Kimble Gets Gas Strike

A. N. Norwood of Midland has completed a Canyon sand discovery in Kimble County, No. 1 Weisenburg, 16 miles southwest of Junction.

It gauged a calculated, absolute open flow of 4 million cubic feet of dry gas per day, through perforations at 1,734-1,740 feet, which had been washed with 1,000 gallons of mud acid.

Drilled to 2,411 feet, it has 4 1/2-inch casing seated at 2,232 feet.

The strike spots 660 feet from south and east lines of section 49, TW&NG survey, abstract 638, about five miles southwest of the Shajumar area.

4,000-Foot Probe Slated In Mitchell

U.S. Energy, Inc., Big Spring, has filed application to drill a 4,000-foot exploratory test in Mitchell County, 4 1/2 miles northeast of Westbrook.

Location is 1,273 feet from south and 467 feet from east lines of section 20, block 27, T&P survey, abstract 1410, two miles southwest of the Sharon Ridge field, but separated by depleted producers.

Kent Strike Gets Site For Offset

J. C. Barnes Oil Co., Midland, plans to drill No. 1-B Atkins-Fleming as a 1/2-mile northwest stepout to the one-well Atkins-Fleming (Noodle Creek) field of Kent County, about 15 miles southeast of Claiborne.

Drill site is 1,320 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 31, block K, J. B. Rector, survey.

The discovery, Barnes' No. 1-A Atkins-Fleming, was completed June 20, 1972, for 161 barrels of 42.2-gravity oil per day, through perforations at 4,255-4,259 feet. It currently is producing 14 barrels of oil per day.

Exxon Schedules Wildcat In Curry

Exxon Corp. has scheduled a 6,300-foot Pennsylvanian wildcat in Curry County, N.M., 22 miles northwest of Clovis. It is No. 1 Evelyn G. Brown.

Drill site is 990 feet from south and east lines of section 36-6-34e, six miles north of a 7,538-foot failure.

Lea Prospector Gets Oil On Test

El Paso Natural Gas Co. was bottomed at 16,870 feet, circulating and waiting on orders, after taking a drillstem test at No. 1 Cooper-Federal, Lea County, N.M., wildcat, eight miles northwest of Jal.

Tool was open 2 1/4 hours on the test taken from 16,860-16,870 feet, on which gas surfaced in 20 minutes, volume too small to measure. Recovery was 50 feet of free oil. Operator reverses.

Weather

Unruly weather cropped up in parts of Texas today as a cool front cruised downstate on the heels of a weekend which was a summer scorcher in many areas.

Near dawn, official forecasters placed 47 counties in Central and East Texas under a severe thunderstorm watch. They warned that storms packing hail and destructive winds could be expected in a 20-mile-wide corridor centered on a line from College Station to Shreveport, La.

Prior to the alert, small areas of showers and thunderstorms had developed from Junction and Lampasas, and from north of Beaumont toward Lufkin. Light rain fell between Austin and Waco.

Until the turbulence erupted, it was indicated the frontal system would exert little effect on the state except to bring a bit lower temperatures in the western sections.

Midland temperatures will climb back near 90 Tuesday, after a relatively "cool" day today, according to the National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal. The high today was due to be near 80.

Overnight low will be in the middle 50s. High Sunday was

ARRIVE AT COURT - Former presidential aide Dwight L. Chapin and his wife Susan arrive today at U.S. District Court in Washington, where Chapin went on trial on charges he lied to a grand jury seeking information about political "dirty tricks" of Donald Segretti. (AP Wirephoto.)

Jury Selection Starts In Dwight Chapin Trial

WASHINGTON (AP) - Jury selection began today for the trial of Dwight L. Chapin, charged with lying to a grand jury about the "dirty political tricks" activities of Donald Segretti.

U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard H. Gesell told a panel of 60 that the trial is expected to "not take more than a week or 10 days."

"I can assure you this is a firm estimate; it will not be a long trial," the judge said.

The jury of 12 and four alternates will be sequestered during the trial.

In the courtroom were Chapin's wife, Susan, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Chapin.

Chapin, former presidential appointments secretary, was indicted Nov. 29, 1973, on four counts of lying to a grand jury.

Special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski has said that ousted White House counsel John W. Dean III would be a key government witness against Chapin.

Dean, who pleaded guilty last October to conspiring to obstruct the investigation of the Watergate break-in, already has testified as a prosecution witness at the New York trial of former Cabinet member John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans.

Another key prosecution witness will be Segretti, who served five months in a federal correctional facility after pleading guilty to misdemeanor violations of federal election laws. Segretti was released last Monday.

Like Dean, Segretti agreed to testify. (See CHAPIN Page 2A)

Ranger Sale Talks Start

DALLAS (AP) - Owner Bob Short flew into Dallas today for a secret meeting with industrialist Brad Corbett who reportedly has approximately $10 million ready to pay in cash for the Texas Rangers of the American Baseball League.

Corbett, whose company grossed $55 million last year in the pipe construction business, is the leader of a group interested in purchasing the Rangers from Short.

Where To Vote

Voting places for Tuesday's city election have been announced by City Secretary James McCullough.

The precinct listed on the voter registration certificate is the county precinct, McCullough stated.

Persons in Precincts 1, 5, 7, 10, 12 and 24 will vote at Fire Station No. 1, Texas Street and Fort Worth Street.

Precincts 6, 9, 15, 20 and 27 vote at Fire Station No. 4, DeLano Street and Circle Drive.

Precincts 8, 14, 23 and 26 will cast their ballots at Fire Station No. 5, Golf Course Road and Garfield Street.

Precincts 11, 13, 19, 21 and 22 vote at Fire Station No. 6, Midland Drive and Thomason Street.

County precincts not eligible to vote in Tuesday's election are 2, 3, 4, 16, 17, 18, 25 and 28.

Midland To Choose Three Officials Tuesday

Midland voters will elect a mayor and two city councilmen Tuesday in balloting at four polling places throughout the city.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Only one race, for Place 5, is contested, however, as Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr. and Place 4 Councilman Frank Keil Cahoon are unopposed in their re-election bids.

Four candidates are vying for Mayor Pro Tempore John Pike's

Place 5 seat, including Mrs. Patricia Griffith, housewife; Warren Faller, Realtor and appraiser; Mark S. Martin, area landman for Dow Chemical Co., and Raymond E. Howard, environmental and safety coordinator for Atlantic Richfield Co. All are political novices.

Mayor Angelo is an independent petroleum engineer and Cahoon is chairman of the board of Research Fuels, Inc.

According to statements filed by the four opposed Place 5 candidates, Mrs. Griffith spent the most money on her campaign, followed closely by Martin. Expenditures for both candidates were more than double those of either Faller or Howard.

Under state law, the four opposed candidates are required to file a list of contributions and expenditures between 40 and 31 days prior to the election, and a second list between 10 and seven days before the voting. A third and final report is required within 31 days after the balloting.

None of the four candidates listed any contributions or expenditures on the first report. On the second report, Mrs. Griffith showed no contributions and $567.28 in expenses, compared with Martin's $703.25 in contributions and $563.35 in expenses. Martin also lists a $500 loan and campaign debts of $50.

Faller's second report lists $580 in contributions and $246.56 in expenditures. Howard showed contributions of $395.08 and expenditures of $232.92.

Neither Mayor Angelo nor Cahoon were required to file such reports as they are unopposed.

Meat, Egg Price Declines Trim Family Grocery Bill

By LOUISE COOK Associated Press Writer

The family grocery bill declined slightly during March, the first such drop in five months, an AP marketbasket survey shows.

More items went up in price than went down. But sales on meat and eggs cut the dollar value of the marketbasket in nine of 13 cities checked, with an average decrease of 2.2 per cent. It was the first month since October that marketbasket declines outnumbered increases.

The AP priced 15 food and nonfood items in 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked at the beginning of each succeeding month.

The latest check showed that 32.3 per cent of the items in the survey went up in price during March 1974; 23.6 per cent decreased; 36.4 per cent were unchanged, and 7.7 per cent were unavailable on one of the two survey dates.

The marketbasket decreases ranged from a fraction of a per cent in Albuquerque, N.M., to 4 per cent in Boston, where the

Steel Talks Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP)—Steel industry negotiators sat down today in an atmosphere of hopefulness that they will agree on a new contract by a self-imposed April 15 deadline.

If they do not have an agreement by that time, they said they would submit all unresolved issues to binding arbitration.

United Steel Workers President I. W. Abel has indicated he is seeking a wage increase above 10 per cent.

Kidnapers Demand No Retaliation

ASMARA, Ethiopia (AP)—Eritrean Liberation Front guerrillas have promised to release five captive Americans and Canadians if Ethiopian authorities guarantee not to retaliate, a United States oil company official disclosed today.

Edward Burchall, general manager of the Tenneco Oil Co. here, said the guarantee was "the only demand so far." He added Ethiopian authorities were "cooperating fully to win the release of the men, and I'm hoping they will be freed by Tuesday."

All In Good Spirits

Burchall said he had spoken with all five captives by radio and they appeared to be "in good spirits and mentally and physically all right." He said details of their release had not yet been worked out.

The fact that the only guerrilla demand was no retaliation caused speculation among diplomats in Addis Ababa that the kidnapers belonged to a "low-ranking group with no senior officers and probably out of touch with their headquarters."

Captive Six Days

The men have been held for six days somewhere in the rugged canyon country of northern Ethiopia, where rebels have been waging a 10-year guerrilla campaign against the federal government.

The Liberation Front seeks autonomy for Eritrea Province, a former Italian colony which is Ethiopia's only outlet to the Red Sea.

The five men — three Americans and two Canadians — were on an oil exploration trip when captured.

Donated Papers Said 'Culled'

NEW YORK (AP) - The newspaper quoted testimony given to the congressional Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, which is investigating Nixon's tax returns, and an inventory of the papers as the source for its information.

The "sensitive" documents were removed despite the fact that the President stipulated in his gift that no unauthorized person could see the papers before he left the White House, the Times said.

Some items of clear historical interest were included, such as briefing materials prepared for Nixon before his trips as vice president to the Far East, South America, Australia, Britain and the Soviet Union.

But also among the 1,176 boxes of papers were 229 boxes of invitations to Nixon to attend social events and to give speeches along with carbon copies of his replies, mostly "turndowns," the Times said.

Meat, Egg Price Declines Trim Family Grocery Bill

All-beef frankfurters, for example, declined in 11 cities during March and stayed the same in two. The average decline was 9 per cent. The average price of a 14 1/2-ounce bag of cookies was 61 cents on March 1, 1973; 79 cents on March 1, 1974, and 75 cents on March 30, 1974, for an over-all increase of 30 per cent.

Sugar was up at the retail as well as the wholesale level. A five-pound bag of granulated sugar that cost an average of 68 cents on March 1, 1973, cost $1.00 12 months later and was up to $1.17 in the latest survey, for an over-all increase of 72 per cent. Sugar went up in all 13 cities during both February and March, with an average March increase of 17 per cent.

The items on the AP checklist were chopped chuck, pork chops, frozen orange juice, coffee, paper towels, butter, eggs, peanut butter, detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, frankfurters and sugar.

The cities covered by the survey were Atlanta, Albuquerque, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Providence, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Seattle.

International Food Reserve System Proposed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — grain reserves represent less than one month's supply— a perilously thin buffer against the vagaries of weather or plant diseases.

Lester R. Brown, senior fellow of the Overseas Development Council, said the world's exportable surplus of grains that the Middle East does of oil," Brown said, and the United States is trying to put 50 million acres of idle cropland back into production. A drought probably would not be as great as the one in the 1930s because of improved soil management and water conservation practices, he said, but even a modest decline in production "would create a very dangerous situation. It would send shock waves throughout the world, triggering intense competition for available food supplies."

"Just as the U.S. dollar can no longer serve as the foundation of the international monetary system, so U.S. agriculture may no longer have sufficient excess capacity to ensure reasonable stability in the world food economy over a multi-year period," he said.

Brown said the world's greatest opportunities to increase food production lie in the developing countries. Concentrating in these areas "would not only increase food production at a relatively low cost, but would also meet the basic social needs of people throughout the world. The latter is a prerequisite in lowering birth rates."

Dr. John Knowles, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, said one critical choice facing mankind in the last quarter of this century is whether foreign aid, and especially health care assistance, should be given only where a developing country has a stated policy "on population stabilization and-or health," Knowles said it would cost $100 billion to train the additional 3.5 million doctors needed to bring the world up to the U.S. ratio of one doctor for every 780 people.

Lady Bird Johnson, who invited the commission to hold its second meeting in the library built to house her husband's documents, said it should be

But it is not obvious to everyone, she said. "After years of effort and much expense, there is still much poverty and want in the cities and rural areas, much ugliness and spoiling of the land and waters, still much uncertainty about the best way to teach youngsters or to administer health care."

High Court Upholds Bank Reporting Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today upheld a controversial federal law requiring broad scale reporting by banks of citizens' financial transactions.

Critics call the law a massive invasion of constitutional rights, but the government claims it is necessary to fight increasingly sophisticated crime.

By a vote of 6 to 3 the court upheld the Bank Secrecy Act, overturning in part a lower

Liberal Democrat Says Fight Likely

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Liberal leader Mrs. Billie Carr of Houston today promised a fight at the Democratic Party's national mini-convention in December if the state party's "affirmative action" plan doesn't bear fruit.

And, she said, the way things are going it probably won't. Mrs. Carr, a national committee member from Texas, called a news conference to complain about the "Governor's Convention Committee" and about what she called an "anemic" affirmative action program.

The State Democratic Executive Committee, under mandate from the party's 1972 national convention, adopted the affirmative action plan to attract Democrats from all walks of life to the May 4 precinct conventions. Those conventions are the first step toward choosing delegates to the Dec. 7-9 national Democratic meeting in Kansas City, Mo., which is supposed to adopt a permanent charter for the party.

The observance of Presbyterian Week in Midland got off to a fast start Sunday, with special services scheduled to continue morning, noon and night through Wednesday.

The observance is sponsored by the Midland Presbyterian Corporate Ministry, which includes the First, Covenant, Christ and Trinity Presbyterian churches.

A near-capacity crowd attended the opening service held Sunday morning in the First church. The Rev. John Alexander, pastor of Covenant church, and the Rev. Jonathan Hole, pastor of Christ church, were featured in a dialogue sermon.

Dr. Ball opened his series of sermons at the Sunday night service. "All in the Family" was his sermon topic.

Tonight's service will be held in Covenant church, Tuesday night, Christ church, and Wednesday night, Trinity church. The services are scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Bible studies are held at 7 a.m. (First church) and 9:30 a.m. (Christ church) daily. Luncheons are scheduled daily in the First church.

Texas party rules adopted Jan. 19 say that any group that has 20 per cent or more of a precinct convention is entitled to its proportionate share of the precinct's delegation to the next step, the county or senatorial district convention's May 11.

Mrs. Carr said "all loyal Democrats" should sign precinct convention petitions calling for "a permanent charter for the Democratic Party which guarantees full participation for all elements upon whom we depend for victory at the polls in November."

Convention Turns To Tax Ground Rules

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Should a Texas Constitution, setting out the ground rules for state and local government, tell cities and counties and school districts what their maximum tax rates should be?

Legislator-delegates to the Texas Constitutional Convention debate that issue today, starting with a committee recommendation that there should be a local tax limit.

The Constitutional Revision Commission—consisting of private citizens, not legislators—recommended against any such limit.

If this afternoon's session moves swiftly enough, there also was a chance the convention would reach the question of whether voters should be allowed to decide on the form of government their counties should have.

This question of county home rule, which would be submitted separately from the main constitution if at all, has divided officials of various counties into opposing camps.

The delegates are in their final week before taking a month-long recess to allow those who have political races to go home and campaign. Friday is the last day before the recess.

Jury Selection Under Way Here

A jury to hear the Louie Hill rape case in Midland's 142nd District Court this week was being selected shortly before noon today, and the jury for another trial was expected to be chosen this afternoon.

Hill, 23, is charged with a Feb. 28, 1973, rape. His first trial ended in a mistrial last June after a jury reported it could not reach a verdict.

The second trial set for this week is for Jimmie Dwan Morgan, charged with burglary. About 30 guilty pleas are expected to be entered this week.

Defense Witness Says Osorio's Signature Forged

DALLAS (AP) — A defense witness in the fraud-conspiracy trial of former Texas Insurance Commissioner John Osorio testified today that signatures on two letters critical to Osorio's case are forgeries.

The witness, James L. Lewis, former director of the Secret Service Questioned Document School, said "it is my opinion he (Osorio) is not the author of either of the signatures." Lewis has been a specialist in handwriting and study of forged documents for 30 years.

The two letters to the Bank of Louisville, Ky., purport to be Osorio's request that labels restricting the use of certain unregistered RIC International stock be removed.

The government claims Osorio and former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Dallas businessman David Hoover plotted to use the altered stock as collateral for $3 million in loans.

Chapin Jury Selection Begins At Washington

Meanwhile, Vice President Gerald R. Ford has blasted the Committee for the Re-election of the President, describing it in a Chicago speech as an "arrogant, elite guard of political adolescents."

Ford spoke Saturday to more than 1,000 midwest Republicans, including GOP National Chairman George Bush and presidential hopeful Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois.

The audience stood and cheered Ford's biting remarks about the re-election committee.

He said the committee "violated the historic concept of the two-party system in America and ran roughshod over the seasoned political judgment and experience of the regular Republican party organization in the 50 states. The fatal defect of CREEP was that it made its own rules and thus made its own ruler," he said.

Later, Ford told a news conference he "spoke as my own man," that his remarks had not been cleared with the White House.

In other Watergate developments, Percy said Sunday in New Haven he expects Nixon to be impeached this year. Meanwhile, sources in Washington said quiet preparations are underway in several Senate offices for a possible impeachment trial. The sources also said other studies are underway by individual senators.

The Chapin indictment said he testified April 11, 1973, before a grand jury investigating Segretti's activities.

Chapin told the grand jury he never discussed the distribution of "campaign literature of any kind with Segretti and was unaware that Segretti ever distributed such literature.

The indictment alleged that Chapin's answers "as he then there well knew, were false."

Each count carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The witness, Stanley Sporkin, director of the enforcement division of the Securities and Exchange Commission, testified as the conspiracy trial of former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and former Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans stated its seventh week.

Sporkin said that he was trying to find out the source and use of $250,000 in cash that Vesco transferred from the Bahamas to New York in April 1972. He said that in the effort to identify its source and use he had subpoenaed several Vesco employees shortly before the Nov. 7, 1972, election.

Sporkin said William Casey, then chairman of the SEC, telephoned him on Nov. 1 and asked if it wouldn't be possible to postpone the appearance of those Vesco aides because it could be "politically embarrassing."

Accident Kills Odessa Youth

ODESSA — Fifteen-year-old Terry Lee Thornton of Odessa was dead on arrival at Medical Center Hospital about 5:25 p.m. Sunday following a collision of his bicycle and a car in the 3100 block of North Muskingum Street.

Driver of the car, Brenda Rose Newby, 24, also of Odessa, was admitted to Medical Center for observation. Spokesmen said she was in shock when she was admitted but her condition had improved by today.

Automobile Hits Midland Business

A car hit the front of Bill Connor's Grocery, 2420 W. Illinois St., about 9 p.m. Sunday, causing about $500 damage to the store and minor damages to the vehicle.

The driver, Mrs. Eudoris Remmert Koch, 42, of 2808 Durrant St., received minor injuries but did not seek medical aid. Patrolman L. R. Stratton reported.

The officer said the car turned off Illinois Street into the parking area of the grocery store and did not stop in time to avoid striking the building.

Investigation Continues In Gas Poisoning Deaths

CRANE — Investigation is continuing in the gas poisoning deaths of two Crane residents early Saturday.

Mrs. Corina Deanda Rivas, 25, was found dead in an automobile about a mile north of Crane. A companion, Lujan Carrasco, 19, was taken unconscious to an Odessa hospital, where he died Sunday.

Crane Justice of the Peace Clara Crowmer said an autopsy showed that Mrs. Rivas died of gas poisoning.

Carrasco and Mrs. Rivas were found about 8:30 a.m. Saturday by a pumper for Gulf Oil Co. A pickup truck occupied by four juveniles apparently hit a flow line near the automobile, bursting the pipe and causing the gas to escape, Sheriff Raymond Weatherly said. The victims apparently got out of the car once, but returned to the car where they were found.

No charges have been filed against the four youths, pending entry.

Soviets Shipped Petroleum To U.S. During Boycott

NEW YORK (AP) — Even as the Soviet Union was publicly supporting the Arab oil boycott against the United States, the Russians were shipping quantities of their own petroleum products to this country.

U.S. Customs records here show that since the first of the year, four tankers loaded with Russian petroleum products docked in New York and New Jersey ports.

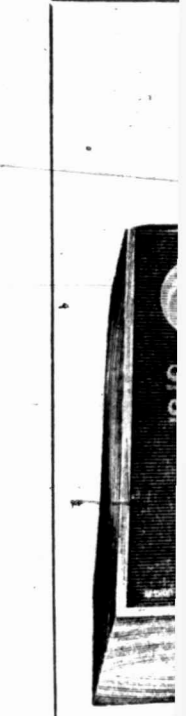

All of the Soviet shipments which included millions of gallons of gasoline, originated in the Black Sea port city of Tuapse.

Local oil brokers and federal officials in Washington said the Russian petroleum shipments began long before the Arab boycott was initiated last October. They added there never seemed to be any question that the shipments would continue uninterrupted during the boycott.

Burglary Among Most Rapidly Mushrooming Trades In U.S.

By F. RICHARD CICCONE
CHICAGO (AP) — Burglary is one of the most rapidly growing occupations in the United States, says James C. Miller. He heads a firm that manufactures burglary-alarm devices and hires convicted burglars as consultants. The former convicts enlighten the firm on tricks of the burglary trade and how to thwart them. Miller, president of Intermatic Inc., says there may be as many as three million burglaries in the country this year. He theorizes the energy crisis may be promoting an increase in the crime.

"When you have a reduction in lighting, you have an increase in burglaries," Miller said in an interview.

The FBI reported that in 1972, the last full year for which complete figures were available, there were 2.34 million burglaries in the country. The burglary rate jumped 38 per cent in the five-year period from 1967 to 1972.

Miller said his firm's burglary consultants "have told us a lot about how burglars operate and are able to inform customers of the best ways to discourage a burglar."

"There are two kinds of burglars," he said. "One is the kind you see on television and then there are all the rest."

Miller's consultants say they don't know the kind of burglar who uses electromagnets and helicopters to make dazzling jewel thefts. "If they exist, they probably never get caught," Miller said.

"All the rest are either self-taught or learned the trade in prison from other thieves," he says. He also says that burglars don't spend time staking out houses. "They simply walk through a neighborhood and when they spot a home where they believe nobody is home, they break in. The crucial time is between 6 p.m. and 11 p.m."

Some Sure Tip-Offs

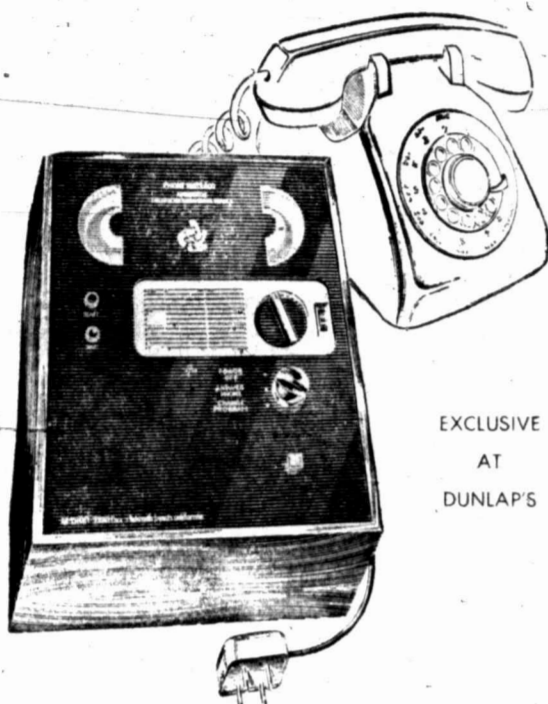

Burglars usually knock on doors and if someone turns out to be home they pose as a salesman who has the wrong address.

"A sure tip-off to the burglar is to see the same light burning all the time. Another is a perfectly cleaned house. If women would leave the bed mussed up, we'd never have burglaries," he said.

Burglars are frightened most by noise, he says. "If you leave a radio on, a burglar rarely will enter a house."

Daylight burglaries also have increased, Miller said. "After all, most burglars wear suits and look just like businessmen. They don't go around in masks with their collars turned up."

Fight Rages For 21st Day On Heights

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For the 21st consecutive day, Syrian and Israeli armor and artillery clashed along their 40-mile cease-fire line on the Golan Heights this morning.

The Israeli command said the Syrians fired first on Israeli positions in the southern sector of the plateau. It reported no casualties.

The Syrian command said its heavy artillery pounded Israeli positions on four major hills of the Heights overlooking Quneitra, the large Syrian town seized by Israel during the 1967 war.

The report said tanks and anti-aircraft guns were duelling in several locations. The Syrians also gave no report of casualties.

Cold Brews Snow, Hail

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Late season snow piled up in northern Wisconsin and Minnesota today, while storms and showers thundered through the Central Plains.

Wausaw, Wis., received 3 inches of snow during the night and 1 inch fell at Duluth, Minn. Heavy snow warnings for accumulations of more than 4 inches were issued in the upper Mississippi Valley.

West Coast Gales

Heavy thunderstorms in northeastern Illinois were accompanied by hail the size of marbles. But although thunderstorms extended from southern Minnesota to Kansas, precipitation was light.

A cold front swept into the Pacific Northwest, spreading showers from Washington to central California and depositing a little snow in the mountains of southern Oregon. Gale warnings were posted along the Washington coast.

In the South, another cold front began cooling off temperatures that Sunday soared into the 90s from Texas to Louisiana and Arkansas.

Clear In Southwest

Cloudy skies covered the area from the Great Lakes to the north Atlantic Coast and extended to the western and central Gulf states. But mostly clear skies were reported along the central and southern Atlantic coast, and in the Rockies and Southwest.

Near-normal temperatures prevailed throughout much of the country, and the early morning extremes ranged from 79 degrees at Wichita Falls, Tex., to 21 at Kincheloe Air Force Base near Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Ford's Son John Now Disillusioned

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford's son John worked for President Nixon's re-election in 1972. "But of late, I have become disillusioned with him," the younger Ford says of Nixon.

Young Ford made the comment in an interview published Sunday in the Salt Lake City Tribune. "I'm not so sure my father disagrees with me," he said.

Ford also said he doesn't think his father will run for President in 1976.

New U.S. Envoy Reaches Cambodia

PHNOM PENH (AP) — John Gunther Dean has taken over as the United States Ambassador in Cambodia. He arrived Sunday to take over the post vacant since Ambassador Emory Swank left last August.

One of Dean's principal tasks will be to monitor the performance of the Cambodian Army. The United States spends an average of $1.6 million daily in military and economic aid to Cambodia.

COMPROMISE PAYOFF—

Little Fishy, But True

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Stan Mazanek was $650 richer today thanks to the direct mail practices of an Oklahoma insurance company and his recently deceased guppy, Fred Fin.

Last year, while a student at the University of Arizona in Tucson, Mazanek received a mail offer from Globe Life & Accident Insurance Co. of Oklahoma City for a $5,000 life insurance policy. The offer said the policy would run for six months and the premium would cost only $1, a special student discount.

As a joke, Mazanek decided to sign up his 60-cent guppy, Fred Fin Mazanek, for the insurance.

Filled In Carefully
Carefully filled in all information, listing Fred Fin's height as three centimeters and weight as 30 centigrams. The fish's age of 6 months was included and, as beneficiary, he wrote in "Stanley J. Mazanek—Owner."

To Mazanek's surprise, he soon received a formal policy insuring the life of Fred Fin Mazanek.

In December, when Fred Fin died of natural causes, Mazanek decided, still as a joke, to write Globe Life that the insured had died within the policy's six-month span and, as beneficiary, the firm owed him $5,000.

The company sent a representative to Tucson at once to see if Mazanek was serious. Mazanek decided he was

Crane Rifle Teams Place In Competition

CRANE — Three Crane 4-H rifle teams placed in the National Rifleman's Association junior competition recently at Monahans.

The Crane Junior Team, which won the club division, was composed of Todd Woodard, Dan Rathmell, Jim Smitherman and Teddy Whitmore.

Crane's Girls' Team, which was first in the Open Julia Division, was composed of Julia Carson, Sherry Knight, Debbie Strand, and DiAnna Strand.

The Sub-Junior Team, which placed second in their division, included Jimmy Fox, Cody Griffin, Randy Knight and Debbie Strand.

serious and informed the representative that Globe Life had insured a life for $5,000 and that life had expired before the policy. So, he reasoned, the firm owed him $5,000.

"We sat there and argued like a couple of drunk horse traders," Mazanek said.

He brought his demand down to $1,000 and the insurance man said $650 was as high as he would go in settlement. Finally, as the Globe Life representative was leaving, Mazanek consented to the $650.

"I haven't done anything illegal," he said. "The company didn't specify that the insured had to be human and I filled out every blank with information that couldn't possibly relate to a real person."

Bill MacDonald, a public relations spokesman for Globe Life, explained why the company paid Mazanek his claim.

"Our legal counsel said that Mazanek didn't really have a case, but we settled the claim because of the adverse publicity we'd get if he tried to go to court," he said. "The way people feel about direct mail, quote junk mail unquote, we knew there would be bad publicity."

Another company spokesman said Fred Fin Mazanek's policy was one of 320,000 identical policies to be processed during last year's direct mail campaign.

MacDonald added, "These mistakes will happen when you have people doing the same routine job day after day. A bunch of heads have rolled since. We're checking applications a little closer now."

Mazanek, who now lives here, said, "I've spent a little of the money, bought two more guppies and took my wife out for a fish dinner."

When you see this sign you usually think of a Shamrock service station, where you get Cloud Master and Trail Master gasolines and Shamrock's fine family of motor oils. Shamrock, however, is more than just a service station. Our products mean many things to many people.

To farmers, Shamrock is fertilizer as well as fuels and lubricants for farm machines. Sportsmen may think of us as Shamrock Boat 'n' Trail motor oil and marine fuel, while others may identify with Shamrock's Lush Lawn fertilizer. Industrial and commercial consumers look to Shamrock for lubricants of all kinds... for diesel, jet and turbine fuels... for elemental sulphur, sulphuric acid, carbon dioxide, asphalt and carbon black oil. Shamrock natural gas and LP gas are produced for domestic, farm and industrial use.

We are going all out to produce as much of these products as we possibly can during the energy shortage.

Diamond Shamrock is engaged in exploring for, developing, producing, transporting, refining and marketing natural gas, crude oil and petroleum products to service many different needs. Thus, what the Shamrock emblem may mean to you depends on how you look at us.

Joke Phone Calls Bring Few Laughs

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — We have a new foam rubber mattress and spring set. The mattress keeps slipping and it has to be put back in place every morning. How do other readers remedy this situation? — HELEN

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with children who have nothing better to do on a Sunday afternoon than to make joke calls on the telephone. They forget someone who is sick may be out of bed to answer a stupid question. It seems their parents would have some idea of what they were doing. — CAMELLIA

DEAR POLLY — In reply to the query from M.R.B., elastic can be stretched by wetting it and then stretching it over something the size you want it to be. Leave until elastic is completely dry. — EVA

DEAR POLLY — I have help for M.R.B. who finds the waist elastic often is too tight although a garment fits her otherwise. She will have to be somewhat governed by the way the elastic is sewed on but she could rip loose one, two, three or four inches of the elastic but it may take a bit of experimenting. The cloth underneath will then expand to provide more inches so that would determine how much she should rip. Reinforce the cloth top where it was stitched to the elastic or it will tear. This could be done by going over and over it with the zigzag stitch on the sewing machine. Do not cut off the ripped elastic until you are certain. If too much is ripped, sew part of it back. This also is successful for children's panties. Much depends on how the elastic was first sewed on. If you are sure the added width is right, bias tape could be sewed over the top cut edge. Do not do this at a seam or things might get complicated. — MRS. M.

DEAR POLLY — When making pie crust I always was afraid it might tear. Now I turn my pie pan down over the rolled out crust and flip it back over the pan as it is turned and the crust does not tear apart. — MRS. C. H.

DEAR POLLY — My family is making a whole-hearted effort to save where possible during the energy crisis and shortages in other areas. One of the things we are worried about is wasting water. Every time we let the water run to get it hot for dishwashing or cold for a drink we fill a special jug instead of letting the water run down the drain until it is the proper temperature. We use this jug of water for many things — ice cubes, watering plants and pets, vaporizers and so on. This seems small in itself but if everyone did the same it would amount to a lot. — K. R.

Elegance In Sportswear Answer To Today's Needs

NEW YORK (NEA) — Easy-care elegance in sportswear is the answer to today's fashion needs. And one firm has heard the message and brought out an elegant sportswear collection in ice-cream-cool colors in quality manmade fabrics and blends.

Dick Poth, a manager of fashion and style development, summed up the concept.

"The styles are tuned to customers needs for quality and fine workmanship during warm-weather months," he said. "The sportswear is totally coordinated in exclusive easy-care fabrics woven in our own mills. Every style is machine-washable and dryable. We want to make it as easy as possible for a woman to put together a wardrobe she can be proud of. We believe we offer her the essence of ease, elegantly stated."

In the past five years this firm has been steadily developing its identity. In this collection the line is firmly established as an in-depth resource for

RAYMOND E. HOWARD

Midland, Texas 79701

Dear Friends:

Tomorrow is election day in Midland, and you will choose one person to serve as your City Councilman in the Place 5 contest. I hope you will, after carefully considering the campaigns and the qualifications of all candidates, cast your vote for me. You can be sure that I will do the very best job I know how to do, if I am elected.

Midland is the greatest place in the world to live and work, and we want to keep it that way. The vitality of our city is directly dependent upon the vitality of a free and competitive oil industry. If we are to remain the headquarters city of the nation's largest oil and gas producing area, we must continue to provide and improve our city services and make them second to none. We have a fine town, and our future is limitless.

I want very much to work for you and for Midland. Let's plan ahead full use of our many assets and opportunities. We have more talented, enthusiastic, capable people in Midland than in any other city I know of with no trouble at all.

Please vote tomorrow. I shall appreciate your vote at the polls, and your help and advice as a member of your City Council.

Sincerely,
Raymond E. Howard

These bright ideas will help you light your home more efficiently.

It makes sense to use adequate lighting for reading, working or for security, and it makes sense to do it efficiently.

Locate table lamps so they provide the most light and fewest shadows.

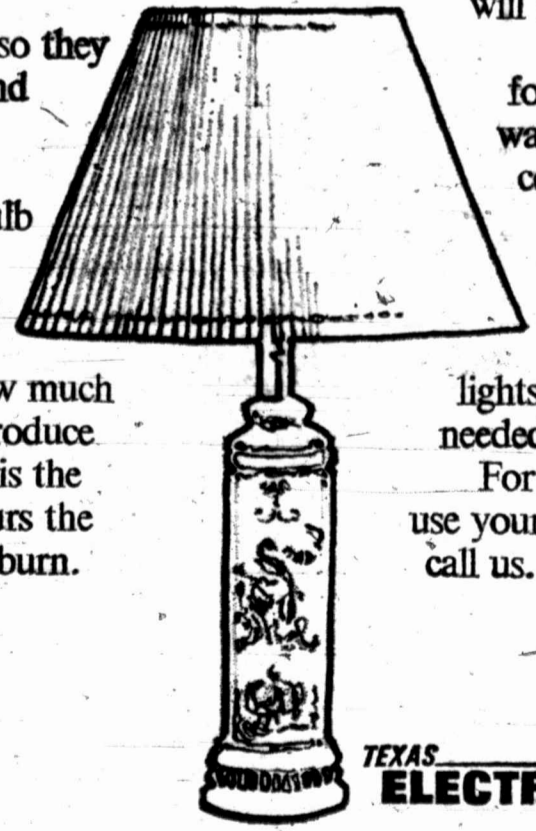

When buying light bulbs, choose the right bulb for the job. Remember that the lumen rating tells you the light output of bulbs: Watts tell you how much electricity is needed to produce that light. And bulb life is the estimated number of hours the bulb can be expected to burn.

Where bulbs are difficult to change, choose a "long life" bulb which may have less lumens for its wattage, but will last longer.

Decorative lights call for less lumens and lower wattage. A photo electric cell or timer will regulate the use of security lighting.

And it's always a good idea to turn lights off when they are not needed.

For more ideas on how to use your electric service wisely, call us. We'd like to help.

Dear Abby

Wake Up! Charles Is Not Your Prince Charming

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: How can I meet Prince Charles? I have always admired him, and it has been my dream to meet him one day, but I'm not having any luck.

I've written him several letters, and each time his secretary has answered, saying: "The Prince of Wales regrets that he is unable to meet you." I am a normal, intelligent 20-year-old college girl. I'm told I am pretty and have a pleasing personality. I've read everything I could find about the royal family in general and Prince Charles in particular. I'll bet I know more about the royal family than most people living in England and the rest of the United Kingdom.

I hope you won't think I'm crazy, but I have even taken horseback riding lessons, and I plan to take flying lessons when I can afford it because I know those are Prince Charles' favorite sports. Also, if we ever meet, I will have something to talk to him about.

Abby, you're supposed to have all the answers. Can you help my dream come true?

Altrusa Club Of Midland Elects New Officer Slate

Mrs. John J. Carter was elected president of the Altrusa Club of Midland at a meeting Thursday in the Plaza del Sol Restaurant.

Other officers named were Mrs. J. P. H. Mullan Jr., vice president; Mrs. Roy F. Gardner, recording secretary; Mrs. A. E. Houck, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. W. N. Keisling, treasurer. Mrs. Bertie Boone and Mrs. F. R. Myers Jr. were named to the board of directors, replacing Mrs. Lewis Feagan and Mrs. George S. Park.

Mrs. Feagan was chairman of the nominating committee. The new officers will be installed June 27, with the Altrusa information committee in charge of the program.

Judge Barbara Culver, member of the Texas Constitution revisions committee and of the club, was the speaker. She recently was named second vice president of the National Association of Regional Councils and was selected Outstanding Woman of the Year by the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of District 8.

Judge Culver, who was president of the Altrusa Club in 1965, pointed out the present Texas Constitution is the state's fourth one and is more than 100 years old. "Consequently, it has been patched by amendments many, many times as changing times and conditions called for revision of laws and statutes," Judge Culver said. There have been more than 400 amendments proposed, she said, and more than 200 have been adopted.

Judge Culver emphasized the importance of all citizens learning as much as possible about going to the polls in November. She pointed out that Midland has a senator and representative with whom to discuss issues that are not clear. She concluded by saying if the revision is voted down, the state will be left with the "patched" 100-year-old constitution which has to be amended to continually meet the needs of a changing society.

It was reported the club's

WHAT IS THE TRUTH?
"Thy Word is Truth" (John 17:17)
by
Bryan Bost

Once there was a conversation between an ambitious young man and an older man who knew life. The young man said, "I will learn my trade." "And then?" asked the older man. "I will set up a business." "And then?" "I will make my fortune." "And then?" "I suppose that I shall grow old and retire and live on my money." "And then?" "Well, I suppose that some day I will die." "And then?" came the last stinging question.

The ultimate concern of life is preparation for death. The person who never remembers that there is another world is destined some day for the grimmest of grim shocks. While our present life is important, the Bible points out that it is almost nothing in comparison to the vastness of eternity: "what is your life but a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes" (James 4:14). In view of this reality we should use this life as a time of preparation in order to be with God throughout eternity. We should think about death and what comes after it and put our lives into the hands of the one who can provide salvation.

Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life; we cannot go to God except through him (John 14:6). Jesus shows us the way to live and die. He has provided for life after death. Our goal should be to say with Paul, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21).

Woman Officer Earns Respect

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lt. Larua Lynn Livingston is a woman in a tough business. She is an officer in the U.S. Army's military police.

One of the first five female officers in the MP corps, she pulls patrol duty at San Francisco's Presidio and has commanded an all-male platoon.

Lieutenant Livingston carries a .38-caliber revolver instead of the MP standard .45-automatic and in other ways does not fit the stereotype of a burly, tough MP.

"Oh, I'm not really that mean," she says.

"She's very knowledgeable, very professional and a fine leader," said Lt. Col. Van D. Lolladay, commander of the crack 504th Military Police Battalion at the Presidio. For several months, Lieutenant Livingston commanded a platoon of 32 military policemen—all of them male.

"Initially, I did have problems," she admits. "But I spent two weeks on bivouac with these men as platoon leader."

"I picked creepy crawlers out of my hair and I went without a bath for a week. After you come out of something like that, you've earned the respect of your men."

She is now battalion assistant logistics officer, a step above platoon leader in the military hierarchy.

"WHY MAKE-UP CAUSES LARGE PORES"

Make-up is made of powder. When you wash your face with soap, the make-up is pushed deeper and deeper into the pores, causing them to enlarge. When you cleanse your face with cleanser, the make-up is dissolved and the pores become smaller.

Come in and consult Pauline Gazzelle; she'll be happy to demonstrate the cleansing cream you should be using with Peel O Matrique. 100 Applications — $20.00.

Dear Women Of Midland

Warren is running for City Council, Place 5, Tuesday, April 2. I assure you he will do a conscientious, dedicated job.

He has been a Realtor 18 years and knows every part of the city. His work as an appraiser requires a study of each neighborhood.

I am proud of his accomplishments: member of the Planning and Zoning Commission, the Board of Equalization, the directorship of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, and his work with the Board of Realtors.

We are parents of three native Midlanders, all in school here. Warren wants Midland to continue to be a great city, large or small.

As an independent, he knows the value of well managed time and money. He will carefully study and think through any issue that comes before the council.

I ask you to vote for him Tuesday.

Thank you.

Troops Seal Off Belfast Market Area After Bloody Weekend In North Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Hundreds of troops and police today sealed off the market area of Belfast, an Irish Republican Army stronghold, in a major search for terrorist explosives.

The search came as Prime Minister Harold Wilson prepared to meet in London with key cabinet ministers to discuss new security measures after a weekend of violence that left six dead in Ulster.

Merlyn Rees, the secretary of state for Northern Ireland, returned from Belfast to London to give Wilson a first-hand account of the weekend bloodshed. Rees will deliver a policy statement to the House of Commons Thursday and is expected to announce the new security measures.

Political commentators predict these will probably include tightening security at Northern Ireland's ports and along the 260-mile border with the Irish Republic. That would be an attempt to block the terrorists' pipelines for smuggled explosives, and more intensive roadblock and search operations.

After the four-day onslaught of widespread bombing and shooting, Brian Faulkner, the province's chief executive, called on London to take "really resolute action" to curb the gunmen and bombers.

In addition to the six dead, 49 persons were wounded, and the centers of three towns were devastated by bombs smuggled through military cordons. The last to die was a young Protestant hit by sniper bullets on a dimly lit street in the Protestant Shankill Road quarter of Belfast. His 19-year-old girlfriend was seriously wounded.

Police believe the Irish Republican Army was to blame, seeking revenge for bomb attacks on Roman Catholic bars over the weekend in which two men were killed.

Two more men died when a Protestant bar was bombed Saturday, and a Roman Catholic man was found shot through the head Sunday in a children's playground, several hours after he was kidnapped from a bar. Security forces speculated he was assassinated by an IRA squad.

The killings raised the confirmed death toll in Ulster's communal warfare to 989 since August 1969.

Sen. Byrd Labels White House Position 'Stupid'

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia today labeled as "stupid" White House demands that the House Judiciary Committee draw up charges against President Nixon before seeking more evidence.

The Democratic whip also indicated he thought Nixon, and not Congress, was dragging out Watergate and that impeachment has become more likely since the Watergate grand jury returned indictments.

Byrd, interviewed on the CBS "Morning News" television program, said however, that he did not think Nixon should resign, or that his resignation would spare the nation turmoil.

"I think that's stupid," Byrd said when asked about the White House position that charges should be drawn now. "I think it's unreasonable."

"Common sense would say that the House can't draw up a list of charges without the evidence. The evidence is presumably in the hands of the people against whom the charges will be brought."

He said Nixon's criticism of the impeachment inquiry was unjustified and an "attempt to shift the heat from himself to Congress... and put pressure on Congress either to hurry it up and get it over with — which would be unfair to the President, I think, and unfair to the people — or to get off his back, a term which has been wrongfully used, because Congress isn't on his back."

Plates Must Be On By Midnight

Midnight today is the deadline for having '74 license tags on vehicles in Texas.

At 5 p.m. Saturday, there had been 47,158 sets of tags sold, according to Mrs. Frances Shuffield, chief deputy in the tax office.

Although it will be illegal to drive a car on a public street without the '74 plates after midnight, there is no penalty assessed if the vehicle hasn't been driven.

When a vehicle owner purchases plates beginning Tuesday, he must sign an affidavit that he has not driven the vehicle if he hasn't, or a son, a daughter, a brother, three sisters and his parents, assessed. That penalty will be paid as part of the license price.

Robert L. Woolton Dies At Beaumont. CANTON — Robert Lee Woolton, 32, formerly of Midland, died Saturday at Beaumont of a gunshot wound. No ruling has been returned in the death.

WATCH YOUR STEP — A Secret Service agent steadies Secretary of State Henry Kissinger on an Acapulco boat dock as his wife, Nancy, watches. The Kissingers took a boat ride Sunday in Acapulco Bay. (AP Wirephoto.)

Oil-Heated Homes Cut Consumption

BOSTON (AP) — The average oil-heated household in Massachusetts has consumed about 20 per cent less fuel this year, according to a Needham computer specialist. This represents a savings of some 400 gallons for a typical home that in last year had used 2,000 gallons, Richard J. Carroll said.

Carroll is a petroleum marketing consultant for Business Computer Services which contracts with more than 70 oil dealers in Massachusetts and southern New Hampshire.

Kissinger Keeps Veil Of Privacy On His Honeymoon

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP) — been his frequent companion Acapulco's social set awaited word today on whether the newlywed Kissingers were open to invitations.

But Washington's most fabled swinger appeared intent so far on keeping a veil of privacy around his honeymoon.

Some 60 vacationers lined the Las Brisas dock Sunday and applauded as Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and the former Nancy Maginnes returned from a three-hour cruise around choppy Acapulco Bay in a speedboat called El Orate — The Lumatic.

Two boatloads of Secret Service men, trailed El Orate around the bay, then packed into two cars to follow Kissinger's limousine back to banker Eustaquio Escandon's secluded villa overlooking the sea where the couple is staying.

"I'm sure there will be some parties or at least a dinner or two while they're here," said a leading Acapulco socialite wistfully. But he added that the Kissingers had accepted no invitations yet.

Entitled To Privacy. "Every man when he gets married is entitled to have some privacy," said a State Department spokesman.

Only a handful of persons knew in advance of Kissinger's wedding Saturday, among them former New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Mrs. Kissinger's employer.

The former Miss Maginnes, who at almost six feet is noticeably taller than Kissinger, is head of international studies for Rockefeller's Commission on Critical Choices. Food Prices Show Signs Of Dropping WASHINGTON (AP)—Sirolo's prices climbed in most world capitals between mid-January and early March, but food costs generally in 14 cities sampled by U.S. officials showed signs of declining, the Agriculture Department said today.

The figures are collected irregularly by U.S. agricultural attaches stationed abroad and are not considered a scientific sample for an entire country. They do, however, indicate general trends in food prices for a particular city.

Published by the department's Foreign Agricultural Service, the report said the March survey showed price declines were most common for fruit, vegetables, pork and eggs. But increases outnumbered declines for bread, cheese and broiler chickens.

"Seasonal price drops accounted for many of the lower prices, and a reversal of the recent price uptrend cannot be verified," the report said. Also, it said, there were "individual examples" of higher prices for some foods because of energy shortages.

Sirloin steak, one of the indicators, rose in price from January to March in eight of the capitals, dropped in four and held steady in Buenos Aires at 69 cents per pound. None was available for The Hague, the 14th city.

The sirloin price for Washington, D.C., was $2.29 per pound, down from $2.42 in January, the report said. As usual, Tokyo shoppers paid the most: $10.31 per pound, actually a de-

Kissinger Keeps Veil Of Privacy On His Honeymoon

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP) — been his frequent companion Acapulco's social set awaited word today on whether the newlywed Kissingers were open to invitations.

But Washington's most fabled swinger appeared intent so far on keeping a veil of privacy around his honeymoon.

Some 60 vacationers lined the Las Brisas dock Sunday and applauded as Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and the former Nancy Maginnes returned from a three-hour cruise around choppy Acapulco Bay in a speedboat called El Orate — The Lumatic.

Two boatloads of Secret Service men, trailed El Orate around the bay, then packed into two cars to follow Kissinger's limousine back to banker Eustaquio Escandon's secluded villa overlooking the sea where the couple is staying.

"I'm sure there will be some parties or at least a dinner or two while they're here," said a leading Acapulco socialite wistfully. But he added that the Kissingers had accepted no invitations yet.

Entitled To Privacy. "Every man when he gets married is entitled to have some privacy," said a State Department spokesman.

Nixon Orders Betterment In Services For Veterans

KEY BISCAIYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon's orders for a new look into government services provided to veterans has won some favorable reaction from two Democrats involved in veterans' affairs. Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana, chairman of the Senate Veterans' Affairs Committee, said in an inter-annual report that he had no objections to the Nixon approach if the team House Veterans' Affairs subcommittee, organized and reported in two months, reported on a theme of aid to veterans that he had sounded on Vietnam Veterans Day Friday. That day marked the 10th anniversary of the last American servicemen from Vietnam war.

Missing Diplomat's Pictures Circulated

HERMOSILLO, Mexico (AP) — United States officials, apparently with no leads to the whereabouts of missing American diplomat John Patterson, were to distribute pictures of him to the public today. The U.S. Consulate said pictures bearing Patterson's picture and information about him were being handed out in this city 150 miles south of the border town of Nogales, Ariz., and general in Hermosillo, Elmer in nearby villages. Patterson was reported last seen March 22 when he left the consulate with an unidentified man. The consulate says there has been no word of the 31-year-old diplomat since a ransom note was found at the consulate door a few hours after he disappeared. Sources in Washington reported the note demanded $500,000 and was signed by the People's Revolutionary Army of Mexico, a group that has not claimed responsibility for any previous kidnappings. American officials refused to comment on a report from a Mexican involved in the investigation who said it was doubtful that Patterson was abducted. The Mexican source said the young American was seen at a County Common Pleas Court service station with another man 10 minutes after leaving the consulate. The source reported that Patterson's car was chained to a camper truck, and the two men towed it away.

Boyle Prosecution Gets Under Way

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — The prosecution was to open its case today in the murder trial of W. A. "Tony" Boyle, former head of the United Mine Workers Union. Special prosecutor Richard A. Sprague hopes to prove that Boyle initiated a plot to kill UMW rival Joseph A. "Jock" Yablonski, who was shot to death on Dec. 31, 1969, at his home in Clarksville, Pa., along with his wife and daughter. The first order of business scheduled before Delaware County Common Pleas Court Judge Francis Catania was the man 10 minutes after leaving the consulate. The source reported that Patterson's car was chained to a camper truck, and the two men towed it away.

Solo Yachtsman Approaches Goal

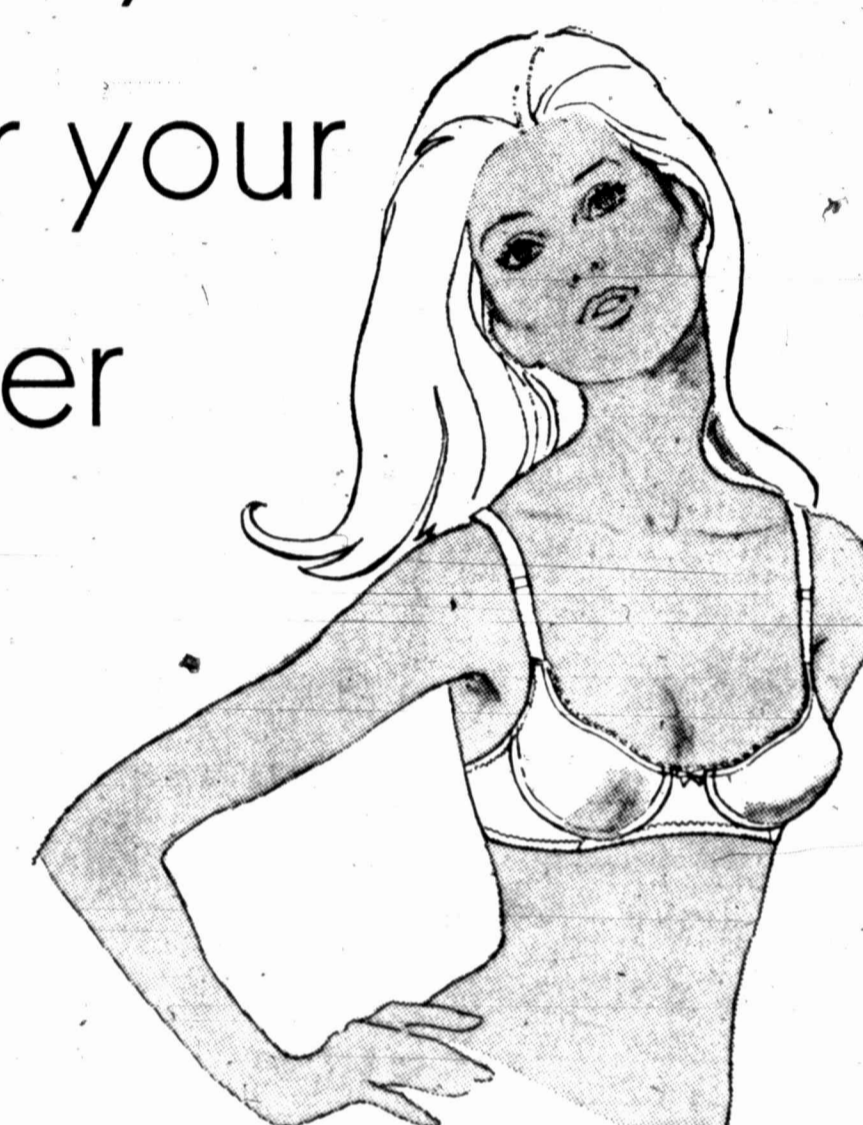

OSAKA, Japan (AP) — Kenichi Horie, the first yachtsman to cross the Pacific alone, is nearing his goal of a nonstop solo voyage around the world. Horie, 35, who set out from Osaka on board Mermaid II last Aug. 1, radioed on Sunday that he was about 1,420 miles south of Midway, leaving him about 3,300 miles to go to reach Japan, the Asahi Shimbun reported. The newspaper said Horie told members of its amateur wireless club that he was about 10 days ahead of his target of circumnavigating the globe, a voyage of about 30,000 miles, in 280 days.

Senate Returns To Campaign Reform

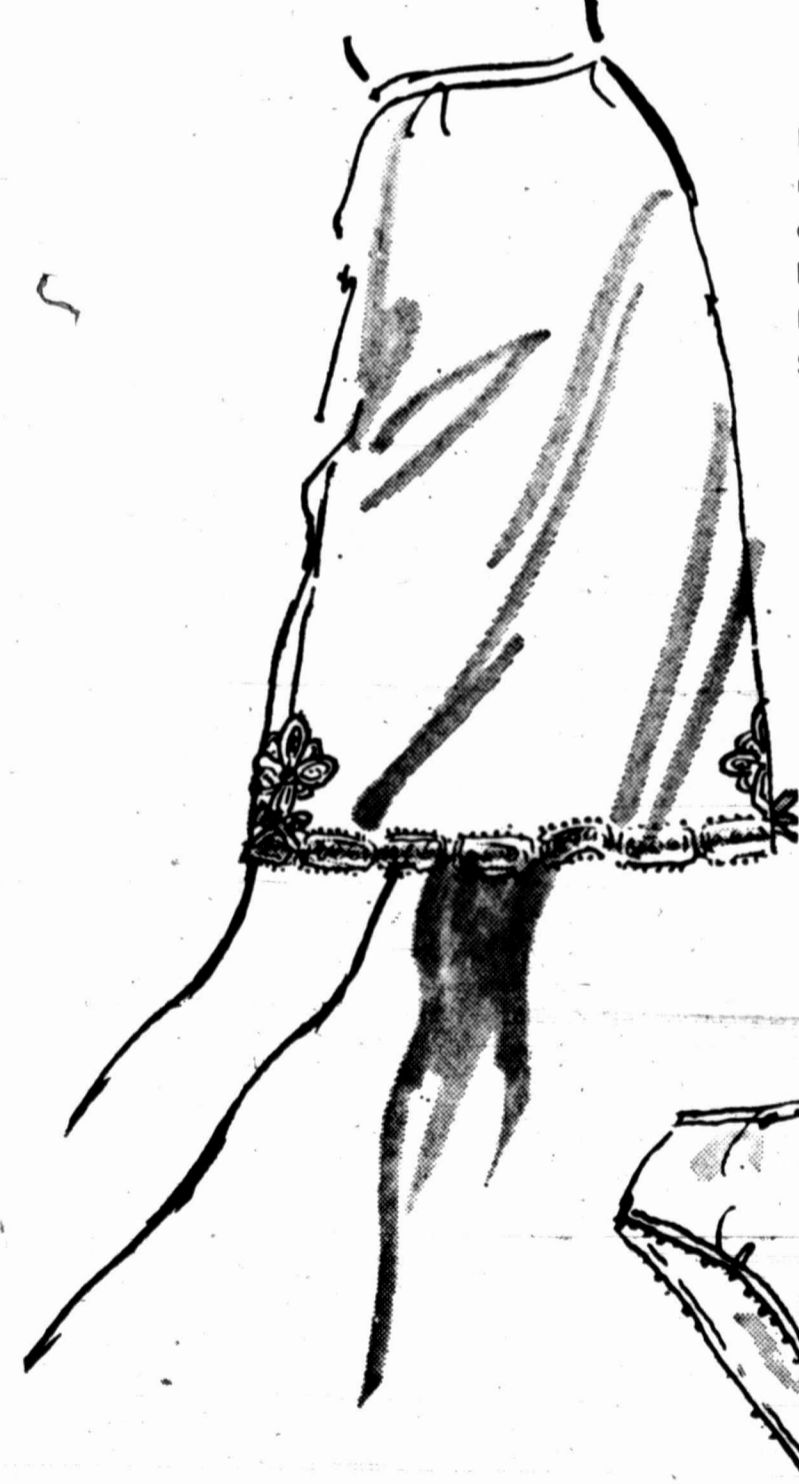

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is entering a second week of debate on a controversial campaign reform bill with no end yet in sight. Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, Jr., R-Conn., a Watergate investigating committee member who opposes the bill, had a substitute measure on tap for today's session. "There are several ways to effectively reform campaign spending without resorting to government financing," he said. A key part of the bill provides for use of tax funds to finance, in whole or in part, primary and general election campaigns for federal office. The House has two major pieces of legislation on its agenda this week. Expected to be acted on first is a compromise bill to establish a consumer protection agency to act on behalf of consumers in the courts and in proceedings before other federal agencies. It also would submit legislative recommendations to the President and to Congress and evaluate consumer activities of the government.

More controversy is likely of his proposed substitute campaign measure is the shortening of campaigns. It provides for a single primary on the first Tuesday in October for nomination to federal offices, with the general election a month later. Campaigns could not start before the first Tuesday in September. No funds could be collected or spent before then. A candidate could have only one campaign committee that would handle all contributions and expenditures and these would have to be reported two weeks before the election. Without it, he said, the South Vietnamese will have to begin curtailing their military operations by mid-April. Weicker said the cornerstone

Kissinger, Solons Clash On Vietnam Commitment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The extent to which the United States is committed by the Paris peace agreement to aiding South Vietnam has drawn varying interpretations from the secretary of State and the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger believes that the United States is politically and morally committed to giving long-term military and economic aid to South Vietnam.

Under the Paris agreement, Kissinger said in a letter to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., "The United States committed itself to strengthening the conditions which made the cease-fire possible and to the goal of the South Vietnamese people's right to self-determination."

However, Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., responded that the Paris "agreements aren't commitments, they are only a declaration of intent. They are not a moral or legal obligation until Congress passes them."

"The commitment is only an expression of policy of this administration," Fulbright added.

Not Submitted To Senate

Kennedy also noted that the Paris agreement was never submitted to the Senate as a treaty for ratification and Kissinger, in his letter, acknowledged that the United States "has no bilateral written commitment to the government of the Republic of Vietnam."

Count the ways carpooling could put you ahead.

The man in this car gets 13 passenger miles to the gallon.

The four people in this car get 52 passenger miles to the gallon.

Even though the oil embargo has been lifted, the need for conservation still exists.

If you're undecided about carpooling, these ideas may stimulate your interest and help you make your decision.

1. You can dramatically increase passenger miles-per-gallon.

If your carpool cars average, say, 13 miles to the gallon and you share costs with three others, you are paying for only one gallon in four, and you're getting 52 passenger miles-per-gallon.

Carpool mileage calculator

If pool cars average this many miles per gallon	And there are this many riders . . .
	2	3	4	5
10	20	30	40	50
15	30	45	60	75
20	40	60	80	100

2. You would drive less. Therefore, use less gasoline.

In a work carpool of just three persons, according to national averages, you would drive 1,692 fewer miles per year.

and consume 127 fewer gallons of gasoline. Tire, battery, and other maintenance costs would go down accordingly.

3. If you pay to park now, you would pay less.

Parking costs vary. But suppose you pay $1.00 per day. In a work-year, that's about $245.00. If you shared this expense with three others in your pool, your cost would be only $61.25, saving you $183.75 annually.

4. Tolls go down, too.

As with parking costs, if you pay tolls now, you'd pay less in a carpool. Special driving lanes and other plans favoring carpools are developing all over the country, too.

5. You might enjoy it.

According to the Federal Highway Administration, carpoolers say that when they are not at the wheel, tensions vanish and they come to work relaxed. They read, chat or just sit back and doze. Also: in a one-car household, the car is available to the rest of the family.

6. By riding together, you would help cut driving time.

If you had a four-member pool, you'd remove three cars from your route. Another 100 pools like yours would take away another 300 cars. Traffic tie-ups would be reduced, driving time shortened.

7. Nationally, the savings could be substantial.

The Citizen's Advisory Committee on Environmental Quality says that 82% of working Americans commute to their jobs in automobiles; more than half of them drive alone. If only a third of those people got together in three-member carpools, we would save over 3½ billion gallons of gasoline per year, nearly 5% of sales through retail gasoline outlets.

8. If you can't carpool to work.

Think of all the other ways to share rides: going shopping, to school, to meetings, to civic and social events, for recreation. The list is endless. The idea is to find people going your way and organize yourselves into an efficient team.

Identify your car.

If you're in a carpool now, or have plans to start one, Exxon would be pleased to send you an attractive, colorful window medallion (actual size—3½") for each car in your carpool, to recognize your gasoline conservation contributions.

Just send a card noting the number of cars in your pool, and your name and address to:
Exxon, P.O. Box 1298, Trenton, New Jersey 08607.

A lot of carpools would make a big difference in buying the time this nation needs to help resolve our energy problems. Exxon believes that together we can help keep things moving.

Bullets Topple New York

By HOWARD SMITH
AP Sports Writer
"We know we can beat the Knicks now," declared Capital's Elvin Hayes. "This is just what we needed to win it all."

Hayes and the rest of the Bulls were brimming with confidence Sunday after dumping New York 99-87 to even their best-of-7 National Basketball Association Eastern Conference semifinal playoff series at one game each.

"Against the Knicks, the players have the attitude that they're too tough to beat, and they go into a game tight," Hayes explained. "These games loosen you up because you know they can be beaten and that attitude carries over into the next game."

In Hayes' case, the confidence is not hard to understand. The 6-foot-9 former Houston All-American has collected 74 points in the first two games, despite an assortment of Knick defensive maneuvers. He got 34 of them Sunday to go along with Phil Chenier's 35-point outburst.

In Milwaukee, The Bucks took a commanding 2-0 lead over Los Angeles in their Western Conference semifinal series by whipping the Lakers 109-90.

The Detroit Pistons host the Chicago Bulls tonight in game two of the other Western Conference semifinal series. The Pistons took the first game 97-88 Saturday.

Astros Topple Rangers By 5-4

HOUSTON (AP)—Mike Easler is still "holding out hopes" he will be with the Houston Astros when they open their 1974 season Friday at San Francisco.

The 23-year-old muscular outfielder didn't hurt his cause any Sunday. He collected three singles, including a bases-loaded knock in the bottom of the ninth that brought home the winning run in the Astros' 5-4 exhibition victory over the Texas Rangers.

Houston manager Preston Gomez said Easler is "probably the most improved player we have."

"He's going to play in the big leagues sometime," Gomez said. "He's a tremendous kid with a lot of dedication and determination... all business. With the score tied 4-4, Don Stanhouse, fourth Ranger pitcher, walked Larry Milbourne and Greg Gross to open the Astros' ninth. Pinchhitter Tommy Helms was safe on an error and Cliff Johnson fouled out bringing Easler to the plate. He looped a single over a drawn-in outfielder to drive in Milbourne with the winning run.

Easler knocked in Houston's first run in the first inning. The Astros scored two more in the third on a double by Dave Campbell which Ranger outfielder Tom Grieve lost in the glare of the Astrodome roof and an error on Texas catcher Rich Billings. Houston picked up another run on a wild pitch by Ranger pitcher Lloyd Allen in the eighth.

The Rangers scored two runs in the second on Jim Spencer's double, Dave Nelson's single, an error and a ground out. They added a single run in the fifth on doubles by Grieve and Mike Hargrove. The final Ranger run was tripled in by Allen in the eighth.

Houston starting pitcher Tom Griffin was hit on the finger by a pitched ball and was forced to leave the game. Gomez said X-rays showed no broken bone but the injury could prevent Griffin from being the starting pitcher for the Astros' opener against San Francisco Friday.

Ballet Group's 'Spring Gala' Very Successful Production

Permian Civic Ballet's 1974 "Spring Gala" must certainly be counted as one of the most successful productions in the organization's six seasons as a performing company.

Particularly successful, from almost any standpoint, was the second of the two Spring Gala performances which took place Saturday night in Lee High School auditorium here. There was strong rapport between audience and performers, an outpouring of warmth and heartiness that must have been heard to Permian dancers and guest performers, in light of the sparse attendance and lack of response at Friday night's presentation in Odessa. It was almost as though the audience here (and a very respectable-size audience it was, too!) was subconsciously attempting to make up for the disappointments of the night before, by being extra-responsive, doubly appreciative.

Appreciative Audience
And it was undoubtedly one of the most warmly responsive and genuinely appreciative audiences I have encountered at any performance hereabouts — and that includes not just dance programs but those of any of the performing arts!

Now, all this warmth of response does not necessarily mean that Permian Civic Ballet is "out of the woods," by any means — of all the performing arts, dance undoubtedly has the hardest task in creating a niche for itself in a community, in becoming a self-sustaining unit in the community arts picture. But a performance such as the one here Saturday night can do much to increase public acceptance of ballet, build audiences and, by increasing its following, also broaden its financial base not only through the greater office receipts but through private contributions as well. All of which would conceivably mean better and bigger productions in the future, more than the New York or Stuttgart public response, larger financial cellence is paramount, but of necessity it has to be a quest of more modest scope.

The featured work in the Spring Gala was Act II of the famous "Swan Lake," with its haunting, lushly melodic score by Tchaikovsky. It had Permian dancers in supporting roles and in the corps de ballet, joined by guest artists Susana Benavides, Bill Martin-Viscount and Homer Garza. (And certainly one should not overlook Midland's E. F. Bingham as the sorcerer.)

The "Swan Lake" was in the main very well done, only occasionally did it appear that some of the Permian company members were not quite up to the demands of the piece. I applaud the four cygnets or little swans (Cheryl Jones, Laura Moody, Megan Murphy and Teresa Turner) for their exacting and pleasing ensemble work, and dancers Mary Motter and Jill Murphy for their adroitness and style in their variations as the big swans.

Miss Benavides of Mexico City, professor of a fine classical technique, was endearing as both Odette and the Swan Queen. She has both grace and charm, and a marvelously classic face. Joining her as Prince Siegfried was Martin Viscount, who provided a well-matched and their comical dances were a delight.

Ballet company members portrayed the schoolgirls, with Julie King, Jeanne King, June Swift and Julie Tinney as the "wall flowers." Cadets from the military school were played by Tim Boyd, Warren Cole, Herbert Collier, Rudy Calsoncin, Sean Blakely, Butch Hall, Richard Montez, Nick Nicholas, Maner Shaw, Stewart Shaw, Richard Smallwood, Dale Tomlin, Don Tyler, Jay Watson, Scott Taylor,

Solzhenitsyn Says American Papers Misread 'Letter To Soviet Leaders'

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn says that American newspaper commentators mistakenly interpreted his "Letter to the Soviet Leaders" as a call for nationalism.

The exiled Soviet writer, in an interview Sunday, said mutual understanding between the Soviet and American peoples "is particularly essential and is very difficult to establish from afar, using the superficial and often insufficiently thought-out judgments of the daily press."

"My 'Letter to the Soviet Leaders' was, even before its publication in the United States, subjected in the press, beginning with The New York Times, to primitive and even mistaken interpretations in contradiction to its real meaning. My program set down in this letter is a deduction from that general belief that nations and people can attain their supreme spiritual results only at the price of voluntary self-limitation in the outside world, concentrating exclusively on their internal development.

"For this reason, I suggested that my country should unilaterally renounce — all conquests abroad and violence against all nations near and far, renounce all world pretensions and all kinds of international rivalry, in particular ... the arms race.

"I suggested that all this should be done on a scale far exceeding that which they dream of achieving by nuclear 'deterrence' and such a program was interpreted by American newspaper commentators as nationalism, that is the ideology of the warlike expansion of one's nation. The very idea of following the most recent technological recommendation of the Club of Rome was characterized as 'utopianism' and 'a call for return to the past.' In this way, the press is capable of introducing incomprehension between distant parts of the planet rather than internal understanding."

The Club of Rome is an international association of scientists and industrialists that sponsors studies and discussion meetings of statesmen and experts on major problems. Solzhenitsyn had been asked if he planned to visit the United States. He said that his refusal of invitations from AFL-CIO President George Meany and Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., "was not a final refusal of principle, but only one resulting from the physical limitations of my life here."

"Contact between the peoples of our two huge countries is absolutely essential," he declared. "And I very much regret that I can only participate in these contacts through letters."

Ex-Editor To Speak At Andrews Meeting
ANDREWS — Charles E. Smith, former editor of The Voice of Watts, will address a meeting at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Community Building.

His talk is titled "Solutions to the Shortage Hoax." The speech will be sponsored by Joe B. Edwards and the Support Your Local Police and Keep Them Independent Committee.

The writer was interviewed in the seven-room apartment to which he brought his family on their arrival from Moscow Friday.

He said he and his family were "very tired, very tired" after their six-week separation, and it would be many more days before he completed his detailed examination of his papers and books which his wife brought from Moscow.

Solzhenitsyn was interviewed in the living room of his apartment. He refused to discuss his plans for his family but appeared relaxed and frequently brought his wife into the conversation.

Groucho To Receive An Oscar

By BOB THOMAS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Motion Picture Academy will give Groucho Marx an honorary Oscar Tuesday, again salving its conscience for a long neglect of comedy.

During most of its 46-year history, the Academy has rewarded the dramatic accomplishments of Hollywood while ignoring the artists who make audiences laugh. As a result, the classic funnymen have failed to win Oscars for their performances — Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, W. C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, Buster Keaton and the Marx Brothers.

Nor has the academy given awards for the work of such latter-day comics as Bob Hope, Red Skelton, Jerry Lewis, Danny Kaye, Woody Allen. Even the acknowledged master of light comedy, Cary Grant, was overlooked.

The Academy's Board of Governors has remedied the oversight with the device of the honorary award, usually with such a phrase as "for distinguished service to the art of screen comedy."

Special Oscars have been presented to Edgar Bergen in 1937; Lloyd and Hope, 1962; Kaye, 1964; Eddie Cantor, 1966; Keaton, 1969; Stan Laurel, 1960; Grant, 1969; Chaplin, 1971.

This year, Groucho. When the 83-year-old comedian learned of the honor, he responded in character: "My brothers and I should have gotten it long ago."

Emmy-Winning Producer Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Frederick A. Freed, 53, an NBC Television News Producer who won seven television Emmys, died Sunday. He won his awards for NBC News White Papers on such subjects as blue-collar workers, pollution, the Cuban missile crisis and the American military in the 1970s.

KEEP TAXES DOWN!

City Hall is lucky! It does not have to make a profit. It just needs to break even. To do this, it sets a new tax rate each year. If we stunt growth, we have the same old properties to tax. During inflationary times, UP goes YOUR tax rate. Growth spreads the load!

Sod House Survey Compiling Census
If you are a child of the old sod — houses that is — the Sod House Survey of Texas is looking for you.
Headquartered in Colby, Kan., the society is compiling a census of persons who have ever been born, lived or attended school or church in a sod house, dugout or adobe building. The survey is also aimed at direct descendants of persons connected with sod houses.
Such houses were once common in the United States, Mexico and Canada, but are fast disappearing. At one time, sod houses were in use throughout more than half of North America.
Persons fitting the qualifications of the survey are urged to write the Sod House Survey of Texas, Colby, Kan. 67701.
