Emotional Stress Can Make Trouble

For your sake, here's hoping you are in the best of health and physically in good shape.

No sooner had she departed for the sanitarium than the temperature went down to normal.

As was only natural, the girl reacted to her father's attitude with deep resentment.

The neurologist explained to the father that if he persisted in his efforts to force his daughter into the marriage of his choice, he would seriously harm her both mentally and physically.

With the rapid progress of medical science in our lifetime, the word psychosomatic has come into common use.

By practicing mental and spiritual hygiene you can protect yourself from psychosomatic illness.

Group Ready To Pay Nixon Taxes If Baylor Gets Papers

DALLAS (AP) — A Dallas real estate man said Saturday that a group would pay Nixon's back income taxes in return for claimed as a charitable deduction for one group of vice presidential papers given the President.

Otis Davenport said the disputed papers would be donated to Baylor University at Waco, Texas, for display.

A congressional committee recently found that Nixon owes about $465,000 in back taxes.

Weicker Says White House Led Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lowell R. Weicker says he has evidence the White House spied on a dozen major politicians and used the Internal Revenue Service to pry loose data on entertainers such as Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr.

Weicker said he also has White House and other Nixon administration documents to show that IRS tax intelligence was used to protect such "White House friends" as evangelist Billy Graham and movie star John Wayne.

Weicker, a Republican member of the Senate Watergate committee, said he has obtained other documents showing the full extent of more than 50 political investigations conducted by the White House between 1969 and 1972 by undercover political operative Anthony Ulasewicz.

Other newly uncovered documents show the "blatant" improper and perhaps illegal use of such federal agencies as the IRS to move against so-called political "enemies," Weicker said.

In addition, he said he has received new evidence of the use of intelligence from the Department of Commerce and the Pentagon to embarrass Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, and George McGovern, D-S.D., and to use U.S. Army intelligence operatives to spy on a Democratic party affiliate in Berlin, Germany.

The Connecticut Republican is scheduled to present his evidence Monday as he testifies before three Senate subcommittees holding joint hearings into political spying and the use of intelligence.

Recently the Constitutional Convention debated keeping county school funds. What are they, does Midland County have one and if so, how much is in it? What are the proceeds used for? — J. S.

In the early days of the Republic of Texas, areas of land were set aside for the support of public schools. Much of the land was divided among the counties.

County Judge Barbara Culver said Midland County's land was sold years ago and the money was invested in bonds.

The interest on the $96,000 received by Midland County is given to the county's two independent school districts on a per student basis, Judge Culver added.

Last year, the Midland Independent School District was given $1,038 and Greenwood Independent School District received $11,97.

The money is invested by the county school board, with approval of the county commissioners, in bonds from six school districts, two cities, a hospital district and veterans land bonds.

Interest rates vary from 1/4 of one per cent on $20,000 worth of City of Lubbock bonds to 3.75 per cent for $2,000 in Pasadena Independent School District bonds.

Judge Culver, ex officio county school superintendent, said the total fund may be spent by the county commissioners for permanent improvements for the school districts.

After being divorced and taking back my maiden name, I was required to present a copy of my divorce decree before my name could be changed on my driver's license. I wasn't required to prove that I was married when I had it changed after my wedding. Why the difference? — G. H.

Department of Public Safety spokesmen say the law requires documentation for any name change on a driver's license. They add that a marriage certificate is only one of the acceptable documents for proof of marriage, but a divorce decree is required to reinstate a maiden name.

Majority Owner Of Yankees Says He'll Fight Indictment On Contributions

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — George M. Steinbrenner III, board chairman of American Ship Building Co., who with his firm was charged with contributing illegally to the campaigns of President Nixon and others, says he's innocent and will fight.

The 43-year-old majority owner of the New York Yankees baseball team was charged Friday in 14 of the indictment's 15 counts, one jointly with the company. The company was charged with conspiracy and making an illegal campaign contribution.

Steinbrenner was charged with conspiracy, making illegal contributions to campaign panels for Nixon and influential congressmen, obstruction of justice and obstruction of criminal investigation.

The Nixon committee got $37,200 for the 1972 campaign, the indictment said. It said other illegal contributions went to campaign organizations for Rep. Charles A. Mosher, R-Ohio, $1,000; the late Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, $500; and Sens. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., $1,000, and Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, $500.

National Democratic congressional dinners drew $6,000 and the Senate-House Majority Dinner $14,000, the indictment said.

The indictment contends that, as head of Amship, Steinbrenner set up a scheme through which Amship employees got fake bonuses to reimburse them for having made contributions from personal funds to candidates he selected. It charges that he then threatened and intimidated some employees into lying to the FBI and making false statements that their bonuses were proper and unrelated to politics.

And it charges that, after three years of such action beginning in September 1970, he destroyed the records of the

Stewardesses Awarded Back Pay With Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Northwest Airlines has been ordered to pay back salary and interest to stewardesses who were paid less than men for the same job.

The action came Friday as U.S. District Judge Aubrey Robinson set damages in a decision he issued in November finding that Northwest had violated the Equal Pay Act and Civil Rights Act.

The actual number of stewardesses affected and the amount of money involved was not known immediately. Robinson did not specifically apply his order to any other airline, although it could set a precedent in future legal moves.

In the November decision Robinson ruled that Northwest had violated the law by:

—Imposing a chain of command in which all male cabin attendants, regardless of classification or length of service, other stewardesses while males were superior to female cabin attendants.

—Providing a uniform cleaning allowance for male cabin attendants but not for females.

—Trying to deter stewardesses from bidding on purser vacancies and discriminating against stewardesses filling these vacancies.

—Setting weight limits for stewardesses and not for pursers and prohibiting only female cabin attendants from wearing glasses while on duty.

—Providing less expensive and less desirable layover accommodations for stewardesses than for male pursers.

—And paying stewardesses lower salaries and pensions than male pursers.

Robinson ordered the airline to pay back salary and interest to all stewardesses fired since 1965 for being overweight and

Gasoline Situation Better In Texas

HOUSTON (AP) — The American Automobile Association says only 10 per cent of the state's service stations were out of gasoline this week compared to 14 per cent last week.

It said 31 per cent of the stations polled across the state were selling only a certain amount of gasoline each day then shutting down. Purchases were limited by 11 per cent of the stations and 24 per cent planned to remain open Sunday.

However, the survey showed 22 per cent of the stations in the coastal sections were out of fuel compared to 12 per cent last week.

AIM Leader Says Media Suppresses Trial Coverage

NEW YORK (AP) — Dennis Banks, leader of the American Indian Movement and a defendant in the Wounded Knee occupation trial now under way in St. Paul, Minn., has accused major news media of suppressing national coverage of the trial.

Banks said Friday The Associated Press and United Press International had been pressured by the government to downplay coverage of the trial.

An AP spokesman said there had been no requests or pressure of any kind from any government agency. The spokesman added that stories had been carried on the news cooperative's main national wire and a secondary wire at various times since the start of the trial.

Dairy Queen Gets Western Facelift

A remodeling project is now under way to give the Dairy Queen Brazier at 1217 N. Midkiff St. a western look.

The drive-in restaurant will remain open for business throughout the remodeling that not only will give the building a "western look" but also a board walk and outdoor seating with old-fashioned overhead fans.

New inside seating is planned also, including a special kiddie train with seats for the youngsters to use while they eat.

Announcement of the remodeling project was made by James L. Utley of Midland, a vice president of Dairy Queen of Midland, Inc., and Jerry Graham, manager of the Dairy Queen Brazier.

Move Made To Avert Collapse Of Cyprus Talks

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A basis of the talks, underwrites their failure and consequently separately Saturday with Greek and Turkish Cypriot leaders in an effort to avert the collapse of talks for a peaceful settlement of problems dividing the two island communities. President Makarios, the Greek Cypriot leader, declared shortly before seeing U.N. Asst. Secretary General Robert Guyer that if "the deadlock becomes definite, then the Cyprus problem should be referred to the United Nations and the Security Council once again."

The six-year-old talks between the two communities are threatened with complete collapse following a recent statement by Turkish Premier Buland Ecevit supporting federation with Turkey as the settlement of the problem. "This for us unacceptable Turkish demand overturns the

Two Dallas Men Killed In Crash

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — Two Dallas men died Saturday when their airplane crashed near Sherman in North Texas. The victims were identified as Charles Lobert, 54, and Donald B. Dreyfuss, 36. The plane smashed down near the Luella community eight miles southeast of Sherman about 10 a.m. The plane did not burn.

Libya Reduces Price Of Oil

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Libya has lowered slightly the price of its oil, but several Western oil companies are negotiating to obtain further reductions, oil industry sources said today.

This compared with $16 a barrel for the first quarter.

Fastest Animal — The cheetah, often regarded as the fastest animal, can reach speeds of up to 50 miles per hour.

Pacific Wake Islands — The well-informed Middle East Economic Survey said Libya set contract prices for the second quarter of 1974 at $14.50-$14.80 a barrel for its oil.

"If the talks were continued by the Turkish premier's statement in support of federation, this would mean acceptance by us of negotiations for the establishment of a federal state," Makarios said. Makarios maintained that "from the very beginning an independent, sovereign and unitary state were the agreed terms which formed the basis of the inter-Cypriot talks and the framework within which a solution would be sought." The Turkish Cypriot leader, Raouf Denktash, rejects the Greek Cypriot view, maintaining the talks were started without any preconditions.

SLA Communique Seized

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — FBI agents have seized a recent terrorist communique and other documents in the Patricia Hearst kidnaping from the attorney for a San Francisco underground newspaper.

The raid came Friday as trustees for $4 million offered by the Hearst Corp. said the money is still available to buy free food for the poor if Miss Hearst is released unharmed.

FBI agents served the warrant on Vincent Hallinan, attorney for the biweekly San Francisco Phoenix, for the April 2 communique from the Symbionese Liberation Army, whose members dragged Miss Hearst from her Berkeley apartment Feb. 4.

"They just came in with a search warrant and snatched it," said John Bryan, editor of the newspaper. Bryan said he had refused to turn the material over to authorities and gave it to Hallinan for safekeeping.

Bryan said the FBI took SLA communique No. 7, a note to Bryan purportedly from the SLA communique received Wednesday by radio station KSAN.

Communique No. 7, accompanied by a dozen roses, a greeting card and half of her driver's license, said the time and place of Miss Hearst's release would be made known within 72 hours. The driver's license had already been turned over to the FBI by her father, newspaper executive Randolph A. Hearst.

But in the SLA message to KSAN, Miss Hearst announced she was turning her back on her parents and joining the SLA, raising doubts whether

Singer Recovering

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Singer-actress Peggy Lee is reported in good condition following minor surgery. A hospital spokesman said Friday that Miss Lee, 53, had planned to undergo surgery last week, but decided to wait until after the Academy Awards program last Tuesday. The nature of the surgery was not disclosed.

The $4 million offer still stood. In the note Bryan said he received Thursday along with the copy of the transcript Wednesday communique, he said the kidnapers praised him for refusing to turn over the material to the FBI.

Charles Bates, FBI agent in charge of the case, said the warrant was served, but he refused to discuss what was seized.

He said the evidence has been sent to Washington for examination.

An FBI spokesman said the evidence would be examined for fingerprints, typewriter identification, handwriting samples and postmarks.

Hallinan could not be reached for comment on the seizure of documents.

In another development Friday, Bryan admitted that an "interview" with the SLA which his newspaper had published last month was a phony. He said the long article was fabricated from previous SLA statements and other revolutionary writings.

Judge Culver said counties usually get first crack at buildings owned by the government when they are vacated, but not always.

"The GSA may want to put the building up for public bidding. But, the county will have a chance to meet the bid price in exercising our priority."

If the building is not put for bid by GSA, then the state has the next option to assume responsibility of the building, the judge said. If the state doesn't want it, then the county can claim it, she pointed out.

Midland Youth Stabbed in Fight

John Spears, 16, of 4400 W. Denger St. received 18 stitches in a chest stab wound he received about 11:15 p.m. Friday during a fight with another 16-year-old Midland boy.

The incident occurred on the parking lot at Dellwood Plaza where the boys got into an argument over a girl, Det. Sgt. George Capehart said.

Juvenile Sgt. Joe Matlock arrested the accused attacker at his home about 7:10 p.m. Saturday and later released him to his brother.

The case will be referred to the county attorney for consideration of prosecution in juvenile court.

Spears was taken to Midland Memorial Hospital and hospital officials notified police. He was released after being given emergency treatment.

Committee Says Nixon Took Deduction For Papers In '68

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional committee found that President Nixon incorrectly took a $70,000 tax deduction for giving papers to the government in 1968, but he apparently won't have to pay additional taxes for it.

Nixon has agreed to pay about $465,000 in back taxes and interest assessed by the Internal Revenue Service for the first four years of his presidency, 1969 through 1972. But the IRS didn't audit his 1968 return, and the statute of limitations has run out.

The staff of the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation, which Nixon asked to review his 1968-72 returns, said it also looked at the taxes paid in 1968.

The 1968 study was necessary to determine how the handling of Nixon's first gift of papers to the government differed from the handling of the second, much larger gift the next year, the staff report said. And it was possible that a carryover of the 1968 charitable contribution deduction would reduce the President's taxes in following years.

The committee staff, however, did not audit the full 1968 return, and Nixon has never made it public. The report said only that the papers were appraised at $80,000 and that Nixon took the maximum allowable deduction for charitable contributions, including $70,552.27 for the papers. This left $9,447.73 available for carryover in future years.

Internal Revenue laws permit a taxpayer to deduct up to 30 percent of his adjusted gross income each year for charitable contributions, if at least 10 percent of that goes to a government agency such as the National Archives.

Unlike the case of the $576,000 deduction claimed in 1969 for the gift of papers, there were few facts in dispute about how and when the 1968 gift was made. The papers were selected and appraised in Nixon's law offices in New York, and a deed for them was turned over to the National Archives on Dec. 30, 1968, just in time to claim a deduction on Nixon's 1968 tax return due the following April.

The primary question at issue is whether the conditions set out in the deed were so restrictive that Nixon was not actually giving away the documents but giving away a "future interest" in them.

The future interest section of the tax law was designed to close a loophole that allowed taxpayers to give their property to a foundation for tax purposes but retain exclusive use and enjoyment of the property for life.

Rebel Forces Overrun Government Outposts

By MATT FRANJOLA

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Rebel forces overrun three government outposts southeast of Phnom Penh on Friday and Saturday, and more than 400 soldiers and civilians were either killed, wounded or missing, survivors said.

About 600 soldiers and their families had been manning the defensive positions along Route 30 and on Kbal Island in the Bassac River 10 miles southwest of the capital when Khmer Rouge insurgents launched heavy attacks three days ago, the field reports said.

Internal Revenue laws permit a taxpayer to deduct up to 30 percent of his adjusted gross income each year for charitable contributions, if at least 10 percent of that goes to a

Phnom Penh's military commanders, anxious to find reinforcements to send to two other hard-pressed areas—Kampot to the southwest and Oudong to the north—were not able to send relief forces to attempt to join up with the surrounded troops southeast of Phnom Penh, officials said.

Kampot is 85 miles southwest of the capital, and Oudong 23 miles north of Phnom Penh.

In the fighting southeast of the capital, government troops with 10 armored vehicles fought to within 150 yards of the last occupied outpost Saturday, but heavy rebel machine-gun and mortar fire kept the Cambodian soldiers pinned down, one field report said.

Intelligence sources said four Khmer Rouge battalions consisting of about 1,000 men were reported massing near Route 30, six miles south of the Phnom Penh suburb of Takmao.

Military sources said government forces pushed back insurgents in house-to-house fighting around Kampot, killing about 100 rebels. They reported 69 of their own troops were killed or wounded. About 700 government reinforcements had been ferried into the area and transport planes were dropping supplies into the town.

North of Phnom Penh, intensified fighting was reported in the north and east of the former royal capital of Oudong, where a government effort to retake that city has bogged down.

Texas Youth Council Member Seeks Lifting Of Ruling

Don Workman of Lubbock, a member of the Texas Youth Council, struck out here Saturday against a 1973 ruling that "is costing the taxpayers a lot of money and is harmful to the wards submitted to us."

Workman, speaking at a council meeting of the West Texas Region of the Boys Clubs of America, referred to a ruling by U.S. Judge William Justice of the Eastern District Court of Texas.

The ruling grew out of a suit, Morales vs. the Texas Youth Council, claiming that juveniles are deprived by the Texas Youth Council of rights to be rehabilitated.

The judge's order, handed down Aug. 31, and posted on unit bulletin boards was followed by much rioting in the state's detention units, Workman said, and the situation is still bad.

"The judge's action forbids corporal punishment in any way unless a person does harm to another, destroys property or tries to escape," Workman said. "His ruling also forbids officials of a detention unit to

World Leaders Pay Pompidou Tribute

By JOHN VINOUCR
PARIS (AP) — World leaders passed through Notre Dame's Gate of the Last Judgment and into the solemnity of its seven centuries of French history to pay tribute Saturday to the late President Georges Pompidou.

Bach's St. Matthew's Passion and the Gregorian chants that Pompidou thought were Roman Catholics' most beautiful prayers rang through the great cathedral as princes, presidents and premiers from more than 80 nations were asked to pray for Pompidou's soul and for wisdom in guiding their nations.

President Nixon, occasionally turning his head to look at the cathedral's magnificent stained windows, and Soviet President Nikolai Podgorny, stood with the congregation as it prayed: "Light with your light the leaders of nations and give them courage; that all countries at last free and in peace, may take part in the construction of the world."

The ceremony, simplified by the absence of the incense, miter or cross, was essentially the same one that Pompidou had personally supervised in Notre Dame at the death of Charles de Gaulle in 1970. The president's widow did not attend and was resting in the country after her husband's burial on Wednesday.

The leaders entered the church under the grimacing devils and angels that described the battles of good and evil for Notre Dame's parishioners in the Middle Ages. One by one, they walked down a red carpet to their seats near the altar, decorated with six golden candles, flowers and a crucifix.

An immense French tricolor hung from the arched vault of the church, lit to daytime brightness by television camera lights.

Nixon was one of the last of chiefs of state to enter the church. In a morning coat, but without the top hat worn by some of the other guests, he took a seat between Italian

President Giovanni Leone and Hungarian Vice President Pal Losonczi.

To Nixon's left was Queen Juliana of Holland and behind her the Duke of Edinburgh, West German Chancellor Willy Brandt, Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau of Canada and Crown Prince Harald of Norway.

The service lasted 45 minutes.

Water District's Records Shattered With March Output

WASHINGTON (AP) — All government official disputes President Nixon's statement

BIG SPRING — All March and first quarter records were shattered by the Colorado River Municipal Water District when it pumped 1,736,742,948 gallons last month and 4,806,153,888 gallons for the first three months of 1974.

The March output was up 54.28 percent over a year ago, and the first-quarter output was up by 34.07.

There were two contributing reasons, one a marked difference in the weather. A year ago an unusually cold, damp winter and early spring brought on a sharp loss in deliveries, particularly to the municipal customers. This year, CRMWD began its deliveries of water from Lake E. V. Spence to the Texas Electric Service company reservoir—Lake Colorado City.

During March, the cities used 962,227,000 gallons, an increase of 42.11 per cent, making 2,393,515,000 gallons for the first quarter, or 27.72 per cent more than the same time in 1973.

Mining and industrial users took 774,515,948 gallons in March and 1,912,638,288 gallons for the first quarter. Of the totals, 262,599,000 gallons were in deliveries to TESCO in March and 472,563,000 for the quarter.

In March Odessa took 396,700,000 gallons, up 49.87 per cent; Big Spring 249,669,000, up 24.53; Snyder 73,253,000, up 38.43; Stanton 8,315,000, up 50.44; Midland 234,200,000, up 58.23 per cent. San Angelo, which pumped lightly last year, did not take any water in March.

Welfare Surplus Reason Questioned

Instead, James S. Dwight Jr., public assistance administrator in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, said in an interview Friday, at least 60 per cent, or $459 million, of the surplus represents funds unspent by the states for social services.

"States just aren't using this authority to the extent we thought they would," Dwight said.

Nixon announced a week ago that he was asking Congress to cut about $800 million from the fiscal 1974 welfare budget, citing a cumulative loss of 255,000 persons receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) assistance.

In actuality, the AFDC decline accounted for "just a small part" of the surplus, Dwight said, giving figures of $67 million in reduced cash grants and $165 million in Medicaid savings.

Hearst Says Daughter Has Been Brainwashed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Randolph A. Hearst said Saturday he believes his kidnapped daughter has been brainwashed. "Sixty days can change people's opinions," he said. "I think she believes some things. I don't think she believes others."

Hearst said in an interview that it was "ridiculous" to assume that his daughter, kidnapped Feb. 4, can come home anytime she wants to and said that $4 million promised for a food giveaway program won't be released until he sees Patricia in person.

Discussing a tape recording disclosed last Wednesday in which Miss Hearst denounced her father and said she had joined the Symbionese Liberation Army, which claims credit for the kidnaping, Hearst said:

Hearst said "the theory that she has been released and can come home at any time is ridiculous. Anybody who is going to release $4 million on that is a dingbat."

Hearst, the editor and president of the San Francisco Examiner, said that the terms of the escrow agreement specify that "she has to be released to her parents."

SLA Gen. Field Marshal Clinque said on the latest tape that Miss Hearst had been accepted as a comrade in the terrorist organization and was free to leave whenever she wished.

Miss Hearst, who denounced her father as a "corporate liar," said she had been given the choice of being released in a safe area or joining the SLA. "I have chosen to stay and fight," she declared.

He said he thought it was foolish of the SLA not to let Patty see him if the $4 million is at stake. "I think it really doesn't matter to them what I think. I think maybe the people involved in the community should say what they think."

He totally dismissed Patty's comment on the tape that "all of the lower class and at least half of the middle class will be unemployed in the next three years and that the removal of unneeded people has already started."

With some irritation, Hearst said, "No rational person could believe that sort of nonsense."

Dominey said he appreciated the support of Midland voters.

"Our community always has demanded excellent schools for all our young people and I look forward toward continued improvement of our facilities and instructional programs."

"Especially do I want to congratulate Mr. Ramsoure who will certainly bring fresh and valuable insights into our board of education," he added.

Carr-Osorio Jury Recesses Until Monday

DALLAS (AP) — A federal jury recessed its deliberations late Saturday in the fraud and conspiracy trial of former Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, former state insurance commissioner John Osorio and Dallas businessman David Hoover.

Deliberations were to resume 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Shortly before recessing, jurors asked to hear parts of testimony given by defendant Hoover and former codefendant Thano Dameris.

The panel already had asked for and received documents and charts entered as evidence in the case. Deliberations began at 11 a.m.

Impeachment Panel Worries About Leaks

WASHINGTON (AP) — House impeachment probes are trying to devise a leak-proof method of presenting evidence to the 38-member Judiciary Committee.

In a town where it is axiomatic that if two people know something it is no longer a secret, that's like trying to dam a stream with sand.

The committee staff has acquired a vast amount of information about President Nixon and his aides, much of it from the secret files of the Watergate grand jury and the Senate Watergate committee.

The problem is how to transmit it to the committee members who have to decide whether or not grounds exist for impeaching Nixon.

Should a bill of impeachment be voted, the evidence in support of it but no other material would be made public at that time. It is maintaining the confidentiality of the extra material that concerns Chairman Peter Rodino, D-N.J., and chief counsel John Doar.

Although information is still being gathered and the committee is waiting to see if the White House will turn over more tapes, Doar has told Rodino he will be ready to start presenting evidence the first week of May.

He plans to give each member a thick looseleaf notebook listing the allegations against Nixon and related facts. The source of each fact would be noted — the specific tape, document, grand jury testimony, or whatever — but that evidence itself would be kept under tight security in the staff offices.

Doar proposes to discuss each notebook fact in detail, so the whole case will be before the committee. At any point, however, members could ask to go to the staff offices and examine the evidence.

All this would be done behind closed doors, and it is the need to keep everything secret during that period that is Doar's and Rodino's chief concern. They haven't come up with any answers yet, and they will probably have to trust the members to keep quiet. They can't, after all, be locked up like a jury.

Anyone recalling the massive leaks from the seven-member Senate Watergate committee would be justified in viewing such a trust with skepticism. But there are signs the Judiciary Committee members are taking the enormous responsibility to heart.

"It would be awful if we blew it," says Rep. Robert Drinan, D-Mass. Besides the impeachment, the trials of several former Nixon aides could be affected by leaks.

Under Doar's plan it is only after the full presentation of the evidence that the committee would consider whether it wants to call witnesses, seek additional material, or let Nixon's lawyers make a presentation.

Republican members think White House lawyers should be allowed to participate at the start of the presentation of evidence. They also want assurances that key witnesses such as former White House counsel John W. Dean III will be called and that Nixon's lawyers will be allowed to cross-examine him.

Mutscher Lawyers: Immunity Should Have Scotched His Trial

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP) — Lawyers for former Speaker Gus Mutscher says he never should have been tried on a charge he conspired to accept a bribe because legislative immunity made him answerable only to the voters.

The Court of Criminal Appeals will hear oral arguments in the case Wednesday.

Legislative immunity perhaps is the most interesting of 24 arguments defense lawyers use in their brief asking the court to reverse the 1972 convictions of Mutscher and two others.

That immunity theory dates from early English history and was created to stop kings from imprisoning members of Parliament for "making seditious speeches against the crown."

The U.S. Supreme Court recognized that immunity in an 1810 opinion written by Chief Justice John Marshall, who said the motives of Georgia legislators could not be questioned in court in a bribery case.

The late Justice Felix Frankfurter wrote in a 1951 case, "In times of political passion, dishonest or vindictive motives are readily attributable to legislative conduct and as readily believed."

"Courts are not the place for such controversies. Self discipline and the voters must be the ultimate reliance for discouraging or correcting such abuses."

For defendants Mutscher, former Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth and Mutscher aide Rush McGinty, 1972 was indeed a time of "political passion," defense lawyers say.

The prosecution's answering brief quotes a 1972 U.S. Supreme Court case in which the court held that the intent of the framers of the U.S. Constitution was to protect only the legitimate legislative process, not to make members of Congress supercitizens, immune from criminal responsibility.

The Texas Constitution grants legislative immunity in these words, "No member shall be questioned in any other place for words spoken in debate in either house."

Crucial to the state's case, the defense says, was testimony on legislative activities by Mutscher and Shannon on two banking bills wanted by Houston promoter Frank Sharp in 1969.

Insufficient Evidence?

And these activities are precisely the kind of action shielded from court inquiry by the constitution, they say.

Among other defense attacks is one on "the insufficiency of the evidence" in a circumstantial evidence case.

All other reasonable explanations for a defendant's behavior must be affirmatively excluded by the prosecution in a circumstantial evidence case.

The defense says two reasonable explanations not excluded by the state's case were:

—That Mutscher was sincerely interested in developing a broad base economy for small communities, something the banking bills would help accomplish.

—That the defendants were making legitimate business investments when they bought stock in a Sharp-controlled insurance company with money borrowed from Sharp's bank.

The prosecution's brief acknowledges the circumstantial evidence rule but goes on to say there are other rules the defense ignores, such as the one that says the jury is the judge of the facts, the credibility of the witnesses and what weight to be given to the testimony of each witness.

The state quotes an earlier Texas case on conspiracy, "The existence of a conspiracy can seldom, if ever, be shown by direct and positive evidence. Their work is done in secrecy and under cover."

"The state need only show that the individuals knew of the common purpose and acted toward that purpose, knew of the conspiracy and had an intent to participate," the prosecution brief says.

All three defendants drew five-year probated sentences the day after a jury in Abilene, where the trial had been moved, found them guilty on March 14, 1972.

Mutscher borrowed $130,250 and Shannon and McGinty each borrowed $49,929 from the Sharpstown State Bank in July 1969.

The legislature passed the banking bills Sharp wanted on Sept. 11, 1969, and the next day the defendants sold most of their National Bankers Life Insurance Co. stock, which they had bought for $13 a share two months earlier, for $20 a share. Gov. Preston Smith vetoed the bill.

Another $2 Billion Year!

Texas had another $2 billion out-of-state visitor year in 1973!

This is a remarkable achievement. There were those who doubted if the state could repeat its $2 billion feat, but the record speaks for itself.

Only three other states — California, Florida and New York — benefitted this much from visitor dollars, according to "Tourist Talk," published by Texas Tourist Council.

The number of out-of-state visitors to Texas last year totaled 22,741,000. These visitors, whose stay in Texas averaged 5.3 days, spent $2,145,977,000. They paid $193,138,000 in state taxes (gasoline, lodging, sales and excise). The Tourist Council figures that the state's return on its investment to attract visitors was $101 to $1.

If the visitors could have been enticed to stay just one extra day in Texas, they would have spent another $405 million.

These tourist dollars circulate in all cities and counties throughout the state. The community which works the hardest in attracting and serving tourists benefits the most from the tourist dollar.

The Texas Highway Department, in its "Travel Log," says that approximately 15,975,000 auto visitors from other states and nations visited Texas in 1973. They spent more than $1.5 billion, with more than $133 million paid directly into state taxes.

It is interesting to note that 645,000 auto visitors from Mexico came to Texas last year, representing a 23 per cent increase over 1972.

This is great, but who knows just what 1974 holds? No one knows for sure, of course, but chances are the figures will be about the same as 1973, unless travel conditions get a lot worse during the vacation season.

It may be necessary, however, for the Tourist Council and others to step up their efforts in attracting out-of-state visitors.

Meanwhile, efforts are being made by various groups, inviting Texans to "See Texas First."

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has launched what is said to be the most intensified travel promotion project in its 55-year history. Distribution of WTC's new "Wonderful West Texas Fun and Adventure Map" was started at the Southwest Sports and Vacation Show held at Dallas.

The Fun and Adventure Map, which highlights the availability of points of interest to the vacationing public in West Texas, contains information from which an entire vacation can be planned in this great region.

It is up to Midland and other West Texas cities and resort areas to take it from there.

Spring May Be A Little Late This Year

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: Reverse lobbying practiced by foreign governments.

WASHINGTON — Foreign governments in quest of U.S. benefits now use reverse lobbying. Instead of calling upon Congress, they bring the congressmen to them.

Just last January, for example, Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., accompanied by his wife, his daughter and two aides, breezed through five countries in about three weeks in each of the countries.

He visited, at least part of the time, at the expense of the host government. Hartke's expenses were picked up by the host government. State Department cables by demanding the right to cross-examine and even subpoena witnesses.

The impeachment investigation, like a grand jury probe, is merely supposed to determine whether charges should be brought against the President. It would take a two-thirds vote of the Senate to convict him.

Defense attorneys normally don't participate in grand jury proceedings. But committee Republicans desperately want St. Clair to be involved in the impeachment investigation.

In Ceylon, "Senator and Mrs. Hartke and daughter will be guests of (the government) with hotel, travel expenses paid." In Indonesia, the senator was a "guest of Parliament." And in New Zealand, he was also a government guest.

For spending money, according to the cables, the various U.S. embassies provided Hartke with an additional $75 a day in local currencies. Not only members of Congress but their staff assistants have been gallivanting around the globe at the expense of foreign governments.

On April 13, for instance, a dozen congressional aides will arrive in Taiwan for a vacation financed by Nationalist China. The State Department cabled the U.S. Embassy in Taipei requesting PX cards for the junketing aides "if embassy is in position to issue them."

The embassy replied that the aides would need "official passports" or "we will be in the rather uncomfortable position of being unable to obtain PX cards for some."

"Kind of PR Thing"

The senior staff member, Ralph Vandervort of the Senate Space Committee, told us the trip was "kind of a public relations thing" on the part of the Chiang Kai-shek government. The few thousand dollars old Chiang spends to woo U.S. officials, judging by past performance, is money well spent. In the last four years, he has collected $373.7 million in U.S. military aid.

The South Vietnamese government has done far better, having wrangled more than $1 billion in arms aid in 1973. Now the Nixon administration has requested another $474 million in "emergency funds" for the Saigon regime.

Even as the request is pending before Congress, State Department cables reveal that the Saigon government has invited eight key congressional staff members to visit South Vietnam to view "present realities."

Footnote: Congressmen and their aides who accept free trips abroad from foreign governments may be in violation of the Constitution, which forbids U.S. officials from accepting any "emolument . . . of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince or foreign state."

BACKROOM POLITICS: President Nixon's wily Watergate attorney, James St. J. Jensen, is working behind the scenes to obstruct the impeachment investigation. Many observers believed Jensen, a distinguished Chicago attorney, was hired to take the Watergate onus off the Republicans. His experience and integrity, it was thought, would serve as the excuse for Republicans to move away from the President.

Instead, our sources say the senior Republican, Rep. Edward Hutchinson, R-Mich., has bypassed Jenner and given real authority over the GOP staff to Garrison.

Both Jenner and chief counsel John Doar have tried to maintain lines of communication between the Democratic and Republican staff. He has refused to work on any of the fact-finding task forces but confines himself instead to strictly partisan efforts. He is now hard at work drafting a partisan brief on the St. Clair issue.

H-SU Rider Group Rodeo Performers

ABILENE — Hardin-Simmons University's Six White Horses and Riders will lead off the Cotter County Rodeo Parade on April 19 in Paducah. They will perform a special routine that evening at the rodeo.

But there is enormous assurance and security in the warm one-on-one group linkages. Japan under this structure is truly a classless society, with more equality than any Western nation. But the tight rankings, and the limits they impose on interchange of ideas, mean there is less play for mental freedom.

The crucial competition is not within but between groups — companies, universities, agencies. Challenging, but also wasteful at times, and productive of harmful animosities.

BRUCE BLOSSAT Japan's Feudalism Gone But Its Effects Linger

TOKYO (NEA) — The outsider searching for the deep roots of Japan's postwar economic triumphs finds them in an enduring stability and an unflagging discipline bending people toward work. No surprise, except how far these roots reach into the soil of Japanese history.

In a 1974 probe into Japan, one would not expect to get into feudalism. Yet that's where you are drawn inescapably, for the Japanese — uniquely in the world — were living under feudal rule until just 106 years ago. And they had it for six centuries, much longer than the Europeans who were the only others on earth ever to erect such a society.

What this has bequeathed the Japanese, and the historians and social anthropologists verify the tracings, is a firm social "frame" which has enabled them to rise from war and storm with a resilience quite uncommon.

Probably the critical feudal span was the two and a half century rule of the Tokugawa family which directly preceded the celebrated westernization of Japan starting in 1868 with the so-called Meiji Restoration.

In that remarkably stable period, the frame was set. In the perceptive view of Miss Chie Nakane, Tokyo university professor presently in California, the "group" became the key structural element in Japanese society — its membership ordered by careful rankings from top to bottom.

Jump to 1974, and see this element spelled out in the household, the automobile or electronics company, the company labor union, the government bureaucratic agency, the particular university faculty, etc.

In Japan, ultimate loyalty is to the group. The company or bureaucratic ministry pin worn in the lapel is the symbol. It is not a minor thing. While authority flows from the top down, there are variations and much significant inter-flow. What counts most is that from these groupings the Japanese gain a great sense of belonging, a feeling that no one is left out, generally an escape from "alienation."

With Japan having perhaps the world's highest educational levels, entry into working groups demands good educational background. Thereafter, advancement is by seniority, not ability. Disadvantages here are obvious. But there is enormous assurance and security in the warm one-on-one group linkages.

Japan under this structure is truly a classless society, with more equality than any Western nation. But the tight rankings, and the limits they impose on interchange of ideas, mean there is less play for mental freedom.

Dear Editor: I see where Congress has passed a law to make employer wages pay higher minimum wages, but has made no provisions for furnishing the money for same.

Which is on par with the politicians' habit of imposing higher and higher taxes and leaving it up to us taxpayers to worry about where to get this extra money.

And no proposal has ever been heard in Congress to pass a minimum worth law, to command that all employees be worth $2.30 per hour.

DAVID POLING, D.D. Public Outrage May Be Converted To Betterment

NEW YORK (NEA) — Recent kidnapings and other acts of terror have become a sickening experience for millions of people around the world. The attempted seduction of members of the British Royal Family adds to the rage of thoughtful people everywhere. Public figures, political leaders and leading financial officers now must dread the criminal intentions of an unbalanced minority which has the capacity to terrorize society. And this hurts everybody.

The first result is a return to capital punishment. This is a painful theme for many who sought a better solution during the last decade — but now discover that the one thing worse than the death penalty is kidnapping. The almost causal employment of the kidnap technique — whether it be for political or monetary gain — cannot be permitted in the social structure of humanity.

The larger injury from the epidemic of kidnaping may be in the whole field of prison rehabilitation. Our correctional system needs continued improvement and the emotions of the present hour must not deter the advance of a more humane approach to rehabilitation and recovery.

Consider this: Almost 80 per cent of all felonies are committed by people who have been in prison. The average local jail in the United States, according to the National Crime Commission, is unchanged for the last 50 years.

It is going to take a major effort from community and church organizations to offset the reactionary mood that has developed over recent outrages. Some areas have a running start, like the Southwest, with the "Arizona Citizens Committee on Prisons" leading the way. Formed in 1972 and sustained by leadership from Flint change are tearing Japan into Sholin of Tucson, the organization pressed for a review of the criminal justice system in the state. As a result, outmoded facilities are being remodeled, community-based treatment programs initiated, and overcrowding reduced.

Convicted Chapin 'To Continue To Fight For Innocence'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former White House aide Dwight L. Chapin, convicted of lying to a federal grand jury investigating political espionage, vows "to continue to fight for my innocence." A federal district court jury on Friday found the 33-year-old former appointments secretary guilty of two counts of perjury and innocent. The maximum penalty on each of the two counts is five years in prison and a fine of $10,000. U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell set sentencing for May 15 and invited Chapin to submit "all the information about yourself" before then. He remains free without bond. "Obviously I am very disappointed," Chapin told newsmen while his wife Susan stood by his side. "I am going to continue to fight for my innocence. On the day I was indicted I went out on my front lawn and said I was innocent. I intend to fight this thing all the way through." Chapin, on leave from the position with United Air Lines which he took when he left the day before reaching its verdict on Chapin, the eighth former White House aide convicted either by guilty plea or trial. His troubles stemmed from his recruitment of a college friend, Donald H. Segretti, to infiltrate the ranks of Democratic presidential contenders and create confusion and dissension. Segretti, who admitted making up phony and scurrilous press releases and campaign literature, was the principal witness against Chapin a week after he himself was released after serving a 4½-month sentence for violating federal election laws. There were two parts to the first count. The jury found that Chapin had lied to the grand jury when he said he never discussed distribution of campaign material with Segretti. It found he had not lied when he said he did not know Segretti had distributed literature. His conviction on that count stands. He was convicted also of lying when he said he had never given Segretti "any directions or instructions with respect to any single or particular candidate." He was acquitted of a charge that he lied when he said he told Segretti to talk to FBI agents after they had contacted him.

Improved Gasoline Mileage Expected From 1975 Cars

DETROIT (AP) — After years of declining fuel economy, the auto is expected to stage a big comeback in the 1975 model year with gasoline mileage improvements very likely exceeding 7 per cent. The federal Environmental Protection Agency said Friday that preliminary results on some 1975-model test vehicles showed efficiency improvements would be greater than anticipated. Coupled with increased use of steel-belted, radial-ply tires, which the EPA says can cut fuel use an average 10 per cent, the improvement could be an important factor in dealing with the nation's petroleum problem. EPA deputy administrator Eric Stork said the latest projection was based on the first tests of 1975 cars equipped with catalytic converters. The converters will be used on most of the new autos to meet tougher pollution standards. The agency previously said it expected about a 7 per cent mileage improvement over all and 11 to 13 per cent for its own models will probably turn out to have been too conservative," Stork said in a telephone interview from his Washington office. With the catalysts bearing the burden of emissions control in the new cars, auto makers have said they are able to recalibrate the rest of the engine for better gasoline mileage. Automakers have complained of a total fuel penalty of about 15 per cent over the past five years because of engine and body changes designed to meet federal pollution and safety standards. Stork said GM will record the largest gain because its model line is the heaviest. "The greatest savings are going to be on the biggest cars because they lost the most and have more to gain back," he said. Stork said he could not release detailed test information at this time. Release of fuel economy figures is slated to coincide with the September model introduction.

County Not Ready For Drainage Project

Midland County Judge Barbara Culver said Friday she told the Texas Highway Commission at a meeting in Austin last week that Midland County did not at this time want to take part in a drainage project here.

Daniel To Lobby For Reforms After Term Completed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Speaker Price Daniel Jr. said Saturday that when he retires from the legislature in January he will continue to appear frequently at the Capitol, this time as an advocate.

This would help Daniel's name and ideas before the public, something he must do if he harbors any future political ambitions.

Daniel, 32, said he also plans to stay busy as speaker right up to the day he must turn the gavel over to whomever the House elects to succeed him.

Daniel said he intended to push for establishment of a state agency to regulate such public utilities as telephone and electric power companies; for property tax reform; and for a reorganization that would eliminate half of the present state agencies "and save millions."

"I will continue forever to push for an ethics commission," he added, referring to one part of his 1973 "reform" program that legislators refused to approve.

The drainage project has been in the planning stage since 1970 and calls for a drainage system to take care of runoff water from heavy rains along the Garden City Highway near the southeast corner of Midland.

The project would cost approximately $1 million. "It isn't that we are not interested in the drainage project," Judge Culver said. "It is just that the commissioners feel the project needs further study so it will not hurt the adjoining property owners."

She said the commissioners feel the end results will not justify the spending of the $1 million. The project originally was to have been a joint venture with the city and county sharing a portion of the cost with the highway department.

The city relegated the project to a spot behind several other priorities and the county agreed to take over the city's share, but now the county believes more study is needed, Judge Culver pointed out.

Court Plans Food Bombs In Ethiopia

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — A Swedish court with Maoist views who once bombed Nigerian troops for Biafra is now planning to bomb Ethiopian peasants — but this time with food.

Starting next week, Count Carl Gustaf von Rosen and three fellow pilots will be swooping low over famine-stricken villages, dropping sacks of grain. Von Rosen hopes it will be a breakthrough in getting aid to remote regions open only to mules and men on foot.

At 64, the son of one of Sweden's noblest families is writing another chapter in a life as circus flyer, mercenary, outspoken idealist and adventurer.

Von Rosen, who teaches flying in Stockholm with the vigor and enthusiasm of a much younger man, dislikes being called "count" and introduces himself without the aristocratic "von" — in keeping with his egalitarian ideas.

Relief workers from many nations worry over how to distribute grain across huge famine areas in Ethiopia, where an estimated 70 per cent of the population lives at least half a day's walk from any road.

Mules are slow, helicopters expensive. Von Rosen thinks he has the answer by using three single-engine Swedish Saab MF17 military planes and some daring flying techniques.

Each plane will carry 550 pounds of grain in eight sacks hung under the wings, enough to feed 50 people for nearly two weeks. The planes will throttle down to 60 knots, skimming low so the wrappings of inner tubes and plastic on the sacks will not burst on impact.

Jury Can't Decide In Burglary Case

A 142nd District Court jury Friday was unable to reach a verdict in the burglary trial of Jimmie Dwan Morgan.

The eight-woman, four-man jury deliberated almost seven hours before Dist. Judge Perry Pickett declared a mistrial at 7:15 p.m.

Morgan is charged with the March 20, 1972, burglary of the Sohio Oil Co. office here. Several business machines were taken during the break-in.

Assistant District Attorney Rusty Wall prosecuted the case. Morgan was represented by Odessa attorney Benny Lowe.

Texas Press Women Plan For Convention In Midland

CRANE — Plans for the Texas Press Women's Association convention, to be held in Midland next March, were discussed Saturday when members of District 2 met here.

The district, which covers 15 counties in West Texas, won the bid for the 1975 convention. Membership in the organization, which is an affiliate of the National Federation of Press Women, is open to women in the field of writing, who have been employed at least one year or who freelance to attend and the district hopes to get a top-name personality writing within the last 12 months in the news field as the keynote speaker.

Numerous persons in the writing fields will be asked to conduct workshops. Chairmen for the convention are Mary J. Goodwin of Midland, general; D'eva Luther of Midland, programs; Roberta Stag of Crane, finance and donations; and Carolyn Fitzgerald and Jolly Schram of Midland, decorations.

Joan Nixon and Tricia Sheldon of Midland will help in arranging the program and Myrtle Corley of Crane, district president, will assist in general convention arrangements.

Israelis Open Fire On Syrian Troops

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — United Nations truce observers said Israeli forces opened fire on Syrian troops on the Golan Heights front Saturday and used warplanes for the first time since the October cease-fire.

But Israel said it acted after a small Syrian force crossed the Golan truce lines hours before Passover began and attacked an Israeli position on the snowy slopes of Mt. Hermon.

It said Israeli fighter-bombers and big guns were called on to repulse the force, the Syrians withdrew after a half hour, and that Israel complained to the United Nations in Jerusalem.

But Syria said the Israelis attacked a Syrian position on the mountain first. It said two Israeli warplanes struck twice in 30 minutes without inflicting casualties.

It was the 26th straight day of fighting on the embattled Golan and the adjoining wedge of land captured from Syria in the October war.

Israeli troops still stood on high alert along the Arab fronts, fearful of a repetition of the last Yom Kippur holiday when Syrian and Egyptian troops launched their attack.

Also worsening in the Jewish state was the political furor stirred by the report of a blue ribbon commission fixing blame for Israel's initial setbacks at Yom Kippur.

Israel's most powerful opposition political leader, Menahem Begin, chief of the right-wing Likud bloc, called on Premier Golda Meir's government to resign.

Israel's chief of staff, Lt. Gen. David Elazar, already has resigned from the army because of the report.

But there was a growing clamor for the resignation of Mrs. Meir and her defense minister, Moshe Dayan, or the entire coalition government.

The Israeli parliament will debate the commission's findings Thursday.

Despite the flawed Passover, tens of thousands of Israelis already have taken off for a holiday at mountain, desert or seaside resorts, camps and picnic grounds.

Passover commemorates the Jewish flight from Egyptian bondage 3,000 years ago. Traditional seder dinners were held in religious homes throughout the Jewish state Saturday night.

Thousands of Christian pilgrims continued to arrive in Israel to celebrate Holy Week, which starts today with Palm Sunday.

The Roman Catholic patriarch of Jerusalem, Msgr. G. G. Beltritti, was expected to take part in the annual procession down the Mount of Olives to the old walled city of Jerusalem, the traditional route of Jesus' entry into the holy city five days before His crucifixion.

Rose Mary Woods, Donald Nixon Got Part Of Hughes Money—Kalmbach

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prefecture that Nixon confidante Florida banker C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo disclosed to him last spring that money was passed on to secretary Rose Mary Woods and Donald Nixon, the Washington Post said Saturday.

The newspaper story, by Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward, quoted informed sources. Staff members of the committee declined comment.

Kalmbach's purported statements are in direct contradiction to sworn testimony by Rebozo that he kept the entire $100,000 in a safe deposit box for three years and returned it to Hughes.

They also contradict Miss Woods' testimony under oath that she never received any money from Rebozo.

Board Of Education To Vote On Changes In Policy In May

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — For a change, Mrs. Mel Gabler of Longview came away smiling Saturday from a State Board of Education discussion of evolution in textbooks.

She dropped a formal complaint after the board's Committee on Priorities recommended changes in the agency's guidelines on both evolution and the time allotted to protest certain books.

The full board will vote next month on the changes.

Mrs. Gabler has contended that the current evolution guidelines were loose enough to enable publishers to get away with portraying evolution as a fact rather than as a theory.

The proposed new guidelines require texts to identify evolution only as one of several explanations for the origins of the human race. The current guidelines refer to the "development"—not origins—of mankind, a word that Mrs. Gabler said seems to imply evolution.

She said she has no objection to pupils learning of the theory but wants texts to avoid any inference that only the evolutionary doctrine explains the origin of our species.

The committee also approved a guideline giving an extension of time to textbook critics whenever a publisher receives additional time to submit his books.

Mrs. Gabler has complained because a publisher submitted late or in incomplete form a large number of blank pages for review with a large number of blank pages. She said she is happy with the proposed guidelines on evolution.

"A publisher is going to be made to stick to it even to writing parts of his books. It is going to clarify things and say to the student that evolution is a fact," Mrs. Gabler said.

Medical Cost Explosion Seen In Next 15 Months

WASHINGTON (AP) — If one year may be closer to $5.5 billion, instead of $4 billion, for hospitals, $2 billion, with $1 billion of that in insurance premium, prepare for a shock. The next 12 to 15 months may bring an enormous amount to every American's health bill, adding health costs in the nation's history.

If price controls over health costs are allowed to expire on April 30, as is likely, consumers may see these kind of increases in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1975.

—Hospital charges will jump by 16 to 17 per cent.

—Physician fees will go up about 9 per cent.

—Nursing home charges will jump by 14 per cent.

The estimates are those of the Nixon administration, which had urged Congress to continue price controls over the health industry, only to be rejected so far.

Even with controls, hospital charges would have risen about 10 per cent, doctors' fees 4 per cent and nursing home charges 6.5 per cent, the administration estimates.

The public will have to pay an additional $1.1 billion over the current fiscal year, then another $9 billion on top of that in the following year, the administration estimates.

Consumers will find themselves paying an additional $1 billion in direct out-of-pocket expenses for services which would have been covered under price controls. This amount will rise to $2.25 billion additional in fiscal 1976.

Medical insurance premiums would go up $1.5 billion in fiscal 1975, and spending by state and federal governments would rise $1.5 billion.

Caspar Weinberger, secretary of health, education and welfare, said he believes the costs will be higher than that.

He said the estimates "imply a substantial degree of restraint which I hope to see," Weinberger said the cost in-

Panel Says Too Few Women Serving On School Boards

HOUSTON (AP) — A special one in 10 since the late 1920s, should be corrected," Mrs. Thompson said.

Mrs. Thompson said a national survey by the commission are serving on boards of education, and students are not well served by this imbalance.

"The population of men and women on school boards is grossly out of balance," Mrs. Thompson said.

Commission on the Role of Women in Educational Governance said in a report submitted to the association's annual meeting here through Tuesday, to urge school boards and state school board associations to encourage the candidacy of women for local boards and to consider women when filling board or advisory committee vacancies.

Marian Thompson, the commission chairman from Stoughton, Wis., said studies indicate an informal quota system appears to be limiting women to one seat on most boards of education. She said the studies also indicate the proportion of women members nationally has remained fairly constant at about

PRICE RISE DECEIVING

The average price of new homes has risen appreciably year after year. Does this mean that the home buying dollar has shrunk by the same percentage? Not by a longshot! The new home buyer today gets a lot more for his buying dollar than ever before.

For example, the median single home price increased some 50% between 1963 and 1970, but during that same period, average square footage rose from 1,365 to 1,660 feet and the number of bathrooms rose from 1.6 to 2.

The story in appliances is similar. Forty per cent more houses were air-conditioned in 1970 against only 19% in 1963. Ninety per cent were sold with a range compared to 79% in 1963, and the increase in dishwashers climbed from 26% to 60%.

Not only are home buyers getting more house for their money, but current resale values will prove that they're not making such a sacrifice after all.

5-4A ROUNDUP—

Panthers Capture First Half Crown

Odessa Permian overcame four first inning errors to take a 12-10 victory over the San Angelo Bobcats Saturday to win the first half of the District 5-4A baseball race outright.

While Permian was wining, Odessa took an 11-7 victory over the Big Spring Steers in other loop action.

Permian is now 12-1 on the year and 6-0 in loop play with a game left with OHS Tuesday before the second half of the schedule starts with the Panthers playing Midland in Odessa Thursday.

Alex Kager chalked up his eighth victory of the year against no losses and added his own cause with a double and homer.

The Panthers pounded out 12 hits to San Angelo's 10 and blew a big 9-3 lead when the Bobcats scored six runs in the sixth inning.

Mike Sterling and Jerry Walker slammed doubles for OHS while Garland Reid added a triple to the winner's attack. Sammy Rodriguez and John Morellon belted homers for the Steers who stand 2-4 in the race while OHS stands 2-4.

OHS takes on Midland Lee in Midland Friday to start the second half of the 5-4A race.

A total of 13 errors were committed in the Permian-San Angelo game in which all of the senior players for the Bobcats were left at home.

Permian got added muscle from Wes Maynard, Rusty Breazeale, Ray Nunez and Bobby Inzer, who also had doubles for the Panthers.

TOO HIGH—Midland shortstop Kenny Krawietz (10), leaps high in the air in attempt to pull down throw from pitcher Alan Buonasera in District 5-4A baseball game with Abilene Cooper Saturday. Cooper's Steve Baber (18), watches ball sail into center field. The Cougars won, 9-1.

Cougars Clout Three Homers To Post Win

By TERRY WILLIAMSON

The Abilene Cooper Cougars unleashed a 13-hit attack, including three homers, at the Memorial Stadium diamond Saturday afternoon to take a 9-1 District 5-4A baseball triumph over the Midland High Bulldogs.

It was only last Tuesday when the Pack loosened the bats with a 13-hit attack, but Coach Arlen Dickinson's crew managed only four hits and a lone run against a superb Alan Lakatta, who upped his season record to 3-4.

Lakatta virtually silenced the Bulldog timber Saturday and the Bulldogs managed to put a run on the boards only in the third frame when Brandon Batties singled and scored on Terry Copeland's double to left.

The loss left the Pack mired with a 2-4 first half district mark and a 7-11 season reading.

The big damage was done in the fifth, however, when Cooper got four runs on six hits, one of them another round tripper.

Lakatta, who was just as awesome on the plate as on the mound, hit a three run homer over the inviting wind blown fence in left. Martindale singled in another run in the frame to post a 7-1 Cougar lead.

Steve Kennedy then came up with his two run shot to left in the sixth inning to put in the final icing on the victory cake.

Alan Buonasera, the loser and now 2-4 on the year, had trouble keeping the ball low, and Cougar power hitters took advantage of the situation. Buonasera was tagged for all nine runs before Terrell Littlejohn came in for a relief performance in the sixth.

Littlejohn retired all four batters he faced.

Helm got the first hit of the day for the Bulldogs in the second inning, but was left stranded.

Cooper is now 6-10 and 3-3 in first half action.

Lakatta mowed down nine Bulldogs on strikes and walked only two with a good assortment of fast balls and curves. He had the 'Dogs off balance most of the afternoon, and only Copeland seemed to be consistently effective at the plate for Midland. Copeland doubled and singled in three trips while Batties and Ron Helm were the only other 'Dogs to get saffies.

Cooper scored a single run in the first frame when Lawson singled, moved to second on an error by left fielder Clellan Pearce and scored on a single by Lakatta.

The Bulldogs tied the game in the third on Copeland's double, but the Cougars went back into the lead in the fourth when Steve Baber homered, the first of three for Cooper. Larry Martindale slamed a double to left to score Rusty Hamric for a 3-1 lead.

Wichita Trips Cubs

Sun, Bad Bounce Makes Difference

By TED BATTLES

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — A blinding sun and a bad-bounce single overcame outfielder Jose Ortiz' hustle on the base paths and gave Wichita's American Association Aeros a 4-3 victory over the Midland Cubs in 85-degree weather at Scottsdale Stadium Saturday.

It was Midland's first loss in five games. Centerfielder Earl Chew was blinded at the last second by the sun on a fly ball by Rob Sperring that went for three bases and Griggy Porter drilled a single into right field to give Wichita a 3-2 lead in the eighth.

Midland got it back in the ninth when Juan Lopez, a submarine-style righthander, walked Ortiz with one out. Only Ortiz didn't stop at first. When the Aeros were sloppy about getting the ball back to the pitcher, it rolled into center. While the ball was being run down, Ortiz took third and scored on Doug Carvahho's single to right.

In the ninth, catcher Dom Gaudioso led off with a single, moved to second on Cleo James' sacrifice before Bill Droegge popped out and Ron Matney walked. Pete LaCock then bounced what appeared to be a routine grounder to Bill Huisman at second only it took a high hop over Bill's glove and the winning run raced home.

Mitch Taylor, a 6-4, 205-pounder, who as a 12-year-old, won a Punt, Pass & Kick contest in San Diego, was the victim of all the bad luck and got the loss.

Picked up from the Dodger organization, Mitch was 9-5 with a 2.98 ERA at Bakersfield of the California League last year.

Mike Weiss and Brian Bickerton each went three innings before Taylor took the mound. Bickerton pitched hitless ball in his stint as the 6-4, 200-pound lefty who has been knocking around pro ball since 1968 after being selected by the Kansas City A's (Now Oakland), in the first round of the free agent draft in 1967. The A's didn't get around to selecting Vida Blue until the next round.

Bickerton pitched at Key West last year where he was 4-5 and he has been as high as Iowa in the American Association.

Both Bickerton and Taylor are results of the Chicago Cubs' efforts to stock up on pitching.

A couple of former Midlanders, Tom Badcock and Paul Zahn, held Midland scoreless through the first six innings before the Cubs got to Lopez for a couple of runs in the seventh.

Shortstop Bryon Loomans walked to lead off the seventh and Greg Collins, the big Vanderbilt catcher, came through with his second hit, a double, to put runners on second and third. Loomans scored on a wild pitch and after walks to Ortiz and Carvahho loaded the bases, Jerry Tabb's fly to deep right brought in the tying run.

CUB BRIEFS: Saturday's loss gives Midland a 5-7-1 Cactus League record. Loomans, 6-2, 195-pounder from Waupun, Wis., played in the Rookie League last year and is destined for Key West this year, but filled in for the Cubs today as Ken Sotkiewicz was rested and Alfredo Zavala played for Wichita. Carvahho, of Fall River, Mass., and Collins each had two hits. The Cubs infield of Tabb, Huisman, Zavala, Sotkiewicz and Julio Gonzales is probably set, but the outfield and pitching positions are up for grabs.

Abilene Downs Rebels

Eagles Rally In 6th For Win

ABILENE — Lee's heavy hitting Rebels managed only three hits here Saturday afternoon, and the Abilene Eagles erupted for four runs in the sixth inning to capture a narrow 5-4 District 5-4A baseball victory.

The loss left the Rebs with a 3-3 mark in loop play and a 13-5 reading on the season. Abilene is also 3-3 in loop play.

Coach Ernie Johnson's crew erupted for four runs in the first frame and held the lead until the fatal sixth when the Eagles surged to the front.

Brett Blackwell opened the Reb attack in the first inning with a single and Larry Tidwell followed with a walk. Blackwell scored when Bobby Stevens reached safely on an error and David Clinegan followed with a ground rule double to score Tidwell to make it 2-0 in favor of the Rebels.

Javier Torres walked and Steve Koch scored Stevens with a sacrifice bunt. Anderson walked with the bases loaded to drive in Clinegan and the Rebs were off to a big lead.

The Eagles narrowed the gap to 4-1 in the fourth inning when Ronnie Maynard hit a homer off starting pitcher Phil Anderson, but the real shocker came in the sixth when the Eagles put the game away.

Maynard singled to plate Monte Harris and two straight singles by Alan Mayhall and Bill Stover scored Maynard to narrow the gap to 4-3. Brad Mann's bunt single scored Mayhall to knot the game at 4-4.

Stover came in with the winning run when Bobby Lawson singled to right field and relief pitcher Steve Henson shut out the Rebs in the top of the seventh to preserve the victory for winning pitcher Paul Ogden.

The Eagles' four run sixth came off junior Hector Prieto, who is now 0-2 on the year. Ogden has a 6-1 mark.

Lee and Midland High will meet in a family scrap on the Lee diamond Tuesday to end first half action.

McRAE HOT—

Kansas City Rips Twins By 23-6

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Designated hitter Hal McRae slammed a home run, double and single and figured in seven-run and six-run uprisings, helping power the Kansas City Royals to a 23-6 rout over the Minnesota Twins Saturday.

McRae, who drove in four runs and scored three, singled in the Royals' seven-run outburst in the first inning against starter Bill Hands, scoring Cookie Rojas. He homered in the third, driving in John Mayberry and Amos Otis, who both had walked, giving the Royals a 10-0 lead.

McRae doubled leading off the fifth, touching off a six-run rally after the Twins had pulled to within 10-6.

Eleven batters went to the plate for the Royals in the first. Fred Patek, Jim Wohlford and Mayberry singled in succession before Rojas doubled to score Wohlford and Mayberry.

After McRae's single, Paul Schaaf was hit by a pitch, and Fran Healy singled in McRae. Schaaf and Healy both came home when rookie shortstop Sergio Ferrer misplayed Patek's grounder for an error.

McRae's double, Patek's run-scoring single, walks to Wohlford and Healy, Vada Pinson's two-run single, a double by Mayberry and Ferrer's throwing error that allowed Pinson and Mayberry to score produced the six runs in the fifth.

Johnny Bench ... powers home run

Reds Take 7-5 Victory

By NORM CLARKE

CINCINNATI (AP) — Atlanta slugger Hank Aaron, on the brink of immortality, sat on the bench Saturday and watched his teammates lose a 7-5 decision to the Cincinnati Reds before a national television audience.

Consecutive solo home runs by Tony Perez and Johnny Bench enabled the Reds to break a 5-5 tie in the seventh inning.

Aaron, who tied Babe Ruth's all-time home run in Thursday's opener, was held out of the lineup by Manager Eddie Mathews in a move that may draw a rebuke from Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

Mathews said Aaron would not start another game until Monday night's nationally-televised home opener in Atlanta.

The Braves, as in the opener, squandered early leads. The Reds rallied from 3-1 and 5-3 deficits.

Atlanta scored three runs in the third when Cincinnati's starting pitcher Don Gullett's two-out throwing error opened the way.

The Reds countered in the fourth with consecutive doubles by Merv Rettenmund and Dave Concepcion.

Mike Lum's bases-loaded single scored two runs, giving the Braves a 5-3 lead in the fifth.

The homers by Perez and Bench came off Braves' starter and loser Roric Harrison. The victory went to reliever Pedro Borbon 1-0.

Tigers Post 3-2 Triumph

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jim Northrup doubled with two out in the 10th inning and scored on a single by designated hitter Al Kaline, lifting the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 victory Saturday over the Baltimore Orioles.

It was Detroit's first triumph in two games under new manager Ralph Houk and pinned the setback on Dave McNally, who went all the way for Baltimore.

The Tigers pulled even at 2-2 in the sixth inning when Mickey Stanley doubled and scored on Bill Freehan's hard ground smash off the leg of third base umpire Nestor Chylak.

Detroit, which stranded six runners in the first four innings, scored an unearned run in the third on a walk to Aurelio Rodriguez, pitcher Dave McNally's fielding error and a single by Kaline.

Bobby Grich knocked in both Baltimore runs. His fifth-inning home run put the Orioles in front 2-1 and his bloop single in the third scored Mark Belanger, who had walked and moved all the way to third on a passed ball by Freehan.

Jim Northrup ignites rally

Atlanta scored three runs in the third when Cincinnati's starting pitcher Don Gullett's two-out throwing error opened the way.

Aggies, Cougars Split Key SWC Doubleheader

HOUSTON (AP) — Texas A&M third baseman Jim Hacker hit four doubles to lead the Aggies to a 18-13 Southwest Conference baseball victory over Houston Saturday in the first game of a doubleheader but the Cougars came back to take the second game 9-6.

Hacker's four two-baggers broke a conference record and the Aggies' 10 doubles in the first game tied a league mark set by Baylor in 1958.

The Aggies rallied for three runs in the seventh inning of the first to force it into extra innings, gaining the deadlock when Cougar hurler Charles Garza balked in Paul Miller.

A&M followed with a five-run eighth inning, highlighted by Jim Gretson's double which gave the Aggies 10 for the game.

Houston exploded for seven runs in the fourth inning of the second game. David Vinson had a two-run home run during the scoring spree. Vinson also had a home run in the first game.

The league-leading Aggies now are 13-2 in conference play and 26-7 for the season. Houston won two games of the three-game series.

Longhorns Cop Track Triumph

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Texas, led by first-place finishes in two events by Nate Robinson, swept 11 of 16 events Saturday to win a Southwest Conference triangular track meet over Texas Christian and Southern Methodist.

Robinson won the long jump with a leap of 23 feet, 6 1/4 inches, and was first in the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.8 seconds.

TCU won three events, including the 100-yard dash and the 440-yard relay, as Bill Collins ran the 100 in 9.2 and a leg on the relay. SMU won only the javelin and the 220 dash.

Texas' Ed Wright won the 440 dash and ran the anchor spot on the Longhorns' winning mile relay team.

Kuhn Orders Aaron To Start

CINCINNATI (AP) — Atlanta Manager Eddie Mathews said Saturday night that Hank Aaron will start to day against Cincinnati after Commissioner Bowie Kuhn ordered the Braves to have the superstar in the lineup.

"It's the first time the Commissioner ordered me to directly start Aaron," Mathews told a packed news conference in the team's hotel.

Mathews had withheld the 40-year-old Aaron, one homer away from setting an all-time record of 715, from Saturday's 7-5 loss to the Reds.

"He said we faced very serious consequences if we did not start him," Mathews related.

Mathews made his comments while reading a prepared statement in traveling secretary Donald Davidson's room. Atlanta General Manager Eddie Robinson was present when the Braves' skipper read the statement.

Mathews said Kuhn contacted Braves' officials and then the Atlanta skipper telephoned the commissioner back.

"It was the first time he had agreed to talk to me," Mathews said.

The commissioner had strongly urged the Braves to play their 40-year-old marvel in at least two of the three games in Cincinnati. Kuhn's move came after the Braves had announced before spring training that they intended to hold Aaron out of the opening series.

Aaron played in the Thursday opener here, ripping his 714th career homer to the Babe Ruth as the game's greatest home run hitter.

Mathews said, "For the first time I realized there could not only be fines and suspensions, but threats to the franchise itself."

"Because of these threats," Mathews continued, "I intend to start Hank Aaron tomorrow."

California Nips Chisox By 3-2

CHICAGO (AP) — Mickey Rivers singled home the winning run with two out in the ninth inning Saturday, giving California a 3-2 victory over Chicago, the Angels' second consecutive American League triumph over the White Sox.

Elie Rodriguez drew a one-out walk from Stan Bahnsen, who led the majors with 21 losses last season, and went to second when catcher Ed Herrman tried to pick him off and threw the ball into right field.

Rodriguez held second as rookie Dave Chalk grounded out, but moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on Rivers' single to left.

Chicago's two runs came on homers, Buddy Bradford connected against rookie Frank Tanana in the first inning and Bill Melton hitting one in the sixth.

Charles Cops Golf Lead

By BOB GREEN

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Lefty Bob Charles, a 38-year-old veteran from New Zealand, came from two strokes off the pace with a four-under-par 67 and grabbed the third-round lead Saturday in the $20,000 Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament.

Charles, now only a part-time performer in this country, had a 54-hole total of 202, 11 under par on the cold, windswept, 7,021-yard Sedgfield Country Club course.

The thin, dour New Zealander, a former British Open champion, held a one-stroke lead over John Mahaffey, Jim Jaimeson and rookie Joe Inman, tied at 203.

Inman, a Greensboro resident who was followed by a huge gallery of friends, relatives and former classmates at Wake Forest, boiled into contention with a brilliant, seven-under-par 64, the best round of the tournament.

Jaimeson and Mahaffey, who shared the 36-hole lead, had 70 1/2 strokes.

Phils Topple New York, 5-4

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mike Schmidt, whose wide throw had helped New York score the tie-breaking run in the seventh inning, blasted a two-run homer in the ninth, lifting the Philadelphia Phillies to a 5-4 victory over the Mets Saturday in the National League opener for both clubs.

Schmidt's drive over the left field fence off Mets' ace reliever Tug McGraw scored Billy Grabarkewitz, who had pinch run for Tony Taylor. Taylor had opened the ninth with a pinch single, then Bob Boone sacrificed.

Boone's mental mistake, causing Schmidt's wide throw, had allowed the Mets to go ahead 4-3.

Tom Seaver, the National League's Cy Young Award winner last year, started his seventh opening-day baseball game for the Mets, and failed to finish for the seventh time, being removed for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Steve Carlton, the NL's Cy Young Award winner in 1972, started for the Phils and worked five innings. He was not involved in the decision.

Oxford Defeats Cambridge For First Time Since '67

LONDON (AP) — Dave Sawyer, an American Olympian at Oxford, stroked his university's rowing eight to an all-time record in the 120th varsity boat race Saturday and to victory over Cambridge for the first time since 1967.

Oxford won by 5 1/4 lengths in 17 minutes 35 seconds. That was 15 seconds inside the old race record for the 4 1/2-mile course, set by Cambridge in 1948.

"Wasn't that great, wasn't that great?" the big man from Chicago shouted to cheering Oxford supporters as he came ashore at Mortlake, traditional finishing point of the race.

Oxford had become narrow favorite in the last two days of practice, but nobody had expected a record.

It was a triumph for the persistent Sawyer, 23.

Red Raiders Sweep Ponies By 6-5, 2-1

DALLAS (AP) — Jim Horton's spectacular throw from left field to home plate killed Southern Methodist comeback hopes in the first game as Texas Tech swept the Mustangs 6-5 and 2-1 in a Southwest Conference baseball doubleheader Saturday.

Horton's throw came in the last of the seventh when he caught Gene Hanson's bases-loaded fly ball for the second out. Don Jarma tagged at third base but was cut down trying to score. SMU had tallied four times in the inning before the double play ended the game.

Hits by Ron Riddlehuber and Rusty Bourquin put SMU runners at second and third with none out in the ninth before Tech's John Davidson struck out three batters.

Neither Lee or Midland managed to get anyone to the finals and Cooper won the team championship with 55 points. Odessa High had 25 while Abilene and San Angelo followed with 10 each.

DALLAS (AP)—Edward Marshall of Kennard was the only non-senior to make the 1974 Texas Sports Writers Association Class A All-State basketball team.

Arkansas is now 15-15 for the season and 6-9 in the conference. Rice is 20-15 on the year and 10-8 in the league.

Myers and Marshall were the inside selections along with high-scoring Randy Hicks of Bandera.

The second team consisted of Darrin Massey, Petrolia; Randy Nichols, Longview Spring Hill; and Robert Barnes, Huntington—all inside players—plus Ricky Chapa of Frisco as the guards. All players on the second unit were seniors.

WYNN HOMERS— Los Angeles Cops Second Shutout

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jimmy Wynn homered and drove in three runs, and Tommy John scattered seven hits Saturday, helping the Los Angeles Dodgers shut out San Diego for the second straight day 8-0.

Los Angeles put it away in the fifth with four runs, two on Wynn's homer into the left field pavilion.

John's shutout was the 26th of his career and followed a six-hit shutout by Don Sutton, giving Dodger pitchers 18 consecutive scoreless innings to start the season.

Los Angeles put it away in the fifth with four runs, two on Wynn's homer into the left field pavilion.

Wynn singled, doubled, walked and stole three bases twice stealing third. He has stolen four bases in the Dodgers' first two games.

Texas Takes Doubleheader

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Keith Moreland hit a two-run homer with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning to spark Texas to a 6-5 Southwest Conference baseball victory over Baylor and a sweep of Saturday's doubleheader. Texas won the first game 12-3.

Moreland, who had five hits and six RBIs in the doubleheader, hit his homer off Baylor starter and loser Walter Kilgo.

Moreland's homer gave Jim Gideon the victory in relief and raised his record to 13-0. Gideon yielded six Baylor hits in the opener in winning the first game.

Texas is now 33-3 for the season and 15-3 in SWC play. Baylor fell to 21-15 and 9-9.

Cubs Top Shreveport

By TED BATTLES
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — Midland's Cubs upped their Cactus League exhibition record to 5-6-1 by defeating Manager Gene Freese's Shreveport Captains, 4-3, under a baking sun Friday.

Since the Chicago Cubs abandoned the salubrious Arizona climate for a return to winter in a scheduled National League opener in Montreal, Midland played the Milwaukee Brewers Texas League in Scottsdale Stadium.

The baby Bruins used an error and singles by Doug Carvahlo, Bill Husman, Greg Collins and Ken Skotkiewicz for a three run rally in the seventh to break up a 1-1 tie.

Shreveport threatened with two runs in the ninth off Jim Lee, the University of Tennessee left hander, as the Cubs made it three wins and a tie in their last four starts.

Manager Walt Dixon is pleased with his infield and can't be too unhappy with his pitching, which again looked good.

Mike Krukow started it with four innings of shutout ball, left hander Dyan Frazier also pitched two-hit ball for three innings before Lee finished up.

Infielders Alfredo Zavala and Julio Gonzales apparently got hold of some Angelo food that didn't agree with them, and were under the weather, so the Cubs borrowed Joel Green from Wichita for third base duty.

Shortstop Skotkiewicz and center fielder Joe Wallis each had two hits for Midland and Socko ranged behind second to rob Dick Espy of what looked like a cinch hit. The veteran from Southern Georgia University was handed the ball on a dead run on the first base side of the bag and threw out the runner.

CUB BRIEFS: Midland's infield made it easy for Krukow, a 6-4, 205-pounder from Long Beach, Calif., by reeling off double plays in the first and second innings . . . Frazier's performance should keep the young southpaw a pitcher for a while longer . . . Dyan, 6-7 at Midland last year, played the outfield in the Fall Instructional League last year and there has been talk of converting him into a full-time outfielder . . . Dyan spent the off season in construction work . . . Wayne Tyrone and lefty pitcher Budd Schultz wintered in Scottsdale and were odd job men around the Camelback Inn and golf course.

Monterey's Donnie Moore Keeping Fingers Crossed

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — With both Wichita and Chicago overstaffed with pitchers, Donnie Moore still doesn't know where he'll wind up.

Quite naturally, he's anxious to come to Midland. After all, he's from Lubbock and Midland's only 115 miles away.

Donnie suspects he may be sent to Key West, especially after glancing at the excess pitching talent listed on the AAA and major league rosters. If he is farmed out, he is already geared to accept it as part of the game.

Most of all, he wants to pitch.

That's something he didn't do last year after being drafted No. 1 by the Chicago Cubs last summer.

"They sent me to Chicago right away and within two days I was back in Lubbock . . . with a cast on my right leg for six weeks," Moore recalls. "Fortunately, they didn't have to cut on my knee."

The year wasn't exactly a washout for the clean-cut, articulate, 20-year-old right-hander. He pitched Ranger Junior College to 19 victories and a national junior college championship before signing.

"It's funny, I could have gone to almost any school I wanted to and I'm still not sure why I picked Ranger, but I did and I have no regrets."

"I wanted to go back this year. We had most of the team back, but the Cubs made me an offer I couldn't refuse."

Donnie pitched on the bad leg through the JC playoffs and it never bothered his delivery. "But I don't think I'd try it again. I hurt it running the bases. It just buckled under me. However, I think my days of playing the outfield and swinging the bat are over and I'll miss that."

Although Donnie worked out with Chicago at Wrigley Field late in the summer after removal of the cast, the Cubs got their first competitive look at Moore in the Fall Instructional League where he was 3-1 with a 1.20 earned-run-average for a weak ball club.

Moore was originally drafted by the Boston Red Sox after posting an 18-4 mark and hurling Monterey to the Texas AAAA baseball championship in 1972.

"Yes, the wait before signing with Chicago made quite a financial difference," he said.

In pitching Ranger to its title the following spring, he won four of five Ranger tournament games, despite the shaky knee, posted a 1.20 ERA, set tournament records for wins and strikeouts, 32, and led the tournament in innings pitched, 30, all in six calendar days.

He feels he's a better pitcher now. Cub pitching coach Fred Martin polished up his slider, "it's now my strikeout pitch and he helped me add a changeup."

If Moore is sent to Key West, it probably would be more a move to permit him to get his feet on the ground professionally, something to build confidence. A good start and he'd probably be back in Midland.

While Donnie has geared himself for that possibility, his work this spring hasn't hurt his prospects of sticking with Midland. In eight innings, so far, Donnie hasn't allowed an earned run. And until Midland beat Amarillo Wednesday, Moore had pitched in each of Midland's Cactus League victories.

Son Sparks Bear Track

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Tim Don won the 220 and 440 yards dash and anchored the winning mile relay team Saturday as Taylor easily won the Texas Tech Quadrangular Track Meet.

The Bears, who presented Coach Clyde Hart with his 100th career victory, won first and second on 88 1/2 points to 49 for piled-up West Texas State.

Texas Tech had 31 1/2 points and New Mexico State 16.

UTEP Sprinter Clocks 9.3 In 100

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — When Chris Garpenborg came to the University of Texas at El Paso from his native Sweden, Miner track Coach Ted Banks had a hard time believing the lad was a world class sprinter.

The blond-haired Garpenborg looked like a hurdler to Banks.

Garpenborg gave the timbers a try and barely escaped unscathed.

"I just ran and jumped over the hurdles . . . there was no form to it," said Garpenborg.

Banks tried Garpenborg in the 100-yard dash and the Swede sizzled to a 9.3 clocking with the wind at his back.

At the Dallas Invitational last week, Garpenborg ran either a 9.1 or a 9.3, depending on whether you want to believe

BASS TOURNEY—Texan Captures 1st With Catch

ROGERS, Ark. (AP) — A Hemphill, Tex., marina operator, Tommy Martin, came from third to capture the $22,000 Arkansas Invitational Bass Tournament Friday on Beaver Lake with a three-day creel of 48 pounds, 5 ounces.

Ricky Green of Arkadelphia placed second with 44 pounds, 15 ounces. He was followed by second-round leader Lloyd McEntire of Indianapolis, Ind., with a catch of 43 pounds, 8 ounces.

Martin, 33, is in his first season on the pro fishing circuit. He was the only angler among the leaders to boat his 10-bass limit Friday. His catch weighed 14 pounds, 9 ounces.

Martin credited last year's tournament winner, Don Butler of Tulsa, Okla., with an assist in winning the $4,000 top prize.

Speed Bowl Season Opens

ODESSA — Bill Shockley of Lamesa won the feature in the modified division and Bob Mitcham took top honors in the stock feature race Friday during the opening night of a new season at the Speed Bowl.

In stock action, Mitcham beat M. L. Cherry for the feature top spot and also took the trophy dash. Dwight Bryant of Midland won the first heat and finished second in the second heat. Jim Baugh won the second heat while Ray Verner was the runnerup in the first heat.

Ted Moore was the second place finisher in the modified feature and also won the semi. Les Poole was second in the semi and won the second heat over Midland's Jim Conway.

In the first heat, Jimmy Fincher was first and Pat O'Neal of Midland was second. Dean Anthony of the Tall City won the consolation with Al Crawford of Midland won the trophy dash.

Horns Gain On Texas A&M

By The Associated Press
 The Texas Longhorns chipped a game off Texas A&M's Southern Conference baseball lead Friday with home run lightning while the Aggies stumbled before lightly regarded Houston.

Two home runs by Rick Bradley and a grand slam by Mickey Reichenbach powered the defending SWC champion Longhorns past Baylor 15-3 in the opener of a three-game series in Austin.

Houston routed A&M 14-6 on the Cougar home diamond. It was the first SWC loss in 13 games for Texas A&M.

Second-place Texas is now 13-3 in SWC play and 31-3 on the season.

In other games involving SWC clubs Friday, Rice shaved Arkansas 6-5 and Southern Methodist downed Texas Tech 11-9 for its first SWC victory of the year after 12 losses.

Texas Christian dropped Pan American 8-3 and 7-2 in a non-conference doubleheader.

Texas in defeating Baylor handed Bear pitcher Eddy Sherman his first loss against six victories. Rick Burley scattered seven hits for Texas, weakening only when Baylor's Rusty Hicks smashed a three-run homer in the third inning.

The Aggies and Longhorns aren't scheduled to play their three game series until April 26-27—the final games to be played at Clark Field in Austin. The Cougar beat the Aggies with the help of strong relief pitching by the Steve Boron and the well-timed hitting of David Vinson and Steve Reeves.

Boron held A&M without a hit for five and two-thirds innings.

STREAKERS RUN, FIGHTS ERUPT—

Angels Whip Chisox

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Four streakers raced around the ballpark, numerous fights erupted in the stands, they played baseball in 37-degree weather and Nolan Ryan struck out a total of four batters.

When was the last time you saw Ryan do that?

The other stuff has become pretty commonplace these days, but the California Angel ace couldn't explain his low strikeout total after beating the Chicago White Sox 8-2 Friday.

"I was all over the place with my fast-ball," said the hard-throwing Ryan after working eight arduous innings.

The major league's best strikeout pitcher didn't have his strikeout pitch until the fifth inning. He issued an extravagant total of 10 walks and threw a total of 138 pitches.

"I was pitching out of trouble the whole game," said the man who fanned a record 383 batters in 1973. "A couple of key early hits and I'm out of the game."

California Manager Bobby Winkles watched Ryan struggling, but didn't lift a finger.

"I wasn't about to yank Ryan in his early trouble," said Winkles. "You can't hardly take him out, because suddenly you look around and he's got it."

Three other American League games were played Friday, the second day of the season. The Boston Red Sox stopped the Milwaukee Brewers 9-8, the Baltimore Orioles nipped the Detroit Tigers 3-2 and the Minnesota Twins shamed the Kansas City Royals 6-4 in 11 innings.

While the White Sox and Angels christened the 1974 baseball season at White Sox Park, they had competition from the fans — some of whom would rather fight than watch Ryan pitch.

About a dozen individual battles exploded in the Opening Day crowd of 30,041. And while they were swinging in the stands, others were caught naked on the field.

Lee Stanton doubled, homered and drove in three runs to lead the Angel assault on Chicago ace Wilbur Wood.

Red Sox 9, Brewers 8

Darrell Johnson made a successful debut as Boston manager. Carl Yastrzemski hit a two-run homer and Doug Griffin laced a three-run double. Yastrzemski slugged his homer in the seventh off rookie Kevin Kobel following a bad-hop single by Cecil Cooper.

Orioles 3, Tigers 2

Don Baylor, after failing on a squeeze attempt, hit a checked-swing single in the eighth inning to drive in the winning run as Baltimore spoiled Ralph Houk's debut as manager of the Tigers.

Twins 6, Royals 4

Rod Carew singled home the tie-breaking run in the 11th inning and rookie Sergio Ferrer scored from second base on Larry Hisle's long fly ball, lifting Minnesota over Kansas City. With one out in the 11th, Jerry Terrell beat out a roller to the left of reliever Lindy McDaniel and Ferrer walked Terrell scored on Carew's third single of the game and Ferrer raced home when Hisle hit a deep fly to center fielder Amos Otis.

San Francisco 5, Houston 3

Ramon Hernandez replaced Giusti and Brock lined a shot to right field where Gene Clines, playing shallow, trapped the ball as the three runners all held up Clines quickly fired to the plate, forcing pinch runner Jim Dwyer, and catcher Mike Ryan fired to third baseman Hebler, forcing McCarver for the second out. But Cruz, a late arrival at second, then scored on Sizemore's single to left.

"I've never seen a play like that before," said Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh. "I thought we should have had a triple play."

Dodgers 8, Padres 0

Jim Wynn slammed a two-run homer, singled twice and drove in three runs to back the six-hit pitching of Don Sutton Wynn, playing his first game for Los Angeles after being traded by Houston, singled home a run with an infield hit to touch off a three-run third inning and then homered over the left-center field wall in the sixth with Bill Buckner aboard.

Sheppard Wins

Shep Sheppard captured top honors in the Parks and Recreation Table Tennis Tournament Friday.

Charles Hyde won second place while Fred Kester won consolation honors.

In the 14 and under division, Eddy Martin took the top spot while Al Langford was second.

Lamesa Raps Odessa Ector In Non-Loop Tilt By 12-5

LAMESA — Lamesa's high powered nine hit attack led the Golden Tornadoes to a 12-5 non-conference baseball victory over the Odessa Ector Eagles here Friday.

Ector captured a 4-0 lead in the top of the first inning, but the Tors answered in the bottom of the frame with five straight hits and five runs to take the lead for good.

The Tors then built on the lead with three runs in the second, one each in the next two frames and a two run fifth while winning pitcher Sam Jefferson and reliever Kyle White shut down the Ector attack with the exception of a single run in the sixth off White.

White, Alan Robinett and Martinez each had two hits for the Tors while White, Robinett, Jerry Bursleson and Jefferson each plated two runs with heavy swinging bats. Bursleson hit a double for the only extra base hit for the Tors.

Big Lake Honors Barnes

By TERRY WILLIAMSON
R-T Sports Writer

BIG LAKE — The conquering hero had returned from the Holy Wars, at least in this peaceful community, there was time to claim him as the victor. Jo-Jo was home.

Jo-Jo is the way that Big Lake remembers Joe Barnes, the Texas Tech quarterback who guided the Red Raiders to an 11-1 season and a Gator Bowl victory over Tennessee in 1973, and Big Lake Mayor Ralph Duesing proclaimed April 5 as "Joe Barnes Day" to honor the athlete for what he had done for the community.

To the delight of the hometown fans, Joe Barnes returned much the same as he left. He was still the Jo-Jo that had lived in Big Lake for 18 years, and only his accomplishments and trophies had mounted. He remembered Big Lake, and was very much at home.

Without his regalia of battle, Barnes did not seem intimidating, but humble. Only the display of trophies and scrapbooks seem to give any clue to the fact that he was something special. Visitors from all over the community dropped by his house on Main, and he still seemed very much more at home here than on the Southwest Conference battle field where the enemy had nothing but animosity toward him.

There was no black mask, red cape or galloping black stallion or even a 200-piece band to set him apart, but Big Lake remembers, and this was a time to remember.

As a high schooler, Joe Barnes was named as the outstanding quarterback in the state, and after a heavily contested recruiting battle, Jo-Jo cast his lot with Texas Tech and Jim Carlen's Red Raiders. After four years there, evidence has mounted to place Barnes as one of the best all-around quarterbacks ever to play in the SWC.

Jo-Jo was surrounded Friday with all his trophies, but the Kern Tips Memorial Trophy, All-Southwest Conference trophy, Outstanding SWC Sportsmanship award and outstanding player in the Gator Bowl awards seemed to stand above all the rest. Jo-Jo thought that all of them were bigger than himself.

The special day began with a coffee held by the Twentieth Century Club at Glasscock Chevrolet where Joe was named as Honorary Mayor for the day and presented with the key to the city.

Joe also spoke at a high school assembly at Reagan County High School where he was an outstanding player in three sports, but the big event of the day was a banquet where all of Joe's friends gathered to pay special homage.

Carlen, Tom Wilson and Grover Murray, president of Texas Tech, were on hand as well as many close friends and family members. Over 275 Big Lake fans were also on hand.

If it was a big day for Jo-Jo, it might have been an even greater day for Joe Sr. (Continued On Page 6B)

Fuentes Has To Leave With Injury

By ERIC PREWITT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Giants' No. 1 problem has changed from pitching to injuries after just one game of the National League season.

"If we get pitching like that, we'll win a whole lot of games," Bobby Bonds said Friday after Tom Bradley and reliever Randy Moffitt checked Houston on seven singles in a 5-1 opening day victory.

But the lineup for today's game against the Astros was missing Tito Fuentes, the second baseman who cracked two hits in the opener and then told Manager Charlie Fox to rest him. Mike Phillips played the last two innings at second.

"I can't bend for ground balls like I should," Fuentes said. "I could hurt the team. I had to come out."

Dr. E. C. Sailer, team physician, said Fuentes' injury was a prolapsed disc pushing against a nerve in the lower back. Fuentes, who hurt his back three months ago playing winter league ball, went into traction at St. Luke's Hospital Friday night.

"He'll probably miss the rest of the homestand," said Sailer. So will Ed Goodson, the regular first baseman who has a pulled hamstring, and 24-game winner Ron Bryant, on the disabled list until April 16 because of a spring training swimming pool accident.

Steve Ontivero, filling in for Goodson, drove in the Giants' first run Friday with a two-out, fourth inning single off Astros starter Dave Roberts. Dave Kingman, who had three hits, followed with another run-scoring single.

Garry Maddox cracked a three-run homer off Roberts in the fifth.

Bradley allowed only four hits, and only one runner had reached second base before the ninth, when singles by Greg Gross, Roger Metzger and Bob Watson brought in a run and reliever Moffitt.

Pecos Blanks Andrews Nine

Mustangs baseball team ran into Pecos' Kenneth Williams and some heavy Eagle bats here Friday night to drop an 8-0 District 2-AAA decision.

Williams tossed a three-hit shutout at the Mustangs and used a six run second inning off losing pitcher Roland Keith to get the win.

The victory gave the Eagles a 3-0 district mark and 12-6 season mark while Andrews fell to 2-2 and 8-7.

The big damage in the fatal second came on a grand slam homer by Pecos' Fernando Hernandez.

Williams is now 6-1 on the year and he struck out seven Mustangs on the way to the win.

2-AAA TRACK—

Ector Outclasses Field With 180 1/2

ANDREWS — Odessa's Ector's high-flying Eagles compiled 180 1/2 points here Friday to capture the District 2-AAA track crown, and in the process, qualified 11 individuals and two relay teams for the Region track meet in Odessa in two weeks.

Monahans took second place with 121 points and Pecos was third with 106 markers and those two squads controlled all the other regional berths except a second place in the long jump by Seminole's Mark Stone Pecos and Monahans each qualified six individuals for the region affair, but Pecos will have the advantage by virtue of both relays winning region berths.

Kermit was fourth with 32 1/2 points while Andrews was fifth with 22 points but neither team qualified anyone for the region meet.

Ector's Charles Walker blitzed to a 142 in the 120 high hurdles to set the only new 2-AAA record. That performance wiped out the 143 mark set by Monahans' Ronnie Gaine in 1973.

Andrews' Mike Turner was the closest Mustang to gaining

(Continued From Page 5B) and wife Billie. Both shared in their son's honors Friday and they were the pure picture of grateful parents. Billie displayed the four scrapbooks that she had compiled on Joe Barnes and Joe Sr. said that she would faithfully work on the books each Sunday night while watching the Jim Carlen Show on tv.

Joe Barnes no sooner finished his special day when thoughts of the future began to take hold. He was a 13th round draft choice by the Chicago Bears of the National Football League, and he had to fly to Dallas following the banquet to catch a flight to Chicago for his first rookie camp session. This one was to last only through today, but he felt the importance of it.

Another important step for Joe on the horizon is his upcoming marriage to Dianna Delp, a former Texas Tech cheerleader, June 8 in Fort Worth. Miss Delp shared in the special day and was at Joe's side throughout.

Joe Barnes left Big Lake almost as quickly as he had come, but he left these words for his cherished friends: "It's a long way from Big Lake to Chicago, but I will always be proud to say I'm from Big Lake."

Lewis Wins Pole Vault Title With 14-3

By BOB DILLON R-T Sports Writer

ODESSA — The San Angelo Bobcats ran away and hid from the rest of the field Friday night to capture their third consecutive District 5-4A track championship in 60-degree weather in W. T. Barrett Stadium.

The powerful Bobcats racked up 30 points in the five field events Friday afternoon and had the title virtually wrapped up before the running events got underway under the lights.

San Angelo scored 135 points while Odessa Permian was a distant second with 79 1/2 followed by Abilene with 70 1/2, Midland Lee, 60, and Midland 51. Next came Big Spring with 46, Odessa 31 and Blaine Cooper 23.

Lee's Randy Lewis carted home the only first place finish for the Tall City, winning the pole vault with a height of 14-3, his best of the season. Teammate Milton Jones finished second in the shot put with a heave of 58-6 1/2, also his best of the year.

The 210-pound junior scratched on his first two tosses, then threw 48 feet and on the fourth try, came up with his best performance to finish second behind Angelo's Frank Myers who recorded 60-0 1/2. Myers and Jones rank one-two in the state and should put on quite a show in two weeks in the regional meet in Lubbock.

Midland qualified two hurdlers in Steve Reddell and Larry Munson, who finished second in the 120-yard high hurdles and 330-intermediate hurdles behind Odessa Permian's talented Steve King who was individual high scorer with 24 points.

Reddell was timed in 14.5 and Munson had a clocking of 40.5 as no new records were set during the meet.

Lewis just finished out of the money in the 120 and 330 hurdles, winding up third. San Angelo would have won even bigger, but in the mile relay, Gary Erwin, stumbled and fell, claiming that Abilene's Charles Green fouled him, but officials said that there was no foul. Erwin received a painful hip pointer as he fell on the concert curbing.

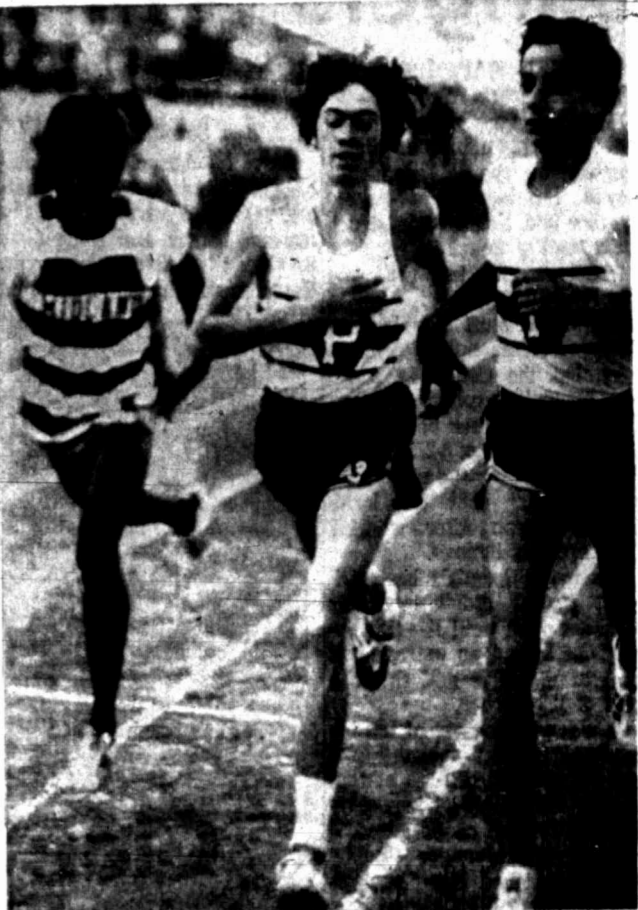

Carl Thomas of Midland finished third in the 440-yard dash with a time of 50.2.

Only the two top finishers qualify for the regional track meet in two weeks.

Mike Reavis of Lee just missed out in the mile run, finishing third with a time of 4:34.6.

Big Spring qualified three individuals and its mile relay team for the regional. Don Walters, a talented sophomore, won the 440-yard dash in a time of 49.8 and teammate Doug Smith was second with 50.0. The Steer relay team is made up of Walters, Bobby Mayo, Done Beene and Smith.

San Angelo qualified 10 individuals and its sprint relay team with Vendon Beck and Tony Poole paving the way in the 220 and 100-yard dashes.

Rankin Cops 6-A Track Red Devils Outscore Clint By 148-130

IRAAN—Rankin's hard pressing Red Devils racked up 148 points here Friday to win the District 6-A track crown, but even more importantly, qualified nine individuals and two relays for the Region I track meet in Lubbock, which will be run April 19-20.

Clint made a surprisingly strong showing with 130 points while Sanderson was a distant third with 95 markers. Iraan was fourth with 60 points.

Jimmy Joe Mathews paced the Devils attack with three first place victories. Mathews won the 120 high hurdles with a clocking of 15.0, the pole vault with a jump of 12-6 and the long jump with a leap of 21-8. A good day by any standards.

Rankin was first in the mile relay with a 3:26.6, but had a 45.8 in the 440 relay for second place behind Clint.

Greg Copeland, half miler deluxe, stepped off a 1:59.6 to easily win the 880 and Alan Speed won the shot put with a heave of 49-10 1/2. Curtis Copeland won the high jump with a leap of 6-2.

Speed also was second in the discus with a 142-9 1/2. Other Depls to gain regional advancement with second place finishes were Ernest Black with a 52.4 in the 440, and Brad Winn with a 23.0 in the 220.

Iraan qualified Randy Galindo in the 120 hurdles, Rudy Galindo in the 330 intermediates and David Ellwood in the high jump. All were second place finishes.

Rankin is the defending regional track champions, and Snodgrass, a star outfielder with the New York Giants, died at the age of 86.

Murdoch, Dillon In Mat Baffle

ODESSA — Dick Murdoch and Jim Dillon headline the wrestling card in the Ector County Coliseum Tuesday night in a big main event battle.

In other action, Ricky Romero and Nick Kozak will tangle with The Patriot 1 & 2 in a big tag team match.

Promoter Pat O'Dowdy also has Killer Karl Cox and Bob Blackland meeting in a one-fall match while Jerry Kozak and Mr. Wrestling face each other in another one-faller.

Mike Padussis challenges Alex Perez in the other one-fall bout to top off a spicy card.

First match is set for 8:30 p.m., according to O'Dowdy.

BOWLING AKRON, Ohio — Johnny Petraglia maintained a 222-plus average for the first 40 games of the Professional Bowlers Association $125,000 Tournament of Champions to take a 314-pin lead.

Permian Wins 5-4A Golf Panthers Make Up 16 Strokes

ODESSA — San Angelo's Bobcats went into the final round of District 5-4A golf action at the Odessa Country Club Friday with a respectable nine stroke advantage, but when the smoke had cleared on the links, the Odessa Permian Panthers were the winners, and by a convincing margin.

The Panthers roared to a 301 final round on the home course while San Angelo ballooned to a 317. The Panthers not only made up the nine strokes, but won the district title by a seven stroke margin. You might say it was a super comeback.

Midland held on to fourth place with a 326 final round total. Permian ended with an overall 1515 score while San Angelo had a 1522. Abilene Cooper was third with a 1532 and Midland followed with a 1556.

Midland Lee lost its grasp on fifth place with a 325 Friday and finished sixth behind Permian No. 2 with an overall 1507. Permian's Leland Chiles led

President To Pay $465,000 In Taxes Without Any Help

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has decided to shoulder the entire burden of about $465,000 in back taxes and interest despite campaigns to help him pay the bill.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Friday the President will pay the tax bill out of his own savings "and by borrowing money." Ziegler accompanied Nixon to Paris for memorial services for French President Georges Pompidou.

In Washington, a White House spokesman said, "if anybody sends money in the mail to the White House it is returned to them in the form of a check, cash or whatever it is."

Before the White House announcement, Florida Republican Chairman L. E. "Tommy" Thomas said he wanted one million Floridians to mail $1 to the White House "and let the President know that you think he is one in a million."

A group in Whitesburg, Ky., reported it has raised more than $250 for a "Peoples Fund for Nixon's Taxes."

And Chicago multimillionaire W. Clement Stone, who already has contributed $5.8 million to Nixon presidential campaigns, said he would not hesitate to help Nixon pay his tax debt.

The White House turned down the Stone offer.

The White House said it has received more than a dozen telephone offers to help the President. The callers were being discouraged from sending money, the spokesman said.

Nixon on Wednesday agreed to pay about $465,000 in back taxes and interest.

The Internal Revenue Service said in the event donations were used to help pay the President's tax debt, it isn't clear whether the money would be considered a gift or income.

If the money qualified as a gift, the President would not have to pay any tax on it, IRS said.

But, if it were classified as income, the President would have to pay income tax on it in future years.

Efforts To Legislate Morals, Pressure Blamed In Police Corruption

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the Police Foundation blames widespread police corruption on political pressures and hypocritical efforts to legislate morals.

Patrick V. Murphy, a career cop and former New York City police commissioner, said in an interview he believes graft is a way of life in many of the nation's police departments, particularly in the big cities where organized crime flourishes.

Recent reports have described major corruption scandals in Philadelphia and Indianapolis and payoff schemes continue to surface on a smaller scale in numerous other cities.

Murphy, who took over the

New York department to clean up a major scandal there in 1970, said many police chiefs are ill equipped to prevent corruption and many compound their difficulties by blaming "a few rotten apples in the barrel" rather than looking for deeper wrongs.

The foundation is a private non-profit organization formed to develop and finance innovative projects in law enforcement agencies.

Murphy said a police officer finds it easy to rationalize his decision to take payoffs when he sees improper political influence playing an important role in other parts of the government.

He said the Watergate scandal undoubtedly adds weight to the forces pushing a wavering cop across the line toward corruption.

Here are excerpts from the tape-recorded interview.

Q: How serious is corruption in the nation's police departments?

A: I think it is a serious problem to many departments. It's not just an East Coast problem although the problems New York has had for the past few years are about as bad as corruption has ever been.

But we've seen it in departments in almost every state during the past year or so.

There is a little problem of defining corruption, which can range from the free cup of coffee according to some people's definition all the way up to the "French Connection" thefts of heroin in the property room in the New York department. But putting aside the free coffee, the free meals, corruption is still a serious problem in many police departments.

Q: What causes it?

A: Much of it is related to the so-called unenforceable laws, the laws which some people say are an attempt to regulate morals — gambling, liquor, prostitution and narcotics.

Gambling has been the biggest problem, I would think. I guess it's because the laws are not completely in tune with the thinking of a lot of people.

A police officer very easily rationalizes making a deal with the gambler because he feels nobody is being hurt, everybody does it, what's so wrong with gambling, the law is ridiculous.

Frankly, our problem in the United States is the moralistic approach we have to so many of these social problems. This has been a major factor, in my opinion, in police corruption and the holding back of professional development of police. It keeps the politics in a lot of police departments.

I don't propose legalizing prostitution, but I think we could be more sensible about it if we dealt with it more as a civil problem, using the civil law rather than the criminal law.

Finally, even in drugs — not that I advocate legalizing the use of narcotics — we should understand that there's more to the problem than just making it a crime and that will solve the problem. It's a health problem, a social problem.

Q: Are you suggesting that there should be civil instead of criminal penalties for prostitution?

A: I mean dealing with it with some kind of civil commitment and trying to rehabilitate the girls rather than just put them in jail as criminals. Some jurisdictions deal with it as a kind of health problem, medical examinations and possibly civil commitments of a girl who was charged.

Q: Do you find much support among police officials for moving toward legalizing the victimless crimes?

A: Privately. Not publicly.

Q: What would it take to encourage them to go public?

A: I suppose most of them are reluctant to speak out publicly because maybe they feel their communities aren't ready to accept the fact.

They want to go on with the hypocrisy. It's all so hypocritical. So many of the people — for instance, legislators — privately have their own views, privately may even gamble themselves, but they feel it would be politically unpopular.

Wilson's Statement Sought In British Land Deal Scandal

LONDON (AP) — Labor law was used to promote a land deal that profited Tony Field, Minister Harold Wilson to make a public statement about an alleged forgery of his signature time personal secretary Mrs. Marcia Williams.

The Daily Mail reported that it got photostats of portions of the letter from Ronald Milhinch, who bought the land in question from Field. Both Field and Milhinch have denied any previous knowledge of such a letter's existence.

Wilson's office has imposed a news blackout on any information about a Scotland Yard investigation into the alleged forgeries. According to press reports, detectives interviewed Wilson Friday and took several samples of his signature for comparison with the Daily Mail sample.

There has been no suggestion that Wilson was involved in the land deal, or that the deal itself was in any way illegal. But the affair could be politically damaging to Wilson, whose party campaigned in the recent general election in favor of curbs on vast profits from land speculation.

Insurance Firm Is Faced With $1 Million Suit

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — The Amarillo Air Force Base Credit Union, its state liquidators and the Texas attorney General's Office have filed a $1 million damage suit against a Wisconsin insurance company they claim failed to pay a bond after the union's financial collapse.

The district court suit was filed here Thursday by Texas Asst. Atty. Gen. Ralph Nash, the credit union, the Texas Credit Union Commissioner and the Texas Credit Union League.

The plaintiffs allege Employers Mutual Insurance Co. of Wisconsin failed to pay on a $1 million bond agreement to protect the union against loss by fraudulent, dishonest or criminal acts of any employees or directors of the credit union.

The suit claims that premiums on the bond agreement were paid through April 17, 1973, six days after the union was placed under involuntary liquidation because of its losses.

A Potter County grand jury indicted two former credit union officers—Gene Welna of Mena, Ark., and Arward L. Smith Jr. of Fort Smith, Ark.—and two credit union borrowers—Robert N. Wilkinson and James F. Wardell of Amarillo—After losses of $1,157,000 were discovered last year.

The state credit union commissioner placed the credit union under involuntary liquidation April 11, 1973, with the Texas Credit Union League named as liquidating agent.

The suit alleges that Employers Mutual would not pay the insurance after the losses were discovered. The plaintiffs ask for penalties, interest, attorneys' fees and other relief in addition to the $1 million damages.

Andrews Speaker Says All U.S. Shortages Are Hoaxes

ANDREWS — The current wave of shortages in America and Henry Kissinger when they said here Saturday.

Smith, former editor of "The Voice of Watts," was addressing a meeting of the Andrews committee to "Support Your Local Police and Keep them Independent."

"The U.S. government has manufactured shortages of oil, copper, steel, food and other items to switch our economy from free enterprise to a Communist system," Smith told the group. The best example of government-created shortages is the current food problem in America.

"All of our problems in the area of food stem directly from the Department of Agriculture interfering with and controlling the farmers," he claimed. "But the shortage of food was

District Lions Convention Set

BIG SPRING — Plans are nearing completion for the annual convention of District 2-A1, Lions International, to be held here May 17-18. Headquarters will be in the Settles Hotel.

The district Queen Contest is scheduled for the opening night in the Big Spring High School Auditorium. The governor's banquet the following night will be held at the Big Spring Country Club.

Midland Lions, who are sponsoring the 1975 convention, will sponsor a model luncheon scheduled May 18 in the hotel ballroom. The Key Member breakfast that morning will be sponsored by the Big Spring Downtown Lions Club.

District Gov. Tom Nipp of Midland will preside at the business sessions.

A golf tournament is scheduled on opening day, beginning at 11 a.m., at the country club. Special entertainment also is planned for wives of Lions attending the convention.

Crane High Elected To Council Office

CRANE — The Crane High School Student Council was elected secretary of the District VIII, Texas Association of Student Councils, at the Spring Forum in Big Spring recently.

The Crane group presently serves as president of the district. Crane vice president Margaret Holland presided at the Spring Forum.

Whether government agencies do good things or bad things is immaterial, Smith said. "Everything they do is illegal. I'm sure Hitler did good things for Germany."

The whole beauty of the Constitution is that it puts limits on the power of the federal government, Smith explained.

Edward Villella To Perform Here This Week

Sonny, Cher Leaving Tube

Edward Villella, one of the greatest male dancers of the 20th Century, will perform in Midland late this week under the aegis of Midland Community Concerts Association.

He will be accompanied here by his own dance troupe made up on Susan Hendl, Linda Fourth, Polly Shelton, Frank Ohman and Nolan T. Sani. Villella himself will be partnering Anna Aragno, with whom he has appeared many times in the past with symphony orchestras and on ballet programs throughout the U.S., Canada and Europe.

The Midland program is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. Saturday in Midland High School auditorium. It will be open to all guests only, with no single admissions sold. A full house is expected for the event.

Villella has been dancing since the age of 9, when he discovered ballet after accompanying his sister to her lessons at the School of American Ballet. At 15, he stopped dancing temporarily to pursue a B.S. degree in marine transportation at New York State Maritime College, where he also won a varsity letter in baseball and the campus championship in welterweight boxing.

Since those early days, Villella's career as a dancer has known no bounds. Today he is considered the greatest male dancer in the world, and one of the greatest of the present century.

He has held the title of principal dancer with the New York City Ballet for over 15 years and, in addition to his many roles with that company, has appeared with many other prestigious ballet companies of the world. He danced at President Kennedy's inaugural celebration and has performed also for Presidents Johnson and Nixon at the White House.

While performing on tour with the New York City Ballet at Moscow's Bolshoi Theater, Villella became the first and only American male dancer to be compelled to grant and receive an ovation from the Russian audience.

Villella also has been seen on all the major television variety shows. One of his most recent appearances was on the Carol Burnett Show in its special program presented and taped in the new multi-million dollar opera house at Sydney, Australia during opening festivities there last October.

Villella has just produced, choreographed and performed in a 60-minute tv special production of the ballet "Harlequin," which Midland and Permian Basin viewers may see Wednesday afternoon. The special telecast is part of the CBS "Festival of the Lively Arts." It will be carried on Station KOSA-TV, hour tv show started as a summer replacement series in August 1967.

NEW YORK (AP) — "Sonny and Cher," one of CBS-TV's top rated programs will not be on the network in the new fall season.

Announcing the cancellation Friday was Fred Silverman, CBS' programming chief. He declined to say if the recent breakup of the couple's 9½-year marriage had any influence on the CBS decision.

Industry observers said the couple's marital rift threatened the future of the show.

Sonny Bono, 39, and Cher, 27, were married in October 1964 and split up last February, when Bono filed for a legal separation from his wife in a San Francisco court.

Featuring the couple's brand of singing and comedy, the one-hour tv show started as a summer replacement series in August 1967.

Chamber Music Concert Today

The Permian Basin Chamber Music Society will present its fifth candlelight concert of the current season this afternoon.

The 3 p.m. event in Midland Woman's Club at Hogan Park will offer music appropriate to the Easter season, with the featured work to be the "Double" Concerto in D minor of J. S. Bach. Violinists Marty Connally and James Gambino will be the featured artists.

Among other musical works programmed is a Concerto Grosso by G. P. Handel.

Tickets for today's concert, priced at $3, will be available at the Midland Woman's Club before the start of the program. Senior citizens and students will be admitted free of charge, said Gambino, founder-director of the chamber music organization.

Seven Seas Starts New Season May 3

ARLINGTON — Seven Seas marine life park will begin its 1974 season on May 3, with a "new look," new shows, new attractions and a cut in parking prices.

General Manager Jim Ashworth said changes are already being made in the park's appearance. He said, "We're creating an atmosphere of fun and entertainment for our guests to enjoy when they visit Seven Seas."

Parade Of Harmony Event Set April 19

The 11th annual "Parade of Harmony," always a popular spring event in the Tall City, is coming soon!

Sponsored by the Permian chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., the April 19 songfest will again feature the Permian chapter's "Sun Spots" quartet, and its "Sun Country Gentlemen" chorus. Joining them will be the "Mark IV," San Antonio quartet which won the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. international quartet competition in 1969, and the "Memory Men" of Abilene, winners of the 1973 regional quartet competition.

Proceeds from the Parade of Harmony will benefit the Institute of Logopedics in Kansas, which the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. and all its chapters actively support, and the Permian Basin Community Centers for Mental Health and Mental Retardation, a special support project of the Permian chapter.

The Parade of Harmony is scheduled for Friday night, April 19, in Lee High School auditorium here. Tickets, priced at $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12, may be reserved by telephoning 683-2571. Tickets also will be for sale at the auditorium doors on performance night.

Midland Student To Present Recital At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK — Redford Charles Hazelwood Jr., a student from Midland at Texas Tech University, will present a bassoon recital here Friday afternoon.

Hazelwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hazlewood of Midland, will perform works by Giliardi, Von Weber and Kunert in his 4:30 p.m. program in the TTU music building. A graduate of Midland High School, Hazelwood is a junior student, majoring in music education. He is a bassoon student of Richard Meek at Tech.

Former Midlander's Band Ranks High

HOUSTON — The Alief Hastings High School jazz ensemble, under the direction of former Midlander Charlie Mayes, placed second in the Wharton Stage Band Contest recently, receiving a superior rating.

The concert band, under the direction of Tom Stuchberry and Mayes, also received a superior rating in both concert and sight-reading at the UIL contests.

The Alief band was chosen as the official "welcoming band" when President Nixon visited Houston.

Mayes, a 1964 graduate of Midland High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mayes Jr. of Fort Worth and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mayes of Midland. He also is the brother of Robert Mayes, band director at Lee High School in Midland.

Five Midlanders Named To Baylor Honor Roll

WACO — Five Midlanders are among those students at Baylor University named to the Dean's list for the fall semester.

They are Gary Gene Glover, Kerry A. Neuhardt, Paul V. Shelburne, Sally L. Spencer and Kristen Kay Winget.

Tech Sets Pirandello Play

LUBBOCK — The theater explores some of its own limitations in "Six Characters in Search of An Author," playwright Luigi Pirandello's drama probing the relationship between art and reality, which begins a five-day run Friday at Texas Tech University.

Performances of the University Theater production will begin at 8:15 p.m. daily through April 16. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1.50 for students, with a special rate of $1 for Tech students. Reservations may be made by telephoning the University Theater box office, 742-2153.

As their fourth and final major production of the current season, students of theater arts who have been set adrift are Reg Grant of Oakville as the father, Pam Wallace of Temple as the mother, Diane Hoyer of Lubbock as the stepdaughter, Steve Berrier of Amarillo as the son, and Tracey Powell and Martha Cobb, both of Lubbock as the children. Members of the repertory company include Mike Scudday of Graham as the director, Randy Cordray of Midland as the leading man, Bridget Wilson of Lubbock as the leading lady, Shanan Harrell of Dallas as the second female lead, Susie Stephens of Lubbock as the ingenue, James Duff of Lubbock as the juvenile and Brooks Barr of Lubbock as a character actor.

Larry Randolph, associate professor of speech and theater arts as well as costume designer for the University Theater, is directing the Tech production.

Museum Show Explains Soil

Water — its uses and abuses — was the subject of an in-depth exhibition last spring at the Museum of the Southwest here.

This year, soil comes in for similar scrutiny in an ambitious exhibition in the museum's Turner Memorial Gallery, 1705 W. Missouri St.

The processes by which soil is formed, its structural and chemical properties, and the ways in which mankind utilizes and manages this important natural resource are examined and explained in the new show.

Thankful Thief

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Donald McNeish told police someone stole a spare tire and wheel from his carport last month. Friday he said he found the wheel and tire had been returned with this note: "Thanks for the use of your tire. It was badly needed, and it was barely used." McNeish said a dollar bill was attached to the note.

announced then that the orchestra had suspended operations. The remainder of the 1974 season will be eliminated unless more money is found.

Deterioration set in quickly as top musicians sought jobs with other orchestras.

The reason, simply, is financing. No symphony can support itself.

When contributions failed to come in this year, for unexplained reasons, the Dallas organization found itself in a deep hole.

The orchestra owed $80,000 to banks and other institutions. Vandagriff said another $300,000 was needed to complete the season, scheduled to end Aug. 12. Only a trickle of cash came in.

It was founded May 22, 1900, when there were only four other symphonies in the United States.

It has, or had, 86 musicians and a staff of 13. The players' base pay is $250 a week.

The orchestra always had been kept alive by a handful of financial supporters which some call "the family."

"It seems to boil down to one stark choice: Significantly broaden the base of large contributors... or admit honestly that Dallas doesn't have the interest to support a major symphony orchestra," said Olin Chisholm, music critic for the Dallas Times Herald.

Competition for the entertainment dollar in Dallas is fierce. There are operas, a season of musical shows, dinner theaters and night clubs featuring big-name performers.

A tremendous number of dollars are drawn off by professional football, tennis, baseball, golf, hockey and soccer. Southern Methodist University and other schools in the area have extensive sports programs.

The orchestra has a 1973-74 budget of $2.8 million to play to somewhere around 1,500 persons. Earned income was projected as only $780,000.

Season subscriptions fell from 3,197 in the 1967-68 season to 1,064 in the fall of 1973. Single ticket sales average about 200 per concert.

McFarlin Auditorium usually is only 60 per cent full, compared with sellouts in San Francisco and Pittsburgh. Cincinnati reports sellouts or nearly so, and Detroit and Seattle have 90 per cent filled houses.

The orchestra has tried many things to broaden support. It has played a series of park concerts, held noon concerts downtown, and shared the stage with such pop outfits as the Fifth Dimension.

Yet the orchestra's "family" has remained the chief support. When the orchestra was in trouble in May last year, "the family" anted up $500,000. The money didn't appear this year.

The orchestra marched for contributions this March. Some for as much as $1,000 and $500, totalling some $30,000, arrived.

The orchestra has had a series of distinguished conductors but this year experimented with guest conductors while musicians designated "artistic advisers" carried on such chores as selecting music and interviewing recruits. There have been no open complaints that the quality of music fell.

The deterioration of the orchestra reached a high point this week when concertmaster William Steck to whom musicians look for leadership, quit to join the Atlanta Symphony.

The orchestra faces yet another problem. The Ford Foundation made a $2 million endowment to the orchestra provided another $2 million was raised locally. The local cash was gathered quickly. Only income from this capital can be spent—not the principal.

The Ford Foundation can reclaim the money at any time it believes the orchestra is not functioning.

Symphony officials say an endowment of at least $20 million is needed to make the orchestra self sufficient. The Pittsburgh Symphony has a $44 million endowment. The situation led John Ardoin, music editor of the Dallas Morning News to write, "Save the Symphony. Save it for what?"

Exhibition Opening Today At Roswell Museum, Art Center

ROSWELL, N.M. — Paintings of artist-in-residence Stephen Lorber and photographs by G. F. Crabtree make up a new exhibition scheduled to open this afternoon at the Roswell Museum and Art Center here.

A meet-the-artists reception will be hosted by the Roswell Assistance League today between 9:30 and 5 p.m. (MDT) to open the show.

Abstract still-life setups furnish the subject matter of Lorber's realistic paintings. However, he is not concerned with a realistic rendering of real objects, but with the relationship of those objects one to another, the quality commonly thought of as "three-dimensionality" or perspective.

Lorber, 31, received a bachelor's degree from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1966 and a master's in 1969 from Brooklyn College, followed by a year of study in Rome. He has been the recipient of three fellowships and has exhibited works in the first National Lithographic Exhibition, at Florida State University, as well as at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, the Brooklyn Museum Community Gallery, the Pratt Manhattan Center and the Sachs Gallery in New York City.

Crabtree says "observer" and "abstractor" are the terms that best describe his approach to the fleeting image that is photography and, perhaps, life.

"I believe I am a sympathetic observer of people even though some of my photographs are obviously comments." Born and reared in Missouri and Iowa, Crabtree studied architecture at a state college in Iowa and graduated as an art major from Iowa Wesleyan College. After almost 20 years as a designer, curator and administrator in various museums, he recently returned to an earlier love by becoming a free-lance photographer and custom darkroom worker.

In 1973 he traveled almost 20,000 miles with his camera strapped to his motorcycle. His imagery is divided between landscapes, urban views and people.

Linda Kay Lynn In German Play

LUBBOCK — Linda Kay Lynn of Midland, a student at Texas Tech University, has a role in the current production presented by the German Theatre of the TTU languages department.

The production, "The Firebugs" by German playwright Max Frisch, opened with a performance Thursday and continued with performances this weekend. Additional presentations are scheduled Monday through Wednesday nights in the Qualla Room of the Foreign Languages and Mathematics Building on campus. All performances are in German.

Miss Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Lynn of Midland, is a graduate of Robert E. Lee High School of Midland. At Tech, she is a graduate student majoring in German.

Art Show To Open At First Presbyterian

A special art show will open Monday at First Presbyterian Church.

The exhibition in the church fellowship hall, sponsored by FPC's Committee on the Arts and Drama of the Church, will feature lithographs by noted French expressionist Georges Rouault.

Included in the show will be works from Rouault's various graphics series, including "Le Fleurs des Mal," "Miserere," "Le Cirque de l'Etoile Filant" and the "Passion." Each print on display is numbered in series and signed on the plate and will be available for purchase by collectors.

Rouault, who died in 1958, has long been considered one of the leaders in contemporary religious art. Apprenticed to a stained glass window maker in his youth, his paintings show the influence of his training in that field, manifesting the brilliant colors and the heavy leaded outlines of stained glass windows. His graphics, done in the same style, reflect both depth of understanding and critical awareness of the human condition.

Also on view in the art show at the church will be a collection of "Ojos de Dios" (eyes of God) made by women of the artisans guild of the Casa de Amigos, Midland's ecumenical "House of Friends." The show will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays each week, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Sundays.

Pickwickians Select 'Just So Stories'

BOX OFFICE — The box office for the Pickwick Players musical production of Rudyard Kipling's "Just So Stories" opens Monday at Midland's Community Theatre Centre. Pickwickians and two of the Junior League of Midland's theatre committee, Ann Yuronka, Mrs. LaDoyce Lambert, chairman; Leslie King and Mrs. Ted Kerr, from the left, are shown making preparations for the ticket sales. Tickets may be obtained by contacting the center at 682-2544.

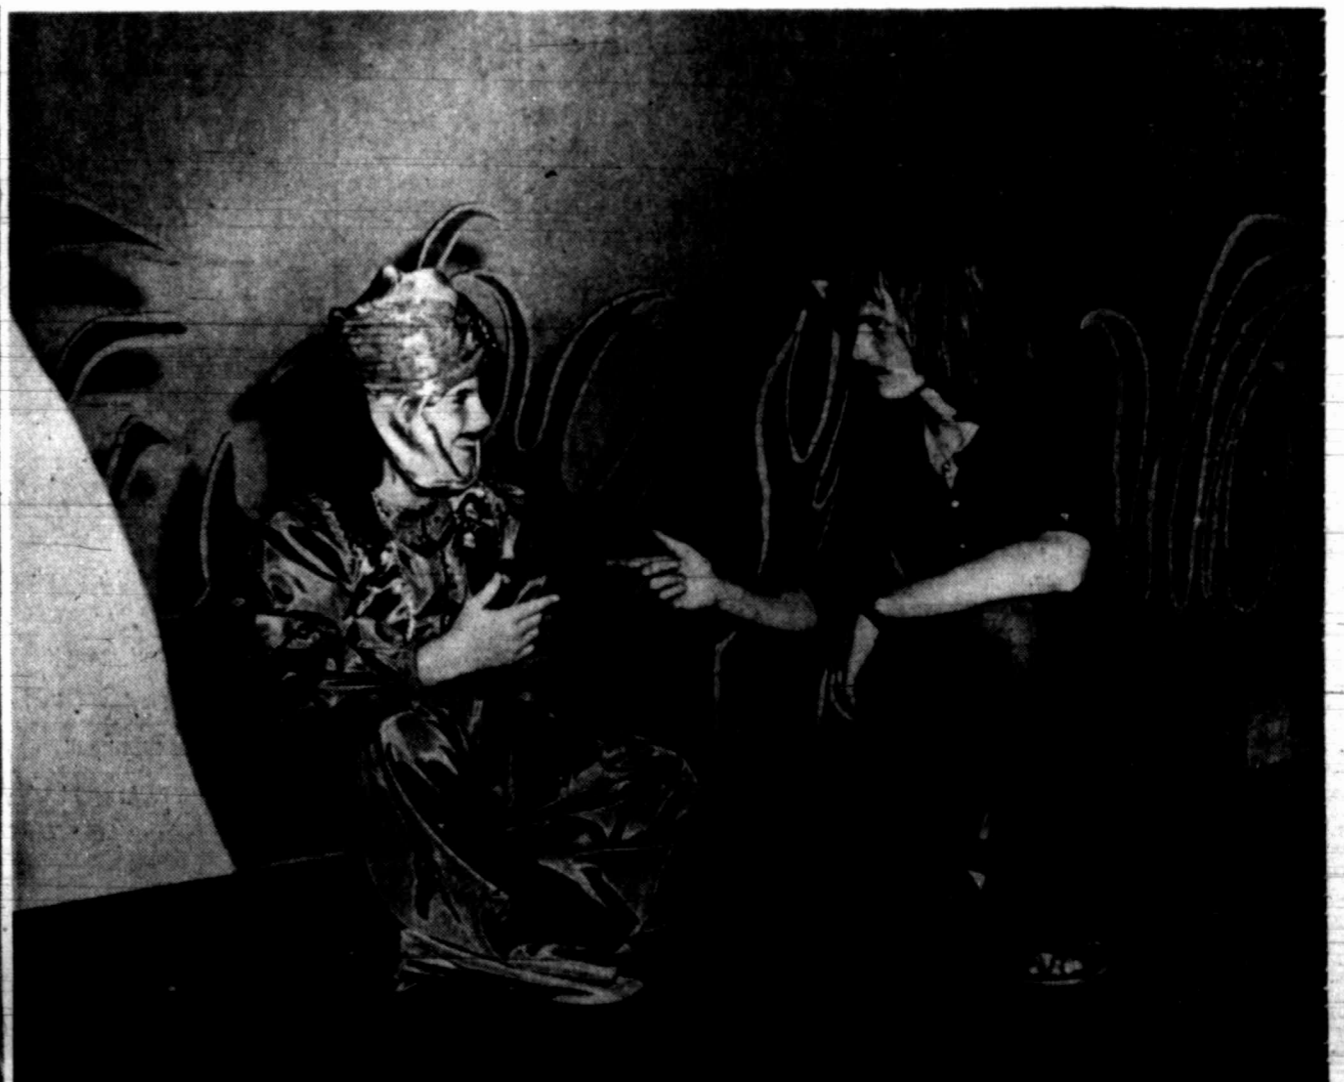

MAKE-UP—Young Pickwick Players make a trial run on suitable make-up for their roles in the forthcoming production of the "Just So Stories." Pictured, from the left, in the dressing room are Mrs. Neill Wisener, league member; Ange Dickson, Mrs. Charles D. Fraser, member of the league; Jennifer Muire and Biff Taylor. The league's theatre committee assists in all phases of a Pickwick production.

PLAY DATES — Barbara Buckley, left, and Bryce Jensen are shown in costume for the upcoming productions by the Pickwick Players, scheduled for matinees Friday and Saturday at Community Theatre Center. Curtain time is 2:30 p.m. both days. These performances for the public will be followed by a series of presentations, sponsored by the Junior League of Midland, Inc., and Midland Community Theatre, for all fourth grade students in Midland schools.

SET CONSTRUCTION — Mrs. Charles O. Semple and Mrs. C. Gary Garlitz, standing from the left, members of the Junior League theatre committee, assist Pickwickians, Diane McKenna, David Turner and Martha Stump, with set construction for the spring presentation by the Pickwick Players.

JUST SO — Tom Mikotowicz, right, MCT assistant director, is staging and directing the production of the "Just So Stories," assisted by the Junior League theatre committee. Shown with the director is Hal Coon, member of the Pickwick cast. Included in Auran Harris' dramatization of the classic tales are "The Cat Who Walks Alone," "How the Camel Got His Hump!" and "How the First Letter Was Written." They delve into nonsensical explanations of how certain things are "just so."

HOW TO IMPROVE THE APPEARANCE OF YOUR SKIN

THE FIVE GOLDEN RULES FOR A YOUNGER CLEARER SKIN

1. Make-up is made of powder. When you use a bar of ordinary soap the make-up is pushed into the pores, thus making the pores larger and deeper. Instead, a high quality cleanser should be used. A Cleanser will dissolve the make-up out of the pores thereby allowing them to constrict to normal size.
2. A Toner is the only product that will remove a cleanser. A toner (skin freshener or astringent as it is sometimes called) is effective and removes the traces of cleanser from your face.
3. Alkali or detergent soap sold in grocery stores are drying. It is only good for your body. It can make the skin on your face and hands rough. You should be using a non-alkali soap. It will remove the bacteria without disturbing the normal balance of the skin. Now you are ready to use Peel O Matique.
4. Peel O Matique is the first safe and gentle process to shed the dead skin cells. Peel O Matique was created to help overcome crepey skin on the neck, lines over the lips, pitting and blackheads, blotching and discoloration. Notice a man's face. When he shaves you will not see any of these unsightly skin problems. By shaving, the man is removing the dead skin cells daily. And remember, that when using Peel O Matique, always use: Cleanser to dissolve the make-up, Toner to dissolve the cleanser, Non-Alkali Soap to remove bacteria, then use Peel O Matique's phase 1, 2, 3.
5. Now is the time to use a moisturizer from our cosmetic department. Stay away from home lubricants such as mayonnaise; crisco, baby oils as they tend to dry your skin.

If your skin is extremely rough, we suggest you use another, more abrasive peel once a week. They are also sold in our cosmetic department. In case of prior skin problems, consult your physician, he knows best. 100 Applications - $20.00.

Order if you wish from our own cosmeticians:

- Cleanser
- Toner
- Non-Alkali Soap
- Moisturizer

Lt. LeSueur And Bride To Reside In Midland

A golden arch with garlands of greenery, backed by rainbow candelabra, spiral candelabra and arrangements of pedestaled white flowers provided the decor for the exchange of marriage vows Saturday by Denise Orlanda Cavil and Lt. Robert Lincoln LeSueur Jr.

The double ring rites were read at 8 p.m. in Faith Temple Church of God in Christ by the Rev. W. C. Kenan. Music was provided by Mrs. Mamie Williams, organist, Mrs. W. C. Kenan and Robert Dorn soloists.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marta J. Cavil Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lincoln LeSueur of Madison, N.C.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown of silk organza over satin peau de soie enhanced by trim of sequined Alencon lace. The fitted high rise bodice had a ring neckline with overlay of lace and long full sleeves with cuffs of lace overlay. Diagonal rows of the lace enhanced the bodice. Two panels of the lace enhanced the front of the slightly flared skirt and centered the detachable fan shaped cathedral train which flowed from a wide, flat bow at the back waistline.

A half halo of lace covered peau held the tiered bluish veil and voluminous cathedral veil of lace bordered silk illusion. The all white bridal bouquet showered with satin ribbons encircled a detachable corsage.

Lee Clemons and John D. Hudson Jr. seated the guests. Honor attendants to the bride were her sisters, Mrs. Archie Myers of Nacogdoches, and LeiLani Cavil.

Bridesmaids were Shelia Nelson, Barbara Brackens, Carolyn Turner and Jamie Spencer. Mrs. Ellis Warren was the bridesmatron. Their gowns, repeating the rainbow theme, were variously pink, green, pale blue and yellow, lined with matching taffeta. Fashioned of sheer Swiss with tiny floral flocking in white the Carpet-length gowns were designed with boat necklines, butterfly sleeves and fitted bodices encircled at the high waistlines by matching satin ribbons which tied in back forming hem length streamers. Each wore a picture hat of horsehair in the same pastel color as her gown. A long stemmed carnation with matching satin streamers was carried by each attendant.

Freddie Batts of Webb Air Force Base was the best man. Shaunae Kenan and Julia Samuels were the flower girls. Shawn C. Johnson, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

The groomsmen were Archie Myers, Nacogdoches; Regional Coleman, Ellis Warren, the Rev. Donnie Brackens and Gregory Wells.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church. Jeridine Samuels registered the guests. The bride is a graduate of Midland High School and Draughton's Business College, Lubbock. The bridegroom, an undergraduate in pilot training at Webb, is a graduate of North Carolina Agricultural and Technical University, where he majored in industrial technology. They will live in Midland at 2911 W. Highway 80, Apt. 9.

Mrs. Robert Lincoln LeSueur Jr.

Party Fetes Newlyweds

CRANE — Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Holland of Austin, she is the former Jan Oliphant, were honored here recently with a nuptial shower.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holland of Crane and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oliphant of Austin.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Tom Hogan, Mrs. Eddy Ray Parker, Mrs. A. C. Washington, Mrs. Steve Pharoah, Mrs. Tom Hogan Jr., Mrs. Dewey McCoy, Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. T. J. Barton, Mrs. Ted Hogan and Mrs. Bill Mitchell.

Colors of pink and white were used in the linen and lace covered tables. Spring flower arrangements and candles centered the tables.

Light Corn Bread
You will have light, fluffy corn bread, every time if you add one tablespoon of boiling water after all the ingredients have been added, then beat well.

Mrs. Jim McDonald

Couple To Live In Mobile, Ala.

CORPUS CHRISTI — Ginger son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Patterson of Midland, and Jim McDonald, Protestant Chapel at the Naval Air Station. Mrs. E. B. Patterson and Mrs. Dave Tidmore, both of Midland, are grandmothers of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of matt jersey draped to the waist with a beaded medallion at center front. The gown had a high cowl collar and long fitted sleeves. The skirt featured a short sweep train. Her headpiece was a wide brimmed hat with overlay of dotted Swiss and illusion trim.

Mrs. James Hunter of Mathis, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Gail Parks was the bridesmaid.

James Seward of Austin was the best man and Terry McDonald the groomsman for his brother.

The couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., following a reception in Fellowship Hall of the chapel. Afterwards they will live in Mobile, Ala. The bridegroom is in the U.S. Coast Guard.

Medallion Home Toured By Group

The Les Toque Blancs Group of the American Association of University Women made a tour of the Texas Historical Medallion home at 802 S. Main St., Thursday.

The house was built in 1906 by Mr. and Mrs. William F. Scarborough.

Mary Anna Mayfield showed the home and told the group about various antiques in the house.

Following the tour, the group met in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. for refreshments and a business session. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Neale Jensen, Mrs. Jimmie Smith, Mrs. J. Wayne Campbell, Mrs. Cary Geron and Mrs. Leon Jeffcoat.

Mrs. Bob Landreth was introduced as a new member. Mrs. James C. Hayes was a guest.

Mrs. Robert Edwin Briggs

Mr., Mrs. Robert Briggs Honeymoon In Cloudcroft

Marriage vows were pledged Saturday by Mareda Lynn O'Leary and Robert Edwin Briggs in the First Assembly of God Church. The Rev. David Allen of the Pentacostal Church of God performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer A. Davis, 1909 W. Michigan St., are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Lora Briggs, 1309 N. Colorado St.

Spiral candelabra, greenery and the kneeling bench enhanced the bridal setting. Mrs. Roy Lynn Evers, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sanders, vocalists, offered the nuptial music.

Brothers of the bride, Don and Arthur Davis, seated the guests.

Brenda Land was the maid of honor. Sheryl Pruitt was the bridesmaid and Mrs. Fred Jones was her sister's bridesmatron. They wore formal-length gowns of yellow spring print delustrous satin. The Empire bodices featured the double butterfly sleeves. The bride wore picture hats of avocado silk organza and carried baskets of yellow pompon daisies and baby's breath.

Patrice Davis of Snyder, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Jason Lann, nephew of the bride, carried the rings. David Briggs served his father as best man. The groomsmen were Roy Lynn Evers and Ricky Sain.

Mr. Davis gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal-length gown of peach silk chiffon, fashioned with portrait neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. Ruffles of the material trimmed the neck and sleeves. Her headpiece was a matching picture hat. She carried a bouquet of peach and white carnations with bridal wreath.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Boyce Lann, sister of the bride, registered the guests. Rice bags were distributed by Carol Evers and Gregory Davis.

Also included in the house party were Mrs. Jimmy Ainsworth, Mrs. Cliff Houghton, Mrs. Phil Sanders, Mrs. Ronnie Farmer, Mrs. Mike Tynes, Mrs. Don Davis, Mrs. Arthur Davis and Mrs. Billy Pruitt. After a wedding trip to Cloudcroft, N.M., and Juarez, Mexico, the couple will live in Midland at 602 W. Michigan St. The bride, secretary at the First National Bank, is a Midland High School graduate. The bridegroom, personnel director at Midland Memorial Hospital, graduated from Tyler Junior College and the University of New Mexico.

Miss Oberdorf, Charles Adams Wed

HOUSTON — Jacqueline Sue Oberdorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Oberdorf of Houston, and Charles Gilbert Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kilburn E. Adams of Midland, Tex., were married at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in St. Luke's United Methodist Church. The Rev. Woodrow Wilson Smith officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Beverly Oberdorf of Houston was maid of honor for her sister, Priscilla Smith of Dallas was the bridesmaid. The flower girls were Sarah Steffee and Julie Buell, Steven Troy of Austin, formerly of Midland, was the best man. The ushers were Donald Buell and Samuel Steffee of Houston and Clarence Alexander of Sun City, Ariz. William Freeman of Dallas was the groomsman.

Mrs. Charles Gilbert Adams home of the bride's parents.

The couple will be at home at 4411 Gardendale 2N in San Antonio. They are planning a honeymoon at Cape Cod in July.

The bride was graduated from Southern Methodist University with a bachelor of arts degree in Spanish. She was a member and the hemline Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearl clusters. She carried a cascade of white orchids, tiny yellow roses and English ivy.

Mrs. Harold Williams Gives Library Program

Mrs. Harold Williams, head librarian at Midland County Public Library, was the guest speaker for a meeting Wednesday of Modern Study Club, Midland Woman's Club. The topic was "Friends of the Library."

The pledge and collect were led by Mrs. C. B. Odom. Mrs. R. H. Brooks, president, presided. She asked members to donate a book to the library in lieu of a gift to the outgoing president.

Mrs. Brooks reported on the Western District convention, at which time Modern Study Club won first place and three second place awards for programs and projects.

Mrs. John Casselman introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Williams, graduate of the University of Oklahoma, with master's degree in library science, noted the library's history. She said Midland's library is one of the oldest in the state.

"In 1903, the Time and Tide Club, 99 Club and the Woman's Club of Midland decided to form a Midland Library Association. They bought a lot on Colorado and Wall Streets for $1,500 and constructed a building.

"In 1928 the library became too big for volunteer workers so the county commissioners hired a librarian. In 1956 the original library lot sold for $85,000, which was applied to the new library built in 1958."

The club was given a tour of the library through slides, accompanied by narration of the services of the facility. Unusual services include material mailed to shut-ins and 16mm sound movies available for loan to clubs and organizations.

"The library has 18 full-time employees, four of whom have won first place and three second 12 part-time employees.

"There are over 100,000 books in the library and it is considered one of the better libraries per capita in the state."

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. G. A. Plummer was hostess to a social period. Mrs. M. H. Endsley presided at the coffee service. The table's centerpiece was a bowl of spring flowers.

In addition to Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Horace Skinner also was a guest.

Midland Garden Club Makes Trip To Lubbock

Members of Midland Garden Club made a pilgrimage Thursday to visit the Texas Tech University Museum, its 12-acre Ranch Headquarters now under construction, the Lubbock Garden Center and gardens in Lubbock. They also visited the home of Mrs. Harold Kelly, national flower show judge, to view art, pottery and artistic arrangement containers.

Mrs. Walter Putnam was the pilgrimage chairman. Those attending were Mrs. J. Howard Hodge and her guest, Mrs. Leani Teel, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Humphrey, Mrs. I. W. Hynd, Mrs. R. W. Patteson, Mrs. Floyd Shirley, Mrs. Putnam and Mrs. C. Bissell.

Mrs. W. C. Holden, who with her husband serves as chairman of the Ranch Headquarters restoration in the Free Range Area of the Texas Historical Survey Commission, greeted the group at the museum. She introduced Peter Rogers, son-in-law of Peter Hurd, who is painting a Texas scene mural on the walls of the museum entrance.

Mrs. Nancy Tarwater and Mrs. Holden led the tour of the Free Range Area, which has restored ranch houses from 1878-1885. Each stone of the houses was numbered and restored as originally built. Visited were a Spanish era blockhouse of the late 1700s, a double log cabin built on the Llano River in 1855, George Jowell's 1873 house from Palo Pinto, milk and meat cooler house, rare Walpole windmill, patent Eclipse windmill and other historical structures.

Mrs. Holden said the Free Range Area exhibit will be included in the nation's Bicentennial Celebration.

The Midlanders were guests of the Lubbock Garden Center at a luncheon. Mrs. C. V. Singleton, Lubbock Council of Garden Clubs chairman, and Mrs. Marion Leftwich, president of the Lubbock Garden Club, greeted the guests. Among those attending were Mrs. Edwin Boedeker, District I, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., director; Mrs. Lee Coil, TGC vice president; Mrs. Kelly; Mrs. Nat Williams, chairman of the Lubbock Arboretum Foundation board of directors.

Mrs. Hodge invited the Lubbock group to be guests of the Midland Garden Club and announced there will be a called meeting of the club at 10 a.m. April 18 in the home of Mrs. John Grimland Jr., 1606 Country Club Drive.

Angela Embry, John Crow Wed In Methodist Church

Angela Denise Embry became the bride of John H. Crow in double ring rites at 7 p.m. Saturday in St. Luke's United Methodist Church. Dr. Burgin Watkins was the officiant.

Rainbow candelabra with jade foliage flanked by gold spiral candelabra formed the setting for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Embry, 3316 Providence Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Crow III, 3309 Providence Drive, are the parents of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white peau de soie with overlay of miramist organza. Chantilly lace highlighted with seed pearls and crystals enhanced the bodice. The full sleeves of miramist had barrel cuffs of the lace fastened with satin buttons. Matching lace bordered the chapel train of miramist. Her headpiece fashioned of apple blossoms and crystal flowers held the fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a modified cascade of white pompon daisies, yellow Sweetheart roses and springerli fern.

Mrs. Jack C. Bratton of Denver, Colo., attended her sister as matron of honor. Jane Pinckney, also of Denver, and Catherine Crow, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in full-length A-line gowns of lilac peau de soie trimmed with lace and velvet. White gloves complemented the short capped sleeves. Their headpieces were bands covered with pearl encrusted lilac roses and attached shoulder-length veils of lilac organza. They carried nosegays of mixed lavender and yellow flowers with yellow satin streamers.

Shannon Burnett was the flower girl. Jack C. Bratton of Denver and William L. Embry Jr. ushered.

Rickey Hoekendorf was the best man.

The reception was held in Fellowship Lounge of the church. Debra Cox was at the bride's table. Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. Bobby Hodges, Mrs. Gary Burnett and Katie Swafford.

The couple will live in Midland. She is a graduating senior at Lee High School. The bridegroom, employed by Canton Woodworks is a graduate of Lee.

FANNIN PTA AWARD — Wilburn Buttery, principal of Fannin Elementary School, is pictured with Mrs. George W. Knox, left, incoming president of the school's Parent-Teacher Association, and Mrs. Jack Glenn, outgoing president. They are shown with the Roadrunner Award presented to the school for having the outstanding PTA unit in District 17, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Fannin School Receives Award

The Fannin Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association received the Roadrunner Award as the outstanding PTA unit for District 17, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, at the recent district conference held in Monahan.

The award, an oil painting entitled "Roadrunner," was accepted for the school by Wilburn Buttery, principal. At the suggestion of Mrs. David Gough of Monahan, outgoing district president who originated the idea for the award, the painting will become a traveling award among participating schools in the district.

The Fannin unit was selected because of the participation of its officers in all PTA workshops and conventions and for community service, including the Helping Hand program, library mothers, volunteer aides to Head Start, school kindergarten and visual screening, contribution to college scholarships and the Lee High School A Cappella Choir trip fund and sponsoring Cub Scout Pack 222. The unit also was cited for having an outstanding student directory and support of student activities. The unit has a 100 per cent faculty membership.

Bland Franklin Harpers' Honeymoon In Europe

SULPHUR SPRINGS — Mr. and Mrs. Bland Franklin Harper, she is the former Pamela Gail Wettstein of Midland, departed for an European honeymoon following their marriage here Saturday and a reception.

The Rev. Raymond Oriett was celebrant for the double ring rites in St. James Catholic Church.

Guitar preludes were presented by Mark Cherryholm of Fort Worth and Gary Bristol.

Nuptial music was offered by Gary O'Neal, organist, and Mrs. Blynn C. McIntire vocalist, of Dallas, aunt of the bride.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Goff Wettstein, 2507 Fannin Avenue, Midland, and William C. Wettstein, also of Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Bland E. Harper Jr. of Odessa.

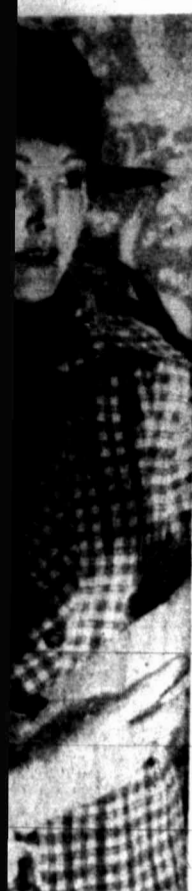

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a long sleeved, formal-length gown of white guiana. The bodice yoke, trimmed in Alencon lace, featured a V neckline. The A-line skirt flowing from the raised waistline had a Watteau train. Her headpiece was a crown of lace with lace applied illusion tiering to chapel length. She carried a bridal bouquet of white Mystery gardenias, freesia, gypsophila and stephanotis.

Charlotte Ann Wettstein was her sister's maid of honor. Their younger sister, Laura Lynn, was the junior bridesmaid. Mrs. George Wortman of Midland and Mrs. Charles H. Norris of Houston were the bridesmaids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Goff, grandparents of the bride.

Members of the house party included sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Thomas J. Lawrence of Dallas and Lori Harper of Odessa; an aunt and cousins of the bride, Mrs. Jerry C. Jenkins, Holley McIntire and Allison Cheney, all of Dallas; Kelly Westernman of Midland; Marilyn Jennings and Gail Henry, both of Dallas.

The bride attended Midland College and Texas Tech University. Her sorority is Zeta Tau Alpha. The bridegroom is associated as an architect with Crook-Davidson Architectural Firm, Dallas. He holds a degree in architecture from The University of Texas-Arlington.

Punch Party Honors MHS Senior

A punch party Thursday in the Garden Room at Midland Country Club honored Dena Jagers, graduating senior at Midland High School.

The honoree, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Jagers, plans to attend Texas Tech University. She wore a lei of Vanda orchids from Hawaii and was presented with a hostess gift.

Arrangements of spring flowers in multi-colors were used in decorations. About 50 classmates of the guest of honor attended.

Hostesses were Mrs. T. T. Drew, Mrs. Delton Marcum, Mrs. Arnold E. O'Neill, Mrs. J. A. Rowbotham, Mrs. A. C. Peeler and Mrs. L. E. Johnson.

Preparing Batter
Prepare cup cake batter in the usual way, putting half the usual amount of batter in each paper cup. Then place half a tinted marshmallow on top. Finish filling the cup three-fourth full with batter, and bake as usual.

Alumnae Club Names Officers

Members of Midland Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club met Thursday in the home of Mrs. William H. Leifeste, 1605 Seaboard St., to commemorate the 107th anniversary of the sorority's founding and to elect the 1974-75 officers.

The new slate includes Mrs. Everett Sharp, president; Mrs. Jerry Metz, vice president; Mrs. George Davis, secretary; Mrs. Patrick Sheehan, treasurer; Mrs. Scott Hickman, Panhellenic representative, and Mrs. William Heck, rush information chairman. They were installed by the outgoing president, Mrs. Bobby Page.

Mrs. Metz read a Founders' Day message from the grand vice president of the alumnae, Evelyn Peters Kyle. Mrs. Hickman presented a program on the 12 young women who founded the sorority at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., on April 22, 1867.

It was announced that members of the rush information committee with Mrs. Heck will be Mrs. Pat Baskin, Mrs. Joe Gifford and Mrs. Edwin Watts.

Plans were discussed for the club's biennial Settlement School sale. It will be held in November in the home of Mrs. William Zimmerman, 1801 W. Missouri St., with Mrs. Richard Kartzke as general chairman.

Coffee Honors Mrs. Blackwell

Approximately 20 guests attended a farewell coffee Thursday honoring Mrs. Jake Blackwell, who with her husband is moving to Lake Buchanan.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gayle Pruett and Mrs. John Banister, in the Pruett home at 2606 Hughes St. The honoree received a hostess gift.

Mr. Blackwell retired April 2 from Halliburton after 38 years service with the company. The last nine years were in the Midland Division.

Mrs. Dan Kallus Guest Speaker

Mrs. Dan Kallus was the guest speaker for a meeting Friday in Midland Woman's Club of the Midland Junior Woman's Club. Her topic on woman's role in today's society was entitled "Kaleidoscope of the New Women's Movement."

Mrs. Tony Hall, president, presided. Mrs. Preston Bridgewater Jr. led the pledge and Mrs. Tom Wurster gave the devotional. Mrs. Robert Spears and Mrs. George Staley were the hostesses.

Designated as the club's annual meeting, Federation department heads gave their reports. Mrs. Robert Davis reported on the Western District, TFWC, convention in Monahan.

Delegates elected to TFWC state convention in May in San Antonio were Mrs. Fred Byrom, Mrs. Tony Hall and Mrs. Russell Neisig. Alternates are Mrs. David Miller and Mrs. Larry Stapp.

Mrs. Robert Davis has been named to the Midland Zoological Society; it was announced.

Plans were announced for a Mexican Fiesta couples' party at 7:30 p.m. April 25 at El Gallo Restaurant.

The club will be hostess for the monthly luncheon of Midland Woman's Club at 11:30 a.m. April 18.

Mrs. Gayle Black was voted into membership. Guests were Mrs. Bill Alexander, Mrs. Ron Westbrook and Mrs. C. L. Scott of Moline, Ill.

Memories Of Nightmare Will Never Be Erased In Xenia

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — They are cleaning the streets of this quiet family town. They are minutes or so when a black carting away the rubble, cut-whirlwind sped up from U.S. 42 up the fallen trees and cut a path three-quarters of a mile wide and seven miles

TORNADO MOVES THROUGH XENIA — A tornado funnel is shown moving through the southeast section of Xenia, Ohio, Wednesday. The tornado caused millions of dollars damage and killed at least 29 persons. This photo was made by Fred Stewart at the time of the tornado's passing. He is an employe of an Xenia hospital. (AP Wirephoto.)

But they will never be able to long through the heart of this wicked black funnel that struck from the sky late Wednesday afternoon. Ron Anderson, 30, was sitting on the prone water heater in front of the cement slab that was once his home in the Pinecrest section. He had moved into his new home with his wife and two daughters, Karen, 9, and Rhonda, 7, only the Saturday before. And back in the bedroom, they discovered that the funnel had lifted up the entire house and had sucked all the electrical cords into the recess between the walls. The weather remained unkind to Xenia in the wake of the storm. The day after was bright and sunny, but a heavy wind blew the dust of the debris into the eyes of rescuers and stung the faces of those sorting through the rubble of their homes. Trees were hung with pieces of sheet metal, cardboard, cloth and ghastly decorations that played a clanging carol in the wind.

In the front of one home, the wind stretched an American flag taut, snapping its edges. Its staff was twisted bizarrely around a tree trunk. And on Friday, temperatures dropped and a drizzle turned to snow. After that, it was below freezing in a town where many are homeless and without proper clothing. The streets have been mostly cleared. But in the town sliced by a tornado, people were still searching for loved ones. One man, his son dead, looked for his wife, who was supposed to have been home. There was a pool of blood on the porch. Mrs. George Roach was at work and her husband was home alone. He suffered a stroke three years ago and just managed getting around the house. The tornado tore the Roach home apart, and miraculously he was found unhurt in the rubble of the hallway. She tried, desperately to reach him by phone and finally had to walk the several miles from downtown through the devastation to find him alive. "We're too old to start over again," she said. But then she reached him. "We will."

Finally, the pieces will fit together again. The insurance companies will pay off. The dead will be buried, the wounds healed, and the memories will soften. The chain saws and the wailing sirens will still.

Seven Midlanders Listed On Rice Honor Roll
HOUSTON — Seven Midlanders are among Rice University students named to the President's honor roll for the last semester. They are Joel Steven Chaffin, John Edward Keel, Mary Joanne Keel, Gerald Hugh Philpy and Susan Gail Weirich, all graduates of Lee High School; and Howard Michael Lijestrand and Leslie Paul Metzgar, both Midland High School graduates.

Happy To Be Alive
The next few seconds were a blur. When it was over, the entire house was gone and so was the rug they had been lying on, sucked out from under them. They laid there on the cement slab, bruised, cut, but alive. "I'm just happy we're alive," he said, managing a smile. "The house we moved out of in the Arrowhead section, it's flattened too."

Mrs. Peggy Schmidt was home with her 16-year-old daughter, Michele, and her daughter's boyfriend. They heard the approaching tornado and went to the front door. They could see it carving its way across the city. "Michele said it looked like it was full of birds," Mrs. Schmidt said. "I told her those weren't birds. It was debris. We went into the downstairs bedroom and opened the sliding glass door, like they said to do so there wouldn't be any suction. Then we laid between the two beds. At the last moment we pulled a cover over us." It was just in time. The bedroom window smashed and hurled wind-driven flying glass all over the room. It was over in seconds. They looked up and were amazed they had fared so well. But when they went outside, they found the whole second story missing.

AND AFTER THE NIGHTMARE — People of Xenia leave the Red Cross headquarters with needed clothing and food as the community struggles to recover from heavy damage inflicted by the tornado. (AP Wirephoto.)

Houston Police Records Now Open

HOUSTON (AP) — Police Chief Carol M. Lynn has once again opened police records to newsmen.

Lynn said Friday he did so because of an opinion of Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill.

Lynn said Hill's ruling, an interpretation of a new state records statute, left local officials with the option of keeping the reports public.

Hill ruled first on Jan. 15 that the state's open records law, passed in the last session of the legislature, closed offense reports and arrest records to newsmen.

Legislators who passed the bill said it did not.

Another opinion released by Hill March 25 said that while the open records law require police to divulge only the name, address, age and charge involved in an individual arrest, it does not prohibit police from divulging further information if they choose to do so.

Lynn said information such as prior criminal records of persons accused of crimes would still be off limits.

"Releasing this information could prejudice a case and cause us to lose it," he said.

Tornado Warning System Worked, Official Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the heavy loss of life in week's tornadoes, the nation's public warning system appears to have worked well, the nation's chief weathermen say.

"Enormous numbers of lives may have been saved," Robert M. White, head of the Commerce Department's National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, said Friday during a tour of areas hit by the tornadoes.

"We can't stop acts of God," White said. He called the widespread devastation "the worst destruction I've ever seen from tornadoes."

White, Associate Administrator John W. Townsend Jr., and National Weather Service Director George P. Cressman made the day-long flight to Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio for talks with local weather agency officials and for a look at some of the multimillion dollar damage from the past week's tornadoes.

A family of twisters, presently estimated by weather officials at 90, charged through 14 states, leaving at least 291 dead, thousands injured, and vast devastation.

Just outside Louisville, Ky., in a heavily damaged area, a woman told the federal officials she took cover in her basement after getting the weather service warning that the tornado was coming. Her home lost its roof, while other houses in the neighborhood were shattered.

At Cleveland, White told reporters: "My impression, after talking to people in Kentucky, Indiana, and here, is that the warning system performed very well, that the warnings were in time. We talked to many citizens in other states who had heard the warnings and had taken cover as a result of the warnings."

White said he concluded "that quite a few lives were saved as a result of the warnings, but that does not say that we still can't do better, and we intend to continue to investigate the action of the warning system throughout the country ... to uncover any deficiencies that might exist and seek remedies for those deficiencies."

White said there is a need for a look at community preparedness, at local warning systems, and at public education regarding what to do in case of tornadoes.

Xenia Fire Kills Two Guardsmen

XENIA, Ohio (AP) — Two Ohio National Guardsmen were killed Saturday when fire swept through a furniture store in this tornado-ravaged town, a guard spokesman said.

The fire was brought under control within an hour.

Guard spokesman Steve Stone said the men apparently had sought refuge from the freezing rains that pelted the city overnight and had gone to the furniture store, where a relief station had been set up for the National Guard.

Stone said the men may have noticed a fire in the store and gone further into the building to investigate, where they were trapped by flames and smoke.

Two other guardsmen suffered burns and were treated at a hospital.

The store is in the downtown area hit by a tornado late Wednesday.

More than 30 persons were killed, and hundreds were left homeless. Damage in the southwest Ohio town has been estimated at $50 million.

About 600 guardsmen have been patrolling the streets of Xenia to guard against looters and to help with cleanup efforts.

Tall City Lions Set Queen Contest

The Tall City Lions Club will select its 1974 queen in a contest on April 14.

Six contestants will be judged on appearance in sports wear and evening wear, and on talent. The winner will compete in area competition in Brownwood.

Don Clay is chairman of the contest which is scheduled at 2:45 p.m. on April 14 in the Carver building auditorium. Tickets are available from any Tall City Lion.

District THDA Meeting In Stanton Draws 175

STANTON — About 175 noon workshops included ones women attended the District 6 on safety, sponsored by Ector County, and featuring Jack White of the Texas Department of Public Safety in Big Spring. Thursday Hostesses for the meeting were the Martin and Glasscock county chapters.

Mrs. N. E. Holloway, District 6 director of THDA, opened the spring convention, a welcome was delivered by Martin County Judge Carroll Yater, and Mrs. Roberta Johnson, district extension agent, made in- troductions.

Mrs. Bill Hardy of Rotan, state president, also brought greetings.

A program highlight was an address by Mrs. Earl K. Moore Jr. of Odessa on the conference theme "Home — a Beacon Light."

During the noon hour, the group honored Mrs. Lee Castle, Stanton club woman since 1928, in whose home the first club in Martin County was organized. The Martin County council presented her a corsage and an engraved plaque.

Outstanding 4-H Club members who spoke on "What 4-H Means to Me" were Frances Ethridge of Midland County, Ann Luckie of Ward County, Famee Argo and Terry Argo, both of Ector County.

Mrs. Holloway was re-elected as District 6 director. She presented on behalf of THDA a $100 contribution to Mrs. Johnson to be used for 4-H Club expenses.

During the day, the conferees explored ways to better serve each county and district. After-

Police Arrest Texan Sought In Stabbing Death

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — The FBI announced Friday that a man wanted in connection with the March stabbing death of a Wichita Falls woman has been arrested in Gillette, Wyoming.

J. Gordon Shanklin, special agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office said Elgin Wayne Long, 32, was arrested Friday and will appear before a U.S. magistrate at Gillette on a warrant charging him with murder and unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Shanklin said Long was wanted in connection with the death of Greta Sue Richards, 37, whose body was found in a ditch near Wichita Falls March 9.

Mrs. Richards was found with her hands tied behind her back. The FBI said she had been stabbed repeatedly and her throat had been slashed.

Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

Discovery Finaled In Eddy County

Champlin Petroleum Co. has completed No. 1 Pecos-Federal, as a dual Strawn and Morrow gas discovery, four miles east of Carlsbad, in Eddy County, N.M.

It had a calculated, absolute open flow of 2.5 million cubic feet per day, plus an unreported amount of condensate, through Strawn perforations at 10,580-10,608 feet, which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons.

The Morrow zone had a calculated, absolute open flow of 8.9 million cubic feet of gas per day, through perforations at 11,757-11,772, after it had been acidized with 2,000 gallons. Scheduled to 12,000 feet, it was drilled to 12,100 feet, and plugged back to 11,910 feet. Five-inch liner was hung from 11,913-12,088 feet.

The discovery is located 600 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 1-22S-27E.

Sutton Area Gets Leonard Discovery

The Sawyer multipay field gained a Leonard gas discovery, in a Canyon and Strawn, North gas producing area of the Sutton County portion of the field, with the completion of HNG Oil Co., Midland, No. 3-6 Reinhardt.

Calculated, absolute open flow was for 1.150 million cubic feet of dry gas per day, through perforations at 1,537-1,646 feet, which had been treated with 1,500 gallons of acid.

Scheduled as an 8,500-foot Strawn wildcat, it was drilled to 3,310 feet, with 2 1/2-inch casing set at 3,291 feet.

The following tops were picked on a ground elevation of 2,280 feet: Leonard, 1,536 feet; and Wolfcamp, 2,029 feet.

Location is 3,117 feet from south and 990 feet from west lines of G. C. Corbin survey 6, eight miles west of Sonora. The field also produces from Canyon, Strawn and Morrow, North pays in Sutton and the Canyon in Schleicher and Edwards.

Runnels Draws Three Wildcats

J. Frank Stringer, of San Angelo, has made plans to drill three 4,500-foot wildcats in Runnels County.

No. 1 Leonard Halfmann, 3/4 mile southeast of a two-well Cross Cut sand area of Ballinger multipay field, but separated by a depleted producer, spots 1,156 feet from southwest and 467 feet from northwest lines of Johann Heil survey 419, 3 1/4 miles southwest of Ballinger.

The No. 1 Alfred Lissos is one location southwest of the opener and lone producer in the Rowena, Northwest (Jennings sand) gas field.

Location is 2,500 feet from south and 1,629 feet from west lines of section 505, GH&HRR survey, 2 1/2 miles north of Rowena.

spots one mile southwest of the Cross Cut area of the Ballinger field and one mile northwest of the Rowena, Northwest field. Located 3 1/4 miles north of Rowena, it is 5,322 feet from southwest and 750 feet from southeast lines of Francis Helmer survey 417.

The Rowena, Northwest opener, Stringer's No. 1 Matschek, was finaled June 19, 1972, through perforations at 4,066-4,074 feet.

Three Counties Get Completions

Completions have been finaled in three West Texas areas.

The Jordan (Fusselman) field of Ector County, gained its fifth current producer, and a 1/2 mile southeast extension, with the completion of No. 64-3 W. E. Connell, Texaco Inc.

It potentialized pumping 69 barrels of 39.8-gravity oil per day, plus four barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio measuring 444-1. Completion was through (Continued On Page 3D)

WASHINGTON OIL—

Concept Of Zero Energy Growth Latest Wrinkle

By CLYDE LA MOTTE

Reporter-Telegram Washington Oil Correspondent
WASHINGTON — One of the latest wrinkles in how to solve the energy supply problem is the concept of zero energy growth.

This possible approach was outlined in a preliminary report published recently by the Ford Foundation's Energy Policy Project headed by S. David Freeman, formerly with the Federal Power Commission and for a time an energy adviser at the White House.

This was a staff report and will be followed by a final report later. And it was stressed in the report that no recommendations were being made at this time. Rather, the purpose of the report was to pose some possible ways of coping with the energy supply problem both short-range and long-range.

Nevertheless, it was evident in the tone of the report that the zero energy concept will wind up as a part of the final report—indeed, it may be the principal approach recommended at that time.

Economic Growth Continues

The argument is made that zero energy growth (ZEG) does not mean zero economic growth. Instead, the theory is that through conservation measures and full use of existing technology, energy growth can be kept at a standstill while economic growth continues.

Another way of putting it is to say that energy supplies can be stretched to cover controlled increases in energy demands.

However, the explanation given in the preliminary report makes it clear that to achieve zero energy growth over the next 10 to 20 years it would be necessary to make considerable adjustments in the way we presently do many things.

Redesign A 'Must'

For instance, the report states that "redesign of cities and transportation systems would be a must."

Furthermore, growth in energy-intensive industries, such as making plastics from petrochemicals, would be deemphasized. "Instead, there would be more vigorous growth in the service sector of the economy (education, medicine, government, etc.) and in industries which use less energy."

The authors of the report insist that ZEG would not change drastically the existing (Continued On Page 3D)

DEPLETION, CONTROLS, PRICES— Elimination Of Allowances Would Affect Other Minerals

By ED THOMPSON
Executive Vice President
Permian Basin Petroleum Association

It's on again — off again with the depletion provisions. The uproar today is over oil and gas depletion allowances. But, there are more than 100 other minerals, from antimony to zircon (including coal, iron, sand, silver, gravel, gold, copper, platinum, tin, tungsten, etc.) which are also allowed depletion.

Depletion originally was set up to avoid taxing as income that portion of a producer's output that represents the value of mineral deposits in the ground. The various percentages were arrived at based on the risks involved in exploring for new reserves, relative scarcity of the mineral, production costs, economic value and importance to the national security. It was not introduced as a tax loophole, and has worked as a subsidy for the consumer in helping keep prices much lower than those in foreign countries, or for other products.

For those who cannot believe that we are gradually moving to socialism, it might be well to study some of the laws either already on the books, or proposed, which control some segment of our society. We already have wage, price, health, education, welfare, environmental, transportation, natural gas and communications controls. Bills for nationalization of the domestic petroleum industry, gun controls and land use management are now being seriously considered in the Congress.

Unfortunately, there are no controls on, nor are any being considered for federal spending, taxation at all levels, often without representation, expansion of various government departments, bureaus and agencies; or government interference in, and competition with, private enterprise. Unless we, the consuming, taxpaying, voting public, take a stand now against this ever expanding (Continued On Page 3D)

SHAKLEE HEALTH SMILE — Cindy Walker, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker, distributors of Shaklee-Nature's By-Products, smiles as she shows some of the many natural foods, biodegradable cleaning materials and personal care products available. Call 694-7897 for more information about Shaklee.

Shaklee Food, Cleaning Products Available Here

Shaklee, the naturally grown vitamins, food supplements and non-polluting home care and personal care products, is being distributed in Midland by Jim Walker, 694-7897.

These natural foods and biodegradable cleaning materials are being used by doctors, dentists, optometrists, schools, homes, hospitals, cafes, stores, rest homes, service stations and all types of business. Shaklee materials are truly organic, with no chemicals added and are nature's by-products.

Because of its non-magnetic nature, Shaklee's Basic H, a biodegradable concentrate, was used at Cape Kennedy to clean all instruments, equipment and Gemini 4 and all other spacecraft. It is being hailed as the successor to soap because of its many uses. For example, a few drops of Basic H in the palms of your hands with a little water will cause grease, grim and dirt to disappear. It is good for dishes, floors, mirrors and glass, delicate washables, general cleaning and kitchen appliances.

Shaklee recently introduced a new product, Nutritional Protein Supplement, that is full of nutrients, taste appeal and body-building protein. It is convenient and blended to mix with food and beverage, hot or cold, to give you and your family all the nutrients necessary. NPS is formulated for cooking and baking at normal preparation temperatures. Cooking has a minimal effect on the protein. Shaklee's also produces a natural protein line of beauty aids and personal health care aids for both men and women. One of their most important products at this time of year—when people are cleaning and preparing their pools for the swimming and outdoor season ahead—is Shaklee Algaecidal Concentrate.

The Saab Sonett. Just $4888.

Just 2,500 Saab Sonetts will be built this year. For the entire world. So, naturally, it isn't the kind of car you see every day. But if you come into our store sometime soon, we'll have a Saab to show you. One you can sit in, and even take for a test drive. Then you can see for yourself what it's like to drive a car like the Saab. A car with front wheel drive, rack and pinion steering, a fiberglass body, a 1.7 liter V4 engine, front disc brakes, dual built-in roll bars - things that help make the Saab one of the most exciting and sensible sports cars you'll ever drive. But don't wait too long. We can't promise how long they'll be here.

The Saab Sonett. Just $4888.

FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS

Some serious wind erosion occurred over the area last week as high winds whipped dry soil loose and started it drifting. Drought conditions are becoming more serious each passing week and many acres are in a condition to seriously erode if some soaking rain is not forthcoming, according to Charles Green, Midland County extension agent. High winds are also interfering with irrigation operations as wells are being pressed into service in applying pre-plant irrigation water on acreage where water is available.

Feeder cattle prices have dropped considerably in recent weeks and Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, gives several reasons for the declining market. First of all, feeder animals were overpriced compared to fat cattle. The feedlots could no longer pay $10 per hundredweight more for replacement animals when even a $4 to $5 per hundred-weight difference was too much, in view of their losses. Feeder cattle supplies were also up. January sales of cattle and calves at Texas livestock auctions were 17 per cent greater than a year ago. This suggests that a tremendous number of yearling cattle were held over into 1974. Another factor that weakened feeder prices was the price drop in the fed cattle market. Prices in the last week in February averaged $43.90 per hundredweight for choice 900- to 1,100-pound slaughter steers, a drop of almost $7 from the beginning of the month. Although feeder cattle producers are feeling the price drop rather sharply, feedlots are still the ones with the biggest net losses, which are ranging from $135 to $55 per head. Because the cattle market operates on a comparison basis and there were price controls last year which disturbed the base, the industry has been readjusting, trying to find the real supply and demand levels.

Small, light green leaves and short shoot growth on trees usually indicate a need for fertilizer. If the terminal growth is good and the leaves are healthy green, the trees are getting enough nutrients from the soil and from lawn fertilizers. Such trees will grow faster and withstand drought, insects and disease much better than undernourished trees. If you need to fertilize, the time to do it is late winter or early spring. Do not fertilize newly planted trees since the soil filled in around the roots has adequate nutrients for a year's growth. When fertilizing trees, use a fertilizer with plenty of nitrogen. Ammonium nitrate (32-0-0) and ammonium sulfate (21-0-0) are two good possibilities. In general, apply one to two pounds of fertilizer per inch of the tree trunk's diameter at four feet above the ground. The amount may vary depending on the age and vigor of the tree. Apply the fertilizer to the feeder root zone so that it can be absorbed. This zone usually begins about two feet from the trunk and extends several feet beyond the ends of the branches.

Lice are costly freeloaders on cattle. Their bloodsucking and irritating actions result in lowered weight gains, meaning inefficient use of feed. Lice spend their entire lives on hosts and they do not hibernate.

Infestations usually decline during the hot summer and build up in the winter and spring. Animals infested with the parasites usually are restless, eat less and have a rough, coarse appearance. Sprays recommended for controlling lice on beef and nonlactating dairy animals include Ciodrin, coumaphos (Co-Ral), methoxychlor, malathion, dioxathion (Delnav), lindane, Ruelene (Carbaryl) (Sevin), ronnel (Korlan) and toxaphene. Many cattle in the Midland area are infested with varying degrees of lice and need treatment for control. For cattle lice control recommendations, refer to MP-691, Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry. This guide may be picked up at Green's office.

Austin Station Wins Award For Service

AUSTIN — Radio Station KNOW, sister station of Midland's KCRS, has been named winner of the 1973 George Foster Peabody Award for Radio Public Service.

The Austin station was cited for a series of documentaries and editorials on "Marijuana and the Law," broadcast in February 1973.

The president of both KCRS and KNOW is Wendell Mayes Jr., a former resident of Midland. Mayes now resides in Austin.

Called the Pulitzer Prizes of broadcast journalism, the Peabody Awards are given each year to honor distinguished and meritorious public service by radio and television programs, stations, networks and individuals.

KNOW is the only Texas radio station to win a Peabody Award for broadcast journalism in the 34-year history of the awards program.

"Miracle Cure"

5,000 Year Old Chinese Health Remedy Found

PEKING (Special) — Health researchers in China have uncovered an amazing rare old Chinese herb remedy that possesses spectacular healing qualities and reportedly has been used for 5,000 years to cure or give relief to a host of the most common illnesses suffered by mankind. Dramatic claims are being made that this "miracle herb" called ginseng, may actually hold the key to a longer healthier life. Indeed, there is one historical case of a user living to be 256 years old.

Helps Many Illnesses

Like acupuncture, the many healing properties of this remarkable herb were once considered "folklore and superstition", but modern researchers around the world are suggesting that it may actually regulate many of the body's processes to increase SEXUAL potency, help heal ULCERS, relieve ARTHRITIS, check graying or loss of HAIR, improve DIGESTION, slow down ARTERIOSCLEROSIS, relieve ASTHMA overcome FATIGUE, improve DIABETIC conditions, relieve inflammation of the URINARY TRACT, help chronic INSOMNIA, relieve BACKACHES and PAINS, and generally improve your health by increasing your body's potential to heal itself.

Safe, No Side Effects

Ginseng is not a drug but an herb or vegetable that is extremely rich in vitamins and minerals. What's more, this amazing natural remedy is completely safe and non-toxic with no side effects. Unfortunately, high-grade ginseng is in short supply, and brokers and processors around the world are bracing themselves for a "run" on the market as the herb's purported "near-miraculous" healing properties become more widely known to the general public.

Now Available in U.S.

Now you can get a generous 30-day supply of this amazing natural remedy direct from a major supplier by sending only $10.00 in check, cash or money order to Health Laboratories, Dept. 79, Box 2142, Palm Springs, Calif. 92262. This wonder herb is said to have helped millions of other people and it may help your health problem, too. Isn't it worth a try? Adv.

Jim Granberry Due Here Wednesday

Former Lubbock Mayor Jim Granberry, Republican candidate for governor, will be in Midland Wednesday for a Dutch "Treat Luncheon at Midland Country Club.

Jim Lacy, Granberry's county chairman here, is taking reservations at 684-4973.

Granberry, 41, was mayor of Lubbock in 1970-72. He has served as vice president of the Texas Municipal League and as president of the Texas Partners of the Americas with Peru.

Granberry recently resigned from the State Republican Executive Committee in order to devote full time to his campaign. He was a delegate to the 1972 National Republican Convention and served as regional coordinator in 1972 for Senator John Tower's re-election campaign.

American Party Formed In Crane

CRANE — The American party was organized in Crane County recently in the home of Ed Gallion. According to Gallion, county chairman, the main objective of the American party of Texas at this time is to obtain ballot position for the November general election.

Procedures and guidelines to be followed toward this objective were explained at the meeting.

To achieve ballot position this year, 36,000 valid registered voters, or 1 per cent of the total vote cast in the last gubernatorial election, must participate in American party precinct conventions. Precinct chairmen selected were Precinct 1, Jim Crain; Precinct 2, Joe Smithman; Precinct 3, Douglas Burrous; and Precinct 4, J. D. Richardson.
