

Completion Set At Ward Prospect

Inexco Oil Co., Fort Worth, has bottomed at 22,210 feet, its No. 1 Jeanne Crockett, Ward County wildcat, 12 miles northwest of Barstow, and was preparing to make production tests in the Fusselman and Ellenburger zones.

Three drillstem tests in the Fusselman and Ellenburger failed due to mechanical difficulties, however, there was no formation water indicated in either zone.

Testing will be done on the basis of logs which indicated 102 feet of possible Fusselman pay zone from 19,125-19,294 feet, and about 725 feet of possible Ellenburger pay from 21,024-21,750 feet.

Size and seat of production string was not available.

It flowed a small amount of gas and recovered gas-cut drilling fluid on a drillstem test in the Brushy Canyon of the Delaware from 7,549-7,598 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from northwest and southwest lines of section 29, block 1, W&NW survey, five miles north of the Mi Vida (Delaware, Fusselman and Ellenburger) gas field.

A company spokesman said further development of the area would be necessary before amount of reserves on the drilling block could be estimated.

Runnels Re-Entry Set As Wildcat

Trio Production Co. of Tyler, has filed application to re-enter and deepen from 4,330 feet to 4,350 feet as a wildcat, at No. 1 Lora Meeks, Runnels County failure, 3/4 mile south of Winters.

Originally drilled to 2,571 feet, it was abandoned Oct. 21, 1970 and re-entered by L. W. Brooks Jr. of Breckenridge, deepened to 4,330 feet, and abandoned again March 15, 1972.

It spots 1,600 feet east of the southwest corner of Thomas T. Green No. 490, thence 467 feet south to location in J. Poitevent survey 1, 3/4 mile east-northeast of the depleted Goen opener in the Chick-Inn field.

The Goen opener, Jerry Jones No. 1 Swatschue, finished June 13, 1967, for 104 barrels of oil and 35 barrels of water daily, through an 18-64-inch choke and perforations at 4,099-4,105 feet.

Confirmer Finals In Lea Oil Area

Texas International Petroleum Corp., Shreveport, La., has completed its No. 1 Byers as a second Atoka producer and 1/2-mile southeast extension to that pay in the Humble City, multi-pay oil field of Lea County, N.M., three miles north of Humble City.

On 24-hour potential test, it flowed 245 barrels of oil, gravity unreported, no water, with gas-oil ratio of 400-1, through a 30-64-inch choke and perforations at 11,659-11,692 feet, natural.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12-17-37e.

The discovery, Harding O 11 Co. No. 4 Shipp, finished Sept. 29, 1972, for 362 barrels of 44.5.

Texas House Okays Open Meetings Bill

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas House today passed 132-13 a bill to change the 1967 open meetings law.

The bill applies the open meetings requirement to the legislature and its committees for the first time.

The measure advanced Monday on a 137-6 vote after debate which lasted from 11:35 a.m. until after 5:30 p.m., with about an hour and 15 minutes off for lunch.

Reps. Dean Cobb of Dallas, A. L. Dramberger of San Antonio, Bill Hollowell of Grand Prairie, Felix McDonald of Edinburg, Tom Uher of Bay City and Billy Williamson of Tyler voted against the measure Monday.

House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. praised the bill, which was part of his nine-bill "reform" package, despite amendments which the sponsor said "seriously cripple" the measure.

Daniel said the measure would "guarantee the right of the public and the news media to attend and observe virtually all of the meetings of governmental bodies at both the state and local levels."

Sponsored by Rep. Carl Park-

Cease-Fire Violations Dip In South Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Procedural disputes today continued to delay the dispatch of cease-fire observers into the South Vietnamese provinces, and the South Vietnamese command reported more than 250 new violations of the truce by the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong between noon Monday and dawn today. But this was a drop of 30 per cent from the previous reporting period.

In Honolulu, the U.S. Pacific Command said U.S. B52 bombers and fighter-bombers continued operations against Communist forces in Laos and Cambodia Monday at the request of the Laotian and Cambodian governments. It gave no details.

Meanwhile, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew arrived in Saigon for his first stop on a seven-nation tour of Southeast Asia and reaffirmed the Nixon administration's support for President Nguyen Van Thieu's regime as the only legitimate government of South Vietnam. He also said the U.S. government does not recognize the right of North Vietnamese troops to remain in South Vietnam.

'Trimester' Delay Seen

AUSTIN (AP) — The House Education Committee today approved a bill delaying for two years the start of a new quarter—or "trimester"—system in Texas public schools.

The 21-0 vote sent the bill, which Gov. Dolph Briscoe designated Monday as emergency legislation, to the House floor for debate.

Present law calls for all schools to abandon the two-semester school year this fall and switch to a system of 3 three-month terms. A school district could operate for four quarters if it wished to.

The bill approved today would postpone the mandatory beginning of the quarter system to the 1975-76 school year.

Hardship For Money
Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale, committee chairman and sponsor of the bill, said many school districts have been unable to complete the curriculum changes necessary to implement the trimester system. The Texas Association of School Boards and the Texas State Teachers Association have endorsed the bill.

Kubiak said he favors the trimester system, and districts which are ready can start it whenever they wish.

Leon Graham, assistant state education commissioner, said 33 districts are now using the new system.

Baytown School Supt. Johnny Clark said two schools in his district now use the quarter system on a pilot basis and are wrestling with such problems as whether to have 55-minute or 90-minute class periods.

"The best way to kill this is to rush in without changing the curriculum," he said.

Rep. Ron Bird of San Antonio indicated he will offer an amendment to allow only a one-year postponement.

Seats Still Available
With more than 750 tickets already sold for the Midland Chamber of Commerce annual banquet scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, additional seats still are available before the 5 p.m. Wednesday ticket purchase deadline, officials said today.

Chamber officials also announced that Republican National Committee Chairman George Bush, speaker for the dinner, has canceled plans for a 4 p.m. Thursday news conference.

On Sale Through Wednesday
Instead, Bush will meet with President Nixon Thursday afternoon, and then fly from Washington to Midland just in time for the banquet at the Midland County Exhibits Building.

Tickets for the banquet, priced at $7.50 each, will be on sale through Wednesday at the chamber office, 211 N. Colorado St.

Mrs. Bush will accompany her husband to the banquet here.

Bush, a former Midland oil man, is a former congressman from Houston and until recently was United States ambassador to the United Nations.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Salt Lake City, designated the U.S. entry in competition to host the 1976 Winter Olympics, withdrew its bid as a prospective site today.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's index of leading economic indicators, which are supposed to measure ups and downs in the economy, rose 2.2 per cent in December, the Commerce Department said today.

SAIGON (AP) — Marine Aircraft Group 12, the last U.S. fighter-bomber unit in Vietnam, has begun withdrawing to Iwakuni, Japan, the U.S. Command announced today.

Texan Reported Killed In 1968 Listed As POW

WASHINGTON (AP) — A young Marine supposedly killed in Vietnam and interred by his family four years ago has turned up alive in a Communist prison camp, the Pentagon said today.

The Marine, Pfc. Ronald L. Ridgeway, is listed among the 555 U.S. servicemen identified by North Vietnam as prisoners of war.

The Communists said Ridgeway was captured Feb. 25, 1968, near a U.S. outpost at Khe Sanh.

The Pentagon said the remains of what were believed to have been Ridgeway and eight other members of his patrol caught in a North Vietnamese ambush were recovered and returned to the United States for interment.

Family Gets Good News
Maj. Gen. Daniel James, a Pentagon spokesman, said Ridgeway's family was notified that their son was alive after all. The Pentagon identified his mother as Mrs. Mildred A. Ridgeway of 7026 Fulton Street, Houston, Tex.

James said Ridgeway was listed as missing until Aug. 15, 1968, when the remains were identified as the patrol members.

James said that because of the time lapse between the ambush and the recovery of the remains, the bodies had deteriorated both from the tropical weather and the "intense bombardment" from artillery poundings and air strikes.

Interred In Mass Grave
James said the remains of what were believed to be the nine members of the patrol were interred in a mass grave at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis.

The account of the mixup over Ridgeway was given by James during a briefing on the POW statistics released by the Pentagon since Saturday.

Of the 555 Americans identified as POWs in North and South Vietnam, James said 508 were previously carried as captives. Forty-five others were previously listed as missing, while one—Ridgeway—had been listed as killed in action.

In addition, one man, Frederick Louis Elbert, a Marine, had been listed as a deserter. His hometown was not immediately available.

As for the 55 Americans North Vietnam had identified as having died in captivity, the Pentagon said 27 were previously carried as prisoners of war, 11 others were listed as having been missing while 16 others were previously listed as killed in action. One of the 55 had been carried as a deserter, a Marine, Earl C. Weatherman.

Meanwhile, James said, the Pentagon was continuing to go over the lists, name by name, to help in the accounting for the 1,269 U.S. fighting men still missing in Southeast Asia and about 3,000 others whom the Pentagon said were known to have been Communist prisoners but were not accounted for by North Vietnam.

UP ALMOST $100,000— Commissioners Approve Amended County Budget

Midland County commissioners today approved an amended 1973 budget almost $100,000 more than the original amount set last August.

The new total is $2,882,709.41 and the amount set last summer was $2,789,924.09, a difference of $92,785.32.

Midland County commissioners worked on the budget at their last two meetings, amending it to take care of expenses which will arise in the second half of the fiscal year.

The largest increase is in salaries for county employees. These include a $30-per-month pay hike for most county employees, raises for employees in the sheriff's office and $490-per-year raises for the two court reporters.

The sheriff's department raises resulted from promotions and new job classifications and the court reporters' increases were approved to meet the amounts specified by the judges in the courts in which the reporters work.

As salaries increased, Social Security, insurance and retirement payments went up proportionately.

Other major expenditures allowed in the amended budget were $35,000 for signals at railroad crossings and an additional $5,000 for attorneys for indigent defendants.

Watergate Case Nears Jury Stage

WASHINGTON (AP) — A day, who was general counsel to the Finance Committee, defended today that Nixon campaigned in legitimate information gathered, including a warning of potential violence which he denied he had of anything to do with burglary and wiretapping.

He spoke in the closing stages of the trial which grew out of the break-in and alleged burglary of Democratic national headquarters in the Watergate building complex in Washington last June.

"We don't take issue with the fact that Mr. Liddy was the boss," defense attorney Peter Maroulis said.

But Maroulis argued that Liddy is one of two remaining defendants in the case, being tried before District Judge John J. Sirica. The other defendant is James W. McCord Jr., who was security chief of the Nixon campaign.

McCord's lawyer, Gerald Aich, conceded that his client was caught in the act of burglarizing the Democratic headquarters, but he said McCord was "justifiably motivated by fear for the safety of the Nixon client."

"That was not the recommendation of a burglar," Maroulis said in his closing arguments to the jury.

The case was expected to reach the jury later today.

Vote On Open Meetings Expected In House Today

ticeable change would be in the House-Senate conference committees which are set up when the two chambers cannot agree on individual bills. Such committees have usually negotiated in secret, unannounced meetings in the past.

The three-day notice requirement would be applied to closed meetings. A government body would have to meet first in public and explain why it was going into closed session before it could hold a secret meeting.

Crippling Amendment
An amendment which Parker said would "seriously cripple" the bill was added by Republican Rep. Ray Hutchinson of Dallas on a 72-71 vote.

with punishment or dismissal of employees.

"They can be protected by complying with the law and not conspiring to do secretly what they haven't got the guts to do publicly," Parker said.

Parker also opposed an amendment by Uher, which was added on a 77-67 vote. The amendment preserves the current provision that allows secret meetings when a school board or other government body discusses hiring personnel. Parker's original bill permitted closed sessions dealing with punishment or dismissal of employees.

Closed meetings also would be allowed to discuss security arrangements and devices, to meet with a government unit's lawyer under specified conditions and talk about location and pricing of real estate.

Parker won House votes to reject numerous other amendments.

Overshadowed by the long debate on the open meetings bill Monday was passage, 145-1, of the first bill in Daniel's "reform" program. The measure now goes to Senate.

City Applies For Federal Grant To Improve Planning

The City of Midland applied this week for a $40,000 grant from the federal government which will be used to improve government planning on the local and state level.

City Manager James W. Brown said this morning the objectives of planning grants are to improve overall government management, strengthen on a statewide basis the regional planning system and develop urban and rural growth policies.

Brown said the city received a letter Nov. 6 of last year from the Department of Housing and Urban Development saying $40,000 of government funds had been earmarked for Midland for use in future planning by the city council.

Consultants from the federal government are expected to arrive in Midland next week to meet with Brown and city department heads to discuss the future planning requirements in the Tall City.

Brown said Odessa has also requested the $40,000 and much of it has been used to finance operational planning designs in that city.

Midland College Extends Deadline For Sign-Up

The deadline for Midland College spring term credit course enrollment, originally 5 p.m. today, has been extended to 5 p.m. Wednesday because of the close of the college on the day of mourning for the late President Johnson.

College dean of student affairs C. C. Dakil said today that although classes have been under way two weeks, "a student who chooses a class wisely can still enroll and catch up... for example in art, but not English or math."

The late registrations are being accepted at the college administrative offices, 1801 W. Wall St.

Dakil said registration has topped the 1,000 mark, although exact figures have not been tabulated due to a computer problem.

Astronomy Club To Hold Meeting

Tipping will speak on the composition of stars. The meeting will be held at the Midland Planetarium.

Thanh Phuoc Doing Just Fine 'Til 'Peace' Breaks Out

By MORT ROSENBLUM
THANH PHUOC, Vietnam (AP)—This little village of 2-500 survived the war just fine despite its precarious location on the Saigon-Phnom Penh highway. It was peace that brought devastation.

Neighbors were too grief-stricken to listen. One sadly shook his head at the wreckage of his own brick and masonry home which collapsed to shoulder height when hit by a shell from a tank gun. About half of the village's homes were wrecked.

President Nguyen Van Thieu came on the air and they leaned forward to listen. "We were very happy, very happy," recalled one villager.

Whoever started it—the villagers say it was the Viet Cong—the battle lasted all day. The government forces used tanks and heavy weapons. The other side fired back with machine guns and bazooka-type rockets.

The houses of Thanh Phuoc lay right in the middle. The village about 35 miles from Saigon had been lucky during the long war, escaping most of the damage along the highway to Cambodia.

Rice stocks were also destroyed along with blankets, baby shoes and bottles of beer. Incense burned along with everything else, scenting the air. A little girl sat atop a cart of rubble, looking calmly at television crews filming her. A black-uniformed militia officer wrote on a banner in red paint: "We accuse the Viet Cong of violating the agreement on January 28, 1973." One old woman with teeth stained from betel nut cried to herself. Another muttered over and over: "My house is finished, everything is gone, what do I do?" Other villagers sifted through the smoking ashes for unbroken roof tiles and sheets of tin so they could start all over again.

was no word whether any issues had been resolved.

Members of the International Commission of Control and Supervision, which is made up of Canada, Indonesia, Hungary and Poland, have said their men cannot move out into the field until the joint military commission provides transportation, security, communications, accommodations and guidance where to go.

Dui Trinh of North Vietnam and Nguyen Thi Binh of the Viet Cong told a reception in Paris that their forces have observed the cease-fire strictly and will continue to do so.

A study by the Texas Public Interest Research Group (TPIRG) of 48 pharmacies in the Houston area revealed "consumers are paying two to 10 times more than is necessary for prescription drugs because they are unable to obtain information about drug prices," according to Mike Hudson, group director.

He said the price of penicillin ranges from 88 cents at one store to $8 at another. "Penicillin showed the widest variation in cost," Hudson said, "but most of the drugs showed a cost range of at least 300 per cent."

He said the study showed that "when pharmacists were presented with prescriptions for tetracycline (a generic name) over one-third quoted a price way over the most expensive what he's paying for and there's no competition," Hudson said the meandering son said.

Dr. DeBakey Ruled Out Heart Surgery For LBJ

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Former President Lyndon B. Johnson consulted with famed heart surgeon Dr. Michael DeBakey less than three months before his death, but it was concluded Johnson could not risk cardiac surgery at that time, four doctors said today.

Of the former President, the doctors said: "He endured his difficulties with courage and resolve to enjoy life as much as his conditions would permit."

Johnson was not only afflicted with severe heart disease, the doctors said, but "extensive diverticulosis of the colon," which results from the formation of pouches in the colon that become inflamed when material gathers. The inflammation is called diverticulitis.

He said the price of penicillin ranges from 88 cents at one store to $8 at another. "Penicillin showed the widest variation in cost," Hudson said, "but most of the drugs showed a cost range of at least 300 per cent."

Ruling Doesn't Remove Responsibility

DALLAS (AP)—The woman attorney who started rolling the machinery that overturned abortion statutes in some 30 states says the landmark Supreme Court ruling absolves no one "of individual moral or religious responsibility."

Linda N. Coffee, a 30-year-old Baptist who handled the case of a pregnant and unmarried woman seeking an abortion, was instrumental in placing the case before the high court. The mother, Norma McCorvey, 25, had said she was greatly depressed and "unemployable" in failure to distinguish between the legal principle of the decision and the moral implications now left to the doctor-patient relationship.

"And I would have to have a compelling reason, even then," she said.

The decision also established, said Miss Coffee, "that a fetus does not have status as a legal person within the due process clause of the 14th Amendment which says no 'person' shall be denied life, liberty or property without due process of law."

Look Back In Time Theme Of 22nd Annual Charity Ball

By FRANCHELLE MOORE. Midland Country Club provided a touch of nostalgia for some 800 guests attending the 22nd annual invitational Charity Ball Monday night given by the Junior League of Midland, Inc.

"Deja Vu" was the theme of the formal ball and this was reflected in the foyer on a large red and silver metallic backdrop with amber mirror lights. Soft lighting also was reflected on broken mirrors on red velvet panels flanking the "Deja Vu" setting and on the side walls. Flanking the backdrop were tall arrangements of red gladioli.

The ballroom became a crystal "wonderland" with the theme, "Big Band Room of the 40s and 50s," and the Les Elgart Orchestra playing on a bandstand draped in red. Pink lighting played up the tall arrangements of red gladioli and crystal votive candles with long prisms. Green reflected on the gold metallic cloths of the tables. Large snifters on the tables held champagne. The same arrangements of crystal and red gladioli were used throughout the clubhouse.

The fireplace room had a large mirrored panel, and the Garden Room was reminiscent of the 1930s, with Tarzan as the featured attraction. Large con-tainers shaped as zebras, lions, leopards and other inhabitants of a jungle, holding fern, centered the tables, which were draped with green grass, which also was used on the movie screen, and animal pelts. Two large cutouts of Tarzan flanking a cutout jungle feline were used on one wall, and palm trees "swayed in the breezes."

The Janet Moore Four entertained in the Grill Room, which was a discotheque reminiscent of the 1960s. Large arrangements of multi-colored balloons with dangling 45 rpm discs suspended from the ceiling above tables covered with green cloths with imitation 33 and 78 rpm discs and candles. The high-lights of this room were two revolving mirror balls picking up varied colored lights for a psychedelic atmosphere. Terri Sullivan was the entertainer in the Cabaret Room (1930s), where a large wire rack was used and red covered tables had red crystal and filigree candle holders.

Entertaining in the room reflecting the 1970s was the Elmer Logsdon Trio. Burma-Shave type signs welcoming guests and bidding them farewell lined the drive to the clubhouse entrance.

Receiving the guests in the foyer were Mrs. David N. Grimes, league president; Mrs. Frank K. Cahoon, vice president; Mrs. Jim Conine, recording secretary; Mrs. Neill Wisener, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jerome Fullinwider, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Holt, Charity Ball chairman; Mrs. William D. Kennedy, decorations chairman; Mrs. Charles Aldridge, invitations chairman, and their husbands.

Mrs. Grimes chose for the ball an emerald green velvet gown with plunging neckline accented in front with a pink rose. Mrs. Holt wore a white unpolished satin gown, and Mrs. William H.

DEAR POLLY—My young daughter loves to look at family snapshots but there was always the problem of her bending and adding the desired color of stain to such a filling before working it into place. I have just used a plastic wood filler on a dining table leg and it holds fine.—cube blocks, filled them with pictures of people in the family and now she plays with them as blocks and can look at the snapshots when she wants to. Also homes and they seem to be the "in" thing. My question is what one else to look at them.—MRS. do you do when the melted wax covers the wick and there is no way to relight the candle? I hate to throw such candles away. Hope someone can tell me an easy way to remedy this problem.—B. D.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with the cords on electric irons, toasters, waffle irons, etc. Those on irons are too short and heavy-duty extension cords have to be added. Those on small appliances used on tables and countertops are so long that they become a mass of tangles. Also, why are they almost always black when white or ivory would be so much more attractive in the kitchen?—M. K.

DEAR POLLY—It is a shame but purse snatching is more and more a problem. I am an active senior citizen and solved this a permanent mend that can withstand laundering.

Uses Plastic Wood To Fill In Nicks

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Association

DEAR POLLY—I am answer-putting my coat on, I slip this pair the nicks and chips on the head (it is easy to slip to the legs of her organ. Such places front when needed) and then I can be filled in with inexpensive plastic wood. Directions for its use are on the can but a store clerk told me it also helps first rying a big purse. Best of all I to drive a small tack in the feel safer.—M. S.

Louisiana Acts Swiftly In Natural Gas Dispute

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—gas shortages just around the corner, the state mineral board is making plans to take most of the gas from future reserves on state land and dedicate it exclusively to Louisiana customers.

Money can be lost in more ways than won...

Middle age is when you know all the answers, and nobody ever asks you the questions.

A problem child is one who puts two and two together and gets your number.

There's no substitute for conscience, unless it's living very near your neighbors.

A movie critic gets complimentary tickets so he can make uncomplimentary remarks.

Folks are complimentary about our upholstery service and the money they save by having their furniture reupholstered at Hines Wood Upholstery Company, 5109 Andrews Hwy., call 694-8891.

The mineral board already is preparing a new lease form, under which oil and gas pipelines would agree before leasing oil and gas acreage that a certain part of the gas would stay in Louisiana.

Spurred by recent Federal Power Commission rulings which, if they are not reversed, would suck a larger percentage of Louisiana's gas away to northeastern markets, Gov. Edwin Edwards has canceled a Feb. 14 lease sale on 10,500 acres of state-owned submerged land off the Gulf of Mexico.

Edwards said he was holding up the lease sale until he could take steps to insure the gas would be dedicated to Louisiana's thirsty industries.

Getting a formal commitment from oil and gas companies to sell gas from future reserves for Louisiana use is just part of the solution to the gas shortage, however. Another part is to provide intrastate pipelines which will not be subject to Federal Power Commission jurisdiction.

PLANTS GALORE — All types and sizes, blooming or foliage, the Midland Garden Center, 4615 Sinclair St., has just the plant for you. Joe Matejek assists owner Mrs. Juanita Wallis and her 9-year-old son Monty in one of the greenhouses.

Midland Center Is 'Blooming Oasis'

New shipments of plants from California and Florida are adding to the already bountiful supply of foliage and blooming plants at the "foliage and blooming plant oasis of the Permian Basin," the Midland Garden Center, 4615 Sinclair St., west of Midland Drive. Among the plants from California are azalea hanging baskets and tub azaleas; two types of bougainvillea; philodendron and camellias. And the Florida plants include four types of dracaenas; three sizes of Araucaria-Bidwilli (Monkey Puzzle) mums, azaleas, Kalanchoes and tulips. What nicer Valentine than a pot of red tulips? The hanging basket season is just around the corner and you will want to see the great variety at Midland Garden Center. They have the wire baskets as well as many other types. And they have the popular Aloe Vera plant in many sizes and varieties. For time pleasantly spent, go out and browse awhile at Midland Garden Center. They are equipped to handle all your sweet heart, including plant needs.

Heath, Nixon To Discuss Mideast Peace Proposal

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath left for Washington today with a proposal for President Nixon to continue their discussions for a new peacemaking approach in the Middle East. While the leaders range over policy, the more detailed intricacies of foreign affairs will occupy Britain's foreign secretary, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, and Secretary of State William P. Rogers.

Heath and Nixon begin their two-day conference in the White House Thursday. It will be the President's first encounter with the head of a foreign government since his inauguration. It will be Heath's first meeting with the President since Britain joined the common market Jan. 1. On Friday, they continue their discussions at Camp David, Md.

The talks will include Soviet and Chinese intentions, international trade and reforms to the world money system.

Three More Killed In Ulster Violence

BELFAST (AP) — Two Roman Catholics and a Protestant were killed, three persons were wounded and the head office of a major shipyard was bombed Monday night as Ulster's communal violence raged on.

The Protestant was shot in the head and dumped in a shop doorway. Police said he had been visiting relatives in a Catholic area of Belfast. They said he was in his mid-20s and married to a Catholic.

A 22-year-old father of two was shot four times at a Belfast service station by gunmen in a car that he was filling with gas. The other Catholic killed was a 15-year-old boy who was shot from a passing car as he stood in the doorway of his widowed mother's Belfast shop.

Another 15-year-old with him was hit and reported in serious condition.

The killings brought to 694 the number of persons known to have died in 3½ years of religious strife.

U.S. To Speed Research On 'Laser Bomb' Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is speeding up work on a proposed "laser bomb" that will be as powerful as the hydrogen bomb.

The Nixon administration's proposed budget for fiscal 1974 provides $34 million for laser bomb research by the Atomic Energy Commission. The amount includes $20 million for a high-energy laser facility at the AEC laboratory at Livermore, Calif.

Research into a laser bomb has been under way at least

Senate Resolution Cites Mrs. Glass

AUSTIN — A resolution in honor of the late Mrs. George W. Glass of Midland was passed by the Texas Senate after it was submitted by state Sen. W. E. "Pete" Snelson of Midland. The resolution states that Mrs. Glass "had long been prominent in church and club affairs and had been a staunch supporter of all worthwhile civic and religious movements in Midland."

Senate Resolution 20, which lists the numerous organizations to which Mrs. Glass belonged, extends the Senate's sympathy to the members of Mrs. Glass' family and directs that copies of the resolution be presented to the family as "a tribute to her memory."

Tom Sealy

Sealy To Speak To Women Voters

Tom Sealy, Midland attorney and chairman of the Texas Association of Taxpayers, will be the speaker at the Thursday meeting of the Midland League of Women Voters. The luncheon will be held at 11:30 a.m. at Midland Country Club.

Sealy will explain his views on public school financing at the meeting.

Sealy opposes new or increased taxes to achieve a new public school financing system, while the League advocates the use of a personal and corporate income tax if needed.

The luncheon will be preceded by a 9:30 a.m. unit meeting recapping the Midland League's position on public school financing.

The public is invited to attend the luncheon. Reservations should be made by Wednesday noon by calling Mrs. G. H. Stoddard at 682-2889 or Mrs. R. Ken Carpenter at 694-1787. Those who cannot attend the luncheon will have the opportunity to hear a tape recording of Sealy's remarks at the unit meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Feb. 5 at 712 W. Michigan, Apt. 207.

shot and then dumped from a car in Dungannon, County Tyrone, but his wound was not serious. A Protestant was wounded outside his home in Carrickfergus, north of Belfast, by a gunman who escaped.

Fifty pounds of explosives badly damaged the main office building of Belfast's Harland and Wolff shipyard, one of the biggest in the United Kingdom. No injuries were reported.

In the Irish Republic to the south, two more leaders of the Provisional wing of the Irish Republican Army were jailed for six months for belonging to the outlawed organization. They were Martin McGuinness, 22, who headed the Provos in Londonderry, and Joseph McCallion, 27, one of McGuinness' lieutenants.

They were arrested Jan. 13 near the border with Northern Ireland. Police said they had 250 pounds of explosives and 4,000 rounds of ammunition in their car.

five years, but the expenditures proposed for 1974 are the greatest yet. The appropriation for the current fiscal year was $22 million.

The bomb would use the intense heat of a laser beam to ignite hydrogen explosives. Existing hydrogen bombs employ an atomic bomb as the trigger mechanism.

The advantage of a laser beam as a trigger is that it presumably would be simpler, smaller and would release less radioactivity if used. A laser-triggered hydrogen device could be used as a bomb or in the warhead of an intercontinental ballistic missile.

Minority Business Offices To Open

ODESSA — The Texas Office of Minority Business Enterprise will officially open its Odessa regional office at 412 N. Lincoln St. at 9 a.m. Feb. 2.

The minority business program was organized by the Texas Industrial Commission last August with a federal grant of more than $253,000. It is designed to help minority businessmen overcome management and technical problems of private enterprise through a variety of guidance programs.

The Odessa office is one of four regional facilities established under the program. Other offices will be located in Austin, Lubbock and Tyler.

Heading the Odessa regional office will be Jesus Holguin. Jesse Martinez is director of the Texas OMBE and Bertrand Adams is coordinator of regional offices.

Through regional offices, minority businessmen can receive help in identifying opportunities in private enterprise, forming a business, applying for financial loans and other technical or management services.

Center Schedules Lunch, Program

Two special events are scheduled this week at the Senior Citizens Center in First Christian Church.

The first in a series of potluck luncheons is scheduled at noon Wednesday at the center. All senior citizens are invited to bring a dish for the luncheon. The event also will honor all those senior citizens with a birthday in January.

At 10 a.m. Friday, Pauline McWilliams, Midland County home demonstration agent, will give a program on nutrition for senior citizens entitled "Making Snacks Count."

Car Ends Up In Scharbauer Draw

A car sailed across Scharbauer Draw at 12:20 a.m. today crashed into the bank on the other side and then tumbled end over end along the bottom of the ditch, police said.

The driver, Harrison Francis McKinley, 25, of Rt. B, Box 8, was thrown clear of the car. He was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for treatment of multiple cuts and scrapes. He was listed in satisfactory condition this morning.

The car was headed east on West Scharbauer Drive and failed to negotiate a curve 230 feet east of N. D St., Patrolman Don Aldridge reported.

The Rules Change After The Game Ends

-By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My father-in-law is basically a pretty nice guy, but he is a real football freak. My wife likes to spend Sunday with her parents, so we go, and of course the tv is always going full blast with some football game because her father is crazy about football.

My father-in-law (I call him "Coach") begs me to bet, and just to please him, I do. I always end up with the winning team, but I lose money because he comes up with all kinds of funny "house rules" such as you press bets, side bets, etc. Meanwhile, he sits there with a Cleveland Browns coaching hat on his fat head and laughs his head off.

What should I do?
KEN IN WOOSTER

DEAR SEALED: You say you are not a "snoop," yet you read letters that were not intended for your eyes. You can either keep your lips sealed and pretend to know nothing, or confess that you read the letters and ask Paul for an accounting. I think you'd feel better if you confessed and cleared the air.

DEAR KEN: Keep the bets small and let the old gaffer have fun. Meanwhile, when you've learned his game, raise the ante and then YOU have fun, too!

DEAR ABBY: Paul and I have been married for 27 years. We have three children, two are in college. Paul has worked hard all his life and we have done well financially because we worked, too, and we saved our money. After the wedding there is going to be a sit-down dinner. No party (10 children) of which I was the oldest. His father died shortly after we were married, and he is going to wear so much support his long dress mother and the younger children. I never objected, although it was quite a strain on us for many years.

When Paul's mother remarried two years ago, I breathed a sigh of relief. Well, the other day when I went through Paul's pockets before sending his suit to the cleaners, I came across two letters from his mother, addressed to him at the office. Since no one was around, I

DEAR WEST: Wear whatever you want, and tell your husband to the cleaners. (P.S. Perhaps two letters from his mother, addressed to him at the office! Since no one was around, I

COMPANY STYLE ROUND STEAK

Yield: 4 Servings
2 pounds Protein Beef Round Steak, cut 1/2 inch thick
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped celery
2 cups fresh bread cubes
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon powdered sage

1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon water
3 tablespoons fat
1/2 cup onion
1/2 cup mushroom soup
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 clove garlic, minced
1/2 cup water

Round steak to flatten meat. Cut into 4 pieces. Melt butter in heavy skillet. Sauté onion and celery until tender. Add bread, salt, sage, pepper, and water to onion mixture. Place one-fourth of stuffing on each piece of meat. Roll up and fasten with wooden picks. Dip meat in flour. Cut each roll in half. Melt fat in heavy skillet. Brown meat on all sides. Combine soup, Worcestershire sauce, garlic, and water. Pour over meat. Cover and simmer about 1 1/2 hours. Serve gravy over meat.

RIDING HIGH AFTER 61st— Bruins Still On Top As Streak Continues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
UCLA's record-breaking Bruins are a unanimous choice again as No. 1 in The Associated Press' college basketball poll.

The California powerhouse set an all-time record winning streak with 61 last week with victories over Loyola of Chicago and Notre Dame.

As a result, the front-running Bruins, 16-0, received all 33 first-place votes from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters for a total of 660 points. The Bruins had garnered all but one first-place in the two previous polls.

North Carolina State, 14-0, remained in second place, 68 points behind the high-flying Bruins. The undefeated Wolfpack clobbered Furman 96-73 last week for their 14th victory this year. North Carolina State had gotten one first-place vote in each of the two previous polls.

Maryland moved up a place to third with 471 points after defeating North Carolina, last

Butler Gets Rice Award

HOUSTON (AP) — Rice tight end Gary Butler, who gathered in receiving honors during the 1972 season, walked off with the top award Monday night at the annual Rice football awards banquet.

Butler, an All-Southwest Conference tight end, received the George Martin Award as the Owls' most valuable player. He was one of seven Owls to receive awards at the banquet.

Other honors included the Jess Neely defensive awards to Bruce Henley, top defensive back, LaRay Breshers, top linebacker and Larry Walling, top lineman.

George Brown offensive awards went to quarterback Bruce Gadd, top offensive back and Bart Goforth, top offensive lineman.

Freshman linebacker Ken Doucette won the Joe Lipscomb Award as the most valuable freshman player.

Fifty-four varsity letters were awarded to the Owls, who finished the 1972 season with a 5-5-1 record.

Olympian Eyes NFL

Texas Southern Star Waits On Draft

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
HOUSTON (AP) — Texas Southern Olympian Robert Taylor, who brought back gold and silver from the 1972 Games in Munich, says he's ready to try for the Fort Knox green of a National Football League contract.

"I feel like I have a chance to play professional football," the blazing 9.2 sprinter said prior to today's opening of the NFL's draft of college free agents.

"Several teams have talked to me about playing," said the soft-spoken Taylor, who passed up football last season. "Dallas has been writing me every week. Some of the teams want me as a wide receiver and others as a defensive back."

Taylor, who won a gold medal as a member of the U.S. 400 meter relay team and a silver for his finish in the 100 meters, admitted missing last year in football might hurt him in the draft.

"Most of the teams wanted to know mostly if I wanted to play pro football," said Taylor.

Trading Block Warmed Up

Crystal Ball Time As NFL Eyes Annual Draft

By BRUCE LOWITT
NEW YORK (AP) — The trading block got warmed up as teams juggled choice players for player choices on the eve of the National Football League's annual crystal-ball gazing, the collegiate draft.

But the Houston Oilers, whose horrendous 1-13 record in the 1972 season brought them today's top pick, were having the same luck with the rest of the 26 teams of the field as they'd had on it. Despite all efforts to trade away their No. 1 selection for some proven veterans, they couldn't find a taker for it. They did give up a third-round choice and guard Tom Regner to Baltimore Monday in exchange for center Bill Curry.

The Colts were busiest in the swap meet that always preceded the draft. They sent defensive lineman Billy Newsome and a fourth-round choice to New Orleans for the Saints' No. 1 pick—the one right behind the Oilers'. And the Colts also picked up "undisclosed draft choices" from Philadelphia in exchange for running back Norm Bulaich.

Then the Saints turned around and picked up second and third-round picks from the New York Jets in trade for defensive end Richard Neal and cornerback Delles Howell.

Saddled, as it were, with the decision on which player to go for among the 442 prospects, the question was whether the Oilers would go for quarterback Bert Jones or bypass the superb strong-arm from Louisiana State in favor of one of the behemoths known as defensive linemen.

"It's hard to just let a great quarterback lay out there and not take him," Houston Coach Bill Peterson said — but it's more likely the Oilers will stick with Dan Pastorini and Lynn Dickey and choose instead from either mammoth Dave Butz, Purdue's 6-foot-7, 290-pounder, or 275-pound John Matuszak of Tampa to anchor the defensive line.

There are also plenty of offensive brutes to pick from in this "Year of the Line-man," among them Texas' Jerry Sisemore, Alabama's John Hannah and Michigan's Paul Seymour. But Jones is hardly the only standout quarterback. Florida State's Gary Huff, Oregon's Dan Fouts and Virginia Tech's Don Strock are likely to be grabbed before the first of the two days' drafting is over.

Thanks to the wholesale trading that can send players and picks swirling around the league like confetti, seven teams will have two first-round picks and seven others have none.

The Super Bowl champion Dolphins won't make their first pick until the 52nd name comes up while the Redskins, who built their championship team on Coach George Allen's "the future is now" philosophy, must wait until choice No. 129 — way back in the fifth round before dipping into the collegiate pool.

18—TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1973

IN OPENING ROUND— Oilers Pick Matuszak No. 1

By HUBERT MIZELL
NEW YORK (AP) — Huge defensive tackle John Matuszak of the University of Tampa was picked No. 1 by the Houston Oilers today as the National Football League opened its annual draft of college players.

The Baltimore Colts, picking second and using the choice they obtained from New Orleans in a trade, then tapped Bert Jones, the crack Louisiana State quarterback.

The Philadelphia Eagles were next and selected Jerry Sisemore, a 260-pound offensive tackle from The University of Texas.

Before the New England Patriots made the fourth choice of the first round, the Cleveland Browns traded rookie placekicker George Hunt, who was on their taxi squad, to Baltimore for a fourth-round pick which the Colts had previously acquired from Cincinnati.

The Patriots used almost the entire 15-minute limit allocated for first-round picks before naming John Hannah, Alabama's 265-pound offensive guard.

There is a five-minute selection limit on the other 16 rounds.

Dave Butz, 275-pound defensive tackle from Purdue, was then snapped up as the No. 5 over-all pick by the St. Louis Cardinals. The 6-7 Boilermaker had been forecast as the probable No. 1 selection by many experts.

Philadelphia, making its second pick of the first round thanks to a 1972 trade that sent linebacker Tim Rossovich to San Diego, used the pick acquired from the Chargers to take All-American tight end Charles Young, a 228-pound blocking and pass-catching star from Southern California's national champions.

The Buffalo Bills, looking for blockers for star runner O. J. Simpson, took the sixth linemen among the first seven choices by drafting 250-pound Paul Seymour, an offensive tackle from Michigan and brother of Chicago wide receiver Jim Seymour. Seymour was a tight end until the 1972 season.

The Bears, picking next, chose defensive end Wally Chambers, a 250-pound, 6-6 small college star from Eastern Kentucky.

Otis Armstrong of Purdue, became the first running back drafted when the Denver Broncos took the 194-pound speedster who broke the Big Ten career rushing record with 3,315 yards. Armstrong gained 1,361 yards as a senior for a 5.6-year average.

Baltimore's second pick of the opening round was Joe Ehrmann, a 260-pound defensive tackle from Syracuse, who bounced back after missing almost the entire 1971 season with a series of knee injuries.

New England, getting its second shot due to a trade that sent defensive end Fred Dryer to Los Angeles last year, again took most of its allotted time before using the Rams' pick, No. 11 over-all, to select Sam Cunningham, a 212-pound running back from Southern California who scored a record four touchdowns and was named the outstanding player in the Trojans (Sharks) bowl of Ohio State.

IN PRO DRAFT— Cowboys Seek Another Gem

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys, who have been to the National Football League playoffs seven consecutive years on a foundation built in the college draft, hoped to pluck another unpolished gem today on the first round.

Cowboy No. 1 draft picks in the past include these players still with the club: Bob Lilly, defensive tackle, 1961; linebacker Lee Roy Jordan, 1963; quarterback Craig Morton, 1965; offensive guard John Niland, 1966; running back Calvin Hill, 1969; defensive end Tody Smith, 1971; and running back Bill Thomas, 1972.

Gil Brandt, who is in charge of the Cowboy draft, has sprung many surprises in the past. For example, Hill was an obscure Ivy Leaguer at Yale who became Dallas' first runner to ever gain more than 1,000 yards last year.

Duane Thomas was the first pick in 1970 and helped Dallas win Super Bowl VI although he fell into disfavor and was transferred to San Diego because of his recalcitrant behavior.

Brandt said he has several players of the "Who is He?" grade tucked away in the computer.

"We were happy with the success we had last year (eight rookies made the club), but we feel there is even more potential in the colleges this time," Brandt said.

The Cowboys earned the 20th pick by winning a coin flip from the Green Bay Packers and the Cleveland Browns. Each of the three teams finished 1972 regular season play with a 10-4 record.

In the second round the Cowboys were 20th again, using Green Bay's second-round pick as part of the deal that sent Ron Widby and Ike Thomas to the Packers.

The Cowboys had the first pick in the third round, using Houston's pick through New Orleans in return for Tom Stincic.

An indication of how Dallas has built its team through the draft can be seen on the 40-man active roster for the playoffs this season. Twenty-eight players were drafted by Dallas. Five were signed by the Cowboys as free agents and seven were acquired in trades.

The Cowboys need help at quarterback and defensive end. Brandt said the chances were slim that Dallas could draft help at the cornerback post.

There aren't many Willie Buchanons in the draft this year," Brandt said of the sensational Green Bay rookie, who was picked last year.

Sometimes draft "lightning" doesn't always strike in the early rounds. Quarterback Roger Staubach was a 10th round "future" selection in 1964 when the Cowboys knew he still had a four-year Navy hitch.

Rebels, Bulldogs Face Bobcats, Steers In Frays Tonight

MHS At Home; Lee On Road

While Midland Lee is off in Melvin Jackson supply Lee's San Angelo in quest of its 24th straight basketball victory. Midland High will be trying to make it two straight at the expense of the Big Spring Steers tonight in the MHS gym.

Both the Rebels and the Bulldogs are 1-0 in the second half. District 5-4A basketball race and neither experienced much trouble in the first half with tonight's opposition.

Lee, now 25-1 for the season, spanked San Angelo 67-51 in the initial meeting as Don Bradley scored 20 points for the Rebels. Midland, meanwhile, stung the Steers 85-66 as 6-10 Ronald Taylor scored 27 points.

Taylor and Bradley, by the way, are tied for first place in the 5-4A individual scoring race with 170 points apiece and 21.2 average per game. Lee's 6-6 Steve Cromwell is third with 125 points.

Midland, 21-3, avenged one of its losses Friday night with an 80-61 romp over Odessa Permian and a 70-51 victory over the Rebels. Midland Lee knocked off Odessa High, 70-42, improving considerably on the 56-48 first-half win over the Bronchos and at Odessa no less.

While the Bulldogs and Rebels are tied for first place, Lee holds the upper hand since it already has the first-half pennant tucked away in its trophy case and needs only a tie for the second half title to earn a spot in the state AAAA playoffs.

Tonight at San Angelo, the Rebels will run into considerable size with the Bobcats, 10-14 in the year, boasting a towering front line of 6-6 Sandy Lawrence and 6-6 John Elder. Bradley, at 6-2, Cromwell and 6-3

Tommy Loughery starting in the back court.

Big Spring, 13-13, devoid of height, must depend on its ability to outrun and outshoot the opposition and, so far, they haven't been too successful.

Johnny Tonn with 17 points and Willie Williams with 16 provided most of the scoring punch against Midland and first time around. Charles Brown, Randy Marshall and Kevin Miller are the other starters.

Six-two Mike Tillman and 6-3 Kenneth Ray provide back up scoring support for Taylor, Tillman getting most of his points from outside. Randell Hunt and average per game. Lee's 6-6 Steve Cromwell is third with 125 points.

In other district games, Midland, 21-3, avenged one of its losses Friday night with an 80-61 romp over Odessa Permian and a 70-51 victory over the Rebels.

Junior varsity action gets underway at 6:15 p.m. with Midland Lee, 15-9, seeking its seventh district win in nine games. Midland High, 17-6, goes after its seventh league win also.

Abilene Cooper, 20-1, has an 8-0 league record.

STATE CHAIRMAN — Roger Staubach, quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys, has been named state chairman of the 1973 Easter Seal Campaign in Texas. Shown with Staubach is, Gary Foster of Dallas. Roger will lead volunteers in every county in Texas during the traditional annual appeal to provide direct services to physically handicapped Texas children and adults.

Tired Dave DeBusschere Leads Knicks To Victory

By ALEX SACHARE
NEW YORK (AP) — Dave DeBusschere — a very, very tired Dave DeBusschere — started next to a whirlpool machine in the New York locker room Monday night and savored the Knicks' third hard-fought National Basketball Association victory in as many days.

The Knicks had just beaten the Golden State Warriors 97-84, and a big reason was DeBusschere. New York's all-star forward, playing a rugged 47 minutes, scored 27 points — tying teammate Walt Frazier for game honors — and grabbed a team-high 15 rebounds.

Lee Girls Get Second
SAN ANTONIO — Rees Langston chalked up two first-place finishes in the 200 individual medley and 100 freestyle to pace the Midland Lee girls' swimming team to a second place finish in the Winter San Antonio Swimming and Diving Invitational over the weekend.

REMEMBERS WILLIAMS — Epstein Joins Rangers, But Feud Still In Air

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Mike Epstein, slugging first baseman of the Oakland A's who was obtained in an off-season trade, was reunited with Texas Ranger owner Bob Short Monday but an old feud with Ted Williams was still heavy on Epstein's mind.

Bob Burris Named New Steer Coach

BIG SPRING — Bob Burris, former Midland Lee High School football coach, returns to District 5-4A as head coach and athletic director at Big Spring High, succeeding Clovis Hale.

Hale resigned after seasons of 5-5, 2-8 and 1-9 with the Steers. Burris had records of 1-9, 7-3 and 7-3 in his three seasons at Lee 1966-1968. One of Burris' victories was a 28-26 win over Odessa Permian in 1968, the year the Panthers went on to the state AAAA finals.

After leaving Midland, Burris became an assistant for three seasons at Oklahoma State and then went into private business last year.

He played high school ball under Paul Young at Muskogee, Okla., in the early 1950's and went on to become all-conference for Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma.

His coaching stints include stays at Northeastern Oklahoma State, Paul's Valley, Okla. High, and Hobbs, N.M., where he won the state championships.

He makes the third active former OU player now coaching in 5-4A. Jim Acree at Midland Lee and John Reddell at Midland High also are OU products.

handers last year and it meant a lot to me.

Williams was replaced at the end of last season by Whitey Herzog as the new Ranger manager.

"Bob Short has always been good to me and I'm impressed with Whitey," Epstein said. "I've got along fine with Ted except for how I felt on the field. Whitey says that's not going to be the way he'll do it. If Ted had done such a good job of managing, he'd still be here."

Epstein got in another dig at Williams, saying "Nobody likes going from first to a team that finished last. My opinion of the Rangers last year was that they had a good, young team with poor direction on the field."

DeBusschere said afterwards, retain the division lead with a thinking back to New York's ill-40-9 record for a winning percentage over Boston Saturday, 106-103, while the day night and grueling 96-93 Knicks' record of 43-12 puts triumph over the Celtics on na-ther even with Boston in total TV the next day. "I was games but in second place with just emotionally drained after a 75 percentage.

DeBusschere, bombing from any good, winning the top of the first half as New York took against Boston, if we lost a 48-44 lead. The Knicks then tonight," he added. "So we just outscored Golden State 16-6 in had to sustain it one more the first eight minutes of the night."

By beating Golden State, the into the final period and led by Knicks drew into a virtual tie as much as 17 points in the with Boston in the tight Atlan-fourth quarter.

Ector Meets Andrews Stanton Eyes Coahoma In 7-AA Shootout

By TERRY WILLIAMSON
Area basketball warfare has crown with a sparkling 6-0 record, and currently own sole position in a survival battle. Pecos is 1-0 in the second round while the Indians stand at 1-1. A Pecos win would keep the Eagles in the title run with both Andrews and Ector still remaining on the Pecos slate.

Monahans and Fort Stockton angle in the other loop shootout. Both teams own a hapless 0-2 reading in the second round of play.

In District 3-AAA, the Brownfield Cubs travel to Lubbock Dunbar, and the victor will tie for the second round lead in the 2-0 second round record at Badgers travel to Big Lake to night winning the first half with a perfect 6-0 reading. Brownfield and Dunbar are both 1-0 in the second round.

Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes take a break from district action tonight, but will host Kermit in a non-conference engagement.

Other 3-AAA games include Colorado City at Lake View and Estacado at Sweetwater.

Seeking 'Angry Americans'

"Get Angry" is the appropriate title of a stinging article by E. Richard Barnes, appearing first in the bulletin of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Montgomery, Ala., and reprinted in a recent issue of The Concerned Presbyterian.

It is worth reprinting and reading again and again. It hits the mark! Read it and see for yourself.

"Someone is trying to unseal us on this blessed land, they are laughing at our nation's birth, so filled with faith, courage and sacrifice. They are trying to unseal us on our flag, symbol of truth, hope and justice unfurled against freedom's sky. They are scoffing at our Constitution as being an outmoded, out-dated relic, whereas it is the most remarkable governmental document ever written, conceived as an instrument of the people by the people and for the people.

"They are trying to unseal us on God, on faith and on religion. They are informing us that God is invented by the human brain, and that man is only an animal, nothing more. They are trying to unseal us on our economic system of free enterprise under law — the most creative, productive cornucopia ever developed by man. They are trying to undermine our educational system, unseal us on love, unseal us on marriage, unseal us on the family — the basic unit of society.

"They are trying to unseal us on the very fact of conscience of right and wrong. There is no moral law, they say.

"There is no eternal truth, there is no absolute, no giving, no frame of reference. Right and wrong are determined in any era, so they say.

"Read what they are saying and get angry! Listen to what they are portraying via mass media communication to ensnare our youth. Contemplate with horror the flood of putrid, filthy, pornographic, indecent literature infecting and infesting the minds of American young people. Read the signs of the times and get angry! I'm looking for some angry Americans.

"And last of all, read the signs of the times and stand up. America can stand tall again, in faith, courage, integrity, honor, dedication and high moral standards."

Now, how about joining the ranks of angry Americans?

'Now - How Do I Arrange A Cease-Fire With Them?'

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: Gerald L. K. Smith on Armed Forces Radio. WASHINGTON — America's most notorious hater, Gerald L. K. Smith, was featured last week on the armed forces radio network.

For 50 years, the old rabble-rouser has been preaching hatred against Jews and blacks. However, his "Cross and Flag" magazine has gone largely unread, and his sermons have gone largely unheard.

Now the Pentagon has put him on its overseas network for two million military and civilian listeners to hear. The moderator, Bill Bertenshaw, gave the address where listeners could get Smith's literature no less than five times.

The old bigot watched his tongue on the military show. Instead of his usual hate-thy-neighbor doctrine, he told in saccharine tones how love would solve the world's woes.

"Let's hope your words of wisdom are overheard by our congressmen," purred the moderator.

Smith got on the armed forces network through the New Jersey Council of Churches, which packages a regular religious show called "Suggested Solutions." The council, apparently, was impressed with a "religious" complex that Smith is building in Eureka Springs, Ark.

This features a seven-story "Christ of the Ozarks" shrine, a "Passion Play" and other Biblical attractions. On the show, Smith boomed his projects as "the most visited Christian shrine in America" and told how he was "led by the Holy Spirit and established these shrines."

He neglected to mention that a federal road project to the shrine was blocked after the government discovered that Smith was behind it. The Anti-Defamation League also has reported that his "Passion Play" is anti-Semitic.

Armed forces radio director John Broger, an evangelical fundamentalist, was taken with the religious series and authorized it to be broadcast to the troops overseas. He told us, however, he was unaware that the notorious hate preacher had been included in the series.

He had broadcast it over his own and the Voice of America shortwave transmitters, he said, without monitoring it. "We will investigate it," Broger promised. "It won't happen again."

It won't be the only investigation. Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., has learned about the broadcast and has demanded an explanation. And in New York City, the Anti-Defamation League also is asking Defense Secretary Melvin Laird "how come?"

Morton's Forked Tongue. Documents taken from government files dispute Interior Secretary Rogers Morton's testimony the other day in praise of the administration's efforts to boost Indian employment. He told Congress happily that the number of Indians in industrial jobs has increased in recent years from 500 to 2,500.

But a memo from former Indian Commissioner Louis Bruce suggests a completely different story. "Despite the expenditure of $179.2 million," states the memo, "40 per cent remain unemployed" on the reservations. The memo is dated October 17, ment's expert conservationists when big corporate money is at stake. Dingell recently wrote Interior Secretary Rogers Morton that Emmett Willard, Interior's "field representative" in the Northwest, had stepped in on the side of the politically powerful Weyerhaeuser company, Interior's Bureau of Sports, Fisheries and Wildlife was blocking a Weyerhaeuser subsidiary from developing a site on a picturesque lagoon near Douglas Point, Wash. Only four days after the Bureau warned against developing the lagoon, Willard overruled it. As House conservation chairman, Dingell charged Willard's action was "outrageous" and demanded an explanation from Morton. The secretary has promised to review the Douglas Point case.

BRUCE BLOSSAT—'Red Hot' Name For '76 Is 'Rocky' -- By Golly!

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Talks with the state Republican officials, who were tapped in a kind of mini-survey, disclose surprising 1976 presidential interest in Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York.

His own state leaders say there is at least a 50 per cent chance he will run for a fifth-term next year, and they think he could win it. Nobody seems terribly bothered by the fact that this hardy perennial would be 68 in 1976.

"He's still very bouncy," says a woman from a midwestern state.

Even in a reasonably conservative bastion like Illinois there is a lot of Rockefeller talk, though the state has its own moderate presidential prospect, Sen. Charles Percy.

A Southern party leader doubts that Rocky would score heavily there as against some conservative rival, but agrees with those in other regions that the governor is far more acceptable across-the-board than he used to be. Speaking for his own area, the southerner adds: "He's changed, and we've changed."

What this man is talking about, of course, is Rockefeller's evident bent toward a more conservative stance, as seen in his tough prescription for the drug problem, his fiscal caution, and his virtually unopposed re-election in his own area, the southerner adds.

Not only are hospital costs going up, but 40 per cent of all U.S. hospitals are outmoded and in need of being replaced, says Barron's magazine. Also, the migration to the suburbs finds new populations now living too far away from older hospitals.

It will take at least $30-billion over the next 10 years, the U.S. Public Health Service estimates, to upgrade and build hospitals adequate for an expanding, migrating population.

The question is, who is going to do it? With contributions down and federal construction funds dwindling, the community groups and religious orders traditionally relied upon are finding the task economically impossible.

The answer may be investor-owned hospital companies, which are moving into the field in growing numbers. Today, 40 such companies own more than 300 hospitals in the United States.

"The most obvious reason for this is financial," points out David A. Jones, chairman and chief executive officer of Extencare, Inc., one of the "big four" of the 40. The Louisville, Ky., firm owns and operates 45 hospitals with 4,293 beds in 12 states.

Thanks to the application of modern management techniques to the construction and operation of hospitals, he says, investor-owned hospitals are proving they can arrest spiraling costs, expand service and keep pace with advancing medical technology — and make a profit.

In 1972, for example, Extencare delivered 913,574 patient days of care at rates competitive with nonprofit hospitals. It reported a pre-share net income of over $88 billion, yet increased its patient rates by less than 2 per cent.

Communities also like the idea that investor-owned hospitals pay taxes. Last year, Extencare's hospitals paid $5,291,000, equivalent to $5.79 per patient day, in taxes that would not have been paid had the hospitals been operating as voluntary associations.

Someone has said, "It is as difficult to be rich without pride and haughtiness as it is to be poor without grumbling," and we might add self pity. Name the king of Israel who displayed and gloated over treasures only to have them confiscated by Babylon. Isaiah 39

Dear Editor: A lot is being said these days about "quality" education and everybody seems to be highly in favor of same.

Earlier and primitively educated Americans thought education consisted of learning how to read and write and calculate, and that the quality of same was determined largely by the quality of the receiver.

But many of today's social stewards consider such mundane learning irrelevant. Apparently they think education ain't "quality" if it doesn't start with protest, sex and do-your-own-thingsism.

DON OAKLEY COLUMN—Tax-Paying Hospitals Are Holding Cost Down

NEW YORK (NEA) — The American Hospital Association reports that the average cost of a day's stay in one of the nation's general hospitals rose by 11.6 per cent last year to $105.30 — almost double what it was six years ago — and was last seen still heading upward.

Not only are hospital costs going up, but 40 per cent of all U.S. hospitals are outmoded and in need of being replaced, says Barron's magazine. Also, the migration to the suburbs finds new populations now living too far away from older hospitals.

Seven Americans Among Crash Dead

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Seven Americans and 30 others aboard an Egyptian jetliner from Cairo were killed Monday night when the plane struck a mountain ridge while approaching Nicosia airport.

Misrair, the Egyptian airline, said the Americans were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burne Miller, Raymond Jeanne, Thomas Woods and Ann Valentine.

Their hometowns were not immediately available.

Lamesan Named To Baylor Group

WACO—John Paris Sprabery of Lamesa, a graduate of Baylor University and a West Texas businessman, is one of 19 new members serving on the university's Council for Institutional Development.

Sprabery was introduced to members of the council during its annual fall meeting on the university's Waco campus. The council will meet next in April, again on the Waco campus.

Since its beginning about 20 years ago, the council has served as a source of advice, support, planning and overall development for the university.

Sprabery is one of more than 100 council members from all parts of Texas and from throughout the nation.

LBJ Knew About Cease-Fire Accord

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Former President Lyndon B. Johnson died knowing that a cease-fire agreement had been reached for South Vietnam, his widow says.

Johnson was told personally by President Nixon, Mrs. Johnson said in a statement Monday.

Furthermore, Mrs. Johnson said, the former President was in the process of preparing a statement to be released when the cease-fire was formally announced.

Johnson died of a heart attack Monday afternoon, Jan. 22.

President Nixon announced the cease-fire Tuesday night, Jan. 23.

"So many have expressed sorrow... that my husband had no knowledge of the cease-fire agreement in Southeast Asia," said Mrs. Johnson's statement.

"I think his friends should be told that fate was kind.

"Lyndon did know that peace had come."

Mrs. Johnson said her husband was kept "continuously informed at every stage of the long negotiations" by President Nixon, Dr. Henry Kissinger and others.

"He followed those proceedings very closely and said he was so pleased when President Nixon himself called to report the final breakthrough," Mrs. Johnson said.

She said that three days before his death Johnson asked his longtime friend and assistant Horace Busby to begin preparing a statement that Johnson meant to make when the cease-fire was signed.

Aides said Johnson never saw the statement, which was never completed.

"I give thanks that the great heart which sustained him through his many ordeals sustained Lyndon until he knew the ordeal of war was over," Mrs. Johnson said.

"I shall always be grateful to President Nixon for his consideration on this and in so many other ways."
