THE CHIEF IS "ON THE JOB"

IS THERE A REASON?

HERE are times when even the most good natured of men lose patience with facts which bark at their heels and are forced to administer a kick or two in order to prevent further annoyance.

The Telegram has an apology to make to its readers for referring in its columns to a journalistic incident. But after using what seemed to it the proper and dignified means for presenting its position to the public...

Thursday morning there appeared on the first page of the Fort Worth Record a bitterly scurrilous attack on The Telegram because of a message sent to Crystal Springs, Miss., relative to Senator Bailey's relations with his late father...

The Record, with a great amount of prating about journalistic virtue, proceeded to attack The Telegram for an act with which it had nothing to do, but prior to its publication the Record made not the slightest attempt to learn whether or not the message in question had been sent by this paper.

With a great deal of gusto, the Record displayed on its first page an unpleasant story about Senator Bailey, and then proceeded to deny it along with another scandal which it was also the first Fort Worth paper to publish.

When the Record's attention was called to the falsity and injustice of its attack on The Telegram it accorded space for a statement of the facts from the management of The Telegram news department—and that was all.

The writer of the attack on The Telegram evidently had neither the gentlemanly instincts nor moral courage to admit a gross wrong or to apologize for it.

The Record knows that had it made such an attack on a single Fort Worth citizen who had been imposed upon by having a message sent in his name, without knowledge or permission, it would have to answer to that citizen in a more serious way than by merely according space for a later publication of facts.

But more pertinent than anything else involved in the incident is the question, Where did the Record get its commission as a tribunal of last resort on newspaper ethics? Has it accorded to the opposition to Senator Bailey which has spread all over Texas the same space as it has given news dispatches from various parts of the country so palpably worded in favor of Senator Bailey that even a man who has to spell out the words one at a time could read between the lines?

And isn't there a reason? Since the Record has evidently tried to swerve The Telegram from its editorial discussion of the Bailey incident into a newspaper controversy, and thus draw away part of the fire, will it answer for the satisfaction of its readers who are entitled to the information, the following two questions:

How much stock, directly or indirectly, does Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey own in the Fort Worth Record? How much influence does he have in the columns of the Record thru friendship with the editorial management and how much "cement" was used in making that friendship binding?

WRECK CAUSED BY INDIAN GODS?

Special to The Telegram. LAWTON, Okla., Sept. 28.—The Comanche Indians attribute the cause of the recent Rock Island wreck on the Cimarron river to the anger of the gods who are seeking revenge for the death of Dick Ni-ne-co, who was fatally injured here about three weeks ago by a Rock Island train.

A sub-chief stated today that he had always observed that if an Indian came to his death or serious accident at the hands of any individual or corporation revenge would surely come sooner or later.

DRIVEN INSANE BY BURNS TWO MEN FIGHT UNTIL THEY DROP

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Covered with blazing oil, the flames licking their bodies, Dennis Coakley of Hoboken and Thomas DeMarest of East New York fought in the boiler room of the Munson liner Hobolia at pier No. 2 of the long dock in Erie basin until they fell unconscious and dying.

The men had entered the boiler to clean it. Each carried a gasoline lamp. They had been at work only a few minutes when Coakley's lamp exploded, scattering the burning oil over both men. Then DeMarest's lamp exploded, adding more fuel to the flames. The pain of his burns made Coakley a raving maniac. He attacked DeMarest instead of trying to escape from the boiler and barred the other man from getting out. The two screamed and fought until they became insensible.

Joseph Looney, a watchman, heard their cries and found them unconscious. Their clothing was burned almost off. Mrs. Marie Savere, a hotel-keeper near the pier, bandaged the men with oil-soaked cloths and they were taken to Long Island College hospital. The doctors said Coakley would die and that DeMarest had only a slight chance for life.

PLAN TO WAGE MORAL WAR

Russians Try New Method to Change Government

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Ivan Ivanovitch Norodny, head of the Russian liberty organization, who arrived here last Tuesday from Russia, explained yesterday what his reported secret mission was.

"I was sent here," he said, "by the Russian liberty party to represent 150,000,000 people in an appeal to the world for a petition to the czar asking for peace and a new form of government."

M. Norodny said his people looked to the United States for a larger part of the support in this new movement, which was suggested by his party, he said, by the czar's secretary.

BRYAN THEIR ALLY

United States Asked to Help in Great Educational Campaign Against Czar

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Nicholas Rivera, proprietor and editor of the El Diario de la Marina, the oldest paper in Cuba, said last night that he did not think anything of importance would be accomplished at the meeting of congress today in Havana. If the moderates attended they would be in the majority. They would appoint a man to follow Palma and the liberals would reject him.

No matter how they arranged matters, the country would not be settled until a permanent United States commissioner was appointed by President Roosevelt. The Cubans would like to see General Wood return to the island. The slight of the Stars and Stripes floating from one of the public government offices in Havana, Senior Rivero said, would serve to keep the turbulent spirits in check.

NO INSPECTION OF FOREIGN MEATS

Law Just Passed Applies to Home Markets

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The secretary of agriculture has just received from the attorney general the text of the important opinion rendered, the latter answering in the negative the question submitted to him as to whether or not the meat inspection law passed at the last session of congress applies to meat products imported into the United States from foreign countries.

Mr. Moody held that the provisions of the meat inspection amendments has reference entirely to domestic slaughtering and meat packing establishments, having been passed immediately in response to the petition of the President to congress, transmitting the Neill-Reynolds report of the conditions in the Chicago stock yards and packing houses and urging the passage of legislation providing adequate inspection of meat and meat foods in products entering into interstate commerce and under the supervision of the methods of preparing the same.

PLANS COMPLETE TO OUST STANDARD

Roosevelt Anxious for Battle to Begin

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Complete plans for a campaign against the Standard Oil Company have been drawn in the department of justice. These plans were on Attorney General Moody's desk when he returned from his vacation. He will take them up at once, and if he approves, as is expected he will, hostilities will be begun against the great oil monopoly as quickly as possible and pressed with relentless vigor until the standard court determines whether the Standard Oil Company can exist under the Sherman anti-trust law.

Whether civil or criminal proceedings or both will be instituted in the fight about to be opened is not decided. Criminal proceedings would lead to fine imprisonment, or both, while civil proceedings would aim to break up the monopoly through injunction. President Roosevelt is anxious for the test, and no pains nor expense will be spared.

TROOPS HELD FOR SERVICE

Preparations to Land Soldiers in Cuba Continue

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—There is to be no cessation of active preparations by the war and navy departments to land marines and troops in Cuba. This was made evident yesterday when orders were received from Washington by Captain William H. Reeder, acting commandant at the Brooklyn navy yard, to prepare the receiving ship Hancock to be used as a transport.

The Hancock, which was formerly the trans-Atlantic liner Arizona, was purchased by the government in the Spanish-American war.

Police Have No Way to Check the Influx

According to the police department, Fort Worth is just now the dumping ground for paupers from all parts of the United States. It is claimed that the indigent are arriving in this city on every train and anywhere from five to six calls for help are registered with Police Sergeant Newby and Mayor Harris every day. This condition of affairs embarrassing to the city officials in that they are only allowed $30 per month for such purposes. If all the calls for assistance were attended to the police say it would take $500 per month from the city treasury.

***** TREES UPROOTED *****

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 28.—Reports from Monticello, Miss., say considerable damage was done to pine forests near there, hundreds of trees being uprooted and trees fallen across the railroad tracks to such an extent as to practically suspend railroad traffic. Brief dispatches received here indicate that the storm appears to have demoralized a few thousand dollars' worth of property in every county and town.

***** MANY TOWNS BUFFER *****

Vicksburg reported damage to shipping, in addition to reports of cotton crop losses. Passengers on incoming trains tell of widespread damage to timber. Telegraph and telephone wires were uprooted and trees fallen across the road, who was run down by a train during the storm. Reports of the collapse of a frame hotel at McComb City, brought in by passengers on the Illinois Central, has not been confirmed.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND HART-MAGANN REVIVAL

EVANGELIST MAGANN.
 The Hart and Magann revival services being held at St. Paul's church are being largely attended and from indications the meeting will be the most interesting and successful ever held in Fort Worth. Each meeting shows an increase in the attendance over the previous gathering and it is predicted the church will be taxed to its capacity to care for the crowds when Hart and Magann open up on the popular sins of Fort Worth.

The meetings this week are being devoted mostly to the church folk and a powerful sermon was preached by Evangelist Hart Thursday evening.

The afternoon services are also being attended by a large number of people. Hart and Magann promise to give this city the greatest revival it has ever experienced. They will start the ball rolling furiously next week, when they turn loose on the sin, that in their eyes are ruining Fort Worth's worldly folk. It is understood that Evangelist Hart's talk on the evil of dancing is one of the most forceful sermons ever delivered from a pulpit, while Evangelist Magann's sermon on theater going and the like is equally as strong.

It is highly probable that when the two evangelists commence to preach on popular sins striving in this city it will be necessary to secure a larger building than St. Paul's in order to accommodate the crowds. This will be decided upon later.

The services held Thursday night were most successful. Many people were converted and the greatest interest was manifested.

Services will be held at 3:30 o'clock every afternoon and at 7:45 in the evening.

FIVE LUNACY CASES
 Negro Woman Believes Herself Owner of Freight Trains

There were five alleged lunacy cases tried in the county court Thursday afternoon and in three of them convictions were had.

One was a colored woman named Fette Bell. Her particular hallucination is that she is the owner of a freight train or of freight trains, and she wants to boss the job, and incidentally, sell out to someone who can pay the price. She is about 25 years of age and has been suffering from dementia for several months.

Another especially interesting case was that of Mrs. Olga DeWitte, formerly of Nebraska, aged 17 years, who is afflicted with an acute mania which may soon terminate fatally if relief is not obtained. She has been afflicted only five days or so and is now almost completely paralyzed.

Yet another case was that of G. E. Thell, a German, aged about 40 years, maker of shoe uppers and a man, some of those in the court room say, of seemingly bright mind. He was examined without an interpreter and but little if anything that he said was understood by those who heard the case as spectators. Jacob Tudor talked with him after the trial and says that he seems to be a competent workman, but that his German is one hard to comprehend, perhaps for some dialectic influence which may control his speech. It is probable that his case will be brought to the attention of Immigration Inspector Robb at Fort Worth. For if the man is in the condition found by the jury it is possibly a case of deportation, for he, as well as could be understood, claims to have been in this country only a month or so. He has some or all of the essential tools of his trade, shoe upper maker, and described the making of shoe uppers with intelligence, it is stated.

The two other cases resulted in acquittals.

BAILEY SHOULD BE RETIRED

The editor of the Brownwood Bulletin is one of the fair minded newspaper men of Texas, and one of the most successful of what is generally designated as the country press. In fact, there are few more successful newspaper men in Texas than Editor Mayes, of the Brownwood Bulletin. He has been a friend and admirer of Senator Bailey, and has been slow to impute wrongdoing to that gentleman. But Editor Mayes has read the statement just given to the people of Texas by Senator Bailey, and the following are his very timely conclusions:

Senator Bailey has spoken. What he said can be seen in any way construed as a denial of the charges being made against him. As was expected, he first sneered a little abuse on those who have seen proper to criticize him, stating that it is the same old crowd that has always opposed him with the addition of a little outside help. He says the charges are practically the same that were made against him six years ago. He says that they do not hope to prevent his election or to injure him in the state, but to hurt his influence in the United States senate. He admits that he was employed by H. Clay Pierce, D. R. Francis and others to represent their interests in the Tennessee railroad matter, in which Pierce stated that he turned over to Bailey the direction and management of the $13,000,000 worth of property, but says it was a legitimate employment that in no way conflicted with his duties as United States senator and that the Standard Oil Company owned and controlled the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which has been readmitted to do business in Texas through his instrumentality. He states that there has been no secret about his employment by Pierce and others in the Tennessee matter, publicity having been given it in St. Louis, Nashville, and Texas papers in 1905. He points to his record and his speeches in congress to show that he has always stood loyally with the people, but says that he has been pursued with a bitterness unparalleled in the history of the state.

To an unprejudiced mind, but one which would greatly prefer that facts are not as they have been shown, Senator Bailey's statement but emphasizes the fact that he should no longer represent Texas in the United States senate. There may be some disposition to persecute him on the part of a few political enemies, but the people, including the press in this state, have stood loyally by him and criticize him with sincere reluctance. They recognize his great ability, his leadership and influence. He has been the pride of the state. But when he becomes the associate of, and the attorney for H. Clay Pierce under the circumstances surrounding that employment, there are thousands of his loyal friends who cannot longer see their way clear to support him. The circumstances are these. The Waters-Pierce Oil Company had been denied permission to do business in Texas because of its connection with Standard Oil. Senator Bailey, D. R. Francis and H. Clay Pierce, head of the Waters-Pierce Company, met in St. Louis, Francis introducing Mr. Pierce to the Texas senator. Bailey and Pierce came to Texas together and together went to the state department at Austin, where Senator Bailey stated that he had met Pierce through his friend Francis, and that Francis had said that he did not believe that the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, which had been re-organized, then had any connection with Standard Oil and that Mr. Pierce was willing to swear to it. The Waters-Pierce Oil Company was re-admitted. Soon after Mr. Bailey became the owner of large ranch interests, which he explained he secured through a loan from his friend Francis of St. Louis. Later, after almost every citizen of Texas had become convinced that the Standard Oil Company and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company were practically the same, the control and management of $13,000,000 worth of property in Tennessee was turned over to Bailey by Pierce, Francis and others. While it may have been known in a way that Mr. Bailey had appeared as counsel for these parties in the Tennessee railroad matter, his control of such vast properties was not generally known until a few days ago when H. Clay Pierce, after being forced on the witness stand in a Missouri court, gave out the startling figures which set all Texas to thinking. Mr. Bailey has repeatedly denounced Standard Oil and all connected with it as deserving horizontal stripes. H. Clay Pierce is evidently very much connected with it, as everybody all along believed, and now Mr. Bailey shows up handling $13,000,000 worth of railroad property belonging to Pierce and his friend Francis and others.

Bailey may not have known of the connection of the Standard Oil and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company at the time he took the trip from St. Louis to Austin with Mr. Pierce to get a permit for the company to do business in Texas. He says he did not. He may not have known it when he took charge of the Pierce millions in Tennessee. He says he did not. But, if under the circumstances he did not suspect it, he has not that astuteness with which Texas has always credited their representative. The people of Texas do not object to Mr. Bailey practicing law when it does not conflict with his duties as their representative, but under the circumstances they do object to his management of the Pierce interests, for it reflects both on him and on the state. He may be ever so gullible and may have been entrapped in this way by the oil magnates, but if that be true, then a shrewd man should represent Texas in the senate. Certainly Bailey has admittedly been found in bad company in his legal transactions and Texas can hardly afford to endorse him by a re-election without at the same time stamping its approval on Mr. Pierce. Mr. Bailey is already pointing to the fact of his selection in the primaries and the action of the convention as a Texas endorsement of his public and private transactions which he believes should be a sufficient rebuke to those who would now dare to hold him up to public criticism.

SUGGESTING A NEEDED REFORM

Why is it necessary that the people of any state in the union should be represented in their state legislatures and congress by professional men who are in the pay of big trusts and corporations? That is a question that every thinking voter of the country should bring home to himself, and in the study of the proposition he will quickly arrive at the conclusion that such representation is the grossest kind of misrepresentation, and the only recourse left to the people is to scourge such offenders back to the ranks where they belong. The Austin Tribune says:

There is need for a law to bar out of congress and legislative halls the paid attorneys of big trusts and special interests. No man should be permitted to serve as a congressman or legislator who is in the employ of a corporation as an attorney.

Such a man is sure to care more for the "special interest" he represents than he cares for the interest of the people.

There was a clean cut example of this during the last Texas legislature.

Corporation attorneys and representatives of the trusts in the Texas legislature were busy day and night working not in the interests of the people but in the interest of their clients.

And they were very successful, too, defeating certain measures and changing others so they would not stand the tests of the higher courts of the land.

The paid attorney of a "special interest" so far as congress and state legislatures are concerned should be blacklisted and eternally prohibited from serving either in congress or state legislatures.

The Telegram believes conditions that have arisen in Texas are but the natural sequence of permitting the legal profession to so nearly monopolize the business of lawmaking. The struggling young attorney who can force himself to the front as something of a power politically is sure to win recognition at the hands of trusts and combinations and find lucrative employment at their hands so long as they are able to command the political situation.

Take the case of Bailey for instance. He defiantly announces to the people of this state his intention to practice law and represent whom he pleases in his law practice. And he has no intention of retiring from the United States senate. He proposes to use the distinction conferred upon him by the people of Texas as a means of his own aggrandizement.

No politician should be permitted to thus traffic in the honor of the people. No attorney in the employ of any corporation should be permitted to serve the people in any responsible position, but should be compelled to permanently choose the master he proposes to serve. There should be a state and national law cutting out all trust and corporation representatives from exercising the functions of a law maker, and until such laws are enacted such conditions as that now confronting the people of Texas will continue to be common.

RANGE CATTLE CONDITIONS

The close of September finds the range cattle industry of Texas in better condition generally than it has been for years. In fact, cattlemen who have been interviewed on the subject during the past few days say they cannot recall a year when conditions were generally more favorable than during all of the present season. There has been plenty of rain all the year over practically all of the Texas range country, and cattle have had nothing to do but gather in all the stuff that is coming out of the range country. The streams and water holes have carried plenty of water, and the result of this combination of abundant grass and water is reflected in the fattest cattle ever seen in that section since back in the days when it was given over wholly to the live stock industry.

The result of this happy state of affairs is that cattle will go into the approaching winter in the very pink of condition. According to the usual order of affairs, fair open weather may be reasonably expected up to the closing days of December, and the cattle now on the range can be expected to continue to accumulate fat until that time. After December and until the spring grass makes its appearance it is generally expected that stock will decline in flesh, but this winter there is no apparent reason why the falling off should be very appreciable. The September rains that have fallen over the range country insure an abundance of green grass until frost comes, and enough of the cured article to carry the stock through in good shape unless there is such an excess of rain as will cause it to rot upon the prairies.

Another very satisfactory feature of the situation is the very large crop of feedstuff that has been raised this year all over west Texas. Many of the big ranches that have heretofore made but limited efforts to produce the feed needed to carry stock through the winter have adopted the new policy of trying to produce all they will need in their business, and the ranchmen are actually surprised at the quantity of feed they have been able to produce at a minimum of expense.

Taking it altogether, the outlook is extremely encouraging for the range cattlemen, and there is abundant reason for the general feeling of buoyancy that is prevalent among them. There is considerable trading in progress and prices are beginning to show a stiffening tendency. Yearling steers below the quarantine line are selling for $12.50 around, and the producers feel that as long as they will bring that much money they are not engaged in a losing business. Above the line prices are higher, and there is some evidence of an increasing demand for stock cattle.

RECIPROCITY MEETING

The appointment of 150 delegates to the reciprocity convention at Kansas City, Oct. 9, by the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, induces a representative attendance from that great body at this very important conference. It is not expected that all the cattlemen named as delegates will grace the occasion with their presence, but it is certain that enough will go to insure Texas being properly represented.

This Kansas City meeting is an important one in the estimation of the cattle producing element of the country, from the fact that the object to be attained is the opening up of additional foreign markets through the medium of reciprocity treaties. It has been contended by the packers and other interests that much of the depression existing in live stock circles was due to the closing of foreign markets and inability to enter others on account of adverse tariff regulations.

The dominant idea now is to persuade congress to provide treaties upon a reciprocal basis that will permit American meat products to enter this proscribed territory, and the producer expects his reward to come in the form of better prices brought about through augmented demand. There is a regular organization maintained in the city of Chicago having for its object the attainment of these reciprocal tariff arrangements, and it is a strictly non-partisan combination so far as politics are concerned. Democrats and republicans are working hand in hand to accomplish the same object, and it is hoped the matter can be gotten in such shape that the next meeting of congress will be compelled to take some action in the premises.

There is considerable interest felt in Texas and throughout the southwest in the Kansas City meeting, and it is expected the leading cattlemen of the country will be in attendance.

William T. Jerome announces that he will stump the state of New York for the Republicans and against William R. Hearst, the Democratic nominee. From a man who so lately sought the Democratic nomination for himself, the action of Attorney Jerome is just a little bit peculiar. In a vengeful spirit for his own defeat, he would now seek to pull down the entire Democratic tabernacle in order to play even. The Democratic party in New York is to be congratulated upon what happened to Jerome.

W. A. Chatterton, of Fort Worth, writes The Telegram a suggestion that the people write for or against Senator Bailey, and send their votes to the paper. The idea is a good one, but the instructions embodied in the vote should go to some authority. Why not let every voter in the county and in other counties write their wishes in the matter to their respective members of the state legislature?

And William Randolph Hearst has been nominated by the Democrats as their candidate for governor of New York. Will the esteemed New York World still stick to its proposition that the Democratic nominee for governor of that state will be the next President of this union?

South and East Texas is beginning to line up for Horace Chilton for United States senator, and it seems to be a situation that only demands a leader. Surely, some friend of the late James S. Hogg will be found who is willing to lead the fight in the interest of the Texas masses.

It was just about as easy for Banker Stensland to land in the Illinois state penitentiary as in the cash box of the bank with which he was connected.

THE TEXAS PRESS

Of course you are all in favor of good sidewalks, but then that does not make half as much noise as if you built one in front of your own residence. Do not wait for the other fellow. Get busy and then he will be the one who is ashamed.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

The same remarks apply to Fort Worth. There has been considerable sidewalk building here during the year, but the coming of the winter season admonishes us that there remains much to be done in that direction. Let us have more sidewalks and better sidewalks in Fort Worth.

It is no sudden change with the Call, as it readers well know, that causes us to oppose Bailey's re-election to the United States senate. We did not vote for him in last primary election as the federal constitution, the supreme law of the land says that United States senators are to be elected by state legislatures, and Bailey railroaded his indorsement over the people of Texas and the Texas legislature should turn him down when it assembles.—Vernon Call.

The people of Texas were caught napping in the indorsement given Senator Bailey in the July primaries, but there is no reason why the Democracy of this state cannot undo the error that has been committed. The members of the legislature can still be instructed to defeat Bailey in his senatorial aspirations.

It is whispered openly that Hearst of New York is backing the fight against Bailey. If so, he has developed considerable strength in Texas since 1904.—Denton Herald.

Hearst has no more to do with the fight on Bailey in Texas than with the prevailing insurrection in Cuba. The people of this state are simply rising in their might and insisting that Bailey cannot represent them and the Waters-Pierce Oil Company at the same time.

The statesmen before the war, so we are told by a gentleman who knows, were very sure that a free negro and the white man could never live at peace in the same country. It seems that way, judging from the news from the land that Sherman made his triumphant march across. Another example is the fact that 95 per cent of the people mobbed in this country in a given number of years has been negro men, and the crime was criminal assault.—Bonham Herald.

The race problem is one that is going to cause this country a great deal of trouble in the future, unless the situation is controlled by conservative and cool heads.

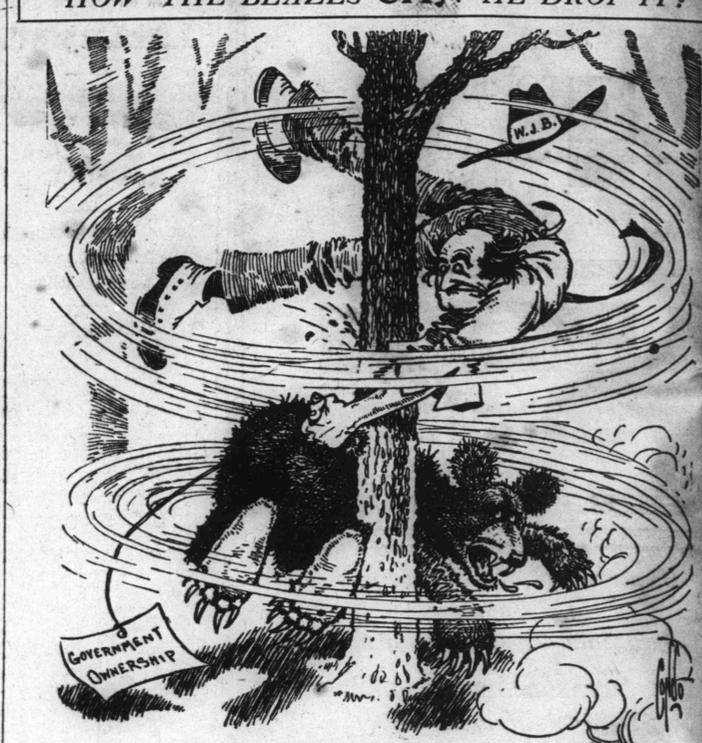

The call of Alabama and Georgia to their former citizens to come home, has an esteemed contemporary in the shape of the Texas cotton field. It is the call of the cotton field that is appealing to the 200,000 former Georgians and Alabamians who now reside in Texas.—Houston Post.

And there is more profit in the call of the Texas cotton fields than there is in the temptation from the old home. The Texas call means money in the pocket of the man who hearkens.

Governor Lanham was easily persuaded into sending rangers to Waco. If there was any need for this act the people of that city didn't know it, even if a negro was being tried for committing murder and robbery, to which he made a full confession. The citizens of Brownsville were less favored when drunken negroes were shooting up that town.—Corsicana Sun.

Not content with organizing the union farm laborers of Texas have even refused to milk by lantern light ten head of cattle on summer nights and mornings.—Detroit Free Press.

Ex-Senator Jones, who conducted Bryan's both campaigns for President, has urged the Commoner to drop the government-ownership-of-railroads issue.—News Item.

TEXAS PRESS AND SENATOR BAILEY

BAILEY AND THE PEOPLE

Judging from the actions of the people in many sections of the state, Joseph W. Bailey, who has so long represented Texas in the great body of law makers, is doomed to an involuntary retirement. His sudden wealth linked with the evidence of H. Clay Pierce and on the heels of that, the action of Attorney General Davidson and his assistants in filing suit to oust the Standard Oil, has caused many of the ardent admirers and staunch friends of the peerless junior senator to denounce him. Bailey has returned to Texas, however, and has announced that he will vindicate himself from the stump. Heretofore he has been silent on the subject, or rather has assumed that independent don't care attitude, until now he sees the seriousness of the situation. He has made his wealth, as he admits, by his power as a lawyer and not as a congressman, but that is not the question that is before the people. That is not the question that is causing the people of Texas to rise in their might against the man who has so long been the idol. Has his work been sincere and really for the people whom he has the honor to represent in congress? Was his dealing with the Waters-Pierce what it should have been and what the citizens of Texas, till a few days ago, thought? Should a man who is sent to Washington as the representative of the people turn his attention off duty, or on duty, to the accumulation of wealth? Should he not resign or step down from that position, when the money desire and craving becomes so great that the honor and the disease do not get together? Mr. Bailey, you have a task on your hands that you have never had before, and possibly never dreamed you would have. Your true and tried followers are doubting you. Your enemies are saying, "I told you so." Can you right yourself or must you go down in history as an "idol fallen."

Texas awaits your evidence—the people will judge.—Amarillo Panhandle.

SERVING TWO MASTERS

The old adage that "no man can serve two masters" has been busted all to flinders by United States Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey. The News has in the past called attention to the fact that Mr. Bailey was unduly familiar with the Standard Oil monopolists; that his solicitation in behalf of the Waters-Pierce Oil company being granted readmission to the state in 1900 was becoming a man holding the position of public trust he held; and that Mr. Bailey was receiving entirely too many fat fees as a private attorney for any public representative to receive.

The testimony of H. Clay Pierce in a suit for salary by a former employe, throws more light on Mr. Bailey's connection with this company. And Mr. Pierce's evidence in the investigation of his company in Missouri sheds still more light on the horizon.

Mr. Bailey's admirers either have to admit he was a knave or a fool, and like the old Texan prophesying on the weather, Mr. Bailey has been 'a' long time. If he has honestly been misled in the matter it is his duty to his constituents as an honest representative, under recent developments, to come to Texas and assist Attorney General Davidson just as faithfully in having the Waters-Pierce Oil company ousted from Texas as he worked in 1900 toward having this company reinstated in the state.

But in parenthesis we want to wager a Jersey calf against a share of stock in the Waters-Pierce Oil company that he doesn't do it.—Garland News.

REPRESENTING CORPORATE INTERESTS

No one questions the right of Joseph Weldon Bailey to practice law when not engaged with senatorial duties, but Mr. Bailey is retained by the state of Texas in the capacity of United States senator, and his right to represent interests adverse to the state is decidedly questionable.—Beaumont Journal.

UNREASONABLE

Not content with organizing the union farm laborers of Texas have even refused to milk by lantern light ten head of cattle on summer nights and mornings.—Detroit Free Press.

VERGET THAT BING

DREAMS

If the iceman should come to me some day, While weighing out a piece at my back door And, dropping it upon the porch, should say: "It was so cold last year and year before, The crop is long and we have cut the price"— If he should say just that and lay the ice On my back step and then drive on—bust bust! Such dreams as this are only silly gush.

Or if the butcher, wrapping up my steak, Should say: "You know the corn crop was so vast, And feed so cheap, we're able now to make A slight reduction in the price at last"— I say, if he should tell me that and take Two cents a pound from last week's steak, I wonder if the shock—but pshaw! why spare The time to build such castles in the air!

Or if the baker, doling out my bread, Should put a penny back into my hand And say: "The world will be more cheaply fed, Since there is a large wheat crop in the land"— I say, if he should voluntarily Return a single penny unto me, I wonder if I'd be—but, Hearst, be still! There is no possibility he will!

Or if my tailor, deftly sizing me For a new suit, should say: "You know that sheep Are multiplying fast and wool will be In cloth upon the market very cheap"— I say, if he should just say that and take Five dollars from the price—well, then I'd wail Right up and rub my sleepy eyes and laugh, To think of tailors giving me such chaff.

I know that these are merely dreams—that ice And meat and bread are going up—that crop Or weather will do naught but raise the price! There is no likelihood of any drop! But my employer tells me he will give Me higher wages—it costs so much to live— So now I do not need to skimp and scatch— My pipe is out! Has anyone a match? —J. W. Foley.

Among the forty in its ranks will be found the most talented African-American singers, dancers and comedians in the world. Sissieretta Jones, Black Patti, the light star of the troupe, in addition to being the most gifted singer of her race, enjoys the distinction of having sung before the largest audiences that ever assembled in Madison Square Garden, New York City, and the first colored singer honored by royal command to sing before the former Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII of England.

"McFadden's Row of Flats" this season are such well-known artists as Price, Dolly Theobald, Dickson, Eddis, James Purvis, the Boot-Black Quartet, Washer brothers, Alice Johnson, Frances Hanson and a bevy of chorus girls. Specialties and musical numbers are scattered thruout.

ROOM FOR TEXAS ADVERTISING

New York Says All the East Is Not Yet Covered

Richard Withers, a New York railroad man, whose interest in Texas calls him here about once in two years, is in the city and said to a Telegram reporter that he was both surprised and amazed at the evidences of development he saw wherever he had been in Texas. "Texas is bound to be the leading state in the union in every thing," he said. "People are flocking here from the north and east, and everything is in the boom. Texas is the best advertised state in the union today; but there are some sections where the advertising literature has not yet reached. I was told by the chief clerk in the advertising department of a big trunk line a few weeks ago that his road handles more Texas literature than of any other state. 'On the other hand I had a talk with S. G. Edwards, a big mill owner of Bridgeport, Conn., a short time ago, and he was telling me of the large number of factories at Bridgeport. 'It wouldn't be a bad idea for some of them to move to Texas,' I suggested. 'Texas,' he said, 'there are too many wild men in Texas.' 'When I told him that Texas and the people of Texas were so much civilized as he seemed surprised and I could hardly make him believe that there were double as many prohibition counties in Texas as there were counties in his state. When I asked him if he never got hold of any Texas advertising literature he said he never did. This suggested to me that it would not be a bad idea for the boards of trades, chambers of commerce and business men's clubs of Texas to send a missionary to Bridgeport with a lot of Texas gospel literature. It's a fine field to work in. 'Mr. Edwards, in the same conversation, told me that all the mills and factories at Bridgeport were running night and day, and even then were not able to catch up with orders, which he said was the best indication in the world of the general prosperity of the country. 'I believe if the Fort Worth Board of Trade would pay some attention to the Bridgeport, Conn., territory that good would result from it. Anyhow, it's worth a trial.'"

Do Your Meals Fit?

Do You Feel Snug and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patted your rotondity in glee and felt proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Or do you feel now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloaty feeling after eating, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong stomach. They actually digest your food for you. Besides they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested, it will give you strength, vim, energy and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all around your waist line and you'll feel good all over.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel happy after eating a good, hearty meal. Take a sample, or two after eating. You'll feel fine—then your meals will fit, no matter what or when you eat.

We want to send you a sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets free of charge, so you can test them yourself and be convinced. After you have tried them, you will be satisfied that you will go to the nearest drug store and get a 50c box.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 52 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

CONSUMPTION CURED

Mrs. Henke, known as the handsomest woman in Milwaukee, states that after physicians had failed to give her any permanent relief from that dread disease consumption, she tried Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and has been entirely cured.

Mrs. Henke thankfully writes: "For six years I have been ailing with lung trouble, which kept growing worse until my case became serious. I employed four different local physicians, giving each a fair trial, but with very little success. During this period I was troubled with dizziness, cold sweats, cold hands and cold feet, coughing, chills and hemorrhages, which clearly indicated consumption. My physicians suggested that I move to a different climate. I tried several widely advertised medicines, but with no good results, then I tried Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. After using one bottle my condition began to improve. I continued to use this remedy for two years and am now in excellent condition. I used to be so weak that I could hardly stand up. I am now able to do all my household work, including washing. This letter is given of my own free will and that it may, if desirable, be used publicly that other sufferers may learn of my wonderful cure. I am a lifelong resident of Milwaukee, and the mother of five children.—MRS. ANNA HENKE, Milwaukee, Wis., April 12, '06."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

If you wish to keep strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs; they poison the body and depress the heart while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is the only whiskey recognized as a medicine, and contains no fusel oil. This is a guarantee. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood severe tests for fifty years and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist or grocer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the one absolutely pure medicinal whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles; never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. DENVER ROAD IN SEARCH FOR MEN

Cannot Get Enough Laborers to Repair Tracks

The Denver has had much trouble in getting the men it absolutely needs for the extra work now being done in surfacing up the road, rebalancing and putting in new ties.

There are now at work about seven gangs and say, approximately, 200 men. Many of the number are Mexicans and, in fact, all of the force of the road has been able to get from El Paso, whence some of the extra men are drawn, are of that nationality. Others have been brought down from Colorado and they are mixed as to nationality. No negroes are obtainable at this time, for the reason that the cotton picking season is on and the darkeys can make more money at cotton picking than at railway extra work.

There is additionally one steel gang which is now working on the fair district. But then the road has been working all of the steel gang it could to advantage for two years or more and still has an extensive program to carry out ere the improvement of the line in that respect is completed. The steel gang at present, is near Claude, 308 miles from Fort Worth.

There have been many more men sent to the Denver by the labor agents in Pueblo, Denver and El Paso than the road has at work. But as the men get down to a warmer climate than that they come from, they drop off and the gang is generally sadly depleted in numbers before it gets to destination. One agent at Pueblo wrote that he had rounded up a big gang and they were willing to come south, for there had been some days of cold weather. About the time they should have started south the weather moderated and the men went out to work on the railways in that part of Colorado.

As soon as it gets cooler up that way there will be a drifting of the men to the south, and then, likely, the Denver can get all of the force it requires.

The directors have set aside an ample fund for the rebalancing of the road; there is good ballast to be had at Rhome and in abundance quantities; ties are being received, and the work of bringing the road up to standard is making some progress, but not as rapidly as the management of the road wishes, as it has the money now available to work with.

The Denver is over a hundred thousand ties behind in its orders for the current year, and fully twenty-five tons of heavy steel behind orders, placed some of them a year or more ago. With that material in hand, men to work it and all of the funds needed, there is no reason that in the struggle for bringing the road bed up to standard the Fort Worth and Denver City should not win out. In the meantime the road needs more extra men and even some of the section gangs could be strengthened without any detriment to the interests of the road.

TO PLAN CAMPAIGN

State Chairman Carden Sends Out Letters. State Chairman Carden of the democratic executive committee has sent out letters from his office in Dallas to all members, inviting suggestions on plans for the opening of the fall campaign. When Chairman Carden has heard from his correspondents he will decide on the place of meeting and the date and then issue his call. It is thought that the campaign will be opened within the next few weeks.

At the meeting of the committee final plans will be perfected for the prosecution of a good live campaign. A number of speakers will be asked to take the stump in the interest of the party and the nominees. Some opposition has been expressed concerning a few of the nominees and to overcome this will be in the mission of the stump orators.

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 23.—J. D. Talley, a well known promoter of the Panhandle country, spent several days here this week looking after some business matters. Mr. Talley has his headquarters at Canyon City and his particular mission here was to get the approval of a patent for a section of land upon which a new town is to be laid out sixteen miles south of Canyon City. The townsite has already been selected, and the new town is to be called Happy. Mr. Talley says there is a great influx of people now invading the Panhandle, and the most of them are homeseekers, and this has caused land values to go skyward. Another reason which has caused the country to be so suddenly developed is the construction by the Santa Fe of a line from Canyon City to Plainview, a distance of sixty miles.

Many Land Sales

Special to The Telegram.
CHILDRESS, Texas, Sept. 23.—Lands in this section of the Panhandle are rapidly changing hands at greatly enhanced valuations. Never before in the history of the great Panhandle country has there been such an influx of investors as is reported from every section of the country. New homes are being established, new farms opened up, and the sound of the hammer and the saw is being heard continually from one end of the country to the other.

New Mexico Tract Sold

Special to The Telegram.
DALHART, Texas, Sept. 23.—A. A. Ball of Dalhart has sold to the Wheatland Investment Company, also of Dalhart, 63,000 acres of land in New Mexico, near Tucumcari. This land, known as the Carba Springs grant, ## was owned by Buchanan, Jackson & Taylor, and the price paid was $139,000.

The Wheatland Investment Company purchased this land for a colonization project and expects to establish an office on the property and an automobile line from Tucumcari out to the land, which lies twelve miles from the railroad.

Money in Celery

Special to The Telegram.
HEREFORD, Texas, Sept. 23.—W. H. Raynor of this city is a man who is finding the practice of raising vegetables in the Panhandle a very profitable industry. He placed on the local market a few days ago 100 pounds of Chinese bull-nose sweet pepper, which was readily sold for 10 cents a pound to local dealers. While the price received was good, the thing that created great interest in those who examined the product was the size of the pods, some of which by actual measurement were 15x16 inches. Mr. Raynor says he has yet in his garden 100 pounds of this popular vegetable. In addition to his pepper crop, Mr. Raynor is now engaged in raising a splendid yield of celery, which is making a splendid yield from his small patch of only about one-fourteenth of an acre, he has 2,000 plants, which find ready demand on our local market for 10 cents each. At this rate an acre of dirt here in the Panhandle would produce $2,300 worth of celery.

New Bank for Clarendon

A charter has been applied for to conduct a bank under the state banking laws, the capitalization being placed at $25,000. The officers will be H. D. Ramsey, president; P. C. Stephens, vice president; Wesley Knopp, cashier. Negotiations are now under way for the purchase of a brick business house, falling in a wharf building will be erected at once. Efforts will be made to have the bank in operation within the next sixty days.

SWITCHMEN TO ASK MORE PAY

Presentation of Demand to the Railroads Anticipated

There is unrest among the railway men of the country as is indicated by the fact that the switchmen are presenting a demand for better wages and working conditions. A wave of agitation for better wages and working conditions is spreading among railroad employees of the great freight and passenger carrying systems throughout the middle and western states. The far-reaching strike is being brought to a focus in Chicago, where a committee of representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, and the Union of North America yesterday presented a formal demand for higher wages and an eight-hour work day. Other signs of unrest in the transportation industry came today. A call was issued for an urgent meeting of switch tenders of all roads entering Chicago, to be held Friday night. Efforts to settle a strike of machinists, blacksmiths and boiler-makers of the Washab road were not successful, and the strike of boiler-makers in the big shops of the Great Western in Iowa continued.

CITY SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE

Porto Ricans Are Panic Stricken by Shocks

By Associated Press.
SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 23.—The city of San Juan experienced a series of heavy earthquake shocks today beginning at 10:11 a. m., increasing in intensity and lasting thirty seconds. The terror stricken occupants of shaking buildings fled to the streets. Even government buildings were deserted, but no damage has been reported. The excitement among the people is intense.

Kicked on Head, Dies

Special to The Telegram.
PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.—While carrying the ball over for a touchdown in practice of football at Lawrenceville, John P. Kennedy, captain and right half back of the Lawrenceville team, was kicked in the head and walked off the field apparently unhurt, but died an hour later.

HOW RATE BILL IS INTERPRETED

Findings of Stubbs Committee Are Announced

After an examination extending over two months, the Stubbs committee has reached certain conclusions as to the Interstate Commerce or new rate law, some of which are of interest to the people of Texas and are therefore quoted. Among other things the committee agrees on the following:

Free transportation cannot be given to land or immigration agents, unless they are employees in such service as the carriers could legally give them as a pass of gratuity.

There is no authority in law for making lower rates to land seekers and settlers than for other travelers. This interpretation, it is understood, will abolish the homeseekers' excursions.

Special reduced rates may be made for federal and state troops and officers and employees of the United States geological survey and reclamation service in the future.

The words of the law excepting "inmates of hospitals and charitable and eleemosynary institutions, and persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work" from the free pass prohibition are held not to apply to doctors, nurses and other employees. Nuns, sisters of charity, missionaries, evangelists, National or state officers of religious organizations, teachers and pupils in Indian schools, officers of the Salvation Army and Volunteers of America, it is held, may be given free transportation.

Special rates for theatrical companies, baseball clubs, etc., are held to be discriminatory. "They should be taken care of under the party rate rules," says the report. Special rates for army and navy officers and their families are held unlawful for the same reason.

Regarding the interchange of transportation by common carriers for the use of officers and employees and their families, the committee decides such interchange may be made with sleeping car and express and steamship companies, but not with telegraph and telephone companies.

It is held that free transportation may not be issued to members of railroad employees' unions who are not in the employ of a railroad company.

The law committee has advised that transportation cannot be issued in payment for advertising. It is generally accepted, however, that carriers may carry an open account with publishers and that publishers may carry an open account with carriers for advertising, and that the account can be balanced periodically. The balance, whatever it may be, must be paid in cash. The transaction must be devoid of previous agreement that the service done by either party for the other is to be paid for in any other way than by cash.

TO BUILD TO LAWTON

Work From Wichita Falls Expected Within Sixty Days

J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls one of the promoters, is the authority for saying that the Wichita Falls and Northeastern railway will be under construction inside of sixty days, and that the work will be pushed to a connection with the Rock Island, in all probability, and thus a direct line to Lawton obtained. There are about twenty miles of the line to be built, and the line will extend, when built, from Wichita Falls to the Red river. It is a line which has long been desired by the Wichita Falls people and will afford a much more direct line north than either of the other two lines of railways which the town has. There is the Fort Worth and Denver from Fort Worth to Texline, which ends its first division at Wichita Falls, and the Katy, which reaches the Falls by the extension from Gainesville. The new line will give a direct short line connection with the great Rock Island system and thus with all of the railways of the country. Many of the people from the north of the state, who use Wichita Falls as a starting point, come to Fort Worth before starting north, or east, but with the building of the Wichita Falls and Northeastern and the direct connection with the Rock Island, the need for that will be obviated.

BUILDS OWN COACHES

Texas and Pacific at Work on Six New Cars

The Texas and Pacific is now building at the Marshall shops six new passenger coaches of the seventy-foot class and like others recently turned out of the Marshall shops, except that the journals are 5x9 instead of 4x8, as in others, and they are also heavier in other ways and, in that respect, more substantial. As soon as this order is finished other coaches will be built. The road saves money by building its own coaches, for the cost of the 6,000 each, while similar coaches, built by regular car building companies would cost $8,000 or more each.

CLEBURNE CONNECTIONS

T. and B. Valley Expect to Use Y. M. C. A. Switch

It is determined that the Trinity and Brazos Valley will connect with the Santa Fe in Cleburne at the old Y. M. C. A. switch, and one of the advantages of that is that the Brazos Valley can connect with the Santa Fe and do its own switching without interfering with the Santa Fe yard work. Additionally, if it is the desire of the Brazos Valley to build on to Fort Worth, as it is, it can get out of Cleburne without any difficulty.

SAVING IN PASSES

Pennsylvania Finds Hepburn Bill a Money Maker

The Pennsylvania system has found that the abolition of passes already effected has increased the earnings of that system's passenger department by over $4,000,000, and the increase will be yet greater when the effect of the Hepburn rate bill passes abolition is felt. Part of the increase is due to more travel, but a large part of it is greater when the cost of the passes. It is the belief of the passenger department that the reduction of fares to 25c per mile on ordinary tickets and 3c per mile on mileage books will still further increase the travel and hence the earnings.

Synopsis of Previous Installments

John Glenarm, a roving young engineer, is willed an estate near Annandale, Ind., by his grandfather, on condition that he live there a year, else it will revert to Marian Devereux of New York, niece of the elder Glenarm's friend, Young Glenarm, returning to New York from Africa, is informed of the terms of his grandfather's will by Pickering, a lawyer, his former schoolmate, whom he greatly dislikes.

He accepts the terms of his grandfather's will and, starting for Indiana, accidentally meets his chum Laurence Donovan. The two dine at Sherry's, and see there Pickering, accompanied by a young woman who impresses Glenarm.

While Glenarm is seated in his grandfather's house, the first evening of his arrival, a bullet whizzes by his head and flattens itself against the wall.

He accepts the terms of his grandfather's will and goes to Indiana. On the night of his first stay he is shot at while seated by the fireplace, but fails to discover his mysterious assailant. Next morning he takes a walk to the nearby village and returning sees a fight between his lone servant, Bates, and Morgan, a gladiator.

Twice, returning to the house, Glenarm hears voices and once while walking in the woods at night he comes across Morgan, who is firing at the wall of his grandfather's estate with a hammer. After a parley, Morgan flings his hammer at Glenarm and the latter fires his revolver, but both miss. Glenarm becomes convinced that Morgan and Bates are rogues in league and that it was Morgan who fired at him through the window the first night of his stay at his grandfather's house.

This belief is further strengthened when he, after a tour of his grandfather's house late at night, comes across Morgan and the two have a fierce revolver battle. Morgan is wounded and Glenarm learns next day, through Rev. Paul Stoddard, chaplain of St. Agatha's school nearby, that Morgan wishes word of his condition sent to Pickering.

Adjuncting Glenarm's place is a fashionable school, conducted by Sister Theresa, of whom Marian Devereux is a niece. At various times passing through the woods and about the place Glenarm falls in with Olivia Armstrong, a mischievous school girl, who is finally expelled from the school for her pranks. Glenarm is at the station the day he leaves and confuses her, unconsciously, with Marian Devereux. The latter, carrying out the part of Olivia, challenges Glenarm to find her and visit her. Glenarm learns from the chaplain the identity of Marian Devereux, that she has gone to Cincinnati to visit at the Armstrongs' home, and after going to his room and pleading illness to his servants, steps out of the window, catches a train for Cincinnati and finds Miss Devereux at the Armstrongs' home.

Pickering that I throw myself upon your mercy. I have no other home than this shell over my head, and I beg to be allowed to remain until at least—the bluebirds come. I hope it will not embarrass you to deliver the message. "I quite sympathize with your reluctance to deliver it yourself," she said. "Is this all you came to say?" "I came to tell you that you could have the house and everything in its hideous walls," I snapped; "to tell you that my chivalry is enough for some questions and that I don't intend to fight a woman. I had accepted your own renunciation of the legacy in good part, but now, please believe me, I should be your debtor. I'll yield possession to you whenever you ask it—but never to Arthur Pickering! As against him and his treasure hunters and assassins I will hold out for a dozen years!" "Nobly spoken, Mr. Glenarm! Yours is really an admirable, though somewhat complex character."

"My character is my own, whatever it is," I blurted. "I shouldn't call that a debatable proposition," she replied, and I was angry to find how the mirth I had loved in her could suddenly become hateful. She half turned away so that I might not see her face. The thought that she could condemn me as ungrateful in any way more me with jealous rage. "Mr. Glenarm, you are what I have heard called a quitter, defined in common American as one who quits! Your blustering here this afternoon can hardly conceal the fact of your failure—your inability to keep a promise, I had hoped you would really be of some help to Sister Theresa; you quite deceived her—she told me as she left today that she thought you would be safe in your hands. But of course that is all a matter of past history now."

"Her tone, changing from cold indifference to the most severe disdain, stung me into self pity for my stupidity in her eyes. My heart was not against her, but against Pickering, who had, I persuaded myself, always blocked my path. She went on. "You really amuse me exceedingly. Mr. Pickering is decidedly more than a match for you, Mr. Glenarm—even in humor." She left me so quickly, so softly, that I stood staring like a fool at the spot where she had been, and then I went gloomily back to Glenarm House, angry, ashamed and crestfallen. While I was waiting for dinner I made a clean breast of my acquaintance with her to Larry, omitting nothing—rejoicing even to point my own conduct as black as possible. "You may remember her," I concluded; "she was the girl we saw at the house of a former sister of mine. She was with Pickering, and you noticed her—spoke of her, as she went out."

"That little girl who seemed so bored, or tired? Bless me! Why her eyes haunted me for days. Lord, man, do you remember her?" "A look of utter scorn came into his face, and he eyed me contemptuously. "Of course I mean it!" I thundered at him. He took the pipe from his mouth, pressed the tobacco viciously into the bowl, and swore steadily in Gaelic until I was ready to choke him. "Stop!" I bawled. "Do you think that's helping me? And to have you curse in your own grand old Irish dialect! I wanted a little Anglo-Saxon sympathy, you fool! I didn't mean for you to invoke your infamous gods against the girl!" "Don't be violent, lad. Violence is reprehensible," he admonished, with a malicious, wicked smile. "What I was trying to inculcate was rather the fact, borne in upon me three years of acquaintance, that she was not my lad, to be bold—a good deal of a damned fool."

"The trilling of his r's was like the whining rise of a block of wood. "Dinner is served," announced Bates, and Larry led the way, mockingly chanting an Irish love song. (To Be Continued.)

TRAMP ARMY ARRIVING Advance Guard of Hoboes in from the Police are having all kinds of trouble with tramps who are coming into the city by the dozens. The officers whose beats take them to the railroad yards declare that every freight train coming in from the north is bringing any where from two to four hoboes. As fast as the shiftless gang and they are informed that city law is not for them, they are loaded aboard outgoing trains. It is predicted by old officers on the force that the annual influx of tramps into Fort Worth this fall and winter will be exceptionally heavy by reason of the almanac saying that the winter will be a cold one, and that the cold weather and always makes for the land of warmth and sunshine when the first frost falls in the east. Detectives and police are ordered to camp on the trail of every suspicious looking man and to see that he stays in town longer than four or five hours. Imagination Mrs. Boring—Imagination! S.S.S. KILLS THE GERMS OF SCROFULA The laws of nature and heredity are fixed and invariable. Parents who are related by the ties of blood, or who have a consumptive tendency, or family blood taint, are sure to transmit it to their children in the form of Scrofula. Swollen glands, brittle bones, weak eyes, hip disease, pale, waxy complexions, emaciated bodies, running sores and ulcers, and general weak constitutions are the principal ways in which the disease is manifested. Those who have inherited this blighting trouble may succeed in holding it in check during young, vigorous life; but after a spell of sickness, or when the system has begun to weaken and lose its natural vitality, the ravages of the disease will become manifest and sometimes run into Consumption. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and forces out the scrofulous deposits, the blood by removing all impurities and supplying this vital fluid with rich, health-sustaining qualities. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine and is especially adapted to systems which have been weakened and poorly nourished by scrofulous blood. Literature on Scrofula and medical advice free.
