tion, Bress said he then would deliver his opening argument.

All five defendants are charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice, a charge that carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

All but Mardian also are charged with obstruction of justice, which carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

In addition, Mitchell is charged with two counts of lying to a grand jury, one count of lying to FBI agents and one of lying to the Senate Watergate committee.

Haldeman is charged with three counts of lying to the Watergate committee and Ehrlichman is charged with one count of lying to FBI agents and two counts of lying to a grand jury.

Each of the perjury counts carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison with fines ranging from $2,000 to $10,000 for each.

The indictment returned by a federal grand jury on March 1, 1973, charged the defendants "would corruptly influence, obstruct and impede" the investigation of the June 17, 1972, break-in at Democratic National Committee headquarters.

It took nine days to seat the jury of nine women and three men that will hear the case. Sirica admonished the jurors to discuss the case with no one and to "give each one of these defendants the same kind of a fair and impartial trial you would want to receive if you were seated in their place."

He ordered them sequestered for the duration of the trial, expected to last three to four months. They are lodged at a motor inn about two miles from the courthouse.

Saturday, the day after the jury was sequestered, special Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski announced his resignation, effective Oct. 25. Aides said Jaworski, who had served for a year, waited until the jury was locked up before making the announcement to avoid any pre-trial publicity.

He recommended that his deputy, Henry S. Ruth, succeed him.

Even as the jury finally began hearing the case, behind-the-scenes maneuvering continued among the lawyers seeking advantage for their client.

Focus of much of the maneuvering was Nixon, who, while still President, was named an undicted co-conspirator in the case.

Both Haldeman and Ehrlichman want Nixon to appear as a defense witness.

Sirica made public motions from the two former White House aides and the former President's request that subpoenas directing him to appear be dismissed.

The judge ordered responses to the Nixon requests filed by the end of the day Wednesday. He said he then would schedule oral arguments.

Nixon also was subpoenaed by the prosecution. Haldeman said he is asking that a subpoena be issued.

In asking that the subpoenas be quashed, Nixon's lawyers said the former President requires three to six months additional treatment for plebitis.

Both Ehrlichman and Haldeman asked that the trial be delayed and each also requested a separate trial. Sirica denied Ehrlichman's request. Haldeman's, which used much of the same arguments, primarily the unavailability of Nixon as a defense witness, still was pending.

Both former White House aides said they needed Nixon's testimony to support their versions of unrecorded conversations in which they indicated they either knew little of the cover-up or had advocated full disclosure of the involvement of re-election committee officials in the Watergate bugging and break-in.

Economic Outlook Viewed Darkly By Most Consumers

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Consumers are more pessimistic about the economy and about their own financial situations now than at any time since World War II, according to a University of Michigan survey.

Fifty-seven per cent of 1,438 persons interviewed by the Survey Research Center said they expect economic "bad times" during the next 12 months.

About 54 per cent said they expect bad times to last at least five years.

"To all intents and purposes, we are at the lowest point now since the survey started after World War II," Jay Schmiedeskamp, center director, said Sunday night.

The new car and the housing markets are considered off limits by a wide majority of the consumers surveyed, said Schmiedeskamp.

Fifty-two per cent said it was a bad time to buy a car, and 61 per cent said the same thing about purchasing a home.

The latest survey findings show "consumers have not become habituated to inflation. To the contrary, pressure on the family's financial situation continues to mount.

"The survey data suggests that consumers are watching price tags more closely than at any time in the last 25 years," said Schmiedeskamp.

"During the last 18 months, the index of consumer sentiment has declined faster and to a lower level in comparison to the declines which occurred prior to previous recessions," the report said.

"Past experience suggests that the present combination of very deep consumer pessimism and decline in real incomes might make for a real recession."

Two Burglaries Checked By Police

Ted Velasquez, 70-B N. Weatherford St., told police Sunday a television set had been taken from his residence.

J. D. Rivas reported $10 had been taken from a vending machine at Modern Miss Beauty Salon on Sunday.

Palestine Vote Due

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Arab diplomats predict the U.N. General Assembly will adopt a resolution today inviting the Palestine Liberation Organization to join its upcoming Palestine debate "as the representative of the Palestinian people."

The resolution has been submitted in behalf of 69 nations, or half the assembly membership, including all Arab nations except Jordan. It is expected to receive support from Communist members and many of the Third World nations.

U.N. sources said Jordan probably will vote for the resolution as a procedural move. King Hussein's government did not join the sponsors because he refuses to recognize the PLO as the representative of Palestinians under Jordanian jurisdiction, although he recognizes PLO authority elsewhere.

Israel has condemned the proposed resolution. It contends

Centerfold 'Stew' Makes Gals Boil

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A Pacific Southwest Airlines stewardess who posed nude as Miss October for Playboy magazine is causing some turbulence within the ranks.

The centerfold adds to an already improper image of stewardesses, said Kelly Rueck, president of the Association of Flight Attendants.

The image has been fostered by such advertising slogans as "Fly me" and "We really move our tail for you," she said. "And this is another setback."

The PSA stewardess used the name Ester Cordet for the magazine and some of the pictures showed her in flight uniform.

"We're trying so hard to get away from that image," said Ruth Schliskey, a Western Airlines stewardess. "With this kind of publicity it's even a longer road."

At a stewardess class conducted at suburban Cypress College, the reaction was anti-playmate.

"I'm sure half the businessmen flying PSA are looking for that stewardess," said Marjorie Olson of Anaheim.

Added another trainee: "Think of all the creeps that are going to be flying PSA. I'm thinking of taking a defense class."

Kathleen Vurpillat, of Garden Grove, wondered why the stewardess changed her name for the magazine. "She hasn't hidden anything," she said.

His father, Robert Justus Kleberg Sr., was born in DeWitt County in 1853. Kleberg Sr. practiced law for many years in Cuero, then moved to Corpus Christi, where he soon became an attorney for Richard King, the celebrated steamboat captain who founded the King Ranch with Mifflin Kennedy.

He married Alice Gertrudis King in 1886, a year after the death of her father, Kleberg Sr. died at his home on the ranch near Kingsville in 1932.

The family life of the Klebergs was generally a closed book. For more than a year after the death of his wife, the former Helen Campbell, in 1963, Kleberg worked furiously, withdrawing from almost all outside activities.

Since 1963, he has spent much of his time with his six grandchildren. Kleberg is survived by one daughter.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete early today.

"The expenses in the governor's office alone are up 40 per cent," he said.

Granberry renewed his proposal for a 20 per cent reduction in the state sales tax, contending that the budget surplus would total $1.5 billion by the end of fiscal year 1975-76.

He said his proposal would save Texas consumers $200 million, compared with the $60 million relief that would result from the governor's plan to eliminate the sales tax on utility bills.

"The governor's plan actually would save individual consumers only $40 million, with the remainder going to businesses," he asserted. "This is because thousands of Texans—such as students in dormitories, apartment dwellers and elderly persons in nursing homes—do not pay utility bills."

Granberry concluded by urging supporters to work for his election "to make government more responsive and sensitive to the needs of the people."

Among those attending the event were Jack Warren of Tyler, Texas Republican party chairman; State Rep. Tom Craddock of Midland; Midland Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr., Win Brown, Midland County commissioner; Jim Kent, Midland city councilman, Odessa Mayor Jim Reese and Ector County Sheriff Elwood Hill.

Kissinger Notes Positive Signs In Mideast

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger gained Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's assurance today that he will try to withdraw support at the Arab summit for interim agreements with Israel.

"There are positive indications that we are making progress toward a just peace in the area," the secretary said at Sadat's residence outside Cairo.

Kissinger also announced he would return to the Middle East the first week of November, following visits to Russia and the Indian subcontinent.

After his talks with Sadat, Kissinger flew to Damascus for talks with Syrian President Hafez Assad. Later, he flies to Algeria.

Sadat, the key leader in Kissinger's Middle East diplomacy, seemed to be walking on eggs as he agreed to take the initiative at the Arab summit in Morocco on Oct. 26.

"Why am I asked about guarantees?" he exclaimed when a newsman asked whether Egypt was prepared to offer them to Israel in return for a withdrawal of Israeli troops from the Sinai. "I myself, I need guarantees," Sadat said.

But he added that he was "very optimistic" about the summit.

The West German news magazine Der Spiegel quoted Sadat as saying he would be ready to sign a peace agreement if Israel pulled back from territories occupied during the 1967 war.

As Kissinger arrived in Damascus, Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy flew to Moscow for talks aimed at improving Soviet-Egyptian ties, arranging a visit to Cairo by Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev, and reopening the Moscow-Cairo arms pipeline.

The pipeline practically dried up after Egypt backed U.S. diplomatic initiatives to end last October's Middle East war.

In Jerusalem, former Defense Minister Moshe Dayan signed a petition opposing Israeli withdrawal from occupied Jordan.

The petition was circulated by the right-wing opposition Likud bloc, and Dayan's action raised speculation he would quit Israel's ruling Labor party and join Likud.

Asked about the prospect of Palestinian participation in future Geneva peace talks, Kissinger said, "Negotiations between Jordan and Israel should start first. But as I have pointed out previously, negotiations should include all the parties concerned."

A key goal of Kissinger's current trip has been to initiate separate Israeli-Egyptian and Israeli-Jordanian talks rather than to press for a full-scale Geneva parley. Newsmen traveling with Kissinger were told Sunday the secretary hopes to have new peace negotiations under way by the end of the year.

After five hours of talks with Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and other Israeli leaders Sunday, Kissinger said they had agreed on "principles and procedures" in future Arab talks.

The Israeli-backed strategy also won the support of Saudi Arabia's King Faisal during Kissinger's brief stopover Sunday in Riyadh en route from Israel to Egypt.

The American secretary arrived in Cairo Sunday night and held a post-midnight meeting with Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy before talking to Sadat.

Newsweek magazine reported that on the Egyptian front the

Ed Sullivan Dies

At ease behind the typewriter, Sullivan's television style was stiff, his delivery halting, his verbal fluffs frequent.

Performers and critics variously referred to him as the Great Stone Face, Smiley, the Miltown Maestro and Rock of Ages.

Although a gracious man in private, Sullivan often feuded with the New York critics who rapped his show, among them John Crosby, whose criticism of the first Sullivan show was headlined: "Why? Why? Why?"

He also occasionally battled with performers, such as singer Frank Sinatra, who aroused the Sullivan ire in 1965 by refusing to appear on Sullivan's show for less than $25,000.

Sullivan, who in recent years lived at the Delmonico Hotel, an old show-biz hostelry on Park Avenue here, said in a 1972 interview that he was severely depressed when his weekly show was canceled after 23 years.

In North Central Texas, rain fell in the Dallas-Fort Worth areas and as far east as Paris.

The new cold front, heading toward the Panhandle, was expected to overtake the stationary front during the day and continue moving rapidly southward.

Showers and thundershowers were expected to accompany the new front.

Temperatures before dawn varied from the 40s and 50s north of the stationary front to the 60s and low 70s over the rest of Texas. Maximum readings were mostly in the 50s and 60s in the Panhandle Sunday.

Some highs reached the 90-degree level in South Texas, The Associated Press reported.

AFTERMATH OF BLAST—A bookshelf leans forward and papers litter an office in the Tokyo headquarters of Mitsuji and Co. shortly after an explosion this afternoon. About 15 persons were injured, two seriously. Four telephone calls at three-minute intervals warned of a bomb and apparently helped reduce the number of casualties, police said. (AP Wirephoto.)

Proud Old Woman Dies All Alone

'She Probably Starved To Death,' Landlord Says

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A 79-year-old widow died alone in her barren room here just hours before she was to pick up her $97.40 Social Security check.

The clothes Elsie DeFratus had planned to wear to the post office to pick up her check were neatly laid out.

"I think she just died from weakness. She probably starved to death," said her landlord, Steve Haddock, 62. "I offered to bring her coffee or tea and toast in the mornings, but she said she didn't need any help. She had lost a lot of weight. Poor old thing. She's lucky to be at rest."

Dr. John Shinner, Pineallas County medical examiner, said he couldn't determine the exact cause of death but said malnutrition was a significant contributing factor. He estimated that she died about 10 a.m. on Oct. 3. Her body was found the same day by the building manager.

Little is known about Mrs. DeFratus or her family, except that she once lived in Chicago.

From her monthly check, she paid $60 rent. Other known expenses were $8 a month for bus trips to Tampa, 25 miles away, where she rented a post office box for $1.20 a month and a safety deposit box for 60 cents a month.

That left her $27.60 a month. In 1972, the Florida Department of Health estimated that the monthly food cost for an older person living alone was $34.39. But Mrs. DeFratus had neither that much money for food nor the benefit of 1972 prices. She didn't even have a kitchen to cook in.

A social worker who knew Mrs. DeFratus said she refused offers of help that amounted to charity or welfare and would not apply for supplemental security income, insisting she could care for herself.

"We do see regularly those who are found dead in their homes who are almost like walking skeletons," he said.

Dr. Shinner said the autopsy showed Mrs. DeFratus had a chronic kidney ailment but it did not cause her death.

"We really don't have a good cause of death in this case," he said. "She was thin, about 90 pounds. My feeling is that this is a real problem in this community. We have so many people who are borderline as far as poverty and isolation that it is only logical to assume that some are dying of malnutrition."

"We do see regularly those who are found dead in their homes who are almost like walking skeletons," he said.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Wants To Recycle Ball Point Covers

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprises Association

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — I hope some reader can give me an idea for using all those little clips that cover ball point pens. I have dozens in all colors and hate to throw them out.

Now that I sleep on a satin pillowcase to protect my hair, I have many extra pillowcases on hand. I use some of them as protective covers for my purses. These covers keep them from being scratched and from sticking together in hot weather as so many do. My purses are now dust free and scratch free. — MRS. P.D.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve and total aggravation is to go into a self-service or discount store for one or two small items and be detained by people in line who are using charge cards. These take time. It seems there should be a special line and register for such customers so a person in a hurry could go through quickly. Even some stores that do have a line for those with a few items have the same problem and this seems even more aggravating. — M.A.B.

DEAR POLLY — J.S. wanted to know how to whiten her white jeans that have a label saying not to use bleach. Soaking them in water to which she has added dishwasher detergent should do the job. If in bad shape they may have to be washed in the same solution and then in the normal way. Nuns used this to keep their head pieces snow white. — ALICE.

DEAR POLLY — If you ever put a car top carrier on your car protect the roof paint by putting plastic wrap under the suction caps on the carrier. The carrier holds just as well and there are no marks left. — MRS. O.H.

DEAR POLLY — Baby booties are always slipping off but I learned from a friend that if the soft kind of elastic is used instead of ribbon the bootie will stay on. This also eliminates tying and the possibility of baby pulling the strings out and perhaps getting them in his mouth. If white elastic is used it can be covered with a satin ribbon to match the booties. Sew ends of the elastic together so it fits properly and have slip-on booties. I hope others find this the time and fizzle-saver that I have. — ELEANORE.

DEAR POLLY — When finishing a piece of needlepoint put some spare strands of the wool used on the back of the piece so the identical yarn will be available for needed repairs even many years after the piece is worked. — MRS. J.W.

You will receive a dollar if Polly uses your favorite home-making idea, Pet Peeve, Polly's Problem or solution to a problem. Write Polly in care of this newspaper.

WHAT IS THE TRUTH?

"Thy Word is Truth" (John 17:17)
by Bryan Bost

Many Midlanders are interested in studying the Bible, and they're doing something about it. Renewed interest in Bible study is leading many to the discovery of the spiritual treasures to be found there. For instance, in the last year over 700 citizens of Midland have enrolled in Bible correspondence courses offered by the Ft. Worth and Jax Streets Church. Last Sunday that number was increased by several hundred as members of the church went door-to-door enrolling people in such a study.

Why is the Ft. Worth and Jax church so interested in promoting Bible study? Because we believe the Bible is the authoritative word of God. And because we believe all people are to follow its teachings. As Jesus said in John 12:48, "He who rejects me and does not receive my sayings has a judge; the word that I have spoken will be his judge on the last day." We want everyone to know and obey the Lord's word. We would be happy to assist you in your Bible study by supplying a free course of study. Send your name and address to Bible Correspondence Course, Box 1222, Midland.

The Ft. Worth and Jax Streets Church is not part of a denomination but is a group of Christians worshipping, working, and living in the way the church did in the New Testament. Our desire is to be Christ's church, following his will only. We invite you to study your Bible and help to restore New Testament Christianity.

Presented by the Church that meets at Ft. Worth & Jax Sts.

Dear Abby

—By Abigail van Buren

Better Stay Away From That Daughter-In-Law

DEAR ABBY: A man signed "Borrowed Time" asked in which state he could marry his daughter-in-law. You replied that since they were not related by blood, he could marry her in ANY state.

Not in Massachusetts! I quote from Section 1, Chapter 207 of the Mass. General Laws:

"No man shall marry his mother, grandmother, daughter, granddaughter, sister, step-mother, grandfather's wife, son's wife, grandson's wife, wife's mother, wife's grandmother, wife's daughter, wife's granddaughter, brother's daughter, sister's daughter, father's sister or mother's sister."

RESPECTFULLY YOURS,
PAUL W. CORRIGAN
ATTORNEY AT LAW
LYNN, MASS.

DEAR MR. C: Yours was the first of umpteen hundred letters I received to signal my error. I admit that I shot from the hip on that one, using only common sense and simple logic. (It was understandable to me why people related by blood ties should not marry, but why extend that law to those related by marriage?)

The second letter pointing out my erroneous advice came from Angela Haven Bonin (also of Lynn, Mass.), and the third was from Alan I. Alford, of Alford, Tex. and Tucker and Pozzi in Sudbury, Mass. (I quit counting when they got up into the hundreds.)

From Judge Blair C. Wood of Waterloo, Iowa, came this word: "If a man should marry his son's former wife, the marriage would be void in Iowa. And if they lived together after the marriage, he would be subject to a penalty of 25 years in the penitentiary for incest." (Why only HIM, Judge? How about HER?)

Then, Rabbi Samuel Friedman, my honorary consultant on Jewish law, wrote from Asheville, North Carolina: "On all other affairs, I yield to brains, beauty and a blessed writer, but Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, in care of this newspaper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Sorority Has Area Convention

Beta Sigma Phi, international organization for women, offering opportunities for friendship, development of cultural appreciation and community service, held its West Texas Area Convention last weekend in Midland.

Registration began Friday at the Rodeway Inn, followed with a buffet supper in the Hospitality Room of the Coors Beer Distributing Co. Assembly meetings were held Saturday morning, and three forums for officers' duties, socials and ways and means projects were held prior to a luncheon and business session. Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr. welcomed the delegates, and Midland County Judge Barbara Culver was the speaker for this session.

Members and their husbands had a dinner-dance Saturday night in Midland Country Club, with Karl Reagan as the master of ceremonies. Music was furnished by "The Workin' Men Band."

Sunday, following a devotional service, the closing session was held. Awards were presented at a brunch with the guest speaker being Mrs. Lura Beth Friel, division chairman of the sorority's international office. The closing ritual was presented by members of Xi Epsilon Chapter of Rankin. Mrs. Glenn Gardner, convention chairman, adjourned the session.

Review Given At Luncheon

Mrs. Robert Boynton Smith reviewed Maya Angelou's book "Gather Together in My Name," when the En Amie Review Club met recently for a luncheon in Ranchland Hill Country Club.

Mrs. Phillip Becker presided. Mrs. George Eng was introduced as a new member.

The hostesses were Mrs. Glen D. Aaron, Mrs. W. H. Franz, Mrs. Charles N. Reeder, Mrs. Glen L. Shoemaker and Mrs. Richard Hinkle.

Guests were Mrs. Julian Brown, Mrs. Elbert Smithen, Mrs. Charles B. Gillespie, Mrs. Jim Lucas, Mrs. Holt Jowell, Mrs. Frank Stubbeman, Mrs. Jack Reeves, Mrs. Jack Hawkins, Mrs. B. B. Arrowmont Program Topic

An informative talk on Arrowmont and plans for the biennial Settlement School Sale occupied members of the Midland Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club at their meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Glenn Rogers, 2801 Camarie St.

In discussing Arrowmont, Mrs. Jerry Metz, vice president of the club, traced the history of the sorority's national philanthropy from its beginnings in 1912 to the present. She told how it began as a Settlement School in a remote area of the Great Smokies, later was expanded into the arts and crafts field to help develop and preserve the native crafts, and today exerts a worldwide influence in the crafts field with its Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts in Gatlinburg, Tenn. To date, students from 44 states and more than 17 foreign countries have gone to Arrowmont for further study in their fields.

Mrs. Everett Sharp, president, presided at the business meeting, which was largely concerned with plans for the Settlement School Sale scheduled from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Nov. 5 in the home of Mrs. William J. Zimmerman, 1801 W. Missouri St. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Richard Kartzke, Mrs. Reynolds L. Foster, co-chairman, gave a progress report on the sale, which features handwoven and handcrafted items, all produced in the Southern Highland area.

Proceeds from the sale are returned to Arrowmont to further the efforts of the philanthropy.

Co-hostesses for a coffee preceding the meeting were Mrs. Mary Alice Bonnar and Mrs. Frank Welch.

Meringue Topping
For a chocolate meringue topping, beat two egg whites until frothy, then add one-third cup sugar gradually, beating well after each portion. Beat until stiff peaks form and sprinkle on two tablespoons cocoa and fold in along with one-half teaspoon of vanilla. Spread this to the edge of the pie or pudding and brown in a hot oven. Cool at least 30 minutes before cutting.

WHERE WOULD WE BE If Isabella Hadn't Said 'Yes' to Chris?

COLUMBUS DAY, October 12, is one of the few truly international, non-religious holidays. It is observed in Spain and Italy, by countries in South and Central America, and by parts of Canada, India and Kenya in East Africa. It was not officially observed in the United States, however, until 1902, four hundred years after he discovered America.

Columbus dreamed of sailing West to reach the East for 28 years. He tried first to get help from the King of Portugal. About 1485, he turned to King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, but the Spanish were fighting to drive out the Moors, who were Moslems, and Columbus had to wait until 1492.

When he set sail, it was with the intention of developing a new trade route to the Orient. The old one was shut off by the Arabs.

COURTESY ICY HOT

FINALLY!

You, like thousands can get hours of relief from the nagging aches and pains of ARTHRITIS, BURSITIS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SORENESS AND STIFFNESS.

Hardly a day goes by that you don't see an ad on television or in the newspapers for products to relieve pain. Some are expensive drugs... some are simple salves and ointments. Some are new, some are old. One thing they all have in common is that very few of them help.

Let me tell you about "Icy Hot" — until recently "Icy-Hot" was sold only through the Gibson company's mail list. Now you have the chance to try "Icy-Hot" for only $3.00 and the best money-back guarantee you've ever seen. Will it work for you? It is helping thousands of other arthritis sufferers, so we think it will help you, too!

If you will send us $3.00, we will send you a 3 1/2 oz. jar of "Icy-Hot" to try. If it doesn't help, don't bother sending the unused portion back... that's too much bother for you. Just drop us a note and tell us it didn't work. We'll send your $3.00 back by return mail.

EFFICIENCY ECONOMY

COMFORT

you get it all with

NATURAL ENERGY Gas Heating

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling...so nice to take for granted. Comfort is clean gas heat.

And that dependable comfort is such a bargain here in West Texas. Though gas energy costs a little more than it use to, gas furnaces still cost less than one-third as much to operate as similar electric furnaces.

And at the same time you're saving money with gas heating, you can also have a warm feeling knowing that you're helping conserve energy. Gas heating uses only half as much energy as an electric system doing the same job.

Comfort, efficiency, and economy... you get it all with natural energy gas heating.

Ford Rating Dips Sharply In New Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — President Ford's approval rating has dropped 21 percentage points since he took office, primarily because of his pardon of former President Nixon, according to the Gallup Poll.

Half of those questioned in the survey approved of the way Ford is handling his job, 28 per cent disapproved and 22 per cent expressed no opinion.

The current rating represents the sharpest decline for any President in his first two months in office.

In a poll taken just after Ford took office on Aug. 9, 71 per cent said they approved of the way Ford assumed the nation's leadership. Three per cent said they disapproved, and 26 per cent said they were undecided.

Burger Says Supreme Court Caseload Growing Too Large

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Warren E. Burger says there is an urgent need to curb the rapid caseload expansion that has faced the Supreme Court in recent years.

Despite his statement Sunday, Burger stopped short of endorsing proposals for a national court of appeals that would weed out cases now going to the Supreme Court.

A study commission appointed by Burger and headed by Harvard Law School Professor Paul A. Freund suggested a seven-judge national court of appeals to screen out 90 per cent of the cases that reach the Supreme Court.

Variations of the same proposal have been made by the Advisory Council for Appellate Justice and a committee of the American Bar Association.

Burger often has expressed concern over the mounting court caseload during his five years as chief justice. His latest statement comes after presiding over the weeding out of a record number of cases in the week-long conference with which the court opens its annual term.

The conference considers matters that have piled up during the summer recess. This year there were 1,011, the first time the number has exceeded 1,000.

The court passed on 809 requests to consider cases, 76 appeals, 78 motions and 48 petitions for rehearing.

"As a new term of hearings begins Tuesday we already have 90 cases scheduled to be heard, half a term's work with even drawing from the list we have been going over during this past week," Burger said.

"In the term ending July 25 of this year the court heard arguments in 170 cases."

Most court members have been noncommittal on suggestions for screening of cases, but Justices William J. Brennan and William O. Douglas have expressed opposition to the idea. Douglas says the court does not have enough work to do.

Proposed Legislation Would Rewrite U.S. Criminal Code

By JOHN CHADWICK WASHINGTON (AP) — The maximum penalty for simple possession of small amounts of marijuana for personal use would be reduced from one year to 30 days under draft legislation that rewrites the U.S. Criminal Code.

The reduced marijuana penalty is one of hundreds of changes in federal criminal laws found in the proposed legislation, an outgrowth of a massive project begun in 1966 by a commission appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Separate bills growing out of the commission's proposals, one developed by the Justice Department and the other by the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on criminal laws and procedures, have been combined into the draft legislation.

Many of the changes the legislation would make are technical simplifications and improvements. Others are of major significance likely to prove controversial.

The legislation is being prepared for introduction in the next Congress.

Besides the change involving marijuana possession, here are some of the ways in which the present code would be altered.

Provision is made for appellate review of sentences in federal criminal cases, on an appeal taken either by the government or a defendant. In an effort to reduce glaring disparities in penalties imposed by judges.

Dissemination of obscene materials to minors or to any person, in a way in which there is no opportunity to avoid exposure to it, would be prohibited.

Commercial distribution of consenting adults would be banned only if this would be in violation of the laws of the state in which it was disseminated.

Sex bias in sex crimes would be wiped out so that, for example, a 21-year-old woman who seduced a 14-year-old boy could be convicted of statutory rape. Under present federal law, statutory rape applies only in cases of girls under 16 years of age.

Innocent Victims Of Crime Included in the bill is a sharply scaled-down version of separate legislation previously passed by the Senate to provide compensation for personal injury to innocent victims of federal crimes of violence.

Another section provides for restoration of the death penalty for certain types of crimes, if specific aggravating factors are present and there are no mitigating factors.

The compromise draft also modifies changes proposed in the Justice Department bill to make it a crime for federal employees entrusted with classified information to disclose it to newsmen or others not authorized to receive it, regardless of whether the material was properly classified.

This proposal has aroused intense controversy, with opponents contending it amounted to a national secrecy act and was designed to block the type of reporting involved in the Pentagon Papers case, the My Lai massacre and the Watergate affair.

U.S. Doctor Accuses Officials In Honduras

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — An American physician has accused Honduran officials of keeping the best food, clothing and medical supplies flown into the flood-ravaged country for hungry and sick villagers.

"We saw tons of food delivered to the local commandant but never saw the people getting anything more than beans and rice," Dr. Edward Austin of Cocoa said after returning from a two-week mission to the village of Cuyamel near the Honduras-Guatemala border.

"The people got only picked-over clothing. We saw government officials and the upper class wearing newer clothes and what was left over—the ratty stuff—being worn by the people."

Austin's wife Sara, a physical therapist, said patients told her food was confiscated by local authorities and school teachers, who then gave each family—regardless of size—one pound of rice, a half-pound of beans and one pound of lard to last two weeks.

Austin, 40, said he was told government officials were taking the supplies to sell on the black market but added he had no first-hand knowledge because he was not allowed into military areas.

"Our interpreters told us the officials would hold the food and, when the bad times hit, sell it back to the people at the price of gold," he said.

Part Of Relief Team The Austins were part of a relief team sent by St. Marks Episcopal Church in Cocoa, which has sister churches in Honduras.

In Washington, Red Cross spokeswoman Dorothy Taafe said she had talked to one of five American disaster relief specialists in Honduras on Friday and "they were getting all the supplies we sent."

"It's just one of those rumors, I think. I wouldn't put any credibility in it," she said of the Austins' charges.

Apologies Were In Order

Apologies seemed to have been the order of the day at last week's meetings of the Midland City Council and Board of Education.

Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr., apologized to the news media and the public for going into a closed executive session without prior notification to decide on a salary issue.

The same afternoon, at the board of education session, Trustee James E. Winget Jr., after his associates on the board had voted to adjust boundary lines between Midland and Lee high schools, apologized to the persons he previously had told not to be present at the meeting because action on the controversial issue was not listed on the agenda.

Both apologies were in order. The mayor's was accepted on the spot by those to whom it was addressed. Jim Winget's apology also was accepted by those to whom it was directed, when they later got word of it. But most of them were not entirely happy at the circumstances which brought it about. And it is fairly safe to say that they still feel that way about it.

When the matter casually was brought up for discussion, Winget promptly proposed a two-week delay on voting whether to change high school attendance boundary lines. The board rejected his proposal 4-3, with Trustees Joe Dominy and James Ramsoure voting with him.

Then on Gilbert C. Tompson's motion for action, the vote was 6-1 to adjust boundary lines.

Winget was in order in his proposal. Formal action should not have been taken under the circumstances. Regardless of the feeling of the individual trustees in the matter, a formal vote should not have been called for without notice, particularly since one of the board members had advised citizens that the proposal would not be up for discussion.

Dr. James H. Mailey, superintendent of schools, said the item had been omitted from the agenda because he had anticipated no formal action.

President C. Wallace Craig said afterward that he did not think it "inappropriate to bring the subject up in a less emotional" atmosphere. The vote from the board would have been the same and "the disagreement would be the same" if the vote were to be taken in two weeks, he added.

This undoubtedly is correct, but it still is not the proper procedure insofar as the public is concerned. Neither was it in line with regular board operations, according to Winget.

Now, a petition asking the trustees to reconsider their decision is being circulated in the city, sponsored, reportedly, by a group of parents. It is not likely that it will influence the board, but the petitioners at least will have had their say.

The entire episode is unfortunate from the community standpoint.

He's Already Biting The Bullet

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: There definitely is no recession in junkets.

WASHINGTON—Each year, members of Congress explore the world, riding elephants in Ceylon, viewing art in Sweden, fingering chopsticks in China, poking their legislative noses into faraway places from the girlie shows of Paris to the palaces of Riyadh.

As part of our watch on waste, we have reported how these congressional travelers have squandered the taxpayers' money on vacations in official guise. Congressional junkets cost the taxpayers an estimated $1 million a year, which is a lot of moola to spend on legislators who preach austerity for everyone else.

But the junkets that cost the taxpayers nothing, we have discovered, may wind up as the most expensive of all. Dozens of legislators take trips overseas at the expense of foreign governments. They are lavished with hospitality by their friendly foreign hosts. Then the touring lawmakers return to Capitol Hill to vote for foreign aid, sugar quotas and other benefits for the host governments.

Not only is it poor economics for our lawmakers to repay hospitality with foreign aid, but it is unconstitutional for them to accept the hospitality in the first place.

Our founding fathers, fearful that some federal officials might sell out their country for foreign gratuities, added a special clause to the Constitution. This prohibits them from taking any "emolument . . . of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign state."

Yet the tourists from Capitol Hill have ignored the Constitution, not to mention the 1966 Foreign Gifts Act, by accepting illegal trips at the expense of foreign governments. Here are a few we have uncovered:

Fourteen months ago, eight members of the House Agriculture Committee traveled to Venezuela at the invitation of the government. Their travel on Viasa Airlines and their accommodations at the luxurious Tamanaco Hotel in Caracas were paid by the Venezuelan government. The congressional visitors — Congressmen B o Poage, D-Tex., Joseph Vignorio, D-Pa., Frank Denholm, D-S.D., Wiley Mayne, R-Iowa, John Rarick, D-La., Bob Price, R-Tex., LaMar Baker, R-Tenn., and David Bowen, D-Miss. — attended at least one fancy party thrown by the Venezuelan agriculture minister who sought a U.S. wheat deal.

House Agriculture Chairman Bob Poage led still another congressional expedition to Brazil. The Brazilian government, looking for bigger sugar quotas, picked up the travel bills. Those who accompanied Poage on the free trip were Congressmen Frank Stubblefield, D-Ky., William Wampler, R-La., George Goodling, R-Pa., John Zwach, R-Minn., Ed Jones, D-Tenn., Dawson Mathis, D-Ga., and Jerry Litton, D-Mo.

Mainland China has opened the bamboo curtain to a number of Marco Polos from Capitol Hill. Their travel expenses inside China have been paid by the Mao Tse-tung government. Among those who have accepted a free tour of China are

Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., as we previously have reported, traveled to Iran, Pakistan, Ceylon, Indonesia and New Zealand with his wife and daughter. In violation of the Constitution, most of Hartke's expenses were footed by the host governments. The U.S. Embassy in Ceylon quietly was alerted by the State Department that the Hartkes had "side interests in elephant ride, sightseeing tour and gem shopping."

Many individual members of Congress have seen the world as the guests of foreign governments. Rep. John Brademas, D-Ind., took a free excursion to Sweden to visit an art exhibit. Sen. James McClure, R-Idaho, flew to the Middle East at the expense of the Kuwaiti government and came back supporting the Arabs. Even Attorney General William Saxbe, while he was a senator from Ohio, took a three-week tour of Bangladesh, paid for in part by that government.

Footnote: Without exception, the congressional travelers told us they were unaware of the prohibition on accepting plane fares and hotel accommodations paid for by foreign governments.

Japan Contracts For Kenya Minerals

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — An $8-million contract was signed here providing for the export of at least 120,000 tons of Kenyan fluorspar to Japan over the next three years.

Japan has become the principal importer of Kenyan fluorspar. The Kenyans have plans to produce more than 200,000 tons of metallurgical and acid grade fluorspar annually.

Jim: "South wins in dummy; leads a low spade and finesses his queen. At this point it is up to West to falsecard and drop the nine."

Oswald: "He could also drop the 10. The important point is that if he drops the six, South's only play to make his contract will be to lay down the ace and drop the king. If west plays the nine or 10 South may go back to dummy; lead the jack and hope to bump the king and the other intermediate card together."

Oswald: "I suppose you want us to get around to other plays which should be automatic."

RAY CROMLEY Yes, Wealthy In Ideas But Poor In Financing

WASHINGTON (NEA) — To a considerable degree, today's high food and industrial prices result from the cavalier way basic scientific research has been treated for two decades.

Our great progress in agricultural and industrial efficiency over the last 30 years depended heavily on a reservoir of fundamental discoveries made since the turn of the century in Western Europe and the United States. These breakthroughs were drawn upon to develop major practical improvements in crops, farm animals and high technology manufactured goods and for the more efficient production of such basics as iron, steel, aluminum, glass, paper and synthetic textiles.

Now this pool of basic knowledge virtually is exhausted. We are running on the rim. Research and development expenditures these last several decades have, in the main, been devoted to the practical applications mentioned above, not to replenishment of the pool.

For a time, when the Defense Department was riding high, important non-defense research projects were hidden in the Pentagon budget. No one else could get the money — the Defense Department could. Then Congress caught on and in the past number of years has forced Defense to divest itself of these programs. Some have been picked up elsewhere. Unfortunately, others have gone by the board.

To make matters worse, much recent basic research (what little there was) has been poorly conceived and badly carried out. Over the years, a centralization of research decisions in the federal government has resulted in a deadening sameness, a lack of imagination and a paucity of original approaches. Millions have been spent on refining present concepts. One scientist says that, in essence, we have been putting dollars into expensive marginal increases in the speed of the horse rather than into developing an airplane.

The major villain in the piece is congressional stupidity allied with politics. On the one hand, the Senate and House repeatedly have passed inflationary, politically popular bills of dubious value. On the other, Congress regularly cuts into the muscle of basic research programs to achieve "economy in government."

But a series of Democratic and Republican Presidents has been almost as guilty. Basic research has been skimped to provide money to go to the Moon, to make way for questionable, untested social programs and for military weapons verging on obsolescence.

The academic world is also to blame. In the contest for government subsidies, money goes to those who develop correctly-formulated proposals. Proposals submission has developed into a skill of its own, somewhat unrelated to the merits of the proposal. As a result, too much of the so-called basic research now done in the nation's colleges at government expense is make-work research designed to subsidize professors and their graduate student assistants. The product, all too often, is not rigorous basic research intended to add to fundamental knowledge.

Anyone who takes the time to read through some thousands of the "scientific" papers delivered at this nation's academic conferences will note that too many are opinions dotted up with mathematical computations and computer input. There is, unfortunately, no hold their-feet-to-the-fire system

DON OAKLEY No Leniency Seen For The Watergate Jury

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The 12 men and women who will constitute the jury in the Watergate cover-up trial currently in progress in Washington, D.C., face the prospect of being sequestered for as long as several months.

However long the trial takes, each night they will be locked up in their hotel rooms and denied access to radio, television and newspapers, and even private visits from family and friends, lest they be influenced by other than the evidence presented in court. Their only communication with the outside world will be through or in the presence of their guards and court officials.

This actually will amount to more severe and possibly longer confinement than has been handed out to some of the lesser figures convicted in previous Watergate cases, some of whom were sentenced to spend a few months in the easy atmosphere of "minimum security" prisons where the only restriction on them was that they could not leave the grounds.

Expert Says Water Resources Adequate

NORWALK, Conn. (AP) — "Water is one natural resource that we'll never run out of," according to Robert B. Hilbert, president of the American Water Works Assn.

"Unlike other natural resources," says Hilbert, "we have as much water available today as we did thousands of years ago. And we'll have just as much in 2074 as we have today."

He noted that the increasing need to recycle water is generally not because of water shortages. "Economically," he says, "it is more feasible to purify and recycle water after it has been used once than to develop new water sources."

Hopes For Cheaper Oil Push Stock Market To New Gains

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market, encouraged by hopes for cheaper oil and easier money, put together another strong advance in continued active trading today.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 11.50 at 669.67, on top of a record 73.61 rise last week, and gainers led losers by 7-to-2 on the New York Stock Exchange.

Market watchers said the rally drew fresh strength from predictions of a continuing decline in short-term interest rates, as well as optimistic talk of the prospects for an oil field in southeast Mexico and Saudi Arabian assurances that nation would push for lower oil prices.

American Telephone & Telegraph was the Big Board volume leader, up 1/2 at 45. A 50,000-share block traded at that price.

ing potential test through a 22-64-inch choke and perforations at 5,367-5,291 feet.

From the Pennsylvania, it finished to flow 112 barrels of 40.8-gravity oil and 112 barrels of water daily, through a 12-64-inch choke and perforations at 9,101-9,315 feet.

It spots 2,160 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 39, block 43, T-1-S, T&P survey.

Tri-Rue Pool Gets Extension Oil Well

Dalton H. Cobb and John W. Ruwwe of Midland completed No. 1 Carl Voss as a current sixth and 1/2-mile south and southeast extension to the Tri-Rue (reef) field of Scurry County, 4 1/2 miles north of Ira.

It gauged a daily flowing potential of 145 barrels of 43-gravity oil, through a 10-64-inch choke and perforations at 6,881-6,886 feet. The section had been acidized with 500 gallons. Gas-oil ratio measured 530-1.

Location is 467 feet from south and west lines of section 171, block 97, H&C survey.

Sun Slates King Test For Menard

Sun Oil Co. has filed application to drill No. 8 Armorel, Caffeys as a 2,350-foot King sand project, surrounded by the five-well King sand area of the Speck, South field of Concho County.

Drill site is 3,000 feet from north and 920 feet from east lines of E. M. Caffeys survey 2, seven miles west of Eden.

The field also produces gas from the Strawn C-1 zone.

Outpost Planned In Stonewall Pool

Texland-Rector & Schumacher, Fort Worth, will drill No. 1 W. F. Martin as a 1/2-mile south-west outpost to the current six-well Ellensburger oil sector of the Frankirk (Ellensburger and Canyon) field of Stonewall County.

It has a projected depth of 6,100 feet, and spots 467 feet from north and 2,310 feet from west lines of section 14, block U, T&P survey, seven miles south of Aspermont.

Pecos Gas Field Draws Extension

C. F. Lawrence & Associates, Inc. of Midland completed No. 1-B U.V.I. as a seventh Tubbs well and 1/2-mile north extension to that pay in the Owego field of Pecos County.

Most Turks Appear Unruffled At Talk Of Losing U.S. Aid

By EMEL ANIL (An AP News Analysis)

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Many Turks seem unperturbed about the move by the U.S. Congress to end American military aid to Turkey. Government officials privately express confidence that President Ford will veto the attempt.

But if Ford doesn't, or if Congress overrides a veto, Turkey presumably would go shopping for arms elsewhere, with Britain or France among the most likely suppliers.

"For a country in our position there would always be those willing to provide these arms," one high-ranking Turkish official said.

Ankara is unlikely to seek weapons from the Soviet Union, its giant neighbor to the north, nor is it certain that the Kremlin would sell it arms even if asked. A Turkish shift toward Moscow would go contrary to centuries of enmity, and a traditionally strong Turkish aversion to communism.

The drive by Congress has been met with official silence in Ankara and almost no public uproar. Turkish leaders have been careful to refrain from statements that could spark a wave of anti-Americanism like that which followed a harsh letter from President Lyndon B. Johnson that warned Turkey not to invade Cyprus in 1964.

Curtailment of American arms sales could result, however, in quick deterioration of Turkish-American relations. The future would be uncertain for the American military presence here, mainly a strategic air base in Incirlik and three radar monitoring stations in Anatolia.

"We could undertake some actions which would be very bothersome to the United States," said an official of the Defense Ministry.

Turkish officials emphasize that their off-the-record comments should not be interpreted as threats and that there has been no suggestion that Turkey withdraw from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The uproar in Congress over arms sales to Turkey is a direct outgrowth of an invasion of Cyprus on July 20 by Turkish forces using U.S.-made weapons, and their takeover of the northern third of the island 45 miles from Turkish shores.

American military aid or no American aid, Turkish leaders in the government and in the opposition are emphatic that the tough Cyprus policy will not change.

March Leader Jailed For Eight Traffic Warrants

AUSTIN (AP) — Paul Hernandez, who led a downtown march Saturday protesting alleged police brutality, was arrested and jailed Sunday for eight outstanding traffic warrants.

Hernandez, 28, leader of an east Austin group known as the Brown Berets, was stopped on a south Austin street and arrested for the eight traffic warrants. He also was charged with using a fictitious name to an officer who issued one of the tickets.

Hernandez pleaded innocent to all of the charges before Municipal Court Judge Sarah Denton Sunday night and was released on personal recognizance and cash bonds totaling $80.

Mrs. Richard Livingston, 1200 Century St., told Midland police someone had taken an intake manifold for a 1969 Pontiac from her residence Sunday. The manifold was valued at $90.

Incinerator Ship Starts Burning Chemical Waste

HOUSTON (AP) — The incinerator ship Vulcanus was to begin test-burning chemical wastes far out in the Gulf of Mexico today.

The ship completed loading Shell Chemical Co. wastes late Sunday night at the firm's dock in nearby Deer Park.

A permit for the firm to burn 4,200 tons of chemical wastes in the Gulf 130 miles south of Galveston was approved last week by the Environmental Protection Agency.

John R. Quarles, deputy EPA administrator, said in Washington that the agency will monitor the test burn from an escort ship provided by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, from a U.S. Coast Guard aircraft and an EPA expert on the ship itself.

He said if the test is successful, the ship will get a permit to incinerate an additional 12,600 tons of waste in three additional trips.

He said extensive tests would be made to assure there was no effect on the environment.

The EPA held a public hearing on the Shell request last week after the company said the vessel was available to them for only two months. It arrived at the company dock Sept. 27.

A Shell spokesman said the organo-chlorine wastes will be consumed at a rate of 20 tons an hour in the twin ship incinerators, operating at a minimum temperature of 1,200 degrees Centigrade.

The Vulcanus has operated off Europe for two years but this is the first shipboard incineration of industrial wastes off the United States coast.

Services Held For Polish Priest

PANNA MARIA, (Tex. AP) — Interment services were held here Sunday for a Polish priest who founded this South Texas town 120 years ago.

The remains of the Rev. Leopold Moczygmba, brought here from Detroit where he died in 1891, were laid to rest on the grounds of St. Mary's Church. Some 4,000 persons attended the service.

The Polish Franciscan priest came to Texas as a missionary to German settlers and later initiated Polish immigration through letters to his family in Silesia, Poland.

Nearly 100 Polish families arrived in October 1854.

"We welcome him home," said Msgr. Erwin Jurascheck, president of the Polish American Priests Association.

Three Persons Hurt In Accident Here

Three persons were treated and released from Midland Memorial Hospital late Saturday night following a two-car accident at Andrews Highway and Holiday Hill Road.

Treated were Ronald Ray Lindsey, Donna Lindsey and Tricia Lindsey, all of 311 Willowood St.

Police said the car being driven by Lindsey was in collision with a car being driven by Joe Charles Thompson, 3100 Humble St.

Home Not Damaged By Lightning Strike

The Henry McCall residence, 2107 Western Drive, was struck by lightning early this morning.

McCall told the Midland Fire Department the lightning hit a wall of his house but no damage was done.

NOT IMPRESSIVE North In Big

OAKLAND (AP) — "I gave us their best shot, at that's the best they've done in a while," said Oakland A's Bill North.

Los Angeles right-hander Sutton picked up his 12th consecutive victory, 3-2, Sunday with relief help from Mike Shell, but the Dodgers turned to something of a long Tuesday night when they 33-year-old left-hander Al Downing in game three.

"We're going to win series," said North, who t-25-game winner Catfish H will pitch the A's into a 2-1 Tuesday night.

Downing, 5-6 this season, a member of the A's staff in 1970, the year before he surprised the baseball world by becoming a 20-game winner with the Dodgers. He can with the right assortment pitches to make up for the ball he lost.

"Sutton isn't a fast baller, either," said the R Jackson when asked if he ed forward to Downing's es after facing 20-game w Andy Messersmith and S in the opening two games Los Angeles.

"I don't mean to knock on," said North. "He's a pitcher, and did very against us, but it was still game. With a break here, there, we could have won."

The A's looked back a big scoring threat that Sunday, the first when hit into a double play with bases loaded and one out eighth inning.

Downing To Face Hunter Tuesday

OAKLAND (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers are picking up speed in their "freeway series" with the Oakland A's.

"We've captured the momentum that we lost in the first game," said Joe Ferguson, hero of Sunday's 3-2 victory over the A's that tied the 1974 World Series at one game each. The A's won the first game by the same score.

Riding the crest of their dramatic victory at Dodger Stadium, the National League champions prepared to face the A's Tuesday in Game 3 at the Oakland Coliseum — a seven-hour car ride from Los Angeles.

Ferguson hopes he can produce as explosively as Sunday.

when he belted an enormous two-run homer over the centerfield fence off Vida Blue.

The Dodgers will start little-used Al Downing against Catfish Hunter, the A's formidable 25-game winner. Explaining his choice of Downing over Doug Rau, normally the Dodgers' No. 3 pitcher, Manager Walt Alston noted: "Downing's been pitching better than Rau the last few times out. It's as simple as that."

The way the A's have been hitting late, it may not take much to stop them, anyway.

"We've been having a hard time producing runs," said Al Dark, Manager of the American League champions. "We'll take them any way we can get them."

The A's were not able to score until the ninth inning Sunday. Shut out by Don Sutton through the first eight, the A's needed some breaks in the last inning to get men around the bases.

Sutton, a 19-game winner this year, hit Sal Bando with a pitch leading off the ninth and then gave up a check-swing double to Reggie Jackson that eluded Los Angeles third baseman Ron Cey.

Alston brought in strongman Mike Marshall from the bullpen at this point, but baseball's premier relief pitcher didn't exactly look in top form right away. He gave up a two-run single to Joe Rudi, and the A's were back in business.

Herb Washington, Oakland's famous designated runner, took over for Rudi at first base after Gene Tenace struck out and every one of the 55,989 fans at sunny Dodger Stadium knew what he was going to do.

So did the Dodgers. "It's my job to hold him on and to give the catcher the best chance to throw him out," said Marshall, cognizant of the fact that Washington would try to steal second.

Alston Shuffles Dodger Lineup

OAKLAND (AP) — Manager Walter Alston plans a switch in his Los Angeles Dodger lineup for Tuesday night's third World Series game which will give Joe Ferguson a chance to show his wares in another department — catching.

In the first two games at Los Angeles, the Oakland A's used left-handers, but Tuesday night it's right-hander Jim Hunter on the mound.

"I'll probably use Willie Crawford in right field and have Ferguson catching," Alston said. Crawford is a left-handed hitter; both Ferguson and Steve Yeager, the catcher the first two games, are right-handed hitters.

"I don't care where I play as long as I can swing the bat four times," declared Ferguson, who turned in one of the greatest throws in World Series history during the first game and banged a two-run homer over the center-field fence in the second.

Alston hasn't shuffled his lineup much this season, but he does use Ferguson both in right field and behind the plate. Al Downing, 5-6 during the regular season, gets the starting call for the Dodgers.

"If Al is on, he's tough to beat," Yeager commented. "Basically, if he can put the ball where he wants it, we'll win."

Don Sutton pitched the Dodgers to their 3-2 victory Sunday after the A's captured the opener by the same count in this best-of-seven series.

"It's the best Dodger ball club I've been on," commented Sutton, a rookie with the 1966 championship team but now a $100,000 a year performer.

"We needed the victory. I think this team has a chance to be a dynasty."

NOT IMPRESSED—North Feels LA In Big Trouble

OAKLAND (AP) — "They gave us their best shot, and if that's the best they have, they're in trouble," said the Oakland A's Bill North after the Los Angeles Dodgers squared the 1974 World Series.

Los Angeles right-hander Don Sutton picked up his 12th consecutive victory, 3-2, Sunday, with relief from Mike Marshall, but the Dodgers must turn to something of a longshot Tuesday night when they start 33-year-old left-hander Al Downing here in game three.

"We're going to win the series," said North, who thinks 25-game winner Catfish Hunter will pitch the A's into a 2-1 lead Tuesday night.

Downing, 5-6 this season, was a member of the A's staff briefly in 1970, the year before he surprised the baseball world by becoming a 20-game winner with the Dodgers. He came up with the right assortment of pitches to make up for the fast-ball he had lost.

"Sutton isn't a fast ball pitcher, either," said the A's Reggie Jackson when asked if he looked forward to Downing's pitches after facing 20-game winner Andy Messersmith and Sutton in the opening two games at Los Angeles.

"I don't mean to knock Sutton," said North. "He's a good pitcher, and did very well against us, but it was still a 3-2 game. With a break here or there, we could have won it."

The A's looked back at two big scoring threats that fizzled Sunday, the first when North hit into a double play with the bases loaded and one out in the eighth inning.

"I thought I had a hit there."

BIG PLAY—Oakland's Herb Washington gets picked off in ninth inning by Los Angeles relief pitcher Steve Marshall with Steve Garvey putting the tag. The pickoff snuffed out a two-run rally by the A's as the Dodgers won, 3-2, to even the series, 1-1. (AP Wirephoto.)

Lions, 49ers On Tv Tonight

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions have lost their four National Football League games this season but, believe it or not, they are on an upsurge — statistically anyway.

The San Francisco 49ers have a 2-2 record, but seem to be on the downside.

Whether those trends continue will be determined tonight when the National Conference rivals meet at 8 p.m., CDT, in their nationally televised game at Tiger Stadium.

"I still think we can do it. We can still be a factor in our division race," says first-year Lions Coach Rick Forzano, whose team has lost its games by only 14 total points.

"We're improving offensively each game and our defensive effort has been outstanding each week," he continued.

A loss would virtually eliminate Detroit from playoff hopes in the Central Division race, while the 49ers aren't nearly in such bad shape since they won their first two games.

"Ever since I've been with the 49ers we have had a tough time with the Lions and it always seems to be tougher in Detroit," San Francisco Coach Dick Nolan says.

"We have done fairly well defensively so far, but the Lions have enough weapons to make this our toughest test."

The 49ers lost to Cincinnati and St. Louis after winning the first two at New Orleans and Atlanta. In losing to Chicago, Minnesota, Green Bay and Los Angeles, the Lions have steadily improved — on paper. Their yardage totals went from 156 to 182 to 290 to 291.

The offense was disastrous the first two game averaging just 2.6 and 2.9 yards a play. That increased to 4.9 and 5.3 the last two games.

They managed just nine first downs in each of the first two games but boosted that to 11, then 17 last week.

New England Blanks New York Jets, 24-0

By The Associated Press
The New England Patriots bludgeoned the New York Jets, 24-0, Sunday while the St. Louis Cardinals, on Jim Bakken's clutch 31-yard field goal with 1:02 to play, stung the Miami Dolphins as starting quarterback for them.

The Patriots, with Sam Cunningham's two touchdown runs providing the offense, ran roughshod over Joe Namath and smothered the New York Jets 24-0 Sunday while the St. Louis Cardinals, on Jim Bakken's clutch 31-yard field goal with 1:02 to play, stung the Miami Dolphins as starting quarterback for them.

That kept the two early-season surprises unbeaten through five National Football League games, along with the Minnesota Vikings, who shellacked Houston 51-10.

But the Dolphins, everybody's early-season favorite, dropped their second game of the campaign, falling 20-17 to the Washington Redskins, their old Super Bowl foes, on Sonny Jurgensen's second touchdown pass of the game, with a scant 16 seconds to play.

In Sunday's other games, Green Bay stunned Los Angeles 17-6. Atlanta nosed out Chicago 13-10. Buffalo beat Baltimore 27-14. Cincinnati outlasted Cleveland 34-24. Oakland scrambled past San Diego 14-10. Pittsburgh defeated Kansas City 34-24. Denver dumped New Orleans 33-17 and Philadelphia slugged the New York Giants 35-7.

Patriots 24, Jets 0
Cunningham scored on a five-yard sweep around left end in the first period and a one-yard plunge in the fourth to lead the Patriots' attack. But it was the defensive unit that really sparked, sacking the Jets' Joe Namath four times, intercepting two of his passes and two more by reserve quarterback Al Woodall, and limiting Namath to completions on just seven of 21 attempts for a meager 63 yards.

Broncos 33, Saints 17
The Broncos' Steve Ramsey threw two touchdown passes while Otis Armstrong ran for a pair of scores, keeping New Orleans winless in 18 straight road games.

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — Earl Anthony of Tacoma, Wash., won five of eight match games Sunday night to extend his lead in the Professional Bowlers Association's $38,500 Regional Champions Classic.

Anthony spilled 1,859 pins, including a 289. With 30 bonus pins for each match-play victory, his total for 26 games was 6,002 going into today's final 16 games. He was averaging 224.

There are 24 finalists shooting for a $4,000 top prize.

Teata Semiz of River Edge, N.J., won four games Sunday night and remained in second place with a 5,764 total. Trailing the leaders were Larry Laub, Santa Rosa, Calif., 5,743; Roy Buckley, Columbus, Ohio, 5,690, and Mark Roth, 5,688.

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Defending champion Don Garlits of Seffner, Fla., received a pair of bye runs early and then went on to defeat Dave Settles of Houma, La., to win the Super-nationals Drag Races Sunday.

Gary Beck of Edmondton, Alta., was eliminated in the semifinals on a seldom enforced drag racing ruling for crossing the center line of a race. He nevertheless clinched the professional drivers championship and earned $10,000.

Garlits, 42, won the top fuel eliminator race in 6.10 seconds on the quarter-mile track, but managed a 5.89 during Sunday's competition.

PEBBLE BEACH (AP) — Australian Frank Sedgman whipped Pancho Gonzales 6-3, 6-2 Sunday to win the $25,000 Pebble Beach Senior Open tennis tournament.

The victory was worth $6,000 to Sedgman, while Gonzales took away $3,500.

Later, Gonzales teamed up with Hugh Stewart to beat Torben Ulrich and Sven Davidson 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 in the doubles final.

MADISON, Ind. (AP) — George Henley drove Pay 'N Pak to a course record 114.796 miles an hour and won the 27th running of the Madison Regatta for unlimited hydroplaning Sunday en route to clinching the national title.

Harris, Rhoades Cop Tennis Win
Bill Harris and Cecil Rhoades downed Jack Besselwe and Ed Leeds Sunday, 7-6, 7-6, to win the Midland Country Club's men's doubles championship.

Freda Harris and Jean Henderson won the women's doubles with a 6-3, 7-5 victory over Dell Ruwwe and Pat Inzerarity.

In the men's consolation, Bob Hillin and Joe Liberty took top honors while Nancy Liberty and Margaret Hillin won the women's consolation crown.

San Antonio Open Set Trevino Tops Golfing Field

By JOHN LUMPKIN
Associated Press Writer
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An adoring crowd's eyes will be on frontrunner Lee Trevino but the real battle in this week's $125,000 San Antonio Texas Open will be in the trenches among pro golf's lesser lights.

The tour makes its next-to-last stop of the year at Woodlake Country Club, a par-72, 6,990-yard playpen with few trees and sparse rough but with several cynically placed water hazards.

Tournament Players' Division spokesman Dave Kempton said when the 147-man field tees it up on Thursday, it will be the last chance for them to settle the top-60 point list for next year's tournament exemptions.

He said the Disney World Team Championship the first weekend in November—the tour's last stop—doesn't count in the exemption standings.

Trevino, this year's PGA champ and third on the money list with $200,423, won't be worrying about exemptions but he wants to win here because it's his home state. He provides a natural drawing card for this city's heavily Mexican-American golfing population.

This year's No. 1 and No. 2 money winners, Johnny Miller and Jack Nicklaus, aren't coming and neither are Nos. 4 through 10, but the field with Trevino's addition is the strongest in years for the venerable tournament.

Defending San Antonio Texas Open champ Ben Crenshaw, who lives up the road in Austin, Tex., will be back.

Houdek Takes Net Victory
ABILENE — Richey Houdek of Midland Tacoma won the seventh grade B singles title here Sunday with an 8-6 victory over Scott Gillis of Lubbock in a pro set indoor match.

Houdek downed San Saba's Dub Johnson, 6-1, 6-0, in the quarterfinals and defeated Wayne Missildine of Abilene, 6-0, in the semifinals.

COLLEGE GRID ROUNDUP

Buckeyes Ramble

By The Associated Press
No. 1-rated Ohio State threatened to join the ranks of college football's upset victims Saturday... until the Buckeyes got the ball in their hungry little hands.

Wisconsin, the nation's 13th-ranked team, took the opening kickoff and stormed 80 yards in six plays, with Gregg Bohlig passing 33 yards to Ron Pollard for a touchdown.

Thus embarrassed, the Buckeyes exacted their pound of flesh by scoring the first four times they had the ball on Tom Klaban's 43-yard field goal and touchdown runs of nine, five and 11 yards by Archie Griffin, Brian Baschnagel and Cornelius Greene.

That made it 24-7 at halftime before Ohio State added two more touchdowns in each of the final two periods, with Baschnagel and Greene each getting another, and the final count was a staggering 52-7.

The Buckeyes were one of only seven Top Twenty teams to have a relatively easy time of it as the amazing wave of upsets continued for a fourth consecutive weekend.

Besides Ohio State, fourth-ranked Michigan trimmed Michigan State 21-7, No. 7 Southern California routed Washington State 54-7, routed Auburn 31-13, No. 12 Arizona bombed Utah 41-8, No. 15 Penn State clobbered Wake Forest 55-0 and No. 20 Miami of Ohio whipped Ohio U. 31-3.

But runner-up Oklahoma needed a late field goal to shade No. 17 Texas 16-13 and third-ranked Alabama squeaked past winless — 17 losses in a row — Florida State 8-7 on Bucky Berrey's 36-yard field goal with just 33 seconds left shortly after Florida State took a deliberate safety.

Missouri bumped fifth-ranked Nebraska 21-10, No. 6 Notre Dame had to drive 80 yards in the closing minutes to edge unbeaten Rice 10-3, previously unbeaten Florida fell to Vanderbilt 24-10 and No. 9 Texas Tech bowed to No. 16 Texas A&M 28-7.

Back in the Second Ten, 11th-ranked North Carolina used a touchdown and two-point conversion in the waning minutes to nip Virginia 22-21, Baylor toppled No. 14 Arkansas 21-17 and Kansas needed Laverne Smith's 51-yard run with four minutes left to overcome Kansas State 20-13. Arizona State, No. 18, was idle.

Ohio State ace Griffin picked up 112 yards in 18 carries to go out with the 100-yard mark for the 16th game in a row, but one of them was in the Rose Bowl so Griffin is two short of the record of 17 regular-season games held by Oklahoma's Steve Owens.

Oklahoma's winning 37-yard field goal by Tony DiRienzo with 5½ minutes left came after Texas went for it on fourth-and-one at midfield. Freshman Earl Campbell, who scored the Longhorns' only touchdown, made the necessary yard... and then fumbled the ball away.

Leading 7-3 with three minutes remaining, the Florida State Seminoles gave heavily favored Alabama a deliberate safety when punter Joe Downey ran out of the end zone, setting up a free kick from the 20.

State then kicked into Alabama territory but the Crimson Tide managed to drive into possession for Berrey's winning three-pointer.

Michigan took advantage of a couple of fumbles to pile up a 21-0 halftime lead and defeat Michigan State, Missouri, which upset Nebraska a year ago, trailed the Cornhuskers 10-0 with 11½ minutes left but Steve Pisarkiewicz scored on a two-yard run and passed nine yards to Mark Miller for the winning touchdown. Tony Galbreath ran five yards for the Tigers' final score after an interception.

Notre Dame's Wayne Bullock barreled across from two yards out with three minutes to go, capping a 20-play, 80-yard drive that turned back Rice. Anthony Davis galloped for 194 yards and two touchdowns while second-stringers Allen Carter and Vince Evans also scored twice each in Southern Cal's rout of Washington State.

Vanderbilt committed six first-half turnovers and also lost quarterback Fred Fisher in the early going but beat back Florida as David Lee directed four second-half scoring drives and Barry Burton caught five passes for 98 yards, including a five-yard touchdown and twopoint conversion.

Skip Walker tallied three times in the second period on runs of one, three and 23 yards en route to a 138-yard afternoon as Texas A&M downed Texas Tech. Kentucky became the first team to score a touchdown from scrimmage against Auburn, but Milti Jackson scored twice for the Tigers and the defense set up a pair of touchdowns with fumble recoveries.

North Carolina State's Dave Bucky completed 23 of 30 passes for 306 yards and a touchdown but the Wolfpack needed his two-yard quarterback sneak and Roland Hooks' two-point conversion run with 3:46 left to nip Virginia, which led 21-0 in the third quarter.

Midland-Owner Car Wins Race
LAGUNA SECA, Calif. — A Midland-based Steed RFI Lola, owned by Carlton Beal and developed, prepared and entered by Chaparral Cars, won the Continental Formula 500 championship Sunday afternoon.

The car, driven by Brian Redman of England, bested Mario Andretti in the sixth and final race of the series.

Lee, Permian Share First In Standings

By BOB DILLON
Midland Lee and Odessa Permian have moved into a tie for first place in the District 5-4A football race following key victories over the weekend.

Coach Jim Acree's Rebels knocked off No. 7-ranked San Angelo, 21-7, Friday in Memorial Stadium and Permian blanked Abilene 24-0 to give both 2-0 unbeaten records.

Both Lee and Permian remain undefeated in five games going into this week's action with the Rebels trying to break a nine-year jinx against Abilene Cooper in Abilene, Permian, meanwhile, entertains Big Spring in Odessa. Lee last beat Cooper in 1964 and came the closest to ending the string in 1972 when the Rebels lost a tough 7-3 decision.

Cooper, a 12-10 loser to San Angelo two weeks ago, stormed back to whip OHS, 28-12, last week to get back into the thick of things. Midland also won to even its mark at 1-1 with a 21-6 decision over Big Spring and are a long way from being out of the race.

San Angelo will try and bounce back against Odessa which is 0-2, but still has plenty of size and talent.

Homecoming
Coach John Reddell's Purple Pack which stands 4-1 on the year will celebrate 1974 homecoming against Abilene which is also 1-1 in loop play and 3-2 on the season.

Fullback Mike Gaddy, an all-district selection last year, rushed for 184 yards in 29 carries Friday against the Steers and scored twice to give the 200-pound senior 50 points on the year.

While Gaddy was rushing for 184 yards, Cooper's talented tailback, Scott Ritchey gained 257 yards and had TD runs of 31, 27 and 67 yards against OHS.

Top Defense
Permian and Midland continue to show stout defenses to date. The Panthers held the speedy Abilene Eagles to four first downs and a total offense of 50 yards with 32 on the ground and 18 passing. Midland gave up 75 rushing and 70 passing to the Steers, who are improved over last season.

Woodie Shepard, 187-pound tailback for OHS, is second behind Gaddy in season scoring with 40 points while Ritchey has 30 and Lee's Milton Jones follows with 27 points.

Lee quarterback Greg Rendall shares the top scoring lead with Larry Thompson of San Angelo and Ritchey with 18 points each.

Surprising SWC Has Three Leaders

By The Associated Press
What we have on our hands is a surprising Southwest Conference football fan is one of those old-fashioned family feuds of yesteryear back when candy bars were a dime.

And it's been nearly a decade since the SWC has found itself embroiled in such a competitive swirl of events.

Two private church schools, Baylor and Southern Methodist, mind you, are right up there tied for first place with the Texas Aggies.

Hanging on for dear life with conference losses are defending champion Texas, which has merely claimed the title six consecutive years; Arkansas, which fumbled flat on its face 21-17 to the aforementioned Baylor Bears Saturday; and Texas Tech, which definitely got the number of the truck that crunched the Red Raiders 28-7 Saturday at Texas A&M.

Baylor, SMU — which mauled Texas Christian 33-13 — and A&M own 1-0 ledgers in the early going.

Arkansas and Texas, 0-1, and Texas Tech, 1-1, can all afford another SWC pratfall. No team has ever lost two conference games and been awarded a first place ribbon.

Arkansas and Texas get the word one way or the other Saturday in a nationally televised scramble for survival in Austin when the humbled powers collide.

The Aggies host hapless Texas Christian and SMU entertains Rice in the first SWC outing for the Owls, who scared the daylight out of Notre Dame before falling 10-3 Saturday. Baylor is idle.

"A&M players were shouting 'Cotton Bowl... Cotton Bowl' after their convincing drubbing of the Red Raiders, who looked All-World two weeks ago in thumping Texas.

Although A&M's enthusiasm is understandable, let it be noted that Texas won SWC titles with one loss in 1971 and 1968.

But talk about excitement. Imagine, the goose pimples in Waco, Tex., where Baylor last won a SWC crown in 1924.

"I bet the town ran out of milk celebrating," cracked one observer of the SWC football scene, who will remain nameless after the Baptist Bears shocked Arkansas.

"This is the biggest win of my career," said Baylor Coach Grant Teaff, who has brought respectability back to the once downtrodden team... You have to crawl before you can walk. Now, we're walking."

Baylor scored in the final minute after an Arkansas fumble while the Porkers were trying to run the clock out.

An unbelieving Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said "It was one of those things that happen once in a lifetime. We fought our guts out to get back... we had it within our grasp and then laid the ball on the ground."

Baylor quarterback Neal Jeffrey gets the courage award of the week. He came off the bench with a broken nose to take Baylor to the winning touchdown.

Texas youngsters took the fight to No. 2 ranked Oklahoma before falling 16-13 and quarterback Marty Atkins said "All I know is that we are just as good as they are."

Akins added "Coach (Darrrell) Royal had a tremendous game plan... the best one I ever saw. If everyone wanted to win as bad as he did we would have beaten them 20 points."

LOVE THOSE MUSTACHES — Lucianne Buchanan, 22, who has been named official team mascot of the Oakland A's during the World Series by owner Charles O. Finley, examines carefully-groomed mustache of pitcher Rollie Fingers. She is the reigning Miss California from Claremont. (AP Wirephoto.)

Miss California Cheers A's Named Team Mascot For World Series

OAKLAND (AP) — The wacky Oakland Athletics thought it would be a terrific idea to have their new beauty queen mascot ride the mule, Charley O, to home plate with lineups for one of the World Series baseball games.

The very suggestion almost choked Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, guardian of the game's integrity, and drew a quick veto from the Miss America Pageant sponsors.

"I would have loved it," said Lucianne Buchanan, 22, of Claremont, Calif., the reigning Miss California, "but the pageant didn't think it would be proper for a queen to ride a mule."

Lucianne, who is tall, blonde and beautiful, is the latest gimmick of silver-haired Charles

O. Finley, owner of the world's best and zaniest baseball team. Eight days ago, as a promotional stunt, Miss Buchanan was invited to throw out the first ball of the playoff game here against the Baltimore Orioles.

Lucianne wound up and threw a perfect strike to A's catcher Ray Fosse. The crowd cheered wildly. Finley became so excited he almost lost his checkered Bear Bryant hat. And Lucianne was hooked.

She became the A's official mascot — an understudy to Charley O. Now Finley had a beauty and a beast as tokens of the team.

Charley O is hauled to the outfield gate before every game and, shrouded in a green and gold blanket, struts to home plate until, with newsmen, he is pushed off the field.

Lucianne has been sitting at the side of the club owner and his family, just behind the Athletics' dugout.

"Mr. Finley is so calm out there," says Lucianne. "He has a seasoned heart. I get so excited I can hardly stand it."

The beauty queen, runner-up to Miss Texas in the 1974 Miss America Pageant, never had much interest in baseball until she was tabbed for her new role.

The players give her a wink and she waves encouragingly as the A's move from field to dugout.

But the faet of the World Series champions that intrigues her most are the mustaches, especially the curling handlebar job worn by pitcher Rollie Fingers.

"Those mustaches — they're really cute," she coos.

Bramlett, Starnes Doubles Winner

Sandy Bramlett teamed with Barbara Starnes Sunday to win the Midland Tennis Club's Adult Women's Doubles Tournament with a narrow 7-6, 5-7, 7-6 win over Jean Nail and Peg Steding.

Bonnie Legg and Sharon Seay won the consolation prize with a 6-2, 6-0 victory over Judy Windecker and Kay Stillwagon.

Texas Aggie 'Hawk' Defense Returns

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Texas A&M's defensive secondary members call themselves "The Hawks" and they promised fans they'd be back after getting their feathers singed against Kansas.

The partisan crowd of 50,260 in Kyle Field Saturday will agree "The Hawks" are definitely back and ninth ranked Texas Tech will also agree after falling prey to the intense Aggie defense.

Aggie corner back Pat Thomas, voted the game's outstanding defensive player, personally swooped in to sack Tech quarterback Tommy Duniven twice.

"We said last week that 'The Hawks' would be back and I think we made it," Thomas said.

The Aggies, now perched atop the Southwest Conference lead with a 1-0 record, lost their only game of the season Oct. 5 to the Kansas Jayhawks, who rolled up 453 yards on the in the second quarter to give the Aggies a 21-0 halftime lead. Quarterback David Walker made it 28-0 in the third quarter when he hit split end Carl Roaches on a 16-yard touchdown pass.

Tech finally got on the scoreboard with 3:57 left in the game when Duniven broke 58 yards for a touchdown.

Tech is now 3-1-1 for the season. The loss was Tech's first on runs of 1, 3 and 23 yards, all in 14 games.

Cardinals Edge Dallas Cowboys On Field Goal

ST. LOUIS (AP) — If it's any consolation, the St. Louis Cardinals believe the Dallas Cowboys could be 5-0 in the National Football League.

But the once-powerful Cowboys instead are licking their wounds with a 1-4 record while the Cardinals own the 5-0 mark.

"We could easily be where they are and they where we are," Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart remarked.

"They're a strong team," said Hart, whose passes helped the Cardinals to a 31-28 victory over Dallas Sunday. "They're not about to lie down. We knew we were going to have to score again."

Hart, deadily in the first half, rifled scoring arials of 80 yards to Mel Gray and 19 yards to Jackie Smith as St. Louis rolled to a 21-14 halftime lead over Dallas on 312 total yards.

And when Clarence Duren intercepted a Roger Staubach pass early in the third quarter, the Cardinal bulge rose to 28-14 on Terry Metcalf's eight-yard run before the Cowboys awoke.

Walt Garrison's one-yard run into the end zone capped a 67-yard march as Dallas fought back to 28-21 early in the final period.

Ten minutes later, after Staubach rolled right for another touchdown, the Cowboys climaxed their uphill climb with a 28-28 tie with 3:51 left.

But then Dallas erred fatally by kicking off to the dangerous Metcalf, who fielded the ball at his 10 and raced 56 yards to the Cowboy 34.

Donny Anderson ran twice for gains, producing a first down, and three more carries by Cardinal backs set up a 31-yard field goal by Jim Bakken.

"I knew it was going to come down to that," said Bakken, whose kick with 1:02 to go accompanied his four earlier extra points. "As soon as I kicked it I felt it would be good."

The loss was the third of the season by the margin of a field goal for Dallas, which stormed to St. Louis' 21 in the final seconds.

Wide receiver Golden Richerds was hurt on a pass completion carrying to that point with two seconds left, but a timeout was futile in an attempt to set up a tying field goal.

"It's a tough game, I'll tell you that," acknowledged the Cowboys' Staubach, who completed 19 of 29 passes for 236 yards in his team's fourth straight defeat.

"I've never been in a four-game losing streak since the seventh grade," said the 32-year-old quarterback.

"We had our chances," Staubach said. "We got 28 points. They just made a couple of big plays when they needed them."

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Virginia Wade moved into the final phase of her three-week plan today with hopes of winning the $10,000 championship tournament of the Women's Professional Tennis tour in Los Angeles.

English-born Miss Wade defeated Helen Gourlay of Australia 6-1, 6-2 Sunday to take home the $10,000 top prize in the Phoenix Professional Women's Tennis Tournament.

Miss Wade had four love games as she dominated her less-experienced opponent. Miss Gourlay took home $5,600 of the $50,000 total prize.

Miss Wade won the two sets without a double fault while Miss Gourlay had five double faults including three in one game.

Miss Wade said she reached the finals last week, only to lose to Chris Evert, and after winning Sunday, she hopes to be up for the four finale.

Awards Set Tonight For Country Music

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The stars of country music vie for a host of awards tonight at the eighth annual Country Music Association awards show, to be televised nationally as it is hosted from the Grand Ole Opry House by singer Johnny Cash.

Strauss Declares Ford's Proposed Surtax 'Outrage'

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Robert Strauss, Democratic national chairman from Texas, has called President Ford's proposed income tax surcharge "an outrage."

In a speech Saturday to a party fund-raising dinner, Strauss predicted that the administration's anti-inflation package would be defeated because "the President's proposals do not treat people fairly."

Strauss said Americans were willing to sacrifice, but they want to be treated equitably.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., told a news conference before the dinner that President Ford "associated himself" with Watergate by pardoning former President Richard Nixon.

However, Ervin, who was chairman of the Senate Watergate Committee, said he did not think Ford had anything to do with Watergate otherwise.

He said the pardon "deprived the courts of their jurisdiction."

Finalists for entertainer of the year included Loretta Lynn, who won the title in 1972, and Roy Clark, who did so in 1973. Charlie Rich and Olivia Newton-John are each nominated for four awards, including entertainer of the year. Rich is up for top male vocalist, top single and top album. Miss Newton-John is a finalist for top female vocalist, top album and top single.

Mac Davis, who hosted NBC's country music special "I Believe in Music," is the fifth nominee for entertainer of the year.

One of six finalists—Minnie Pearl, Owen Bradley, Vernon Dalhart, Frank "Pee Wee" King, Merle Travis and Kitty Wells—will be inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame.

The songs nominated for single of the year include hits in both the country and pop field. Rich's "Most Beautiful Girl in the World," Miss Newton-John's "If You Love Me," Ray Stevens' "The Streak," "As Soon as I Hang up the Phone" by Miss Lynn and Conway Twitty, and Cal Smith's "Country Bumpkin" are all in the running.

The winners are selected by the CMA's 3,300 members. Votes are kept secret until announcement tonight.

Jesuit Priest Criticizes Court

NEW YORK (AP) — The Rev. Robert I. Gannon says the Supreme Court has failed the United States by legalizing abortion.

Comparing the high court to a moral rock of Gibraltar, the Jesuit priest said: "We thought it was a Gibraltar that would never fall us. Well, now it has failed us."

Father Gannon, former president of Fordham University here, spoke Sunday at the annual Red Mass of the Guild of Catholic Lawyers.

Restaurateur Jutis Says He's Had It

NEW YORK (AP) — Luigi's restaurant-bar by day was a mecca for lawyers, judges and politicians from Queens Borough Hall across the street. But its owner is selling out, because it proved too much a magnet for criminals at night. A while ago the owner, Nick Jutis, put up a sign in Luigi's that said: "I have been in this business a long time. I have been cussed and discussed, boycotted, talked about, lied to, hung up, held up and robbed. The only reason I am staying in business is to see what the hell is going to happen."

Burglary No. 27
When he opened the restaurant today Jutis saw what had happened over the weekend. A burglary, the 27th in 10 years.

And Jutis put the total money loss to criminals around $60,000.

"That's it," said the 51-year-old restaurateur. "I can't take it anymore. I need some peace. I'm going to sell the place or give it away and move to Florida or California or some country where people are safe."

Such a move would end a 25-year career with Luigi's in which Nick served as a waiter for 15 years before becoming owner, fighting bad breaks all the while.

Insurance Canceled
The restaurant's burglary insurance was canceled after the first few break-ins.

Jutis has a silver plate in his leg from fighting during World War II. So does his German Shepherd watchdog Louie, because the dog lost a pitched battle to burglars who broke one of its legs.

The $1,600 cost of the dog's silver plate was somewhat offset last April when the dog was in the restaurant with Jutis' son Pete, 21, a college student.

Pete was alone at the bar when two men walked in with knives and demanded money. Pete said his father left with the cash, but the men started hurling ketchup bottles at him. He responded with a barrage of liquor bottles until Louie limped up and frightened off the holdup men.

And the restaurant was almost destroyed two years ago in a suspicious fire, possibly set by burglars.

And when he opened the door today, Louie was lying in a back room, drugged by burglars who jimmied a back window, took $1,000.

"It's all yours, son," Jutis told Pete. "If you want the restaurant you can have it."

"I don't want it," said Pete.

President Works, Then Plays Tennis

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford did some office work and played a game of tennis Sunday.

With Mrs. Ford home from the hospital and recuperating from surgery which removed a cancerous breast, the Fords gathered for Sunday breakfast.

Later, the President played tennis with White House physician William Lukash.

Panel May Recall Rockefeller

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller may be recalled by a Senate panel considering his nomination as vice president for questioning about his gifts to friends and political associates and publication of a 1970 book derogatory of a campaign opponent.

"There's a good likelihood that the Rules Committee will recall Mr. Rockefeller," said a press secretary for Sen. Howard Cannon, D-Nev., chairman of the panel. "More than likely, questioning will be on the gifts and the books."

Confirmation Delayed
Cannon also was quoted by the aide, Barbara Dahlke, as saying the committee would not vote on confirmation before December.

Meanwhile, several lawmakers said Rockefeller's nomination may be in trouble, and Rep. Robert F. Drinan, D-Mass., said he will join with a number of other congressmen in a bid to have President Ford withdraw the nomination.

At his Westchester County, N.Y., estate, Rockefeller insisted he had responded thoroughly to all questions asked by congressional committees about gifts he made to public officials and associates between 1967 and 1974.

Loan Report Denied
The former New York governor also denied any knowledge of a report, broadcast by NBC, that "Rockefeller interests" had arranged a $50,000 loan for L. Judson Morhouse, a former New York state official. The report said Morhouse bought stock with the money and made a profit of over $100,000.

Pressures to have Rockefeller recalled by the Rules Committee increased after disclosure that his brother, Laurence Rockefeller, put up $60,000 to help finance a book derogatory to former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg. Goldberg was Rockefeller's opponent in 1970 for the New York governorship. The vice president-designate has accepted blame for publication of the book.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of Ohio, Democratic chairman of the House Campaign Committee, said Rockefeller's nomination "might be in some serious trouble." Appearing on NBC's Meet the Press, Hays said the nomination could go over to the next Congress in 1975, which would not improve Rockefeller's chances of confirmation.

Nixon Pardon, Amnesty, Surtax Haunt GOP Hopefuls

By DON MCLEOD
WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican candidates who had hoped that the change in command at the White House would ease their political woes now are worrying about the issues raised by President Ford's pardon of Richard M. Nixon, and his amnesty and surtax stands.

An Associated Press survey showed such concern widespread among Republican office-seekers across the nation, and indicated that Democrats are making the most of it.

One Republican, Rep. LaMar Baker of Tennessee, who seeks a third term in the Nov. 5 election, said, "I resent having to carry the burden of past actions of officials in our party."

Baker's remarks came after Ford had announced an anti-inflation program including a surtax on middle- and upper-income citizens.

The AP survey showed the Democrats stand to come close to the record 39 governorships they held after the 1936 election, as well as winning substantial gains in the Senate and House.

To counter this trend, Republicans have begun moving to cut their losses by pumping new money into the breach, planning a heavy media drive and arranging personal visits by Ford, who still rates personally as an asset despite reaction to some of his policies.

The Republican National Committee has spread a large share of its Washington staff around the country to help candidates and has pumped as much as $250,000 into the campaign pipeline in recent days.

Democrats, who remain hopeful of massive gains, concede the money could hurt them, especially in the close races where their own candidates are short of funds.

The survey, based on reports from bureaus in the 50 states, late polls and interviews with key politicians, shows the Democrats have a good chance of gaining from 30 to 40 new seats in the House. They already have a 248-187 majority.

In the Senate, Democrats are likely to pick up two to six seats on top of the 58-42 advantage they already hold.

But the most dramatic gains may come in governorships, where the Democrats already hold 32 to the GOP's 18. Democrats are expected to gain no less than three and as many as eight, including the big ones in New York and California.

Of the dozen Senate seats considered in serious jeopardy, 10 are now filled by Republicans. The GOP is defending 10 of the 13 or so governorships being hotly contested.

New York and California are the keystones to the potential Democratic landslide. Edmund G. "Jerry" Brown Jr., son of California's last Democratic governor, holds a substantial lead in the polls over Republican nominee Houston I. Flournoy in the race to succeed GOP Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Democrats stand to gain two or more House seats in each of those states. They also should hold Alan Cranston's Senate seat in California, and Democrat Ramsey Clark is now given a chance at upsetting veteran Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits in New York.

Besides Wilson, the Republican governors seen in most trouble are Francis W. Sargent of Massachusetts, who is running considerably behind Democrat Michael S. Dukakis in the polls, and John Vanderhoof of Colorado, who is threatened by Democrat Richard Lamm. One poll even gives Lamm a surprisingly wide lead.

Democrats also are given good chances of picking up Republican governorships in Connecticut, Arizona, Tennessee, Oregon and possibly Wyoming.

The only Democratic governor seen in any real trouble is William Egan of Alaska, who trails Republican Jay Hammond in the polls.

The GOP sees its best chances in Maine and in South Carolina, where the favored Democratic nominee, Charles Ravenel, has been ruled off the ticket by the courts and replaced by Rep. William J. B. Dorn, the man he whipped in the primary.

GOP Gov. William G. Milliken is clinging to a slim lead over Democrat Sander Levin in Michigan, the only large state where the Republicans are given a chance.

On the Senate scene, both parties expect Democrat Richard Stone to defeat Republican Jack Eckerd for the Florida seat now held by retiring GOP Sen. Edward J. Gurney.

Three Republican incumbents trail Democratic challengers — Sens. Peter Dominick of Colorado, Marlow W. Cook of Kentucky and Milton R. Young of North Dakota.

In Kansas, Sen. Robert Dole had dropped eight points behind Democratic challenger William Roy in the polls, but a new poll now shows them even.

Sen. Mike Gravel of Alaska is the only Democrat seen in serious difficulty. He trails Republican C. R. Lewis in one poll.

Republicans also cling to hopes of picking up the Nevada seat of retiring Democratic Sen. Alan Bible, although a poll shows Democratic Lt. Gov. Harry Reid now slightly ahead of former Republican Gov. Paul Laxalt.

Democrats hope to win the Utah seat of retiring Republican Wallace F. Bennett. Democratic Rep. Wayne Owens, who once led, trails Republican Jack Garn, but the gap appears to be closing again.

Dairy Co-Ops Keep Milk Prices Up

By BROOKS JACKSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Milk prices in most parts of the country are being held above federal minimums through the bargaining power of big dairy cooperatives, according to governmental and private statistics.

The government calculated that extra charges levied by co-ops amounted to an average of 1.9 cents per half-gallon nationwide last June, the most recent month for which an official average is available.

The average has risen since then, but the Agriculture Department has not yet revealed the amount of the increase.

Bottlers say dairy co-ops in southern Florida are charging 11 cents per half-gallon over federal minimums, which one government economist said was the highest extra charge ever recorded.

Co-ops are able to charge prices above federal minimums because of their size and partial immunity from antitrust laws. The higher prices generally are passed on to consumers.

Free To Demand More
Under present law, bottlers must pay at least what the government sets as the minimum price for fluid milk in 61 federally regulated markets, which account for about 80 per cent of the nation's fluid milk. But co-ops are free to demand more, and also are free to join in price-fixing associations among themselves.

The extra charges levied by the dairy co-ops have increased sharply in recent months as the dairymen moved to protect themselves against a sharp seasonal drop in federal minimum prices for milk.

The dairymen also have complained of a severe profit squeeze as higher costs pushed against the falling prices. At sources, prices unduly. But department officials say no action is under way to roll back the present record-high extra charges. In the 52 years that the present law has been on the books, not one single price action has been brought by the department against a co-op.

Agriculture Department officials say that in many cases the extra charges levied by the co-ops include legitimate service charges for such things as delivery, testing and payroll bookkeeping.

Presently some extra charges are in effect for more than 50 per cent of the 61 federally regulated markets, according to industry sources.

Blues Singer Weds Politician

DETROIT (AP) — Rhythm and blues singer Gladys Knight has married Barry Hankerson, an assistant to Detroit Mayor Coleman Young.

Young was the best man and opened up the mayor's mansion for the wedding and reception Saturday night.

Miss Knight, 29, and her vocal group, The Pips, won Grammy awards last March for best pop vocal group and best rhythm and blues vocal group.

It was the second marriage for both Miss Knight and the 26-year-old Hankerson.

The co-ops were given exemptions from antitrust laws during the Depression, when dairymen were at the mercy of bottlers and cheese makers. But the processors now contend that the tables have turned, and it is they who are at the mercy of the co-ops.

Under the law, the Secretary of Agriculture is required to prevent co-ops from using their special status to enhance their has heated up Northern Ireland's half-century of violence during which the Catholic-based Irish Republican Army has sought to sever Ulster's ties with Britain and unite it with the Irish Republic to the south.

The current campaign began in August 1969, when Britain sent troops to quell IRA street turbulence. At least 1,076 persons have been killed since then.

The latest victim was a man of 28 with an Afro hairstyle, whose body was found Sunday dumped in hills overlooking this capital city. He had been savagely beaten, then shot six times in the head and chest. Identified as Clarian Murphy, he was the weekend's fourth Catholic murder victim.

The Ulster Freedom Fighters, an outlawed Protestant group, claimed responsibility for all four. It said they were retaliating for recent bombings in Northern Ireland and England blamed on the Provisional wing of the IRA, which is Catholic-based.

Authorities said the upsurge of Protestant underground activity appeared to follow the IRA's admitted murders of a Northern Ireland judge and a magistrate on Sept. 16. Nine of the 16 victims of assassination since then were Catholics.

Another probable sectarian murder failed late Sunday night, police said. Five shots were fired at a Protestant man in the kitchen of his house in north Belfast. All missed.

The Northern Ireland death toll this year is 149, of whom 112 were civilians.

Republican Judy Petty 'Optimistic' About Chances She'll Defeat Mills

By BILL SIMMONS
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Republican Judy Petty says she is "completely, totally, absolutely optimistic" about her chances for defeating Rep. Wilbur D. Mills next month.

The 39-year-old divorcee says the Tidal Basin incident in Washington last week involving Mills will be a factor in the election, "but not because I make it so."

Mills' car, in which he was a passenger, was stopped last Monday near the Tidal Basin for traveling at high speed and with headlights out, according to police reports. Another passenger in the car, a woman later identified as a former stripper, leaped into the basin and had to be rescued by a policeman.

Many observers originally believed Mrs. Petty would make a poor showing against Mills in the general elections. But her chances for topping the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee may have improved since the Tidal Basin incident.

She has maintained that the Mills incident is a personal matter, not a campaign issue. She has concentrated her drive against the 65-year-old Democrat on illegal campaign contributions — especially from dairy interests.

"Wilbur Mills is up to his knees in sour milk," Mrs. Petty said.

Pretending a slip-of-the-tongue, she occasionally refers to GOP Record to her opponent as "Wilbur Milk." Cartoonists, taking the theme, have shown a Mills-faced cat licking cream from its whiskers.

$80,000 Dairy Gifts
The Watergate Committee report says more than $80,000 was illegally given from corporate assets of dairy groups to "draft Mills" organizations which operated in 1971 and 1972 before Mills said he was running for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Mrs. Petty has campaigned much more vigorously than Mills, who has hardly put in appearances that could be construed as campaign ventures. In one week, she made 26 stops in one county and met factory shifts around the clock.

She has accused Mills of doing little in his Ways and Means post to rid the nation of inflation and what she calls an inequitable tax system that needs reform.

Mrs. Petty says she entered politics in order to support herself and her daughter after her marriage broke up. She and her 10-year-old daughter Debbie live with Mrs. Petty's parents in Little Rock.

Until her divorce in 1967, Mrs. Petty's political involvement was limited to work as a neighborhood volunteer for Winthrop Rockefeller in his

Tit-For-Tat Killings Point To New Ulster Terror Wave

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Shadow assassins have killed 16 persons in a month of tit-for-tat killings by Protestant and Roman Catholic extremists. Police said today it is evidence of a new wave of backstreet sectarian murder.

Another 20 persons have been shot and gravely wounded. Police said most victims have been shot going to work, strolling with friends or answering the door at home. The murderers generally escape in hijacked cars or disappear through Belfast's maze of narrow alleyways.

The only motive often seems merely to destroy any Protestant or any Catholic, investigators say.

"It's a rampage of killing, and it's getting worse," one senior police officer said. "It'll soon be even bloodier than in 1972, when 30 people were murdered in a couple of summer months."

The latest round of murder

has heated up Northern Ireland's half-century of violence during which the Catholic-based Irish Republican Army has sought to sever Ulster's ties with Britain and unite it with the Irish Republic to the south.

The current campaign began in August 1969, when Britain sent troops to quell IRA street turbulence. At least 1,076 persons have been killed since then.

Weekend Violence Toll Across Texas Lower Than Usual

By The Associated Press
Traffic as usual was a big killer in Texas over the weekend, but small numbers of violent deaths from other causes kept the overall toll at a lower level than usual.

Early today, the toll for the weekend was 19, including 12 in traffic mishaps, two shooting deaths, one stabbing, two drownings, a fatal fall and a traffic-related fatality caused by a man who swallowed gasoline he was trying to siphon.

William Guderian, 24, of Lorena died Sunday when his motorcycle crashed on a highway at Lorena in McClennan County.

Waco Collision
Police said Cozette Holland of Waco was killed Sunday in a two-car accident on Texas 6 on the Lake Waco bridge.

A Prairie View A&M student, Johnny Ray Phillips, 21, of Texarkana was shot to death Sunday while attending a student event on the campus. The Waller County sheriff's department was investigating the shooting.

Henry Allredge, 47, of Houston was killed Sunday when his car ran off the road in Liberty County 10 miles west of Dayton.

Also in Liberty County, Darrell Wayne Fox, 8, died of injuries suffered when he was struck by a car as he stepped off a school bus Saturday.

Kenneth Brady Kelly, 17, died in Arcola in East Texas after swallowing gasoline he was attempting to siphon from a gas tank.

Kellie Ann Wright, 15, of Houston was killed Friday night when the car in which she was riding swerved to miss an opossum in the road and overturned. Police said the driver of the car was unhurt.

A 49-year-old Dallas man identified as Carl Bryant was shot three times in the back and killed as he sat in a pickup truck Friday night.

Mark Hodnett, 19, of Houston was killed Friday night when the car in which he was riding left a Houston street, crashed into several trees and overturned.

Felipe Perez, 29, of McAllen drowned Saturday at Lake Ray Hubbard near Dallas. Authorities said he apparently fell off the spillway while he was fishing.

An Arlington man was presumed drowned Saturday when he fell from a fishing boat. Police did not identify the man, and searchers were looking for the body.

Charles P. Godfrey, 18, of Roanes Prairie, was killed Saturday when his small foreign car ran off a Harris County road.

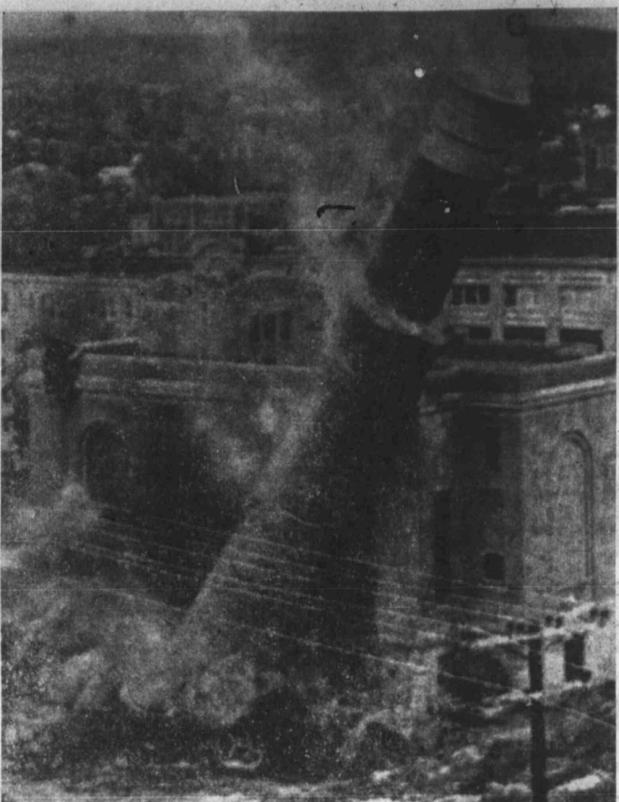

Police found the body of Kevin Hardaway Cox, 19, of Alvin, on a Harris County road Saturday. Police said the youth apparently was stabbed in a car and got out of the vehicle, running 125 feet before collapsing in the roadway.

Texans Scrap Slaughter Plan, Donate 50 Calves To Charity

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Texas cattlemen have scrapped plans to kill calves for Wednesday. The Wednesday slaughter, along with one for Tuesday planned by cattlemen in Nacogdoches and Sulphur Springs in East Texas, have been canceled as part of an agreement for talks with federal officials.

Bruce Matthews, a cattleman in Sulphur Springs, said, "The Agriculture Department said they wouldn't meet with the slaughter off. We will have to wait and see what they have to offer us."

The cattlemen had scheduled a meeting today with Agriculture Department Undersecretary Phil J. Campbell and Rep. W. R. Poage, D-Tex., but the meeting was postponed because Poage could not attend.

"We want to give them time to come down," said Felix Dormley, president of the Nacogdoches County Dairy Farmers Association who added the possibility of killing calves still existed depending on the outcome of the talks.

The Texans first announced their decision to kill calves last month saying it cost more to raise them than the price they got at the feedlots. They said they were caught in the economic squeeze between the high price of feed and the low price of beef and demanded either government subsidies or an elimination to beef imports hoping for an increase in beef prices.

Texas officials convinced the cattlemen at first to postpone the initial plan for mass slaughter saying it would have no effect on the market and would cause adverse public reaction. Some organizations, including the Humane Society of the United States, condemned the mass slaughters.

Oklahoma Groups Set Meetings

STUART, Okla. (AP)—The leader of one group of Oklahoma cattlemen said Sunday the organization plans to go ahead with its plans for a mass slaughter of beef while awaiting developments in neighboring Texas.

And another group of Oklahoma cattle raisers and businessmen were to meet tonight to decide whether they will join the cattle-slaughter protest.

Francis Spagna, chairman of the Concerned Cattlemen of Oklahoma, said his organization has not yet set a date for the mass slaughter to protest the financial plight of cattle raisers.

Slaughter Still Planned
But he said plans for the slaughter have not been called off despite word that a Texas cattle raisers' group hopes a meeting with federal officials will bring action to relieve the situation.

Spagna said he hoped some action would be taken to alleviate the financial problems of livestock raisers but, "We in Oklahoma are reserving our judgment until we see some concrete action come forth."

The Texas cattle raisers' group earlier Sunday called off plans for a mass slaughter of calves on Tuesday and Wednesday after two federal Department of Agriculture officials agreed to meet leaders of the Texas group.

Spagna said that he had been contacted by one Texas beef producer who said some members of the Texas group were unhappy about the action cancelling the slaughter of calves. Spagna said the Texan told him a new group was being formed to continue the planned protest.

Three-State Meeting
Spagna said he planned to attend a three-state meeting of cattle raisers in Missouri tonight and would be in Hugo, Okla., for an organizational meeting of stockmen there on Tuesday.

Another group is to be formed in the Tallihina area this week, Spagna said.

Still another group of Oklahoma cattlemen and businessmen were to meet tonight in Wilson in Carter County to decide whether to join in the mass cattle slaughter.

Spagna said letters were mailed during the weekend to Oklahoma congressmen and President Ford, asking their support in solving the economic problems of stockmen.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Monday, Oct. 14, the 287th day of 1974. There are 78 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1066, Normans under William the Conqueror defeated the English at the Battle of Hastings.

On this date — In 1644, the founder of Pennsylvania, William Penn, was born in London.

In 1890, the 34th President of the United States, Dwight Eisenhower, was born in Denison, Texas.

In 1899, the magazine, "Literary Digest," said the horseless carriage would really never catch on.

In 1933, Germany announced that it was withdrawing from the League of Nations.

In 1939, in World War II, it was disclosed that a German submarine had sunk the British battleship, "Royal Oak," with a loss of 800 lives.

In 1944, British and Greek troops liberated Athens from German occupation forces.

Ten years ago: The Nobel Peace Prize was awarded to Dr. Martin Luther King.

Five years ago: The first major desegregation suit in the Northeastern states was filed by the Federal Government against the Waterbury, Conn. school system.

One year ago: A university administrator, Sanya Thammasak, was named Premier of Thailand after a series of violent clashes between troops and students.

Today's birthdays: Writer Arthur Schlesinger Jr. is 57 years old. Pianist Gary Grafman is 46.

Thought for today: The first half of our lives is ruined by our parents and the second half by our children — Clarence Darrow, American lawyer, 1857-1938.
