High School Principal Is Speaker at Mon. P-TA Meet

Hico Parent Teacher Association met Monday evening for its first meeting of 1965. Misses Johnette Walker and Sharee Williamson, sixth graders, presented piano selections before the meeting.

Presentation of colors and Pledge of Allegiance were given by the local Girl Scout Troop. Girl Scouts participating were Debbie Redden, Rebecca Martin, Gayla Redden, Mary Beth Martin, Devonna Scott, Judy Putty, Debbie Loyd, Dana Roberson, Nancy Hicks, Linda Crites and Kay Kilgo. Mrs. David Anderson and Mrs. Lonnie Redden are troop leaders.

Mr. Rex Ellis gave the opening invocation. Mrs. W. B. Hill, high school English teacher, explained to P-TA members that memorial cards had been purchased for the school libraries. Money may be given in memory of a loved one or friend to be used to buy library books for the school. The family will be sent an engraved card stating that the gift has been presented to the school library. Each book will contain the name of the person for whom the book was given and the person giving the book. Mrs. Hill encouraged P-TA members to make contributions to the new library memorial fund.

Members of Mrs. Wayne Rutledge's second grade entertained P-TA members with ballet and tap dances by Evelyn Holley and Melanie Bonner. Vickie Lee presented a piano solo and Sharon Hill and Lou Hill played a piano duet.

The class members presented "Miss February's Birthday Party" as a climax to their program. Mrs. Robert Lee, pianist, accompanied the group singing.

Mrs. M. I. Knudson presented the Founder's Day report. Mrs. Knudson asked members to remember the P-TA history from its struggling beginning up to its present progress.

Mr. Jack Barnett, high school principal, was guest speaker for the evening. Mr. Barnett's subject, "Together We Help a Child By Stressing the Value of Our American Heritage," reminded parents and teachers of their obligations to children to set the type of example that would make them worthy citizens of the United States. Mr. Barnett stated that American Heritage is faith—faith in our God, faith in our country, faith in our American Freedom.

Jim Bullard started it off with a 231 game and 622 series, an extra challenge for his bowling friends. Ray Cheek hit a big game of 212 as their team split with Judy's, which wasn't easy as Pete Keller rolled a 546 series and Judy Keller a 173 game.

Landmarks Being Razed Locally

Dismantling of three landmarks of this area has been underway the past week.

The loading dock of Katy Railroad has been salvaged and removed by the railroad, ending a period of more than 50 years of use.

One of the older buildings in Hico is also coming down. The former Tom Powers blacksmith shop was purchased recently by M. I. Knudson, who in turn sold the structure to Mack Hicks. Work is progressing on the dismantling.

Mr. Knudson plans to use the space for a used car lot. He also recently purchased the building which housed Lackey Bros. Feed Mill, and established a parts business in a portion of the building. Keller and Rainwater garage is located in the remainder of the building.

The old service station building south of Barnes & McCullough is also being demolished. Ray Keller and Orville Ogle are in charge. The building once housed one of the most modern service stations in this area and ceased to be used after construction of the new Hamilton highway.

TRANSFERS TO TARLETON TO BE HERE TUESDAY

SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE TO BE HERE TUESDAY

A representative of the Temple Social Security office will be in Hico at the City Hall at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 9.

Persons who wish to apply for social security benefits or wish to obtain information about the program should contact the representative.

Preliminary plans were made last Wednesday night for a recreational center for residents of this area.

Primarily the plan calls for improvement of existing facilities at Bluebonnet Country Club including a swimming pool, modern golf course, tennis courts, etc.

Working with the Farmers Home Administration Hamilton office, application was made for preliminary approval for a government loan sufficient to cover the cost of the program.

FHA representative George Krupala of Hamilton met with a group of interested people at First National Bank, and discussed the program, and made application which was submitted to the state office.

Named to a steering committee to work out details of the program were M. I. Knudson, president, Dr. B. C. Dayton, vice-president, E. V. Meador, secretary-treasurer, and James Cryer and Wayne Rutledge, members.

The steering committee received the application Thursday, that was in turn signed and forwarded to the state office. Krupala said that approval would probably be given within the next two weeks.

Next step following the go-ahead will be to actively solicit membership pledges and contact architectural and engineering firms for cost estimates.

Leaders of the plan here are optimistic about its success, and point out that it is not a government grant they are seeking, but rather a loan which will be paid back, with interest, over a period of years. The loan will be secured by the property itself.

Members need to maintain and pay off indebtedness is estimated between 60 and 75. Steering committee members expect to meet shortly and determine the cost of yearly dues in the organization. Several points must be cleared before a concrete figure can be arrived upon.

Mrs. D. C. Hyles was Mother's March Chairman, with the following assistants: Mrs. Sandy Ogle, Mrs. Marvin Marshall, Mrs. Odie Vetsick, Mrs. Von Scott, Mrs. Doc Lackey, Mrs. R. L. Weaver, Mrs. N. N. Akin and Mrs. Doc Russell.

First Anti-Poverty Loan Details Given By FHA Head

The first loan to help a Texas low-income rural family raise their income and attain a better standard of living under President Johnson's War on Poverty Program was explained this week by Lester J. Cappelman, State Director for the Farmers Home Administration, and George Krupala, local representative.

Mr. Cappelman gave details on a loan being made to a family who operates a small farm near Long Branch, Panola County, which was one of eleven such loans made throughout the country.

The loan was made to a 57 year old farmer and his wife, parents of eight children for $2,500 for 15 years to re-finance a mortgage which is overdue against his small 25-acre farm, purchase a milk cow and mule, carry out some land development work and pay operating expenses on his 1965 truck crop which will consist of two and a half acres of tomatoes and cucumbers. The family of ten also will raise a large garden and some pigs to meet their family food needs. Improvements made with the loan will enable this family to make a 50 percent increase in their gross income which last year totaled $1,540.

Cappelman said approximately 75 applications for economic opportunity loans have been received.

The loans are authorized by the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 which includes a rural credit service involving $35 million in Federal funds.

The State Director stated that all personnel are enlisting the assistance of rural agricultural and business leaders, school teachers, ministers, welfare workers, charitable organizations and others to assist this agency in informing low-income rural families of the opportunities available to them in the Economic Opportunity Act.

To be eligible for the new rural credit program, an individual applicant must:

1. Live in a rural area which includes towns up to 2,500 population.
2. Have an income so low it does not cover basic family necessities.
3. Be unable to obtain credit from other sources, including the regular loan programs of the Farmers Home Administration.
4. Show a reasonable promise of succeeding in the enterprise to be financed by the loan.

Inquiries regarding the assistance available through the FHA or other provisions of the Economic Opportunity Act, should be directed to the county Farmers Home Administration office.

SOPHOMORE STUNTS

Everyone in the class was blowing his nose or coughing Monday morning. Colds surely are catching.

Nelly Wolfe was sick Friday and I guess Butca must have a cold by now.

It seems that clothebins are attracted to sophomores. How about it K-K?

Every time S.P. and L.B. go to the drive-in with two certain boys it looks as if a hurricane has struck. There aren't going to be any speakers left pretty soon.

Gary W. took it literally when someone said "Put your boots on, it's getting deep." They surely are pretty Gary.

Barbara C. surely did want to see "Goldfinger" Sunday night. Was it the show or Bud that you wanted to see Barbara?

Was there something interesting behind you in the show Saturday, Danny? I don't blame you for looking. After all you might as well see two shows instead of one.

Our short, fat Casanova has taken up with a long tall Texan. How about it Barry and Lee?

Denna M. says that green is her favorite color. I wonder why.

Ronnie H. and Alan went to the Stock Show Sunday. Have fun, boys?

Cathy says that she'll never ask another question at MYP. You'll know better next time Cathy.

The class would like to welcome Brenda Marlar. We hope you like living in Hico, Brenda.

JIVIN' JUNIORS

Lee Shepherd, what's this? Can't you make up your mind about which boy you want to go with and which girl he should want to go with? Come on, beautiful, give them a chance.

Donna, why do you get such a charge out of such short letters from Korea?

Linda D., it looks as if you are slipping. Why didn't Ralph drive home from Stephenville Saturday night? He usually does.

Claudia Hafer, you must have Ralph trained by now. Or is it Jim H.?

Glenda Ogle, what did you say your name was? Have you been telling fibs to people in Ft. Worth, or have you and E.B. done something we don't know about?

Frances L., what did you say about Pok-e-nak-e Sunday night? Come on, we want to know what it is.

Pat Oxley, are you already running around on your dear, loyal husband, or did he just buy the car for good old memories?

Lynn Redden says "Mommy, I came straight home, but I stayed on the front porch for an hour." Boy, Lynn, you are either going to have to oil the screen door or 'alm Tommy D. down.

Drewford B., you may turn out to be a real Romeo instead of a rural Romeo, if this play stuff keeps up.

SENIOR NEWS

The seniors have been very busy the past week.

Sharon H., Liz B., Margo W., Cheryl B., Leona H. and Linda L. went to the show at Stephenville Wednesday night. Take advice from Linda, girls. Going to the show is a great way to fail a test.

Some of the senior boys spent Thursday night with James Crews and his brother. We hear you slept in the oddest places. Did one of you really sleep on top of the furnace?

The seniors went to 'CU Friday and spent the day. Everyone had lots of fun. We visited classes concerning subjects we were interested in. It seems as if the boys were only interested in pool. We left at 6:30 a.m. and got back at 5 p.m. We ran out of gas on the way back. It's a day we'll never forget.

CELEBRITY OF THE WEEK

Our celebrity this week is one of our favorite juniors. She has a wonderful personality and the warmth from her friendly smile radiates throughout the school. She has many friends, one special friend, her fiancé, E.S.

The celebrity is a very pretty girl. She has long blond hair, green eyes and a fair complexion. She drives a Rambler station wagon, and her best friend is P.B.

As we all know by now our celebrity is Judy Jameson. Here's wishing you a life of happiness.

PRAISE TO A PLAYER

This week's praised player is one of the very finest HHS seniors. She has played basketball since she was in grammar school and has lettered two years of her high school. She plays guard for our team with a number of 21. This girl doesn't drive a certain car, or go with a certain boy, but she has a wonderful personality that attracts people wherever she goes.

Last week this senior came to class looking a little different in some way. We couldn't figure it out for a while, then we realized that all of her curly hair was gone.

By now, all of you know who this week's praised player is. If not her name is Alma Dean Bur-

Every woman and girl should know how to practice the art of ironing, even in this era of wash-wearables. Many drip-dries need some touching up, and certain items still require all-over pressing. Here are some helpful hints to improve anybody's "iron-ability."

* Never iron clean clothes with tools that aren't clean. To remove starch and soil from an iron soleplate, first unplug the iron and let it cool. Then wipe it with a cloth dipped in soap or detergent suds (or use a mild cleanser), then rinse and wipe dry. Heat the iron and run it over waxed paper or bee's wax to smooth.

* Wash ironing board covers often to remove starch, lint, and dye transferred from dark clothes. After laundering a fabric cover, replace it while damp so it will dry taut on the board. Wash new covers before use to remove the sizing which scorches at low heat.

* Fold clothes lightly instead of rolling them after sprinkling. Fewer wrinkles will get set into the damp fabric, and less ironing will be needed.

* Instead of the traditional towel, put sprinkled garments into a plastic sheet or bag, or a large covered container. The moisture will be distributed more evenly.

* Keep non-colorfast clothes separate while damp, plastic bags are convenient.

* To prevent laundry from mildewing in hot weather, put the sprinkled and folded clothes in a plastic bag and place this in the refrigerator for several hours. Later, the heat of the iron on the chilled fabric will create light steam which makes pressing go faster.

* Always iron the small areas of a garment first, leaving larger sections for last to prevent their creasing. For example, iron a dress in this order: placket facings, collar, sleeves, shoulder, bodice and skirt.

* It is not necessary to continue ironing a dampened garment until it is bone dry—especially around zippers, plaquets and other multiple layers of fabric. After pressing, hang the garment carefully to air-dry before putting it away.

* If you have no steam iron, use a well-dampened press cloth with a fairly hot iron to simulate steam. Hold the iron just above the press cloth without letting it actually touch. This method will also coax up the pile on cotton velveteen and corduroy. A semi-transparent press cloth will let you see what you are doing.

* Iron wools and lark cottons on the wrong side to avoid a shiny finish. Pockets and other thick areas may be touched up on the right side under a press cloth.

* A handy substitute for a sleeve board is a rolled or folded towel. To "iron" a puffed sleeve, remove the shade from a table lamp and turn on the light bulb. Put the damp sleeve over the hot bulb and pull it slowly until wrinkles disappear.

* You can eliminate much ironing right in the washer or wash-tub by preventing deep creases which are set by prolonged spinning or twisting.

Fairy Community News

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We have had freezing night temperatures for the past several days, and colder weather is predicted for Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Paul Jones of Brownwood are proud parents of a little son born Saturday morning, Jan. 30. Relatives here had not learned the baby's weight or name. He is also welcomed by a little sister, Paula, age two, maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kelm of Hamilton and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Lanham. Jerry Paul is a graduate of Fairy High School.

Other Fairy High graduates who are welcoming a new addition to their families are Mr. and Mrs. Leon New of Harlingen who became the parents of a daughter on Tuesday, Jan. 26. She has been christened Patricia Lea and is also welcomed by two little sisters, Paula and Pamela. Mrs. New is the former Shirley Streater of the Lanham community. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Streater and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New, who had not learned the baby's weight. Congratulations to these young parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goyme of DeSoto spent the weekend at their home here, and were joined by their two daughters and families. Mr. and Mrs. Beanie Dowdy and son and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and family of Ft. Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were in Ft. Worth Friday to see the parade opening the Fat Stock Show and reported a good one, with a large crowd on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New were in Fort Worth Friday and attended the Stock Show and rodeo Friday night through the courtesy of their son and family, the Truett News who purchased their tickets. They were met there by their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wood also of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Morrison of Stephenville and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blakley of Fairy were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and daughters, Carolyn Ruth and Diane visited during the weekend with his mother and brother, Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie. Mrs. J. T. Leonard and Melody visited with her mother and brother Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner had the following members of their family home during the weekend: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bodkin, Tammy and Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and Keith and Kurtis and Rhonda Turner, children of the Billy Turners, all of Killeen, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner, Susan and Steven of Arlington, and Bernice of the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and Keith also visited during the weekend with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Jimmie and Janice, Little Keith, who had a severe attack of virus recently, had been exposed to the chicken pox. The case was a light one and it is hoped he won't take them, and he does they will be a light form.

Mrs. Mildred Sumpter, Donna and Charles of Fort Worth visited Sunday with her mother, Mrs. P. L. Cox and Mr. Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant had their sons and families home during the weekend. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Garland Arrant and children of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arrant and children of Fort Worth. A little son of the Garland Arrants became ill while here and was carried to the Hico Hospital Sunday afternoon where he remained until sometime Monday.

Miss Doran Gwen Willeford of Baylor University spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Willeford and Della between semesters.

This scribe spent Sunday afternoon in Gatesville visiting in the homes of relatives and friends. We first stopped at the Gatesville Hospital to visit our cousin's wife, Mrs. Clay Jones, but found her asleep and talked a few minutes with her daughters, Mrs. Floy Klipstine and her daughter who were there with her mother. We then drove out on Lovers Lane in South Gatesville to the Jones' home. Mr. Jones, who was probably asleep, didn't hear our knock. We then went on down the street a few homes to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cooksy whom we had made previous inquiry as to where she lived. Mrs. Cooksy, the former Miss Dollie Galloway, resided for a time near Fairy at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dock Newman who were residing on our parent's place, the present P. L. Cox farm. Although we had not seen Mrs. Cooksy since she left Fairy more than 30 years ago, and is now 82 years of age, we believe we would have recognized her by her voice and the few remaining personal features of back in those days. She was so glad to see us. We spent most of the afternoon with her since we had come by the homes of the R. M. Holders and Oscar Russells and found them gone. The ladies were the former Lula and Winnie Basham, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Basham of Turnersville, but formerly of Fairy.

Mrs. Cooksy and I discussed many of the happenings of the past and yet didn't get around to a lot of things we would have liked to, since the time passed so fast. She asked about the Willie Turner family whom she knew while living near her and of how much she thought of them. We told we knew them well and just so happened that our only great-grandson was the Turners' grandson and showed her his picture, along with others, he being little Keith Turner of Killeen. We learned that Mrs. Cooksy had married in about 1930 and had lost her husband in 1933. She stated she had had to move three times due to expansion of Fort Hood, but hoped now she was permanently located. We enjoyed our visit so much and plan to visit her again. She lives alone but has nieces and nephews who help to look after her. On our return back by the hospital we visited a short while with our cousin, Clay Jones at his home, then we drove back by the Oscar Russell home and this time found them at home. They stated they had spent the afternoon in Temple with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Holder who was there with relatives while Mr. Holder was undergoing tests at Scott and White. He expected to enter the hospital Monday where it was thought he would have to undergo surgery. Due to is advanced age, 82, the folks were deeply concerned. We hope he goes through all fine and is soon able to return home. We returned home by the hospital and again found our cousin's wife asleep. She is gravely ill of cancer. Her husband was there, and as we entered the hospital we met Judge R. B. Cross and wife of Gatesville and talked with them a short while.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and the writer were business visitors in Stephenville Monday. While there we went to the home of our daughter, Mrs. D. E. Allison, finding her gone we called our granddaughter, Mrs. Wayne Pittman who told us her mother was in Dublin with her son, Darrel, who was ill. He had an attack of virus last week and seems he was allergic to some of the medicine which caused a bad rash and quiet a bit of swelling. We learned Tuesday by phone from Mrs. Allison that he was some better late Monday. We hope he is soon able to be up and able to resume his duties at his insurance office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson were in Hamilton last Thursday to attend funeral services for Mr. W. D. Riley. Mrs. Riley, who was the former Essie Arnett is a cousin of Mrs. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson spent last Friday night and Saturday in Grand Prairie visiting in the homes of their children. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jackson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seymour and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Vance and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Abel.

Mr. Luther Landes of Hamilton is doing some curbing at the Fairy Cemetery at the Will and Raymond Leeth lot and the N. A. Leeth lot, but due to the freezing temperatures at night the work has been delayed. Our sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver of Clifton for a donation of $5 received Tuesday for the Fairy Cemetery. The Church of Christ appears to be almost completed on the outside, but we do not know how much is to do yet on the inside. Randy Gardner is staying in the Willie Turner home while his parents are visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barnett and Kerri of Paducah. Miss Bernice Turner was recently elected senior class favorite along with Jerry Cornelius of the Hamilton High School. Earlier in the year, Miss Turner was nominated for homecoming queen. Minister Alford Meeks and family of Fort Worth and his grandmother, Mrs. Meeks of Clifton were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Proffitt and Billy. Minister Meeks serving the Cranfills Gap Church of Christ. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Proffitt carried their son, Billy, to town Tuesday for treatment of an asthma attack. He had been of school the past few days and was thought to probably have a few more days. We hope soon be better.

HAMILTON-CORYELL

SCS News

By BOMER HARRIS

At a recent meeting in Hamilton, local conservation contractors met in the ASCS office to work out plans for establishing 1965 practices. The meeting was called by Dewey Sellers, chairman of the ASCS Committee.

Ed Cloninger of ASCS and Bomer Harris of the Soil Conservation Service were present to help explain how each practice could be carried out where ACP payments and SCS technical assistance is involved.

Carl King, chairman of the Hamilton-Coryell SCD was present and offered district assistance as it is needed.

Many important items such as cover crop planting, terracing, ponds, grassed waterways and range seeding was discussed. One item that received considerable discussion was brush control. In Hamilton County there is a need for controlling about 15,000 acres each year to break even. Last year about 10,415 acres was controlled by contractors, farmers, and ranchers.

H. N. Smith, State Conservationist at Temple, says "Brush is the number one problem on Texas rangeland," and that applies to Hamilton County according to a recent survey.

The control of brush and range proper use in this area will be one of the primary objectives of agricultural agencies, district supervisors and the county committee.

Conservation contractors attending the meeting were Luther Landis, Charles Baley, F. S. Tatum, Weldon Isensee, Prater Bros., Roscoe Karnes, Cecil Penick, A. G. Hanson, Truitt Blackburn, Alvis Suggs, R. A. Adams and Son, Lee Parker, Frank Craig, Hardy Hodges, J. C. Partins, Louis D. Mask, J. E. Fouts, J. C. Humphries, W. F. ASCS OFFICE NEWS REPORT

By S. E. CLONINGER

1965 FEED GRAIN SIGNUP UNDERWAY

The signup for the 1965 feed grain program soon will be underway. The signup period starts Feb. 8 and will continue through Mar. 26.

Chairman Dewey Sellers explained that the program for 1965 is basically the same as in 1964. It is voluntary, and combines corn, grain sorghuma, and barley in a single feed grain base. Participating farmers will qualify for diverted acre and price support payments, and they will be eligible for price support loans.

Farmers who take part in the program may divert, for payment as small an acreage as 20 percent of the farm's feed grain base or as large an acreage as 50 percent of the base—or 25 acres, if this is larger.

ROYAL GETS DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD—Texas Press Association presented its first Distinguished Service Award on Jan. 22nd at the newspaper publishers' Mid-Winter Convention in Austin. Award was given to Darrell Royal, Athletic Director and Head Football Coach at the University of Texas. It was presented in appreciation of the national recognition which Royal has brought to the state through the gridiron prowess of his Texas Longhorns, plus his own ability and personality. TPA Pres. Aubrey McAlister, (left) publisher of the Bonham Daily Favorite, is shown with Royal as the two examined the copper engraved plaque which pictures the famed Longhorn coach. Presentation was made at an honor banquet attended by 300 daily and weekly newspaper publishers of Texas. Dave Campbell, sports editor of the Waco News-Tribune, spoke on "That Man Darrell". Jimmy Banks of the Austin Bureau of the Dallas Morning News added to the tributes paid the honoree.

are offered. The lower rate applies to the first 20 percent of the feed grain base actually diverted. The higher rate applies to diverted acreage in excess of the minimum. If both the intended diversion and the acreage actually diverted are equal to at least 40 percent of the base, the higher rate applies to the entire acreage diverted.

New provisions in the 1965 program include (1) an opportunity to substitute feed grains for wheat or wheat for feed grains by growers who take part in both programs, and (2) a special provision for designated varieties of malting barley. Under certain circumstances, producers may apply to overplant their barley base acreage by 10 percent. A producer electing this option will be eligible for the full county barley support rate, based on a national average of 95 cents per bushel, but he will not be eligible for barley diversion or price support payment.

Applications to take part in the 1965 feed grain program may be filed in the ASCS county office Mondays through Fridays, 8 a.m. to 12 noon, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

SMALL FARMS EXEMPTED FROM COTTON SIGNUP

The signup to be held soon for the 1965 domestic allotment program for upland cotton will be only for operators of farms where the domestic allotment is less than the effective allotment. This is a change from original signup plans. The signups begin Feb. 8 and continues through March 26.

This means that the operators of small farms—where the domestic allotment is 15 acres or less and no acreage is released—do not need to sign up in order to receive the benefits of this year's domestic allotment program. On these farms, which include the majority of farms in Hamilton County the domestic allotment is the same as the effective allotment and plantings need not be reduced in order to participate in the program.

Only change that has been made is that small farmers are not required to sign an agreement to participate. Payment will be made to these farms if the acreage of cotton is within the domestic allotment.

All upland cotton farmers who participate in the 1965 allotment program will be eligible for price-support payments at 4.35 cents a pound on the normal yield of cotton established for the farm times the acreage planted for harvest. In addition, the upland cotton crop from such farms will be eligible for price-support loans at 29 cents per pound for middling 1-inch cotton, gross weight, at average location.

Cotton from farms which are not signed to participate in the domestic allotment program will be eligible for cotton loans if the acreage is kept within the effective allotment but no price support payments will be made to growers on such farms.
