O'Keefe Message Misread Stirs Up Alabama Senate

Montgomery, Ala., July 19.—A telegram from Pat O'Keefe of Dallas, Texas, caused a furor in the Alabama senate today when it was misread as having come from the Texas Democratic state committee.

The telegram was an enthusiastic boost for Senator Oscar Underwood for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Word spread in both houses of the legislature that the Texas Democratic committee had pledged support to Underwood and the business of the legislature was forgotten until someone found out that the telegram was Mr. O'Keefe's personal sentiments and that the telegram made no mention of the Texas committee.

The senate passed a resolution of thanks to O'Keefe for his support of Underwood and the business of the legislature was resumed.

When It Doesn't Rain It Doesn't Leak

A LEAKING roof doesn't cause as much trouble while the sun shines.

An inferior valve cup can't do much harm in the supply house store room.

Actual oil pumping is the only true test of a valve cup, but in a rainstorm proves the value of a roof. And oil men, old in the field, know that Danco's Valve Cups stand up strongest where service is most needed. And why? Because Danco's Valve Cups will be pumped in greater quantities, at lower cost.

Look for the name. No one can get the genuine.

EXPECTS TO MAKE TRIP TO

SEA TRIP IS BRINGING WIFE BACK TO HEALTH

Transport is to Stop at Sitka, Capital of Alaska When Russians Owned Country.

ON BOARD U. S. S. HENDERSON, with President Harding, July 20. (AP) A visit to Cordova, ocean terminus of one of the two railways plying Alaska's interior, was the feature of today's program for President Harding who is nearing the end of the first visit to Alaska made by a chief executive of the United States.

At Cordova the president was expected to take the Copper river and Northwestern railway for a run to the Miles and Childs glaciers. These glaciers are on opposite sides of the Copper river at Miles 43, where the stream is spanned by a mammoth steel bridge set in concrete. The place is said to be the only spot in the world where even one glacier can be reached by train.

Cordova is the shipping port for the copper ore brought out from the Kennecott district by the Guggenheim interests. It was solely to reach this copper that the Copper River and Northwestern railway, which is 131 miles long, was built. The president's original plan, given up because the activities of the long days of an Alaskan summer began to break Mr. Harding down, was to travel to Chitina, the northern terminus of the C. R. and N. W. from Fairbanks, the northern terminus of the Alaska railroad by automobile over the Richardson highway.

The time at sea is bringing Mrs. Harding back to health, according to her physicians. Both the Hardys are trying to store strength for strenuous days on the Pacific coast after they land at Vancouver, B. C., Thursday. The Henderson is to stop at Sitka, the capital of Alaska when the Russians owned the territory, before going to Vancouver.

MEN WHO "TOOK" BIBLES HAVE MADE RESTITUTION

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 20. (AP) Bibles placed in hotel guest rooms by the Gideons to spread Christianity to the traveling public are sometimes stolen, according to J. Harry Humphreys, who is presiding over the annual convention of the National Association of Gideons, Christian Commercial Travelers, in session here.

But in some cases at least the pilfered Bibles have had a salutary effect. Several persons who deliberately "took" Bibles belonging to the Gideons, were converted, returned the Bibles and have made substantial payments toward carrying on the work of the Gideons, Mr. Humphreys declared.

The money is not a loan to the banks. It was announced by Cass E. Herrington, cashier for the receivers for the road but has been deposited and government bonds taken as security.

STATE MAN IS WANTED AS ESCAPED CONVICT

Man Apprehended in House Near Railroad at 4 o'clock Friday Morning.

A large number of tools, which officers state are the kind used in bursting open safes, were found by Sergeants J. W. McCormick and M. N. Koonsman, Texas Rangers, at 4 o'clock Friday morning when they searched a house near the railroad tracks in North Wichita and placed a man under arrest.

After lying in wait the greater portion of the night, the officers made the raid at the early hours Friday morning. The man arrested was found in bed and a search of the premises brought to light the safe cracking tools. No other evidence was found which might connect the man with the cracking of the safe of the Morgan feed store of Wednesday night and the bursting open of the gas company's safe three months ago.

The two officers had had information that a man who was wanted at Stillwater, Oklahoma, as an escaped convict from the state penitentiary, was in this city. The same man is also wanted at Seymour on the charge of theft of an automobile belonging to the sheriff of Baylor county.

The man held here in the county jail is said to be known under a long list of aliases.

Officers from Stillwater were advised of the arrest here and a description of the man was given to them over the telephone. They were positive in their assertion that the man held here is the one wanted by them.

Sheriff Self of Baylor county was also advised and given a description and he stated over the phone that he believed that the man was the same one wanted by him.

"What's the matter down in Texas?"

That's what I asked when I read sales reports that Kellogg's Corn Flakes in Texas averaged below their overwhelming leadership all over the nation!

Let me say it this way—
So surely will you prefer Kellogg's Corn Flakes—once you know the extra deliciousness, extra crispness and substantial quality of the sunny brown flakes—that I ask you to do this:

Tell your grocer you want "KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES"! Make it strong, make it plain!

DON'T just say "Kellogg's" or "Corn Flakes"! Your one chance to get what you want is to say it so strong and so plain—KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES—that neither you nor your grocer will ever get it mixed up again!

I guarantee you'll find Kellogg's Corn Flakes, in the RED and GREEN package, the best ever. Your grocer will refund your money if you don't agree with me!

Texas buys great quantities of our Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, and Kellogg's Whole-wheat Krumble!

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESBOTT TO SYDNEY CARSON.

From now on, my dear Syd, I am going to conduct all my business with you through the mail. I can't understand why you shirk at coming over here. You answer my letters with celerity and dispatch. Are you afraid of me or are you afraid of Syd?

I just cannot understand why you do not come to see us.

Speaking of being afraid, I'm afraid of something that happened recently when the goddess of luck laid the cards out to me.

I wonder if you ever met Harry Ellington's wife. She is a very decent sort of a girl and was one of the gayest and brightest young women in town before Harry married her. For some reason she has completely changed since she married Harry. She has settled down as a home body, while Harry has seemed to be more of a rouser than before.

I really felt very sorry for her and the other day I insisted that Harry should bring her up to our apartment to dinner. Leslie took to her immediately, just why I do not know, for she has changed greatly since her marriage. She is perfectly gorgeous now as far as I can see. Leslie, however, seemed to see something in her that was there before her marriage.

The girls made an engagement with each other to go shopping the next day. Neither Harry nor I knew of this.

After they had fussed around town most of the day, they went into Martelle's for tea. Now here is where I come in.

Just after luncheon Harry called me up and said, "Old man, I am coming with Edith Chapman and I am sure you would like to know her. We're going in the country for a drive and expect to pick up a friend of hers, Miss Daxell. If you'd like to make it a foursome for tea at Martelle's, let me know."

I was very much put out that business kept me from going on this party. To tell you the truth, Syd, I forgot all about Leslie and I seemed perfectly all right to luncheon with my woman in a public and thoroughly respectable place like Martelle's, but—

I had reason to give obligations to my goddess of luck that evening when Leslie came home and told me that she and Mrs. Ellington had gone to Martelle's to tea.

While they were there, Walter Burke joined them and later who should come in, of course, but Harry and Miss Chapman? They hadn't taken up Miss Daxell because I could not make one of the party.

I felt myself getting hot all over as Leslie told me this, for you see I didn't know how she would take it, especially as I had found a little fault with her and Mrs. Ellington for allowing Walter Burke to join them.

I wonder if I will ever remember that a married man has the same responsibility in keeping himself out of the mouths of the gossips that his wife has? As it is, tonight I am promising myself that in the future I shall be a very good little boy. It is a model young man that is writing you this letter, old chap.

In the meantime, I am trying to think of just how I shall break up the friendship between Ruth Ellington and Leslie. There is something inexplicable behind those big eyes of Ruth's. She knows too much about our sex. I would not like Leslie to be a self-contained or sophisticated as she seems to be. Haven't had a word from Paula Porter for ages. I guess that book is closed.

JACK.

Tomorrow, Syd's reply—a rebuke and a threat.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS ENJOY OUTING AT LAKE WICHITA

A big bunch of Epworth Leaguers enjoyed an outing at Lake Wichita Thursday evening, following three matched volley ball games between the first and third teams in which the first team won two out of three of the series.

At the lake the young folks took in all the concessions, some going in swimming. Games are matched for volley ball between departments Two and Four of the league next Monday evening.

Avers Business Was Ruined Asks $10,000 Damages

Containing that her business has been destroyed because of being ejected from rooms which she had contracted for, for the entire month of June, 1922, Maud Moody, formerly proprietor of the American Beauty Parlors, has instituted suit against J. L. Staley in the 75th district court, asking damages in the sum of $10,000.

The petitioner alleges that she was in business, having contracted for rooms in the Staley building, but that on June 17, four days before her contract expired, under a distress warrant and under a warrant of forcible entry and detainer, the defendant ejected her from her rooms; destroyed her business and unlawfully took from her $120 worth of property.

She asks judgment for $5,000 actual and $5,000 exemplary damages.

COOLER WEATHER PREVAILS OVER THIS SECTION

For the first time in several days the mercury remained below the century mark on the thermometer Thursday. The maximum heat of the day, as recorded on the dial thermometer at Art's jewelry store, was 97 degrees in the afternoon, dropping to 77 degrees during the night.

The populace of Wichita Falls remained comfortable Thursday, one of the few really cool days of the summer. While the sun was as bright as ever, the atmosphere was light and a cool breeze blew most of the time. Friday, however, dawned bright and cloudless and the mercury immediately started on its upward course.

Attorney General Is Reconsidering Ruling In Regard To Fees of Office Based on Population, Message Says

The attorney general's department at Austin is reconsidering its ruling made on the fees of county officials of this county and which was announced by The Times in Tuesday's issue. A message was received Thursday afternoon by County Auditor E. P. Walsh, which reads: "We are reconsidering matter of fees based on population your county. Wait for further information."

The announcement of its interpretation of the statute pertaining to the fees of office and under which Wichita county has operated since 1928 came like a thunderbolt out of the sky. Under the terms of the attorney general's department ruling as received by the county auditor it would have meant that every county official who had office prior to the year 1920, 1921 and 1922, had received too much money and, incidentally, would have affected the salary of the county auditor when their annual reports were made the first of next year. The reduction would have amounted to from $100 to $100 a year and would have affected every official, with the exception of the district attorney.

The first ruling of the attorney general, in effect, would have meant that article 2812, under which Wichita county was operating, did not apply in this instance but that the county should be operating under article 2812.

Whether the attorney general will rule differently in the opinion which he is now considering is not known, but the entire matter hinges on his construction of two disjunctive clauses in article 2812. This clause follows: "In counties containing a city of over 25,000 inhabitants, or in such counties as shown by the United States census of 1910, to contain as many as 25,000 inhabitants, etc."

TWO SLIGHTLY INJURED ON BURKBURNETT ROAD WHEN AUTOS COLLIDE

BURKBURNETT, July 20.—Two Ford cars being driven toward Wichita Falls on the highway south of Burkburnett early Wednesday night were badly damaged but the occupants sustained only a few bruises and were picked up by passing cars and taken care of. The cars were running one directly behind the other, when a sudden application of the brakes on the front car resulted in a rear end collision, causing both cars to leave the ditch and putting them out of commission.

Placed For Vagrancy. A heavy fine was assessed by the justice of the peace here Wednesday evening against a man brought in by Deputy Sheriff Frank Watkins from Newtown. A plea of vagrancy was made by the man arrested after the officer had made an investigation of the case and searched his premises. Appearance of the back yard indicated that a number of judges had recently been buried there and numbers of empty bottles also found on the premises were sources of evidence discovered by the officer. The fine was paid and the man promised to return home and clean his premises of the objectionable evidence found by the officer and objected to by neighbors.

MARRIAGE OF SIX WEEKS IS SOUGHT TO BE ANNULLED

The marriage of Tom L. Burnett, wealthy local ranchman, and Miss Lydia Sheldon of Elcestra, solemnized on June 8, less than six weeks ago, is sought to be annulled in a petition filed at 4:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon by the wife.

In her petition Mrs. Burnett alleges cruel treatment and the utterance of slanderous remarks which she contends makes living with him further insupportable. The case was filed in the 90th district court.

VERDICT OF INSANITY SAVES MEXICAN FROM HANGING AT GEORGETOWN

GEORGETOWN, TEXAS, July 20. Manuel Sagu, Mexican, sentenced to be hanged today, escaped the noose by a narrow margin when a jury in district court here last night declared him insane. The verdict stays the execution, according to court officials, and places the condemned man in a state hospital for the insane.

Three alienists, Dr. John S. Preston, and Dr. F. Beverly, of the state insane asylum, and Dr. Jon Woolen of Austin, testified after examination of the convict and declared him insane, as did numerous court attaches and county officials who had observed him. Sagu was convicted of the murder of E. O. Worford, a salesman at Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train near Granger, Texas, December 10, 1929, when he ran amuck.

WILL BE CONFINED IN AUSTIN INSANE ASYLUM. AUSTIN, July 20. (AP)—District Attorney Duell Moody, on his return this morning from Georgetown, stated that the sheriff of Williamson county had been directed to place Manuel Sagu, slayer of W. O. Worford, in the state hospital for the insane at Austin. Should Sagu recover his sanity the sentence of death, which was to have been executed today, will be carried out.

Great Britain Is Silent As To Attitude That Will Be Taken In Dealing With U. S. Liquor Problem

By JOHN T. BURKE, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. LONDON, July 20.—Premier Baldwin, in the house of commons, replying to a question by Captain Wedgwood Benn, admitted that the committee which has been investigating the smuggling of liquor into the United States by British ships had reported to the cabinet, but that no statement could be made now as to what the government would do.

Pressed by Captain Benn as to whether the government would do its best to assist the United States suppress rum smuggling, the prime minister replied that he would rather not make any declaration in the matter at present.

The government's stand, and the admission that the report had been kept secret, caused a sensation, and it is whispered in the lobbies that the whiskey smuggling business had grown to enormous proportions. Replying to a further appeal by Sir Chadwick Bartin that the government do all in its power to prevent the breaking of American laws, Ronald MacNeill replied that the government was fully aware of the desirability of disassociating itself with this traffic, which is a fruitful source of irritation between the two countries.

However, he said, so far as the West Indies are concerned, the government is without power under the existing laws, as neither in the United States or in the West Indies is there any regulations that authorize the refusal of clearance papers on the grounds that vessels might be engaged in the liquor trade. Answering another question by Captain Benn, whether the government was considering entering into an agreement with the United States for an increase of the powers of the American authorities to seize liquor smugglers outside the three-mile limit, the prime minister said he could not at the moment make a statement as to the future line of the policy on the part of the government.

SUIT TO RECOVER $7,500 PAID CASH TO OIL SYNDICATE

TEXARKANA, ARK., July 20. (AP)—Suit to recover $7,500 alleged to have been paid as part payment for $12,500 worth of units in the Bob Chew syndicate No. 2, an oil concern of El Dorado, Ark., has filed in the federal district court for western Arkansas here by attorneys representing Harry A. Arnold, banker of Colfax, Ill. It is alleged in the petition that the plaintiff was assured a cash dividend of 100 per cent and that a stock dividend of 50 per cent would be declared in April of this year and he would participate in these dividends, but that neither dividend was declared. No date for the hearing of the suit has been set.

NO OBJECTION RAISED TO RECEIVERSHIP PROGRAM

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 20. (AP)—The R. L. Dollings companies of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania and the International Note and Mortgage Company, a Dollings' subsidiary, today failed to raise receivership proceedings instituted last Saturday by 13 stockholders and Judge Duncan of the Franklin county common pleas court announced that three receivers would be appointed to take over the affairs of the concerns.

How to build up your Weight. TO be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-

FURTHER CHANGES MADE IN DRAFT OF REPLY TO GERMANY

RESULT OF MEETING OF CABINET BY ROOMS OF PREMIER BALDWIN

MARKED BY MODERATE AND AMICABLE TONE

Numerous Amendments Made as to Contents of This Important Communication

LONDON, July 19.—Additional alterations were made today in the draft of the reply to Germany's reparations memorandum by the British cabinet...

It is understood that the suggested reply contains about 1400 words and is up to the standard of brevity and forcefulness usually characteristic of documents prepared by Lord Curzon...

Among the multiplicity of forecasts offered the public by the political oracles it seems safe to accept the prediction that the note will deal with the appointment of an international committee of experts to appraise Germany's assets...

It is also considered certain that Great Britain will not cancel the French, Italian and Belgian debts as suggested by some reports...

The present documents have been drafted for their purpose the ultimate submission of the whole reparations problem to an international conference of plenipotentiaries to be held in the near future in Brussels or some other equally acceptable city...

It is considered probable the note will ask interested governments to indicate their approval of such a meeting.

It is still uncertain whether the United States will be invited to such a conference in view of its known reluctance to reenter European politics...

With Emilio Zapata, another bandit chieftain opposed to Huerta, Villa made common cause. The two occupied Mexico City with their troops...

At the battle of Parral, American troops were ambushed and a number of them killed. On March 11, however, the bandit's followers were defeated at Guerrero. The Americans were successful in a number of other skirmishes and penetrated so far south into Mexico as to meet the Constitutional troops of Carranza...

They call me a bandit and the worst man in Mexico, declared Villa when he was welcomed to San Pedro, Coahuila, but I would preserve our nationality, I surrendered because further fighting in Mexico meant intervention by the United States...

The first real tragedy in Villa's life occurred when General Felipe Angeles was executed as a revolutionist by Carranza troops in 1915. Villa admired Angeles not only as a patriot and soldier, but regarded him almost as a father...

His first great victory against the Huerta troops was at Ojinaca. After the battle, 4,000 men and eight generals of the federal army took refuge in the United States and were interned...

LIEUT. MAUGHAN FAILS IN ATTEMPT

between dawn and dusk, Lieutenant Russell L. Maughan, army aviator, today had lost again before the odds of unsurmountable obstacles which brought him down with a leaking oil cooler at Rock Springs, Wyo.

late yesterday. Winging his way westward across perilous Wyoming mountains at the terrific rate of 170 miles an hour, after covering more than two thirds of the 2870 mile flight, the lieutenant was forced to descend with oil pouring from the plane's tank in bucketfuls and nauseating fumes engulfing the machine and weakening his intrepid flight.

Lieutenant Maughan had passed Rock Springs and had covered about half the distance of the fourth leg of his four-stop flight when he realized that to continue his gruelling flight to Salt Francisco before daylight was impossible.

He swerved his plane, turned back toward Rock Springs and landed at the air field there at 5:58 p. m. It was just 15 hours to the minute after he took off from Mitchell Field, New York, yesterday morning.

Encounter's First Trouble After a successful flight from the eastern terminal through the first two legs of the flight—from Mitchell Field to Dayton, Ohio, and from Dayton to St. Joseph, Mo., Lieutenant Maughan encountered his first trouble with the oil cooler shortly after noon yesterday at North Platte yesterday. By the time he had reached Cheyenne, Wyo., completing the third leg of the flight he was so weakened by the stopping of fumes that he almost fell from the cockpit. Flashed with nausea and virtually a semi-conscious condition, the aviator rested while mechanics worked desperately and endeavored to leak the oil tank. Delayed for nearly an hour over his original schedule while stopping there, Lieutenant Maughan hopped off determined to make a supreme effort to cover the stretch of nearly 1,000 miles that separated him from his goal.

Expressing keen disappointment and noticeably discouraged at the outcome of his second attempt within 16 days to cross the nation in a day, the lieutenant took heart in a moral victory and in the hope that he might still have another chance to fulfill his life-time ambition.

Lieutenant Maughan's plane was at the air field here today undergoing repairs to the oil tank, and mechanics expected to have it ready for flying within a few hours. After a good night's rest, the aviator today planned to cross the border of his home state, Utah, and visit his mother and wife.

His first act after coming to a hotel here was to call on long distance telephone his mother at Logan, Utah, and his wife at Heber City, Utah, to tell them that he had failed.

After visiting them and other friends in his home town, Logan, not forgetting the tolling town printers for whom not so many years ago he was a humble "printer's devil," Lieutenant Maughan probably will take off on a return flight to Mitchell Field via the route he took in attempting his trans-continental flight.

Lieutenant Maughan referred disgustedly to reports from the east that his failure to complete the flight might have been due to tampering with the oil tank before he started on his history-making trip.

Lieutenant Maughan was unsuccessful in his first attempted trans-continental flight when a clogged oil feed line forced him down at a suburb of St. Joseph, Mo.

Will Sinclair Gold Shake the Twenty Year Hoodoo

of Rancocas?

*The Strange Drama of Heartaches and Suicide
Talked of by Racing
Men as the Triumphs and Troubles of the Stable Now
Startle

It is the moment of the race for the Belmont stakes, one of America's turf classics. Zev, courageous three-year-old, takes the front in the opening strides of the race and the crowd sees him carry the cherry and black colors of the famous Rancocas stables winging around the track to an easy victory.

It is a scene of repetition, for earlier in the season the brilliant brown colt had done the same thing at the Kentucky Derby, while Grey Lag, his stable mate, gained further glory for Rancocas by winning the Metropolitan and Suburban stakes.

Froud Rancocas—with its background of romance, of mysteries and tragedies—is a name to conjure with, and now with its return to prominence men are asking, "What of the new owner? Can he break the hoodoo of the famous racing stable once and for all? Or is he merely reaping the benefit of the Rancocas twenty-year luck?"

For the new owner is Harry F. Sinclair, amazing oil millionaire, vital figure in Wall Street. He brings new blood, new courage, fresh millions to the ancient stud farm; and apparently he cares nothing for historic hoodoos or tales of tragedy laid away in the lavender of memory.

But listen to what the old racing men say! "The Rancocas luck comes every twenty years, but between times watch out. It was back in 1861 that old Pierre Lorillard first went up the Rancocas river and selected the site for the stud farm. He and his beautiful young wife were on their honeymoon. It was twenty years later that his horse, Iroquois, won the English Derby, the first American entry ever to turn the trick. Twenty years after that, the stable again came to the front, and shortly after the owner died. In the twenty years just past tragic events dogged Rancocas. And now—?"

Now the hoodoo has already shown its ugly face, if only for a brief moment. For just before the Latonia Derby Zev, the priceless, struck himself and injured his leg; Grey Lag was kicked by a stable mate, and a third Rancocas horse, Bud Lerner, strained a tendon. But one can imagine stoutheaded Harry Sinclair tightening his jaw and saying:

"The Rancocas hoodoo? It is gone forever—if it ever existed. My horses are the best in the land, and my trainer, Sam Hildreth, is a wizard. I am not afraid."

Out at the New Jersey farm Trainer Sam C. Hildreth, veteran of a hundred racing successes, chews a straw characteristically and pulls his Panama hat over his shrewd, narrowed eyes. And one can imagine him saying:

"Hoodoo? I tell you the only kind of luck I believe in is good luck. That's why I've named one of our most promising young two-year-olds 'The Wasp,' after the character played by Emily Ann Wellman in a Broadway play. For Emily Ann was a success in the role of 'The Wasp,' and I believe my two-year-old will be another success in his own right." But the other old racing men—a superstitious lot—wag their heads and say: "Yes, Sam Hildreth's clever and Harry Sinclair's got a lot of money. But—wait and see."

To get the true picture of the Rancocas hoodoo, which Harry Sinclair may have acquired, it is necessary to turn back to the time when the famous farm first came into being. The story, as it grows and becomes a full-blooded drama, is an amazing history of intrigue and mystery and it becomes doubly interesting as it blends with the life story of Sinclair himself.

The first of the Lorillards in America founded the tobacco company that bore the name in 1760. Just about one hundred years later, Pierre Lorillard, head of the family and the tobacco company at that date, went with his bride on a honeymoon yachting trip up the Delaware river. From the deck of the yacht they saw the sylvan spot on the banks of the Rancocas where Lorillard decided to establish a country house and stud farm. Neither he nor his beautiful bride realized that the decision was to bring about indirectly their separation and the great tragedy of their lives. Lorillard was rich and one of the leaders in the club and social life of early New York. He followed out his plan and established the stables which made him famous throughout America. Then twenty years after he decided that he had a horse fast enough to win the English Derby, and he took the animal overseas. London just laughed at his audacity, but Lorillard's horse, Iroquois, won, and it was the Prince of Wales, afterward Edward VII., who led the animal to the paddock.

This was the first twenty-year peak of success gained by the Rancocas colors, and no sooner was it past than the hoodoo began to get in its work. Two months later, Lorillard returned to America, not alone, but with a mysterious woman companion. She was Mrs. Lillian Barnes Allen, and no one knew who she was nor whence she came. But she continued to be seen with the owner of Rancocas, so he and the wife of his youth parted.

Then the drama gained momentum. The aristocratic Mrs. Lorillard retired from the public eye, but Mrs. Allen was very much in it. Her gowns and jewels, her splendid New York home, her constant appearances with Lorillard kept the gossips' tongues wagging.

Then Lorillard's luck on the race track seemed to change and the Rancocas colors were not the winning ones. And he became known as a hard loser. Perhaps the Rancocas hoodoo affected him, for he seemed to become a disgruntled old man in the gathering years, dissatisfied with his country and friends.

The rounding out of that next twenty-year cycle saw the Rancocas colors again successful and saw Pierre Lorillard hastening to England to look after his horses there. Then came his sudden return, mortally ill, and his dying request that his wife visit him in New York. Finally, the proud Mrs. Lorillard agreed, but as she entered her husband's bedroom, she saw Mrs. Allen standing beside him. And, according to the story, she turned without a word and left.

So the hoodoo continued. Lorillard died and left Rancocas to Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Lorillard refused to wear mourning. The Lorillard family tried to prevent the new owner from using the famous cherry and black colors, and on one occasion, Pierre Lorillard, Jr., withdrew a horse from a race when he learned that his father's companion had entered one for the same race. The feud grew and when the family tried to buy the Rancocas stables from Mrs. Allen, she refused because of the bitterness involved. Then Mrs. Allen married and passed from the scene.

In the meantime, the Rancocas hoodoo seemed to pursue Pierre Lorillard, Jr. In 1907, his wife died mysteriously in Washington, D. C. The official reason given was suicide and the gossips turned to the Rancocas farm to find a cause. It was said that the failure to recover the farm for the family had embittered the days of young Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., and helped to bring the tragic end. But this, of course, could not be known definitely.

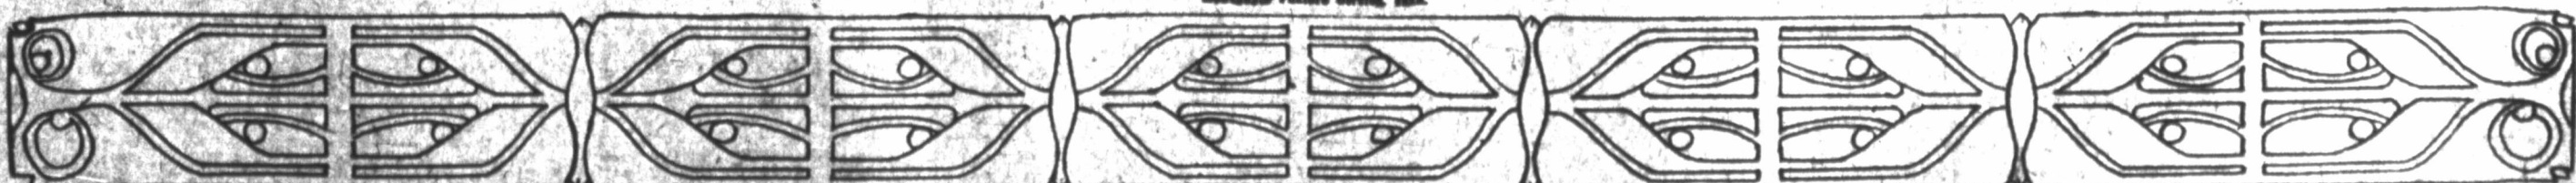

From that time, Rancocas moved along smoothly until the day not so very long ago when Sinclair, of oil fame, acquired the farm and its horses. Sinclair is a romantic figure. He is still young and not so many years ago, he was a drug clerk in Independence, Kansas. He inherited some money, and he speedily increased it by buying wheat on margin. Then he turned to the stock market and lost it all.

But the experience had given him a taste for venturesome things. Before long, an oil boom swept the country near him and young Sinclair was soon in the very center of it, buying and selling oil lands and laying the foundation for his present gigantic fortune.

This is the man who bought Rancocas and, with the aid of shrewd Sam Hildreth as his trainer, set out to make as big a stir in the racing world as he has in Wall Street. Under the advice of Hildreth, he bought horses warily and well. And this year—1923, and twenty years to a dot from the latest great Rancocas success—he scores his triumph. Twenty years, because there was a period of two years, from 1901 to 1903, after old Lorillard's death, when the colors were not seen on the track.

Then came the break in the luck a few weeks ago, when Zev and Grey Lag were injured. But Sam Hildreth stoutly believes that Rancocas will go on to new triumphs, especially next year, when the stables will be reinforced by still other speedy colts, including 'The Wasp,' named after Emily Ann Wellman.

So the world watches the struggle—with Sinclair gold and Hildreth horse sense on one side, and on the other the Rancocas hoodoo.

Grigsby Circuit Smash and George Steuland's Spirit, Pitching With Loose Rip Assist Hopefuls To Win

By AD PARKER.
MOOREHEAD, July 19.—The Spudders got over again, their second time in the last five starts on the road, but it was a tight pull. In every inning after the sixth the Buffs had chances to put the game away, but the Grigsby's without the strain and emerged with a 4 to 1 victory.

The winning margin was represented by Denver Grigsby's home run between the decks of the right field fence, with a runner aboard. The first two men to face him in the sixth inning were Grigsby and Stuland and it looked like another bad day for the Grigsby, but Stuland never got him through. Tanner then came in and he walked him out of the inning on a third.

The Spudders hit Bill Bailey hard in the eighth and Kircher worked the ninth. Stuland gets credit for the win and Grigsby the loss.

The delegation of critics that has held over the club house at Athletic Park for the past week was broken up by Tanner's walk and Stuland's home run. In an effort to bolster the defensive strength of the club another second base, Coombs was started in the second and Carlson at first. The new combination worked nicely.

The Buffs got one out of Stuland in the first. Bescher walked and Coombs sent him to third with a single to left. Schmitt made a fine backstop stop of Tanner's hit and Bescher was run down.

Sport Sub Sidelights

Victory No. 2 on the road. It was a tight pull.

Hook Cotter and Rip Wheeler, the two latest additions to the hospital crew are due to arrive home Friday. Cotter is down with an attack of malaria. Rip says his arm is sore.

George Steuland pulled a rib loose, the doctor says, but despite the injury he rallied to the support of the Spudders in Thursday's game. Such an exhibition of spirit cannot help but win admiration from the fans as well as the players. All the boys deserve a word of credit. The fans know and so do the players that the team is crippled to such an extent that a win seems nearly impossible even before game starts.

Although Berger and Bescher are in the game and are giving creditable account of themselves both in the field and the bat, neither one are able to play the game they want. Berger cannot trust his leg to such an extent that he is regarded as dangerous on the paths and Berger's injury kept him from cutting down two hits Thursday which would have been easy ones for him had he not been hampered with the lame dog.

Butcher Boy Weiss had started himself a string of hitting safely in consecutive games. Up to Wednesday he had connected safely in ten consecutive games. He rattled his average from .414 to .419 and during that time hit safely 15 times out of 36 times at bat for an average of .419.

Following the announcement from Beaumont that President Don K Roberts had received a communication from Mike Steiner that the $1,000 fine and $50 a day penalty placed on the Spudders club because of being over the salary limit, President Harvey of the local club announced that a $50 a day penalty would not apply as a club bill of health had been secured from President Roberts shortly after the announcement three weeks ago.

Wichita Falls baseball fans are waiting to witness the race in the City League. The North Methodist and Utilities are tied for first honors. The race has been the most interesting one throughout the season and hundreds of fans have attended the games regularly.

Local tennis court starts are putting forth efforts to win honors in the city tennis tournament which starts here Monday. Three courts have been selected where the games will be played. A large number of new players have already registered and it appears as though the matches will be both interesting and entertaining.

Wichita Falls has an exceedingly large number of fight fans as was evidenced by the crowds that lined the Dempsey-Gibbons and the Williams-Firpo bouts at the Times building. Last week the boxing matches at the lake drew over 1,000 and it is expected that nearly twice that many will attend the affair at the lake tonight. The matches are being given under the auspices of the American Legion.

THEY WIN TIES THEM WITH LEAGUE LEADERS

The Utilities Club won from the Texas Company, Thursday afternoon by a score of 9 to 1 in a fast seven inning game and as a result the victory moved into a tie for first place with the North Methodist in the City Baseball League.

The win practically eliminates the Texas Company team from the race in the second half of the season. The race is getting very interesting and the next week's games will probably be the deciding factor in the league leadership.

Both teams scored in the first inning and in the third the Texas Company moved into the front by a one-run margin and added another in the fourth and fifth, but in the last two innings they were unable to score off Bailey's delivery. Davis of the Texas Company had a perfect day at bat.

Following the announcement from Beaumont that President Don K Roberts had received a communication from Mike Steiner that the $1,000 fine and $50 a day penalty placed on the Spudders club because of being over the salary limit, President Harvey of the local club announced that a $50 a day penalty would not apply as a club bill of health had been secured from President Roberts shortly after the announcement three weeks ago.

The Scoreboard

CHICAGO, July 19.—The two New York leaders took two heavy thumps yesterday and the challengers crept just a little closer. The Giants playing in the Polo grounds, were completely whitewashed. St. Louis was satisfied with nothing but home runs and took three, the only score markers during the whole game. Two errors hit by Mueller and one by Bottomley.

In Detroit the Yankees were smothered, 9 to 2. Philadelphia won 7 to 2 and broke the St. Louis Browns' winning streak of six in a row.

In a close pitching battle in Cleveland, the Indians trimmed the Senators, 5 to 2. Speaker's extra base drives winning the game for the home team.

The White Sox, playing at home, easily defeated Boston, 5 to 1. Pittsburgh won in Boston, 3 to 4. With one out in the eighth, Melvin the Braves' first baseman, lined into a triple play, Traynor, R. Adams to Grimes.

In Philadelphia Chicago ran away with the game, 7 to 1. The Brooklyn Robins won the second game of the series from Cincinnati 1 to 0.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Cy Williams of the Philadelphia Nationals and Babe Ruth of the Yankees are still running neck and neck in their home run race. Cy being one ahead of the New York slugger 33 for the season. Babe appears to be getting the upper hand, however, for while Cy has made only five home runs since the end of May, Ruth has made 11, eight of which were whacked in the first 15 days of July.

Even so the New York fence wrecker is 14 homers behind his 1921 record, but at this time that year, Babe had 36 of the season's 59 to his credit.

NEW YORK, July 19.—(AP)—British North American Express Co. has announced that it will increase the tax burden on today to get.

No-income tax is collected in the district. There is only a nominal land tax, railway fares have not been increased since 1911, tobacco is cheaper than in any other place in the world, chickens sell for a shilling apiece and whiskey for eight shillings a bottle.

These facts are not taken from the statistics of a colonization agent, but are found in the official report of the British government authorities in the district.

Incidentally the report says the natives have given up their old habit of head hunting.

Forty Qualify In Metropolitan Open Golf Championship With Three Tied at 146 For 36 Holes

By THOMAS L. CUMMINSKEY.
Metropolitan Service Sports Editor.
SMIT, N. J., July 19.—It's really desirable thing to be able to write "Metropolitan open golf champion" after one's name. Of course, it's nothing like "national open champion." But one that the brilliant amateur, Bobby Jones, has seen to that open, the "Met" is the best thing at present.

At the end of the second and final round of qualifying play today, here at the Canoe Brook Country Club, the pros were evincing a most business-like interest in the Metropolitan. The exhibition season is not far away, and to win it will be considerable. Particularly as it has a long and large list of stars in the hunt.

Joe Kirkwood, the Australian magician of Haver, MacDonald Smith, San Francisco star, and Bob MacDonald, Chicago luminary, are tied tonight with 146 for 36 holes. The stroke ahead in qualifying will count in the final round on Saturday.

Next in line is Walter Hagen, holder at one time of another of every title held in the world. Then comes young Jimmy Farrell and the veteran Jim Barnes, who have been playing exhibitions together in the past year with 148 a piece. Emmet Fenchel, a finished golfer from Youngstown, Ohio, and Bobby Cruikshank, who Sunday was in that historic play-off for the national open with Bobby Jones, followed with 149 to their credit.

Gene Sarason, national open champion until he was vanquished at Inwood, was just going so-so with 152. Frank Gallet, of Fort Washington, N. Y., and Abe Espinosa, of San Francisco, who did well for a while at Inwood, also finished the qualifying round with 152. Forty men qualified.

STEERS 5, CRABS 6. GALVESTON, July 19.—Galveston was a thrilling 19-inning battle from the Dallas team, when with two out and the count two strikes and three balls, Diefel singled and the first base line, scoring Knott from third with two winning runs. ## Household Suggestions

Lemon Meringue Pie.
For the crust of the lemon meringue pie, mix one and one-half cups of flour with one-half teaspoon salt, mix in one-fourth cup of lard and moisten to a stiff dough with cold water. Pat and roll out on a floured board and spread with one-third of a quarter cup of butter. Fold into three folds, roll out again and again spread with butter. Repeat, using the remaining third of butter. Roll out to fit two small, or one large plate. Place the paste on outside of plate, prick with a fork and bake. Fill with lemon filling, cover with meringue and bake eight minutes.

Lemon Filling.
1 cup sugar.
1-2 cup flour.
2 cup boiling water.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 cup lemon juice.
Grated rind of 1 lemon.
3 egg yolks.
1 tablespoon butter.
Mix sugar and flour, add boiling water and cook until thickened, having sauce pan over a hot fire. Then cook over water for 15 minutes. Add egg yolks, lemon juice, rind and butter. Cook two minutes, turn into a dish and cool.

Meringue.
3 egg whites.
1 cup confectioner's sugar.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
Beat whites of eggs until stiff, add sugar gradually and continue beating until mixture will hold its shape. Add vanilla, place on top of pie and cook in a moderate oven eight minutes.

Fried New Potatoes.
It is quite customary to find the new potatoes, when they appear, very small. The following is a good way to serve them:
Wash and scrape the potatoes, and place in a kettle of boiling water to which a tablespoon of salt has been added for every 12 potatoes. Cook for 15 minutes. Drain thoroughly, and fry in deep fat, or saute in a small amount of fat until brown. It will take two minutes, in deep fat, but a longer time in the frying pan. Sprinkle over them chopped parsley just before serving.

Cherry Pie.
"Can she make a cherry pie?"
That's the query and exclamation of housewives and husbands when inside of the oven from rusting, rub it with a cloth dipped in linseed oil.

Old Leather Books.
Old leather books that look rusty and unclean may be freshened by rubbing them with a cloth dipped in olive oil.

Cooked Celery.
Cooked celery makes a very delicious vegetable and a welcome change. Wash two or three heads and cook in a beef, chicken or veal stock for 20 or 40 minutes. Serve with a thickened gravy.

The Banker's Wife

THESE were the first customers to call at PIGGLY WIGGLY stores. They weren't ashamed to do their grocery buying themselves. People like this don't have to be ashamed—they are a law unto themselves—they now have money and position because they did not spend all their days "aping" after someone else. Having had all along a supreme confidence in themselves, what somebody else thought about a thing didn't matter to them.

The kind of woman who does not see any good in saving $25 or $50 a month on her grocery bill is usually the kind that visits charity in public places and neglects some of the charitable acts she could do in her own home—a hard-working husband there may be at home who "grins and bears" and looks on with pity at a wife who is ashamed to do a little bit herself to help him lay something aside for the rainy day of old age.

Wife of Him Who Is Otherwise Well to Do

Don't forget, too, there are just about as many "snobs" among the husbands as there are among the wives, and when they are snobbish they can one at a time put their wives "in the shade."

Never since the world began has a system of distributing food products been offered the customer—the person who actually eats the eatables—that is of such economical values as the PIGGLY WIGGLY system. It is fashionable to trade at the PIGGLY WIGGLY. You had just as well get this straight now.

Don't be behind time. Go tomorrow to PIGGLY WIGGLY and get yourself in style.

ESCAPE WAS MADE FROM OFFICERS IN FIELD LAST WEEK

The man arrested by Texas Rangers McCormick and Koonman at 4 o'clock Friday morning in a house near the railroad tracks at Dover, escaped late in the day, was the same person who had made his escape from Ranger Koonman and Officer Hebert in the Freeman-Hampton fields last week, the day before the fatal shooting of Frank Zimmerman. The officers had made a raid on several places and had confiscated a large amount of whiskey. The man was among those under arrest, but while they were awaiting the arrival of the sheriff from Archer City the man made his getaway. The woman found with the man in Wichita Falls Friday afternoon had also been arrested in the raid at Freeman-Hampton and was hurried over to the sheriff at Archer City. She also made a getaway from the officers before arriving at the county jail.

Charlie Items

Rainfall. Several weeks' drought was broken here when local showers began falling here on Friday afternoon. Rain was greatly needed in this section of the country. Corn and feed crops were injured by the weather, but a fair yield may be expected as the rain came before extensive damage had been done. The cotton crops are fine.

Electric Lights. J. L. Block is this week replacing the lighting system he had previously installed with a much larger plant. The new plant will be sufficiently large to meet the demand for lights of the entire town. Block brings another convenience to the people of Charlie. Mr. Block thinks he will have the system ready for lighting the town by the last of this week.

New Gas. Work on the Platters Oil Company site, which is now being constructed, is progressing nicely. All of the machinery for the gas is now on the ground.

Club Meeting. The Clay county boys' and girls' club meeting which was held at Henrietta last week and which was conducted under the auspices of County Agent T. B. Lewis and County Demonstration Agent Miss Beaudry, was attended by several club members from Charlie.

The names of the girls that attended from Charlie are as follows: Misses Sibyl Barger, Zelma White, Ruby Pearl Barger, Clara Ferguson, Victoria Barger, Bonnie Lee Jones, Audrey Hensley, Bernice Barger, Rachel Stewart, Vera Lee Gunnella, Frances Stewart and Ella Edwards. The boys attending from Charlie were Vincent Hardwick and Roy Presley.

The youngsters report a fine time and are loud in their praises about how the various women's clubs of Henrietta entertained them, serving them lunch on both days of the encampment.

Cemetery Work. Mrs. B. D. Dearing, president of the Charlie Cemetery Association, announced that the 37th day of this month has been set for the day on which to hold the next cemetery working. The work for this day will be the setting of the fence posts in concrete and the finishing of the driveway. In order to complete this work several loads of sand will have to be hauled and therefore as many of the workers as can conveniently do so should take wagons and teams.

Mrs. Winstingham Dies. Mrs. Lucy Killey Winstingham, 49, died at her home Friday after a several weeks' illness, and was buried in Charlie cemetery Saturday. Is the shortening pure?

"MRS. TUCKER'S looks good enough to eat just that way, doesn't it? It's so perfectly clean!" That is a remark we have heard made about Mrs. Tucker's time and again. And that is just the way you will feel the first time you open a can of Mrs. Tucker's and see its creaminess and snowy whiteness.
