It is one which for the first time in history requires that every voter pre-register with a county tax assessor-collector before Feb. 1. Previously, voters over 60 years of age were not required to take any action to be qualified to ballot.

Council Vacancies

At the local level, Cross Plains will elect a mayor and two aldermen the first week in April. Tenures of Mayor Doyle Burchfield and Councilmen Raymond DeBusk and T. T. (Nick) Nichols are expiring. Aldermen with still another full year to serve are Oscar Koenig, Gerald Bowden and J. P. McCord.

On the school board here three vacancies will occur and must be filled, also in April balloting. Terms of Edwin Baum, Vernon Phillips and D. C. Jones expire at that time. Hold-qver's on the board are Tommie Harris and Dr. Carl J. Sohns, each with two more years to serve, and Nathan Foster and Zed

For state offices heated campaigns are indicated, particularly in the governor's race. No less than 10 candidates, headed by Preston Smith, present lieutenant governor, are virtually certain to vie for the post being vacated by Gov. John Connally.

Presidential Year

Greatest interest of all, however, will likely develop in the selection of a president, slated in the general election Nov. 5. President Lyndon B. Johnson is expeted to seek a second elective term, and will face strong threats from both Republican and independent candidates. State convention to select delegates to the national convention, where standard bearers are chosen, will be held June 8.

Persons who have not registered to vote are being reminded that the necessary blanks are available at most banks as well as at courthouses. Registration is simple and can be accomplished through the mail.

DECORATED IN HOSPITAL - Lance Cpl. Jacky D. Hinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hinkle of Cross Plains, is pictured being presented with the Purple Heart in ceremonies in the hospital aboard the USS Okinawa. The Oct. 3 presentation was made by Rear Admiral Julian T. Burke, Commander Seventh Fleet Amphibious Force. Hinkle was wounded in the leg during a fire fight with Viet Cong who had ambushed his daylight patrol. The 1966 graduate of Cross Plains High School went back into combat in South Vietnam on Thanksgiving Day according to his parents. Cpl. Hinkle spent Christmas on duty at the most northern listening post in South Vietnam, located between Contien and Go Lyn. He was expecting to be moved to an air field in Quan Tri Province last week.

Bronze Star Recipient Gets Civilian Air Wings

David B. Gray, son of Mrs. June Cochran of Longview and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. (Bill) Kilgore of Cross Plains, is now wearing the silver wings of a flight officer of American Airlines. But he just recently has been notified of his being awarded the Bronze Star for "Meritious achievement in connection with military operations against a hostile force in the Republic of South Vietnam."

The honor medal, which arrived at the home of his wife's parents here last week, was won while on his second tour of duty, March 11 to Aug. 31, in the Southeast Asian country while serving as platoon leader for an aviation visual reconaissance company. Gray spent 10 years in the army, and attained the rank of major. He retired last Fall.
