SCHEDULE REVISION IS SOUGHT

and Trial of Davis Case Due to Open Tomorrow

NEW SETUP IS PREPARED FOR HEARING

Oil Belt Cities Will Ask 4 Additional Schedules

Following request of the Texas Railroad commission, the chambers of commerce of four oil belt cities last week drafted a suggested revision of the east and west schedules of the Southland Greyhound lines which will be offered at a hearing at Mineral Wells Monday as meeting the demands of the people of the section for more adequate bus service. Four new schedules, or extensions of present schedules, are called for in this revision.

Two of these new schedules are westbound and two eastbound. They relate to giving better round-trip daytime service to the east and west and to the more convenient spacing of the present setup.

In the westbound series a continuation of schedule No. 215 from Mineral Wells to Abilene is asked. This bus leaves Ft. Worth at 7:30 p. m. under the present arrangement, arriving at Mineral Wells at 9:15 where its run terminates. Continuation of this service west to Abilene will give Cisco a bus arriving from the east at 11:15 p. m. so that patrons may spend the day in Fort Worth, Dallas or other terminal points and return in the evening.

Early Morning Bus.

In the same series a schedule to leave Canyon, division point just east of Metcalf Gap, at 5:50 a. m. is asked. This bus would arrive at Cisco at 7:20 a. m. continuing to Abilene. This would give the section an early morning bus west, a service it does not now have. Under the present arrangement a bus leaving Fort Worth, Dallas or other terminal points at 5:20 a. m. arrives at Cisco at 5:20 instead of at 7:20 p. m., as under the existing arrangement.

This change is requested to equalize the periods of time between the 24-ternon westbound series. As the schedules now operate there is a space of four hours and twenty minutes between the two afternoon westbound runs.

In the eastbound series a new schedule is suggested leaving Abilene at 5 a. m., reaching Cisco at 6:30 a. m. and arriving in Fort Worth at 10:20 a. m. This arrangement would give the section an early morning bus to Fort Worth and joins with the suggested extension of schedule 215 from Mineral Wells westward in the evening to permit a business day round trip to Fort Worth or Dallas.

A new service, leaving Abilene at 2 p. m. and arriving at Canyon at 3:30 p. m. is also suggested.

She "ran out" on the show. She charged the managers of the musical comedy, "You Don't Say," who have sued Mary Hays, above, former wife of Richard Barthelmess for $50,000, in New York. She has formally denied their accusations that she quit the cast.

OWNERSHIP OF LINGLE DEATH PISTOL TRACED

CHICAGO, June 21.—The revolver used in the assassination of Alfred J. Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter, has been definitely traced to one of "Scarface Al" Capone's most notorious gangsters, Frank Foster, for whom a nationwide search was being way today.

Foster is under way, it was learned, not as the man who killed Lingle, but in the hope that he may be able to identify the murderer among the deadly enemies he made when he went over to Capone from the George "Bugs" Moran and Joe Aiello gangs, Capone's most powerful rivals in the beer and alky rackets.

Positive proof that Foster purchased the revolver, a short-barreled .38 caliber weapon deliberately left by the slayer near the body of his victim, was obtained by ballistics experts.

Foster indicated, it was said, that Lingle's slayer had two motives in killing the reporter, who "covered" gangsters' activities for the Tribune for 18 years.

One of the motives was to get rid of Lingle "for reasons" and the other, it was believed, was to center suspicion on Foster for his defection from the Moran-Aiello gangs.

Foster deserted to Capone some months ago, taking with him Willie Marks, another of Moran's "big shots," and winning the hatred of the northside gang leader, whom Foster has served as right-hand man.

A search for Foster in Chicago turned up evidence that he hurriedly left the city after Lingle was killed.

Fear Paralyzed Woman Killed

THORNTON, June 21.—Apparently paralyzed with fear by the locomotive bearing down upon her, Mrs. Carrie Ross, 79, a widow, was instantly killed when she failed to step from the path of a Southern Pacific freight train here today. The engineer blew his whistle as she stepped on the tracks, but she did not remove herself from the path of danger. Most of the bones in her body were broken.

15,000 PIGEONS

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 21.—Fifteen thousand pigeons were released from the top of Signal mountain here at 1 p. m. today to begin the annual national race of the Racing Pigeon association of America. Entries came from all parts of the United States and Canada.

CRAZED MAN HURLS FAMILY FROM CLIFF

Then, Pressed Closely by Posse, Leaps to Death

By BOYD LEWIS, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 21.—Raymond Spang of Ansonia took his wife and four children on a picnic in beautiful West Rock park here today to celebrate his release from a sanitarium last night and then, seized by a murderous mania, threw them over a 400-foot precipice.

Pressed by a posse of police and firemen he leaped from a ledge half-way down the abrupt rock face of the cliff to a death on the jagged rocks below.

Moving swiftly, Spang kicked his wife, Gertrude, over the brink as she stood admiring the view and tossed the screaming children after her.

The children were Helen, 12; Lorain, 7; Raymond, 5, and Donald 3. Raymond was alive when he was picked up near the base of the cliff but he died at St. Raphael's hospital within an hour of the tragedy.

Died Instantly.

The others died instantly and their bodies were recovered from various positions on the rocky slopes.

Scores of persons saw Spang throw the bodies, as the cliff was in full view of the streets of suburban Westville.

While the excited observers ran toward the park, they saw Spang start down the perilous face toward the body of his wife, which had caught on a crag.

William Hague fired four shots from a shotgun in an effort to frighten the killer away in hope Mrs. Spang might be alive. One shot whistled past a policeman who had started for Spang.

Spang was unable to reach his wife's body, which he apparently intended to toss further down, and paused on a narrow ledge about 250 feet up the cliff.

Police and firemen went to the top of the rock and one fireman, William Barube, was lowered on a rope toward Spang's ledge.

Spang shouted to the firemen to halt or he would dash himself to death. Barube paused 10 feet away while Spang moved about on the ledge nervously, muttering to himself.

He told the fireman in response to questions that he was Raymond Spang of Ansonia and had been unemployed.

Tense 15 Minutes.

The scene remained thus for about 15 minutes, with Spang cowering on the ledge, the fireman afraid to scare him into suicide and hundreds of persons, mouths agape, standing in the streets far below.

Then Spang carefully took off one shoe and attempted to take off the other, but it stuck. He crossed himself and before Barube could intervene, died.

Police learned in Ansonia that Spang had returned from a sanitarium to which he was taken nine weeks ago after a long period of unemployment appeared to have unsettled his mind.

His wife and the four pretty, tow-headed youngsters had been overjoyed at the return of their "daddy," neighbors said. Spang planned a picnic at West Rock, one of the beauty spots of Connecticut, in celebration of his return.

Some time this morning the picnickers arrived in Westville and hiking up to the summit by winding, three-shaded paths bordered with fragrant mountain laurel.

After Spang had thrown himself upon the rocks, police discovered a wallet in his clothing containing snapshots of three of the children and a blonde lock of baby hair.

Four More Bodies Found in Erie

TOLEDO, June 21.—Bodies of four more of the eight prominent men whose empty speedboat was found drifting in Lake Erie Sunday, were recovered by searching craft today.

They were identified as those of Charles H. Nauts, internal revenue collector of this district; Henry Hainbuch, assistant county engineer; Frank Miller, former city water superintendent and Franklin B. Jones, wealthy business man.

Representative Hamilton Fish, above, of New York, is chairman of the congressional committee named to investigate activities of Communists in the United States.

MAC MILLAN OFF ON 13TH ARCTIC TRIP

WISCASSET, Me., June 21.—Carrying Commander Donald B. MacMillan, famed explorer, on his 13th expedition into the far north, the veteran arctic schooner Bowdoin today sailed down the Sheepscot river to the sea.

With flags flying and multi-colored bunting floating gaily in the breeze, the knockabout auxiliary schooner, bearing seven men and seven boys besides her skipper, was given a rousing send-off by a crowd of townsfolk and state notables.

Christmas Cove tonight, Monhegan island tomorrow night, Bar Harbor Monday— and then the latest MacMillan expedition will leave the American mainland and head toward its northern goal, stopping at Nova Scotia ports en route to Iceland, Greenland and Labrador.

Unlike most of MacMillan's previous expeditions this journey into the arctic wastes does not have scientific achievement as its major goal. It will be the partial fulfillment of the explorer's pledge to the Eskimos of Labrador—to build and equip three schools for Eskimo children.

Aboard the Bowdoin when she sailed today were 40 desks to be installed in the school which MacMillan erected last year near his scientific station at Main, Labrador. There also were blackboards and miscellaneous schoolroom equipment, and mattresses and blankets for the pupils who live at the school.

Caddo Woman Killed When Hit by Car

BRECKENRIDGE, June 21.—Mrs. Cora Foote, 43, wife of Fred Foote, Jr., of Caddo, Texas, was killed in Caddo last night when run down by a car while she was returning home from church. Her six-year-old son, Theodore, sustained injuries which may prove fatal in the same accident. The driver of the car was held blameless for the accident.

B. S. HUEY HURT

Mrs. B. S. Huey and two sons left Saturday afternoon for Corpus Christi following receipt of a message that Mr. Huey had been injured in an automobile accident. Details of the accident were not available here. According to the report Mr. Huey had no bones broken but was injured about the head and neck. He left Cisco a short while ago for South Texas where he intended spending some time on account of his illness.

DISALLOWED INSURANCE

NEW YORK, June 21.—Lorraine Snyder lost her legacy yesterday. The fourteen year old daughter of Ruth Snyder, who, with Judd Gray, died in the electric chair for the murder of the woman's husband, was disallowed $50,000 worth of insurance in an appellate division ruling.

ENFORCEMENT COMM'N FUND SHARPLY CUT

Subcommittee Pares $250,000 Appropriation to $50,000

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The $250,000 requested appropriation for President Hoover's law enforcement commission was pared down to $50,000 today by the subcommittee of the senate appropriations committee.

The subcommittee adopted a provision specifically directing the commission to spend the money investigating prohibition, and not any extraneous matters.

"I do not think they ought to have a cent, but I was willing to accept the $50,000 fund when it was made to apply directly to prohibition," said Senator Glass, Dem., Va., who had announced his intention to seek to prevent the commission from obtaining any more money.

Even the diminished appropriation is, however, subject to a point of order and may be excluded on the floor of the senate, some members of the subcommittee said.

The decision was reached in a heated session of the committee of which both Glass and Senator Jones, Repn., Washington, dry leader, are members.

The bill now will be reported to the full appropriations committee and brought up in the senate for discussion probably Tuesday.

Ride Develops Into 17-Day Voyage

NEW YORK, June 21.—Eric Johnson, 21, and Florence Smith, 24, of Warwick, Bermuda, arrived at the army base pier in Brooklyn today after a 17-day trip from Bermuda in an open skiff.

The trip in the 15½ foot boat which Johnson himself built several years ago started when he and his girl decided as they were sitting on the beach, to go for a ride. The ride finally developed into a trip to Nova Scotia where Johnson has relatives.

Neither of the couple had any knowledge of navigation and the only nautical instruments they had was a small pocket compass. Knowing that the direction to New York was northwest in general they kept the skiff headed in that direction with the aid of this compass.

Two days from Bermuda the sail which the small boat carried knocked Florence out of the boat. Though she could not swim and found herself surrounded by sharks, she managed to scramble back into the skiff safely.

At the army base pier, the two voyagers were found by the superintendent, Walter Bernard, who took them to his home and supplied them with food and clothing.

William King, immigration inspector, went to see them at Bernard's home and they explained that they knew nothing about quarantine regulations. As they are only stopping in New York on their way to Nova Scotia, King let them go after an examination at the barge office.

Hospital Protest Hearing Concluded

WASHINGTON, June 21.—After hearing protests to its selection of Waco as the site for the proposed veteran's hospital for Texas, the federal board of hospitalization today forwarded its report to the White house. Whether the meeting will affect the decision or not was not disclosed.

Several Texas congressmen appeared before the board to protest the choice of Waco. The board went into executive session to determine whether another hearing was justified, and forwarded its report to the president.

The meeting to hear protests today was held at President Hoover's suggestion after he had approved the board's original selection.

County Free of Predatory Animals Commissioners Discharge Trappers

The commissioners court has issued an order stating that inasmuch as predatory animals have been exterminated in Eastland county to such an extent that but few remain and owing to the condition of the general fund of the county, the government trappers will be no longer needed in the county.

The order instructed the county clerk to notify each of the trappers that their services would not be needed after June 30 and that the trapping of predatory animals at the expense of the county and state would be discontinued for the time being.

Cannon's Reply to Tinkham Is Awaited

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Followers of the Bishop Cannon-Representative Tinkham senate lobby controversy waited eagerly today to learn what action or reply might come from the Methodist prelate as the result of Tinkham's abandonment of congressional immunity for charges he made against the bishop.

In a signed statement to the press Tinkham, republican, Massachusetts, a wet, reiterated the accusation made previously on the house floor that Cannon had violated the corrupt practices act.

Cannon refused today to comment on Tinkham's statement.

"When I have a statement to make I will let the press know," the bishop said. "That is all I care to say now."

When Tinkham made this charge before the house four days ago, Cannon challenged him to repeat it over his signature outside the walls of congress. Previously the bishop had issued a statement indicating he would press charges against anyone making what his attorney considered libelous statements about him.

Cannon is understood now to be in Nashville, Tennessee, attending a meeting of bishops.

Restates Charges

"Lest Bishop Cannon shall delude anyone into thinking the charges which I made against him in the house of representatives were unfounded," Tinkham said, "and meeting his challenge that I divest myself of my congressional immunity, I desire to restate over my signature the charges I made in the house of representatives that he is a shameless violator of the federal corrupt practices act, a criminal mostly, that he received $68,000 in cash from a New York capitalist, Mr. Jameson, during the 1928 elections and illegally concealed the receipt of all of this money until February 15, 1929, and has not yet accounted for $48,300 of this amount, refusing to do so before the senate lobby investigating committee before which he appeared voluntarily and where he was under oath and could have been cross-examined."

It was Tinkham who originally instigated the Cannon inquiry by the lobby committee.

"IT" GIRL ON WAY TO TALK WITH "HARRY"

ST. LOUIS, June 21.—Clara Bow, the inimitable "It" girl of the movies, stepped sprightly off a train from Dallas, Texas, here today and announced she was en route to New York to see Harry Richman, night club owner, her fiancé.

She denied she had been in Dallas in connection with an alienation of affections suit settlement, but said she wanted to see "Harry" and talk the situation over with him.

The titian haired screen star wore the horn rimmed glasses she had hoped would keep her from the public eye, but a news cameraman was on hand at the railroad terminal to point her out.

"Do you still love Harry?" She was asked.

"Of course I do and with all my heart," she responded pertly.

"I understand he asked for return of your engagement ring?"

"He never asked for my engagement ring," Miss Bow replied.

After a visit with Richman, and some shopping she said she planned to leave New York for the coast, reaching Hollywood by July 8.

Hearing to Take Place on July 3

Hearing on the application of a committee for holders of Cisco municipal bonds to place the city of Cisco under receivership will take place July 3, it was announced.

The hearing was postponed from the term of the court at Amarillo last month.

LEGGE WINS CONFIRMATION HANDS DOWN.

Alexander W. Legge, chairman of the federal farm relief board, served a year as he had agreed to serve, and then President Hoover sent his name to the senate for a full term of six years. He was confirmed by almost unanimous vote. There was no dissenter. McKellar of Tennessee, who declared that Legge was wholly unfit for the position.

Now Chairman Legge has been given a free hand. If he cares to serve for six years the road is open, and his hands are not manacled. He has a job before him that is tougher to handle than any of the great problems now confronting the American people and their government.

His policy has been outlined. He will give the acid test. If he wins, he will be looked upon as a miracle maker. If he fails, in the city of Chicago there is a job with a salary of $100,000 a year attached which is said to be his for the taking.

SILVER THE CAUSE OF BUSINESS DEPRESSION.

Dr. Mark Sullivan, of the Hoover Kitchen Cabinet, has unraveled or discovered the cause of "world-wide business depression." It was brought about by silver price falling to the lowest level in history. Dr. Mark predicts that when silver hikes to the top again, business depression will disappear and all the world will be happy.

The late William Jennings Bryan pinned his faith to the same proposition, and it is a matter of record that when he made the race for the office of president, the larger cities of Texas, in the 1896 election, landed on the republican side of the fence and many former Confederates, colonels as well as privates, cast their ballots for McKinley electors.

Now, the farmers know the cause of their ailments or ills. Silver is as cheap as dirt. This makes cheap wheat, cheap corn, cheap cotton, cheap farm products of all varieties, fills the counting houses of the world with gloom and paralyzes many of the leading industries.

Dr. Mark is said to be a prophet as well as an economist. He made grade A when the late Theodore Roosevelt christened him the best reporter in the world. He believed it, and his life has been joyous and his pockets fat ever since. Kindly recognition by a great man helps along the cause of the deserving reporter. A hint to candidates for high or low office. A cub reporter of today may be at the peak of eminence in the not distant future. Honeyed words never cost the corner of words a copper penny.

MAC DONALD AND GEORGE CLASH HANDS.

John Bull is carrying a heavy load. His mills are running half time, his mines are unproductive, his industrial centers are crowded with idle men and women, and the issue of the unemployed is growing very acute in the tight little isle which boasts of being mistress of the seven seas, and the greatest of maritime nations.

Prime Minister MacDonald, head of the labor government and party, has been invited by Lloyd George, the ablest of British politicians and statesmen, to enact legislation which will provide work and wages for all

COME AND GET IT!

HOW WE TASTE OUR FOOD BY SMELLING IT

And Why the Same Acid Makes Pineapple Taste One Way and Limburger Cheese Another

When we think we are tasting, a great part of the time we are actually smelling. Those old German wine tasters are right to blow the taste through their noses, because this is often the center of tasting—finding the savor.

To enjoy the full flavor of a delicate food or drink, hold it in your mouth, blow out a full breath through the nose and smack your lips. The taste of food is mostly due to the volatile odors of it that creep up the back stairs of the throat into the olfactory chamber.

There are only four actual tastes, acid, alkaline, bitter and sweet. The acid, or sour tastes, acid, alkaline, bitter drozen atoms charged with positive electricity. The alkaline, or soapy taste, is the perception of hydroxyl radicals charged with negative electricity.

The bitter and sweet tastes and all the odors depend upon the chemical constitution of the compound, but the laws of the relation have not yet been worked out, although chemists are on the road to this solution.

The sense and taste organs are sunk in moist mucous membrane and are affected only by substances soluble in water. To reach the sense of smell they must also be volatile so as to diffuse in the air inhaled by the nose. A chemist can determine more by smell than in any other way except by elementary analysis and tedious laboratory tests. The first thing he does to determine a compound is to smell it. The unaided nostril rivals the spectroscopic in the detection and analysis of unweighable amounts of matter.

An animal is even better than a chemist at this detection. The sense of smell guides a dog to the fox or warns a deer of the presence of man. The taste of pineapple comes from the ethyl butyrate in it, and this same acid gives Limburger cheese its aroma. The combinations are so complex, so completely mixed up that they have not yet been separated in the chemical laboratory. The same essence in fruits, flowers and other substances because of peculiar combinations result in widely varying results, but you can't fool the nose.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

By EDSON E. WAITE
 Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Geo. L. Browning, president of the Seaboard National Bank of Los Angeles, says:
 "A father can do no more damaging thing to his son than to leave him a fortune to handle without having taught him how to handle that fortune. It is like handing a loaded weapon to a child who knows nothing about handling such weapons."

"A daughter at five receives her first music lesson. Continuously she is taught and continuously she practices her music until she reaches her maturity. Because of the foresight, patience, interest and energy of her parents she is an accomplished musician."

"The son at five is given his first lesson in business. Continuously he is taught and continuously he practices business dealings. At maturity he can play the game of business as easily as the daughter can play the piano."

"How foolish are the parents who expect the son to be a successful business man after having neglected to teach him economic principles and business practices in the early formative period of his life!"

"Into the child's mind and soul there must be built a solid foundation on which rests the business principles. The child must have formed habit of close analysis, definite objective, creative thinking, unyielding determination and honesty of purpose. The schools alone cannot give this. The home—the parents must bring this about by directing the child's activities and thereby the child's habit of thought."

"A father should make a pal of his son, and as soon as the boy can count, responsibility of paying the bills, of placing values on purchases, of determining possibilities of savings, should be placed on the child. The child should be made to clearly understand that money within itself has no value, but is merely an implement to use in the garden of life, and it is either good or bad as it is made so by its use."

Shot Took Badness Out of Bad Man

HOUSTON, June 21.—A well placed shot that sent his cap flying through the air took the badness out of E. Cruise, 31, at midnight. Officers received a call that the man, drunk, was weaving his way down the street, brandishing a gun. They were greeted with a volley of widely aimed shots. When officers returned the fire, Cruise's cap sailed through the air, and the bath was over. He was charged with carrying a pistol and assault to murder.

REMOVE DIAL PHONE
 WASHINGTON, June 21.—Telephone company workmen were busy today in accordance with a senate resolution removing the new dial phones, which some senators found too complex to operate from the senate office building. They will be replaced with the old style instruments, through which the senators will instruct switchboard girls to dial their desired numbers.

15-Year-Old Boy, Who Shot Pawnbroker in Holdup, Claims to Be Mystery Maniac

BOSTON, June 21. — A 15-year-old boy who said he was "3X" New York's murderous maniac, was arrested here today after he had shot a pawnbroker during an attempted holdup. The youth gave his name as Frank J. Page of 48 Lincoln street Long Island City, N. Y. "I am the murderous maniac wanted in New York. You've got me now," the boy was quoted as having told police following his capture. Authorities were skeptical, but Page insisted that he was the mysterious killer. Passing the pawnshop of the Public Loan company here today, Patrolman Patrick J. Gaffney noted that the door was closed, which he considered unusual. Entering the establishment, he saw the proprietor, Abraham Beck, 25, of Dorchester, standing behind the counter, his hands in the air. Simultaneously, the officer heard a single shot fired. The officers then espied Page, revolver in hand. Gaffney ordered the youth to discard his weapon and the youth surrendered. Gaffney handcuffed Page and then directed a taxi driver to take Beck to City hospital. Where the proprietor was found to have suffered a bullet wound in the thigh. After being placed in a cell at South End police station, Page attempted suicide by hanging with Myozinski and Sowley because they had turned against the order and that he had been chosen to punish and inflict death on the two if possible. It continued: "It was when Myozinski died that they found who I am. Then things began changing. Now it is all over. The documents in question—one is a military document — another political. "The third one, just surrendered, is commercial. Who am I? Not much. An ex-German army officer of the Wilhelm Street office, Berlin, during the war. Now in the service of the Red Diamond of Russia. "I am watching them at C. P. (apparently College Point where

FINAL GESTURE OF BRAVADO NEW YORK, June 21.—In a final gesture of bravado toward the hundreds of police and detectives who have been hunting him for more than ten days, "3X" the murderous maniac, served notice in characteristic style today that his mission was done. In a letter to the Evening Journal "3X" said he would slay no more, that his "papers" have been returned to us on the 19th at 9 p. m. enroute to Russia by airplane. The man who killed Noel Sowley and Joseph Myozinski and threatened the lives of seven others said he was a member of a Russian society. The letter said in part: "The last document, UJ4-3-44 returned to us on the 19th. At 9 p. m. My mission is ended. "There is no further cause for worry. I do not know Dr. Williams and the others. The first sign referring to his "3X" signature means A, the supreme tribunal of the order. The second "V" its special agent. The two combined forming a diamond from the red diamond of Russia, a secret order all over the world." Fantastic Revelation The letter continued its fantastic revelation saying that the strange organization vowed revenge against

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE IS FATAL TO MAN

A charge of dynamite exploded upon his chest instantly killed Theodore Leslie, 36, at his home, 301 East Seventh street shortly before 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. The body was dismembered, portions of horribly mangled flesh being embedded in the shredded mattress upon which the dead man lay.

Coroner J. H. McDonald, who conducted an inquest rendered a verdict Friday evening in which he declared suicide to be the intent.

Evidence presented at the inquest showed that Leslie had attempted unsuccessfully to obtain dynamite from local dealers. Later in the day a magazine belonging to the Crist Hardware company, here a few miles west of the city, was found to have been broken open and dynamite taken. Crist stated at the inquest.

Leslie had been an inmate of a state hospital until about three months ago when he came to Cisco to make his home with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Baz, sister of the dead man, was at the house when the explosion occurred, she told Coroner McDonald at the inquest. According to the records of the testimony she stated that she went to her brother's room at 4:45 p. m. and found him lying on the bed, a pillow across his chest. He was smoking a cigarette. He asked her for a match which she gave him and then went out of the room and sat down on a bench in the back. The explosion occurred almost immediately she said, and she ran into the room where her brother lay, discovering his mangled remains in the wrecked bed.

REMOTE SPOT SOUGHT TO VIEW ECLIPSE

HONOLULU, T. H., June 21.—One of the most remote spots in the inhabitable world will be sought out by astronomers and scientists next October in order that they may view the next eclipse of the sun.

According to the calculations of astronomers only two land areas will be in the path of totality—Niuafoou, or "Tin Can" Island, about 300 miles north of Tonga, and Naurakita, a smaller and less adaptable place from which to view the eclipse.

To this area scientists will go, most of them probably to Niuafoou Island.

The United States navy will send a squadron of mine-sweepers the U. S. S. Gamble, Ramsey and Tanaker, to the South seas, carrying a combined expedition of the U. S. navy bureau of standards, the Rockefeller Foundation, the Carnegie institution, and others.

Niuafoou, a lonely spot in the South seas, is described as the most suitable place from which to view the eclipse, because it is more accessible and nearer the center of the line of eclipse than Naurakita.

The island of Niuafoou is purely volcanic, and volcanic activity has occurred in major proportions several times since 1853, when records began.

At Niuafoou totality will last for 34 seconds, just at 9 a. m., on October 2. Niuafoou is just west of the international date line, which makes an artificial bend six degrees out of line north of Niuafoou. Thus while the eclipse will be visible at Niuafoou on Wednesday morning Samoans some 300 miles away will be viewing the same eclipse in partiality at actually the same time but on Tuesday morning under the standard reckoning of time.

Robbery Suspect May Be Freed

MUSKOGEE, Okla., June 21.—Contention that evidence against R. L. Benton was insufficient threatened today to release the robbery suspect in the investigation of the murder of George and David Smith of Sharon, Conn.

Although Sheriff Fred Hamilton said he filed a murder charge against Benton, Assistant County Attorney Phil Oldham delayed proceedings because "evidence was flimsy." John Wike, a business associate of the Smith brothers and witness to the shooting in a hotel room here April 26, signed the complaint against Benton.

HEAVY LOSS AVERTED.
ATLANTA, June 21.—Swift and efficient co-operation of hospital attendants, firemen and volunteer citizens was credited by Atlanta fire department officials today with averting heavy loss of life when an X-R-ray explosion and fire occurred in the negro section of Trudy hospital here late Friday.

Lives of more than 250 persons—some gravely ill—were endangered but 15 minutes after the alarm was sounded not a patient remained in the four-story brick structure, and an hour later what threatened to develop into a serious fire had been brought under control.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON THE GREAT COMMISSION

Text: Matt. 28-10

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here: for he is risen as he said. Come, see the place where he lay.

And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for June 22, The Great Commission, Matt. 28:1-10.

By Wm. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of the Congregationalist.

The great commission was the commission from our Lord to the disciples to go forth into the world and make disciples of all nations in His name and in His fellowship. In the fulfillment of this commission the disciples were assured of the spiritual presence of the Master, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the ends of the world."

The power of that commission has been manifest in the growth and progress of the Christian church. Judged from the supremacy of the Church's ideal, and from the standpoint of the condition of the world in which the Church has to perform its work, it might seem at times that the progress of the Church and of the Gospel has not been great. But when one looks back over the years and sees the conditions under which the Christian Church began, the immensity of the forces of ignorance and of evil with which the Church has had to contend, the marvel is that even in 19 centuries such progress should have been achieved.

Where Science Has Failed
In our own day it is true that the progress of science in its revolutionizing of life seems immense. But science has not been particularly successful in solving many of the deeper problems associated with its own service. Where it ought to be, in harmony with its own principles, constructive, it has been, in large measure, destructive. Its implements and its agencies have been used too often not to benefit, but to destroy men and to make the conditions of their life not easier, but harder.

But the preaching and the living of the Gospel have been vital factors and forces despite all the shortcomings and defects of the religion of which this earnest preaching and practice has been a part. Wherever the Gospel has been proclaimed, it has produced much the same results, whether it be among savages in the heart of Africa, in the slum regions of a great city, or in social and intellectual circles of the more highly favored and called.

The man of wealth who hears the call of Christ becomes a humble and earnest servant of his fellowmen; the man of education a teacher of his fellowmen.

With the secularization of so much of our life and education today we are apt to forget the source from which these deepest influences in our civilization were derived. We do not always find it easy to see how closely the Gospel, in its proclamation and its living, has been associated with the betterment of human life, yet it is not too much to say that the great fruitful streams of our civilization have for the most part had their source in religious conviction and in the response to the commission such as Jesus gave to His disciples.

Work That Isn't Finished
The task that is still before the world is the task of realizing and fulfilling that commission. Because the difficulties are great, there is today a tendency to recoil from the worldwide nature of the Christian task. Because the problems of the foreign mission field are more acute and complex than ever before, we tend to withdraw and leave non-Christian nations subject to all the evil and worse influences of the so-called Christian nations, but without a strong and clear manifestation of the things that are most worth while in our civilization.

Such an attitude is weak and cowardly; far better the spirit of a Judson, or a Livingstone, or a Paton, perceiving the place and the need of the Gospel in all contacts of our life with the life of others.

The great commission of Jesus is still real for His followers, and their response to it is still the great test of the reality of their faith in Him and the courage and quality of their discipleship.

But as she stood there her lips trembled a little. Her thoughts leaped back to that one perfect night.

being ill, and all that. Somehow, when I try to tell him, I can't find the words; but I want him to know. I still feel rather queer about it, almost as if I'd been born all over again."

Judy looked at Alan and poured out jerky sentences in a great hurry.

"I wasn't there at the start, Mr. Steyne," she said; "but I believe that soon after you went away Chummy was very ill, and when she got better she'd lost her memory. She was well and strong again, but she just didn't remember anything about that time. And that's all there is to it. Then, the other day, when she had pneumonia and nearly died, her memory came back."

"But, Judy, how did I live?" interrupted Chummy, with a puzzled air. "My old aunt I went to see today asked me that. I don't think I had any money."

"Oh, yes, you had," said her friend. "It lasted a long time," she added vaguely. "There wasn't much to spend it on."

"But now, Judy?"

"You mean that I've been living on charity?" asked Chummy, with a touch of proud revolt.

"If you call it charity when a lot of people adore you, and would do anything in the world to keep you well and happy, and simply gloat over every little thing they can do for you? I call it something else."

A very humble look came into Chummy's proud face. In the years of her mental stagnation she had acquired a certain way of ordering people about and taking things for granted that was not natural to her.

"Oh, Judy," she whispered, "how wonderful you've all been to me! I'm beginning to understand. I must have been quite helpless and like a child. I suppose I wasn't mad?" she added anxiously.

"Of course not!" was the emphatic answer. "What an idea! And now that you're well again, everything will be all right. You can work, and we'll all be happy and jolly as the day is long!"

"Yes," Chummy said, "I believe I can work again—now."

Summer Makes Debut Saturday

CHICAGO, June 21.—Summer made its official debut today, the longest day of the year. At 9:54 tonight (C. S. T.) the sun will have reached its northernmost extremity on its six months swing in the northern hemisphere, and will then turn back on its southern swing. The sun rose today at 4:24 and sank at 7:40 tonight, shining for more than 15 hours, for the most number of hours of any day in the year.

answered. "Chummy loves you just the same as ever." "But I don't love her." "I hate you when you say that!" said Judy. "How can you help loving such a girl as Chummy? She's not only perfectly lovely, but she knows oceans and oceans of things. She belongs to another world than mine." "The world you belong to is good enough for me, Judy," said Alan, setting his teeth. "You're driving me crazy!" "But," she said with transparent simplicity, "you must have seen that everybody knows you belong to the cafe! It was just like someone coming home when you came; and only a few of them had really known you. And," she ended with her unanswerable statement—"and Chummy has been waiting for you all these years." Poker Game Linked With 3 Murders

ROCKPORT, Ga., June 21.—Police today linked a hillside poker game with the triple murder of Cliff Jones, Elijah Harper and Ernest McCullough, whose bodies were found in an abandoned well. In the picturesque rural setting of a hillside field, investigators came upon empty beer bottles, newspapers spread out in lieu of a card table, and other evidence that a group of men had gambled there. Polk county authorities expressed belief that the three victims had been shot to death as they sat in at the open air game, possibly lured to the scene purposely.

Five men were under arrest, and held for grand jury action in connection with the case.

Moves to Oust County Officers

AUSTIN, June 21.—Attorney General F. L. Bobbitt this afternoon announced that he has authorized and directed the filing of suits in district court at San Antonio for the ousting of Tax Collector Neil Campbell and Sheriff Alfonso Newton Jr. of Bexar county.

The action was announced after a poll tax investigation that the department has been conducting. "If aliens are being armed with ballots and if they are being voted to disfranchise citizens of Texas, it is high time that the responsibility for such a situation be fixed," Bobbitt said. "The charges have been made publicly and evidence has been submitted indicating very strongly that such a condition does exist."

Bobbitt said his action was taken after a "most thorough and deliberate consideration of facts submitted and in obedience to the law at the request of a large number of the most honored and responsible citizens of Bexar county."

Sufferings Of 15 Years Ended By New Konjola

Victim of Stomach and Kidney Ailments Found in Modern Medicine—First and Only Relief.

MR. T. A. WILKINSON.

"For the past 15 years I suffered from stomach and kidney troubles," said Mr. T. A. Wilkinson, 1109 Johnson street, Amarillo. "The weakened condition of my kidneys caused me to get up several times during the night. Thus my rest and sleep was broken, and I always felt tired and worn out. I could not eat solid foods at all. If I did, I was sure to suffer afterward with cramping pains in my stomach. I lost weight, became very nervous, and was greatly worried over my condition."

"Now, since taking the Konjola treatment, I am like a different man. My appetite is keen, and food digests better than it ever did. My kidneys have been strengthened and have regained their normal functioning. I am gaining in weight, and sleep soundly all night, every night. I certainly wish I had found this wonderful Konjola years ago."

Many express amazement at the speed with which Konjola works. It does, but a course of from six to eight bottles is strongly recommended. Konjola is sold in Cisco, Texas, at Moore Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

NON-PURCHASE ORDER LIFTED BY HUMBLE

HOUSTON, June 21.—A non-purchase order affecting the crude oil of six northwest Texas counties was lifted by the Humble Oil and Refining company today, nine days before it was to have become effective.

The order was issued June 4 and stated that in view of the fact the company was taking more crude than it could dispose of, purchases would be discontinued in Wichita, Wilbarger, Archer, Carson, Hutchinson and Gray counties July 1.

W. S. Farish, company president, announced retraction of the order due to a pending proration program under the common purchaser provisions of the recently adopted oil pipe line bill.

Various oil producers organizations have gathered production data and turned it over to the railroad commission for consideration, as the bodies informed Humble that no relief through the commission order could be expected prior to July 1, the Humble company retracted its plan.

$10,000 Worth of Baby Gorilla

NEA New York Bureau

It's not often that a baby gorilla arrives in this country, so that's the reason why this one gets his picture in the paper. He's shown here as he arrived at New York from the French Congo, with Jules Buck of Camden, New Jersey, who imported the little beast and who values him at $10,000.

TERRIFIC BEAR PRESSURE SHOOTS STOCKS DOWNWARD

NEW YORK, June 21.—Terrific bear pressure shot the stock market down today to new low levels for 1930—new levels as measured by the averages—paralleling another severe break in wheat and cotton.

Although there was support in evidence at the close, it was not sufficient to counteract the damaging influence of an earlier bear raid and the market was from 1 to 6 points down.

The preliminary calculation showed the Dow Jones & Co. industrial average at $215.69, off $6.23 and the railroad average at $128.71, off 1.34. Both of these averages were at the lowest levels since Nov. 14, 1929, the day after the culmination of the autumn crash.

The industrial average this week lost 28.36 points, net and the railroad average 5.75. The industrial average at today's close was down 78.38 points from its high for the year and the railroad average 29.23.

Sales today totaled 1,966,610, against 1,255,710 shares last Saturday.

The drastic break in the stock market came simultaneous with depression in the wheat and cotton markets. Wheat touched the lowest levels in 15 years on the Chicago board of trade while cotton at New York was down more than $2 a bale.

Selling gathered momentum as the session progressed, the majority of issues opening lower. Many large blocks representing stop loss orders and some marginal selling were recorded. Sales volume otherwise was not great and tickers held near the market throughout the short market period.

Causes of today's selling were a combination of lack of confidence and bear pressure, some of the latter instigated by circulation of new rumors.

Traders who had expected the market to recover on the reduction to 3 1/2 per cent in the N. Y. rediscount rate and the decline last week of $211,000,000 in brokerage loans, became fearful of the market's future and threw their holdings down for what they would bring.

GRAINS TO NEW POST WAR LEVELS.
CHICAGO, June 21.—Rally after the opening break had carried the grains on the board of trade to new low levels failed to hold today and the market broke again, all deliveries of all grains, except July corn, falling to new post war levels.

At the bottom July wheat was 92 1/2 cents, September 95 1/2, and December $1.00 1/2 per bushel. September corn went to 73 1/2 cents and December 68 1/2 cents during the day while oats was at 35 1/2 cents for July, 36 1/2 cents for September and 39 1/2 cents for December.

Rye went the lowest selling for 47 cents for July, the lowest since 1909; September 51 1/2, and December 57 1/2 cents.

"Two Stores to Serve You"

Drowns Sons and Suicides
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 21.—Louis Weis, former wealthy real estate owner here, today drowned his 14 year old invalid son, Francis, in a bathtub, then committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. The son had been stricken since birth with infantile paralysis.

"He said he had to do it, but I didn't believe it," Mrs. Weis told county authorities.

Weis' motive was believed by his wife to have been a combination of business troubles and brooding over the condition of the tragically stricken son. The murder and suicide occurred while Mrs. Weis was away from home shopping.

Screams of the boy were overheard by neighbors, who said they thought little of the incident until the pistol shot which killed Weis rang out. Mrs. Weis discovered the tragedy on her return and called neighbors.

Weis at one time was reputed to have amassed a fortune of a quarter of a million dollars, but lost it during the real estate collapse.
