

Edwards Gets Probe Sites; Venture Tests

Wildcats have been scheduled in Edwards County, and one was testing.

Noel Pautsky Drilling Co. operating from Wichita Falls, filed application to drill two ventures in Edwards County, approximately 18 miles northwest of Rocksprings townsite.

Both explorers are scheduled to 6,000 feet.

No. 1-B G. D. Wallace is 1,450 feet from north and 990 feet from west lines of CCSD&RGNG survey 1, 3/4 mile southeast of the Rocksprings (Cisco) gas field.

No. 1-G W. L. Miers spots 5,800 feet from north and 2,900 feet from east lines of league 3, Menard CSL survey, 3/4 mile northwest of a 6,255-foot failure abandoned May 7, 1968, and 1 1/2 mile northwest of the Rocksprings (Cisco) gas field.

Six miles to the southwest, W. B. Osborne, San Antonio, continued testing through new perforations at 5,480-5,492 feet at No. 1-27 Ralph P. Mayer, Edwards County wildcat, nine miles southeast of the Frances Hill (Pennsylvanian sand) gas field and 32 miles southeast of Sonora.

It previously tested through perforations at 5,806-5,822 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons and fractured with 30,000 gallons and 35,000 pounds. It swabbed 10 barrels of load water per hour, for an unreported time, with no gas gauge reported.

Drillsite is 1,369 feet from north and 1,371 feet from west lines of section 27, HE&WT survey, abstract 1223. It also is 7 1/2 miles southwest of the Rocksprings (Cisco) gas field.

Winkler Wildcat Tests Fusselman

Skelly Oil Co. continued production tests in the Fusselman at No. 1-32 Haley, Winkler County, scheduled 21,200-foot wildcat, 3 1/2 miles southeast of Silurian and Ellenburger gas production in the Everts multiphase field.

Through perforations at 18,426-18,430 feet, which had been jetted with 500 cubic feet of nitrogen, it flowed an unreported time, making gas at the rate of 200,000 cubic feet daily, plus 1,291 barrels of load water. Choke size was not reported. The section earlier had been acidized with 3,000 gallons.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 32, block 27, PSL survey, 10 1/2 miles west of Wink.

Lively Finalis Sutton Gassers

Lively Exploration Co., Houston, has finished two developments in the Sutton County area of the Shurley Ranch (Canyon) field, about 14 miles southwest of Sonora.

No. 1-14 Aldwell, 3/4 mile northeast of the nearest producer in a southwest extension area, is 1,320 feet from south and 1,520 feet from east lines of section 14, block EPD, Mrs. J. F. Young survey.

On a calculated, absolute open flow, it gauged 2,560 million cubic feet of gas per day.

Dodson Named Midland's Outstanding Young Man

James "Doc" Dodson, described by one person who nominated him as "a blessing to the youth of Midland," Thursday night was named Midland's Outstanding Young Man of 1972. The Dodson, Midland High School athletic trainer, received the Midland Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award at a banquet in Ranchland Hills Country Club attended by more than 100 persons.

South Viets Ready To Accept Accord

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government indicated today it is ready to accept a peace agreement, and Foreign Minister Tran Van Lam declared, "We are quite close to a conclusion."

Vandals Turn Oil Into Bay In California

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Vandals opened valves to four oil tanks and sent about 100,000 gallons of oil gushing into the Oakland Estuary of San Francisco Bay today, authorities said.

A one-mile-long slick was reported oozing toward the East Bay communities of Alameda and San Leandro three miles away on the inland side of the estuary, but Coast Guard Lt. James Boyd said booms "should contain it in the estuary."

No Wildlife Deaths

There was no immediate report of any wildlife deaths from the oil. State fish and game agents were on the scene.

The oil gushed from tanks owned by Port Petroleum of Oakland through a hole in a four-foot concrete retaining wall, splashed across a street in the Port of Oakland and slipped into the estuary through the underground storm drain, Oakland Asst. Fire Chief James Powers said.

Powers said an Oakland police car reported oil pouring out of the tanks about 12:30 a.m., and that 20 minutes later he discovered the open valves and closed them. He said they had been deliberately opened.

WHERE SLAYINGS TOOK PLACE—Washington police patrol the area around the house where seven persons, including five children, were slain late Thursday in what authorities termed an "execution." The home is headquarters for a Muslim religious sect. (AP Wirephoto.)

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Bush, who says he wants to rid politics of its image as a sometimes "grubby business," was elected chairman of the Republican National Committee today.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House today declined to confirm or deny a broadcast report that Vice President Spiro T. Agnew will go to Saigon Jan. 28—presumably for post-peace pact talks with President Nguyen Van Thieu.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Edward Heath and Foreign Secretary Sir Alec Douglas-Home will go to Washington Jan. 30 for talks with President Nixon, the government announced tonight. They will return Feb. 3.

Oath-Taking Set At Noon On Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thousands of persons were arriving here today to take part in President Nixon's second inauguration Saturday — most to take part in the merry-making and watch the swearing-in, others to protest the war in Vietnam.

An "ethnic cocktail party" followed by three evening concerts herald this second day of festivities for those handpicked to celebrate the inauguration.

The cocktail party and concerts are preliminaries leading up to noon Saturday, when Nixon will take the oath of office for the second time.

Precautionary Measures

A number of groups protesting the war in Vietnam plan counter-inauguration demonstrations, even though the White House says work will start Tuesday on completing an agreement to end the conflict.

The Justice Department said precautionary measures are being taken in case any of the demonstrations turn violent.

About 2,000 military reinforcements have been called in, but the administration said no violence is expected.

Buffet tables at this afternoon's "salute to America's heritage" at the Corcoran Gallery of Art abound with hundreds of culinary delicacies from more than 100 ethnic and minority groups in the United States.

Sponsors promised 1,500 pounds of cheese, 360 pints of strawberries, Irish stout, Chinese meatballs, Spanish empanadas, German bratwurst, and among other foods, 6,000 stuffed grape and cabbage leaves.

All the food will belong in the finger category—no forks and plates—to insure that nobody can take too much at once. Napkins and plastic stemware will carry the official inaugural seal of approval.

The Cabinet and members of Congress will have a special VIP room if they feel the need to escape the crush.

It will be a typical Washington cocktail party — for 15,000, said one caterer: Cultural Items, Too

The cultural appetite will be filled by music and art from around the world.

After the mass feeding—which is by invitation only but still costs $10 a head—three almost simultaneous concerts will keep the party pace going mightily throughout the evening, this time at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Scheduled are a youth concert, a symphonic concert and an American music show. These, too, are invitationals and tickets range from $20 to $500 main about the same speed but for the more sophisticated entertainment to $10 for the youth event.

The President returned to the capital from Key Biscayne, Fla., Thursday night but did not attend the first two official functions of the inaugural weekend: a reception honoring the Vice President Spiro T. Agnew (See WASHINGTON Page 10A)

OUTSTANDING YOUNG MAN — James "Doc" Dodson, second from right, Thursday night was named Midland's Outstanding Young Man of 1972. With him are his wife Gail, Winston Barclay, left, who was named Jaycee Boss of the Year, and Judge Tom Reavley, associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court, who was the banquet speaker.

Seven Persons Slain In Mass 'Execution'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police are searching for a motive for the execution-type slayings of seven persons, including five children, in an expensive home that is headquarters for a Muslim religious sect.

Milwaukee Bucks basketball star Kareem Abdul Jabbar, who bought the house and donated it to the Hanafi Muslims, said of the crime: "I can think of only crazy people, lunatics who would do it." Jabbar was known as Lew Alcindor when he starred at UCLA.

Jabbar in Milwaukee

Jabbar, a member of the sect, was in Milwaukee when the slayings occurred about 4 p.m. Thursday in an area where many of Washington's wealthiest black families live.

All the victims were black and ranged in age from infancy to 30 years, police said.

Police said they were looking for four black men seen by witnesses running from the rear door of the home, and police intelligence sources indicated as many as eight men may have participated in the killings.

A police spokesman said it was "definitely an execution."

Police said they were having trouble identifying the victims. Two women who were found shot in the head, but alive, inside the house were identified as Bibi Khaalis and Almira Khaalis, both about 20.

Bibi Khaalis was reported in critical condition and Almira Khaalis in fair condition. North Carolina civil rights leader Dr. Reginald Hawkins, who was a Democratic candidate for governor in 1964 and 1968, was quoted as saying Bibi Khaalis was his daughter and that the three children originally reported found in a bathtub were hers.

Police said they could not identify the slayings. Dog Sale, Thurs. through Sun. Foot long hot dog, 49c. King's Texas Chicken, 1009 Midkiff, 694-5641. Action Discount Carpet Sale! 400 S. Another Pacific Front Stirrs Shower Prospects

The second Pacific cold front to head this way in 48 hours came barreling across New Mexico toward Texas today, raising prospects for another round of scattered showers and thunderstorms but no great changes in temperatures.

Temperatures will be warm in Midland this afternoon and slightly cooler Saturday. Partly cloudy skies today are expected to give way to considerable cloudiness with a chance of showers or thunderstorms tonight and Saturday.

The high today should be near 70 with a low tonight near 40.

The high on Saturday as the edge of the cold front begins to move through Midland should be near 60 degrees.

Southerly winds this afternoon will vary in intensity from 15 to 25 miles an hour and will be gusty. Winds tonight will shift to southwesterly and northwesterly on Saturday.

Precipitation probability for tonight and Saturday is placed at 40 per cent by the National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal.

Thursday's high reading in Midland was 67 degrees. The high today should be near 70 with a low tonight near 40. (See FRONT Page 10A)

Nation's Economy Ends 1972 With Sharper Rate Of Growth

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy closed out 1972 on a strong note, growing at a sharp 8.5 per cent rate during the final three months of the year while the rate of inflation accelerated slightly, the government said today.

The Commerce Department reported that prices, as measured by the broad yardstick of the Gross National Product, rose by 2.7 per cent during the October-December quarter, up from 2.4 per cent in the previous quarter.

For all of 1972, GNP averaged $115.2 trillion, an increase of about $102 billion over 1971. This figure was about $4 billion over the administration's target, and indicated the economy is expanding more strongly than had been expected.

The administration is now worried that the current economic expansion, which started in late 1971, may be growing too quickly and getting to the point where inflation could become much worse.

Shultz, Leaders Talk Phase 3

By BILL NEIKIRK
WASHINGTON (AP) — Top labor and business leaders developing a new voluntary wage standard for the nation's workers have held a "good, strong, searching discussion" with Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz but reached no decisions.

Unlike some of the earlier sessions of the now-defunct Pay Board, the first meeting of the Labor-Management Advisory Committee appeared to go off smoothly Thursday. Shultz described it as constructive.

The panel was appointed by President Nixon a week ago to work out a new standard that will guide Americans in how much pay they can get from their employers under the voluntary Phase 3 economic program. The current standard is 5.5 per cent.

Next Session Jan. 31

Shultz announced that the next session will be Jan. 31. "What will take place then remains to be seen," he said. "I don't want to create any sense of anticipation."

He said the labor leaders and business executives got down to the key question of "how to describe responsible wage behavior in 1973." Asked if this might focus on a general statement rather than a set figure, such as 5.5 per cent, Shultz told reporters:

"I wouldn't try to characterize the discussion. It was a good, strong, searching discussion."

He said the panel, in another move indicating that things went smoothly, agreed there should be only one spokesman until a final statement is drafted. That will be either Shultz or John Dunlop, newly named director of the Cost of Living Council.

This self-imposed silence on the part of labor and management also is a departure from what happened when Phase 2 controls were set up. George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, lambasted the controls and eventually he and three other labor members walked off the Pay Board.

Shultz said the committee agreed to establish a procedure within the Cost of Living Council to settle the remaining wage subject of future meetings.

Prices were not discussed at the first meeting, but Treasury officials said they could be a subject of future meetings.

Louisiana Twisters Kill Young Mother, Hurt Five Others

MONROE, La. (AP) — A young mother was killed and her infant daughter and mother were injured seriously Thursday when a tornado demolished a farmhouse in the Corey community about 15 miles south of here.

Julia Bass, 16, was killed. Her two-week-old daughter Emily and her mother, Josephine Lee, 56, were brought to a hospital in Monroe.

Authorities said the infant was blown out of the house and landed in a field.

About two hours later three persons were injured when a tornado touched down in Tallulah, about 60 miles east of Monroe. Tallulah Police Chief Zelma Wyche said the storm destroyed a laundrette and damaged eight houses along a four-block path.

Regional Detention Center Study Set Here

Feasibility for a regional detention center — to ease loads on county jails and state prisons while allowing a prisoner better rehabilitation opportunities — will be evaluated by a Texas Department of Corrections study team here next month.

Bill Corbett, criminal justice coordinator for the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission, said the TDC survey may lead to construction of such a facility "several years from now" in West Texas.

He said Gerry McFearson, researcher for the TDC, will lead a team which will launch the survey with meetings scheduled Feb. 6 at Terminal and later the same day at Monahan.

The team has made or will make similar studies for all regions of Texas.

McFearson and his aides will confer extensively during a 40-day period with law enforcement, judicial and other officials to hear opinions regarding whether the proposed new program should be pursued.

Liquor Control Officer Shot Dead

CLARKSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Delbert Pearson, a 20-year veteran of the Texas Alcohol Beverage Commission, died Thursday night of a shotgun blast as he and a city patrolman staked out a liquor cache.

Arrested at the scene and charged with murder was Roy "Fats" Miles, 35, a Clarksville city employee. Justice of the Peace Bill McDonough denied bond.

Dale Sulsar, the Clarksville city patrolman with Pearson, said the two watched from concealment near a residence as a man carrying a 12-gauge shotgun approached the cache of liquor the officers had spotted.

Pearson raised up and identified himself, said Sulsar, and was killed almost instantly with a shotgun blast in the chest.

Program Will Be Explained At Meet

A study group program, "The Search for God," will be outlined and explained at a workshop meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Community Room of Commercial Bank and Trust Co.

The study program of the Association for Research and Enlightenment (A.R.E.) is open to all persons in Midland and surrounding area who are interested in learning more about the work of the late Edgar Cayce and a group affiliated with him over a 10-year period.

Agreement Ends Mobil Walkouts

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Striking employees at Mobil Oil refineries in Beaumont and Port Arthur were scheduled to go back to work at 11:30 p.m. today after agreeing on a tentative two-year contract with management.

The settlement ends a walkout which began at midnight Jan. 10, idling about 1,500 workers at the two plants.

Ratification meetings are scheduled tonight for units of the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers union. No details of the agreement were disclosed.

The study team also will review court and jail records to determine potential inmate counts for such a facility. Presently, the state has no such regional centers, but construction of the first is expected to begin soon in Orange County and others are likely to follow.

Exact role of the centers has not been fully established.

But officials have pointed to the need for regional centers to house persons sentenced to long terms in county jails, and those who presently would remain in county jails for long periods pending appeal of felony convictions.

County jails have few provisions for rehabilitation programs, most are overcrowded at various times, and the expense to counties for long-term county jail prisoners apparently exceeds the projected county expense for placing a person in the proposed regional facilities, officials claim.

Wagner Attends Odessa Meeting

ODESSA — Charles W. Wagner, vice president and regional general manager of Montgomery Ward, participated in a civic meeting held here today noon.

The meeting of civic and business leaders was held in the Inn of the Golden West.

Attending with Wagner, whose region extends from Texas to Montana, and from Iowa to Utah, was W. Clyde Mynatt, Ward's district manager from Fort Worth, and Kenneth B. Martin, manager of the new Ward store here.

Corbett noted that the state prison system is located in the eastern half of the state, making it difficult or impossible for West Texans in prison to maintain contact with their families and friends — which officials believe is a detriment to rehabilitation.

Depending on final form assigned to the regional facilities, courts might have the option of assigning long-term county jail inmates and certain felons to the regional facilities.

How About Two Sets Of Sleeves For A Dress

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Association

DEAR POLLY — When I buy material for a dress I get enough extra so I can make two sets of sleeves. This is especially good with double knits. For the summer I sew in the pair of short sleeves and when fall comes they are ripped out and the long ones set in. I get twice the wear out of a dress when it has the two pairs of sleeves. — MRS. J. DEAR READERS — Most of the answers received for B. M. K. gave methods for coping with bees indoors. I was advised that the remedies used indoors where fumes are retained, are lost when used outdoors. However, one suggestion given me was to leave them alone and they will freeze during the winter months. Also, if using Linda's Pointer, the bee keeper should take away all the bees while he is there. — POLLY

'Head Tax' Proposal

The Midland City Council has provided a fresh subject of conversation in its proposed ordinance which would permit a $1 "head tax" on passengers boarding commercial airliners at the Midland Regional Air Terminal.

Although Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr. commented earlier this week that "barring anything unforeseen, I expect that the council will vote in favor of the 'use' tax during our next meeting..."

It is estimated by city officials that the $1 tax will bring at least $100,000 a year to the City of Midland. The funds would be used exclusively to finance airport improvements.

This is recognized by most persons who use the facility, and it is likely that most of them will favor the tax.

One thing, however, which concerns some airport owners is the cost of collecting the tax. They point out that the city might wind up paying out a larger percentage for collection than is realized by the improvement fund.

One Midlander who flies in and out of the airport regularly and extensively and whose travels are worldwide, says that in many airports around the world the airlines collect the tax for the municipality.

It is pointed out, incidentally, that although the city of Midland owns and operates the regional airport, only about 60 per cent of its passenger traffic comes from Midland.

A big advantage of the head tax is that it will apply only to those persons who use the airport and will not put an additional financial burden on those who do not.

Remember, however, that you yet have a chance to be heard on the subject.

DON OAKLEY COLUMN— Cure For Pollution Can Make Conditions Worse

NEW YORK (NEA) — Those who believe that the solution to pollution requires only a congressional mandate and the sincere cooperation of industry may be in for a rude awakening.

There is another law which supersedes anything Congress may pass, and that is the law of diminishing returns. It also involves what engineers refer to as "trade-offs."

Programs that fail to consider their total impact on the environment actually can create a negative environmental balance. Dr. Joseph T. Ling, director of the environmental engineering and control department of 3M Co., told a recent International Pollution Engineering public...

ALTHOUGH THERE WERE many exceptions to the rule, America's colleges and universities overall managed to show a slight increase in numbers of students this year over last, according to the 53rd annual higher education enrollment survey conducted by the University of Cincinnati.

The survey this year included 1,428 institutions or systems, an increase over the 1,200 reporting last year. Enrollment in these schools was 6,467,050, an increase of 0.2 per cent.

Dr. Garland G. Parker, author of the study, predicts that when the final count is in for all two-year colleges, the increase for all collegiate-level, credit-hour students may be two per cent, and grand total enrollment may approach 9,215,000.

Another basic law, Ling points out, is that we cannot destroy materials. We can only change their form.

In other words, the pollutants removed from water — as well as the other pollutants generated in the effort — must go some place, either into the air or onto the land.

YOUR TYPICAL SCRAP aluminum can collector is probably a youthful, civic-minded type doing it in the interests of ecology. Right?

Not according to a study by two University of Dallas graduate students. The students, Charles Johnson and R. J. Wheelock, say the typical collector is a male between 36 and 55 who drinks beer, works at a nonprofessional occupation at less than $10,000 a year and collects cans as a family project.

Johnson and Wheelock questioned can collectors at Alcoa "Yes We Can" redemption centers in the Dallas and Fort Worth area, where collectors are paid 10 cents a pound for scrap cans.

They found that the majority of scavengers, 72 per cent, collect cans on a fairly regular basis just goes to three hearts where...

Does Robert Ball deserve such an accolade as this? There are a good many men in the U.S. Congress and many practiced observers of public service performance who believe he does.

He has presided over Social Security during its transformation from an agency of modest scale to one of enormous size and increasing complexity, and seen it hailed as the best of bureaucracy. In 1965, he laid over it the huge framework of the Medicare program, a task reasonably pictured as one of the greatest peacetime administrative assignments in history.

He is a tireless innovator who upon South bids three spades, his second cue bid.

North still has no slam interest but he does hold two five-card suits and bids four clubs, whereupon South takes him to six.

North isn't particularly happy but he is in the position of the pilot flying blind in the fog with one motor conked out. He has to make the best of it.

BRUCE BOSSAT— Dismissal Of SSA Chief Could Trip Mr. Nixon

WASHINGTON (NEA)—President Nixon's dismissal of Robert M. Ball as commissioner of Social Security raises some serious questions about how to achieve and maintain skilful management in the government bureaucracy.

Since the agency always has been deemed to be off-limits politically, it would be a bad slip if the President were to name a successor whose experience suggested he was less a qualified social insurance expert and more an out-and-out political appointee.

But, actually, that is the shallow, obvious aspect of the matter, easy to judge. There is a deeper issue.

Ball has headed the Social Security Administration for almost 11 years, and for roughly an equal time before that he was deputy commissioner of SSA's predecessor agency. His entire working career falls within the social insurance realm.

Does this kind of service make a man go stale and leave him empty of new ideas? There is a school of thought that would say yes, automatically.

The argument has undeniable plausibility. The woods are full of executives and administrators whose energies lag and whose imagination runs thin.

Yet there is a strong counter-argument put forth steadily in the field of public affairs. Its core is that there are always men with a great capacity for self-renewal, continuing growth, and adaptability to altered circumstances and problems.

Here again, the contention has undoubted force. The corporate and government landscape is well dotted with figures whose long service in top posts in a consequence of power but of demonstrated abilities maintained through markedly changing times.

Proponents of this point argue, incontestably, that to dispense with or shift such leadership from its proved realm is to waste rare human resource, to deprive a society of commanding individuals who serve its institutions as a keystone holds an arch together.

Does Robert Ball deserve such an accolade as this? There are a good many men in the U.S. Congress and many practiced observers of public service performance who believe he does.

When dummy hits the table his worries are about over. The only problem would be if hearts broke 5-1. After winning the spade, he cashes dummy's ace of hearts; leads a heart to his king; ruffs a heart; leads a trump to his hand, ruffs another heart; draws trumps and winds up losing a diamond at the end.

The bidding has been: West North East South 3 ♠ 3 ♣ 3 ♠ 3 ♣ Pass 3 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ You, South, hold: ♠ 2 ♠ A Q 9 8 7 ♠ A 3 2 ♠ K Q 7

What do you do now? A—Bid three no-trump. If you prefer to pass, we have no criticism of that action, but do not repeat, do not—bid four hearts.

TODAY'S QUESTION Instead of bidding three spades, your partner has bid four clubs over your three hearts. What do you do now? Answer tomorrow

Dear Editor: I see where Congress set up a Commission in 1968 to study about whether there is discrimination by business in the extending of credit to customers.

And, sure enough, after four years of laboring, the Commission found evidence that there is considerable discrimination practiced by credit business concerns against people who don't pay their debts.

Which, naturally, calls for Federal legislation or Court edict requiring credit dealers to have uncollectible accounts receivable on their books in proportion to the national percentage of deadbeats.

PERSONAL FINANCE— When Ax Falls, Better Join 'Forty Plus Club'

NEW YORK (NEA) — If the ax falls, and you find yourself looking for a job — join a club. There are at least a dozen methods of job-hunting, and naturally, some are better than others.

A couple are hardly worth bothering with at all — and one is the best. That is the conclusion, at least, emerging from a study of an out-of-work group of managers and engineers on the West Coast.

Lee D. Dyer, who teaches industrial relations at Cornell University, found that a "Forty Plus Club" was more than twice as effective as the next best method in finding jobs for members.

They were men whose salaries had averaged $18,690 before their jobs were wiped out. Their mean age was just under 51 and the average time out of work was 31 weeks.

Dyer identified 11 "formal" methods of job seeking used by the men, plus six miscellaneous methods that didn't fit into one of those categories. By far the most productive was the "Forty Plus Club," a voluntary self-help organization with chapters in a number of major cities.

The club placed 37 per cent of the group in new jobs. In what was almost a three-way tie for second place came jobs found through friends and relatives (17 per cent), through business acquaintances (16 per cent) and through newspaper ads (15 per cent).

The productive newspaper ads were of the "help wanted" type. None of the men who ran "position wanted" ads got jobs through them, although several had offers — evidently not good enough to accept.

"Of the least efficient and effective methods, two stood out. Private employment agencies, including executive placement firms, and the state employment service," said Dyer, reporting on the study in the Monthly Labor Review.

He guessed that employment agencies came in so low (two per cent) because they "typically make placements at salaries below those applicants would like to get," at managerial levels.

The executive search firms, or "headhunters," were of little help because they generally "concentrate on recruiting employed managers from one job to another," or swiping a man from one company and selling him to another. An unemployed manager isn't very glamorous in their view.

Almost two-thirds of the group used the state employment service.

ODD-SIZE ENVELOPES— Postal Service Talks Of New Extra Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Those petite party invitations and oversized envelopes are feeling the pinch of automation and—if the Postal Service gets its way—may cost more to mail.

Postmaster General E. T. Klassen announced a series of recommendations on Thursday to put a surcharge on extra large or small envelopes.

The recommendations, which must be approved by the independent Postal Rate Commission, would apply to airmail and first-class mail weighing one ounce or less and single-piece third-class mail weighing two ounces or less.

The odd-sized envelopes can't be sorted automatically and, therefore, are much more expensive to process, says the Postal Service.

The recommendations were presented in an attempt to revise the mail system's classification. More recommendations are expected in the future.

The proposals made by Klassen stop short of any fundamental change in the current system. Most of the recommendations are designed to raise rates on costly mail processing or encourage big-business mailers to make changes that will simplify sorting and delivery.

President's Letter Lauds Del Rio Girl

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—President Nixon has commended the courage and determination of a handicapped girl in Del Rio who wants job training, it was reported Thursday.

Jeanette Larson wrote last year to Jess M. Irwin Jr., head of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission:

"I am 15½ years old . . . in the ninth grade . . . and interested in finding a school that specializes in helping handicapped people depend upon themselves and not on others all the time.

"My handicaps are my height and my hands. Both hands are bent inward. I only have three fingers and one thumb on each hand.

She said her father died when she was 7, and that her mother gave her permission to write Irwin.

Irwin said in a news release Thursday that commission counselors have been working with Jeanette while she attends school in Del Rio.

President Nixon wrote to her on Jan. 6, Irwin said.

"The inspiration which you give to countless handicapped persons is indeed worthy of the appreciation of all our fellow citizens," Nixon said.

"I understand that despite your own physical handicaps you are determined to be independent and self-supporting and that you are making splendid progress in the Texas Rehabilitation Commission program in which you are now enrolled.

"This is a most welcome opportunity to commend you for your courage, your determination and your fine spirit," he said.

Midland Students On Academic List

LUBBOCK — Mrs. Cathy Barker and Mrs. Cay King of Midland have been placed on the Dean's Honor Roll at Lubbock Christian College for the fall semester 1972-73.

Mrs. Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amando Palma, and Mrs. King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Nash, 2500 Denigar St., are two of 103 students receiving this honor.

A grade point average of 3.5 or better on the 4.0 scale is necessary to be placed on the Dean's Honor Roll. Mrs. Barker had a 3.75 grade point average and Mrs. King a 3.53 last semester.

Denture Invention

For People with "Uppers" and "Lowers"

The nearest thing to having your own teeth is possible now with a plastic cream discovery that actually holds both "uppers" and "lowers" as never before possible.

It's a revolutionary discovery called FIXODENT for daily home use (U.S. Pat. #3,003,986). With FIXODENT many denture wearers now eat, speak, laugh, with little worry of dentures coming loose.

FIXODENT forms an elastic membrane that helps absorb the shock of biting and chewing. You may bite harder, chew better, eat more naturally.

FIXODENT may help you speak more clearly, be more at ease.

The special pencil-point dispenser lets you spot FIXODENT with precision . . . where needed! One application may last for hours. Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get easy-to-use FIXODENT Denture Adhesive Cream at all drug counters.

SIGNING OVER COLLECTION—Mrs. John Younger signs over genealogical collection of more than 200 books from the Lt. William Brewer Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to the Midland County Library. Standing, from left, are Mrs. Frank Ittner and Mrs. Frances Williams, Midland County librarian.

Books Donated

The Midland County Library has received a 200-book collection of genealogical data from the Lt. William Brewer Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The collection includes 60 volumes of the extremely valuable DAR "lineage books," according to Mrs. John Younger, DAR regent.

Mrs. Frances Williams, county librarian, said genealogical research is the fastest growing hobby in Midland. "The library recently has begun acquiring material for genealogical research and this gift will be a big boost for us," she said.

In accepting the gift, the library board agreed the books would be placed on reference shelves of the library and will not be checked out.

Printus Burkhardt, president of the board, said that if any future library board decides to discontinue the genealogical department, title to the books would revert to the Lt. William Brewer Chapter.

"The books presently are being catalogued and will be available to the public for research within the next month," Mrs. Williams said.

PENTAGON PAPERS TRIAL— Defense Denies Security Threat

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The defense in the Pentagon papers trial has begun cross-examination of a high Army staff official whose testimony has accused Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo of possibly helping the North Vietnamese by releasing top secret documents.

Lt. Gen. William DePuy, a government witness, said in the first day of testimony Thursday that information in a secret report released with the Pentagon papers could have helped Hanoi plan a spring offensive in 1972 against South Vietnam.

Defense attorney Leonard Weinglass, at the start of cross-examination late Thursday, sought to prove that much data in the report which dealt with the Tet offensive of 1968 was common knowledge and appeared in newspapers and books.

He also tried to show that the report wasn't sensitive and could not have helped North Vietnam.

DePuy maintained that the report, prepared by then chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Gen. Earl Wheeler, could have been "useful" to a foreign power opposing the United States.

He said that Wheeler's assessment of the Tet offensive states the condition of Vietnam's forces, the strengths and weaknesses of that attack.

In so doing, it provides information that the high command in Hanoi and South Vietnam certainly would find interesting and useful to them, particularly if they had any intention of doing it again, and they did do it again in 1972," he said.

Ellsberg, 41, and Russo, 36, former researchers on government projects, are being tried on charges of espionage, conspiracy and theft in connection with release of a massive top secret study of Vietnam war origins.

However, government prosecutor David Nissen repeatedly has said he will not try to prove that Ellsberg and Russo meant harm to the United States or that any such harm occurred. They are charged specifically only with the copying and transmission of the documents among themselves and two undicted coconspirators in 1969, not with the release of the papers two years later.

Denmark Student Kiwani's Speaker

Andres Rebsdorf, a Lee High School student from Denmark, was the speaker for the Village Kiwanis Club's Thursday noon luncheon.

He gave his impression of life in Texas in comparison to the way the Danes live.

Walter Schneider, program director for the luncheons, said the speaker Thursday would be Clyde Sussens, an African safari guide and hunter.

—He is visiting friends in the Midland area.

The Village Kiwanis weekly meetings are held in the Bonanza Restaurant. The public is invited to hear Sussens.

Collision Kills Borger Resident

BORGER, Tex. (AP)—Randall T. Jones, 16, of Borger was killed Thursday night when the car in which he was a rider collided head-on with another auto near this Panhandle city on Texas 136.

Three other persons were hospitalized in Amarillo.

Man, Young Son Die In Collision

DALLAS (AP)—A man and his young son were killed Thursday in a fiery collision of their car and a truck on a Trinity River bridge here.

They were Donald Morgan, 25, and his son Donald Ray Morgan, 4.

The child died in the flaming wreckage and his father a few hours later in a hospital.

EXECUCHEK

With a Midland National Bank EXECUCHEK account, you alone know it's a loan. It's like a cash reserve behind your checking account.

Open your EXECUCHEK account in an amount you establish with the bank. You can draw any or all of that amount any time you wish, and your EXECUCHEK looks just like your personal checks. Use it as instant cash for whatever reason you like.

Finance charges are less than most store charge accounts. You pay 1% per month on the unpaid balance — an annual percentage rate of only 12%. (Most store charge accounts are 18% per year.) EXECUCHEK finance charges include credit life insurance, too, and there's no charge unless you use your account.

Carpet Warehouse Flooded By Water

Employees of Sharp Carpet are still trying to dry out 150-175 rolls of carpet which were damaged early Wednesday when a broken water pipe flooded Sharp's warehouse at 109 E. Circle Drive.

Officials of the firm were notified by Midland Police that water was gushing from the warehouse door. It is expected that damage to the warehouse and the carpet will run into the thousands of dollars.

Repairs have been made, but another warehouse was rented in order to unroll and dry out the damaged carpet.

THE WEEKLY HEADLINE

Grandpa fumed when I took this picture. "It won't look natural," he said. "My desk is never clean." It's clean now. The umbrella stand is empty, the hat rack bare. His old Web press has been retired. But Grandpa's presence lingers on. For over fifty years he printed the Midland Progress, reporting the news with integrity. There were times when he was threatened, cajoled by attempted bribery, menaced by pressure groups, but he stayed true to principle. He was a giant in our town. What made Grandpa strong in the face of danger — incorrupt when confronted by unscrupulous forces? His church was the center and circumference of his being. Its truths and its goodness sustained him. It was all that he needed — he remained steadfast and sure. Your church is eager to help you meet the pressures of your day. Its resources are unlimited and eternal. Go to church, and take your family with you.

God Enlisted In Inaugural Rites

William B. Rice Vijay Kumar Michael Dale E. Robinson

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

As usual, the people offering the prayers at the launching of President Nixon's second term Saturday include a Protestant, a Roman Catholic, a Jew and an Eastern Orthodox churchman.

The president takes his oath of office on a Bible. The religious element forms a steady thread throughout the inaugural ceremonies and, in a sense, sets the framework in which the rest of the ritual is carried out, expressing an urge for Divine sanction of it.

Through such subtle, uncodified symbols, the United States vests its president with its modified version of the ancient "Divine authority of kings," despite the nation's constitutional separation of state from church.

However, it is no established institution, no single church nor even a uniform faith that invokes God's guidance for the chief authority of the people but rather a mixed religious corps typifying the country's makeup.

It reflects that intangible "culture religion" that has figured indirectly but fundamentally in the nation's history from the beginning. In the Declaration of Independence, the rights asserted are based on the concept that they are "endowed by the Creator," that there was Divine cause for the founding of the nation.

TO BE HELD TONIGHT THROUGH SUNDAY— St. Paul Missionary Conference

The ninth annual missionary conference sponsored by St. Paul United Methodist Church, 4501 Thomason Drive, will begin tonight and continue through Sunday.

Special guests at the yearly event will be a group of missionaries and a social worker. They include Dale E. Robinson, William B. Rice and his wife, Josephine C. Rice, and Vijay Kumar Michael.

The conference will begin with a worship service at 7:30 p.m. today, followed by a discussion session at 8:30.

Saturday, the visiting missionaries will lead discussion groups beginning at 10:30 a.m. A worship service will begin at 7:30 p.m., with another discussion session announced for 8:30.

Sunday events will include an 8:30 a.m. worship service, with Mr. Rice in the pulpit. Sunday school classes beginning at 9:40.

Mr. Robinson is superintendent of the McCurdy Schools, part of a United Methodist group ministry in Northern New Mexico.

A luncheon is scheduled for Sunday noon at the church. The United Methodist Youth groups will have a sandwich supper beginning at 5:45 p.m., and a worship service, at which Mr. Michael will preach, will begin at 7 p.m., to conclude the conference.

Mr. Rice, who recently received a Master of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary, formerly was a missionary to Indonesia, where he is currently he is director of advanced in rural youth ministries. His wife Josephine, a native Indonesian, was a teacher in mission schools. The couple and their young daughter plan to return to Indonesia soon to continue their missionary work.

Vijay Kumar Michael, a native of India, is a 1971 graduate of McMurry College at Abilene and expects to receive a master's degree from Hardin-Simmons University this spring. Currently he is director of advanced in rural youth ministries. His wife Josephine, a native Indonesian, was a teacher in equating God with the "American middle class self-interest." The Rev. Dr. Eric Lincoln of Union Theological Seminary says it has become a "third force" alongside Christianity and Judaism. "It is the semi-secular, unofficial character of faith which purports to be Christian but really would choose Americanism and anything at all," he says.

'Tank' Harrison To Speak Here

A series of talks by "Tank" Harrison of Memphis, Tenn., will be presented in the Tall J. Edgar Hoover for organizing City in forthcoming days, sponsored by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Midland High School.

To inaugurate the inspirational series, a supper will be held at 7 p.m. next Thursday in Trinity Presbyterian Church, Andrews Highway at West Louisiana Street. Tickets for the supper, priced at $1, are being sold by members of the Midland High FCA.

According to Steve Reddell, president of the FCA unit here, Harrison will speak at a meeting scheduled immediately following the supper. Interested persons who wish to hear him are invited to come to the Trinity Church at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charge for the meeting.

"Tank" Harrison, a widely-known lay speaker, is a former member of the Memphis Police Department. During his years on the force he was honored for his rehabilitation work with pa-received a commendation from J. Edgar Hoover for organizing a summer camp for youngsters as a means of combatting crimes by youth. In 1961, he was selected "Lawman of the Year" by Mississippi and Tennessee law enforcement officers. Earlier, he had won "Youth's Best Friend" and "Outstanding Police Officer" awards in Memphis.

Long Takes Over Pulpit At Memorial Christian

The Rev. John W. Long, formerly minister of the Pecan Springs Christian Church at Austin, this week assumed duties as minister of Memorial Christian Church here, and will occupy the pulpit for the first time Sunday morning. A fellowship dinner is scheduled at the church at 6:30 p.m. Sunday to welcome him and his family.

Mr. Long succeeds the Rev. Robert Gartman, who last June moved to Springfield, Mo., to become minister of a church in that city. In succeeding months, the Memorial congregation has been served by Dr. Paul Bolman and then by the Rev. Paul McBride as interim ministers. A pulpit committee made up of R. O. Major, chairman, and Richard Collins, Dave Fitzgerald, Lyle Livingston and Russell Neiseg, was at work in the meantime, searching for a permanent minister.

A native of Jefferson City, Mo., Mr. Long attended public schools in that city and later attended Lincoln University. He completed his undergraduate work at Texas Christian University, where he served as president of the Christian Service Students organization, and was active in University Christian Church. After graduation in 1962, he enrolled in TCU's Bible Divinity School, and received the B.D. degree in 1965. During his years in the divinity school, he held student pastorates at Anna and Princeton, Tex.

He served for a time as associate minister for First Christian Church at San Angelo, and accepted the ministry of the Pecan Springs Christian Church six years ago.

In his years in the ministry, Mr. Long has served on numerous denominational and ecumenical councils and committees. He is presently a member of the Texas Youth Ministry Council and has served as district president of the Texas Association of Christian (Disciples of Christ) Churches.

Mr. Long and his wife, a former home economics teacher, are the parents of two children, Michael, 7, and Tracy, 5. The family has established residence in the church parsonage at 2804 Cimmaron St.

Six Members Of St. Nicholas' Named To Vestry

Six members of the St. Nicholas' Episcopal Church have been named to the Vestry, the governing body of the parish. They include two women, the first ever to be elected to St. Nicholas' Vestry.

The guest speaker, John Whitley, is a member of the Bible faculty at Abilene Christian College.

Elected at the annual parish meeting this past Sunday were Mrs. William L. Peyton and Mrs. F. C. Stiekney, along with Robert W. Fuller, Joseph M. Nuessle, William M. Hibbitts and F. W. Hall. At a subsequent meeting of the Vestry, James H. Mailey was named senior warden, Billy Jackson was chosen junior warden and Mrs. Stiekney was selected as clerk.

Also named were delegates to the annual Diocesan Council meeting, scheduled in late April at Pampa. They are Robert C. Bledsoe, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, R. W. Fuller, W. H. Gilmore Jr., Robert M. Grace, Jack L. Hitt, Mrs. George F. Horst and Wallace Saultz. Also representing the parish at the Pampa meeting will be the Rev. Jim Conside Jr., rector, and the new senior and junior wardens.

Gospel Meeting Series Set At Church Here

The Fort Worth and Jax Streets Church of Christ, currently marking its 20th anniversary year, will hold a series of gospel meetings next week. The meetings will be conducted by a black minister, in keeping with the church's changing role in a neighborhood which has undergone considerable change in the last two decades.

The special meetings are scheduled to begin Sunday and continue through next Thursday.

Mr. Whitley, a graduate of George Pepperdine University in Los Angeles, has done graduate study at the University of Houston and Baylor. He joined the ACC faculty a year and a half ago.

Study Course Set Next Month

Midland Council of Churches will sponsor a joint study course for ministers and laymen, beginning in late February, but in order to lay the groundwork for the course, registrations must be taken well in advance — next week, in fact.

Scheduled to begin Feb. 22 in Christ Presbyterian Church, the course, "Worship and the Church's Renewal," has been formulated by the department of continuing education of Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University. Spokesmen point out that the course is closely allied with the study courses presented earlier this week at the annual School of Christian Living here, and persons who attended the school would benefit from the additional study series.

Persons interested in enrolling for the upcoming course are requested to contact Mrs. Donald Beard, 682-0171, no later than next Wednesday, to register. Additional information on fees and enrollment procedures is available from Mrs. Beard.

Holy Trinity Parish Meeting Set Monday

The annual parish meeting at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church is scheduled for Monday evening.

Election of five new members of the Vestry will be a highlight of the meeting. Delegates to the annual Diocesan Council meeting also will be named, and yearly reports will be presented. All members of the parish are invited to attend.

Alpine Youths To Give Program

McCAMEY — A youth group from Alpine will present a special music and witness program at 6 p.m. Sunday in the First United Methodist Church of McCamey.

The young people, most of them students at Sul Ross State University, have sung in numerous churches in this region since they organized into a singing group. The ensemble includes Tim Patterson, Tommy Wilson, Chuck Bridges and David Powers, all of whom attend Sul Ross, and Ross Wilson, a student at Alpine High School.

The Sunday evening service will be open to the public.

Norman Richards To Lead Westside Free Will Baptist Services Sunday

Norman Richards, a Free Will Baptist missionary, will be speaker at Sunday services of the Westside Free Will Baptist Church, 4031 W. Illinois St.

The services are scheduled for 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and will be open to the public, said the Rev. Glen Hood, host pastor.

Mr. Richards has served his denomination the last four years in West Africa. He has been involved in village evangelism in the Bondoukou area of the Ivory Coast. At the Sunday services, he will be describing his work and telling of his experiences in that country.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards, currently on leave, are the parents of two young sons. The family is temporarily residing at Searcy, Ark.

During the coming week, Mr. Richards will be speaking at Free Will Baptist churches in

Training Session Scheduled Here

First Presbyterian Church of Midland will be the scene Saturday of a lay-long training session for congregational leaders.

Conducting the session will be the Rev. Charles Olsen, Atlanta, a member of the Board of National Ministries of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.

The event is scheduled to begin at 11:30 a.m. and continue through late afternoon.

Nun To Speak To Unitarians Sunday Morning

Sister Marcia Huber, a member of a Roman Catholic teaching order, will be the featured speaker at the Sunday morning service of the Midland Unitarian Church, 3400 N. A St.

Sister Marcia works actively with several continuing projects sponsored by Casa de Amigos, Midland's ecumenical "House of Friends," including its far-reaching tutorial program. Last summer she was in charge of tutoring and recreational activities for children and young people sponsored by Casa de Amigos at the Carver-Learning Center here.

Mrs. Marcia Ingram, director of the Casa de Amigos, also will be a guest at the Sunday service, scheduled for 11 a.m., following a fellowship period beginning at 10:30. The service will be open to the public.

Washington Filling Up With Inaugural Crowds

Organizers of the largest anti-war demonstration, the "March Against Death," predict a crowd of up to 50,000 will assemble at the Lincoln Memorial and march to the Washington Monument grounds for a rally about noon Saturday, at the same time as Nixon's inauguration at Capitol Hill and parade to the White House. The routes do not cross.

Police say a maximum of 20,000 demonstrators will show up. The Justice Department spokesman said the number has been estimated at between 10,000 and 30,000 at security-planning meetings chaired by Atty. Gen. Richard G.

Stanton Stock Judging Begins

STANTON — Lamb judging was under way here at noon today as what officials called one of the best Martin County Junior Livestock Show competitions ever moved into high gear. Barrow judging was to be at 2 p.m. today, and steers will be paraded through the ring at the just-completed Martin County Community Center at 9 a.m. Saturday.

A 2 p.m. Saturday sale will climax the event. The White House arranged to get me a room at a hotel right next to the capitol so I wouldn't have to use a car," he said. "I'll just walk over. Arrangements also were made for me to have kosher food."

T-For-Tyler Moore Chides Errant Press

AUSTIN (AP) — The name "Tyler" was bandied about in the Texas Senate Thursday as Sen. William T-for-Tyler Moore complained a reporter had gotten his name wrong.

Moore said a newspaper article had stated that the new chairman of the State Affairs Committee was Sen. Tom Moore of Bryan.

"To my knowledge, there has never been a Tom Moore in the Senate although there has been a Joe Moore and a Weaver Moore, the "real" Moore said.

"My name is William T-for-Tyler Moore, and I'm not sure whether I was named for the town or the town was named for me," quipped the senator.

"I asked your indulgence for that type of error," said Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who is on leave as president and executive editor of The Houston Post. "I'm not referring to the Post," Moore said.

"I don't know if Tyler was named for Sen. Moore, but it could have been because we think so much of 'im in East Texas," said Sen. Peyton McKnight, of Tyler, naturally.

Prior to its expected arrival tonight, however, pleasantly cooler weather lingered over the state in the wake of a similar system which passed through Thursday and dissipated in Louisiana. It brought a few showers in parts of East Texas but moisture amounts were slim.

The departed front proved so weak that afternoon temperatures climbed as high as 83 degrees at Alice in South Texas and readings in the 60s and 70s were common Thursday. Dalhart in the Panhandle was the coolest spot with a top mark of 59, The Associated Press reported.

Court Bans Admission Of Watergate Wiretapping Contents

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former FBI agent who said he monitored Democratic calls for President Nixon's campaign committee, testified today he stood on a motel balcony and radioed a warning before five men were arrested inside Democratic Party headquarters last June 17.

The witness was Alfred C. Baldwin III. As he resumed his testimony, which had been interrupted Wednesday by a legal dispute over whether he could reveal the content of the wiretapped conversations he said he overheard, the U.S. Court of Appeals issued a ruling banning any admission of the content of the calls.

Baldwin testified that James W. McCord Jr., one of the two remaining defendants in the political espionage case, assembled various electronic equipment in Baldwin's hotel room across the street from Democratic headquarters in the Watergate building on the evening of June 16, 1972.

Later, he said, McCord gave Baldwin a walkie-talkie radio and asked Baldwin to call if he saw anything unusual.

McCord then left the room, saying he was going across the street, Baldwin said.

Baldwin said he first radioed an alert to men across the street in the Watergate office building when he saw lights go on on the seventh floor, but he said he was told in reply that this was only a routine light check.

Next, Baldwin said he saw lights go on on the sixth floor and an automobile pulled up to the Watergate building. He said three men got out of the car and went inside.

Then, Baldwin said, he saw two men come out onto a balcony outside Democratic party headquarters on the Watergate's sixth floor with guns drawn.

He then issued his warning, Baldwin said.

Baldwin said that from his vantage point on a balcony outside his motel room he also saw uniformed policemen arriving at the Watergate.

Then Baldwin said he saw two men come out of an alleyway beside the Watergate office building and get into a car parked nearby.

Baldwin identified one of the men as E. Howard Hunt Jr., who pleaded guilty last week, shortly after the Watergate trial opened.

"The other gentlemen looked to be Mr. Liddy (G. Gordon Liddy, the other remaining defendant), but I can't be absolutely certain of that," Baldwin said.

A few minutes after he saw the two men leaving the Watergate office complex, Baldwin testified, Hunt came into the room where he was at the Howard Johnson motel, used the bathroom and made a phone call.

Baldwin said he asked what to do with the electronic equipment in the room and Hunt said to pack it up.

After he saw the two men leaving the building, seven floors below his own vantage point from across the street, Baldwin said he heard a voice over his radio whispering "They've got us."

The judge ordered the remark stricken when Baldwin said he was unable to identify who made the statement.

The prosecution has raised the suggestion that there was a blackmail motive behind the bugging of the Democratic headquarters.

GROWTH—

Nixon has ordered big cutbacks in federal spending and a tight budget for fiscal 1974, beginning July 1, which will go to Congress in about a week. In addition, Nixon has decided to keep wage-price controls.

The GNP measure for the rate of inflation is regarded as a broader one than the Consumer Price Index. The CPI, figured on a different basis and affecting only goods sold at retail, advanced at a 3.5 per cent rate in 1972.

Many economists regard the CPI as a more reliable rate of inflation and say that the GNP yardstick tends to understate the rate.

The administration had hoped to cut the rate of inflation to under 3 per cent in 1972, but it never said which yardstick it would use. It has conceded, however, that inflation is slightly over its 1972 target.

For its Phase 3 economic system of largely voluntary wage-price restraint, the administration has set a goal of cutting inflation to a 2.5 per cent rate of increase by the end of 1973.

Midlander Hurt In Wreck Here

Johnnie Keets, 60, of 401 E. Deegar St., received minor injuries Thursday night when the truck he was driving and a car driven by Thula Thompson Cox of Route 2, Midland, collided.

The car-truck accident occurred at 7:05 p.m. four miles east of Midland on Texas 158.

Highway Patrolman David Beckcock of Midland said the Keets truck was eastbound on Texas 158 and the car driven by Mrs. Cox crossed the highway from the County Road 1140.

Mrs. Cox was not injured and Keets was treated for bruises at Midland Memorial Hospital and released.

March Of Dimes Director Named

DESSA—Bill Mitchell, KOSTV news director, has been chosen as 1973 campaign director of the Permian Basin March of Dimes chapter.

Among the January activities is the annual Mothers' March, scheduled for Jan. 29. It will be headed by Mrs. Danny Yanich. Also slated is the distribution of MOD collection cards in elementary schools next week. Both activities are expected to amass sufficient funds to help finance various MOD programs, officials said.

Common Cause, Citizens' Lobby, Forms Midland Unit

A Midland unit of Common Cause, a non-partisan national citizen's lobby, was organized Thursday night at a meeting attended by Milton Tobian, the Common Cause coordinator for Texas.

F. H. McGuigan was named coordinator for Midland. The local unit now has about 20 members, but McGuigan said efforts will be made to expand that number.

Tobian said Common Cause of Texas is supporting five reform measures to be introduced in this session of the Texas Legislature.

The measures are a bill to provide a tough ethics code, a lobby regulation and control bill, a bill to provide for full dis-

Hooper Goes Free On $5,000 Bond

Finis Weldon Hooper of San Antonio was released from custody here Thursday afternoon on $5,000 bond.

Motions to suppress oral statements, evidence sealed following a search and arrest, and evidence of prior convictions were to be heard Thursday afternoon but were postponed until Feb. 8 by Federal Judge D. W. Suttle. Judge Suttle approved a motion Thursday morning to allow Odessa attorney Gene Ater to withdraw as counsel for Hooper. He allowed the postponement for the hearing to give the new defense attorney, Tom Snead of Odessa, time to familiarize himself with the case.

Hooper is charged with transporting obscene films across state lines from California to Texas.

FDA Urges Tougher Curbs On Diet Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has recommended that production quotas for amphetamines and other diet drugs be cut by more than half because of evidence they have a high potential for abuse and limited value in weight control.

The Food and Drug Administration Thursday announced its suggestion that the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs cut back production quotas by 60 per cent—amounting to a cumulative decrease of 92 per cent since 1972.

Also, the FDA said, it plans to order off the market injectable amphetamines as well as those combined with sedatives believed to represent about 72 per cent of the diet drugs prescribed by doctors.

The FDA said it has recommended that five diet drugs not directly related to amphetamines be listed under the 1970 Control Substances Act but in a less restrictive category than

(Continued From Page 1A) system of electing judges to the state courts. He advocated either a method of nonpartisan election for judges or a compromise proposal calling for a commission of lawyers and laymen who would select three candidates with the governor choosing one to appear on the ballot. He said this "Missouri plan" is in use in many states.

Judge Reavley said the election of any office ought to be based on more than mere name familiarity. He urged the news media to do more in producing in-depth information about candidates for public office.

At the same time, he said more information is no good unless the public wants it and will study it. "The biggest obstacle in developing the right to know is the public itself. If we don't want more information, we won't get it."

He added that government should be more "open" in conducting the public's business. "Public relations should mean more than boosting an individual's personal politics—it should dwell on the issues and the business of the people that the public officeholder is conducting," Judge Reavley said.

"We must be committed to the whole community" he said. "Midland cannot do well unless you are interested in the rights and welfare of everybody, and you must be committed enough to study and work for those rights."

Woman Reports Battery Stolen

Mrs. Rosa Wright, 403 E. Deegar St., told Midland police Thursday night that a two-month-old battery had been stolen from her car while the vehicle was parked at 1600 E. Wall St. near Carver School.

She said the battery was taken from the car between 7:15 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

KILLINGS—

(Continued From Page 1A) said that, while they believe the arms are related to the slaying, only ballistic tests could say for sure.

Police Lt. Joseph O'Brien said the killings were discovered about 4:30 p.m. when an occupant of the home arrived from a shopping tour. When he got no answer at the front of the house he went around to the back and saw four black men running through the back yard, he told police.

Upon entering the house, the man, who was not identified, discovered the bodies.

Asked in Milwaukee if he thought the killings might have been related to an attempt on his life, Jabbar said: "Of course it's possible." But he added, "Life goes on, you know."

The basketball star became a convert to the Islamic faith in 1971. He said the Hanaf Muslim community has nothing to do with the teachings of Elijah Muhammad of the better-known Black Muslims.

"I'm not a prophet so I don't want to guess about the date of a cease-fire," Lam said. "The only thing that I could say is that we are very close. I am neither optimistic nor pessimistic. The problem is we would like to have the maximum protection of our national interests. There are many points to be clarified in the agreement and we want those points to be explained."

Suit Dismissal Request Granted

The International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 819 of Fort Worth, has been granted its request to dismiss a federal court suit filed by the union last October against Booth Services Inc.

Hearings on Booth's motions to dismiss the suit had been scheduled for U.S. District Court here today, but the court received motions from the union Thursday to drop the litigation.

U.S. District Court Judge D. W. Suttle of San Antonio signed the dismissal order Thursday afternoon.

In its petition filed Oct. 13, 1972, the union claimed that Booth Services, which is headquartered in Houston and has operations in Midland, violated terms of a contract providing for union business representatives to inspect job sites.

The dispute arose amid construction of the $50 million Lone Star Pipeline through the area.

Government Rests Case Against John Osorio

A M A R I L L O (AP) — The government rested its case against John Osorio today and U.S. District Court Judge Halbert O. Woodward overruled a defense motion for acquittal.

Judge Woodward called a brief recess after a lengthy debate outside the presence of the jury concerning the acquittal motion. The defense said it would lead off its case with testimony from a character witness, and that Osorio later will take the stand in his own behalf.

The former Texas insurance Commissioner is accused of a conspiracy and embezzlement charges stemming from his relationship with Frank Sharp and Sharp's National Bankers Life Insurance Co. Two co-defendants, Donald Akins and Sam Stock, pleaded guilty to separate counts in the indictment and were thus removed from this trial. Both appeared as witnesses.

Osorio was president of the Dallas insurance firm in 1970 when NBL pension funds were evaporated in a stock manipulation maze linked to the Sharp-stock Bank scandals.

Much of the testimony all week has focused on the purchase of 22,500 shares of NBL stock issued in the names of five Apollo astronauts who refused to accept it.

Astronauts named in the incident were Charles Conrad, Alan Bean, Fred W. Haise, Thomas Mattingly and Richard Gordon.

The securities were issued by Ling & Co., a Dallas brokerage firm.

When the astronauts rejected the stock, testimony showed, Ling officials turned to Sharp and his financial group to resolve the $641,250 dilemma.

Testimony Thursday indicated that it was Osorio who first suggested "warehousing"

Phase 3 Worries Still Depressing Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks fell in the first quarter of 1973. But this was counterbalanced by feeling that the Federal Reserve System's effect on the economy and ignored news of business expansion.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was 9.63 to 1019.49, and declines outnumbered advances by a 2-to-1 margin in heavy trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

The broad-based NYSE index of some 1,400 common stocks was off 42 to 84.18 at noon, while the price-change index on the American Stock Exchange had fallen .06 to 26.30.

Encouraging economic news came in the form of a government report that the gross national product grew at a sharp

Young Assessed Second Probated Term In Slayings

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Fred F. Young Jr., 22, has been assessed a second probated sentence for killings last January during the robbery of a Kountze antique store.

A jury here found Young guilty Thursday of the murder of 3-year-old Leslie Bowman and set a 10-year probated sentence. Young previously was given a five-year probated sentence for the killing of the Bowman child's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel McCormick during the robbery of her shop.

Young testified during the trial that he only loaded furniture into a rented truck and knew nothing of the killings, which he said were done by his companion, Dennis Ray Anderson.

Young now will be returned to Hardin County in Southeast Texas to await trial on theft charges.

Bar's No-Fault Insurance Measure Offered In House

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A "no-fault" car insurance bill backed by the State Bar of Texas was filed for introduction in the House Thursday.

The measure, sponsored by Rep. Jon Newton of Beeville, would not deny an injured motorist the right to file suit against the other driver as would most no-fault proposals.

Newton's bill probably will be formally introduced and referred to committee Monday.

"This is the bar's response to the bar's general counsel," said Davis Grant.

Also included will be the Girls Showmanship Award, which also comprises a trophy in each of the four categories. It is sponsored by W. E. Chaney of Russo Chemical Co.

Show officials include R. D. Jones Jr., association president; Bobby Howard, general show superintendent; Albert Stewart, cattle show superintendent; Leslie E. Floyd Memorial Showmanship award, including one trophy each for best showswine in the calf, lamb, swine and horse divisions. The award is sponsored by the Midland Kiwanis Club.

Also included will be the Girls Showmanship Award, which also comprises a trophy in each of the four categories. It is sponsored by W. E. Chaney of Russo Chemical Co.

MAKING PREPARATIONS—Debbie Standley, left, Midland 4-H Club member, grooms her animal in preparation for the Midland County Livestock Show. Two other 4-H members, Russ Dawson and Dana Milner, show off their entries.

Livestock Show Begins Sunday

The annual Midland County Livestock Show will get underway at 8 a.m. Sunday, with the weighing and sifting of swine, lambs, steers and heifers.

The show is sponsored by the Midland County Livestock Association in cooperation with the county extension office, vocational agriculture instructors and Midland County 4-H and FFA clubs. The event is staged to recognize the efforts of Midland County youth in feeding, fitting and showing livestock.

Judges in this year's events will be Frank Brownfield (lambs), Paul Gross (swine), Jay Lee Marek (cattle) and James King (horses).

The schedule of events, slated for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, is as follows:

—Sunday: 8 a.m.-1 p.m., weighing and sifting of swine, lambs, steers and heifers;

250 lb. range. Trophies for each class will be determined by a percentage of the number of animals shown in the class.

Exhibitors may sell only one animal each, with the exception of those showing grand or reserve champions. They may sell that animal and one other animal. All sales will be at the option of the exhibitor.

Included in the Tuesday awards presentations will be the Leslie E. Floyd Memorial Showmanship award, including one trophy each for best showswine in the calf, lamb, swine and horse divisions. The award is sponsored by the Midland Kiwanis Club.

Also included will be the Girls Showmanship Award, which also comprises a trophy in each of the four categories. It is sponsored by W. E. Chaney of Russo Chemical Co.

—Monday: 8 a.m., judging of fat lambs; 1 p.m., judging of swine; 2:30 p.m., judging of heifers; 3 p.m., judging of commercial steers.

—Tuesday: 1 p.m., livestock judging contest (sponsored by Midland Jaycees); 6:30 p.m., presentation of awards; 7 p.m., auction sale of steers, lambs and swine.

Officials noted that horse judging will include the classes of 1972 mares, 1971 mares, 1970 mares and 1969 and before mares; as well as 1971 geldings and 1969 and before geldings. No stallions will be allowed to show.

Ribbons are to be awarded for first through fourth place in each class, in addition to trophies for grand and reserve mare and gelding. The trophies will be awarded Tuesday night, as will the showmanship winners.

Swine ribbons will be awarded for first through 10th place in each class. The grand champion will be selected from among the first place winners, as will be the reserve champion (with the addition of the second place winner in the grand champion's class).

All entries must fall in the 190-

WEEKS OF DELAY—New Rules To Produce No Quick Oil Bonanza

By MIKE SHANAHAN WASHINGTON (AP) — If your house was cold before President Nixon relaxed oil import quotas, it may stay that way for much of the winter. And passenger and freight carriers now say they may have to reduce or cut off their services because of fuel shortages.

Oil industry officials and congressional sources interviewed Thursday agreed that it will be up to three weeks before the first overseas deliveries of home heating oil become available to consumers.

At the moment, sources said, a mad scramble is on among companies around the world for the purchase of available supplies.

Supply Still Indefinite No one is sure how much is available, so that will take some time to find out, they said. After that, more time will be needed for tanker ships to deliver the fuel from oil-producing countries to the East Coast.

Under intense congressional pressure, the Nixon administration Wednesday temporarily suspended import quotas on home heating oil and increased by 51 per cent the quota for all imported oil.

Adding to the crisis, several transportation companies Thursday sent an urgent message to the Office of Emergency Preparedness saying that the transportation-fuel shortage could force interruption or elimination of freight and passenger service before the end of the month.

The industry groups said commercial suppliers already are reducing deliveries for trucks, trains, planes, mass transit and intercity buses—in most cases without adequate advance notice.

Meanwhile, Sen. Edward Kennedy announced introduction of legislation to sus-

Tech, Andrews Sign Agreement

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech University School of Medicine has signed an education and training affiliation agreement with Permian General Hospital in Andrews. This agreement brings to 16 the number of West Texas health care institutions affiliated with the School of Medicine.

The new affiliation agreement was announced by Dr. Grover E. Murray, president of Texas Tech University School of Medicine, and John A. Buesseler, M.D., dean and vice president for health sciences.

The TTUSM approach to medical education and service is based on the concept of becoming a regional medical school, Dr. Murray said.

"Affiliation agreements with health care institutions throughout West Texas provide the foundation upon which TTUSM's regional programs of medical education, health care delivery, research and continuing physician education are being built," he explained.

Model Airplane Classes Slated

Classes in model airplane flying will be taught on the remaining two Tuesdays of this month, the Midland Parks and Recreation Department announced this week.

The classes are co-sponsored by the department and the Flying Chaparrals Model Airplane Club. The instruction will be provided by members of the air-club and will include starting and flying the plane, and information on safety procedures.

The sessions will be held from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesday and on Jan. 30 in the recreation department gym, 300 Baldwin St.

No pre-registration is necessary.

"My husband delivers papers... and gets a 'bang' out of it!"

"One of Ralph's first jobs was delivering papers... and he's doing it again... 50 years later. He finds that it's an excellent way to supplement Social Security checks — by $30-$50 a week — and — at the same time he's having a ball!"

You see, paper routes are a lot different now. For one thing, most customers pay by mail or monthly. And the pay you earn, for the hours worked, is very good. And incentives are always being offered for new subscribers. Why not join Ralph... inquire about route openings today. Just call Leroy Stewart, circulation manager, at 682-5311.

MC Registration Deadline Today

Deadline for fulltime student late registration at Midland College is 6 p.m. today, reminded Dean of Student Affairs C. C. Dakil.

However, students may enroll for up to three classes through Jan. 30.

Dakil said more than 850 students had registered for spring term credit classes by noon today.

"A student who enrolls today or Monday should have little trouble in catching up, since he will have missed only two class sessions in each course," Dakil said.

He also noted that students who pre-registered before Christmas but have not yet paid fees should do so as soon as possible to complete registration.

Registration is under way Mondays through Fridays at the college administrative offices, 1801 W. Wall St.

Genealogy Group To Meet Monday

ODESSA — The Permian Basin Genealogical Society, Inc., will hold its annual business meeting, at 7 p.m. Monday in the Ector County Library. Four members will be elected to the board of directors.

Persons wishing to join the genealogical society may do so for the annual fee of $5. Membership includes two issues of The Treeshaker, the official genealogy publication.

Meetings are held the fourth Monday of the month in the Ector County Library.

Ingram Purchases Belton Newspaper

BELTON, Tex. (AP)—Larry Ingram, former editor of the Temple Telegram, is the new owner of the Belton Journal.

He purchased the newspaper from James J. Russell of Belton, who was appointed judge of the Bell County Court at law Monday. Russell will be sworn in Jan. 22.

PERSONALIZE SCOUTING — John W. Dupree, standing, regional director of the Boy Scouts of America, asks scouting leaders at a banquet Thursday to take a closer look at the individual needs of scouts. Seated next to Dupree is Bruno Hanson, Buffalo Trail Council president.

Midland Will Host Speech Tournament

Students from 27 Panhandle and South Plains high schools will participate today and Saturday in a speech tournament.

The event, co-sponsored by the speech and drama departments of Lee and Midland high schools, gets under way with a registration session from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. today, included in the tournament are competition in debate, poetry, prose, persuasive extemporaneous speaking and informative extemporaneous speaking.

Judges for the contest include teachers, lawyers, judges and other members of the community. The events will be held in Lee High and nearby Rusk Elementary.

Facility officials are Mrs. Maridell Fryar, LHS, tournament director and debate director; Janetha Holt, MHS, director of extemporaneous speaking; Steve Green, MHS, assistant director of extemporaneous speaking; Phil Brewer, MHS, director of prose; Bill Thomas, MHS, director of poetry; and Pat Dougherty, LHS, director of duet acting.

Midland area schools competing in the contest include McCamey, Odessa, Stanton, Andrews, Big Spring and Odessa Permian.

Eddie Rickenbacker Leaves Hospital
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the World War I flying ace and former chairman of Eastern Air Lines, has been discharged from the hospital where he spent three months receiving treatment for a stroke.

Rickenbacker, 82, was released Thursday and returned to his home near Key Biscayne.

Banquet Honors Scout Leaders

By LARRY HOWELL
Reporter-Telegram Staff

ODESSA — A regional director of the Boy Scouts of America told a dinner crowd of more than 300 West Texans here Thursday night that "scouting is a lot more important than many other 'do-good' things that go on" today in American society.

John W. Dupree of Dallas, regional director of the South Central Region of the Boy Scouts, urged the meeting of scouting parents and other adult supporters "to put an even higher priority on scouting" as a means of molding young boys into tomorrow's leaders.

"You have a sacred trust to produce and train young leaders," Dupree told the parents, "by continuing to have an active concern for young boys."

Dupree spoke during the 49th annual meeting and banquet of the Buffalo Trail Council which covers 18 West Texas counties and is headquartered in Midland. The brief address by Dupree followed the presentation of eight prestigious awards to adults for contributions to scouting in West Texas.

Seven men and one woman were given the highest awards Thursday that can be presented by a Boy Scout Council.

The Silver Beaver Award was presented to Clyde E. Chynoweth, James Dublin, Malcolm Abel and Bernard M. "Bruno" Hanson, all of Midland; Dr. Marvin E. Grice of Odessa; Billy G. Mims of Forsan and George Stewart of Snyder.

The Silver Fawn Award in honor of contributions made to scouting by a woman was given to Mrs. Katherine McCain of Odessa.

Oley Hedrick Jr. of Midland explained during the award ceremony for the eight recipients that the Silver Beaver and Silver Fawn awards are presented "for noteworthy service of exceptional character to boyhood by registered scouters within the jurisdiction of the Buffalo Trail Council."

In acknowledging the performances of the award winners, Dupree glanced over his dinner audience and warned that the national influence of scouting may be on the decline in a few short years — unless concentrated efforts are made to increasingly personalize the Boy Scout organization, particularly on an inter-unit level.

"I don't know of any finer turn that veteran scouting leaders can provide than to try to help other newer units get themselves firmly established."

"A scouting unit is only as good as its support," Dupree said, and added that a current problem nationally is that too many neighborhood units are formed and abruptly dissolved each year, often for a lack of organizational know-how.

The Tulsa native who is responsible for directing 45 councils in the South Central Region, urged members of the strong active districts and units in the Buffalo Council to help new units get as firmly established as possible in scouting activities.

"If each of us takes a personal interest in the individual boy, we'll be making a heck of a lot better contribution to better, stronger scouting on down the way."

Dupree cautioned against "hastily recruiting boys into Pickle of Big Spring and Urbane Childers of Odessa."

ly attending to their needs. Ned Truex of Odessa is installed as council commissioner and J. William Milner of Midland as treasurer.

District chairmen sworn into office for 1973 were J. Arnold Marshall of Big Spring (Lone Star District), Forrest Muire of Midland (Chaparral District); Dr. Philip Speegle of Odessa (Comanche Trails District); and Bob Morris of Kermit (Sand Hills District).

Special recognition was given to C. J. Kelly of Midland for his chairmanship of the 1972 New Scout Unit Organization Program in which 47 new scout units were organized. Wyatt Lipscomb of Odessa was recognized for serving as chairman of the program on conservation, Project SOAR.

Appreciation awards for services to the council during the last year went to Jack Pearce, Pete Ellis; Ike McCarrall, Hanson, Hedrick and Milner of Midland; Ben Johnson, Jack Powell and Truex of Odessa; and Lyle Deffebach of Snyder.

Fillis Formative Years
Dupree said that scouting may be the most successful of all social activities that "are determined and manufactured to fill a void in a boy's formative teenage years, and to fill it with meaningful activities in a young man's life that are designed to allow him to overcome planned obstacles in a personal way."

Dupree presented the Spencer Award to council president Hanson and commended the volunteers and staff for their record of a 4.5 per cent gain in youth membership and for increasing the per cent of available boys served by West Texas scouting from 30 per cent in 1971 to 32.1 per cent in 1972.

Hanson was installed for a second term as president of the council. Vice presidents are E. L. "Buck" Kent of Wickett, B. J. Pevehouse of Midland, Joe Pickle of Big Spring and Urbane Childers of Odessa.

Five Men Burned In Flash Fire At Big Spring Plant

BIG SPRING — A flash fire at the Skelly Oil Co. plant in north Big Spring Thursday afternoon sent five men to a Big Spring hospital with burns of varying severity.

Bryan Conway, a Skelly employe, was reported by a hospital spokesman to have received second- and third-degree burns over approximately 50 per cent of his body, as did J. W. Lee, an employe of Snyder Welding Co.

Willis Stanley, also employed by the Snyder firm, was said to have received second- and third-degree burns over almost 40 per cent of his body.

The hospital spokesman said all three men were being transferred this morning by air ambulance to the Galveston Burns Center.

However, the spokesman added, "Their conditions are stable and the prognoses are good."

Gerald Houghton, another Snyder Welding employe, was not badly burned. Bill Elliott, an employe of West Texas Tubing, was treated and released with minor burns.

Preliminary indications were that the blaze may have started from welding sparks. Damage to equipment and machinery at the Skelly plant was reported to be minor.

Few Clues Found In Extortion Deaths

GRANDIN, Mo. (AP) — Authorities said they had no new leads today in the slayings of Grandin bank president Robert Kitterman, his wife and daughter in connection with an extortion plot.

Two young men who were arrested on drug charges were questioned in the case but "were not believed to be involved," said Sgt. Robert Koontz of the Highway Patrol.

Two Shells Recovered

Two .32-caliber shells thought to be from an automatic pistol were recovered Thursday in the wooded area where the bodies were found, about five miles west of Grandin.

The bodies of Kitterman, 43, Mrs. Bertha Kitterman, 38, and their daughter, Roberta, 17, were found tied to trees. Each had been shot once in the head. There are two surviving daughters, Kathy, 15, and Patricia, 14.

Kitterman returned to the Bank of Grandin after the lunch-hour Wednesday and told two employees, "They have dynamite strapped to my chest... they've got my wife and daughter."

He left the bank with $9,811 in a sack and drove away. His car, and that of his daughter, were found at an abandoned farmhouse, not far from the bodies.

Sterdt To Attend Florida Institute

R. D. Sterdt, executive housekeeper of Midland Memorial Hospital, will be in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Tuesday through Jan. 26 attending an institute for executive housekeepers.

Approved by the National Executive Housekeepers for certification credit of 25 hours, the course consists of personnel management and maintenance and controls.

The institute is conducted by the St. Louis University Center for hospital continuing education and is sponsored by the Catholic Hospital Association.

Sterdt joined the Midland Memorial staff in 1970 and heads a department of 34 employees.

Dr. Timothy Leary Arrested, Returned To U.S. Custody

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. Timothy Leary, the LSD advocate who escaped from prison two years ago, has been arrested and was held today in lieu of $5 million bond.

Leary returned here by air Thursday from Afghanistan via London with 26-year-old Joanna Harcourt-Smith, niece of British publisher Simon Harcourt-Smith.

"I know I am going to free him. Love is what it takes," the young woman said shortly after she and Leary arrived in Los Angeles aboard a jetliner from London.

The 52-year-old Leary had been wanted for escape from a state prison near San Luis Obispo, Calif., in September 1970 and in connection with the operation of an alleged drug smuggling ring once headquartered in Orange County, Calif.

When he escaped, Leary was serving a one- to 10-year sentence on a drug conviction.

Leary's freedom ended with his arrest aboard the plane by two U.S. narcotics agents who had accompanied him from Afghanistan.

Mrs. Key Elected By Golden Agers

Mrs. E. L. Key took over as president of the Midland Golden Agers at a meeting Thursday night in fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Key replaces Mrs. Edwin Cook who has moved from the city. Mrs. Lonnie Clanton also resigned as secretary-treasurer and was replaced by Belva Graham.

About 140 Golden Agers attended the meeting and were entertained by the Proud Americans, a teen-age combo under the direction of Mrs. Bob Bolin.

AND IT WORKS LIKE THIS

With Felton Kerley, a representative of the Abilene school, he demonstrated the machine Wednesday to the business education classes at Lee.

Doctor Would Rebuild Hanoi Hospital

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — only the Communists help in the rebuilding of the former Air Force physician, during these critical days of damaged Bach Mai Hospital in Hanoi, North Vietnam, all do reconstruction of Hanoi's Bach Mai Hospital was approved by the Bexar County GOP, said Council of San Antonio and for the city council here, says his action by council "does a service to their city as well as 'like most Americans.'" as our nation.

Six of the nine members of Hillard, the immediate past chief of obstetrics and gynecology at Lutheran Hospital, only black member, said he did not expect that San Antonio's donations would rebuild the structure, which he said "was accidentally bombed, but 'obviously somebody will be contributing,'" he said.

He said he means to say through the resolution, "We are sorry we bombed the hospital and we're trying to make up for that." He said the resolution did not condemn the bombing of North Vietnam.

Sergeant Refuses To Discuss March Death Of Trainee, 22

FT. DIX, N.J. (AP) — An Army sergeant has refused to discuss publicly the disputed circumstances surrounding the death of a basic trainee Monday during a march.

Army officials said preliminary autopsy findings indicated Pvt. John Ostergren, 22, of Norwood, Mass., died of a heart attack.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Walston Army Hospital Monday about 30 minutes after he collapsed on the way to a Ft. Dix rifle range.

Crewmen Of Apollo 17 Carried Little To Moon

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — In a move resulting from the Apollo 15 stamp-out-the-moon scandal, the space agency Thursday announced that the Apollo 17 astronauts carried 34 pieces of jewelry, a watch and a $20 gold piece to the moon as souvenirs.

The Apollo 17 crew, Eugene A. Cernan, Ronald E. Evans and Dr. Harrison H. Schmitt, were permitted to carry only 12 items each, a fraction of the hundreds of articles carried by previous moon crews.

Listed for Cernan were two Apollo 17 pins, a lunar module tie pin, a wedding ring, a moon flag pin, a personal jewelry piece, a $20 gold piece, a religious memento, three Apollo 17 gold commemorative medals and a memento from Gemini 9 and Apollo 10, Cernan's previous space flights.

Evans carried a personal wristwatch, a wedding ring set, a gold brooch set, a ring, three wedding diamonds, a moonstone gem, an identification bracelet and three Apollo 17 gold commemorative medals.

Schmitt listed these items: eight moon pins, turquoise beads, a family memento set and two Apollo 17 silver commemorative medals.

Prior to the flight, both Cernan and Evans indicated the strict new rules meant they would have to disappoint some friends and relatives.

"Twelve items," said Cernan, "when you have many friends, when you have many personal things for the family, is not very many."

"I have a lot of relatives who are not going to get anything because I can't carry anything," said Evans. "I have a lot of friends who are not going to get anything because I wasn't able to carry some little things for them."

Since the rules were instituted after Apollo 16, the last Apollo became the only moon mission affected by them. Astronauts in the past were permitted to stuff their personal preference kits with items, mostly jewelry. Usually, upon their return, the trinkets were given as gifts not only to friends and relatives, but also as a morale-boosting gesture to fellow space workers.

The spacemen, until Apollo 17, were permitted to keep secret a description of the items they carried in their kits. But Apollo 15 changed that. According to a space agency investigation, Apollo 15 Commander David R. Scott boarded his spacecraft for the 1971 moon mission with about 400 unauthorized stamp covers. The stamped envelopes were later canceled and signed by Scott and his crewmates.

About 100 of them were later sold by a German stamp dealer for about $1,500 each. The investigation showed that Scott and astronauts Alfred M. Worden and James B. Irwin planned to receive about $7,000 each for their part in the stamp caper. They later declined the money and surrendered the rest of the stamps to space agency officials.

Following a congressional hearing on astronaut profiteering, the space agency instituted the new astronaut rules.

A space agency spokesman said the rules will apply to the crews of Skylab, three earth-orbiting missions later this year, and to all future American space flights.

The charges were made by Pvt. Johnny Kreider, 21, a trainee from another unit, in a letter to the Lancaster, Pa. New Era. Eshleman met with Kreider and three other trainees from the same platoon, but said that Layton had refused to be interviewed.

Lt. Col. Charles Ippolito, Ft. Dix information officer, said that several others who witnessed Ostergren's collapse had also refused to talk to newsmen. Two men who reportedly had assisted Ostergren, were "under sedation" in their barracks because of the "emotional strain" caused by the incident, he said.

Kreider said that he had seen no one kick or otherwise harm Ostergren but said he heard voices say "kick him, walk over him."

He said other soldiers told him they heard a drill sergeant give the order but none of the three men brought in by Kreider to corroborate his story were able to make a positive identification of the voice or voices.

Lt. Col. Bruce Crozier, acting commander of the training brigade to which Ostergren was assigned, praised the dead man as a model recruit. He said that in four weeks as a trainee at Ft. Dix, Ostergren had reported only once to sick call for treatment of a blistered hand.

He said the soldier had been well enough to run the mile in seven minutes and 51 seconds last week.

The Other Side Of The Coin

Sports briefs from here and there and, quick now, where did they play their college golf... Arnold Palmer, Bobby Nichols, Mike Souchak... Miami tackle Manny Fernandez, who has experienced both sides of the Super Bowl, claims "Listen, losing the Super Bowl is worse than being 1-13."

"I think the step was taken as a necessary and constructive move. I think it was a move that will eventually save intercollegiate athletics."

Fry feels it will cause recruiters to be more selective and quell some squad unrest, since more players will be playing.

Lou Henson, basketball coach and Athletic director at New Mexico State, thinks it's a "tremendous ruler," contending that it will give a boost to mid-sized and smaller schools.

At UTEP, AD George McCarty says the 105 ceiling is about what the Miners operate on now. "We don't have that many now just because we couldn't find them. But we feel it's adequate for our size and our scope program."

At New Mexico, Rudy Feldman is less than enchanted, pointing at UNM has already recruited 35 boys this year, five over the limit.

One byproduct of the rule will be the return of the Big 10 to football respectability, since it will wreck that red-shirt programs that have enabled the Pac-Eight and Big Eight to a dominating position in recent years.

Those Creeping Years

Cincinnati's Reds get their money's worth out of former pitcher Joe Nuxhall. One of the broadcasters of Red's games, Joe also serves as batting practice pitcher.

SMU Coach Bob Prewitt, who helped induct his former coach into the Texas Sportswriters Hall of Fame recently, claims "The thing that Doc Hayes was always proudest of was the fact that almost every player he gave a scholarship to at SMU graduated. He awarded 102 scholarships and 90 of those kids got their degrees."

How those years have flown. One-time Aggie great and Heisman Trophy winner John David Crow has an 18-year-old son who gained 1,000-yards rushing in leading his Ohio high school team to a 9-0 record. He'll probably wind up at Alabama.

In 16 years at Texas, Darrell Royal's Longhorns have cracked the nation's top three six times, which beats out USC and Alabama, the runnersup with four appearances each.

Louis Feels Courage Key To Foreman-Frazier Fight

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — George Foreman's hopes of wrestling the world heavyweight boxing crown from Joe Frazier depends on his courage, predicts Joe Louis.

"If Foreman gets tagged, will he get up and keep fighting—that's what I want to know," the Brown Bomber said after flying in from London Thursday.

"It was the same way in London," he told a friend. "You would have thought I just beat a guy."

Louis was in London for the fight with Bugner who will meet Muhammad Ali at Las Vegas on Feb. 14.

The Brown Bomber, 58, showing little effects of the illness that beset him a few years ago, acknowledged that he had never seen Foreman fight in the flesh, only on television.

"But I know he is five years younger than Frazier, that he's four inches taller and has a five-inch longer reach," Joe said. "He's proved he can hit and he's never lost a fight as a pro."

Gray defeated Alamo Scarlet 31-29 while Goddard White posted a 62-38 win over Alamo Blue and San Jacinto Green racked up a 66-36 win over Alamo Maroon.

In other 7th grade cage action, San Jacinto Blue defeated Goddard Black 40-35, Goddard Red thumped San Jacinto Gold 44-28 and Goddard Orange drubbed San Jacinto White 41-22.

MONAHANS — A rifle meet for contestants 19 years of age and under will be held Saturday and Sunday in the old armory.

The meet is under the sponsorship of the Ward County 4-H Junior Rifle Club. Entries will be accepted until 8 a.m. Saturday.

MISS AMERICA — Terry Anne Meenwsen, finds that bowling over the pins is much harder than bowling over the judges at Atlantic City. Miss Meenwsen likes all kinds of sports with bowling her favorite. She also loves football, especially professional football.

Glover Lombardi Winner Brahaney Runnerup In Voting

HOUSTON (AP) — Nebraska's Rich Glover, who fearlessly gunned down enemy runners during two All-American seasons, felt he had a tougher assignment Thursday night—accepting the third annual Vince Lombardi Award.

"I was thinking 'wow this is great but now I've got to make a speech,'" the drowsy-eyed 235-pound middle guard said. "I like to talk but for something like that I get nervous."

Glover, who rose from the obscurity of a second-string defensive tackle to the most decorated middle guard in the nation, should be getting the hang of accepting awards. He already has the Outland Trophy as the top interior lineman in the nation.

During his three-year career, Glover made 221 tackles, dropped opposing runners 27 times for 131 yards in losses, played on two national championship teams and two Orange Bowl winners. And winning the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman put the cork on it all.

"This award means the most," Glover said. "It exemplifies the best lineman in the country and I worked very hard for this award this year. It means even more because of the man it is named after."

Glover beat out three other finalists to win the award, named in honor of the former Green Bay and Washington coach who died of cancer in 1970. The runnersup all AP All-Americans, were Texas offensive tackle Jerry Sismore, Oklahoma center Tom Brahaney of Midland and Alabama guard John Hannah.

The 45-pound granite trophy has the word "discipline" inscribed on its base and Glover said it fitted the Cornhusker team. "He (Lombardi) went for self discipline and that's what we worked for at Nebraska a lot."

Glover said he had to hurry back to Nebraska for tonight's Cornhusker football banquet.

"I'll probably take the trophy along and let the team and the people see it," Glover said. "Johnny (Rodgers) will probably have his trophy (the Heisman) there too."

Glover confidently predicted he would win the Lombardi trophy and was just as aggressive in forecasting his success in the pros.

"Wherever they put me that's where it will be," said Glover, who likely will play at middle linebacker as a pro. "I think I have the quickness and ability to play. It'll just take a little time to adjust."

Glover said his biggest adjustment would be learning to tackle in the open field. "At Nebraska the ends would just turn them in to me and I'd get them right in the hole," he said.

Glover, from Jersey City, N.J., also said he could be all pro caliber in two years.

TUCSON GOLF—Texan Captures 1st Round Lead

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jack Worth, Tex., native said after firing a leading 67 Thursday. "It was the best year I've had. I was 36th on the money list."

"I just hope I'm ready to have another one."

It's been pretty grim for the rangy blond for the last two seasons. He won a total of $14,000 in 1970-71—considerably less than expenses—and was playing so badly last year that he left the tour for a while to go home and work on his game.

"When I came back out on the tour I had a better idea what I wanted to do."

He did it well enough to establish a one-stroke margin over defending champion Miller Barber and Bobby Greenwood, tied at 68.

Play was delayed by some 40 minutes because of frost on the greens so that the field stacked up and Greenwood, one of the last off the tee, finished in darkness.

The group of 69 included Bob Beard, Bob Murphy, Frank Fezler and Rod Funsteth, winner of the Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open two weeks ago.

In the American Basketball Association, the Kentucky Colonels defeated the Memphis Tams 104-100, the Virginia Squires edged Denver 106-100 and the Indiana Pacers stopped the Dallas Chaparrals 116-109.

Big George McGinnis, accused by Dallas Coach Babe McCarthy of being allowed to stay in the lane too long, scored 31 points and snatched 18 rebounds in leading the Pacers to victory, McCarthy said.

"There is no doubt that he is one of the greatest offensive rebounders in basketball, so when he gets that much time in the lane how are you going to beat him?"

Bill Keller added 27 points, 10 in the final quarter, to insure the victory for the Pacers.

Tiny Nate Archibald, the leading scorer in the NBA, scored 32 points in leading the Kansas City-Omaha Kings to their pasting of the Phoenix Suns 119-96.

PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY ROUNDUP—

Islanders Prevail

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — The New York Islanders, who can't stand adversity, almost couldn't stand prosperity Thursday night.

But when the final horn sounded, the hapless expansionists, winners of but four of the first 45 games of their National Hockey League existence, had staggered to a wild 9-7 victory over the Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins—and they did it in Boston after blowing most of a 5-0 first-period lead.

"Boy, that will be a surprise when it goes up on the boards in the other rinks around the league," said Eddie Westfall, a former Bruin and now captain of the Islanders.

And the other rinks where it was posted were in Pittsburgh, where the Montreal Canadiens downed the Penguins 5-2; in Buffalo, where the Sabres trounced the Chicago Black Hawks 5-1, and in Philadelphia, where the Flyers whipped the Minnesota North Stars 6-1.

In the World Hockey Association, it was Ottawa 6, Minnesota 3; New York 4, Quebec 4 and Houston 8, Chicago 3.

But it was in Boston where the usually rowdy Bruins apparently thought they were in on the peace pact with Hanoi and suddenly found themselves down 5-0 to a club which had lost 12 games in a row, had won only once in its last 28 outings and had never before beaten an established team.

Don Blackburn scored twice and Billy Harris, Lorne Henning and Westfall once each against rookie goalie John Adams in the first 18 minutes before Boston's Johnny Bucyk rapped in the first of his four goals at 18:42.

"We charged at them from the start," said Coach Phil Goyette. "That's what they usually do. All of a sudden we caught them flatfooted. We got one, two, three goals and we just kept on going."

"That," muttered Boston Coach Tom Johnson, "was the worst first period I've ever seen this team play... and it didn't get much better."

Adams gave way to Ed Johnston to start the second period but Westfall quickly made it 6-1 with his second goal before the Bruins rallied on a goal by Wayne Cashman and two more by Bucyk.

The setback dropped the Bruins seven points behind first-place Montreal in the NHL's East Division. Frank Mahovlich scored two goals and his brother, Pete, added another as the Canadiens beat Pittsburgh for the second night in a row.

Guy Lapointe and Rejean Houle also scored for Montreal—the latter into an empty net with one second left—while Al McDonough and Greg Polis tallied for Pittsburgh.

Gerry Meehan scored two goals—the first after only 31 seconds—and assisted on a third while linemate Hugh Harris had a goal and three assists as Buffalo trimmed Chicago. The triumph gave the Sabres a 19-13 mark on their own ice.

Jim Lorentz and Rick Martin also beat Chicago goalie Tony Esposito while Dennis Hull tallied for the Black Hawks.

Philadelphia got goals from Dennis O'Brien, Ross Lonsberry, Bill Clement and Bob Kelly in the first 15 minutes and breezed past Minnesota. The first goal was a gift. Minnesota's Charlie Burns, killing a penalty, backhanded a shot from behind his own net which hit O'Brien in the back and caried past goalie Gump Worsley.

In the WHA, Wayne Connelly put the Minnesota Fighting Saints ahead of Ottawa with just 38 seconds gone but the Nationals stormed back on goals by Mike Amodeo, Steve King and Jack Gibson late in the first period. The first two came just nine seconds apart.

The game ended with a five-minute fracas between Minnesota Coach Glen Sonmor and a heckler in the stands.

Larry Lund's two goals paced Houston over Chicago, the Cougars' seventh loss in a row. Lund started the scoring at 3:03 of the first period and wrapped it up with 2:38 left. In between, Gordon Labossiere, Keke Morrison, Murray Hall, Brian McDonald, Brian Smith and Don Grierson also scored for the Aeros.

The New York Raiders withstood three power play goals by Quebec and came from behind three times to tie the Nordiques. Jean Payette scored twice and Michel Parizeau and J.C. Tremblay once each for Quebec while Hal Willis, Mike Laughton, Ron Ward, No. 37 and Brian Perry got the New York goals.

41 HOROSCOPE (Jan. 20) GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to pick up ideas and ideas you had in the past but may have temporarily neglected to put in motion because of other pressures. Be sure you let influential persons know about them, however, and get their backing. Also fine for pleasure, romance, new activities. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you study that new project wisely, you may find that this is a good day to put it in operation to your benefit. Join with material for a good time. Stop generally. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Find day for making your dwelling more delightful and charming. So get busy at that early. Consult with family first to win their enthusiasm. Back their ideas, and have true harmony. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get busy running errands, shopping, getting in touch with friends and relatives and make this a happy and active day. Be sure you get a better understanding of the value, comfort, beauty. Get a better budget set up, also. Evening excellent for the social side of life. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 13) Make those improvements to any property you may have that will add to its value, comfort, beauty. Get a better budget set up, also. Evening excellent for the social side of life. LEAD JULY 23 to Aug. 21: Fine day for taking the health treatments you need as well as for visiting your barber or beauty salon. Then go to the excellent social affairs that will be most enjoyable. Plan to meet that important personage. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Sit down in the privacy of your study and figure out how to improve your life in some way so you have more success and happiness. (c) 1973, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

41 HOROSCOPE (Jan. 20) GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to pick up ideas and ideas you had in the past but may have temporarily neglected to put in motion because of other pressures. Be sure you let influential persons know about them, however, and get their backing. Also fine for pleasure, romance, new activities. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you study that new project wisely, you may find that this is a good day to put it in operation to your benefit. Join with material for a good time. Stop generally. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Find day for making your dwelling more delightful and charming. So get busy at that early. Consult with family first to win their enthusiasm. Back their ideas, and have true harmony. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get busy running errands, shopping, getting in touch with friends and relatives and make this a happy and active day. Be sure you get a better understanding of the value, comfort, beauty. Get a better budget set up, also. Evening excellent for the social side of life. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 13) Make those improvements to any property you may have that will add to its value, comfort, beauty. Get a better budget set up, also. Evening excellent for the social side of life. LEAD JULY 23 to Aug. 21: Fine day for taking the health treatments you need as well as for visiting your barber or beauty salon. Then go to the excellent social affairs that will be most enjoyable. Plan to meet that important personage. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Sit down in the privacy of your study and figure out how to improve your life in some way so you have more success and happiness. (c) 1973, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Dear Abby

Quit Proposing And Cool It For Awhile

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 70-year-old man and recently lost my wife after 49 years of a happy marriage. My loss was almost unbearable at first, but I faced reality and tried to live again.

My problem is this: I have proposed marriage to four widows, all near my age. They are receptive to a point, but all say there is no need for sex at our ages.

I am a healthy man and had a good sex life with my wife until she died, so why should I be expected to forget about sex now?

What should I tell these ladies when they turn me down on this important part of life? I say sex is healthy and normal and adds to a happy marriage. Please advise me.

DEAR NAMELESS: Perhaps these ladies have turned you down because you appear to be preoccupied with sex. You say you "recently" lost your wife. Yet you have already proposed to four widows. Cool it. Surely there must be an eligible widow who will see things your way. But don't rush her.

your legs and your choice. If you choose to keep the hair on your legs, you will soon find out to whom it matters, and to whom it matters not. Since you like the natural look, I suggest you keep it.

DEAR ABBY: God help me, Abby, but I made the biggest, most stupid mistake of my life. I tried to steal a piece of costume jewelry from a store and was caught redhanded by a detective posing as another shopper. The foolish thing is, I could have bought it as I had the money. I don't know what came over me.

I was booked, and now I have a criminal record which I am afraid will follow me for the rest of my life.

How will this affect my future? I am planning to get married soon. Should I tell my fiancée? Will this affect my voting? Will I ever be able to get a passport? Can I hold a civil service job? Will my record follow me into another state? Please tell me everything! I am so sorry for what I did. I wish I could wake up and find it was a bad dream.

HEARTSICK

DEAR ABBY: I am a teenage girl who has hairy legs. I don't see anything wrong with it because it is natural. My mother and older sisters say it looks ugly and if I don't shave my legs I will be the butt of guys' jokes, and besides it is not considered good grooming for a girl to go around with hair on her legs.

I don't see why society should dictate whether I should have hair on my legs. I think this is strictly a matter of my own choice.

What do you think?

NATURALLY HAIRY

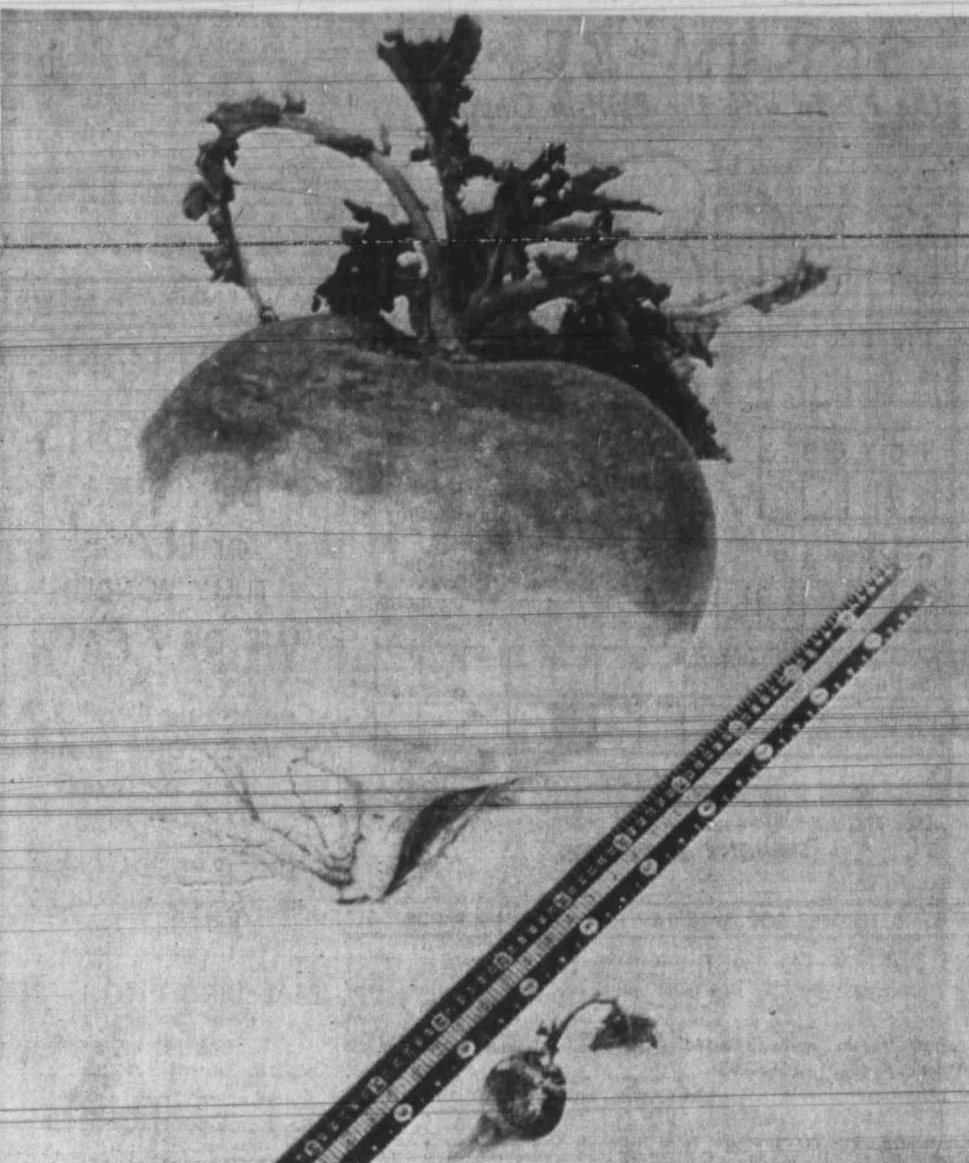

DEAR HAIRY: It's your hair, dressed envelope, please

DEAR HEARTSICK: Laws vary in different states. Talk to a lawyer and get the facts. I think you may be greatly relieved.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BROWNIE": Yes, give him another chance. Tell your husband you will meet him at the next Alcoholics Anonymous meeting, and afterwards you will talk about a reconciliation.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please

THE BIG AND THE LITTLE — M. C. Peek, a retired employee of the Pioneer Natural Gas Co., raised these turnips in his home garden at 3116 W. Illinois St. The huge one weighs slightly more than four pounds, while the tiny one, although more than a week older, weighs just over an ounce.

Shortage Of Diesel Fuel Magnifies Energy Crisis

DALLAS (AP) — The energy crisis has arrived here in a new way—shortages of diesel fuel.

The crisis is here, according to the Dallas News, if you consider that one of the largest truck stops in Dallas has seen its diesel fuel supply cut by 43 per cent and will run out this week.

It is here if you consider that Dallas-based REA Express truck rigs will run out of fuel Monday and will come to a halt if fuel is not found.

The situation is perhaps more serious than recent natural gas curtailments, according to the News story by John Cranfil.

Almost all supplies brought into this burgeoning Southwestern city, including food, arrive by truck. And many hospitals and generating plants use diesel power for backup.

Allotment Almost Gone

A. S. Crosby, operator of the Dick Price Truck Stop, said Texaco representatives came to him two days ago "and told me I was being cut on the amount of diesel fuel I could buy."

Crosby said he was told his January allotment is 75,000 gallons.

"Already I've sold 65,900 gallons in January and I'll run out next week," he said.

A. E. Brandon, manager of fleet maintenance for REA Express in Dallas, said American Oil Co. cut him off last Friday. REA operates 24 trucks in Texas and Louisiana.

Brandon said he bought some fuel from an independent supplier that will last until Monday. "I went to Texaco, Shell and Mobil, but they're not taking any new customers," he said.

In Houston, a spokesman for Texaco said the company is doing what it stated last week it would do—rationing supplies of middle distillates, fuel oil, diesel fuel, jet fuel and kerosene. He said it was being done by regions, with no standard applying across the nation.

A Shell spokesman said Thursday that his company had placed all diesel customers on an allocation system Jan. 1. They can buy only the amount of fuel they ordered last year.

American Petrofina in Dallas said all its 451 suppliers in 26 states have been allocated 85 per cent of their normal diesel supplies until further notice.

The diesel shortage is nationwide, according to Lloyd Golding, executive vice president of the National Association of Truck Stop Operators. He said several truck stops are out of fuel and at least 25 more will run out next week.

"Maybe 100 more will be out of fuel by the end of the month," he said, "and that's serious."

Golding declined to blame anyone for the shortages.

Jury Indicts Seven Texans In Banking Law Violations

HOUSTON (AP) — A federal grand jury has returned an 11-count indictment against seven men charging them with violating federal banking laws.

The indictment, returned before U.S. District Court Judge Woodrow Seals Thursday, named Raymond G. Novelli, a Pasadena contractor; Charles E. Lambert, a director of Surety Savings Association; Cornelius J. Kehoe, former president of Surety; Claude T. Allen, former attorney for Surety; Fred L. Gaines, former advisory director of Surety; Ray K. Bullock, an advisory director of Surety, and Dennis B. Collins, a business partner of Novelli.

The indictment alleged Kehoe, who no longer is affiliated with the savings association, caused Surety to loan Novelli and Collins $2.7 million.

Novelli further alleges Novelli and Collins used some $869,000 of the loan to buy stock from men charging them with violating federal banking laws.

The stock allegedly was of the First National Bank of Northheim, Community State Bank of Runge, Smiley State Bank and the Slaton Savings and Loan Association.

REAGAN EXPECTS NO ADMINISTRATION JOB

HOUSTON (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan of California says he has not been approached about a job in President Nixon's second administration.

He also refused to put himself on the list of potential presidential candidates for the 1976 election when his governor's term ends in 1974.

He said he is "very optimistic and very hopeful" that a Vietnam cease-fire agreement is just around the corner.

Reagan stopped over in Houston to be principal speaker at the Vince Lombardi Award Dinner honoring the nation's outstanding college linemen. He also will attend Nixon's second-term inauguration.

MARIJUANA FOUND IN ABANDONED PLANE

ANGLETON, Tex. (AP) — A 26-year-old Houston man was ordered to appear today before U.S. Magistrate H. Lingo Platter after U.S. Customs agents said some 650 pounds of marijuana was found in an abandoned airplane.

Agents said the pilot surrendered to agents Thursday. The plane was abandoned in a field near here Wednesday night.

NEGRO COUPLE WINS CUSTODY OF MEXICAN-AMERICAN CHILD

HOUSTON (AP) — A black man said today he never lost confidence in his fight to gain permanent custody of a 6-year-old Mexican-American foster child.

A juvenile court judge awarded James E. Adams and his wife permanent custody of the child in December pending the outcome of the permanent custody hearing.

The adoption was opposed by the Harris County Welfare Unit, which contended the Adams couple's age might be harmful to the boy's rearing, and by an aunt and uncle, Linda and Elias Lopez, who also sought custody of the child.

Adams, 54, and Mrs. Adams, 55, claimed that the only reason the welfare unit opposed the adoption was because they are black and Victor is Mexican American. Victor has been in the Adams home since he was about a year old. He had been placed with the Adams couple as a neglected child.

The Adamses have two grown children living in another state and one other adopted son, Hal, 14, who lives with them.

TEAMSTERS UNION OFFICER FILES SUIT AGAINST MAGAZINE

DALLAS (AP) — An officer of the Teamsters Union has filed a $6-million libel suit in federal court here charging that an article in Overdrive magazine falsely accused him of scheming to defraud and embezzle from the union's pension fund.

Murray W. (Dusty) Miller, general secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters Union, filed the suit Wednesday against Trans-American Press of Texas, Inc., and the trade magazine's editor and publisher, Mike Parkhurst.

Miller said the June 1972 article of Overdrive accused him of borrowing $1.6 million in pension funds to buy Trinity Sand & Gravel Co. of Dallas. He denied borrowing the money or buying the firm.
