Mid-Winter Blizzard Sweeps Across Midwest States

FORM DUE TO CONTINUE INTO SUNDAY

CHICAGO, March 7.—A mid-winter blizzard reached across the mid- and southwest tonight. Winds of gale force whipped snowfall into drifts three feet high in parts of Kansas. Telegraph and telephone lines went down one after another as the gale continued. Heavy waves were churned up along the Michigan and battered the lines in a damaging cannonade. Motorists were compelled to abandon their automobiles and seek shelter in farm houses. Temperatures dropped below zero. A blizzard swooped down from the north, striking the states of Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. Then it swept along into the states of the midwest gripping Illinois and Indiana and even the intensity of the storm grew. Weather bureau warned of the fact that it would continue until morning. Cessation generally by midday was indicated with winds down and snowfall becoming

NEW TRIAL FOR ROBERT HILL IMPROBABLE

A new trial of Robert Hill charged with murder in connection with the death of Police Chief Bedford of Cisco during the night of the first National Bank December 23, 1927, will be held provided an improbability day as no action was taken on part of the county attorney or officials to press another trial. The first trial on this charge days ago ended in a mistrial as the jury failed to agree on a verdict. The state sought the death penalty, asserting that Hill "had an agreement to serve a life term for bank robbery" and that he had aided in the robbery. Hill's companions in the robbery were given death sentences. Hill was not tried at that time on the murder charges filed against him. He was taken to the state penitentiary last Monday for safe keeping by him Clyde Thompson, convicted slayer of Lucian Lee at Leary, in September, and was conveyed to the death chamber at Huntsville.

T. A. to Meet Monday Morning

Coming to an error in the story of Friday announcing the meeting of the West Texas Farmers' association the time for the meeting was given as Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The meeting will take place Monday morning at 9 o'clock instead of Friday as announced.

Collegiate Boys Go to Fort Worth

About 15 members of the Cisco school vocational classes, of which E. H. Varnell is instructor, Friday afternoon left for Fort Worth and the Fat Stock show in the diversified farm truck. Mr. Varnell, manager of the farm truck, took the boys to Fort Worth where the boys were to meet Mr. Varnell and others of the class, as well as putting their livestock products on display and do practice with the several hundred other vocational boys attending the show. The boys will return Sunday.

WEATHER

East Texas—Sunday mostly fair, warmer. West Texas—Sunday mostly fair, warmer.

Siam's Rulers to Visit America

Here are the most recent photos of the king and queen of Siam, who are to leave their capital shortly for a visit to the United States. At the left is King Prajamajadul, and at the right is Queen Rambai Barni. The trip is being made in order that an American specialist may treat the king's eyes.

WOMEN BRAVE BAD WEATHER TO HEAR FINAL LECTURE

In spite of the inclement weather, one of the largest crowds that attended the Daily News Free Cooking school was present at the concluding lecture Friday afternoon. The house was filled to capacity long before the lecture started, and all standing room was taken. The title of the lecture was "The Unusual Hostess." The first recipe was one of the most unique demonstrated. It was called rose leaf cake. The name was derived from the fact that one cup of rose petals was used to flavor it. Miss Rada Sue Garrett, the instructor, pointed out to the fact that the French use flowers frequently for flavoring, and also cakes can be made very attractive by using a few flowers on the plate. Miss Garrett proved this statement by displaying the angel food cake baked Thursday which she had decorated with green icing and decorated with salmon pink sweet peas. She believes that if more decoration and care are used in preparing meals, the meal will be much more enjoyable.

"Model Hostess" Miss Garrett defined the model hostess as being the one who always planned her meals, and who is always ready for unexpected guests. She described her as being one who always smiles, regardless of obstacles, and who always makes her guests believe she is happy. She pointed out the fact that everyone has something to be happy over. She asserted that every day that she stayed in Cisco she found something else for the people here to be proud of. In being a good hostess, Miss Garrett suggested that the feelings of the guest should be anticipated, so that she can provide the things which they like. Do not let your guest think that you are blue," she advised. "The modern housewife worries over two or three guests, while it was not an unusual thing for the housewife of yesterday to have as many as fifteen or sixteen. One can be a smiling hostess even if there are many cares and duties. Put your guest at ease first in order to be at ease yourself."

Miss Garrett asserted that the housewives everywhere seem delighted with the rose leaf cake. They can be very cleverly used at a party or luncheon. She gave but did not demonstrate a recipe for Swiebach pie. Many suggestions for the serving of meals were given by Miss Garrett.

WOMAN GIVEN DEATH. MARSEILLES, France, March 7.—Death sentence was passed here on a young married woman, Anna Gulliani, for the murder of her husband. She is not expected to go to the guillotine, because President Doumergue has commuted the capital penalty on every woman murderer.

ORGANIZATION FOR ELECTION IS COMPLETED

Organization for conducting the general city election to be held Tuesday, April 7, for the purpose of electing a mayor and two commissioners was practically completed Saturday morning by the two judges, A. B. O'Flaherty and Lee Owen. The following clerks were appointed: Bob Winston, Henry Drumwright, K. H. Pittard, C. D. Pass, Fred Girt, J. B. Cate, L. A. Martin, P. J. Connolly, O. C. Cope, P. L. Ulum and Charles Hartman. The judges considered holding the election in the Gray building but investigation revealed that the city charter provides that all city elections be held in the city hall. Both east and west Cisco will vote only in state and county elections. In order to provide a maximum of convenience for the citizens who vote the election board is having eight voting booths constructed large enough to accommodate one person at a time and built in such a way that complete and ready privacy is afforded while the ticket is being marked. Each booth will be equipped with a pencil and writing board. The board feels that these booths will make it unnecessary for the citizens to search the city hall for a private place in which to mark their ballots and thus expedite the conduct of the election and they urge the voters to use them.

Not all of those selected to serve as clerks had been seen Saturday by the judges and they request that those who cannot serve notify them immediately.

Joe Shackelford Returning Here

Joe Shackelford, who moved from Cisco to Waco about two years ago, is moving his family back to this city, the Daily News was informed Saturday. According to the information received by the News Mr. Shackelford has rented the Roper home at I avenue and seventh street. It is understood that he will go into business in Cisco. Mrs. Shackelford is a sister of State Rep. Victor B. Gilbert and Mrs. J. A. Clements, of this city.

ATTITUDE OF GOVERNOR ON CO-OPS TOPIC

AUSTIN, March 7.—March political interest in Texas will wax next week to Dallas where the Texas Cotton Cooperatives hold a session beginning Tuesday. There the attitude of Gov. Sterling on the federal farm board and cotton marketing is expected to be a chief topic. Statements attributed to the governor in the cotton trade journals put him squarely against the federal farm board as an agency for marketing crops. "Relief of the farmer," he was quoted as saying, "does not necessarily mean that the government should take the funds of all the taxpayers and go into competition with private agencies."

When farm members of the legislature called on the governor as the result of the publication he assured them he favored farm cooperative organization. He did not, however, withdraw the statement attributed to him as opposing the federal farm board operation. The cooperative meeting in Dallas is that of cooperative directly connected with the federal farm board's marketing plan.

Mother and Child Are Fire Victims

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 7.—A mother and her child died in a hospital late last night as the result of one of three fires here. Mrs. Mary Lee, 27, and her son, Jack Lee, Jr., 4, were burned when the mother attempted to rekindle a fire in a wood stove with kerosene. The oil exploded.

Truck Driver Is Indicted in Death

BENHAM, March 7.—An indictment charging negligent homicide has been returned by the grand jury here against L. D. Fowler, Jr., of Elgin, cotton truck driver in connection with the death of W. W. Warner, of New York, advance man for "Rony and His Gang." Warner was killed when the truck driven by Fowler collided with a large motor coach on the highway near here February 23. Twelve other passengers on the bus were injured, two of them seriously.

11 NEGROES SUCCUMB IN PRISON FIRE

KENANSVILLE, N. C., March 7.—Eleven negro convicts were burned to death early today when fire destroyed the Duplin county prison camp several miles south of here. There were 32 convicts in the stockade. Guard Owen Bairston played the chief role in saving 41 of the convicts. D. F. Nicholson was the only other guard on duty. However, they were unable to reach the remaining 11 inmates, quartered in a cell near the kitchen. Only three of the dead had been identified at 9 a. m.

PROPOSED ONE YEAR TRANSFER RULE TALKED

AUSTIN, March 7.—Copies of the March issue of the Inter-scholastic League, monthly publication of the University of Texas Inter-scholastic League Bureau, are now being distributed to member schools. Several articles by officials of the League and high school officials on the subject of the proposed one-year transfer rule, barring any athlete from participation in League football for one year after he has transferred from one school to another, constitute the leading contributions. Both sides of the question are discussed. Supt. M. H. Duncan of Lubbock, who proposed the proposed change in the League rules, while F. T. Edwards of Clinton opposes the change on the ground that it will discriminate against the small school which needs every athletic who happens to move into the district. A resolution passed by the Palestine school board designed to discourage delayed graduations by students' ambition to insure another year of eligibility in inter-school contests is discussed by Supt. Ernest Fritzell of Palestine, while Dr. B. C. Tharp, associate professor of botany in the university, has written an article urging schools of the state to begin their collections of wild flowers for next year's League wild flower contest.

Bank Robbery Suspects Arrested

DALLAS, March 7.—Oklahoma officers were on route here tonight to question a couple giving their names as Nancy Lee and Martin Carkeek, former Colorado convict of Sonora, California, in connection with the robbery of a Preece, Kansas, bank. Dallas detectives arrested the pair Friday. Officials of Tulsa, who have aided in the search for the last member of a bandit trio that robbed the bank and wounded George Humble, assistant cashier, were notified by officers here immediately after the man and woman were lodged in

Explosion Aboard Tug Kills Two

NEW YORK, March 7.—An explosion aboard the tug, Joyce Card, which was tied up in Robin's dry dock in Brooklyn, killed two injured several others and blew a 300-pound refrigerator 200 feet high today. The tug was ripped open and sunk. Three men are missing.

1 OF 4 HELD IN INSURANCE PROBE FREED

One of four men in custody and named in charges of swindling in connection with investigation of alleged misrepresentation in the sale of automobile accident insurance in Eastland county, was released at habeas corpus hearings in the 91st district court at Eastland yesterday afternoon for lack of evidence. Another of the men had sold a policy, evidence brought out, but had refunded the money. Judge Davenport released him on his own recognizance. Charges of swindling, naming B. Glick, S. Lieb, S. J. Sneiderman, Joe Baum, J. Slater, C. Kramer and a man by the name of Bernstein, were filed Friday. Sneiderman, Baum, Slater and Kramer were arrested.

Judge Davenport ordered Baum and Slater, being over to await the action of the grand jury under $250 bonds. In ordering bonds set at $250 the judge said that the character of the charges against the men was questionable until a thorough investigation of the company for which they claimed to be working could be made by the attorney general. This company was named as the American Automobile Protective association of Houston. This investigation was said to be under way.

According to evidence introduced at the habeas corpus hearing yesterday afternoon the policies alleged to have been sold were represented to give blanket coverage in case of an automobile accident but that the policies actually delivered only partially protected the holder. Witnesses testified that they had purchased insurance which would pay $10,000 in case of death in an automobile accident, $15 per week for 24 weeks in case of injury, together with a contract to supply bond to the extent of $10,000 in case of court action growing out of an automobile accident and contract to pay towing charges in the event of a wreck. They asserted that all they received was the contract to furnish bond and pay towing charges.

No Charter. Joseph Parker, of Cisco, testified that he had written the attorney general regarding the insurance company and was informed it had no charter to sell insurance in Texas. The defendants asserted that they sold through the company but that H. W. Hammett, of Cisco, said with the National Mutual Insurance company, of Houston, to cover liabilities. W. F. Haynie, of Ranger, told the court he had received only the contracts for bond and towing charges after purchasing the insurance.

Arrest of the men was brought about through the activities of Cisco and Ranger officers. Cisco authorities had been investigating the sale of the insurance for some time. The first arrest was made at Ranger Friday by Chief of Police Jim Ingram. A Ranger man who had purchased one of the policies gave a post-dated check and stopped payment on the check when it policy was learned an investigation was under way. He notified the police and a man, giving his name as Joseph Baum, was taken into custody by Ingram when he presented the post-dated check for payment at a Ranger bank.

Ingram notified Deputy Sheriff R. L. Wilson, who in connection with other Cisco officers had been recruiting into the sale of similar policies here, and Wilson went to Ranger Friday at 1 o'clock to assist in the investigation there. He returned to Ranger in the evening and he and a member of the Ranger police force apprehended three other men at the Ghols'n hotel who admitted that they were salesmen for same company for which the man named as Baum sold.

Sterling Declares Complaint Personal

AUSTIN, March 7.—Gov. Sterling has wired Carl Estes, of Tyler, that he considers Estes' complaint against R. E. Penn, of Dallas, a personal matter between them. Estes had protested Penn's serving as Texas representative at a conference of oil states representatives, appointed by the various governors.

81-Year-Old Pioneer Dies at Gorman

Jim Moorman, 81, Eastland and Comanche county pioneer, died at his home in Gorman Thursday. Funeral arrangements had not been announced this morning. Deceased is survived by his widow and the following children: Cal. C. Moorman, Ranger; Mrs. Wallace Wagner, Ranger; Home; Moorman, Canyon; and Don Moorman, Gorman.

EXPERTS CLASH OVER INJURIES FATAL TO GIRL

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 7.—Medical experts clashed today over injuries that caused Arlene Dreyfus' death in testimony before the jury trying Virgil Kirkland, 20-year-old ex-football hero who is accused of first degree murder in her death. Dr. E. S. Jones, Hammond physician, who was one of four experts appointed to perform a second autopsy on Arlene's body, testified that she was killed by injuries and shock of criminal attack. In contradiction of that theory Dr. Charles Fisher, Chicago laboratory expert, reported a microscopic examination of tissues from Arlene's body that he could discover no evidence that she had been committed through violence. Arlene's brother and sister, Elsie and Ed, testified that the party dress which a department store clerk had said was paid for by Kirkland was bought with $11 that Ed gave Arlene in Elsie's presence. Only two witnesses, both for the defense, remained to be heard when Judge Grant Crumpecker adjourned the trial over the weekend and unless a surprise move is made Virgil's fate will be placed with the jury late Monday.

Amarillo Votes Plan for "Cheapest" Gas

AMARILLO, March 7.—This city tonight voted a plan that will give it the "cheapest gas of any city in the world," according to Mayor Ernest Thompson, who announced Amarillo would go into the gas business itself. The gas will be brought to the city through a six-inch pipe line from the producing fields of the Hubber Petroleum company in Hutchinson county, 40 miles away. The company has 500,000,000 cubic feet of gas production in the field. Rates will be cut 40 per cent here permitting a scale of 22 1/2 cents for domestic consumers and prices as low as seven cents for commercial consumers using 10,000,000 cubic feet.

RENEWAL OF CLEANING WAR IS FORECAST

ST. LOUIS, March 7.—A bomb was exploded here early today on the roof of the Staten Island Cleaning company, heralding police believe, a renewal of a war in the cleaning and dyeing industry here. The explosion tore a large hole in the roof of the plant, shattered windows in the two story building and did other minor damage. The bombers, apparently had aimed at the highly inflammable naphtha vat which they missed by about six feet. Officials of the company said they had employed union labor until about a year ago.

Good Deed Proves Fatal to Man

FORT WORTH, March 7.—W. P. Poter, 28, of Mineral Wells was dead today because he had attempted to play the part of the good Samaritan and help a woman get out of her wrecked auto. As he rounded a curve on the Weatherford road late Friday afternoon Poter saw the auto of Miss Elsie Hale skid into the ditch. He stopped and excitedly attempted to get Miss Hale from the car. While tugging at the auto he dropped dead. Miss Hale was taken to Baptist hospital and treated for minor injuries.

DALLAS GROUP SENDS APPEAL TO GOVERNOR

DALLAS, March 7.—An appeal to Gov. Sterling to order Texas rangers to investigate the abduction of George Clifton Edwards, prominent Dallas lawyer and socialist, and the flogging of two of his communist clients was made tonight by a committee of incensed Dallas citizens in a telegram to the chief executive.

Headed by H. Bascom Thomas, former state senator, and Alex Spruce, president of the Dallas public school board, the telegram was signed by more than a dozen citizens. "We appeal to you as governor of this state," the telegram read, "to order rangers to investigate this infamous outrage and further ask that a reward be offered for the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties."

District Attorney Wm. McCraw, suffering from a serious attack of influenza in a hospital here was quoted in a statement in the Dallas Dispatch today as saying: "If they catch the nigger-lovers' floggers I will be happy to let a good Dallas county jury pass on their crime."

Edwards was released by the flogging party before the two communists, C. J. Coder, 34, and Lewis Hurst, 21, were carried to a secluded spot outside the city and beaten. "A number of citizens have called on me to ask the governor to sit in the situation and it is up to him," Thomas said this morning. "I expect to call on these citizens to join me in sending the governor a message," Thomas declared, "and I intend following it with a personal letter. A reward should be offered for the arrest and conviction of every man connected with the kidnapping of Edwards and attack upon citizens whose only alleged crime is that of exercising a right guaranteed to every American, freedom of speech."

NO QUORUM IN HOUSE BLOCKS M'GILL BILL

AUSTIN, March 7.—Lack of a quorum blocked passage today of Rep. Joseph McGill's bill to collect $600,000 of taxes now evaded by auto-mobile owners. The bill requires exhibit of a receipt for ad valorem taxes before automobiles can be registered. McGill said the comptroller reported the amount of evasion quoted. Opponents called for a record vote which forced McGill to withdraw the bill temporarily. East Texas has land to be validated as well as west Texas, it was announced when Rep. T. W. Adkins tried to pass a validating bill. It would order the land commissioner to issue patents on lands occupied for two years that was taken up under the three-year occupancy law.

Cincinnati Sends Goodwill to Cisco

The Daily News has been presented, through the Cisco Floral company, of which H. E. O'Neal is proprietor, with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by Russell Wilson, Cincinnati, O., mayor, upon the occasion of the opening of the twelfth annual national flower show in that city.

TEXAS INDUSTRIES ON THE MARCH.

"It is great to be a Texan." It is important that Texans should know their Texas. It is the part of wisdom that they should keep their eyes on the development of Texas resources as well as the building activities of the commonwealth.

As for things industrial a new salt factory at Houston is expected to be in operation around March 1st, with daily output of 250 tons. A cheese plant capacity at Muenster in Cooke county has been increased from 25,000 to 40,000 pounds of milk daily.

Texas produced 2,560,197 tons of sulphur in 1930, increase of 202,653 tons over the 1929 total, value of 1930 production being considerably more than $30,000,000.

According to the same correspondent, Will C. Edwards, Burnet and Llano and other towns in that section are feeling good over the early prospect of starting work on the 9000 foot dam on the Colorado river, to cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $6,000,000 and giving employment to 800 workers over the two and one-half years the construction is expected to require.

CHAIRMAN ELY IS HONORED.

Judge W. R. Ely of Abilene, chairman of the Texas highway commission, at the suggestion of President Hoover, has been named one of the three delegates at the meeting of Inter-American highway representatives in Panama City, Canal Zone, March 16.

It is a high honor to say the least. As chairman of the state commission Judge Ely has been in charge of more federal road projects than any other state highway commissioner in the United States.

TEXAS AS A PRODUCER OF MERCURY.

According to an exchange, the mercury vapor turbine, the first commercial use of which was made in an electric generating plant in 1930, promises to make fuel cheaper than any other known means. Mercury is said to produce 50 per cent more power than any other agency.

SOUTHWESTERN RESOURCES SUSPENDS PUBLICATION.

Seven years ago Col. Milton Everett began the publication of the magazine known as Southwestern Resources. He made it one of the most interesting publications that Texas has known — for three years as Southwestern Mineral Resources at Austin and Fort Worth and four years as Southwestern Resources at San Antonio.

had much opportunity during the past 70 years, he has been a protagonist of Texas to know what is good for Texas." He added this to his suspension notice, "But we have failed to impress our work on those who buy advertising. We have lost money, for a poor man a great deal of money, and, after believing that 1931 would make some change for the better in our cash box which was a delusion, we have decided to quit. Maybe we will start up again in San Antonio or elsewhere; but at this writing we cannot say what the prospects are for the future."

Col. Everett published a virile and thoroughly up to date Texas magazine. He knows Texas as few men know it. He knows its natural resources and the possibilities of his Texas. Let us hope that he will start up again. His magazine filled a place in the state and it is one of the most readable and informative printed in the Lone Star Commonwealth.

OTHER OPINIONS

PIONEERS

What is happening to denominational education time was when it was not merely the best the country afforded, but all that the country afforded. The church established higher education in America, and for generations the church alone sustained it.

Today the churches and their schools have come to the parting of the ways. Many colleges have ceased to be denominational in order to obtain state grants or for other economic reasons. Others have been merged. And a number of denominations are having difficulty supporting their church colleges.

Has the church, then, lost its interest in the intellectual training of its children? It may be so, but there is another explanation that seems to account for present conditions without adopting so radical a hypothesis. That is the entry of the state into the field of higher education. The church held the line until the resources of the state could be mobilized; but now that the state has become interested it is able with its larger resources to do the work better and more easily than the church could do it.

But to church colleges goes the glory of establishing and maintaining higher education in America in the days when no one else would attempt the job. So in a sense, they educated the nation to the value of education. — Paris News.

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD

Millions of world war veterans are getting their loan advances on their certificates. A president of the United States and his secretary of the treasury were compelled by the American congress to eat humble pie. As for the 72nd congress it is as dead as a doornail.

Sen. Charles S. Gainer of Bryan is a stalwart. He has been a regular since he jumped out of his democratic cradle. He directed the campaign for Smith and Robinson in his senatorial district in 1926 and it is said that the regulars not only swept the district under his leadership but rolled up the largest majority given the regular ticket in any of the 31 districts. This isn't all. The 16th congressional district which takes in some of the Gainer senatorial district, rolled up the largest majority in any of the 18 congressional districts for the Smith and Robinson election.

Will Texas remain in the republican column of states or return to the house of Jefferson?

It is a matter of record that North Dakota legislature made final adjournment the other day without redistricting the state. This will call for the election at large of two congressmen next year. Lest we forget in the census count North Dakota lost a congressman.

A reminder that there is a corridor runner that Speaker Fred Minor will be a candidate for congressional honors next year should the state be redistricted. Texas will be entitled to three new congressmen which will call for 21 congressional districts. There are others who are fixed with a holy ambition to jump from the Texas legislative hall to the halls of the mighty under the Big Dome on the banks of the Potomac river. Rep. Lee Satterthwaite is not one of the number. He has served three times as a lawmaker from three different districts and defeated T. K. Irwin of Dallas for speakership honors. Rep. Satterthwaite has been as mumm as an oyster during the session that is on.

Those who claim to know say that he expects to be a candidate for re-election to the office of representative in 1932, that he will seek to capture the gavel of the speaker once more and in 1934 offer as a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. All this is whisper talk in the corridors and lobbies. It is a long road to Tippecanoe. In other words it is a long long road to the chair of the governor in 1934.

Speaking of West Texas and west Texans, Judge A. B. Martin of Plainview was here the other day. He resigned from an $8,000 judicial job and moved from Austin to his old home. Judicial friends who are close to him say that his retainer fees for the first week after his resignation from the bench totaled $15,000. They say he is one of the very able lawyers of the west. Texas, enjoyed the active practice of law and would rather live away out in the plains country than elsewhere. This is one of the reasons why many able lawyers avoid office holding and prefer the firing line of practice to a place on the bench. Judge Martin is a wheat grower as well as a lawyer and a banker. His father was a rugged pioneer of the West and the west is in the blood of the son.

New Grocery Store Is Opened in Cisco

O. R. Turner and Zed Kilbourn have just opened a grocery store market at the corner of Fifth and Main streets in the Lanford building.

This is a good corner and their stock is new and clean—nicely arranged with an electric meat display counter for the market products. They should do a good business. Both of these gentlemen are well known in Cisco, having been in these lines of business many years. Mr. Turner was a well-known grocer in the old Cisco before the boom days and has sold thousands of dollars worth of goods to the timers. Mr. Kilbourn is equally well known and has been out of active business in Cisco for only a comparatively short time.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Text: Luke 10:25-37. And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I DO to inherit eternal life?

He said unto him, What is written in the law? he readest thou? And he answered, said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this DO, and thou shalt live.

But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor?

And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

And likewise a Levite, also, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves? And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Z. The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for March 8: The Good Samaritan. Luke 10: 25-37.

By WM. E. GILROY D. D., Editor of The Congressionalist

The story that we call the Parable of the Good Samaritan, is from every standpoint one of the richest, deepest and most beautiful in all human history.

From a literary standpoint it is perfect. It compresses into small space a remarkable story, and tells it with unexcelled dramatic force and vigor.

From a moral standpoint it expresses the whole challenge of duty in connection with human relationships and man's responsibility for the welfare of his fellow man in as pointed and compelling a way as it could well be expressed.

And from a spiritual standpoint it reveals the sham and hypocrisy that often parade under the profession of religion and the insincerity and futility that go hand in hand with formalism, as these things have never been so vigorously set forth anywhere else.

Here, also, the parable has become known through its chief figure and its chief purpose. It is the parable of the man who fell among thieves, or the parable of the priest who passed by on the other side, or of the Levite who did likewise. It is the parable of the good Samaritan—the man who is known to us not because we are told anything about his creed or profession, but who appears in all the glory of his kind and loving deed.

Story Told as Illustration.

It should not be forgotten that the story was told, like many of the parables of Jesus, to illustrate a particular point. Jesus was answering the question, Who is my neighbor? The lawyer who was trying him out had asked that question when Jesus had defined religion as consisting of love to God and love to one's neighbor.

It is instructive to see the way in which Jesus turned the tables upon his questioner. He compelled the questioner to answer himself. He did not say to him as he told the story, "The man who fell among thieves was neighbor to the priest and to the Levite and to the man who helped him." Jesus put the application the other way around. He said to the lawyer, "Which of the three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among thieves?" That is, Jesus does not say to us, "You must help such and such a man because he is your neighbor," but he says, "You can be a neighbor to any man whom you are willing to help."

In this parable, as in other places Jesus reminds us that we make our own religious world and environment. We can make it as narrow as our own prejudices and as mean and circumscribed as ourselves, or we can make it as vast as the love of God and inclusive of all that great family of our fellow men who are comprised in that love of the Almighty Father.

A Limitless Religion.

The religion of the good Samaritan is a limitless religion. It is limitless in the largeness of its creed and profession, for its creed is not formal but practical. It is limitless in its application of religion, for it does not inquire whether the man to whom one would be a neighbor is an American or a foreigner, or what is the color of his skin, or what is the particular cause of the affliction from which he is suffering. It is the religion that moves with instinctive action toward the help of anyone in distress. It is the religion in which love as naturally expresses itself in kind words and loving deeds as one's physical being inhales and exhales the air that is essential for life.

The glory of such a religion is that the more one practices it, the more natural it becomes until it is almost second nature to behave in the spirit and in the manner of the good Samaritan; for the good Samaritan was simply acting in the spirit of the Master who gives wisdom and strength to all to act in the same way.

America, in its present situation of unemployment and widespread suffering, offers a rich opportunity for all who are willing to be "Good Samaritans."

decorated in purple and white, featuring spring violets. The president, Mrs. J. E. Elkins, welcomed the guests, and the invocation was given by Rev. E. L. Miley.

Mrs. J. T. McKissick had charge of the worship period — theme "The Perfect Love." Mrs. J. C. Shaw, leader, was assisted in the presentation of the program — topic "The Dawn of a New Day" — by Mesdames W. F. Bruce, G. W. Troxell, J. B. Cate, and C. R. West. A quartet, composed of Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. J. H. Hartness, Mrs. J. L. Mobley, and Mrs. J. B. Cate, sang two numbers. After singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" by the assembly, the meeting was brought to a close with the benediction.

MRS. MORRIS HOSTESS TO MODERNISTS

The Modernist club met at the home of Mrs. Leith Morris on F avenue Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ted Huestis won high score and Mrs. Geo. Wild second high. Mrs. J. L. Thornton won low score.

Members and guests present were: Mesdames Joe Black, Leonard Surles, Lloyd Surles, Ted Huestis, Smith Huestis, Blanch Jeffries, Geo. Wild, Ross Cotton, Wallace Brittan, and J. L. Thornton, and Miss Margaret Lamb of Athens.

The club will meet next time with Mrs. Ted Huestis.

METHODIST W. M. S. HAS BUSINESS MEETING

The Methodist Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the church in a business meeting.

Mrs. M. D. Paschall, president, led the devotional. Reports were given from different officers with an unusually good report from the treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Reagan, giving the net receipts of the year. It was voted to remodel and equip the parsonage kitchen. The new circles were formed and the names in the four divisions were read.

Dubasque Sports Frock

THERE is a particularly trim and tailored appearance to this smart sleeveless sports frock of Dubasque, one of the new sport rays in a basket weave effect.

The collar of the same material gives a wide shoulder line, which is a note in many sports costumes, and the narrow white collar softens the neckline and is a flattering touch to the severe lines and stitching of the gown. A belt of self material holds the dress snugly at the waist and has a colored buckle set trimly in the middle.

The business meeting was followed by a study of a book of the Bible. The meeting closed with the giving of the Lord's prayer in unison.

During the social hour, refreshments were served to Mesdames Martin Luker, John Gerhardt, H. F. Massmann, Oscar Eppler, O. J. Weiser, Frank Ziehr, O. P. Weiser, Dorothy Prang, Arthur Rathjen, F. W. Stroebel, and Misses Irene Massmann, Marie Gerhardt, and Hulda Miller.

MUSIC STUDY CLUB STUDIES U. S. COMPOSERS.

The Music Study club met at the club house Monday afternoon with 10 members and one visitor present. M. S. W. Wallace was the leader for the following program on American composers.

Indian music, Mrs. P. L. Ullum; Vocal solo, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Waters," Mrs. Ullum, accompanied by Mrs. Lary Waterbury;

Sketch of Edward McDowell's life, Mrs. H. I. Stock;

Vocal solo, "To a Wild Rose," Mrs. J. B. Almond;

Sketch of Stephen C. Foster's life, Mrs. R. L. Jeffrey;

The club then listened to six Foster's songs played by Mrs. E. A. Merrill and was asked by the leader to name them. The songs "Old Kentucky Home" and "Old Folks at Home" were sung by the members.

Mrs. John Land and Mrs. Lary Waterbury were elected delegates to the state music convention to be held in Temple in April.

RED CROSS IS TAPERING OFF RELIEF FUNDS

Gradual reduction of funds available for farm relief has been undertaken by the Red Cross according to instructions received by J. E. Spencer, Eastland county chapter chairman. This policy has been adopted, according to a letter from Wm. M. Baxter, Jr., manager in view of the fact that federal aid for the rehabilitation of agricultural conditions is now available and also in view of the imminence of state aid.

The March appropriation for the Eastland county chapter has been materially reduced from the appropriation for February although the load of relief to be carried by the chapter is greater, Mr. Spencer said. This will necessitate greater effort and sacrifice on the part of the local people if the needs are met, he said. Appeals which have been made have brought little response locally but added to the feeling that this response must come if the chapter is able to take care of demands made upon it.

In explaining the policy of the Red Cross in this respect Mr. Baxter's letter states:

Emergency Charity.

"The assistance that has been extended by the Red Cross was of an emergency character, contemplated to assist the drought suffering farmer and his family with food through the winter and did not contemplate extending such measures of relief as are considered farm rehabilitation. This phase of the problem was definitely undertaken by the government and has been supplemented by the different states affected. The benefits of these farm rehabilitation measures, such as the $45,000,000 government agricultural loan and the $20,000,000 federal appropriation, are now available, in addition to local credit facilities, and it is expected that every farmer will make immediate arrangements as he is accustomed to for the planting of his crop and that the Red Cross emergency relief program will gradually be brought to a close.

"In our opinion, continuance of emergency assistance beyond the period when it is necessary would tend to destroy the good that has been done to date, by postponing the time when the people make their usual arrangements, and by building up a mental attitude of dependence. Many difficulties confront the farmer in making arrangements, it is true, and herculean effort will be necessary on the part of every individual and community to solve their problem of re-establishing normal conditions. The continuation of Red Cross assistance certainly will not contribute to a solution."

No Arbitrary Shut-Off.

Mrs. Myrta Ellis, district Red Cross representative handling seven counties in this section was in Cisco Saturday. She made the same statement here which she made at Baird last week, viz.:

"No one need be alarmed over the possibility of our arbitrarily shutting off this program April 1, or any other definite date. With improving general conditions, approach of spring and the opening of new avenues financially, the Red Cross simply feels that it can gradually reduce family budget allotments. Regardless of general orders, however, cases most in distress will continue to be handled indefinitely to whatever extent workers find necessary. We probably will receive instructions later in the month as to definite cut and the date of termination of the program."

This Man's life was saved by a Long Distance call that went through fast

Molly Malone, long distance operator, glanced at the clock. It was 9:54 a. m.

Suddenly a light flashed on the switchboard... a call.

"Emergency!" a voice shouted. "Get Raymond Ditmars, quick... New York, Fordham 5560!"

Molly Malone did not know the speaker was George Vierheller, Director of the St. Louis Zoo. She did not know that nine minutes earlier Marlin Perkins, curator of reptiles, had been bitten by a deadly Gaboon viper.

She did not know that Ditmars, curator of reptiles at the New York Zoo, is one of the few authorities on the treatment of American snake bites.

All she knew was that it was an emergency! "I'll do my best," said Molly. "Hold the line."

In New York, a minute or two before the hands of the clock touched the hour, Ditmars lifted his telephone receiver.

"Perkins has been bitten by a Gaboon viper," he heard Vierheller say. "We have injected serum. We want to know how far we can go—what kinds of serum to use, how much, and at what intervals."

Concise, Ditmars gave directions—the sure, definite directions of the expert.

"It's serious," he concluded, "but you must pull him through."

Perkins did pull through... Today he is back at work in his laboratory. Scars, marking the incisions in his left arm, are the only evidence of his ordeal.

On ordinary calls, long distance is just as speedy, just as dependable. If you give the number of the telephone you are calling, in most cases you will be connected while you hold the line. It's like telephoning across the street.

And you can talk 100 miles for 60 cents.

Would you like to know the telephone numbers of friends, relatives, in other cities? Upon request we will send you, free, an "out-of-town number book," prepared especially for you, in which will be listed the names of your friends, your relatives, your business associates, with addresses, telephone numbers, and the cost of a three-minute telephone call to each.

MRS. OLSON ENTERTAINS MERRY WIVES CLUB

The Merry Wives "42" club met at the home of Mrs. A. J. Olson Friday afternoon.

Violets and early Spring blossoms graced the living room and green candles burned on the tables. Green shamrock place cards and tallies revealed a pleasing color scheme honoring St. Patrick.

Ten games of "42" were enjoyed after which Mrs. Olson served a salad plate carrying out the green and white color scheme consisting of rolled sandwiches, crackers, olives, red, green, and white pyramidal gelatin salad, squares of white cake, green tea with sprigs of mint and lemon.

Present were: Mesdames C. H. Fee, Gus Ward, C. Owen Geo. Kelly, Geo. Wilson, P. P. Shepard, W. P. Lee, Geo. P. Fee, E. L. Miley, D. C. Sadtler, F. A. Herndon, H. Brandon, and the hostess.

MRS. PASCHALL HOSTESS TO J. O. Y. CLASS

Mrs. M. D. Paschall, Jr., was hostess to the J. O. Y. class of the First Baptist church Friday afternoon at her home on West Fifth street.

The meeting opened with a song sung by the class. Mrs. H. G. Bailey led the opening prayer. The devotional reading was given by Mrs. Don Andrews.

After the business had been properly dispensed of, there was a mock tea cleverly arranged by the hostess. The honor guest was Mrs. Ed Bates.

Present were: Mesdames H. E. O'Neill, G. T. Poe, H. G. Bailey, Lee Smith, Jack Jones, L. L. Harbin, J. D. Pratt, Charles Emde, Don Andrews, M. M. Farmer, H. J. Moyer, Ed Bates, G. Stover, Marvin Pierce, and the hostess, Mrs. M. D. Paschall.

METHODIST LEAGUES ATTEND MEETING IN RANGER.

Members of the Senior and Hi Leagues of the First Methodist church went to Ranger to the district meeting Friday evening.

A very interesting program was given after which numerous games were played. Refreshments, carrying out a St. Patrick motif, consisting of mint salad, wafers, cake, and hot tea were served.

Among those who attended were from Cisco Misses Etta Brennan, Faye Clark, Betty Parsons, Anna Margaret Tucker, Elma Mayhew, Nadine Mayhew, Maxine Gallagher, Edith Rumbaugh, Sarah Rumbaugh, Lucille Jensen, Mary Latch, and Lucille Clark and Frank Aycock, Earl Mayhew, Billy Parsons, J. Mrs. P. B. Glenn and Mrs. F. A. Herndon were hostesses to the First Industrial Arts club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glenn on West Fourteenth street.

Each roll call response "Who's Who in Texas Literature" was given with proud interest for Texas.

Committees reported the distribution of five and one half dozen magazines, eight trays, and nine bouquets.

Mrs. H. G. Bailey, president elect of the club, appointed the following program committee for the ensuing year: Mesdames W. W.

MISSIONARIES TO SPEAK HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Dr. and Mrs. J. Howard Taylor, medical missionaries in China for 40 years, will speak at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at 7:45. The China Inland Mission, of which they are a part, was formed in 1865 by the Rev. J. Hudson Taylor, who had found that existing societies felt unable to grant men and means for work in the interior of the great Chinese Empire. In character the mission is interdenominational, international, evangelical, evangelistic, and supported by free-will offerings.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor are not soliciting funds, but are bringing to America the marvelous story of their mission's work. The minister of the First Presbyterian church announces that the meeting Wednesday evening is open to all of Cisco, and promises a most interesting message from turbulent China, by those who have been in its turbulence, and much to do with its modern history making.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—The drys picked up a valuable new champion...

Morrison is the only senator on the Democratic National Committee...

He is an able fighter, although explosive and impulsive...

It takes no political courage to be dry in such a politically dry state...

While a half dozen other new senators—including such strong wets...

Morrison is 61 years old now. He was born a poor country boy...

He is a kind-hearted and charitable man, despite his impetuosity...

WEEK'S SERIES OF SERVICES CLOSE FRIDAY

The services for the week closed at the Church of Christ Friday evening with Rev. O'Dowd...

The subject for the evening was "The Business of the Church."

When I think of the business of the church, the first thing that comes to my mind is the subject of giving...

The Lord did not leave us in doubt, but gave a system of giving and if we neglect it we are sinning...

He said every first day of the week, each one should give as they are prepared...

So perhaps Morrison will be careful not to injure the party in his attempts to keep it dry...

MOVED--

The Southwestern Motor Co. has moved from its old quarters at 103 West Ninth Street to the old Lee Motor Company stand across from the Laguna Hotel.

The service station at the corner of Main and Ninth streets will remain but all other departments of the Southwestern Motor Co. have moved to the new location.

Shop, Storage, Battery and Electrical Service, Firestone Tire Sales and Service, Car Washing, Greasing and Polishing, are ready to serve you at the new location.

The telephone number for these services still remains 487, while the service station at the corner of Main and Ninth is 333.

SOUTHWESTERN MOTOR COMPANY. Corner Fourth at Main. Telephone 487.

Six Ways to COMPARE TIRE VALUES

Table comparing tire values with columns for 4.50-21 Tire, Our Tire, and Special Brand Mail Order Tire. Rows include Volume, Weight, Width, Thickness, Plies, and Tread.

DRIVE your automobile into one of our "department stores" of standardized service, where you can get everything your car requires—tires, tubes, batteries, brake lining and accessories—gas, oil and lubrication—all under one roof; don't waste time and money driving around to a number of specialty shops.

The One-Stop-Service Store is the development of Harvey Firestone, pioneer in rubber and rubber tires. Let us show you a cross-section cut from a Firestone Tire—and cross-sections of competitive tires. See for yourself the quality—the extra plies under the tread—the extra value. All we ask is one thing: Come in and Compare.

Compare Prices and Service

Table comparing Firestone tires and batteries. Columns include Oldfield Type, Firestone Batteries, and Firestone Anchor Type Super Heavy Duty. Rows include size, price, and performance.

*A Special Brand Mail Order tire is made by some unknown manufacturer and sold under a name that does not identify him to the public, usually because he builds his first-line tires under his own name.

Mrs. O'Hare which swept all else before her. Crosby and Gypsy found themselves in the rear dining room. Other guests crowding about them.

"It's a surprise," Gypsy explained. "Mrs. O'Hare wouldn't let me tell you. All of the other roomers are here."

Hasty introductions followed. The hostess led Alan to the head of the table. "You're to sit here, Mr. Crosby," she said. "Gypsy you take this chair on the left."

The young man hesitated. "I wonder—would you mind if I made a telephone call?" he asked. "Why, certainly not. You remember where the 'hopen is'."

The others found their places and the seconds dragged as, with unusual formality, they stood waiting. Two fiery circles burned in Gypsy McBride's cheeks.

It must have been nearly five minutes before the young man returned to his place beside Mrs. O'Hare.

"I'm terribly sorry," he said soberly. "but I must ask you to excuse me. Something unexpected has come up. It's—It's a business matter. I hope you won't mind?"

The young man smiled winningly. A minute later he was gone.

O. J. RUSSELL NEW CAPTAIN OF GOLF TEAM

O. J. Russell was elected captain of the Cisco Country club's golf team at a meeting of the club members at the chamber of commerce Friday evening. Russell succeeds Jeff Duncan who captained the team last year.

Russell's duties will be to see that all players who can do so, are out for each tournament and to arrange the matches in each case and to keep the team in practice.

He said Saturday that qualifying rounds to arrange the ladder for the year will be held between now and March 21 so that the ladder will be in readiness for the first tournament with Thurber on March 22. He requests that all members of the team get in shape for these rounds at once.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON VET LOANS

Further information relative to obtaining loans on adjusted service certificates under the new law recently passed by congress had received by the John William Butts post of the American Legion. The information sent by Read Johnson, regional manager of the U. S. Veterans bureau at Dallas, includes an appeal for more accurate and detailed certification of applications so that the bureau may be able to handle these more expeditiously under the announced administration policy of helping veterans actually in need of the money first.

"Since the announcement of this policy," says Mr. Johnson, "so many certifications have been received in the Dallas office that it is almost impossible now to determine whether or not we have more emergency cases than we do of the other class, and if the certifications continue to reach us in the great numbers that have been filed during the last three days the purpose of this policy will be defeated, because when approximately the entire load of loans are made special, there is nothing that can be done except put them in line for payment in the order in which they are received in the office. The officials of this office have no way of determining which ones of the emergency cases should be put first, inasmuch as the certifications in very few instances carry any information whatever as to the man's circumstances but just simply state that an investigation has been made and the man is in urgent need of his money."

"This matter is called to your attention not through any spirit of resentment or because it works any particular hardship on the bureau. It would be our desire to pay all of these loans immediately and get the work out of the office as soon as possible and get the money to the men who actually need it but it is brought to your attention in an effort to picture to you a situation that will defeat the purpose of specializing loan checks for those veterans who actually need their money for the necessities of life and will prevent the bureau from giving preference to those cases that are in actual need which we would like very much to do."

Bank Loans
The following information relative to securing additional loans from banks on certificates held as security for loans already secured was also supplied by the bureau:

Reference is made to the amendment to the World War Adjusted Compensation Act of February 27, 1931. Many inquiries have been received by this office from veterans and banks as to how additional loans may be granted by the banks on certificates which are being held by them as security for loans, and how the veterans may receive the additional amounts they are entitled to under the above mentioned amendment. For that reason the following information is furnished and it will be appreciated if you will disseminate this information to the veterans, as well as the banks in your locality.

"Under the amendment banks may make loans up to the full loan value, which now is fifty per cent of the face value of any certificate, two years or more must have elapsed since the effective date of the certificate before a loan can be made either by a bank or by the veterans' bureau.

"The rate of interest which a bank may charge may not exceed by more than two per cent the Federal Reserve Discount rate for ninety-day commercial paper for the Federal Reserve banks of the district in which the bank is located, but in no event may the rate of interest charged for loans made on and after February 27, 1931, the date of the amendment, exceed four and one-half per cent.

"If, while his certificate is held by a bank as security for a loan, a veteran applies for the increased loan value authorized by the Amendment of February 27, 1931, whether or not the loan has matured, the veteran should be informed of the provisions of this letter and that the bank may make the loan for the additional amount, or upon request of the veteran, may send the note and certificate to the U. S. Veterans' Bureau in Washington, D. C. The Bureau, if the loan has been made in accordance with the law, may accept the certificate and the veteran's note, and pay to the bank the full satisfaction of its claim, the amount of unpaid principal due it, and the unpaid interest at the rate fixed in the note, up to the date of the check issued to the bank, or up to the date of maturity of the loan, which is the later date. If the loan has not matured, the bank may waive its right to interest up to the date of maturity or any portion of such interest.

IS YOUR BABY PAID FOR?

A startling question perhaps! There is no event in the life of men and women that compares in importance with the arrival of his lordship—the-baby. Everything else pales into insignificance. Nothing else matters. And the promptness and skill of your physician at that event effects the entire future of at least three people.

At no time in the lives of most families is more thought given to the selection of a physician. He must be a kindly, capable member of the profession. And nothing places greater care on the physician. Yet the records show that a surprisingly large percentage of the physician's very modest fees remain unpaid for many months.

You cannot afford on such an occasion to take chances. Get the best physician you can. And show your appreciation of the importance of his services by at least showing him the courtesy of a reply to his statement. If you fail to get a statement see him and if you cannot pay cash tell him. He will never crowd you for payment and will be happy to aid you.

The physician could protect his interests in such cases by putting them on a cash basis. Perhaps that will come in the future, but not because the physician wants it. The public may force such action if it does not pay promptly.

No group of men do more for humanity than the physician and none are more entitled to fair play. If you can't pay cash at least pay your physician on the first of the month when you pay your other accounts.
