Drill site is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 404, block 2, H&TC survey, abstract 1583, eight miles southeast of Clairmont.

Ward Plug-Back

Union Texas Petroleum Corp. will plug back to 14,885 feet at No. 3 West Caprio Unit, Ward County active test, in attempt to open Mississippian production in the Caprio area, five miles northwest of Fayette.

Originally slated as an Ellenburger test, it was drilled to 15,425 feet, and tested open hole from 15,110-15,425 feet, flowing gas at the daily volume of 1 million cubic feet, along with 300 barrels of water in an unreported time. It has been shut in since early in May.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 1, block 18, ULS, 1 1/4 mile southwest of UTP's No. 1-38 University, a former Ellenburger gasser, which recently was re-completed as an Aloka opener, through perforations at 13,446-13,670 feet.

Deep Gas Horizon Opened In Winkler

Perry R. Bass, operating from Midland, has reclassified No. 12 J. B. Walton, former Ellenburger oiler, as an Ellenburger pay opener in the Keystone field of Winkler County, six miles northeast of Kermit.

It gauged a calculated, absolute open flow of 3.38 million cubic feet of gas per day, with gas-liquid ratio of 455,656-1. Gravity of the condensate was 50.5 degrees.

Production was through perforations at 9,568-9,573 feet.

Drilled to 9,960 and plugged back to 9,599 feet, it has 5-inch casing set at 9,959 feet.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 1, block B-3, PSL survey.

Nixon Sees Lower Inflation Rise

Summer Gasoline Outlook: Small Shortages Will Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — It may take another month for U.S. oil imports to recover fully from the Arab embargo that ended last March. Once they do, the Federal Energy Office hopes they can keep on growing.

Even so, the outlook this summer is for small gasoline shortages similar to those felt last summer, and for the same reason—a chronic shortage of refinery capacity to process crude oil no matter where it comes from.

Last October, U.S. crude oil imports averaged 3.6 million barrels a day.

After the Arab embargo was imposed, it took four months of gradual decline for crude oil imports to hit bottom, at about 2.1 million barrels a day in February.

Then, crude oil imports turned around and started increasing at just about the same gradual pace.

Over the past four weeks, they have averaged some 3.4 million barrels a day, about 200,000 short of last October's starting-point.

By mid-June that last remaining gap should be closed, officials say.

The big question is: What happens next?

Having lifted their oil embargo in March, the Arab nations have scheduled a meeting on June 1 to review their policy.

While U.S. experts consider it unlikely that the Arabs would reimpose an embargo, they wonder whether the Arabs will permit continual increases of oil production to meet increasing U.S. demand.

An FEO team recently visited the Middle East, however, and FEO administrator John C. Sawhill said it brought back the impression that Arab oil production will be increased beyond pre-embargo levels.

A second cause for FEO optimism lies in the fact that the plunge of U.S. oil imports was reversed in February—before the embargo was lifted on March 19.

Presidential Report Sent To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon sent Congress today a special economic report predicting that the surge in inflation should subside to about seven per cent in the last quarter of this year.

In the past three months the cost of living increase has been at an annual rate of 12.1 per cent, the highest level since 1951.

The President, following up on a weekend radio address, told Congress he sees "signs of improvement" in the economic outlook and added:

"Although the recent events are not conclusive they tend to strengthen the expectation that in the remainder of this year, output will be rising more rapidly, prices will be rising much less rapidly and the unemployment rate, while it will probably rise further, will not reach a very high point before it recedes."

As the report to Congress was released, Nixon convened a mid-morning Cabinet meeting, presumably to discuss the economy as well as other current issues. Among the participants was Kenneth Rush, designated by Nixon on Saturday as coordinator of domestic and international economic policy.

Nixon's economic comments came in a preface to a special (See INFLATION Page 4A)

Kissinger Making Final Effort For Heights Truce

JERUSALEM (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger postponed his return to Washington again today and headed back to Damascus instead, making a final effort to win a disengagement agreement between Israel and Syria.

Kissinger set out on the surprise flight — his 13th trip to the Syrian capital in 31 days — after the Israeli government held a five-hour marathon session but failed to reach a decision on the latest truce bargaining.

The secretary said earlier that he would not return to Damascus. He changed his mind after another meeting with Premier Golda Meir and Israeli negotiators.

Kissinger had planned to send his top aide, Joseph Sisco, for a last trip to the Syrian capital and then return to the United States.

Giving no reason for the sudden switch in plans, Kissinger drove from Jerusalem to Ben-Gurion Airport shortly after the Israeli government announced it needed further "clarifications" from Syria. The unexplained "clarifications" appeared essential to any agreement.

Israeli reports suggested the critical differences in negotiations were over Syria's insistence on linking the promised Israeli withdrawal to a broader pullback in the future.

Israeli Information Minister Shimon Peres said the Israeli cabinet had gone over the "sum total and general balance of the whole negotiations" in today's first session without concentrating on any particular sticking points.

Earlier Kissinger met for two hours with the Israeli negotiating team, where he reported on Monday's marathon talks with Assad.

"We had a very detailed meeting, the result of which is that the cabinet will meet to make a decision," added Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban. Kissinger did not speak to newsmen.

Reports from sources close to the negotiations indicated it would be a difficult decision for the Israelis, and that Kissinger stood a strong chance of ending his 32-day peace marathon without a disengagement pact.

U.S. officials said draft agreements were already in place.

Northern Ireland's Government Collapses

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Northern Ireland's provincial government of moderate Protestants and Roman Catholics collapsed today, topped by a two-week general strike of Protestant militants who refused to retreat before the British army.

Brian Faulkner, head of the provincial government, or Executive, and other Protestant moderates in his administration quit after the British government representative in Northern Ireland refused to let them talk with the strikers.

"We are not prepared to see our country paralyzed and to see our people die," Faulkner said in a resignation statement. "That is what would have happened if this strike continued."

Roman Catholic members of the administration, who had threatened to quit last week before British troops were brought in to break the strike, did not formally resign.

But a British government statement said the provincial government could not continue without the Protestant members, and added that there "is now no statutory basis for the Northern Ireland Executive."

Its fall was a clear victory for the striking militants who had demanded the end of power sharing with Catholics and the scrapping of an agreement for closer relations with the largely Catholic Irish republic to the south.

Some political observers felt the strike would now end. But others said that might depend on the next move of Prime Minister Harold Wilson's government in London.

Wilson had two alternatives. He could ask his minister in Northern Ireland, Merlyn Rees, to try to set up a stopgap provincial government, or Wilson could formally declare the reintroduction of direct rule of Northern Ireland from London.

If he chose the stopgap Executive formula, the Protestants would undoubtedly continue their strike. However, their leaders have said they would probably end the strike if direct rule were imposed.

But direct rule, which means the governing of Northern Ireland from London, would be re-imposed by Roman Catholics, whose militant factions have been relatively quiet during the Protestant strike.

Northern Ireland's civil turmoil, in which more than 1,000 have died, erupted five years ago.

Angry strike leaders ordered all Protestant workers except those in hospitals to walk off their jobs at midnight. It appeared most were obeying their stop-work call.

"Let the army bury the dead," declared Glen Barr of the Ulster Workers' Council, which is coordinating the strike. "We'll eat grass before we're beaten."

He tried to turn off the gas but was unable to do so, so he turned on the air conditioner to dissipate the fumes.

Just as he turned it on, there was an explosion and fire engulfed the apartment, which received heavy damage.

Balderee received second and third degree burns.

Blast Kills Nine In Italy

BRESCIA, Italy (AP) — A bomb exploded at an anti-Fascist rally today, killing nine persons and wounding 50, officials said.

President Giovanni Leone called the incident a massacre and said it was "clear evidence of an attempt by tiny and squalid terrorist minorities to throw the state and the nation into chaos." He urged the government of Premier Mariano Rumor to pursue those responsible "with the utmost energy."

Police said they could not immediately determine whether an explosive device was thrown into the crowd or whether a time bomb had been planted in advance at the Piazza Della Loggia.

The court said presidential lawyer James D. St. Clair promised to file a response by Thursday.

Jaworski asked the Supreme Court late Friday to take jurisdiction in the case after St. Clair asked the U.S. Court of Appeals here to overturn the order of U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica that Nixon surrender the tapes over to the special prosecutor.

Arkansas also has a Democratic primary for governor, involving former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, former Rep. David H. Pryor and Lt. Gov. Bob Riley. However, most attention has focused on the Fulbright-Bumpers race.

Most opinion polls showed the very popular Bumpers ahead, although Fulbright said he had a poll showing the race too close to call.

Fulbright, 69, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, has stressed his 30 years of experience and confidence that seniority in Congress means a substantial plus for Arkansas.

"There is hardly any state in the Union that has done as well economically, and the basic public facilities of this state have been built largely by money from the federal government," Fulbright said in a joint television appearance with Bumpers.

"This is a result of the influence and the seniority, if you like, of its representation," the senator said.

By contrast, Bumpers, 48, termed the seniority system "a breach of faith with the young people of this country and I would work to change the system because I don't think it has served us well."

Bumpers, serving his second two-year term as governor, cited inflation, the energy shortage, low public confidence in Congress and other national problems to back up his call for new leadership.

Bumpers, Fulbright Face Off In Primary

By C. BARTON REPPERT Associated Press Writer

Legislative seniority is matched against a call for new leadership as Sen. J. W. Fulbright faces Gov. Dale Bumpers today in the Arkansas Democratic primary.

Fulbright, a veteran of three decades in the Senate, has called the vote "the most crucial election in America."

Other primaries are set today in Oregon and Kentucky. In Oregon, former Sen. Wayne Morse, like Fulbright an early and outspoken foe of the Vietnam war, is up against three other Democrats in his bid to regain a Senate seat now held by Republican Robert Packwood.

Arkansas also has a Democratic primary for governor, involving former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, former Rep. David H. Pryor and Lt. Gov. Bob Riley. However, most attention has focused on the Fulbright-Bumpers race.

Oregon voters also were choosing Democratic and Republican candidates to succeed retiring Republican Gov. Tom McCall.

In Kentucky, Sen. Marlow Cook was expected to win re-nomination on the Republican ticket, while Gov. Wendell Ford was favored to win the Democratic nomination to oppose him in November.

The primary was marked by little campaigning, with both Cook and Ford saving their resources for the general election. Cook won a court fight to stay on the ballot after two Democratic state officials attempted to disqualify him for filing a financial statement two days late.

A late spring heat wave has Texans mopping their brows in most sections of the state.

Temperatures went soaring Monday, hitting a sizzling 101-degree peak at El Paso and reaching into the 90s at many points. Forecasts promised no letup today.

The National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal predicts continued hot temperatures and warm nights. There also is a slight chance of thunderstorms tonight.

The high this afternoon and Wednesday will be in the high 90s. The overnight low should be about 70 degrees.

The forecast calls for a 20 per cent chance of rain tonight. Monday's high was 97—only four degrees below the record high of 101. The low this morning was 71.

Occasional thunderstorms dotted the Texas Panhandle between Borger and Spearman and extended from near Wichita Falls into Oklahoma in early morning. Aside from a few other clouds up and down the Rio Grande Valley, skies were clear in other sections.

Temperatures near daybreak ranged from 64 degrees at Lufkin and 65 at Dalhart and Longview up to 73 at El Paso, The Associated Press reported.

Forecasts promised partly cloudy and warm weather throughout the state, mentioning a possibility of showers and thunderstorms only for parts of the Rio Grande Valley.

White House Due To File Response To Court Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court said today it has invited President Nixon's lawyer to respond to special prosecutor Leon Jaworski's request for prompt review of a district court order that Nixon surrender 64 subpoenaed Watergate tapes.

The court said presidential lawyer James D. St. Clair promised to file a response by Thursday.

Patriotism, Remembrance Of War Dead Theme Of Memorial Day Message Here

Patriotism and remembrance of the nation's war dead was the theme of American Legion 16th District Commander-Elect Earl E. McGill's message at Memorial Day services conducted by American Legion Post 319 at Fairview Cemetery Monday.

"Under the sod, or beneath the murmuring waves, their bodies lie in peace," said McGill.

"Let us this day pledge

The Altrusa Club of Midland, Inc., was hostess group to a joint meeting with the Odessa Altrusa Club recently in Rowley Inn.

Martha Jane McGee of Corpus Christi, governor of District Nine, Altrusa International, Inc., made her official visit to the two clubs and was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Loleta B. Guffey, president of the Midland club, presided and led the club collect and invocation.

Pointing out the demand for leadership among women in all phases of the business and industrial world, Miss McGee emphasized the importance of club members to become more knowledgeable of what is going on in the world around them and to take part, starting at the grass roots. "Members need to be committed," she stated.

Miss McGee also noted that while there also is a necessity for followers, there is a worldwide need for dedicated and committed leaders who are aware of situations and willing to try to change them. She also stressed growth of Altrusa clubs and the importance of obtaining executive women with the necessary classifications as members.

The district governor made her official visit to the Big Spring Altrusa Club the following evening.

Mrs. Fayrene Biro, Odessa, District Nine treasurer, introduced Miss McGee. Mrs. W. N. Keisling, member of the District Nine Altrusa information committee, presented the speaker with a gift from the two clubs.

Bride Killed In Hit, Run Accident Feared For Life, Aunt Says

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — Less than an hour before she was killed in a New Orleans hit-and-run accident, a bride told her mother by telephone that she feared for her life, the newlywed's aunt is quoted as saying.

The New York News reported today that Mrs. Joseph Albanowski said her niece Patricia Ann Albanowski Giesick, 25, called her parents' home in Monmouth Junction Jan. 16 and tearfully told her mother that the man she married in Texas Jan. 2 had purchased a $200,000 insurance policy on her life and was acting strangely.

The News gave these details: Later the honeymooner was with her husband Claudius James Giesick Jr., 26, of San Antonio, Tex., when a car struck and killed her in New Orleans.

Mrs. Albanowski said Patricia Ann "called home very upset" three times on the day she died.

The aunt said the family will cooperate with a police investigation and would be willing to have Patricia Ann's body exhumed from its grave in Ewing Township for tests.

San Antonio police say Giesick is awaiting trial there on bigamy charges for allegedly marrying the New Jersey woman while he was married to Katherine Kaiser, his third wife.

The hit-and-run case is under investigation and will go before a grand jury "within several weeks," a New Orleans police lieutenant said.

Police said three days before the accident Giesick insured his bride's life in a policy that provided double indemnity for accidental death and contained a clause covering hit-and-run accidents.

New Orleans authorities said their investigation so far shows the couple was driving to Miami for a honeymoon and stopped in New Orleans Jan. 15 because Giesick put his car in a repair shop. The next day, using the name C. J. Guilium, he rented two cars of the same make. That evening Patricia Ann was killed.

Her parents, Stan and Josephine Albanowski, live in a trailer park at Monmouth Junction, part of South Brunswick Township. They formerly lived in Trenton, where Patricia Ann went to parochial grammar school and Notre Dame High School before attending Kings College in North Carolina.

After her graduation in 1970, she returned to the family home in Trenton and worked in real estate and as a secretary to a Mercer County judge.

When Stan and Josephine Albanowski moved to Monmouth Junction, their daughter moved to Texas. She worked for a food supply firm and lived near Dallas for a year. She married Giesick in Texas a month after meeting him, the aunt said.

Raven Resigns School Position

AUSTIN (AP) — Travis Raven Sr., 51, resigned Monday as athletic director of Austin schools.

Raven, whose football teams while he was coach at Austin Reagan won three state titles, was convicted Friday of engaging in prostitution with a 16-year-old girl. He was fined $200. The jury chose the lesser charge instead of an alternate charge of compelling prostitution, a felony. Raven denied the charges.

Raven was suspended, at his request, when the charges were filed. He had been with the Austin school system 28 years.

Summer Program To Start Monday At Park Center Y

The Park Center YMCA Monday will begin a full schedule of summer activities.

The summer activities will include an outdoor athletic program, arts and crafts, movies, swimming, trips to both local and out-of-town places and special events.

Assisting Bruce Stores, executive director, in the program will be Lee Briggs, a junior at North Texas State University. Briggs will supervise the daily athletic program at De Zavala Elementary School sponsored by the Park Center YMCA. Transportation will be provided by the YMCA every day from De Zavala and Park Center to the swimming pool at Half Park, and back again.

The summer program will continue through June and July. All that is necessary for a child to participate in the program is a $3 annual membership.

Denton Jury Raps Police

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — City police drew sharp criticism from a Denton County grand jury which inquired into a March 8 disturbance on the North Texas State University campus.

In its final report, the grand jury declared that police "created a disturbance where none existed" by moving onto the campus here to halt a streaking rally.

Although 44 persons were arrested during the incident, the grand jury returned only four indictments. All the persons charged with disregarding a police officer were no-billed.

"We are convinced innocent individuals were arrested and incarcerated unlawfully," said Yvonne Jenkins, the grand jury foreman.

INDONESIAN CONSUMERS, U.S. INDUSTRY IN SQUEEZE— Speculators Waging War On Natural Market Price Of Rice

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Speculators are waging war on the natural market price of rice.

Caught in the crossfire are Indonesian rice consumers and the American rice industry, which has another crop ready to be harvested in slightly more than one month.

"Ultimately, these manipulations could cost the American rice farmer as much as $250 million to $300 million for the upcoming crop," said Ronald Bailey, director of the Stut-gart, Ark., Producers' Rice Mill.

"I cannot understand why a congressman from a rice-producing state should be against the rice industry."

Rice industry spokesmen say Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., has been instrumental in depressing rice prices in the South, allowing a New Jersey exporter to buy rice at cheaper prices to fulfill a long-overdue contract with Indonesia.

But Passman blames the whole affair on speculators, including one Arkansas miller he would not name.

It all started last year with a violently bullish rice market.

In August 1973, Connell Rice & Sugar Co. of Westfield, N.J., contracted to sell Indonesia 100,000 metric tons of rice at $19.05 per hundred pounds, freight paid to Jakarta, by the end of the year.

It also purchased enough rice from California mills to cover that transaction, according to figures compiled by the Rice ington. Then two natural factors transformed the market. Southeast Asia had a poor rice year, and Hong Kong began to buy as much American rice as it could get. But heavy spring rains and flooding had delayed and damaged much of the American crop.

"All this came together and the price skyrocketed in a matter of days," said Marcel Darniens, a New Orleans rice exporters. "Day by day it went up—fantastically high."

And, according to the Rice Millers' Association, Connell began selling rice at a substantial profit: 10,000 tons to Cambodia at $27.88 in November;

20,000 tons to South Vietnam and 10,000 tons to Cambodia at $25.24 in December; 10,000 tons to South Vietnam at $26.10 in January 1974; 10,000 tons to Cambodia at $26.20 in February;

20,000 tons to Cambodia at $24.19 in April; 10,000 tons to South Vietnam at $19.38 in May.

Future expansion of the banking operation is planned for the second floor of the new addition which will presently be used for a storage area.

How to offset the high cost of dying.

Unless you plan ahead, the cost can be disastrously high for those you want to benefit.

An estate worth $200,000, for example, can be reduced as much as $47,000 by Federal taxes, debts and expenses. And state death duties can increase the bite even further.

However, you can offset the high cost of dying—with Equitable Living Insurance. It can assure your family the full value of your estate, and can protect your family's standard of living if you should die prematurely.

Our booklet, "Living Insurance for Estate Planning—from Equitable," has all the details. For your free copy, call or write your agent from Equitable.

Bomb Blast Rips Car, Kills Three

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — An explosion ripped apart a parked car in Chautauqua Park, killing three people and injuring two others. A student identification card was found in a purse at the scene.

Pretrial Hearing On Sissy-Briscoe Suit Slated Soon

AUSTIN (AP) — District Court Judge Herman Jones says preliminaries of the campaign expense suit filed against Gov. Dolph Briscoe may begin the week of June 10. The suit was filed on the day Mrs. Farenthold filed for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. She alleged Briscoe violated the new campaign reporting law by collecting $500,000 in contributions before a campaign manager was named. Briscoe denied the charge. A pretrial hearing that had been set for April 24 was postponed by Jones.

Ford Urges Early Committee Decision On Impeachment

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford says he hopes the House Judiciary Committee won't expand its hearings on the impeachment of President Nixon, declaring, "If they drag it out, it could very well interfere with the necessary work of the Congress." Ford was asked in an interview about reports that committee members feel additional hearings are needed to clarify ambiguities in Watergate tapes and transcripts. "I certainly hope not," he replied. "I think they could — I would hope they would get it, whatever they do, to the floor of the House by late June or early July." Ford was interviewed in the wake of his strong public disapproval of President Nixon's refusal to provide any additional Watergate evidence to the Judiciary Committee. However, at the vice president's request, that was not raised in the interview. Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler on Sunday put down reports of differences between Ford and Nixon. Meanwhile, Judiciary Committee Republican Reps. Charles E. Wiggins of California, David W. Dennis of Indiana and Henry P. Smith of New York all said Nixon's "hush money" conversation of March 21, 1973, is the only evidence they have heard that could tend to implicate the chief executive in the Watergate cover-up. All had insisted before listening to the tape last week that the inquiry had yet to hear any evidence implicating Nixon. However, the three said in interviews over the Memorial Day recess that the March 21 talk could be a turnaround point if it is clarified with further investigation.

And former Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox said Nixon's refusal to comply with the committee's evidence demands is one of three possible grounds for removing him from office. Potentially even more serious, said Cox, would be Nixon's disobedience of a Supreme Court order to turn over tapes and documents. Cox named as the third and broadest ground for impeachment the failure of Nixon to restrain his White House aides and campaigners who were involved in the scandal. Ford said he has not decided whether he will take an active part if the impeachment issue goes before the House. "I certainly will reiterate, as I have in the past, to any members my feelings, and I don't foresee that they're going to change, that the President is innocent of any impeachable offense," Ford said. Ford was interviewed in his twin-engine Air Force Convair as he flew back to Washington for a brief Memorial Day respite at home. He flew to Charlotte, N.C., today to play in a pro-amateur golf tournament and said he plans to continue the busy schedule that has carried him 80,000 miles into 30 states since last fall. Asked if he thought the impeachment situation posed special problems for Republicans, the vice president said, "Generally, I think it's a no-win vote for anybody in the Congress. I suspect there is more of a political problem for Republicans than for Democrats," he said. In other Watergate-related developments: —Judiciary Committee member Rep. Robert F. Drinan, D-Mass., said Congress should force Nixon to turn over Watergate tapes by cutting off all funds for White House salaries. —Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton said the White House seems better organized and more responsive since the Watergate affair forced the resignations of aides John D. Ehrlichman and H. R. Haldeman. —Delegates to the National Organization for Women convention in Houston approved a resolution urging Nixon's impeachment. —A Gallup Poll showed 48 per cent of those surveyed thought Nixon's behavior warrants his ouster from the White House, 37 per cent did not and 15 per cent said they had no opinion.

Dallas Sheriff's Officers Accused Of Taking Bribes

DALLAS (AP) — Sheriff's officers have been accepting bribes up to $2,000 in connection with bail bond operations, a bail bondsman told a Dallas television station Monday. "I think they would take some other measures—whatever it took to keep my mouth shut. But it's a little late for that because my mouth's open," he said in a taped interview. The man said the bribes to more than a dozen persons in the sheriff's office ranged from $50 to $2,000. The station said it submitted the man to a lie detector test administered by a private firm and he passed it. Dallas newspapers have reported in recent weeks that the sheriff's office holds more than $2 million in bail bonds with unsecured collateral. Wade Not Surprised In describing the situation, the man interviewed by WFAA-TV called the Dallas brooding system "one of the crudest things I have ever run into in my life." Telling a reporter he was "not necessarily surprised" when asked about the interview, he said, "I expect the grand jury to act and criminal prosecution to stem Odesa; a daughter, Mrs. Walter M. Lee of Denton; three brothers, George Clark of Odesa, Joe Clark of Midland right now," Wade said. "I expect we eventually will. I know of a number of things that are being checked out now."

Free Blood Pressure Clinic Set For Wednesday In City

The Midland County Division of The American Heart Association will sponsor a free blood pressure clinic at Carter's Market, 1411 North Lamesa Road, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Wednesday. The clinic is the last of the series of free clinics sponsored by the Heart Association during the month of May, in observance of Hypertension Month. Any person may have his blood pressure checked at no charge. According to association spokesmen, probably half of the 23 million persons affected each year by hypertension, or high blood pressure, don't know of their condition. It was emphasized that hypertension can lead to stroke, heart seizure and other organic ailments. The free blood pressure clinics are part of the effort the American Heart Association is making to reduce the number of deaths resulting from heart and cardiovascular disease.

High Court Action Backs Class Action Suit Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that plaintiffs in so-called class action suits, used increasingly in recent years by environmental and consumer groups, must individually notify at their own expense each member of the class on whose behalf they are suing. The court agreed in substance with the findings of the U.S. Circuit Court in New York, which specialists in class action suits have said would put al-

Coloradoan, 33, Confesses He Killed Estranged Midland Wife By Strangling

A man who took his wife's body to Midland Memorial Hospital Monday afternoon and said he had killed her was expected to be charged with murder today. He is Billy Cato, 33, of Colorado. Justice of the Peace John Biggs is withholding a ruling in the death until autopsy results are available. Cato said he strangled his wife, Shirley Rayco Cato, 27, of 401 W. Nobles St. He told officers that her death was a result of an argument concerning how the children were being reared. The Catos moved from Odessa to Colorado in 1972. He is a construction worker, working in several Rocky Mountain states and using Denver as his home base. He told police and sheriff's deputies that his wife had left him, taking their children with her, and that he had only recently discovered her whereabouts. He left Denver for Midland Sunday night and arrived at Mrs. Cato's home here about 10 a.m. Monday, he told investigators. They went for a ride in his car and argued. He said the murder occurred on a county road northeast of town, somewhere east of Cub Stadium. Then he said he drove to the hospital, with Mrs. Cato's body lying in the front seat. They arrived shortly before 1 p.m., hospital officials said. Witnesses in the emergency room at Midland Memorial said Cato asked to see the person in charge and the head nurse was called. He told her, with others within earshot, that he had killed his wife and that she was in the car, the witnesses said. Several men working in the emergency room guarded Cato as others checked and found the body. One witness said that Cato told them he wasn't going to try to leave and he sat drinking a cup of coffee until police arrived. Police Det. Lt. Earl Luckey and Det. Sgt. Jim Colburn talked with Cato at the hospital and learned that the slaying had occurred outside the city, so they had the police dispatcher call the sheriff's department and Texas Rangers. Ranger Al Mitchell and Sheriff's Deputies Mickey Clark and Duane Peters completed the investigation at the hospital and took Cato to county jail about 2:30 p.m. Funeral services for Mrs. Cato are pending at Thomas Funeral Home. Inflation Slowdown Seen

(Continued From Page 1A) report prepared by his Council of Economic Advisers. The advisers made these major points: —By the fourth quarter of 1974 "we should see a rate of inflation substantially below the recent 12 per cent rate. . . . We would suggest that the rate in the fourth quarter might be in the neighborhood of 7 per cent." —The budget deficit for fiscal 1975 will be larger than originally estimated, $11.4 billion instead of $9.4 billion, but the deficit for 1974 should be small—would exceed the 8 to 9 per cent than forecast, $3.5 billion instead of $4.7 billion. —Once the administration's Council Chairman Herbert

Stein has been predicting a fourth quarter inflation rate of 6 per cent. The special report on the economy and the Cabinet meeting headed Nixon's agenda for the day: Back from a Memorial Day holiday weekend in Florida, the President also awaited the return from the Middle East of Secretary of State Henry A. Shortage Of Unleaded Gas In '75 Predicted In Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most 1975-model cars will have a special air pollution device, but there may not be enough unleaded gasoline needed for such cars, an internal report by the American Automobile Association says.

Unleaded gas will be needed for the 1975 cars, which should begin rolling off assembly lines in less than four months, because of the introduction of the new device—a catalytic converter.

If the problem arises, the AAA report says, "then some of the nation's approximately 10 million new car owners will not find unleaded gas when they need it and must have it. If they turn to leaded fuel, it will slowly destroy their converters and they will be forced to replace them at costs of up to $150."

William Berman, AAA's staff expert on environmental affairs, wrote the report. A copy was obtained by The Associated Press.

Officials of the Federal Energy Office and the Environmental Protection Agency, which share responsibility for pollution and fuel regulations, said they did not expect any non-lead gas supply problems. "The only question is whether there will be enough stations could be some problems with ready when the unleaded gas-distribution, another danger area pointed to in Berman's report.

"There is going to be enough gas, we're reasonably sure," said John Harper, a deputy asstant administrator of FEO. "The only question is whether there will be enough stations line is needed."

Said Charles Freed, chief of the fuels and imports branch of EPA: "Supply and distribution are FEO's area and there are few problems there, but I'm told it's nothing egregious."

Berman said, "We are going to stand by the report."

Another Battle Looms Between Nixon And House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another policy battle with President Nixon looms as the House takes up a bill this week to revise the federal antipoverty program but keep it under Washington's control.

The antipoverty bill heads a light legislative calendar for Congress, when it returns today from a long Memorial Day weekend recess.

Before the Senate in an effort to revive continued U.S. participation in making international loans to poor countries, which the House rejected last January.

The House Judiciary Committee is to complete the Watergate cover-up phase of its impeachment evidence review and then meet possibly Thursday on what to do about the President's refusal to turn over subpoenaed tapes.

The House antipoverty bill would go along with Nixon's proposal to dismantle the Office of Economic Opportunity, but would reject his plan generally to turn control of antipoverty programs over to the states.

It would transfer the heart of the present program, community action services such as Operation Head Start and social services, over to a new Community Action Administration in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Legal services for the poor also would be turned over to HEW pending the outcome of a separate bill to create a Legal Services Corporation.

Migrant programs would be turned over to the Labor Department and community economic development programs would be turned over to the Commerce Department.

The White House supports amendments by Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., to knock the Community Action Administration out of the bill or at least knock out federal regional offices which most directly control local antipoverty programs.

The House is scheduled to vote on the bill Wednesday.

The bill in the Senate would authorize a $1.5 billion U.S. commitment over four years to the International Development Association, a World Bank branch that loans money to countries where per capita income is $375 a year or less.

Man Pleads For Life Of Kidnaped Son

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP) — An Acapulco alderman, father of a kidnaped university student, broadcast an appeal late Monday for the abductors not to kill his son.

In a third ransom note he received in the forenoon, the kidnapers set a Friday afternoon deadline to pay an unspecified ransom or the youth would be executed.

Filiberto Viguera Jr., the son, was seized in this resort 10 days ago by five armed men. The father said he had received a third note lowering the ransom demand but he refused to reveal the new figure.

The first note demanded $320,000 and a second lowered the amount to $280,000.

Viguera Sr. broadcast his appeal by local radio every half hour from 3 p.m. until midnight, asking that his son's life be spared and saying he could not meet the demand.

He said the ransom note was written by his son and signed by the Lucio Cabanas commandos. It was accompanied by a gold ring he identified as belonging to his son. With the second note came the youth's shirt.

Note Contents

"The note said that if I did not pay the money by 4 p.m. Friday my son would be executed," Viguera Sr. said.

He said he had been able to round up only $12,000 but he could sell his house for $30,000.

Lucio Cabanas, a guerrilla leader, has been operating in the mountains north of Acapulco for the past six years.

Sources say he has about 300 men under his command. He has claimed credit for several abductions of area coconut plantation owners.

He also has taken responsibility for countless ambushes of government troops sent to chase the guerrillas.

Cabanas, a primary school teacher about 10 years ago, has not been seen in public since he allegedly became a guerrilla.

Viguera Sr. said Monday, however, he had received a phone call at his house from a man who identified himself as Cabanas.

"He told me, 'I'm Lucio Cabanas. . . I have come down from the Sierra to make you meet the conditions or your son will be executed,'" the alderman said.

Cabanas fought in southern Guerrero state, about 200 miles southwest of Mexico City, with another Mexican guerrilla, Jenaro Vazquez Rojas.

Vazquez Rojas died two years ago in mysterious circumstances. The government said he was killed in a car accident in Michoacan state west of the Mexican capital but Mexican leftists say he died in a shootout with government agents.

Veteran, Woman, Child Die In Twin Murders, Suicide

CONROE, Tex. (AP) — Investigators sought a motive today in a double slaying-suicide in which a woman and a child were shot to death Memorial Day by an Army veteran who then turned the gun on himself.

Montgomery County sheriff's officers identified the victims as Paul Raymond Wright, 50; Neida Barger, 47, and her granddaughter, Renee Ferguson, 3.

Investigators said Wright shot the child through the chest, and while Mrs. Barger called to a motorist: "Please take my child," Wright shot her in the back.

The child and Mrs. Barger lay dead in the street while Wright flung his Veterans of Foreign Wars cap to the ground then jammed a pistol to his temple and pulled the trigger, officers said.

Officers said they had no motive for the Memorial Day killings.

Action To Be Sought On Substitute For Judiciary Article

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Rep. Lynn Nabers, D-Brownwood, says he will ask for action today on his judiciary article substitute which answers demands by three dissident groups. But one of the concessions in Nabers' substitute has been called unacceptable to convention president Price Daniel Jr. and to leadership of the Judiciary Committee.

The delegates postponed further action on the article until 2 p.m. today. It will take a majority vote, however, to interrupt debate on the general provisions article and bring up the judiciary article. Nabers' substitute article is more acceptable to those who oppose giving the state a right to appeal. It allows appeal in only two cases: when a trial judge declares a criminal law unconstitutional, and when there are conflicting opinions by courts of appeals that must be resolved by the Texas Supreme Court. The substitute also gives the county judges what they want: language that says the legislature "may" create circuit courts instead of "shall" create circuit courts. These courts must have lawyer-judges. Forcing creation of the circuit courts would give more impetus to a movement for the legislature to strip county judges of their right to try cases. The substitute gives opponents of a merger of the state's top two courts a provision they can live with. It says the merged court may sit in separate criminal and civil sections if it wants to. Making circuit courts optional is something that Rep. De Witt Hale, D-Corpus Christi, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, has opposed at every step. Circuit courts must be given the same constitutional status that district courts, courts of appeals and the Supreme Court have, he says.

Taylor Rites Set At Fort Stockton

FORT STOCKTON — Services for Mrs. Grady (Doris Weddle) Taylor, 37, will be held at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church of Fort Stockton, with interment in East Hill Cemetery directed by the Fort Stockton Funeral Home.

Mrs. Taylor was dead on arrival at a Fort Stockton hospital early Monday after a one-car accident about 11:30 p.m. Sunday 11 miles north of Dryden in Terrell County.

Irving V. Wolf Dies; Rites Today

ODESSA — Irving V. Wolf, 63, of Odessa died in his home Saturday after a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. today in the Redeemer Lutheran Church. Interment was at Sunset Memorial Gardens under the direction of Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home of Odessa.

The four-nation International Commission for Control and Supervision — ICSS — has been unable to function for months because of an east-west split among its members.

In order to investigate alleged cease-fire violations, unanimous agreement of the four nations is required. But Poland and Hungary have blocked requests for investigations supported by Iran and Indonesia.

Bui Bao Truc, chief spokesman for the Saigon government, said both the Soviet-bloc countries were obstructing operation of the ICSS and thus "deliberately covering up the Communists' illegal acts in South Vietnam."

"It is now time Poland and Hungary put a stop to their acts of sabotage," Truc said. "They must prove that their presence is a necessity. Otherwise, they must also share the responsibility if the international commission is shattered."

He added that North Vietnam and the Viet Cong "indeed want to terminate the role" of the ICSS in South Vietnam.

Iran and Indonesia have threatened to withdraw from the ICSS, although Indonesia said later it would remain as long as its presence is desired by the conflicting parties.

In a statement Monday, Truc quoted the Viet Cong as accusing the Indonesian and Iranian delegations of making unilateral investigations into alleged Viet Cong cease-fire violations.

North Vietnam made a similar statement Saturday, charging the two ICSS members of making observations and investigations and of threatening to withdraw from the commission to "mask their own improper actions."

Both Indonesia and Iran have said they were conducting only "observations" into alleged cease-fire violations for their own information, not "investigations" which would require unanimous agreement. Poland and Hungary have participated in none of the observations.

Democratic Convention Still Slated At Austin

AUSTIN (AP) — The state Democratic convention Sept. 17 will be held in Austin, as scheduled, despite a threatened hotel room shortage, state chairman Calvin Guest said.

"It's still going to be a pure stacking job to get them all in," Guest told the Austin American-Statesman.

Mrs. Burns Dies; Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Mary Burns, 91, who resided three miles east of Midland, died Monday afternoon in a Midland hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Newnie W. Ellis Chapel, with Rev. Bruce McNair, pastor of Alamo Heights Baptist Church officiating. Assisting will be Rev. Ross Payne, pastor of Cottonflat Baptist Church. Interment will follow at Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. Burns was born March 19, 1883, in Denton County. She moved to Midland in 1952 from Floydada where she had lived since 1932. Her husband, A. N. Burns, died in 1932.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Oma Northcott of Lamesa and Mrs. Ponella Anderson of Tahoka.

War Dead Tributes, Vacations Mark America's Memorial Day Observance

By The Associated Press

Solemn tributes to America's war dead mixed with three-day vacations for millions as the nation celebrated Memorial Day.

Traditional events such as memorial services, parades and political speeches highlighted the nation's tribute to its fallen. Many took advantage of the long weekend to take short vacations and an estimated 60,000 persons even turned out in Victoria, Tex., for the Fourth First Annual Armadillo Exposition and Confab — including an Armadillo race.

Nixon Radio Broadcast

In a radio broadcast from Key Biscayne, Fla., Monday, President Nixon urged Americans not to shirk responsibilities for world leadership.

"America's isolation can lead only to the world's destruction," Nixon said. "Our hopes for a lasting peace are brighter than at any time in living memory because we now have a structure of peace and we are carefully working to strengthen it."

Vice President Gerald R. Ford laid a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery near Washington.

Ford said Americans should not only honor war dead of the past, but should "honor and help the living veterans of Vietnam, who have known few parades, few bands and few cheers."

"Americans who served the longest war of our history in Southeast Asia and the South China Sea were no less brave, their suffering was no less severe and their sacrifices were no less real than those of Valley Forge and Gettysburg," Ford said.

Residents of Illinois were faced with the prospect of two Memorial days — Monday and again May 30, the traditional date. The state has enacted legislation to celebrate the day on May 30, but private industry celebrated on Monday. The Monday date was set by Congress to provide more three-day weekends.

In Victoria, Texas, Armadillo Exposition sponsor Fred Armstrong estimated 60,000 to 70,000 attended his festival because they must have "had nothing else to do."

For the record, "Old Willie" won the Armadillo race in the stretch and "B.S." won the best-dressed armadillo contest.

Cherished Memory

The dust has probably settled by now on the infield dirt at Lobo Park in Lamesa after the Golden Tornadoes' double-header victory Saturday over the Iowa Park Hawks for their fourth consecutive bi-district crown, but somehow that golden moment in the seventh inning of the second game when the Tors came from four runs behind to capture a narrow 12-11 victory, still flashes across the mind — a swirling thought in the bag of memories that may never fade away.

For me at least, it was one of those rare contests where victory is snatched from the hands of defeat in such a manner that is not easily forgotten. A game to remember. A golden saga in the annals of high school baseball playoff history.

Lamesa had to win both games Saturday after losing last Tuesday in the first game of the three game set in order to advance in the AAA playoffs, but after winning the first game easily, 8-2, defeat stared at the Tors until the very last when that one up above gave his victory smile to the Black and Gold.

That second game was an uphill battle for the Tors all the way. Lamesa grabbed a one run lead in the first inning when Hawk pitching ace Darrell Frazier made a throwing error on a pickoff attempt to allow Kyle White to score from second base.

The Hawks tied it in the fourth on a 380-foot blast by super catcher David Ross. Ross then dimed the Tors hopes in the fifth with a two-run homer to cap a four-run uprising by the Hawks. Surely then, Tor fans had lost hope. I know I did.

But the Tornadoes took advantage of a costly error by Hawk shortstop Leroy Threat in the bottom of the fifth for three runs and took a 7-5 lead in the bottom of the sixth with three more runs.

Three, however, clouted a three run blast in the top of the seventh and the Hawks went on to establish an 11-7 lead, needing only three outs for the bi-district title.

White, who has been selected to play in the Coaches All-Star Game in mid-June, scored a run in the Tor seventh, but there were two-out with only a lone runner on base.

One For The Books

Then the unbelievable happened. Herman Martinez singled and Alan Robinett came up with a clutch two-run double to plate two runs. The score was still 11-10 Hawks, and there was still two outs.

Arthur Garcia tied the game with an infield single that allowed Robinett to score from second on some alert running, and base running was not a Tor plus Saturday. The Tors had several runners caught off base during the game, but Robinett heroics surprised the Hawks.

That set the stage for Melvin Robinson, who is better known for his bullish football jaunts than his bat. The junior ripped his second double of the day to score Garcia all the way from first base. The Tors still have only two outs in that inning and Iowa Park is setting at home while Lamesa meets Pecos today in the first game of the regional series.

We scored five runs in the bottom of the seventh against Brownfield to win district," said Coach Tony Monzingo "I've seen it twice this year, and I still don't believe either one of them. These kids are used to winning, not only in baseball but in football and basketball. They just don't know when they're beat."

Monzingo is ending his baseball coaching career this season to go back to school for his Ph.D. in education at UT. One thing is for sure — he'll leave a winner. His teams have won four straight district and bi-district titles along with one regional championship. He is going for his second regional title against Pecos this week.

"We got to the state tournament," Monzingo said before the doubleheader. "I would just like one more shot at the state crown." His Tors then responded with the double victory, and Monzingo may reach that last pennant yet.

I hope Tony goes all the way because he'll be missed when he turns in the coaching duties. Even if the Tors don't go all the way to state, Tony gave us one for the books Saturday.

Ken Brett Shows Shades Of Babe Ruth Perfect Game For Eight

COOLING IT BETWEEN INNINGS—Texas Ranger pitcher Jim Bibby wipes his face with towel between innings of game Monday against Cleveland. Bibby, who has not won a game since April 30, smoked his fastball low and hard past the Indians for a 6-0 triumph. (AP Wirephoto.)

Rangers Blank Indians, 6-0

Jim Bibby Burns Cleveland On 3-Hitter

By DENNE N. FREEMAN ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Rangers finally uncorked one of their "whoppers" Monday night and to the Cleveland batters it was like trying to bottle lightning.

Big Jim Bibby, dwelling in the throes of a horrible slump which had seen him lose five consecutive games and not post a victory since April 30, smoked his fastball low and hard past the Indians for a 6-0 triumph.

"I had felt terrible about it," Bibby said. "My teammates and the manager were counting on me to be a stopper and to win a lot of games. It's a load off my mind to break that losing streak."

Bibby allowed only three singles in posting his sixth victory in 13 decisions. Jeff Burroughs slammed a two-run double to up his American League-leading RBI total to 48.

The 6-foot-5, 230-pound Bibby, who no-hit Oakland last year, said "I was getting the breaking ball over and I just threw strikes. Oh, I guess I really didn't get all that down on myself because (Manager) Billy Martin kept stressing I was in the lineup and not to worry about it."

The Rangers had taken films of Bibby's motion trying to detect some flaw in his form. They suggested he might be lowering his left shoulder, but Bibby still continued to lose.

He finally got the point where he said "I have no excuses, but that doesn't make me feel better about it."

Martin said "Bibby was just super. When a guy goes into a nose-dive like he did, he just needs to pitch his way out of it. His low fast ball was really jumping."

Leron Lee was the only Indian to solve Bibby's slants, collecting two singles. Bibby retired 13 consecutive Cleveland batters from the fifth inning until Lee singled in the ninth.

The closest Cleveland came to scoring was the fifth inning when Charlie Spikes was thrown out at the plate trying to come home on a grounder.

"That was a big play by (shortstop) Toby (Harrah)," third base coach—Martin—making his first appearance of the year in the box.

Martin, subbing for Frank Lucchesi who didn't feel well, said "I wanted to mix it up a little. I coached third base for five years... I kinda wanted to go out there."

Indian Manager Ken Aspromonte said Bibby was superb.

It looks as if the Pittsburgh Pirates may have another Babe Ruth on their hands.

For you young fans, Babe Ruth was the leading home run hitter of all time before Henry Aaron came along.

But Ruth was also a pretty fair hurler before he went into the hitting business full time in 1922. He showed a 94-46 pitching record and a 2.28 ERA.

Ken Brett, the left-handed pitcher and hitting sensation, seems to pose a similarly wonderful "problem" for the Pirates.

In the first game of the Pirates' Memorial Day double-header sweep of the San Diego Padres Monday, lefty Brett pitched perfect baseball for eight innings and ended up with a two-hit, 6-0 shutout.

But the work of a pitcher who hits like Ken Brett is never done and his bat was called on to pinch hit in the second game. Brett boomed a two-run triple to spark a five-run seventh inning uprising and the Pirates went on to beat the Padres in the nightcap, 8-7.

Ford's Golf Suffering As Kemper Nears

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Gerald R. Ford, who says his official activities have caused his golf game to suffer in recent months, is beginning a two-day visit to the South in which he'll play two rounds of golf.

Ford plans to play today in the Kemper amateur tournament at the Raintree Country Club in Charlotte, N. C., and Wednesday in the Kemper program tourney at the Quail Hollow Country Club, also in Charlotte.

He's teamed with Jim Kemper Jr., president of the Kemper Insurance Co., Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., and John Sullivan of Charlotte, Kemper Open tournament chairman in today's round.

His foursome for Wednesday's round will not be announced until tonight.

The two days in Charlotte differ from the hectic schedule the vice president has been maintaining because, according to officials, it will be strictly a social, fun trip for Ford—no speeches and no meetings.

On Monday, Ford stood in for the Florida-vacationing President Nixon in the Memorial Day ceremonies at Arlington National Cemetery in which he called on Americans to give more attention to veterans of the wars in Korea and Vietnam.

Last week, when asked about his golf game, the vice president said he didn't have "a very good handicap. I make a few pars but I offset them with bogies and double bogies."

He said then that he and President Nixon "hope to play next (this) week," adding with a smile: "We both need more practice."

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP—

Dal Canton Paces Royals

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

Bruce Dal Canton has two "out" pitches in his repertoire—the knuckleball and the double play ball.

The knuckler he's been working on for some time. The double play ball he learned about from his manager Monday night.

Faced with a tough ninth-inning situation, Jack McKeon advised his pitcher to "throw the double play ball to Brooks Robinson." He did and the Kansas City Royals took a 9-1 decision from the Baltimore Orioles.

"It wasn't my best night for the knuckle ball," Dal Canton said after pitching a five-hitter in the nationally televised game. "I still don't have the consistency I'd like to have with it."

Subbed for the greater part of eight innings, the Orioles looked as if they would knock Dal Canton out of the game in the ninth with two singles and a hit batsman that loaded the bases with one out.

The jaunty McKeon then bounced out of the dugout for a conference with his pitcher. "Iago, I have been on a plateau I just came out here to get on national television," McKeon said jokingly before giving Dal Canton the advice about the double play pitch.

In the other American League games, the Boston Red

Sox nipped the Minnesota Twins 3-2 in 10 innings; the Chicago White Sox defeated the New York Yankees 5-3; the Oakland A's routed the Detroit Tigers 12-2; the Texas Rangers blanked the Cleveland Indians 6-0 and the Milwaukee Brewers shut out the California Angels 2-0.

Red Sox 3, Twins 2. Bernie Carbo, who had homered for two runs in the fourth inning, stroked a two-out single in the 10th to give Boston its victory over Minnesota in a game which featured a brilliant pitching duel between Boston's Luis Tiant and Minnesota's Ray Corbin.

White Sox 5, Yanks 2. Skip Pitlock scattered five hits in 6 2/3 innings in his first American League start and the Chicago, helped by Pat Kelly's two-run single, beat New York.

A's 12, Tigers 7. Reggie Jackson stroked three hits to raise his batting average to .404, knocked in two runs and scored two in just four innings, leading Oakland over Detroit.

Brewers 2, Angels 0. Rookie Kevin Kobel out-pitched strikeout king Nolan Ryan with a six-hitter and Don Money slammed a two-run homer, leading Milwaukee to a 2-0 victory over California.

Player Says Golf Game Is Best Of Long Career

MEMPHIS (AP) — "I am playing absolutely the best golf of my career," declared South African Gary Player, winner of the Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic.

"Since the Sammy Davis Hartford tournament 10 months ago, I have been on a plateau I have never before achieved," Player, winner of the Masters earlier in the year, wrapped up his second victory of the season Sunday with a six-under-par 67 for a 72-hole total of 273. That was 15 strokes under par and two shots better than third-round leader Hubert Green and Lou Graham.

Player came from five strokes off the pace in the final round, keying his remarkable comeback by holing a 40-foot chip shot from a sand trap on the 12th hole.

It was the 38-year-old Player's second victory in seven starts this year and he hasn't finished lower than 18th. He picked up $35,000 in Memphis to increase his season's bankroll to $175,000.

Wisconsin Is Favorite In 72nd IRA Regatta

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Wisconsin, which last year swept all three eight-oared events, has been pegged the team to beat at the 72nd annual Intercollegiate Rowing Association Regatta here this weekend.

A total of 79 shells from 22 schools will vie for championships in eight events beginning with qualifying heats Thursday, repechage (second chance) heats Friday and finals in all events Saturday on Onondaga Lake. All races will be at 2,000 meters.

Two new events have been added this year—the varsity fours without coxswain and the pairs with coxswain. Those events and the junior varsity eight-oared competition all are championship events scheduled for Saturday due to a limited number of entries.

Other events include varsity and freshman eights, varsity and freshman fours with coxswain and apirs without coxswain.

Coach Randy Jablonic's Badgers are a veteran crew which finished second to Harvard (not entered here) in this year's Eastern Springs at Worcester, Mass.

But several teams are expected to challenge Wisconsin's bid to repeat in the varsity eight-oared event, including California, MIT, Northeastern and Cornell.

NBA College Draft

Bill Walton Contract Has Definite Impact

NEW YORK (AP) — The impact of Bill Walton's lucrative, far-ranging contract with the Portland Trail Blazers was felt today by the other National Basketball Association teams as they began the job of trying to sign their collegiate draft choices.

The Trail Blazers, the team with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference last season, gained the shot at the league's No. 1 draft selection in a coin flip with the Philadelphia 76ers, the club with the worst record in the Eastern Conference.

Then, even before today's draft, the ambitious Trail Blazers went out and signed Walton to a five-year contract estimated between $2 million and $3 million. Money, however, was not the only factor in Walton's signing with Portland.

"There were clauses we were capable of getting for Bill that perhaps we couldn't get for another player," said Sam Gilbert, Walton's business adviser.

These included Walton's approval of any trade to another team and his right to say what he feels and not what someone else instructs him to say during an interview, Gilbert said. The adviser said that the 6-foot-11, 220-pound Walton also made a number of other requests, but declined to discuss them.

No player picked in today's draft had the reputation or the credentials of the UCLA center.

Walton was the Associated Press' College Player of the year as a sophomore and a junior, and was runner-up to a senior, David Thompson of North Carolina State. He led UCLA to its sixth and seventh consecutive NCAA championships in 1972 and 1973 and to third place in this year's tournament.

He set an NCAA career field goal shooting mark with a .651 percentage, breaking the mark of .639, held by Lew Alcindor, now Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, formerly of UCLA, and he bettered Alcindor's school rebounding record with a total of 1,370.

But many players selected in the 10 rounds of drafting by the 18 NBA clubs had outstanding collegiate careers and likely would demand tremendous contracts. Of the group, the top players also were taken by the American Basketball Association in its recent draft.

TEXAN WINS $245,031.52 — Record Purse For Indy 500

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A record purse for the 1974 Indianapolis 500-mile race was awarded Monday with Johnny Rutherford taking a check for $245,031.52 as the winner's share.

Under the normal split between drivers and car owners, Rutherford's split will amount to approximately $98,012.60.

The checks were presented at the annual awards banquet from a total purse of $1,015,686.

The over-all prize money was $4,000 more than the 1971 race—the first million-dollar payoff in the history of auto racing.

"This is a dream come true," the 37-year-old Fort Worth, Tex., winner told the banquet audience at the Indianapolis Convention-Exposition Center.

"I've got a lot of people to thank," he added. "Naturally, I have to give my biggest thanks to Team McLaren and all the people involved. 'It's just hard to describe my feelings for these people.'"

Mark Donohue, 1972 Indy winner, presented the 500 championship ring to Rutherford.

"I think it means a lot in tradition," Donohue told the new champion. "It will mean a lot for you to look back on... It's a great thrill for me to come up here and make this presentation."

Second-place money totaling $99,503.57 was awarded to Bobby Unser. It was more than he received for winning the race in 1968.

Unser, Albuquerque, N.M., also congratulated the McLaren team. "I think we probably realize what a nice job they did because we ran a good race and I really couldn't catch Johnny."

For Rutherford it was his first Indy victory in 11 tries. He finished 21 seconds ahead of Unser.

Rutherford's winning share, also a Speedway record, included $69,663.25 in accessory prizes and $18,300 in lap prizes for leading 122 laps at $150 per lap.

Unser's total included $900 for leading six laps. Fresno, Calif., driver Bill Vukovich, who finished second in 1973, got $63,311.43 for his third-place showing. Defending champion Gordon Johncock of Phoenix, Ariz., received $36,328.57 for fourth.

Three-time Indy winner A.J. Foyt, who started the race on the pole, finished 15th but was fifth in winnings at $35,674.42. The Houston veteran's total included $10,500 for leading 70 laps of the race.

Kirwan Captures Racquet Crown

Continuing his complete domination of all the opposition, John Kirwan Jr. successfully defended his Racquet Club singles title Monday by disposing of Bill Harris in the finals, 6-0, 6-1.

In a really close battle, Keri Ashford defeated Cary Garton for the women's crown, 6-7, 6-4, 6-4 in a well-played match.

The other results are as follows: Jack Sayers defeated Bill Wambaugh, 7-5, 6-1 in the men's B Division finals while in the consolation finals, Paul Rea took care of Dean Stoltz, 6-0, 6-3. Stan Fox walked off with top honors in the men's A Division. There was no score posted in that particular match.

Helen Bellows defeated Nancy Neal in the women's B consolation while in the women's consolation finals in the A Division, Amy Thompson defeated Yvonne Garton, 6-3, 6-2.

Thompson Refuses NBA Cage Offer

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina State basketball star David Thompson says he is not interested in accepting a pro offer from the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association.

Thompson, who will be a senior at N.C. State next year, was contacted by the Raleigh News and Observer in Havertown, Pa., where he was visiting at the home of Joe Cafferkey—a former teammate.

Thompson said he and team manager Biff Nichols were on a vacation trip in Armonk, N.Y., last week when 76ers coach Gene Shue and a team attorney walked up and asked to talk.

At first, said Thompson, he refused to speak with Shue but relented when the coach persisted.

Thompson said his conversation with Shue lasted five minutes. The N.C. State All-American said he was asked if he would like to turn pro, but "I told them a definite 'no.'"

Thompson said despite this, the 76ers talked to his father in Shelby, N.C., and flew the elder Thompson to Philadelphia. "My father was under the impression that I wanted to sign because of what they told him," Thompson said.

Thompson reaffirmed his intent to play out his career with the Wolfpack. He was the national player of the year last season when he led N.C. State to the NCAA title.

Bruins Face Draft Without Guidolin

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins go into today's National Hockey League amateur draft without a coach in the wake of Pep Guidolin's decision to quit his job rather than settle for a short-term contract.

Because the Bruins won the Prince of Wales trophy with a first-place finish in the Eastern Division, they have last pick in every round of the junior draft, taking their first three choices in the 18th, 25th, and 30th rounds.

But Bruins managing director Harry Sinden already has given the word that the team will continue picking its share into the late rounds today.

Guidolin, according to his wife, spent Monday fishing while Sinden broke the news that the coach would not be returning.

Sinden said he regretted Guidolin's decision, but added the Bruins could not meet his demand for a long-term pact.

Guidolin's decision came eight days after the Bruins lost the Stanley Cup championships to the Philadelphia Flyers.

"Bep did a good job for us," Sinden said, "and I wish him the best of luck in his future endeavors."

Many others shared Walther's feelings. Even race winner Johnny Rutherford, who had a disagreement earlier in the month with Binford, was complimentary. "It was just super, especially the changes he made to make sure of a safe start," Rutherford said. "That was as good a start as you'll have here."

Binford made an unpopular decision that Rutherford could not run for the pole position because his car was being repaired when it should have been ready for qualifying. Rutherford ultimately started the race 25th, despite the second-fastest qualifying time.

Before leaving Boston last week to make up his mind in the quiet of his Barrie, Ont., home, Guidolin said, "I have to think about some security. It's got to be a long-time deal, and if it isn't you can say that I won't be back."

Sinden said the Bruins usually offer contracts for one or two years.

The Bruins management said Monday that no decision had been made on Guidolin's replacement, but two names are coming up as strong possibilities: John Ferguson, a former hard-nosed hockey player for the Montreal Canadiens, and Don Cherry, American Hockey League Coach of the Year for the past two years.

Guidolin reportedly is a leading contender for a coaching spot with the new Washington Capitals.

Before leaving for home last week Guidolin said, "If I can't come together with the Bruins, I'll probably go back to Canada and coach kids next year in junior hockey."

Opinions Vary On The Question Of Bra Size

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: When Dad asked his 17-year-old daughter what size bra she wore, she told him it was none of his business. Her mother agreed with her, and you sided with both of them. Dad worked for 17 years to provide the food that went into the tissue which created his daughter's breasts, but it's none of his business what size they are. CRAZY!

I deem it impudent for the daughter and her mother to even question Dad's right to this information. As long as he's supporting her, every part of her development is his business. Boys get too big for their britches, and girls get too big for their brassieres when they can get away with telling Dad that something is none of his business.

I'll bet you will hear from plenty of readers on this. FRANK IN OREGON

Let's set the record straight. Frank, when Dad asked his budding daughter what size bra she wore, nobody told Dad it was "none of his business."

Eulogies In Words, Music Precede Interment Of Jazz Great Ellington

NEW YORK (AP) — After a eulogy of word and music echoed by thousands of mourners, jazz giant Duke Ellington has been interred in the city where he first rose to fame half a century ago.

"Duke, we thank you. You loved us madly," the Rev. Norman J. O'Connor said Monday in eulogizing Ellington before 10,000 persons jammed into the huge Episcopal Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine for the Duke's funeral. Another 2,000 stood outside.

"We will love you madly today, tomorrow and forever," added Father O'Connor, Roman Catholic priest to the New York jazz community, in paraphrasing Ellington's own traditional signoff.

Born Edward Kennedy Ellington in Washington, D.C., Ellington became a pioneering pianist, band leader and composer here, until many critics described him as the world's greatest jazz composer. He died Friday at 75 of pneumonia brought on by lung cancer.

Before he was interred next to the graves of his parents in a brief, quiet ceremony at Woodlawn Cemetery in the Bronx, some of the reigning royalty of the music world gathered at St. John the Divine, the city's largest church, for his funeral.

William "Count" Basie, a friendly rival bandleader and friend of Ellington's for 40 years, rode in a half-mile funeral cortege that wound through Harlem to the church. Joe Williams and Michele LeGrande also rode in the procession.

During the service, Ella Fitzgerald sang Ellington's "Solitude" and pianist Earl "Fatha" Hines performed "Mood Indigo." Besides Williams, others who delivered musical eulogies were pianists Billy Taylor and Mary Lou Williams, jazz violinist Ray Nance and singer Lou Rawls.

Among the overflow crowd attending the services were Benny Goodman, Cootie Williams, Jack Dempsey, Marian McPartland, Milt Jackson and blind singer Al Hibbler.

Representing President Nixon were White House aide Stanley Scott and singer Pearl Bailey. Also present was Miss Bailey's husband, Louis Bellson, who played drums in Ellington's band two decades ago.

"He was a genius of the rarest kind," eulogized jazz historian Stanley Dance, a longtime friend of Ellington's.

"He was a master of all he turned his hand to. . . . He was a natural aristocrat who never lost the common touch and the greatest innovator in his field. He knew what some called genius was the exercise of gifts which stemmed from God."

VIP On The Job Here

A beautification program which is bound to do great things for the Tall City has been launched by Gordon Knox and his Midland Chamber of Commerce Visual Improvement Projects committee.

Here is an enthusiastic group which is organized for action and which just no time in getting its initial project under way.

The committee has announced a plan to visually improve the triangle at the intersection of West Wall and Front streets. The Texas Highway Department has approved the project and is cooperating in the program.

Huge boulders will be placed at various vantage points, complemented by plants native to this area. The landscaping on this particular project was done by Roy Smith of the Highway Department.

This will be something which not only will improve the appearance of the particular intersection but which will attract widespread attention.

This is what makes this particular committee so very special. Its program as planned isn't just another cleanup-fixup effort. It actually is designed to achieve visual improvement at strategic points throughout the city. This is something entirely new and different, and the results of its efforts are bound to be pleasing. The panel is setting a fast pace for others to follow.

To fund some of the projects, a number of which already have been selected, a non-profit, tax exempt Visual Improvement Projects, Inc., has been created, and, significantly, a substantial contribution already has been banked.

This is a program which will require adequate funding and it is hoped that sufficient money will be provided for the program to move ahead as planned.

VIP projects include most anything from the planting of trees, to weed eradication to the improvement of unsightly situations and conditions. Weeds last summer created a real problem in certain sections of the city including the central business district.

There is no shortage of projects for VIP. In fact it can be as selective as it wishes.

Chairman Knox said Midland "is a pretty lady dressed in a shabby calico coat."

Chances are the appearance of the "pretty lady" will be far from shabby when the VIP committee completes its work program.

VIP merits widespread community support!

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: Bebe Rebozo paid Nixon's bills.
WASHINGTON—At the same time that Bebe Rebozo was collecting secret cash contributions for President Nixon, the presidential crony also paid some of the President's bills.

We now have traced to Rebozo's personal account an $11,978.84 check, which went to pay for improvements on the President's property at Key Biscayne, Fla.

Reliable sources also claim that Rebozo paid for a swimming pool, a pool table and architectural services for the President. We have not seen the canceled checks, however, for these expenditures.

The $11,978 check, dated Aug. 6, 1969, and signed by Rebozo, was made out to Babcock Company, a Florida firm. A Babcock official, confirming receipt of the check, said it was payment for electrical, air conditioning and painting work on the Nixon home at 516 Bay Lane.

The official also confirmed receipt of two other payments for work at the presidential compound. On Aug. 7, 1967, an $11,307.12 cashier's check was delivered to the company. The cashier's check, drawn on Rebozo's Key Biscayne bank, bears Richard Nixon's name as the remitter. We have established, however, that Nixon was not in Florida at the time.

Again, on Oct. 9, 1969, Babcock received payment for a $6,299 bill, which the company had submitted to Rebozo for replacing a roof and air conditioning ducts at another of President Nixon's Key Biscayne houses. We have been unable, however, to determine whose check was used in this transaction.

Sources familiar with the financial records also say that Rebozo paid presidential pool, pool table and architectural services, but we have been unable to obtain the exact figures.

It is an interesting coincidence, however, that these expenditures coincided with the delivery of the first of two $50,000 cash bundles which billionaire Howard Hughes sent to the President. Richard Danner, a Hughes henchman, told us he delivered the cash to Rebozo at his Key Biscayne bank. It could have been in the summer of 1969, Danner said, but he couldn't be sure.

Hughes' former chief honcho, Robert Maheu, told us he was certain the first $50,000 was delivered in 1969. To the best of his recollection, he said, it was in August.

Footnote: The White House did not respond to our inquiries. Rebozo, speaking through an intermediary, said he would have to check his financial records which he did not have at hand. We will be happy to publish his comments when we receive them.

also has put the heat on South Vietnamese and Thai authorities to make more drug arrests. With Oriental guile, some police have arranged with cab drivers to stash marijuana in their taxis. When an American fare is picked up, the hacker signals the police who arrest the unsuspecting American for possession of marijuana. This increases the number of arrests, although not quite in the way the United States had intended.

SADAT'S CHARITY: Without congressional approval, President Nixon quietly authorized a $10 million grant recently to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's favorite charity.

The $10 million contribution in the U.S.-held Egyptian pounds was sent to Waafa Wa' Amal, the Loyalty and Hope Society, which is headed by Mrs. Anwar Sadat.

In a letter to Rep Lester Wolff, D-N.Y., the State Department conceded that the grant had been authorized "notwithstanding the absence at the time of formal diplomatic relations and the existence of other potentially applicable prohibitions."

But the money, although it may have violated the law, went for a good cause: Relief efforts such as rehabilitating recent war casualties.

BRUCE BLOSSAT Project Independence: Will-O-The-Wisp?

(Second of Two Related Columns)
WASHINGTON (NEA)—One major U.S. oil company has drilled 27 successive offshore holes in the continental shelf adjoining the Atlantic coast without finding a drop of new oil. The cost for each such undertaking runs between $2 million and $3 million.

This string of failures is not only an obvious discouragement to the exploring firm, but strongly underscores experts' concern that estimates of offshore oil reserves around America's coasts and possibly in some shelf areas elsewhere in the world may have been substantially overstated.

When I first undertook to survey estimated reserves, as well as proven supplies (oil known from test borings to be in place), veteran analysts placed U.S. offshore crude oil reserves at from 190 billion to 200 billion barrels.

Recently that figure has been revised downward dramatically. A report of the U.S. Geological Survey puts a new top guess on possible offshore reserves at 150 billion barrels, but suggests darkly they may in fact be no more than 80 billion.

The dry-hole results reported at the outset of this report make these new estimates seem painfully realistic. Estimates are, of course, based on a variety of factors, including proximity of proven fields, continental or under-ocean rock surface configuration conforming to known deposit areas, character of the rock, etc.

Even if the offshore estimates are presently to be accepted as plausible in their revised state, 80 billion barrels is a lot of oil. But it should never be forgotten that the cost of extracting such oil, should it be discovered, is very high—and the whole offshore process slow.

This is so, notwithstanding the steady efforts of environmentalists to either slow or halt offshore explorations. This potent force is freshly armed with a report from the President's Council on Environmental Quality on the potential dangers it believes are associated with drilling in the Atlantic and another newly active zone, the broad Gulf of Alaska in the North Pacific.

The summary of all the new factors bearing upon offshore oil development simply deepens the gloom gathering in recent weeks over America's hopes of quickly getting at some new oil sources to help tide it over until the longer range projects (like making synthetic crude from oil shale, coal, and tar sands) could come heavily into play.

If all that's been said here is not depressing enough, consider a couple of final items of poor news:

Experts who have felt for five years that configuration of Alaska's North Slope indicates reserves there might be 10 times the 10 billion barrels of crude believed there, now seem less hopeful today. Nobody is saying 10 billion is the limit, but 100 billion is seen now as dreamy.

I've already noted the high cost factor involved in new offshore exploration and development. The more advanced (so-called tertiary) methods of getting more oil from existing wells are also expensive. So too are all the projects for getting synthetic crude oil and alternative energy sources.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Clarence Darrow was defense attorney in some of America's most publicized cases and through his legal arguments, urged the public toward his civil-libertarian views of justice, the World Almanac recalls. In his criminal cases, he professed the idea that his clients were victims of social circumstances beyond their control. Of over 100 persons he defended that were charged with murder, none were sentenced to death.

I see where numerous humbugs in Congress are screaming for higher taxes on big business especially the oil business.

This hypocritical exercise is supposed to stimulate the glands of us masses, and to inspire hope that we will pay less taxes if business pays more.

Which is economic doddle of unthinkers by the plotters plunderers who count on mere folks to be too stupid to know that Business pays no taxes; it just collects taxes from consumers, who don't have anybody else to pass them to.

and heating and cooling plants in prefab units. Near-future public transportation will be an elaboration of the best that exists today, with high-speed intercity trains the most likely development.

Personal rapid transit systems will be in use before 2000, the intercontinental rocket, the personal helicopter, the automated highway and gravity vacuum tube travel won't be.

Lumber will be extremely scarce in the 21st century, as efforts will be made to increase forest productivity through fertilization to bring trees maturity in months rather than years. Concrete will be proved so that it will be temperature and chemical-resistant in tensile strength, self-curing and flexible. Glass will be 10 times stronger and plastic will find new structural applications.

Robots will replace men in dangerous jobs, and today's computers will be replaced by thinking units that will "talk" with designers and make suggestions. Building tradesmen could be making as much as $60 an hour, while enjoying greatly increased benefits and reduced working hours.

All in all, the year 2000 sounds like a great place to visit, though many old-timers who don't expect to make it will be just as glad they won't have to live there. Still, it's a refreshing departure from some hopeful predictions for change instead of the usual gloom and doom.

The BIBLE Can You Quote It?

By LAVINA ROSS FOWLER

1. Genesis, defined "beginning" and Exodus, "going out" precedes what book of the Law? See Bible.
2. Who was Jesus' complaining and worried friend Bethany? Luke 10:10.
3. What Biblical character was responsible for the segregation of races? Genesis 9:21.
4. "Hope that is seen is hope; for what a man seeth—," Romans 8:24.
5. The Egyptian church assigns its principal liturgy Mark. Although Mark was as far-sighted as Paul concerning world-wide Christianity they supposedly spent many years together in—, Acts 28:14, Col. 4:10.

Rockwell Shares Contract for New Fighter Design

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rockwell International Corp. is one of three firms sharing Air Force design contracts worth almost $2 million for a jet fighter that will be able to move sideways or climb vertically while on level flight.

J. J. Edwards, executive vice president of Rockwell, said if preliminary studies show promise, two prototype aircraft will be constructed and flight testing is due to begin in late 1977.

Rockwell's contract in the Advanced Fighter Technology Integrator program is worth $600,000. It says the other two firms involved are Douglas Corp. of St. Louis, awarded a $750,000 contract, and Fairchild-Republic Co. of Farmingdale, N.Y., $597,000.

Edwards said the proposed jet fighter would emulate the flight maneuverability of helicopters by using a combination of movements of the plane's conventional tail surfaces and small forward control surfaces, called canards.

He said the Rockwell design will aim at a comparatively light plane, weighing 9,000 to 12,000 pounds.

Mrs. Gandhi Says Nuclear Weapons Not India's Goal

NEW YORK (AP) — Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi declared in her first interview since India's atomic blast that "we are not a nuclear-weapons country" and complained that India is "a favorite and convenient whipping boy."

In the interview, published in the current issue of Newsweek magazine, Mrs. Gandhi insisted, "Our neighbors need have no fear. We view the explosion as an extension of our work of research and keeping abreast of developments in science and technology."

"There is a difference between a nuclear country and a nuclear-weapons country; we are not a nuclear-weapons country; we don't have any bombs. We don't intend to use this knowledge or this power for any other than peaceful purposes."

Mrs. Gandhi said the nuclear blast required "no new budgetary provision ... and there was no dependence on any other country."
