Clyde at MERKEL: Would like to pick the Bulldogs to win in opener, but polls seem to agree that Class AA Clyde is rebuilding while Class A Merkel has shot at loop crown. Should be close, 13-7.

GOLDTHWAITE at San Saba 9-A Eagles are loaded again this year and are looking for revenge of defeat by Armadillos last year. Goldthwaite gets nod, 20-6.

EARLY at Jim Ned: Both picked as also-rans, but 9-A Longhorns seem much more potent than Indians. Early takes win, 27-8.

TRENT at May: Not much known in this battle, but Gorillas are tough, and Tigers fall in close one, 14-12

Evant at GORMAN: Panthers figure to be second to Bangs in conference again this year, and Evant is unknown. On a hunch Gorman is favored, 22-7

Bronte at BANGS: Battle of powers in Class B, and home field gives Dragons the edge.

Cisco at RANGER: Ranger won 10-A crown last year, and figuers to be strong again. Cisco is considered somewhat weaker AA team. Bulldogs win grudge contest, 19-8.

De Leon at HAMILTON: This one thrown in for record purposes, 7-AA Bulldogs in romp over 10-A Bearcats, 38-6.

Rising Star at WYLIE: Wildcats won on a safety last year. and could win again, but we'll take Bulldogs at home, 14-13.

SANTA ANNA at Baird: Callahan County Bears will win a game this year, but not the opener against 9-A champ Mountaineers. Santa Anna by two touchdowns, 20-8.

Coleman at ANSON: Tigers are forecast as potential state playoff material, and should whip fine Bluecat eleven, 19-14.

Dublin at COMANCHE: 10-A Lions are powerhouse this year, but Comanche Indians are Class AA and could be a surprise. Indians 20-19.

Harold F. Moon, 41, Buried Here Tuesday

Funeral services were held for Harold F. Moon, 41, at 10 a.m. Tuesday from the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains. He was found dead in bed at his home at Rowden Sunday about 5 p.m.

The discovery was made by J. H. Cox, Cross Plains deputy sheriff, and H. D. Welch, local highway patrolman, after neighhors became worried because Moon had not been seen since about noon Friday. He lived

Jones of Baird ordered an autopsy performed at an inquest at the scene Sunday. Cox reported that the autopsy revealed that there was no foul play involved in Moon's death.

Jones estimated that Moon had been dead possibly 48 hours before discovery.

Final rites were officiated by the Rev. C. R. Myrick of Cottonwood, and burial was in Cross Plains Cemetery under direction of Higginbotham Funeral Home of Cross Plains.

Born at Cisco on March 6, 1927, Mr. Moon was a member of the Cross Plains Baptist Church, and was in the Navy during World War II.

Survivors include one sister, Pauline Moon, of Houston; a nephew, Bobby Moon, of Fort Worth; a sister-in-law, Rosemay Moon, of Fort Worth, and an uncle, the Rev. O. D. Henley, of Brownwood.

Pallbearers were Elic Bainbridge, Raymond Gibbs, Roy Thornton, Arvin Thornton, Jimmy West and Bill Lawrence.

P. G. and B. H. Freeland of Baird and Jack Freeland of Midland visited friends and kinsmen here one day last week.

A potentially serious two-vehicle collision here Thursday resulted in only minor personal injury, but heavy property

Fred Smoot, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smoot, was slightly injured when thrown from the back of a pickup. He sustained lacerations of his head, back and arm. He was held that night for observation in an Eastland hospital.

The crash occurred about city limits on Highway 36. A 1967 Plymouth driven by Ed Lane of Sweetwater, who was not hurt, crashed into the rear of the truck driven by Jerry Hinkle of this city. Both autos were traveling west, Three passengers in the pickup, Madenia Stansbury, Anita Wooten and Brad Harris, were not hurt.

Investigation was by an Abilene Highway Patrol team, and J. H. Cox, local deputy sheriff.
