spraying of the city last Saturday night to control mosquitos and other insect pests, according to an announcement made here Monday by Lloyd McMillan, City Utilities Superintendent.

McMillan stated that a heavy spray of chlorodane and oil was used in the city fogging machine and all property within the city limits was sprayed, along with the city sewer farm, some two miles south of town.

He urges city residents to aid in the fight against mosquitos and flies by keeping their premises clean and all cans hauled off so that these pesky and dangerous insects can be controlled. Tall weeds and stagnant water in cans makes control by the city almost impossible,

Tyler-Jones Vows Solemnized May 12

Miss Joyce Tyler of Abilene and Mr. Harold Jones of Cross Plains were married in the First Baptist Church of Cross Plains Saturday evening, May 12, 1956, at 8:00 o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. D. R. Philley, pastor of the church, before an altar arranged with an arch of greenery flanked by candelabra holding white candles. Baskets of white gladioli and blue shasta daisies were used on each side of the arch.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tyler of Cross Plains are parents of the Miss Glendene Philley furnished the traditional wedding music and accompanied C. T. Aly of the First Calvary Baptist Church of Brownwood who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer.

Miss Lynda Tyler, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a blue waltz length dress of lace over blue taffeta. Her accessories were white and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations edged with silver and streamers of blue James Barr of Cross Plains was the groom's best man. Candlelighters were Buddy Phil ley and Jerry Tyler, brother of the bride. Ushers were Terry Cearley and Darvel Hutchins.

The bride given in marriage b her father, wore a waltz length dress of white lace over taffeta. The bodice was fitted with low waistline was a V shape. Her shirred nylo gloves were edged in lace and pearls Her French illusion veil was caugh to a white lace hat centered with rhinestones. She carried an orchic atop a white pearlized Bible. She wore a strand of pearls and teardrop ear rings belonging to Mrs. Jos Byers of Abilene. The penny she wore in her shoe was a gift from the girls employed in the office with the bride.

The bride's mother wore an aqua linen sheath dress with matching lace duster. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the wedding, a recep tion was held in the basement of the church. Baskets of blue daisies and white gladioli and vases of other white and blue flowers decorated the reception room. The table was laid with a white linen cloth and appointments were in crystal and silver. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with white and blue tinted roses centered on white lace and ruffled blue net and topped with a miniature bride and

Attending the register was Miss Elva Nell Rouse. Misses Marcille Rich poured punch and Jaunice Bishop served the cake. Miss Glenna Pillans assisted in serving.

Machines At Work

We use the most modern machinery available in the maintenance of accurate and correct records concerning the accounts of our customers. We cannot eliminate, however, the human equation nor would we despense with it if we could, for this factor lends emphasis to the spirit of service which characterizes the operation of a modern bank.

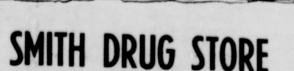

Thus, we note with appreciation the accurate performance of our machines but we point with pride to hands that press the keys.
