South Ward Devonian Oil Strike Finals

Exxon Co. has completed No. 1 McBirney Unit as a Devonian oil discovery in Ward County, one mile west of the opener of the one-well Beall field, seven miles southeast of Pyote.

On 24-hour potential test, it pumped 33 barrels of 33.2-gravity oil and three barrels of water per day, through perforations at 12,418-12,706 feet, which had been acidized with 4,000 gallons and fractured with 34,000 gallons and 24,000 pounds.

Slated as a 16,000-foot wildcat, it was drilled to 15,879 feet, with a whipstock set at 11,320 feet, and drilled in a side-tracked hole to 12,790 feet. It has a 5½-inch liner set at 12,790 feet. Location (surface) is 1,567 feet from southeast and 1,867 feet from northeast lines and bottomhole location is 987 feet from northeast and 1,671 feet from southeast lines of section 67, block 34, H&TC survey.

The Beall opener, Humble No. 1 Mary Evans, finished in March 1972 from the Devonian for 122 barrels of oil and 3.8 million cubic feet of gas per day, through perforations at 12,247-12,485 feet. It is not producing from that zone. It was dually completed, as an Ellenburger gas strike.

Coke, Sutton Get Sites For Probes

Prospectors have been scheduled in Sutton and Coke counties.

Amoco Production Co. has filed application for an 8,500-foot wildcat in Sutton, 15 miles southwest of Sonora. It is the No. 1 Winnie R. Aldwell Trust.

Located ½ mile south of production in the Shurley Ranch (Canyon sand gas) field and ¾-mile south of a 9,064-foot Ellenburger failure, it spots 1,320 feet from north and 1,470 feet from west lines of block EFD, Albert Neutze survey 12, abstract 505. Coke Searcher

R. L. Burris Corp., Dallas, staked site for No. 1 Price, 13 miles northwest of Robert Lee in Coke.

Scheduled to 7,500 feet, location is ¾ mile north and west of the depleted Panther Gap, Northeast (5,400 Canyon sand) field, 1½ mile northwest of the depleted San Benito field and 1,937 feet from south and 1,785.5 feet from west lines of section 302, block 1A, H&TC survey.

Horizon Re-Opens In Fisher Region

Romal Oil Corp. (formerly Ralph Nagel-Trustee), of Abilene, has taken over operations at No. 1 D. D. Gruben, Fisher County failure, and completed the project to re-open 4,600-foot Canyon sand oil production in the Frankus field, five miles northeast of Roby.

It was completed on the pump for 22 barrels of 46-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 1,150-1, through perforations at 4,677-4,684 feet, which had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid and fractured with 1,000 gallons and 3,200 pounds.

Originally drilled by Jake L. Hamon of Midland as No. 1 Gruben, it was plugged and abandoned in 1966 at 5,950 feet.

Ralph Nagel-Trustee re-entered the project in August 1972 and it was again plugged and (Continued On Page 15A)

Vietnam War To End Saturday POW Release Begins In February

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kissinger said today the release of American prisoners of war would begin in Hanoi by mid-February.

Speaking at a White House news conference, Kissinger said the 479 U.S. POWs held in North Vietnam and Laos would be turned over to American medical personnel in Hanoi at intervals of about 15 days—beginning 15 days after the peace agreement is signed Saturday.

Responding to a question,

Kissinger said the prisoner release would coincide with U.S. withdrawal from South Vietnam and that both would begin "within 15 days of Jan. 27," the date of the signing. That would mean the prisoner release would start on or before Feb. 11.

Kissinger said another 108 U.S. prisoners known to be held in American planes to locations to be selected by U.S. officials.

Kissinger did not say when the first American POWs would be released.

It was announced before Kissinger's news conference that the United States and North Vietnam have agreed to return all prisoners "without delay."

A document spelling out the agreement on handling POWs also says that the return "shall persons... shall be completed by the concerned parties."

Again, the document released by the White House does not say what those places will be.

The places of return, the document said will be agreed upon by a new temporary joint military commission made up of representatives of the United States, North Vietnam, South Vietnam and the Viet Cong. The only specific time mentioned in the protocol stipulates that "the return of all captured persons... shall be completed within 60 days of the signing of the agreement at a rate no slower than the rate of withdrawal from South Vietnam of United States forces and those of other countries."

The document covering civil-military prisoners on both sides provides that "seriously ill, wounded or (See POWs Page 7A)

Kissinger Sees Peace Soon In All Of Indochina

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington and Hanoi unveiled today the terms of an intricate peace accord to end America's longest war, and negotiator Henry A. Kissinger expressed confidence a Saturday ceasefire in South Vietnam would later spread across all of Indochina.

Both Kissinger and his North Vietnamese negotiating counterpart said there were no secret peace terms.

The chief U.S. negotiator made these other major points in his 90-minute White House news conference: —About 145,000 North Vietnamese troops remain in South Vietnam, but Kissinger said their numbers "should over a period of time be subject to considerable reduction," because they cannot be reinforced, resupplied or replaced.

—The release of American prisoners of war held in North Vietnam and Laos will begin by

Nation's Capital Offers Mournful Farewell To LBJ

By GAYLORD SHAW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Just 100 hours after ushering the 37th President into a new term, the nation's capital offered a mournful and majestic farewell today to the 36th.

The body of Lyndon Baines Johnson was flown from the LBJ Library in Austin, Tex., for a full-honors procession up Constitution Avenue and one through the Senate hallway to last turn through the doors of the Rotunda, then placed upon the Lincoln catafalque — just as the ceremonial march, to the muffled cadence of drums to receive public mourners draped in black and the clatter of the traditional, horse-drawn artillery caisson, began at 12:30 p.m. CST.

President Nixon and a long list of other dignitaries followed the limousine of the Johnson family in the slow-moving cortege.

At the Capitol, Johnson's flag-draped coffin was borne through the Senate hallway to the Rotunda, then placed upon the Lincoln catafalque — just as the ceremonial march, to the muffled cadence of drums to receive public mourners

Cloud Cover Moves Into Midland Area

Occasional showers dampened coastal areas, deep South Texas and parts of West Texas today as clouds spread northward along the Lower Rio Grande and into the southern section of the state.

The warming trend that was predicted for Midland today failed to materialize as a cloud cover moved in from the south-east. The National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal now predicts the slight warming trend will appear Thursday.

and the high Thursday near 60 degrees.

Tuesday's high was 45 degrees and the overnight low this morning was 21. The noon temperature today at the airport was 40 degrees.

Early morning temperatures went as low as 18 degrees at Lubbock on the South Plains while it was still 52 at Brownsville and McAllen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Other points where it was freezing or colder included El Paso 21, San Angelo 25, Abilene, Amarillo and Dalhart 26, Childress and Waco 27, Longview 28, Mineral Wells and Wink 29, Dallas, Fort Worth, Lufkin and Texarkana 30 and Wichita Falls 32. ## Thieu Tells South Viets Peace Has No Guarantee

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu told the 17½ million South Vietnamese today that "there is no guarantee that the forthcoming peace will be an ideal and lasting peace."

He forecast a political struggle as difficult and dangerous as the past 18 years of war.

Thieu made a 45-minute radio address at the same time President Nixon was telling the American public of the agreement in Paris Tuesday.

The Viet Cong broadcast a pledge that it would "seriously

U.S. Envoys Freed By Haitian Captors

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Clinton E. Knox, seized at gunpoint Tuesday afternoon, was released today in exchange for the freedom of 12 prisoners and payment of $70,000.

The ambassador and Consul General Ward Christianson, who was held with him, were freed at the airport where their captors prepared to board a plane with the released prisoners to fly to Mexico.

Arrangements for freeing the two American diplomats were announced earlier by Haitian Information Secretary Fritz Cl-neaf. The release, however, took place earlier than originally foreseen.

Knox was seized at gunpoint late Tuesday. Kidnapers stopped his car on its way to the embassy residence.

During the evening Knox telephoned Christianson, who went to the residence on the outskirts of Port au Prince.

Cineaf said the 12 prisoners would be flown to Mexico aboard an Air Haiti C47 plane along with five kidnapers. They were to be accompanied by French Ambassador Bernard Dorin, the papal emissary Luigi Barbito, and Mexican Ambassador Armando Duran. The diplomats acted as intermediaries in negotiation with the kidnapers.

Cineaf said the kidnapers originally demanded the release of 31 prisoners and payment of $500,000 by the U.S. government. The $70,000 payment agreed upon was to be made by the Haitian government, he said.

able to give us a 100 per cent guarantee for peace."

"Only our military force," he continued, "only our people's real political strength, only our economic power, and only our determination of militant solidarity among the 17½ million nationalist people in the South will be the most effective and solid guarantee."

Thieu characterized the agreement as "so far only a cease-fire treaty, no more and no less... to see if any favorable conditions may be reached with the Communists in order to proceed to a genuine and lasting peace."

Says Reds Defeated
Thieu told the nation that though he could not assure peace will be lasting, "at least there is now an opportunity for war, bombs, mourning and suffering to come to an end."

The president asserted that the Communists had been defeated militarily and "compelled to end their war of aggression against the South. But from now on, a new phase is opened in the war resistance of the South Vietnamese people. The new phase is the phase of political struggle in order to prevent the Communists from defeating us by atheism and political craftiness."

Thieu claimed the cease-fire agreement met most of his major demands. But Premier Pham Dong of North Vietnam said the agreement was "a great victory for the Vietnamese people in their long and hard-fought, victorious struggle for freedom, independence and peace."

Post Office, State Agencies To Close Thursday

Some governmental offices will close Thursday after President Nixon designated Thursday as a national day of mourning for former President Lyndon B. Johnson.

The Midland Post Office will be closed but Postmaster D. E. Holster advises that mail will be posted in post office boxes and special delivery service will be provided.

Other Midland offices that will be closed include all nonessential state offices. City offices and other financial institutions also will remain open.

County Judge Barbara Culver said most county offices will be permitted to close at 3 p.m. Thursday for the observance, "so long as they can do so without undue inconvenience to the public."

City Council Okays Head Tax At Terminal On First Reading

By LARRY HOWELL
Midland's City Council Tuesday afternoon got by the first hurdle in installing a $1 per passenger head tax for persons boarding planes at Midland-Odessa Regional Air Terminal.

The council passed on first reading the proposed head tax. A second reading must be passed by the council before the head tax can be put into effect. It will be on the Feb. 13 council meeting agenda.

The tax, if put into effect, will bring the city revenue of approximately $140,000 annually. The council, which was unanimous in the first reading vote, said the money would be used solely for airport improvements awarded $97,079 in low bids for purchasing a fire truck and equipment for the city; and approved allocating $50,000 for street repairs.

Two Midland organizations appeared before the council Tuesday requesting money for operating expenses. The council decided in favor of both groups. The city will contribute $15,000 to the Permian Basin Community Centers for Mental Health and Mental Retardation to assist the newly formed Midland Senior Citizens Center. The council also approved a resolution which will provide for

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government said today the nation's trade deficit soared to a record $6.5 billion last year.

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas House today adopted unanimously a resolution asking school boards across the state to dismiss school Thursday in memory of former President Lyndon Johnson. They also passed a resolution trying to make LBJ's birthday a state holiday. But an official said holidays can be created only by statute.

AUSTIN (AP) — Senators voted 30-0 today to set up a 37-member commission to do the preliminary work on possibly revising Texas' constitution.

City Council Okays Head Tax At Terminal On First Reading

An airlines representative from Texas International Airlines told the council that it was not in favor of adoption of the head tax but would cooperate with the city in whatever action it decided to take.

In other action during the long meeting, the council approved spending $125,000 for improvements of Midland Air Park. Bob Boydston kills rats. (Adv.)

De Facto Cease-Fire

—Discussion of U.S. economic aid to all of Indochina, including North Vietnam, will come only after the signature of the agreement and after its implementation is well advanced," the negotiator said.

Kissinger also forecast an eventual "de facto cease-fire" in Cambodia, a neighboring country drawn into the long Indochina conflict.

The 12-page agreement, to be signed Saturday before the Vietnam cease-fire takes effect at 6 p.m. CST that day, does not call for the withdrawal of North Vietnamese troops from the South—but it does call for all foreign troops to leave Laos and Cambodia.

Cease-Fire In Laos

The presidential adviser said the U.S.-Hanoi agreement forbids the use of base areas in Laos and Cambodia to infiltrate Communist troops into South Vietnam.

He said it is "our firm expectation that within a short period of time there will be a formal cease-fire in Laos leading to the withdrawal of all foreign forces and ending use of the country as a corridor for infiltration.

The Cambodian situation is more complex, Kissinger said. But he added that he expects a "de facto cease-fire will come into being" in that country within a time frame "related to the execution of this agreement and another $6,000 million." Kissinger would not elaborate on the Laotian and Cambodian cease-fires he forecast.

Kissinger's negotiating counterpart said there were no secret peace terms. (See PEACE Page 7A)

Midlanders Return From Inauguration

Two Midlanders — one a Congressional Medal of Honor winner and the other a high school student — have returned after attending President Nixon's inauguration activities by invitation.

George H. O'Brien Jr., an independent oil operator, received his invitation by virtue of being a Congressional Medal of Honor winner while serving with the U.S. Marines in Korea.

Kelly Innerarity, a student at Midland High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Innerarity, got his invitation through the efforts of Robert Stripling, a Midland attorney who was on Nixon's staff in the late 1940s when Nixon was on the House Un-American Activities Committee.

It was the first time O'Brien had attended a presidential inauguration, even though he has received an invitation each time since he received the Medal of Honor in 1952.

He decided to go this year because "it had been a long time since I had seen a lot of my friends in the Congressional Medal of Honor Society."

O'Brien described as "all enjoyable" the activities which included a Defense Department luncheon addressed by Joint Chiefs of Staff chairman Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, and a banquet emceed by comedian Bob Hope.

He said there are about 190 living Medal of Honor winners and that "I was glad to see a lot of them again."

Kelly Innerarity, a student at Midland High School, said, "We had excellent seats for the inaugural ceremonies, about 15 rows from the podium. We were one row behind California Gov. and Mrs. Reagan.

The teen-ager said he didn't have a chance to meet President Nixon or Vice President Agnew, "but I did get to meet the President's brother, Frank Nixon, as he was leaving the symphony concert. I recognized him because I had recently read a book about him."

"If I didn't get to meet one Nixon, at least I got to meet another," he added.

Young Innerarity observed that the President "looked in excellent health and spirits." He said that the few parade disruptions and fruit-throwing took place about two blocks from where they were viewing the parade, "but the Secret Service took care of it so quickly we never really knew anything had happened until we saw it later in the papers."

Summing up, Kelly said, "There was one senator who mentioned there was a lot more praying than speaking during the ceremonies. Personally, I feel that when we get to the stage where we think the speeches are needed more than the prayers, then we're in lots of trouble."

I bought one of the Federal Housing Administration "repaired" houses which was supposed to be guaranteed. My air conditioner sprung a leak and water from it stained the new carpet and ruined the wall paint. My Realtor sent someone out to fix it, but they weren't doing it right and I told them so. Instead of finishing the job, they left. Now what do I do?—A. K.

Contact the real estate firm through which you purchased the house, and ask for an inspection of the unsatisfactory work. The Realtor should arrange for one of the FHA area management brokers to take a look, and, if your complaint is justified, see that the problem is solved. If your Realtor fails to follow through, ask him for the name of the area broker for your neighborhood and contact him yourself. The area maintenance brokers are paid by the FHA to make sure buyers of FHA-repaired houses are satisfied within terms of the warranty—which generally insures soundness of the structure, electrical wiring, plumbing and heating equipment.

Until recently, the warranty was for a six-month period. Latest sales of such homes carry one-year warranty.

My wife was stopped by a patrolman because of an expired motor vehicle inspection sticker on a car loaned by a dealer while our car was in the shop. We had moved here two months before from Louisiana and the ticket was given because of the Louisiana driver's license, which was not expired. She was fined and there was no mention of a traffic school. If an out of state vehicle inspection sticker (Louisiana) is excepted, how come it is so hard not to have a Texas driver's license? Texas has a reciprocal agreement with about, I think, 13 other states on this matter.—J. A.

Municipal Court Judge Bill Ahders said that if a person appears in court with a ticket for no valid Texas driver's license plus another violation—and is found guilty of both—no traffic school is offered on either violation because if he has no valid Texas driver's license, he has no right to drive in Texas.

He said he usually gives new Texas residents some time to get their driver's license but this is a courtesy. The law states that a person must have a Texas driver's license as soon as he becomes a resident.

He said he can not remember any case in which extenuating circumstances were offered by a new resident that he did not take this in to consideration when assessing punishment.

Texas has no reciprocal agreements with any states on driver's licenses, but does have with two states—Kansas and California—on car licenses. This state has reciprocal agreements with 31 states on vehicle inspection stickers and this is because the inspection laws in those states conform to Texas law.

Osorio Says Barnes Main Target

A M A R I L L O, (AP) — John Osorio, convicted Tuesday of conspiracy and embezzlement stemming from the Texas stock fraud scandal, says the government's main target was really former Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes.

The three criminal indictments brought against him in 1971 were obtained after, he refused to say he "bought off Barnes," Osorio claimed.

"If I'd bought off Barnes, I'd have told them so, but I didn't. They said they thought I was lying," the former state insurance commissioner and president of National Bankers Life Insurance Co., told the Associated Press in an exclusive interview.

A U.S. attorney in the Osorio case said he could not comment on Osorio's statement.

The jury found Osorio guilty after two hours deliberation on three counts of conspiracy and embezzlement contained in the first of four federal indictments.

He will be sentenced next month by U.S. District Court Judge Halbert O. Woodward. The maximum penalty could be 15 years in prison plus a $30,000 fine.

Osorio has said he will appeal the verdict.

Osorio said the government proposal, which he described as more of a "threat" than an offer, came at a meeting in Dallas after he had been indicted in October 1971.

"They gave me two weeks to make up my mind," he said.

Osorio said U.S. attorneys told him earlier that if he would cooperate and plead guilty to one count of the criminal indictment he would not be subject to further prosecution.

"I could have copped out at that time if I'd wanted to," he claimed.

"I told them I hadn't pleaded the Fifth (Amendment) and I didn't intend to. But there was nothing else I could tell them," he told them everything I knew."

Osorio said the government lawyers indicated that if he failed to "cooperate" they would vigorously pursue action against him.

"They told me: 'Look at your total picture. We've got a lot of cases against you,'" Osorio said.

It was after that meeting that they obtained three additional indictments, he said.

Following Tuesday's verdict, Osorio, who was once the law partner of former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in Austin, observed:

"It's a sad commentary—on American justice when the Justice Department makes an agreement with other alleged conspirators in order to get a conviction against myself or some other individuals."

OC Regents Reorganize Administrative Staff

O D E S S A — In a 24-hour executive session Tuesday night, Odessa College regents reorganized the OC administration to reflect Midland's recent vote to withdraw from the former Permian Junior College System.

In effect, the cancelling of the 1969 resolutions puts the Odessa College District on the same basis it was before Midland voted to join the OC district in 1969.

Dr. Jack Rodgers, OC president who became PJCS chancellor, now is "president" of Odessa College again.

Dr. Phillip Speegel, who came to Odessa to become Odessa president, now is OC's "academic dean."

And Malcolm Hensley, OC business manager who was PJCS vice chancellor for business affairs, now is OC's "business manager" again.

The regents also appointed a committee to determine whether additional Odessa College reorganization is needed.

Board chairman Dr. Bill Melton said following the lengthy closed-door session that the board, as expected, had voted to rescind 1969 resolutions which added four Midlanders to the OC board, established the Permian Junior College System partnership between Midland College and Odessa College and created a chancellor system central administration for the two colleges.

And during a 45-minute public meeting, the OC board unanimously approved a resolution "to wish Midland College well" and offer OC's cooperation in any way possible with MC.

Houston Sheriff Asks Budget Hike

H O U S T O N (AP) — Sheriff Jack Heard, who took office Jan. 1, asked county commissioners Tuesday for an $8 million budget, up about $1.2 million over former Sheriff C. V. Kern's 1972 budget.

The new sheriff asked major increases in the operation of county jails and rehabilitation center and in the highway patrol division.

Heard said the jails were filthy and a city inspector recommended most of the food supplies be condemned. He said more money was also needed for more guards to end the present system which allows strong prisoners to prey on the weaker ones.

Aviation Banquet Slated Thursday

William H. Alderman, executive vice president of Aviation Office of America, will speak at a dinner meeting of the Permian Basin Aviation Association Thursday.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m., with dinner begin at 7:30 p.m. at Johnny's Barbecue in the Village Shopping Center.

Alderman's topic will be on insurance for pilots and plane owners.

Betty Canary

Count On Woman

By BETTY CANARY
Newspaper Enterprise Association

I haven't much time for dipping into the occult, but I am glad research is going forward in the field.

area. We call it by different names, but whether it is woman's intuition or mother love, it works.

To my knowledge, none of the results of the telepathic experiments attempted by astronauts have been revealed. If nothing was accomplished in the experiments, I hope this isn't accepted as defeat. Perhaps what was really needed was a woman.

Have you ever heard a man say to his son, who is innocently eating a jelly sandwich, "I can tell by the way you're chewing — you flunked in geometry, didn't you?"

It doesn't take a trained observer to realize that women have the edge on men in this area.

Have you ever heard a father say to a daughter, who is bundled and ready for the ski tow, "I know you're wearing sister's favorite underwear and you promised you wouldn't go into her room again without asking!"

It's uncanny the way some women can read a child's mind, or can sometimes send thoughts winging their way into a school-room or an automobile.

Some children may think it's the conscience telling them not to cheat on a history test. But, it may be a mother who is peeling potatoes at home and thinking, "You'd better not crib today — last time you were lucky."

Some children might think it's discipline that made them move the car out of the No Parking zone before the tow truck arrived. It's possible their remembering was sparked by a mother thinking, "One more ticket and you're grounded."

There are too many such incidents to believe it's all a matter of happenstance. I can't relate more because my son is walking up the driveway and I have to talk to him. I just know he's quarreled with his best friend.

Dear Abby

Stubborn Mule Wants Four Carats

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 77 years old and Max is 80. We've been married for 60 years and have no complaints. Max has always been a flashy dresser. He wears a nice-sized diamond ring and a diamond stickpin. I have a four-carat diamond ring which I don't wear any more because I am afraid of being robbed or killed. Max said as long as I'm not wearing my diamond, he would like to make it into a ring for himself.

Abby, it's not that I don't want him to have the diamond, it's just that I am afraid of what might happen to him. Since I have refused Max the ring, he is barely speaking to me. He also quit making love to me every Sunday afternoon which he has done for 60 years. I suppose I could live without it, but I got so accustomed to it, I feel deprived.

Should I give him the ring so he will be his old sweet and loving self again?

NEW YORK POST READER

DEAR READER: If he doesn't realize that you don't want him to have the ring because you are concerned about his welfare, shame on him. (P.S. Someone should tell him if he doesn't use it, he'll lose it, and I don't mean the ring.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a 19-year-old male and in college. I have yet to discover the formula for finding a girl friend. I ask girls out to sports events, movies, walks, or anything, and have a refusal rate of about 99.7. The other 0.3 per cent agree so they won't hurt my feelings.

I know I am not very good-looking, and I have little money, but I see other guys who aren't good-looking with little money and they have girl friends, so it must be me.

My family life hasn't been too happy. My parents are divorced and there were five children and I lacked affection, which I am sure has something to do with my eagerness to make up for it now. I find extraordinary pleasure at any chance physical contact with another person, which is rare and only by accident.

Maybe it has something to do with my body chemistry, something in line with my inability to catch a fish. I've heard that a fish will not touch bait which has been prepared by a person with a certain characteristic body chemistry.

Any suggestions?
LONELY GUY

DEAR LONELY: Girls are not fish and you're no fisherman, so forget the body chemistry theory. Quit thinking about what you lack and start making small talk with any girl you dig who's handy. If she doesn't dig you, maybe she can dig up a friend who does. You sound like a bright young man. Now get going.

DEAR ABBY: This is an "open letter" to "Second Wife" who plaintively resents the children of "First Wife" helping themselves to all their deceased mother's possessions without considering that they were their father's possessions, too, and perhaps he had sentimental feelings about them.

Men are not the sentimental creatures "Second Wife" pictures her husband to be, and he probably couldn't care less about the things his wife collected during their marriage, especially once he has a new mate.

Besides, if "Second Wife" was a widow, she should have her own collection. If not, accumulating things for her new life with her new husband will be a pleasure.

Please, "Second Wife," don't pity your new husband because his children helped themselves to all their mother's treasures. He now has you, which should more than compensate for the loss.

I hope my happy marriage of 46 years lasts a lot longer, but just in case, I'm taping names on the backs of all my possessions indicating to whom they shall go, so my successor won't have to worry about it.

Further, if I were "Second Wife," I wouldn't care to have First Wife's possessions staring me in the face in my new home.

LUCKY

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Envelope stamped, self-addressed, dried out when wrapped in foil.

Wrap In Foil

Sandwiches in the lunchboxes you pack will be fresh and never close-stamped, self-addressed, dried out when wrapped in foil.

LCC Associates Sponsor Party

The Midland Chapter of the Lubbock Christian College Associates had a "kid party" recently in the Service Building of the North A & Tennessee Streets Church of Christ to acquaint junior and senior high youth with LCC.

Toys and balloons decorated the Service Building. Guests were dressed in children's clothes, and prizes were awarded to Janet Blevins and Jeff Darr for their costumes.

After dinner, "The Good Times," a singing group from LCC, sang and slides were shown of activities on the LCC campus. Representatives from the college were available to answer questions.

A "lights out" devotional closed the program. John McClellan, LCC student, gave a prayer and songs were sung.

Mrs. Henderson Presents Program

Mrs. Charles Henderson presented a program on "The Good Earth," during a recent meeting of Midland Garden Club in the Midland Woman's Club.

For the last two years, Mrs. Henderson has been studying the art of pottery making. She displayed numerous articles of clay which she had fashioned, and demonstrated how clay is formed into vessels.

Mrs. A. B. Parkhurst presented a capsule paper on plants as medicines.

Presiding was Mrs. C. E. Bissell, president. Final plans were formulated for the Arbor Day project, planting a tree at the Alamo Center YMCA. Mrs. L. H. Humphrey, Arbor Day chairman selected a fruitless mulberry for the planting.

The hostesses were Mrs. Parkhurst and Mrs. Linnie Davidson.

Mrs. Underwood Presents Program

Mrs. Erma Underwood presented a slide program on her recent trip to the Soviet Union, when the World Affairs Group of the American Association of University Women met recently in The First National Bank.

Mrs. Underwood showed scenes in Samarkand, Alma Ata, Tashkent, Yerevan, Irkutsk, Bokara, Baku, Kiev, Moscow and Leningrad.

Guests were Mrs. J. H. Radford Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Grady Davis, Mrs. Kenneth Sawyer, Mrs. W. C. Putnam, William H. Maitland and Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Carter.

The hostesses were Mrs. Jack Sigmon, Mrs. Eugene Hall and Mrs. Paul H. Laverty.

Girl Scout Sale Of Cookies Set

The 1973 Girl Scout Cookie Sale, which will begin Saturday in Midland, has taken on a new look.

The first part of the "new look" is the pre-order. This year persons can order exactly the type and number of boxes of cookies they wish and be assured of receiving them. The girls will take orders and between March 16-23 family-size boxes of cookies will be delivered.

Again this year the troops have designed patches for the cookie sale. The winning design will be worn by girls who sell at least 40 boxes of cookies.

The same five varieties of cookies — peanut butter, assorted sandwich, butter-flavored, shorties, mint and chocolate chip — will be sold.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Book Mark On Chest Is Hard To Remove

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — A plastic notebook was put on top of my fruitwood chest of drawers and left in the same spot for several weeks. When the book was finally moved, I discovered it had stuck to the top of the chest and the finish softened and welled. What can I do to remove these welts from the top and restore it to its original finish and beauty? — M. S. H.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with those birdcage drain stoppers for lavatories. They do an excellent job of trapping hair but what a mess to try to remove it. If only the manufacturers would make these removable for cleaning and then put an opening at the bottom of the goose neck under the sink, with rubber gaskets to prevent leaking, so the ordinary housewife could clean them herself. — JUST WISHING

DEAR POLLY — I am a former antique dealer and want to tell Gladys that I have removed many stuck stoppers from bottles. She said she had unsuccessfully used olive oil around the lip. I pour any kind of cooking oil into a confiner large enough to rest the stopper and part of the bottle neck in it. Place the bottle upside down so the oil comes up over the stopper and the neck part that holds it and allow it to stay in the oil for at least 12 hours. If the stopper is still not released return to the oil and let it stay longer. I find 12 hours is usually long enough to do the trick. She probably did not leave hers in long enough. — ISABEL

DEAR POLLY — I hope I have help for Gladys who has the stopper stuck in a wine bottle. We nurses sometimes have our hypodermic syringes stick like that and we were told to soak the syringes in glycerine. It does take several hours for them to come apart. — ELSIE

LBJ — 'Leader Of Men'

Lyndon Baines Johnson, the 36th President of the United States, is dead at age 64, leaving the nation without a living ex-president for the first time since 1933.

The nation and the free world mourn the death of a great American and a great Texan... a man who had spent most of his adult life in the service of his country.

He was a controversial figure in many respects, but at the same time he was one of the most admired and most highly respected men in government.

On leaving the White House, Lyndon Johnson, with memories of both triumph and tragedy, with hopes and with disappointment, said of history's verdict, "I believe that at least it will be said that we tried."

Johnson told the Congress in 1965, "I want to be the President who educated young children to the wonders of the world. I want to be the President who helped feed the hungry... who protected the right of every citizen to vote in every election... who helped to end hatred among the people of all races... who helped to end war..."

Lyndon Johnson did his best to bring about a just and honorable peace in Vietnam.

It is coincidental that his death came on the eve of a cease-fire agreement in Vietnam.

Many persons who disagreed with Johnson in much of his "Great Society" program were among the strongest supporters of his Vietnam policy.

Johnson was president during the nation's stormiest domestic period since the War Between the States. One of his major goals was to reunite the nation, making it greater than ever before.

Many Americans perhaps have forgotten some of the "Great Society" hopes which he put into law, such as: Medicare; larger Social Security payments; record funds for education and housing; creation of Departments of Transportation, Housing, and Urban Development; appointment of the first black to the cabinet; new auto safety standards; a voting rights act; a multi-billion dollar attack against poverty and pollution, and others.

Yet, somehow, many of the liberal elements of the North and East never recognized Johnson on his achievements in this regard.

President Nixon eulogized former President Lyndon Johnson as a "dynamic leader, a unique personality and a man of ability and courage."

And, as George Bush, chairman-elect of the Republican National Committee, said, "He was a leader of men."

'Now Just One More Little Commitment...'

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: GOP reportedly used government grants as bait for black lawyers.

WASHINGTON — The FBI is investigating a report that President Nixon's proposed new anti-poverty chief, Howard Phillips, wanted to offer government grants to black lawyers as an inducement for them to become Republicans.

The charge was leveled by a top official who worked closely with Phillips in the Office of Economic Opportunity in 1971. We have spoken at length with the official who told us, in return for our promise to withhold his identity, what he had reported to the FBI.

"I can recall quite clearly," he said, "Phillips telling us that we ought to find some way of getting OEO money into the hands of some black attorneys and show them the advantage of turning Republican."

The official said he had given the details to FBI agent Al Douglas and was prepared, if it should come to court proceedings, "to step forward and testify." My associate Mike Kiernan reached Douglas who confirmed that the FBI is investigating the charge.

The FBI has learned that Phillips held a private meeting with half a dozen black attorneys in Berkeley, Calif., in the summer of 1971. This coincides with the time that Phillips allegedly urged granting government funds to black attorneys. It coincides, too, with a White House offer of an extra $2.5 million to California to experiment with different methods of providing legal aid to the poor.

The purpose of Phillips' meeting with the black lawyers, ostensibly, was to discuss judicial care. This is a proposal to provide legal assistance to the poor through local bar associations or non-profit corporations. Critics claim judicial care would wind up benefiting lawyers more than poor people.

The Berkeley meeting was held, coincidentally, in the offices of Tom Berkeley, a prosperous black attorney in the Bay Area. State documents show he had been raking in huge fees as a state consultant to OEO. He admits receiving $10,000 in consultant fees for the months of June, July and August, 1971.

He assembled five prominent black lawyers to hear Phillips' pitch. One lawyer who attended the meeting recalls: "The thrust of the meeting was political. Phillips led Berkeley do most of the talking, and he did quite a selling job on us. Don't get me wrong. No one said anything about pocketing huge fees. But I came away thinking these people were more interested in promoting their own law practices than in helping the poor."

The attorney was so upset that he went immediately to the Charles Houston Law Club. "He told us what he had heard at the meeting," recalls Don McCullum, the city attorney in Berkeley. "The gist of it was: If we supported private judicial care, we could look forward to enjoying considerable financial benefits. Most of us reacted negatively."

We also have obtained notes taken at a later meeting with OEO executives in Washington. Significantly, one entry quotes out in the cold. The loyal Butler, not one to embarrass his party, denies the incident occurred. He admits only that he was in serious contention for the SEC chairmanship.

Osage orange, hickory and beech weigh up to 56 pounds per cubic foot of seasoned wood while willow and poplar weigh only about 20 pounds per cubic foot of seasoned wood.

BRASS RING — Today the brass ring, good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round, goes to National Airlines, which quietly has been flying massive relief shipments to the victims of the Nicaragua earthquake. The airline has set up a national hotline, called Dial Info, which provides up-to-the-minute reports on which supplies are most urgently needed.

Through a spokesman, Phillips denied he has ever made any statement about using OEO funds to encourage blacks to become Republicans. He acknowledged going to Berkeley, Calif., for what he described as a "routine" meeting. Footnote: Charles Lloyd, who attended the meeting in California, turned up in Washington last summer as a "policy advisor" to Phillips. Lloyd worked four months, collected $11,000 and returned to his law practice. In response to our inquiries, he asked us to call Tom Berkeley, who shouted to us at great length over the long-distance phone. "I publish six newspapers. I own property. I run the oldest, biggest integrated law firm in the state," he shouted. "I don't need their money."

Washington Whirl LOYALTY TEST? — Sources in a position to know the facts say Sam Butler, a prominent New York securities lawyer, had the chairmanship of the Securities and Exchange Commission all sewed up. He had impeccable Republican credentials and an excellent background in the securities field. He was escorted over to the White House where presidential aide John Ehrlichman questioned him about his views. Apparently, Butler didn't agree with all the President's war policies. Our sources say Butler suddenly was held three trumps—the second heart isn't ruffed; declarer cashes the third heart; ruffs the fourth one and makes his slam. This play also fails but the expert has a better line that will work. He wins the club in his hand and cashes the ace of trumps to make sure trumps won't break 5-0.

Then he leads a diamond to dummy's ace; ruffs a diamond; leads a spade to dummy's jack; both opponents follow so trumps are going to break 3-2.

He ruffs a second diamond; enters dummy with the king of hearts; ruffs another diamond to set up dummy's last one; enters dummy with the king of clubs; draws the last trump with dummy's queen while discarding one heart; discards another heart on the fifth diamond and makes the last two tricks with the ace and queen of hearts.

BRUCE BLOSSAT— Nixon Now Will Be His Own Political Adviser

WASHINGTON (NEA)—President Nixon, for awhile at least, is evidently going to try to be his own political man, without any ranking on-scene adviser. The situation is unique in modern presidential history.

White House officials of course have told us they are dismantling the inside political setup used to help elect the President. Even if it were not so, no one on that special staff really qualifies as a well-grounded national political tactician.

Nor do others, like top adviser H. R. (Bob) Haldeman, fit that role. He may execute political judgments, but that is something else.

On several counts, it could be argued that Mr. Nixon's lack of a close-hand political strategist doesn't matter.

First off, he's not running again. Secondly, his circumstance is not wholly new to him. In critical phases of his 1972 campaign, he was making his own key political decisions. Third, he's a pretty good reader of the public mood, so he knows the country is bored silly with politics and wouldn't want to hear about any political maneuvering right now, anyway.

These lines of argument are, however, defective. The Republican party must try to live on after the President leaves. It must choose a successor nominee in 1976, and in 1974, as a vital preliminary, must try to retain important governorships in Massachusetts, New York, Michigan and California — and seek to recapture Ohio and Pennsylvania. (GOP Gov. William Cahill's chair in populous New Jersey is at stake this year.)

Watching the President's recent party-building efforts with organized labor, one might contend he isn't doing badly for starters, that he is not ignoring the question of the party legacy he will leave.

It's a little early to claim too much for that effort. And, besides, a party trying to prepare for its next tests needs a lot of top-level guidance, almost daily, on grubby but significant political matters. When it has a president in office, the White House is the inescapable power focus, the natural center for inquiry.

The President simply doesn't have time to fill that need consistently. Attention to political problems is bound to be erratic. In a vacuum, decisions either won't get made, or they may be made inadequately at lesser levels.

Furthermore, Mr. Nixon's personal performance isn't altogether reassuring. With some limited exceptions, he relied heavily in 1972 on political mechanisms designed to serve his re-election needs rather than help his party and other office-seekers. The whole White House operation was geared for narrow purpose.

If the presidential election results are the gauge, it worked — for him. But a lot of people in the party weren't pleased.

BRITAIN STARTING FIXED PRICE MEALS

LONDON (AP) — Many leading British hotels and restaurants are to provide fixed-price all inclusive meals under the sign "Visitors' Menu Served." The scheme, sponsored by the British Travel Assn. and the English Tourist Board, will come into operation early this year. The menu will show a three-course meal including coffee and charges.

Dear Editor: I see where a Mr. R. E. Wagner of Toledo got a paycheck for $0.00 the other day because the deducts took the who-o-ole thing.

The taxers obviously have been working toward this type of balanced economy for some time, but there is no guarantee that they will stop when they reach it for everybody.

At the rate we have been going, it shouldn't be long until laborers putting in a hard week's work will be getting bills for the amount their pay lacks covering their tax deductions for that week.

PERSONAL FINANCE— Read Between The Lines When Buying Insurance

By CARLTON SMITH (Second of Three Related Articles)

NEW YORK (NEA) — There was once a large insurance company, Century Life, that enjoyed excellent health and a good reputation. For 19 consecutive years it drew a "recommended" in the bible of the industry, "Best's Reports."

A company's financial condition is thoroughly scrutinized by Best's. The annual reports rate each company on various aspects of its operation — such things as the quality of its mortgage portfolio, for example. For policyholders, to whom such things may be inscrutable-mysteries, it offers some such judgment as:

"The results achieved by the company have been most favorable... Upon the foregoing analysis... we recommend the company."

Companies that enjoy good ratings customarily buy reprints, which salesmen can display to prospects as evidence of the company's soundness. Salesmen for Century Life had been able to flourish such reports from 1956 through 1968 — and possibly were still impressing prospects with reprints of the 1968 recommendation up to the day on which Century Life suddenly folded in 1969.

A reflection on the reporting of that "bible" of the industry, Best's? No, not at all. Joseph M. Belth, professor of insurance at Indiana University, explains it in his forthcoming "Life Insurance, a Consumer's Handbook."

You have to understand, to begin with, that Best's will never say it doesn't recommend a company. There's a sort of code that you have to know how to read. The higher rating given is "most favorable." Below that (though it might sound like a top rating to you) is "very favorable." And below that there is nothing... just silence.

So, as Belth relates, when Best's reported on the company in 1969, but did not recommend it, "although the recommendation had been withdrawn, it was impossible for a reader of the 1969 edition alone to know of either the withdrawal, or whatever it was that caused it." There were "certain peculiarities in the company's financial statements" for year-end 1968.

Although he allows that the tale is an unusual one in the insurance industry, Belth offers it as an illustration of how carefully the buyer of life insurance has to select his company — and how mighty difficult it's made

Cosby Unhappy With Black Films

By DICK KLEINER
HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Black films keep pouring out of the film factories but one of the top black entertainers of the moment isn't happy with them. "The big movie companies," says Bill Cosby, "won't put up money for a good black film. They've found a new gold mine. They require that the black films they make have violence, blood, dope and tough language. My resentment is that I don't see any other kind of black film. Any other types of black characters."

"universal feelings" into it. Not every He doesn't think they do to go to Massachusetts for work. hour situation comedy didn't have a longer life. They have a 128-acre farm "Somebody didn't like it," he says, "because the people were too real, too close to him. So it was dropped. What I'd hoped to do was develop it into a half-hour cross-between Playhouse 90, Naked City and the Readers' Digest." But it was dropped. And now there is the variety show. How does he like it? "CBS wanted me to do a va-riety show," he says, with a tery disappointed that his half-shrug. "It's O.K. with me."

He also believes they make a few points along the way. They are anti-drug, even though an addict or pusher may be the protagonist in many of the films. "I see a negative drug addiction point in every black film I've seen," Cosby says. "The drug dealer is the villain." Much white criticism has been leveled at black films, on the grounds that whites are always the heroes and the object of the hero's wrath. "The whites these films are after," Cosby says, "are the cop who takes advantage of them and the big drug dealer. Those are the same enemies a lot of whites have. The films may look like they are a put down of all whites and all police, but that is ridiculous."

He made a movie last year — "Man and Boy" — and he thought that might have been it. As he says, he put all his

He has his master's degree in education, from the University of Massachusetts, and the next step is his doctorate. His work for his M.A. was on "Educational Film Making," and that led to his Saturday morning cartoon series on Fat Albert and the other Cosby kid characters. "For my doctorate," he says, "I'm going to take a step up, combine more difficult things, but these will still be designed to aid teachers. I'll start this winter in Amherst with the first research and writing." After he becomes William Cosby, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., what then? "I'll make more films, lecture and I might join a faculty," he says. It's an old dream, but it's still there. "Writes Book" He's also written a book, for children at the seventh grade level. He says he put in "all the things he felt were significant to tell a kid who thinks older people have it made." It's probably the first of several because that's something else he dreams of doing. "As soon as I get the show out of my system," he says, "I'll go home to Massachusetts and probably do another book." The Cosbys — Bill, Camille and their three children — get out of California often and as quickly as they can. Bill most prefers his home, near Springfield, Mass., to southern California. He says it's mostly because he's an Easterner and enjoys a climate with seasonal changes and "delightfully fresh air." They've even been known

MUSICAL PROGRAM TONIGHT — Making final plans for tonight's chamber music recital in the Turner Memorial Gallery of Museum of the Southwest are C. Richard Harris, left, and Mrs. Richard Hughston, representatives of the sponsoring organizations, Las Manos ("The Hands"), museum auxiliary service organization, and the Midland Symphony and Chorus Association. The event will offer the public an evening of music by the Masoret Trio along with the opportunity to view the museum's current display of paintings by the renowned Wyeth family of American artists. The program, scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m., will be open to the public. Harris is a board member of Las Manos, and Mrs. Hughston is a member of the board of the symphony and chorus association.

Sideburns Start Young Actor On Success Road

By ERNESTINE GUGLIEIMO
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Bruce Dern began working frequently in grade B Hollywood films. His exposure came through the peepholes of underground films. Not artsy underground, but "head" films such as "The Trip," "The Wild Angels" and "Bloody Mama." The films were murder-madness.

So Bruce Dern quit school, studied acting, then went to New York City and Broadway. But like other struggling young actors, Bruce Dern had a friend — his great-uncle, a famous poet, had a play about to open on Broadway. "Dear Uncle Archie," began the letter. "I am 100 per cent dedicated to acting." He was asking to read for a bit part in "J.B." His great-uncle, Archibald MacLeish, turned him down. And Bruce Dern realized that his influential family wasn't going to pull any weight getting him started. In fact, Dern's prominent family either practiced polite non-assistance or voiced downright disapproval. His grandfather was secretary of war under Roosevelt. His father was law partner of Adlai Stevenson. And his mother's people are the MacLeishes.

The Midland Reporter-Telegram AMUSEMENTS

Cronkite Recalls Johnson Interview

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson was pale, smoking heavily again and didn't appear in good health when interviewed last Jan. 12 by CBS' Walter Cronkite. Ten days later, Johnson was dead, the victim of a heart attack. Yet, his conversation during the interview was lively and his movements around the LBJ ranch at that time weren't those of a dying man, Cronkite recalled Tuesday. Nor, Cronkite said, did Johnson express any premonition of death. "I've heard that story from others who've been down there, but I didn't hear him say anything like that while I was there," the newsman said. "In fact, it was something of the opposite. He talked about future plans, not about things of great import, but things like selling cattle and land purchases and sales."

Y Will Conduct Aerobics Clinic

The Midland Central YMCA Physical Department will host an Aerobics Clinic Friday and Saturday. Russell A. Harris, director of the Aerobics Activity Center at Dr. Kenneth Cooper's Institute for Aerobics Research in Dallas, will conduct the clinic. Aerobics refers to exercises that stimulate heart and lung activity for a specific period of time. The clinic will open Friday with a lecture and slide presentation from 7-9 p.m. From 9-11:30 a.m. Saturday, a session in the Y gymnasium will include an aerobics film, practical participation in an exercise program and a fitness testing. The clinic is open to the public at no charge. There are many aerobic exercises, such as jogging, running, swimming or cycling, but the basic objective is to condition the body to process a maximum amount of oxygen in a given period of time, the sponsors explain. The founder of the aerobics program, Dr. Kenneth Cooper, has written three books on the subject. Harris, who will be here for the clinic, has been a YMCA physical and athletic club director and was voted the 1971 Man of the Year-Outstanding YMCA Physical Director Award for the Great Lakes Region. He has been director of Dr. Cooper's activity center for more than a year and has been instrumental in the research and writing of the testing chapter in the new YMCA National Fitness Manual, soon to be published.

WT Collie Club Show Set Friday

The West Texas Collie Club will hold its 11th annual specialty show from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday in the Midland County Exhibit Building.

Judging the record entry of 74 collies, of both the rough and smooth varieties, will be Mrs. Ernest M. Forister of Bixby, Okla. The entry includes collies from several states of the West, Southwest and Midwest, in addition to a number of locally owned dogs, according to the show secretary, Mrs. Thalia Roby.

The show, which will be held in conjunction with the specialty show of the West Texas Shetland Sheepdog Club, is open to the public. Admission is free.

Permission has been granted by The American Kennel Club for the holding of this show under American Kennel Club rules and regulations. Winners may earn up to four points toward AKC championship rating.

Midland License Plates Received

The county tax office has received 53,438 new license plates and has begun processing cards for the 1973 tags which will be mailed out.

To date, 55,260 1972 plates have been sold, according to Mrs. Frances Shuffield, chief deputy in the tax office.

Mrs. Shuffield said a five percent increase in license plate sales is expected during 1973. She said more 1972 plates would be sold before the April 1 deadline for displaying 1973 tags.

Most persons who owned vehicles in 1972 have received three-part cards through the mail. All three parts must be presented when a person buys his license, Mrs. Shuffield said. The tags may be bought in two ways: over the counter in the tax office or by mail.

Anyone who would rather pay an extra dollar and not have to stand in line to get his plates may mail the three-part card to the tax office by Feb. 28.

The cost of the tags is listed on the cards.

A $1 fee must accompany the amount of the plates for each set of plates ordered, Mrs. Shuffield said.

Tickets for the food, fellowship and foolishness will be available at the door.

Bar Association To Hear Jeffers

School Board Adopts Courses For Quarter System

By CHARLES REINKEN
The trustees of the Midland Independent School System officially adopted Tuesday the set of course offerings and credits to be followed under the new "quarter" system, "for implementation at such time as the quarter system is adopted by the state legislature."

The legislature has not adopted the new system, but adoption is expected for the 1973-74 school year.

The new system will leave local school boards the option of conducting four 12-week quarters instead of three to better utilize overburdened physical plants in some heavily populated areas. However, most school districts expected to adopt the three-quarter system, as the MISD trustees did several weeks ago.

The board also approved a request from Hartley Sappington of the Mental Health and Mental Retardation Center for the use of the teacher's lounge and library at the closed Bunche Elementary School building. He said the space would be used for the center's partial hospitalization (CARE) program, to be utilized to aid those who have some need of the center's services and who "need special help in adjusting to the community." The trustees agreed to rent the space to the MH-MR for $100 per month to cover utilities and maintenance, with the understanding that the MISD could reclaim the space should future growth in student enrollment warrant the reopening of Bunche.

The board also received notice during the meeting that a suit has been filed in 142nd District Court against the MISD in the amount of $15,000 by Mrs. Toby Kerch. The suit says a water balloon, allegedly thrown from a MISD school bus on March 22, 1972, damaged her car and "seriously injured" Mrs. Kerch. The suit charges the school district with negligence for failing to take sufficient precautions to prevent the incident.

The suit will ask $15,000 in damages, as well as "other expenses," the exact amount of which will not be determined until the suit comes before the court.

Late in the meeting, the board heard a report from John Hicks, director of planetarium studies, on the use being made of the planetarium in its initial year of use in the instruction program. The report detailed the types of courses available to MISD students and observed that, on the average, the use being made of the facility falls close to estimates projected by the MISD before the unit was put into service last fall.

Also during the meeting, Mrs. John Nobles Jr. announced the second annual MHS-LHS Invitational Golf Tournament will be conducted Feb. 2-3 at Hogan Park and Ranchland Hills Country Club, with 11 a.m. beginning tee-off times. She indicated that entries are anticipated from about 20 West Texas and South Plains schools.

Other routine action included personnel appointments and resignations, acceptance of a cafeteria financial statement, and the delay of action on purchasing a new maintenance tractor pending the obtaining of additional bids.

State school officials said Tuesday Texas public schools may close Thursday in observance of the death of former President Lyndon B. Johnson, not to close schools in the MISD.

Board President Gilbert C. Tompson said, "We feel we would be paying greater respect to President Johnson by asking the children to be in school and have formal programs honoring him in the school buildings. We are asking each school to have a program honoring the late President."

Communists Double Attacks In South

SAIGON (AP) — Communist attacks in South Vietnam doubled overnight just before the announcement of the cease-fire agreement. South Vietnamese claimed the Communists were trying for last-minute gains before the truce takes effect this weekend.

There was widely scattered ground fighting, and U.S. and South Vietnamese planes were operating as usual. Commu-niques reported 147 North Vietnamese and 12 South Vietnamese killed.

U.S. sources indicated that American bombing strikes would begin tapering off Thursday but that some strikes probably would be flown until just before the start of the cease-fire at 8 a.m. Sunday, Saigon time, or 6 p.m. CST Saturday.

The sources said it appeared likely that U.S. advisers still in the field with South Vietnamese troops and assigned to provincial and district teams would begin pulling out in the next few days.

At the daily briefing for correspondents, a spokesman for the U.S. Command turned aside questions on whether stand-down orders had gone out to American airmen and ground advisers.

"There has been no significant change in U.S. air operations, and the U.S. Command is continuing its function," said Maj. Jere K. Forbus.

The command reported 348 fighter-bomber strikes, more than half of them in the northern provinces, and 87 B52 strikes.

Lowé Appears Before Water Control Unit

John Lowé, director of utilities for the City of Midland, was in Austin Tuesday to appear before the Texas Water Quality Board to give a progress report on measures being taken in Midland to control waste discharges.

The board requested that a representative from each Texas city with a population in excess of 50,000 appear and detail what is being done to reduce the amount of "unregulated waste discharges."

In addition to Lowé, utility directors from Fort Worth and Austin made appearances Tuesday.

Lowé told the board that Midland began a population abatement program in May of last year and that surveys of the city's waste discharges have been completed and made a part of city records.

The city council is expected to discuss a proposed ordinance during one of its February meetings which will provide Lowé's department with additional controls over the amount and type of industrial discharges in the Midland area.

Woman Reports She Was Choked

A two-week Midland resident and receptionist at Olin Mills Studios in Dellwood Plaza was choked this morning by a man she told police "just walked into the studio."

Vickie Lynn Patton, 20, of 3318 W. Ohio St., was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital and was released.

The young woman told police she opened the studio about 9 a.m. and was there alone a short time later when a man walked in and began choking her. He gave no reason, police said.

She fainted and the man left, Capt. Jim Maynard said.

The attacker was described as a Mexican male, probably in his 30s, stocky, average height and wearing an orange hat or cap.

Pentagon Official Replies To Charge

DALLAS (AP) — William P. Clements Jr., newly confirmed as No. 2 man at the Pentagon, filed papers Tuesday answering a $15 million slander suit brought against him by a former Argentine business partner.

Antonio A. Diaz of Buenos Aires, who helped arrange a huge oil drilling contract for Sedco Inc. of which Clements is board chairman, named both Clements and the company as defendants in a suit filed in Dallas federal court last month.

Diaz alleged Clements made "grossly defamatory" statements about him in a news conference held at Sedco's Dallas headquarters Dec. 19.

Clements called the conference to answer reports that his company might have hidden profits amounting to millions that affected commissions due to Diaz and two Americans who helped set up the drilling deal.

New Mexico Bank Prexy Faces Suit For Sharpstown

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — The president of a New Mexico bank faces a nearly $19 million suit in connection with the Sharpstown, Tex., bank that last year was the center of a Texas fraud scandal.

The suit was filed in District Court here this month against Dallas Johnson, a former Sharpstown bank executive and currently president of the Farmers & Merchants Bank in Las Cruces.

Filed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., receiver for the Texas bank, the suit contends that Johnson, while a Sharpstown executive, failed "to discontinue that bank's liberal and hazardous loan policies."

While saying that some of the statements quoted in the Diaz petition were made, the defendants denied they were false or slanderous. One error was admitted "concerning a technicality of parties which was of no consequence so far as Mr. Diaz is concerned and certainly not libelous, slanderous or defamatory."

They claimed all the statements made were fair comment on a matter of public concern, that they were made without malice, with belief in their truth and that Diaz had suffered no damage. The reply further stated that "any and all" the statements complained of were "the result of provocation."

Suspects Remain In Midland Jail

James Earl Scott of Augusta, Ga., and Howard Doylose Mangum of Waco remained in city jail this morning as two more charges from Ballinger and Bellmead arrived at Midland police headquarters.

The men were arrested here Monday afternoon and felony theft charges were filed against them. Police also received word that they are wanted in Coleman for a burglary there.

Justice of the Peace John Biggs has set $7,000 bonds in the local complaint and $5,000 bonds for the Coleman complaint.

No bonds had been set by late this morning in armed robbery complaints filed in Bellmead, a Waco suburb, or the burglary complaints filed in Ballinger.

The men were arrested in a car stolen in Augusta, Ga., and bearing Alabama license plates. The local charge was filed in connection with the theft of a pay telephone which was reported stolen from a local laundromat and found lying near where the car was parked when the men were arrested, officials said.

Andrews Jail Up To Par

ANDREWS — A State Health Department survey claims there are only six county jails in Texas which are up to par, from a health and sanitation standpoint.

Andrews County has one of them, the study said.

Others are in Lynn, Oldham, Smith, Taylor and Wichita counties, the recently published report said.

Andrews County Sheriff J. A. "Bud" Gregory and jailer G. A. Ragsdale said the jail — which has a shine which would make any housewife proud — stays cleaner when it's occupied than it does when it's not.

Sheriff Gregory credits Ragsdale for the clean confines, and explains:

"When you're in jail we think you ought to have something to do, so we let you clean the place."

In addition to the prisoners' polishing, the jail is washed down periodically with strong industrial-type cleaners to combat germs and bacteria which, left untended, tend to make most jails literally stink.

One inmate even painted the whole jail — inside only, mind you — one time. He said it helped make time pass faster.

In order to bring the standards of other jails up to the five that passed State Health Department muster, the Texas Legislative Council urged the creation of a commission on county jail standards, terming present laws on the subject "totally unrealistic and meaningless."

Supporters, Critics Hail Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters and critics alike of U.S. Indochina policies have hailed the announcement of a Vietnam peace pact, but many predict the struggle for South Vietnam will go on.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, a longtime war-critic, said the agreement announced Tuesday night by President Nixon "is no more than a truce, and it may last no longer than the earlier truce in 1954 when the French withdrew."

Sens. Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, and William Proxmire, D-Wis., said the terms appear to have been available last October, before the Paris peace talks broke off and U.S. bombing of North Vietnam resumed.

"The key question," added Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, "is can this peace last? Can it lead to a healing in South Vietnam?" He said it would depend mainly on the will of the nations involved.

And Rep. Bella Abzug, D-N.Y., asked why Nixon referred only to Vietnam. "But what of Laos, Cambodia, Thailand and the high seas?" She said Congress should ensure "there be no continued presence in Indochina, no renewal of bombing, no further military aid to the Thieu regime."

Republicans who have stood face of opposition from an enemy abroad but also in the face of unprecedented criticism at home," said Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

"This is a day for which each of us should be thankful to the Lord God," said Senate GOP Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

From the GOP critics came a more cautious praise.

"I think and hope it will last for a long time," said Sen. George Aiken of Vermont, senior Republican.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., cosponsor of several Senate moves to cut off war funds, said he hopes "this settlement will not just complete the de-Americanization of the war but yield a permanent peace for all the people of Indochina. I feel this is more a time for meditation than for celebration."

Congressional Democratic leaders who have stood with Nixon also applauded.

Lee Rips MHS JV By 66-52

Midland Lee's Junior Varsity pitched a virtual fourth period shutout against Midland's JVs to score a 66-52 victory before a packed house at MHS gym Tuesday night.

Ronnie Farish led Lee with 15 points while Sammy Cox scored 12, Willard Floyd 11 and Milton Jones 10 in the rout that saw Coach Jack Stephenson's young Rebels outscore Midland by a hard-to-believe 23-2 in the final period.

Midland actually took a 50-43 lead into the final period, when it became every man for himself with the result, no one wound up scoring.

The win was Lee's 14th against nine defeats and pulled the Rebels into a tie with Midland in the first-half JV standings at 5-2. The defeat was the Bulldogs' sixth in 22 games.

Lee jumped in front 8-0 and 11-2 early in the game, but then the Bulldogs stormed back for a 14-11 lead as postmen Willie McCoy and Michael Cobb accounted for 12 of the points. The first period ended 20-20 and it was 37-35 Lee at half.

Midland outscored Lee, 15-6, in the third period, but then was panicked by the Rebel press. Cox got Lee started on the way back with a two pointer and then Farish hit a pair and Floyd another to make it 51-50. Baskets by John Oschner and Farish and two free throws by Floyd took the Rebels out to reach.

Rebels Reel Off 22nd Straight Victory

By TED BATTLES

When the capacity crowd went home to gargle hoarse throats there weren't any lingering skeptics left after Midland Lee defeated two-time defending champion Midland High, 58-55, in the public steam bath at MHS gym Tuesday night.

A bellowing, screeching full house that rocked storied old MHS gym with its vocal vibrations for three and a half ear-ringing hours watched as the Rebels took their 22nd straight basketball victory by beating the Bulldogs on their own floor.

More significant than the winning streak that accompanied Lee's 24th win against an almost-forgotten loss was the title that came with it.

Lee nailed down the District 5-4A first-half championship in 7-0 fashion. The Rebels thereby assured themselves a spot in any post-season district playoff, if one is necessary, and the Rebels can take it all by winning or tying the second half title.

Defeat was a crushing disappointment for the Purple Pack, which squandered repeated opportunities to pull into a tie during the frantic last period, as the Bulldogs finished 5-2.

At least, the Bulldogs can console themselves with the fact that they won't be staring at a two-game deficit in the standings when they host Odessa Permian in the second-half opener Friday night. All teams start anew with 0-0 records.

Going into Tuesday's classic crosstown battle, there remained some unconvinced cynics, but Lee's win over the 20-3 Bulldogs confirmed that these Rebels are for real.

Lee, outscored by four baskets from the field, used its 80 per cent accuracy from the free throw line to win, sinking 16 of 20 attempts while the Bulldogs showed more accuracy from the field than the line, converting a sad five of 12. Four times Midland missed its first of a one-and-one offering.

Stop Taylor

Just as important was the defensive sandwich it made of 6-10 Ronald Taylor, the big guy they had to stop to win. Six-six Steve Cromwell and 6-3 Melvin Jackson, spelled intermittently by 6-6 Harry Korthauer, effectively screened him off from the feed-in pass and consequently the easy basket.

Six-two Don Bradley snaked through Midland's zone defense often enough to keep Lee in front most of the way and steal off with high point honors, 21 on seven of 14 from the field and seven-of-seven from the line.

While Taylor was choked off with 12, half his normal point average, 6-3 Kenneth Ray and 6-2 Mike Tillman led Midland with 18 and 16 points, respectively.

It wasn't easy, although it started out like it might be.

Lee booted to an 8-0 lead and led 14-3 with 2:51 left of the first period. However, the Bulldogs rallied primarily on the deadly second period accuracy of Ray to retire with a 33-33 tie at half.

It was still tight in the early moments of the third quarter with the score 37-41. Then Cromwell took a Jackson pass for two and Bradley put in three baskets with a Tillman one-hander the only Bulldog retaliation.

When Larry Thane stole the ball in the backcourt and soloed for two it was 47-39 Lee.

Afraid of Misses

The Bulldogs rallied to trail 49-45 in the early moments of the fourth period, a quarter of muffed opportunities for both teams.

"I was afraid we'd blown it when we missed a couple of free throw opportunities in that last quarter," said Lee Coach Paul Stueckler, "but I guess we were just lucky."

Midland's James Cagle had the same complaint. "Those missed free throws in the final period hurt us. But we have a good ball club. We've got to get ready for Permian now."

After a free throw by Cromwell made it 50-45, Tillman, pretty much the Bulldogs' entire offense the final quarter, hit two baskets to make it 50-49. Then Lee twice missed the first of Jackson, Thane, Bradley and Cromwell hit early baskets as the Rebels' full-court press paid off in one basket and Cromwell tipped away an attempted pass-inside to Taylor to start a fast break that produced another two-pointer.

Ray came off the bench to put some life into the Midland offense, hitting a two-pointer in the final 30 seconds of the first half to complete a six-point spurt in which Randall Hunt and Taylor scored to trim a 16-5 Lee lead to 16-11.

Ray hit five of eight from the field in the second quarter, but Bradley's two baskets and three free throws kept Lee ahead until Taylor flipped in two goals in the final two minutes of the half to tie it at 31 and put Midland briefly ahead 33-31. Thane's baseline drive tied it for Lee at intermission.

Ray had nine-of-14 from the field for 18 while Tillman jumped the cords with eight of 15.

Outscored 25-21 from the field, Lee's deadly accuracy at the line proved the difference.

For the Bulldogs, the floor jumper from the lane, but Bradley hit twice from the 15-foot found themselves constantly struggling uphill.

BASKET BOUND — Don Bradley, 4, Midland Lee forward, drives for basket as Eddie Herring, 53, Midland High, keeps pace. Bradley had a big night for Rebels with 21 points.

Rankin Seizes First

Red Devils Scalp Clint, 60-48, In Showdown

By TERRY WILLIAMSON
R-T Sports Writer

RANKIN — According to Coach James Heffernan, there were some changes made in the second half as the Rankin Red Devils came from behind to post a surprisingly easy 60-48 victory over the Clint Lions here Tuesday night to earn sole possession of first place in the District 6-A cage race.

Both teams went into the game with 6-1 loss marks, and Clint went into the intermission with a 28-26 lead. The Devils switched from a man-to-man coverage to the zone in the second round and cut off the outside shot that had destroyed them in the first half.

The second half surge left the Devil five with a 7-1 loop record and a 15-6 season mark while Clint fell to 6-2 and 21-6.

Clint's Waldo Alarcon scored all 10 of his points in the first half with a devastating jumper from the corner to give the Lions the two-point margin at the half.

The Devils ran to a 10-2 lead in the first quarter when Steve McSpadden connected on two unanswered field goals and four charity tosses. Clint came storming back and cut the margin to 14-11 when Frank Inostroza connected on a long range bomb at the first quarter buzzer.

The Lions erupted to an 18-14 lead at the opening of the second stanza when Alarcon and Esvaldo Lopez hit field goals and Rosalio Perez completed a three point play.

The Devils managed to tie the score on two different occasions, but did not regain the lead until the third period. McSpadden kept the Devils from completely sinking in the first half with 16 points. He was forced to leave the game in the third period due to foul trouble, but his first half effort kept the game close.

Murray Golson tied the score at 28 with a five-foot shot from the opening tip, and Randy Braden sent the Devils in the lead to stay by dialing long distance on two field goals.

Terror In NHL Islanders Win Two, Thump Seals, 8-1

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When you're hot, you're hot and when you're not, you're not.

The New York Islanders know all about the second part of that popular song adage and now they're learning about the first part.

Lovable losers throughout their first National Hockey League season, the Islanders had scored fewer goals than any other team—considerably fewer.

Then came a dream-like 9-7 victory over the defending Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins last week and after a brief relapse in St. Louis Saturday, the Islanders resumed their new image with an 8-1 thumping of the California Golden Seals Tuesday night.

In other NHL games, Detroit tied Philadelphia 4-4 and Minnesota battled to a 5-5 tie with Los Angeles.

In the World Hockey Association, it was Houston 11, Ottawa 3; Chicago 7, Quebec 1;

The announcement will be made by the BBWAA. A three-fourths approval among members is required for selection to the hall.

The late Roberto Clemente may be added later in the year in a special BBWAA vote. The five-year waiting period has been waived for the former Pittsburgh Pirate sensation. Clemente was killed in an airplane crash while helping carry relief aid to earthquake victims in Nicaragua. At 38, he was looking forward to his 19th season.

Four of LA's first-nine shots landed in the Minnesota net as Mike Corrigan, Juha Niding, Vic Venesky and Bob Berry gave the Kings a big bulge. But Minnesota roared back with four in the middle period by Danny Grant, Dean Prentice, Ted Harris and J.P. Parise sandwiched around Serge Bernier's goal for the Kings.

Coahoma Rips McCamey '5'

McCAMEY — The Coahoma Bulldogs exploded in the second half here Tuesday night to capture a 65-54 District 7-AA victory over the McCamey Badgers. The win gave Coahoma a tie with Stanton for the league lead.

The win lifted the Bulldogs season record to 13-5 and 4-1 in loop play while the Badgers fell to 12-11 and 2-3 mark.

In other games, Detroit tied Philadelphia 4-4 and Minnesota battled to a 5-5 tie with Los Angeles.

In the World Hockey Association, it was Houston 11, Ottawa 3; Chicago 7, Quebec 1;

Terry Shafer led the Bulldog attack with 18 points as Coahoma outscored the home team 25-13 in the fourth quarter to take the win. Joe Eppler and Troy Kirby scored 14 and 12 points respectively.

Buzzy Stevenson led the McCamey attack with 12 points.

McCamey led at the half by a 32-27 margin, but fell to the heavy artillery of Coahoma.

Coahoma won the girl's varsity contest 65-54 while the McCamey girl's junior varsity pulled out a 69-45 victory. In the boy's junior varsity action Coahoma posted a 83-64 win.

West Texas Press Meeting Scheduled Here Next Month

The 24th annual mid-winter meeting of the West Texas Press Association will be held here Feb. 23-24, with The Reporter-Telegram and the Midland Chamber of Commerce as hosts.

Headquarters for the conference will be at the Regal 8 Inn, Chairman Bob Hamilton of Iowa Park, said. He also is the organization's second vice president.

Hamilton said that "Education" will be the theme of the meeting, which is expected to attract between 150 and 200 persons.

Bob Miller of Hamilton is president of the association and Frank Baker of Fort Stockton is chairman of the board. Frank Pruitt of Abilene is first vice president and Bob Craig of Hamlin is secretary-treasurer. The press association held its last mid-winter session here in 1970.

Commissioners Say Ramsey Blameless

HOUSTON (AP) — A former county commissioner on trial for allegedly taking bribes from the Shoup Voting Machine Co. heard three fellow commissioners testify Tuesday that he never tried to influence their votes.

Golf Rates To Increase

The city council voted Tuesday afternoon to charge golfers who pay annual dues an additional fifty cents per round effective April 1.

Annual golfing fees at Hogan Park for 1973 will remain the same as for last year: $100 for any player and an additional $35 per each member of his immediate family. In addition to the annual fee, each golfer would pay fifty cents for each 18 holes they play.

Weekday and weekend rates also were increased by the council as revenue shortages for course maintenance continued during 1972 for the third straight year. Golfers will pay $2 per round on weekdays this year, an increase of fifty cents per player, and $3 on weekends, also an increase of fifty cents. Persons 65 years and older will have rates during 1973 of $1 per round, except on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays when regular rates will apply.

An annual fee of $35 for senior citizens would allow the golfer to pay an individual fee of fifty cents per round.

Treatment Complex

HOUSTON (AP) — Five Houston Ship Channel industries and the Gulf Coast Waste Disposal Authority have signed an agreement to create a $25-million waste treatment complex.
