SECRETARY ROOT WILL VISIT SOUTH AMERICA

Secretary Root will probably be in Rio Janeiro for about ten days. His trip is the west coast of South America, in a Chilean warship. The distance from Rio Janeiro to the United States cruiser Charleston, in which Secretary Root will sail for South America, is too large a craft to make its way along the coast of Chile, Peru, and Guayaquil, Ecuador, and consequently the American secretary of state and party will probably be at Cartagena to greet the American secretary of state and party which will be at Cartagena to greet the American secretary of state and party which will be at Cartagena to greet the American secretary of state and party.

The train left Trenton, N. J., on schedule time. There are no stops between that point and the North Philadelphia station, but it is customary to slacken the speed at Frankford Junction, in the northeastern section of the city. When this was not done, James Hackett, the fireman, called to Engineer Maxwell, who was at his post. Receiving no reply, Hackett climbed over to the engineer's side of the cab and found Maxwell dead, his fingers rigid upon the throttle. Maxwell's death was due to heart disease. The report is officially accounted for by rumors following the retirement of General Pleskof, commander of Peterhof, and the appointment of Colonel Lornomoff of the imperial regiment of Upland as his successor. Deny Deed Was Premeditated

That Thaw Bought a Revolver to Kill White or That the Killing was Premeditated Will Be Denied... NEW YORK, June 29.—The arraignment of Thaw today in the court of special sessions is simply for the purpose of receiving the prisoner's plea of "not guilty," and Mr. Jerome's return, it is expected, will hurry the actual trial. It is suggested today that the district attorney may personally conduct the prosecution. Thaw will be a witness for his husband at the trial. She has declared her willingness to tell all she knows. She fully realizes that in doing so she will subject herself to a searching cross-examination.

"As to Thaw's purpose in furnishing evidence against White, I firmly believe it was prompted by the purest motives. I do not mean that Thaw thought White should be punished, but that he should be taken out of the community by legal process and put in prison. WOMAN LOST IN MOUNTAIN CLIMB

Night in Adirondacks Proves One of Suffering... LAKE PLACID, N. Y., June 29.—After a search lasting all Wednesday night and through yesterday forenoon, Dr. J. D. Where the trail divides in two parts, half way up the mountain, the women became confused, one taking one and the other branch. Miss Warner became frightened and made her way back to the boat landing. Strain Was Terrible... Searching parties at once set out from the village to locate Dr. Morrill, and it was not until about noon yesterday that she was found on the summit of the mountain, where she had passed the night between the shelter of the ledge. The woman was assisted back to the village, suffering from exposure and the terrible nervous strain.

CAMPBELL HAS REBATE RECORD

Wasn't Always So Strict Regarding Law Enforcement

ROAD PLED GUILTY

Investigation of I. & G. N. Under His Management Led to Collection of Penalties

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, June 23.—Colonel Tom Campbell, as a candidate for governor, is not the same Colonel Campbell who was at the head of the International and Great Northern Railroad Company several years ago. Now he wants every law enforced and obeyed, and makes promises to that effect, but in those days which have passed—well, he was just the antithesis of his political promises.

Now this is a broad statement, and it would be grossly unjust to Colonel Campbell if such a statement to be published if the facts did not justify it. The facts are at hand, however, and a paper like this will show that the colonel, while he was at the head of this great railroad, sanctioned and approved flagrant violations of the law. The law which he helped to violate was the railroad commission law, the pride and boast of his friend, the late ex-Governor Hock.

By 1907 Attorney General Crane instituted twenty suits against the International and Great Northern Railroad Company, charging it with giving rebates to its shippers. To these suits the National Cotton Oil Company of Houston and other corporations and individuals, who Colonel Campbell was general manager.

Commission Investigated

The railroad commission had been advised that Colonel Campbell's road was violating the law as to giving rebates, so it ordered an investigation. Its report in those days was E. M. Underhill, who had a superior in investigating "crookedness" and "double-dealings" on the part of the railroad companies.

Mr. Underhill found from an examination of the books of the International and Great Northern railroad, that it had been giving rebates to the National Cotton Oil Company of Houston, as well as others. That the rebates paid to this company aggregated $1,781,773 and that they were paid by the International in November, and December, 1905, and in February and March, 1906.

That rebates were paid on cotton seed and lard from J. C. Crockett and Woods to Houston. That on shipments from T. P. Smith at Crockett a rebate of $123 was allowed, while on a similar shipment from Houston, no rebate was paid, showing a rank discrimination in favor of Crockett against Houston. But these minor acts are not investigated.

Comes made by Mr. Underhill of rebates in the general offices of the International and Great Northern show that the rebates were allowed for these "overcharges," as they were termed, and in some instances the name of T. M. A. Campbell appears on the vouchers per that of his clerk, but some of the vouchers allowed on these rebates show the signature of T. M. Campbell without the aid of his clerk. Proving conclusively that he was cognizant of the fact that the rebating and violations of the law were going on.

Mr. Underhill found from an examination of the books of the International and Great Northern railroad, that it had been giving rebates to the National Cotton Oil Company of Houston, as well as others. That the rebates paid to this company aggregated $1,781,773 and that they were paid by the International in November, and December, 1905, and in February and March, 1906.

After Mr. Underhill made his investigation for the railroad commission, the commission formally heard the case as the law directs, and the evidence was so conclusive that the papers along with Mr. Underhill's report were transmitted to the attorney general.

Attorney General Crane filed twenty suits on the part of the state of Texas against the International and Great Northern Railroad Company, in which rebates were allowed to the National Cotton Oil Company and others at Houston was allowed. The penalty sued for in each case was for the recovery of $2,000, and the maximum allowed under the law. The minimum being $500.

The cases are on the docket of the Travis county district court, and are numbered 13,755 and 13,775, inclusive. When the suits were called for trial the International and Great Northern Railroad Company appeared and entered a plea of guilty and was fined $500 in each case, making a total of $1,000 in the twenty cases.

Judge Bell Squelched It There is another chapter which can be added to this item. The last official act of Judge C. K. Bell while he was attorney general was to file suit against this same National Cotton Oil Company, charging it with fixing the price of cotton seed, which was in restraint of trade. He sued to forfeit its charter, was successful in all of the state courts.

The county court of the case to the supreme court of the United States and there Judge Bell whipped it out of existence, and it no longer menaces trade. Its charter was forfeited and the pursuit made against it by Judge Bell.

A large, demonstrative and appreciative audience witnessed the rich comedy production of "Pleasant Valley" by the Albert Taylor company at the White Rose theater Thursday night. Albert Taylor sustained his reputation as a comedian of increasing magnitude and brilliance. The play has been seen here before in the hands of a more pretentious company, but the leading roles were never more admirably and successfully portrayed than by Mr. Taylor last night. His Hossa Howe was perfect. Mr. Taylor's support was of the best. The special-features of the act by Phyllis Colburne trio and Lyne and Leonard elicited much applause and were new ground up to date in every respect. Tonight one of the most elaborate productions ever given by a popular-price company of Hall Calne's powerful play, "The Christian," will be given.

At the Palace Rink "Couples only" was the attraction at the Palace rink, Lake Erie, and was attended by a large crowd of Fort Worth's fashionable society people. The excellent floor, beautiful gowns, good music and cooling breezes of the Lake Erie all combined to send the pleasure seeker home with a determination to return again soon.

ASK COMPANIES TO SPRINKLE STREETS

Third Ward Democratic Club Passes Resolutions

Street sprinkling by street car companies using the streets of the city was endorsed by the Third Ward Democratic Club at its meeting Thursday night and resolutions were adopted asking the city council to investigate the feasibility of the plan. Some sixty-five representative citizens of the Third Ward attended the meeting and all manifested a deep interest in the proceedings.

Alderman Cook addressed the meeting on civic questions and other prominent men of the ward spoke. Five new members were received.

The club has purchased the building formerly occupied by the Jewish church and is moving it to the lot at the corner of Sixteenth and Elm streets. It will be painted and newly furnished and be the permanent home of the Third Ward Club.

The resolutions adopted Thursday night are as follows:

Text of Resolutions Whereas, Petitions have been filed with the city council of Fort Worth, requesting a referendum on the question of granting franchises for extensions to two street railway companies over streets in the city of Fort Worth; and

Whereas, Such franchises have heretofore been granted to street railways without adequate compensation to the city for the use of the streets, with the exception of the Rosen Heights railway, which pays the city 2 per cent of its gross receipts; and

Whereas, The people of the city are entitled to some return for these valuable privileges at least to the extent of having the streets sprinkled on which the privileges are granted; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Third Ward Club deems it advisable to have a provision in all street railway franchises hereafter granted requiring the street car companies to sprinkle streets granted to them as the city council may require, and that any franchise not carrying such a provision should be defeated at the referendum.

Resolution on Sprinkling Whereas, The city government of Fort Worth is experiencing considerable trouble solving the problem of street sprinkling; and

Whereas, Other cities have arrangements for sprinkling streets by trolley cars on streets used by street railways; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Third Ward Club urges upon the city council of Fort Worth the practicability of such an arrangement for this city and suggests that the city associate, if such an arrangement cannot be entered into here with the street car companies.

Eighth Ward League to Meet The Eighth Ward Civic League will meet at the Magnolia drug store, corner Magnolia and Hemphill streets, to discuss city hall politics, the proper form of commission government and the coming referendum elections for street car franchises in the ward. It is probable that resolutions will be adopted expressing the wishes of the members on recent developments in the city council and the administration of the mayor. A large attendance of Eighth ward citizens is expected.

MRS. CHEATHAM IS AGAIN IN MESHES

Authorities Charge Embezzlement at Colorado Springs

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, June 23.—Mrs. Parlo Cheatham is again in the toils at San Antonio, notwithstanding the fact that the court of criminal appeals has denied a rehearing in the case, which had the effect of liberating Mrs. Cheatham.

As soon as it became known that a court of criminal appeals had denied a rehearing, Deputy Sheriff G. E. Dayton of Colorado Springs, Colo., came to Austin and requested from Governor Latham another requisition for the extradition of Mrs. Cheatham. This action had been contemplated all along in the event the court denied a rehearing in the case. Mrs. Cheatham was again arrested at San Antonio and another habeas corpus suit was filed by the lawyers in behalf of Mrs. Cheatham and the whole case will be gone over again in the district court at San Antonio.

Embezzlement Charged It will be remembered that when the case was first appealed to the court of criminal appeals from the district court of Bexar county, the court discharged Mrs. Cheatham on the grounds that the executive warrant was insufficient. It is now thought that the new executive warrant will stand as the irregularities discovered in the first one have been eliminated. Mrs. Cheatham is held on a supposed charge of embezzlement from David McKee of Colorado Springs, Colo., and was first arrested at San Antonio on March 26, 1906. Her lawyers are going to again resist the efforts of the authorities to take their client back to Colorado.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Advantage in Volume of Business, Continued Liquidation Causes Decline—Market Steady
NEW YORK, June 29.—There was a marked shrinkage in the volume of business transacted on the Stock Exchange today, as compared with that of recent seasons. The trading during the early hours was also without special interest. London prices did not reflect an advance of yesterday and a drop of 1/4 points in the price of Anaconda occasioned an initial slump of 1/2 points for the balance of the day being about equally divided between losses and gains of fractional proportions. The after effect of yesterday's rapid upward movement was noted in the continued liquidation which the market encountered, causing a gradual decline in values, which, however, did not reach any important proportions before the close.

DIRECTORS PLAN WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

Different Branches to Be Systematically Managed

At the home of D. C. Campbell Thursday night was held an important meeting of the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association. The larger part of the meeting was given to the consideration of plans for organization of the work when the building is ready to open.

It was decided that to accomplish the work the association should do in the city that several men, specialists in their line, should be employed and the Fort Worth work opened on a larger scale than any association in the southwest. This is made possible by the fact that Fort Worth will have the largest membership of any association in the same territory. Men for the following positions are to be secured: a general secretary, who is at the head of the work under the directors; a physical director, who will have charge of the physical department; an office secretary, who will be constantly in the building, to issue memberships, welcome men, etc.; a secretary for boys, who will have charge of the physical department; and also when they may be out on camping or other trips; a membership secretary, who will be responsible for the securing of the membership, and also plan the social life of the work; a religious work-educational secretary, who will also be in charge of the physical department. The latter will not be a minister and his duties are not to preach or lead meetings especially, but to plan and carry out a work program of religious lines that will bring hundreds of the men of the city in meetings and Bible classes, both in the building and out of it. His work is educational lines will be very light until the top story of the building is completed, as all the class rooms are on this story, and no provision has yet been made for the completion of this part of the building.

The directors believe that this plan will commend itself to the people of the city and will interest and hold the men who join. For these positions so far few men are in sight, as trained association men in every department are very hard to find, and the directors will only use men who have had experience and shown themselves a success in other fields.

Want W. L. Childs

For physical director, a very important position, W. L. Childs of Chicago is being considered. He is a graduate of the Chicago Young Men's Christian Association training school, has had large experience in athletic work, having been in charge of the Chicago association athletic field and also for the past three years he has been assistant physical director at Chicago University. He has spent seven years in preparation for his work, and no man in the country possibly is better prepared to fill acceptably the position of physical director. It is doubtful, however, if he can be secured, as he has several calls in Chicago and elsewhere, and has not yet resigned at the university. A good salary offer was wired to him last night, and it is possible that he will come to Fort Worth.

Men for the other positions will be called as soon as suitable material can be found.

The directors desire to thank Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Campbell for their entertainment last night.

SKATES ROLLED AWAY

Young Colored Man Wants Detective to Find Them

Thursday night Jack McQueen, a young colored man who is employed by R. Vickery, 303 Hill street, looked for his roller skates and couldn't find them. He looked again—same old story. Then he made inquiry as to who had stolen the skates, and he learned that the servants' room in the rear of the residence during his absence in the afternoon. He found that some young negro man had called to see him, and seemed disappointed to find that he was not at home. He is still looking for his skates, which, he says, were Winslow's make, size 10 and No. 17, and wants a detective detailed on the case.

It was suggested that the young man who called to see him might have been one of his many friends who borrowed the skates temporarily. This seemed a forlorn hope, but he clung to it and says that he will go over his visiting list carefully, in order that not a guilty man escapes.

PROSECUTOR ROBBED

Burglar Visits Home of Virgil R. Parker

Six dollars and twenty cents (approximately) were taken from the residence of Virgil R. Parker, 815 East Third street, about 4 o'clock Friday morning. The burglar entered the same house Sunday morning, but failed to make way with anything.

Returning from Dallas Thursday night, Mr. Parker says he retired about 11 o'clock. He was awakened shortly before 4 o'clock Friday morning by the screams of Mrs. Parker, who had discovered a stranger in the house. Mr. Parker sprang up to see the man retreating through an adjacent room. The burglar, who followed and the man jumped through a window head first, the screen having been removed.

It is not known whether the intruder was a white man or a negro.

O. B. COLQUITT A VISITOR HERE

Candidate for Governor Says He Likes Prospects

Oscar B. Colquitt says that he is not apprehensive of the result of the present gubernatorial race. He thinks the chances are coming his way and does not hesitate to say so. In south Texas, Mr. Colquitt says that he will carry nine out of every ten counties by a large majority.

When seen by a reporter for the Telegram Friday morning, Mr. Colquitt had just arrived in this city from West Point, Fayette county, and was en route to catch the Texas and Pacific train, westbound for Eastland, in the central portion of western Texas. Mr. Colquitt was in fine spirits and talked freely. Thursday afternoon, he said, he spoke at Thorndale, Milam county, and Thursday night at Taylor, Williamson county, the junction point of the International and Great Northern and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroads.

"Large crowds came out to hear me," said Mr. Colquitt, "and I am not displeased to catch the way and people gave me. It is the same wherever I go and, while I have been well acquainted with the people of this state in various ways for years, I must say that this campaign shows one thing more than all else—that is that Texas people are inclined to give their votes to a white man who has an interest in all things pertaining to the good government of the state."

JOHN COMER RETURNS

Attended Meeting of Millers in Milwaukee

John A. Comer is back from the Milwaukee meeting of the American Millers' Association. He says it was a well attended meeting, and that there was but one miller from Texas present, Otto Troell of Soguin, the manager of the North and West Texas plant. Millers from all of the important milling states of the country were present, and that means millers from nearly all of the United States. He thinks there were fully 1,000 delegates present. The next meeting of the association is to be held in St. Louis.

TWO HURT AUTO CRASH

Auto Runs Into Embankment on Arlington Heights

THROWN ON FLOOR

Condition of Mrs. H. Derrough Serious—F. Krause Is Painfully Injured

SPREADING cityward last night on the automobile route thoroughfare, on Arlington Heights road, H. Derrough, driving a big Ford touring car, facing the prospect of collision with another car, loaded with a family party in the rear, took a fireman's chance, swerving his auto to avoid the oncoming car and approaching the Arlington Heights Tracton line.

As a result of the sudden big automobile leaped fully 10 feet into the air and alighting, the car rolled over on its side, and Derrough and Fred Krause, of the rear seats, forward and backward, nearly sixty feet from the machine.

Mrs. Derrough was critically suffering a fracture at the base of her skull. Krause, who is about 40 years of age, received a broken several ribs.

Two Men Unhurt

Derrough, clinging to the wheel, was about half a mile from the scene of the accident. The car rolled over on its side, and Derrough and Krause, of the rear seats, forward and backward, nearly sixty feet from the machine.

Mrs. Derrough was critically suffering a fracture at the base of her skull. Krause, who is about 40 years of age, received a broken several ribs.

The accident happened just west of the first long hill on Fort Worth on the Arlington Heights road. The Stripling car was ahead and the Derrough car coming up the western slope, all being on the same road.

Mr. Derrough, who is proprietor of the garage at Tenth and Houston streets, was returning from driving a party of four to Arlington Heights with his party. The machine is valued at $1,000. The very large machine is a 1910 model, the lower automobile that has just been sold by Lee Runnie to Bernie A. Smith. The machine is valued at $1,000. The very large machine is a 1910 model, the lower automobile that has just been sold by Lee Runnie to Bernie A. Smith.

Coming up the western incline toward the crest of the hill Mrs. Derrough had lost a considerable amount of the grade and was on the summit of the hill, he said. The power was coasting down the eastern slope toward the top of the hill when he saw the Stripling head.

The road at this point is in a curve, and Mrs. Derrough suddenly saw that there was a car coming toward her from the left of the Stripling car. She tried to pass on the left, but the Stripling car was in the right way toward the top of the hill, and she was unable to check the machine. Mr. Derrough steered the car toward the right side of the roadway, striking the approach to the street tracks.

At the clock the machine shot into the air and landed on its wheels about thirty feet from the ground. The car rolled over on its side, and Derrough and Krause, of the rear seats, forward and backward, nearly sixty feet from the machine.

The Derrough car was critically suffering a fracture at the base of her skull. Krause, who is about 40 years of age, received a broken several ribs.

Mr. Stripling was asked concerning the accident by a reporter for the Telegram.

FISH MAY CLASH WITH HARRIMAN

Both After Presidency of Illinois Central

Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Proximate annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad were mailed yesterday a copy of the report of the board of directors of the road. The report was made out in the name of St. Louis Fish, the president of the road, and the name of the vice president was given as "Proxies."

The proxies are to be voted at a special meeting of stockholders that may be called as well as the annual meeting. The officers of the road said they had not heard of any movement to obtain the proxies in connection to President Fish.

Opposition Predicted

The Times today says: It has been expected for some time that the Illinois Central might make an attempt to elect a new president at the meeting next October. Mr. Fish, it remains to be seen, will obtain the proxies of stockholders, whose proxies he elected him president of the road last year.
