

"AS I SEE IT"

By Jack McCarty

Have you driven by the new school building project lately? If not, you should do so. The building is really taking shape now! When completed it will be one of the best constructed and prettiest structures to be found in this section of the state and will really be a credit to our community.

A bouquet of posies to Advisor O. B. Edmondson and his FFA Chapter members on winning the Gold Medal Emblem for excellent chapter work. The award was made to the local chapter at the State FFA convention held in Houston last week. This is the highest award given by the Future Farmers of America. Along with the outstanding award, it was also brought out that the local chapter ranks eighth in the state in the number of Lone Star Farmer degrees awarded members. This is quite a distinction since there are more than 1,000 chapters in Texas.

Can you top this one? We had a note this week from our friend, W. M. Tatum, pioneer resident of this Community, in which he was bragging that he and Jim Hughes have robbed a single bee hive on the Hughes farm of over 100 pounds of vetch honey at Atwell during states that they left at least 20 pounds in the hive. That's some honey machine, eh?

This department was interested in an editorial we read recently in one of the exchange papers reaching our desk. Entitled, "Too Much to Do", it appeared originally in the Garden City (Kan.) Telegram. We agree wholeheartedly with the author.

Here it is: "LAST NIGHT the PTA was in session. The junior high was playing football. The Girl Scouts had a meeting after school.

"Also on this week between the dark and daylight in which was known as the Children's Hour were family night at the church, 4-H meeting, play practice, dance lessons and a football game.

"Undoubtedly there were other items, but those are enough to make the point.

The point is that we are loaded. Overloaded.

"All of us have grasped so fiercely after organized activities that we have engaged in a frantic hunt for self improvement, or community betterment or what have you. And by so doing have lost the best opportunities to reach those goals.

"Those opportunities are found at home.

"They are found, for the most part, through inaction. In just doing nothing, except contemplating the fire or stroking the dog. Man's machine is no different from any other machine, and it must rest occasionally for repairs and oiling.

"The opportunities are also found in the quiet pursuits of the home. A bowl of popcorn made for no reason except that someone in the family thought it a good idea. A book read. A radio or television program shared. And perhaps even talk, although it is my impression that the American family has all but forgotten how to talk together.

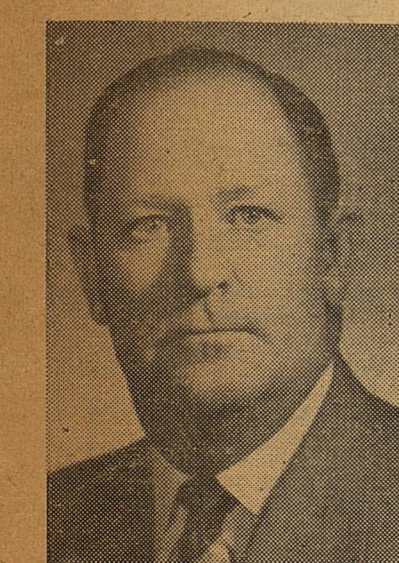

"What we all must do is learn again how to say no. A polite No, if you please, but not just the same. No to the clubs and programs and organizers. This evening we stay at home."

JACKIE GALE BURNS DROWNS IN LAKE BROWNWOOD LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Jackie Gale Burns, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burns of Burkett, drowned about 12:30 noon last Sunday when the boat in which he was riding capsized and sank near 36th Division Park at Lake Brownwood.

Burns, who recently was released from the Marine Corps, and Vernon Boyle and A. L. Godwin, Jr., all of Burkett, were riding in the boat when it capsized.

Boyle and Godwin were able to swim to shore, but Burns suffered severe chest injuries in the accident and was unable to reach shore. The metal boat from Lewis Boat Docks sank.

The survivors told a Brownwood police officer that the boat had two outboard motors on it. They said one of the motors evidently reversed suddenly, causing the boat to overturn in about 18 feet of water some 159 feet off shore.

As the trio swam to shore, Boyle was in front, followed by Godwin and then Burns. Godwin told the officer that Burns called to him for help, saying he couldn't make it. Godwin swam back to Burns in an attempt to help him, but said he could not hold Burns up long enough for both of them to reach shore.

The body was recovered shortly after 2 p.m. Sunday, little more than an hour after authorities in Brownwood were notified of the drowning. The crew recovering the body consisted of Willis Davis, Brownwood fireman, and Wendell Morris and Stewart Coleman of Brownwood, both members of the Brownwood Emergency Unit. The crew was operating from Morris' boat.

After the body was brought to the surface of the lake it was placed in the boat of Oral Evans, Lake Brownwood boat dock operator and Emergency Unit member, and then taken to shore. A Davis-Morris ambulance took the body to Stephens Funeral Home in Coleman.

Survivors include the parents and one brother, Tommy Burns, 14, of Burkett.

Burns was a native of Burkett and attended school there and in Coleman. He was discharged from the Marine Corps a few months ago, having served four years including a tour of duty in Korea. He was employed by the Audis Grocery in Burkett.

Burns was the 38th drowning victim of Lake Brownwood since it was constructed in 1932. He was the first victim since 1953.

Funeral services were held at the Burkett Tabernacle Monday at 3 p.m. Interment was in the Burkett cemetery.

Palbearers were: Johnny Adair, Billy Paul Gholson, A. L. (Buster) Godwin, Jr., Andy Dell Young, Boyd Young and Arnold Barton.

Charles Coburn to Receive Degree From HPC Friday

Charles Coburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coburn of Cross Plains, will receive the B. A. degree from Howard Payne College, on July 29, with a major in physical education and a minor in social science.

Charles was a 1947 graduate of Cross Plains High School where he was an outstanding athlete, having starred in football and basketball for four years. He was chosen as all-district tackle for the seasons of 1946 and 1947, and had the distinction of losing only fifteen minutes of playing time during his entire career as a lineman for the Buffaloes.

Following his graduation from high school, Charles entered Brownsville Junior College where he played football for two years before transferring to Howard Payne in 1950. He has seen extensive service as a lineman for the Howard Payne varsity which was the Conference co-champion in 1953 and champion in 1954.

His college career was interrupted by a three-year period of service in the United States Navy where he was a member of the San Diego Naval Training Center football squad which won the 11th Naval District championship for two years.

While serving with the Naval Training Center team, Charles played in both the Poinsettia and Salad Bowl classics, and was assistant line coach a part of one season.

In March of this year Charles was married to Miss Betty Lynn Kittle of Mullen, who is in her sophomore year at Howard Payne. He plans to enter the coaching field as either high school or junior college coach.

Optometric Society Issues Warning Against Free Eye Examinations

A warning was issued this week by members of the West Central Texas Optometric Society for parents to be on guard against concerns who make offers of free eye examinations, especially during the pre-school months. This statement of caution was made by Dr. W. C. Hambrick, president of the West Central Texas Optometrist Society.

"Public offers of free eye examinations for children should be viewed with caution. Unless the examination is thorough and complete, the child may have to pay the price in discomfort and poor visual performances," advises Dr. Hambrick.

"While such an offer may be motivated by a desire to serve mankind, it may also be used as a promotional stunt to sell glasses," he said. "A child's vision is too precious to be made the victim of a sales manager's promotional scheme," he observed.

A child's vision plays a dominant role in his development at school. The examination of a child's eyes generally takes longer to perform than the examination of an adult's eyes. The usual time for the examination for a child is from an hour to an hour and a half and involves the measurement of special visual skills and performance tests in order to determine his readiness for school or his ability to achieve once he has started to school.

"Unless the examination has been thorough and complete, the glasses may be of no value to the child," Dr. Hambrick pointed out.

John Jenkins of Abilene was a Cross Plains visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Flynn were bilene visitors Saturday.

Health Officer Urges Parents to Have Child's Health Checked Soon

Austin, July 28—Parents has your child had a physical examination this summer? In just a little more than a month he will be starting to school, and if he is in good health he will have a happier, more profitable year. It's up to you to give him a healthful start-off, says Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health.

After he has his check-up by the family doctor, be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important, and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble. They may start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to grow up with good teeth. . . . see that he has a dental examination twice a year.

Sometimes children need glasses and their parents don't realize it. An examination by an eye specialist is important. A child who needs glasses, if taken to an eye physician now, will have time to get used to them before school starts.

When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox? Does he know he should use only his own drinking glass? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he shows signs of cold?

Plenty of exercise and recreation, the right kinds of foods daily, and 12 hours of sleep at night, are necessary for a child of elementary school age.

Get your child an appointment for a check-up today the first day of school is not far away!

Increase In Social Security Payments

In Callahan County at the end of last year 162 retired workers were receiving $8,119 in monthly social security payments, according to R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager of the social security office in Abilene, Texas.

In addition to the retired workers themselves, 128 people were receiving $4,265 a month as dependants of the retired workers as survivors of deceased workers.

Although this is a considerable increase as compared with payments a year ago, it is certain that more people will receive larger payments in years to come because of changes in the social security law in 1954, Tuley says. Among the major changes were the following:

- 1. Computation of payments after "dropping out" up to five years of lowest social security covered earnings.
- 2. Extension of social security coverage to more farm workers and to self-employed farmers, as well as many other kinds of work.
- 3. Increasing of the maximum wages creditable toward benefits from $3600 to $4200.
- 4. Allowing disabled workers to "freeze" their social security wage records while disabled.
- 5. Increasing the amount of earnings which a retired worker can receive and still get all or a part of his retirement payments. (There is no restriction on earnings after a worker is 72 years old.)

Persons with social security questions are invited to contact the Abilene office for information. The address is 769 Cedar St. and the mailing address is P. O. Box 1641, Abilene, Texas.

Bayou Philosopher Unworried About U. S. Becoming Soft Due To Soft Living Of Citizens

Dear editor: "Anybody can rest after he gets tired but it takes fore-thought to rest ahead of time and I was out here on my farm yesterday morning enjoying this thoughtful type of rest and I got to thinking about an article I read in a newspaper the night before.

According to it, an expert in Washington, worried about the health of the nation, said "easy living habits are steadily reducing America's stamina to the danger point."

"No one can estimate what the automobile has cost the American people in muscle, or the radio, television and motion pictures in active participation in recreation," he said, adding: "A nation that indulging in this easy living is steadily reducing its stamina to the danger point."

This is the type of thinking, if you ask me that is mostly an argument for resting before you get tired, to avoid such outstandish conclusions.

Sure, I'll admit, we've got more automobiles in this country than the rest of the world put together, more radios, more television sets, more automatic washing machines, more air-conditioning, etc. In fact, just looking at the figures,

O. B. Edmondson, Vocational Agriculture teacher, returned home the past week from Houston where he attended the State Convention of FFA chapters and received the Gold Rating Emblem for his chapter. This is the highest award made to chapters. There are only 49 Gold Emblem Chapters in the state.

According to statistics published in the convention program booklet, the local chapter also ranks eighth in the state in the number of Lone Star Farmers produced since vocational agriculture was established in 1923. The local chapter has turned out 46 Lone Star Farmers during this period of time.

Teacher Training Chapter
Edmondson also announced that the local school will again assist Texas A. & M. College in training student teachers this year. The following letter was received recently from E. V. Walton head of the department at A. & M.:

"Dear Mr. Edmondson: "We are most gratified for the very fine assistance that you have rendered Texas A. & M. College in assisting to train our student teachers. In making our plans for the 1955-56 school year, we would again like to use your department as a student teaching center. As you know, we select about 30 departments each year out of the more than 1,000 in Texas on the basis of outstanding performance and the over-all excellence of the school.

"Please advise us if your school can again serve as a student teaching center for our department during the forthcoming year."

Attending State Conference
Edmondson will be in Dallas four days next week, where on Monday, the Vocational Agriculture State Teachers conference will convene for its annual summer meeting at which time new and better teaching methods will be discussed and other problems relating to vocational agriculture will be studied. He will return home Thursday night.

Washington

"As It Looks From Here"

OMAR BURLESON
Congressman
17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C. — January 17, 1956 will be the 250th anniversary of Benjamin Franklin. Franklin was a scholar, educator, soldier, inventor, scientist, philosopher, businessman, politician, man of God, patriot, and prophet.

Benjamin Franklin, living in another age, would nevertheless have been a fitting figure at the meeting at the "summit" in Geneva, Switzerland.

These quotations suggest a mind which reached into the present age. He said: "There is no little enemy."

"There has never been, nor ever will be, any such thing as a good war, or a bad peace."

"I lament with you the prospect of a horrid war which is likely to engage so great a part of Mankind."

"There is little good gained and so much mischief done generally by wars, that I wish the imprudence of undertaking them was more evident."

On preparedness, Franklin had this to say: "Let us beware of being lulled into a dangerous security; and of being weakened by internal contentions and divisions; of neglect in military exercises and discipline and in providing stores of arms and munitions of war; for the expenses required to prevent a war are much lighter than those that will, if not prevented, be necessary to maintain it."

On world cooperation and world leadership: "All Europe is on our side of the question, as far as applause and good wishes can carry them. Those who live under arbitrary power do, nevertheless, approve of liberty, and wish for it; they almost despair of recovering it in Europe;—'Tis a common observation here that our cause is the cause of Mankind, and that we are fighting for their liberty in defending our own."

In these preceding words Benjamin Franklin admonishes us of the present age to guard against an isolationism which in the present world is infinitely more important than in his day. Even though some of our efforts may be a pure gamble, it is a much safer one to think we can live alone, either militarily or economically.

A few days ago I appeared on the television program, "American Forum of the Air", with three of my fellow Members of Congress. One was from Wisconsin, one from Minnesota, and one from Ohio. The discussion was on the subject of foreign policy, and particularly as it applies to Asia.

I expressed a belief that as long as we do not assure the Chinese Communists that we will use the Atomic Bomb in our defense, trouble will continue. Surely this Country will not be so stupid as to attempt to match man-for-man in "small" wars. Benjamin Franklin said: "There is no little enemy." It is unthinkable that we would ever again, as was the case in Korea, send American soldiers, whose lives are precious, against Asiatic soldiers to whom life is worth little.

The following quote is not from Benjamin Franklin, but I think it is applicable to the general theme of this column: "It takes a lot less time to prevent damage than repair it."

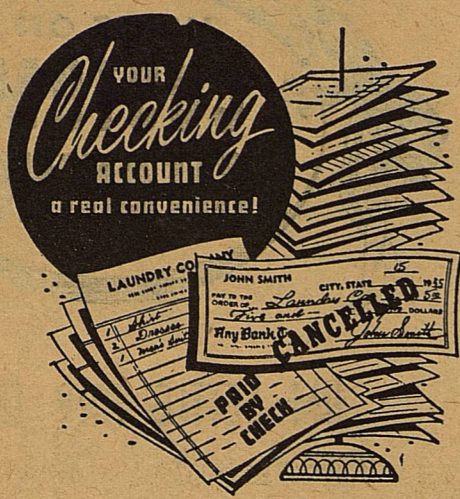

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Ramsler and Wanda and Ronda of Graham and Mrs. Martha Crider of Cisco were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Mary Wagner and Dick.

Mrs. Zola Plumlee and Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Busbee were visiting in the Sonny Umberson home in Snyder over the week end.

Mrs. F. R. Anderson, Jr. and four children of Presidio are spending a weeks vacation here with Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Anderson, Sr.

Mrs. Tom Hale and Mrs. Burns Pennell of Abilene were visiting here the first of last week with their cousin, Mrs. Earnest Riggs and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Baum and children and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baum were in Brownwood over the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Browning and son.

FORT WORTH—The cattle, hog and sheep offerings at Fort Worth Monday was about on a par with the previous Monday which was the smallest since early in the year.

Lighter receipts put more life into the market and most classes sold strong. Fed cattle were slow, but about an a par with last week's closing prices.

Slaughter calves started slow in the early trading Monday, but prices were steady with the previous Friday's close.

Stockers and feeders were fully steady. On a small per cent of these are really choice kinds, most being medium quality yearlings and calves.

Hogs regained most of last week's losses with both choice butchers and sows $1 higher than the previous week's close.

The sheep run Monday, consisted mainly of spring lambs and ewes. All classes of slaughter lambs and sheep were fully steady to strong.

Ring bearers were Cynthia and Rodney Cate, they were dressed in blue and white and carried the rings in a cluster of pink carnations.

Alvin Strickland was best man. At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. Herman Thate presided at the bride's book.

State Capitol NEWS

AUSTIN, Tex.—State Auditor C. H. Cavness suggested last week that Texas use part of its oil and gas income from public lands for current school expenses.

Freeing this money, Cavness said, could ease the strain on the state's general fund, even possibly reduce taxes.

Royalties and lease payments from state lands now are deposited in permanent funds of the public schools and the University of Texas. Only income earned by investment of the funds is available for spending.

Under Cavness' plan only 27 1/2 per cent of royalties would go into the permanent funds, now totaling more than a half billion dollars.

Copies of the proposal went to the governor and Legislature. Execution of the plan would require both a constitutional amendment and revision of statutes.

Criticism came from University President Logan Wilson who compared the plan to "eating seed corn."

It conflicts, he said, with the present plan to increase University income by easing restrictions on investments of the permanent fund.

A constitutional amendment, approved by the Legislature and a waiting vote of the people, would allow University officials to invest up to 50 per cent of the fund in corporate stocks. At present all investment must be low-interest-bearing government bonds.

Highway Bids Taken

Low bids totaling $14,197,595 on road and bridge projects were tabulated by the State Highway Department last week.

Two major highway improvements—on US 80 east of Big Spring and on US 83 north of Brownsville—were included in the 492 miles of road work.

A contract was let to build a bridge in Dallas across the Trinity River. It will eventually connect with the Dallas-Fort Worth toll road.

Parr Documents Sought

Attorneys for George Parr have asked to inspect 89 checks and other documents the government will use in its income tax evasion case against the South Texas political boss.

Prosecuting attorneys protested, arguing that the defense was trying to find out what specific evidence the government would introduce.

Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr. took the motion under advisement. Trial is set for Sept. 6 in Austin.

Morrow Showdown Expected

Wright Morrow's party status was to be determined by the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin on Tuesday.

Gov. Allan Shivers recently indicated he thought the Texas national committeeman should resign to promote party unity. Morrow has been unacceptable to national party leaders since his support of Eisenhower in 1952.

Committee members also were to lay plans for control of 1956 precinct, county and state conventions. Ongoing plans for convention control were made by the Loyalist meeting in San Antonio.

Oil Allowable Unchanged

Texas crude oil allowable for August will be on the same pattern as for July.

At a statewide proration hearing last week the Railroad Commission ordered the present 15-day production schedule continued.

Under that formula, permissive flow on July 16 was 3,028,324 barrels daily. Some August increase would result from allowable grants for new discoveries.

Segregation Ruling Studied

Atty. Gen. Ben Shepperd last week withheld comment on an El Paso district judge's ruling that Texas school segregation laws are unconstitutional.

He would have to make a detailed study of the decision first, Shepperd said.

Judgment resulted from a Negro girl's suit for entrance to Texas Western College. University of Texas regents had two weeks previously voted to admit Negroes there.

Board of Regents Chairman Thomas Sealy said he thought the judge's ruling was moot. However, he said he believed any effort by Negro undergraduates to enroll immediately in the main University could and would be successfully resisted.

Integration Impact Felt

Desegregation has rubbed out growth plans for at least one Texas Negro College.

Prospect of competition with the University of Texas had that impact last week on Huston-Tillotson College in Austin.

"A first class small college" of 500 to 600 students, rather than an increase to 1,000 to 1,200 students, is the current goal, the president announced.

Crop Acreage Drops

Total acreage of Texas crops has dropped five per cent, or 1,200,000 acres, from last year, according to the US Department of Agriculture.

Allotment restrictions on wheat, cotton and rice plus abandonment of planted wheat acreage account for the decrease.

Partially offsetting this is the record sorghum acreage. Patrol Extends Deadline

Deadline for highway patrol job applications has been extended from July 25 to Aug. 1.

One hundred new officers are to be hired by the patrol. Funds were provided by the last legislature by raising drivers license fees.

BIG REA ELECTRIC FAIR TO BE STAGED IN COMANCHE, MON., TUES., AUGUST 1-2

The 1955 Electric Fair, an all-new rural show which has already entertained thousands this year in Texas, will make its appearance in Comanche August 1-2 again sponsored by the Comanche County Electric Cooperative as a part of its annual membership meeting.

Two contests, professional entertainment, exhibits, and free ferris wheel rides for the kids will all be a part of the bigger and better "Big Top" show which will take place at Lake Eanes Park.

Co-Op Manager W. J. Parks calls attention to the important business session at which members will elect directors and hear reports on operations and progress of the Co-Op during the past year.

Parks points out that only once each year do the members of the Co-Op acting as a group have this opportunity to take active part in the business, and he strongly urges that all attend.

"We are especially hopeful of having a large representation of members this year," he said, "because this year is the twentieth anniversary of the creation of the Rural Electrification Administration, and a good time for all members to take note of the progress of this rural cooperative program."

The business meeting and the Electric Fair for the Co-Op members will be held at the Lake Eanes Park all day August 2. The evening before, however, August 1, there will be a special showing of the entire entertainment bill of the Electric Fair especially for the townpeople who will not be attending the membership meeting.

Headlining the entertainment are Everett Duncanson, master magician, and Jesse Sides, the "Clown Prince of Pantomime." Both are veterans of many top-notch shows, but are being presented for the first time on the Electric Fair circuit.

A popular repeat from last year is the Willie Wirehand Quiz Contest, with winners being chosen by their answers to questions about the Co-Op and about the contest's sponsor, the local Frigidaire dealer, and his products.

An entirely new feature is the Cake Baking Contest, sponsored by the Frigidaire dealer. All who wish to enter need only to bake a cake and bring it along to the meeting for judging. The entries will be judged on the basis of forty per cent for flavor, twenty-five per cent for texture, fifteen per cent for lightness, ten per cent for color, and ten per cent for content and moisture combined.

Information on both these contests will be available at the Frigidaire exhibit booth at the meeting. Along the midway to the Big-Top will be a complete showing of electric appliances and equipment sponsored by dealers and manufacturers.

Comanche County Electric Cooperative now serves more than 6,000 members and operates in Comanche, Mills, Brown, Eastland, Stephens, Shackelford, and Callahan Counties. Present directors of the Co-Op are M. A. Richmond, president, W. B. Starr, vice-president, B. Ray McCorkle, secretary-treasurer, Joe Weedon, Troy Pettit, Jim Foreman, and Paul Roberts.

Headlining the door prizes will be a Westinghouse TV set complete with antenna and installation given in cooperation with Hathcock Appliance Store in Comanche, Westinghouse Co. and the Comanche Electric Co-Op.

Bill Travis of Houston spent the past week here with his mother, Mrs. Annie Travis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Helms and daughter, Sue, of Big Spring visited Mrs. Jeff Clark Wednesday night and Thursday of last week.
