Nancy Hicks Named Top Showman at Hamilton Show

Hicks, 12-year-old Hico member, was awarded the Showmanship Award at Hamilton County Junior Livestock Show, held January 19. Miss Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hicks, was the showman in the sheep division. She also won the showman award in the sheep division. Hicks exhibited the Grand Champion Ram and Ewe in the sheep division. Winners from Hico included: Division: White Gilts, Nancy Hicks, first; Junior Boars, Nancy Hicks, first. Division: Ewe lambs, Nancy Hicks, third and fourth. Ewes: Hicks, first; Champion Ewe.

Keller is Hico Homemaker Tomorrow For 1967-68

She ranked first in a homemaker knowledge and test given senior girls in high school. Vicki Keller has named 1968 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Registered the test, now in its 14th year, 603,798 girls in 15,079 high schools, a new program sponsored by General Mills. Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Keller, remains in honor state and national scholarships ranging from $500 to $1,500 and will be awarded a designed silver charm to her local achievement. The Homemaker of Tomorrow selected from winners in each of the state in the present step. She will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship with award going to the runner-up school of the winner will be a set of Encyclopaedia. During her selection, the State Homemaker of Tomorrow, along with school advisors, will join winners from each of the states and the District of Columbia in an expense-paid educational tour of Washington, D.C., Williamsburg, Va., and other cities. The trip will be named the 1968 Betty Crocker Ali-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. During the 1954-55 school year the Betty Crocker Search for American Homemaker of Tomorrow was designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. Almost 6 million girls participated in the program and with 1968 awards scholarship grants will approach $1.5 million.

Candidate Files, Withdraws From Commissioner's Race

With final filing date Monday, February 5, no new candidates have entered races for county offices. A prospective candidate for Commissioner of Precinct 3, Gene Smith of Hico, paid his deposit with the County Democratic Chairman Tuesday morning, but withdrew from the race early Wednesday. Two candidates were already in the race, Fred Rainwater, the incumbent, and Leslie Patterson. Only other office in the county with opposition at this time is that of Sheriff, where incumbent Woody Young is being challenged by John Newt Harvey. On the district level, Judge Truman E. Roberts of Hamilton, and District Attorney Byron McClellan of Gatesville have both filed for re-election. In the State Representative race, J. E. Ward of Glen Rose has filed for re-election, and a Cleburne man will reportedly oppose him in the primary. Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson has also filed for re-election to his House seat in Washington.

SATURDAY DANCE

Everyone enjoyed a great dance Saturday night, Jan. 27 at the Hico Youth Center. Entertainment was by the Heartbeats from Lampasas. It was announced that we would have to limit future dances to one each month, making the next one on March 2.

Everyone expresses their thanks to the sponsors and are looking forward to the next dance.

ATTENTION: VALENTINES—1968
At last we have a formal announcement for the meaning of the strange signs all over HHS. The word "Amour" means love, and is the theme for the annual Sweet-heart Banquet this year.

All young people that belong to the Methodist or Baptist Church, or to youth groups are invited to attend and bring dates. The event is jointly sponsored by the two churches, and has been most successful in the past.

The banquet will be held in the School Cafeteria on February 10, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Dress for the occasion will be semi-formal and entertainment will be from Baylor University.

We hope for a good number this year. Make plans to come and purchase your tickets from Belinda Christian.

JUNIOR NEWS

Louise Fail is going around wondering what we can do for the Junior-Senior Banquet. But she'll think of something because all Juniors are so ingenious.

Morris Busby keeps trying to pick fights with long, tall people. Especially at dances.

Mary Ann is going to dances again, and she seems to like them better when she's with a friend.

Alyce Churchill has been getting exercise by walking. It sure was a shame she had to walk all that way. She was secretly hoping that a friend would pick her up. Just can't get a break, can you Alyce?

Mike Davis has finally learned how to dance slow. And he's discovered it's not too bad. Yeah!

Junior Plays are coming around. Would you believe they're thinking about it?

SENIOR NEWS

Seniors at TCU: Vicki K. getting called down for sitting by Pat C.; Steve K. staring at the "beautiful" waitress at Cleburne; Doris S. eating chocolate candy on the way home; Pat C. being the last one on the bus to leave TCU. He made up some fantastic story about an Indian he met; Charlotte L. getting sick on the way home. It seems she just had too much of TCU; Wayne R. buying a Marilyn Monroe pin-up at the TCU store; Belinda C. heating off an attack by the Green Beret; Mike R. leaving the waitress a big tip—a peso; Mary M. being late to catch the bus Friday morning; Rodger M. wanting to bring back a TCU girl for H.L.H.; Janis S. buying a Roy Orbison album at Gibson's; Henry R. having the bus drive up to his door at 6:15 Friday morning. How about it Henry?

Paula R. getting her picture taken with S.K. for the paper; Mike C. not being able to go to TCU because of the stock show; Cherry R. wanting to sit by J.T. on the bus, and not getting too; Steve J. buying some war books at the TCU store; Jeannie B. being the last one to finish eating breakfast at Cleburne. It seems she just couldn't get enough to eat; Mike R. walking home Friday afternoon for a little exercise; Joe T. laughing all the way up and all the way back from TCU; Chuck C. looking at the girls at TCU; Mr. Walker being so proud of his ever-great Senior class; Seniors having a great time being out of school Friday; Hico seniors showing up everyone else at TCU, of course they're the greatest.

SOPHOMORE SCANDALS

The Sophomore Class has really been working hard this week to try and make up for those report cards which were sent out Wednesday. Here are the students which were in the spotlight this week.

Sandra P. and Barbara Baley made a trip to Fort Worth Stock Show Sunday to see some old acquaintances. Well, maybe not that old.

We had two "beach babes" in sixth period last Friday. We think it was Debbie L. and her freshman pal. That lipstick was really super.

Rusty C. has a new addition to his family, and he's already in his twenty's.

Ronnie F. is seen zipping around on his two-wheeled pea-shooter and for that he has to wear a crash helmet.

We have all been learning to iron in English class. Can you imagine that?

Frank B. decided that Miami Beach is the place for him. But in California?

We've decided that Lavern B. is our official Oscar Meyer Weiner of 1968. Boy, what an honor!

We have had a few cases of the flu in our class lately, and we're just real glad to have those kids back in school. We also want to send Judy D. a get-well and get out of the hospital message.

Everyone in our class takes a special part and has a place, and we all work together in everything we do. We feel that this is the reason we enjoy being the Sophomore Class of 67-68.

PERSONALITY PLUS

Our personality plus is a very handsome Senior boy. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall, has blue-gray eyes, and light brown hair. He was a member of the Tiger football team, band, and Drama Club. He plays the piano like Liberace, and he drives a yellow, black hardtop '67 Dodge. He can usually be seen with his best friends, S.K. and C.C.

If you don't know by now, it's the one and only Gerald Wayne Ross.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

Eighth grade boys fighting with the girls; Stephanie W. eating crystals; Lucy S. being sore; Debbie R. playing basketball; Paula B. and Barbara C. making faces at each other; Mr. B. coaching basketball; Stevie C. being absent; Susan K. whistling, humming and singing "Windy"; Cindy C. listening to S.K. whistling, singing and humming; Randy C. popping rubberbands; Lee R. changing tires; Mrs. C. thinking going steady is stupid, especially a girl with a boy; Terry R. being himself; Eighth graders getting the best out of class; Donna D. dancing; Gayla R. being absent; Debbie W. being nice; Eighth graders wishing to win a ballgame sometime; Mirror being a little late with our news.

Only four men and one lady made the 500 mark last week. The Drifters were the only team to win four points, as they set the Rebels back, with Martha Hamilton showing happiness and skill since returning from Hawaii for a visit with her husband. She rolled a 174-449.

Joan Keller took high game for the ladies with a 203-468, as they tangled with the Shoppers, who won three points from them. Morse Ross rolled a 207-554, and Conda Salmon a 212-552.

Gemini 4 won three points over the Alley Gators, with Pat Ross clipping off a 511 series, and Glenn Ross a 202-535.

Jack and Mary Goodman were still at it as their team won three points from the Operators. Jack turned in a 206-524, and Mary a 181-496. Bill Hafer hit back with a 163 game, and Charles Baley a 162 game.

F-W Ranch knocked the Drop Outs down from a tie for first place, taking three points. June Roberson rolled a 164, and Wilma Fillingim a 160.

MISS CATHERINE CRYER, SCOTT RAMSEY ARE MARRIED IN FRIDAY HOME CEREMONY

Wedding vows for Miss Catherine L. Cryer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Cryer Jr., and Dennis Scott Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ramsey of El Centro, California, were read Friday evening, January 26, at 8 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents.

Reverend Hubert Taylor, pastor of Hico First Methodist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of members of the immediate families and friends.

The nuptial area was decorated with arrangements of yellow and white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of gold wool, complimented by black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Brenda Hicks of Gordon, a college classmate of the bride, was bridesmaid. She was attired in a frock of blue and chose white accessories.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Ronnie Lowrance of Iredell.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

A white linen cloth covered the bride's table that was complimented with an arrangement of yellow and white carnations, and a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Sam Rains, aunt of the bride, of Austin, served the cake, and punch was ladled by Miss Dennis Rains of Austin, cousin of the bride.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Hico High School, and is a student at Tarleton State College. Mr. Ramsey graduated from high school in California, and attended college there.

Following a short wedding trip the couple are at home in Stephenville where Mrs. Ramsey will continue her studies at Tarleton State College, and Mr. Ramsey will commute to Fort Worth to his job at General Dynamics.

Mrs. Ogle Entertains With Bridge Party

A bridge party was enjoyed by members of the Friday Afternoon Club last week in the home of Mrs. Sandy Ogle.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon by the hostess.

Guests were Mrs. Ellis H. Rands, Mrs. Harry Hudson, and Mrs. Cody Ray. Members present included Mrs. Ray Cheek, Mrs. Jimmie Ramage, Mrs. W. F. Hafer, and Mrs. E. V. Meador.

At conclusion of bridge play high scorer was Mrs. Rands, and Mrs. Ogle won second high score.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Casey and Ricky last week was their son and daughter Jerry and Barbara. Jerry left Sunday for Denton where he has enrolled at North Texas State University, and Barbara enrolled this week at Tarleton State College in Stephenville. She plans to stay at home and commute to her classes.

Guests at Wedding

Relatives from out of town attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ramsey Sr., the bridegroom's grandparents of Iredell, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Koth of Rockdale, the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rains, Dennis and Mac, of Austin, Mrs. David Miller, Janet and Randy, and Mrs. Wendell Cryer and Glen Ray, all of Cameron.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dayton and children were in Holland Sunday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lowrey and grandchildren, Alan, Lisa, and Leslie Kinser of Fort Worth visited Sunday in the home of her mother, Mrs. John Ogle.

Ronnie Hefner, student at University of Texas at Arlington, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hefner.

Visitors last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baley, Jeannie and Chuck, were Miss Cheryl Baley of Fort Worth, and Mrs. W. A. Ball of Stephenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Conda Salmon and Mrs. Glenn Ross attended the ladies' market last week in Dallas.

Luncheon Club Enjoys Party at Stearman Ranch Home

Mrs. H. V. Hedges was high bridge scorer at last week's Wednesday Luncheon Bridge Club meeting, which was held in the home of Mrs. Bill Stearman. Miss Mettie Rodgers was winner of second high score.

Following bridge play, a delicious luncheon plate was served by Mrs. Stearman to her guests.

Members attending were Mrs. Frank Bonner, Mrs. W. F. Hafer, Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mrs. Ellis H. Rands, Mrs. Morse Ross, Miss Rodgers, Mrs. Hedges, and Mrs. Odie Petsick.

ENROLLS AT TARLETON

Scott Patterson, who has been attending Texas Tech at Lubbock, has been visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Patterson. He is enrolling this week at Tarleton State College, where he will continue his studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Wilson were in Fort Worth Saturday where they attended the Fat Stock Show Rodeo.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McClammy were Misses Ann and Sue McClammy, Lujan Pierce and Freddy LaBounty, all of Lampasas. Sunday visitors in the McClammy home were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Huffman, Elvan and Jarvis of Fort Worth.

Out of town relatives who visited during the weekend with Mrs. A. J. Jordan, who is a patient in Hico City Hospital, were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Jordan of Petersburg, R. R. Jordan of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stidham of Ft. Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dover and sons of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pettitt of Stephenville visited during the weekend in the home of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Sherrard.

Guild Members Enjoy Salad Supper, Tuesday

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild enjoyed a buffet salad supper Tuesday evening of this week in the home of Mrs. S. W. Everett.

Tables were covered with glowing red tapers.

President, Mrs. Woody Wilson, was in charge of the business session when routine matters were discussed. Members voted to send school supplies to needy children in Fort Worth.

"Let's Listen and Learn," was the program presented by Mrs. Watt Ross. She was assisted by Mrs. G. M. Bullard and Mrs. E. V. Meador. The program on youth, our untapped resource, pointed out youth needs and demands in this day and age, and the program pointed various important needs of America's youth in a cross-country survey.

Members attending were Mrs. Bullard, Mrs. E. H. Rands, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. George Griffiths, Mrs. Meador, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hubert Taylor, Mrs. Louise Angell and a guest, Mrs. Odie Petsick. Mr. Everett and Rev. Taylor attended the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Putty of Odessa visited this week in the home of their son and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Putty and children.

LATE FAIRY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Turner and Bobby of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Parks and Becky of Grand Prairie visited Friday and Saturday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks.

Rev. and Mrs. Bob Ray and children of Fort Worth were lunch-noon guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Parks.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT GATESVILLE FOR MR. JONES

The writer was in Gatesville last Wednesday afternoon to attend funeral services for our cousin, Clay Jones, who passed away Monday in the Gatesville Hospital following several months illness due to stroke he suffered. He was the son of the late Brack and Elizabeth (Betty) Jones of Pidcoke.

Clay was born at Pidcoke Nov. 23, 1890. In early manhood he was married to Miss Linnie Jones. Eight children were born to their marriage, five sons and three daughters. He was preceded in death by his wife, Linnie Jones, in 1965; his parents, two brothers, Newman and Vennie Jones, one sister, Mrs. Emma Stribling of Alice, also one daughter who died soon after her marriage also other relatives, the brother-in-law, Mr. Stribling, and son, the son passing away in 1967.

Funeral services were held in Scott Funeral Home at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, with his pastor officiating. He was a member of the Gatesville Baptist Church. Clay cooked for a Gatesville restaurant for many years until ill health of he and his wife forced his retirement several years ago.

He is survived by five sons, three of whom live in Gatesville, and one in New Mexico; the daughters, Mrs. Jack (Floy) Klippstine of Gatesville and Mrs. Bob Osborne of Bastrop; 24 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Burial was in the Pidcoke Cemetery. Pallbearers were his close friends.

The beautiful floral offering bore a tribute of love and respect to his memory.

We got our notes taken at the funeral misplaced and have had to give what we could by memory. His grandchildren, most boys around 7 to 18 years of age, marched in together, all dressed in two-piece suits, and sat near us. We thought to ourself what a nice looking group of grandsons and we know Clay was proud of them.

We have had another weekend of misty weather, but it wasn't as heavy as last week, with no measurable precipitation. More rain is predicted for this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover were shopping in Waco Saturday, and while there purchased a Waco paper and read an account of the death of Charlie (Cad) Porter Osborne, whose funeral service was held January 27 at Mt. Calm. Our sympathy is extended to the families of the above departed loved ones.

The writer was in Cranfills Gap Tuesday of last week to attend funeral services for Binns Tindell. While there we visited with Mrs. Wallace Wentworth and Mrs. Bern Bertelson. Mrs. Bertelson lost her husband about five months ago, and formerly taught in the Fairy School. She also taught at Lanham, and asked about many of her former pupils and acquaintances. A sister is making her home with her.

Mrs. C. W. Brunson informed us of the birth of a new great-grandson, born January 25 to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haile of Weatherford. The Hailes have a little daughter, Juliann. Mrs. Haile is the former Jo Ann Silis of Fairy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jackson of Grand Prairie spent last Wednesday night and Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson, and on Saturday night, the Jackson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Vance and children visited with them, and visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. C. A. Vance of near Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Janice spent last Wednesday night in the home of their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner, Keith and Kimberly of Killeen. Mrs. Turner and children accompanied them home Thursday and visited through Sunday when her husband came up for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Don Sellers of Grand Prairie spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and Janice and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer of Hamilton.

Rev. and Mrs. Dewey Stone and two children were Sunday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blackley.

Mrs. Ruth Cunningham returned home Sunday from Fort Worth where she had been visiting her daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prinz and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arrant and family, and her sister, Mrs. Bess Cole. While there last week she attended the funeral of Mr. Earl Havens of Dallas, who formerly resided at Hico and vicinity. Only some 25 or 30 were present, but all enjoyed a good song service and refreshments of sandwiches, cake, cookies, chips, coffee and punch. While there we learned that Mr. I. A. Morgan's brother, who lived at Energy, had died suddenly of a heart attack at his home about 6 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 20. He had gone out to see to his sheep. His wife, knowing he always returned in time to get the six o'clock news, went to see why he hadn't got back and found him dead on the walk near the back door steps. It was raining, and his body was covered until an inquest could be held. Our sympathy to the bereaved.

The writer visited in Carlton Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Marie Turner and Sammie, and at Hico we visited awhile with Mrs. Ben Wright. Just wish we had had time to pop call over Carlton and say hello to all of those good folks there.

The Quilting Club met with Mrs. Willie Turner last Wednesday. Nine members were present. They started two quilts, getting one out. Those present were Mrs. Myrtle Blackley of Hico, Mrs. A. W. Rach- uig, Mrs. Hobart Proffitt, Mrs. T. R. Parks, Mrs. Beatrice Clark, Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Minnie Arrant, Mrs. Winfred Gardner, and Mrs. Turner. All enjoyed a covered dish luncheon.

Mrs. J. T. Jackson received word through Mrs. J. R. Oglesby of Angleton that the father of their son-in-law, Mr. Kaltner, had died suddenly of a heart attack while driving his car in Angleton. The Oglesby's son-in-law is Henry Kaltner, husband of the former Kay Oglesby.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner and Miss Bernice Turner of Killeen were in Arlington Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner and family.

We have just received a sad message from our niece, Mrs. Lester Smith of Brady stating that her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Eger is a patient in the Brady Hospital at this time, and doctors had diagnosed her illness as yellow jaundice, and would undergo surgery as soon as she is able, but will be sent to Temple for the surgery.

She made the trip up here for the Hoover's 50th wedding anniversary and spent Saturday night with us. We knew she was seriously ill, but didn't know the extent. We hope to have better news soon.

A hint we would like to pass on to our readers is a good home remedy for croup, coughs, and lung congestion or fluid on the lungs. Take one-fourth cup of syrup (I use the red Karo), add 1 teaspoon baking soda, stir until foamy, and take one to two teaspoons for cough. If for croup the whole amount could be given.

We remember in the spring of 1900 our younger sister, Lovya, now Mrs. V. H. Heyroth, had a bad case of croup. Our parents lived on what is now known as the Britton place in Black Stump Valley. No rural phones were near, and Dad rode horseback, either to Duffau, and called our family physician, the late Dr. C. M. Hall of Hico, or to Hico for him, who also rode out horseback. In the meantime, mother had fixed up the soda and syrup and gave to her. Dr. Hall said this probably saved her life. We too have had children to have the croup and we never forgot the soda and syrup, and would rub the bottom of their feet with a medicated salve or ointment and hold them near the stove to warm the feet and let the ment penetrate and take effect. Try his soda and syrup for cough. I believe you'll be glad you do if it's as effective with you as it been with me. So far, I've missed the flu the past year or more.

A beautiful tribute...

At time of sadness every comfort is extremely important to the immediate family. We spare no effort in aiding you with that lasting and thoughtful tribute.

SOIL TESTING SERVICE

Determine the Need of your Soils and Crops with a Soil Test

Doctors never prescribe medicine without making a diagnosis first. The same principle can be applied in treating your soil. Making a soil test will tell you what plant food elements are low — what Smith-Douglass fertilizer is needed to bring the supply of plant food into proper balance for high crop yields.

We are ready to assist you with a soil test, and make recommendations which will enable you to apply Smith-Douglass fertilizer economically, to produce more profitable crops.

WASHINGTON
'As it looks from here'
OMAR BURLESON

Washington, D.C.—Everyone is for peace—at all times—in all places. American people inherently make for a peaceful nation. We have never fought for or sought after, territorial gain.

Because we are of this nature, we lean over backwards to attain peaceful solutions.

With all the risk involved in Vietnam and other places where a confrontation with adversaries has occurred, a greater danger begins when the time for peace talks approaches.

The time of peacemaking is probably approaching in Vietnam and may have come sooner except for the incident to the east of Pueblo off the coast of North Korea. Even with this, there are indications that negotiations may, in the not too distant future, be brought about.

The risks involved are real and certain. Captured documents from the North Vietnamese give the strongest clues. These documents indicate that when talks begin and military action subsides is the time for them to recoup their positions and recover from damages inflicted.

Captured documents show that the Viet Cong troops in the south and the Viet Cong political organization are now being promised settlement by "coalition" at some moment in 1968. These promises are given credit for the recent sharp drop-off in numbers of defectors from the Viet Cong. When they are promised early peace by "coalition" and the coalition is "that which promises communist domination, defections could be expected.

As desirable as peace is, and as diligently as the Administration is seeking it, it gives encouragement to the other side that we may be willing to negotiate away the gains we have made.

Seemingly, too many people have a completely wrong idea of negotiation as conceived by the Communists and as conceived by us.

With the United States, negotiation means that both parties want to reach solutions, but naturally, each seeks an advantage which might be the case in a horse trade, the end of a war, or anything else.

From past observations we should know that the Communists look to negotiations with the hope of not particularly bringing about peace, but to disadvantage their adversaries in a war, separate allies and cause domestic trouble at home.

References to a "coalition" government for South Vietnam have already upset that government, and forced the President of South Vietnam to point out that our Government has no right to determine a coalition and that any peaceful arrangements should be left directly to themselves. At the same time, we are largely fighting and completely financing their war.

Another danger involved in negotiations is the standard Communist preliminary to peacemaking. The preliminary is an intensification of their attacks.

In Korea, for instance, the biggest Chinese-North Korean offensive in the war occurred in the month before the truce was finally signed. In the hope of changing the final truce lines by a few miles and of gaining other advantages, they poured their manpower into battle like water through a sieve.

Our country should face up to the fact that political pressures

Fractured 'Philosophy...
By J. Rayford Wooton

OSCAR CAINE

"Tain't nuthin' to it, onct ye git the hang uv it." This was my Hill-billy friend, Oscar Caine, talking, and it was in answer to my question of how could he manage to square dance, call the dance, and try to sound like a fiddle playing an old break-down tune, all at the same time. The question had been prompted by a situation that I had never imagined could be.

On this bright, mid-June morning I was strolling over the countryside, and on passing along by the Caine's corn field, I was attracted by the most unusual sounds coming from out near the center of the corn patch. It is rather difficult to describe the loud calling of a voice, followed by a screeching sound attempting to follow the old, familiar tune of "Turkey in the Straw." In my amazed alarm, I climbed through the fence, and headed toward the noise. The corn was much taller than I and as I penetrated deeper into the rank, green growing corn, I was led without difficulty to the scene of the sound and action. As I approached, what I saw astonished me to speechlessness. Oscar had cut down all the corn in an area of about among our own people could lead to paying a too high price for what we think is going to be peace. A phony "coalition" could altogether nullify the sacrifice of the thousands of American boys who have fought in Vietnam. A so-called coalition could be like sending a lamb to bring in a lion. We cannot afford prolonged and unfruitful talk while the Viet Cong are building up their strength and infiltrating material and men into South Vietnam. It would mean that our men in the line will then have a new war on their hands. Those who are demanding a peaceful negotiation loudest, without better assurances from the Communists of a desire for peace, could have the blood of our fighting men on their hands.

This prompted another inquiry, "How do you pay for dancing with sorghum molasses?" "Wul, I'll tell ye. Ole Long Shanks is the fiddler over thar at the Blue Flat, an' ye know he's got twelve or fourteen youngins' an' a'course they got to eat, same as anybody. Wal, I ain't got no money, so's I ast Long Shanks if'n he wud take 'lasses fer pay. Me an' Long dickered awhile, an' finally traded.

twelve or fourteen feet square. The tall stalks of corn were neatly piled off to one side, and he had leveled the ground with his hoe in this clearing. He was very busily engaged in swaying, swirling, bowing, prancing, and making a lot of screeching sounds with a broken pause long enough to "Swing yer partner one an' all, swing yer partner clean to the wall, ladies go right, gents go left, do-ce-do, promise-nade all." Then the screeching of the simulated fiddle broke in, as the dancing continued. The hoe he held in his hands was being used very effectively as a dance partner. I watched for several moments before Oscar spied me standing at the edge of the dance arena. With a sheepish, embarrassed look, Oscar stopped in the middle of a wide swirl and bowing caper, and said, "Good mawnin', I didn't know ye wuz thar."

all we want to. I don't know we air agoin' do though, after Sattidy night, 'cause we wud danced up that thar whole lot of 'lasses, an' I know Pa a'gonna let me dance up my uv our sogrum."

He gets two-bits a set fer dancin', and I traded him 'lasses fer fo-bits a gallen. This here way I git to dance two sets fer one gallen uv thim sogrum 'lasses. Me an' my gal don't have to miss dancin' any set this a'way. We git to dance

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS
By BILL McCUTCHEON
Wendell Geeslin, Hamilton 4-H member, placed his Junior Angus Steer 5th in the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show last Saturday. His 10-year-old youngster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Geeslin of Route 1. Wendell, who was competing in his first major livestock show, also plans to exhibit his 905 pound steer at San Antonio and possibly at Houston. The steer, "Black Diamond," was named champion at the Hamilton County Junior Show January 19.
Nancy Hicks, winner of the Overall Showmanship Trophy at the County Show, and a member of the Hico 4-H Club, will exhibit her fine string of Suffolk sheep and two fat lambs at the Fort Worth Show next weekend.
