FRANCE HEAPS HONORS ON CAPTAIN DREYFUS

Wronged Officer Will Be Promoted in the Army

JUDGES LAUDED

Government May Prosecute the Men Who Brought About
Conviction of Officer

By Associated Press.
PARIS, July 13.—This is the closing day of parliament and it is largely devoted to the rehabilitation of Alfred Dreyfus so the national holiday tomorrow may witness his return to the army and official effacement of the stain placed on his good name. The chamber of deputies met at 9 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of hastening the parliamentary proceedings and War Minister Etienne immediately presented two government bills, one raising Captain Dreyfus to the rank of major of artillery and another promoting Colonel Picquart to that of brigadier general.

M. Etienne asked for speed action,
adding it is the government's intention to inscribe Dreyfus' name on the list of candidates for the Cross of the Legion of Honor. This announcement brought out a storm of applause. The bills were brought to the army committee, which at once went into a session, approved them and drafted strong favorable reports which will be debated later. It is expected that both bills will become law before the close of the day.

May Prosecute Dreyfus' Enemies
Radical supporters of Dreyfus are seeking to force the government to prosecute many generals and colonels and high functionaries responsible for the condemnation. The amnesty law protects them, but a movement is on foot to repeal this law for the purpose of reaching Generals Mercier and Gouge, Colonel Dupaty de Clam and others
who were prominent in the prosecution of Dreyfus.

Newspapers Gratified Government newspapers declare the affair closed, but others, notably the Figaro and Echo de Paris, assert force revelations are about to begin. The Figaro, however, appeals to those who were prominent in obtaining a revision of the Dreyfus trial not to attempt to obtain vengeance.

PARIS, July 13.—In the course of an interview after the announcement of the supreme court's decision in his favor Dreyfus said:
"This has been a long and terrible ordeal. I began to feel it would never end. It is clear that the decision restores me to my old place in the army,
but I am not aware of the intentions
of the government concerning my advancement in rank.
"I have nothing to say against my accusers. Being again a military officer
I am obliged to obey the army regulations of silence and I am inexpressibly thankful to all those who have assisted in the maintenance of truth."

CASTAWAYS FIND MANY HARDSHIPS

Greek Saved From Sea Departed From New York

NEW YORK, July 13.—Emmanuel Alexiadis, a Greek, and his young Spanish wife, Adelaida, who were wrecked in a small schooner on the Cuban coast a month ago, and subsequently brought to this port from Havana on the steamer Ripley, are held at Ellis Island and will be deported because Emmanuel has tuberculosis.

It was dusk when he started with his wife on a two-mile swim to a small island on the west coast of Cuba. The couple reached land in safety, but were marooned for two days until a passing steamer sent the schooner to Havana. The British consul at Havana helped Alexiadis to get passage to New York on the steamer Ripley. The Greek failed to take out naturalization papers when in Galveston, and as he is afflicted with tuberculosis he will be deported to

MEN MANGLED BY EXPLOSION

Three Laborers Are Blown to Pieces by Dynamite

SHOCK TERRIFIC

Parts of Bodies Found Scattered on Ground and in Tree Tops

CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—Three men were blown to pieces, three others fatally injured and several others badly hurt by an explosion which early today wrecked the shanty in the Mc-Laughlin stone quarries at Belwood,
a short distance northwest of Chicago.
There are evidences the explosion was the result of a plot on the part of people who are at present unknown to the police. The dynamite shed of the quarry, which is at a considerable distance from the shanty, which was blown up, was broken open and dynamite carried to the building in which a number of laborers were sleeping and exploded beneath the structure.
The survivors all declare that there was no dynamite around the shanty
when they retired for the night.

Bodies Badly Mangled
The explosion was terrific and around the residents for several miles and shattered many panes of glass, many away from the shanty.
The greater part of the body of one of the men killed was taken from a tree 100 feet from the place where the shanty stood, and the body of another was found lying all around a tree.
All the men killed and injured were Greek and Italian laborers.

BUSHNELL'S CARTOON IDEA OF TYPICAL AMERICAN VACATIONS

This is cartoonist Bushnell's idea of the typical American summer vacation. He knows. He has seen all kinds of the mosquito-infested haunts of New Jersey to the get-rich-quick hotels of Palm Beach. And he has this to say: "The trouble with the American vacation is that the average man works at playing harder than he ever dreamed of working when he is striving for his pay envelope. Some day he will learn that two weeks in a shanty nook beside some quiet river, with a straw hat to study God's out of doors, and get close to nature, and feel the soft caress of summer breezes, and be wowed to sleep by the music of night birds and the chirp of crickets, is worth years of the fool fun that goes with a crowd." And Bushnell knows, for he has been there.

BELL GAINING VOTES DAILY

Campbell Forces Are Badly
Demoralized

AUSTIN, Texas, July 13.—A great wave of popular sentiment is now sweeping over the state in favor of Judge Bell, and his nomination for governor at the hands of the democracy
is practically assured.
The Campbell forces are badly demoralized by the recent exposures of their candidate's record. The rebuking proclivities of the International and Great Northern during the time the colonel was his manager has not advanced his cause any under the other hand, it has proven one of the greatest stumbling blocks he has encountered since he attempted to run for governor years ago.
The Campbell Papers Explaining
During the last week the Campbell papers have been doing some talk explaining. They are making all sorts of apologies and are trying to set the colonel right before the voters, but it is an uphill job, and they know it.
The Waco Tribune, which by the way, is the strongest paper the colonel has on his staff, devoted nearly all of its three columns of editorial last Friday explaining the colonel's connection with the International and the Great Northern railroad, and to the benefit being given while he was at the head of the road. He received $10,000 per year for his services, yet he did not know what was going on under him! This is the Tribune's explanation, yet, like all others, it does not explain. The Waco Times-Herald, in home, speaking to your correspondent yesterday he said: "The state of Oklahoma will, in my judgment, have the best prohibition law that has ever been drafted."

PENNERAN, Persia, July 13.—There is recrudescence of political unrest
among the Mullahs and divinity students which was noted earlier in the year, and it is causing great uneasiness.
The divinity students broke out into active opposition to the authorities yesterday and forcibly released
a professor who had been imprisoned
on the charge of using seditious language. In the affray one student was killed and another wounded. Heads of the clergy immediately assembled in the mands for the immediate granting of reforms previously promised in Janu-

Avenges Murder of "Holy Rol- ler" Edmund Creffield

MURDER PLANNED

Wife of Slain Prophet Enters
Into Conspiracy for Death
of George Mitchell

SEATTLE, Wash., July 13.—George Mitchell, the youth who recently shot and killed Franz Edmund Creffield, the so-called "holy roller" prophet and who was acquitted of the charge of murder on a plea of insanity, was shot and killed by his sister, Esther, at the Union station in this city a few minutes before 5 o'clock last evening.
Esther Mitchell joined the "holy rollers" at Corvallis, Ore., and was one of the most fanatical of Creffield's followers. When her brother pursued the leader of the "holy rollers" to Seattle and shot him down on the street, she pleaded in justification that Creffield
had deluded and wronged his sister.
George Mitchell was acquitted of the charge of murder on Tuesday and nearly all the following day he spent in search for Esther in Seattle lodging houses.
Mrs. Creffield Arrested
Immediately after the arrest of Esther Mitchell, the 17-year-old girl who killed her brother here last night, orders were given for the arrest of Maud Creffield, the widow of the leader of the "Holy Rollers," the prospect of whose death at the hands of George Mitchell led to last night's tragedy.
Mrs. Creffield, however, telephoned to the police where she could be found,
and when taken to the station frankly admitted she entered into a contract with Esther to kill the slayer of her husband. She will be held as an accomplice.
Ruin His Sisters
George Mitchell, aged 23, was charged with the murder of Edmund Creffield, leader of Oregon's famous
"Holy Rollers," and the whole city was agitated over the prosecuting attorney's expressed determination to send Mitchell to the gallows. Public sympathy was with the lad.

killed him. That is all there is to it."

EIGHTH WARDERS TALK ON CAR FRANCHISES

WANT MORE SPRINKLING

Urges Provision for Electric Street Car System—Telegram's Course Is Commended

Sprinkling of the streets by street car companies and the franchise question were the principal topics for discussion before the Eighth Ward Civic League Thursday night. The meeting was not as largely attended as have been previous meetings, because of insufficient notice to members, but there was plenty of interest shown in the matters under discussion by those present. The committee to report was the one appointed two weeks ago to confer with heads of the Traction companies and ask for changes in the franchises which have been asked for over streets of the Eighth ward. Messrs. Hart and Dycus gave the committee's report and stated that they had addressed a letter to the Northern Texas and Arlington Heights Traction companies embodying their requests for changes in the franchises asked.

They asked those companies to include a provision for sprinkling the streets over the route and the restoration of the streets to a good condition after laying their tracks. Manager H. T. Edgar of the Northern Texas company had told the committee that he had no authority to grant their requests, but that he would take them up with the officials of the road and let the committee know the results in a short time. They had been unable to see W. O. Allen of the Arlington Heights company and had been unable to get the matter before the owners of that line because of their absence from the city. Mr. Edgar had pointed out to the committee the dangers arising from sprinkling the streets by cars because of the mud which, he thought, would be a menace to traffic on the streets. Mr. Dycus called attention to the condition of the streets on the streets which had been splendid driving streets before the car tracks were laid on them, but which, he said, had been greatly damaged by these tracks. He thought the companies should be required to remedy this condition. Judge Moore opened the discussion of the report by strongly objecting to the car system of sprinkling. He said "Since our last meeting I have given considerable thought to this question and I have come to the conclusion that it is absolutely impractical. I have known it to be tried in several cities and have never known of its successful operation. It is hard to avoid accidents from the mud and the mud on the wheels of the car, and even where only the center of the street is sprinkled it is not practicable, because of the danger of mud being scattered on crossings. He said he had written to several cities asking information, but had not as yet received replies. Other objections were brought out, among them streets intersected at switches and delay on account of filling the water cars. Judge Booth, after waiting for all objections to be offered, called the floor and stated that he wanted to hear all the objections that could be offered so that he could answer them all at once.

Didn't Need Arms He said the thought all fears expressed were fully founded, as there was no need for extending arms to the sides of the car and pointed to the water wagons in use in the city now as proof of this contention. It was only a matter of hydraulic engineering which any efficient engineer could easily solve to force the water to the curb from any of the cars. He stated that in Kansas City he had seen the sprinkling done successfully and on all lines over which cars ran. In New York and Chicago he had seen the same thing. A gentleman was present from Little Rock, Ark., who stated that the plan was used there and was entirely satisfactory. Judge Booth thought there need be no delay on account of the water car filling, as that could be done between trips of the regular cars or, if necessary, at such small intervals as to be built at the filling stations. "I do not believe a single objection can be offered," said he, "that cannot be satisfactorily answered, and I think there is no reason why every street over which a car runs should not be sprinkled." Judge Booth's answers seemed to clear the minds of those present and all mechanical objections to the sprinkling by cars seemed to be removed. Judge Moore was of the opinion that under the present law amendments could not be offered to the present franchises and he therefore advocated voting them down. He spoke emphatically on the matter, saying in part: "The time has arrived in the history of Fort Worth when the people must assert their rights. It should have come earlier. We are confronted today with a condition that should lead us to assert our rights and place ourselves in the hands of men who don't care any more for us than they do for a dead dog until they can get our dollars." The Northern Texas Traction company will hold this line if the Arlington company is granted a franchise over the same streets. Let's just simply say no. Let us go to the polls next week and vote with the other side of town to say no."

He referred to the great value of the franchises already held by the Traction companies for which they had not paid one cent. Discussion Suggested A communication from A. H. McCarty, acting for the Third Ward club, was read. It commended the idea of franchise discussion and suggested concerted action by all the ward clubs of this letter a committee was appointed to act for the Eighth Ward league with similar committees from other ward organizations and take up the franchise matter and the granting of concessions by the companies. The committee named was Judge N. B. Moore, E. E. Dycus, H. P. Lane and Mr. Davies. The committee was named to hear from the traction companies.

At this time Chairman Dycus called the attention of the league to the recent editorial treatment of the franchise question in The Telegram and said he was gratified to see a representative newspaper come out and stand for something on a question of so vital importance to the city. He thought it would be the same opinion and a committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the franchise question. Professor Ernest Parker, Judge Moore and Dr. J. D. Mitchell were appointed. While this committee was out of the franchise question was further discussed and the present referendum law was questioned in The Telegram and people have no recourse when a franchise is presented but to accept it or reject it.

Referendum Report Following this discussion Judge Booth presented the report of the committee on referendum of which he was chairman. The report follows: "Your committee appointed at a former meeting of this league to recommend changes in the referendum laws, beg to report that they have consumed several weeks at Landau, Mr. August went for an automobile tour of Northern Germany. Concerning this he said: "Probably not another country on the globe has such roads as Germany. They are as smooth as a floor and the scenery is delightful. Much attention is paid to beautifying grounds and highways on the continent of Europe. I never spent a more enjoyable time in my life than those weeks in Germany. It was a delight to see the greatest pleasure of the trip was the sight of my mother and sisters. After this trip through Northern Germany, I returned to Landau and after a short stay in Paris, I didn't stop at Berlin. I made a short stay in England, stopping some time in London on business, and sailed for New York on the morning of the Fourth of July. I arrived home yesterday morning and today am feeling none the worse for wear."

And the smaller dailies of the state—in the smaller cities and growing towns, they are setting a pace in journalism fully commensurate with the rapid growth and development of Texas.

There is nothing the matter with the Texas press except in some localities the field is somewhat over-crowded. Some of the cities and towns are compelled to submit to something of an imposition in the matter of supporting more publications than are necessary, but so long as the people are willing to do this no one has a right to do any kicking.

AN EXPLANATION THAT HURTS

Colonel Tom Campbell, candidate for governor and former general manager of the International & Great Northern railroad, has met his Waterloo in the charge that he was guilty of granting rebates to favored shippers on that line during his incumbency as its executive officer, and in direct defiance of the laws of this state.

My attention has also been called to certain charges, however, in certain newspapers in Houston and Fort Worth and echoed here today upon this platform to the effect that I paid rebates to shippers or authorized certain alleged discriminations and rebates upon which suits were filed in 1897 by the attorney general, and the inference is left that these suits were filed and pleas of guilty were entered and fines paid during my incumbency as general manager.

The claim made by Colonel Campbell that the newspaper allegations concerning those rebates are false has caused the Houston Chronicle to do some investigating, and the result of that investigation is to show the colonel up in a more unenviable light.

Men can sometimes deny a matter of mere word of mouth successfully when it is convenient and expedient to do so, but when it comes to a man's signature in clear black and white there is no going behind the returns.

It is said that $100,000 has been put up in the option on the big deal that is expected to result in the consolidation of the Arlington Heights and Rosen Heights street car lines and the building of an interurban in connection therewith from this city to Mineral Wells.

The advent of Sister Carrie Nation in Texas at this time is well calculated to relieve some of the stress of the gubernatorial campaign.

Colonel Tom Campbell should not imitate the Bell campaign speeches too closely. While imitation is said to be a very sincere form of flattery, the east Texas candidate has been on the other side of the campaign situation too long to conceal the fact by appropriating so much of the Bell campaign thunder.

Governor Lanham is preparing to take a short vacation, and will spend some time at Weatherford and Mineral Wells. The anti-Lanham papers of the state will doubtless take advantage of the opportunity to cite his departure from Austin as another evidence of his incompetency.

Secretary Taft is indulging in pipe dreams when he talks of Republican supremacy in the South. There was a time when Republicanism was supreme in the South, and the memory of that period will always be sufficient to prevent a repetition of the disaster.

Senator Depue announces he has no intention of retiring from New York politics, but his colleague, Hon. Thomas C. Platt, makes no such avowal.

The Cannon boom for the Presidency is one thing that President Roosevelt will have to reckon with in the bestowal of his mantle.

President Roosevelt is to take the stump for Republican congressional aspirants, but it is not believed even the Big Stick can make the corporations shell out as usual.

Six hundred young men of Texas less than 21 years of age are now inmates of the state penitentiaries, and there is an admonition in this that all Texas parents would do well to heed.

THE TEXAS PRESS

Over 100 persons heard a fine address by George C. Pendleton for governor at the court house Saturday evening. Mr. Pendleton is a warm friend and admirer of Mr. Bell's and spoke from personal knowledge of the man as a citizen and public official.

There is much in the life and record of Judge Bell of great interest to the people. His life has been made up of a fight to advance the interests of the masses and render himself worthy of their continued trust and confidence.

The Honorable Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national Democratic executive committee, says he has no intention of resigning, and that nobody has called upon him to resign.

The Honorable Thomas Taggart is an incubus the Democratic party should speedily find relief from. He may be a dead game sport, but the Democratic party will not be out for a mere matter of sport two years hence.

Superintendent Cousins made many and great promises of reforms and improvements that he would bring about for the country schools, but there is no evidence that he has accomplished anything.

Another horrible result of the nepotism practiced by the Lanham administration. He should never have been permitted to place the educational department in the hands of Cousins.

Judge Brooks weeps too much to make a good governor. He lays his hand upon his pulsating heart too gently and sighs too poetically, and wastes too much time preaching funeral sermons over the dead.

Colquitt stands for the abolishment of all unnecessary offices and in calling a halt upon the extravagance in the state government during the past few years.

Colquitt not only stands for the abolishment of what he considers unnecessary offices, but practices what he preaches. His office of railroad commissioner has been practically abolished ever since he began his campaign for governor.

THE TELEGRAM THE TEXAS PRESS

THE NEXT CONGRESS

President Roosevelt announces his intention of helping the Republican party in the impending congressional elections, and at least three of the members of his cabinet are to take the stump in congressional districts that now seem to be in doubt.

As to the prognostication of The Telegram as to the result of the pending congressional elections The Light prefers the returns to the prophecies of any Democratic paper.

BELL JUST FILLS THE BILL

Legislative incompetency and no fault of Governor Lanham is responsible for the hole in the state treasury at Austin. It appears to be very difficult for some of the Texas papers to get this fact firmly established in their minds.

TYPICAL TEXAS DEVELOPMENT

Ten years ago Colorado City was one of the greatest cattle shipping points in Texas. This year Colorado City has shipped for the entire season about 18,000 bales of cotton, and a cotton compress and cotton seed mill are in process of construction.

QUAKER REFLECTIONS

A good title will often sell a book or buy an heiress. Many a man is his own master as long as he is away from home.

RIGHT KIND OF WRITING

All North Texas is strong for Bell—Fort Worth Telegram. Of course The Telegram has a perfect right to howl for its favorite candidate as it may see fit, but the Times reproduces the above statement in order that its readers may see what a Bell editor can write when he tries real hard.

COOLOO, OLIVER'S OSTRICH

DRIFT OF POLITICS

THE GOVERNORSHIP

The Times is not disposed to burden its readers with campaign notes; neither is it disposed to ask any persons who have formed their choice for governor among the various candidates, to alter their decision.

We don't need a man as governor who is likely to do something wild, just to create a stir. Mr. Bell is the man to support in the primaries. His actions when on the judicial bench, in congress and as attorney general have always been in strict conformity to the law.

BELL FILLS THE BILL

The Sun is glad to lay any facts political before its readers. We believe it the duty of every citizen of this grand and glorious country to see to it that the best man is elected to each and every office.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR

A nice thing about being terribly unpopular is means you have a lot of money. A girl learns to swim very soon unless there is a man around to hold her up from sinking.

VERJESTHATRING

THE COUNTRY EDITOR

He is the hardest worked of men, A busy chap is he; He wields the hatchet or the pen With great facility.

He chronicles that "Bessie Brown Was married to William Good;" Then to the woodpile hustles down And splits a lot of wood.

He writes two columns of advice To cure the people's ills, Then dons his apron in a trice And prints a hundred bills.

And if some callers then there are, His inky hands he'll wash, And trade a year's subscription for A pumpkin or a squash.

He states "Hi Higgins is in town Upon a load of rye;" And takes the upper cases down And fixes up the "pl."

And when the "pl" is straightened out The furniture he dusts— Then sets a stick or two about The tariff and the trusts.

His paper cheers us every week— It does whatever it can To keep the slush off Freedom's peak And save the rights of man.

So come, ye freemen of this land, And let's be thankful for This bulwark of the Nation, The country editor.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

A supreme test of friendship is a loan. Beware of the friendly advice of your enemies.

The man behind the plow makes an impression in the world. For shooting the "is-it-hot-enough-for-you" flash this is the open season.

Things we would like to be thankful for so seldom give us the opportunity. This is nothing new under the sun—except methods of distorting the truth.

Love and common sense—but what has love in common with sense, anyway? Did you ever hear of a married man wasting any sympathy on an old bachelor?

People may applaud a kicker at the start, but they feel like kicking him long before the finish. Analyze the contents of your cup of sorrow and more or less happiness will be found therein.

A woman never accuses a man of flattery if he praises her for qualities she knows she doesn't possess. After enjoying a day's outing in the country a woman invariably keeps her husband awake half the night telling him about it.

There is an awful lot of money wasted being drunk on a hot day when they are lost in perspiration. The man in politics has a darn sight more of acquiring his bad reputation than his relatives have of living it down.

If the baby let's the family get in a little sleep between 6 a. m. and breakfast its mother will tell you good it was. Women stop in the street and speak to every one they meet so as to keep in practice on that common language.

WEEK'S RAINS ASSIST CROPS

Precipitation General Over the State of Texas

The rain Wednesday afternoon, which was not much more than a shower at Fort Worth, was widespread and exceedingly heavy north of this city and extended all the way to the Oklahoma-Kansas line along the Missouri, Kansas and Texas and away up into the Panhandle along the Fort Worth and Denver.

T. P. Boyd, who has been on a visit to his old home at Springfield, Mo., returned Wednesday afternoon and reports a regular downpour from Grapevine to Sherman, and says that it was raining all through Oklahoma as he came through Wednesday, the rainfall between Grapevine and Sherman being the heaviest he had witnessed for months.

Rowan H. Tucker, claim agent for the Fort Worth and Denver, reports that from Fort Worth to Bowie there were good showers Wednesday afternoon and heavy rains all along the line above that place.

T. P. Boyd, speaking of crop conditions north of Fort Worth, all the way to Springfield, Mo., said they were better than anything in that line he had seen for years.

"All through Oklahoma are as fine crops of corn and cotton as I ever saw. The cotton plant has splendid growth and promises an abundant yield and looks better really than the cotton I saw in Texas. The corn fields look as if there will be a bumper crop. I also noticed while in Missouri that the apple crop is exceedingly heavy, the fruit being perfect."

R. H. Tucker is responsible for the statement that the corn crop along the Denver will beat anything that section has ever had and that all other crops are good.

"How the farmers are going to gather their corn crop without ladders, I cannot imagine," he said. "They will have to cut the stalks down and pull the corn afterward. Two big ears to the stalk is the rule and many stalks have three ears."

FEW HORSES HAVE WON 100 RACES

Logan and W. B. Gates Stand at Head of Long List

The death of the four-time Derby winner, Claude, and the retirement of W. B. Gates after winning 100 races, brings back a flood of memories to the minds of old-time turf habitués. For both of these equine phenomena have a record which has not seldom been approached among the thousands of horses that have made the American turf famous.

During the last twenty years or more Hickory Jim, Barnum, Logan and Blitzen, the latter "Pa" Bradley's "Iron Horse," are the only quartet that have come near the exciting mark, and of these Logan is the only horse positively known to have surpassed it, as he has an authentic record of winning 100 races during his career. Without, however, by reason of the more or less severe ill usage that Blitzen received during his long years on the turf, more remains attached to the son of Blazes than to any thoroughbred within memory of the present generation.

Who among race-goers of twenty years ago does not remember the game little horse struggling winter and summer to replenish the coffers of his rapacious owner, many times struggling through snow and ice on the bleak stretches of the old Guttenberg track for some miserable purse that would not pay his feed bills for more than a few weeks. Fortunately for the good of the turf, there are few Bradleys in it, for under proper treatment, the son of Blazes-Germania would probably have been one of the great race horses of his day, instead of going down in turf annals as simply a wonderful bread-winning selling plater. Later, the owner killed the horse, and the most promising three-year-olds this country ever saw, and broke down Robert Waddell, winner of the American Derby of 1902.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE" PRAISE FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words."

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years, and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain with fainting spells, headache, sick and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly get around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, I became regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day."

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of an organ, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once and without delay.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes. For 25 years Mrs. Pinkham's daughter-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction, and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

and the greatest horse of his breed that ever lived through a battle. Kingston alone came anywhere near the century mark, but under the skillful handling of the jockey, this king among stagers of all times was asked to do the impossible, or to try in races that were not intended for horses of his caliber, of the many-time winners, containing a number of times started and general usefulness at all distances, Claude occupied a pedestal by himself. While the son of Blazes never subjected to the harsh treatment as Blitzen, he nevertheless was shipped all over the country and given so little rest, winter and summer, that all honors of this generation are entitled to believe that a horse showing his marvellous form at every distance, from six furlongs to a mile, and winning all the races of weight up, and in him the making of the best if handled as judiciously as a horse of his class warranted.

W. B. Gates, who in the same class as Claude, was a dangerous horse in any company, having all the gameness and stamina of his sire, Prince Royal, one of the greatest thoroughbreds of his day, but lacking his natural speed. W. B. Gates' victories were scattered over a long period of years, the selling being over 10 years after his claim on the company came by his speed early and ran all his races within the last three years, his record as a three-year-old selling anything ever seen in a horse of his age before. It was the irony of fate, that after racing winter and summer in all parts of this country and Canada, and winning all the races of his two months when scarcely off the cars on such occasions, Claude died within a few months after being retired to a life of comparative ease on his owner's farm.

VALUE OF ANGORAS

The value of Angoras goats, says the American Sheep Breeder, depends chiefly on how well they are bred. Low grade Angoras with only two or three crosses of Angora blood should be worth $2.50 to $2.75 per head. A better grade of Angoras, say three quarter blood, probably would cost $3.00 per head. Better still, worth this year from 25 to 40 cent per pound depending upon the length, fineness and condition of hair. There is no doubt about the future of the Angora business. The Angora is already a national institution in this country and is here to stay, and we are pleased to say that Angoras are growing in favor steadily each year. On new will brushy land they are simply invaluable and 100 of them are worth more to clear up a new farm than the best two workmen that ever shined a pair of axes, because they clean it up thoroughly, leaving no live roots or stumps behind them.—This is strictly true in every word that is from a Texas standpoint.

THAT REMINDS ME

Editor Reminder Department, Weekly Telegram:— The first summer I kept horse in the wild and woolly west, a friend of my husband came to take dinner with us. I dressed a turkey and when it was done it looked nice. I carried it to the table, and when they carved the turkey I had left the gravy in it. While watering the table the morning we found a cow and calf gone. I got on the horse and rode to the mountains to find them. While riding up a canyon I found the calf hanging by the roots of a tree. I got down and lifted the calf and tried to get its foot loose. It bawled all the time. I gave it a big horse and calf and I rolled to the bottom. I heard a boy angry bawl behind me and there came a cow charging up the canyon. I scrambled up and ran up the draw and made up for a scrub cedar. I got up the tree and the cow had me tread. Finding that I could not scare her by screaming, I big horse and calf and I rolled to the bottom and dropped it on her head. It spread out like a parasol and lit on the cow's head. She left in a hurry, trying to get the skirt off and I was rescued by the cowboys, wearing a pair of red flannel bloomers, minus a skirt. MRS. A. E. CAPPS, Dodson, Quay County, N. E. Mexico.

FURTHER PROTEST IS AGAINST LYON

Acheson Issues Letter to Texas Republicans

Protest against Chairman Cecil A. Lyon of the Texas republican party led to an independent movement, and, in connection with the call issued for a meeting of the anti-Lyon faction at Houston, Aug. 1, Alex. W. Acheson has issued the following letter:— "To the Republicans of Texas:— We desire to state to the information of all that quite a number of people to whom we have taken the liberty to address the call for the convention of the reorganized republican party to meet in the city of Houston, Texas, Aug. 14, 1908, have not signified their acceptance of such appointment. In case those who have been officially appointed refuse, fail or neglect to call county conventions in their respective counties, any republican citizen who is in accord with the spirit and purpose of the call, and especially who is hereby authorized and empowered to issue calls for a county convention and elect therefrom a number of delegates proportional to the population of the county, and send their credentials to me at Denison, Texas, and said delegates so elected will be recognized and allowed seats in the Houston convention which has been called for Aug. 14, 1908.

"Let all republicans who believe in American fair play and are opposed to the one-man power, and especially who are of the best and most energetic of the party are eliminated and the seat of party action transported more than 800 miles from the center of population to the detriment of more than 90 per cent of the party, rally to this call and come to Houston on the 14th day of August. Your presence will be appreciated and your counsel valued. I desire to announce on behalf of the state executive committee that we are thoroughly in accord with the noble and enlightened efforts of the President to build up a patriotic and aggressive organization in Texas, which will redound to the credit of the traditions and history of the party throughout the history of the world. Let the watchword be 'On to Houston.' Let us organize a party which I am sure will meet the approval of the present administration and serve the best interests of all the republicans in Texas. ALEX. W. ACHESON, State Chairman."

The following are the members of the state executive committee: Dr. A. W. Acheson, Denison, chairman; Dr. E. C. Phillips, secretary; Corcoran, S. J. Spencer, Texarkana; J. KERR COUNTY STOCKMAN DEAD

Cecil Robinson Staggers Off Gallery and Dies

Cecil Robinson died of heart trouble later he was dead—Kerrville Sun. Rock Springs in Edwards county, at 3:30 a. m. Saturday, June 23.

Mr. Robinson, who has resided in Kerrville for several years past, left here Thursday of last week with his family for a visit to his ranch. They arrived at the ranch Friday evening. Mr. Robinson complained of feeling badly after reaching the ranch, and had an attack of heart trouble from which he has suffered at times for several years. He seemed to get better, however, and slept some up to midnight, when another attack came on. It was his custom at such times to walk about the grounds in the open air. About 3:30 a. m. he seemed to be suffering greatly and got up from the cot upon which he had been lying on the gallery, and started to walk out in the yard. As he stepped off the gallery he staggered and fell, and a few minutes later he was dead.

MRS. DERROUGH IS STILL IMPROVING

Final Recovery of Auto Victim Is Expected

Medical report from the bedside of Mrs. H. H. Derrough, who was injured in an automobile accident on Arlington Heights trail, suffering a fracture at the base of her skull, is more encouraging as the days pass. Although at times she lapses into unconsciousness and the doctors require the utmost quietude about her bed chamber, it is fully expected that, under ordinary circumstances, Mrs. Derrough will recover from the effects of the injury following the striking of the machine against a road approach of the Arlington Heights Traction Company's tracks.

WANT BETTER WATCHES

Traction Company Officials Taboo Dollar Variety

Dollar watches will have to take a back seat as far as the conductors and motormen of the Northern Texas Traction Company are concerned, if the management of that company is successful in carrying out its present plan. G. H. Clifford, general superintendent, is making an effort to get reliable timepieces for the men at a considerable reduction from the usual price. The men have expressed themselves as being glad of the opportunity to get good watches at a nominal price and they are all falling into line with Mr. Clifford's efforts. Mr. Clifford will probably place an order soon for 200 watches of a standard make.

Some changes have been made recently in the officials of the company, the transfer of J. P. Morton to the Oak Cliff division being mentioned in Thursday's Telegram. C. H. Bowen will be chief inspector of the Fort Worth division and A. H. Hargrove will be his assistant.

Judge Lindsey Refuses $5,000,000 Offer by Rockefeller

Special to The Telegram.
DENVER, Colo., July 13.—The millions of John D. Rockefeller will not be used to nationalize the work of the Juvenile Improvement Association founded by Judge Ben R. Lindsey of the juvenile court of Denver. He has given his word that none of the wealth belonging to the head of the Standard Oil Company trust shall be accepted by him for any such purpose. Judge Lindsey has listened to the appeal of a woman, backed by thousands of her best friends, in consultation with Miss Jane Adams, the noted juvenile worker of the Hull House, in Chicago, who approached him on behalf of other charitable workers in that city, promising that he would never handle a penny of the money of the man who, while a fugitive from process servers and secreted in the confines of his magnificent residence just outside of New York City, made the offer, through his secretary, to Judge Lindsey, $5,000,000 as the nucleus of a fund for juvenile work.

BRYAN DENIES HE IS CONSERVATIVE

Claims to Be More Radical Than in 1896

Special to The Telegram.
LONDON, July 13.—William J. Bryan, having had the opportunity of reading American newspapers, concluded yesterday to discuss some of the questions which have been raised since he has become prominent as a presidential possibility for 1908. He said:

"I notice that I am now described by some as conservative, and in order that there may be no misunderstanding on that subject permit me to say that in no sense I always have been a conservative. The democratic policy I have followed in my public life is based on the old principles applied to new conditions. There was nothing new in my life in either of the platforms on which I stood. We were accused of attacking property when in fact the conservative party is the defender of property because it endeavors to draw the line between honest accumulation by honest methods on one side and speculation with and immoral methods on the other. It is to the interests of every honest man that dishonesty should be exposed and punished, otherwise the deserving are apt to suffer for the undeserving. If, however, by the word conservative they mean that I have changed my position on any public question or moderated my opposition to corporate aggrandizement, they have a surprise waiting for them. I am more radical than I was in 1896 and have nothing to withdraw on economical questions which have been under discussion."

But they cannot cure the vile disorder; they can only cover up the symptoms for awhile to break out with renewed violence when the treatment is left off. When the virus of Contagious Blood Poison enters the blood the entire circulation becomes poisoned, and the loathsome symptoms begin to appear. The mouth and throat ulcerate, hair and eyebrows come out, glands of the neck and groin swell, copper-colored spots appear on the body, and in severe cases sores and ulcers break out, and even the bones become diseased. S. S. S. is the only certain, safe cure for Contagious Blood Poison; thousands have been cured by it after failing with the mineral treatment, Hot Springs, etc. It is the only remedy that is able to get at the root of the disease and force out the poison so that no signs are ever seen again. Liquidation of Specialties Only Features—Market Dull and Lifeless

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, July 13.—Friday the 13th, held by the superstitions to be the most unlucky day on the calendar, did not bring any great misfortune to the stock market. The market was steady, but not very active, during the early afternoon with opponents, bulls came out in force, but the lower prices were not recovered with but a little delay, while on the other hand the short crowd was not hit materially, as the general level of the market before midday was in the neighborhood of yesterday's finals.

There was no special feature during the afternoon and fluctuation of the market was slight. Some few issues attained higher levels and the market closed dull and somewhat irregular. The money market ruled steady for call loans ranging from 2 1/4 to 2 3/4 per cent. The outlook is for a bad bank statement, as the known movement of currency indicates a loss for the banks of $25,000.

NEW YORK COTTON

Prices Again Advance But Offerings Plentiful Around the High Point, Tone Less Favorable

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, July 13.—Notwithstanding the fact that developments as a whole were favorable to the long, the cotton market did not have a good undertone today as during the past few sessions. However, prices as a rule held above yesterday's finals. The Liverpool news, the weather reports and the course of the southern market all furnished an incentive for further activity among the bull crowd, but while the market was broader than usual, prices did not respond in a fitting manner and those operators who have been active purchasers since the inauguration of the present campaign were not so well represented among the bull's buyers as recently. It being an evident fact that considerable long cotton could be obtained around prevailing prices, the market opened firm with a net gain of 1/2 point, but quite a lot of cotton came out on the call and some trouble was experienced in maintaining the gain. However, after a session to 2 points below yesterday's finals for October, shorts came in and their operations caused a recovery, prices eventually working up to a net gain of 2 1/2 points.

Most of the gain was wiped out during the afternoon trading and the market closed steady with prices 1 to 2 points net higher. The spot market ruled quiet and steady, prices being unchanged at 19.80c for middling. Sales, 200 bales.

New York Cotton. NEW YORK, July 13.—The cotton market ruled as follows today. Open High Low Close. January 19.54 19.58 19.19 19.44 1/2. July 19.24 19.28 19.23 19.23. August 19.22 19.26 19.21 19.22 1/2. October 19.15 19.17 19.19 19.13 1/2. December 19.18 19.23 19.15 19.15 1/2.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, July 13.—The cotton market was again dull and practically void of features, but bulls continued to operate in the situation and the game has now progressed to a stage where there is but little opposition. The prominent operators among the professional crowd being mostly contented to let the bull side, temporarily at least. With such a condition of affairs it would seem that a sharp upward movement could be easily anticipated, but the greatest obstacle to this at present is the apathy of the public at large, which refuses to be seduced by alarming promises and is content to await the outcome without "wetting its foot." Consequently such gains as occur from day to day are infinitesimal and fail to create any anxiety.

Weather conditions again furnish an argument for the bulls, more rains being reported in the eastern belt and the forecast promising still more tonight. The market opened steady with prices 1 point higher and the crowd looked upon the long side with favor at the outset, a net gain of 1/2 point being obtained during the initial trading. This capped the addition of another 5 points to the initial gain, but heavy offerings from the long side, together with the buying and prices receded before midday to a level near the opening figures.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, July 13.—The cotton market ruled as follows today. Open High Low Close. January 19.24 19.28 19.19 19.44 1/2. July 19.24 19.28 19.23 19.23. August 19.22 19.26 19.21 19.22 1/2. October 19.15 19.17 19.19 19.13 1/2. December 19.18 19.23 19.15 19.15 1/2.

LIVERPOOL, July 13.—Some encouragement was derived today by the improved conditions in the spot department, prices being 2 points higher at 11.24 for American middling, while the demand was also better, the day's fair cover amounting to 6,000 bales, 4,200 of which were American. There was no receipts.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Longs in All Pits Liquidate—Buying Power Not Adequate and Prices Are Lower

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—This proved to be an unsteady day for grain in the different grain pits and troughs. The long holders were liquidated and failed to take their profits although yesterday early in the day had them materially reduced below the close of the session. A desire to realize on their operations, however, was the principal cause of the decline. Wheat prices were lower and bullish foreign advices, including the strength of the Liverpool market, caused a further advance of 1/2 to 3/4. At this level prices were eager to unload and the heavy volume of wheat which came on the market did not meet adequate buying pressure, consequently a decline of 1/2 resulted, the close being weak with prices near the lowest, showing a net decline of 5/8 to 3/4.

Local receipts 176 cars, including 165 contract grades. This is a very significant fact, the percentage of contract wheat being much above the average, which illustrates the fine quality of the crop. Corn market was only moderately active. Strength was apparent at the outset, prices working up 1/2 for September, but weaker conditions as the market opened caused a slump of 1/2 from the best. The close was weak with prices near the lowest, showing a net loss of 3/4 to 1/2.

Local receipts 125 cars vs. 159 this day last year. Provisions. Provisions sold lower on the first call in sympathy with a decline in the price of live hogs. September pork was most affected, and the market was supported by a steady demand for that product. The market steadied later on covering by shorts and at the close prices were 3/4 higher for pork, while for lard and ribs they were 1/2 to 3/4 lower.

Chicago Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, Ill., July 13.—The grain and provision markets ranged in prices today as follows: Open High Low Close. Wheat—No. 2 Hard 73 1/2 74 1/2 72 1/2 73 1/2. After taking the contents of the pockets he left the pants and pole as a souvenir of his visit and departed.

PLAN BIG LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

Fort Worth Trades Assembly Committee Busy

If the plans of the general committee appointed Thursday evening by the Trades Assembly mature, the Labor Day celebration here this year will be a notable one. Fort Worth has never been behind in these celebrations and the plans are on a broader scale this year than ever.

That all interests may be represented, the general committee is made up of a representative from each of the separate organizations of the assembly and hereafter the meetings of the general committee will be held every Sunday morning at a o'clock at Labor Temple. The first meeting of the Labor Day committee, held after the adjournment of the assembly, the committee organized by the election of Frank Swor of the electrical workers, president, T. J. Shanahan of the iron workers, secretary, and C. C. Hall of the clerks, treasurer.

Subcommittees on privileges, grounds, music and printing were appointed. Among the speakers expected is Jeff T. Montgomery of the Farmers' Union and Col. L. L. Lusk of St. Louis, vice president of the Shoe and Boot Workers of that city, and reputed to be one of the ablest speakers on his subject in the United States. One of these themes is the extent to which the penitentiary or convict labor competes with open labor and more especially the extent to which that labor is in competition with the boot and shoe makers of the country. It is the understanding that his chosen subject is to be on the lines above stated.

Farmers' Union to Join

The Tarrant County Farmers' Union has accepted an invitation to be present at the Fort Worth Labor Day celebration and invitations will also be extended to the Farmers' Union of Parker, Wise and Johnson counties and to the labor unions at Fairbairn, Lyla, Strawn, Bridgeport, Denton and Rock Creek.

As this is the political year, when a new legislature is to be elected, a committee was appointed to look after the mechanics' law before that body to work in conjunction with such other or general committees as may be selected hereafter to represent the interests of the labor unions before the Texas legislature.

GLENWOOD HEARS RIVAL CANDIDATES

Principal Interest Centers in County Attorney's Race

Fully four hundred people heard the candidates for county officers speak from the gallery of the Glenwood public school building Thursday night and notwithstanding the ladies of Glenwood were conducting a cold soft drink and watermelon stand near the exit the speakers were given the closest attention from the opening to the close, with the exception that after the candidates for county attorney spoke the crowd melted away to about two hundred and fifty people.

It was evident that chief interest centered in the county attorney debate, and in expecting that there would be much of interest in this the people were not disappointed. This debate was conducted without temper, however, but there were new features in it brought out by Jordan Cummings, candidate for county attorney, who denied that Rev. Abner Monk had made any such statement as Jeff D. McLean, his opponent, had attributed to him in his speech at Marine. In which McLean was quoted as saying that Rev. Mr. Monk had said he (McLean) had done his duty and that he (Monk) would vote for him.

Offers to Swallow Statement

"I know Rev. Mr. Monk," said Cummings, "and I know that he is not in politics, and I am satisfied he made no such statement to Mr. McLean or any one else. I challenge Mr. McLean to produce a statement from Rev. Monk that he said in front of the court house or anywhere else what McLean said he did, and if he will bring the written statement to me I agree here that I will swallow it."

Another point that Cummings made emphasized against McLean was in connection with the prosecution of the anti-trust cases. He said that after the grand jury, under the direction of the county attorney, had investigated the matter fully, that body of which County Attorney McLean was legal adviser, refused to find a bill of indictment against any of the stock yards people, yet afterward the county attorney had joined in with the attorney general's office and filed the civil suits for penalties.

Other Candidates Talk

Following the candidates for county attorney, short talks were made by candidates for assessor, recorder, sheriff, county clerk, district clerk and county judge in the order named, the candidates for the legislature closing the speaking.
