Woman Who Ended Life Here Had Remarkable History

WON MANY HONORS

As Nellie De Vaughn She Became Famous in Air, Circus Ring and on Stage

N THE tragic suicidial death of Mrs. A. F. Crenshaw, which occurred Tuesday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock at 316 Calhoun street, the passing of one of the world's most daring women is recorded and the last chapter of a spectacular career closed.

It will be remembered that . Mrs. Crenshaw purchased strychnine at a down town drug store, walked to her husband's place of business, took the deadly powder, told him of her action and then calmly walked him to await the coming of death, which came a few

The past life of the dead woman reads like a romance. It is fraught occurrences and much happiness. Notwith thrilling escapades, sentimental ing the fact that at the time of her death she was only 19 years of age, she possibly had more thrilling oman of the same age in the Unitel

Mrs. Crenshaw, who at the time was mown to the public as Nellie De Vaughn, and was published abroad as of the most beautiful woman in the untry, was the first woman to sail e sky in a modern airship. This did on Sept. 25, 1905, at Chutes ark in Los Angeles, Cal. On her maiden voyage she ascended to the ating the huge cigar-shaped airship, hown as the "Bullet." She was in the air twenty-five minutes and traved thirteen miles, and came near seeting her death. The rudder of the Bullet" was broken early in the flight, and she found herself scudding before a thirty-mile hour wind. With the same courage that characterized her dropped safely in the soft earth of a

Hering Gives Details of Stensland's Thefts and Denies Any Complicity

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 9 .- Henry W. Hering, cashier of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, looted by Paul O. Stensland of over $1,000,100, is in Chicago. He has not been out of Chicago since

Monday morning. The police department can call in its circulars, take its detectives off the train, and rest assured in the belief that at 1 o'clock today, or rather, one minute after one, Mr. Hering will be in the custody of Inspector Shippy. Hering intends to give himself up and is absolutely confident that in a short space of time he can show to the satisfaction of every one concerned that he had no part in the robbing of the 22 .-000 depositors of the wrecked institu-

Tells Story to Reporter

From 9 o'clock until 11 o'clock last night a reported and the cashier sat on a bench in one of the city's parks. In these two hours Mr. Hering told the story of his connection with the bank from the time of his employment, seventeen years ago, until he closed his safe last Saturday.

The cashier does not think he can be correctly described as a fugitive from justice. It has been stated that he was away from town last Saturday and various surmises as to his whereabouts have been put forward by the

As a matter of fact Hering left the city on Saturday, he simply went up the lake for a day's rest. He reached Chicago Monday morning, got on a car and rode straight to the bank. When the car stopped on the corner he jumped off, carrying his heavy grip. Just as he reached the edge of the sidewalk. saw a man pasting the notice of the closing of the bank on its doors. Instead of ascending the steps, he back-tracked and headed down town. The pasting of the notice on the eight weeks ago that things in the bank were not right.

His Suspicions Aroused This suspicion was intensified by the unexplained prolongation of the ten days' absence that President Stensland said he was going to take when he left three weeks ago last Sunday and suspicion became a certainty when he saw the mob of frenzied depositors around the bank's door.

Hering thought he would like a few hours to think affairs over before he jumped into the financial wreck and he went to the home of a friend.

Denies Any Complicity

Mr. Hering is insistent in his statement that he had absolutely nothing whatever to do with any peculation of the bank's funds. He swears he has not profited one peany by the irregularities brought to ligh a He asserts that although cashier of the bank, he was merely a clerk for Stensland; that all he did was to carry out Stensland's

He declares that Stensland's instructions were such that there was no way on their face of determining that any crooked business was going on; it was only the culmination of a number of suspicious incidents and the piling of note upon note to caryy on Stensland's real estate operations that finally made him morally certain that thievery was rampant in the institution.

Looks Like Cleveland

Hering is a heavy-set stolid individual, looking not unlike Grover Clevewhen he was governor of New York. He either has no nerves or has them under most absolute control. He has a good, square, honest face, with gray, unwinking eyes that look you through the through. Last night he had the repose and calmness of an innocent man and the story he told bore every superficial evidence of being true, While defending himself with the utmost vigor, he made no wild accusations against President Stensland He simply delivered what he said was a plain unvarnished statement of the rise of Stensland and his downfall, brought about by a mania for real estate investments. Saw No Forgeries

Mr. Hering swears he has no knowledge of just how and when the notes said to be forgeries were signed by Stensland.

"As a matter of fact," said he, "at this moment I do not know they are The signatures were good forgeries. enough to deceive me." Whenever Stensland needed money to bolster up his operations he worked as follows:

How Business Was Done

"Mr. Stensland would come to my desk," said Mr. Hering, "and say to 'Mr. Hering, please make out a certain number of notes (the number of which he would give me) for these amounts,' he giving me a memorandum of the amounts. I then made out the notes and handed them to him or sent them to him in the regular routine of business. Later, generally the next day, they were returned to me duly signed by various people, or at least they had the alleged signatures of various people. "Mr. Stensland then ordered me to place them to the credit of his personal account, and would then draw checks on his personal account for the various enterprises which dragged him to ruin.

"Did he ever utilize the names of any of the employes on these notes?" Concealed Overdraft

"I only know of one instance. Before the last report to the state auditor there was an overdraft of $26,000, which had to be taken care of in some manner. He got two employes of the co-operative store, which was the chief millstone around his neck, to sign

New Evidence May Throw Light on Motive of Killing the Artist

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 9 .- The Herald

New and important evidence providing a plausible motive for the killing of Stanford White has lately come into District Attorney Jerome's posession. The inkling of the facts was conveyed to the district attorney indirectly from Florence Ziegfeld, a theatrical managed, who is the husband of Anne Held, and who is at present living in Paris. The story is that Mr. White sent a note and a basket of flowers to Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw the afternoon of the shooting and that the tragedy grew out of the thoughtless mischief of three chorus girls.

May Clear Up Mystery

Mr. Ziegfeld met one of his New York theatrical friends in a railroad station in Paris a little while ago and the conversation drifted to the Thaw Mr. Ziegfeld expressed surprise that the authorities had not yet got hold of evidence which would go a long way toward clearing up the mystery heretofore cloaking the motive window proved the culmination of susof Thaw. picions aroused in his mind six or

Link in Tragedy

"The tragedy occurred some days prior to my last trip from America," said Mr. Ziegfeld, "and I was full of it on my way over. It was the principal subject of conversation on deck and at table. Among the passenger was a young woman very well known to the amusement-loving New York public, who was a prominent member of the chorus in one of my productions. Naturally we chatted and the Thaw tragedy was touched upon. I found that she knew something which the district attorney would give a great deal to know.

Called on Stanford White

"She told me that she accompanied two other members of my old company to pay a farewell visit to Mr. White in the tower of Madison Square Garden the night prior to Mr. White's death. They were to sail in a few days. Mr. White was not there and as they were leaving the place an attendant asked what names he should report to Mr. White as those of his

Next day Mr. White, according to this girl, sent a neat little note to Mrs. Thaw, expressing his regret at his absence at the time of her call and dispatched a basket of roses to her address. "My informant believed that Thaw saw the roses, read the card attached and perhaps read the note which accompanied them."

It is known that this young woman is now in New York, having returned. it is said, at the request of Mr. Jerome. It is believed she will be one of the most important witnesses for the people.

TRAIN GETS LOST IN LOCAL YARDS

Here's the Prize Railroad Yarn of the Year

A Santa Fe train got lost at Fort Worth Wednesday afternoon, took the wrong road south and ran to Dolard, the first station south on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, before it could be lassoed by wire and brought back to Fort Worth and put on the right

The trouble originated at the Canadian river, in Oklahoma, where this train was detoured over the Rock Island to Fort Worth, it not being able to cross the bridge and make the run to Gainesville, where the engine and engineer are usually changed. Arriving in the Fort Worth yards, the engineer, who was not wise to the yards here, whistled for the interlocking man to throw the train over to the Katy track, from which it would be transferred to Santa Fe track. The switch was thrown all right and the train pulled onto the Katy track, but instead of waiting to be transferred from it to the Santa Fe track, it pulled out and went down the Katy track without coming into the station. The situation was sized up pretty quickly by the depot officials, but it was too late to stop the lost train anywhere this side of the first telegraph station south. The engineer nor anyone else on the south of Fort Worth and went bowling along over the Katy tracks, supposing that they were on the Santa Fe. At Dolard, four miles south of Fort Worth the station man signaled the train to stop and handed the engineer a telegram, ordering him to return to Fort Worth with the train and get on the right track.

This is said to be the first case of the kind ever known in the history of railroading in Texas and it afforded

Permanent Quarters for Big Annual Fat Stock Show of Southwest Long Needed

There is no lagging of the interest in the proposed Fort Worth exposition building for the fat stock show and the more the matter is discussed and examined the greater grows the appreciation of the importance to be justly attached to the whole project.

It is a fact that not always appreciated by the layman that the class of cattle exhibited here at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show has ranked with the best in the country and so severe has been some of the judging, without without straining at mere technical points, that third and fourth premium stuff at the Fort Worth show has taken firsts and seconds at Chicago. The Fort Worth Fat Stock Show is one of the great fat stock shows of the United States. The proper housing of this show is one of prime importance, essential ined to the future success of the show. The exposition plan now before the people contemplates providing an adequate home for the show and additionally a building that can be used for delegates and spectators. There will be no roof supporting columns to hinder sight, so all of the vast open auditorium will give the tiers of spectators an unobstructed view of the interior and the exhibits in the ring, at show times, or what ever else may be displayed therein.

Fort Worth has been hampered by the lack of a convention hall which could accommodate the people who might want to attend and the proposed location, with two car lines running to the place where the entrances must be located, makes it so convenient that there can be but little, if any objections made to the place where the hall

Some of the gentlemen who have talked of the exposition hall say that the citizens of Fort Worth to let this Here a few more expressions of ap-and I wil indorse it. A Misfortune to Lose It

Major K. M. Van Zandt-So highly do I value the proposed building for the permanent home of the Fat Stock Show that I would regard it as a distinct misfortune if we let the opportunity go by. It is a proposition that is a great one for the city and it is where so much is offered for so little that it should be cordially ap-

One of the Greatest Projects

W. E. Connell, Cashier of the First National Bank-I think most highly of the plan and probably one of the best evidences of that is the fact that have already subscribed for a share of the stock. It will be of much value to the city and is one of the very greatest projects for the material welfare of the city ever suggested.

Will Build Up City

Erwin Criser, a traveling man, who was met on the streets, "taking my vacation," as he expressed it, said: Well, that exposition auditorium building is a great proposition according to my mind, is it not? Why, it will be such a big thing that it won' be long before North and South Fort Worths will be built slap bang up to each other. There is a lot of interest already exhibited where I have traveled relative to the show, but now that men can see all kinds of fine animals fat lean, running and jumping, they will crowd the capacity of the auditorium each year, big as it is. Yes, think it is a big thing for Fort Worth about the biggest she has ever run up against, and I am sure she will jump on it like a 'duck on a June bug.'

Nothing Could Equal It J. T. Lyons, a commission man, said: I am heartily in favor of the exposition building and believe that it will result in great good to the city of Fort Worth and of incalculable benefit to the whole state. I will subscribe for a share of the stock, not for any especial pecuniary benefit that may result in the actual ownership of the stock, present or future, but because I am convinced that the plan will so certainly redound to the future benefit of the city and state that I am willing to to help along all I can. There could e nothing added to the city industries that will add more to the wealth and greatness of the inhabitants."

Will Prove Growth John Dyer, a cattleman, said: "It is great and there should be no hesitancy bout the result. The cattle industry, as far as Fort Worth is concerned, has become a big lusty infant, but this novement to build an exposition building and locate permanently the show here, in my opinion, will soon show the people that the child has become a full-grown man."

Proof from Kansas City

H. B. Creveny, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company-You cannot exaggerate the importance of the exposition hall for the Fat Stock Show. Judging by what I saw of the exposition building at Kansas City, where I formerly lived, the value of such a hall and show room for fat stock shows and all of that sort of thing is beyond calculation. The proven value there warrants the conclusion that such a building here would be the biggest thing that the city has had suggested for its consideration for

• The Board of Trade is prepar- • ing to move in the matter of helping the exposition compani get the subscribers needed to show • the faith of Fort Worth in this • great propect, and this Thursday • morning President William Mon- • nig authorized the secretary to • give out the following as those . named on the committee to solicit . membership to the fat stock show association:

Long Needed

Captain J. C. Terrell-We need the building, for we have long wanted and wanted badly such a place for the holding of meetings of all kinds on a large scale. The location is a good one o my mind, and with the car facilities existing there can be but few if any objections urged against the place suggested for the building. Not only will it help the stockman, but it will be a great thing for the whole city, for what builds up one part of the city will build up the others and for this purpose it is not possible to dissever Fort Worth and North Fort Worth. What helps one will nelp the

It is not probable that the exposition building would be a paying one at first, but later it will pay, for there is no perceivable limit to the development of the city at this time and the day is not distant when such a building will be more than an adjunct to the general business of the city, it will be a paying investment per se. But few if any of the annual events at Fort Worth can, for one moment, be compared in value with the Fat Stock Show and it needs an adequate home.

notes for this amount, and this paper was used to conceal the overdraft." "When did you first become suspicious that something was wrong?"

"My suspicions were aroused some time ago, but I made up my mad that it was my duty to say something to Mr. Stensland about five weeks The infinitude of notes piled upon notes had worried me so that I became sick from anxiety, and I went away for a few days' rest. During this time I made up my mind to speak to Mr. Stensland. When I came back I walked into his office and said: "'Now, Mr. Stensland; you know this indebtedness-" "Were you more specific as to 'this indebtedness'?"

"No, he knew what I meant, for I handed him a paper containing a list of notes footing up $530,000, which I have reason to believe should not be among the assets of the band.

Predicted Trouble

"'This indebtedness is getting too large,' I continued, 'and it ought to be fixed up in some other way or the bank will be in trouble.

"He sat for a moment, and then said: 'Yes, I know, but I have every reason to believe I will have it all fixed up shortly. I think I have a buyer for my Belmont avenue and river property. I am also almost certain of finding a purchaser for the Schultze property (which is right across from the bank), and if I can make a dicker with Watson and get possession of the whole of the Paul O. Stensland subdivision. I can sell it in a lump. Don't worry: it will all be taken care of.'

"A moment later he said: I have also had an offer for my Elmwood cemetery stock, but I don't think it is enough and will hold it for a better

Prepares to Skip

This talk with Hering evidently was the thing that led Stensland to make up his mind to skip. The next week he spent a little time in the directors' room and in his own private office, locking the door so that could not be interrupted.

Worked Late at Night

He worked mostly late in the night. He evidently was casting up the amount he had stolen and preparing the document which was found in his safety deposit box last Sunday. In the letter which his son received and which brought on the crash, he stated that in the memorandum in the box would be found a record of his indebtedness to the bank, footing up $500,000, and also a statement by Cashier Hering of a further indebtedness of $530,000, which, to quite the letter, "Hering says I owe the bank."

Stensland Autocratic

Mr. Hering admitted last night that he had made out this statement and it was the one submitted by him to his chief five weeks ago, when he made a demand on Stensland to fix matters up.

Stensland did not act in any unusual manner prior to his departure, betrayed no anxiety and carried on business in the same old autocratic way that always had marked his business methods, but all the while he was getting ready for his flight.

y Associated Press. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 9 .- One of the results of Cashier Hering's reappearance will be that the cooperative store said to have furnished a channel for dissipating nearly $500,0000 of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank funds, will be closed. J. B. Sprinkle Assessed on Nuisance Charge Charged on complaint of a sanitary officer, under Dr. Lyman A. Barber, city physician, with having allowed a nuisance at one of his houses. J. B. Sprinkle was fined $1 and costs by Judge C. T. Prewett at the Thursday morning session of the corporation court of Fort Worth.

Mr. Sprinkle is an extensive property owner and testified that he had been notified by a sanitary that a pool of water was standing in the yard at the house in question. He said that immediately upon receipt of the notice, he had notified the plumbing concern which does all his work and the plumber said he would attend to it

That was last week and Mr. Sprinkle told the court that he received a second notice which, he was told, would be the last. When the last notice came, Mr. Sprinkle said he took it in his hand and went to see the plumber who again said he would attend to it The leak, Mr. Sprinkle explained was from the bath connections and did not make such a large pond in the yard as alleged by the sanitary officer. A complaint was filed against Mr. Sprinkle in the corporation court. The plumber repaired the break

OLD SOL GETS BUSY

Texas Temperatures Go Up in Con-

Texas weather has for the most part during the present month been cooler than usual, but Wednesday Old Sol got busy and thermometers were scarcely able to hold the mercury in its atttempt to escape from their upper ends. All Texas stations reported high temperatures for the day and the skies were generally clear, but few places reporting rain. Amarillo, Henrietta and Corpus Christi reported light rains. Fort Worth was cooler than most of the cities of the state, the maximum here being 92 degrees The lowest temperature reached here Thursday morning was 76 degrees. Outside Texas temperatures were about normal and rain was general in the middle western states. The hot wave which hovered over the eastern coast states early in the week has dissipated itself and temperatures are resuming their normal stage. The cotton belt is generally clear east of the Mississippi, but partly cloudy on this side. Nearly all reports were slow in reaching the weather bureau's office Thursday, as the wires were not working well. The weather map and cotton region bulletin were both delayed. ninety freight handlers, employes of the Texas & Pacific railway, walked out yesterday, partly because six of their number were discharged and partly because they want an increase in wages from $1.50 to $1.80 per day. The immediate cause of the strike was the discharge of the six men, who were signers of a letter which had been addressed to L. S. Thorne, vice president of the road, in Dallas. The letter was a request that the wages of the men be raised from $1.50 to $1.80 per day. Mrs. Ed Edmonson and son Robert of Newark are spending a few days this week with Mrs. W. M. Gunn in Chestnut avenue, Rosen Heights.

J. P. Gay and wife, who have been visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Patton in Gould avenue, Rosen Heights, will return to Meridian, Miss.,

About one hundred and fifty persons composed the citizens' meeting at the Rosen Heights school house Wednesday night, many not being able to gain entrance into the building. The purpose of the meeting was a further discussion of the question of annexing their property to North Fort Worth. A general discussion for and against the project proceeded a vote which showed that of those present there were but few who thought that at this time annexation would be the best move.

Among the speakers were W. L. Stitt, City Attorney Baskin of North Fort Worth, L. T. Knight, George Fox, J. O. Crenshaw and S. O. Lovejoy.

It was later moved that a petition be circulated for the required number of names to petition the county court for an election on the question of issuing school bonds to the amount of $15,000. Almost unanimously the motion carried and the petition will be drawn up at once for early action.

WOMAN BADLY BURNED

Explosion of Oil Can Nearly Proves Fatal

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 9 .-With her face and hands and arms covered with blazing kerosene, her shirtwaist scorching her body and almost unconscious from pain caused by a can of oil exploding while she was kindling a fire at her home this morning, Mrs. A. J. LeBlano of 608 Plum street retained presence of mind enough to tear her burning clothes from her body and thus save herself from a horrible death.

Hair Nearly Burned from Head As it was she was badly burned, her face being badly blistered and the hair nearly burned from her head. The timely arrival of neighbors prevented the house being burned. Mrs. LeBlano had started a fire, but it was not burning to suit her. She took a can containing about a quart of oil and started to pour it on the fire. The explosion followed immediately.

"It was never known before that the weight of the tidewater caused a depression of the earth in California." said Prof. Leuschner. "I have not yet made an official announcement of what the new seismograph has shown, as I desire to first watch the working of the machine further. "The tide was not known to have depressed the shore previous to the earthquake. I believe we would have known it however, if we had had the new seismograph in operation then In my opinion the same condition has always prevailed. "There is no cause for alarm. The fact that the weight of the water presses the land down does not mean the coast is without the proper support It simply proves that the earth is elastic, which has always been known." "How far from the shore line is it reasonable to suppose the earth is affected by the weight of the tidewater?" Prof. Leuschner was asked. "The only way to ascertain that." he replied, "would be to keep moving the seismograph back until it no longer records any effect by the incoming and outgoing tides." "How about the theory that the continual depressing and releasing of the tension on the coast by tidewater caused the recent quake, the earth cracking several miles back in the mountains from the same motion that would cause the center of a hinge to snap?"

"Mere rot," was the decisive reply,

WEATHER ON DENVER

Unusual Condition Shown at Childress, Texas

Report of the weather conditions on the line of the Denver road, made to general headquarters Thursday at 7 o'clock a. m.

The weather is generally cloudy and calm. There have been heavy rains between Childress and Quanah and most of the way down to Wichita Falls, though over the latter division the rains are described as heavy rains to light showers, and a similar report is made of that part of the line from Childress to Amarillo. There was no rain north of Tascoso. Temperatures:

Texline, 62; Amarillo, 70; Childress, 60; Wichita Falls, 74; Fort Worth, 7'. One thing noted is that there was a lower temperature, by 10 degrees at Childress than at Amarillo while the reverse is usually the case. This is explained by the fact that there will flow over the country now and then, these streams of cool or heated air, which cause these, seemingly abnormal differences in the temperatures. No one pretends to explain why they come nor where they come from, contenting themselves with the facts. It is to be seen that the Texline temperature, usualy the lowest of all, because in part of the greater altitude, is two degrees warmer than Childress, though it is usually several degrees cooler.

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.-Another opinion of the wholesomeness of American meats as compared with the British product is contained in a statement of the chief sanitary inspector of Barking, England, which has been transmitted to the bureau of manufactures. At a convention of inspectors he is quoted as follows: "If Englishmen knew what goes on in slaughter houses in England and how their meat is treated they would velcome the Chicago product open arms. It is cleaner and better than the general run of potted and tinned meats made in Germany or Great Britain. I have made careful inspection of the slaughter houses in England and have seen things that compare unfavorably even with the conditions alleged to exist in the great packing plants in the American city.

TEXAS MUST CO-OPERATE

If the people of Texas desire to rid the state of the fever tick and thereby enhance the value of all Texas cattle, as well as ridding the state of a pest that annually causes the loss of thousands of dollars, there will have to be concerted action on the part of the state authorities with the Federal officials in the great work of extermination that is under contemplation. That is the advice that comes from Washington, and it comes in a manner that verifies its accuracy.

The state and Federal authorities have been working in perfect harmony in Texas now for several years in the matter of controlling the further spread of the fever tick evil through the medium of wise and efficient quarantine laws. There is a provision in those laws that the rules and regulations promulgated by the respective authorities must conform in all things, and that is brought about by the fact that by courtesy of the state and willingness of the Federal government, the Federal quarantine line is run squarely across the state. The Federal people have no right to do this except by consent of the state, and under different circumstances would be compelled to maintain the Fed-Gral line at the state line.

The fact that both governments have been working in perfect harmony so long on the tick question is ample evidence that futher concert of action can but be productive of good results. But right at the beginning of the great work the Federal people are starting out to do they are finding themselves handicapped and hindered by the fact that Texas has made no provision for co-operation in the work and no funds are available for the purpose. The plan under which the Federal government proposes to operate is to use the $65,000 appropriated by the last congress for experiments in tick extermination in supplementing funds for the same purpose supplied by the various states intcrested, and the report is the Federal government will demand dollar for dollar from the various state governments. In other words, if $10,000 of Uncle Sam's good coin of the realm is to be expended in the state of Texas in an effort to eradicate the fever tick, then there must be $10,000 in good Texas money to lay right alongside it. The Texas treasury is not in condition just now to stand much of a drain, but by the advent of another year conditions ought to materially improve.

There can be no action in the matter so far as the state of Texas is concerned until the meeting of the legislature next January, but it is very probable that action will be taken at that time looking to the providing of the means necessary to carry on the work which the Federal people, relying on the willingness of Texas to do the proper thing, will begin this fall and winter. The indications are the state live stock sanitary commission will be compelled to ask a much larger appropriation for the next two years than usual, and the cattlemen of the state are going to insist very strongly on it being granted. The live stock interests of the state contribute liberally to the maintenance of the state government, and they are going to insist that the amount of taxes they pay annually entitles them to just and proper protection in the use and enjoyment of

There is usually some opposition manifested at Austin to any demands that appear to emanate from the live stock industry. There are thousands of people who still hoot at the fever tick theory and insist that both the state and Federal governments are figuring things down to a very fine point when they mix in the Tever tick business. But enough has been demonstrated both through experience and experiment to satisfy all fairminded people that the work that has been done has been conducted along proper lines and that under contemplation is a long step in the proper direction.

The money needed for the work that will be commenced by the Federal people must be furnished by the state, and the cattlemen are going to insist on the amount being large enough to fully answer the demands of the occasion.

Of course, it must be understood that if Texas makes no appropriation for this work then no benefit can be expected from the Federal appropriation, which was made largely through the efforts of Texas congressmen. It would be an exhibition of very bad faith for the state to now fail to do her full duty in the premises, and compel the Federal people to withdraw and spend the Federal appropriation in those states which are showing a willingness to co-operate in the proper manner. California and Oklatioma are already at work in this plan of co-operation, and will be among the first to reap benefit from the procedure. Texas must get in line, according to the views of leading cattlemen, and show that she is vitally interested in the work that is to be done. If the fever tick is to be banished from Texas soil, then Texas money must be spent in the work

CHOICE OF THE PEOPLE

The Fort Worth Telegram is peculiarly unfortunate in its political argument. It says that Campbell will not be governor, that seventy per cent of the voters of the state declared against his candidacy. That is a very poor premise. The Register doesn't doubt for an instant, nor does any man doubt, but that Campbell is today the first choice of more than a majority of the people of Texas for governor. Turn the four candidates loose today, and Campbell would receive a majority over all. The editor of the Register talked to fully two-thirds of the delegates to the Grayson county convention last Saturday. Every man to whom he talked soid that Campbell has won far more votes in the state than any other man, and that according to all the democratic rules of right and justice, he should be the nominee. Among the delegates there were partisans of Brooks, Bell and Colquitt, and without a single exception these men declared that Mr. Campbell is now their choice for governor, because the people have shown such a preference for him. If the people showed such a dislike for Colonel Campbell at the polls, what does it indicate to Judge Bell, the man whom The Telegram supported? He is certainly not the choice of the Texas democracy, and accepting The Telegram's logic, it would be an outrage on justice to nominate him.-Sherman Register.

The Register only establishes what The Telegram has insisted upon from the close of the primary, and that is the people of Texas have made no choice for governor. Colonel Thomas M. Campbell has polled a surprisingly large vote-more than that given to either of the other three candidates, but it is the height of folly to insist that Campbell is the choice of the people of Texas for the position of governor. There were too many votes polled against him to warrant any such as-

Colonel Campbell polled his full strength in the state primaries, while the opposition was split up between three other very excellent gentlemen. The vote cast for Campbell looks big in comparison with the residue when split up between three other men, but the fact remains that vote was cast against Campbell at a time when it was understood that he needed every ballot that could be mustered. And yet that fact seems to be completely ignored by his overzealous supporters. They have been insisting from the day after the primary that Campbell was as good as nominated—have shown a bulldozing disposition to compel more than 200,000 Texas democrats to bow to the expressed will of less than 100,000, and give Campbell the nomination just because his supporters think he is entitled to it.

As regards Judge Bell, he was very largely the victim of senatorial interference, and will take second place on the first ballot on that account. But after the first ballot he will give a proper account of himself in the measuring of strength with Colonel Thomas M.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN FORT WORTH

The icemen of the country are up against a hard proposition this summer all over the country, from the fact the consumer is insisting upon a square deal. The New York Times tells of an incident that seems sufficiently familiar to have transpired in Fort Worth.

"I just thought I would see how much of a square deal we were getting," said a physician whose family uses a large amount of ice, the other day, "so when the iceman came along in the morning I marched out to the wagon and watched him weigh the cakes. This is what happened:

"The man took a piece of ice supposed to weigh fifty pounds, stuck a two-pound pair of grapping irons into it, laid it on the scales, and saw the dial register forty-eight pounds. With a smile of satisfaction he carried the cake into my basement, and I looked on, knowing that I would be charged for a fifty-pound robbery, and he explained as follows: "The company tells me that the ice in my wagon

"I asked him how he justified this ingenious form of weighs so much, and I have to account for every pound of it. They make no allowance for the melting in transit, so the only thing I can do is to give short weight, as you saw. If the scales show nearer fifty pounds than forty-five, I charge for fifty, and the frons that hold the stuff help out for two pounds worth. I know it's hard on you, but it's the best I can do.'

"This sort of thing goes on every day, and I find that all my friends are cheated in the same way. As the iceman says, it is not so much his fau't as that of the company, which forces him to return bills for the amount of ice put in the wagon when it starts out. What can we do about? I am sure I don't know."

The Telegram does not see the justice of compelling either the retailer or consumer to stand for the loss resulting from the melting of ice in the hands of the manufacturer, and a law should be enacted by the next state legislature requiring the manufacturer to weigh his product to the retailer and the retailer to weigh it to the consumer. Let the manufacturer stand for the loss of the goods he is not able to deliver, and not tax it up against the people, many of whom are compelled to buy ice as a necessity and not as a luxury.

AN ESTIMATE OF BAILEY

Senator Bailey is just now canvassing the state. That is, he is making speeches at various places where they send for him. Mr. Bailey is a fine talker and knows how to say things that will tickle the crowd. But when this is said all is said. His friends cannot point to a single thing that he has ever done for the state except to get a Federal court building for Gainesville. He was in the lower house of congress for several terms and has been in the senate for six years and has had ample time to show what was in him, and all that he has shown is that he is capable of drawing his salary and of making a good speech. He has shown this in congress and on the stump in this state. He has been a good man for himself, too. He has grown rich. Did he make his money honestly? We believe he did, but at the same time if he had half the ambition to serve the state that he has to serve his own ends, we believe he could accomplish something. As a man we believe Mr. Bailey is a pretty good sort, and as a politician he is a success, but as a statesman he will not do. The people of Texas will find out sooner or | American nation. later. The friends who admire him so much will some day be his most bitter enemies when their eyes are opened and they are enabled to see that he has been weighed in the balance and found wanting.-Wicaita guilty of criticising the speech Bailey made on the floor of the United States senate in answer to an attack Lade on him in a monthly magazine, and the senator is wroth. The Telegram has resented Bailey's interference with the gubernatorial election, and the senator says The Telegram is anarchistic. The Telegram has said that Bailey will have serious opposition for reelection six years hence, and the senator says The Telegram has detracted from his character. He absolutely refused to be interviewed by a Telegram reporter and will let no representative of this paper play in his back yard. And The Telegram has no unkind feelings for Senator Bailey. It just happens to believe he is not the greatest living American, and has thereby differed with Senator Bailey. It has not nominated him for the Presidency every time he sneezed in Washington, and has perhaps been consequently quite derelict in its democratic duty. But The Telegram has great respect for Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey and believes if he can once get over the idea that he is the whole political cheese he may yet develop into a statesman.

It will be noticed that none of the real friends of Judge Charles K. Bell have yet manifested any disposition to lie down. They remember the assertion of their leader made often during the campaign, that the nomination for governor would have to be made by the state Democratic convention.

In its issue of June 4 the esteemed Houston Post made bold to say that however the distribution of the vote might go, the time would come in the state convention when the supporters of Campbell, Colquitt and Brooks would be found practically united against Judge Bell. We need German immigrants in Texas and we could use them in this section." Speaking for its section and people, the Fort Worth Teiegram says:

"The thrifty German has made of himself a valuable citizen in every portion of Texas and has proven just about the most desirable of all the immigrants that come to this state. Texas needs all the Germans she can induce to locate within her borders."

Speaking for the southwest, the San Antonio Exress pays this tribute to the men who have made that section a garden spot of plenty:

"Southwest Texas thought it had first claim on the German immigrants, and certainly has more of that solid and thrifty kind of citizenship in its borders than any other part of Texas. But though many are here, there is room for many more like them."

THE DEACON'S DROUGHT I often think of Deacon Brown,

Gray-haired, and straight, and tall. Who used to live in our town When I was young and small. I'm sure his motives were not bad, He worthy was, no doubt, But he a dreadful habit had Of prophesying drought.

No matter if his barn and store Were filled from roof to ground: No matter though the rain might pour Or sunshine fall around; Though heat and cold in season came, With good crops all about, He'd rise in meeting just the same, And prophesy a drought.

It seemed almost like a disease Upon this good old man, He hardly lived a life of ease, For they are few who can; He had his troubles, too, because He grew both deaf and lame, But what he took the hardest was That drought that never came.

And when I see so many folks All growing thin and pale With dread of trouble, or with croaks For fear some good will fail, I see they're in a serious way, Would I could get them out! "Beware my friend," (I want to say,) "You've caught the deacon's drought."

WATER MAIN BROKEN

Main Street Needs Repairs As Result of Seepage

For some time, no one seems to know just how long, there has been a break in a water main just opposite the Delaware hotel in Main street, and the visible result at that locality is a small pool of water and a seepage which shows at the place named and lower down the street there is another place where the water is running all of the time. The matter has stood so long now that the traffic on the street has caused a marked depression of the pavement for a space about three or four feet across at the point first named.

The water runs down the traction company's tracks and is especially to be noted on and along the side of the inner rail of the east side track, the flood extending to the middle of the next blocks or lower. Another result is the breaking down of the support of the brick pavement along the tracks at the place first named and beside the tracks at other places. It is not a very serious matter as it is now, but it is getting worse all the time and may be a serious matter if it is not remedied.

Secretary Evans is trying to locate a suitable lot for the erection of a building to house a wholesale commission business which will be opened here as soon as a building can be built. He also has received a letter from a wire fence manufacturing concern, stating that members of the firm will be in Fort Worth next week to find a location for a plant here. The gentlemen state that the bulk of their business is in the south and southwest, hence they desire to move their plant into the territory in which their product is distributed.

He was grooming a team of horse in his barn in the eastern part of the city when one of the animals became restless and in making a turn in his stall caught the negro's arm between his (the horse's) shoulder and a post, breaking one of the bones of the forearm. The pain suffered by the negro was so excruciating that he fainted and was trampled on by the horse and severely cut in the face by the iron shod hoofs and bruised about the body. The man might have been killed had not his wife gone to the barn to call him to supper and pulled him out of the stall.

BIG BOULDER BLOCKS TRACK

Mass of Stone Weighing 225 Tons Delays T. & P. Traffic

Loosened by heavy rains that have fallen all over West Texas during the past few days an immense boulder weighing 225 tons, rolled down the mountain side in the canyon, 100 miles west of Fort Worth, near Ranger, Wednesday morning and lodged on the Texas & Pacific track, completely blockading the road for fourteen hours. Eastbound trains from El Paso were detoured from Cisco over the Texas Central to Dublin and from Dublin over the Frisco track to Fort Worth. This immense boulder was 25 fee: long, 12 feet thick and 12 feet wide, and its immense weight was such as to prevent its being lifted by any crane in use by the railroad. A wrecking train and machine was sent to the canyon, but nothing could be done until the boulder was drilled into and several charges of dynamite used to break it into pieces small enough to be lifted by the crane of the wrecking machine. The work was commenced at 9 a. m. Wednesday and was not concluded until 11 p. m. Wednesday night. In its passage down the mountain side the boulder made a noise that was heard for miles in every direction. Only the day previous the road was blockaded by a freight wreck near Strawn, caused a detour of trains over the Texas Central to Dublin. The road is now clear, however, and as the rains are over no further interruption of schedules is feared.

SANTA FE BUYS LINE

Gulf & Interstate Railroad in South Texas Changes Hands The Santa Fe has bought the Gulf

& Interstate Railway, a line which runs from Bolivar Point, opposite Galveston, and lying on the east side of the harbor entrance, to Beaumont, a distance of seventy miles. This road is on the crest of the sand spit or island, which divides the gulf from Galveston bay and was almost lestroyed in the great Galveston storm of 1900, the sea in many places breaking over the island and totally destroying the tracks. The company then fell into financial difficulties and it was for a long time regarded as an abandoned property. L. P. Featherstone, of Beaumont, became interested and then came a time when the rumors of the acquisition of the line. and its rights, by the Kansas Cky Southern were thick. At last a loan was floated and the Commonwealth Trust Company of St. Louis by foreclosure, entered into the control of the oad. A railroad man of great experience, W. C. Fordyce, was made president and under his management the line has paid.

Its greatest value is due, probably, to the fact that it has the terminals it owns at Galveston, 50 acres of land Galveston harbor, much of that frontage so situated, that there is deep water, at all times, without dredging and small but very valuable terminals in Beaumont.

The Featherstone interest in the property was protected in the sale. The Santa Fe can use the line to great advantage, and it is stated that im-

Railroad Notes and Personals

The State Association of Passenger Agents of Texas Railways, adjourned at Waco Wednesday afternoon after transacting a great deal of routine business only. Those present were John F. Lehane of the Cotton Belt, chairman; W. G. Crush of the Katy; E. P. Turner of the Texas and Pacific; E. S. Adams, of the Santa Fe; Phil A Auer, of the Rock Island; M. L. Robbins, of the Houston and Texas Central; George D. Hunter, of the International and Great Northern; Joseph Hellen, of the Texas and New Orleans; A. A. Glisson, of the Fort Worth and Denver City; W. F. McMillin, of the Texas Central; A. V. Martin, of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass; F. N. McClure, of the Frisco, and J. E. Meroney, of the Cotton Belt, the latter acting as secretary of the association.

A rock as large as a couple of freight cars rolled down the mountain side and blocked the Texas and Pacific tracks Wednesday near Strawn, and all the trains had to run by way of Cisco and the Central, until the block was cleared.

Announcement is made that the Trinity and Brazos Valley Railway Company will submit twenty miles of tompleted road to the Texas railway commission Thursday. It is an assured fact that the road will be accepted and orders issued authorizing its use for public service.

The Southern Pacific has put on train agents, whose duties are to look after the tickets and cash fares while the conductors devote their energies to the general management and operation of their trains.

The cornerstone of the new shops of the Texas Central at Walnut Springs is to be laid August 11.

FAIR DATE ANNOUNCED

The Arkansas Meeting Begins at Hot Springs October 1 The racing program at the first annual state fair, held at Oaklawn park, Hot Springs, Ark., October 1 to 10 announces purses amounting to $21,500 There will be one harness race each day of the nine racing days and at least five running races.

The harness events will include five trots and four paces. The purses will range from $450 to $600. The harness races will be three mile heats, each heats, each heat a race. The entries to the harness races close September 15. The running races will be for at least $200 added money with not less than four handicaps or condition races. Each race promises to be well filled and many horses will start their south-ern tour at Hot Springs, which is the beginning of a very attractive circuit. Following the Hot Springs events, will come the Texas State Fair at Dallas, the fair at Houston, then San Antonio, then the Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport, which closes November 27, just as the winter racing is opening at New Orleans.

MOTORMAN HURT

Slipped on Car and Thrust Arm Through a Window

Traction Company motorman named Henry, on the Henderson street line, had his left arm badly cut by thrusting it through one of the window glasses of the car. The floor was slightly wet, he attempted to lower the window, slipped and his arm went through the glass. The gash extended from the elbow to the wrist. Dr. Broiles, who was on the car, dressed the wound, at the nearest drug store. The accident occurred Tuesday evening, near the Fort Worth University.

LOTS OF NAMES FOR NEW STATE

Contest in Oklahoma Excites Widespread Interest

Oklahoma is going through the delicious thrills of selecting a nickname. Like a girl at boarding school for the first time, the new state feels she will not be properly initiated without a pet title and as a result from all over the territory suggestions are being received by an Oklahoma newspaper which is conducting a voting scheme to make the selection.

Following are some of the nicknames already submitted. Sept. 4 In fixing the date of Sept. 3 for the opening of the Fort Worth city schools this year the fact was overlooked that the date and Labor Day were coincident. The day is so generally observed as a holiday that it is possible that the opening of the schools may be fixed for the Tuesday following, which would be the 4th inst.

This question is one to be determined at the next meeting of the school board, the date for which has not yet been named.

RIVER NOW FALLING

Katy Resumes Traffic Over the Canadian River High water in the Canadian river in Oklahoma has seriously interrupted traffic into Texas over the Frisco and the Missouri, Kansas & Texas roads for the past few days, and trains on both roads could not pass that treacherous stream. The Frisco trains have been detoured over the Rock Island to Fort Worth, and all Katy southbound trains to Fort Worth and south of Fort Worth were made up at Denison, there being no Katy trains into Denison from the north until Thursday. Thursday the Katy began landing delayed passengers from the north at Fort Worth, the trouble at the Canadian having been overcome.

ARE HARD-HEADED

Rocky Mountain Big Horns on Steep Canyon Slopes

It is a great sight to witness the flight of a band of "Big Horns," or mountain sheep, on the steep slopes of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. You would not think, says the author of "In and Around the Grand Canyor," that even mountain sheep could keep their foothold, much less run at ful! speed, on this sloping talu so plentifully bestrewn with boulders; but they do it with perfect ease, and apparently with no consciousness of fear. These sheep are wonderfully crafty, and it is hard to get near enough to shoot them, or with several companions surround, so as to entrap them. When they are driven to frenzy by apparent hopelessness of escape, they will dash to the edge of great precipices, and without hesitation jump down, often landing on their skulls, rather than their feet, a roll or two and they are up and off. and in your astonishment at their acrobatic feat you lose all chance of shooting them. Trouble has arisen in the adjustment of grazing privileges on some of the forest reserves for the reason that the basis-last year's number-includes ewes and lambs. Flockmasters who have sold the lambs and replaced them with ewes want to count the same number as the basis for this year's permits, which will not be allowed, as this with the lambs would greatly increase the actual total.

J. L. VOSS AND STOCK FARMING

Gatesville Man Tells of Methods and Prospects

J. L. Voss lives in Coryell county and makes his livelihood from stock farming and takes an interest in all that relates to the business. "I am on my way," said he, "to St. Louis with a shipment of good muttons and am only laying over here for a few hours to rest and feed. My home is eight miles from Gatesville and my father and I work a farm consisting of 400 acres. Of course this is not much land in Texas, but it is enough to enable us to make plenty to live on and some to spare. We have in crops this year, wheat, oats, corn, cotton, millet and sorghum, and have fine crops of each. We have cattle, not a very great number it is true, but it is part of the general plan of the farm and helps out. Hogs, of course, are raised and every farmer down in our section kills and cures his own meat every year, besides having a surplus to sell. Hog raising has not as yet become as great an industry as in some places, but it is only a question of time when it will. Many of our people are going into the speep business in a small way, but the scarcity of stock sheep, owing to the high price of wool, is a great impediment to the rapid increase of the farmers having flocks, however small they may be.

out he is not doing quite as much at it now as he has in the past. Cotton is doing fine at present, and if the boll weevil and the boll worms do not multiply to any great extent we will make a large yield. Corn is good and millet is fine. We feed millet to our horses without any fear of bad results. We keep it in the mangers all the time and never have any sick horses from eating it. For the cattle we haul it and place it in ricks and they have all they want. We have thrashed 700 bushels of millet seed this year and the straw is better for horses than any other kind after being threshed. Altogether it is as good feed as anyone could wish for all stock. There is not much Johnson grass in our section, but I look upon it as a fine hay and also as good green feed. There is some alfalfa in our section and it does very well. I am glad to learn that the government is making investigations relative to increasing the value both of Johnson grass and Bermuda, If, as you say, they have managed to hybridize Johnson grass so that it will have lost all of its bad qualities, or such as the farmer deems bad qualities, and also have discovered how to improve the Bermuda so that it will stand 10 degrees of cold below zero and live and stay green, then we who live in Texas can count on discounting all the world in stock farming, for with the three, Bermuda, Johnson can't we do? Alfalfa for hogs and sheep, Johnson grass for summer and for hay and Bermuda for all the year we will be in the proverbial 'clover.'

"The railroad that is projected through our country and to the north will give us a more direct connection with the markets at Fort Worth and we can then bring in many things that we now leave at home. The great Exhibition building that s proposed is sure to meet the approval of all our people, especially now that it is proposed to add all kinds of live stock, including chickens. I think it might be a good idea to have a department that will handle all kinds of feed that goes into the make-up of feed for stock. There are many kinds of grass growing in Texas that could be utilized for feed if proper attention was given them, and, with the aid of the skilled men who are employed at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, what is best for a ration could be explained and the results determined in the presence of the hundreds of stock farmers and stockmen who will be interested spectators. That this exposition will be of vast benefit to all Texas goes without saying and I fully believe that it will make Fort Worth the great center of not alone the cattle industry, but of all similar industries, including the dairy interests. The whole southwest will be tributary to ft and it will become the greatest packing and stock shipping point south of Chicago.'

SUMMER DAYS DO NOT HURT HOTELS

Unusually Busy Season for Local Taverns

Notwithstanding the fact that summer months always bring to the city tavern keeper more or less financial loss on account of the decrease in patronage due to the rush of folks to country and seashore resorts, local inn proprietors assert that this summer has been the most prosperous in the history of Fort Worth hotels. All the larger taverns in Main street have been pretty well filled with guests since the opening of the heated season and the bell-hops have had but little time to read yellow-backs and pass One prominent hotel man stated this morning that this summer had been a revelation to him in the matter of prolucing business. He declared that more people seemed to be staying at nome for the summer and boarding at hotels than ever before and that a large number instead of going to some one place and remaining until the leaves commenced to fall, were traveling from city to city seeing things.

Looking for Big Winter Local taverns are expecting a heavy winter season and are making preparations to care for same. Business will open with a flourish along about Sept 20, and from then on until the inauguration of next summer the inn manager and his corp of workers will be busier than bees.

It is in the fall and winter that the high-salaried traveling man starts south with orders from his firm to spare no expense; get the business and stop at the best hotels. It is this class of patronage that makes things look cherry around the place. And then, too, when the wild duck that has been feasting on the tender water growth of north country lakes all summer lifts his head and, with one prolonged "honk, honk," starts on his long flight for southern waters, milady with diamonds, silks and a bank account commences to bustle about getting things in readiness for the "annual tour of the delightful southern towns," etc.

All in all, the summer has been a shop. Automobiles repaired and stored.
Roofs and flues repaired. Tin shop.
Phone 396. 1204 Houston street.

All III an, the summer has been a good one for Fort Worth taverns, and the fall season is expected to open big.

ORTHODOX JEWISH TEMPLE GOING UP

Work Delayed by Rain Nearing Completion

Workmen are busy today on the rapid completion of the orthodox Jewish temple in progress of erection at $25 Taylor street.

The congregation Ahavath Sholem decided last spring that it would build a synagogue worthy the size and prominence of the congregation and work was commenced early in June. The cost of the edifice will be between $12,000 and $15,000, and the building will be completed in time for dedication before Jewish New Year's day, which falls on Sept. 20.

Rabbi Jasin of the Reformed Jewish congregation, will direct the dedicatory ceremonies, which will largely follow the ancient and time-honored customs of the Jewish people as related in the Scriptures. Work on the synagogue has been somewhat delayed by the recent rains, but an extra force of men has been put on the job by the contractors and the final work is now go-

Regular business meetings of the congregation Ahavath Sholom are held on the second and fourth Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A gentleman at one of the Mair street taverns last evening told a story that made one forget worries for a second and jump over into laughdom with a vengeance. He said he attended a banquet given by Boston's wholesale houses to fall buyers from all sections of the country. During the course of the big "feed" eggs were served in a new style. To handle them, at least to break the shell, it was necessary to catch the hen fruit between a pair of silver clamps—rather awkward. One man from Alabama was seated next to a very beautiful daughter of a millionaire shoe manufacturer. She was trying to break her egg and in the effort dropped it. Turning to the Alabamian she exclaimed: "Oh, Mr. Jones, I have dropped an egg." Without letting the slightest trace of a smile scamper across his face the

NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fait. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several mem-bers and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomwill be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs-heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

The Lord & Thomas Record of Results is the something tangible and definite in advertising.

And it has been the lack of tangible evidence, such as this Record shows, which has made it impossible for you to be convinced.

Lack of a definite basis for advertising -lack of safe precedent has kept many a conservative business man from becoming a successful advertiser.

Your conservatism will not allow you to advertise blindly-to SPECULATE in advertising based on nothing more definite or tangible than the judgment or opinion of some "expert" or "experts."

You will admit the value of good advertising, but you want some assurance that your INVESTMENT in advertising will be a reasonably safe and profitable one.

We want to tell you what we do to assure successful advertising. We want to tell you about the Lord & Thomas Record of Results - a trust-

Values on Toboggan-Bear's Hammer Market Successfully-Mitchell Sells 6,000-Price Reported Selling Special to The Telegram.
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Efforts to ef-Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The cotton market was more animated today than for a long time past, but the activity was at the expense of prices as it was pre-eminently the bear's day and persistent hammering furnished the feature, the bulk of the selling being in the December option, although October was by no means exempt from pressure. The day's news was not of particular importance, weather reports being featureless, while Liverpool at the opening was a shade lower than due. The local market was easily responsive to the unfavorable attitude of the foreign market, and opening prices were 2 to 4 points lower. With the sounding of the gong hostilities were in full progress, Mitchell leading the attack with heavy offerings of December, which were not readily absorbed Although there was some attempt to check the selling the tide could not be stemmed and ere long the crowd joined in the movement, large blocks being offered promiscuously around the room while Price was credited with much of the selling. Mitchell never ceased his fusiliade and his sales were enormous, it being estimated at noon that he had put out 60,000 bales. Prices tumbled rapidly without a reaction worthy of the name, and shortly after middling touched a level 26 to 27 points below yesterday's finals. At the low levels there was considerable resistance encountered and the market steadied prices, working up several points from the lowest. By far the stellar performance of the day, however, was another acrobatic stunt by the bear side, and announced late in the day that he had reluctantly and finally been compelled to abandon the hope of any present advance in cotton, saying further that it was impossible to believe the crop a small one when nearly all producers seemed eager to sell it. This came too late to affect the market and the close was steady with prices at a net loss of 21 to 22 points. Spot cotton market ruled quiet, prices being 10 points lower at 10.60c

New Orleans Cotton Special to The Telegram. New ORLEANS, Aug. 9.-The cotton values on the local market reached new low levels today, principally in sympathy with the course of the Liverpool and New York markets. The weather conditions were generally favorable and the market received no support either actual or from the day's news.

An initial decline of 4 to 6 points was soon increased to 10 points, and owing to a sharp slump in Liverpool prices at the close of business on that market, many straddle purchases were unloaded giving more momentum to the retrograde movement and dispite some short covering the market at midday was decidedly easy with prices about $1 a bale below yesterday's finals. After this time a better tone developed on reports of a steadier New York market and some further covering by shorts. The close was steady with prices at a net loss of 17 points. Spot cotton market ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 10 5-16c for mid-

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9 .- Although the cotton market had a good tone at the start, prices being a shade lower than due at unchanged and working up a point during the first few minutes, heavy selling for London and American account soon changed the aspect decidedly and a sharp slump occurred, the close being easy with prices at a net loss of 6 to 8 points.

Wheat Prices Take Fresh Start on Down Grade—September Touches New Low Level

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 9.—The wheat market derived early firmness from buying as a result of favorable foreign advices and a strong early curb, but with an opening gain of %c to %c the advance stopped abruptly, next quotations being lower and the trend of fluctuations thereafter downward. After the opening the market was almost bare of trying orders. Prices got down to 72%c-a new low mark-and a net loss of %c for September. Finals were at a net loss of %c to %c. Despite the decline in futures there was only a light demand for export, it being estimated that 30 loads would cover the sales in all markets. Local receipts 371 cars as compared with 272 cars this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow, 421 cars.

Corn was sold liberally until late in the session, when a covering movement resulted in the recovery of %c of a loss of 1c on September. The Iowa state report, which showed condition of corn to be 99 per cent as compared with 94 last year was the principal bearish influence. The market closed easy with prices 1/4 c to 1/4 c net lower. Local receipts 150 cars as compared with 141 this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow, 184 cars. Oats

Oats market was weak oll day in sympathy with corn and improved conditions of the Iowa crop as shown by a report making the average condition 90 as compared with 84 last month and 97 at the same time last year. Closing prices were %c to ½c net

Local receipts 208 cars as compared with 354 this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow, 226 cars.

Provisions Provisions prices were 7c to 13c lowerat the close, a weak market for live nogs being assigned as the cause of the slump.

More Attention Being Given Animal of the Golden Hoof The sheep fever is running high over the western range districts, with no evidence of abatement. The sheep has long been referred to, in its enriching capacity of the farm, as the animal of the golden hoof. The sheep is rising so rapidly in the estimation of the live stock interests of the country, that it will soon be the object of worship on the range. From all parts of the sheepbreeding districts come reports that buyers are now trying to contract the spring lambs at $2.50 per head for next fall's delivery, and these offers are so very liberal and unreserved that in many instances they are without restrictions in quality. The evidence is all with the flock owner for another prosperous season in sales of the flock's surplus.-American Stockman.

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 9.—It appears all Campbell leaders have been summoned to Dallas. The real purpose is not known. But it indicates some apprehension. Campbell leaders here departed last night. It is said that a conference of Campbell's leaders is to center on temporary officers for the

It may be that they want to get in touch with various delegations as fast as the yarrive and discuss Campbell for winning purposes. It is apparent there is something in the air which is causing the followers of the Palestine man to rush to Dallas at this time.

DID BLIND MAN SEE THE LID OFF

Unusual Case to Be Tried in Corporation Court

Testimony of a blind man will be used by the corporation court of Fort Worth in the endeavor to convict a Fort Worth saloon keeper of selling beer on Sunday. Following his report to the police that he had been brutally attacked by a man in a saloon in the downtown district, C. F. Williams, who has been totally blind for many years and who earns his living by the sale of shoestrings, was questioned closely by Day Captain of Police L. E. Day, the result being that Captain Day filed & complaint against a certain saloon, charging that a bottle of beer was sold to the blind man Sunday night.

Revelations Likely Williams' story is a strange one and the police think it likely that other revelations will be made before the case is finally disposed of by trial. The blind man was directed by the police to make a charge of aggravated assault against the man who he alleges beat him in the face and Williams was instructed to make application at the office of the county attorney for permission to file such complaint. Williams says he entered the saloon on the solicitation of a "booster" and that he was trying to sell his shoe-

Says He Bought Beer

Being thirsty, he says, he found that beer was being sold and he bought a bottle, for which he says he paid the sum of 15 cents. Some little time afterward, he says, he was near the rear of the room, when he was approached by a man, who gruffly asked: "Are you trying to get upstairs?"

To this question Williams says he made answer, explaining to the man who had addressed him that he had no desire to go upstairs. At this, according to the statement of the blind man, his questioner seized him by the collar and calling him a d-liar, began beating him unmercifully in the face and neck. He exhibited a red spot on the left side of his neck, where, he says, he thinks he was struck by his

assailant, a set in a ring bruising his Complaint Filed

The acting city prosecutor made out a complaint, charging a white man with having sold a bottle of beer to C. F. Williams, and, after submitting the complaint to Judge C. T. Prewett for inspection, the case being unusual, filed it for use by an officer, who is expected to make the arrest today. Judge Prewett said he could not remember having a case come under his notice where the testimony of a blind man was used in support of such a charge, but admitted that the faculties of persons who are blind are known to become so acute that they are able to recognize persons by voice and walk. The testimony to be offered the court in this case will be based on the sup-position that this blind man knows what he is talking about. Being closely questioned as to what was going on upstairs, Williams said he did not know of his own knowledge whether men were engaged in gambling there. He was unwilling to make any assertion in the premises. The case will be called next week.

DOG NUISANCE HAS TWO SIDES

Mayor Burdened with Woes of Worried South Siders

Another side of the question of dogs, dog catchers and owners of dogs came to light Thursday when Mayor W. D. Harris received a series of telephone messages from the south side to the effect that there was being held a continuous session, or general reception of what the person who talked to the mayor seemed to think to be every dog in Tarrant county.

There were several hurry-up calls for the dreaded dog catcher's wagon and citizens pleaded with the mayor to send out a special squad of dog detainers to seize, grab, hold and incarcerate, if not slaughter, some scores of canines who were making night hideous and day dangerous to children, women and men in a certain block of Hemphill street.

One person informed the mayor that every dog in the city was in that one block and that probably if many people who thought their pets hauled away to the pound would come into that vicinity they would be likely to find their dogs in attendance at this continuous

It was asserted that there were many dogs present at this meeting who gave unmistakable evidence of rural raising rather than town training and, added to the conglomeration, the mayor's informer said, were dogs from Dailas, Grand Prairie pups, dogs from Dido, Benbrook, bulldogs, collies from Crow-ley, Forest Hill fox terriers, shepherds from Saginaw, Birdville black-and-ttans and even Mansfield mastiffs. The mayor smiled as he listened to the terrible tale of turmoil and said to a reporter that there was two sides to every question-even unto dogs.

FINES AN OLD STORY

Calhoun Bell Philosophizes on Contributions to County

Calhoun Bell's bond on a charge of playing cards was forfeited in the county court Wednesday and the fact was published in The Telegram Wednesday. Calhoun saw the story and as short as it was it caused him to go to the court house Thursday to have the forfeiture set aside, which he

He was walking up and down the court house aisle when seen by a Telegram reporter who said to him interrogatively: "They won't let you alone, Calhoun?"

"Not all the time," he answered, and I have just been thinking about the matter-thinking how much I have contributed toward paying for this court house. I was here before they began to build this court house, and from almost the day I struck the town they have been pulling me up here and fining me. Many a big rock I have paid for in this court house, and the same old thing goes on. I'll bet that I have contributed more toward paying the running expenses of Tarrant county than any flabbergasted legislator ever sent from Fort Worth; and the same

SALM SAVES CLOSE GAME

Brings in Two Men in Sixth Inning

A DOUBLE PLAY

Feature Is Throw by Boles to Salm in the Ninth. Score 3 to 2

Schedule Thursday Cleburne at Fort Worth.

Dallas and Waco at Clarksville Wednesday's Results Cleburne, 2; Fort Worth, 3.

At Clarksville-Dallas, 6; Waco, 4. Texas League Standing --- Games --- Per Clubs-Played. Won. Lost. cent. The score: Fort Worth ... 39 Cleburne ..... 37 16 21 .568 Dallas ..... 37 18 19 .487 Waco ...... 39 14 25

Fort Worth won the game from Cleburne here Wednesday afternoon by a score of 3 to 2. Salm did it.

The Railroaders lost the game to Salm in the sixth inning like this: Boles went to first on an error by Aiken; Gfroerer did his usual bunting stunt, while Boles stole second; Carlin came to bat and had patience long enough to allow a ball or two to be called, then smashed the ball vigorously, going out at first. Then came Salm (applause), who rapped out a long drive to right field and gained first, scoring Boles and Gfroerer.

Attendance Good

Representative fans saw the Panthers tend to the Railroaders Wednesday afternoon. It was a jolly, happygo-lucky crowd. Each player of the home team was cheered as he grabbed his good bat and marched to the plate to face the wily and wiry Rick Adams. Instead of the sunny smile usually depicted on Adams' countenance and present Wednesday for five innings, there overspread his facial expression a dogged determination that deepened into disgust and was finally depicted as despair.

When the winning run was scored by Gfroerer, who followed Boles across the plate like a rabbit when Salm lifted the horsehide into right, Rick turned around, his shoulders twisted forward, his chin received caresses from the pitcher's mit and he gazed without gladness at the two runners, keeping time in rapid strikes to the musical whoops and increasing roar from the bleachers and the grand stand. The most sensational feature of the game was in the ninth inning, with Cleburne coming to bat. Moran went to first on a questionable play wherein Carlin was charged up with an error. Whiteman rapped a short hot one into the hands of Boles, who was near second and who planted his foot on that sack just an instant before Moran reached that point in the procession. Then Moran seemed to embrace Boles (an accident), but the Panthers' shortstop was too agile for Moran and the ball reached Salm in time to put an end to the base running career of Whiteman. It was one of the prettiest double plays ever seen on the local diamond. The next man up was Poindexter, and Jarvis made short work of him in strike-out fashion. Jack walked two men and Rick 6; Jarvis allowed six hits and Adams five, but Jack's support loomed up heavy behind him.

Spencer was not hootel by the crowd REMINGTON TYPEWRITER is Wednesday and his decisions were the the recognized standard of all typecause of fewer wrangles than is usual iters. See us before you buy rein a closely contested game.

Special to The Telegram. CLARKSVILLE, Texas, Aug. 9.-The Dallas Giants and the Waco club of the Texas League player a game here yesterday, the contest having been transferred to this place from Waco. The Giants, with Farris at the slab, won with ease. Ketchum, the new shortstop, showed up well at bat and played a good fielding game. The Giants got their first run in the third by timely hitting and base running. The fifth was a Waterloo for Browning, Waco's pitcher. The Giants straightened out his slants for many a good hard drive and five men crossed the plate. In the eighth Farris let down a bit, and before he again pulled himself together four Waco men had

Effort Will Be Made to Defeat Littlefield

Special to The Telegram.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9 .-William J. Bryan is to be importuned upon his arrival in New York a few weeks hence to make a dash up to Maine and deliver one or two speeches in Congressman Littlefield's district. Announcement of this fact was made at the democratic congressional headquarters. The Maine elections in September and especially the election in the Second district are important forecasts of what may be expected throughout the country in November. If Littlefield be defeated through the aid of the organized labor movement against him, it will furnish inspiration for work elsewhere.

Although the popular subscriptions to the democratic campaign fund to date total only $4, a decidedly boastful spirit prevails at the headquarters. It is declared that some surprises are in stee for Chairman Jim Sherman of the republican campaign committee, but that in the main quietness is going to be maintained regarding the vulnerable points of attack. One secret disclosed today, however, was to the effect that the democrats are counting on carrying five districts in the city of Chicago. Fight on Speaker Cannon

A preconcerted movement to attack the republicans in districts now represented by republicans who occupy positions of leaders in the house organizations is one of the plans of the democratic committee. Hints thrown out today indicate that President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor is not to be without help in the work of assailing Speaker Cannon in the latter's home district. In other states, notably Indiana, there already has been a disposition on the part of the candidates-democratic candidates -to sidestep indorsement from the labor politicians, fearing that the reaction will be worse than failure to secure support.

Wherever there seems a chance of winning by the help of the labor-political organization, however, the national managers appear to be willing to combine with the latter. Representative Watson of Indiana is one of the particular stars of the republican organization marked for democratic attack.

PRESIDENT ON HATS

Writes Letter Sympathizing With Work of Audabon Societies Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The Audubon Society has received the following letter from President Roosevelt: "My Dear Mr Dutcher-Permit me on behalf of both Mrs. Roosevelt and pathize not only with the work of the Audubon societies generally, but particularly in their effort to stop the sale and use of the so-called 'aigrettes,' the plumes of the white herons. If anything, Mrs. Roosevelt feels more strongly than I do in the matter. "Sincerely yours, "THEODORE ROOSEVELT." Mrs. Roosevelt and the President have personally put their stamps of disapproval on the sale and use of the heron's plume known as the aigrette, now the chief crusade of the Audubon Society. The letter from the President is expected to bear fruit in the fall fashions, as the first lady of the land is in sympathy with Queen Alexandra, who has also condemned the cruelty which decks women's hats at such inhuman expense. William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, appealed for Mrs. Roosevelt's interest as a factor greater than any other in the success of the crusade. and the President's hearty reply was ample justification. Mrs. Russell Sage is one of the women who has been most deeply concerned for the protection of the birds.

J. M. Lee Transfers From Harriman to Yoakum Lines

Special to The Telegram. SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 9.-J. M. Lee, who has been construction superintendent of the Gulf Shore extension of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railroad, has been appointed as superintendent of the Trinity and Brazos Valley railroad, with headquarters at Cleburne. He will assume his new duties Monday morning. After twenty-five years of continuous service with the Harriman lines, Mr. Lee becomes an employe of the Yoakum lines, which is a bitter rival. Mr. Lee will take charge of the construction of the Trinity and Brazos Valley into Houston and expects to complete the line by October. While division superintendent of the Houston and Texas Central at Austin, Mr. Lee was appointed vice president and general manager of the Gulf Shore at San Afftonio. When that line was merged with the Sunset lines he became superintendent of the construction of the extension.

CORSETS CAUSE CANCER

Warning Issued to Women by Well Known Doctor Special to The Telegram.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The physical contrast between primitive and civilied man and the ills which civilization imposes on the race, as described by Dr. Nicholas Senn has made a deep impression on physicians and philosophers. Dr. Senn has issued a warning to high livers against luxurious living, overeating and corsets, which Dr. Senn declares cause cancer.

Because cancer cannot be cured he has made a far-reaching investigation of it, penetrating to the primitive tribes in Africa, where he found that cancer and tuberculosis were unknown diseases. He said: "I have a scar on my arm in which

I tried to graft a piece of cancerous tissue. I closed the flesh over it, but I was not inoculated. Cancer comes from ancestors. It is not a microbic disease—it is not a parasite. The seeds of it are born in a child and float

SPRINGS FROM SEA

Island Forced Above Waves by Submarine Eruption

Special to The Telegram. TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 29.—Amid waves which are still boiling from the heat of a violent submarine eruption, a new island lifts its rocky head above the sea near Boroslov Island, Alaska, which was thrown up by a similar eruption about 100 years ago. The infant island presents a superficial area of several acres and with Boroslov and other small islands which rose from submarine depths in 1882, forms points of the small triangle about seventy miles west of Unalaska.

News was brought to Unalaska by fishermen, who were unable to approach the island because the water surrounding it was still seething from heat, indicating that its upheaval was of recent occurrence. When observers attempted to approach closely they found the water so hot that they were compelled to keep away.

Several little volcanoes exist in the broken chain of land and geological formation of the later ages, largely cataecous and miocene. The region contains numerous dikes of plutonic rock and many boiling springs.

BLOW TO LATE DINERS

Authorities Prohibit Drinks at After Theater Suppers

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 9 .- After theater suppers in the restaurants of the so-called "theater district" must end at 1 o'clock in the morning or else be served without liquor, according to an order issued by Acting Police Commissioner Waldo, and which became effective yesterday. When the late diners in several allnight restaurants in Sixth avenue and upper Broadway had just about decided that they were very comfortable and noted that it was only 1 o'clock. each house of entertainment was entered by a policeman in civilian dress, who took a seat at a table which commanded the best view of the establishment.

Policeman Prompt on Scene His advent was not unexpected by the proprietor. Notification had been sent early in the afternoon that the policemen would be there promptly at the hour when the excise law says the sale of spirituous of fermented liquor must cease until 5 o'clock in the morning. The managers at once ordered the bars closed and those who did not wish to eat took their departure. It was said by one conversant with affairs at police headquarters that there would be no cessation of vigilance on the part of the police until the public was educated to appreciate the necessity of eating and drinking before 1 o'clock.

Catholic Bishop Puts Ban on Evening Marriages

Special to The Telegram. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 9.—Right Rev. Thomas J. Conaty, bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles, will strictly forbid evening marriages. By a circular just sent to the clergy the bishop calls attention to the increasing indifference to the diocesan regulations with regard to the sacrament of matrimony and instructs the priests to impress upon the people more complete obedience to the church regulations concerning it. He cites the decree of the second synod, which, in accordance with the council of Baltimore, makes mandatory the marriage of Catholics with the nuptial mass, and consequently forbids evening marriages, and that henceforth this decree shall be of strict enforcement, reserving for himself the right to judge of any reasonable cause excusing parties from compliance.

DRAUGHTSMEN WANTED

Good Positions Offered in Civil Serv-

The civil service commission is offering good positions for architectural draughtsmen at salaries ranging from $100 to $150 a month and announces an examination to be held in Fort Worth Aug. 29 and 30 for the purpose of securing eligibles to fill at least five vacancies in the office of the supervising architect in the treasury department. There is likewise a vacancy in the position of architectural draughtsman at the United States Military Academy at West Point, the salary there being $1,380 per annum. The bulletin announcing this examination states that there will probably be required a large number of architectural draughtsmen of all grades in the near future and that the chances, therefore. of competent men for appointment are good. Applicants must be 20 years of age or more and the examination will continue through two days of eight
