EDITOR'S NOTE: A faithful subscriber sent this beautiful poem that is so appropriate for these days in America. The display of U.S. flags by local businesses and residents certainly shows our patriotism. I was impressed by the number of flags flying in our neighbor city Rising Star. It looks great! Vanda Anderson Creech

I Am the Flag of the United States of America

I am the flag of the United States of America.

My name is Old Glory. I fly atop the world's tallest buildings.

I stand watch in America's halls of justice.

I fly majestically over institutions of learning. I stand guard with power in the world.

Look up and see me.

I stand for peace, honor, truth and justice. I stand for freedom. I am confident. I am arrogant. I am proud.

When I am flown with my fellow banners, my head is a little higher, my colors a little truer.

I bow to no one! I am recognized all over the world.

I am worshipped - I am saluted. I am loved - I am revered. I am respected -- and I am feared.

I have fought in every battle of every war for more than 200 years.

I was flown at Valley Forge, Gettysburg, Shiloh and Appomattox.

I was there at San Juan Hill, the trenches of France, in the Argonne Forest, Anzio, Rome and the beaches of Normandy, Guam, Okinawa. The people of Korea, Vietnam and Kuwait know me as a banner of freedom.

I was there. I led my troops, I was dirty, battle worn and but my soldiers cheered me And I was proud. I have been burned, torn and trampled on the streets of countries I have helped set free. It does not hurt, for I am invincible.

I have slipped the bonds of Earth and stood watch over the uncharted frontiers of space from my vantage point on the

I have borne silent witness to all of America's finest hours. But my finest hours are yet to

When I am torn into strips and used as bandages for my wounded comrades on the battlefield,

When I am flown at half-mast to honor my countryman, When I lie in the trembling arms of a grieving parent at the grave

"Meet the Author" Tuesday, Oct. 16

By BILLIE LOVING

Mark your calendars now for the evening of October 16. Don Coldsmith and his wife, Edna, of Emporia, Kansas will be at the Cross Plains Community Center for the "Meet the Author" series, sponsored by the Cross Plains Public Library.

Coldsmith has written some 35 books, 150 magazine articles, and 1500 newspaper columns over the past thirty years. There are now more than 6 million copies in print, as well as British, German and French editions of his historical Western Novels, mostly with American Indian themes.

Born in Iola, Kansas to a Methodist minister's family, Coldsmith graduated from high school at Coffeyville and entered the Army in 1944. He served as a combat medic in the Pacific in World War II and was with the first troops to enter Japan after the war's end. He was assigned the primary medical care of about 40 of the upper echelon war crimes prisoners, including Premier Hideki

Returning to school, Coldsmith graduated from Baker University in 1949. Working as a YMCA youth director, he initiated the first interracial swimming class in Topeka, Kansas, in the same "Brown Case," but somewhat ear-

After a taste of several vocations, Coldsmith returned to school, earning a doctorate in Medicine in 1958. Until 1988 he served as a physician in Family Practice in Emporia, Kansas. Did he retire? Well---no! He decided to devote more time to writing. Surely in all those varied positions he had learned a lot about people, relationships and plots. Why not write?

The library has some Coldsmith books. Read one before the review. Then come to hear him on Tuesday, October 16. We'd like to see you there.

Carolyn Wilson of this city did very well at the West Texas Fair, American Miniature Horse Approved Show. The show was at Abilene on September 13 in the Griffin Arena.

Carolyn's little mare, Landry's Bonnie Brown, a four year old mare, took two first place ribbons in Aged Mares 28 inches and under, then won Reserve Champion of her age group.

On September 8th Carolyn and Jimmy carried some of their miniatures to the annual Gorman Peanut Festival. The American State Bank in Gorman sponsored the Wilsons and their horses.

Carolyn and Jimmy's grandchildren, Brentni and Travis Wilson of Stephenville, met them in Gorman and were in the parade. Brentni helped Carolyn lead the little horses while Travis rode in the back of the pickup and threw peanuts to the crowd.

After the parade they set up a booth for the children to pet the minis. Also their little "Baby Doll" was on hand (complete with little 10 inch saddle) for photos.

The second weekend of the fair was the market steer show. Six FFA members participated in the steer show. Dayna Bennett's steer placed second in the Heavyweight Angus Class and was also the Reserve Champion Angus. Brock Cooper's steer placed second in the Lightweight Brahman

Class, while his brother, Dusty Cooper, placed eighth in the Light Heavyweight Maine-Anjou Class. Nathan Joy's steer placed third in the Middle Weight Short-

"God Shed His Grace on Thee"

By VICKI DILLARD

Tuesday, September 11, 2001 will forever live in American history. The "Attack on America" violated our every rule of liberty. The innocent lives taken so heinously by these acts of terrorism will plague our thoughts in days to come.

These atrocious catastrophes proved to define our true patriotism to America. Our hearts ache for the victims, their families, the brave New York Firefighters and Policemen and all other involved.

America unites to profess what WE stand for. We stand for God, righteousness and justice. We do not advocate terror, fear and violence. Hatred motivated these monstrous attacks --- not God. God only affirms life. The terrorists who defy this affirmation violate the essence of God.

Our country is full of unselfish concern and charitable spirit for all of the preyed upon victims of September 11, 2001.

Cross Plains, Texas will be as-

Saturday, September 29th. A 12hour fund-raiser will start the day at the 4-way stop. We will collect money from 8 a.m to 8 p.m. at the red light. A hamburger dinner will also take place at the Senior Citizen's Center from 5 to 8 p.m. Dinner and dessert will be on a donation basis.

The dinner will feature several guest speakers, a cake auction and special singing.

All donations collected will go directly to the New York Police and Firemen Widow Children's Benefit Fund.

Let's hold our heads high and never let the enemy see us cry. After you've done all you can --you STAND! Plant your feet and square your shoulder and STAND. Stand for God and

I hope all of Cross Plains will be a part of this worthy cause. Let's show a Big City how much a Little City can do to support our brothers and sisters in this monumental crises.

Lula C. Havens

Lula C. (Blakeman) Havens, age 80, loving wife of William Floyd Havens, passed from this life on February 5, 2001, after a long battle with asthma and Alzheimers disease.

Services were held August 9, 2001, and interment was at Inglewood Park Cemetery, Inglewood, California.

Lula was born January 18, 1921, in Green County Kentucky. She met Floyd in Sundown, Texas in 1940 and the couple was married January 18, 1941, in Abilene, Texas. They had been married 60 years and to this union was born two sons, Gerald Kent and Terry

In 1942, Floyd was transferred to California with National Supply Company and they built their home in Gardena, California. During World War II, Lula worked as a welder for Douglass Aircraft.

Lula and Floyd were devoted to working with the Normandy First Christian Church. She spent 24 years teaching Sunday School and Floyd did maintenance work on the church building and opened the doors at each service for years. They were involved in all ministries of the church as long as their health permitted. Lula was a wonderful homemaker and loved to cook.

Survivors include her husband, Floyd; one son, Terry Lee Havens and his wife, Leilani; three brothers, Olin Blakeman and wife, Marge of Kentucky, Bob Blakeman and wife of Kentucky, and Milton and wife Judy of Fort Worth; five sisters, Temple Kirtley and husband of Kentucky, Edna Parrot of Kentucky, Cleo Underwood and husband Lewis of Kentucky, Barbara Loyall and husband Wendy of Nashville, Tennessee, and Nora Graybeil and husband Lewis of Kentucky; one sister-in-law, of Azle, Texas; two step-granddaughters, Monica and Marlene; and numerous nieces and nephews who loved her so much. Floyd's family loved Lula like a sister.

She was preceded in death by one young son, Gerald Kent Havens; her father and mother, Early and Alma Blakeman; and three brothers, Melvin, Craddick and Junior Blakeman.

I never cease to be amazed at how some people--"religious" people!--can take an incident like the destruction of the twin towers in New York City and "go to scripture" and find a prophecy of it that God had made concerning it all along. I had a teacher who had a good saying regarding such "interpretation": 'You have a right to be wrong if you want to be." His "P.S.," of course, was: "But you must suffer the consequences."

I am to begin teaching the New Testament book of Revelation n our Sunday morning adult Bible class very soon, probably beginning on October 7. In a way, I do so with fear and trepidation -- not because I do not understand the basic message of Revelation, rather because of some that will probably be looking for an interpretation of every word, as for what God was

If that is the kind of study of Revelation that you are looking for, turn on your TV -- most of the TV evangelists "have all the answers." If you want to study Revelation in order to find out the truth of its basic message to the Christians of the first and second centuries, and its basic message and application therein to everyone today, then I invite you to attend.

How relevant this "Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants...sent and signified by His servant John" -- how relevant it is to us today in such a crisis as we are in. Rev. 17:14 - "They will make war against the Lamb but the Lamb will overcome ... and with Him will be His called, chosen and faithful followers." Simple put: "Christ wins, and those with Him are also winners

OLD GLORY PROUDLY FLIES—The U.S. flag waves in honor of many over the old Cottonwood Post Office.

STARS AND STRIPES FOREVER

It is a comfort to drive through Cottonwood, Texas and see the U.S. flag waving gently in the breeze as you pass the old Post Office. The flag has been posted on most clear days by Barbara Worley since the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in New York.

Barbara stated she had posted the flag in memory of all those who have died as a result of the terrorist attack and also in memory of Claude Lawson and all U.S. Veterans who are buried in the Cottonwood Cemetery.

The flag pole was donated and erected by Col. Claude Lawson, U.S. Air Force (Retired), on March 1, 1987. He was assisted in the endeavor by Barbara Worley and Eddie Albrecht's

QUIPS, CLIPS & COMMENT

By KAY MOSLEY

Interesting Historical Fact: The First President of the Cross Plains Garden Club was the late Mrs. Bernice Claborn. Some of you readers probably remember her. I didn't live here at that time, so I never had the privilege of meeting her.

"How Long Has It Been?"

Often we get so caught up in the hustle, bustle, and hubbub of daily living that things slip by us unnoticed. Sometimes, however, we just plain forget. Then perhaps something will occur or someone will make a comment or statement that jogs your memory, bring it all back. Suddenly your senses come alive and the memories create thoughts, reactions, sensations and feelings you thought long gone, forgotten and smothered under the realities and pressures of modern day to day living. As your thoughts processes begin to jump and jive, you become lost in a sea of thoughts---thoughts of ----ummmmm-----

How long has it been since you warmed yourself by a woodstove, read by the light of a coal oil lamp or brushed your teeth with a match stick and baking soda? How long since you went to school, baked a cake from scratch, started a car with a crank, sang a song just from sheer joy, or wore high topped shoes??

How long since you read aloud to a toddler, forgave someone who has done you wrong, or disappointed you, played Ring-Around-A-Rosie, ran over a fence post, or how long since you milked a cow?

Have you recently and prayerfully visited with a sick or troubled friend, gathered hen eggs from the nest, or attended a church service other than a funeral? How long since you took a vacation, read the Bible, rode a horse, jumped rope, fell in the mud, kissed a loved one (not a frog), read a book, fired someone, picked cotton, played an instrument, told someone a clean, funny joke, or drank water from a dipper in a bucket of water?

We-II-I-II, if you haven't done that, tell me, just what have you been doing? And what have I done?? Let me say this, since I have done any of the above mentioned things, its actually been a long, long while!!!! Makes you think; doesn't it??

Remember to pray for all Americans, most especially those involved in the tragedies in New York City, Washington D.C., the Pennsylvania airline crash and their families, survivors and BLESS GOD friends. AMERICA!

DO YOU KNOW ANY OF THESE STUDENTS? — Tom Ray Wilson is the first young man on the front from the left. Obviously they are all Cross Plains students, according to the big "C" on their sweaters. Perhaps someone can help identify others in the photo. Give the Cross Plains Review a call at (254) 725-6111.

3 teachers from Clyde, Baird and Cross Plains are Intel Master Teachers

- Lori Akers from Clyde and the Clyde School District, Sandra Konczak of Baird and the Abilene School District, and Connie Ricci of Cross Plains and the Cross Plains School District all became Master Teachers (MT) this summer as part of the Intel Teach to the Future program with support from Microsoft - a worldwide initiative to help teachers effectively integrate the use of computer technology into classroom curriculum to improve student learning and achievement. Using the "train-the-trainer" model, these teachers were trained this summer and will inturn train 40 of their colleagues on the program over the next few years.

The program has a goal of reaching 400,000 teachers around the world by the end of 2002. The professional development program consists of forty hours of hands-on instruction delivered by a means of ten curricular modules tailored to country and district standards.

"This is the second year of the Intel Teach to the Future program," said Cynthia Reed, Intel program manager. "At the end Teachers and 40,000 Participant Teachers in Texas become comfortable using technology as a tool to enhance their teaching

Cross Plains I.S.D. Class Size Reductions Report

Cross Plains I.S.D. receives Federal Funds through the Class Size Reduction Program. The funds are made available to States in order to reduce class sizes in grades kindergarten through third grade to a studentteacher ratio of no more than 18:1. Since class sizes in Cross Plains Elementary grade K-3 are already below this ratio, the funds were used for staff development earmarked to improve student performance. Professional development activities funded all or in part by the Class Size Reduction funds during the 2000-2001 school year are as follows:

* Modification strategies for student success

* "Seven Steps to Happiness as a Teacher"

Effective teaching strategies for diverse student populations

Effective reading strategies

* Staff development activities at Region XIV Education Service

Classes in the core academic classes in Cross Plains ISD were taught by fully qualified teachers in year 2000-2001. Nine teachers schools throughout the United for grades 1-3 attended all of the sessions funded with Class Size Reduction money. All teachers for grades PreK through High School attended sessions that were also germane to their level or assign-

> The professional developmentactivities funded with Class Size Reduction monies contributed the TEA Accountability System rating of "Exemplary" for Cross Plains Elementary School for the 2000-2001 school year. In addition to the "Exemplary" rating, the students in grades 3-6 received additional acknowledgments for achievement in reading and math as measured by the TAAS tests.

> Cross Plains Elementary ISD will again be participating in the Class-Size Reduction Program in the 2001-2002 school year.

Dyslexia -- A Learning Difference

Dyslexia is a disorder which is specific to language. Bright, intelligent children who are dyslexic cannot learn to read, write and spell successfully without special instruction. An estimated 15 percent of the population has this learning difference.

The 1st quarter of the Buff vs

JH Football Action

Tolar Rattler game held lots of action from both sides. Sean Williams had a fumble recovery; Aaron Phillips had several tackles behind the line of scrimmage and even a couple of quarterback sacks; Russell Thomas connected with River Dillard; and Chance Watkins had several yards on kickoff returns.

Russell Thomas' pass to Clay Koenig resulted in the biggest gain of the evening. Even with all this excitement, the Buffs just couldn't get into the endzone, as the score was 20-0 at halftime with the Rattlers leading.

Instead of the traditional halftime they utilized the time for a 5th Quarter and the cheerleaders from both sides performed afterwards.

The Buffs kicked off to the Rattlers in the second half. Aaron Phillips came up with several more tackles, assisted by Chance Watkins, Roy Smith, Raymond Sifuentes and Justin Dickson. They were trying to keep the Rattlers honest.

Roy Smith had several long punts for the Buffs, as they just

COUNTY SERVICEMEN-Callahan County Judge Roger Corn stands next to the names and photographs of Callahan County servicemen killed in action during America's wars. The plaques are located on the first floor of the Callahan County Courthouse in Baird. The plaques, which were erected last week, are located on four different walls next to the County Clerk's, County Treasurer's, County Tax Assessor/ Collector's and Game Warden's offices. Jim Hatchett Sr. was instrumental in locating the photographs and information about all those County servicemen killed in the line of duty. The public is invited to view the photographs during normal business hours at the County Courthouse.

America sings...

Rollercoastered into the pits of America rose to the surface on swells of music.

The National Anthem had a thousand accents in the voices of unfettered emotion. In the notes hid a thousand ways to touch grief. The simple words, "Oh, say can you see..." found a thousand ways to spread the first healing balm over a wounded country.

Waving flags and choking back tears, artists and the citizen masses faced down the jumbled stages of grieving that swarmed over our nation since September 11th. The special-occasion songs that stir our patriotic blood were played over and over on the news, magazine TV, late shows, early shows.

There are probably no more thrilling words than, "Oh, beautiful, for spacious skies..." Heart swelling music probed through the shock, fear, anger, regret, and helplessness, to find the latent strength and courage of America just below the surface.

At the West Texas Book and Author Festival this past weekend, the HSU Cowboy Band stomped its way through the dining hall. With fiddles, drums and horns, and a great explosion of energy, the Band played, "Eyes of Texas." Then the "Texas March." They made us laugh with "Hey, Baby," and wrenched a belly laugh from us with "...you found another and Phfft! You Was Gone." Never was an audience more eager to receive - more willing to be lifted from a bed of pain.

The South may not fully appreciate what it has. What it has

The truth is, the South possesses what equates to the folk songs of this country - the only enduring music in a system that labels a song "old" after 30 days on the charts.

Burl Ives dedicated his life to collecting and preserving the grass roots music of America. I hope the songs are never lost. Our folk music has titles like, "Oh, Susannah," and "I've Been Working On The Railroad." Since our youth, we've sung songs like "Camp Town Races," "Rose of San Antone," "Red River Valley," and "Deep In The Heart Of

There are spirituals and old Gospel songs, fiddle music, cowboy trail and campfire songs, and all the beautiful songs of Stephen Foster. How dreadful to lose "Yellow Rose Of Texas," or "Tennessee Waltz," or "Way Down South In The Land Of Cotton," or "Cotton-Eyed Joe," or "My Old Kentucky Home."

Music ties our ears to our heartstrings. May we treasure and somehow keep the folksongs and patriotic songs of America, the music that unites the United States.

Without conscious thought, the people of our country reached for the Rx they needed most music to ease the pain, music to rally the spirit. Paul Mac Coppinger Hired by International Corporation

CIRCOR International, Inc., a leading provider of valves and fluid control products for the instrumentation, fluid regulation, and petrochemical markets announced that Paul Mac Coppinger has been hired by their company as Group Vice President of the company's Petrochemical Products segment.

Mr. Coppinger will oversee operations for all of CIRCOR's petrochemical business units worldwide including KF Industries, Contromatics Industrial and Specialty Products, Telford Engineering Products in Canada, PIBIVIESSE S.P.A. in Italy, and SKVC Ltd. in China. His focus will be on expanding global petrochemical product sales from existing operations and future acquisitions and extending the products and service base.

David A. Bloss Sr., chairman and Chief Executive Officer comments," All of us at CIRCOR are delighted that Paul is joining us. Paul is an accomplished market oriented business professional with demonstrated motivational, managerial and team leadership skills." Mr. Coppinger has thirteen years experience in the petrochemical industry with Baker Hughes, ending as Vice President of Sales and Marketing at EIMCO, a $200 million process equipment division of Baker Hughes. He spent five years in Jakarta, Indonesia and Singapore supporting Baker Oil Tools. Paul holds a Bachelor of Science degree in petroleum engineering from Texas Tech University.

Paul is the son of Mac and Emma Dee Coppinger of Miles, Texas, and the grandson of the late Harry and Mary Coppinger and Fonia and Sybil Worthy who were all longtime residents of Cross Plains.

Albany Arts and Letters "Tea at the Adolphus"

The first of a series of presentations to benefit the Aztec Theater will be held on Saturday, September 29, at 7:30 p.m. and will feature playwright and actress Judy Greene from Salado and her professional actress daughter Leslie Hyland of Austin.

Judy is the wife of A.C. Greene and is a familiar face in the Albany area. A frequent performer in the Living Room Theater of Salado, Judy has performed at the Aztec during the Fandangle, presenting an adaptation of two of A.C.'s short stories.

This initial Arts and Letters play was written by Ms. Greene and is a humorous, true-to-life look at a mother and her grown daughter who are estranged, but who meet to try to repair their relationship.

Leslie Hyland will perform in the play with her mother. Leslie is a native Texan and a classically trained singer, actress, artist, storyteller and puppeteer. She has trained and worked as an actress and singer in New York, Paris and Los Angeles. New York Theater credits include Two by Two and Nine. Her film credits include Multiplicity with Andie Mac Dowell and Michael Keaton. She also appeared on television in One Life to Live, The Bold and The Beautiful and Another World.

Albany Mainstreet Playhouse is very excited about this series and especially the first production. There will be no admission charge. Voluntary donations will be accepted for the maintenance and upkeep of the Aztec.
