Georgetown—(SPL) — Rev. Marvin S. Vance, pastor of First Methodist Church, Austin, will be the platform speaker for the Central Texas Methodist Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service school of missions to be held at Southwestern University, July 26-30.

"India, Pakistan and Ceylon" is the course to be taught by Mrs. William E. Trice of Baton Rouge, La. She is the wife of a minister and has taught in other conference schools of missions.

Three other courses will include: "Jesus' Teaching Concerning Women," Mrs. William Dingus of Lubbock, United Nations chairman for the Texas Council of Church Women and on the state board for three years; "That They May Have Life," Mrs. Marvin T. Judy, Dallas, a minister's wife who has experience as a public school teacher and county music supervisor; and "The City," Mrs. Roy A. Dillon of Oklahoma City, Okla., who served as West Oklahoma Conference secretary of Christian social relations and local church activities for four years and as conference president for five years.

There will be clinics for officers attending and four workshops: the committee on program at work; Methodist women and the United Nations; the organization and work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service; and teaching — principles and practices.

Occupational Therapy Now Being Added To State TB Hospitals

Austin — Patients who left the state's TB hospitals against medical advice — or before their cures were complete — cost Texas taxpayers $943,287 in 1953, according to hospital records.

These AMA's, as they are called in hospital circles, totaled 1122. Their average stay was 186 days. Daily cost of treatment was $4.52.

This is no new headache to hospital and public health authorities, concerned not only with the lost investment but with renewed contagion.

Tuberculosis associations in Texas are attacking the problem at one of its roots. They long have advocated occupational therapy to relieve monotony, cut down unrest and build tolerance to increased physical activity and eventual return to jobs.

The stumbling block has been the low salary ceilings set by the state. Registered OTs are in demand all over the nation and the state hospital salaries simply haven't obtained them.

Early this year the TB associations began pooling funds to supplement these pay checks to a figure more attractive in this sharply competitive market.

Miss Alice Howe was the first registered therapist to join the TB hospitals. She is at San Antonio, has been for several months, and coincidental or not the AMA rate has taken a sharp dive in that hospital.

In the past few days, patients in East Texas TB Hospital at Tyler have been getting acquainted with Miss Dorothy Prouty, the first occupational therapist this institution has ever had.

Miss Prouty who was born in Denver gave up a career in interior decoration when she saw what occupational therapy offered sick and injured navy men while serving in the WAVES hospital corps.

Family ties brought her to Texas and the plight of TB patients torn from their families and with little to fill the endless days and months led her to Tyler.

The Texas TB Association and its affiliated local organization marked this second addition to the hospital system with pride and set their sights next on McKnight Sanatorium at San Angelo where an OT will join the staff in September.

One therapist for each hospital, TTA officials admit, is hardly a drop in the bucket but they believe once the benefits of OT are known, Texas will see to its continuance.

One of the basic problems facing American representation in foreign countries is the fact that many of them do not believe and do not understand the success of the American free enterprise economy.
The Socialists cannot believe that the United States has achieved its high productivity in a classless so-ciety because they have never wit-nessed such a society. They do not believe the free American economy has been successful in distributing its advantages in a classless man-ner.

In Asia the misunderstanding is even greater. When it is stated that we employ more than sixty million people without exploitation; that the wage scale in industry is equal to or greater than the annual earnings of many of the so-called upper middle class, they simply cannot believe it. When they are told that laborers own their own automobiles, electric refrigerators, television sets, is not believed because it has not been experienced in the Asian coun-tries.

The Buddhists, of which there are millions, further complicate this lack of belief by a worship of pov-erty. They believe that men's souls are not saved by the possession of material things, but by the rejection of material things.
How to state the truth from the American standpoint is not easy. It has a very definite effect on our friendships around the world, and added to these complications are still others, brought about by some rather innocent faults of our own.

As Americans, we usually like to brag about the things we have in this country. We are always willing to tell the world about our good roads, automobiles, telephones, bath tubs, etc. Some foreign people are perhaps just jealous. Others get tired of our bragging and consider that we think ourselves better than they. But the Asians, of which there are about one billion 272 million (excluding the Soviet Union), simply think that we are worshippers of the dollar and of all these ma-terial blessings which we enjoy. Maybe they are right to a consid-erable degree.

Many of the Asians know that much of our material wealth comes from raw materials which we im-port from their countries to make possible all these conveniences. This, coupled with the fact that the British, French, and Dutch have for years exploited Africa and Asia, puts two strikes against us in deal-ing with them in any way. They identify us with these nations as white men against yellow.

In our entire foreign policy we are walking a tight rope in trying to be opposed to colonialism but at the same time maintaining friend-ship with these once world powers.

It is perfectly true that parts of Southeast Asia and Africa are not yet ready for self-government, but to have the appearance of sup-porting colonialism in these places is poison to us. It is the underlying, if not the undermining, factor in everything we are trying to do to stem the tide of Communist ag-gression around the world.

Ned Clark, Billie Ruth Woody, Janie Clark and Billy Gene Woody and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sangier visited in Cisco Saturday night and in Comanche Monday.

Billy Dorse Harris, stationed with the Navy at Newport, R. I., is spending a few days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorse Harris, and other relatives.

Recent events are driving home - hard - the vital need for a United America.

The latest development is the rapid swing through Asia of Chinese communist leader Chou En Lai. In the course of that trip, he visited practically every important Asiatic official.

Our officials can only speculate as to the results of his discussions. But certainly, they are not a good omen for the free world!

It is obvious that the communists are seeking to bring all of Asia under their rule. The importance of that objective cannot be over-estimated.

Exclusive of Siberia, nearly 1,300,000,000 people live on the continent of Asia. It is a treasurehouse of natural resources. It is fertile and productive - capable of enormous production in food and fiber.

Mobilized under world communism, Asia's people, resources and productivity would be formidable.

Against a threat of that magnitude, Americans cannot afford the luxury of partisan obstruction and endless dissension. A divided America will be a weakened America and in the modern world only the strong will survive.

There are two paths to unity. One is unity through fear; the other is unity through faith and confidence.

The communists have taken the road of fear. They have achieved unity through suppressing dissension. They have gained solidarity by brutally crushing any opposition.

Nowhere - at any time - have the communists ever won a free election, not even in Russia. In every instance, they have come to power when the people were confused and divided and unable to resist.

America must take the other path - the road of faith and confidence. We have usually found our unity by talking out our differences - by arriving at common understandings.

That kind of unity is still the most potent force in the world!

We may soon be faced with the necessity of re-examining our entire foreign policy. None of the alternatives are pleasant. But we will find our salvation if we face the problems as Americans and not as partisans.

Re-examination will serve no purpose if the sole objective is to prove that some policies of the past were right - or some policies were wrong. No truly American interest is guarded by that attitude.

But a searching re-examination - with the objective of preserving America for ourselves and our children - will lead us out of the darkness. It will achieve our goals.

We have recently had a demonstration of the power wielded by a United America.

There was some discussion of admitting Red China to the United Nations.

Americans - with one voice and regardless of party - roared their indignation. They made it clear - crystal clear - that they would not tolerate the admission into the United Nations of a country whose leaders had been branded "aggressor" by the United Nations itself.

Those who were leading the movement to bring Red China into the United Nations have now backed away from the idea. Both the free world and the United Nations itself are stronger as a result!

The American people - through unity - achieved a goal worth striving for. That unity can be - and should be - extended to all the basic problems of saving our cherished freedoms.

There are some who substitute slander and vituperation for honest discussion of issues. There are some who are always intolerant in their statements and in their judgments. There are some who abandon the paths of reason to go on wild, emotional excursions. There has never been a time when we should pay less attention to such people and more time to logical thinking.

There will always be issues that divide us. But those issues do NOT include the safety and the security of our country. Through mutual trust and confidence, Americans will unite and provide the leadership that will turn back the forces of communism.

If we are determined, this nation, under God, will survive!

DROUGHT RELIEF: I have been working with State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White and other State officials to place before the Department of Agriculture the facts about drought conditions in a group of Central Texas counties.

As I pointed out in an address in the Senate, range conditions in these counties are extremely serious. There is practically no grass left. Cattlemen already have had to begin supplemental feeding of livestock. The harvest of oats and other small grains was very small. The corn crop is virtually a total loss. Water supplies are dangerously low at several points.

Cattlemen in these counties urgently need protein supplements and roughage or hay to sustain their breeding herds. If these cattle breeders are forced to sell their foundation stock, it will represent economic waste of the most flagrant kind.

The cutoff day for the national drought relief protein feed program was July 15. We are continuing our efforts to get special assistance for the drought-stricken counties.

REA IN TEXAS: Rural Electrification Administration loans to electric and telephone borrowers during the 1954 fiscal year, which ended June 30, totaled $241,800,000.

Texas led all other states in both the number of loans and total amount of loans. Thirty-one loans totaling $13,818,000 were made to Texas electric co-ops during the year. Nine telephone loans totaling $3,646,000 also were made.

I have always supported the REA program. Its continued progress is a source of great gratification to me.

Fort Worth—The high temperatures that have gripped large portions of the country had an adverse effect on cattle trade at Fort Worth Monday. Stocker and feeder interests at out-of-state points, especially in sections of the Cornbelt that have been sizzling under 100-degree plus temperatures, reported movement of stockers to the country very slow.

The blistering heat was causing some concern as to the corn crop prospects in some important areas and forage definitely deteriorated badly in many sections where Texas cattle are shipped every summer.

The better kinds of calves sold at $16 to $18 at Fort Worth Monday and yearlings around $15 to $17.50 on the good kinds but order buyers reported sales slow out of second hands and shipping orders were behind a week ago with most dealers.

Canners, cutters and bulls fared well and drew generally steady prices, some cutter cows selling to better advantage than at last week's close. Fat cows were weak to lower as all packers exhibited a marked aversion to fallow.

Top grade hogs sold at $24.25 at Fort Worth Monday, steady with the close of last week. Sows were 50 cents to $1 lower, selling at $14 to $18.50.

Less desirable hogs either from weight factor, or from their lack of finish or undesirable meat types, sold from $21 to $24.

The sheep and lambs were considered somewhat less attractive from the standpoint of quality on Monday, and as was the case with all livestock that day, they took on universally liberal amounts of alfalfa hay and water.

Prices were considered steady on all kinds.

Mrs. Doyle Cowan and children and Mrs. T. Y. Woody took Mrs. Pete Barber and sons to their home in Houston last week end and visited in the Barber home for a few days. Bobby McMillan returned home after spending the past month with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Woody.
