Guerrillas Raid Israel Again

Retaliatory Air Attacks Expected Against Lebanon

TEL AVIV (AP) — Three Arab guerrillas today staged yet another raid in Israel, killing a woman, her two children and an Israeli soldier in the seaside town of Nahariyya.

Israeli spokesmen claimed the guerrillas had slipped into Israel from southern Lebanon by a small boat, which was found tied at the dock.

Two Votes Voided In Judge Race

RANKIN — Testimony continued in 112th District Court here this morning in a hearing which opened Monday on a suit filed contesting the June 1 Democratic runoff election for Upton County judge.

More Israeli air attacks on Palestinian positions in Lebanon are expected shortly in retaliation of the guerrillas' action.

The three guerrillas invaded an apartment house in the town seven miles south of the Lebanon border and killed a 29-year-old woman, her two small children and an Israeli soldier before Israeli troops moved them down. Eight Israelis were wounded, including the dead woman's husband and five troops.

The Palestinian news agency Wafa claimed, in Damascus, Syria the attack was staged by Palestinians based in Israel instead of Lebanon and denied that the terrorists had entered Israel by boat.

The statement did not name the group responsible for the operation, but it said the attackers belonged to the "Martyr Kamal Adwan Squad." Adwan belonged to Yasser Arafat's Al Fatah, the largest but most moderate guerrilla organization. He was among three guerrilla leaders killed in their Beirut apartments by an Israeli commando raid in April 1973.

The statement was attributed to the "military spokesman of the Palestinian revolution," a term usually used for announcements from Arafat's office as the head of the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Wafa described the latest raid as a "quick retaliation" for Israeli air raids last week on five Palestinian refugee camps in southern Lebanon where the Israelis contended terrorists were located. Official Lebanese figures showed that 32 Palestinians and two Lebanese were killed in the air strikes.

It was the fourth major terrorist attack in Israel in 2 1/2 months. The raiders have killed 52 persons, including 33 children, and 100 have been wounded. In that period, 28 guerrillas have been killed in (See GUERRILLAS Page 5A)

WASHINGTON (AP) — A list of possible witnesses indicates the House Judiciary Committee may be focusing its impeachment inquiry on the March 21, 1973, payment to convicted Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr.

Second Pay Zone Opened In Eddy Pool

A second pay, Wolfcamp, has been opened in the La Huerta (Morrow) gas field of Eddy County, N.M., with completion of Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1-A Simpson, 1 1/4 miles northeast of Carlsbad.

On preliminary potential test, gauged gas at the rate of 1.5 million cubic feet per day, with a daily allowable of 275 barrels of hydrocarbon liquid. Gas-oil ratio measured 1,557-1. On a 7 1/2-hour test through a 23-64-inch choke, it flowed 369 barrels of distillate with a trace of water.

Production was through perforations at 9,007-9,031 feet, which had been acidized with 4,200 gallons.

Drilled to 11,001 feet, it is plugged back to 10,000 feet, in 5 1/2-inch casing seated at 10,026 feet.

Canyon perforations at 9,794-9,808 feet, have been temporarily abandoned.

Wellsite is 1,900 feet from north and 810 feet from east lines of section 25-21s-27e.

Lea Gets Sites For Prospectors

Hanagan Petroleum Corp., Roswell, plans two 5,400-foot Delaware wildcats in Lea County, N.M., 24 miles southeast of Halfway.

No. 1 Salazar is 1,900 feet from north and west lines of section 12-26s-34e, 1 1/4 mile southeast of the Bell Lake (Atoka and Morrow) gas field.

No. 1 Gerding, 1,900 feet from north and east lines of section 1-24s-34e, is 1 1/4 mile northeast and southeast of production in the Bell Lake field.

Three Eddy Areas Get Morrow Tests

Three undesignated projects have been slated in Eddy County, N.M.

Champlin Petroleum Co. will drill No. 1 Reeves-Federal as a 1 1/2-mile northeast outpost to its No. 1 Pecos-Federal, a recent dual Strawn and Morrow gas discovery.

It spots 660 feet from north and 1,900 feet from east lines of section 35-21s-27e, six miles southeast of Carlsbad. Contract depth is 12,200 feet.

The discovery was completed in April from the Strawn for 2.5 million cubic feet of gas daily, through perforations at 10,590-10,600 feet, and from the Morrow for 8.9 million cubic feet of gas per day, through perforations at 11,757-11,772 feet.

Mobil Petroleum Corp. will drill No. 1-12 Federal communitized one mile northwest of a long extension to the Burton Flat (Morrow) field.

It is projected to 11,500 feet, for tests of the Morrow, and spots 660 feet from north and east lines of section 12-21s-26e, six miles northeast of Carlsbad.

Read & Stevens, Inc., Roswell, staked No. 1 Allirish, a 9,800-foot Morrow test, 1/2 mile northwest of Morrow production in the Indian Basin field.

New Lows Recorded In Texas

Pleasantly cooler weather greeted many Texans as they awoke today, and temperatures dipped to record lows for the date at some points.

Aside from a few showers in early morning between Snyder and Sweetwater, and from around Seminole, Littlefield and Amarillo into New Mexico skies were generally clear.

The relief from early summer heat resulted from an invasion of Canadian air, which started spreading southward through the state two days ago.

Forecasters at Midland Air Terminal predict no important temperature changes for this afternoon and Wednesday. The high this afternoon should be near 90 while tonight's low is expected to be near 60. The high Wednesday is expected to be in the mid-90s.

Monday's high in Midland was a moderate 89 while the overnight low dipped to 54.

Temperatures near dawn ranged from 56 degrees at Beaumont, Lufkin and Wichita Falls up to 71 at Corpus Christi and Galveston. Weather Service records showed new low marks for June 25 at Houston with a 61 and Austin and Victoria with 63s, according to The Associated Press.

Readings early in the day averaged 10 to 15 degrees lower than at the same hour Monday from the Hill Country northwest of San Antonio to the Southeast Texas lowlands.

Forecasters promised continued fair weather across the state except for some scattered thunderstorms tonight in parts of West Texas.

Prime Rate Raised By Two More Banks

NEW YORK (AP) — Two more commercial banks today joined the move to an 11% per cent prime lending rate.

Mellon Bank of Pittsburgh, the country's 13th largest bank, and the Cleveland Trust Co., 27th in size, announced increases from 11 1/4 per cent, effective immediately.

On Monday five California banks adopted the 11% per cent rate, and First National of Chicago, the country's 10th biggest lending institution, posted a record 11.50 per cent prime rate.

Nixon Leaves For Summit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon left today for a Moscow summit with a pledge to seek closer cooperation with the Soviet Union and a lessening of "the burden and threat" of nuclear weapons.

Nixon, Kissinger and a huge entourage were to stop first in Brussels so Nixon can sign a new declaration of trans-Atlantic cooperation with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization on Wednesday.

In Brussels, Nixon will confer also with Italian Prime Minister Mariano Rumor, West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson and NATO officials.

He will spend a week in the Soviet Union, arriving there Thursday. Top subject on his agenda is nuclear weapons controls.

In a brief statement before leaving nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Nixon listed three goals for his summit meeting with Soviet leaders: —To strengthen U.S.-Soviet ties.

—To "develop areas of cooperation to displace areas of confrontation" elsewhere in the world, and —To progress toward limiting "both the burden and threat of nuclear weapons."

The Moscow summit is expected to produce a partial ban on underground nuclear weapons tests and an agreement in principle to harness fast-developing nuclear technology.

But Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told a news conference Monday that the third annual summit is unlikely to produce a comprehensive treaty limiting offensive nuclear weapons.

The chief executive spoke informally to a group of White House employees before making the helicopter ride to Andrews.

The presidential party, including Mrs. Nixon, departed from Andrews at 8:42 a.m.

"For the United States not to make a major effort in this field is something no future generation could possibly understand," Kissinger told a press conference.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

AUSTIN (AP) — The Constitutional Convention delegates today, by a 89-62 vote, tabled a proposal that would have taken a homestead exemption on local taxes for those over 65 out of the proposed new constitution.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department today announced the recall of the U.S. ambassador to Sudan and said it was dismayed by Sudan's decision to virtually release eight Palestinian guerrillas who murdered three Western diplomats a year ago.

Rep. Heatly's Charter Flights Were On Airplanes He Leases, Pilot Claims

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Rep. W. S. Heatly's charter airplane flights, for which he was billed by Flight Standards of Abilene and reimbursed by the state, were actually on planes he leases himself, the pilot said late Monday.

Heatly said Monday the charter flights were the only sensible way for him to travel between Austin and Paducah, his home town.

state business. That is the only thing I've had time to attend to for the past two years," Heatly said.

Flight Standards' invoices to Heatly for 12 charter flights since the Constitutional Convention began in January—totaling $2,404—all included amounts of aircraft time.

Heatly is entitled to travel expenses between Austin and his district, but one charter flight for which the state paid was from Paducah to Lubbock.

The regular commercial airline fare from Lubbock to Austin is $45.64.

Four Members Of U.N. Team Killed By Golan Land Mine

NEW YORK (AP) — Four Austrian soldiers of the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force in the Golan Heights were killed and one wounded today when a land mine exploded, a spokesman at U.N. headquarters in New York reported.

The explosion occurred as 500 Syrian soldiers worked to clear mines from the buffer zone separating Syrian and Israeli troops.

He said commercial service between Austin, Lubbock and Wichita Falls "is impossible."

The spokesman said the force was equipped with 40 mine-sweeping tanks and was expected to be in the strip between the Syrian and Israeli armies for three days.

Texas International has three flights to Wichita Falls each week day, costing $38.27 one way, and four flights to Lubbock. Air taxi or charter service between those two cities and Paducah is estimated to cost $30 to $60.

Convention Secretary Charles Schnabel said he approved the expenditure of state money on the charter flights after checking with the state comptroller's office on their legality. He said Heatly cited poor health in seeking approval for the flights, (See HEATLY Page 5A)

Ex-Screen Star In Spotlight At Gala By Show Biz Friends

By HENRIETTA LEITH
NEW YORK (AP) — Show biz gave one of its inside "love-ins" for a beloved old-timer, the housekeeper-cook of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic rectory in Portsmouth, R.I.

And the housekeeper-cook—onetime Hollywood "Blonde Bombshell" Betty Hutton—kissed show biz friends Monday night and told them she loved them all, then vowed to go back to Portsmouth and her housekeeping duties as soon as possible.

"I'll never leave that place," she said in a glare of spotlights at the Empire State Building's Riverboat Restaurant in white chiffon, feathers and a warm glow from all the kisses of other old-timers.

"I've been offered open-end contracts," she added. "But this is going to be my life."

Told that the Rev. Peter McGuire, who befriended her six months ago, had described her as a marvelous and inventive cook and expressed the hope she would continue in her job at the rectory, Betty said she had no idea of leaving.

"I've found something I can do well, and I intend to keep on doing it," she said. "I have a lot of people who love me. We go boating, we have a wonderful time. It's marvelous."

But when George Jessel came up and started talking about old times, he left Betty practically in tears. And when Eddie Bracken called from Hollywood, and she took the call onstage, the voice that said "Oh, I'm proud to hear from you" was the voice of the Betty Hutton who bounced through a dozen Hollywood musicals and became the pin-up girl of thousands of World War II G.I.s.

She told Bracken, "When you stopped making movies with me, things went down the tube."

Things had gone far down the tube for Betty Hutton when she ran into Father McGuire and, "broken, down and out, without a dime to my name," she accepted his offer of a job in the rectory.

At the Riverboat party, while one entertainer after another paid tribute and the reporters and photographers almost smothered her, Betty might never have been away.

Court Alters Standards For Defining Obscenity

By W. DALE NELSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, which ruled last year that juries in obscenity cases need not measure books and movies by national standards, now says the standards need not be statewide either.

Instead, the court held in a 5-4 decision Monday, a juror "is entitled to draw on his own knowledge of the views of the average person in the community or vicinity from which he comes."

The court cautioned, however, that juries do not have "unbridled discretion" to determine what is obscene.

The court's split decision on obscenity upheld the conviction of three men and a woman in Los Angeles who proposed to distribute illustrated copies of the Report of the President's Commission on Obscenity and

Temporary Veterans Aid Bill Passed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House approved and sent to the Senate Monday a bill to provide emergency funds to give some 2.2 million disabled veterans 15 to 18 per cent cost-of-living increases.

The bill, adopted unanimously, would also appropriate funds for a new program to put Veterans Administration representatives on all college campuses where there are 500 or more veterans enrolled under the GI bill.

Rep. J. Edward Roush, D-Ind., told colleagues the campus representatives are needed "both for the purpose of helping veterans as they make their application and the colleges as they process them."

The bill would appropriate $179 million to the Veterans Administration to be used in the fiscal year that ends June 30.

The greatest bulk of this — $100 million — would pay for a new law providing cost-of-living increases for some 2.2 million veterans who receive disability compensation and for 375,000 children and certain parents.

This law provides for a 15 to 18 per cent increase and makes it retroactive back to May 1. VA officials estimate that the retroactive increases will amount to an average $36 payment to each disabled veteran.

Another $77 million would fund another new law that provides for a 30-day extension of the eligibility period under the GI bill for veterans discharged prior to June 1, 1968. An estimated 285,000 trainees, whose eligibility would have expired on May 31, would benefit from this extension.

This portion of the bill would, among other things, permit those whose spring enrollment period extends into June to receive payment for the full period of enrollment.

The final $8 million contained in the supplemental appropriation bill would enable the VA to put some 1,300-veterans representatives on campuses by this fall.

The Veterans Administration estimates that about 900,000 are expected to enroll in colleges under the GI bill in September. Sponsors said the bill is intended to make a special effort to bring Vietnam era veterans into the program.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Pattern Has Her Going In Circles

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Writers Association

DEAR POLLY — I wish some reader would tell me how to cut out a round floor-length tablecloth. I have tried and failed so many times and I do think they look so pretty. — MRS. J.D.W.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with those colleges that start classes in mid-August. My two sons work in resort areas to earn their tuition and expenses for college. Some employers will not hire students who cannot work through Labor Day. This is making it increasingly hard for young people to find summer jobs that are scarce. — MRS. H.W.

DEAR POLLY — Like Pat, I, too, had trouble with the thread breaking (due to the new lightweight spools) when sewing on my machine. To solve this I put a couple of iron washers on top of the spool to add weight. — MARY R.

DEAR POLLY — and Pat — Sewing too fast can cause the machine bobbin to jump up and hang to break the thread. The wrong kind of needle or thread also can cause trouble. One thing few think of is that tiny slit in one end of the spool that catches the end of the thread. Turn the spool so the thread does not pass over this slit end. Or, cover it with tape and see if the thread continues to break. — ALICE.

DEAR POLLY — Like Pat, I have been upset by my machine thread breaking often and finally found the cause to be a little loose screw in the bobbin. — ALMA.

DEAR POLLY — When I was small my parents had difficulty keeping me on the back seat during our vacation car trips. I am an only child and found it very lonely in the back by myself.

One year Mother bought one toy or puzzle for each day of our long distance trip (not counting the days spent sight-seeing), put each toy in its own sack, stapled the bags shut and put all the little bags in one big bag. She was careful to avoid crayons that might melt in the hot sun, little pieces that get lost and things with extremely sharp edges and points. I particularly liked a magic slate. I would write down a request for a rest stop or a drink of water rather than ask for it.

I was only allowed one "Back Seat Surprise" each day and could play with that day's surprise or any from previous days. The important thing was that I HAD to sit in the back seat to play with these things. Any time I sat in front I could not take along any surprises. This relieved my loneliness and boredom the first year. The next year I made a selection from some toys I rarely played with and had my own set of surprises plus Mother's. — LIFE LONG TRAVELER.

Social Status Of Women On Workshop Agenda

LUBBOCK — A workshop spotlighting constitutional, political and social status of women will be offered July 16-20 by the Home Management section in the College of Home Economics at Texas Tech University.

"A slate of outstanding speakers will cover topics of foremost concern to the contemporary American woman with emphasis upon a factual, objective and realistic analysis of the status of women and related family problems," said Dr. Jane Coulter, home and family life professor and coordinator of the workshop.

Dr. Coulter emphasized that the week-long program is not to be associated with promoting or opposing any current political movement. Sessions beginning at 9 a.m. daily will continue throughout the week and will be conducted in the Business Administration building on campus.

Workshop participants will hear discussions by such national leaders as Rep. Sarah Weddington, an Austin attorney and the first female state representative from Travis County, and Louise Raggio, a Dallas attorney with expertise and knowledge of women and marriage laws.

Bobbie Nelson, director and attorney for the Women's Law Center, Austin, will conduct an in-depth discussion on employment rights for women. Financial management and consumer rights of women will be covered by Texas Tech Law School Professor Reed Quilliam and John Richards, an assistant attorney general with the Texas Consumer Protection Division.

Lubbock women appearing on the program will include Carolyn Jordan, city councilwoman; Mary Cobb, business woman, and Wynette Hewette, Tech law student. Jane Wells, member of the State Board of Education and a representative from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission headquartered in Washington, D.C., will complete the roster of workshop speakers.

Enrollment will be limited to 75 persons and prospective participants are encouraged to contact Dr. Coulter for workshop reservations.

Participants may enroll either for graduate credit or on a non-credit basis. Registration and other information available from Dr. Coulter, section leader, Home Management, College of Home Economics, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas, Telephone 793-4281.

Lamesa Scores!

Neighboring Lamesa is due congratulations on the recently announced multi-million dollar cotton spinning plant which will be located there.

The announcement, which rightly has created a great deal of excitement among residents of Lamesa, Dawson County and vicinity, was made by representatives of Feather Fabrics, Inc.

The plant, it is said, will be a joint venture between a Holland-based firm, Nijverderal-Ten Cate, and private investors.

Between 40 and 45 persons will be employed at the plant in its initial stage, with an increase to 85 after completion of the second stage.

One of the plant's main features is that it will utilize short staple and low micronaire cotton produced in tremendous quantities in the Lamesa area.

A report issued last week by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin revealed that Dawson County, of which Lamesa is the capital, last year produced 315,300 bales of cotton.

The 25 counties represented by the Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. produced a record 2,888,600 bales in 1973.

It readily may be seen from the report that the new mill will be built where the cotton is produced.

This is a great and far-reaching development for Lamesa, Dawson County and Wonderful West Texas.

The Lamesa Industrial Foundation, the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce and others who have worked long and hard to land the new plant are due a pat on the back for their successful efforts.

Welfare Rolls Decline

Would you believe that fewer Texans got welfare benefits last year?

Well, the Department of Public Welfare reports that this is the case.

Its annual report shows Old Age Assistance was down from an average of 210,000 monthly in 1972 to 182,000 in 1973.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children dropped from a high of 121,588 in February 1973 to 118,681 families in July of last year.

These are encouraging, noteworthy developments which will be watched with interest this year as a means of determining whether a definite trend has been established.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: New CIA Watergate link uncovered.

WASHINGTON — CIA front man Robert Bennett, son of veteran Sen. Wallace Bennett, R-Utah, has conceded that he knew a White House burglary-bugging team was on the prowl in advance of the celebrated Watergate break-in.

A secret memorandum, written by his CIA case officer, states that the senator's son withheld vital information from the authorities.

In an interview with my associate Les Whitten, Bennett acknowledged he knew at least three days before the Watergate burglary that White House aide E. Howard Hunt and his second-story crew had plotted to break into the campaign headquarters of Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., and bug the place.

Instead of reporting the conspiracy to the police, Bennett kept his mouth shut. He also confided to his CIA contact that he had held back information from the original Watergate prosecutors when they later questioned him about the Watergate break-in.

Had Bennett informed the police of the plot to break into McGovern headquarters, as the law requires, the subsequent Watergate caper would have been aborted and the course of history might have been changed.

This episode is another in the mysterious CIA involvement in Watergate. We uncovered the first piece of the puzzle as early as April 7, 1973, when we reported that the CIA had "ordered its agents not to talk to the FBI about the explosive Watergate case."

The CIA used Bennett's public relations firm, Mullin and Company, as a spy front. On its payroll was none other than Howard Hunt, the Watergate conspirator, who came to the firm from the CIA and later moved over to the White House.

Bennett's nephew referred a Brigham Young University student, named Thomas Gregory, to Hunt who recruited the young man as a political spy. Gregory infiltrated into the campaigns of the President's two chief Democratic rivals — first, Sen. Edmund Muskie's staff, then Sen. George McGovern's staff.

But Gregory, a conscientious Mormon, became uneasy about his undercover work. He spoke to his bishop about it, who was concerned about the ethics of the job.

Then Gregory went back to Bennett and explained his misgivings. As Bennett related it, Gregory had been told by Hunt to work late one night at McGovern headquarters and leave a door open so the White House burglars could sneak in.

Gregory informed Bennett that Hunt was "reporting to someone higher up." Hunt's White House connections impressed young Gregory. Bennett said he also felt Hunt would do nothing illegal because "he had a full-time lawyer advising him."

'Carbon Copy' It is practically a carbon copy of testimony offered by Adm. Elmo Zumwalt the Navy chief, before a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on March 20.

Apparently, Hebert's only disagreement with the Pentagon is over grammar. He tinkered slightly with the Navy's paragraphing and punctuation. He also edited out some of Zumwalt's "I's" and "We's" and substituted a few "observers."

"I always knew Hebert and his boys were pushovers for the Pentagon," one of Hebert's committee members told us. "But I never expected them to prove it so decisively. I am ashamed to say that right now the committee is nothing but a rubber stamp for the Pentagon."

Where had South gone wrong? There was a perfect safety play available to him. He should simply have covered West's seven of clubs with dummy's nine spot. As North pointed out, you can afford that loss when insuring a slam.

Suppose clubs had broken 3-1. South would lose a club trick and could not lose two. Suppose East held all four clubs. West would have shown out and South would have known about the bad break. The only way to lose the slam was for West to hold all four and South to misplay the suit.

TOM TIEDE Are There 'Manchurian Candidates' Among Us?

WASHINGTON (NEA) — While others in this city engage in the premature wonder of who the next president may be, lawyer Bernard Fensterwald Jr. busies himself with the creepy question of who the next president may not be.

Fensterwald is one of these people who believe that there are strange and conspiratorial things about in the Republic, things that not even the high and the mighty can control.

His argument, simply, is that the last four presidential elections were decided by bullets not ballots.

Lyndon Johnson won in 1964 because John Kennedy was shot down in 1963; Richard Nixon won in 1968 because only Hubert Humphrey was available to the Democrats after Robert Kennedy's murder; and Nixon, who might have lost to a pair of opponents in 1972, again won handily when George Wallace's votes were interrupted by another exploding revolver.

Could it happen again? And who might the victim be? Fensterwald speculates privately, but not for the public record. He says only that the possibility should be of concern to America. He also says, tantalizingly or boorishly, depending on one's viewpoint, that "the federal government knows the truth, but isn't saying."

Bedecked in a bow tie, and smiling mysteriously from behind a pair of studious spectacles, Bernard Fensterwald has for his doubts lately been branded a nut.

Once anything but a controversy, Fensterwald was a Senate investigator for 10 years before changing to a profitable private law practice. But now, deeply embedded in the thought that America is keeping something horrible from its children, and founder of a group called The Committee to Investigate Assassinations, the attorney is thought of as weird. "I like him," says one old Senate chum, "but I'm afraid he's gone off the deep end."

The stand-off suspicion is quite natural. America has in recent times been too much subjected to the half-wit notions of quarter-wit entities. And where the "assassination conspiracy" theory is concerned, the subjection has seldom had wit at all.

Currently, as example, a member of George Wallace's staff is advancing the idea that Communists have unleashed "Manchurian Candidates" into American politics. The thinking is that people like Lee Harvey Oswald, Sirhan Sirhan and Arthur Bremer may have been "programmed to kill our great people."

Fensterwald, however, is not apparently cut from that cloth. His committee on assassinations is a roster of respected names and his printable views are reasonable. His feeling that the government deceives the public, for instance, is, post-Watergate, almost the establishment philosophy.

Furthermore, he does not see any assassination plot, as such, by either foreign or domestic powers; rather, he cautions us legitimately that "murder has in the past been a policy of the U.S. government" — thus, to simply look on government as hallowed is at best unintellectual.

Fensterwald's wish is to reopen investigations into each of the last decade's four major assassinations. Since he represents one of the convicted assassins, James Earl Ray, his motives could be questioned if it weren't for the fact he joined the client long after he joined the small clamor for full disclosure.

He does not deny that each of the convicted (except his own client) is guilty; his motive is to prove they did not act alone. Says he: "I think what's at the bottom of it may dwarf Watergate. If people are shocked by Watergate, what we may prove is one thousand times worse."

Fensterwald won't say just what it is he's trying to prove. But he wouldn't be surprised if the CIA was heavily involved in "the real story." He recounts the Washington gossip that Watergate plumber E. Howard Hunt was once a CIA man in Mexico City at the same time Lee Harvey Oswald was there visiting, and that Hunt later wrote a book calling John F. Kennedy a "traitor" at the Bay of Pigs.

Fensterwald also suggests that President Nixon profited handsomely from two assassination attempts, adding: "Do you know where Nixon was the day President Kennedy was shot? He was in Dallas, Texas." It may be, as Henry Kissinger

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor: My curious neighbor says he has been studying the master of how come the situation in Washington seems to get more messed up every day.

And he has reached the scientific conclusion that this results naturally from a situation where small minds constantly are wrestling with large problems.

DON OAKLEY Saving The Captain May Sink GOP Ship

WASHINGTON (NEA) — "Summer is icumen in" in Washington (loud sing the cuckoos there), the third year of Watergate has begun, and as the languor of the season envelopes Capitol Hill, the feeling grows that maybe, just possibly, you-know-who might "tough it out" after all.

The idea gains increasing credence, at any rate, that when the House Judiciary Committee finally gets around to acting in the matter of the impeachment of Richard M. Nixon (it now looks like it will be sometime in midsummer), the vote will be drawn along sharply partisan lines.

Latest reports from committee watchers are that support of the President is firming up among its Republican members.

The storm over the White House transcripts has abated. Mr. Nixon's triumphant tour of the Middle East certainly did him no harm. The Supreme Court has yet to render a "definitive" decision about the President's right to withhold evidence.

Most important of all, however, is the unremitting pressure on GOP congressmen being maintained by a hard core of Nixon loyalists among the general public.

The likelihood still is that the committee, composed of 21 Democrats and 17 Republicans, will recommend impeachment. But unless a substantial number of the Republicans join in that

Nixon Leaves Today For Moscow Summit

(Continued From Page 1A) The Russians were asked to sign an "interpretive statement" after the treaty was negotiated to clarify how their sea based missiles would be counted.

Later, after Kissinger met in closed session with the Senate subcommittee on arms control, the chairman, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said the issue was not really the number of missiles involved but "the withholding from the Congress and the American people a secret agreement."

Nixon, who will hold talks with Soviet leaders, including Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev, indicated the President also would try to ease restrictions on Jewish immigration.

Meanwhile, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., said the arrest and detention of dozens of Soviet Jews in advance of the summit meeting was an affront to the United States. A bipartisan group of 40 House members urged Nixon to raise the issue of the status of Soviet Jews.

Nixon will have his first meeting with Soviet leaders late Thursday, then attend a state dinner at the Kremlin given in his honor by President Nikolai V. Podgorny.

On the lighter side, he plans to see American and Soviet astronauts in training for a joint space mission and spend part of the weekend at Brezhnev's Black Sea resort.

High Court Strikes 'Free Space' Statute

WASHINGTON (AP) — A unanimous Supreme Court today declared that states cannot demand that newspapers give political candidates free space to reply to editorial attacks.

The court overturned a $1-year-old Florida law imposing such a requirement. The court said the law violates the First Amendment free press guarantee.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger wrote for the court, "The choice of material to go into a newspaper, and the decisions made as to limitations on the size of the paper and content and treatment of public issues and public officials — whether fair or unfair — constitutes the exercise of editorial control and judgment."

media before they can sue for libel.

In the case of private individuals speaking on public issues, the court said, proof of negligence is enough when seeking only actual damages.

However, such individuals must prove reckless disregard for the truth by the media to sue for punitive damages, the court said.

In the Florida right-to-reply case, the court said it has yet to be demonstrated how government regulations over newspaper's judgment about what it publishes could be exercised consistent with First Amendment guarantees of a free press.

plied only rarely until Pat L. Tornillo, a candidate for the state legislature, invoked it in support of his demand for free space in the Miami Herald to reply to two critical editorials during his 1972 campaign.

A Florida trial court rejected Tornillo's argument but the Florida Supreme Court sided with him.

The state Supreme Court concluded that the statute was consistent with the First Amendment because it "is designed to add to the flow of information and ideas."

Major news organizations warned that to allow the Florida law to stand would chill free expression and discourage news coverage of political campaigns and political figures generally.

Homicide-Suicide Verdict Returned At Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — An official verdict of homicide-suicide was entered Monday in the fatal shootings of wealthy oilman Bobby Burns and his wife.

The two were found dead last Friday in the master bedroom of their fortress-style mansion here. Police said a maid, cook and security guards made the discovery.

Officers reported a .38 caliber pistol containing four spent cartridges and two live rounds lay between the two beds. They decided that Burns, 55, was the first to die of bullet wounds in the head, neck and shoulder and Mrs. Burns, 50, died of a wound in the abdomen.

"Based on our investigation, we concur with the findings of the county medical examiner of homicide-suicide," police Capt. R. A. Nelson said.

Burns, also an internationally known sportsman, recently contributed $500,000 to Southern Methodist University, his alma mater, for completion of a new sports complex.

Equalization Board Hearing Property Valuation Appeals

The Board of Equalization for the City of Midland, Midland Independent School District and Midland College went into session today and reviewed property valuation protests of about 30 Midlanders before the noon lunch break.

Persons wanting to appeal their assessed valuations filled the cafeteria of Midland High School and numbered 125 by 11 a.m.

Virgil Jones, tax assessor-collector, said that most of the protests could be heard by the board today and Wednesday. He urged anyone who could not appear to file their protest to the board by mail.

Of the 20 protests heard by the board during the morning session, most were concerned with valuations of property outside the city. One city residential protest was heard during the first session.

Two land valuation protests were heard by the board involving appeals from the Howard Corp. and Gibson's Discount Center.

Jones noted that all protests will be answered by the board within 30 to 45 days by mail.

Two Witnesses Testify Against Andrews Doctor

A former federal undercover officer told the jury in the drug trial of Andrews physician Henry Thomas Leigh that the doctor gave him a prescription without an examination on one occasion and another time told the agent to return in two weeks because "the heat is on."

John W. Young will be installed as president, succeeding John Tyler in the office.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth of Canyon, a past district governor of Rotary International, will be the guest speaker.

Other new officers are E. Dave Dorchester, vice president; R. O. Smith, secretary (re-elected); Parker M. Humes, treasurer; and Marvin McCree, sergeant-at-arms.

Directors include Robert Donnell, Merwin Haag, Richard Jons, James W. Mims, Carroll Thomas and John Thomas.

The club's regular Thursday noon meeting will not be held this week, Secretary Smith said.

Judiciary—

(Continued From Page 1A) both parties would appear to have knowledge of the $75,000 payment, which the Watergate grand jury has charged was part of a plot to keep Hunt quiet.

The witnesses, not all of whom are expected to be called, are former White House aides H. R. Haldeman, Charles W. Colson, John W. Dean III, Alexander P. Butterfield and Frederick C. LaRue; former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell; Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry E. Petersen and Herbert W. Kalmbach, Nixon's former personal lawyer.

The committee will vote today or Wednesday on the actual list of witnesses to be called in the final phase of the impeachment inquiry, which will begin next Tuesday. Questioning is to be completed by July 12 so the committee can start deliberating on possible articles of impeachment by July 15.

ON STRATEGIC ARMS AGREEMENTS— Kissinger, Jackson Still At Odds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was still in conflict with Sen. Henry M. Jackson over existing strategic arms agreements as he headed today for new negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Neither man backed down after a three-hour confrontation Monday on the Washington Democrat's charge, and Kissinger's denial, that a "secret clarification" altered the 1972 five-year agreement for limitations on offensive nuclear weapons.

Both Kissinger and Jackson, head of the Senate Armed Services subcommittee on arms control, said classified documents, when released, will support their claims.

Kissinger left today with President Nixon on a journey to another Moscow summit conference.

Jackson said Kissinger, in a "secret clarification" dated July 24, 1972, agreed with the Russian government to change the definition of a modern missile to authorize the Russians to deploy 1,020 modern submarine ballistic missiles in place of 950 specified in the interim agreement.

Shahan left today with President Nixon on a journey to another Moscow summit conference.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Emmanuel Baptist Church here, with the Johnson Funeral Home in charge.

Shahan lived in Midland from 1960 to 1964, when he retired from Humble as chief clerk and moved to San Angelo. He had lived at McCamey from 1956 to 1959.

Born at Dripping Springs, Shahan is survived by three sons, Earl Shahan of Portland, Norman Shahan of Corry, Pa., and Glen Shahan of Wills Point; a daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Heleen) Adams of Conroe; a brother, Ross Shahan of Austin; two sisters, Mrs. Doris Palmer of Burnet and Mrs. Novella Krause of Austin, and eight grandchildren.

Due to the greater than expected number of students attending summer school, Midland College will register students from June 26 to July 15 for the second summer session.

Registration will be from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the school's day campus, 4807 Andrews Highway, C. C. Dakil, dean of students, announced this morning.

The grant, termed the Jesse H. and Mary Gibbs Jones Scholarship Funds, is for the 1974-75 academic year.

It will be used for student scholarships and funding of various academic programs, said B. H. Amstead, UTPB President.

SAN ANGELO — R. B. Shahan, 72, a former resident of Midland, died in a hospital here Sunday afternoon.

Shahan, a long-time executive of Humble Oil & Refining Co. (now Exxon), was a regular attendee at the Permian Basin Petroleum Pioneers Reunions held every two years at Midland.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Emmanuel Baptist Church here, with the Johnson Funeral Home in charge.

Guerrillas Strike Again In Israel

"We will not tolerate these attacks," Israeli Premier Yitzhak Rabin declared after rushing to Nahariyya before dawn. "We will do everything possible to prevent them and punish those responsible."

The three terrorists slipped into Israel from Lebanon by motorboat Monday night and made their way through the streets of the quiet seaside resort—a favorite of honeymooners—until they came to a three-story apartment house at 19 Balfour Street.

Firing their weapons and throwing hand grenades, the three Arabs rushed past two elderly civilian guards about 11:30 p.m. and raced through the corridors shooting at every door, residents reported.

The occupants barricaded themselves in their apartments, pushing furniture against the doors. But the Arabs shot their way into the apartment occupied by Mordechai Zarakani, his wife Irene and their 5-year-old boy and 10-year-old girl.

For three hours gunfire and explosions pierced the night. A marksman shot and killed one of the guerrillas on the roof of the building. Then army officers, shouting through loudspeakers, told the two remaining gunmen to free their hostages or die.

The Arabs answered with bursts of gunfire. An army combat team scaled the wall of the building and went in through the door where the dead guerrilla had been perched.

They advanced inside the building behind a screen of bullets. Outside one doorway where a terrorist and a soldier threw grenades at each other, the entire wall was shattered.

Nixon said after meeting with his economic advisers that he will try to cut $5 billion from the 1975 budget of $305 billion.

Second Gun Victim Found Near Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — A body found in heavy brush in north Harris County has been tentatively identified as that of Henry E. Ardoin, 45, of Houston who police say was a friend of a man whose body also was found in the area.
 Sheriff's officers said Monday night they were "virtually sure" the second body was that of Ardoin but were awaiting positive word from the medical examiner's office.
 Both Killed With Shotgun
 The second body was found Monday afternoon near the spot where that of Bill Monks, 44, of Welch, La., was discovered Saturday. Both men had been killed with a shotgun, sheriff's officers said.
 Sheriff's Capt. L. M. Frazier said Monks and Ardoin were lifelong friends. He said officers began searching the area for a second body after determining that Ardoin was missing and was last seen Friday afternoon with Monks.
 Jewelry, Money Taken
 Frazier said the second body was in heavy brush about 300 feet from Monks' body.
 Monks was struck in the head and side by a shotgun blast. Frazier said the second man was shot twice in the head, and both men were robbed.
 "Their money, jewelry, wallets and all identification were missing," he said.
 He said Monks, a rice grower, was in Houston to attend an American Rice Growers Cooperative Association convention which ended Friday.

Rice Professors Ask Nixon Cancel Trip To Moscow

HOUSTON (AP) — A Rice University spokesman said Monday night 14 Rice professors signed a telegram sent to President Nixon urging him to cancel his trip to Moscow unless the Russians release arrested Jewish scientists and scholars.
 "The Russian government's preventive arrest of a substantial number of Jewish scientists and scholars on the occasion of your forthcoming visit to the Soviet Union is an intolerable affront to free men everywhere," the telegram said.
 "We, therefore, strongly urge you to cancel your trip to Moscow unless the Russian government immediately releases the people it has arrested."

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Minority Has Right To Its Privacy, Too

DEAR READERS: I received the following letter. (It was signed.)

DEAR ABBY: We are two students at Scripps College in Claremont, Cal., who are distressed by the attitudes of the majority of the girls in our residence hall concerning male visitors.

Not only are men allowed in the girls' rooms 24 hours a day, but they are also allowed to use our bathroom facilities! We find it particularly embarrassing to encounter men just outside the showers with only a towel wrapped around them. We also sometimes encounter couples showering together in the same stall.

These rules were approved by the majority of the girls in our dormitory, but we feel that, as a minority, we have certain rights to our privacy, and that since this is a women's college, we shouldn't have to accommodate men in our living quarters.

We would appreciate your advice on this subject and hope you will print this so that girls at other women's colleges who share the ideas of the majority will have a greater respect for the sentiments of the minority.

DOUBTFUL
Suspecting that "Doubtful" letter might have been a student, I wrote to the Dean of Students and asked for verification. I received the following reply:

Dear Ms. Van Buren: I have received your letter and the enclosed letter from one of our students. Indeed, the situation which she has described is not a "put-on." Though ours is a residential college for women, the college community, at the express request of students, adopted a 24-hour visitation system three years ago.

Part of the understanding inherent in this procedure, and one which the students must reaffirm each year, is that special consideration and accommodations be given to any student in any residence hall who finds herself, as "Doubtful" does, in the minority. She has only to talk to the president of the hall, the residence staff person, or to one of us in the dean of Students office, and we will make every effort to provide her with a living situation compatible with her particular lifestyle.

I think "Doubtful" should be encouraged to use the channels available to her within her own college!

Sincerely,
Stephanie Adams, Dean of Students

DEAR DOUBTFUL: Well, there you are. The Dean of Students has suggested alternatives available to you and others who find the prevailing lifestyle within your dormitory repugnant to you.

Even though you are in the minority, I share your feelings of outrage, and believe that since yours is a women's residential college, those girls who have opened their bathing and toilet facilities to their male guests should suffer the inconvenience of applying for a living situation compatible with THEIR lifestyle.

DEAR ABBY: My 66-year-old mother died of cancer last week. During her illness, which lasted for about eight months, she occupied our guest bedroom.

I want to make sure the room is entirely disinfected. Would having the carpet, curtains and mattress dry cleaned make it safe for others to sleep in that room? I have already scrubbed the walls and furniture with disinfectant.

A friend of mine said I should burn up everything that was in that room and repeat just to be on the safe side. Please advise me. WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Your friend is mistaken. Cancer is not a contagious or infectious disease. Since there is no known germ or virus which causes cancer there are no "germs" to get rid of. Give the room a thorough routine cleaning and forget about it.

Planning, Zoning Commissioners Take A Tour Of Land Abutting City Limits

Land annexation proposals, which include a site for a regional shopping center, took a new twist Monday as Planning and Zoning Commissioners went on a visual inspection tour of land abutting the city limits to the north and west of Midland.

The tour was conducted after city officials expressed a desire to study possibilities of annexing up to nine square miles into the city as a protective control measure for future development.

Under consideration by the commission is annexation of property which generally extends about one-half mile along most of the northern city limits, about 1 1/2 miles to the extreme northwest corner and one-half mile down the western city limits almost to U.S. 80.

This would include sites on which two developers said they plan regional shopping centers if proper zoning is approved. The City Council has approved on first reading the annexation of tracts requested by Midland developer Lawrence Hahn at Garfield Street and FM 868, and by Odessa developer Louis Rochester at Midkiff Road and FM 868.

Instead of giving final approval to these individual tracts, however, the council may decide to annex some land all along the northern and western borders of the city, which would give the city zoning control for all future development in this area and at the same time allow interested developers a wider choice of land for possible shopping centers.

The commission made no decision or recommendation on the annexation proposal Monday, but indicated another tour will be scheduled this week and that a recommendation to the City Council would be made by July 1.

Nixon Suffered Clot In Leg During Trip To Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, one of the healthiest of post-World War II presidents, suffered from a mild clot in a leg vein during his recent Middle East trip, the White House says.

The clot, termed phlebitis by Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren, set in before the trip began and "it has now been resolved," Warren said Monday.

Dr. Walter Tkach, Nixon's physician, reported that the President is "in good health and is looking forward to his trip to Brussels and the Soviet Union," Warren said.

Warren did not disclose in which leg Nixon suffered the phlebitis and did not say what, if any, treatment was given.

According to medical dictionaries, phlebitis is an inflammation of a vein, often associated with a small clot and is most common in veins of the leg.

It may follow injury or infection, the books say. They add that treatment includes use of elastic supports and aspirin and there is no need for the patient to cut down normal activity.

Nixon has been seen limping from time to time in the past but White House officials had offered no explanation for this.

Jurors Want To Know If Ad Agency Had Role In Price War Between Airlines

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Probing grand jurors have ordered an advertising agency to disclose whether it played any role in a price war involving Braniff Airways and Southwest Airlines.

The panel directed Clinton E. Frank, Inc., Advertising of Dallas to produce data dealing with what it described as "Braniff's fare reduction" for two months starting Feb. 1, 1973.

Southwest slashed its fares by one half for 60 days starting late in January 1973.

The grand jurors for 21 months have been trying to determine if Braniff and Texas International Airlines tried to prevent Southwest from entering business.

Twenty-five Braniff and Texas International officials and former officials have been granted immunity in connection with their testimony before the grand jurors.

According to records, the advertising agency must tell about its promotion of flights linking Dallas, San Antonio and Houston "on which Braniff considered reduced fare level"

Baker Wants Papers On Alleged CIA Conspiracy In Watergate Declassified

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr. says he has been trying for months to have the secrecy stamp lifted from documents on which Charles W. Colson apparently bases a theory of deep CIA involvement in Watergate and related cases.

"I doubt that this will become a dead issue," the Tennessee Republican said. "I don't expect it to."

Because the CIA refuses to declassify the documents, Baker said he cannot confirm or deny the accounts given Monday by a private investigator consulted by Colson last month.

The investigator, Richard L. Bast, said Colson told him President Nixon generally agrees with his theory of CIA conspiracy. Bast said Colson believes the CIA helped carry out the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist and that the agency knew in advance of the Watergate burglary plans.

Baker has written a report based on his CIA investigation that he had hoped could be included in the Watergate committee's final report, expected this week. But because the Baker study relies on documents the CIA classified secret it cannot be made public.

A source with access to the report said it draws no ultimate conclusions about intelligence community connections with Watergate or the cover-up but raises "significant new questions" that make it impossible to rule out such connections.

Colson, a former White House aide, said in a statement that he met twice with Bast and "we talked in a very offhand fashion, largely exploring theories for many of which I have been unable to obtain factual support."

He said the discussions were not for public consumption and while some of the statements were quoted accurately they "should not therefore be read into any other context."

According to Bast, Colson based many of his statements on documents he was shown by Baker in the senator's home last year.

Baker, who has been trying to pursue a CIA-plot theory dropped by other investigators, said Colson "sat in my living room at my request and answered certain questions that were based on documents supplied us by the CIA. He said Colson 'was no source of anything.'"

Baker said, "I have been trying for months, in any way I can, to get that stuff declassified," but that his first request—now three months old—has not drawn a CIA response.

Colson said he consulted Bast last month "at a time when I was exploring whether he

Elliott Hotel Sold At Odessa

ODESSA — The Elliott Hotel, a downtown Odessa landmark, has been purchased by Odessa businessman Glen Branton at an undisclosed price.

Branton said he plans to reopen the facility as a hotel for permanent guests. Renovation is to begin immediately, with the first occupants expected to move in in about three months.

The hotel was built in 1926 and closed in 1969.

Odessa Prisoner Free After Escape

ODESSA — Charlie Moss, arrested here Saturday on complaints of felony theft and drunk in public, escaped between 10 and 11 a.m. Monday between the time he was arraigned on the drunk charge and the time the prisoners were returned to their cells.

An escape complaint was filed this morning and Moss is being sought.

Moss was among prisoners taken to Odessa Municipal Court about 9 a.m. Monday. He was arraigned and disappeared some time after that, police said.

Industry Dramatically Underestimates Reserves Of Oil And Gas, Nader Says

HOUSTON (AP) — Consumer Advocate Ralph Nader says the oil industry has dramatically underestimated oil and gas reserves.

"They get away with it because they don't release reserves data on a company-by-company basis," Nader said.

Nader told a convention of the Automatic Car Wash Association Monday that the nation has ample reserves of conventional fuels for the short term period of 30 years or so despite reserves estimates by the American Petroleum Institute.

He said a lack of monopoly opportunities is preventing major oil companies from investing heavily in solar energy research.

He said solar energy is one of the most promising forms of power in the future.

"But the sun has three sins that make it highly unattractive to the Exxons of this world," he said.

"Exxon doesn't have a monopoly. The sun is inexhaustible and it is pretty hard to control prices when you have an inexhaustible supply of energy. And the sun is everywhere. Energy companies want something that can be controlled and restricted."

He said consumers and small businessmen must form an effective coalition to end the political and economic conditions that made a "contrived energy crisis" possible.

As technology becomes more dangerous, the risk of failing to accept this responsibility is real and threatens democracy, the environment and civilization, he said.

Nader said there is no federal energy policy today.

"We have a Nixon-Exxon policy," he said.

"If we are going to have a federal energy policy it is going to be for the Exxons or is it going to be for the consumers? Sometimes the interests conflict. In the past 25 years, Washington has put $4 billion into solar energy and $30 million into nuclear fusion. That's going to change. There are bills in Congress that will be passed to allocate more money to solar energy."

Wimbledon Begins Two Week Play

By WILL GRIMSLEY
WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — The world spins along at a maddening pace. Jets cross oceans in a matter of hours. Computers think like men. Men walk on the moon. But Wimbledon remains unchanged.

For the next two weeks, it's almost like a walk back through the 19th century. Ivy covers the brick walls of

Slow Pitch Softball

The old buildings erected when the All-England Club moved from Worple Street to Church Road. The stands are a deep, dull green, weather-beaten by the sun, winds and rain.

Although the rest of the booming tennis world long since has shifted to bright pastel colors for attire and opted for yellow balls, Wimbledon still adheres to its strict-all-white rule.

The players must wear white. "It's a little strange," said John Newcombe of Australia, the world's best man player as he took the court for his first match. "I've seen nothing but yellow balls for months and now I must play with white."

"It sort of psychs you, but you get used to it."

In 1940 the staid Wimbledon directors were shocked when gorgeous Gussie Moran appeared on the court in sexy lacy panties. They rushed her to the dressing room for a quick change.

Two years ago Rosemary Casals drew a similar rebuke when she started to take the court in a pastel-colored dress. The ladies are permitted a slight color trim—so are the men—but the costume must be basically white.

For Londoners and other visitors, this is not a tennis tournament. It is a festival. Londoners begin applying for tickets a year in advance.

By car, tram and bus, they pour to this pleasant tree-pocked suburb, sit under green umbrellas and eat strawberries and cream.

Two years ago, most of the best players in the world—members of Lamar Hunt's World Championship of Tennis—were barred from competition. A year ago, the top players boycotted the tournament because of a ban against Yugoslavia's Nikki Pilic.

The crowd came, anyhow, ate their strawberries and cream, saw a minimum of tennis and went away happy. Nothing shakes up Wimbledon.

While a modern breed is attempting to take tennis out of its 18th stays and corsets and put it in hot pants, Wimbledon refuses to budge from its long, rich tradition.

The only concession made has been in the area of the tie-break, and Wimbledon has installed its own—about as ambiguous as the original system.

To staid tennis purists, this is hallowed ground. The grass of the 15 courts is like a precious carpet spread over the floor of a palace.

STARTS WEDNESDAY National LL Playoffs

The National Little League tournament begins Wednesday at 6 p.m. This B-League tournament will be hosted by Tower League at Henderson Park located at Versailles and Eisenhower streets.

Jerry Williams, president of Tower League and tournament director, said all games will start at 6 p.m. Wednesday through Friday. The pennant-winning teams from Northern and Tower leagues will tangle on one diamond while the Western and Eastern winners meet on the other diamond. Central and North Central teams both drew bye's for the opening action in the single elimination tournament.

The American League (A-teams) will play its double elimination tournament beginning on Monday, July 1, and ending on July 6 or possibly July 8. Tracy Norris, president of Eastern League is the tournament director. The American League championship series will be played on the Eastern diamonds located at Golf Course Road and Tilden Street.

Texas Loses Again

Twins Rip Rangers, Clyde, 8-4

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Minnesota Manager Frank Quilici wasn't exactly a picture of joy Monday night after his Twins ripped the Texas Rangers 8-4, saying the way he hears it from owner Calvin Griffith "my job is in jeopardy unless we win on this road trip."

The somber Quilici said, "I've never worried about a job. I'm just trying to see to it that our guys win. The owner can say what he wants to say."

The Twins are in fifth place in the American League West. Quilici is in his second full season at the helm. He followed Bill Rigney as the Minnesota manager after Griffith fired Billy Martin, now manager of the Rangers.

The only time Quilici smiled Monday night was in relishing shortstop Danny Thompson's four-hit night which included a two-run, inside-the-park homer off loser David Clyde.

It was only the second start in a month for Thompson, who has arrested leukemia. He spent 21 days on the disabled list.

"Danny has been staying ready and it paid off," said Quilici. "He's a tough competitor. He has a lot of guts. He

Griffin Clubs Reds By 6-1

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston Astros pitcher Tom Griffin shot and Cedeño's was a two-run smash.

The Astros struck for four runs off loser Don Gullett, now 7-5, in the second inning. Lee May doubled and Cliff Johnson walked prior to Rader's seventh homer of the season. Tommy Helms then singled and after Griffin's sacrifice bunt, Roger Metzger singled in the fourth run.

Cedeño hit his 15th home run in the seventh off reliever Tom Hall. It followed a single to Griffin.

Griffin lost his shutout in the fifth when Merv Rettenmund doubled and scored on pinch-hitter Hal King's single.

Griffin owns two straight victories over the Reds. He struck out eight batters which gives him 20 strikeouts against the Reds in the last 18 innings he has faced them.

It was the first time for the Astros to defeat Gullett since April 18, 1972.

Alpine Oil Cops Hi-Junior Win

Brian Pope slammed a double and homer to spark the Alpine Oil Patriots to a 13-1 victory over Mustang Mud Monday night in a Hi-Junior League baseball game.

John Magness threw a three-hitter and led the winners at the plate, going three-for-three while Pope had his two extra-base blows.

Wooden Intrepid Launches Bid For American Cup Honors

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The wooden Intrepid has opened a bid by losing 13 seconds in the first match race.

The Mariner and the Courageous, built under new 12-meter specifications that permit aluminum hulls for the first time, were expected originally to be distinctly faster than the Intrepid.

The two new contenders with lighter hulls were thought to have clear design advantages because the weight savings went into their keels in an effort to gain better performance and stability.

The Intrepid won the America's Cup in 1970 and 1967, the latest two finals in international sailing's oldest race which dates to 1851. The United States has never lost the prize in the 22 Cup battles.

After the preliminary trials, more tests are scheduled for July and August before the New York Yacht Club selects the 1974 U.S. nominee to face a foreign challenger in the Sept. 10 racing series.

In the first race, the Courageous, sailed by Yachting Magazine publisher Bob Bavier, had to come from behind to edge the Intrepid, sailed by Gerry Driscoll, in a tight contest.

Freedom Issues Draw NFL Focus

WASHINGTON (AP) — So-called "freedom issues" are expected to be a main focus of negotiations resuming today between National Football League owners and players.

John Thompson, executive director of the NFL Management Council, bargaining agent for the owners, says the demands are excessive: "We are prepared to discuss modifications, not eliminations."

Bill Curry of the Houston Oilers, president of the Players Association, responded that "we have laid out our position and we are getting frustrated."

The "freedom issues" formulated by the Players Association include abolition of the reserve clause, the option clause, the waiver system and a rule on the league's pension and insurance plans.

The NFL Management Council, which represents the owners, says the demands are excessive: "We are prepared to discuss modifications, not eliminations."

Bill Curry of the Houston Oilers, president of the Players Association, responded that "we have laid out our position and we are getting frustrated."

Midlanders Finish 3rd in Pistol Meet

EL PASO — Midlanders fared well over the weekend in the Paso Del Norte Regional Pistol Shoot, finishing third behind the two strong Ft. Benning, Ga. entries.

Ft. Benning is the national champion team.

The four-man competition saw the two Army entries finish one-two with Midland third.

Midland's four-man team was made up of Jim Fitz-Gerald, Joe Jeffers, Charles Preston and Doyle Denny.

Jeffers won first place in expert shooting with a score of 2538-71X while Fitz-Gerald finished second in the civilian shooting with a 2543-73X. Patricia Jeffers shot a 2368-39X in the women's competition. Other Midlanders in the meet included Matt Bachman and Tom Sloan.

FOR ALLEGED ANTITRUST LAWS VIOLATIONS—

Milk Co-op Faces Up To $3.5 Million Penalties In Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The nation's largest milk cooperative faces up to $3.5 million in penalties for alleged violation of state antitrust laws.

Atty. Gen. John Hill filed suit Monday against Associated Milk Producers Inc. in state district court. A show-cause hearing on a temporary injunction was set for July 25.

The suit seeks no damages but asks for penalties of $50 to $1,500 for each day the firm allegedly violated the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

Hill's office concentrated its investigation on the years 1970 to 1972, but the penalties could be sought for violations up to the present, a spokesman said. Also, coercion of milk handlers dates from 1967, according to the suit.

down the price of milk and force Alamo Milk Producers "to capitulate and join AMPI," the suit says.

AMPI has made illegal kickbacks to employees of milk handlers in the form of new automobiles (for a Houston handler) that AMPI later sold to the employees at used car prices, the suit says.

"Because of AMPI's dominance in Texas in milk and related products, the larger handlers cannot buy sufficient milk elsewhere to meet all their needs. Handlers are, therefore, forced to enter into unlawful agreements, combinations and conspiracies in restraint of trade within this state, including buying at least a significant portion of their milk from AMPI.

"Because the handlers are at AMPI's mercy, AMPI is able to force handlers to agree to cease dealing with independent producers and cooperatives," the suit says.

Handlers who deal with independents have sometimes found that AMPI "failed to make timely deliveries" of additional milk they contracted for with AMPI, the suit alleges. These handlers were told they would not get timely deliveries until they stopped buying from non-AMPI sources, it says.

AMPI responded to the state suit by saying, "The accusations contained in the suit filed by the Texas attorney general relate to activity which allegedly took place several years ago under management which is basically different from management now operating AMPI."

The cooperative issued a statement claiming the U.S.

Department of Agriculture has sole jurisdiction in this area.

"Everything being done by AMPI is proper and fair," the statement said.

"The suit will be a terrible financial drain" on the individual dairy farmers and their families who make up the cooperative, the statement said.

AMPI is the subject of a U.S. Justice Department antitrust suit, which was transferred from San Antonio to Kansas City.

AMPI's board last week approved a proposed consent degree in the federal suit that, if accepted by the government and the judge, could settle it out of court.

The cooperative also has been accused of making political payoffs in connection with President Nixon's milk price support increase.

Former Gov. John Connally has said he was offered $10,000 to use his influence in getting the increase, but he said he turned it down.

Washington sources say Texas lawyer Jake Jacobsen, who reportedly made the $10,000 offer for AMPI, is now offering to testify in exchange for his own immunity that Connally took the money.

AMPI's legislative director, Bob Lilly, has said he used Texas Deputy Agriculture Commissioner Bill Pieratt as "a conduit for political funds" in 1969 to five Texas legislators.

AMPI comprises approximately 40,000 dairy farms in 14 states. It controls about 12 percent of the nation's milk, and reported revenues of $1.1 billion in the year ending June 30, 1973.

Its recent troubles have cost it between $3 million and $4 million in legal fees alone, according to one estimate.

Delegates Give Near Final Approval To Proposal That State Agencies Self-Destruct Every 10 Years

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Constitutional Convention delegates have given near final approval to something new in Austin—state agencies that self-destruct every 10 years unless the legislature gives them a new lease on life.

The Executive Article of the proposed new state constitution was approved late Monday, clearing the way for debate on the Finance Article today.

The vote on the controversial self-destruct provision covering most state agencies was 115-41.

If finally approved by Texas voters, the innovation in state government would require that all statutory state agencies, except state colleges and universities, "have a life of not more than 10 years unless renewed by law for not more than 10 years at a time."

"This is the most ill-conceived idea that has found its way into our constitution," protested Rep. John Wilson, D-La-Grange. "This provision means that in every session of the legislature there could be a bill to reorganize as many as 200 of the state's agencies . . . An agency with only two years of life left would be unable to make obligations or contracts. It is a great infringement on the separation of powers."

Rep. Joe Wyatt, D-Bloomington, argued that "this would put the state agencies under the legislature and the executive branch where they belong. In the past there has been doubt where they fitted. Some called them the fourth branch of government not answerable to anyone."

In other action, delegates added to the executive branch of government the state commissioner of agriculture and the railroad commission members. Such a move had been authorized previously in votes on the General Provision Article.

Already in the executive branch are the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, land commissioner and secretary of state.

New language in the Executive Article says the governor will appoint a new lieutenant governor, subject to Senate approval, if there is a vacancy, instead of the Senate president pro tempore assuming the lieutenant governor's duties as the present constitution reads. A section added Monday says the governor must call the Senate into session within 20 days after making such an appointment to act on the selection.

Three Mexican Americans had filed the class action suit in March seeking to halt the April 7 school board election.

The suit asked the court also to outline a "constitutionally sufficient single-member district plan."

U.S. District Court Judge John H. Wood Jr. said in his order Monday the school district had voiced no objection to the dismissal of the suit.

The suit claims AMPI, "as a result of the consolidation of previously independent cooperatives and its predatory and coercive activities described herein, monopolized trade in raw milk throughout its trade territory (21 states from Texas to the Canadian border). . . .

"AMPI has acquired its great power as a result of a program undertaken with the specific purpose of acquiring and maintaining complete market dominance—an absolute monopoly."

In the San Antonio marketing area, for example, AMPI "loaded the pool"—flooded the market with milk—to drive

Fading Depression Flings Rain And Wind At Florida

By The Associated Press

A fading tropical depression flung wind and rain at Florida today and thundershowers scattered much of the Eastern Seaboard. Most other areas of the nation enjoyed relatively peaceful weather.

Temperatures continued extremely hot in the West and unseasonably cool in the central states. There were some scattered rain storms.

Florida's Gulf Coast was swept by gale force winds and high tides through Monday, causing flooding in low areas and minor damage. Tides were pushed two feet above normal by winds that reached 40 miles per hour.

Clear skies but unseasonably cool temperatures were the rule over the rest of the Gulf Coast states. A record low for June 24 was set at Shreveport, La., with 62. Other Gulf areas had readings 10 to 15 degrees below normal.

Rain and thunderstorms were scattered throughout most of the Atlantic Coast states and isolated showers sprinkled New Mexico and Montana.

The clear, cool weather extended into the Mississippi Valley, the Plains States and up into the Midwest.

Most of Southern California and Arizona remained hot with overnight temperatures in the upper 80s and 90s.
