Road Building Speed-up.-Texas State Highway Commission is moving swiftly to take advantage of new laws designed to speed up highway construction. A meeting of the Commission and key personnel was to be held in Houston this week. Objective: to hasten the day when heavy traffic can move safely and smoothly along multi-lane super-highways with no crossroads. Principal legislative changes are 1) provision for the state to go 50-50 with cities and counties on land buying costs and (2) new authority for the state to obtain land for and have control of super-roads through

Goal for 1970, according to Highway Engineer D. C. Greer, is 900 miles of expressways linking Texas' population centers. First of the new laws means car and truck owners will pay 10 per cent more for their next license plates. Second means state will set speed limits on state highways thru towns-no local speed traps.

But one "speed-up" law failed. Legislators decided against raising present 60 mile-per-hour limit, no matter how good the road. Tougher for Teens,-Law enforce-nent officers will, in effect, have a new hickory stick for teenage troublemakers after Aug. 22. New laws to go into effect then
