South Ward Wolfcamp Oil Area Opened

W. E. Hendon Jr., Midland, has completed a Wolfcamp oil discovery in South Ward County, No. 1 Eiland, 11 miles south of Pyote.

It has a 24-hour flowing potential of 35 barrels of 47-gravity oil, with gas-oil ratio of 678-1. Production was through an 8-64-inch choke and perforations at 11,345-12,345 feet, which had been acidized with 4,000 gallons.

Originally drilled by Forest Oil Corp. as No. 1 Duggan, it was plugged and abandoned March 6, 1968 at 20,387 feet. The plugged-back depth is 14,750 feet, and a 7 1/2-inch liner is hung from 10,988-15,688 feet.

Location is 100 feet from southeast and 1,200 feet from northeast lines of section 11, block 33, H&TC survey, 3/4 mile east of the lone 12,300-foot Wolfcamp gas producer in the Lockridge field.

Deep Exploration Planned For Eddy

Five exploratory tests have been planned for Eddy County, N.M.

Amoco Production Co. accounted for the deepest, a 13,500-foot venture, three miles northeast of Loving, and 10 miles east of Morrow gas production in the Carlsbad, South field. It is No. 1 Teledyne Gas Communized.

Location is 1,650 feet from north and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 13-23-28e.

Morris R. Antwell, Fort Worth, scheduled No. 1 Western Reserves-Federal as an 11,000-foot explorer, one mile west of a recently completed Strawn gas strike and 1 1/2 mile west of a recent Morrow discovery.

Drill site is 2,929 feet from north and 1,960 feet from west lines of section 4-21s-26e, five miles northwest of Carlsbad.

Monsanto Co. staked No. 1 Pecos, a 10,700-foot venture, six miles northwest of Carlsbad.

Location is 3,300 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 5-21s-26e, 2 1/2 miles west of the above-mentioned Strawn and Morrow area.

Amoco also plans No. 1 Pavo Mesa as a 9,600-foot Morrow venture, 2 1/2 miles northwest of Devonian gas production in the Crow Flats field.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 16-16s-28e, 13 miles northwest of Loco Hills.

Amoco accounted for No. 1 West Hope Unit, a scheduled 6,600-foot probe, four miles southwest of Hope township and 13 miles northwest of the Antelope Sink, North (Morrow) gas field.

It spots 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 33-17s-21e.

Lea Morrow Test Flows 4.4 Million

El Paso Natural Gas Co. No. 1 Cooper-Federal, Lea County, N.M., Morrow prospect, eight miles northwest of Jal, flowed gas at the daily rate of 4.4 million cubic feet for an unreported time.

John Connally Involved In Bribery? Columnist Jack Anderson Says Texan Investigated By FBI

WASHINGTON (AP) — Columnist Jack Anderson said today that former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally is under investigation by Watergate prosecutors for alleged bribery.

Connally, who in recent months has addressed Republican groups and met with party leaders in more than 30 states in what may be an effort to line up support for a 1976 GOP presidential bid, denied the allegation.

In his column, Anderson said FBI investigators assigned to the special prosecutor's office have evidence that Connally pocketed $10,000 from Associated Milk Producers Inc., the nation's largest dairy cooperative.

Anderson indicated the money changed hands in 1972, while Connally was still Treasury secretary, but did not cite a specific date for the alleged transaction.

Anderson quoted FBI sources as saying the $10,000 was passed by a milk producer official to lobbyist Jake Jacobsen, who delivered it to Connally.

Jacobsen is under indictment for perjury after testifying that he stashed the $10,000 in a safe deposit box and never removed it until the FBI opened the box last November.

The indictment by a Watergate grand jury said Jacobsen claimed the money "was to be paid to a public official for his assistance" in getting President Nixon to raise federal milk price supports in March, 1971. The official was left unnamed in the indictment.

Anderson said the FBI sources told him that Connally returned the $10,000 when he learned the milk co-op was being investigated in connection with contributions to Nixon's re-election campaign.

According to Anderson, a Connally associate has said that Jacobsen offered the $10,000 as a campaign contribution for distribution to GOP candidates but that Connally turned down the offer.

Following a meeting involving Connally, Nixon, Hardin and dairy industry representatives, price supports were raised on March 25, 1971, to $4.93 per hundredweight.

Subpoena Action Mentioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of the House Judiciary Committee met in a mood of anger and resentment today to consider a White House proposal to wait two more weeks before replying to the committee's request for tapes of presidential conversations.

At separate party caucuses, both Republicans and Democrats called the White House letter postponing any response until April 22 unsatisfactory.

Individual members talked of issuing a subpoena for the material.

Chairman Peter Rodino, D-N.J., scheduled a full committee meeting Thursday for whatever action the committee wants to take.

One Killed, Eight Missing In Oil Tanker Explosion

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Missing were five crewmen, plus a mother and her two children who were visitors on the ship, the Coast Guard said.

Chunks of steel were hurled into the air and burning oil spread on the surface of the river. The Coast Guard said the explosion occurred at the ship's middle tanks.

Crews began surveying for pollution from the spilled oil early today. It was not known how much oil escaped as a result of the explosion.

Flames roared through the 650-foot vessel for more than two hours at the Atlantic Richfield Co. pier near a sprawling complex of oil refineries in South Philadelphia before firemen brought the blaze under control.

"I couldn't see anything but flames," said Frank Kelly, a dock guard who witnessed the blast.

and they were unsure of the total complement of crew.

At least 10 of the 26 injured were listed in serious condition at three area hospitals.

One of the injured was William Gary, a janitor who was in a nearby building when the blast occurred.

All of the other injured were on board, including Merope Baltas, 23, the wife of one of the Elias' crewmen.

The explosion was heard from 25 miles away. One man called a local news bureau asking if there had been an earthquake.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — The defense in the murder trial of former United Mine Workers President W. A. "Tony" Boyle rested its case today after calling four witnesses to support Boyle's claim that he had nothing to do with the assassination of union rival, Joseph "Jock" Yablonski.

WASHINGTON (AP) — California Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke today pleaded "absolutely not guilty" and said he wanted to be tried in California on charges he lied to the Senate Judiciary Committee about the IIT affair.

Briscoe Says There May Be Some Need For Regulation Of Phone Rates, Service

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe, speaking cautiously and through an aide, said today there might be a need for state regulation of intrastate long distance telephone rates and of some local telephone service.

Charles Purnell, his executive assistant, read Briscoe's statement to the Senate Subcommittee on Consumer Affairs, headed by Sen. Ron Clower, D-Garland.

"I must admit that I have been surprised at some of the proposed rate changes that have come to my attention," the governor said, citing rural rate increases of 200 to 300 percent in some places.

"I do not favor regulation merely for the sake of regulation because this costs the taxpayers money, but from the information I have been furnished it would appear that there may be a need for regulation of intrastate long distance calls, and regulation in cities and rural areas where no regulation exists. I strongly urge this committee to look closely at such areas," Briscoe's statement said.

Bills to regulate telephone rates have been introduced in most legislative sessions for the past 10 years but have always died without a final vote. Most observers attribute this to the power of the telephone lobby.

Good Friday, Easter Services Scheduled

BY NIXON— Congress Blamed For High Living Cost, Unemployment

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — President Nixon today charged that Congress is providing the "bottleneck" that has led to the higher living costs and unemployment, especially in Michigan's auto plants.

Nixon, arriving in Saginaw to campaign on behalf of Republican congressional candidate James Sparling, said men like Sparling are needed to push his programs through Congress.

Nixon spoke to an estimated 5,000 persons at the airport before taking a helicopter to rural northeastern Michigan parts of the 8th District to speak on behalf of Sparling.

Joining the Rev. J. L. Considine Jr., rector of the Holy Nicholas', in conducting the United States is at peace with all the nations of the world, adding that the problems the nation does have "are the problems of peace."

Nixon was greeted by Michigan's Republican leadership on his arrival at Tri-City Airport. He walked with Sparling to shake hands with many persons on the fringe of the crowd.

The crowd carried many Nixon placards and American flags, but there were also signs urging that the President be impeached.

The district has been held by the GOP for 40 years.

Democrat J. Robert Traxler, the early favorite in the race now believed to be quite close, has made Nixon and his administration the major issue. He feels the President's visit will illustrate his contention that Sparling is "Nixon's stand-in."

Nixon himself may have the biggest stake.

He hopes to give Sparling a boost toward a victory that could ease impeachment pressure among House Republicans, who are shaken by three Democratic victories this year in special elections for House seats previously held by Republicans.

Nixon's five-hour visit marks his first participation in an election campaign since his own re-election effort in 1972.

30-40 M.P.H. Winds Due City

Continued high winds this after-noon and tonight, according to the National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal.

Winds will be southwestwesterly to 40 m.p.h. this afternoon, becoming westerly to northwestwesterly 20 to 30 m.p.h. tonight. Skies will be clear to partly cloudy, with warmer temperatures expected today and cooler tomorrow, according to thermometer readings forecast for Thursday.

High today will be in the middle 80s and low during the night is expected to be in the low 50s.

High Thursday will reach about 80.

High Tuesday was 80 and low was 53.

Meanwhile, winds from the Gulf of Mexico brought moisture to Texas today with light showers occurring from the Laredo area northeast to Abilene. The showers moved northeast during the early morning hours (See WEATHER Page 10A)

Golda Meir Will Resign

JERUSALEM (AP) — Premier Golda Meir announced her resignation Wednesday and said it was "irrevocable."

The 75-year-old premier told her Labor party she would formally tender her resignation at a cabinet meeting Thursday.

Her dramatic move meant the certain collapse of her frail coalition government and general elections in a few months.

Those 'around him suffered fraud and conspiracy charges in connection with collateral for large bank loans.

Over the past three years, the storms of litigation have raged. During that period an incumbent governor was soundly whipped in his bid for re-election, a House speaker and a state representative were convicted of fraud and conspiracy.

Sharp lost heavily: An insurance company, a bank and several other institutions collapsed. Osorio has been convicted once and another case is still pending. Fortunes have been blown away. The government went after Carr and Osorio with smoking gun barrels.

Osorio was found guilty in January 1973 of misusing the NBL pension fund.

He was assessed a $6,000 fine and three years in prison, a sentence now on appeal.

Earlier, he and Carr were found innocent of mail and wire fraud charges stemming from the Sharpstown affair.

On Monday, the pair was found innocent again of similar charges at Dallas.

Osorio still faces perjury charges at Houston. No trial date has been set.

Throughout the exhaustive, expensive trials, Carr has claimed the whole attack was a Republican plot to ruin Texas Democrats.

During final arguments in his last trial, Osorio's lawyer said, "There is a sickness in this land and it stems from Wash- ington."

Carr said, "The Justice De- partment is something less than the fountain of justice these days."

Carr, just before he stepped onto Commerce Street Monday, again laid the blame for the lengthy Sharpstown case at the feet of former U.S. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell and his "political machine."

Mitchell is himself now fac- ing charges in connection with the Watergate scandals.

Osorio, putting on a brave front despite personal financial ruin, one conviction and the possibility of another, smiled Monday and said: "It's become something of a lifestyle for me."

With that, he, Colvin and their group of friends headed for the bar.

Pakistani POWs To Be Freed

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India, Pakistan and Bangladesh came closer to full reconciliation as Bangladesh agreed to drop atrocity charges against the last 195 Pakistani POWs from the 1971 war and permit their return home.

Foreign ministers of the sub- continent's three countries ended five days of intensive bar- gaining Tuesday night with the announcement that one of the toughest disputes left over from the Bangladesh war of inde- pendence had been cleared up.

A joint statement was ex- pected today.

Bangladesh sources reported that in return for settlement of the POW issue, Pakistan agreed to review the applica- tions of Bihari Moslems in Bangladesh who previously were refused admission to Pak- istan. The Bangladesh govern- ment says some 400,000 of the non-Bengali Moslems in for- mer East Pakistan want to move to Pakistan now that there is no chance of it regain- ing control of its former prov- ince.

Another accord last summer cleared the way for the repa- triation of some 300,000 pris- oners of war and civilians dis- placed by the war. But Prime Minister Mujibur Rahman of Bangladesh maintained that 195 of the prisoners India was hold- ing must be tried for war crimes. Bhutto refused to re- cognize Bangladesh until the POWs were released.

The stalemate was broken last Feb. 22 when Bhutto bowed to pressure from Moslem lead- ers gathered for a summit in Lahore and extended recogni- tion to Bangladesh, setting off a flurry of similar moves by other capitals.

The trials, tribulations and conflicts of our subcontinent will become a thing of the past — something of a bad dream that is best forgotten," said Singh during the brief signing ceremony Tuesday.

HMO Conference Set In Austin

AUSTIN (AP) — Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby said Tuesday a state- wide conference on health maintenance organizations will be held May 10 in Austin.

The State Board of Insurance and Arthur Young and Co., a national accounting and con- sulting firm, will help conduct the conference.

"The health maintenance or- ganization concept has, within the past year, become a viable health care delivery alternative for Texas," Hobby said in a statement. "The recently enacted federal legislation and the promulgation of regulations by the State Board of Insurance have overhauled the legal status in Texas. Accordingly, I feel such a conference is vitally necessary to disseminate, ex- plain, and evaluate both the federal legislation and the state regulations."

AUSTIN (AP)—Leaders of different factions of the Texas Democratic party shook hands Tuesday in a united effort to get more than ever before participation in precinct conventions this year.

"We want all Democrats to have a voice in their party," said State Democratic chairman Calvin Guest. "And this year—the year when we will formally adopt a permanent charter for our national party at the Kansas City meeting—is the year in which participation in our party's activities can result in the most significant impact."

The May 4 precinct conventions are the first step in Texas Democrats selecting 76 delegates and 18 alternates for the National Conference on Democratic Party Organization and Policy in Kansas City Dec. 6-8.

John White, head of the Texas Affirmative Action Committee, appointed by the State Democratic Executive Committee, said his group would hold workshops and seminars in 16 Texas cities "to train party leaders down to and inside the precincts."

Bernard Rapoport, Waco, chairman of a finance committee for the Affirmative Action Committee, said "we'll do our end in raising the money and we know you will do your part in spending and administering it."

Tax Court Commissioner Says IRS Many Times Misinforms When Giving Advice

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service often fails to advise taxpayers of their rights at the beginning of a tax dispute, and many times misinforms when it does, a tax court commissioner says.

The IRS realizes this first contact is the most important, yet the agency often leaves a citizen puzzled, said U.S. Tax Court Commissioner Joseph N. Ingolia. He testified at a hearing on taxes held by a Senate Appropriations subcommittee.

Ingolia said that when the IRS audits a return and an aspect is questioned, the taxpayer is sent a form letter or is called by an agent.

"He is not advised of his rights to go to the courts at this time but instead is invited to discuss or settle his problem usually by bringing in additional information."

"It seems clear that when the first contact is made with the taxpayer, there is no desire to inform him that he may go to court rather than discuss settlement. This is so because the IRS believes settlement is the correct answer, but is this fair to the taxpayer? I think not," der a quota system for closing cases.

He said that when the IRS does advise the taxpayer of the tax court option, it often tells them such a course would be time consuming and expensive. But, he said, for a small case, the court usually takes an hour for a $10 fee.

He also said IRS does not clear up the misconception of many taxpayers that the tax court is an arm of the IRS.

Also appearing before the subcommittee was a former revenue agent now head of the tax agency employee's union who said IRS agents work under a quota system for closing cases.

Vincent L. Connelly, president of the National Treasury Employee's Union, said that the collection division of IRS is more concerned with the number of cases closed "with little or no regard to the effects of the orders on the individual taxpayer."

"Revenue officers are often times rewarded for seizing a taxpayer's assets and severely disciplined if they permit him to remain in business and re-pay his debt to the federal government: part payment plans tax agency employee's union do not close cases," Connelly said.

Boyle Denies Involvement In Murder

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — W. A. "Tony" Boyle, former president of the United Mine Workers, has denied he had anything to do with the 1969 assassination of his union rival Joseph "Jock" Yablonski.

Boyle took the stand in his own defense Tuesday. He is charged with murder in the slaying of Yablonski, his wife and daughter on Dec. 31, 1969.

Defense lawyer Charles F. Moses asked Boyle whether he had helped arrange the murders. Boyle stared hard at the jury of nine men and three women and said in a loud and clear voice: "Absolutely not."

Under cross-examination by Special Prosecutor Richard A. Sprague, Boyle insisted he told the truth.

"I have told the truth under oath all my life," Boyle said. "I have never lied under oath."

Boyle was the fourth defense witness. Three others may testify today.

The case might go to the jury by Friday.

The Yablonski killings occurred three weeks after Yablonski lost a bitter battle to unseat Boyle for the presidency of the 200,000-member union.

In his testimony Tuesday, the ailing Boyle said he was positive he had never suggested to anyone at any time that Yablonski must be killed.

"I certainly did not," Boyle said, countering the testimony of prosecution witness William J. Turnblazer, who said Monday that the "kill Yablonski" order originated with Boyle on June 23, 1969.

Turnblazer is the former president of UMW District 19, which embraces Kentucky and Tennessee.

Snowstorms, Strong Winds Plaguing Parts Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One April snowstorm swirled through the Rockies today, while another in New England began to subside after dumping up to 18 inches of snow on higher elevations.

Parts of the Salt Lake Valley were hit by 4 to 6 inches of snow during the early night hours. Scattered rain and snow spread through the northern and central Rockies into the intermountain areas and Pacific Northwest.

Advisories for heavy snows and cold, wet weather were issued for portions of Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Arizona and North Dakota.

Although heavy snow warnings were canceled for most of the Northeast, the snowfall was expected to continue today in the hardest-hit areas of New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.

The Lakes region of central New Hampshire was buried by 13 inches of snow Tuesday. The Stratton Mountain ski area of southern Vermont received 18 inches less than 24 hours after the board of directors voted to install snowmaking machines.

Snow also continued during the night in northeastern Pennsylvania, and freezing temperatures crept into the southern Appalachians.

Elsewhere, winds gusting up to 60 m.p.h. mostly in desert areas of Arizona, Utah and California cut visibility with blowing sand and dust and created hazardous driving conditions.

Winds and high clouds also increased over the Plains and Texas.

Showers sprinkled the Ohio Valley during the night.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 19 at Limestone, Maine to 70 at El Paso, Tex., and Key West, Fla.

Some other reports: Anchorage 33 snow, Atlanta 42 partly cloudy, Boston 29 snow, Buffalo 26 cloudy, Chicago 37 clear, Cincinnati 36 partly cloudy, Cleveland 29 clear, Dallas 67 clear, Denver 50 clear, Detroit 29 clear, Honolulu 77 partly cloudy, Indianapolis 37 clear, Kansas City 53 partly cloudy, Los Angeles 54 clear, Louisville 39 clear, Miami 59 clear, Minneapolis-St. Paul 38 clear, Nashville 36 clear, New York 32 snow, Philadelphia 33 snow.

Phoenix 64 clear, Pittsburgh 23 clear, St. Louis 49 clear, Seattle 47 cloudy, Washington 37 partly cloudy.

Double Ring Home Ceremony Unites Couple

Mr. and Mrs. David Ray Teter are residing in Canyon, following their Saturday double ring ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Driver, 1407 W. Michigan St.

The bride is the former Deborah Dare Driver. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Teter of San Antonio.

William F. Walker, minister of the North A. and Tennessee Streets Church of Christ officiated.

The bride wore a long sleeved formal gown of silk organza over satin peau de soie enhanced by Alencon lace trim. She carried a bouquet of pink Midland Sweetheart roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Earl C. Masdon III of Lubbock was her sister's matron of honor. Stan Leeper was the best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home. The bride is a nursing student at West Texas State University.

She attended Lubbock Christian College. The bridegroom is a senior accounting student at WTSU and is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity.

He previously attended San Antonio Junior College.

Picture Puzzle Makes Wall Art

By POLLY CRAMER
(Newspaper Enterprise Association)

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY—I have heard that there is a way to mount picture puzzles after they have been put together to make pictures to hang on the wall. Could someone please tell me how this is done? — PHYLLIS.

DEAR POLLY—My Pet Peeve concerns the plastic containers many poisonous items or those to be used with caution are put in. Often a specified amount is to be used and there is no way to see how much you are using without measuring it into another container. It seems they could be put in marked, clear bottles. — MELBA

DEAR POLLY—I am answering Mrs. R. K. who hates to throw away orlon socks with good tops but worn feet. I used mine to make a beautiful rug. Such a rug can be either crocheted or braided. Start cutting the sock top in one long strip about an inch wide, just as you would peel an apple. Sew the strips together, roll into a ball and then start your rug. MRS. E.H.D.

DEAR POLLY and Mrs. R. G.—I add the tops from worn socks to pajama legs and arms to make them longer and they fit snugly at the ankles and wrists. Stretch them out and sew on with either a zigzag or straight stitch. I also use the knit cuff part on children's shirt and blouse sleeves. — MRS. L. M.

DEAR POLLY—Tell Mrs. R. G. that I use men's wornout orlon socks for dust cloths. Fold the top down over the foot, slip your hand in and dust away. They pick up dust and lint like a magnet. — HAZEL.

DEAR POLLY—In our mission work we use the tops of men's orlon socks with worn feet to make infant's slip over vests that are given mothers in poverty-stricken areas for their new babies to wear home from the hospital with a diaper. They are most grateful. Often they have nothing to put on their new babies. — MRS. G. R. B.

DEAR POLLY—Those of us who often use our outdoor picnic tables find that napkins blow away if a wind comes up. To prevent this attach (screw) a paper towel holder to the underside of the table. Each time you eat outdoors take along a paper towel and just tear off a "napkin" as needed. The roll of towels can be returned to the kitchen holder when the meal is over. — MRS. M. G.

Midland DAR Members Visit Historical Jefferson

The Col. Theunis Dey Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, conducted its April meeting aboard a chartered bus en route from Jefferson to Midland.

The group spent one day in Jefferson, location of the official home of the Texas Society, DAR, named Freeman Plantation. The trip was planned to combine the purposes of the society: Historical knowledge, current affairs education and patriotic aims.

Members and guests learned that until the 1880s, Jefferson was a city of 30,000 and was known as "Queen City of the Cypress," because of its river port where tons of freight were brought via Shreveport, La., and Caddo Lake. Prosperous merchants, shippers and planters built homes and imported furnishings from New Orleans, La. Many of these homes have been restored, as well as the famous Excelsior House, where the Midlanders stayed. In the hotel lobby is a display of the signature of Jay Gould, railroad magnate, with the "Curse of Jay Gould" written below it. The private car of the magnate is maintained as an historical attraction open to the public by the Marion County Historical Survey Committee and Jessie Allen Wise Garden Club.

The "raised cottage" type Freeman Plantation was built in 1850 and has been restored and renovated. It was acquired by the society in 1971 and is open almost daily for tours. During the meeting on the bus, Mrs. Frank Essex, national defense chairman, reported on the ramifications that would most probably develop as a result of the current energy crisis. She said pressures produced by the crisis could tempt the U.S. to agree to terms which would prove damaging to its future national security.

Arrangements for the trip were made by Mrs. S. P. Crain, Mrs. F. Hastings Pannill, Texas State regent, was a member of the group. Members of the chapter attending were Mrs. George Van Husen, regent, and Mrs. B. F. Black, Mrs. Crain, Mrs. John P. Butler, Mrs. Essex, Mrs. Watter C. Hubbard, Mrs. J. C. Snyder, and Mrs. Charles R. Welch.

Members of the Lt. William Brewer Chapter joining the tour were Mrs. Pannill, Mrs. John Cross, regent, and Mrs. Laura Self and Mrs. John R. Parker. Other guests were Mrs. G. R. Carter, Mrs. W. C. Howard, Mrs. Holt Jewell, Mrs. C. K. Kerth, Mrs. Russell Neal, Mrs. James Chapple, Mrs. Francis Melear and Mrs. L. L. Baker of Midland and two guests from Dallas.

Hats Are Back On Fashion Scene

NEW YORK (NEA) — The League of Instant Drama (L.I.D.) is a new feminist organization which states that the return of the hat is no longer a prediction but a fact.

Everywhere in the American and European collections hats were shown with costumes ranging from the most casual sports clothes, including pants, to elegant evening wear.

More hats are being seen in the pages of fashion magazines, newspapers and on television. They are creating new fashion excitement and the great revival of femininity that women have been waiting for.

Hats have gone to the heads of the young in a big way. They wear them with pantsuits with flared skirts. They wear them to rock festivals, to the flicks, on bikes on hikes.

"Mame," the hottest movie of the year will be released at Easter time by Warner Brothers, starring Lucille Ball, Robert Preston and Beatrice Arthur. Spanning a 20-year period from 1928 to 1948 the fabulous hats from the movie have already inspired a fashion trend by leading designers for Spring 1974.

Series Of Attacks Launched Along Strategic Laos Highway

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
About 150 North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao troops have launched a series of attacks along a strategic highway in southern Laos, sources in the capital said today.

It was the first reported cease-fire violation since the Pathet Lao joined a coalition government with the conservative-neutralist regime in Vientiane last Friday.

The sources said the Communist forces made their first attack Sunday along a stretch of Highway 13 about 250 miles southeast of Vientiane and several miles inland from the Mekong River border with Thailand.

Defense Minister Sisouk Na Champassak of the Vientiane faction protested the attack to a Pathet Lao minister today at the first meeting of the new coalition cabinet, the sources reported.

Meanwhile, in Cambodia, government troops battled through insurgent forces along Kampot's shipping channel and cleared one bank of the besieged town's main supply route after four days of heavy fighting, military sources reported today. The sources said about 500 men were landed on the east bank of the four-mile channel from the Gulf of Thailand and fought their way into the town. Navy gunboats had blasted Khmer Rouge positions along the 300-yard-wide channel earlier.

Kampot, 85 miles southwest of Phnom Penh, has been under Khmer Rouge pressure for more than a month. But one Western military observer said the insurgents appeared to be pulling back a bit, "possibly for a rest."

In Saigon, South Vietnam's delegation to the Joint Military

Commission said it proposed a cease-fire at the besieged government bases of Duc Hue, near the Cambodian border 35 miles northwest of Saigon, and Tong Le Chan, 50 miles north of the capital. The delegation said it proposed the truce to allow the evacuation of wounded and burial of the dead.

The Viet Cong rejected the request, calling it a trick by the Saigon administration to gain public support while pursuing "land-grabbing operations."

A spokesman for the Saigon command said the Communists were attacking Duc Hue and other positions in the area in an attempt to reopen supply routes from Cambodia.

Dear Abby

Take A Second Look At That 'Loving Friend'

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: As my husband and I were preparing to make a trip to Europe by air, one of my so-called dearest friends came to me and asked me if I would please get a $50,000 airplane insurance policy naming her as the beneficiary. She said she would gladly pay for the insurance!

I was shocked to say the least. What do you think of such a suggestion from a supposedly loving friend? I'd really like your opinion.

PEACHES

DEAR PEACHES: Let me put it this way: If this "loving friend" invited me to her home for dinner, I'd wonder who she was loving, and I'd also take a food-taster along.

DEAR ABBY: It's a cinch you've never been to Alaska, otherwise you never would have told that 45-year-old woman who was husband hunting to go there.

There are no extra marriageable men here, plus jobs are scarce and prices are double. You should have told her not to go to Alaska unless she had a round trip ticket and plenty of money. She's too old to be a go-go dancer.

ERMA IN ANCHORAGE

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago I was hospitalized for a heart condition, and upon release, my doctor told me I had to take it easy.

My son, his wife and their three very active young children are neighbors to us, and the children are here more than they are at home. They wear me out, but I can't bring myself to send them home.

My husband hired a housekeeper to help me the last few weeks, but my daughter-in-law has begun to "borrow" her, so once again I am alone with those undisciplined children.

My daughter-in-law is a good girl, and I'm sure she doesn't realize the toll the children take on me. She's also very sensitive. My son tried talking to her about letting the children spend so much time at my house, but she ended up, and the next day they were back.

How can I handle this without hurting anyone? I love them all very much.

NAMELESS, OF COURSE

DEAR NAMELESS: First, tell your housekeeper that she is not to be "borrowed" by your daughter-in-law. Then tell slips.

your daughter-in-law to please quit commandeering your help—that you love her and the kids, but you aren't up to having them over unless she is there to discipline them. Don't worry about her ending up in tears. Better that than you ending up in a box — before your time.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WORRIED AND WAITING IN N.M.:

The answer is YES! See a physician at once. And if you can't get an appointment immediately or can't afford one, contact your public health department and tell them what you have told me. And do not wait another day!

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope please.

SEC Files Suit Against President Of Defunct Firm

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has filed a federal civil suit against the president of a Dallas securities firm which collapsed with a $290,000 loss to investors.

The SEC Tuesday asked U.S. District Court Judge Sarah T. Hughes to enjoin Frank L. Plemons from dealing in unregistered securities and that a receiver be named for his company, Main Street Securities.

According to the SEC suit, Plemons sold what he pur ported to be options on commodity futures contracts in an arrangement with King Commodity Co. King and several other Dallas options firms collapsed last fall after they apparently ran out of money.

The SEC complaint says Plemons misled his investors by assuring them they would make a profit and by representing he had expertise in the sale of commodity options.

Plemons testified in a court of inquiry Nov. 10, 1973, that the collapse of his firm "destroyed me financially and certainly created a lot of doubt in my mind about my intellectual capabilities."

He told Dallas attorney Whit ley R. Sessions that he later realized the options his firm was selling were "pieces of paper tell your housekeeper that she is not to be 'borrowed' by your daughter-in-law. Then tell slips."

Mississippi Teachers Planning Strike

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — said Robert Donald, a George County teacher. "They are presenting only the views of the administrators and not the teachers."

Donald said school officials in his county plan to send buses to pick up children and send them home if no teachers show up at the school.

The leader in the planned strike is Betty Nelson, a first grade teacher in Pascagoula. She said she and others plan to picket the state capitol Thursday.

Teachers in George, Greene and Stone counties voted Tuesday to join the strike. Greene County School Supt. Hoyt Waller said he has no choice but to close his district's schools.

"We can't handle the children without the teachers," he said. "Greene County has about 2,000 pupils and about 100 teachers at four schools. Organized labor is not involved in the strike and leaders of the Mississippi Education Association, two professional groups, have denounced the protest."

"The teachers I have contacted are pretty well fed up with the MEA's opposition,"

NASA's Regulation Denying Hearing For Fired Employees Voided

HOUSTON (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that a National Aeronautics and Space Administration regulation denying dismissed employees a pre-termination hearing is unconstitutional.

U.S. District Court Judge Allen B. Hannay held that the dismissal of Delta Jo Morgan, a secretary-stenographer, by NASA officials at Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center earlier this year deprived her of due process of law and was a violation of the Fifth Amendment.

It was the first federal court decision involving the civil service since the Supreme Court ruled last Feb. 19 that, except in special circumstances, civil servants must exhaust all administrative processes of appeal before turning to the federal courts.

The ruling sets out that in a situation where a dismissed employee is likely to suffer serious financial losses through a long appeals process, the case may be taken directly to federal court.

The NASA regulation, which was thrown out by the court, prohibited a supervisory official, with authority to dismiss employees, from granting an employee a full evidentiary hearing before termination. The NASA regulation provided for such a hearing only after dismissal.

Hannay's decision, handed down late Monday, termed Mrs. Morgan's dismissal "constitutionally void and of no effect" and enjoined space center officials from terminating her employment until after a fair hearing of her case.

Venezuela Preparing To Nationalize Oil Industry In Next Decade

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Venezuela is preparing to nationalize its oil industry, one of the chief foreign suppliers of the United States, in the next decade.

Most foreign oil concessions expire in 1983, and already two bills calling for immediate nationalization of the 3.3-million-barrel-a-day industry are before a congressional committee.

The bills were introduced by the Social Christian party, the leading opposition faction, and the small, left-wing People's Electoral Movement. President Carlos Andres Perez's new Democratic Action government has set up a special committee to study eventual nationalization and report in 60 days.

The foreign oil companies — most of them American — have not objected to nationalization and say they are willing to discuss new arrangements with the Venezuelan government.

The government last week ordered a 5 per cent cutback in oil production effective April 15. Valentin Hernandez, the minister of mines and hydrocarbons, said the purpose was to conserve natural gas lost in pumping crude oil.

Several Venezuelan experts favor as much as a 50 per cent production cut to save oil for future sale at better prices. But President Perez has said this would not be advisable on moral and political grounds.

A score of foreign oil companies, which also include Shell, Mobil, Sun, Gulf and Texaco, produce about 95 per cent of Venezuela's oil output. The orderly state takeover without compensation when the concessions run out. But all political parties agree the government does not have to wait until 1983 to take over the industry.

Venezuela supplies the United States with about 1.7 million barrels of oil a day and ships another 450,000 barrels a day to Canada.

UNLESS STEPS TAKEN—

Starvation Seen For Asia, Africa Within 10 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — Widespread, persistent starvation may hit South Asia and Africa within 10 years unless those areas cut their population growth and get massive aid, say the authors of a new computer study.

The grim warning came from Mihail Mesarovic, director of the Systems Research Center of Case Western Reserve University, and Eduard Pestel, professor of engineering at the Technical University of Hannover, Germany.

Their findings parallel a report by the Overseas Development Council, which warned that Asia could face famine effects of various economic and next year. But the new report goes far beyond the council study, which recommended for-

Some of Mesarovic and Pestel's preliminary findings:

—In South Asia even moderately successful population control would not keep population from outracing food supply. Without help, starvation levels would be reached by around 1985 with no end in sight.

—Africa would face a similar fate, but South America could, "if it acts wisely," meet its own food needs.

—To prevent widespread starvation, developed nations must give financial aid to both agriculture and industrialization in the underdeveloped countries and accept their industrial entry into world markets. The underdeveloped nations themselves must apply effective controls on population growth.

Arson Suspected In Colorado Fire

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Arson is suspected in a fire that engulfed an entire city block and parts of two others near the downtown district in this western Colorado city Tuesday night, Fire Chief R. T. Mantlo said.

He estimated damage at $5 million to $6 million. "We had two separate fire bombings while the fire was going on," Mantlo said. "Arson is definitely suspected."

Fire officials said they had "fairly well contained" the blaze late Tuesday night in spite of high winds that fanned the flames toward the downtown section of the city of 20,000.

They said about $2 million of the damage occurred at the plant of the Grand Junction Daily Sentinel, which is adjacent to the block where the fire began.

Officials reported only one injury in the mammoth blaze, which apparently began around 8 p.m. in a grain elevator.

Mantlo said the separate fire bombings occurred after the large blaze broke out—at a bar and at the St. Regis Hotel, both about 10 blocks from the main fire.

The smaller ones were quickly brought under control by units from the fire department at Palisade, a small community about 20 miles away.

Mantlo said all available Grand Junction firemen and equipment were called to the main blaze.

In addition to the winds, occasionally gusting to 50 m.p.h., officials said firefighters also were hindered by a large crowd.

Fireman Glenn C. Dickerson suffered severe cuts on one arm when a piece of debris fell from the grain elevator.

Ken Johnson, owner of the Daily Sentinel, said damage to the newspaper's plant was between $2 million and $3 million.

He said the damaged equipment included a new $1 million press "which is now a molten mass of junk."

Johnson said he had been told that the plant was "100 per cent insured—we were one of the first papers in the country to be covered for replacement value."

Final Days Of Lent Busy In Tall City

highlighted by the traditional "Easter Even" service beginning at 7:30 p.m., which will include lighting of the New Fire and communion.

On Easter Day, the St. Nicholas' parish schedule calls for choral Eucharist services beginning at 8 and 10:15 a.m., and Holy Eucharist at 6:30 p.m.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, Garden Lane and Tyler St., has scheduled confessions for 6 to 7 p.m. today, Thursday and Friday. Masses also are scheduled for 7 p.m. each of these days.

On Good Friday, the Stations of the Cross will be observed at 3 p.m.

Holy Saturday Services — On Holy Saturday, there will be confessions from 4 to 5:30 p.m., followed by the traditional Easter Vigil service beginning at 7 p.m.

Masses on Easter Day are announced for 7, 9:30 and 11 a.m. at the church, and 8:30 a.m. at Our Lady of San Juan Chapel on Midland's South Side.

St. Ann's Catholic Church, N. M and W. Illinois Sts., will have Maundy Thursday masses at 6:45 and 8 a.m., and 7:30 p.m. The latter service will be the main liturgical service of the day.

On Good Friday, the schedule is as follows: Stations of the Cross at 3 p.m., and a solemn service of the Passion and Death, beginning at 7:30.

On Saturday, an Easter Vigil service will begin at 7:30 p.m., with no midnight service scheduled.

Easter Day masses are announced for 7:15, 9:30 and 11 a.m., and 12:15 p.m. There will be no 6 p.m. mass that day.

The schedule of confessions during the remainder of Holy Week is as follows: Thursday, 7:30 to 8 a.m., and 6 to 7:30 p.m.; Friday, 2 to 3 and 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.; Saturday, 11 a.m. to 12 noon, and 4 to 7 p.m.

Foursquare Gospel Church — The Midland Church of the Foursquare Gospel, 415 Alta Ave., will be host to members of Foursquare churches throughout West Texas, New Mexico and northwestern Oklahoma at special Good Friday services.

The first service is scheduled for 2 p.m., with a second announced for 7 p.m. The Rev. Dennis Campbell, formerly a special representative of LIFE Bible College at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, will be the speaker for the evening service, said the Rev. Pete Adecock, host pastor.

Special music will be presented by choir groups from the various participating churches. Both services will be open to the public.

Grace Lutheran Church, 3000 W. Golf Course Road, will have a Maundy Thursday communion service beginning at 5:30.

On Friday, a special Tenebrae service, or "Service of Light," will be presented by the Adult, Children's and Cherub choirs of the church. The service is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., and the public is invited to attend.

Mrs. W. B. Johnston will be the organist at the service. The various choirs are under direction of Mrs. Rod Maxson, Mrs. Bruce Barthel and Mrs. Don Sparks. Narrators for the service, symbolizing the Rev. which returned to the world with Christ's resurrection, will be Vic Hollrah and M. H. Raven.

Easter Day will begin with the traditional 7 a.m. sunrise service to be held on the south lawn of Grace Lutheran Church. A mini-breakfast will be served by youth of the congregation in the church fellowship hall immediately following.

A second Easter Day service is scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m. in the sanctuary. Both services will be open to the public.

Midland Lutheran Church, 2705 W. Michigan St., will have Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services, both beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Thursday service, which will include communion, will have a meditation by the Rev. David Herman, pastor, titled "All Sin Flows Into the Heart of God."

At the Good Friday service, Pastor Herman's topic will be "The Cross — the Sign of Finality."

Easter Day services at Midland Lutheran Church are scheduled for 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. The pastor's sermon topic for both services will be "What the Resurrection Has Wrought."

Hope Lutheran Church, 2003 N. A St., will have its traditional Maundy Thursday communion service beginning at 7:30 p.m. Officiating at the service will be the Rev. Sam Urate, associate pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Risen Lord at Odessa. The choir will sing, "A Prayer For Lent."

At the Easter morning service, two anthems, "Christ Is Risen, Alleluiah!" and "Christ Arose," will be offered by the choir. Mrs. E. F. Motter will be the organist. The Rev. J. Albert Steele will be the guest minister at the service.

Young people of the Hope Lutheran congregation will serve a breakfast at the church Sunday morning following the city-wide sunrise Easter service to be held at Resthaven Memorial Park.

Communion services are planned Thursday in numerous other churches in the city.

Asbury United Methodist Church, 106 W. Dakota St., will have a service at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. A meditation will be presented by the Rev. Cecil Tume, pastor.

First Christian Church, 1301 W. Louisiana St., will observe Maundy Thursday with a baptismal and communion service beginning at 7:30 p.m. The service will incorporate scripture, special music and meditations related to the two primary ordinances of Christianity: Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Memorial Christian Church, 1001 Andrews Highway, will have its Maundy Thursday communion service beginning at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary. Its Easter Day service will begin at 10:50 a.m. Sunday.

Members of Trinity Presbyterian and St. Luke's United Methodist churches will attend a joint Maundy Thursday communion service in the St. Luke's sanctuary, 3011 W. Kansas. The service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church, 800 W. Texas St., will hold a Maundy Thursday communion service beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the church fellowship hall.

On the Easter Day schedule for FPC is a service at 8:30 a.m. in the chapel, and another service beginning at 10:55 a.m. in the sanctuary.

First United Methodist Church, Main and Ohio Sts., will observe Maundy Thursday with a service of communion beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Easter morning services will be held beginning at 8:30 and 10:55 a.m. The Sunday evening vesper service will begin at 5:30.

St. Mark's United Methodist Church has scheduled a special evening for its church family on Maundy Thursday.

A fellowship dinner in the church fellowship hall will begin at 6:30 p.m. Following the meal, a special presentation on "The Trial of Christ" as seen by an attorney will be presented by Midland attorney Ted Kerr. This will be followed by around-the-table communion for St. Mark's members.

MALDF Suing Air Force Officials

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund lawyers have lodged a suit against two Air Force officials claiming racial discrimination at Kelly Air Force Base.

The suit, a class action filed on behalf of Thomas Alvarez, names Air Force Secretary John L. McLus and William A. Jack, commander of the Air Materiel Area headquarters here.

Plaintiff's lawyers contend Mexican Americans have been denied jobs for which they are qualified.

There was no rain anywhere in Texas Tuesday and visibility dropped sharply in areas from around Amarillo to Lubbock.

Prospects were seen for scattered showers or thunderstorms tonight and Thursday in North Central and Northeast Texas and possibly a few showers in parts of South Central Texas.

In neighboring New Mexico, travelers were warned that blowing dust would continue to make driving hazardous.

UPI Employees End 23-Day Walkout

NEW YORK (AP) — A 23-day strike by 700 newsman against United Press International has ended and employees began returning to work today.

Members of the Wire Service Guild, representing the striking employees, approved a new contract Tuesday. It raised a newsworker's top minimum wage from $300 to $335 a week over two years.

First Arab Oil Since Lifting Of Ban Due In U.S.

HOUSTON (AP)—Exxon Co. USA says its first shipment of oil since the lifting of the Arab embargo was scheduled to arrive today in New York Harbor.

The firm announced here Tuesday that the 50,000 barrels of crude will be aboard the Esso Barcelona.

Exxon did not say the shipment was the first Arab oil to be received in the United States since the March 18 lifting of the embargo but a spokesman said it was Exxon's first and that another shipment was scheduled April 17.

However, checks with other major companies failed to reveal any post-embargo oil scheduled to arrive prior to the Barcelona.

Despite the resumption of shipments, the Exxon spokesman emphasized that domestic consumers still should conserve all energy supplies.

Ector Officers Hunt Un-Trusty

ODESSA — Ector County officers today were searching for William Paul Sutton, a 29-year-old county jail trusty who walked away from deputies Saturday night when they took him to a grocery store to buy food.

Sheriff Elwood Hill called the escape "a blunder on the part of two young deputies."

Sutton was sentenced to 12 years in prison following a burglary conviction last May and was in county jail awaiting appeal outcome.

He had been a trusty for two months and, Saturday night, asked permission to go to a grocery store to buy food.

He and another trusty were taken to the store by two deputies and the inmates were given permission to walk back to the jail.

The other prisoner returned but Sutton did not.

Shipments Probed

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — The Royal Canadian Mounted Police are investigating a large shipment of arms and explosives seized aboard a ship in Britain.

British police said the shipment was believed to have been shipped from Canada to the guerrilla Irish Republican Army.

Commissioners Okay Furnishings Contract

Midland County commissioners late Tuesday approved a $90,898.95 contract for county courthouse furnishings and this morning talked with a landscape architect about the courthouse lawn.

Commissioners deleted some items which had been included in the furniture bid specifications and added many other items, causing the contract to be $29,972.55 more than the bid price accepted from The Paper Clip last month.

Part of the additional expense — about $12,000 — is for new legal-size filing cabinets and the remainder is for additional chairs, tables and benches.

The court expects to cut the furniture costs by about $20,000 by selling some of the old furniture.

Pope Curtailing Holy Week Activity

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, who is recovering from two bouts of flu within a month, will cut back on his Holy Week activities on his doctor's advice, the Vatican has announced.

A Friday afternoon Mass and an Easter vigil Saturday in St. Peter's Basilica have been cut from his schedule, a spokesman said Tuesday.

Fort Davis Range Fire Appears To Be Controlled

FORT DAVIS — A raging range fire which has ravaged more than 25 square miles of land near here since Saturday morning appeared to be under control this morning.

The fire was brought under control late Monday by firefighters from Fort Davis, Marfa and the McDonald Observatory, part of The University of Texas system.

The Observatory itself was in no danger from the fire because into State Highway 118 which attempts to contain the fire.

They used the money to buy stock in an insurance company controlled by Sharp. The stock was purchased for $13 a share in July 1969 and sold for $20 a share two months later, the day after the legislature passed two banking bills wanted by Sharp.

The defense says the bills would not have accomplished what the state says was Sharp's goal—to free himself from the scrutiny of federal bank examiners by setting up a state deposit insurance corporation.

The state insurance would be "in addition to" and not "in lieu of" federal insurance, the defense says, and Sharp would be faced with two sets of bank

Easter Egg Hunt Slated For Saturday

The annual Midland Jaycees Easter egg hunt will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday at Hogan Park.

Youngsters 3 to 7 years old will hunt in Cub Stadium and children 8 to 12 will gather at Hogan Park Driving Range.

Youngsters will hunt 15,000 eggs this year and special prizes will be given to finders of special eggs.

Park Center and Central YMCAs will furnish transportation to the park. Children should be at either location by 9:30 a.m.

Mutscher Lawyer: No Conspiracy Proved

AUSTIN (AP) — No conspiracy was proved in the convictions of former Speaker Gus Mutscher and two others because the state failed to ask its principal witness about the conspiracy, Mutscher's lawyer said today.

"In this case, the principal witness to the conspiracy was (Houston promoter) Frank Sharp, and when he was on the witness stand he was not asked if there was an understanding," Frank Maloney told the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

"We submit to your honors that Frank Sharp would have nothing to lose since he had been granted immunity."

The prosecution argues that even though the defendants agreed to take bribes from Sharp in return for pushing through his legislation the conspiracy was between the defendants and not with Sharp.

Therefore, it is irrelevant, the state says, whether the bills would do what Sharp thought they would do.

The transcript of the testimony and arguments in the case runs more than 5,000 pages. It took months to type. The defense was given six months to file its brief, and the state was given six months to file a reply brief.

Two More Arrested In Kidnaping

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI Director Clarence Kelley said today that two more men in connection with the kidnaping of 8-year-old John Calzadilla of Dix Hills, N.Y., was announced today by those in custody in the case. Kelley identified the latest arrested as Richard Louis Ventola, 26, of Weehawken, N.J., a railroad brakeman, and Cesar Ortega, 22, of Union City, N.J., a railroad conductor. They were charged with aiding and abetting a kidnaping and receiving money from a kidnaping. They face up to $10,000 fine and 10 years in prison if convicted on both charges. Their arraignment before a federal magistrate will be in Newark, N.J.

Iraq Says U.S., Iran Supply Arms To Rebels

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Iraq has accused the United States and Iran of supplying arms to the rebel Kurds. He also charged Iran with a troop buildup along Iraq's eastern border to "encourage Kurdish leaders in the mountains of the north are getting from the United States via Iran," Vice President Saddam Hussein told a news conference Tuesday. "This is not a surprise for us," Hussein declared. Soviet-backed Iraq and American-armed Iran have fought a series of border clashes in the past three months. Hussein, generally considered the strongman of Iraq's ruling Baath Socialist party, spoke to Lebanese reporters in Baghdad. He said the 95,000-man Iraqi army has refrained from moving against the estimated 20,000-man Pesh Merga, the army of the Kurdish leader, Mulla Mustafa Barzani. But reports in the Arab press say an armored division supported by commando units with helicopters have moved close to the Rawanduz region, where Barzani has set up headquarters. Barzani, the 70-year-old Kurdish leader, last month rejected a government plan to set up an autonomous region for the 2.3 million Kurds because the government refused to include the Kirkuk oil fields in it. A federal grand jury probing the case reportedly questioned a number of railroad employees, who allegedly were working in the vicinity when the ransom drop was made. The kidnap victim's father, Michael, told authorities he left the ransom money on a railroad trestle in accordance with the instructions of the kidnapers. Because the money had been unaccounted for, it was suggested that someone may have stumbled upon it and taken it. Young Calzadilla was kidnaped March 6 while walking home from school in Dix Hills, N.Y., with a friend. He was released two days later at a reststop on the New Jersey Turnpike. He walked into a restaurant and tried to call his parents.

Study Shows Americans Still Mobile

WASHINGTON (AP) — Areas, 4,680,000, than moved in the previous annual surveys, but Larry H. Long of the bureau's population division says there has been a slight decline in mobility in recent years. But he noted the volume of people who change homes every year still is much greater than in the past two decades, even though the percentage is lower. There were no separate surveys for 1972 and 1973. The latest three-year survey is not directly comparable to more Americans moved away from the nation's metropolitan areas, 4,680,000, than moved in the previous annual surveys, but Larry H. OPEN HOUSE SLATED — The new two-story, $278,000 wing of the city's Public Safety Building, 400 E. Texas St., has been completed and furniture now is being moved in. City officials said an open house is scheduled May 1. The new wing will house the traffic, detective, juvenile, training, crime prevention, narcotics and intelligence divisions. From left are Inspector Tommy White of the Midland Police Department and Bob King of the West Texas Office Supply.

Ector, Dawson Counties Record Traffic Deaths

Ector and Dawson counties each registered one traffic fatality outside city limits last month and Ector led the other nine counties in this area in rural traffic mishaps and injuries.

These are part of the March statistics the Texas Department of Public Safety has released concerning accidents investigated by highway patrolmen in areas outside city jurisdictions.

The 10 counties in this report are Andrews, Crane, Dawson, Ector, Glasscock, Howard, Martin, Midland, Reagan and Upton. Midland County showed the second most accidents and injuries.

Ector's one traffic death during March brought its total for the year to two, the most of any of the 10 counties. The only other traffic fatality in the area this year was in Glasscock County.

The following breakdown lists occurrences by county. The first number in each set is that for the month of March and the second number is that for the first three months of this year.

County	Total Accid.	Fatal Accid.	Deaths	Injury Persons
Andrews	8-15	0-0	0-0	2-2

Two Plead Guilty To Alien Transport Conspiracy Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Two Texans have pleaded guilty in federal court here to conspiring to transport aliens in the operation of an "underground railroad" for illegal aliens.

Catarina Trevino-Aragon, 66, of Carrizo Springs, acknowledged conspiring to transport five aliens and Bonifacio Garcia Perez, 38, of Fort Worth admitted to two counts of conspiring to transport illegal aliens in the same case.

They entered the pleas Tuesday before U.S. District Court Judge D. W. Suttle.

Testimony at a preliminary hearing showed Mrs. Trevino-Aragon housed 10 aliens on Feb. 7.

Robert Hester, an immigration investigator, testified that Mrs. Trevino-Aragon charged $1 a day for a room and $1 for each meal they ate at her place.

Alien transporters were paid $50 for each alien delivered in Fort Worth, Hester said.

Congress Urged To Pay $1,000 A Year Tuition For Vietnam Veterans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Legion proposed today that Congress pay up to $1,000 a year in tuition and fees for Vietnam-era veterans so they will have a wider choice of schools they can afford to attend.

Its views were presented by E. H. Golembriksi, director of national veterans affairs and rehabilitation commission of the legion, in testimony prepared for the Senate Veterans Committee.

Big Spring Council To Seal Coat Streets

BIG SPRING — The Big Spring City Council agreed Tuesday night to advertise for bids to seal coat 176 city blocks and re-elected Eddie Acri as mayor pro tempore.

The seal coating is phase two of a revenue sharing street program.

A new baseball park and complex was named in honor of Asst. City Secretary Roy Anderson, who is retiring this month after 36 years with the city.

PBPA Board To Meet Here On May 1

The Permian Basin Petroleum Association will hold its annual board meeting, president's reception and banquet May 1.

Activities will begin in the Rodeway Inn at noon, with the Lone Star Steel Roughneck Luncheon, followed by the board of directors meeting. The president's reception in the Midland Country Club will be at 7 p.m. and the banquet will begin at 8 p.m. in the Country Club.

Speakers for the various functions will include A. L. "Pete" Porter of Santa Fe, secretary-director, New Mexico Oil Conservation Commission, C. John Miller of Allengan, Mich., president of Independent Petroleum Association of America, William J. Murray of Austin, former chairman of the Railroad Commission of Texas and past president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association, and John B. Rigg, deputy assistant secretary for Minerals and Energy of the Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C.

With space limited for all functions, President John Dorr of Pecos is urging both the membership and the general public to make reservations at the association office in Midland as soon as possible.

Game Show Mania: What's Behind It?

Critics Say Greed, Goofiness; Monty Hall Says It's Fun

BY JERRY BUCK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — What makes them write in by the thousands and wait up to three years for tickets? Why do they stand in line for hours, put on weird costumes and forget their inhibitions? Why do they risk $100 for a possibly bigger cache — or a booby prize — behind the curtain? Some critics have tried to explain it, chalking it up to greed and goofiness. It happens on "Let's Make a Deal," that perennially popular game show seen five afternoons a week on ABC and syndicated to stations one night a week. Some game shows have to give away tickets at shopping centers. "Let's Make a Deal" has the longest waiting list on record. Millions of people watch it and love it; and therefore, "Let's Make a Deal" is an important show. So important, in fact, that five years ago, when NBC refused to meet Monty Hall's price for a new contract and he took the show to ABC, it virtually wrecked NBC's daytime schedule. Suddenly, ABC was a power to be reckoned with in the daylight hours.

Formulates Answers

Hall, master of ceremonies for "Let's Make a Deal" and one of its originators with his partner, Stefan Hatos, over the years has formulated what he believes are the answers to the show's success. A youthful-looking 50, Hall says "People are eager to get on the show for two reasons. The primary reason is to win a prize. But we also have a tremendous number of people who just want to see the show because it's a highly entertaining vehicle. "Since it did become a show of dressing up — by people's own volition and not because we asked them to — they get into the spirit and come to a costume party. "It helps the show, the costumes, because they're much less inhibited and better able to have a good time. A doctor dressed in a mask and gown or a cowboy outfit becomes as good a contestant as a policeman in a baby costume." Hall went on to explain that the nature of the game is to keep the bird in the hand or go for the bird in the bush. "Then," he said, "it becomes a gamble. "When a contestant trades in a bedroom set hoping to get a new car behind the curtain and wins four pigs instead, she kisses me," he explained. "They come to have fun, win or lose. They wouldn't kiss me if it was greed."

"I also have my definition of greed. Greed is when the other guy wins. When you win it's fun, participation, gambling." "I made my way into the game show field a long time ago. I'd been an actor, singer, interviewer, sportscaster. When I went down to New York from Canada 18 years ago, I did all these things. "My big break came for me as an M.C. 'And you follow the opportunity and if you're accepted in one particular field, common sense dictates that's the field to pursue. An M.C. operates on personality. It's the toughest commodity to find. So when you do break through and become a success, you can make a long career of it.' In addition, he's active in philanthropic causes. He goes all over the country to donate his time and effort, often, as he contends in his new biography,

Get A License Any use of a walkie-talkie that requires more than one-tenth of a watt must have a license from the F.C.C.

Overhaul Of Children's Tv Program Rating System Urged

NEW YORK (AP) — The view of he personally would like head of ABC-TV says the way to see that type of rating abolished children's weekend morning shows now are rated should be replaced with an industrywide system to measure not only audience size and makeup, but also the effect of such programs and their commercials on young viewers. James E. Duffy made the proposal in an interview. He took a much stronger stand than in a recent speech in which he urged the industry on the possibility of eliminating children's audience ratings on the weekend, on a national basis. He was asked in the interview if he personally would like to see that type of rating abolished. "Sure," he replied. "I would. But you can't do it alone. That's the whole point. This is such a competitive business and the stakes are so high that one network ... can't do it alone." The ratings employ two basic methods, according to a spokesman for the A. C. Nielsen ratings service. One is a device attached to tv sets in 1,200 homes. It records the channel to which the set is tuned. The other method is a diary, kept by 2,400 households. The residents, for a fee, note in them who watched what and when. One-third of these diaries are collected weekly for evaluation, the spokesman said. Despite advances in the quality of children's programming, Duffy said, this ratings system isn't enough now. What's needed, he said, is a "broader-based study, a much larger sample, that would not only indicate popularity, but also would give (viewer) attitudes toward program and commercial content." He said the samplings should be "in-depth," made every four months to allow for a more thorough audience assessment, and include what he called "psychographics," or the kinds of reactions programs and commercials cause in viewers. He said he'd like to hear if the Nielsen ratings service is interested in the idea "along the criteria we've laid out here."

Both NBC and CBS were non-committal when asked by the newspaper if they supported Duffy's proposal to eliminate tv ratings for children's weekend programs and replace them with the system outlined by the ABC executive. ### Doctors, Nurses Workshop Planned By Lung Association

SAN ANGELO — A workshop on pulmonary evaluation and treatment will be held here on Saturday, April 27. Morning sessions will be at Houston Harte University Center on the Angelo State University campus and afternoon sessions at Shannon West Texas Memorial Hospital.

Designed for doctors, respiratory therapists and nurses, the workshop is co-sponsored by the American Lung Association of Texas, Big Country Area; Texas Society for Respiratory Therapy, Northwest Texas Region; and the Cardio-Pulmonary Department of Shannon West Texas Memorial Hospital.

Lectures during the morning will be presented by Dr. Johnny B. French, San Angelo; Dr. W. Cone Johnson, Abilene; and Jack Hoover, A.R.I.T., Fort Sam Houston. The afternoon session will consist of demonstrations in the pulmonary function lab of Shannon West Texas Memorial Hospital. Registrants will be grouped according to educational background and the groups will rotate so that everyone will attend all demonstration sessions.

Five contact hours of CERP credit has been approved for Texas Nurses Association members. There will be a fee of $2 for the workshop and pre-registration is required by April 20.

For more information contact the American Lung Association of Texas office at 1962 W. Beauregard in San Angelo or telephone 915-944-3231.

Third Cloud Seed Operation Beginning In Area Monday

BIG SPRING — Preparations are being stepped up for resuming the water modification program and an intensive scientific evaluation of it in this area.

Atmospherics Inc. of Fresno, Calif., will send in planes and equipment this week in order to be ready by Monday to begin its third annual contract for cloud seeding in the watersheds of Lake J. B. Thomas and Lake E. V. Spence. At the same time, Meteorological Research Institute, working under the direction of the Texas Water Development Board, is gearing its preparations to study results of Atmospherics' cloud seeding. The MRI portion is financed by a $200,000 appropriation from the state.

$9,688 IN PLEDGES RECEIVED— Hike-Bike-Ride Called Success

The Midland Association for Retarded Children has declared its Hike-Bike-Ride fund-raising event a success, and reported that $9,688 in pledges has been received to date.

"It is our hope that we will go over the $10,000 mark by the time we go to state convention at the end of the month," Don Soholt, coordinator of the event, said.

"A seven-foot traveling trophy goes to the city which brings in the most money over the state and we are hoping that Calvin Hill, national chairman, will have to bring the trophy to Midland and present it to Tom Brahaney and Judy Rankin, our Midland co-chairmen," Soholt added.

A total of 189 participants braved blustery weather last Saturday to either ride bicycles or horses or hike over a 20-mile route to raise money for retarded children.

Among the participants were a 65-year-old man and a five-year-old boy, both of whom walked the route.

Assisting with the event were the Midland Jaycees who manned rest stops and check points, the Opportunity Center Auxiliary who had charge of registration booths, the Midland Police Department which gave participants some safety hints, the Permian Basin Bicycle Club which gave bikers instructions,

Participants In Christmas In April Urged To Contact Panel By Friday

The Christmas in April housing repair committee has asked that organizations wishing to participate in this spring's program to contact the committee no later than Friday.

This is necessary, it was stated, in order to allow sufficient time for the ordering of necessary materials. There are at present five houses remaining to be assigned to organizations for repairs.

Types of repairs most common to this season's project are windows, doors, screening, plumbing, painting and roofing.

Sissy For Lower Auto Insurance Rates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS insurance rates." Democratic gubernatorial candidate Frances Farenthold called for lower auto insurance rates in a Dallas appearance.

"Now that fewer accidents are occurring under the 55 m.p.h. speed limit," said the candidate, "I think the people of Texas should be given substantially lower automobile insurance rates." Mrs. Farenthold spoke at a fund-raising luncheon Tuesday.

"As it is," she continued, the rates remain high while the insurance companies pay few claims because of reduced accidents and are allowed to make excessive profits.

"The rates should be adjusted downward."

Mrs. Farenthold is opposing Gov. Dolph Briscoe, seeking his second term.

Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

3/4-inch choke and through perforations at 11,452-11,460 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons. Testing continued. Location is 1,980 feet from north and 2,180 feet from west lines of section 21-24s-36e, some 11 miles northwest of deep production in the Dollarhide field.

Silurian Extended In Crane Pool Area

The McElroy, North multiphase field gained its third producer, and location north extension to Silurian production, with dual completion of Gulf Oil Corp. No. 10-G McElroy Ranch Co., Crane County project. On a 24-hour potential test, it flowed 186 barrels of 46.3-gravity oil, no water, with gas-oil ratio measuring 1,292-1. The project was completed through a 20-64-inch choke and perforations at 11,011-11,073, after being acidized with 1,000 gallons. Earlier, it was completed from the Devonian pay. Well site is 1,040 feet from south and 840 feet from west lines of section 18, block 42, T-5-S, T&P survey, eight miles north of Crane township.

4,800-Foot Probe Slated In Runnels

Frizzell Exploration Co., Abilene, has planned a 4,800-foot wildcat in Runnels County, surrounded by depleted production in the Jim Burt field. It is No. 1 H. E. Jacob. Drillsite is 2,550 feet from south and 1,133 feet from east lines of section 81, block 63, HT&B survey, five miles southeast of Wingate and one mile south of the recently opened one-well Big A (upper Fry) field.

Delaware Tests Slated In Eddy

Four shallow wildcat tests have been slated in Eddy County, N.M. Midwest Oil Corp., Midland, will drill No. 1-Q Federal, a 1,700-foot cable tool project, five miles southeast of White City. It spots 660 feet from north and west lines of section 25-25e-25e, eight miles southeast of Delaware oil and gas production in the Washington Ranch field. Natural Gas Exploration Corp., Dallas, accounted for three cable tool tests, about 12 miles southwest of White City. No. 1-A Western Reserves-Federal, scheduled to 1,600 feet, spots 1,650 feet from north and west lines of section 27-26s-25e, and eight miles southeast of the Delaware area of the Washington Ranch field. No. 1 E. F. Johnson, a planned 1,500-foot test, spots 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 33-26s-25e, seven miles southeast of the Delaware production. No. 1 Dorothy J. Scribner, 1,960 feet from north and east lines of section 29-26s-25e, is six miles southeast of the Washington Ranch sector. It is slated to 1,400 feet.

Ward Gas Field Outpost Staked

HNG Oil Co. of Midland has staked No. 1 Goode Unit as a one-mile west and 3/4-mile south outpost to production in the Barstow, North (Fusselman) gas field of Ward County. Planned depth is 18,500 feet for the project which spots 250 feet from northwest and 300 feet from southwest lines of section 183, block 34, H&TC survey, 2 1/2 miles southwest of Barstow.

Eddy Sectors Get Morrow Gas Tests

Mark Production Co., Midland, will drill No. 1 Holston Communitized as a 10,000-foot (Morrow) explorer in Eddy, six miles southwest of Lakewood and two miles southeast of the Dagger Draw (Cisco) field. Location is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 4-20s-25e. David Fasken of Midland will drill No. 1-29 Howell as a 9,800-foot undesignated Morrow test, 1/2 mile northeast of the Indian Basin (Pennsylvanian) gas field, in Eddy. Location is 1,980 feet from north and 2,310 feet from east lines of section 29-20s-25e, 10 miles southwest of Lakewood.

Ward Dual Gasser Tests Ellenburger

Exxon Corp. No. 1 Fortson Gas Unit, one mile northeast of dual Devonian and Ellenburger gas production in the Block 16 field of Ward County, continued production tests in the Ellenburger. Through the separator and perforations at 16,000-16,719 feet, which had been acidized with 22,500 gallons, it flowed eight hours, making 2.5 million cubic feet of gas per day, plus 25 barrels of lead water per hour. The section has been shut in for pressure buildup. Earlier, it flowed six hours through a 3/4-inch choke and Devonian perforations at 13,271-13,538 feet, which had been treated with 9,000 gallons of acid, making 10.1 million cubic feet of gas per day, plus 145 barrels of lead water. It spots 1,320 feet from southeast and southwest lines of section 54, block 34, H&TC survey, 12 miles southwest of Monahans.

Krawietz' Bat Binge Levels Rebels For Bulldogs

OOPS — Catcher Javier Torres of Midland Lee has pop fly trickle off his glove as third baseman Steve Hankinson, left, rushes in to help out and Terry Copeland takes off for plate in second inning of Midland-Lee game at Lee Tuesday. Bulldogs won 10-6.

Kenny Knocks In Six Runs In 10-6 Win

Everyone else may have been grousing about the 41-mile-an-hour winds that buffeted the Lee diamond Tuesday, but as far as shortstop Ken Krawietz was concerned it was a beautiful day. It was his three hits and six runs-batted-in that triggered Midland High's 10-6 win over Lee.

Krawietz going into the District 5-4A crosstown baseball rivalry would have preferred to change the subject of his .125 batting average to his weight, but Tuesday changed all that.

Krawietz singled home a run in the three-run second, hit the jackpot in the third with a three-run double that gave Midland a 6-1 lead and then his wind-riding homer over the screen in the seventh accounted for two more runs just when the Rebels crept within striking distance. Lee first baseman Bobby Stevens followed Larry Tidwell's lead off single in the sixth with a towering one-out homer over the centerfield fence 390 feet away to trim an 8-4 Midland lead to 8-6 and it still looked like anybody's game.

Then in the seventh Jeff Cole doubled to center and Krawietz gave Midland a four-run cushion with his third hit, a homer, raising his district batting mark to a conversational .250.

Cole, 3-1, pitched his third straight Tuesday victory with a seven-hitter, but Jeff got superb support afield that bailed him out of frequent difficulties brought on by seven walks and a hit batsman.

Jay Frazier, 2-2, suffered the loss, but wandered into early difficulties after some loose fielding behind him. Brett Blackwell's fly ball to right fell for a triple when Bruce Smith lost it in the sun, a walk to Javier Torres with two out and an error on a rundown at first enabled Blackwell to score for a 1-0 Lee lead in the first. It was Lee's only lead.

A couple of errors and Clellan Pearce's timely single to left tied it in the second and before Frazier escaped, Krawietz' line-single to center and a dropped pop in front of the plate allowed two more runs to score.

In the third, Alan Buonasera's double and walks to Karl Brosig and Pearce loaded 'em up for Krawietz with two out and his double to right center emptied 'em and the Dogs led 6-1.

Lee kept pecking away, scoring a run in the third on walks to Rusty Laughlin and Larry Tidwell and a throwing error. The Rebels added another in the fourth on walks to Steve Koch and Steve Hankinson and Frazier's two-out single. Then in the fifth, Stevens beat out an infield hit, Torres singled up the middle and Koch loaded the bases on a fielder's choice bunt that got no one.

Scott Meaders then hit into a weird run-scoring force play when he dumped an apparent single into center. He was robbed of a hit when centerfielder Brandon Battles' throw to Pearce at third forced Torres as Stevens scored to reduce the Pack's margin to 6-4.

Midland struck for two in the sixth as a walk, Buonasera's infield hit and Brosig's two run single to right for an 8-4 lead.

Midland's victory enabled the Bulldogs to tie Lee in the first half district standings with 3-4 records: Second half play begins Thursday with Midland at Odessa Permian at 2 p.m. and Odessa at Midland Lee at 4 p.m.

Aaron Mercifully Ends Suspense In A Hurry

It was the biggest thing in baseball to happen since Babe Ruth knocked his 714th home run. Actually, it was bigger.

When the Babe whacked out those final three homers for the old Boston Braves against the Pittsburgh Pirates back in the mid-1930's, there was no fanfare, no record to surpass. He was just a spindly-legged, pot-bellied oldster in his 40's winding up a long career.

West Texas read about Hank Aaron eclipsing the Babe's mark the day after he swatted 715 on national TV Monday night and after the summer-long and winter-long buildups, the Atlanta slugger made it mercifully short.

Battle Scene

By Ted Battles

Sometimes these things seem to hang in the balance interminably and the waiting drags into boredom. But Hank took care of it in his first three games and now can settle down to establishing a mark for some future slugger to shoot at.

He should add 25 or 30 to the all-time mark this year and it'll take a combination of the longevity that comes from an athlete keeping his body in top condition and the talent to lose a baseball on the horizon to do it.

Southern California under Coach Rod Dedeaux has won nine NCAA baseball championships, the last four in a row, and says, "I get paid what I'm worth," which happens to be a $1 a year.

Dedeaux makes so much money in his trucking business, he can't afford to make any more from USC.

The only thing that bothers the 59-year-old coach is that he's a disciple of Casey Stengel, under whom he broke into baseball. While most folks have trouble interpreting Casey's "Stengelese" dialect, Rod says, "I've always understood what he says. Sometimes I worry because I understand him so well."

Brooks Dozier, an old Howard Payne College roommate of Midland College president Al Langford, has left Irving MacArthur to assist Ronnie Stephens, Sul Ross' new basketball coach. Stephens, of course, replaces Chester Story, who will put the Midland College athletic program on the road.

Oil Bowl coaches for the Texas-Oklahoma High School All-Star game in Wichita Falls Aug. 16 for the Lone Star dream-team will be Ernest Hawkins, East Texas State, and Jerry Kramer, Austin College. Kramer, a former All-America at Nebraska, majored in physics and chemistry and just completed his first year as Kangaroo grid-baseball coach.

Midland Captures State Volleyball

ABILENE — The Tall City women's volleyball team won the state TAAF volleyball tournament for the second straight year here over the weekend by defeating Wichita Falls, 15-8, 15-12, in the finals.

The Midland crew advanced to the finals with wins over two Abilene teams, Fort Worth and Lufkin. Tall City won the crown last year in Fort Worth.

Toros 4, Crusaders 3

Toronto right winger Tom Martin scored three goals for the Crusaders, who finished the night with a 2-0 advantage in their playoff series.

Center Wayne Carleton scored the other goal for Toronto which was behind 3-1 going into the final period.

Paul Andrea, Ron Ward and Tom Edur all scored in the second period for Cleveland.

In the NHL Wednesday night, Toronto is at Boston, Los Angeles is at Chicago and the New York Rangers are at Montreal.

New England is at Chicago in the only WHA game scheduled tonight.

Pack Stars

LEE, MHS BATS STEAL SHOW, BUT...

Defense Plays Important Role

RESIN DUST — Despite 16 runs and 18 hits, some key defensive plays proved crucial. Cole picked Torres off first to end the first and in the second a double play averted serious trouble after David Clingman walked and tried to go to third on Steve Koch's sacrifice back to the mound. First baseman Brosig's throw caught Clingman as he overslid the bag...

In the third Lee had one run in and runners on first and second when catcher Terry Copeland got the final out with a pickoff throw to Krawietz at second...

For Lee, first baseman Bobby Stevens made what looked like a big play in the sixth. Ron Helm walked to lead off and went to third on Cole's bunt-single. Catcher Javier Torres caught Cole trying to steal, but Pearce walked to put runners on first and third with one out and Midland's lead 6-3. Stevens then rushed in to take Krawietz' attempted squeeze bunt on the dead run — about the only thing that backfired on the Midland shortstop all day — and raced toward third and flipped to third baseman Steve Hankinson for the easy double play as Helm, breaking for home, had no chance to retreat...

Coach Ernie Johnson probably will start Phil Anderson against Odessa Thursday as Lee, the first half favorite, starts with a clean slate in the second-half 5-4A race. Coach Arlen Dickson, meanwhile, might be a second-half threat if he can find a pitching partner for Cole, who won all three Midland games in the first half. Thursday's game against Odessa Permian will be important for the Bulldogs in that respect since Cole already has pitched this week.

Flyers Douse Flames, 4-1

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — lanta scored was a fluke." The Philadelphia Flyers delivered a message to the Atlanta 50-footer by Bob Murray.

Flames Tuesday night to win in the Stanley Cup playoffs. The Flyers have to attack as well as defend.

"They didn't challenge us," said Philadelphia Coach Fred Shero after his team posted a 4-1 victory to take a 1-0 lead in West Division title with aggressive play, backed up by superior goaltending from Bernie Parent.

Atlanta played the Flyers to wound up fourth in the West, a 2-2-2 standstill during the regular season, but they were never a threat in the nationally televised game. The Flames at veteran Gary Dornhoefer appeared to be sleep-scoring the first goal of the walking, unable to get the puck out of their own zone.

As the Flyers' Barry Ashbee put it, "the one goal they (Atlanta) scored was a fluke."

Philadelphia scored its first of Orest Kindrachuk's two-third-period goals boosted it to 3-0. After Murray scored for Atlanta, Kindrachuk soloed in for the final score of the game.

The excited Kindrachuk said after the game, "We're in this Stanley Cup playoff to do or die and we're going to do it."

Cougars 8, Whalers 6
 Chicago exploded for five goals in the first period against Whaler goalie Al Smith. Bob Liddington finished the night with two goals for Chicago which now leads the WHA playoff series 2-1.

Mike Byers of the Whalers opened the wild second period by scoring and after a Chicago goal, New England ran off a string of three straight goals to close the gap to 6-4.

Kroc Blasts His Padres As 'Stupid' Over PA System

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "I've never seen such stupid ball playing in my life," said Ray Kroc, the new owner of the San Diego Padres.

He wasn't just chatting with friends, however. He was telling it to all 39,063 opening-night fans at Padre Stadium Tuesday as his team was taking a 9-5 shellacking from the Houston Astros. Kroc used the public address system to announce his displeasure.

Later, players on both teams were miffed at Kroc as Kroc had been over the Padres' fourth loss in as many starts.

"I wish Mr. Kroc hadn't done that," said an upset Willie McCovey, the Padres' player representative and highest-salaried star. "I've never heard anything like that in my 19 years in baseball. None of us like being called stupid. We're pros and we're doing the best we can."

"His words will ring in the players' ears for a long time."

"Somebody has to talk to that man," said Houston Manager Preston Gomez, deploring Kroc's remarks.

Denis Menke, the Astros' player representative, said he plans to phone Marvin Miller, head of the Major League Players' Association, to protest Kroc's actions.

"He ruined a big night in this city, for our team as well as his. Neither one of us played well, but those things happen. He made this a bad night for baseball. He isn't dealing with hamburger people, he's dealing with professional athletes."

As the Padres, trailing 9-2, were about to come to bat in the eighth inning, Kroc got on the PA microphone in the press box and said:

"I suffer with you."

"The bad news is that I've never seen such stupid ball playing in my life."

The Padres had committed three of the game's five errors and were guilty of a baserunning blunder that killed a bases-loaded rally in the fourth inning.

After the game, new Padre Manager John McNamara closed the clubhouse door for a brief talk with his athletes and it was decided that McCovey would be the spokesman for the players.

Strangely, Kroc, chief executive in the McDonald's Hamburgers chain, is the man who shelled out millions to save the Padres from leaving the city. The team was reportedly heading east when Kroc stepped in, bought the team and kept it here.

The Padres suffered 8-0, 8-0 and 9-2 losses in Los Angeles before Tuesday night's setback. They've been outscored 34-7 and four starting pitchers have lasted a total of 11 innings.

With only nine pitchers instead of the 10 carried by most teams, the Padre pitching staff is under a strain. McNamara set a nine-inning Padre club record Tuesday night by using seven pitchers—Steve Arlin, Ralph Garcia, Rich Troedson, Joe McIntosh, Jim McAndrew, Mike Corkins and Vicente Romo.

Arlin gave up three runs in the first inning and couldn't get anyone out in the second, when the Astros scored three more.

"After that, I thought we turned a corner," said McNamara, whose team outscored Houston 5-3 in the final seven innings. "Garcia, McIntosh, McAndrew and

Swinging Scoreboard Nude Can't Stop Sizzling Yanks

By FRANK BROWN AP Sports Writer

The people in Tiger Stadium seem to have the impression that streaking is something you do with your clothes off. The New York Yankees have a different idea.

While one nude man was swinging from the scoreboard, the Baltimore-Boston games were in center field and another scampered across the outfield without his pants, the Yankees were extending a streak of their own with a 3-0 victory over the Tigers Tuesday afternoon.

The victory was the fourth in as many contests for New York, marking the first time since 1945 the team has gone unbeaten in the baseball season's opening four games. Elsewhere in the American League, the Minnesota Twins tripped the Chicago White Sox 3-1, the Oakland A's clipped the Kansas City Royals 6-4, and the Texas Rangers bombed the California Angels 10-2.

The Milwaukee-Cleveland and Baltimore-Boston games were postponed by bad weather. Yankee pitchers Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Sparky Lyle held the Tigers to eight hits, handed pitching ace Mickey Lolich his second loss in two starts this season, and ruined the home opener in chilly Detroit before a crowd of 44,047.

Lou Piniella's first-inning single drove in two runs, and New York added a run in the

Burroughs' Slam Paces Texas

Ranger Slugger Capable Of 50 Homers

ANAHEIM (AP) — Jeff Burroughs might be capable of stroking 50 home runs this season.

Nolan Ryan, on the other hand, might be capable of walking 600 men.

"That's what fans might have thought Tuesday night after Burroughs and the Texas Rangers ruined the home opener for Ryan, smashing him and the California Angels 10-2.

Burroughs slugged a grand slam homer, highlighting a nine-run second inning before an opening night audience of 25,241.

"Things don't figure to get easier for the Angels tonight. They get to look at Ferguson Jenkins of the Rangers, who is coming off a one-hit triumph over the Oakland A's in his American League debut. California will counter with 20-year-old Frank Tanana, 0-0, in the second of the three-game set.

"I won't be shocked if he hits 50," Texas Manager Billy Martin said of Burroughs. "I don't know about Aaron's record but he could be the guy to top (Roger) Maris' record of 61."

Burroughs, a native of nearby Long Beach who just turned 23 last month, is coming off a season during which he hit 30 homers and drove in 85 runs. After four games this young season he has two homers and six RBI. Fifty homers?

"If you keep trying to get to have control problems. He going to try and improve my better and better each year walked 10 in an opening day rhythm and concentration."

Ryan set baseball history last year when he fanned a record 383. Now they're talking about his walks—15 in nine innings this season.

"I'm going to do something about it," he said.

Ryan, meanwhile, continued to get off to a poor start. I'm not

CUBS' BONHAM BLANKS PHILS— Dodgers Sting Braves

Bad weather postponed the Montreal-Pittsburgh and St. Louis-New York games.

Aaron didn't play any baseball Tuesday night, and his 13 Atlanta teammates who got in the line-up didn't play much, either. With the game's all-time home run king and his record-breaking bat sitting it out following Monday night's historic 715th home run, the Braves were no match for Los Angeles.

The 40-year-old Aaron was held out because of cold weather. Rookie Rowland Office took his place in the Atlanta outfield and managed a single in four trips against Don Sutton and Mike Marshall, who held the Braves to seven hits, including Dave Johnson's first home run of the season.

Reds 6, Giants 3

Joe Morgan's tie-breaking, run-scoring single with two out in the sixth inning helped Cincinnati beat San Francisco.

Cesar Geronimo opened the decisive inning with a triple off Tom Bradley but Cincinnati pitcher Jack Billingham and Pete Rose struck out before Morgan came through with his single.

Geronimo drove in one of two insurance runs in the ninth with a sacrifice fly and a bunt single by relief pitcher Pedro Borbon brought home the other one. Tony Perez hit a two-run homer in the first inning, his third of the young season.

Cubs 2, Phillies 0

After having their first two scheduled games postponed in Montreal, the Cubs came home and defeated the Phillies behind Bill Bonham's four-hit, nine-strikeout pitching, his first major league shutout.

Bonham held the Phillies hitless until pitcher Ron Schuefer's one-out scratch single in the sixth.

Bonham became a key man in Chicago's pitching rotation when the Cubs traded Ferguson Jenkins last winter.

Celts, Bulls Bag Victories

By BERT ROSENTHAL
AP Sports Writer

Would you believe Bob McAdoo, the National Basketball Association scoring champion, a scared player? It happened Tuesday night and because of it, his Buffalo Braves were beaten by the Boston Celtics.

"I was as nervous as I've ever been," McAdoo admitted unabashedly after scoring a mere 16 points on a woe-filled 20 shooting performance from the floor and six of nine from the free throw line during the Braves' 100-97 loss that gave the Celtics a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven Eastern Conference semifinal series.

"I guess it's what you'd call pressure," said the 6-foot-10 McAdoo, who had averaged 30.6 points per game during the regular season and 33 points in the first four games against the Celtics. "I tried to concentrate on my defense and not worry about offense."

In the only other pro basketball playoff game Tuesday night, the Chicago Bulls beat the 25-point second-quarter lead, then withstood a late Detroit rally and beat the Pistons 98-94 for a 3-2 lead in their best-of-seven NBA Western Conference semifinal series.

John Havlicek and Buffalo's Randy Smith shared scoring honors with 25 points apiece.

Bulls 98, Pistons 94

Chicago broke away from Detroit in the first period, reeling off 16 consecutive points for a 28-10 lead, then streaked to a 45-20 advantage in the second quarter before the Pistons began battling back.

Detroit finally closed the gap to 96-94 with 51 seconds left, but Norm Van Lier's basket with 30 seconds to go clinched the victory for the Bulls.

Jerry Sloan added 20 points for the Bulls. Chet Walker 16 and Van Lier 14. Bob Lanier topped Detroit with 23 points, one more than Dave Bing.

Tomorrow The World

By ANDY LIPPMAN
AP Sports Writer

National Football League players, already yielding to the call of the World Football League in the sometimes frozen North, are now signing on for the WFL's franchise in the balmy Pacific—Hawaii.

"How can anyone turn all this down?" asked Mike Giddings coach of the Hawaiians, glancing around Tuesday at the dramatic setting provided by Diamond Head and Honolulu as he announced the signing of Dallas Cowboy running back Calvin Hill to a WFL contract.

The Hawaiians made a whole day out of making announcements, also breaking the news that New York Giants quarterback Randy Johnson and Jim Sniadecki, San Francisco 49er linebacker since 1969, would join Hawaii after playing out their options in 1974.

The signings were part of the NFL exodus which has included Miami Dolphin stars Larry Csonka, Jim Kilick and Paul Warfield to Toronto, Ted Kwalick to the Hawaiians and Ken Stabler to the Birmingham franchise.

"We view this as a chance of a lifetime," said Hill, who will play out his option with the Cowboys in 1974. "It was a question of what was better for me and my family."

There were indications that Dallas Coach Tom Landry might be in for more bad news. A Houston radio station, KPRC, reported that Craig Morton, discontent in the past over his status as the No. 2 Dallas quarterback, has signed with the WFL Houston Texans.

The Texans had earlier Tuesday acquired the WFL rights to negotiate with Morton from Birmingham.

Johnson, the No. 2 signal caller for the Giants, became the fourth Giant to announce his intentions to migrate to Hawaii following John Douglas, Richmond Flowers and Vin Clements.

The Giants' tight end Bob Tucker also was being lured to move to the new league. Team sources on the Philadelphia Bell said Tuesday that Tucker had been offered a three-year $500,000 contract.

Even the coaching ranks were not out of reach for the fledgling football league.

Permian, Cooper, San Angelo Notch Triumphs

Odessa Permian edged out while Cooper edged past Odessa, 7-6, to go undefeated in the first half of the District 5-4A baseball race while San Angelo and Abilene Cooper took wins over Big Spring and Abilene, respectively.

The Bobcats, on the three-hit pitching of lefthander Keith Ellwanger, beat the Steers, 5-1.

Don Lawson picked up the win for the Cougars and slammed a home run to aid his own cause. Abilene pitcher Monte Harris also homered, but was the loser.

Ray Nunez scattered 12 Broncho hits including three doubles and a triple, but the Panthers took advantage of six OHS errors to give them a 7-0 loop record and a season reading of 13-1 compared to OHS' 9-4 and 3-5 records.

Cooper is now 7-10 and winds up 4-3 in the first half of loop play. Abilene stands 10-9 and 4-3 while San Angelo is 6-7 and 3-4. The Steers are 4-15 and 2-5.

Midland and Permian open the second half of play in Odessa Thursday in a 2 p.m. game and Midland Lee entertains OHS at 4 p.m. San Angelo is at Abilene Cooper and Big Spring tries Abilene in Abilene in Friday games.

Nicklaus Casting Ominous Shadow

By BOB GREEN
AP Golf Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — There's Johnny Miller and the youth threat.

There's Gary Player and the foreigners.

There's Tom Weiskopf and defending champion Tommy Aaron.

There's Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead.

But over and above them all looms the awesome figure of Jack Nicklaus, the domineering character in the international cast assembled for the 38th Masters Golf Tournament.

The 72-hole test, generally acknowledged as one of the world's premier sports events, gets underway Thursday on flower-bedecked Augusta National Golf Course.

An elite field of 79 of the world's best shotmakers—including 13 foreign players, 11 American amateurs and 55 U.S. professionals—are primed to test the 7,020-yard par-72 layout.

The powerful Nicklaus, considered by many to be the finest player the game has ever seen, has won this tournament four times, a record he shares with Arnold Palmer. And in his last three starts here he's been second, first and third, in that order.

"My goals are always the same," said the Golden Bear, who had collected a record 14 major championship titles. "They're the big four tournaments (the Masters, U.S. and British Opens and the PGA.)"

Miller, 26, who won the U.S. Open last year, has dominated the regular tour this year. He scored a record sweep of the first three titles of the year and is the year's leading money winner, with almost $150,000—a record for this stage of the season.

Among the other young stars are:

- Jerry Heard, golf's whistling man, who won the Citrus Open, then finished second and third in his next two starts;
- Hubert Green, a two-time winner this year;
- John Mahaffey, who hasn't won this season but has finished second twice, third and fourth once;
- Lanny Wadkins, who set money-winning records in each of his first two seasons on the tour and is one of the game's most fiercely competitive players;
- Ben Crenshaw, the young Texan who has finished second twice this year and hit the tour with more impact than any rookie since Nicklaus.

U.S. Gets Peek At Olympic Mermen

DALLAS (AP)—America gets a long-range look at its 1976 Olympic hopefuls this week in the 1974 National Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) Men's and Women's Short Course Swimming Championships with some experts wondering if too many girls quit before reaching their career peaks.

George Haines, coach for the last three American Olympic teams, says "Outstanding girls seem to be at their best at 15 to 16. That may not be the best age, but we find this true not only in the United States but in Australia and Europe as well."

3 Ex-Champs Seek Repeats

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—When the seventh annual $35,000 Magnolia Golf Classic tees off Thursday, three former tourney champions will be in competition.

Dwight Nevil, a onetime Dallas fireman who included the Magnolia among his $51,410 in winnings last year, will be back.

Others entered in the 72-hole Magnolia, the oldest tournament on the PGA's second tour, include Roy Pace, who won it in 1971, and 1972 winner Mike Morley.

'Socks' Displays Sock With 5-For-5 Rampage

By ED PRELL

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — His Midland teammates call him Socko, and he didn't disappoint them here Tuesday on a windy afternoon.

His real name is Kenneth John Szokkiewicz and he'll be playing shortstop for the third consecutive season when the Texas League opens a few days hence.

The 6-0, 165-pound, 25 year old lefty swinger hit a variety of five consecutive safeties when Midland beat their big brothers from Wichita, 9-7, in Scottsdale Stadium.

Socko singled in two runs in the opening inning, legged out a bunt in the scoreless third, singled in the four-run fourth, led off with a double in the sixth, sixth, and singled in the eighth to round out a perfect performance. He also stole a base.

Joining the shortstop with tongue-twisting name was Budd Schultz, a gangling lefty, who limited Wichita to one run and six hits in five innings. Schultz had six strikeouts in the third and fourth innings.

Midland executed most of its havoc against Jim Todd, mainstay of the Wichita mound staff. In the four-run fourth, came five successive hits — a double by Bill Bright, single by Billy Huisman, triple by Steve Haug, and a single by Joel Green and Socko.

Schultz left after five innings with a 9-1 margin, but his successor Dennis Lamp had extreme difficulties. Three straight hits in the sixth put the three run thrust in motion. The right hander also yielded three more in the eighth when he was hurt by two singles and two walks. Mike Young, however, came on in the ninth to stifle the Aeros.

Wooden, McGuire Incredibly Shoulder Blame For Losses

By IRA BERKOW

Chiefs Coach he had been becoming the Texas. reports that the $2 th part own in a 10-year

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Something incredible took place during the NCAA basketball championships. Two coaches took responsibility for losing tournament games. Rarely in the history of this august though sweaty profession has such candor reared its head.

John Wooden of UCLA said that he had allowed his team to grow "complacent." UCLA lost to North Carolina State in the semifinals after gaining as much as a 17-point lead at one point. While on the subject, Wooden also hoisted the burden of blowing the Notre Dame game earlier in the season; it ended UCLA's 88-game winning streak.

Also in the NCAA, Marquette coach Al McGuire said that he had flipped his wig while objecting to some referee calls, and the technical fouls on him helped make North Carolina State the collegiate champions.

Meanwhile, the North Carolina State coach, Len Sloan, would have had good reason to undergo a lobotomy if North Carolina State had lost either one of those last two games. For he had the preposterous posture of allowing the wondrous David Thompson to spend much of the time dribbling the ball about 40 feet away from the basket. And going nowhere, when he should have been utilized more around the basket because of his bounding ability.

The above proves that even coaches are fallible, contrary to general belief. It may even prove that in many cases they hurt more than they help. This goes not only for college basketball, but for all sports. It is true, as a wise Chicago friend says, that 90 per cent of the coaches don't know whether the ball is stuffed or pumped.

In basketball, the coach has a clipboard and he looks to television announcers and some viewers the way Einstein did holding a sheet of paper covered with squiggles.

In football, the coach puts the sidelines to check for, what else, dirty work. Then he puts on his earphones. Sometimes you see a coach on the sidelines doing a little jig. Often his face says the dance is over anger or joy as seen on the field. I always think he is listening to music.

Then the coach takes his clipboard and scratches his brainy backside. Now I don't know what he's listening to. Maybe it's a commercial.

And has anyone ever seen the front side of a coach's clipboard? For all the worlds knows, he may be drawing dirty pictures.

The first lesson a football coach must learn is what to say to the press. If he can master that, he will always have a job. The first thing to say to a question why, is, "I'll have to wait until I check the game films tomorrow."

Many coaches keep their jobs by saying how first, they build character, and two, that they "motivate" the men. Darrell Royal, coach of University of Texas football, along with eminent psychologists, agree that coaches build football teams, not character. And as far as motivation, could you imagine a coach today trying to be Knute Rockne. If he asked his boys today to win one for the Gipper, they'd lock him up in a locker.

Baseball managers might even be the broadest jokes of all. Baseball managers, like coaches in other sports, owe much of their success to failure. That is, once they get fired from one job they get another. Alvin Dark is the most recent and best example. He got bounced a few times and now winds up as the A's manager. How much smarter is Alvin Dark today than when he managed losers at Cleveland and Kansas City? Older, yes, but brilliant?

Managers in baseball are nearly as valuable as the coccyx, a useless remnant of a past when we roamed the earth on all fours.

Sometimes there is an innovator, like Casey Stengel, who discovered that indeed a man may hit a curve ball better when the ball breaks into him instead of away from. And lo and behold he begins to platoon players and wins a million pennants.

And sometimes there is an extraordinary organizer, like Don Shula. Who also is so on top of the game that he can answer questions of strategy after a game without having to repair to a dark room.

And sometimes there is a coach smart enough not to interfere with his smart players. Red Auerbach was such a raving genius.

And sometimes a manager like Walter Alston will fit his theories to his players. When he had sluggers in Ebbers Field, they slugged to pennants. When he had to devise defensive teams to win, they did.

These men, though, win because they are innovators and, not afraid to throw the ball or ideas into the winds of tradition. Which is why they win consistently. Their competition just checks to see what tradition has done, and then these geniuses scratch their backsides rapturously with their graffiti clipboards. And lose or win, according to the skill of their athletes.

Nightmare Ends

Hank Weary, But Takes Aim At Musial's Record

ATLANTA (AP) — Blear-eyed Hank Aaron, his energy and emotion sapped by a tension-packed chase of a legend, says the average person "doesn't realize what a nightmare this has been."

It was a nightmare to fame and fortune for the quiet 40-year-old slugger of the Atlanta Braves.

The chase of the great Babe Ruth had ended on opening day in Cincinnati last Thursday. The crowning of baseball's new home run king came in dramatic fashion here Monday night.

With an overflow crowd on hand for the Braves home opener, Aaron ripped a fastball from Al Downing of the Los Angeles Dodgers over the left field fence for his 715th home run.

The cheers had long since halted but the telegrams of congratulations were still pouring into the Western Union office when the icy-nerved slugger finally got to sleep about 6 a.m.

"I am a little tired," Aaron said when he arrived at Atlanta Stadium late Tuesday and set out the Dodgers' 9-2 victory the end of it," Hank said. "Now over the Braves. "We had a little get-together at my home. My family was there along with a few close friends. We talked that's about all. We talked most of the night."

Aaron had said shortly after the historic clout that he now wanted the National League record for hits, currently held by Stan Musial at 3,630. He is 119 shy of that mark.

"I'm sorry I brought that up last night," he said. "All I want to do is swing the bat. I'm not going to get involved in any more record chases."

Aaron said he finally relaxed some.

"When I got home I was the most relaxed I've been in the last year-and-a-half. I was just grateful that it was over with."

He said he managed to sleep only three hours or so when he had to run an errand. He had intended to take a nap in the early afternoon, but his telephone kept ringing.

The bat and historic ball were placed on a plane and sent to the Magnavox Corp. in New York for display. It was reported the famous equipment was insured for a half-million dollars.

Back In The Alley

How about the alley adjacent to your residence? What kind of shape is it in? Or have you checked it recently?

This is the time of year when alleys usually come in for considerable cussing and discussing. And it isn't a bad time to get out in the alley with hoe, rake and shovel . . . using them effectively.

In fact, the time is ripe for launching an all-out cleanup, fixup, paintup campaign. The unusually high winds of the last week have moved things, including tumble weeds, here and there. Now it is up to householders to do some corralling and disposing of the trash which has been on the move of late.

In other words, it's spring . . . even though moisture has not been sufficient to bring forth a multitude of wildflowers in all their colorful splendor.

But back to the alleys and the things which need to be done there to bring them up to standard.

One Midland housewife, concerned about her alley, telephoned the editor about it. The garbage pickup — or rather the lack of same — was her major concern.

The garbage container, which serves three or four houses in the neighborhood, overflows between pickups.

Other persons have voiced similar complaints, stating that they pay for the service and they expect it to be provided.

Hopefully, the city's sanitation crews have moved in on these situations by now.

The crews have their work cut out for them in the weeks and months ahead. They have a tough assignment and a great responsibility. Schedules must be met.

One thing is for sure . . . there won't be as many weeds as there were last summer, unless the moisture situation improves.

They Need Your Help

West Texans, well aware of the death and destruction tornadoes can bring, extend understanding sympathy to the thousands of victims in the wave of tornadoes which swept a dozen states from Georgia to Canada last week.

They also know of the urgent need for food, clothing and particularly cash in such emergency situations.

The Midland County Chapter of the American Red Cross has said it will accept and process any and all gifts intended for the tornado victims. The Red Cross is on the job in the emergency areas and will distribute gifts to those persons in need.

Monetary gifts perhaps will do the most good right now. The Red Cross will serve as your agent in helping the tornado victims.

'Now About Your Audit, Mr. Jones ...'

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: Prosecutors Investigate charges against John Connally.

WASHINGTON—The Watergate prosecutors are investigating bribery charges against former Treasury Secretary John Connally.

The crack FBI squad, which is assigned to the special prosecutor's office, has dug up evidence that Connally pocketed $10,000 from the Associated Milk Products, Inc., and hastily returned the cash after the dairy lobby came under investigation.

This development could hurt Connally as a presidential contender. For the last six months, he has barnstormed through more than 30 states addressing Republican audiences and courting party leaders in hot pursuit, presumably, of the 1976 presidential nomination.

"Our FBI sources say the alleged $10,000 bribe was passed by AMPI official Robert Lilly to lobbyist Jake Jacobsen, who delivered it to Connally. Jacobsen already has been indicted for perjury for testifying that he stashed the $10,000 in a safe deposit box and never removed it until the FBI opened the box last November.

Connally emphatically has denied that he ever received the money. An associate has said that Jacobsen offered the $10,000 as a campaign contribution for distribution to GOP candidates but that Connally turned down the offer.

The FBI's Watergate squad painstakingly has tracked down evidence, however, that the $10,000 not only was accepted by Connally but that he made two trips to return the money after it became hot.

The first time, according to our FBI sources, Connally gave back the money in $100 bills. Later, he allegedly became worried that the bills could be traced and brought a second batch of smaller bills, which he exchanged for the $10,000.

He took pains, say our sources, to select bills that had been issued before the $10,000 payment was made. He allegedly didn't want the FBI to find any new bills among those Jacobsen said had remained untouched in a safe deposit box.

Ironically, the former Treasury head forgot that Federal Reserve banks don't necessarily issue currency during the year it is dated. FBI agents have established that some of the bills in the bank box were not issued until after Jacobsen claimed the money had been deposited.

A methodical FBI check of deposit slips, telephone tolls and travel records have poked other damaging holes in Connally's alibi. Our sources say witnesses also have given the FBI statements which contradict Connally.

After Connally pocketed the $10,000 from the milk producers, cards and see that the club according to the FBI evidence, suit would give him his slam he juggled his schedule on as long as it broke 3-2. He March 16, 1972, to meet with knows that suits are supposed AMPI officials George Mehren to break 3-2 and after winning and Harold Nelson. They were the spade lead our ordinary brought over to the Treasury player would bang down dummy's ace and king of clubs and take the slam to the bank.

Connally was then at the height of his power and prestige. He listened carefully to the dairymen's appeal for greater dairy subsidies and for settling an antitrust action against AM-PI.

Then in the presence of the dairy lobbyists, according to sworn testimony, he telephoned increase — which the Agriculture Department had just rejected — worth approximately $500 million a year to the dairy industry.

Not long afterwards, Connally threw a barbecue at his Texas ranch for President Nixon. High on the guest list was Leon Jaworski, who as special prosecutor now must prosecute his friend Connally.

Footnote: There is a final irony. In his speeches to Republican audiences, Connally has told them they aren't to blame for Watergate. "Don't wear the cloak of guilt," he has shouted, his cowboy jaw thrust forward defiantly. "You're not guilty."

Connally failed to return our repeated calls for his comment. We were also unable to reach Jacobsen.

BRUCE BLOSSAT Hospitality Also Is A Fine Japanese Custom

TOKYO (NEA) — Well, I went to visit the Yamada family here in a district not far from the city's celebrated, glittering Ginza, and it was some kind of time.

Tokyo has a "home visit system" under which families volunteer for visits like mine, in the interest of "better international understanding."

I was primed with questions about the family's living costs under galloping inflation, fuel and other shortages, their taxes, etc. I got them asked, but the real thing was that the evening quickly dissolved into such a small festival of fun that when we parted, we felt like old friends.

My hostess, Mrs. Etsuyo Yamada, her son Masami, and a young girl who is a family friend, drove me in their station wagon to their home in the Taijo-ku district. It was on a commercial street, with entry through a slender sliding door panel.

One look and you could see that the house and a small shop (it turned out to be a specialized sort of drug store) merged as one. We doffed our shoes in Japanese custom, and sat down around a brightly lit dining table, nibbling at seaweed-covered rice cakes and quaffing a bit of beer. (Rice prices are controlled, but food costs generally are up at the little stores where the family stocks its larder.)

The Yamada family and its prior generations have lived at the same site for 130 years. An earlier house burned to the ground in the 1923 earthquake. I suspect it happened again in the massive March 1945, fire-bombing by United States B-29s, but the family was too gracious to mention that. The present house is of wood and wallboard, cramped and small, warmed by an electric heater. Tight quarters but somehow comfortable.

The father, Seibei Yamada, a longtime pharmacist, was described as "retired" and was not present. Mrs. Yamada, a beautiful woman of 66, has many interests. She is general president of a cluster of 50 clubs doing social welfare and education work in the Taijo-ku district, where 220,000 people live. She also runs a small plant in Kyoto which makes things from richly-colored, gold-threaded brocade. She gave me a lady's tiny coin purse as a gift.

Masami told me on the way out, in his excellent English, that he was the family black sheep, since his older brother is now the pharmacist and his divorced sister runs the drug shop. She is licensed to practice Chinese medicine, which seems to involve things like herbs and chlorophyll, and demands of "patients" that they follow rigid health rules. Business comes by word of mouth and evidently is brisk. With house and shop, the family pays $500 a year in real estate taxes.

The fun began when I asked Masami how old he was. The young family friend, Akiko Honjo, an architecture student at Tokyo University, laughed hard. The joke was he is older than he looks and doesn't like to admit it. He finally confessed to 36. When I said I hadn't married until I was 37, he gave a happy shout, and grasped my hand firmly as if two strayed souls had made bond.

But Masami is not all that lost. He is accredited from Tokyo University's graduate school of arts, paints at a seaside studio south of Tokyo, has two big plant-and-flower murals on the family walls, designed a wrapping for his mother's boxed products, runs a ski club in Japan's mountains west and north of Tokyo and once appeared in a television film in Europe while joining in a long, high-Alpine ski run from France to Switzerland.

He's the one who can talk fuel shortage, with his runs to his studio and to a small family farm to the west near the Japan Sea. He sketches there a lot. Masami says gasoline prices are higher today in a ratio of 3 to 5 over September, and in the first panic of December-January he was limited in the amounts he could buy.

Extensive, smiling, he suddenly brought out a small guitar and began singing familiar, if old, American popular songs like "Springtime in the Rockies" and "Red River Valley." I joined in, and so did Akiko, who lived a while in Detroit.

And, oh yes, Kuniko, daughter

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor: It appears that numerous crusaders are working these days to do away with prisons because these institutions are inhumane and don't make honest citizens out of criminals.

We don't put tigers in cages to make tabby cats out of them, but the do-gooders, seeing thugs are still thugs after a spell in stir, want to do away with prisons.

Then, with all thieves and murderers running loose, everybody else will have to live behind bars and locked doors for the rest of their natural lives. D. E. SCOTT, Crossroads, U.S.A.

DON OAKLEY Good Old Energy Days; They're Gone Forever!

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Americans may well go on a "gasoline binge" now that the Arab oil embargo has been lifted and supplies are improving all over the country.

After all, how sweet it is to be able once again to pull into an uncrowded station and say "fill 'er up" without worrying about where the next tankful is going to come from.

Detroit, too, is getting that old gleam in its eye as sales of big cars reportedly are picking up after a disastrous first three months of the year. Plans for a massive changeover to small-car production are being given another look.

But it's extremely doubtful that we will ever again return to our "willful, wasteful ways," as energy czar William Simon has expressed fears that we might. The price of gasoline alone, which may not yet have reached a summit, will continue to enforce conservation on most people.

Indeed, the very lifting of the embargo, a number of oil company executives have warned, will mean higher prices because foreign crude now costs much more than the domestic stuff.

As for other forms of energy, we haven't begun to feel the effects of shortages and higher prices that the experts predict will be with us for the rest of this decade and possible beyond.

For instance, Federal Power Commission chairman John N. Nassikis told a joint congressional economic committee the other day that unless inflation is curbed, electric rates probably will triple "long before 1980." (And if electricity begins to soar, can natural gas be far behind?)

Already, some hapless homeowners in New York, who succumbed to blandishments by Consolidated Edison to go "totally electric," have been hit with stunning electric bills. At least one family has abandoned its home and moved into a backyard trailer.

According to Nassikis, even if inflation is brought under control, electric rates must go up because of higher coal and oil prices, the cost of environmental protection and the demand for investment capital.

No one disputes this. What gives many people the feeling that they are in a heads-I-lose-tails-I-don't-win kind of situation is the fact that because they have been patriotic citizens and cut their consumption of energy, some utilities now say they need

The BIBLE Can You Quote It?

By LAVINA ROSS FOWLER

1. When the Lord was on earth in person, He chose the society of humble individuals, some lazy, poorly dressed and illiterate. The Scribes, Pharisees and probably the Sadducees criticized Him severely. What was their objection and with what words did He justify Himself? Mark 2:15-17.

2. What may have been the idea that prompted Jesus to teach the apostles simple prayers and to shun ostentation? Matthew 6.

3. Does the name Bethesda apply in John 5:2-4 to a woman, a city, hospital or pond? See Bible.

4. Name the three covenants of Canaan, whose names often are linked together. Exodus 3:6.

HOROSCOPE

by Carroll Richter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are overcast to make changes. You'll have to keep the good of present allied and to make new contacts who are attracted because you are on top on a day others are not.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Think before you come out with critical comments or you will later regret it. Make no moves in the wrong direction.

TALIBUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Get into an even keel with creditors and doctors. Show more affection to mate. Avoid a troublemaker.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Find out what associates expect of you and cooperate for better future results. An annoying situation arises that requires you to control your temper.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 22) Take care of all those duties and don't waste time. Try to be more socially with co-workers. Evening is ideal with loved one.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22) Get together with congenial at recreations you like since it will not be long before you'll have some particular skill to good advantage. Keep busy.

LIBRA (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) Be more realistic to his or her happiness.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have many decisions to make so take the time to be alone where you can think them out carefully. Don't let a secret.

AQUARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Find a better way to gain gain more easily. Listen to good friends. Move in a new venture makes it successful.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have many decisions to make so take the time to be alone where you can think them out carefully. Don't let a secret.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get out about, but don't do the talking. Chances others will cooperate with you. Avoid some situation not to your liking.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) But the mechanics that make your regular business more productive. Support your savings now. Take any sudden emergency in your stride without excitement.

Former Midlander Named APCO Group President

SALT LAKE CITY—John G. McMillian, formerly of Midland, Tex., has been named president and chief executive officer of Northwest Pipeline Corporation, member of the APCO Group, Houston.

The APCO Group, a joint venture of four companies in the oil and gas industry, recently acquired a controlling interest in Northwest Pipeline, formerly the Northwest division of El Paso Natural Gas Co. Northwest provides natural gas to distributors in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Wyoming and Colorado.

McMillian, 47, is a co-founder of several companies in the energy field. Among them are Mallard Petroleum Co., Midland, which has developed and drilled oil and gas properties in Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Mississippi and North Dakota; Olds Ltd., Alberta, B. C., a Canadian gas development company and The Tipperary Corporation, a Midland-based oil and gas exploration firm.

He served as president of Mallard from 1960 to 1969, and as managing director of Australian operations for Tipperary from 1969 to 1972, at which time he became a director of the APCO Group and president-designate of the new gas transmission company.

McMillian, who graduated from The University of Texas in 1951 with a B.S. degree in petroleum engineering, is a registered professional engineer in the state of Texas. He worked as a district engineer for Union Oil Company of California from 1951 until 1956 when he became head of operations for Murphy Baxter Co., an independent oil firm.

During and immediately after World War II, McMillian was a member of the U.S. Marine Corps and served in the South Pacific and elsewhere.

APCO Group members are: Alaska Interstate Company, Apco Oil Corporation, Gulf Interstate Company and The Tipperary Corporation.

John G. McMillian

Garfield Street Widening Project To Begin Monday

Work is scheduled to begin Monday on repaving and widening South Garfield Street, according to Midland Director of Public Works Fred Baker.

Utility lines currently are being moved to allow for the greater width.

A hot mix, cold lay surface will be applied to Texas Street when a similar surface on Midkiff Street is completed about the middle of May.

Baker said a hot mix layer will be applied over the hot mix, cold lay surface, making a street that will last for a "great number of years."

Odessan Charged In Wife's Death

ODESSA — Mrs. Geraldine Bradley Lee, 34, was shot between the eyes about 11 p.m. Tuesday and her husband, Raymond Hugh Lee, 33, has been charged with murder.

Police said the couple was sitting in a car in front of the Maverick Lounge, 1200 S. Grandview St., when the shooting occurred.

Lee was arrested at the scene and a .41 magnum pistol, believed to be the murder weapon, has been recovered, police said.

Aircraft Device Stolen From Car

A distance measuring device for an aircraft has been reported stolen from W. J. Mewhorter's car parked in his driveway at 1700 Culver St., police learned Tuesday.

It is valued at $300. Patrolman J. D. Cross was told.

Other equipment in the car was not taken and Mewhorter told police the measuring device cannot be used without the other equipment.

It looks something like a tachometer and police believe that was what the thief probably thought it was.

Donna Marie Clark Arrested For Forgery

Donna Marie Clark, 18, of 701 N. Baird St. (rear) was arrested this morning on a forgery warrant issued last August.

Justice of the Peace Robert Pine set a $3,000 bond.

Miss Clark is accused of passing a forged $34 check at a local grocery store.

Police stopped the woman for an alleged traffic violation about 2:15 a.m. in the vicinity of Lorraine and Dakota streets and, after running a records and wanted check on her, learned of the outstanding forgery warrant.

Plainview Chamber Appoints Manager

PLAINVIEW — Jim Ferrell Tuesday was appointed manager of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce.

Ferrell, a Plainview native, had been acting chamber manager following the January death of manager James Oxford. He had been assistant manager for about 2 1/2 years.

Hall Nail, chairman of the screening committee, said the 1962 Plainview High School graduate was chosen from among 14 applicants.

Senior Citizens To Hear Doll Talk

Mrs. Judy Collins, president of the Doll Club of the Permian Basin, will present a demonstration and talk on antique doll collecting and restoration at a special program at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Senior Center.

Persons having old dolls are invited to bring them to the meeting and Mrs. Collins will answer questions and help identify the dolls.

Speedup Of Mitchell, Stans Trial Sought

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal Judge Lee P. Gagliardi is seeking to step up the pace at the criminal conspiracy trial of former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and ex-Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans.

With Good Friday an off-day for the trial, Gagliardi said Tuesday he is "giving some thought to a Saturday session."

But he appeared willing to go along with a defense suggestion that to compensate for the long weekend, court sessions be extended daily by an hour or so.

The government objected to this. It said it needs all the time it can get to prepare for each day of defense testimony.

Mitchell and Stans are accused of obstructing a Securities and Exchange Commission investigation into the operations of financier Robert L. Vesco in return for his secret $500,000 contribution to President Nixon's 1972 re-election campaign.

The Vesco donation was the largest cash contribution received by the Committee to Re-elect the President, which Mitchell and Stans took over after leaving the cabinet.

The defense presentation was enlivened Tuesday by the appearance as a witness of an ebullient multimillionaire insurance tycoon from Winnetka, Ill. — W. Clement Stone. His more-than-$2-million, non-cash donation was the largest single contribution of the 1972 campaign.

Gagliardi refused to let Stone say how much he gave Nixon and why, and the judge said he would not permit the defense to call as witnesses other large Nixon contributors.

The defense wanted to call other heavy contributors in an effort to show that many of them had insisted on anonymity and were seeking no favors.

But Gagliardi said, "What went through their minds is not relevant as to what went through Mr. Stans' mind as to criminal intent."

Stone testified he hosted a table of 10 at a $1,000-a-plate fund-raising dinner for Senate and House candidates in the Washington Hilton Hotel March 8, 1972. Among his guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

A government witness, Daniel Hofgren, a volunteer GOP campaign aide, had testified that he never talked with Hofgren talked to Mitchell at a reception preceding the dinner and told him to "stay away" from the financier.

Stone testified that Mitchell the subject of his planned $200,000 contribution, and arrived late for the dinner and one count in the indictment itself.

CREATURE FROM OUTER SPACE? — Not really. The center support on a monkey bar-type piece of playground equipment at McCook Point Park in Niantic, Conn., took on an unearthly appearance following an overnight snowfall that blanketed the area. (AP Wirephoto.)

CHILLY — President Nixon reacts to a chilly wind in Washington today as he walked with Brig. Gen. C. J. Douglas Jr. on his way to the presidential jet and a flight to Saginaw, Mich. The Chief Executive is going on a campaign swing through northeast Michigan where he will campaign for Republican congressmen. (AP Wirephoto.)

Nixon Orders Red Tape Cut To Bone In Aiding Victims Of Tornadoes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal disaster officials have been ordered by President Nixon to "cut red tape to the bare bone" in aiding victims of last week's tornadoes in the South and Midwest.

The President made a whirlwind tour of the Xenia, Ohio, area Tuesday and found the aftermath of what he called "the most devastating disaster I have ever seen."

In talking with officials and residents of the town where 32 persons were killed and 1,000

Sivalls, Richey Draw Top Spots In OC Runoff

ODESSA — Dick Sivalls and Karl Richey Monday drew top ballot positions for the April 27 Odessa College trustee runoff election.

Sivalls received 1,227 votes Saturday in his Place 1 race. His runoff opponent, Bill Masterson, garnered 1,140 votes.

Richey drew 1,642 votes. His runoff opponent, Place 2 incumbent Trustee Joe Girori, received 1,207 votes.

left homeless last Wednesday by a tornado, he pledged prompt and full federal assistance for housing, schools and jobs.

Aboard his plane returning to Washington, Nixon told Housing Secretary James T. Lynn and federal disaster administrator Thomas Dunne that his pledges of aid applied to other communities from Georgia to the Canadian border hit by the series of tornadoes last week.

"Get on with it," Lynn said Nixon told the disaster aid coordinators. "Expedite it. Cut red tape to the bare bone. Be as flexible as the law allows in helping these people."

Lynn said Nixon wanted top priority to finding temporary housing so all storm victims could leave evacuation centers by Sunday.

He reported the President also ordered a push for congressional passage of disaster law amendments so private, non-profit schools could receive federal aid in rebuilding.

As for total federal funds involved, Lynn said the President declared "whatever money it takes we will spend."
