The writer visited awhile Sunday morning with Mrs. Zella Grice. Mrs. Grice is a double amputee and gets about her home in a small wheel chair, but despite her misand enjoys life, and says her health seems to be good. We had not been down in that part since the death of Mr. Whitlock a few years back. We came back through a portion of it Saturday afternoon but never did locate Mrs. Grice. So just tried again Sunday. Mrs. Nadine McGlothlin of Hico had sent her some plums and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers sent her some squash. We enjoyed our visit with her and hope to get back sometime soon. We passed the Harve Shields place, the old Griffitts place. We used to go there years ago and get peaches. Its sad to see these old places again. We missed several we wanted to see, so hope to go back again soon.
