YOUNG COTTON CROP OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

GRAHAM, TEXAS, July 22.—Condition of the cotton crop in Young County for the week ending July 21 is substantially as follows: In the western portion of the county where small cotton crops are raised, the hands and grasshoppers have done considerable damage. In many instances small fields have been completely destroyed. As we approach the heavier cotton producing districts in the northern section of the county, little or no damage has been done. Continued dry weather has been very favorable for cleaning up the cotton crop. Cotton is in excellent condition. Taken as a whole, the cotton crop in Young County has not suffered yet through lack of rain. In fact, the weather up to date has been very valuable in getting rid of many pest weevils, and with a general rain within the next week farmers will consider conditions very favorable for a good yield.

Mitchell Hears Carpenters Who Work on Scaffold

WACO, July 22.—Erection of the scaffold on which Hoy Mitchell, negro, is sentenced to hang next Monday, began this morning in the jail yard only a few feet from Mitchell's cell. The condemned negro hears every movement of the saw and hammer as the gibbet is constructed. He had no comment to make when workmen assembled this morning and began work on the scaffold, expecting to have it completed during the day.

Sheriff Stegall this morning purchased the half inch rope with which Mitchell is to hang. He was aided in the selection by County Clerk John W. Baker, who executed three white men while he was sheriff of McLennan County. At the sheriff's request, Mr. Baker will make the noose.

The distance from the floor of the platform to the ground will be 12 1/2 feet. When Mitchell is dropped and the rope becomes taut, the negro's feet will be three and a half feet from the ground. The drop will be 11 1/2 feet.

It has become known that Mitchell was a truant in the McLennan County Jail July 23, 1918, the date that John Williams, also a negro, was hanged. Mitchell heard the dull thump when Williams' body was dropped. "I didn't think I'd be the next man to be hanged," Mitchell told a visitor to his cell.

The crime for which Mitchell is to hang is the murder of Mrs. Ethel Denecamp, but he was given the death penalty for five other murders.

TEXAS MAN TAKES LIVES OF FAMILY; COULDN'T GET WORK

COLUMBIA, TENN., July 22.—Mrs. Ophie Dugger, aged 36, and her two children, a boy of four and a girl of two, are dead, and Ophie Dugger, the husband and father, is dying in the King's Daughters hospital here as the result of a sudden fit of melancholia on the part of Dugger Sunday.

Dugger, according to the sheriff, used a razor to cut the throats of his wife and two children and then turned the weapon upon himself.

The tragedy took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jacobs at Carters creek.

Mrs. Jacobs is a sister of the slain woman.

According to Jacobs, Dugger, who came to this section recently with his family from Plainview, Texas, had been in Nashville for a week searching for work. He returned from that city only a few days ago and stated that he had been unable to obtain a job, working only one day of the week in Nashville. Jacobs stated that Dugger had hooded his eyes and had been in a state of mind and that this is believed to have affected his mind and resulted in the tragedy.

CROWDS! CROWDS! CROWDS!

Mount Vesuvius in Eruption

Would not have poured out red hot lava any faster than good old Wichita Falls poured out the high-heeled and those also with heels not so high. The Silk Stocking Crowd, the Crowd with Cotton Stockings, and some possibly without Stockings—all of these and more too thronged the Wichita Falls PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores Saturday and carried away with them $3,150.14 in good things to eat.

And they waited on themselves, a basket was furnished free as they entered the store, each customer passed into the first aisle and found on each side a display of fine grocery articles with a swinging price tag in front of each assortment. What she chose to select was selected, and thus through four aisles 'til the checker's desk was reached, where the articles were tabulated on an adding machine, then paid for. At the same time, the bundle wrapper was removing the articles from the free basket into a paper bag (also free), and the customer passed out of the store with a wrapped package, clean and sanitary and paid for.

These customers got home with fresh groceries—clean groceries—a bunch of clerks and porters had not had a mad, wild scramble over any of the things carried home. They had not been dropped on the floor, tramped on, dirt spilt into them. They had not been given to a delivery wagon to be jolted all over town before reaching their destination. They had not been mixed with other people's goods. They had not been mashed by some one sitting on them or stepping on them while in a delivery wagon. Nobody had been waiting at home one hour, two hours or a half a day for her groceries that didn't come because somebody else got theirs first.

They had not been left on the back porch step because nobody was home, and there to be at the mercy of a "hide and seek" game played by the cats and dogs of the neighborhood, who raced and jumped and smelt and licked and bit into some of the things.

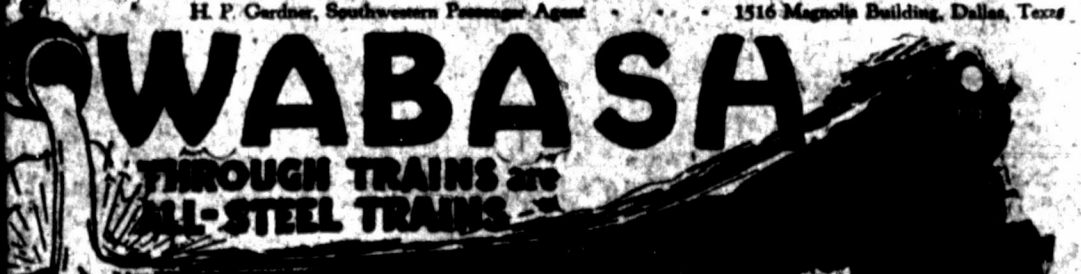

They were not thrown into a half-open door of somebody's kitchen by the impatient, tired and reckless delivery boy, who "skated" them across the floor and possibly mixed rice with coffee and potatoes with molasses while he ran down the driveway to get in a hurry to the next stop, where he could make another "skoot" along the kitchen floor with somebody else's things to eat.

No, ma'am "REE BOB TAIL-CAT TAIL," nothing like any of this happened to PIGGLY WIGGLY Customers. Each one of them got clean, sanitary Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables at a price margin never before had in the world from a Grocery store.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET

New York Cotton—The opening of the new board room of the cotton exchange today witnessed a record volume of business, with a smash in prices that carried the level of leading positions to 25 to 26 cents, or 45 to 50 cents per bale under closing prices last Friday.

Receipts of some good rains in Southern Texas, in connection with western Liverpool cables, induced heavy commission houses and local selling which forced prices of 25 to 26 cents at the start. The best early buying was by Japanese and trade houses, and at present the Hamble oil lease and the Perkins-Snyder lease are located on his land.

OFFICERS ARRIVE IN TIME TO SEE CONTESTANT DIE

BLOOD BATTERED SCENE
CAUSES ARREST OF 17
MEN.

BATTLE WAS STAGED AT FOOT OF BLUFF STREET

Head Fighter Has His Throat Cut and Died Within Few Minutes.

Slipping up on a crowd of over 50 Sunday evening at 4:30 o'clock, members of the sheriff's department arrived just in time to see one of the contestants in a battle for life.
The dying fighter had had his throat cut and the life blood ebbed out as the officers arrived.

The other fighter, who it was said was responsible for the infliction of the mortal wound, was taken into custody as were 17 men, the majority of whom spent the night in the county jail.

The crowd of 50 men and boys had gathered at the foot of Bluff street a half hour before the officers interfered, to watch their favorite rooster fight for his life. An active boxful of spurs were taken from one of the men who helped form the ring around the game birds.

According to the officers, the two roosters had been fighting some 10 minutes when they arrived near the stage. A rousing cheer greeted the officers' ears just as they were approaching and as they pushed their way through the crowd of men and boys the injured rooster passed out.
The winner was taken into custody.

The boys were separated from the beat and the latter taken to jail.
Three paid fines Sunday evening and were released, while the reminder went to jail. Practically all of them paid fines Monday morning and went their way.

Physical And Mental Health

Martin's Topic

An opportunity will be afforded each evening this week to hear Dr.
M. Martin, noted psychologist and specialist on mental and physical health, whose lectures will be delivered nightly at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, South.

Dr. Martin has been a member of the faculty of Texas Woman's College, Fort Worth, for the past six years and has also taught in many of the great universities of the United States and Europe. He is conducting the current year in a lecture tour of the states west of the Mississippi. Next year he plans to speak at Glasgow University, Scotland.

In addition to his college work at Fort Worth, Dr. Martin found time to teach classes ranging from 20 to 150 in number of students. Instructing them in the fundamental principles of right living and right thinking. As one direct result of his precepts, he stated Monday that 1,000 families were now living on a properly balanced diet, thereby increasing their mental and physical efficiency in a marked degree.

SAINT PETER IS DR. NAT GRAFTON'S SERMON SUBJECT

Dr. Grafton selected the 29th verse of the 14th chapter of Matthew for his morning text at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, selecting for his subject "Impetuous Peter."

"Peter has been subjected to more criticism than perhaps any of the other followers of the Lord Jesus Christ," said Dr. Grafton. "He is easily the most popular of Christ's disciples and I think his popularity is due to the fact that he more nearly resembles us than does any other of the disciples.

"He was intensely human, and so are we; He was uncertain in his loyalty, and so have we been uncertain in our loyalty; he was impulsive in his actions, and so are most of us impulsive in our actions; wrong, and I believe the majority he was quick to repent when he did us are quick to repent when we go wrong; he was loving in his nature and so are we loving. He had in him great possibilities, and so most of us have, if properly developed. If you will read the book of the Lord's disciples, and for this reason is the most popular.

"He was the best known apostle and leader of his time. Some people are instinctively leaders, Peter was the moustache of the disciples. He was a man closely associated with reason; his heart was on fire for the love of Jesus Christ. When Christ sat upon the shore that morning, after he had baked those fishes, and Peter saw him, he straightway left his boat and swam to shore to greet the master. The other discip-ples rowed their boat to the land and greeted him.

"Peter, Easily Swayed.
"Peter was tormented in his nature. He was easily swayed.
Such a nature causes many a mistake, but after all it is the ven-erous spirit that wins out and accomplishes his life. The man who takes chances in the man who is going to make errors, but at the same time he is going to accomplish something.

"There are too many calculated natures in this world, there is much to be desired in that safety-first nature in a man who makes sure that he can finish before he undertakes. The Lord Jesus Christ himself commended that sort of a spirit.
"Peter was a man of action. He wasn't the sort of a fellow to grab a piano stool when a piano is to be moved, but got hold of the piano at the end and did his dead level best help move the piano. He loved action. If you will read the book of Mark, in the first chapter you will

"When Peter had denied his Lord and Master, Jesus looked him right in the eye. The scriptures state he wept and went out to be with himself. Peter felt he had broken his trust and was unworthy of any love, respect and confidence; that he was down in the depths of despair and gloom and on the following Sunday morning Jesus came from the tomb and he met certain of the women to whom he said 'go and tell my disciples and Peter that I am alive and have come forth from the tomb.' I imagine those words filled his heart with joy because he felt he was unworthy of the confidence placed in him. Jesus is saying the same thing to you people. He loves you still. He knows how weak you are.

"The other most beautiful instance has reference to the resurrection. He is talking with his disciples after the resurrection, and thrice He asks Peter 'lovest thou me' and Peter answers 'Lord, thou knowest I love thee.' Three times Jesus had him renew his covenant vow of love for his Lord and Savior."

Oh, New We Knew.
LONDON, July 22.—Preservatives in food are responsible for a lot of the appendicitis that's floating around now. So a medical officer testified at the hearing of a firm charged with making sausage so it would retain its flavor longer.

Thought Trust Broken.
When Peter had denied his Lord
self. Peter felt he had broken his

STAMFORD, TEXAS, July 22.—
The exhibit department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in charge of E. M. Whitaker, is making strenuous efforts to have as many west Texas counties represented at the various state fairs of Texas as possible.

Whitaker has been touring the entire western part of the state interesting counties to arrange agricultural displays for the State Fair at Dallas. Last year 90 per cent of the exhibits at this exposition came from west Texas counties and 19 of the prizes, ranging from first down, almost in unbroken succession, were copped by these counties. Interest this year is greater and many counties which have never ventured to Dallas with county exhibits are manifesting interest, so as to warrant the belief that the agricultural exhibitions at this fair this year will be the greatest ever held.

County exhibits are also being lined up for the Texas-Oklahoma State Fair at Wichita Falls. This fair held its first exposition last year and a number of west Texas counties were induced by the exhibit department of the organization to display there. The number this year is expected to be greater.
What is said about the Wichita Falls exposition may be said about the Central West Texas Fair at Abilene.

West Texas is in tall clover this season. The line of agricultural exhibits, which will be gathered, and sent to the various state and northern and eastern fairs, will be of much greater variety and appearance. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has discovered that its exhibit program is a powerful factor in the advertising of the growing west and of stimulating new development in territories which for the first time are becoming agriculturally inclined.
