

UNION IN JACKEN CITY

From Jamaican Capital Still Conflicting

TRIAL OF BODIES

Hundred and Ten Victims of the Earthquake Already Buried

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Reports of the damage done in Kingston, Jamaica, by earthquake and fire and as to the loss of life and the number of injured were of a conflicting character today.

It is probably due to the confusion in the stricken city, such as always ensues after a great disaster. Newspapers and others who have arrived at the telegraph station connecting with Holland Bay have different reports of the catastrophe and of the loss of life. Statements as to the latter must, of necessity, be largely conjectured until a search of the ruins has been made and this must take some time.

Estimates of the number of dead range from 100 to 1,000, while the number of injured may run into several thousands. The report from St. Thomas indicates that 90,000 were injured in its case an exaggeration, as the population of Kingston did not greatly exceed that of the latter city.

According to the latest advices the city was not destroyed, but nearly every building in the place sustained damage. Practically the entire business section, however, was ruined by the quakes or by fire.

When the first great shock came Monday afternoon many buildings all over the town collapsed, burying hundreds of persons in the debris. Of these some were killed, but the greatest number were injured and these latter rescued. The first shock was followed by lighter tremors and then the started in the ruins, along the water front. The flames spread rapidly and there was nothing with which to fight the flames. A strong wind was blowing and this helped to spread the fire.

The fire raged until an early hour Tuesday morning, when luckily the wind changed and the fire having nothing further to feed on burned itself out. All the buildings along Duke, West Royal, King and East streets were wiped out by the flames. The advices received here indicate that order was soon restored in the city and to police duty and they were quickly reformed.

The rescue work was undertaken by the directors of the country, the municipal authorities. The general hospital, which was not seriously damaged by the earthquake, was soon filled with hundreds of the injured. There were several temporary hospitals. When these places were filled, others of the injured were taken out to boats in the harbor.

Premonition of the Disaster.—The people had a premonition of the coming disaster in the shape of a violent storm. Their fears were many and many rushed from their homes. This undoubtedly saved many lives, as the people were still in the streets when the earthquake came.

It is especially true of the whites and accounts for the small loss of life among them. The loss of life was heavy in the poorer sections of the city, so that most of the victims were negroes.

Besides Sir James Ferguson the two Captains Constantine Young of the Royal Mail steamship service. Other whites killed include Major Harms, Dr. Gibbs Varley, Dr. Menier, Dr. G. W. H. Varley, J. W. M. Bradley and children of a family named Livings.

Several others are reported to have been believed to be dead. The great extent of the damage was due to the fact that the people feared a volcanic eruption. Medical supplies were in great need at present and there was a dearth of doctors. Volunteer help is plentiful.

It is stated that there is no immediate danger of a serious food famine. Fruit is plentiful and surrounding ing towns have already begun to send in food.

Burial of Victims

The work of burying the dead was begun immediately, a necessary proceeding in a tropical country. Many bodies have been buried without identification. Scores of bodies are still in the ruins and from a sanitary point of view this causes alarm. Efforts to recover the bodies are going on all the time.

While there is necessarily great confusion, the panic itself is over. The city is practically under martial law.

A late dispatch received here today states that 210 bodies have already been buried. It also reports the destruction of the insane asylum and says hundreds of lunatics escaped and are roaming at large.

Thousands of homeless people, this dispatch says, are sleeping in the streets and parks, their principal food being bananas. If rain should fall the suffering would be great.

The damage outside of Kingston is reported as not being great. Trains are running to Litchfield. Port Antonio is reported little damaged, and Spanish Town the same.

Mother Earth Is Very Nervous

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—That there is a general state of unrest in the earth, which the Jamaica quakes was only one instance, is the belief of Professor Belar, the famous seismologist and astronomer at the Leibniz observatory at Göttingen. He registers the Jamaica disturbance, but he gives other proofs of terrestrial phenomena in the shape of shocks elsewhere, hailstorms and rock falls.

ANXIETY FELT AT COLONIAL OFFICE

No Further Details of Disaster Furnished

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—Noon—Much surprise and anxiety are felt at the colonial office at the absence of any further news from the governor of Jamaica. Urgent dispatches calling on him to report the latest details were still unanswered this morning. The only message from Governor Swettenham in the one forwarded apparently on Monday, after the quakes, had been complete silence, indicating the interruption of official news channels and increasing apprehensions regarding the destructive effect of the catastrophe.

The colonial office today was again besieged by anxious relatives including those of Sir James Ferguson, who are still without positive official confirmation of the death of the former cabinet minister, altho official advices leave no doubt that he was among the victims. During the early hours of the morning the West Indian and Panama Cable Company received a dispatch from its superintendent at St. Thomas announcing that a house had been started in the unaffected portions of the island of Jamaica.

The West Indian committee this afternoon issued a cablegram announcing the safety of Alfred Austin, whose fate had been in doubt. The advices of the committee show the increasing extent of the damage done by the earthquake in Jamaica and at the request of the committee the colonial office has taken the initiative in inaugurating a relief fund for the relief of the sufferers.

No Other Town Damaged

HOLLAND BAY, Jan. 17.—Advices received from various parts of the island show that Kingston was the only place damaged by the earthquake. All other towns in Jamaica are in good condition. No further earthquake shocks have been felt in Jamaica.

WORSE AND WORSE

At Least One Thousand Lives Lost and Two Thousand People Injured

Special to The Telegram.

KINGSTON (Via Holland Bay), Jan. 17.—The English and Americans have not all escaped death or injury in the disaster, as first reported. The first systematic search, started today, brought to light a number of bodies of white persons buried in the collapsed buildings. More are certain to be found. Hence, the number of casualties is too small. It is certain that at least one thousand lost their lives and twice that many were injured.

HOUSE NOW HAS BAILEY PAPERS

Evidence Submitted by Attorney General

MANY SPEECHES MADE

Balloting for Senator to Begin Tuesday and Indications That Bailey Men Will Carry it by Storm

Special to The Telegram.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 17.—The presentation of the evidence of the attorney general's department in the Waters-Pierce suit in the house of representatives yesterday afternoon seemed to daze the members for the time being and they did not know how to proceed. The papers and evidence is now before the house of representatives and action is expected upon them today. The debate over the Duncan resolution still goes on.

Two able members of the legislature were before the house yesterday, and they made arguments in favor and against the Duncan resolution. Representative McGrew is not an eloquent speaker, but he is not ineffective nevertheless. He is a scrapper and his retorts to questions put to him by the opposition denoted that he has a sharp tongue. Lawyers say that he made a most effective legal argument and he helped the investigation cause.

The pretenses of the legislative committee have been dragged to the floor of the house yesterday. Bailey and one of his loyal supporters, deserves the lasting friendship of Mr. Tanager. Mr. Bailey's speech last evening was full of wit and humor. He eulogized the junior senator in the highest terms. He told of his record in congress and the senate and defied anyone to show where he had been faithful to the democratic principles.

Speech-making at the present time only serves the purpose of delaying matters and delays just now are serious to the friends of the Duncan resolution. Next Tuesday, according to the Federal statutes, the legislature must begin the vote for United States senator. The final rally of the Baileytes will take place next Tuesday evening. There will be an effort made, it is believed, to carry the election of a United States senator by storm. It is hinted that Bailey will deliver a presidential address to the house of representatives and make a speech to arouse the legislators. If he does there will be some pointed questions asked him and the outlook is that before the session of the legislature is over he will be some lively times in the Thirtieth legislature.

The report was circulated in Austin last night that Gruet's expenses in Texas had been paid by Attorney General Davidson. A telegram reporter called at the office of Attorney General Davidson and asked for an explanation of this statement. He met Assistant Attorney General Lightfoot and Hawkins. Mr. Lightfoot readily stated that Gruet's expenses had been paid. He further stated that the expense account was on file in the comptroller's office and the public had access to it. "We are not afraid of publicity," he said. "The expenses of Mr. Gruet as a witness for the state were paid. He came to Texas several times as a witness and his expenses were paid. They were approved not only by the attorney general, but also by Governor Lanham."

Mr. Lightfoot was asked regarding his assistant to the question propounded to him in the house yesterday. He replied: "I asked the question before a second time to be sure that I understood it. I replied that we had not paid a cent for the documents. We have not paid Mr. Gruet a cent for the papers in our possession. His expenses as a witness are on file in the comptroller's office and all who wish may find exactly what they are."

The telegram correspondent asked for photographic copies of the original documents and he replied that he had not. He said that the attorney general's department refused to give them out. It is evidently the intention of the attorney general to avoid any act that may be construed as an effort to strike at United States Senator Bailey in his present difficulty.

THIRD SOUTHERN COTTON MEETING

Thousands of Planters Meet in Birmingham, Ala.

HISTORY OF MOVEMENT

Association Was Organized But Two Years Ago, Yet It Has Wide Field of Influence

Special to The Telegram.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 17.—Thousands of cotton planters, representing every state in the south, are gathered today in the new auditorium for the third annual convention of the Southern Cotton Association. The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock and addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor George F. Ward on behalf of the city and W. H. Seymour of Montgomery for the Alabama division of the association. President Johnson of the Georgia division delivered a response. The feature of the session was the annual address of Harvie Jordan of Atlanta, president of the Southern Cotton Association, which was frequently applauded. He congratulated the members of the association for their hearty support of the movement inaugurated at New Orleans two years ago and explained his charges of fraudulent practices made against the New York cotton exchange.

The afternoon session will begin at 2:30 o'clock, and among the speakers will be W. L. Foster of Shreveport, La., on "The Average Cost of Producing a Pound of American Cotton"; C. M. Moore of Charlotte, N. C., on "How to Secure Systematic Organization of Cotton Growers"; and R. R. Dancy of Houston, Texas, on "The Relation of American Cotton to the Civilized World."

Tonight's session will be devoted to a discussion of marketing and financing the American cotton crop by the growers, led by L. E. Irvin of Stillwater, Okla. This will be one of the most important subjects to come before the meeting and will likely provoke a spirited debate. The holding company plan is apparently highly popular among the delegates and officials and the convention will probably be asked to endorse such a project.

Address by Hoke Smith

The discussion will be continued tomorrow morning, when Hoke Smith of Georgia will deliver an address on "Practical Means of Making Live Cotton Bring to the Farmer a Just Price." F. H. Hyatt of Columbia, S. C., will also deliver an address on "The Cotton Crop and the Merchants of Meridian, Miss." The afternoon session will be devoted to a discussion of the American cotton crop by the growers, led by L. E. Irvin of Stillwater, Okla. This will be one of the most important subjects to come before the meeting and will likely provoke a spirited debate. The holding company plan is apparently highly popular among the delegates and officials and the convention will probably be asked to endorse such a project.

DEATH WATCH OVER CAMPOS

Ready for Second Legal Hanging in Karnes County

A MEXICAN TO DIE

Convicted Man Killed Girl Who Jilted Him, and Also Murdered Her Sister

Special to The Telegram.

KARNES CITY, Texas, Jan. 17.—The death watch has been placed over Ramon Campos, a Mexican, who was sentenced at the last term of court at Karnes City, Karnes county, to be hanged in that city on Jan. 18, 1907. The crime for which Campos was convicted was very atrocious. When arrested he confessed to the details of the crime and stated that he neither expected or desired mercy.

Just previous to the tragedy of which he was convicted Campos had divorced his wife with the hope of marrying Juana McHoney, a Mexican woman who lived not far from Karnes City. He claims that after he secured his divorce Juana changed her mind and refused to marry him.

Story of the Killing

On the morning of March 26, 1906 Campos met Juana, her sister, aged 20 years, and their little brother, as they were driving across the country in a buggy. He was walking and asked him to ride with them. He got in the back of the buggy and after going a short distance began to importune Juana to marry him. She refused. Enraged at this, Campos drew a razor from his pocket and cut the girl's throat. When the younger woman grasped it she started to run away. He fired at her, the bullet having effect in her head and causing instant death. He also fired several shots at the boy. He was buggy bus without effect.

Murderer Is Unrepentant

In the very shadow of the gallows, Campos says he is glad he killed the woman who jilted him, but expresses sorrow that he killed her sister. This will be the second legal execution to take place in Karnes county, a Mexican having been hanged fourteen years ago for attempted train robbery.

Another Art Treasure Comes to United States

PARIS, Jan. 17.—Another art treasure has been acquired for America in spite of the dictum of the Kaiser. Mr. Felix Iman, a wealthy art collector of Philadelphia, has just bought three decorative panels by Albrecht Dürer representing spring, summer and winter, which formed part of a series of four, the fourth of which is in the possession of King of the Belgians. Some time ago the Kaiser declared that if he could help it, no more art treasures of Europe would go to the United States and he exerted himself for all he is worth to accomplish the carrying out of his desire in the matter. Thru Mr. Bode, the director of royal Prussian museums he has tried to enlist the sympathies of all European directors and administrators of art societies and museums on his project, and has, it is said, formed an alliance with France, Italy, Belgium and Holland to this effect.

AN OLD ROMAN UNLOADS BAILEY

There is something pathetic about the attitude of former Congressman Cockrell of Abilene in the Bailey matter. Judge Cockrell is a brother of Senator Cockrell of Missouri...

"From this it appeared that not only were there evidences of his guilt actually in existence, but what was a more convincing circumstance, certain evidence and facts within his peculiar knowledge seemed to have been suppressed for years, and I have nowhere seen in this controversy where Senator Bailey and his friends have cleared him of the charge that he has not acted fairly and openly with his people in this matter...

"The situation seems to me most appalling. For Senator Bailey to force the democratic party to accept him with such charges against him without a full and thorough investigation would be the greatest crime that any man could commit against his party...

to compel men to support him under such circumstances, and the further fact that he assumes a willingness to undertake it, shows to my mind that he is the most dangerous man in public life."

No doubt it caused Judge Cockrell many pangs to give expression to the above honest convictions, for he loved Joe Bailey with a love that almost defied him. He thought the Junior Texas senator was the very acme of political purity and greatness...

WILL REDUCE TERMINAL CHARGES

It seems to be a foregone conclusion even among railway officials that the interstate commerce commission will reaffirm its former ruling that the switching charges of $2 per car on all live stock received in Chicago must be reduced to $1...

The railways have made a long and determined fight against the reduction of these famous Chicago terminal charges, for the very simple reason that millions of dollars are at stake. The fight begun by the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas back long years ago during the administration of President A. P. Bush...

There have been repeated overtures from the railways to compromise the matter by reducing the charges to $1, provided the live stock interests would consent to wipe out all things and start anew with a perfectly clean slate...

REVOLUTIONS AND MEXICO

The Fort Worth Telegram says that the action of the federal authorities in releasing the alleged Mexican revolutionists that were in jail here and at San Antonio has given an impetus to the revolutionary spirit on the Rio Grande...

"Texas is deeply interested in the Mexican political situation for several good and sufficient reasons. Among these may be mentioned the fact that Mexico is a country separated from Texas only by the meanderings of the Rio Grande, and thousands of Texans have made investments there and are making their homes in that country...

"This is but a mild intimation of facts with reference to what seems to be the shaping up of events along the Rio Grande. If Porfirio Diaz were to die or relinquish his grip on the government tomorrow, there would be some rapid developments all along the line. The various juntas would become exceedingly active, and revolutionary leaders would spring up as if by magic all over the sister republic...

"And the decision at San Antonio is that the men under arrest were engaged in an actual revolution, and that being a political offense, is not extraditable. The men were immediately rearrested on other charges, but the fact remains that Mexico was unable to establish a case against these men that would warrant this government in turning them over to the eager hands stretched from the other side of the Rio Grande...

"And yet we who live down by the Rio Grande can see no signs and hear no noise of the alleged activity in the 'revolution business.' There are about fifteen hundred or two thousand Mexican men in El Paso, and 75 per cent of them would tomorrow arraign themselves on the side of the Mexican government should a revolution break out on the border. The Mexican people, in and out of that republic, who are making a good living and are able to buy guns and ammunition are satisfied with the Diaz government. Those dissatisfied with it are not able to buy ammunition enough for a week's campaign. And the Mexican government is not a weakling to be conquered by a couple of hundred half-bred poor devils who are not able to buy a week's rations...

"And we wish to say to our Fort Worth contemporary that the Americans who have money invested in Mexico do not wish to see any revolution or any change in the present administration of the southern republic. Should Mexico be so unfortunate as to lose President Diaz there are other Mexican statesmen thoroughly capable of taking up his work and keeping that country marching steadily onward in the front column of progress. Mexico has outgrown the revolutionary stage."

THE TEXAS PRESS

The building in which The Fort Worth Telegram was located was burned last Friday. The Telegram plant was consumed in the flames, but the Telegram people did not stop issuing the paper. They immediately made arrangements with the Record to issue the paper until they could get a new outfit...

The Telegram building was not burned, and neither was the plant, but the flames did considerable damage to both, crippling the paper badly for several days and entailing considerable loss. But the Telegram never missed an issue, and is gradually getting its fine plant in good shape again.

And now they want a legislative investigation of Senator Bailey. They want to know "how much money he borrowed from Pierce, when he borrowed it and when and how he paid it back."

Not a thing in the world. It makes no difference that Bailey helped Pierce back into Texas and then "borrowed" large sums of money from him. That is no business of the people's. The office of United States senator belongs to Bailey. And the people? Oh, the people be d—

Indications are that Culberson will be chosen leader of the minority in the senate. A worthy selection, if made. Democracy can boast of fewer able men than Culberson. The senior senator from Texas can be depended upon to uphold the standard like the dauntless color bearer that he is.—Austin Tribune.

Senator Culberson is one of the safest leaders within the democratic party, and will measure up in any requirement that is made of him. No man in the United States senate stands higher in the public estimation than the senior senator from Texas.

Senator Forsaker of Ohio is tearing his wearing apparel over the dismissal of the negro troops, whose members shot up the town of Brownsville. He is shedding copious tears over the treatment accorded the negro by Texas people. Let's see; wasn't it in Ohio that they burned a couple of negroes not so many months since?—San Angelo Press.

Sure. But that happened in Ohio. If it had transpired in Texas it would have been another "crucel southern outrage," and would have furnished much political thunder. But in Ohio it is different.

The Herald's Austin dispatch yesterday seems to indicate that a majority of the legislature is favorable to an investigation of both Senator Bailey and Attorney General Davidson. The fact that filibustering tactics are being used to prevent a vote would give color to this, as otherwise the resolution would be voted down. A full and fair investigation is just to all concerned and it should be held.—Denison Herald.

The filibustering tactics employed by Senator Bailey's friends have been a great mistake and are hurting Bailey. The people demand an investigation and one will be had.

R. M. Johnson, the editor of the Houston Post, has shifted upon the state the burden of caring for his son. Young Johnson has a clerkship at Austin at $5 per day.—Beaumont Journal.

"Cousin Blenz" is not in politics altogether for his health. He wants something more than mere health and glory.

Texas, speaking thru their agents in the Twelfth legislature, should thank President Roosevelt and commend his action in dismissing the perpetrators of the Brownsville outrages. President Roosevelt stood for law, right and decency. He should be thanked.—Dallas Times-Herald.

President Roosevelt should be thanked for the stand he made for law and decency in connection with the Brownsville affair. He has shown that his heart is in the right place.

DRIFT OF POLITICS

NEW SENATORS AND THE PRESIDENCY

Between the scramble for the Presidential nomination on the Republican side and the elections for United States senators in the states the political cauldron at the national capital has been kept boiling. Threats of forcing the President into a hole by the anti-administration senators still come from the capitol. Postmaster General Cortelyou's nomination for secretary of the treasury is still hung up in committee, and it may remain so. The latest rumor credits powerful Wall street and Standard Oil influences against the young man. They do not think he carries weight enough for the place against Alexander Hamilton, or John Sherman, or William Windom, or Daniel Manning, or John G. Carlisle. Furthermore, Cortelyou is a politician pure and simple. Harry New, the acting chairman of the republican national committee, declares that if Vice President Fairbanks is a candidate for the Presidency he will receive the solid Indiana delegation. This will relieve the minds of some who saw in New's elevation a turning over of the national committee to Roosevelt. As to some of the new senators chosen during the week, the Boston and Maine Railroad scored again when it helped to return its friend Burnham from New Hampshire. Winston Churchill did not make a determined fight. Some of his followers who opposed railroads in politics insisted upon voting against Burnham as a matter of principle; that was all of the fight. Their honor was satisfied and Burnham took the cake. The election of William Alden Smith in Michigan is a relief from Alger, and satisfies everybody excepting Senator Burrows, who may find his seat endangered in 1911. Smith and Burrows both come from the western part of the state and the other from the eastern part. In his early days Smith was a newsboy at Grand Rapids. He established a friendship with Edwin S. Pierce, who kept a big clothing store, and Smith had a clean title to Pierce's sidewalk to sell his papers. The newsboy went to congress, and Pierce failed in business. The newsboy made the merchant friend a deputy sergeant at arms of the house. Now Pierce says he will be a candidate for representative to succeed his newsboy protegee. There's romance in politics and life sure. Representative Curtis of Kansas, who succeeds Benson—who succeeded the unfortunate Burton, now in jail—is regarded as one of the best men sent to the senate since Plumb and Ingalls' time. He is said to have a greater proportion of Indian blood in his veins than any man who ever sat in the United States, excepting, perhaps, Benton. He was born in the Shawnee country in 1860, and is serving his seventh term in congress. Representative Dixon of Montana, who succeeds Clark, the copper king, as United States senator, is regarded as another acquisition to the Millionaires' Club.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

FARM MEMORIES BY BUSHNELL

Don't laugh. If you didn't look like this when you were a boy and lived away back in the country, your daddy did. Folks called him shiftless and said he would never amount to shucks. Lots of boys are born tired—and win out. Lots of boys have work and show it in every move—and win out. You can never tell. Cartoonist Bushnell has portrayed a type and out of that type Nature and Opportunity occasionally make a Town Leader—or a President of the United States.

THE PROFESSIONAL LOBBYIST

Speaker Love says the professional lobbyist must go, and that is a good beginning for the Dallas county statesman. The third house at Austin should be totally abolished.—Fort Worth Telegram.

State Press has within his life attended many sessions of the Texas legislature in a professional way, and he never met a professional lobbyist in the capitol city. He met railroad lawyers who were there to look after bills which affected their corporations. He met there men from the west who were present to look after land legislation, such as free grass and the like. He has met there citizens of towns, who came to look after charter bills for the municipalities. But at no time did he ever meet what is known as the "professional lobbyist," that is the man who is exercising his influence, generally, for hire. The people have been taught that there lurk about the capitol men who are so seductive that they can take the poor and honest legislator out to one side and bribe him to vote any way such seducer suggests. This teaching is an outrage on the manhood of Texas. The people of Texas select their representatives. They do it after a consideration of their honesty, as well as a consideration of their general fitness in an intellectual way for the position. Under his charge the people are said, in effect, to be unable to select honest men for office, men who are not equal to the single seducer who goes about prostituting the public servant. State Press does not say that there are no professional lobbyists, because he knows there are some. He does not even deny that there are a few of them on the inside of the legislature. He certainly does not contend against a rigid rule to exclude them. He does say, however, that it lies mostly with the people who elect members of the legislature to say whether members shall be bought, or whether they shall not. Obviously, the best way to rid the state and country of men who will bribe a legislator is to elect to the legislature men who cannot be bribed. As long as this is not done, rules against lobbyists are not apt to amount to much. The briber may be kept out of the capitol, but the man who wants to be bribed can see the briber at the hotel, around the corner or on the train.—Dallas News.

THE TELEGRAM A PEACH

The Fort Worth Telegram had the misfortune last Friday morning to sustain a severe loss to its magnificent plant by fire. All departments of the business were seriously damaged, with the exception of the business offices and editorial rooms. Other plants in Fort Worth and Dallas promptly tendered assistance and paper has been printed at the Record office until the damage is repaired. The Telegram management have shown their characteristic enterprise in this emergency by coming out on time, not missing an issue, while laboring under difficulties that seem, even to those acquainted with the situation, almost impossible. They promise to give their readers, within a few days, a better and greater Telegram than ever before. If any improvement can be made on the old Telegram the paper will certainly be a peach.—Graham Leader.

ONE TOUCH OF MISFORTUNE

The action of the Fort Worth papers in extending help to The Telegram of that city is one that awakes admiration from every source. The Telegram building and a large portion of its machinery and type was destroyed by fire last Thursday night. The Record, a bitter political enemy and a keen business rival, at once notified The Telegram management that their entire plant was at their disposal, and the Sunday edition of The Telegram announces that that issue and the two previous issues had been printed on the Record press. Such acts of generosity show that many times men are at variance in many things, but when one is overtaken by misfortune he is sure of assistance from a strong and honorable antagonist.—Brady Enterprise.

THE SQUARE DEAL POLICY

Men of the Harriman stripe call the President a meddler and experience a very ardent desire to see him relegated to the ranks. They want a man in the White House who will wink at the "high finance" practiced in Wall street.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Wall street financiers cannot "handle" the President, therefore they don't like him. They find that he puts them on exactly the same basis that he does other men who come to him and they are not used to that and they don't like it. When the "square deal" policy hurts them they don't like it, but that does not influence President Roosevelt in the least.—Denison Herald.

THAT REMINDS ME

FIGURED IT OUT

"Now," said the teacher, "here is one more problem: If a cat fell down a bottomless hole and then tried to climb up, and for every two feet per second of climbing it slipped back three feet, how long would it take her to get out of the well?"

Nearly every member of the class was ready at once to give an answer, and several told amid considerable laughter the way to solve the problem, but one boy was seen hard at work figuring in large sums at his desk.

"What?" said the teacher to this boy, "don't you know that the cat would never get out?"

"I beg pardon," proudly responded the serious little fellow, "the cat would get out somewhere in the Indian Ocean in 484 days 14 hours."

The class applauded while he smilingly clinched his arguments, saying the diameter thru the earth is 7,926 miles.

SHE GOT IT

It was a Thanksgiving dinner, and the little daughter of the house had partaken of the turkey with great freedom.

"I want some more turkey," said Frances.

"I think you have had as much as is good for you," said Frances' mamma.

"You want more," and Frances pouted.

"You can't have more now; but here is a wishbone that you and mamma can pull. That will be fun. You pull one end and I will pull the other, and whoever gets the longer end can have her wish come true. Why, baby, you've got it. What was your wish, Frances?"

"I wish for some more turkey."

TOOK NO CHANCES

A Chicago lawyer tells of a justice of the peace in a town in southern Indiana, whose idea touching the administration of justice was somewhat bizarre.

On one occasion after all the evidence was in and the plaintiff's attorney had made an elaborate argument, the defendant's attorney came to begin his plea.

"Wait a minute!" exclaimed the court. "I don't see no use in your proceedin', Mr. Brown. I have got a very clear idea now of the guilt of the prisoner of the bar, and anything more from you would have a tendency to confuse the court. I know he's guilty and I don't want to take no chances."

MATTER OF PUNCTUATION

Fort Worth must have a slow fire department, judging from the first paragraph of the write up of the fire which destroyed the building and material of The Fort Worth Telegram last week. The first paragraph giving an account of the fire is as follows: "Fire starting about 5 o'clock in the newsboys' room of The Telegram building, Eighth and Throckmorton streets, succeeded in damaging every department of the paper except the and handicapping the regular issue of the paper for probably two weeks before it was extinguished by men from the Central fire station, one block away. The origin of the fire is still undetermined. The fire station was only a block away, but it seems from the report published in The Telegram it took them two weeks to put out the fire.—Sabinal Sentinel.

RICHES

Ten years ago our yearly production of coal was 170,000,000 tons, and we thought it a heap. Last year we mined 400,000,000 tons. In 1896 we produced 850,000 tons of pig iron. Last year we produced 25,000,000 tons. Our copper output ten years ago was 260,000,000 pounds. It is now 900,000,000 pounds. In 1896 we dragged from the bowels of the earth minerals and mineral substances worth about $625,000,000. The value of our mineral product in 1906 approximated $1,000,000,000. These figures are bewildering in their immensity. It is no wonder that we are the richest nation on earth. Yet in spite of it all there is something left to hope for, and there may be something left to fear.—New York Sun.

THE BRITISH SENATE

The present house of lords is an anomaly in our midst; it is the laughing stock of the other nations, and sooner or later we shall have to tackle the question of its reformation.—Nottingham Express.

ENTERTAINMENT OF CALEMEN

Regular Meeting of the Order of Bovinians

URGE CITIZENS TO JOIN

Directors of Board of Trade Held a Meeting and Turned Entertainment Over to Bovinians

The Mystic Knights of Bovinia have voluntarily taken upon themselves the responsibility of providing for the entertainment of the visiting cattlemen who will be at Fort Worth during the Pat Stock Show and annual meeting of the Live Stock Association.

The matter was decided at a meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade Wednesday afternoon, following the conference of the two associations the day previous. The matter was brought before the directors of the Board of Trade at the Wednesday meeting by Chairman F. L. Edwards of the entertainment committee of that organization.

Resolution Adopted George Mountcastle introduced a resolution, which was adopted, to the effect that the Ancient Order of Bovinians had undertaken to entertain the next meeting of the Cattle Raisers' Association and there was no doubt as to their being able to successfully carry out their plans.

Meeting of Bovinians The regular weekly round-up of the Mystic Knights of Bovinia Wednesday night was one of the largest gatherings of the association. Chief Ranch Boss Davis was not present, having been called out of the city, but Chief Wagon Boss Jim O'Dowd presided with grace, dignity and ability, ably assisted by Dr. Frazer, who impressively read the rules and regulations and administered the oath to the mavericks just before the application of the branding iron to their quivering flesh.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Costs Nothing to Try. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless ingredients in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of these; they cost but twenty-five cents each, and are sold in boxes of a dozen at drug stores, and also in some cases a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

TRY THIS FOR BACKACHE

Get from any prescription pharmacy the following: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce.

Compound Kargon, one ounce. Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by eminent authority as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble and Weak Bladder. This combined mixture should act on the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Being composed entirely of vegetable ingredients, it is harmless and inexpensive. Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent specialist, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

after "strays" and captured a well-known physician and led him to the branding pens, where he got all that was coming to him.

Everything is fish that gets into the nets of the Bovinians; they make no distinction on account of nationality, and Wednesday night took in a Greek boss of a shoe shining parlor and administered $7 worth of ceremonies that kept the entire ranch house in an uproar for an hour.

Following the branding a committee from the Board of Trade was admitted and notified the chief wagon boss of what action the Board of Trade had taken with reference to the entertainment of the cattlemen. The announcement was received with a wild yell and each member of the committee was held up for $7 and sworn in as a bull.

The following communication was read and indorsed with a hip! hip! hurrah! ki! yi! and there the round-up was called off: "Gentlemen: I regard the meeting tonight as the most important one we have ever held, for the reason that the lodge can successfully arrange the details with the Board of Trade so as to secure the hearty and earnest co-operation of the board with the Bovinians in the matter of entertaining the coming cattlemen's convention. It will put the standing in the lodge before the citizenship of Fort Worth, and from a financial standpoint nothing short of a San Francisco earthquake or a Galveston storm will ever shake us from the hearts of the people. And, my fellow knights, it is absolutely essential that the people should be with us if we are to carry out with credit to our lodge the work upon which this order is founded, to wit, the upbuilding and the glory of Fort Worth.

In my opinion the duty of the citizen to work for his town is second only to his family, and the Mystic Knights of Bovinia offer to the citizens a chance to do this, and work for Fort Worth, because the fees and annual dues are so small that almost anyone can afford to join us, and add himself to the ranks of the army that is now so successfully and brilliantly battling for the supremacy of Fort Worth in the great southwest. I do think, gentlemen, that in the matter of credit to our lodge, we should realize that both the Bovinians and the Board of Trade have the same object in view, and under the circumstances, we should act jointly and together for the common good so as to absolutely insure for the cattlemen an entertainment that will redound to the credit of Fort Worth, and the Board of the Bovinians, and I believe that joint earnest work will do more to perpetuate our order than any other theory or policy we can act on. I believe that our object should be to build up an organization here in Fort Worth that will stand as a bulwark against the endeavors of the competing rival cities of Texas, and will eventually lead to the creation in this city of a body of men who will annually give a cattle carnival and festival of not superior to the great ones of modern days, to wit, the Mardi Gras of New Orleans. Respectfully,

"STUART HARRISON."

FIFTH WARD MEETING

Will Discuss Fight Between Mayor and Council

The following call has been issued by President George E. Nies of the Fifth ward Civic League, to be held at the Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 17, 1907.—A meeting of the Fifth Ward Civic League is hereby called for Saturday night, Jan. 18, at 8 o'clock at the light store of J. H. Sears, corner of Elizabeth and Park streets, for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the league.

WOMAN FINED $200

Found Guilty of Charge in the Corporation Court

Lée Gillis, a woman who has been conducting a rooming house upstairs at 113 Houston street, was arraigned in the corporation court Wednesday on a charge of conducting a disorderly house. After all the facts were rendered a verdict of guilty was rendered and the punishment assessed at a fine of $200.

This is the first case of this kind that has been tried in the corporation court having been allowed exclusive jurisdiction over them by the city; but the chief of police Maddox proposes to take a hand in the game and has announced that he will make a thorough investigation of all alleged flats and rooming houses and take such action as the facts disclosed will warrant.

ASSESSORS WILL NOT AFFILIATE

Adjournment Was Reached Wednesday Afternoon

At the afternoon session Wednesday the Tax Assessors' Association considered the matter of affiliation with the County Commissioners' Association. It was objected to for the reason that a membership including the assessors and commissioners would be unwieldy, for the total then, with all the counties represented, would be about thirteen hundred.

Several plans for co-operation were considered and it seemed to be that the most feasible plan will be to ask the commissioners to join with them in their work and consent to appear on the program, if so requested.

On motion of Mr. Huth of Bexar county the annual dues were fixed to $2 a year. An attempt of Mr. Francis of Travis to secure the passage of a resolution indorsing Bailey was not greeted with favor, the chief objection being made to the impetus of the Tax Assessors' Association dipping into that matter and the whole question was disposed of by adjournment. The additional names added to the rolls of membership Wednesday are: B. J. Armstrong of Johnson county, D. A. Mahoney of Hardeman, J. K. McKelvey of McIntosh, A. Basile of Bell, J. E. Bolton of Dallas, Albert Huth of Bexar, R. L. Tankersley of Young, Van Kirkpatrick of Hill and G. W. Ware of Jack.

Assessor Jackson of Anderson county got in too late for the meeting. He started from Palestine on time, but had a delayed train to contend with and by the time he reached Junction was brought in here at night, instead of in the morning, and then he thought there was to be a three days' session. Instead of a two days' session.

TALK CONSOLIDATION

Two Pythian Lodges May Be Made Into One

Ruby Compton, No. 65, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, met on Wednesday evening at the courthouse and put in a couple of hours drilling, changing over to the rank of No. 2. Some of the members of the two uniform rank companies are considering the consolidation of the companies into one, and the number of the old company and, if it is favored by a majority of the consolidated membership, the name as well.

Plans for the trip to Boston for the next biennial encampment, when Hon. H. P. Brown of Texas will be elected supreme chancellor of the order of Knights of Pythias, are being formed. Fort Worth will be well represented there on that occasion.

MEETING OF PYTHIANS

New Officers Were Installed Wednesday Evening

A regular meeting of Alexander Lodge No. 249, Knights of Pythias, was held at the Pythian Temple on Wednesday night and the new officers installed by Charles M. Cary, D. G. C., assisted by Past Chancellors Miller and Bond. After the installation the initiation of three candidates for the rank of knighthood and a number of addresses to the lodge members, an adjournment was had to Crane's restaurant, where an appetizing supper was served. The officers installed were: U. M. Simon, chancellor commander; L. P. Shambum, vice chancellor; F. Farrar, prelate; O. W. Moore, master of work; Charles M. Cary, D. G. C., keeper of records and being formed by J. H. Sears, corner of Elizabeth and Park streets, for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the league.

This property had been owned by Mr. Heard but a short time and was sold at a good advance on what he paid for it.

Railroad Quarrel in Court

SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 17.—The case of the Mobile, Jackson & Kansas City railroad, involving charges of mismanagement against the officials of the company, will be called for a hearing in the Alabama supreme court today. A recent attempt of the minority stockholders to secure permission to examine the books and records of the road, which they expected to prove their allegations of dishonesty, was a failure.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobacco, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

MANY SINNERS ARE CONVERTED

Interest in the Meetings Continues to Grow

The revival meetings at the Broadway Baptist church, corner Broadway and St. Louis, continue to grow in power and interest. Favorable weather has given Evangelists Hamilton and Wakefield an opportunity to meet the people, and both they and the people have made the most of the opportunity.

The meeting has continued only eleven days, eighty-two have united with the Broadway Baptist church, and at least twice that number have publicly confessed Christ. Many have signified their intention to unite with other churches in the city.

A marked feature of the meeting has been its power over men. A majority of those converted are men and boys. In many cases strong men stand before the congregations and confess their sins.

Pastor Burroughs has announced an all day meeting for Tuesday, Jan. 22, with lunch served in the building for all who may come. This is the date for the Workers' Meeting of Tarrant County Baptists and that body will convene with the Broadway Baptist church. Drs. Truett and Gambrell of Dallas are expected to spend the day in the meeting and other workers from beyond the county will be invited. Meetings today at 3 o'clock on Friday.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and terror of child-birth. It is thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to the mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use greatly prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free. The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

THE WOMAN IN THE ALCOVE

Copyright, 1906, by The BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY. By ANNA KATH ARINE GREEN

SYNOPSIS. The story begins with the engagement of Anon Durand and plain Miss Van Ardendale in New York. Shortly after their troth is given, Mrs. Fairbrother, wearing an enormous diamond, passes by and goes into an alcove.

Before the inquest the diamond found in the gloves is pronounced to be a fake imitation. The coroner's jury does not fix the blame of the murder and yet does not acquit Durand. At the close of the inquest Durand is arrested by the police.

My plan was to lay this dagger on Mr. Grey's desk at a moment when he would be sure to see it and I to see him. If he betrayed any knowledge of this fatal steel, if, unconscious of my presence, he showed surprise and curiosity, I would know how to proceed; justice would be done.

WARE AN APPLICANT

Would Be Cattle Raisers' Association Secretary

Exclusive announcement in The Telegram last Sunday that among the candidates for the position of secretary to the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association was C. T. Ware, was confirmed Thursday in the following letter (which is being sent out to members of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association):

Fort Worth, Jan. 14.

Dear Sir: You have doubtless heard of the death of Captain John T. Lytle, secretary of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas. I with a host of friends regret the loss of this good man and fully realize that his post of honor will be hard to supply. Captain Lytle's successor will be elected by the association at the annual convention in March, 1920. At the solicitation of a number of the members of the Cattle Raisers' Association, who are my personal friends, I shall allow my name to go before your honorable body for this position, and write this letter to ask your support in my behalf. If elected to this trustworthy position I shall retire from the live stock commission business and will devote the whole of my time and attention to this important office. I have had large experience as general live stock agent of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway and am fully identified with the cattle industry in every respect.

Thanking you in advance for anything you may do for me in this connection, I am, yours very truly,
C. T. WARE.

FOOD DOES IT

The Most Natural Way to Get Out of Trouble

"I have been troubled with my stomach for years, having the habit of vomiting and spitting up my food, and was all run down, and September last I had a fearful hemorrhage, which completely prostrated me. When I got better I had a usually twice a day. I have gained in flesh and can eat almost anything I want and my stomach takes care of it without any hesitation, but before I toned and strengthened my stomach on Grape-Nuts I could not handle any food but it was liable to come up again."

"I am over sixty years old and people here consider my cure remarkable. It was given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason." Get the little book "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
