STATIONERS MEET... Complaint Made That Prices Cause Too Much Friction... By Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 21.—At the annual convention of the National Stationers' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday, E. R. Williams of Minneapolis said he thought something ought to be done concerning prices.

...Too Much Knocking... "We don't propose anything that will violate the anti-trust law," he said, "but we do believe that prices can be legitimately regulated in my own town, for instance, before the establishment of the local stationers' organization, the stationers spent more time 'knocking' one another than they did in 'boosting' their own business."

...The matter is expected to come up later.

WOULD SEGREGATE ALL DEGENERATES... Plan Submitted to Rid Society of Defectives... By Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 21.—There is no reason why society should not relieve itself of the burden of mental and physical degenerates in two or three generations, according to Alexander Johnson, secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections. This can be accomplished very easily, Mr. Johnson told the School of Philanthropy yesterday, simply by segregating these individuals.

...State As Caretaker... "They should be educated to the fullest extent possible," he said, "and it is astonishing what can be done with a feeble minded child if it is taught young. They should be taken into the care of the mother state from childhood until death and thereby the state will be serving not only its best interests, but those of the defective individual. I don't like paternalism in government but we can't have too much maternalism."

...Says Heredity Overworked... Although Mr. Johnson believes in eliminating bad stock, he thinks that the idea of heredity has been greatly overworked and that it can be a matter of infinitely more importance. "I would rather be born in the worst slum, of the worst parents that ever were," he said, "and then be removed to a satisfactory environment at birth than be born under the best possible conditions and then be removed to a bad environment. Heredity is a powerful factor, and we need never be surprised at anything it does. Yet this influence is slight compared with that of environment, and much that passes as heredity is really the result of environment."

...Mr. Johnson expressed the opinion that "Guteau and probably Colozes were defectives and ought to have been sent to an insane asylum instead of being executed."

MIDDLETON, Conn., June 1.—Fire in an amusement company supply the state hospital for the insane early today caused one death and nearly created a panic among the inmates of the asylum, who were removed from the premises by fire trucks. The fire broke out during the height of the fire. The superintendent of a silk mill here, who was a spectator, was crushed by a falling beam. The building was valued at $20,000.

6-INCH SPACE SAVES LIFE... Glenwood Man Has Thrilling Experience in Storm... For about fifteen minutes during the violent storm Wednesday afternoon Will Shelton, aged 22, of 50 Stella street, had a harrowing experience during which he came perilously near death. Only six inches of space between the surface of a swift rushing torrent of water and a heavy wooden floor gave him air until neighbors effected his rescue.

FALLS INTO SEWER... Is Swept Under Barn and Rescued Almost Unconscious From Swirling Torrent... Near Shelton's home in Glenwood is a large open sewer which, for a short distance, runs under the barn of J. M. Stewart near Luster street. As the result of the unusually heavy rain Wednesday the sewer was filled to overflowing in several low places and at the Stewart place it enters a cement culvert at the west end of the barn and runs the entire length of the water was fully five feet deep. Shelton was standing on a plank across the sewer a few feet west of the mouth of the culvert and the same distance from the barn. The plank suddenly gave way to his weight and falling into the water Shelton was whirled into the culvert and on under the barn, the current being so swift no effort on his part could have saved him.

...Wife's Aid Saved... Shelton's wife was the only eye witness of his fall and she at once ran to the east end of the barn, a distance of about two hundred feet, to await her husband's emerging. In the meantime Shelton had responded to the natural instinct of a drowning man and throwing up his arms had caught hold on a beam which supports the floor of the barn. Mrs. Shelton had soon attracted neighbors and Mr. Shelton, his father, and Mr. Perry, a blacksmith whose shop is located near the barn, located Shelton by his screams at a point about twenty feet from the entrance under the barn. After several planks in the floor had been torn up Shelton, almost unconscious, and gasping for breath, was lifted to safety above, and it was then discovered that the water was six inches between the top of the water and the floor of the barn had saved the young man's life.

...Thursday morning Shelton was reported to be gaining in strength and no serious injuries were sustained by his mishap. He is employed by the Stewart Transfer Company in Glenwood. The open sewer into which he fell carries a large part of the sewage from the Union Depot addition, its course being eastward through Glenwood to Sycamore creek.

TWO ARE HURT IN STREET CAR CRASH... Collision With Big Fire Truck Creates Panic... Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, June 21.—By an act of heroism, Charles Klausman, driver of a fire truck, saved the lives of the passengers on a Third avenue open car last night, when the car and truck collided at Sixtieth street with terrific force. As it was, two women were injured, one of them seriously, and about forty other passengers trampled over one another in a wild stamp to escape from the car.

...The injured women were Miss Alice Dunn and Mrs. Bridget McCarthy, the latter's condition being serious. Truck Strikes Pillar... The fire truck was making a fast run to a fire between Sixtieth and Fifty-first street, and just as the driver started to cross Third avenue he saw a southbound car bearing down on the truck. Klausman threw the weight on the reins of his galloping horses and swerved them to the right at a sharp angle, throwing them into an L pillar. One of the two passengers was struck by the truck. Klausman probably owes his life to the fact that he was strapped to the high seat on the truck.

TRUST FACES TRIAL... Tobacco Corporation Pleads Not Guilty to Charge Conspiracy to Curb Trade... Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, June 21.—Plea of not guilty of conspiracy and unlawful combination for the restraint of trade were entered in the United States circuit court Wednesday by Karl Jungbluth, president of the McCandless & Forbes Company, and Howard E. Young, president of the J. S. Young Company, against the supply of the two companies named as corporations. The two individual defendants were held in $5,000 bail each and all of the defendants were given twenty days to file demurrers on motions to dismiss the indictments.

...The two firms named in the indictments are subsidiary companies of the American Tobacco Company. The indictments were returned last Monday by a United States grand jury, which had long been engaged in an investigation into the so-called tobacco trust. It is alleged that the defendants by combination and agreement sought to control the tobacco supply and supply control the tobacco industry in the manufacture of plug tobacco.

7,000 MEN STRIKE... All Shingle Weavers of Washington Drop Work... By Associated Press. SEATTLE, Wash., June 21.—President Bolger and Secretary Campbell of the Shingle Weavers' Union last night announced the calling of the state strike which has been threatened for some time as an outcome of the labor troubles in the shingle mills at Ballard. The action is in accordance with a resolution passed at the special convention of the weavers of the state held at Ballard Sunday, which declared that unless the shingle mills bureau should before Thursday morning take some action looking to the settlement of the Ballard trouble the union would call a strike in every one of the mills affiliated with that organization, to take effect on that day. Seven thousand men will go out.

TARIFF WAR SEEN WITH GERMANY... Manufacturers Say We Treat Goods Unfairly... By Associated Press. BERLIN, June 21.—At a meeting of the Central Association of German Manufacturers, embracing most of the great manufacturing organizations of the country, held at Nuremberg yesterday, General Secretary Herr Bueck referring to trade arrangements with the United States, said the associations supported a temporary extension of treaty duties to the United States because the German industry at this moment was not sufficiently prepared for a tariff war with the United States. A continuance of the situation created by the temporary arrangement, however, will be irreconcilable with economic interests or the dignity of the German empire. The general secretary felt it necessary therefore to warn German industry to prepare in time for the tariff war which will be unavoidable if the United States thinks it can continue treating goods unfairly.

60 WITNESSES IN MURDER MYSTERY... Police Find Clue to Assassination of Alice Kinnan... By Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 21.—Interest in the Kinnan murder case centered yesterday in the announcement that sixty witnesses have been summoned to appear before Coroner McDonald this morning to testify at a hearing preliminary to the regular inquest. Mrs. Alice Kinnan was beaten to death on the night of June 8 on the front porch of the Old Mansion at Washington avenue and One Hundred and Eighty-ninth street which was occupied by Mrs. Kinnan and her aged mother, Mrs. Louise M. Stenton.

...Clue Found... Although the police and the coroner tried to keep the matter secret, it was learned last night that perhaps the only clue to a possible assailant was discovered by a policeman last night. He was stationed at the Stenton house to guard it. He was not in the house, but in some manner he got hold of a letter addressed to Mrs. Kinnan, postmarked two days before her murder, and written by a man threatening her with bodily harm.

When the train pulled in a band was playing and fully 3,000 people were at the station to greet him. A committee of prominent citizens was formed to give the judge a banquet at the hotel. He told of his work in congress, and at the mention of Judge Bell's name the crowd cheered lustily. At the close of the banquet the pavilion was dismantled for half an hour, shaking hands. He addressed a good sized audience here at 2 p. m. and what he had to say made a strong impression.

HAL STORM SWEEPS CITY... PROPERTY LOSS IS HEAVY... Windows in Every Section Shattered by Flying Ice Particles. Downtown District Suffers Heavily—Trees and Shrubby in Residence Section Stripped of Leaves and Flower Beds Are Ruined

WORST IN QUARTER CENTURY... Damage Reported Over Area 32 Miles Long and Probably 15 Miles Wide—Storm Comes Immediately After Breaking of Heat Record for Year and Is Accompanied by 40-mile Gale and Heavy Downpour

Probably the most severe hailstorm in a period of twenty-five years, accompanied by a blinding rain and a forty mile gale of wind, swept over Fort Worth and Tarrant county Wednesday afternoon, less than an hour after the thermometer had recorded a temperature of 98 degrees, establishing the heat record for thus far in 1906.

In the forty-five minutes the storm lasted the damage to windows and skylights all over the city reached probably $5,000. Damage to trees, lawns, flower beds, saruberry, as well as water damage in residences following the breaking of windows by hail cannot be estimated. Reports of damage to fruit and grain, most of which is now in shock, are still to be received.

Storm 32 Miles Long... The storm extended from twenty-five miles north of the city to seven miles south and from three miles west to Arlington on the east of town. The storm continued with unabated fury for forty-five minutes, blowing almost straight from the north, when the wind veered suddenly to the east and with renewed strength beat on the city for thirty minutes longer. Later the storm returned from the southwest and for a time threatened to do still greater havoc than during the first period, but passed over with only a short period of hail.

Window glass in houses in all parts of the city and in business structures were broken, and in many places were blown down; at least five houses moved from their foundations; fruit trees were stripped and basements under several houses and residences were flooded. Halstones half the size of one's fist fell in large numbers and the average size of the stones may be safely put as equal to that of walnuts.

Heat Had Been Intense... All day the heat had been most intense and at 2 o'clock the heat record for the year had been broken with the thermometer in the government building registering 97 degrees. Fifteen minutes later it had reached 98 and conditions on the streets and office buildings were almost unbearable.

Clouds had been slowly gathering in the north and west and shortly after 2 o'clock they overcast the sky. Rain did not begin to fall until a few minutes before 3, when big straggling drops began to patter on roofs and pavements, each one wetting a space nearly the size of one's palm. The wind, which at 2 o'clock was blowing from the north at fourteen miles, died down almost to a calm as the rain began to fall. Small hailstones began to appear at 3:05 o'clock, the rain in the west shifted from south-southwest to northwest and at 3:15 the storm was raging with violence.

Rain fell in torrents, Main and Houston streets soon were running full of water from curb to curb and the flood was overflowing into basements. Pedestrians sought shelter in the nearest building and teamsters drove the south sides of structures in search of protection.

Dropped Degree a Minute... The wind gauge on the government building registered a velocity of forty-five to forty-six miles per hour for about thirty minutes, but the velocity of the winds in the periodical gusts was much in excess of this. During the first ten minutes of the storm the thermometer showed a drop in temperature of 32 degrees, 65 being the lowest point reached. Rain-fell to the amount of 1.43 inches during the storm. The greatest damage was done by the storm in Fort Worth and suburbs. C. C. Littleton came in from Weatherford this evening and said there was no rain beyond Granbury and but little there. Wichita Falls reports no rain and there was none north of Ringoock on the Rock Island.

Grain men of the city were of the opinion Thursday morning that the damage to grain would be but slight, as cutting is practically done and the hail did not extend into the wheat region. Hail Causes Worst Damage... In the city the greatest damage was done by the immense hail stones. Scarcely a house or building where windows were not covered entirely by screens escaped loss of glass, and in some instances the hail broke glass through the screens. Skylights and green houses were badly shattered. The most damage was done to the lawns and shrubbery, which were beaten into the ground or riddled by the hail. Along Adams and Henderson streets Thursday morning the sidewalks were literally covered with leaves from the large sycamore trees which overhang them.

The telephone and lighting companies were losers by the storm, crossed and broken wires being the rule last night. This damage was not, however, as great as at first reported. The Southwestern Telephone Company had only 200 to 400 phones out of order and expected to have all these repaired by Thursday night. The Fort Worth Telephone Company fared better, having but 150 phones not working. Telegram is Delayed... The telegram was a sufferer by the storm in that the Wednesday afternoon paper was delayed for two and one-half hours because of crossed wires near the plant of the Fort Worth Light and Power Company, which company furnishes electric power for The Telegram's press.

...Dealers in window glass were unable to estimate the amount of damage Thursday morning, but J. J. Laney said that his firm had at 9 o'clock enough orders to keep his force of fifteen men busy for a week. Brown & Vera were unloading a day's load of glass at their store at 8:30, and Burns & Hamilton had orders for over 4,000 window lights, and they phoned to the city for an order for 100 boxes of glass, each of which contains fifty square feet of glass. The last named firm has twenty men at work Thursday morning.

Plate glass suffered but little, only two breakages being reported Thursday morning. One of these was at the Parker-Lowe store and the other at the Fairmont Hotel. These glasses can be replaced for $100.

Greenhouses Suffer... Greenhouses on the south side of the city were the heaviest losers by the storm. L. Cowell of the firm of McAdams & Cowell, which owns a large tract on the Fairmont Hill, said Thursday morning that one-third the glass in their houses was broken and considerable damage done to the plants. He ordered for 100 boxes of glass at $350 to $400 on glass and $50 on stock.

George Ellison, whose greenhouses are at Magnolia and Henderson streets, loses his loss was $400. His plants both inside and outside the houses were badly damaged. Mr. Ellison says that Wednesday's storm is the worst since about 1880, when the hail was of enormous size and accompanied by terrific wind.

At Riverside the nurseries and greenhouses suffered much less severely. Robert Baker of the firm of Baker Brothers said that 694 panes were broken from their houses at Riverside. Mr. Baker said the storm was much less severe there than in the city and he had not heard of a single window being broken in houses at Riverside. Some of the panes were broken and a few trees twisted and broken, but the damage to the plant would not exceed $50. Roses and other flowers outside the houses were but little hurt.

At the plant of the Drumm Sewal and Floral Company the damage seems to have been more. Mr. Drumm says Thursday morning that his loss would be nearly $250. Much glass was broken on their houses and the fruit trees pretty badly beaten.

The McCart greenhouses at Belknap and Rusk streets have but few whole glass remaining and the hail severely damaged the stock.

NAVAL OFFICERS PLAN TO MUTINY... Baltic Fleet Captains Favor Reform Movement... By Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 21.—Discussing reports from London, which were denied from St. Petersburg of trouble at Cronstadt, Ivan Narodny, a Russian who came here in the interest of the revolutionists, said yesterday: "There will be soon a great mutiny in the Baltic fleet at Cronstadt, with vastly more success than the already historic mutiny in the Black Sea fleet. The captains commanding are in sympathy with the revolutionary movement and will declare at the appointed time for reforms."

Nobles Friendly to Peasants... "The fact is the army officers drawn from the noble class are in sympathy with the men from the peasant and artisan classes. The common people and the nobles in Russia are not separated by the gulf that stood between these classes under the ancient regime in France. The nobles throughout Russia—and the gentry, too—are the peasants' closest friends, on the most cordial and friendly footing. The nobles are the backbone of the revolution in Russia. The bureaucracy is drawn from neither class, and is hated by both classes. It is the system which causes riots like that at Balyastok."

"The reason why the bureaucracy stirs up this resentment against the Jews is that they are seen to be an element strong for revolution—radicals."

JUDGE BELL AT SAN ANTONIO.

Judge Charles K. Bell made his first Bexar county speech in the city of San Antonio a few nights ago, and was given such an ovation as few candidates for public office have ever received in that city. The stage was crowded with prominent citizens and the hall could not hold the large throng in attendance. Realizing he was among friends, the candidate was at his best and delivered a speech that fired the historic city with enthusiasm. The San Antonio Express says:

Before the largest audience gathered here in the interests of any candidate, Judge C. K. Bell of Fort Worth last night analyzed the issues of the present state campaign. His discussions were concise and to the point and could not have helped but clear up some of the clouded issues so diversely discussed.

Judge Bell began by eliminating all the questions about which there could be no doubt and upon which all could not help but agree. Then he settled on what he took to be the real issues, the principal of which is the taxation problem. He dealt with the question of trusts and monopolies vigorously. In concluding his speech he said:

"If I can't be governor of the whole people of Texas I don't want to be governor at all. I do not want to be governor of any class of people or for any special interest.

"There is no cause for a blood-curdling campaign and those who desire such will not find in me a candidate. There is no occasion in the campaign for appeal to passion or prejudice.
"Those who are not worthy of being governor of all the people are not worthy of being governor of part of the people."
He said he has desired to retire from public life in order to gain a competence for himself, but a desire for certain changes in existing conditions caused him to be a candidate for the office he seeks.

He said there on every question where there is no difference of opinion he believes there is no need of argument. On the question of prohibition, he said, there is no future course for the legislature—that is, there is no demand for amendment to the prohibition law. His statement in regard to free passes brought applause. "Free passes," said he, "are nothing more than granting special privileges, and our Democratic platform for years has recommended abolishing free passes. There is no diversity of opinion in regard to this evil.

"The question of revenue and taxation never was of more importance. It has always been of importance and will always be. The government is the greatest pauper on the face of the earth. It cannot accumulate anything and must take from the people enough to maintain itself. The old valorem tax seems to be the most just one. All other taxes fall unequally. The national government collects a tax on tobacco. The man worth $100,000 and the man worth nothing, smoking the same amount of tobacco, are equally taxed, but the same amount of tax falls equally on the rich man and the pauper."

Judge Bell favors the taxation of intangible assets but declared the intangible assets law passed by a recent legislature is probably negative, because it does not tax all interests. He said it applied to telegraph companies, to railroads, but not street railways; to stock cars, but not sleeping cars. He waived the discussion of this law, but said it is not a credit to a state to tax one kind of corporation and leave the other free from taxation.

"It is right that a law should be held to be nugatory," he said, "because it does not affect all the same way." He called attention to the additional expenditure of the state. Until a few years ago there was nothing paid out as pensions to the Confederate soldiers. Now normal schools require additional appropriations and the school for girls and appropriations for the maintenance of the deaf and dumb, and the blind and for the insane have all increased. This year the state has to raise a revenue of $5,500,000. A few years ago $2,000,000 was the required revenue. Hence he showed the need of additional revenue. He told of how the state is at the present time on the verge of a deficiency and that soon the salaries of state warrants will have to be discounted. Judge Bell said he believed in Governor Roberts' "pay as you go" policy.

Judge Bell said when he first became a candidate he received a letter from the Association of Hardware Dealers of Texas asking if he would recommend the repeal of the occupation tax law and if he would recommend the insertion of a plank in the Democratic platform to the effect that the occupation tax should be repealed. The letter required a definite answer. Judge Bell replied to both questions: "I will not." He further said he will be in favor of such a law as soon as the revenues of the state shall be in such a shape that enough money will be brought into the treasury to pay the state's debts.

The increase of taxation on railroads, he said, only increases the railroad rate, and if the railroad rate is $4 on a bale of cotton it will be increased on additional tax. The tax would eventually be brought back to the poor man, especially the tenant.

Judge Bell spoke of Mr. Colquitt's plan to exempt properties from taxation and to place the burden of taxation upon the railroads. He showed how this would be an unequal taxation.

Judge Bell disagreed with Colonel Campbell's view of the exemption of homesteads from taxation for state purposes. He quoted from Colonel Campbell's speech, delivered at Athens. He said there are many wealthy persons who own homesteads valued as high as $40,000, while one thousand or more own homesteads valued at $10,000. They are owned by persons who can well afford to be taxed. He spoke of the driver of the dray and persons of humbler occupations who are taxed for their property to which is due their existence.

In regard to trusts and monopolies Judge Bell said when he was attorney general he saw from an official report from the state of North Carolina how a corporation had bought up all the cotton seed oil refineries and had controlled that interest in that state. To grind the cotton planters between the upper and nether millstone the same corporation had gained control of the fertilizer output. So this same corporation bought and sold to the farmers at their own prices. He said this same corporation attempted to buy up the cotton seed oil refineries of Texas, but ran against a snag in the Texas anti-trust law. He declared that such a corporation could not exist in Texas.

THE BEAUTIES OF HOME INDUSTRY

The Telegram has often admonished its readers as to their duty in the matter of patronizing home industry, but there are many who continue in the evil of their ways. It is said the average Texas citizen imagines he lives at home—but he doesn't. He gets up in the morning and puts on a sock made in New York, shoes made in Boston, pants made in Ohio, and then slips a pair of Connecticut suspenders over his shoulders. He dips some water from a Missouri bucket with a Chicago dipper, puts it in an Illinois washpan and washes his Texas face with a cake of St. Louis soap, drying his face with a Rhode Island towel and roaching his hair with a Vermont comb. He then drinks Cuban coffee from an Indiana cup and saucer, sweetened with sugar from Louisiana and stirred with a New York spoon. His knife, fork and plates were made in the north and his tablecloth also. He eats a piece of Chicago ham, fried in Kansas lard, says his St. Louis biscuit seasoned with Boston soda and Michigan salt into Louisiana molasses. He wipes his mouth on a Vermont napkin and seats his family in Michigan chairs around a table made in the same state. His meal was cooked on a St. Louis stove with wood cut by a Pittsburg ax and hauled in an Indiana wagon.

This Texas citizen then puts a Boston bridle and harness on a Missouri mule and gets out his Georgia plow and works in a field often incumbered with a New York mortgage. He returns at night and satisfies his appetite with another imported meal—fills his Indiana lamp with Pennsylvania oil and lights it with a New York match. He then fills his Illinois pipe with North Carolina tobacco and settles down for a comfortable smoke. When bed time comes he takes down his family Bible which was printed in Massachusetts reads a chapter, says a prayer composed in Jerusalem, then retires to bed, slips under his imported covers and is kept awake for two long hours by the howling of his Texas dogs, which are the only Texas products he has on his place except their accompaniment of fleas.

Truly, there are glowing opportunities for factories in every portion of Texas, and conditions that eternally admonish us of the necessity for patronizing those already located among us.

CORPORATIONS IN POLITICS

The platform recently adopted by the Missouri democracy contains one plank that will commend itself with much force to thinking people all over the country. It is as follows:

We are distinctly and unalterably opposed to the interference of corporations in political affairs. Corporations are the creature of the law; they exist by the favor of the people, whose representatives have enacted laws under which they may be organized for the public convenience or for the convenience of individual enterprises. But when they become opulent and strong, and undertake to defy the law and exercise their power and influence to control public affairs, they become a menace to the public safety.

This Missouri declaration voices public sentiment from one end of the country to the other. There is no portion of the United States in which the masses of the people are not thoroughly convinced that the influence of the big corporations is being perniciously exercised upon the politics of the country. It is often remarked that this is rapidly becoming a government of the trusts, by the trusts and for the trusts, and developments that have come to light concerning the big campaign contributions made by these institutions seem to amply sustain the contention.

It is the realization of these things that is now stirring the minds of the people and calling for such fervid and open declarations in favor of William J. Bryan. There is a quiet determination among the yeomanry of this broad land to redeem this government from the evils that afflict it, and corporate encroachment is one of the greatest evils of the present day.

Missouri democrats have enunciated a great keynote for the impending campaign, and the party everywhere will rally to the cry. It means the return of governmental functions into the hands of the people and the subservience of every corporation to the majesty of the law.

Uncle Trav. Henderson, the Gray Fox of Lamar, who has been credited with a desire to be state comptroller, has finally decided to content himself with membership in the next state legislature. And the elderly statesman idea proves a force sufficient to bridge the higher political aspirations of the gentleman in question? Uncle Trav. has served in previous legislatures with credit to himself and the state.

Congressman Bankhead, who was defeated by Hobson for congress, has announced for the senatorial succession in his state, and will make an active campaign.

We fall to note the name of Captain H. W. Wade among the list of those who have qualified under the law as candidates for governor. Is it possible the doughy captain forgot this very important essential?

It may be true that Candidate Colquitt once slapped the face of the editor of the Kaufman County Sun, but the world still moves and the Sun is still shining.

Candidate William D. Williams indites a very readable epistle to Candidate Storey and it is written in the usual Williams inimitable style.

THE TEXAS PRESS

Mr. Colquitt is running on live issues and the people of Texas will make a mistake to consider any other sort.—Houston Post.

Up this way it is not believed Candidate Colquitt is running at all. The indications all denote that he is only indulging in a political walk.

A vote for Bell for governor is a vote to endorse the politics of this state for the past eight years.—Tyler Courier.

And the politics of this state for the past eight years has been exclusively democratic. A vote for Bell is a vote for the most capable man in the race for governor.

And now, alas! good old farmer Wilson has been caught redhanded diverting appropriations by congress otherwise than intended by building the new agricultural department building contrary to the plans adopted. His only excuse is that "they all do it."—Austin Statesman.

Secretary Wilson has exercised his judgment in doing things he believed to be for the best interest of the government. He has not been caught redhanded in the commission of any crime.

Fort Worth aldermen are disputing over the question of buying sprinkling wagons. There are Fort Worth men who always shy at the water wagon.—Dallas Times-Herald.

It is the band wagon that always appeals to the Fort Worth heart. There is not a citizen within this proud city who would be content elsewhere than directly at the head of the procession.

Colonel Bell is to be complimented on one thing least. Every paper in his home town is unanimously for him tooth and toe nail.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

The Telegram was the first daily paper in Texas to give Judge Bell the proper support, but it now has lots of company.

The Bryan boom partakes of the nature of a spontaneous combustion—almost an explosive. It seems to have broken out all over the country at once.—Cleburne Enterprise.

The sentiment in favor of Bryan is growing so fast that it is already clear no other name will be considered at the next democratic convention. Bryan and Douglas will probably be the ticket.

Lawyer Patrick has the habit of being tried for his life; he has been at it for the best part of a decade now, and it would certainly surprise him if he should happen to be acquitted once.—El Paso Herald.

Patrick has reached the point now where there is going to be a final show down. All available expedients for the prolongation of his life have been resorted to and the electric chair looms but a little bit ahead.

The Texas hen is still in evidence. Her products are used in all the big cities of the land. Many small towns are snipping chickens and eggs by the car load.—Gainesville Messenger.

The Texas hen is contributing her full quota to the general prosperity in this state. She sings a tuneful lay from one end of the week to the other, and fills the bill of honored and useful citizenship eggs-actly.

WASHINGTON STORIES

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, June 21.—President Roosevelt is becoming more guarded in his talk about bills which congress is considering. He feels that he was entirely misunderstood in the Tillman-Bailey rate bill controversy and he does not want a repetition of that affair. He is attempting now to confine himself to general principles, rather than specific details, in saying what he favors and what not.

Vice President Fairbanks called at the Rhode Island avenue residence of Speaker Cannon the other night. He came in a hurry, alone and on foot, to say that he was not responsible, directly or indirectly, for the charges made by Indiana newspapers that Cannon has been holding up the pure food and meat inspection bills. He showed the speaker a letter written to Delavan Smith of the News urging that such accusations be discontinued. Uncle Joe said it was all right.

Nine out of twelve of the white house horses have the heaves, and five out of nine have influenza. This is due to the location of the official stables on low damp ground. Congress has been informed of the condition of the stables, but refuses to appropriate.

Senator Tillman has gone into asparagus as a side line. As a general thing, his plantation has raised corn, cotton and fancy roses, the latter for pleasure, not for profit. But the senator discovered that his farm was good ground for asparagus and that nothing brings better prices just now.

Former Senator Wm. E. Chandler harbors no grudge as a result of the Lodge-Roosevelt-Tillman-Bailey-deliberate-malicious-lar affair. He has told democratic callers that he is loyal to the traditions of the republican party, and considers Theodore Roosevelt the most potent influence for high political morality at work in American politics.

Senators Burnham of New Hampshire, Beveridge of Indiana and Clapp of Minnesota were recently present at the Sunday morning services of the Christian Science church in Washington. Senators Clapp and Burnham are interested, the latter claiming to have been cured of rheumatism by the treatment.

The elaborate and expensive entertainment which Mr. and Mrs. Longworth are receiving in London is filling President Roosevelt with deep foreboding. What if the Prince of Wales should decide to take that trip to America? The President recalls that the dinner to Prince Henry cost him personally something over $1,000. The recent wedding also cost quite a bunch.

The United States senate is fast losing its veterans. Senator Proctor of Vermont is seriously ill. Senator Allison has been confined to his room for weeks. Senator Gorman is gone, and Senators Platt and Depey are no longer among those present.

For the purpose of studying free alcohol in all its aspects, the President has decided to send a representative of the government to Germany, France, Belgium and Holland. John W. Yerkes, commissioner of internal revenue, has been chosen.

TALL TALES FROM THE TALL TIMBER

THE HIGHEST COURT
A Chicago lawyer tells of a suit that took him to a small town in Colorado some years ago. The attorney soon discovered that his client had a weak case. The principal expedient to be adopted, therefore, was to string out the proceedings for as long a period as possible. This he succeeded in doing by skillfully interposing numberless exceptions and objections; but finally judgment was rendered against his client.

Turning to associate counsel, the Chicago man contrived a last bluff. "We'll carry the case to a higher court," he said with great gravity.

"I'm afraid we're done for," was the response. "There is no higher court on earth. This court is 10,000 feet above the supreme court of the United States."

WHERE SAM WAS

It is told of ex-Governor Hogg, of Texas, that he had a favorite waiter in a Washington hotel, and always gave him a dollar after eating. He missed Sam from behind him one evening at dinner, which was served by a strange negro. As Hogg pushed back his chair, indorsed the check for the meal and reached into his pocket for the coin he asked the waiter:

"Where's Sam?"
"Sam's done los' you, sah."

"Lost me!" said Hogg, bewildered.

"Yes, sah. Yo' see, me and Sam played pokah las' night. Sam was a-losin' and finally went broke. Den he says to me he'd bet yo' against $2 worth of chips, sah; an' Sam—well, Sam jus' done los' you, Mistah Hogg!"

Freddie went to the country with his father and mother for a month's stay. The lad had been always used to city life, and naturally saw much in the country that was new and surprising. One day a circus came to the village. He, with the other boys, was permitted to watch the circus men at work.

At luncheon he astonished the household by exclaiming: "Oh, mamma! what do you think? I was over where they're putting up the circus, and they're filling the ring full of breakfast food."

WANTED A CHANGE OF FARE

A resident of Shamokin kept a flock of hens. As his neighbor's hens used to trespass on his premises, he got out of patience, and said to his neighbor:

"I have shut my hens up in my hen yard. Now, the next hen I see on my premises I'm going to shoot."

A few days passed before he noticed a hen scratching in his garden. He got his gun, shot the hen and threw it into his neighbor's yard. The neighbor had chicken for dinner that day. This act was repeated a number of times. The neighbor became tired of a steady diet of chicken. After the last hen was thrown into his yard he said to Mr. Wilkins:

"You'd better take this hen and treat some of the other neighbors. We're getting tired of so much chicken."

"Til teach you to keep your old hen at home," replied the other.

"But," explained the neighbor, "I sold all my hens a couple of months ago. Nobody else has hens around here. You've been shooting your own hens. I've seen them flying over the fence."

FOOTNOTE ON WASHINGTON

A Baltimore school teacher was telling one day of how often the instructor of "the young idea" is astonished by the quickness of wit exhibited by the pupil who is otherwise deficient.

One day, says this teacher, she had encountered such a degree of ignorance and mental obtuseness on the part of one of her boys that she became disheartened. So it was with considerable sarcasm that she said to the youngster:

"I wonder if you could tell me whether George Washington was a soldier or a sailor."

The kid grinned. "He was a soldier, all right," was his reply.

How do you know?" asked the weary teacher. "Because I seen a picture of him crossin' the Delaware," explained the boy. "Any sailor'd know enough not to stand up in a boat."

POPULAR ESTIMATE OF WILLIAM J. BRYAN

Bryan's homecoming week will be more national in scope and character than Kentucky's.—Anaconda Standard.

Mr. Bryan having demonstrated the quantitative theory of money, wants to take a whirl at the quantitative theory of votes.—Minneapolis Journal.

It is all off now with Colonel William J. Bryan and his Presidential aspirations. Mr. Hearst has turned his female correspondents loose upon him.—Detroit Journal.

The New York Mail has an article on "The Hearst Movement." When a few more states declare for Bryan it will probably look more like a fit.—Kansas City Journal.

By the time Mr. Bryan gets home he will have been indorsed by all the democratic conventions and all he will need to do will be to get himself elected.—Minneapolis Journal.

Bryan was treated as a prince while he sojourned in Korea. But such things no longer serve to injure a man's chances at the polls, even when he happens to be a democrat.—Chicago Record Herald.

It now seems probable that the national democracy will be split again into two hostile camps, with the supporters of Bryan in one and Cleveland and two or three more in the other.—Salt Lake Tribune.

The southern paper that nominates Henry Watterson for vice president on the ticket with Bryan should remember that a proud and haughty datto may refuse to link up with a mere colonel.—Denver Republican.

By indorsing Bryan for the next Presidential nomination the democrats all around are slamming the door in William Randolph Hearst's face with every indication that they mean it.—Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Bryan is to have a big reception in his honor in August. Mr. Bryan can have things done in his honor at any time except on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November and on March 4.—Washington Post.

The anxiety to have Bryan welcomed only by his "sincere" friends shows that the true aim of a political party is to keep itself small and select. Winning elections may safely be left to the other fellows.—New York Evening Post.

THE STOCK YARDS SMELL

The stock yards "smell," when analyzed, is found to be an olla podrida, a salmagundi, an omnium gatherum a hodgepodge, a gallimaufry, a melange, a pot-pourri or several other things equally majestic and powerful.—Chicago Tribune.

BOMBS!

Holders of public offices in Russia may seldom resign, but a good many of them die.—Chicago Record-Herald.

SO LET IT ME

Why not a sane and noiseless Fourth of July? Surgeons and ambulance drivers would not seriously object to a day of comparative rest.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

A POOR MAN'S COUNTRY

This may be, as Senator Dolliver says, a poor man's country, but a good part of it appears to have been mortgaged to John D. Rockefeller.—Louisville Post.

Colonel Watterson, having grabbed the front seat on the Bryan band wagon, Grover Cleveland will continue to give the country an imitation of a competent person making himself comfortable on a narrow rail fence.—Washington Post.

Colonel Bryan's visit to the duma at St. Petersburg will be a great day in the history of new Russia. The peasants will find much edification in a message from the oppressed and downtrodden farmers of Nebraska.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Colonel Bryan's friends base their hopes upon the fact that he will reach New York at a time when the antics of Billy Hearst have made the eastern democrats yearn for a leader whose strength is not confined to the violent wards of our erratic American institutions.—Butte Inter-Mountain.

Mr. Bryan weighs his words. He thinks deeply. Many campaigns and great disasters have taught him much. He no longer waves a torch. He has discovered that poverty is no longer an argument when every man who wants work can get it and the land drips with fatness.—Albany Times.

Some of the admirers of Vilas and Francis and Watterson and others of the gold democrats of 1896 who are running over each other in their haste to climb into the Bryan band wagon for the tour of 1906 are cautioning those gentlemen that they ought to know first what is going to be his platform. They—these eminent democrats—no doubt expect that as a reward for their present early and enthusiastic zeal in his cause he will permit them to construct his platform. If they do they do not know William J. He will plan his own platform even if it beats him. He is made that way and he enjoys publicity.—Chicago Chronicle.

Mr. Cleveland and his friends can just now serve the country best by simply looking on. No one can tell what developments there may be in the next two years. Mr. Bryan may be found to hold "safe and sane" views on great public questions, and he may be nominated on a platform that will meet the approval of all democrats. It is believed that he is a wiser and more conservative man than he was in the old days. But nevertheless, the Cleveland men will "maintain an independent position. They can continue to hold it. In any event they will not, in our opinion, be found rushing to the support of Mr. Bryan at the present time.—Indianapolis News.

From all indications the Hearst presidential boom is going to find it difficult to get on the main track again, the Bryan boom apparently having the right of way.—Houston Post.

Governor Hanley of Indiana thinks the country is facing a revolution. If he will look again he may find the country up to the neck in revolution.—Elmira Gazette.

FIRE AT CLARENDON

Several Frame Buildings Destroyed at Clarendon. Loss of $7,000

Special to The Telegram. CLARENDON, Texas, June 21.—The fire at this place this morning included buildings owned by Bromley & Cooke, W. M. Wooten and Dr. Wm. Gray, Lloyd Blackwell, barber shop; F. A. White, tailor shop; Tucker & Tack, bakery; M. L. Vinson, candy kitchen; A. H. Cowser, meat market; Butler & Caraway, restaurant; Cornutte & Waggoner, real estate office; and Fred Chamberlain, grocery. The aggregate loss was probably $7,000 with little insurance.

The buildings burned were frame structures. The new fire fighting apparatus recently purchased by the city gave a good account of itself at the fire and would have been the means of saving more had the fire been discovered in time. This is the first time the city has had occasion to use the apparatus.

Those whose places of business were destroyed are having considerable trouble in locating temporary quarters and it is probable that some will either be compelled to retire from business or wait until new buildings are erected.

AGGIE MEYERS HAS NO FEAR OF NOOSE

Condemned Woman Says She Will Meet Fate Calmly

By Associated Press. LIBERTY, Mo., June 20.—Mrs. Aggie Meyers, convicted of killing her husband, Clarence Meyers, whom Governor Folk promised to grant respite talked in her cell last night of her case. She regarded the sentence following the announcement that the state supreme court had denied her a new trial.

"I am truly thankful," said Mrs. Meyers, "for the fact of giving me additional time in which to take the few legal measures remaining. If every legal measure falls and the good women of Missouri and the newspapers that are endeavoring to secure commutation of my sentence are unsuccessful, then I will mount the scaffold and pay the penalty of people's prejudice without fear of the future, for I am innocent of killing my husband and Hottam knows it. He should tell the truth and prepare to meet his God with clean lips."

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS

In the Senate Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, June 21.—The meat inspection provision of the agricultural bill was yesterday made the subject of discussion in the senate.

The question came up on motion of Senator Proctor to grant the conference requested by the house and speeches were made by Messrs. Proctor, Beveridge and Lodge against some features of the house amendment and by Senator Warren in opposition to drastic legislation.

Mr. Lodge took occasion to defend American morals as quite as good as those of Europe. The bill went over without action.

There were two speeches on the Panama canal, one by Senator Morgan in support of the sea-level plan, and the other by Senator Perkins in opposition.

The senate held its first night session, which was devoted to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

In the House Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, June 21.—Twenty bills of more or less general interest were passed yesterday by the house under suspension of the rules. Among them were measures appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the Santa Fe railway building its general shops at Cleburne instead of at Temple.

Lake Cost $40,000. The railway company constructed a huge artificial lake at a cost of $40,000 two miles from the city from which it draws its own water supply. Representatives of the water company have lately sought a reconciliation and have been in Galveston conferring with General Manager Nixon with excellent results.

MONEY FOR TEXAS

Congress Asked to Reimburse State $400,000 for Defense of Border Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, June 21.—The deficiency appropriation bill will be reported to the house early next week, probably Monday. This bill is of special interest to Texas, for the reason that it is hoped to have carried in it an item of about $400,000 to reimburse the state for money paid out in defense of the border before the war. This item has been put in the bill by the sub-committee, but late some serious opposition has been developed, and it is by no means certain that it will be included in the bill as it will be reported to the house.

Salisbury vs. the Colonial Security Company et al., in which the comptroller refused to comply with the order of the Fifty-third district court to withdraw a warrant on the treasurer for the funds on deposit to the credit of the Security Company, was argued yesterday before the supreme court. DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for women's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is a true and successful patient into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if it is not true.

"Favorite Prescription" too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unequalled endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities showing why such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonial" conspicuously flaunted before the public in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all women's troubles, such as the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensation of the loins, general debility, weakness and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists in the long medical profession, as treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questions and personal examinations are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable information on diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps or copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One or laxative, two or three cathartic.

It is that it was an ivory tusk of a mastodon. The substance was very brittle and bore evidence of having been buried for centuries.

LONG FIGHT ENDS

Water Rate Quarrel Between Santa Fe and Temple Settled Special to The Telegram. TEMPLE, Texas, June 21.—The controversy of years standing between the water works company and the Santa Fe railway at Temple over water rates has at last been satisfactorily settled and hereafter the railway company will use the water supplied by the city company. The dispute started about ten years ago and many citizens regard it as the direct reason for the Santa Fe railway building its general shops at Cleburne instead of at Temple.

GRASS NEEDING WARMTH OF SUN

Rain Washes Away Fences in Mitchell County

George H. McIntire, the well-known young stockman of Mitchell county, paid a visit to the yards on his way out to his ranch.

"We are all right out our way," said he, "but grass and water is concerned, although we have had such an unusual amount of the latter that the grass is inclined to be sappy and not as strong as it should be at this time of the year, but this will remedy itself when the sun of June and July gets in its work. The recent rain was such a heavy one that it washed away wire fences down on the North Concho in Sterling county. It was surely a gully washer.

"Cattle, outside of slowness in taking on fat, in consequence of the recent conditions, are doing well, and there being no sickness of any kind among them, we have no fear of any loss. The increase in the shape of calves is a good one, above the Territory, I suppose. I have gotten myself interested in farming and like it. We have an eleven-section tract a few miles below the Texas and Pacific railroads and are experimenting with milo maize as a feed crop. We have the land cut up into various plots and plant the maize in all sorts of ways and at various distances apart, check them and give them some. It is our aim to find out what is the best method to use in raising this feed, which is such a salvation for our country and these months it is to the satisfaction of all. We keep an exact account of the number of grains planted in a hill, how far apart in the row, what is the result from each of the methods and give them some. We have Johnson grass and would not do without it, but we want a feed in grain and milo maize is the best for all kinds of stock. Bermuda is the best of all grasses and a good thing for sodding the banks and water holes and dams. We have had several dams washed away before now, but I sodded the line with Bermuda and the water ran over it four feet deep and did not hurt it. Of course, after a wash is started nothing will hold, but Bermuda makes it hard to get a wash started.

65 FARMERS SEEK POLITICAL PLUMS

117 Candidates for Offices File Applications

Special to The Telegram. PARIS, Texas, June 21.—There are 117 candidates for county and precinct offices to be voted for in the democratic primary July 28 and the petitions filed with Alex Gilmore, the chairman of the democratic executive committee, to have their names placed on the ticket show that at least 62 per cent of them are farmers.

Of the 117 applications filed sixty-five of them set themselves down as farmers straight. One calls himself a farmer and teacher, and another sets his occupation down as a farmer and stockman. One is a ginmer and farmer, another a real estate dealer and farmer and another an ex-officer and farmer.

BRYAN AND TAFT

President Reported Saying Nebraska Will Be Democratic Candidate

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, June 21.—According to reports printed here, President Roosevelt is of the opinion that the best democratic candidate for president will be William Bryan. He believes that Mr. Bryan will be a strong candidate. "But," the President is reported to have said, "Taft would be a strong candidate."

Whether this is to be taken as a presidential prophecy is not clear. The President did not say "Taft would beat him," nor did he say that any other candidate "could beat him." His remark, however, is understood to mean that he is no longer so insistent that the secretary of war shall go on the supreme court bench, but shall follow his inclinations at the time it becomes necessary to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice Brown.

All the other presidential candidates, Fairbanks, Shaw, LaFollette, Cannon, Root and Foraker, appear to be of the opinion that the President is strongly inclined toward casting his influence for Taft.

WOMAN ATTACKS BULL

Saves Husband by Driving Off Animal With Ax

Special to The Telegram. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 21.—Aroused by the cries of her husband, Mrs. George Fitch of near Stafford, arose from bed early today, and, grasping an ax, attacked a bull which had attacked and almost killed her husband.

Fitch, who arisen early and gone to the barnyard to feed the stock. He was attempting to drive the bull, a large and powerful animal, into a feeding stall, when it became enraged and turned on him with such fierceness that he was knocked to the ground and gored before he could defend himself. The animal gored Fitch in the side and back several times, and he was almost unconscious from loss of blood when his wife came to his rescue with an ax.

Mrs. Fitch, who is past 60 years of age, a fact which is very greatly contemplated by Iowa democrats, who never get within sight of a state of danger.

FAMOUS HORSE DIES

M. J. Daly's Claude Passes Away After Winning $67,690

CHICAGO, June 21.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Lexington, Ky., says: The noted race horse, Claude, owned by M. J. Daly, died at Edward Corigan's farm in this county yesterday. Claude won twenty-eight races and $67,690. He was a three-year-old, of the California, Tennessee, St. Louis and Fort Erie breeds, and was second to The Picket in the American derby.

Claude was imported Lisack, dam of Ida H., by Lisbon, and was purchased as a yearling by Daly for $250. He was never out of training from his birth, and was a great favorite with the public, being raced both winter and summer. He was bred to several mares this spring.

NEGRO STABBED

Cut By Butcher Knife May Prove Fatal

TEMPLE, Texas, June 21.—Two Lumbas negroes who came here on an Emancipation day excursion yesterday became involved in a difficulty at Midway park last night and one named Blaine cut the other named Reyes with a butcher knife in the abdomen, inflicting a wound that may prove fatally. Blaine was arrested and locked up pending the outcome of his victim's injuries.

REPUBLICANS SPLIT

Warring Factions Will Put Two State Tickets in Field

Special to The Telegram. SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 21.—That there will be two republican state tickets nominated at Des Moines Aug. 1 is freely predicted by both factions in the party, a fact which is very greatly contemplated by Iowa democrats, who never get within sight of a state of danger.

Special to The Telegram. LAWTON, Okla., June 21.—Mayor R. A. DEATH FROM LOCKJAW never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent the poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes: "I cured Seth Burch of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw. I cured a young boy of the same disease at 25c at Walkup & Fielder, Holland Red Cross Pharmacy and Reilly Drug Company."

Y. M. C. A. NOT
SUPERSTITIOUS
Grand Membership Canvass
Will Be Made Friday

HOPE FOR 1600
Officers Expect Capacity of Building Will Be Reached in Single Day's Hunt

Friday is the day for the Y. M. C. A. membership canvass, for which plans have been maturing for some time. The directors announce that the prospects are good for success if every man who has agreed to help in the solicitation will do his best. They also ask that many business men report at the Board of Trade tomorrow to assist them in the canvass. The securing of the membership asked for is fully as important to the future of the work as the reaching of $12,000 in twelve days in the building canvass.

Phones Will Be Used
Two telephones will be ready for use tomorrow, the Y. M. C. A. and the Board of Trade, and memberships may be phoned in on either. Those who are making the canvass are asked to make their first report early on Friday morning and to keep reports coming often during the day so that the clock can be kept moving. All who have received applications by mail are asked to mail them today so they will reach the office early tomorrow.

Ladies of the city who know of boys who should be in the association are asked to get their applications for membership and phone names to the office. It is expected that everything will be ready for the stereopticon views and returns from the canvass at 8 o'clock at night and from that time until 10 o'clock all are invited to be in front of the Board of Trade office to watch the finish of the canvass. When the big whistles during the day blow a number of short blasts, by counting the number of hundred members secured to that hour can be ascertained. Captain B. E. Paddock is one of the boys who early requested that a membership be kept for him, and when his ticket is issued it will be No. 1 in the Business Men's Club. There is a limit of 100 in this club and quite a number of men have already signified their intention of taking this membership.

REBUILDING SALE!

The extraordinary amount of business transacted since the opening of our sale ten days ago, shows the great popularity this store has acquired and the interest with which our announcements are read. We always deal honestly with the public—do as we advertise, and the announcement of any special sale here means genuinely reduced prices and very real bargains. Such is the case now, and the bargains undoubtedly the biggest we have ever given, because we realize that only making extreme sacrifices can we hope to clear out this stock before the great interior tear-up. We have an immense stock of goods to sell, and a very few weeks to do it in, and as they must be sold or stand a loss by ruin, we are deliberately shutting our eyes to cost and profit. Many people are anticipating future wants and buying for future needs, realizing that an opportunity like this may never come again. You can't make a mistake. Worthy goods at sacrificed prices.

SANITARY OFFICER DEPLORES "KICKS"

Says Dumping Ground Is Now in Good Condition
Five hundred notices—written and verbal—is but a part of the work accomplished by R. Matkin, who was appointed to be a sanitary officer of the city of Fort Worth June 4, according to his own statement. Sanitary Officer Matkin has the part of the city to the west of Main street as his field of duty and, beside this, is expected to look after the city dumping ground.

The city dumping ground has been the cause for many complaints on the part of many people recently. The people include the owner of the property, who leased the dumping ground to the city and who has notified the city to "get out as soon as possible." Now Sanitary Officer Matkin says that the major causes for complaint at the city dumping ground has been removed at his direction. He said:

"The dumping ground looks a great deal better now than at the time when so many complaints were being heard and when so many newspaper articles were being published about the sanitary conditions alleged to exist at the dumping ground. I think there is little cause for further complaint and hope to be able to see to it that the city is 'get out' as soon as possible. The complaints as to the condition of the city proper, which has been alleged in newspaper statements to be in an unsanitary condition, cannot be supported to any great degree. Of course there are abuses and it is these very abuses that we sanitary officers are now laboring to correct. For myself, I can say that I have served more than five hundred written and verbal notices on proprietors and tenants of residences in the city as to conditions that are not legal and which may be punished by fine. There are many places where the weeds must be cut and there are yet many places to be cleaned up thoroughly. We are doing all that we can do and I should like the citizens of Fort Worth to know this."

Trees Stripped
Fruit trees were stripped of their foliage, which takes all hope of a yield this year, and many small trees were uprooted. Fifteen window lights are reported broken in the Glenwood school building and the cost of replacing them will be about $20. Many property owners have broken window lights to replace and the cost of repairs to Glenwood citizens will be heavy.

Shelton Improving
Will Shelton of 500 Stella street, who suffered a serious accident in an open sewer Wednesday afternoon, was reported Thursday morning to be quite improved, though he has not entirely regained his strength.
