PASTOR GATHERS SURPLUS FARM CROPS TO FEED CHICAGO'S UNEMPLOYED

"Why Should a Single Person Go Hungry in This Land of Plenty, Where Fields Are Running Over With Things to Eat?" Asks Minister Who Has Fed Multitudes.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—A breadline of 2,000 hungry men stood in the gray dawn outside the doors of the Immanuel Baptist church, not long ago.

That was a month ago. Dr. Myers broadcast a plea to farmers of the surrounding country to cooperate in his plan.

No attempt has been made to grind the wheat into flour. More than 25 bushels of grain have been boiled for distribution in banks after it has partly dried.

Food stations established throughout the nation by this method of salvaging food that might otherwise be wasted would do an untold amount of good this winter.

BAPTISTS TO BEGIN NEW YEAR SUNDAY

Sunday will mark the beginning of a new year in the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. work of the First Baptist church of this city.

At 7 p. m. the B. Y. P. U. will meet in regular session but at an hour earlier than usual they will be called into the general assembly for promotion exercises.

DAILY BIBLE THOUGHT

GOD'S BENEFITS: — Blessed be the Lord, who daily beareth our burden. Even the God who is our salvation.—Psalm 68: 19.

AN UNLIMITED SUPPLY:—If ye abide in me, and my word abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY LAW POPULAR.

North Carolina, following the lead of California and other states, has adopted a Financial Responsibility Law for motorists.

The law, of the familiar pattern, provides that a person failing to satisfy a judgment shall have his license suspended until he gives proof of financial responsibility, either through an insurance policy or a personal corporate surety bond.

This type of law is finding increasing support throughout the nation, and it is noteworthy that demand for unconditional compulsory automobile casualty insurance of the Massachusetts kind, is seldom heard. The experience of the Bay state, with its congested courts, rising accident record, faked claims and increased insurance rates has acted as a warning to other commonwealths.

One can find little fault with the Financial Responsibility Law. Its principal virtue is that it puts the responsibility and cost where it belongs—on those who cause accidents—and does not penalize the careful, responsible driver. The negligent motorist holds the financial sack, as he should.

BUSINESS AND COPPER.

Citizens of the mining states will be especially interested in a recent statement by Colonel D. C. Jackling, president of the Utah Copper Company.

"I see no indications of a downward trend, or, for that matter, an upward trend, in business," Mr. Jackling said. "Naturally business men hope for a change toward better conditions.

"Improvement of the German situation would reflect itself everywhere. Copper, like other so-called world commodities, would be benefitted by improvements in the situation. Stabilization of the silver market and improvement of prices for the metal would help everything, including copper, through the reopening of markets.

"The downward trend of copper is reflecting curtailment of production on some properties. It is a natural recession because of low prices, and as long as low prices continue, producers cannot afford to produce more than they can dispose of."

ENEMIES OF PROSPERITY.

There has never been a time when it was more important to keep governmental expense down to reasonable levels than now.

Businesses and individuals are striving to make both ends meet. Authorities, public and private, are working on plans to stimulate industrial activity and thus provide employment for those who are out of work. And rising taxes are one of the principle barriers in the way of success of such plans.

Extravagance and waste on the part of officials are enemies of prosperity and result from "government in business" in competition with its private citizens and taxpayers.

ON TOP OF THE HEAP.

"It's an ill wind that blows no good"—is an old axiom, but apparently as true today as ever.

Whoever would have thought we should be rejoicing over any phase of this depression business? Yet, that is exactly what Dr. Harold J. Knapp, Health Commissioner of Cleveland, is doing; because he finds in that city considerable decline in disease with the general health of the people there greatly improved. His theory is that people eat less in times like these, that their diet contains fewer luxuries and that health is improved by plain food.

Carefully planned meals cost less money. The less one spends for food the more important milk becomes. Milk is all food, no waste. The least amounts of food which can be used with safety are—Every Meal; milk for the children, bread and butter for all; Every Day; cereal, potatoes, green or yellow vegetables, fruit, tomatoes or oranges for children; Two to Four Times a Week; Tomatoes for all, dried beans, peas or peanuts, eggs—especially for children—lean meat, fish, poultry, cheese. Amounts to suit the size of family.

Simple, plain foods these—but they offer protection and bring health at a cost in keeping with a decreased food allowance.

FIRE IN THE FORESTS.

The terrible and destructive fires in the forest areas of many states this year should have focused the public attention on the problem.

Thousands of acres of timber have been devastated—families have been left homeless—human and animal lives have been needlessly destroyed. In at least one state it was necessary to establish martial law in the endangered sections.

Much of the loss is laid to arson—certainly one of the most despicable of all crimes. This we must deal with as best we can through processes of law, and through stricter and more adequate legislation for punishing the offender. But that part of the loss which has resulted from carelessness can only be solved, for our future safety, by the individual. The worker in the woods—the vacationist—the maker of campfires—the smoker—each has been responsible,

It CAN Be Done!

Feed Chicago's--

Ideas about present-day problems. "For one thing, we need old age pensions for men over 65. No man should have to work when he is passed that age. Also, we need unemployment insurance, and a five-day week."

The telephone keeps Dr. Myers busy. "A thousand bushels of apples are on their way from Benton Harbor and the city council there has voted to co-operate with us," he repeated after one call. "An offer of 300 cartloads of potatoes and vegetables," he said again.

And once more, "I've just had a contribution of $5,000 promised by one man."

This is just the latest phase in Dr. Meyer's work for the poor. He operates an employment bureau. There is a room in the church basement with shelves of clothing. A fellow who comes shivering into the church on a winter day goes out with a warm coat.

In the afternoons needy women and children trudge to his church for loaves of bread and pie. More than 600 loaves daily were distributed this summer.

His breadlines are famous. Those who have stood in them and they can be found in every part of the world, vouch for them as the best in any country.

There are no "hand-outs" of bread and coffee. The men, 85 at a time, sit down at tables in the roomy church basement. Thick slices of white bread, butter, platters of meat, steaming pitchers of coffee and slabs of pie. Every man eats as much as he wants.

This is Dr. Meyer's 36th year as pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church. For 10 years prior to his work in Chicago he occupied a pulpith in Cincinnati.

HUGE SUMS OF TOURISTS AID TRADE BALANCE

By SAMUEL DASHIELL

United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS, Sept. 25.—Despite the favorable and unfavorable trade balances figured out by the economic experts, certain economists of the League of Nations have found that economic balances, favorable or unfavorable, cannot be suitably established without a knowledge of the invisible revenue; that is, the tabulations of the millions of dollars spent in various countries by tourists.

As a proof of the fallibility of established economic theories, the Vatican City is cited. It has what could be reported as a strictly unfavorable trade balance, buying almost everything from outside, and selling nothing that can be tabulated on paper. Logically it should be bankrupt, but the reverse of the situation prevails. Vatican City is far from being bankrupt, and its balance is distinctly in its own favor.

Heavy Invisible Balance

Adverse balances of France, Germany and other countries have thus been put under the spotlight by the League economists, and it appears that France has one of the heaviest invisible balances, in the world.

By the same rule, those countries which contribute thousands of tourists to other countries, have an invisible leakage of revenue, which naturally has its effect on that country's financial situation.

U. S. Unfavorable

A progressive outlay of dollars from 1926 to 1929 is reported from the United States to other countries. In 1926 American tourists spent 623 millions of dollars abroad, while in 1929 they spent 839 millions. Its invisible balance must therefore be unfavorable, which in 1929 was estimated by the Geneva economists as 659 millions.

France, on the other hand receives most of the foreign tourist money, while her national spending comparatively little abroad. France's balance is considered favorable, for in 1926, her receipts from tourists amounted to 259 millions, while in 1929 they amounted to 392 millions of dollars. Her favorable balance in 1929 was estimated at 422 million dollars and in 1929, it was 333 millions.

Although Germany has been the goal of many tourists, her trade balance did not appear favorable. In 1926 32 million dollars were spent by tourists and 45 million dollars in countries abroad exceeded those receipts from foreigners.

After Meals, a Pinch of Black-Draught For Indigestion

"I had a son who had indigestion—he would spit up his food and looked so weak and bad," writes Mrs. Mary Pearson, of 247 Berrean St., Atlanta, Ga. "I tried different remedies, but he did not get better. I thought maybe Black-Draught would help him. I gave him a very small dose after meals. Soon I could see an improvement. He quit spitting up his food and complaining of the bad taste in his mouth. He was soon well as anybody."

said, "Miss Fenway tells me you've had considerable experience. Take dictation, I suppose."

"Yes, sir. Most of my experience has been in a law office. I've had practice taking letters in shorthand and also on the dictaphone."

"I see. Well, let's have a try at it. Ask Miss Fenway for a notebook."

Norma went for the notebook. For half an hour she took dictation at high speed and afterward transcribed the notes. Her fingers seemed clumsy as she hit the typewriter keys but her shorthand was accurate. It took longer to write the letters than it should have but when finished they were perfect.

Stuart studied the letters carefully. He chewed the end of a cigar that was not lighted. Presently he broke the silence.

"Report for work Monday morning, please, Miss Travers. Nine o'clock."

Norma hesitated. "About the salary—" she began.

"Yes, yes. Of course. Twenty—" he was earning $30 on my last job.

"Well, we'll make it $27.50. Raise you after the first of the year if your work's satisfactory. Right?"

In a building six blocks away F. M. Travers shifted to a more comfortable position in his comfortable desk chair. He was holding the French telephone to his ear.

"What's that?" Travers exclaimed. "You've found the girl? Yes, of course I want to go through with it. Take a cab and come over here right away!"

Thirty-five men were provided with work at Ranger Texas, recently when a rock crushing plant resumed operation after a several months idleness.

Alien Report Shows Exodus

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—With 40 percent more aliens leaving San Francisco than arriving, figures at Angel Island immigration headquarters up to September 1 showed a complete reversal of the immigration tide this year.

Departing foreigners totaled 6,620 up to September 1, whereas entries numbered only 4,732 according to J. R. Schaefer, Angel Island statistician.

Normally, incoming aliens exceed those leaving the country through this port by 100 to 300, Schaefer said. Now each month shows just the opposite balance.

San Francisco, however, showed not quite so heavy an exodus as for the United States as a whole. In July seven aliens left the United States for every three entering. Washington figures disclosed, but in San Francisco the ratio was six to four.

Although deportation is the highest in the nation's history, departures from here were mostly voluntary.

Oriental emigration in a majority of the aliens checked in and out by the local office of the immigration service.

Amarillo has the largest highway underpass in Texas. It is seven hundred and seventy feet long, connects two main portions of the city and carries the traffic of eight state highways. Agreement to Oil Embargo Sought

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Representatives of western and southwestern oil states today laid an amplified oil conservation program before Secretary of Commerce Lammot.

They asked him to seek from the large oil importers an agreement to an embargo on refined oil products and limitation of crude imports to a 140,000 barrels daily for the remainder of this year and as long thereafter as is necessary to stabilize domestic industry.

APPLES ON LOCUST TREE

CROOKSVILLE, O., Sept. 25.—Apples grow on a locust tree on the Worthington farm near here. Visitors have not been able to explain the phenomenon. The tree bore a large crop of the fruit this year.

That tourists may obtain correct information about their cities, the chambers of commerce of Roswell and Carlsbad, New Mexico, recently conducted informational campaigns among their citizens. Typical questions asked by tourists with correct answers were mimeographed, and given local distribution and advertising.

Range conditions in eastern New Mexico are the best in years, and it is estimated that thousands of heads of fat cattle will be shipped this fall.

The chamber of commerce at Spur, Texas, maintains a fully equipped canning kitchen for the free use of the public for canning the surplus food products produced this season.

A Weatherford banker recently spun the thread and wove the cloth for the material out of which a long tailer made the banker a suit of clothes. Only thirty-five cents worth of cotton was used.
