GREAT CROWDS ANTICIPATED FOR NEWS COOKING SCHOOL

With the rapidly approaching date of March 2 indelibly impresed in the minds of hundreds of Cisco housewives, the opening of the Daily News cooking school, to be conducted by the famous dietician and domestic science expert, Rada Sue Garrett, excitement growing more and more intense as to the relative seating capacity of the building which has been secured for this great event. In clubs, intimate circles of friends, and neighborly tetea tetes, Miss Garrett has become the topic of the day. Never before has a community the size of Cisco witnessed such a widespread interest in the forthcoming arrival of a great expert in the culinary arts.

Every resource of the Daily News staff, as well as of the co-operating advertisers assisting, is being strained to permit an equitable handling of the tremendous crewds that will attend. #### INDIANA CITY WILL BECOME INLAND PORT EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 25. Evansville will take its place with the inland parts of America with the opening February 27 of the new $500,000 Mead Johnson terminal on the Ohic river.

The terminal will provide facilities for handling truck shipments from the middle west on river barges to cities along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, the Gulf of Maxico and Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

thence to all world ports.

Future development of waterways transportation in the middle west, it is expected, will be speed-ed by opening of the new terminal Evansville then will assume importance with Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. I wis, Memphis and New Orleans as major waterways shipping points.

Members of P. esident Hoover's cabinet, the governors of Indiana and Kentucky and other public officials have been invited to the dedication ceremonies.

The new terminal will have a capacity for handling 1,000,000 tons of freight annually. It will be served directly on the Ohio river by the American Barge Line company, the Mississippi Valley Barge Line and independent towing operators.

Tracks of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois and Louisville and Nashville railroads will enter the terminal and provide reciprocal switching arrangements for freight moving via the Illinois Central Big Four and Southern Railway systems, all cf which serve Evansville The terminal will provide ware-house storage space of 90,000 square feet on one floor and accommodations for a trainload of 64 cars at one spotting.
