Robert Henry Ivy Passed This Life Saturday, Dec. 21st

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Dec. 22, at Labuddy for Robert Henry Ivy who passed away Saturday night at 11 o'clock at his home seven and one-half miles northeast of Labuddy. Death came after a long illness, said to be cancer of the stomach. Rev. L. S. Jenkins, Muleshoe Baptist pastor, conducted the funeral services at the Labuddy school house, and interment was made in the Labuddy cemetery.

Mr. Ivy, one of the large wheat growers of the Labuddy section, came to that section of the country in 1926, where he has lived with his family since that time. He was a greatly loved man by all who knew him, a kind father and husband, and left many to mourn his passing.

He was laid to rest beneath a veritable bank of flowers presented by those who knew and loved him, and in the presence of a throng of people. During the services a quartet composed of Happy Waggon, John Gammons, Bruce Abney and Walter Noble, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fay Gallman rendered a most beautiful and appropriate vocal number as a tribute to the memory of the one who was being laid to rest.

Robert Henry Ivy was born April 12, 1882 in Alabama, being 53 years, 8 months and 9 days old when death came to him. He was married to Mrs. E. D. Barrett, Dec. 21, 1902. To this happy union were born 10 children, Henry Ivy, Mrs. Loyd Brown, Oden Ivy, Jimmie Ivy, Leland Ivy, Mrs. J. E. Waggon, Mrs. C. A. Garret, Tony Ivy, D. B. and R. V. Ivy.

Mr. Ivy is survived by his wife, children, Mrs. Lile M. Cullum, and a brother, J. T. Ivy, of Anna.

Christmas Cantata Rendered to Large Crowd Last Sunday

Sunday evening at the Methodist church a beautiful Christmas Cantata was rendered under direction of the pastor, Rev. R. S. Watkins.

A large crowd attended these services, and the lesson portrayed of the Christmas spirit as compared with selfishness and foolish pride, was a very fitting one. The soul inspiring Christmas melodies which interspersed the play was thoroughly appreciated by the attentive audience.

The cast of characters, all delivering their parts with unusual ability, is as follows: Mr. Murray, Cloyd Skeeters. Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Pat Bobo. Edythe, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Miss Twila Farrell. Marian, 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Miss Mary Holt. Edwin, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray, Spencer Beavers. Mrs. Gray, Miss Elizabeth Harden. President of Club, Irma Willis. Nan, Margaret Copley. Ellen, Malda Chandler. Alice Bentley, Polly Glascock. Mary Williams, Wanda Farrell. Dorothy Adams, Evelyn Jennings. Ruth Curtis, Grace Churchill. Jane, Florence Stone. Off-stage quartet.

GREEN GRAZING IS NECESSARY FOR COWS; VITAMIN "A" SUPPLIED BY PASTURE, SAYS DAIRY SPECIALIST

By A. D. JACKSON, Chief, Division of Publications.

Every housewife knows that when the cows are turned onto fresh green grass the butter will soon be a nice rich yellow and when the pasture dries up the butter grows pale again. The family may not know that the yellow butter is better for them but they do know that they like it better. Now the scientists come along and show us that the yellow butter is actually better for them because the natural rich yellow color is evidence that it contains plenty of vitamin A which contributes to the health of those who eat the butter. Scientists have found out how to measure the quantity of vitamin A in various feed stuffs and they have also gained some idea of the amount of vitamin A required to maintain the needs of our bodies and they can also measure the needs of growing or fattening animals and of cows that are giving milk. Furthermore, they have found that much greater amounts of vitamin A are needed for the cow giving milk if the butter is to be rich in vitamin A to make its proper contribution to the food value of our tables.

Experiment Station workers have found that cows giving milk need something more than dry rations and they even need more than dry rations with silage added and principally this thing they need is vitamin A. They know that yellow corn is richer in vitamin A than white corn and they know that alfalfa hay and heat dried alfalfa meal are very good sources of vitamin A, but even these do not furnish sufficient vitamin A to produce butterfat of the desired vitamin potency. The best source of vitamin A is green grazing.

Butterfat from cows on a good ration and good green pasture contains 33 to 450 units of vitamin A per gram which is about ideal for food purposes, but in order to attain this potency in the fat, either pasture or some such source of vitamin A must be added to the ration. A dairy cow receiving 7 pounds of yellow corn and 6 pounds of heat dried alfalfa meal supplying 116,000 units of vitamin A daily produced butterfat which decreased in vitamin A content from 33 units per gram when fresh off the pasture at the beginning of the test to 12 units in 8 weeks, after which it remained rather constant. This ration is probably richer in vitamin A than the ordinary dairy ration but it was not rich enough. Two other cows left on a ration low in vitamin A until they produced butterfat containing one and five units of vitamin A respectively were placed on pasture and within two weeks the vitamin A content of the butterfat increased to 32 and 25 units respectively. So it is not guesswork to say that cows need green grazing. No reasonable effort should be spared to provide continuous green grazing which is the cheapest and best source of vitamin A in addition to its value in supplying other needed elements of a good ration. On most of the soils of Texas, it is usually possible

L. S. Barron Died At Albuquerque, N. M., Sunday, Decem'r 22

Following an operation of creeping paralysis of several years duration, L. S. Barron, Muleshoe citizen for the past 16 years died suddenly at the Veterans' Hospital, Albuquerque, N. M., at 11:15 a. m. Dec. 22.

Funeral services were conducted from the Baptist church here last Tuesday, being in charge of the local pastor, Rev. L. S. Jenkins. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Fry, professor of Bible, Tech college, Lubbock. Rev. R. S. Watkins, local Methodist minister, also assisting in the last rites. Burial of remains was made in the Muleshoe cemetery, the last rites being in charge of the local American Legion post. A large concourse of friends attended the services, and followed the remains to their last resting place. Beautiful floral offerings were banked about the casket at the altar, and were a veritable bower at the cemetery.

Mr. Barron was born, January 22, 1889 at Bryan, this state. September 22, 1914 he was married to Miss Lela Tucker, and to that union there were born two children, L. S. Barron, Jr., and Lela Mae who with his widow now survive him. Also four brothers and a sister: J. I. Barron, Albert Barron, Lee Barron and W. W. Barron. Bryan, Mrs. Lillian Barron, Equuard, Lubbock, some of whom attended the funeral services of the deceased.

Mr. Barron with his family lived for four years at Dimmitt, coming to Muleshoe in May, 1919 where he obtained an abstract office, conducting same until a few months ago when his affliction became so great it became necessary for him to go elsewhere for treatment.

He was converted early in life and was one of the charter members of the local Baptist church when organized some years ago. He was also a member of the Muleshoe post, American Legion. He was always very active in church work and various religious enterprises. It is said to have resulted from an attack of erysipelas which suddenly struck the heart.

Mistake To Think The Young Must Have 'Children's Diseases'

AUSTIN, Dec. 24.—The State Department of Health reports show that several instances of the State have reported many cases of mumps, and in some instances epidemics are expected. While we do not ordinarily think of mumps as a particularly serious disease, it is a condition fraught with some real danger through its complications. The disease is usually spread by direct contact, rarely if ever by a third person. The period of incubation is from 12 to 18 days. Exposure to the onset of the disease, may be placed at twenty-one days. Mumps is contagious before the symptoms appear and for some time after the symptoms have disappeared. As long as the patient has any symptoms isolation should be enforced.

Remember it is a mistake to think of children as being immune to children's diseases. Everyone of these diseases is full of great danger for the young children, especially children under school age.

To prevent complications one should remain in bed until the swelling has entirely subsided.

Wheat Sowing Larger Than It Was In 1934 Condition Is Improved

Winter wheat plantings this fall for the 1936 crop were reported Friday by the Department of Agriculture to be 47,529,000 acres, or 67 per cent over the average planted a year ago from which 432,000,000 bushels were harvested this year.

Abandonment of winter wheat seedings of 1934 was 30.4 per cent of the acreage sown, that of 1933 was 21.3 per cent, and the average for the 10 years, 1922-31, was 12.6 per cent. The condition of winter wheat December 1 was 78.2 per cent of a normal, compared with 71.8 a year ago; and 82.4, the 1929-31 10-year average. The acreage of winter wheat and condition on December 1 in principal producing states included: Oklahoma, 4,865,000 acres, and condition 72 per cent of a normal; Texas, 4,648,000 and 70.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

And when he was at the place, he said unto them. Pray that ye enter not into temptation.—St. Luke 22:40.

Do all that you can to please God, and then fear lest you may fall, and by the grace of God you are safe.—Tryon Edwards.

CHRISTMAS

Time marches on, relentless in its changes save those affecting the human heart. There it displays its timely side, and brings a passing meloniness as each passing year falls beneath the sojourn. And at no time of year is that meloniness more in evidence than at the Christmas season.

Men have tried to solve the mysteries of that which we call the Christmas Spirit. Always they have wound up at the same spot—a manger in Bethlehem. Men have traced the course of the Christmas star. Always they have found it hovering longest above that manger in Bethlehem. So they have come to agree that there the Christmas Spirit was born—there where more than nineteen hundred years ago there came to mankind the message of new cheer and new hope, a message of "Peace on earth, good will to toward men."

Again we feel that spirit within our hearts, and with it the meloniness which makes us brothers all. The spirit, it born at the manger, and beneath that star, bids us once again to pause and contemplate anew the power of peace on earth, to pledge once more our faith in our fellowman. It is the spirit of Christmas, a spirit that cannot be denied and that we would not deny if we could.

It is not good to review the past when the sunlight of the future is more pleasing. Dark clouds there have been, and into many hearts there has come some sadness. But there has been recompense in that sadness which followed every storm, in the hope new-born with the dawn of each succeeding day. Again the Christmas Spirit abides with us and more than atones for such suffering as may have been our lot.

It is the Christmas Spirit which gives the childlike simplicity to believe, and feel and know that all things work together for good.

Today, as the star of the East again above that manger in Bethlehem and the spirit born there bathes the world in gladness, we extend to our neighbors in Muleshoe and surrounding territory our heartiest good wishes for their happiness and content of heart. May every heart be attuned to the occasion; may every dark cloud disappear from your sky. May the warm sunshine shed by melonized hearts about you bring you new hope, new faith and the peace and good will promised from that manger on the hills of Bethlehem.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEAD

Don't lose your head; don't be an extremist. If you do you have only disappointment and misfortune awaiting you. Don't think the world can be made over in a day merely because you have plenty of evidence that it needs fixing. If you feel that better conditions can come because the political leader you worship is up for office, remember that he is only human. He may not be the super-man you think he is and, at best, he is not a maracoe-wisard.

In any event, don't pull your hair and knock down everybody else and go to any extreme to have him elected. If you would be a leader, you can only do it by maintaining your poise. People may say little, but they are studying you—studying what you say, how you talk, the company you keep, the ticket you vote, how well you pay your bills, how much you are giving of the world, and how much you are willing to do for yourself. You are making your own record—so don't lose your self!

Who tries to do something "unholy better off than to do nothing and

WHY IS IT?

When it comes to operating an auto there's a good many things about human nature hard to understand. In the first place, no one seems able to figure out why a Muleshoe motorist will endorse the safety warnings issued by the newspapers and auto clubs, and then get behind his steering wheel and do the very things he agreed should not be done.

Can it be that modern cars are built for too much speed, and that most drivers unconsciously drive faster than they realize. Surely every motorist wants to be on the safe side. It's hard to believe anyone would actually want to figure in an accident, or strike and possibly kill a fellowman. Then why is it these considerations are laid aside by many drivers once they get behind a steering wheel?

We doubt if the average motorist can answer those questions himself, but they certainly should give him cause for a good bit of serious thinking.

Jaunty Journalettes

The average Muleshoe man doesn't need to consult a doctor to find out what's wrong with him. His wife will tell him.

A Muleshoe husband doesn't care about a missing button. What breaks his heart is the idea of being neglected like that.

Muleshoe people aren't more wicked than they used to be. They just don't consider so many things wicked.

Tantrums merely prove the kid is smart. Old folks around Muleshoe would have them, too, if they could get what they want that way.

As a rule, a Muleshoe man's gall bladder doesn't quit working until he gets it the example.

Muleshoe people will never say hard things are the ones who have most poisonous private opinions.

Beware the tendency of a patient man. Holding the safety valve down always increases the steam pressure.

It's easy for a Muleshoe man to be bold, light-hearted and philosophical. All he needs is plenty of money and a good liver.

SNAP SHOTS

Women looked thin in the old days, too, but they did it by taking in washing instead of doing it.

At 20 you wish to reform the world; at 40 you wish to reform your neighbor; and at 50 you wish you could reform yourself.

A typical American is one who feels competent to manage the whole country except his own darned family.

Most of our troubles can be traced to the sad truth that we haven't enough soft snaps to go around.

A bank is an institution where you can borrow money if you can present sufficient evidence to show that you don't need it.

MALE, NOT FEMALE THE WEAKER SEX, DR. DECLARES

CHICAGO — Male—not female is the weaker sex.

This may not be news to most wives, but Dr. Edgar V. Allen of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., predicted last week it would be a hard blow to many husbands.

The female of the species—despite tradition and Biblical quotation—is stronger than the male, he said. At least she lives longer and is less often the victim of serious disease.

He cited these findings from 300,000 cases to prove his point in an article in the magazine Hyeica, published by the American Medical association.

More male babies are born dead than female.

Of those that live, more males are deformed than are females.

More male children die in infancy than females.

At 10 years of age, a boy's life expectancy is four years shorter than a girl's.

Men are more afflicted than are women with ulcers of the stomach, cancer, hardening of the liver, pneumonia, asthma, hardening of the arteries, gout, kidney and urinary troubles, disease of the spinal cord and brain.

There are more widows than widowers.

Women begin to predominate over men at 55 years.

They definitely outnumber males at 75 years.

Twice as many women live to be 100 years old.

The explanation that "men work harder, smoke more, drink more alcohol and live more irregularly as regards food and rest" is not the reason for female "superiority," Doctor Allen asserted.

"The price of madness is weakness. . . There can hardly be any other explanation than that the male is handicapped by a lessened degree of vitality that is directly or indirectly the result of a peculiar complex of hereditary factors."

THE KINGNECK PHEASANT

The ringneck pheasant is also known as the Mongolian or Chinese pheasant; the females of this and other pheasant species have protective coloring of brown or yellow-brown.

Discovery of Typhoid Bacillus

The typhoid bacillus was first discovered by Eberth in 1880 in the glands of the mesentery and in the spleen. It was not, however, until 1884 that Gaffky obtained the organism in pure culture.

Nitrocellulose Source Nitrocellulose, which is an ingredient of most lacquers, is made by treating cotton with nitric acid. The substance thus produced is dissolved in a solvent. A clear liquid results and to this coloring matter is added.

Istanbul Name Changes
Istanbul is quite accustomed to name changes. Back in 600 B. C. it was called Byzantin. Constantine, in the year 330, called it New Rome. Then the Turks baptized it Stambul. For a long time it was called Constantinople and then the Russians, with premature expectations of annexing the city, called it Canrigrad. Since the birth of the new Turkish state it has been given the name of Istanbul.

INBUILT QUALITY
This feature covers many phases of construction of the new Ford V-8 which is not apparent to the eye, and will probably not be fully appreciated until your car has run many thousands of miles.
For instance, the entire car is "bondertized"—that is a treatment of the metal before paint is applied. This prevents rust, should you break the enamel, from spreading under the paint and chipping off to an unsightly blotch.
The rolled edge of the fenders is your assurance against breakage from road vibration. The cold pressed steel wheel with 25,000 lbs. test is another "inbuilt quality" feature—there are lots more!
