NUMBER 52

$60,000 PRODUCTION CREDIT ASS'N FOR THREE COUNTIES WILL OPEN FOR BUSINESS HERE JANUARY 30

Will Handle Old Loans and Make New Ones On Feed and Livestock Up To Total Total Of $300,000.

That the recently organized Production Credit Association for Lamb, Bailey and Parmar counties will be perfected and opened for business at 10.00 a. m., Tuesday January 30, in Muleshoe is the gist of information received this week by Jess Osborne, director, from Owen W. Sherrill, secretary of the State Production Credit Corporation at Houston.

At that time there will also be a meeting of the directors of the organization for the purpose of selecting a secretary-treasurer to handle the business of the new concern also to choose a place to house the organization. The new concern is designed to handle the needs of these three named counties. It will have a capitalization of $60,000, and empowered to make loans up to $300,000.

Its purpose is to make all kinds of farm production and livestock loans and to retire old loans of a similar nature. It will also take care of various loans now being handled by some of the federal emergency organizations, and will be an organization of much value to the farmers of these three counties. At the organization meeting held three weeks ago in Littlefield, Muleshoe was selected by the directors as the location of this bank, because of it being the most central point of the three counties and because of its strategic accessibility to contemplated patrons from all parts of the three interested counties.

Stock in the bank will be divided into two kinds, one kind to be known as voting stock and to be owned by the Intermediate Corporation, the other stock to be owned by borrowers and carrying one vote per owner regardless of the amount of stock owned.

Each borrower must pay $5.00 worth of stock for each $1,000 borrowed, and all stockholders will participate in the profits of the bank. Stock may be transferred to other borrowers, if desired.

Directors in the new organization are Jesse M. Osborn and W. M. Pool, Jr., for Bailey county; B. J. McGee and Martin White, for Lamb county; F. E. Kempley and J. R. Caldwell, for Parmar county, with G. P. Howell Enoch director at large.

Wm. Matthiesen Out For Co. Commissioner In Precinct No. One

In this issue of the Journal Wm. S. F. Matthiesen makes announcement of his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner, Precinct 1.

Mr. Matthiesen is one of the older settlers of Bailey county since its organization, having lived in the county since 1918. He owns his own home and has always manifested a vital interest in the general welfare of the county.

Mr. Matthiesen has previously served the county as one of its commissioners, helping to throw up some of the first highway grades in the county. He states he feels that he is well acquainted with the county, the people and their needs, that he has given good service in the past and will give the best he has in the future.

Mr. Matthiesen expresses his great interest in better roads throughout the county, and promises to do his best to see that the roads of his district are kept in good condition during his term of office. He states that it is of vital importance to said Mr. Matthiesen, and the public, in these modern times, to have good highways to travel on.

Mr. Matthiesen states he is thorough with the duties of a commissioner, realizes full well how his has been handicapped during two or three years in a way, and while it has always policy to save every dollar of the people's tax money, if policy when a dollar is spent it bring in a full 100 cents saved. Mr. Matthiesen makes his announcement as the banner of the Democracy, and expresses his intention to make a thorough canvass of the county, visiting and soliciting the vote of every voter, and in addition the favorable influence and help of his precinct.

ELSON-BURKHEAD

My friends of the contracting are greatly surprised last when announcement was made a Burkhead and Miss Bettie were married at Clovis, N. M., Christmas day. The newly weds successfully kept secret their no one here having any inkling of the event until they made the announcement of it. Burkhead is the son of County Mrs. J. B. Burkhead and is the son of the E. R. Hart Lumber Co. He is the elder daughter of Mrs. Geo. Nelson, residing at northwest of Muleshoe, and is a member of the senior high school. He is remaining at the residence of the groom's parents until residence can be obtained. A Stock show at Houston from February 24 to March 4.

W. R. Carter Asks Re-election As Co. Commissioner Pre. 4

W. R. Carter, County Commissioner in Precinct 4, of Bailey county, in this issue of the Journal, makes announcement of his candidacy for re-election to that office, subject to action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. Carter, in asking for return to this office says he is doing so largely because of numerous solicitations from citizens of his precinct, and for the further reason that he feels he is fully competent to efficiently handle the duties of this important trust.

Mr. Carter has been a resident of Bailey county for the past five years, owns his own farm home, and says he has always taken a vital interest in every plan and movement of every kind that is destined for the general betterment of the county, and for as well as those of his particular precinct.

"It is a known fact," said Mr. Carter, "that in the business world when a man is employed for any particular task, if his services are satisfactory and acceptable that firm is loath to release him. The same reasoning should be effective in public offices. I have realized all the time the office I hold is one of public trust; that I am a servant of the people, and elected by them to look after their interests in this respect."

"I am quite sure my service as your Commissioner has been honest and faithful. True the Commissioners' court has been seriously handicapped in many ways, including road-building, for lack of funds, the people not being able to pay in their taxes; but I have always worked in perfect harmony with other members of this court in stretching out the finances we did have to cover as much needed expense as possible and to be economical in all expenditures as possible, consistent with good business."

"Because of my past experience, I am confident I can serve my constituents even more efficiently in the future than I have been able to do in the past. I am very confident I can serve this county generally and my own precinct particularly better than one who has had no experience in this office, and therefore, respectfully solicit the votes and favorable influence of all citizens for re-election to this important office."

—W. R. CARTER

BANG!! Another New Year's Resolution—By Albert T. Reid

Byron Gwyn Will Recover Injuries Received Friday

Byron Gwyn, 20, who was seriously injured last Friday while operating a feed grinder at Lariat, is reported resting easy this week and hopes of his ultimate recovery are now being entertained.

Gwyn, while putting a four inch belt on a feed grinder was, in some unexplainable manner, caught in the belt, jacked on down and around the pulley at one end, landing on his head. It is supposed that his left arm was twisted around the pulley, breaking it four times, according to x-ray pictures taken.

His jaw was also broken about the center of the chin, one knee dislocated, while the left side of his face was badly bruised and lacerated from the impact. There were no internal injuries. He was promptly taken to a hospital at Clovis, N. M., where the broken members were set. In about 24 hours he returned to consciousness, and since that time appears to be recovering as well as could be expected.

P.-T. A. To Sponsor A Glee Club Program By Friona Singers

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association was held in the High school auditorium last Monday evening, there being a good attendance of parents, patrons and other interested people present.

On the program was a piano solo by Miss Norma Elrod, a talk on "Mental Health" by Mrs. J. C. Weaver and a piano duet by Mrs. Levi Churchill and daughter, Grace Churchill. Mrs. Ray Griffiths, president, in charge of the meeting, urged upon the patrons a more significant and trustworthy sense of the obligation as members of the P.-T. A.

It was reported the scholarship in John Brown college, Siloam Springs, Ark., had now been paid in full, and favorable remarks regarding that institution were made.

It was decided the P.-T. A. would sponsor a program to be presented here in the near future by the Glee club at Friona, the date to be announced later.

R. C. Joiner, Of Plainview, Out For Judge This District

Judge R. C. Joiner, of Plainview, makes announcement of his candidacy for the office of District Judge in the 7th judicial district. He has previously been judge of this district and will be remembered very favorably by a large number of his former friends and citizens generally of Bailey county. His brief announcement statement is as follows:

"In making my announcement as a candidate for the office of District Judge of this district, I come not as an entire stranger, having served in this capacity for 12 years. Since 1926 I have been in the active practice of law at Plainview, Texas, where I have resided for the past 26 years.

"While serving as judge I made a record of which I am justly proud, and I come before the voters of this district on that record and my qualifications, and these alone. If elected, I will dispatch business with promptness and with fairness to all parties concerned, and on these I am asking the support of the voters of this district. This includes the ladies as well as the men."—R. C. JOINER.

Miss Reva Mae Williams, former deputy, retires to take a course in business college training at Lubbock.

A Poultry Show Is Being Planned Held In February

That a Poultry show may be held for Bailey and adjoining counties in Muleshoe early next month was the consensus of opinion expressed by committee members holding a meeting last Monday night to make arrangements for same.

For the past two years there has been considerable agitation in the matter of a bird show of this type and present indications are that February 8, 9 and 10 will be the date selected for such a showing.

Arrangements have been made for obtaining show coops from the South Plains Fair association at Lubbock, and the committee this week is working out further details regarding display, premiums, awards, etc. It is stated there will be between 75 and 100 breeders to have showing of their birds of different breeds.

Miller Will Take A Business Census For Bailey County

M. G. Miller has been appointed by C. B. Middleton, district supervisor of a business census, Lubbock to take the business census of Bailey county. The work must be completed by February 15.

Eight questions are included in the business questionnaire with the following explanation of their value: "These questions call for an accurate description of the business establishment, the kind of merchandise handled or service offered for sale, the principal functions performed, employment given during 1933 to men and women on part time and full-time basis, salaries and wages paid to such employees, other operating expenses incurred, net sales and other operating receipts of the business stocks on hand last inventory date and the amount of business done on a credit basis.

"While individual returns will be held as strictly confidential, the basic data to be supplied by the census will give every business man comprehensive figures concerning the particular line of business in which he is engaged."

LAZBUDDY SAFE ROBBED

Sometime Friday night the safe in the general store at Lazbuddy was stolen, taken down the highway a short distance and burst open. About $300 was taken, according to Wm. Shirley, proprietor.

No clue of the robbers has yet been discovered.

$870 Is Given To Bailey County For Truck, Team Work

Federal work on the North and South highway from Muleshoe to the southern Bailey county line was resumed Wednesday following a telegram received Monday from Austin headquarters by Pat. S. Bobo, county director of CWA work.

A telegram was received here last Friday ordering that all truck and team work should be discontinued, but that a certain amount of hand labor might go on. Two reasons were assigned to the order, one being the approach of better financial and climatic conditions in the southern states and the other the fact that government funds allowed this particular work were running low.

Bobo and his assistants have been working an average of 300 men heretofore, but this number will now be reduced to 251, or an average of 83 men to each working shift. Work hours of hand labor in towns of 2500 population or under and in open country has also been reduced from 30 to 15 hours per week. The sum of $870 per week has been allocated to Bailey county for team and truck hire.

Under the new ruling it has been found advisable to appoint community directors of work, so Mr. Bobo has divided the county by school districts and the following women have been appointed to handle applications for work in their respective districts.

At Bula, Mrs. R. L. Patterson will receive applications on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

At Circleback applications may be made to Mrs. G. O. Sharron on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Those in Fairview community will make applications to Mrs. Sam Russell, first three days of the week.

In West Camp applications may be made to Miss Laura Chaney, first three days of week.

At Progress make applications to Mrs. T. L. Snyder first three days of week.

Those residing in Baileyboro, Stegall and Longview communities will make applications to Mrs. J. S. Fears any day of the week.

Mrs. W. L. Blaylock will have charge of Goodland, Wilson and Watson communities. She will be in Goodland Monday and Tuesday to receive applications; Wilson Wednesday and Thursday; Watson, Friday and Saturday.

People in Liberty and Muleshoe districts will make applications direct to the head office in the court house here.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.—II Chronicles, 10:8.
Believe one who has tried it—Virgil.

YOUR NEIGHBORS

Neighbors are a great institution and few people would care to get along without them. Nobody wants neighbors who are too familiar, but everybody wants them friendly enough so an egg or a cup of sugar can be borrowed when the occasion demands.

In every house in Muleshoe are good neighbors. You may not know that those living right around you are as good neighbors as can be found anywhere on earth, but they are. If you are in want, or in trouble, you will find them right at your door and ready to lend a helping hand. How they find out just when you need their help is often a mystery. But what neighbors know about neighbors would fill a book. You may live beside them for years and view them as nothing more than residents of your town.

But let trouble come into your home—then you will see what fine neighbors they are. You'll also find out, if you haven't before this, that there is nothing in the world more valuable than good neighbors.

RIGHT HERE AT HOME

There is plenty of evidence at hand today, just as there has been in the past, to show that a large number of Muleshoe people do not appreciate the stores of their home town as they should. The careful housewife wants dependable merchandise at reasonable prices. The stores here have it. It is not necessary to order by mail or go to some other city to trade, thereby helping to build the other city. Local stores carry large stocks of seasonable merchandise and the quality of goods offered makes the purchasing power of your dollar greater than in any other town.

The owners of your local business concerns are public-spirited and progressive. They always do their part toward the civic betterment of your town. Their stores are filled with big values in merchandise, and they are certainly in position to supply your every need. They make it their business to give such service and have such stocks that will fulfill the wants of every customer.

No one should handicap the business and the buying power of his home town by spending their money away from home. Your business men realize that the good will of their customers is the greatest asset they can have and you, too, should realize that progressive stores are a help and credit to your community. The home town merchants want you to know that they are intimately interested in your welfare and are trying at all times to do more than their share for the welfare of the town and the community in which it is located.

Jaunty Journalettes

Muleshoe women are dreadful gossip. They tell one another every bit of scandal their husbands tell them.

It's alright for a Muleshoe man to keep his property in his wife's name if he is sure he can keep his wife.

Reading that a great statesman had said that the people of the world desire peace, we also recall a number of husbands around Muleshoe who desire the same thing.

A good paint job often persuades some Muleshoe fellows to keep their car, and it also works out where wives are concerned.

The Muleshoe motorist who thinks the automobile with "knee action" can climb a tree should be reminded that it has no hind legs.

Still, we doubt if you could find even one man around Muleshoe who

It isn't the fear of criticism that bothers most Muleshoe folks; it's the fear that our critics may be right.

What has become of the old-fashioned Muleshoe man who used to consider it unucky to take in a two dollar bill?

Pavement Pickups

It is reported the Trades Day committee is trying to make arrangements for "La Vie Paree," famous leg show to appear in Muleshoe as the leading attraction for next Trades Day. Should they succeed, the crowd is already guaranteed.

Over $1,000,000 worth of false teeth were exported from this country last year, according to Dr. A. E. Lewis. He added, "that ought to give those foreigners something to chew on."

M. G. Miller is taking a census this week. He dropped into one place of business and the woman of the firm happened to greet him. "How many in your family?" he asked. "Five," snapped the woman. "me, the old man, kid cow and cat." "And what are the politics of the family?" M. G. asked. "Mixed," she replied. "I'm Republican the old man's a Democrat, the kid's wet, the cow's dry and the cat's a populist."

"What can you tell me about Nitrates?" asked Miss Beatty, teacher of general science. Mary Frances, who has been working in the telephone office: "They're cheaper than day rates."

Spencer Beavers was leading a dog down the street the other day when some one asked him what kind of dog it was. Promptly he replied, "Police dog." "But it don't look like a police dog," the inquirer said. "None," said Spencer. "It's in the secret service."

About two years ago Dr. Matthews cured a Bailey county citizen of rheumatism, and told him if he wished to avoid a recurrence of the ailment to keep away from any dampness. One day last week the fellow returned to the doctor and said, "Doc, this is sure a dry country and no danger from dampness; but I haven't had a bath since you cured by rheumatism, and I was just wondering if I dared to take one."

A customer went into Henington's store the other day wanting to know if pants were singular or plural. Homer was prompt with his answer: "Singular above the crotch and plural below."

Julian Lenau in extolling the virtues of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, told of a bridegroom who used it on his wife's first batch of hot cakes. No, we're not calling any names.

Several of Don Eason's friends are seriously wondering why he is eating so much sauerkraut this week, yet no one has had the nerve to ask him.

A couple went to the Palace theatre a few nights ago. They had a baby with them, and as they went in they were warned if the baby cried they would have to leave and get their money back. It was a dandy picture, but about two-thirds of the way through, the picture he leaned over to his wife and said, "What you think?" "Rotten," she replied. "Well, punch the baby and let have Clara Bow give us our money back."

FEDERAL LAW HELPS DEPOSITS

That the Federal guarantee law protecting bank deposits up to $2,500 is having a stimulating effect on banking business and that deposits everywhere are on the increase, is the information coming out from the daily reports issued at Washington.

The daily press states much postal deposit money is being withdrawn now and being put into the banks, also much money is being withdrawn from various hidden sources for deposit.

While this condition prevails largely in the larger centers, it is also true in the smaller towns, the local bank enjoying a considerable stimulation of deposits since the federal guarantee law became effective, it being a member of the deposit insurance corporation.

Free Action for all 4 wheels

plus the safety of a front axle and comfort of Cantilever Springs

A great deal of thought is being given today to springs. Various experiments are being tried in an effort to get independent action for an automobile's front wheels.

All of which is simply another tribute to the soundness of Ford engineering and the Ford V-8 for 1934. When you drive this car you get free action not only for the front wheels—but for all 4 wheels.

Ford transverse cantilever springs provide individual suspension for both front and rear axles. In the new Ford these springs have been made more flexible. This type of construction is not experimental and has the advantage of

New Chevrolet Now On Display Here At Valley Motor Rooms

The new 1934 Chevrolet with "knee-action" wheels, 80-horsepower "Blue Streak" engine, streamlined body and an imposing list of improvements and refinements is on display today in Muleshoe at the Valley Motor Co., dealer's showrooms.

In the design and development of the new models, particular attention has been given to driver and passenger comfort and every effort has been made to eliminate the sensations of both sound and feeling that prove annoying to the motorist.

The new Chevrolet is longer—it has a 12 inch wheelbase—roomier, more powerful, smoother and more quiet than its predecessor. The engine is placed several inches farther forward in the chassis and seating has been rearranged.

The additional length is disposed so as to provide more space for the front seat occupants and considerably more room for the rear seat passengers.

In appearance, the sleekness which has characterized Chevrolet cars in the past, is further accentuated by the actual length increase plus the treatment of the car design itself.

The increased power delivered by the new "Blue Streak" engine improves the flashing performance and the many engine refinements, combined with distinct chassis improvements insure extremely fast, safe, economical and quiet operation. Both front and rear seat passengers are insulated from road shocks by the introduction of independent front wheel suspension—known as "knee action" wheels—combined with improved rear spring suspension and a more balanced distribution of weight.

"Knee-Action" Wheels
By independent front wheel suspension is meant the attachment of the front wheels directly to the frame without the use of a front axle. In the conventional type of springing it was necessary to have very stiff front springs because these springs had to hold the axle and wheels in place. Independent springing relieves the front springs of this task and permits the use of a front spring which has a soft, velvety action, just as soft, in fact, as the rear springs. Not only improved riding is a result of independent springing, but a host of other advantages are apparent. Steering stability is greatly improved and wheel flight completely eliminated.

"Blue Streak" Engine
The new "Blue Streak" engine with which the 1934 Chevrolet is powered, is more powerful, smoother, quieter and more economical than any of its predecessors. Incorporating many unique design features and refinements, the new motor has a bore of 3 3/16 inches and a four inch stroke and develops 80 horsepower at 3,300 revolutions per minute.

The new Chevrolet engine has many distinctive features and at the same time retains the many basic features, for which it has been so highly praised by automotive authorities and hundreds of thousands of owners. The additional features include: improved valve mechanism; more efficient pistons and narrower compression rings; recalibrated harmonic balancer; new type oil pump; new inlet manifold; improved exhaust manifold and longer more quiet muffler; downdraft carburetor; larger aircleaner and intake silencer; Octane selector; simplified and improved fuel pump and an additional rubber mounting located beneath the transmission.

The 1934 line of passenger cars again feature Fisher No-draft ventilation in all closed body types. All bodies are approximately 3 3/4 inches longer with the cowl lengthened 1 3/4 inches and 2 inches added to the width of the closed body front doors.

The same smart beaver tail design and flowing stream lines which characterized the 1933 closed bodies are continued in the 1934 line with modifications. The front header panel just above the windshield, is smoother and more rounded.

The windshield on all closed bodies is sealed more effectively against leakage of rain at the lower edge. The rubber insulation is made in a single piece with the glass seated deeper in it. The rubber is moulded with the outer sealing lip turned inward so as to insure sufficient pressure between it and the windshield glass to make a tight joint.

The cowl ventilator is located closer to the windshield, with its screened opening facing toward the rear. It is controlled by a lever with a neat die cast knob located farther toward the left where it is more easily accessible to the driver. The air, which enters thru the rust-proof screen at high speed, is divided by a central deflector which diverts the air toward the sides, insuring better ventilation, because of more uniform distributions of the air.

The No-Draft Ventilators in the front windows of the Sedan and the four-window coupe are wider, balancing the increased width of the front doors and providing more controllable ventilation. Deflectors are added over each of the front door ventilators to exclude rain when the ventilator is open and to prevent down draft. They extend outward from the doors just above the edge of the ventilators and have a rolled gutter at their outflanges to catch rain and to insure stiffness. They are finished in body color.

The 1934 Chevrolet frame is of an entirely new design known as the "Y" type and is 20 times stiffer torsionally than the conventional type used in previous models. In shape, the sub-frame members simulate a letter "Y" and the second cross member with its braces forms a letter "K", from which the frame derives its name. It was designed to cooperate with the new independent front wheel suspension and consequently it imparts proper support and rigidity exactly where the new suspension requires those properties.

Brakes on the new Chevrolet are of the double-articulated shoe type, with additional length of contact surface produced by the increase in the length of the lower shoes. This provides more uniform support for the drums, prevents undue distortion under heavy braking pressure, as well as greatly increased braking efficiency. Both front and rear brakes are of the diagonal full-cable control type with a short, rigid cross shaft.

The core of the smart, rakish new radiator is of the same ribbed, cellular type which proved so efficient in the 1933 car. The core is made entirely of copper this year, representing still further cooling efficiency.

Chevrolet also offers the Starterator in the 1934 models. The Starterator eliminates a starting button, the latter being coincidental with the foot accelerator.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was a banner day at the Baptist church. The Sunday school opened promptly at 9:45 a. m., with a large majority present on time, for the first Sunday in departmental work. It was an inspiration to see 15 members of the Men's Bible class seated in their places at the appointed hour, for the devotional period. We had 133 in Sunday school, a record for attendance at the preaching service.

Rev. Jenkins brought a message on "The Challenge of the Church," at the close of the service there were four conversions, three of whom joined the church.

Our B. T. S. met promptly at 6:30 p. m., a good number of our membership being present.

Rev. Jenkins brought a forceful message at the close of the B. T. S. services. There were two conversions at the close of the service.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The pastor will preach at 11:00 a. m., and this being the Fourth Sunday it will be of a missionary nature throughout all the services.

The leagues and evening services meet at the usual hour. We wish to remind our Sunday school workers of the teacher's meeting Sunday afternoon. This is the first one we have called in some time and hope for a full quota of the teachers and workers present.

Women meet for their work each Monday. The mid-week meeting deals with a study of the Sunday school lesson for next Sunday. Here the pastor and the teachers study and plan for the lesson together.

The choir meets this week at the parsonage. It is said there will be some official business to be seen after, and all members of the choir are urged to be present.

We want to remind the people of the poll tax time limitations being on January 31. The editor had a splendid article on this, and this election year all people should by all means settle this 'ere they forget it.

PRIOTH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Another one of those most delectable birthday dinners was enjoyed Thursday last week at Mrs. Mirtie Prioth's home, it being the anniversary of Mrs. Prioth's birth.

Directly after twelve o'clock, the invitation came for the ladies to line up and serve their plates.

FARMERS ASK REMOVAL OF 100 POUNDS MINIMUM COTTON BASIS

A meeting of cotton growers, county farm agents and other interested citizens was held at Anson last Friday to remonstrate against the government ruling requiring a minimum of 100 pounds of lint cotton per acre before a grower could participate in the government cotton acreage reduction campaign for 1934-35.

Petitions were sent the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. asking that the minimum amount be waived because of drought conditions in many of the counties interested, some having been affected for from one to three years.

This stated some sections of Bailey county may be barred from this participation because of poor crop conditions in the past.

Gov. Loans To Be Based On Acreage Reduction Contracts

Farmers desiring government loans of various kinds must first enter into a crop acreage reduction contract with the government to be eligible to same, according to J. B. Waide, Jr., Bailey county farm agent.
 A tenant farmer who does not know whether his landlord will enter into a government contract is advised to fill out a contract himself and return it to the county agent's office in Muleshoe. This will put him in the clear, said Mr. Waide, showing his own willingness to co-operate with the government. These contracts will be kept on file and may be of value to tenants later on in getting future loans should the landlords eventually refuse to sign.
 Also, where grovers have signed under the 10 cent advance on spot cotton or the $20 per bale advance on option cotton, they must sign a contract to reduce acreage this year. In this case, where the landlord refuses to sign such contract, the contract should be signed by the tenant and turned into the county agent's office.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.
