Dear Abby

—By Abigail van Buren

Talk About Problems, This Wife Has... One

DEAR ABBY: Harvey is 76, and I am a few years younger. We've been married for two years, both having lost our mates in death.

My problem is his interest in other women. He says he just likes to "talk."

We went to the Bahamas for a holiday, and he took up with an old maid he met in the hotel lobby. She was with a tour, but found Harvey so fascinating she stayed behind and let the group go on without her. (Now don't tell me all he gave her was conversation!)

When Harvey was in the hospital for a few days for tests he called up an old girlfriend, and she came to visit him. Even with me in the room he held her hand, and they talked over old times. The head nurse told him he couldn't have any more visitors after that because it ran up his blood pressure. You can imagine how humiliated I was.

Divorce is not the answer. If it weren't for this thing he has about other women he'd be a good man.

I'm considering inviting two or three women over every day, and let him get all talked out. Should I, or not? HURT

DEAR ABBY: How does a parent deal with this new breed of woman? I need advice on this matter. Somehow I find it hard to accept this business of living together without marrying.

Am I wrong to deny them sleeping quarters together in my house?

My daughter is well educated, with a master's degree from a fine eastern university. She is only dumb where men are concerned. NO NAMES, PLEASE

DEAR NO: What your adult offspring do away from home is their business. What they do in your home is YOUR business. If you don't feel right about their sharing sleeping quarters in your home, tell them so.

LAMESA — The engagement of Wanda Louise Simpson and James Oliver Jones Jr., is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Simpson of Lamesa, former residents of Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Jones of this city are the parents of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Simpson, employed by Kirby-West, studied at Odessa College. Her fiance attended Texas Tech University and is enrolled in Southwestern State University, Weatherford, Okla.

He is employed for the summer in park maintenance by Andrews County.

The wedding is scheduled for 7 p.m. Aug. 17 in Andrews Church of Christ.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Spiders Spin Irritating Webs

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — I do hope some reader can tell me how to get rid of spiders, especially those that make their webs between the windows and storm windows. I clean the tracks in the storm windows but it seems the spiders are back before cleaning day is over. — MRS. R.R.C.A.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with the makers of bobby pins. I appeal to them to make some pins without rubber tips for those of us with allergies. For four years, since cutting my hair short, I have pinned it up nightly and been plagued with an itchy, festered scalp and an excessive loss of hair.

I spent a small fortune on doctor's bills and shampoos but with no results. The medicines were baffled and I was miserable. Two months ago I became aware of those tiny rubber tips. I burned them off five dozen pins with a lighted candle and my problem was solved. — P.G.P.

DEAR POLLY — A friend of mine had the same problem that Mrs. M.H.M. has with a slick garage floor. She remedied hers by using rolls of abrasive tape with an adhesive backing.

Scout Council Receives Grant

The Permian Basin Girl Scout Council has received a grant from the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. to extend the membership to the Mexican-American population within the council's jurisdiction.

The primary objective of the project is to build a growing involved Girl Scout membership that is truly representative of the council's total population. The bulk of the grant, totaling $12,356.00, will be used for salaries for the staff hired for the project. The total cost of the project is $16,474.00. The Permian Basin Council will bear the rest of the expense. The grant is designed to cover an 18-month period.

The council applied for the grant when it became apparent that in order to develop indigenous leadership and community support the council would need a bilingual Mexican American. Also, the council has long wanted to increase the Mexican-American girl membership.

A member of the current council staff will direct the project and help the new staff through training and supervision. The Mexican-American para-professional will employ and train two field aides, one for Midland and one for Odessa. The field aides will lead the troops they organize in the beginning. The emphasis will be on involving the indigenous adults. Once the project is off the ground, the para-professional will develop into a full-time executive staff member.

At the end of the 18 months, the council will assume the total cost of the project, and it will then be part of the on-going work of the council.

The Bridge of Hope

"For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it." (Romans 8:24, 25)

"While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." (2 Cor. 4:18-5:1)

"... Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord." (2 Thess. 1:7, 8)

SPOTLIGHT ON WEST TEXAS INDUSTRY — The fertilizer shortage has put the spotlight on Texas Sulphur Splt Co., at Oria, according to C. W. Chanceller Jr., owner of Chanceller Enterprises, 206 W. Texas St., Room 109, commercial and international representative of Sulphur Soil Co. Requests for the soil have come from Mainland China and New Zealand.

Chancellor Enterprises Can Solve Soil Problems

Chancellor Enterprises, 206 W. Texas St., Room 109, commercial and international representative of Texas Sulphur Soil, a division of Pathfinder Properties of Midland, has received requests from as far away as Mainland China and New Zealand for their fertilizer.

The fertilizer shortage has put this West Texas industry in the spotlight, according to C. W. Chanceller Jr., owner of Chanceller Enterprises.

The Texas Sulphur Soil Co. is a West Texas industry with mines located 25 miles from Oria, with crushing and sacking plant in Oria. The site of the plant was once a way station for the Old Butterfield Stage Coach Line.

L. C. Edward, vice president of marketing for Texas Sulphur Soil, and a major stockholder, has been instrumental in making the foreign deals for their products.

As well as a commercial market, there is a residential market. Ten- and 50-pound bags may be bought at the individual's favorite dealer. If not available, call Chanceller Enterprises, 683-2040. Commercially the sulphur soil is shipped in bulk, 100,000-pound hopper carts. It is good for the citrus farmer as well as pecan and vegetable production.

Sulphur soil is a highly mineralized soil. It is recommended for the Southwest's alkaline soil to aid in the correction of the unfavorable condition caused by high pH. Sulphur soil improves the physical structure of the soil, making it more permeable to roots and water and is often used to help leach out undesirable and harmful compounds such as black alkali.

Professor M. L. Jackson of the University of Wisconsin says, "The sulphur requirements of crops is relatively high, being half of the phosphate requirement of cereals and equal to the phosphate requirements of legumes."

The shortage of sulphur in many crops, including cotton, brings about a yellowing similar to that of a nitrogen deficiency and a dwarfed plant growth. A combination of nitrogen and sulphur soil applied to a large farm in Roswell, N.M., yielded more than four times the grass as when nitrogen alone was used. Sulphur soil is an oxidized sulphur that can be taken up by plant roots almost immediately.

An essential conditioner to counter-balance alkaline soil, Texas Sulphur Soil activates the natural elements in the soil that have lain dormant, and releases their high fertility to acid-loving plants. The earth literally comes alive, freeing such soil nutrients as nitrogen, phosphate, iron, zinc and manganese, that green up and multiply productivity of plants.

If you need a bag or a boat load, inquire about Texas Sulphur Soil, Chanceller Enterprises, 206 W. Texas St., Room 109, or call 683-2040.

CARPET TALK
By Ed Tucker
From the floor up, homes are taking exciting directions these days. We're caught up in that excitement because carpets are our business... and carpets are making news. There are dramatically new trends in colors and color combinations for your floors... new designs and textures, new fibers emerging from the laboratories with characteristics important to many homeowners. Daily we're asked a lot of questions about carpets, and we're always glad to come up with answers that can help. They may be decorating questions, having to do with what colors and textures are right for a particular decor, whether it's Early American or modern Spanish. Or they may be questions about carpet fibers, and which is best for a particular place or purpose. We'll be answering many of those questions each week in this column. We'll talk about the new technology and what it means to the carpet buyer, new color trends, useful things to know in buying or caring for your carpets. Look for us weekly. And be sure to look us up when you want to see the finest new carpets and rugs on display. There is more to see than ever before in today's new era of carpeting. From helpful advice to the best selection and value, we're here to serve you.

Texans Ask Resolution Of Dispute

DALLAS (AP) — A moderate-liberal faction claimed victory after a moderate-liberal faction of Texas Lutherans took a stand calling for re-evaluation of controversial "doctrinal and theological problems" which have split the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

At the same time, conservatives in the church's Texas district applauded a decision denying financial support to dissenting seminary students.

Resolutions expressing these views were adopted Sunday at the Texas Lutherans concluded three-day convention.

Theological differences have caused most faculty members at the Concordia Seminary in St. Louis to walk out also and form a Seminary-in-Exile (Semnex). They joined students in protesting dismissal of Dr. John Tietjen as president of the seminary because of what his critics branded "heretical teachings."

Tietjen's firing stemmed from the doctrinal dispute dividing the synod on Biblical interpretation between those who say the Bible is the inspired, infallible, literal word of God and those who say Biblical scriptures are more allegorical in nature and should not be interpreted literally.

Overwhelming Approval A call for a convention to resolve the dispute was in a resolution approved overwhelmingly by delegates. This resolution also called on the synod president, Dr. J. A. O. Preus, of St. Louis "to give serious consideration to following the procedures once used by the Lutheran Church for arriving at concord among the church."

In addition, the Texas delegates approved a motion urging the synod convention in Anaheim, Calif., in 1975 to re-evaluate several resolutions approved last year at the synod's meeting in New Orleans. Positions adopted at that time reflect a fundamentalist view of the Bible.

Conservatives showed strength as they pushed through a resolution urging the dissenting students at Semnex to return to the Concordia Seminary and voted to give financial assistance only to those who do so.

EMERGENCY TEST — Edward White makes contact with a station Sunday during 24-hour emergency equipment test conducted by the Midland Amateur Radio Club. More than 30 club members participated in the exercise at Hogan Park. The long practice run was to school members of the club in what to do in case of a natural disaster.

WITNESSES, NEW EVIDENCE CONSIDERED— House Panel Holds Planning Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee is meeting to decide on what witnesses, if any, it should call to clarify the detailed presentation of impeachment evidence it has been hearing since May 9.

The panel also may vote today on whether to subpoena more evidence in the milk fund, ITT and Internal Revenue areas of its inquiry.

Possible witnesses include John W. Dean III, President Nixon's prime accuser regarding Watergate, and ex-White House special counsel Charles W. Colson, who has said in court that Nixon urged him to defame Pentagon Papers figure Daniel Ellsberg.

The witness list is expected to be short because the committee is under pressure from the Democratic caucus to make its final recommendations by July 15, party sources say.

Some Democrats contend that only materials directly related to any impeachment recommendation should be disclosed. White House counsel Leonard Garment dismissed as "idle speculation" Sunday whether Nixon would refuse to comply with a Supreme Court order to surrender further Watergate evidence.

In a televised interview, he also said it is "invalid as well as idle" to suggest that any such action would lead to a constitutional crisis.

Arguments are scheduled for July 8 on special prosecutor Leon Jaworski's demand for tapes of 64 presidential conversations sought for use in the Watergate cover-up trial upcoming in September.

U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica ruled for Jaworski last month. Nixon's chief Watergate lawyer, James D. St. Clair, appealed the Sirica decision and at Jaworski's request, the question is being brought directly to the Supreme Court.

Midland College Budget Hearing Set

A public hearing and approval of the 1974-75 budget for Midland College will highlight the monthly meeting of the school's board of trustees at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the college meeting room, 4807 Andrews Highway.

The trustees are expected to approve the 1974-75 tax rate and furniture bids. Release of bonds from The Midland National Bank and renewal of membership in the Association of Community College Trustees are also expected to be acted on.

Also on the agenda is the approval of vouchers and financial statements.

Victory Cry "Checkmate" comes from the Arab victory cry in battle. "The King is dead." Check is a corruption of Shan or King.

Asked why Nixon has refused to comply with House Judiciary Committee subpoenas for more evidence, Garment replied: "Cooperation in the impeachment proceeding does not mean that he abandons the responsibilities of his office."

"Were he to accept the unilateral determination of the Congress" on evidence, "obviously the result of that would be that every piece of paper in the White House would be open to examination," Garment said.

He said he couldn't "speak with any certainty" on Colson's allegation that Nixon encouraged a smear campaign against Ellsberg.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mrs. Angeline Carter Dorrance, 58, wife of the chairman of the board of Campbell Soup Co., died Sunday. Mrs. Dorrance married John T. Dorrance Jr. in 1966 and was active in charitable, civic and educational affairs.

Yosef Tekoa, Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, said that if the U.N. Security Council meets to discuss Israel's air attacks last week on Palestinian strongholds in Lebanon, he would call for sanctions against countries that allow terrorists to operate from their territory.

City, School, College Equalization Board Sits Tuesday To Hear Appeals

The Board of Equalization for the City of Midland, Midland Independent School District and Midland College goes into session Tuesday in the Midland High School cafeteria.

Board members Fred Kester, Mrs. Patsy Bohannon and Byrne O'Neill will hear appeals regarding assessed property values.

According to Virgil Jones, tax assessor-collector, anyone wishing to appeal his property assessment can do so either by attending the board sessions between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. or by sending the appeal by mail to the board.

The same consideration will be given mailed assessment appeals as those presented in person, Jones said.

Jones points out that the job of the Board of Equalization is only to equalize the assessments of property valuations on the tax rolls. The board does not set tax rates, make budget requirements or even give value assignments to property. These are the jobs of the city council, school and college boards and the tax assessor-collector's office.

But the Board of Equalization does see to it that taxing citizens have equal valuation assessments applied against their property.

The Board of Equalization functions as a quasi-judicial body, entirely independent and not subject to control by anyone. However, the board cannot rule on the legality of any question that does not pertain to market value or assessed value of property under consideration.

The board's authority is confined, according to state statutes, to correction of erroneous designation of property by the owner, correction of erroneous descriptions and correction of valuations placed on the rolls by the tax assessor without authority.

Even after the tax rolls have been certified by the Board of Equalization, a taxpayer who still feels his property has been unjustly valued has the right to further appeal.

Within five days after the roll certification, a written petition may be sent to either the city council or district court of property jurisdiction concerning the assessment valuation. However, the taxpayer is required to pay all taxes assessed for the current tax year, and any subsequent years, preceding the final determination of his protest.

Golan Withdrawal Almost Completed

By The Associated Press The Israeli-Syrian troop disengagement in the Golan Heights neared completion today, leaving only the ruins of the town of Quneitra to be given up.

Israeli troops on the Golan Heights handed a one-mile-wide strip of captured Syrian territory over to United Nations forces and retreated to positions west of the 1967 cease-fire line.

The strip was the last part of the 300-square-mile Syrian bulge captured during last October's Arab-Israeli war. The Israeli withdrawal was the third phase in the disengagement negotiated by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger.

The disengagement is to be completed by Wednesday with the Israeli evacuation of Quneitra, the war-ravaged Golan Heights capital captured by Israel in the 1967 war.

Israel's semi-official state radio reported the withdrawal from southern Lebanon of Syrian soldiers who acted as spotters for artillery batteries that attacked Israeli positions on Mt. Hermon during and after the October war. Israel had charged that the Syrian spotters disguised themselves as Palestinian guerrillas.

In Jerusalem, Premier Yitzhak Rabin said Israel's only chance for survival is to strengthen its defenses while searching for peace. He told a group of Zionist leaders that Israel would continue to attack Arab guerrillas in Lebanon "in every place and at every time it deems necessary."

Yosef Tekoa, Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, said that if the U.N. Security Council meets to discuss Israel's air attacks last week on Palestinian strongholds in Lebanon, he would call for sanctions against countries that allow terrorists to operate from their territory.

The U.S. Navy announced that a Navy landing craft, the 522-foot LST Barnstable County, had moved halfway down the Suez Canal and anchored off Ismailia to serve as a base for American units helping to clear the waterway of wrecks and explosives.

The Barnstable County was the first American ship in the canal since the 1967 war closed it.

Two Scout Camps Scheduled June 30

The Buffalo Trail Scout Ranch in the Davis Mountains will be the scene of two special opportunity camps in which boys may participate. An Aquatic Camp is scheduled for June 30 to July 6, and a Mountain Men Wilderness Survival Camp for the same dates.

The Aquatic Camp under the direction of Ron Compton of Midland and Guy Griffith of Big Spring, will provide specialized training in all phases of aquatics, including swimming, life saving, rowing and canoeing.

The Mountain Men Camp under the leadership of Alford Havens of Midland will include back packing and techniques. Openings still exist in each of these camps and individual Scouts may sign up by contacting the Scout Service Center, Box 1506, Midland, telephone 694-7171 or 563-3276.

Road Crash Kills White Oak Couple

CRANDALL, Tex. (AP) — John Becker, 70, and his wife, Elva, 54, of White Oak were killed Sunday in a head-on collision on Texas 175 near here. The crash, which injured several other persons, took place on a bridge over the Trinity River.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
 Today is Monday, June 24, the 176th day of 1974. There are 190 days left in the year.
 Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1948, the Communists began the Berlin blockade, halting Allied land traffic between the isolated city and West Germany.
 On this date: In 1497, the first recorded discovery of the mainland of North America occurred as the explorer, John Cabot, sighted land between Halifax and southern Labrador.
 In 1520, the Spanish conqueror of Mexico, Hernando Cortes, entered Mexico City.
 In 1793, the first Republican constitution in France was adopted.
 In 1940, in World War II, the French government of Marshal Petain signed an armistice with Italy.
 In 1943, the Dutch royal family, exiled by war, arrived in the United States to establish temporary residence.

 In 1968, Col. Gamal Abdel Nasser was elected president of Egypt.
 Ten years ago: A search was begun for three civil rights demonstrators after their station wagon was found burned near Philadelphia, Miss.
 Five years ago: Poisonous substances in the Rhine River killed fish in an 186-mile stretch of the river from southern Germany to the Netherlands.
 One year ago: President Nixon and Soviet party leader Leonid Brezhnev ended talks in Washington with a declaration that they had moved the entire world toward a durable, stable peace.
 Today's birthday: Former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey is 79.
 Thought for today: I see that fashion wears out more apparel than the man.—William Shakespeare, 1564-1616.

Daniel Hopes To Finish Constitution By July 15

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Constitutional Convention delegates return this afternoon for one of their last debates and votes on the powers of a Texas governor and other executive branch officials.
 The 181 legislator-delegates recessed Friday noon after approving the Legislative Article 101-26.
 Still facing the convention before the July 30 mandatory deadline are the major provisions of the proposed new constitution concerning finance, judiciary and general provisions. All three articles have been approved tentatively but are still subject to amendments.
 Speaker Price Daniel Jr., convention president, predicted Friday that the first vote on the new constitution as a whole would come about July 8 and the convention would be able to adjourn finally by July 15.
 There is considerable speculation a special legislative session involving public school financing, state employees pay raises, utility rates, and other matters will immediately follow.
 The convention today had the public support of Gov. Dolph Briscoe for their work for the first time.
 After Friday's session, Briscoe said the delegates had "taken care of the points I was concerned about. As the body of the constitution now stands I can support it."

 Previously he said he wanted to support the convention's work but would wait to see the final draft.
 Spokesmen for the governor's office said they did not plan to ask any major changes in the executive article as it now stands.
 However, considerable debate and controversy still surrounds a provision that says all governmental agencies, except state colleges, shall have a life of not more than 10 years unless the legislature decides to renew it for another 10 years or less.
 Other major changes in the executive article, already approved by the convention once, provide four-year terms for statewide elected officials and limit the governor to two four-year terms; designate the governor as the chief planning officer of the state and make it clear that he has authority to direct orderly planning, budget preparation and specific fiscal control over other state agency budgets. They also order the governor to make regular reviews of all executive branch agencies and prepare reorganization plans for the legislature if needed.

Texas Gets Fair Return On Defense Tax Dollars

By The Associated Press
 Texans get $1.15 in defense spending in the state for every dollar the state contributes in taxes to national defense, according to report by a Michigan State researcher.
 The report was prepared by political scientist James Anderson and released Sunday by Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis.
 Neighboring New Mexico gets a bigger return than Texas for its defense dollars. According to the report, New Mexico gets $2.68 in defense spending for every dollar New Mexicans contribute to defense.
 Another Texas neighbor, Arkansas, does not fare well. For every dollar the state contributes to national defense, the Defense Department spends only $0.67 in Arkansas.
 The extremes in contribution and state spending were exemplified by the District of Columbia and Michigan. The report said that for every dollar contributed by the District of Columbia, the Defense Department spends $4.17, while Michigan gets only $0.26 for every dollar it gives to national defense.

The report showed that 28 states pay more for defense than they receive back.
 The Anderson study used information compiled by the Tax Foundation to calculate the tax burden of each state for defense as a proportion of the federal budget. It then compared that amount to the spending by the Pentagon in that state.
 Aspin said the study showed that Americans shared unequally the defense burden of the United States and that "defense is a significant drain on the economy of most major industrial states."
 "Taxpayers in the loser states should know that high Pentagon spending does not create more jobs for their states, but destroys jobs by removing more money than is returned," Aspin said.

Committee Eyes Colson Disbarment

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) — A spokesman for the Virginia State Bar says the organization is considering disbarment proceedings against former presidential adviser Charles W. Colson.
 "It has been referred to the district committee," the spokesman said.

Costly To Hire
 It costs a company between $300 and $400 to hire each employe, on the average, according to Western Girl, a temporary help service. This includes advertising, interviewing, testing, reference checks and, in some cases, an employment agency fee.

Freed American Nurse Reveals How Guerrillas Killed Dutch Companion

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — Ethiopian guerrillas killed a Dutch nurse they kidnaped because one of her shoes kept falling off and she couldn't keep up as they ran through the bush, according to her American companion.

Deborah Dortsbach, a pregnant, 24-year-old missionary nurse from Freehold, N.J., who was kidnaped May 27 with the Dutch nurse Anna Stickwerda, said the guerrillas of the Eritrean Liberation Front asked her to relay their apologies for the killing.

Mrs. Dortsbach, who was released unharmed Saturday, told her story to her associates in the Society of International Missions in Asmara, the capital of the northern province of Eritrea. She was reported in good health despite her ordeal, but has been in seclusion with her husband Karl in the Asmara area since her release.

The guerrillas kidnaped Mrs. Dortsbach and Miss Stickwerda, who was 54, from an American Evangelical Mission hospital in an area partly controlled by the ELF 25 miles from Asmara.

Mrs. Dortsbach's friends said she told this story: After they were taken from the hospital at gunpoint, Miss Stickwerda and Mrs. Dortsbach were forced to run through the bush toward a hideout. But the Dutch nurse was unable to keep up.

One shoe fell off repeatedly, and the guerrillas told the woman she would have to hurry. She fell to the ground, gasping, "I can't go on. I can't go on."

A guerrilla bent down and shot her in the head.

There was speculation that the guerrilla might have been frightened into shooting by the appearance overhead of a helicopter. But the helicopter was piloted by Grant Wyatt, a Canadian, instead of by Ethiopian soldiers, and the guerrillas captured Wyatt when he landed nearby.

Lubbock's Clyde Hall Named Texas VFW Commander

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Fellow ex-servicemen have elected Clyde Hall of Lubbock state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He and other officers were named Sunday at a convention which started last Wednesday and was ending today. About 4,000 delegates registered.

Fort Worth already had been picked as next year's convention city and Amarillo was chosen Sunday as site for the 1976 meeting.

Officers elected to serve with Hall are David L. Stein of San Antonio, senior vice commander; Herman Constable of Houston, junior vice commander; Billie L. Dorris of Austin, quartermaster adjutant; Ben Porath of Mesquite, chaplain; Al Shaffner of Cuero, surgeon, and Julius R. Nuenhoffer of Kerrville, judge advocate.

VFW auxiliary members chose Mrs. Cecil H. Rhoades of Amarillo as their state president. They also elected Mrs. Archie Smith of Fort Worth, senior vice president; Mrs. Andrew Suchina of Houston, junior vice president; Adele Blinford of Dallas, treasurer; Lela Rowland of Dallas, secretary, and Mrs. Marvin Boehm of Alice, chaplain.

The motion picture film "Ben Hur" won 11 Oscars in the 1959 Academy Awards.

Democratic Governors Drive For Louder Convention Voice

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The annual meeting of the U.S. Conference of Mayors this week is serving as a showcase for new political stars among municipal chief executives.

The Democrats especially are making plans for a bigger role in choosing their party's 1976 presidential ticket, and they wouldn't mind having a mayor on it. Included among possibilities for a vice presidential bid are mayors Kevin White of Boston and Thomas Bradley of Los Angeles.

Most of the Republican limelight is on Ralph Perk of Cleveland and Richard G. Lugar of Indianapolis, Ind., both nominees for the U.S. Senate this year, and Pete Wilson of San Diego, considering a 1976 Senate race in California.

But the vast majority of the mayors are Democrats—22 out of the 30 most populous cities—and they are organizing this week to make a formal effort to exercise their political influence on the national scene in the next two years.

Caucus Meeting Tonight

The Democratic caucus led by Milwaukee Mayor Henry W. Maier planned a meeting tonight to discuss methods by which the city's chief executives can round up and control blocks of delegate votes to the 1976 Democratic National Convention.

The Democrats are expected to meet with national party chairman Robert Strauss before the 42nd annual mayors' conference ends Wednesday. It began today.

Sunday, two Democratic mayors said they expected the caucus to wield significant power at the 1976 convention.

Mayor Maynard Jackson of Atlanta said, "We believe the future of America is the future of the cities. We believe the mayors ought to have significant influence at the convention. We would like to see a mayor on the national ticket."

Beame Won't Speculate

New York Mayor Abraham Beame agreed, but declined to speculate on potential candidates for president or vice president in 1976.

Jackson and Beame were among six mayors interviewed on NBC's "Meet the Press" Sunday. In an interview later Sunday, Boston's Mayor White, 44, said the mayors have enjoyed a resurgence in political influence since they won passage of the revenue sharing program in Congress two years ago.

He said that now, "They want to have a specific clout at the federal level in who's elected rather than just influencing those who already are elected."

The normal hierarchy to naional office in recent years has been through the U.S. Senate and White said, "I'm not sure the American mind is conditioned to seeing a mayor as a president."

Peter Fox Retires From Cotton Oil Co.

SWEETWATER — Peter Fox has retired as executive vice president and general manager of Sweetwater Cotton Oil Co. His replacement will be W. B. Hunter Jr.

Fox had been employed by the company 50 years. He had worked in all departments of the firm, serving as bookkeeper, cashier, vice president and assistant manager.

Senate Roll-Call Test Looms Today On Tax Reform Package

By JOE HALL, WASHINGTON (AP) — Taxes, impeachment and concern over the spread of nuclear weapons to the Middle East occupy the attention of Congress this week.

The Senate is resuming debate on tax cut and tax reform measures but chances of proposals passing appear to have evaporated.

House activities include decisions on witnesses for the impeachment inquiry against President Nixon and hearings on whether nuclear power aid to Egypt and Israel could lead to development of nuclear weapons in that region.

Sponsors Expect Defeat

Opponents of action on the tax proposals succeeded through filibustering and parliamentary maneuvers in preventing any substantive votes on the issues last week.

They have agreed to permit a roll-call test today on a package proposal calling for a 38.6-billion income tax cut and a variety of reform measures that would raise $7 billion annually within four years from corporations and wealthy persons.

But even sponsors of the package, led by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., concede it probably will be defeated.

Kennedy then hopes to break the package down into its components and get separate votes, starting with the reform provision to repeal the 22 per cent oil depletion allowance.

Offered As Amendments

Even if this succeeds, the different items still could be filibustered. And many oil state senators stand ready to talk at length to protect the depletion allowance.

The tax cut and tax reform measures are being offered as amendments to a debt ceiling bill, which must be sent to President Nixon by the end of the week, or the ceiling will drop to the permanent figure of $400 billion. This is $75 billion below the present debt and would cause serious financial problems for the government.

Because of the deadline, Senate leaders are expected to call off the fight on a tax cut and tax reform at some point and move to send the unamended debt ceiling bill to the White House.

The Senate was scheduled to pass today a continuing resolution to provide funds for all government departments, pending action on the appropriations bills for fiscal 1975, which begins July 1.

Congress has not cleared a single one of the required 14 bills.

Also up for Senate passage today was legislation authorizing a $3-billion emergency loan program for livestock producers.

The House Judiciary Committee met today to discuss what witnesses to call in its inquiry into President Nixon's impeachment.

The House Foreign Affairs subcommittees on the Near East and on international organizations will conduct jointly the hearings on the nuclear power aid.

Chairmen Lee H. Hamilton, D-Ind., and Donald M. Frazier, D-Minn., said in a joint statement that the questions they want answered include:

—How effectively can negotiated safeguards insure that the facilities will not give the Israelis and Egyptians the ability to develop nuclear weapons in the future?

—What could be done if the countries decided to denounce the safeguards and begin developing weapons after the power plants were in place?

WHAT IS THE TRUTH?
"Thy Word is Truth" (John 17:17)
By Bryan Boes

"If anyone should give me a dish of sand, and tell me there were particles of iron in it, I might look for them with my eyes and search for them with my clumsy fingers, and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw to itself the almost invisible particles by the mere power of attraction! The unthankful heart, like my fingers in the sand, discovers no mercies; but let the thankful heart sweep through the day, and as the magnet finds the iron, so it will find in every hour some heavenly blessings — only the iron in God's sand is gold."

The preceding quotation, attributed to Oliver W. Holmes, illustrates one of our biggest problems: the failure to acknowledge God's presence and blessings. While we enjoy countless blessings from God, we forget that he is the source of all good things. This ingratitude becomes tragic when we fail to respond to God's saving action through Jesus Christ.

Some statements from Romans 1 and 2 show the problem. "For although they knew God they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking . . . And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to base mind and to improper conduct . . . Or do you presume upon the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not know that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?"
