000,000. France, remember, is England's only possible rival in the air, the nation is hard pressed for money and taxation is already staggering. The Duke of Sutherland, under-secretary for air, replying to the former lord chancellor, Lord Birkenhead, declared that if the present cabinet decides the no-major-war-before-1926 axiom no longer holds good, it is possible a still larger air force might be raised.

Meanwhile "Le Temps," organ of the French government, openly charges Britain with harboring the ambition to dominate Europe at the expense of France and to the benefit of Germany.

"The whole British reparations plan," says "Le Temps," "is little more than a scheme to establish British hegemony indefinitely. After four years of complete moratorium the question of wresting payments from Germany would arise. It would be a dangerous crisis. It would depend upon Great Britain whether this degenerated into a conflict and whether Germany, duly restored, should be victorious."

French View.
When such a plan is advanced by the British, the paper asks, how can France believe other than that British diplomacy, the British admiralty and the British general staff know all along the probable effects of such a situation? The British charge France with

Friday Last Day To View Times Home Beautiful

The Times Ideal Home Beautiful, which has been visited by thousands of interested Wichita, Falls visitors since its formal opening last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, will close Friday evening at 10 o'clock. It was announced Thursday.

The building will be open Thursday and Friday afternoon from the hours of 2 until 10 and those who have not yet inspected this ideal residence are urged to take advantage of this last opportunity. The enterprise, which has been promoted as an auspicious and encouraging to home owners and builders, has attracted a remarkable amount of attention and comment and will undoubtedly do much toward bringing about more and better homes in Wichita Falls.

The situation between France and England today is much less murky like that between England and Germany before the war for comfort. France and Britain can no longer continue to tread on each other's toes on the conflict than could in his next article.

$2,500 BONDS GRANTED IN TWO FELONY CASES

Alvin Ireland and Lewis Tillman, against whom indictments charging burglary were returned by the grand jury, were granted bonds in the sum of $2,500 each by Judge H. R. Wilson Wednesday evening. The two men were witnesses before the grand jury in connection with an alleged prohibition violation case.

Head of $1,000 was also set in the case of Carl Johnson, who was indicted on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with the cutting escape near the court house on June 2 when John Blagden, a truck driver, was seriously wounded.

Kangaroo Court Order Leads To Beating of Man

A prisoner in the county jail, aged 35 years, is recovering from the effects of a severe beating administered to him Tuesday night, when he said three prisoners jumped on him, gagged him and then beat him summarily.

According to the three men, whom the man said was responsible for the treatment accorded him, the beating was carried out under instructions of a kangaroo court which is maintained for the administration of rules and orders in the jail. The man was committed to jail Tuesday evening after being arrested on a statutory charge and it was shortly after his entry that the beating was administered, he said. He was found Wednesday morning by the jailer. A physician was immediately summoned and his wounds and injuries treated. Disciplinary action is to be taken against the three men who assisted in beating the man up, the jailer announced.

GIRLS' CLUB CAMP ORGANIZES FOR THREE DAY SESSION

The rural club girls' camp at Haven Park opened Thursday for the three-day session. Thursday was the first day of the session. The girls have arrived, and others are expected Friday from some of the more distant points.

The first day at camp was taken up mostly with registration and the organization. Miss Mildred Horton, the assistant state agent of A. & M. College, who will give demonstrations in making and home economics, will not arrive until Friday, and classes will not be held until that time.

Among the entertainments for the day was a trip to the glass factory, and a four-reel picture at the Brownie Theatre. The girls were threatened to fall several times during the day, the girls paid no attention to the danger of wet weather and every one fully enjoyed the first day's outing.

Along with the work of the camp, the girls will be given the usual camp life. The girls will be given a big part of the day to be spent in making and various shows will be given at the camp in the evening.

Card of Thanks. We wish to extend our friends our sincere thanks for the many acts of kindness, words of sympathy and floral offerings sent to us during our recent bereavement in the great loss of our beloved husband and father. We especially wish to thank the ladies for the beautiful music rendered at the funeral. Mrs. A. A. Haskin, Gladys Haskin.—adv.

MRS. B. E. CLARKE GAINED 37 POUNDS BY TAKING TANLAC

One of the most interesting of the many remarkable statements in connection with the Tanlac treatment was made recently by Mrs. B. E. Clarke, 616 South Willow St., Sherman, Texas.

"Nearly all my life," said Mrs. Clarke, "I have suffered from stomach trouble. Three years ago I was almost past going, but Tanlac restored my health completely and I actually gained thirty-seven pounds in weight. I've not taken a dose of medicine since I finished my Tanlac treatment, but don't remember ever feeling any better than I have since then and do now."

"And one of the most wonderful features of my case was that I got rid of a persistent, weakening cough which had worried me for thirty years. Why, by the time I had taken three bottles of this grand medicine I was feeling like a new person, and in this day I've kept every pound of the weight I gained. Tanlac is truly a wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 17 million bottles sold.

Wichita Survivor of Hood's Brigade One of It's Youngest Members, Unable to Attend Annual Reunion

The annual reunion of Hood's Immortal Texas Brigade in the Civil War is being held at Bryan, Texas, this week. Only twelve members of this brigade were present when the reunion opened Wednesday.

John T. Woodhouse, 1108 Travis street, Wichita Falls, is a veteran of this brigade, but was unable to attend the reunion. Mr. Woodhouse is now 79 years of age, but is well preserved for a man of those years. Until a few years ago he was actively employed with the Wichita Ice Company, driving a wagon for ice delivery in the business section. He is one of the pioneers of Wichita Falls.

Mr. Woodhouse was a member of Company G, First Texas Regiment, in the brigade. He enlisted at Palestine, Texas, in 1861, when only 17 years of age. He walked about 100 miles to Shreveport, La., to enter the service. His company was moved to New Orleans and after a month's training was sent to Richmond, Va., where it was soon called upon to fight in the engagement at Gaines Mill before Richmond.

Soon afterward it was rushed to the battle of Manassas. Mr. Woodhouse's company and the Hood Brigade took part in every major battle of the whole war.

The first captain of his company was Captain Woodward and the first colonel of his regiment, Col. F. T. Wigfall. United States senator from Texas, who resigned his commission to become a senator from Texas in the Confederacy. Captain Woodward died from wounds received in the battle of Fort Royal.

Officers and enlisted men in the brigade were being wounded and killed from time to time, and there were many changes.

Mr. Woodhouse was a color bearer in the battle of Gettysburg. He was wounded only once during the entire war, this being in the battle of Chickamauga, where he suffered several broken ribs.

He continued in service until the end of the year, being at the surrender at Appomattox court house. After the surrender he turned toward Texas, having to walk between 600 and 800 miles of the distance on account of the railroad being out of service.

There are now only two other survivors of Mr. Woodhouse's company, these being Judge Alf Ellwanger of Archer City, and Dr. Sam Burroughs of Buffalo in Leon county. Neither of them are listed among those attending the reunion.

E. H. Wigand of the L. & N. Railroad Company, Dallas, is in the city on business for a short time.

Three Special Events Added to Fair Program

Three special events have been added to the racing program for the Texas-Oklahoma Fair. W. F. Weaska, chairman of the race committee, announced Thursday.

The special events are to be the Judge Mober Handicap, the Bob Waggoner stakes, and the Staley derby; these events, named for prominent members in the fair association, will each have the place of honor on one day's program.

ST. PAUL BIDS FOR JULY 4 TITLE BOUT

ST. PAUL, June 28.—While William F. Kenney, vice-president of the Great Northern railroad, has declared it altogether improbable that his road will help finance the fight, the St. Paul boxing club has wired an offer to Jack Kearns of $200,000 for the fight in St. Paul.

In other words the refusal of the Great Northern, whose offices are here, to aid the fight in St. Paul, may help bring it to St. Paul, fight fans believe.

The railroad takes the attitude, Mr. Kenney said, that prize fight promotion is not railroad business.

Jack Reddy, local matchmaker, signed the offer to Kearns; his proposal giving an option of taking 10 per cent of the gate receipts.

With Othobona St. Paul fighter, it is believed certain that a paying crowd could be obtained in the Twin Cities. Kearns, according to news dispatches, is not considering offers for the match and will not consider them unless the St. Paul promoters fail to raise the $200,000, July 3, as agreed.

Welcome Drop In Temperature Here Thursday

After the record-breaking heat of Wednesday afternoon, when the thermometer remained at 107 degrees for several hours, a brisk breeze blowing from the north Wednesday night cooled off the city and dropped the mercury around the 82 mark.

Thursday, Wichitans gladly donned coats and heavier wraps, and the usual complaints about the hot weather, which have been circulating around the city for the past week, were absent. During the day the sky was generally cloudy, and only at times did the sun make his appearance.

Rain was reported at Spear Wednesday night. This, however, was very light and acted merely as a dust settler. Locally a few drops fell early Thursday morning, and another shower visited the edge of town a little before noon. In spite of the fact that rain threatened all during the day, and black clouds which hid the sun looked as though a storm would be inevitable, up to a late hour Thursday afternoon there was no rain.

MRS. PARKER WAS UNABLE TO WORK

The reports from the surrounding district indicated cooler weather. The generally cloudy skies and brisk north winds over this section pointed to possible rain in the near future.

Mrs. Ida Nelms, aged 54, wife of C. W. Nelms, 1418 Garrison street, died at the General Hospital at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday. The remains were forwarded to Oakland by North-Texas Undertaking Company for burial. Mr. Nelms accompanied the remains.

Funeral services for Mrs. Pearl Holcomb of Wichita, who died at the hospital Tuesday night, were held from the chapel of McKelvie-Luna Undertaking Company at 2 p. m. Thursday, with the Rev. Ira L.

"When I began taking Stella Vitae I was so weak and rundown I was unable to do any work at all," said Mrs. Jennie Parker, Route 1, box 25, Caney, Okla.

"A year ago I became so weak and rundown I could hardly get around. I was in a miserable condition and didn't know what to do.

"Some of my friends told me that Stella Vitae would fix me up, so I got a bottle and soon began to feel better. I got two more and now I can't say too much for this splendid tonic. I highly recommend it to all women who are suffering from any female disturbance.

Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief. Ripley's Drug Store and Miller's Drug Store.—adv.

Can They Photograph Spirits of the Dead?

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who is now a "Sherlock Holmes" on a trail of concrete materialistic evidence of psychic phenomena, believes the camera faithfully registers pictures of the souls of those who have passed out of this world.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Colleagues Insist Evidence for Reality of Psychic Photography Is Overwhelming—"Fakes!" Cry Critics as They Denounce Ectoplasmic Pictures

"CAN the camera show us those who have passed beyond?" asks Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, and answers his own question with an emphatic "Yes!" in his new book, "The Case for Spirit Photography."

"After a quarter of a century's investigation of the subject, I am not convinced there is such a thing as spirit communication," says Houdini, who presents himself as one eager for a sign from the Great Beyond. "Spirit pictures—I make them every night! It's a great trick, if you know how."

Which is right? Neill Maholyne, world famous magician, adding with Houdini, declares all spirit photographs are frauds, and says it is the easiest thing in the world to practice deception on people who go to a medium full of trust that they will receive a picture of departed friends.

Howard Carrington, doctor of philosophy, who has devoted the greater part of his life to scientific investigation, says: "There have been many instances where pictures like these have appeared suddenly and apparently from nowhere. They are sometimes attributed to natural phenomena and sometimes to spirit origin."

"Ah!" say the editors of the Scientific American, "let us find out the truth of this matter."

Accordingly, they offer a prize of $2500 to the "best person producing a psychic photograph under our test conditions," also $2500 for psychic phenomena of the physical and visible order.

J. MALCOLM BIRD, associate editor of the Scientific American, had pictures taken of himself by the carpenter-psychic, William Hope, of England, some of which developed what Mr. Bird states to be "either a genuine psychic phenomenon, or else a fraud," and he seems himself convinced that they are not frauds.

Mr. Bird states that he bought the plates himself, examined the dark room, the camera box, lens and plate holder, selected two plates, which he signed and placed in the plate holder. After the photographs had been taken, Mr. Bird took the plates to the dark room, accompanied by Hope, and developed them; whereupon one picture of Mr. Bird was discovered to have extra images on it.

And yet it was this same William Hope, carpenter-psychic, who was said to have been caught substituting plates by Mr. Harry Price, member of the Society for Psychical Research!

Mr. Price provided himself with packets of plates prepared so that when developed each would show one-fourth of a certain trade-mark. He placed two of these plates in the dark slide in the dark room, and while he was doing up the remaining plates, he saw Mr. Hope turn away and put the dark slide to his left breast pocket. Afterward the medium handed Mr. Price a slide, and they went to take the photographs.

Mr. Price, however, had taken the precaution of marking the slide he had loaded, and when he looked at the slide Mr. Hope had handed back to him, he found it was not the one he had marked. The two plates were exposed, and when they were developed, there was a so-called spirit photograph on one, but the trade-mark design was missing!

This is one of the spirit photographs around which wages a dispute. The picture to the right is a photograph of Mrs. R. Foulds, of Sheffield, England, with a so-called psychic photograph of her mother, who is dead. The photo to the left is that of the mother as she appeared when living and was taken some years before her death. This and the photos shown at the bottom of the page are shown in Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's latest book, "The Case for Spirit Photography," by George H. Doran Co., New York

"Unfair! Unfair!" cries Sir Conan Doyle, rushing to the defense of his friend, Mr. Hope, to whose vindication he devotes much of his late book.

The trade-mark design was made with X-ray. Yes, says Sir Arthur, but experiment by several investigators, including Dr. Cushman, of Washington, shows that with long exposures, such as Hope gave, the X-ray marks vanish, so that this test, as is admitted by the Imperial Company who made the plates, ceases to be valid.

Mr. Price says he made pin-pricks on the carrier he had, which were not found upon the carrier actually used.

"Who says so?" cries Sir Arthur. They were only pin-pricks, after all, and there's no independent evidence of their existence!

Hope made a gesture to his left pocket in the dark room, accuses Mr. Price. "What does that prove?" demands Sir Arthur. "What became of the old carrier, in that case?"

That the glass of which the plates were made and on which the spirit photographs appeared was different in color and thickness from the glass of the Imperial Company brought by Mr. Price for the experiment is admitted by Sir Arthur. But he denies that it was Hope who made the substitution.

Houdini, the strong man of the stage, is one of those who cry "fraud" and he maintains any clever medium can manipulate a camera to fool a zealous client.

fingered people who were hostile to Hope's claims, and who had frequently avowed that the opening of sealed packets was an easy process.

SIR ARTHUR details at length a number of instances of what appear to him conclusive proof that spirits of the dead come back to pose for their pictures on plates with relatives, friends, or even strangers.

W. Marriott, psychic expert, however, proved on one occasion to Sir Arthur and an editor that he could obtain trick photographs under usual conditions of test so as to deceive the most watchful spiritualist.

Sir Arthur was present, and the editor took every precaution to render the trickery futile. He signed the plates and endeavored never to let them out of his hands. While he was in the dark room, he dictated to a stenographer outside exactly what he was doing all the time. Four plates were exposed, and in spite of the watchfulness of the editor, when they were developed two bore "extras." One of these "extras" was on a plate bearing the editor's signature, clinching its authenticity; the other showed some fairies dancing around Sir Arthur. Yet the editor asserted the plates had never left his possession or been touched by Mr. Marriott.

When he consulted the notes made by the shorthand writer, however, he found that he had for one moment let the plates go from his hands. He did not remember letting them go, but the notes proved that he had done so. The fairies appearing on the plate were taken from a well known poster of fairies dancing round a night light.

"But," says Sir Arthur, "because one medium is accused or proved to have been dishonest is no reason for crying fraud upon the whole crowd."

"In every science the methods of advance are to pay strict attention to the positive results and to regard the negative ones as mere warnings of what to avoid. This process has been reversed in considering psychic photography, and the world has been deceived by those who should have been its guides. Truth will, of course, prevail, but its progress has been grievously retarded by this unhappy and unscientific mental attitude."

EACH of the cases given in his book, Sir Arthur contends, is impressive in itself, but their cumulative effect should be overpowering. He admits that one or two might be the result of imperfect observation or incorrect statement, but he cannot understand how so long a list of honorable witnesses, with actual photographic results, and with the complete exclusion of any possible trickery, should all be explained in any normal fashion.

Ferd Barlow, secretary S. S. S. F., who adds a chapter to the book, asserts that he looks forward "with confidence to that day, not far distant, when all this talk of fakes and fraud shall be no more, and when the psychologist and scientist shall combine the investigation of this vital problem."

Here is the Scientific American ready, eager and anxious to receive proof, under reasonable test conditions, and willing to pay $2500 for the privilege of receiving such proof.

The camera is to be used for the diagnosis of disease, if tests now being conducted by Dr. Alfred D. Hitchings, director of the Anso Research Laboratory, are successful. Each disease has a specific photo reaction which will identify the ailment from which the patient is suffering, if studied, according to the doctor.

Can the camera also show us those who have passed beyond?

To the left is shown a photograph of Mr. William Jeffrey and his daughter, and the white writhing is described as an "ectoplasmic bag," which purports to be the material substance of a spirit as yet unrevealed. But in the photo to the right the ectoplasm is held to have taken on form in the next exposed plate, and that face is held to resemble in excellent likeness, although slightly distorted, the deceased wife of Mr. Jeffrey.

HELP FOR GIRLS WHO WORK

Miss Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her
"I tried to tell my mother, Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her with so many headaches, but she wouldn't believe me. I had a nervous headache, no strength in my body and pains in my left side so bad that I could hardly get up. I was in the hospital for a long time. I was unable to work in the factory, and I had pains just the same then as I have had since I have done my housework. I would not go without a bottle in the house now. It has stopped the pains all right and I have found out that it is a wonderful body builder, as it has made me well and strong. It is going to be the 'old reliable' with me hereafter, and I am always willing to tell other women how it has helped me. You can use this letter as you wish as I can honestly say that my words are true." — Mrs. M. L. LORR, P. O. Box 4, Box 61, Tyrone, Pa.
Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound.
