OFFICERS HUNTING "THIRD MAN" IN SANTA FE KILLING MYSTERY; FINDER OF BODIES ALSO WANTED

Santa Fe Killing Victims and Third Man Who is Still Missing

To the right, man supposed to be W. Jackson, one of the men killed. Center, Jack Bishop of Illinois Bend, Montague county, also killed. To the left, man identified as Harry Longworth, known in Fort Worth as companion of Jackson and Bishop, present whereabouts unknown to officers.

Owner of Brown Hat Found Near Place Bodies Were Discovered Is Still Missing, and Man Who Reported Tragedy to Santa Fe Section Foreman Is Also Being Sought by the County Authorities

MEN IN PHOTOGRAPH IDENTIFIED

Harry Longworth, One of Trio, Known by Labor Agent and Barber—Bishop From Montague County, Where He Had Good Reputation—Man Supposed to Be Jackson Apparently Least Known Here

By means of a small photograph taken from the body of one of the men found near the Santa Fe track a mile north of the packing houses Thursday morning, The Telegram has been enabled to positively identify one of the dead men and the third man shown in the photograph, who is believed to have been near the place where the bodies were found about the time the two men met their death.

The two dead men, as told in The Telegram Thursday night, are Jack Bishop of Illinois Bend, Montague county, and a man supposed to be W. Jackson. The third man who was their companion in Fort Worth was known as Henry Longworth.

In the little picture, by means of which identification is established, two of the young men are wearing black hats. These have been identified as Bishop and Jackson. Black hats were found near the place where the bodies of the two were discovered. The picture shows the man identified as Harry Longworth, wearing a brown hat. A brown hat was found near the bodies of Bishop and Jackson, but its owner is missing.

Tickets found on the bodies of the two dead men indicated that they had had dealings with B. B. Bowen, an employment agent, whose office is in Main, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets.

The photograph was shown to Mr. Bowen by a Telegram reporter Friday morning. He said: "The man in the center is Jack Bishop; the man on the left is known to me as Harry Longworth, who some time ago I furnished transportation and shipped to the Cherrvale Construction Company at Helton. The third man, on the right, I know by sight, but I cannot recall his name."

The third man is the one on whose body was found a green ticket which showed that W. Jackson had paid B. B. Bowen $1.50 for securing him employment in Oklahoma. While Bowen was looking at the photograph of the three men the superintendent of the Cherrvale Construction company was present and he also recognized the man on the left of the picture as Harry Longworth, who, he said, drove a team for him a short time at Hilton, Texas.

William McBride, who runs a barber shop at the Mohawk hotel, furnishes some interesting data about the three men, and said: "I have known Jack Bishop and Jackson who was called Jack by those who knew him, for over two years. They have been in and out of Fort Worth quite a good deal during that time and were often met at my shop by a third man, with whom they would have long talks, but about what I don't know. From what little I could hear of their talk they always had some rather shady scheme on and were discussing how to carry it out. I never did know the name of the third man of the trio."

"Both Bishop and Jackson told me that they had a plan by which they could beat the games of craps and roulette and they always appeared to have ready money. They were patrons of my shop and their faces became familiar enough to me to recognize the faces in the picture.

Crowds Throng Morgue
The morgue where the two bodies are held was visited by quite a number of people Thursday, some prompted by a morbid curiosity, while others went for the purpose of identification.

Bishop's Reputation Good
The Telegram notified Sheriff Bryant of Montague county Friday morning of the finding of the bodies near Fort Worth in an effort to find something about Bishop, the man supposed to be from Montague county.

Man's Foot Found
In getting the bodies of the two men found dead on the Santa Fe tracks Thursday morning on a mile north from the packing house, the officers and undertakers' men overlooked the right foot of one of the dead men, which is a lead to a third man in the case.

Witness Wanted
There is a witness the authorities would like very much to get hold of, but they do not know his name or where his is.

Seek Owner of Hat
The third hat found near the dead bodies is still a mystery to the officers, and it is believed when the owner of it is found the mystery that surrounds this case will be easily solved.

MUSIC BUILDS UP BIG INDUSTRIES

Educator Declares Commerce Depends Upon Culture

CHICAGO, June 15.—Culture and the pursuit of the ethical are the stimulus and foundation of commerce and industry, declared Rev. Rufus A. White, to members of the graduating class of the Armour Institute of Technology in the annual college address at the commencement exercises held last night.

"It is exceedingly unfortunate," he said, "that our standing in the matter of culture should be gauged not by our best people, but by those whose wealth has grown faster than their mental attainments, who, in other words, are long on pocketbooks, but short on education and culture."

JUST FROG SKINS Cause Controversy Over Freight Rates Between Agents

Special to The Telegram. NE WOLEANS, La., June 15.—A most unusual question in classifying frogskins as freight was today asked of the freight agents of several railroads in this state by their rural agents. The question is whether a frog skin shall be classed with animal hides, bird skins, fish or in a class by itself, for which double rates shall be charged.

BIG STRIKE ENDS

Miners Ratify Agreement Reached at Conference in Kansas City. FORT SMITH, Ark., June 15.—Tellers completed the count here today in the referendum vote on the Kansas City agreement reached last week between the soft coal operators and the miners of the southwest, the agreement affecting Arkansas, Indian Territory and Missouri. It carried by 1,499 majority, about two-thirds. The Kansas miners previously favored the agreement. This, therefore, ends the strike in the southwest and the miners are expected to return to work next Monday, June 18. Many mines are already cleared, preparatory to starting up.

PILLOW FOR LETTERS

Couple Kneel on Love Notes As They Are Married. BALTIMORE, Md., June 15.—Miss Adele Anderson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson, and Charles McCome, both well known society people, were married kneeling on cushions stuffed with the letters they wrote to each other during their courtship. The bride is one of the prettiest girls in Baltimore and a great social favorite. The pillows were so fat that the doubters in the church wondered if the bride had not slipped a few of her love letters in along with those of the groom.

SCANDAL GROWS

Discovery Made That Tinned State Delicacies Are Worked Over. LONDON, June 15.—Revelations by the local papers today show the Chicago packing house scandal duplicated on a smaller scale. One large firm manufacturing tinned delicacies buys large quantities of old canned goods and works them over under loathsome circumstances. A thousand tins of putrid meat was seized by the inspectors. It is discovered the local slaughterhouses evade inspection of slaughtered animals unfit for food and use scraps in making sausage in violation of the sanitary rules.

The election of Mack Bergman the president of the Fort Worth Retail Grocers and Butchers' Association, means more than the honor to a Fort Worth man, who has done much missionary work for the interests of the state and local associations, for it means the location of the state headquarters at Fort Worth and that will be made plain in advertising Fort Worth, additionally to the reputation already made by the wonderfully successful pure food show held here lately, under the auspices of the Fort Worth branch of the association.

ROSEN HEIGHTS

Members of the Rosen Heights M. E. church, north, are now earnestly working out plans by which they can build a parsonage and own it in the future, thereby relieving the church from an eleven dollar rental obligation once a month. Rev. J. A. Christian, the pastor, in his regular ministerial calls, is presenting a subscription list, prepared by the finance committee, soliciting support for this movement. The need for a parsonage owned by the church itself is keenly felt by all. The church lot is a large one and it is the idea of the church to build the parsonage just west of the church building.

AMUSEMENTS

At Lake Erie. The Sunday schools of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Dallas held a joint picnic at Lake Erie yesterday, which was attended by several hundred children from both churches. Roller skating took the fancy of most and the big Palace rink was crowded both morning and afternoon sessions. At the latter the management arranged several races between boys of the two churches. One and one-half mile races were run, a fast race at the Palace Rink last Saturday, out with a sweeping challenge aimed at all racers in Fort Worth and Dallas in two miles or over.

Water Baseball at Lake Como

Friday night at 8:40 o'clock will be one of the first of the many surprises arranged for by the management of the Lake Como Amusement Company. A game of ball, to be played on water under league rules, by eighteen men and one umpire. All know the hardship of the umpire on the diamond, and one can imagine his troubles if his decisions do not suit the players on the water. He may be in for a dunking in the pond. This game is fast becoming the craze in the east and the management has gone to quite an expense to bring Captain Dave and his seamen here. The company has arranged for special car service Friday night.

NURSERYMEN TO VISIT FT. WORTH

Panther's City's Attractions Too Strong to Resist. The nurserymen are coming after all. Captain B. B. Paddock of the Board of Trade received word from Dallas Friday morning to the effect that in all probability members of the American Nurserymen's Association, which has been in session at Dallas this week, would be able to finish their work by noon and visit Fort Worth in the afternoon. The Telegram announced last week that a trip to Fort Worth by the nurserymen would be one of the features of the entertainment accorded the nurserymen. This was true, but owing to the large amount of business to be transacted by the association the plan had to be abandoned. But the attraction of Fort Worth is too strong to be resisted and the nurserymen, being only mortal, yielded to the temptation, and incidentally to the urgent invitations of the Fort Worth representatives and will reach the city at 4 o'clock over the Interurban.

The plan of entertainment includes a street car ride over the city and an automobile drive to the Riverside nursery northeast of the city. The party will leave for Dallas on the return trip at 7 o'clock and stop at Lake Erie for supper and an hour of pleasure at the resort over the Interurban.

A number of Fort Worth men will accompany the party to Lake Erie.

TO SAIL FOR BRITAIN

University Teacher to Spend Summer on Tour. Miss Jeanette Lewis, professor of history and economics at Fort Worth University, sails Saturday from New York for Liverpool. She is one of a party of four young women who expect to tour England and Scotland during the summer. All members of the party are graduates of Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa, and were schoolmates there. They go from Liverpool first to London and Scotland and then to Scotland to visit places of historic interest. From Scotland their journey slowly through England to London, where most of the time will be spent. Before returning home the tourists will take a short trip to Paris.

TEXAS RAILROAD PUZZLED BY

Intangible Asset Tax. Nut to Crack.

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, June 15. W. R. Davis, tax commissioner turned yesterday from a week on Hedwig's Hill to the capitol to a number of inquiries from the board regarding the intangible assets of the Texas Railroad Company. These letters for the most part from railroads wanting to the board arrived at the capitol. While a number of them were answered during the week, there were several others waiting for his arrival.

Among these letters was one from the Texas Railroad Company, which he wanted to see the intangible assets of the Rio Grande railroad, the same at $47,500, and which did not assess any intangible assets against the Brownsville and Mexico, being road, did not have on any intangible assets, and this road is being completely bonded for its full physical value. This is true of the Brazos Valley and several in the state that are term roads and are not completely bonded for their physical value. Captain Davis will remain for a day or two, when he will return to Hedwig's Hill and spend a few days there.

Intangible Asset Taxes a Hard Nut to Crack

Austin, Texas, June 15.—Captain W. R. Davie, tax commissioner, returned yesterday from a week's outing on Hedwig's Hill to the capital to attend to a number of inquiries and letters which have been received by the state tax board regarding the fixing of the intangible assets of the corporations which are subject to the tax on the Williams' intangible tax law.

Among these letters was one from Duval West, attorney for the Rio Grande Railway Company, and the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railway, in which he wanted to know how the board reached the intangible assets of the Rio Grande railway and fixed the same at $47,500, and why the board did not assess any intangible assets at all against the Brownsville road.

Questions Are Many. Among these letters was one from Duval West, attorney for the Rio Grande Railway Company, and the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railway, in which he wanted to know how the board reached the intangible assets of the Rio Grande railway and fixed the same at $47,500, and why the board did not assess any intangible assets at all against the Brownsville road.

Marriage to Estimable Woman Causes Question As to Its Legality. Denver, Colo., June 15.—Antone Wood, who spent several years of his life behind prison bars in the state penitentiary and who is now in New York on parole, is seeking an unconditional pardon. A few days ago Wood married an estimable woman, and his wife had become deeply interested in him. Under the law of this state, a parole convict cannot wed without permission of the state authorities, and it would appear that Wood, in marrying, had violated his parole. Then, too, there is a question as to the legality of the marriage.

SELL FAMOUS PASTURE

Comanche Reservation to Be Divided and Sold at Auction

Special to The Telegram. FREDERICK, Okla., June 15.—Some time ago congress passed a bill authorizing the sale of the famous Comanche pasture reservation, which lies along Red river, just across from Wichita and Wilbarger counties in Texas. The land is the finest in the southwest and will be sold some time this fall at public auction to the highest bidder. The sale will be subject to the homestead law and for a man to be eligible to buy land he must not own more than 160 acres of land in any state in the union, neither clause of the law is that no man must have any other land, but that he must have application for a home in this sale. The money derived for the sale of the land goes to the Comanche Indians and will be placed at interest by them or their agents. The terms of the sale are to be one-fifth down and one-fifth each in one, two, three and four years.

MANY OFFICIALS WILL LOSE JOBS

Statehood Will Force Large Number to Drop Salaries

By Associated Press. MUSKOGEE, I. T., June 15.—The greatest disturbance that will occur in the official life of Indian Territory following the passage of statehood will be in the Federal courts. Indian Territory will finally comprise one Federal district and have one set of Federal officers, where there are now four. There is in each of the four districts two judges each, drawing a salary of $5,000 a year. In each district a United States marshal, receiving $4,000 a year, who has an average of thirty officers and field clerks on duty, drawing a salary of $2,200 a year.

OIL WELL DRILLED

Yield Amounts to Thirty-Nine Barrels an Hour

Tulsa, I. T., June 15.—One of the best oil wells ever drilled in the territory fields was brought in yesterday on lot 57 adjoining the town of Ochelita in the Oklahoma nation. The well is the property of the Boston-Osage Oil Company. It is now flowing at the gauge of thirty-nine barrels an hour and promises to reach 1,500 barrels a day. The well is located on the new lead line has been installed. In order to handle the enormous production the other wells on the lease have been shut down for a time.

WOMEN BELIEVED SANTA FE VICTIMS WERE RELATIVES

A new sensation was given the mystery connected with the finding of two young men's bodies on the Santa Fe track one mile north of the packing houses early Thursday morning, when Mrs. Will Young, living in East Central avenue, North Fort Worth, called at the office of Justice C. T. Rowland Friday afternoon and declared she believed the two dead youths were brothers of her husband, Silas Young and Millard Young.

THREATEN DEATH TO RUSS. CABINET

Military Officers Form Conspiracy Under Czar's Eyes. St. Petersburg, June 15.—The press is unanimous in its criticism over yesterday's event in the lower house of parliament. The situation is strained to the breaking point. The attempt of the military procurator, General Pavloff, in behalf of War Minister Rudiger to shift the responsibility for military executions to the minister of the interior is a palpable violation of the issue raised by the house and reached throughout the country. The result is that a storm of indignation has been aroused and is being augmented by a cool attempt of the government to invade the inviolability of the members of parliament and its demand for the expulsion of M. Ulianoff.

THOUGHT MEN WERE BROTHERS

Woman Believed Santa Fe Victims Were Relatives. Mrs. Young said that the two young men had left home about two o'clock Tuesday morning, saying that they were going to grapevine. She said that the night before leaving the brothers had had some trouble. Mrs. Young did not call at the morgue to see the bodies, but based her theory on the newspaper descriptions of the two dead men. When shown the picture published in first editions of The Telegram taken from the photograph found on the bodies of one of the men, Mrs. Young could not identify any of the three persons. Officers who found the bodies and the man identified them as those of two of the men shown in the picture, afterwards identified by B. B. Bowen as Bishop and the man supposed to be Jackson.

Judge Brooks Declares Opposition Made Local Option an Issue

Italy, Texas, June 15.—Judge M. M. Brooks addressed a small audience here yesterday afternoon in advocacy of his candidacy for governor. The speaker was introduced by Mayor E. H. Murphy. His address was in line with the two delivered at Waxahatchee and Ennis Monday, except that he dealt at length on the local option question. He said that he was utterly opposed to the Willacy bill and was not in favor of changing the law in any way that would cripple its present good effects. He further stated that the whisky traffic was fighting him and that local option was an issue, but that the opposition had injected it into the campaign.

FIREMAN KILLED

Wagon Overturns and Wheel Breaks Occupant's Neck

Hillsboro, Texas, June 15.—Kid Harvey, driver of the hose cart for the Hillsboro fire department and well known among volunteer firemen of the state, was killed here about 8 o'clock last night while out with the hose cart and team exercising. In turning a corner onto another street the cart overturned, the wheel striking and breaking his neck. His head and face were also crushed. Death resulted immediately. He leaves a wife and two children. Funeral will take place tomorrow under the auspices of the firemen, Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows. Rease Fawcett was also on the cart, had his left shoulder dislocated. His injuries are not serious.

LEASES HIGH PRICED

Oil and Gas Tracts Bring As High As $12,800

Special to The Telegram. PHILIPPA, I. T., June 15.—Twenty minor oil and gas leases were sold here yesterday by Master in Chancery Thomas A. Sanson, by order of the United States court, which probably brought the highest price for any similar leases sold in Indian Territory. One lease brought $210 an acre, another, consisting of 165 acres, brought $2,800. Two just northeast of Sappulpa, were sold for $6,000. One eighty-acre lease $4,500 and the remainder sold for from $800 to $4,000. With the exception of one, all the leases are located in the Glenn oil and gas field, five miles southeast of this city.

TO INDICT ROADS

Giving of Rebates to Standard Oil Will Be Prosecuted

CHICAGO, June 15.—The federal authorities are about to begin action looking to the indictment of various railroads said to be granting rebates to the Standard Oil Company, also against the Standard for accepting them. It is believed enough evidence can be secured by the commerce commission to warrant action.

CALANTHE ORDER DEFERS ELECTION

Sessions Are Held at Colored I. O. O. F. Hall

Following is the official report of the proceedings of the session of the Independent Order of Calanthe, at the Colored I. O. O. F. hall, corner Thirtieth street and Jennings avenue: WORTH, Texas, June 14.—The Grand Council of Calanthe opened its third day session with ritualistic form. G. W. C. Mrs. A. D. Key presiding. Roll call and minutes of the previous session read and with some corrections adopted. The rules called for election of officers on third day, morning session. The order was suspended and election deferred until after the committee on grand court officers had reported. The report was received in sections. The grand worthy councillor's report was highly commended for her economical expenses and twenty-eight new courts that have been organized since the last grand session. The G. R. of needs was praised for the general neatness and accuracy of her report. DANIEL BOONE HONORED BY SONS OF KENTUCKY

Louisville Witnesses a Mimic Fight With Indians

STEVENSON TALKS

Great Floral Parade Fills the Streets of City and Celebration Is in Full Swing

By Associated Press. LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 15.—As yesterday was given over by the "Home Coming" jubilee to the memory of Stephen C. Foster, so today was for the greater part devoted to Daniel Boone. The great floral parade which was to have been held Wednesday and postponed because of rain, filled the streets of the business section of the city this morning with a parade of eight divisions in the parade. All the vehicles in the procession were beautifully and elaborately decorated with paper flowers. Glorification of Daniel Boone came later in the day in Cherokee Park, one of the most beautiful public recreation grounds in the country. At 2 o'clock there was a reunion of the descendants of Daniel Boone in the pavilion. About a dozen lineal descendants of the pioneer were present. An hour later a statue of Boone modeled by Miss Elid Yandell and presented to the city of Louisville by C. C. Bickel was unveiled.

Captainman Speaks. The statue stands half way up a densely wooded knoll in a charming part of the park. Just beneath the figure of Boone and covering half the driveway of the small station for the speakers, Breckenridge, Castleman of Louisville made the presentation of Boone to the city and acceptance for the board of park commissioners by Colonel R. Durrett. The statue was unveiled by Miss Helen Stewart of this city. After the unveiling was over ex-Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson, orator of the day, spoke.

Attack Garrison. Following the ceremonies at the Boone statue a picture of the many stirring events in the life of Boone was given in another part of the park. Strongholds situated upon the summit of a small elevation and called Fort Boonesborough were attacked by hordes of savages who were on the point of overpowering and annihilating the garrison when swarms of pioneers led by Boone in person arrived in time to drive away the Indians and save the fort and its inmates. The spectacle was given in a realistic manner and evoked hilarious cheers from thousands of people who gathered to witness it. Open air dancing finished the day in the park; the program being confined to reels and dances in vogue a century ago.

Tonight a grand ball for which elaborate preparations have been made will be held. Twenty thousand invitations have been issued and when Director General Hughes last night decided to issue no more cards, demands were still unabated. The event promises to be one of the most brilliant affairs of its kind ever held.

Stevenson's Address. Mr. Stevenson spoke as follows: "A Kentuckian born, I have kept the faith, and at your invitation, returned to bear some humble part in the ceremonies of this hour. The announcement that Kentucky had set apart a 'home coming' week, that the latch string was out and a glad welcome awaiting, touched the hearts of all the sons and daughters of the grand old commonwealth.

"Once in grace, always in grace; once a Kentuckian, always a Kentuckian. For wherever on this green earth the footsteps of her children may have wandered, all roads, at some time, lead back to the old home; to the hearth-stones around which cling the tender memories of childhood; to the little mound where sleep the ashes of ancestral dead.

"The earnest desire to meet and mingle with those whose ancestors with courage and hardihood and dangers of frontier life, whose fortitude and wisdom made sure and steadfast the foundations of a splendid state—Mississippi and the Ohio, at your cordial bidding, we are today in our ancestral home.

"The home coming to which you have invited us is without a parallel. The kindly words that have been spoken, the cordial grasp of the hand, the hospitality extended, all give assurance in the largest measure that we are welcome.

"I am honored by the invitation to speak on this, the greatest Kentucky day of the most illustrious of all the sons of this old commonwealth. Of one, a Kentuckian by birth, by adoption and illustrious and at all times in its grandest conception—an American. Of Lincoln, no words can be uttered, nor withheld, that could add to or detract from his imperishable fame. His name is the common heritage of all the people and all time.

"His career in grandeur and achievement by his single counterpart in our history. And what a splendid commentary this upon our free institutions—upon the sublime underlying principle of popular government. How inspiring to the youth of noble aims every incident of a pathway that led from the frontier cabin to the chief executive mansion, from the humblest station to the most exalted yet attained by man.

Heritage Small. "In no other country than ours could such attainment have been possible for the boy whose hands were injured by a toll whose bread was eaten under the hard conditions that poverty imposes; whose only heritage was brain, integrity, lofty ambition and indomitable purpose. Let it never be forgotten that the man of whom I speak possessed an integrity that could know no compromise, a purity of life that was never questioned, a patriotism that no sectional lines could limit, and a fixedness of purpose in achievement that knew no shadow of turning.

"In the light of what we now know so well, nothing is hazarded in saying that death of no man has been to his country so irreplaceable a loss—one so grievous to be borne—as that of Abraham Lincoln.

"The men who knew Abraham Lincoln, who saw his face to face, with few exceptions, passed to the grave. Another generation is upon the busy stage. The book has forever closed upon the grand pages of his strife. Sectional animosities, thank God, belong now only to the past. The mantle of peace is over our entire land and prosperity within our grasp.

"Through the instrumentality, in no small measure, of the man born upon your soil, the government established by our fathers, 'untouched by the finger of time,' has descended to us. The responsibility of its preservation and transmission rests upon the successive generations as they come and go. To the memory of Lincoln, let us, his countrymen, inspired by the sublime greatness of his wondrous life and great trust to God for all he has vouchsafed to our fathers, and to us in the past, take courage and turn our faces resolutely, hopefully, trustingly to the future."

25-FOOT LOT BRINGS $13,500 Tract in Houston Street Between 9th and 10th Sold

The last vacant lot on the east side of Houston street, between the court house and Tenth street was sold Friday morning by J. L. Johnson of the Ciero Smith Lumber Company to George Smith on the south side from D. S. Moore. The lot is 25x100 feet and lies between the Jennings building at the corner of Tenth street and the new building under construction at once and will erect a building of two or three stories. Real estate has been practically at a standstill for the last six weeks, but this sale is to mark a revival of activity in the sale of downtown property. Last week D. T. Bomar and J. Broad purchased a number of fine residences on the south side from D. S. Rose for a consideration of $26,000.

BUSINESS MEN TO CAMPAIGN NORTH Special Train Bearing Delegation Off for Chicago

A special train bearing a Texas delegation of business men passed through Fort Worth Friday morning on its way to Chicago; stopping at the Texas and Pacific station about ten minutes. The party included representative business men from all the important cities of the state and goes for the purpose of advertising the state in a practical way. Clarence Ousley is the only Fort Worth man to go, others being W. D. Reynolds and J. J. Hayslip. The party will spend Saturday in Kansas City, Sunday and Monday in St. Louis, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Chicago. After three days in Chicago the train will stop on its return trip Sunday, June 25, and returning by a different route make stops at South Berke, Kan., Kansas, Springfield, East St. Louis and St. Louis, ending at the latter city two days.

A NOVEL DISPLAY Waco Plans to Exhibit Paraphernalia of All City Departments

WACO, Texas, June 15.—There is talk of this city a very novel and educational display, possibly on the anniversary of the laying out of the city as a townsite. The proposition is to have the entire force of the city and all its paraphernalia in the parade, including the fire department, all city hands, wagons, carts, street sweepers, police, street sweeper wagons, gutter men, street force, and in fact every man who is in any way connected with the city, also every piece of machinery. It is believed that such a display would be educational to most persons, as the average man is ignorant of the immense machinery.

CLERKS ORGANIZE Tulsa Unions Have Membership Numbering Two Thousand

TULSA, I. T., June 15.—The retail clerks of this city have received a charter and organized a union in Tulsa. H. S. Condon was elected president and Fred Yeager secretary. The spirit of unionism is very prevalent in this city and labor organizations number almost two thousand members.

Disaster Affects Data At the headquarters of the railway mail service it is said that on account of the San Francisco disaster the data obtained after April 17 in the weighing of mails in this division will not be used, but traffic arrangements with the railway companies will be made on the basis of results obtained between the dates of Feb. 29 and April 17, inclusive. Orders to this effect have been received from Washington. This action nullifies practically all the work done after April 17 and up to June 5, when the weighing ended.

THE FINDING OF JOHN

Jane Was Simple-Minded But She Cherished the Pearl Above Price

It was in the fall of '63. Valley and hill and stream were bathed in autumnal glory. Mother earth glowed in the splendor of productiveness, and the harvest was full. Yet the voice of the mower and the song of the reaper were silent. The harvesters had fled. The Confederate forces were marching into Kentucky and taking possession of the strongest posts of the union army.

Louisville was the union rallying point. I was one of the party who came to Cincinnati with expectations of following the Ohio troops to Louisville, and never shall I forget the absorbing excitement of those days. Ohio and Indiana regiments; hither flocked the veterans. The streets were thronged with blue coats; a swaying phalanx of excited, serious, grieving people blocked the depots. Six trains had left for Louisville that day, and the seventh was pulling out when we found seats in a rear coach half-filled with soldiers.

It was not until we left the city limits that we became conscious of a woman's presence. She sat near the stove, a modest, sweet-faced woman. A babe not more than three weeks old slumbered on her bosom, while two children—the elder could not have been 4—clung to her skirts. We became interested in the children and soon won the mother's confidence.

She was on her way to Louisville to find her husband. He had enlisted in the army the previous spring. She had not heard from him since. She was desolate. She had waited and hoped patiently for his return, but days made weeks, weeks rounded into months, yet he came not. Then she heard the call to arms. All the able-bodied men round her backwoods buckled on their armor. It was night when she heard their muffled tread pass her cottage door, and gathering her babies together, she followed the departing troops. She had paid her fare and 25 cents was all she had now in the world.

"But I will find him," she said. "John was a good man. He will not let his children starve." "What was the number of your husband's regiment?" asked one. "I don't know," she replied, undisturbed by our expression of sympathy. "Do you know the name of the commander?" "No, sir."

"What makes you think you will find him in Louisville?" "I know it. He will be there." "My good woman," said our spokesman, "I am afraid your journey will be a fruitless one. How can you hope to find your husband, when you don't even know the number of his regiment? It will be like looking for a needle in a haystack."

"I will find him," was her confident reply.

RAILROADS TALK RETRENCHMENT

Rate Reduction Legislation Starts Interviews

MUST CUT EXPENSES

Managers Say Present Equipment and Schedules Cannot Be Maintained at Lower Fares

Not long since The Telegram directed attention to the fact that the legislation in Ohio, by which the railway fares were reduced to 2 cents had had an effect not foreseen in that it had forced railway companies to consider a lessening of the charges for passenger transportation by the electric trolley lines. Another result was the diminution of the earning ability of the trolley lines because, all things being equal as to fare, certainty and frequency of traffic, the preference there was given, manifestly, to the steam railway transportation over the trolley lines.

Another phase of the question crops up. Agitation in the western states more especially, as evidenced by the Wisconsin proposition, the Texas reduction sought by a majority of the state railway commission, the introduction of the Sherman bill in congress for a sweeping reduction of all passenger fares to 2 cents per mile on interstate business and other such legislation, has brought to the attention of the managers of the railroads that there will be attempts at wholesale reductions.

Must Cut Expenses

Naturally and until the earnings are increased, the first attempt will be in the way of retrenchments. This will take several forms. The passenger equipment will not be so fine, or even luxurious, as it is at present. There will be a reduction in the number of men employed, which will be as great as is consistent with efficiency and service. There may be a lessening of speed, for the high speeds almost demanded now entail much extra expense to bring the roadbed and track to the high speed, which was not the high standard of efficiency necessary if the trains run fast. Heavier rails, more solid construction of the track, stronger bridges, and cutting down grades, the elimination of curves, the shortening of the lines and a hundred and one things of great or small importance, but all playing their part, to bring the railroads to the standard that has been found useful when the public demands, and responding to that demand, the railroads strive to give good service in well-appointed coaches at high speeds.

Talk of Retrenchment

On the question of necessary retrenchments a general manager of one of the leading western railroads said last Wednesday evening: "Look at the conditions which confront the railroads. First, we have government regulation of railroad rates. Now a bill is introduced reducing interstate passenger rates to 2 cents per mile. Illinois has recently enacted a law which reduces the freight rates materially. Ohio has recently enacted a 2-cent rate law. Missouri passed a law last winter reducing freight rates, which was embodied in the Missouri law, and is now pending in the courts. Both parties in Missouri have 2-cent rate measures embodied in their platforms. It is true that the railroads are generally prosperous and these are prosperous times generally, but the railroads cannot make a profitable showing if the pressure from every direction continues to force them to pay less as much for locomotives and freight cars as they did ten years ago. The cost of maintenance of way and structures has also doubled since the beginning of the construction is necessary in retrenchment.

WEAK STOMACH

AND SICK HEADACHE CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Another Triumph for the Tonic Treatment for Disorders of the Digestive System.

The symptoms of stomach trouble vary. Some victims have a ravenous appetite, others loathe the sight of food. Often there is a feeling as if weight on the chest, a full feeling in the throat. Sometimes the gas presses on the heart and leads the sufferer to think he has heart disease. Sick headache is a frequent and distressing symptom.

A weak stomach needs a digestive tonic and that there is no better tonic for this purpose than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is shown by the statement of Mr. A. C. Merrill, a mining man, of Ureals, Calif., a veteran of Battalion C, Third U. S. Regular Infantry. "I had never been well since I left the army," he says, "always having had trouble with my stomach, which was weak. I was run down and debilitated. Could keep nothing on my stomach, and at times had sick headache so bad that I did not care whether I lived or died. My stomach refused to retain even liquid food and I almost despaired of getting well as I had tried so many kinds of medicine without relief. Then I was bitten by a rattlesnake and that laid me up from work entirely for a year, six months of which I spent in bed. "One day a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I began taking them. They cured me when all other medicine had failed. I have recommended the pills to a great many, for during my recovery every one asked me what was helping me so and I told them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I cannot speak too highly of them."

If you want good health you must have good blood. Bad blood is the root of all common diseases, like anemia, rheumatism, nervousness, indigestion, Vitus' dance, nervousness, paralysis, locomotor ataxia and the special ailments that only women-folk know. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood and this is the secret of their success in these diseases. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60c. per box, six boxes for $3.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schuylkill, Pa.

on account of heavier loads and higher speed. Materials, supplies and wages have advanced, and everything needed for road operation costs considerably more. In such cases it is necessary to carry out improvements are higher, and heavy increases are being made in taxation. The railroad outlook is not so cheerful, and wages will be affected by the adverse conditions. It is time to call a halt in hostile legislation against the transportation interests. Other officials expressed the opinion that the Sherman 2-cent fare bill would not be seriously considered, but that agitation of the subject was decidedly harmful, and would lead to measures of retrenchment on the part of the railroads.

FRISCO BUYS LINE

Acquires Control of Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City

The Frisco has acquired control of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City, Tenn., just north of the Mississippi boundary, to Mobile direct. As the Frisco has already trackage rights into New Orleans over the Morgan lines, it is expected to direct all rail route from St. Louis and Kansas City to Mobile and New Orleans. It is highly probable that the plans of the Frisco for the building of a line from Memphis to Baton Rouge close to the Mississippi river as possible will be now abandoned for the shorter line, as the new one would be, would save so little in distance, and therefore in time, that at this date the expense is deemed unwarranted. In connection with this latest Yukon acquisition this is said: "Through the acquisition of the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City, the Frisco will not only have its own line from St. Louis, Kansas City, Memphis and practically from Chicago to New Orleans and Mobile, but Frisco, Galveston and virtually every important point on the Gulf of Mexico. The lines of the Moore-Yokum-Hawley syndicate touch every port on the Gulf of Mexico, between Mobile and Brownsville, Texas, which is situated on the Rio Grande across from Matamoros, Mexico, and arrangements are under consideration for extending the Gulf coast system to the southern boundary of the public of Mexico."

Railroad Notes and Personals

Senator Morgan, who is the "I-want-to-know-senator" of the United States senate, when it comes to any matter which, in his opinion, affects the public interest, is anxious now to know if the control of the railway should still remain with the New York company or go to the United States should assume the outstanding debts of the railroad company; whether the directors of the company hold offices under laws of the United States; whether the United States has any right to the stock in the new Panama Canal Company.

Colonel S. B. Hovey of the Rock Island returned Thursday afternoon from St. Louis, where he was in consultation with the management of the Rock Island and Frisco systems about the terminals and passenger station at Dallas, among other matters of importance. He says that the passenger station and other terminals will be built on a scale that will accommodate all of the lines of railway at Dallas, except the Texas and Pacific, and will even provide facilities for the line if it is desired. The Katy is handling fifty carloads of coal daily out of Muskogee, I. T., since the strike was broken, and anticipates a yet larger movement when the Coalgate mines are opened on June 15, the date fixed. Most of this coal goes to the north end to replace the depleted stocks. The Frisco is also preparing for the coal.

It is reported that John H. Bond, for twenty years with the auditing departments of the Southern Pacific and Texas and Pacific railways, in the order named, is to succeed Auditor A. Reeves county, capital, $1,000. The Rein Litho Print Company of Houston filed an amendment to its charter yesterday afternoon, changing its corporate name to the State Printing Company and increasing its capital from $50,000 to $100,000.

BOY OF 10 ARRESTED

Was Charged With Trying to Sell Horse and Buggy

Released at 8 o'clock Thursday night, after having been kept at police headquarters for several hours, was the experience of a young white boy of 10 years, who was arrested by Police Officer R. Porter Thursday afternoon. The officer says that the boy had driven a horse attached to a buggy belonging to W. A. Darter, from 710 Main street, and was endeavoring to take money on the animal and rig, when the liverman to whom he desired to sell the property suspected that it would be better to inform the police of the matter. The boy's arrest and detention following. Assistant County Attorney Bardin escorted the boy to the home of his mother. The boy's father is out of the city and has not yet returned.

Prayers of All Ages Answered in Louisiana

* and worshipped him, saying, Lord, *
* if thou wilt, thou canst make me *

*****

Special to The Telegram.
NEW ORLEANS, La., June 14.—The most startling news the scientific world has received in a long time is the announcement that leprosy, the bacilli cannot feed upon will help the person to a logical resistance. A rule has therefore been instituted that the patients shall take hot baths daily, eat plenty of wholesome food, without regard to its being fish, flesh, fowl or vegetable, and additionally that they shall spend as much time as possible in the open air and sunshine. Notwithstanding the fact that nobody will live within miles of the lepers' home, there is much individual bravery shown in the case of the four lepers. Sisters of Charity are in charge and the superior of this brave band of women rules the patients strictly with kindness. She aims to make life as pleasant for them as possible. They sing and talk and play cards until 10 and 11 o'clock at night, and devote much of the daytime raising chickens, pigs, and gardening. The home consists of a number of dread of untold centuries, can be cured. For a long time experimental treatment has been in progress at the Louisiana lepers' home near Indian Camp. Dr. Isadore Dyer, who, with an assistant, Dr. Ralph Hopkins, have risked their lives to minister to these poor outcasts, have been sure for a long time that they were on the right track, but they wanted to make the test conclusive, and now they are able to give to the world the news of successful treatment. There are forty-four patients in the home at this time, twenty-six white males and thirteen white females, and two colored males and three colored females.

These cottages are being put up by a firm of New Orleans architects, Mackenzie & Goldstein, who visit the lepers' home with their workmen, who do a day's work exactly like they would do a similar day's work anywhere else. The picture of Dr. Dyer, whose discovery will be famous in history, is shown.

The first case cured was that of a boy admitted in October, 1902, at the age of 13 years. He was discharged Dec. 7, 1904, as cured and has been kept under observation ever since. There has been no return of any evidence of the disease.

The second case was that of a woman admitted Aug. 19, 1900, at the age of 49 years and discharged Dec. 19, 1905, as cured.

The third case was that of a woman admitted June 2, 1904, at the age of 39 years. She was discharged as cured April 26, 1906.

Only two patients are believed by these physicians to be fatally afflicted one of the total number of inmates. It is probable that the cured patients will be made the subject of observation and investigation by other experts from both this country and Europe, although Dr. Dyer is noted internationally as an authority on leprosy.

In 1894 treatment of the lepers in the home was begun. This consisted of ichtyol, chlorate of potash, strychnine, salicylate of soda, chaulmoogra oil and arsenic. For several years the treatment was not faithfully followed, but in 1902 results began to show and since then the work has been systematic.

The theory and method of Dr. Dyer has been one of nutrition and that if a resistance can be followed in the individual patient the disease will disappear. Leprosy, say the physicians, is recognized as a bacillary disease and one in which the tissues of the person affected are used as a feeding ground. Any medicine, hygiene or habit which will change the tissues into food the cottages connected by a gallery. The cottages are not finished, and almost daily volunteer carpenters and laborers employed by Mackenzie & Goldstein ride out to the shunned settlement and work on the job.

Official reports show that the disease of leprosy is increasing in Louisiana and the bravery of these plain workmen is apparent.

STOCK FARMING

"I want to talk some relative to stock farming and grass that will be just the thing to aid the farmer in his efforts to meet the developments in the cattle and agriculture that is in process at this time in the state," said D. P. Sansom, of Johnson county to The Telegram.
"I have been in Texas all my life and have seen all kinds of changes in cattle and in farming. I have noticed one thing that is peculiar and that is the inclination of our people to go away from home to get something when they have probably better, right at their feet, so to speak. To make a success of stock farming, two things are very essential, one plenty of feed, especially green stuff, and a good breed of stock, whether cattle, hogs, sheep, horses, or anything in the animal line. It has always been the habit of our people to go away from the state to get their breeds of animals, and probably heretofore this was a necessity, but now there is no call to do so, for we have just as good a stock in Texas for breeding purposes as we can find in any part of the United States, and acclimated at that. They why go outside after the breed? Encourage those men with your patronage who have made the business a study here in our midst and can sell you just as good breeding stock as any man."
Alfalfa Not Only Grass
"Alfalfa is all right, and when it can be made to live it cannot be beat, but it will not grow on all lands or in all places. Do not give up on account of this. You have right with you all the time as good a grass as any, and that is the Bermuda. I know it and have tried it and it will make you a pasture winter and summer if you will just give it some of the attention that you pay to your corn. It is not worth near as much. Every one of us down south knows that Bermuda will carry more stock to the acre than any other grass and not feed, but not many know that it will make as fine a winter pasture, not probably carrying as many head through the winter as alfalfa, but it will make a fine hay on the ground and with green stalk at the bottom. If any one who wishes to have a good pasture for his stock in the winter, just let him take his stock off the Bermuda patch a month or two before the first killing frost, and thus give it chance to cover the ground some six inches or more. When the cold comes and you think that it has destroyed the grass because it looks so brown and dead, just go to it and pull up a bunch and you will be a surprised man when you find that the grass is still green and nutritious. It is the best and strongest hay feed you can find and will keep your stock all winter with a smaller amount of feed than anything else. It will grow anywhere on any sort of ground, rough or smooth, rich or poor, and is easily set out. There is no danger of its spreading on your cultivated land provided you keep it divided from it by a tract of unplowed land, for it will not grow from the seed in this climate. With this grass and the usual feed products of the farm in this country and a good breed of stock, the farmer will be a great success and will make a man comfortably off in this world's goods. Try it. You will find that you can buy a head of Bermuda regularly, whereas on ordinary grass on the same land you would do well to keep more than 40 head part of the time."

URGES DIVERSIFICATION

Johnson County Man Believes in Many Crops
"I live in the sandy land of Cleburne," said J. H. Mills, "and am a stock farmer. I have 800 acres in cultivation and 4,000 in grass. Now, before I say any more about crops, etc., I want to remark that the farmer who does not know his business unless he makes his living out of it out of his farm. I mean he should raise corn, sorghum, peas, beans, carrots, beets, cabbage, potatoes, both kinds and other vegetables in an artificial quantity to supply all demands on the farm. Make it a rule, as I do, to make meat, use it for your farm for a year, with hard, etc., and my bread and everything else possible, and only buy a little sugar and coffee and such like. You can't go wrong if you do this, and your independence will benefit the other fellow. Fix the price on the 4th of July, for you will be independent of all men except the tax collector.

"After you have done this, then throw as much energy into raising cotton as you can. Fix the price on the 4th of July, for you will be independent of all men except the tax collector.

"I have been giving my attention in the past to the breeding of hogs, but I am going into cattle more now. I have hogs yet, but I am not giving all my attention to them, but am diversifying in livestock as it were. I have the very best strain of registered Pong-ang little pigs, and have fourteen months old and weighed dressed each 487 pounds. They were registered stuff. Pretty good, weren't they? I have a fine lot of our county is W. M. Orfit. He knows all about them and will tell it to you with pleasure. We all raise some mules and horses. I have on hand 800 head of cattle—that is, grassing them. There are not many stock cattle in our section, but there is no allmrens among my cattle that I know of. Of course, the calf crop is almost an unknown quantity. If you want a man to tell you all about fine trotting stock, write to B. B. Sellers, who is an authority.

"No, I do not raise Bermuda grass. I have plenty of native without it. There are no sheep of any consequence in my county, only one man I know of, and that is C. C. Connellers, who has a few."

LIKES BERMUDA GRASS

S. H. McMurry, a resident of Tarrant county, and who lives at the old time location of Johnson Station, came in over the dirt road with ten hogs in his wagon. "I am entirely satisfied with one of the old settlers of Fort Worth," said he, "for my father came to Tarrant county in 1853 and the first place he located was on a farm on the Trinity near the city known as the Boon place. I can't place it just now. He rented this farm and went to farming until I moved here. My father made Fort Worth my place of residence. I am a stock farmer now, but was for years a cow puncher and all that. I have a cow puncher and I set it down and now raise crops and stock. I have all the vegetables my family can eat and the rest I feed to my stock and my hogs. I have many to town to sell, not even watermelons. I consider that fed to stock they will be much more profitable than to be hauled to town and peddled out, and that the wear and tear on the wagon and the worry of the mules by flies is not worth the time and trouble. I have a bunch of cattle and have for sale each year some time eight or ten head and then again not more than five, but they are good and always sell well. With my cotton, and hogs I make a living and live well. That is all a man can expect in this line.

"Bermuda grass is the thing that all farmers ought to plant for the sake of their stock. It is a hummer when it comes to supporting stock. One of my neighbors has a patch of from five to six acres of Bermuda and he keeps his hogs on it and raises some time five or thirty head of cattle on it all the time and they seem to have plenty. I have intended to plant me a plot, but my mind has been elsewhere. I have been afraid to plant it near the barns for fear that it would wash down with rain to the creek and pollute the land. I have a tract of land, however, at the back end of the field, a small pasture, which I shall plant to Bermuda grass along the banks of the creek and hollows. It is a fine holder and will prevent washing and save land. Johnson Station, Texas, is an old settlement in our part of the country and was well known to the old settlers, but on the advent of the Texas & Pacific railroad, the people moved to the west, and one-half mile north and established the present town of Arlington.

"Stock farming will be the great cattle producing element in Texas in the future, and it will not be so very long off, either. With the capabilities of the state for raising all kinds of feed and grasses there is nothing to hinder the movement except the natural on the part of the farmer and his dislike for change of any sort. This is nature, for he has had many ups and downs in the last forty years and losses of various kinds has been his portion, but being intelligent as he is, he will meet the situation and succeed. Alfalfa is wonderful stuff, and where it will grow and do well cannot be beaten as a stock feed, but it will only grow in certain soils and has to have plenty of water to make it as great a success as it should be. In the last Weekly Telegram, or it might have been the Stockman-Journal I read an article from the Oklahoma experiment station on Bermuda grass, and that is the natural on the right track for sure. In my opinion there is no grass in the South that will do as much for the stock farmer as this grass that he has right at his door. It is necessary to increase the extent of its capacity, to have a grass that will give the most grazing to a larger number of animals than any other, and at the same time that will occupy the minimum space on the farm, and grow well where it is planted. The only grass that I have any experience with that will do this is the Bermuda. Everyone will admit that as a summer range it is unsurpassed, but few know that if it is allowed to grow for a month or two before hard frost it will make fine winter pasture that will keep cattle, hogs, horses, mules, sheep and any other kind of stock that one may wish. During its rank growth cattle will leave their feed for the stuff, but for horses and mules it is the thing all summer, and in winter it makes the best pasture for all animals. I am glad to see that The Telegram is moving in the interest of stock farming, and am certain that it will do a world of good."

Three Candidates Try for Navarro County Honors

CORSICANA, Texas, June 15.—Interest in the race for representatives of Navarro county in the next legislature is growing in interest. Judge R. S. Nobilett, candidate for representative from Corsicana, has no opposition so far, but for place No. 2 there are three aspirants—Captain A. F. Wood of Corsicana, who represented the county a number of years ago, and S. J. Jennings of Kerens and W. M. Taylor of Blooming Grove. Captain Wood is a cotton buyer. Mr. Jennings is a merchant and Mr. Taylor an attorney. A joint campaign of the county has been arranged between the three, beginning June 28, and a lively discussion is anticipated.

MERCURY A DECEPTIVE TREATMENT

Mercury and potash are very deceptive treatments and the blood poison sufferer who depends on them for a cure is sure to be disappointed. The minerals will remove the external symptoms and shut the disease up in the system for a while, but the trouble will surely return and the loathsome symptoms of sore mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers etc., will be accompanied by the disastrous effects of the treatment. The continued use of these strong minerals will completely ruin the health and weaken the system to such an extent that the original disease often becomes incurable and sometimes fatal. Mercury and potash eat out the delicate lining of the stomach and bowels, destroy the gastric juices, producing chronic dyspepsia, cause mercurial rheumatism, salivation, and where they are taken in large quantities cause necrosis or decay of the bones. S. S. S. is the only remedy that can cure Contagious Blood Poison surely and safely. ## FLORIDA MAY GO INTO INSURANCE

Governor Urges State to Write Life Policies

Special to The Telegram
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 14.—The state of Florida will enter the life insurance business if Governor Broward wins the fight he is making to secure the necessary legislation. Public sentiment seems to be with the governor, and the prediction is made that next year the commonwealth will be insuring the lives of its citizens.

In his message to the legislature of 1905 Governor Broward strongly suggested the enactment of such a law. The bill for that purpose passed the lower house practically without opposition, but was talked to death in the senate on the closing day of the session. The governor's continued examination into the details of the question has confirmed his faith in the feasibility of the project.

At his own personal expense Governor Broward is having prepared for distribution among the people a printed argument in favor of the state life insurance plan.

Reasons for State Insurance
The following reasons for state insurance are set forth by the governor: Every policy will be guaranteed by the state. Premiums will be low.

We Tell

We have nothing to conceal! No secrets to hide! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. You will find these in Ayer's Almanac for 1906. If you do not have a copy we will gladly send you one. Then show the formulas to your doctor. If he does not approve, then do not buy; if he approves, then buy, and keep these standard family medicines on hand.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Ayer's Pills.
Ayer's Ague Cure. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Business will be large—all the earnings of the department.

Policies will be free from restrictions. The department will be purely mutual and all assets and profits will belong to and be distributed to the policy holders.

Its reserve funds will be invested in the state.

Its policies will acquire a liberal surrender and loan value after two years' premiums have been paid, thus enabling the insured to raise needed money at a low rate of interest at any time without being compelled to resort to mortgages.

The surrender value will be applied to keep the insurer in force in the event of the premiums falling in arrears.

State insurance will keep the money of the people at home and all the accumulations will be used for their benefit. When a policy becomes due, either by death or the termination of the period insured for, the full amount due will be paid by the state, together with all that the policy has earned.

REVIVALS FLOURISH

Thirty Members Added to Kentucky Avenue Church
Revivals continue to draw large crowds at Grace Baptist church, corner Peach and Hampton streets, and at the Kentucky Avenue Baptist church. At the latter place Wednesday night five persons professed conversion, making a total of thirty since the opening of the meetings. Evangelist Bailey is preaching strong pointed sermons, and is greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences each night.

Sunday morning a special service for children will be held. At the Peach street services the pastor, Rev. J. D. Harlin, is in charge, and the meetings are being attended with marked degree of success. Services are held at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

A special service was held at the Broadway Baptist church Wednesday night, at which Rev. W. S. Splawn preached and admitted five persons to baptism.

CAR AS PRISON

Boy Goes Seven Days in Refrigerator Car Without Food

Special to The Telegram
OMAHA, Neb., June 15.—Having ridden seven days in a refrigerator car with neither food nor water, Elmer Faure, a French boy of about 18 years, reached Omaha this afternoon and succeeded in attracting attention and securing his release.

The lad had crawled into the car at Burlington, Iowa, to take a nap and when he awakened the car was moving. The doors were locked from the outside and although he yelled incessantly for hours at a time no one appeared to hear him.

The car was side tracked for several days before reaching Omaha. When taken from his prison young Faure was scarcely able to walk. He was given a meal by the railroad employe, after which he appeared little worse for his experience.

FARM PHOTOS WANTED

Board of Trade Sends Artist to Panhandle
The Fort Worth Board of Trade has sent a photographer out on the Denver Road for the purpose of getting scenes in the big harvest fields of the Panhandle. Cutting is in full blast and threshing is well begun, so that some splendid views may now be obtained, which will show very graphically the immensity of the farming business in the great northwest Texas. The photos will be used by the Board of Trade for advertising purposes.

STOREY'S ASSAULT ON WILLIAMS

The Telegram recently called the attention of the people of Texas to the fact that the advanced age of Judge L. J. Storey disqualified him for re-election...

Commissioner L. J. Storey fired a bomb into the camp of W. D. Williams, who is a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed Judge Storey...

In the first place, The Telegram believes a man who aspires to fill a state office in Texas should be possessed of sufficient merit of his own to commend him to public consideration without seeking preferment on the demerits of others...

Ten years ago William D. Williams was a younger man than he is today. He may, in the exuberance of youth have done and said things that he would be quick to condemn today...

Judge Williams has declared that he voted for Bryan at the time referred to, and there can be no questioning the truth of that assertion. When he came up like a man and voted for the democratic nominee...

qualifier to the will of the majority." He measured fully up to the Jeffersonian standard.

Judge Storey has been led into the commission of a grave blunder, and one that will effectually miss its mark. The attack on Judge Williams will prove of the nature of a boomerang...

THE DESPERATION OF COLQUITT

Candidate Colquitt, who for some reason or other imagines he is making the race for governor of Texas on the demerits of Judge Charles K. Bell...

It was when the distinguished gentleman came to the discussion of what he was pleased to call the official acts of the "great trust buster," Judge Bell, and the "official family," Governor Lanham's administration...

The fly in the Colquitt ointment is the apparent fact that Judge Bell is to be the next governor of Texas. Drawing an official salary today equal to that paid the governor of the state...

It is a mortifying spectacle to the fair minded people of this state to witness the antics of some of the men in the present state campaign who are trying to pose as statesmen...

And Colquitt is a part and parcel of the Lanham administration. He was elected to office on the very same ticket and by the very same people that elected Lanham...

Candidate Colquitt instead of being a bright and promising candidate for governor seems to have degenerated into a common scold. He views the situation altogether in the wrong light and is too narrow in his perspective...

The best thing Candidate Colquitt can possibly do is to cast off the dogs of war, withdraw from a contest in which he does not stand the ghost of a show, and pay some attention to the neglected duties of his official position at Austin...

There is one man from Kaufman county who has the nerve to speak his honest convictions. He is D. J. Anthony, the floral representative from that district, and he says: "Mr. Colquitt has no chance of carrying his home county..."

President Roosevelt is still showing his teeth to the big packers, and shows a disposition to crowd them in every manner possible. He is evidently determined that the packing business shall come under a more rigid system of government regulation and control...

There are some more measures soon to be voted upon under the referendum clause of the city charter. Will the citizenship of Fort Worth again be content for less than ten per cent of the voting strength of the city to pass upon these issues?

Judge Sam H. Cowan of this city wrote the draft of the meat inspection bill that is to be whipped through congress under good and spur. The President often calls upon the Fort Worth man in the hour of emergency.

The executive committee of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas has expressed itself again in the matter of commission charges. And the committee stands squarely by the expressed principles of the members of the great organization.

Several of the Texas congressmen have no opposition in their candidacy for re-election, but a few of them are going to have the fight of their lives to get back to Washington.

THE TEXAS PRESS

It is interesting to notice that Judge Bell makes no headway in his race for governor and his record shows that he is not only a statesman, but an able lawyer and perfect gentleman...

Judge Bell's record as a public official is one that can well be viewed with pride. As attorney general of Texas he accomplished more than any of his predecessors and left a record that is well worthy of emulation...

Tarrant county says that the farmers are so very busy that they have not the time to go to speaking and hear the candidates and help save the country...

This has been a very trying year on the farmers of north Texas. With an excess of moisture and political candidates both to contend with they have been kept very busy. They are gradually getting the upper hand of both propositions, however.

The fact that the state executive committee did not endorse Billy Bryan for President because they wanted to hold back for Bell, is evidence that the love Bryan no less than formerly, but Bailey more...

If the state executive committee held back an endorsement of Bryan to wait for Bailey it has a long wait coming. The democracy of Texas is for Bryan against all comers.

The congressional candidates seem to be fighting shy of this section just now. Gentlemen, old Johnson county would like to see you and hear how you stand...

Johnson county democrats should not fret. The Tarrant county congressional trinity will cover every foot of ground in the district before the close of the campaign.

If there are not heavy rains in the rice belt within the next ten days it is safe to predict that the rice crop this year will not exceed 50 per cent of what it was last year. Skeptics can be convinced of the truthfulness of the above assertion by a trip through the rice growing districts of Louisiana and Texas...

Drouth is playing havoc with south and southwest Texas at this time. No rain has fallen down there in months and the situation is rapidly becoming quite serious.

Two gentlemen were discussing the prospects of the candidates for governor. One of them said: "In north Texas Bell is the only one of the candidates who is seriously discussed, as far as my observation has gone." The other said: "Well, there is a practical certainty that Bell will sweep all southwest Texas clean from the mountains to the coast..."

The nomination of Judge Bell will be made unanimous at Dallas when the democrats meet to ratify the choice of the people. All Texas is in line for Bell except a few eastern counties that are standing loyally by Campbell.

THE TELEGRAM THE TEXAS PRESS

THE REPUBLICAN VIEW

It is wonderful the manner in which the people of the entire country are turning to William J. Bryan as the next democratic Presidential nominee. Leaders of the party in New York are declaring that Bryan will be the choice of the next national democratic convention...

If William Jennings Bryan, with two tremendous defeats upon his head can come into the democratic convention two years hence a winner over all opposition by acclamation as it now seems, then there is something uncanny about him, or his powers of hypnotic control are marvelous, or the national democracy is on its last legs...

SENATORIAL HUMOR
JAN. 13, 1869.—This was handed to me by one of the pages of the senate, and evidently came from the facetious and most gentlemanly senator Whyte of Maryland. I immediately laid it before the Presiding Elder (Judge Wade), who incontinently looked in the right direction...

CRITICISM DIFFERS FROM ABUSE
The Fort Worth Telegram, a strong Bell paper, has again awakened long enough to denounce the democratic editors who have referred to the general weakness of the present state administration, and declares that "if Lanham had been a republican he could not have aroused more vigorous opposition than is being exhibited toward him in some quarters..."

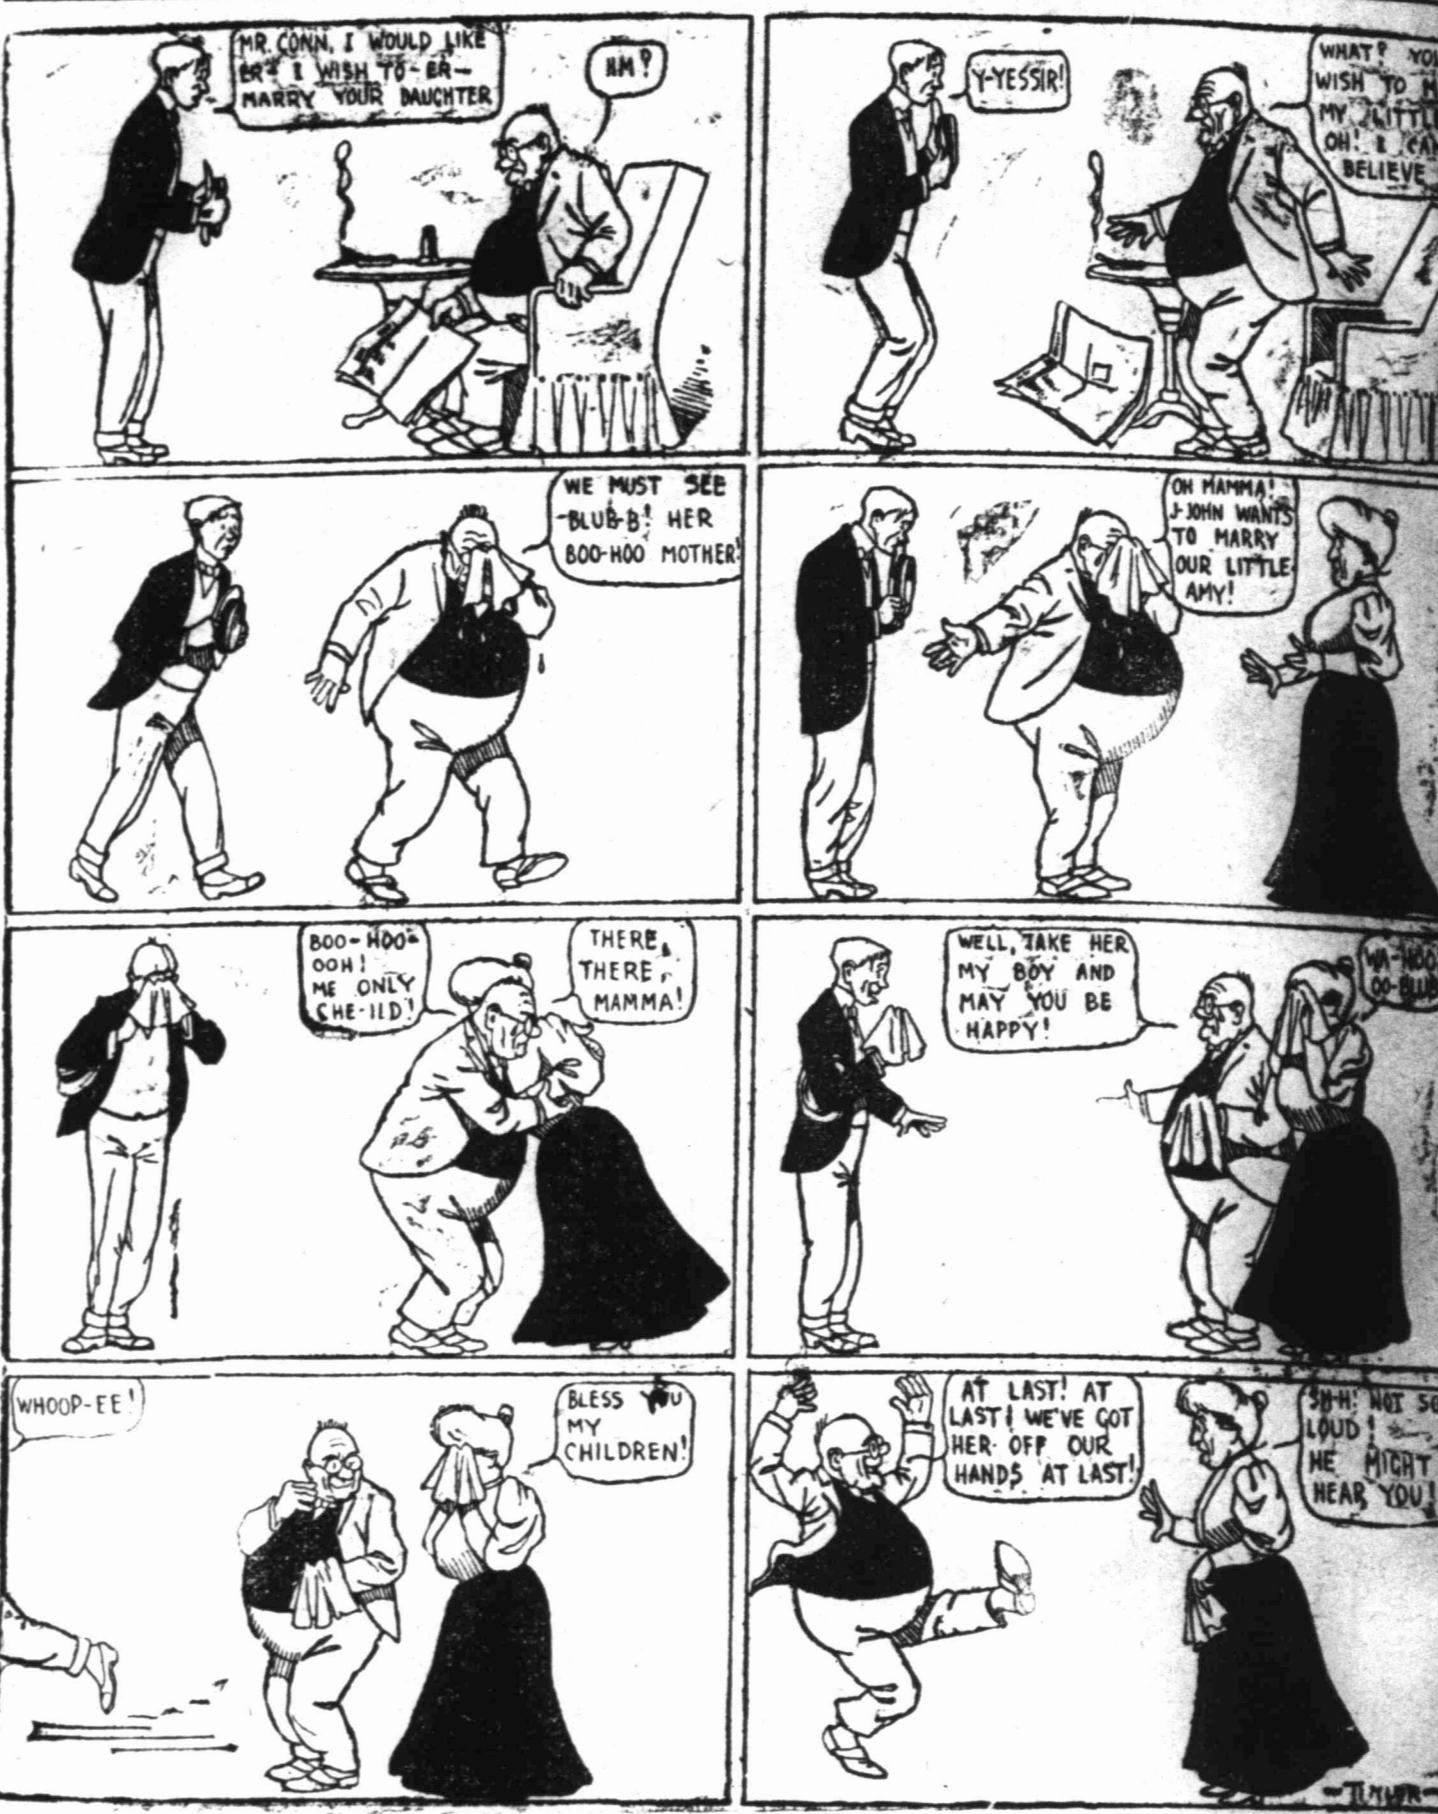

THE LESSON
The fate of Senator Burton is a warning that public officials can no longer safely engage even in such practices, to say nothing of the outright sale of official influence, of which he has been convicted. Public opinion imperiously demands a higher standard than has been enforced for a long time and searches with minute inquisitiveness into the actions and motives of all who are entrusted with power...

THE FOOLISH LIFE

By R. W. Taylor

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Uncle Joe Cannon was talking about the meat inspection bill, when he was asked as to his own appetite for meat.

"Never better," he replied. "When I eat at home and have to pay for it myself, I have just the same as I always have had, and when I eat with friends and they have to pay for it, I always do what I can to make it cost them something."

Senator Spooner was pounding away on the Andrew Jackson Brown case as if he were expounding constitutional law for the benefit of Bailey, when Tillman bobbed up and interrupted. As many as a dozen senators were listening. Spooner declined to yield.

"Well," said Tillman, "I started this racket and I think the senator is entitled to have a quorum."

"The senator can start a racket," replied Spooner, "but he can't make any man vote intelligently on this bill."

The venerable William Pinckney Whyte, who succeeds the late Senator Gorman, had an enjoyable day on his return to the body from which he retired twenty-five years ago the 4th of last March. This is the third time Mr. Whyte has entered the senate and taken the oath. He first served for a year and a half in 1868-9 and a full term from 1875 to 1881...

By the ruling of the people Is the nation's verdict cast. And the present garners wisdom From the errors of the past; By the onward march of progress Ancient ills are swept away, And the leader of tomorrow Is the toiler of today.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS
Every woman owes it to herself to be good looking. It is never too late to mend, marry or get a divorce. What others say of you is the effect. You supply the cause. Nothing seems to please a gossip so much as a telling situation. It is far easier to return a compliment than a borrowed umbrella.

What has happened to the stream of cold cash that used to flow from the Klondike? It is perfectly proper for the thin girl to expect her dressmaker to make the most of her. Wise is the married woman who is capable of drawing the line between coaxing and nagging. You may have noticed, that between paying taxes and his wife's bills a married man is constantly confronted by a financial stringency.—Chicago News.

NO DANGER
Professor Matteucci now asserts that Vesuvius is the safety valve for all Europe. This makes it evident that the great powers should each have a wide-awake commissioner on the spot to see that the safety valve isn't tied down.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ALWAYS THE WAY
Senator Bailey won a dangerously high legal reputation by his speech on the rate bill. The magnates in New York are bidding for his services.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THE WORKERS
On the battlefield of commerce, In the wide world's busy mart, When the trumpet call to action Stirs the blood in myriad hearts; As the red-gold sunrise beacons; At the dawning of the day, Then the armies of the workers Sally forth in bold array.

Ever in increasing numbers, Swift they answer to the call, While the stronger, pushing forward, Crowds the weaker to the wall; Child and matron, man and maiden, Lusty youth, decrepit age, Tracing each life's separate story On the daily record page.

Fortune's soldiers, history makers, Scarcely conscious of their power, In the din and stress of combat Pressing on from hour to hour; Patient toilers of the city, Stalwart tillers of the earth, They—the humble, unknown masters Of the land that gave them birth.

Not in vain the radiant promise Of the future beams on high, Dear the dreams of wealth and greatness In the land of By and By; Some may fall, but some must conquer, And the losses of the strife Pay the cost of others winning, In the fevered game of life.

By the ruling of the people Is the nation's verdict cast. And the present garners wisdom From the errors of the past; By the onward march of progress Ancient ills are swept away, And the leader of tomorrow Is the toiler of today.

CRITICISM DIFFERS FROM ABUSE
The Fort Worth Telegram, a strong Bell paper, has again awakened long enough to denounce the democratic editors who have referred to the general weakness of the present state administration, and declares that "if Lanham had been a republican he could not have aroused more vigorous opposition than is being exhibited toward him in some quarters..."

THE LESSON
The fate of Senator Burton is a warning that public officials can no longer safely engage even in such practices, to say nothing of the outright sale of official influence, of which he has been convicted. POINTED PARAGRAPHS
Every woman owes it to herself to be good looking. It is never too late to mend, marry or get a divorce. What others say of you is the effect. You supply the cause. Nothing seems to please a gossip so much as a telling situation. It is far easier to return a compliment than a borrowed umbrella.

What has happened to the stream of cold cash that used to flow from the Klondike? It is perfectly proper for the thin girl to expect her dressmaker to make the most of her. Wise is the married woman who is capable of drawing the line between coaxing and nagging. You may have noticed, that between paying taxes and his wife's bills a married man is constantly confronted by a financial stringency.—Chicago News.

PENNANT LOOKS LIKE IT'S GOING TO STAY

Victory From Dallas Makes Fans Enthusiastic

It was in the first inning of Thursday's game that Jack Jarvis bestirred himself and pulled the Panthers out of a "bad hole." The first man up for Dallas rapped out a liner over third base and took possession of the first base, stealing second while Boles failed to handle a hot grounder from No. 2. Bunsen flew out to First Baseman Sain; the big fellow, Williams, struck out after putting seven foul balls over the rear fence and grand stand, but Meyers was at third and Fink had gained second, and it looked some rough for the home team. Ury, however, proved an easy task for Jarvis, and the Panther pitcher placed the puzzlers over the plate in a painful way. Ury managing to land for a short tap to Boles, who did his duty.

Notes on the Game

It was Jack against the Giants Thursday and Dallas lost the game. Poor Pitcher Pruitt prayed to be pitted against the Panthers Thursday, and Fort Worth won the game. Maloney is expected to do more changing of positions the next time the Dallas bunch meets the team of Ward. Fort Worth plays at Cleburne for Friday's game--the percentage of the Panthers Saturday afternoon will be read .659.

Remember to go to the game Sunday. Cleburne has the lid on tight and the teams come back to play here, accompanied, as usual, by a trainload of Cleburne fans. Ragsdale "got to foolin'" around in the fifth, with his weather eye on sec'n base and got . . .

Cleburne 9, Temple 7

Special to The Telegram. TEMPLE, Texas, June 15--Cleburne connected with Pitcher Wicker's delivery for six singles in the first inning yesterday and this, combined with a batter hit and two passes, netted them six runs, a lead too large for Temple to overcome, although in the ninth inning Rolly made it look gloomy for the visitors for a short while. Score: Temple . . . 9 0 0 2 0 0 0 3 0-7 9 1 Cleburne . . . 6 0 0 2 0 1 0 0-9 13 3 Summary--Two-base hits, Moore, Shelton, Polindexter 2; three-base hits, Butler, Whitman 2; home run, Yohe; stolen bases, Yohe, Aiken, Coyler; struck out, by Wicker 5, Criss 3; balls on balls, off Wicker 5, Criss 3; wild pitch, Criss; batter hit, Coyler. ### NEGROES HOLD LAND

Rock Island Has Trouble with Chickasaw Squatters

Special to The Telegram. CHICKASAW, I. T., June 15.--The Rock Island railroad is having considerable difficulty in gaining possession of a plot of land east of this city which is held by several negroes, the latter refusing to give possession. When the first plot of the town was made, the land east of the Rock Island was reserved for the negroes. When the official plot was later received the railroad was made the eastern boundary of the city limits. The land was later sold to the corporation and the company brought suit for possession. The case finally ended in a compromise by which the negroes received $400, but when called upon to vacate refused to do so. Writs were then sworn out and placed in the hands of the city marshal. The negroes at the same time, or before the writs were served, filed a motion for an injunction to prevent the serving of the papers, and the injunction was granted by Judge Dickerson. The company is making extensive improvements and wishes to extend them across the tracks, provided it gains possession of the land.

GRANTED DIVORCE

Woman Gives Grounds That Husband is Tuberculosis Victim

Special to The Telegram. LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 15.--Because her husband is suffering from tuberculosis Mrs. Charlotte T. Scammell was today granted a divorce by Judge Borwick in the superior court. The woman is also allowed to resume her maiden name of Boyle. Miss Charlotte Boyle was well known in social circles previous to her marriage to Scammell. According to evidence brought out today Scammell was closely interrogated by his sweetheart previous to the marriage regarding his physical condition. Mrs. Scammell says her husband denied at the time that he was tubercular, but that shortly after the wedding the disease developed. They were married in Los Angeles Dec. 25, 1905. The decision is regarded as of great importance.

DISCOVERER OF SPIT BALL DOESN'T USE IT

Philadelphia Frank Corridon Started Famous Style

The man who discovered the spit ball seldom uses it and the credit of the discovery has wrongfully gone to another. Ask the average baseball player who discovered the spit ball and he will tell you that Elmer Stricklett was the man. When the Brooklyn baseball team was quartered at the Hotel Columbia in Columbia, S. C., last spring for their ante-season training, Stricklett was asked by a sporting writer who had made the rounds of all the training camps in the sunny southland: "How did you come to discover the spit ball, Mr. Stricklett?" "By watching another man throw it," was the reply. "But you are given the credit for discovering the spit ball," persisted the writer. "I know I am, but it is wrong. The man who discovered the spit ball was Frank Corridon, the Philadelphia pitcher. I saw him throwing it in practice and immediately set about to master it. After I had got the ball down fine Jack Chesbro saw me pitching it at Columbus, Ohio, and he took it up. Just why Corridon never uses the ball I don't know, unless he fears the effect of his arm." "Then the spit ball does affect the arm?" "It certainly does, to this extent, I have lost the knack of throwing the other curves. The continued use of the spit ball builds up a set of muscles not called into play by the drop or outcurve, and when a pitcher who has continuously used the spit ball seeks to use another style curve he finds his arm lacks the strength to impart the necessary twist to the ball to make it take the direction he desires. The spit ball is thrown with an overhead motion, the fingers on the top and the thumb underneath, and not touching the seams of the ball. By freely moistening the first joint of the fingers the ball adheres to the thumb, which imparts the twist that forces it to "break" suddenly just before reaching the plate. Other balls curve, but the spit ball breaks sharply, which makes it so difficult to hit. About the only way a batsman can beat the spit ball is to step to the end of the box and meet it before it breaks, otherwise he strikes almost at random at it. The ball "breaks" down and in or down and out, according to the amount of thumb pressure given to one side or the other.

OUR DAILY SHORT STORY

HER SEALSKIN SACQUE

(Tales by the Old Detective.)

It was the desire of Marlon Hedspeth's wife to regain a sealskin sacque that led to the undoing of one gang of crooks.

Hedspeth, his wife, and three other crooks rented apartments in the fashionable quarter of St. Louis and rigged themselves up in swell attire.

One night the four men went to Glendale, a small station a few miles from the outskirts of the city. They held up the through express train and secured a cool $100,000. In no time to spare they were back in their fashionable apartments, dividing the booty at their leisure. All the wrappers of the express packages were burned.

The game had been played splendidly, but they had made one little mistake. Hedspeth, more than any of the others, had taken from the messenger on the express car his old silver watch. Hedspeth threw the watch into a catch basin, thinking it would find its way to the sewer.

They packed their clothing in trunks, which were to be sent to San Francisco, and themselves in the Frisco-Alberta and silk hats and, with Mrs. Hedspeth, started for the city of the Golden Gate.

When the transfer man called for the trunks he overlooked a box containing Mrs. Hedspeth's sealskin sacque. Two weeks later, the detective, among the number—heard about that sacque. It was an almot meaningless clue, but we made a search of the house. I fished up the messenger's old silver watch from the water trap. The house had been occupied by the robbers, that was evident, but where had they gone and who were they? We were baffled, but persistently shadowed the house. We hadn't much hope—but, then, one can't tell what may happen.

Hedspeth and his gang reached San Francisco. Hedspeth's right hand man, Bert Sly, opened a saloon, while Dink Wilson and Jim Francois returned to the east.

Hedspeth's woman mourned the loss of her sealskin sacque. "Don't send for it, don't bother about it," warned Hedspeth, but woman like, she wrote to a collector in St. Louis, Louisiana, to go and get the box containing the sacque and express it to her under the name of Florence Witterman.

Detective Billy Emond had been shadowing this saloon. He followed the most frequent patron to the office. The very train that carried that sealskin sacque to Mrs. Hedspeth carried also Desmond and myself.

Two detectives waiting in the San Francisco express office for the lady to call, but it was three weeks before she did, and then Desmond nabbed her.

Hedspeth and Sly were speedily arrested. Francois was killed in Kansas City while resisting arrest. Dink Wilson was hanged in St. Louis. Mrs. Hedspeth and Sly got twenty years each in the Missouri penitentiary.

SOCIAL SEASON

Fincher-Norred

The Missouri Avenue Methodist church was crowded Thursday evening with the friends of Miss Pearl Norred and Joseph Wylie Fincher, their marriage being one of the happy events that bring out the heartiest expressions of satisfaction from those who find joy in love's fulfillment. The bride has been for several years one of Fort Worth's admired and loved teachers and in the Central Methodist church she has directed the work of the Epworth league and taught a Sunday school of young men with supreme success. From all of these sources came such showers of good wishes as only sweetest womanhood can win. Mr. Fincher is the cashier of the Batson Prairie National bank and has a business and social record that is the source of pride to his intimate friends and of admiration to a wider circle of acquaintance.

WHAT WOMEN LIKE IN MEN

Despite the curious pegs in novel-ettes which do duty for men, and upon which authors hang the various masculine attributes which are supposed to attract women, the fact remains that, in real life, women like a real man—something more than a barber's block, something less than an Admirable Crickton.

The man with a firm, honest hand clasps a man that appeals to women in the first moment of meeting or farewell, the man of frank, independent movements who is not afraid to cross a room full of people to sit near the woman he secretly adores, the man who even in home life finds time to see her mother is comfortably seated before he settles himself, the man whose word is his bond; these are types of men that make their way to a woman's heart.

A Home Wedding

A marriage of Miss Alice Whyte to O. S. Yoder took place Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Simpson, 302 West Fifth street, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride and groom were dressed in white. The bridesmaids were Messrs. A. J. Beavers, W. H. Shay, John Fincher, brother of the bridegroom, and L. Runnels. Preceding the bride and her brother, Alvin Norred, to the altar came Misses Joe Marie Anderson and Annie Mae Armstrong, scattering rose petals. The bridegroom and his brother, Albert Whyte, the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid and W. V. McCaslin as the best man. The ring maiden was Lillian Beatrice Whyte.

WOMEN'S NEGLECT

SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again, "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

Lentils, peas, beans, nuts, macaroni, cheese and eggs, being rich in proteins, are used as the substitutes for meat. Lentils, which have too little recognition, are the most agreeable and healthful daily dish in one form or another. They are inexpensive and full of nourishment and they lend themselves to endless variations. They are in soups, quiches, souffles, soups, sauces, etc.

BOY'S PANTS ROBBED

Burglar Gets $155 for His Pains Wednesday Night

Wednesday night a burglar entered the residence of J. S. Jeffries, 811 Arizona avenue, and took the pants of Mr. Jeffries' little son from a chair, where they were hanging, and carried them into the back yard, where he went through the pockets and secured $155 in money. The pants were found where the thief threw them this morning.

WEST SIDE SOCIAL

The members of the West Side Social Whist Club have braved the warm weather pretty well this year. They played for the last time, however, with Mrs. John King Thursday forenoon. Mrs. King's home was tastefully decorated with garden flowers. Two beautiful Haviland china plates were given as trophies for the best scores; Mrs. H. C. Edrington, making the highest score, Mrs. Ed Burns scoring second. Mrs. John Goggins was consoling with a large box of delicious candies. An appetizing luncheon was served. The guests of the morning were: Mesdames H. C. Edrington, Ed Burns, Olive Edrington Scott, Charles Ware, J. C. McCabe, Robert McNatt, John Goggins, E. E. Fuedick, L. M. Neblett, John Wray, H. L. Warwick, Sager, Colvin, S. T. Bibb, Sam Cante and William Mitchell.

REUTER'S SOAP

is very different from other soaps. It is a scientific product made especially to improve the complexion and soften and whiten the skin. Its abundant, creamy, fragrant lather delves down deep into the pores, thoroughly cleansing and gently stimulating them, thus aiding nature in making the skin fresh and fair, and bringing to the cheeks the rosy tinge of youthfulness. At department stores and drug-gists. Prove it for yourself by sending a two-cent stamp for a trial cake.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling about it for the sake of other suffering women.

"For a long time I suffered untold agony with a female trouble and irregularities, which made me physically weak, and no matter how much I would recover, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and I feel it my duty to tell other suffering women what a splendid medicine it is."

For twenty-five years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Prince of India Pressed with American Packing Houses

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 15.—H. H. Sapajimo Gaekwar, maharajah of Baroda, India, his royal secretary, Prince Smith, and his corps of attendants, visited the stock yards yesterday upon the invitation of the packers.

The maharajah, through his secretary as interpreter, said they were impressed by the wonderful methods of killing and preparing meats in the big packing houses.

The party left last night from Colorado Springs. From there it will go to Yellowstone Park.

The maharajah intends to send a number of Indian students to American universities in the fall.

THE DENVER ROAD

re-established double daily train service between Fort Worth and Denver under former schedules than ever before. These trains leave Fort Worth at 9:45 a. m. and 8:45 p. m., and arrive at Fort Worth from Denver at 1:15 p. m. and 7:25 a. m. Daily thus preserving connections with all other Texas lines in both directions, and affording Colorado Tourists all that could be desired. Each of these trains is operated with Pullman Palace Sleepers and also carries all meals in Superb Cafe Cars at city prices upon the "Pay Only For What You Order" plan.

In connection with the foregoing, this company has placed in service additional trains between Fort Worth and Quanah, Texas, a distance of 122 miles, for the accommodation of local travel, and by reason of same has been enabled to reduce the time of through trains between Fort Worth and Denver more than two hours, all of which should and will be appreciated by vacationists bound for "Cool Colorado" and by the traveling public generally.

Bears Resume Attack and Prices Rapidly—Steel Shares Prominent

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The market again exhibited weakness. The heavy selling was interrupted somewhat after the opening call today as the early hours prices tumbled. London news was not favorable. The price of steel shares, the money market, the rate of exchange, and the fact that the price of the steel shares was again a prominent feature of the market, were the factors that led to the sharp selling of United States shares was again a prominent feature of the market. THE TELEGRAM'S DAILY SPECIAL AND MERCANTILE REPORT

NEW YORK STOCKS

Bears Resume Attack and Prices Tumble Rapidly—Steel Shares Again Prominent
Special to The Telegram.
NEW YORK, June 15.—The stock market again exhibited pronounced weakness. The heavy selling, which was interrupted somewhat during the early hours of trading yesterday by rather liberal profit-taking, was resumed shortly after the opening call today and during the early hours prices tumbled rapidly. There was also a slight hardening of the money market, the rate for call money touching 1/2 per cent, which improved the bears' position somewhat. The cotton issue can be designated as the target for the attack, although sharp selling of United States Steel shares was again a prominent feature. The cotton lost 1/2 before midday, but the preferred held up well for a time, eventually weakening with the balance of the list, however, and dropping more than a point. The railroads all incurred substantial losses, including St. Paul suffering more than the others. In closing there was an early drop of 1/2 point, which placed the price 1/2 point below the low of yesterday, while St. Paul lost 2 points before noon. Anaconda sold 4 points below yesterday's final and Amalgamated Copper lost 2 points. The balance of the list showed losses of a point or more. Furious activity in trading soon became the feature and both sides luffed for supremacy in the same. Dealers were anxious to sell but longed for good support and succeeded in recouping a portion of the early loss. Other issues recovered some on profit-taking, but the market closed weak with all issues selling off yesterday's closing level. Call money touched 5 per cent. Sales of noon, 21,800 shares; to 1 p. m., 69,590.

NEW YORK COTTON

Bears Raid the Market in Last Hour and Prices Break Sharply
Special to The Telegram.
NEW YORK, June 15.—The cotton market was again dull and without particular feature. Liverpool cables were disappointing regarding contracts but a better spot demand was reported and private advices were more cheerful. There was less selling pressure than usual here and the market opened steady with prices unchanged for July and one point lower to one higher for other options. No rain fell in the southwestern portion of Texas and there were numerous complaints of the drought in this section. More rains in Georgia and the Carolinas were not regarded as beneficial and shorts covered out of regard for the weather conditions. Before the second call prices advanced 1 to 2 points, but an official forecast for rains in the portions of Texas where needed checked the covering and started a decline. Without any aggressive pressure the market closed at the last hour, when heavy selling orders appeared and prices slumped 10 to 13 points. There was a partial reaction occasioned by short covering and the close was steady with showing a net loss of 4 to 6 points.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Oat Prices Advance Phenomenally—Early Gain of 2/5c for July the Feature of Session
Special to The Telegram.
CHICAGO, Ill., June 15.—Wheat prices reacted today and the market while rather dull ruled firm throughout the session. Foreign news was the principal stimulant, Liverpool cables reported a strong market with higher prices and attributed the advance to the small supply on hand and the decrease in Argentine shipments. The opening here reflected the foreign advance, prices being 1/2 to 1/4c higher. Shorts covered immediately after the call and there was but little selling pressure, consequently prices advanced gradually without interruption until after midday, when prices standing 1c to 1 1/4c above yesterday's closing level there was some long wheat encountered and a recession of 1/4c followed. Although the market was not as firm as it appeared, the close was steady with prices showing net gains of 1/2 to 3/4c. Local receipts 5 cars vs. 1 car this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow 15 cars.

Table with columns: Chicago Grain, Open, High, Low, Close. Lists various grain prices.

CHICAGO CATTLE AND HOGS

Best Beeves Steady—Mediums Strong—Cows Steady—Calves Weak to Quarter Lower—Hogs Higher
Cattle receipts ran to 2,800 head, a very liberal Friday supply, exceeding the run of a week ago 1,100 head.
A very good assortment of beef steers was shown, but orders seemed to be limited and the market did not equal to consuming the body of offerings. Some of the best heavy fed steers sold early and at steady prices, the top making $1.40. After this there was a lull in the market. The easy feeling was helped by the presence of a five-car bunch of driven-in steers, primarily for export, but shown on the market. Best demand appeared for the medium-fleshed steers, and several loads sold stronger than at any time since Monday.

NEWS ON THE MARKET

Ware & Leland
FORT WORTH, Texas, June 15.—The New Orleans cotton market had a nervous undertone and fluctuated rather uncertainly first and then fell below the level of yesterday's closing, with high talent in more puzzled state of mind than ever. There seldom has been a time when the trade as a whole has been so willing to sit on the hands as now. The largest operators here and the biggest brokers openly say that they prefer to wait a while before committing themselves to either side of the market. There was nothing in the weather map showed that the drought continued over Texas, but private reports from that state said that while cotton could be benefited by rain, it could not yet be said that the plant was suffering for want of moisture, but with dry spell the farmers have been able to thoroughly cultivate and clean their fields and it is keeping down the ravages of the boll weevil. It seems hardly possible that the drought can continue much longer and hence the majority of operators are afraid of taking the long side of the market. The dry spell has not put prices up, but a soaking rain would probably cause a precipitous decline. This is generally appreciated and checks speculation. The market is practically no spot market in New Orleans nowadays. Factors are showing lines which generally consist of cotton, but some of the factors are on which any old prices that suit the fancy of the holders are placed. The stock is dwindling day by day and it is hardly probable that offerings will increase unless the conference reports on the diplomatic and naval appropriation bills, the former completed and the latter partial; passed a bill limiting the liability that may be assumed by the individuals to national banks; adopted Senator Morgan's resolution relative to the control of the Panama railroad; admitted A. M. Benson to the senate as successor of Senator Burton of Kansas; received the credentials of Senator-elect Dupont of Delaware; listened to a speech by Senator Bryan on the subject of the local canal across the isthmus of Panama, and also passed several bills of a semi-private character.

STRONG ADJECTIVES HURLED AT CITY PARK

J. Horace McFarland Calls Flower Beds Atrocious

SIGN BOARDS HIDEOUS

Urges Hearers to Spread Beauty All Over the City—Praises Its Natural Advantages

"If you should employ the services of a civic improvement expert," said J. Horace McFarland of Harrisburg, Tenn., to an audience in the city hall Thursday night, "he would doubtless first shame you for the hideous sign board entrance you have to the city park and the atrociousness of your flower beds there.

"You have wonderful advantages in that spot for the making of one of the most beautiful parks possible. But you should organize to work in unison and harmony and then spread your beauty all over the city."

Mr. McFarland, who spoke to a small audience, complimented Fort Worth on its limited resources, many still undeveloped, he said. He also said that he was pleased to find the city's public buildings so nearly colonized.

"Civic improvements can only be accomplished by the working out of concrete and ordained plans for such certain well-considered resources," said Mr. McFarland. Mr. McFarland is president of the Civic League of America and having gained hard earned experience as the head of the Harrisburg "cleanup" campaign of 1901, he understands well the disheartening obstacles encountered by every city when trying for reform.

Many of Mr. McFarland's lantern slides picture Harrisburg—the old and the new. How dump piles have been cleaned up and how water ways over loaded with the sewage of one-third of the city have been changed by their course to better their facilities for carrying away the refuse, thus enhancing the sanitary conditions of a large city.

The Work at Harrisburg

Mr. McFarland's first lantern slide showed a character representing Harrisburg just waking after a long sleep. In his hand he has a seemingly contented with the worst sanitary conditions possible and Mr. McFarland says that such a man has been seen at Harrisburg is now surely awake, and as the picture shows, other cities are looking through the window to see what will be done for reform.

"One of the first obstacles we had to dispose of," continues Mr. McFarland, "was our rotten administration. We got rid of a mayor who would do nothing and elected a clean, fair, conscientious young man who was deeply imbued with civic pride. Then we formed a civic league to prosecute the campaign for certain defined reforms and improvements without delay. Committees were appointed to enlighten the citizens on the conditions and even the school children, who were readily interested and carried home most efficiently our aims and plans. We secured the services of our ministers in their pulpits and for months we bought columns in our newspapers to exploit the movement.

"Harrisburg now had over twenty-one miles of paved streets and plans are being made for the paving of twenty miles more of our streets in resident sections."

Work in Chicago

Mr. McFarland does not speak only of Harrisburg, but also of the work which has been done in Chicago for the less than a century. In the parks, outdoor gymnasiums and swimming and wading pools right in the heart of "packing town" and the slum districts of the city, tennis courts and public baths in Chicago, Boston, Hartford, New York and Brooklyn, Mass.

Much work has been done in all these in the way of parks and gardens and in the preservation of trees.

Officers Hunting "THIRD MAN"

was found Thursday afternoon by a Telegram reporter, who visited the scene of the double killing.

The foot was about a No. 8 in size and was covered by a tan sock with light colored stripes. There was no shoe on the foot, which was found on the west side of the railroad dump near the mouth of the Central river. The man and his pals attempted to rob a Santa Fe train several years ago. The find was reported to Sheriff Honea and the foot was brought in by the undertaker Thursday evening.

The foot found by the Telegram reporter on the side of the railroad dump had been severed from the leg about four inches above the ankle joint. The severed member was well shaped and had the appearance of a human foot well cared for. There were no bruises on it to show that the shoe might have been torn from it while being dragged along the track by the train. No shoe was found near the place and this suggests the question, "Did the man have a shoe on his foot when the body was struck?"

Mrs. Fuller Heard Calls

While making an investigation of the place where the bodies were found The Telegram reporter had a talk with W. L. Fuller, who lives about 1,000 feet west from where the bodies were found, and a statement made by him gives strength to the theory of the officers that the two men were murdered and their bodies placed on the railroad track.

Mr. Fuller said:

"During the night before the bodies of the two men were found my wife was awakened by a noise in the direction of my barn and on going to the door saw a flash of light inside the barn, as if some one had lighted a match. She did not awaken me and later she heard a number of catcalls made by men whistling, the calls coming from different directions. My wife did not say anything about what she had seen or heard during the night until this (Thursday) morning and when she did speak to me of it she expressed the belief that some rascality had been going on during the night. I believe she is right and that the two men found were killed and their bodies placed on the track by those who killed them."

One Body Was Cold

During the time Mr. Fuller was telling his story a track walker in the employ of the Santa Fe was present and confirmatory of the Fuller theory repeated a statement made by the engineer of the train that ran over the two men. This statement was made to the foreman in charge of that section of the Santa Fe on which the two bodies were found and was to the effect that when one of the bodies was first discovered by the train men and the train stopped it was cold, indicating that it had been dead for several hours.

The train ran about 250 yards after passing over the first body and dragged the second body south near the north end of the Jim Darlington cut, where the train was stopped and the body taken from under.

No Blood Found

Another circumstance that was developed by the investigation made by The Telegram reporter is that nowhere on the railroad track from where struck by the train could there be found a single blood stain. One body had been dragged fully 250 yards by the train, and had it been killed by the blood from the bodies would have shown up somewhere on the track.

There could be found no blood or signs of blood anywhere between the Darlington cut and three hundred yards north of it.

This fact gives color to the claim that both men were dead long enough before the train struck them for the blood to run from their bodies somewhere else than on the track; but no blood signs could be found anywhere near the place where the bodies were picked up.

An inspection of the bodies at the morgue showed the clothes on the two dead men were fairly good—much finer in texture than is usually worn by the tramp class—and the hands of both men were clean and showing no signs of having been used at labor of any kind.

Engineer to Testify

Engineer H. C. Moore of the train which ran over the bodies of Bishop and Jackson, has been ordered by the Santa Fe officials to report to Justice Charles F. Rowland, who is holding the inquest, and give his testimony. He was due to arrive in Fort Worth at 2 p. m. Friday and his evidence will be taken during the afternoon.

It is expected that Engineer Moore will testify that when the body of one of the dead men was pulled from under the train at the mouth of the cut where Jim Darlington attempted to rob a Santa Fe train in 1899, it was cold and stiff. This evidence has been heard by Justice Rowland, second-hand by hearsay, but never direct from Engineer Moore. Moore will also no doubt give interesting evidence as to how the bodies on the track before they were struck by the train.

Body Buried

The body of the man supposed to be W. Jackson was buried Friday morning, the condition of the body being such that it could not be held longer. The body of Jack Bishop is still held but it also will be buried Saturday, as it will be impossible to hold it longer.

The Darlington Hold-Up

The place where the bodies of Bishop and Jackson were found is associated with one of the most desperate crimes ever committed in Tarrant county.

In the case when Sterling P. Clark was sheriff of Tarrant county, Jim Garlington alias Darlington, a man named Ellis and another man, attempted to hold up and rob a passenger train on the identical spot where the bodies of Bishop and Jackson were found. In this attempt, the engineer on the train was killed instantly and the fireman was fatally wounded, dying the following day. The robbers were followed and the next day James Garlington or Darlington and a man named Petty was arrested. The third man, Ellis, was never arrested, making his escape from the scene.

He was hung in the county jail in 1902, and Ellis is still at large, though there is an indictment against him for murder on file in the district court.

A man by name of Moore, from Ardmore, I. T., is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for complicity in the crime.

Jurist Declares Social Distinction Wiped Out by Wealth

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 16.—"If the people of the met money is to denote man in America—and it too much as if it were—then a d of ethical distinction is likely some characteristic of the mind, for the suspicion is gathering in the average man wealth is 'taintin'." said Rev. Tisworth of Milwaukee, in his before the graduates of the Art Institute yesterday.

"The greatest question our society has to handle today lie accumulation of wealth. We become a new reality. The potentate money has more power than the multimillionaire father may have been a laborer. The aristocracy of wealth is away with social distinction."
