Pastor Assignments Lane Steele Dies Made By Methodists

Rev. John Harper, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Cross Plains the past year, has been re-assigned to the local pulpit. His appointment was announced Friday by the Central Texas Methodist Conference in session at Fort Worth. District Superintendent Allen A. Peacock with headquarters in Cisco was reassigned as District Superintendent. Paul Whitton, Cross Plains school superintendent, who attended the Fort Worth meeting as lay representative of the local church, was named District Lay Leader and District Director of Stewardship.

E. J. Hughes of Brownwood, former Pioneer agriculture teacher, was named Lay Leader of the Brownwood district.

Rev. Wallace J. Bennett, former Cross Plains man who is now a Methodist minister, was reassigned as Chaplain with the United States Army Quartermaster Corps.

Rev. D. L. Barnes, pastor of the local Methodist Church in the late 1940's, was sent to Rising Star. Rev. C D. Wooten, who served as Methodist pastor here during the early years of World War II, was assigned to Killeen.

The Rev. B. L. McCord, who pastored the Pioneer Methodist Church before its consolidation with the Cross Plains congregation, goes to the Seventh Street Methodist Church at Temple.

Returned to the Putnam- morning. Scranton charge was the Rev W. C. (Bill) Crawford.
