He and Leona had been visiting his children in Oklahoma and were in Fort Worth with Mrs. Goleonor Thompson's stepdaughter, Alma, and family when he died suddenly from heart attack. Many Activities Enliven Burkett Community

By Mrs. A. H. Carroll

Burkett and Echo ladies are grateful to all those who helped to make the gospel singing a huge success. To those who brought food, participated in the singing, or helped in any way, the community extends thanks.

The contributions made have been given to the community fund and will be used for upkeep of the building.

Persons who would like to have a gospel singing event once each quarter are asked to contact either the Raleigh Neffs or the Jim Burketts. If enough interest is shown, something will probably be worked out.

We were indeed sorry to learn of the tragic death of Nolan Burkett last week. He was killed in a traffic accident near Cisco. He was a lifelong resident of this community. We send deepest sympathy to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davee and Mrs. W. M. Newton were in Houston over the week end. Mrs. Davee visited at the Night Cap Convention and was heard on radio at 2 a.m. Friday.

He weighed seven pounds and nine ounces, and has been named Kelly Vance. Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Bunnell also visited Mr. and Mrs. Max Watson while there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Young and girls and Andy Dale Young visited their mother over the week end. While here they went to Brownwood Lake and tried out B. B.'s new boat.

Mrs. Margaret Young attended the Baccalaureate Service in Coleman Sunday night.

Visitors last Saturday for a while with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Carroll were Mrs. Carroll's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Payne, of Walters, Okla., and their two granddaughters and their babies of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young were in Lubbock Wednesday to bring Margie home for the summer from Texas Tech where she is a student. While there they looked over the damage to the town caused by the recent tornado, and they reported it was terrible.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Henderson and Candy of Junction spent Mother's Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Henderson.

Visiting in the Willie Henderson home Friday and Saturday were Janice Stewart, Mary Lee Alexander, Ami Dunnam and Gary Adams and son, Darrell, of Cisco Junior College.

Mrs. Willie Henderson's sister, Mrs. L. L. Buck, of Sundown spent Saturday to Monday morning visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willie Henderson.

Stansbury of Cross Plains, Roy King and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Freeman of Eastland, Evelyn Williams of Roswell, N. M., Mrs. Nora Jennings of Coleman and Mrs. J. L. Dicky of De Leon. We invite these folks to come back again.
