C&K Petroleum, Inc. operating from Midland has filed application to drill a 12,000-foot Strawn wildcat in Lea County, N.M., seven miles southeast of Lovington. It is No. 1-27 Shipp.

Location is 2 1/4 mile north of Strawn production in the Humble City multipay field and the same distance southeast of the Lovington, Northeast (Pennsylvanian) field, but separated from the latter by Strawn failures.

Drill site is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 27-16s-37e.

Nolan Workover To Test In Caddo

John R. Thompson of Abilene has filed application for the re-entry and cleaning out to around 6,200 feet for tests of the Caddo at No. 1 B. C. Burwick, Nolan County failure, 3/4 mile east of Ellenburger production in the E.A. multizone field.

The test originally was drilled by General Crude Oil Co. as No. 1 George T. Cave, and plugged and abandoned July 11, 1954 at 6,612 feet in the Cambrian topped at 6,567 feet. Under ground elevation of 2,523 feet, top of the Caddo was picked at 6,150 feet. It recovered 3,708 feet of gas, 90 feet of oil and 30 feet of salt water on a drillstem test in the Cisco lime from 3,814-3,823 feet.

The test spots 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 249, block 64, H&TC survey, three miles southwest of Nolan.

Undesignated Test Set In Eddy

Cities Service Oil Co. has staked site for No. 1-AB Government, as an 11,600-foot undesignated Morrow test in Eddy County, N.M., approximately 1,320 feet west of its No. 1-Y Government, recently completed extension to Morrow production in the Russell field.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 1-20s-28e, 1/2 mile north of dual Strawn and Morrow production in the Russell pool and 12 miles northeast of Carlsbad.

The firm's No. 1-Y Government was finished Aug. 8 for a calculated, absolute open flow of 2,825 million cubic feet of gas daily, through perforations at 11,123-11,230 feet.

Project In Crane Tests Two Zones

Gulf Oil Corp. was flowing back load from the Ellenburger, at No. 2-NZ State, location west offset to Ellenburger production, and 1/2 mile southwest of dual Devonian and Ellenburger production in the Crane County part of the McElroy, North field.

Ellenburger perforations at 11,967-11,972 feet have been flushed with 3,431 gallons of lease oil.

Earlier, after acidizing with 7,500 gallons, it flowed an (Continued On Page 13A)

Mideast Peace Progress Hailed

House Fails To Override Ford's Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House failed today to override President Ford's veto of Congress' cutoff of military aid to Turkey, killing the cutoff.

House Appropriations Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., said the committee would meet later in the day to redraft a new emergency funding resolution for a number of federal agencies. The resolution died with the veto because the Turkey aid cutoff was attached to it.

The House vote was Congress' first on overriding any of Ford's vetoes and the House began recording it on the electronic voting counters on each end of the chamber almost immediately after Ford's veto message was read. There was no debate.

Opponents of the Turkish aid said optimistically Monday that spot checks indicated they might be able to muster a two-thirds House vote today to override Ford's veto of the aid cutoff.

But the opponents agreed with predictions of leaders, including Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott, that the Senate will sustain Ford's veto whether the House overrides or not.

A presidential veto can be overturned only by a two-thirds vote of both House and Senate.

Recess Postponed Congress has postponed its campaign recess for a week to act because the Turkey aid cutoff is in an emergency stop-gap funding resolution for agencies whose legal spending authority expired Sept. 30.

Denouncing "reckless acts," Ford said in his veto message Monday that Congress' resolution to cut off aid to Turkey is "entirely destructive" to U.S. efforts to bring about Cyprus peace negotiations.

Nixon Withheld Information To Save Neck, Lawyer Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — John D. Ehrlichman's lawyer accused former President Richard M. Nixon today of deliberately withholding information about Watergate "to save his own neck."

William S. Frates said in his opening statement to the jury trying Ehrlichman and four others for conspiracy in the Watergate cover-up that: "President Nixon, who knew the full story, withheld it from John Ehrlichman and prevented Ehrlichman from making a full disclosure of the facts that Ehrlichman recommended at that time over and over again."

Defense Laid Out Frates thus laid out Ehrlichman's defense: That "Richard Nixon deceived, misled, lied to and used John Ehrlichman." He said that at the same time that Nixon was calling Ehrlichman one of the finest public servants he had ever known "he was deliberately withholding information... covering up to save his own neck."

As Frates spoke, Ehrlichman, who had been Nixon's number two aide until he resigned four months into Nixon's second presidential term, sat at the counsel table staring fixedly at the jury.

His lawyer said it was not easy for Ehrlichman to make such charges against the man he served so long. Frates asked the jury of nine women and three men to treat each defendant separately in making their decision at the end of a trial he expected to last three or four months.

Refers To Tapes He referred to the White House tapes that Nixon fought so hard to retain in the White House. The tapes, obtained after extended court fights and a Supreme Court decision, will be played for the jury in the course of the trial.

"The tapes might have done some people harm," Frates said, "but they are the greatest thing that ever happened to John Ehrlichman."

Frates made the first opening statement for the defense. Lawyers for two other defendants, Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson were to follow. The other defendants, H. R. Haldeman and John N. Mitchell, reserved their opening statements until the prosecution cases end.

Dean To Testify The first witness was to be John Dean III, the first White House insider to accuse Nixon and his closest associates. Dean was to testify to a jury that had been told by government prosecutor Richard Ben-Veniste Monday that Nixon once suggested Dean be given the scope of judicial review."

Kissinger Says Latest Journey Help To Cause

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger flies home today with what he calls some positive indications that his latest Middle East tour has brought progress toward Arab-Israeli peace.

Kissinger came to Rabat from Algiers and met with King Hassan II, who will be host Oct. 26 to an Arab summit conference. The Rabat summit may determine the outcome of peace moves Kissinger discussed in the capitals of Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Israel, Saudi Arabia and Algeria. No details have been disclosed, but Arab sources said proposals have evolved that include some new Israeli pull-backs from Arab lands and resumption of political negotiations.

Low In 30s Predicted For Midland

The National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal said it would be colder in the Tall City tonight, with the mercury expected to dip to a mark in the upper 30s.

The low reading here this morning was 43, and some Midlanders reported heavy frost on their windshields when they started for work.

The weatherman said there is a chance for frost tonight. The maximum reading Monday was 64, and the high today should be in the upper 60s, with the maximum Wednesday in the middle 60s.

The Weather Service measured .35 inch of moisture from 6 a.m. Monday to midnight, bringing the October fall to 3.25 inches. Rain fell off and on here throughout Monday and the gauge atop The Reporter-Telegram Building caught .20 inch. (See WEATHER Page 2A)

Alaskan Pipeline Constitutionality Upheld By Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline Authorization Act passed by Congress last year.

The act cleared the way for the granting of a permit to Alyeska Pipeline Corp. and placed strict limits on environmental lawsuits against the project.

The court sustained without comment a decision by U.S. District Judge Joseph Waddy of Washington that the act was "a valid, constitutional exercise of the power of Congress to limit the scope of judicial review."

Networks Asked To Carry Ford's Kansas City Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford formally asked the nation's television and radio networks today to broadcast live his Kansas City speech tonight after the networks decided against live coverage of the address as a news event.

In a statement approved by Ford, White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said: "The networks did not feel it was newsworthy that the President would be addressing the American people on what they as individuals and collectively can do to assist in the fight against inflation and the effort to save energy, so for the first time in the Ford administration we have formally requested time from the networks this evening."

Army Secretary Orders Spying Curb By Intelligence On Civilians Overseas

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a long controversy, Secretary of the Army Howard Callaway has ordered a curb on spying by Army intelligence on U.S. civilians overseas.

The new Callaway order would forbid any spying of the kind allegedly conducted against a group of Americans who supported the 1972 Democratic presidential candidacy of Sen. George McGovern while they were living in Berlin.

No Outright Ban But the order stops short of an outright ban on Army surveillance of U.S. civilians.

Under its terms, Army intelligence still may carry out investigations of U.S. civilians working for the Defense Department abroad.

Surveillance of civilians not affiliated with the Defense Department also is permitted, but only if there is "substantial evidence" of illegal activities threatening Army troops, property or functions.

Even in such cases, Callaway directed that the Army should investigate only when civilian government agencies such as the FBI are unable to do so.

Compliance Ordered The Army said Callaway was giving his close personal attention to insure strict compliance (See SPYING Page 2A)

Stalemate Breaks In Coal Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators for the United Mine Workers and the coal industry apparently have broken the stalemate over discussion of key health and safety issues and have resumed hard bargaining.

The deadlock held up the talks for a week and provoked union warnings of a nationwide coal strike Nov. 12.

Top union and industry negotiators held a lengthy meeting Monday after the Bituminous Coal Operators Association agreed to the union's demand to resolve their differences over non-economic issues before moving on to wage proposals.

Final Offer Presented The meeting was the first since last Tuesday when the industry presented what was described as its final offer on the non-economic issues. UMW President Arnold Miller accused the industry of refusing to bargain in good faith and warned of a strike by his 120,000 members, who mine 75 percent of the nation's coal.

"The UMW is entirely serious about its non-economic demands, especially those in the field of safety, and the BCOA evidently has come to recognize this," Miller said in a statement after talks resumed Monday.

American Chemist Wins Nobel Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — An American chemist and two British radio astronomers today were awarded 1974 Nobel prizes for chemistry and physics.

Paul J. Flory, 64, professor of chemistry at Stanford University, took the prize in chemistry for his work in macromolecules, the substance of most common plastics and of a number of important biological compounds.

Sir Martin Ryle and Antony Hewish, joint winners in physics, were the first radio astronomers ever to win a Nobel prize.

Ryle was cited for his work in developing advanced techniques for using telescopes in observing detail in celestial bodies and Hewish for his part in the discovery of mysterious energy sources called pulsars. (See NOBEL Page 2A)

Flory receives a cash award of $124,000, and the two British astronomers share an award of the same amount.

The awarding Royal Academy of Science said Flory had made "fundamental achievements, both theoretical and experimental," in the field of physical chemistry of macromolecules — which includes plastics and such biological compounds as protein, nucleic acids, cellulose and rubber.

"During the nearly 40 years Flory has been active as a research scientist, the chemistry of macromolecules has developed from what was, theoretically speaking, a primitive discipline to the highly advanced science of today... All this time Flory has remained (See NOBEL Page 2A)

U. N. Assembly To Hear Palestinian Leader

By GENE KRAMER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Yasir Arafat, the Israeli master terrorist and to the Arabs a freedom fighter, is expected at the United Nations early next month as the first outsider to speak at the General Assembly since Pope Paul VI in 1965.

Only the United States, Israel, Bolivia and the Dominican Republic voted against the resolution sponsored by half the 138 U.N. members, led by Arab and Communist governments. Twenty countries abstained. Yosef Tekoah, Israel's ambassador, condemned the vote as "the surrender of the United Nations to murder and barbarism."

He charged that Arafat heads not only the PLO but also the Black September group, extremists who claimed responsibility for the murder of Israeli athletes at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich. The Israeli contended that Arafat personally radioed commands for eight Black September terrorists to kill U.S. and Belgian diplomats in Khartoum, Sudan, last year.

U.S. Ambassador John A. Scali said the United States favors justice for the Palestinians but is concerned that the invitation "could have the ultimate effect of working against the interests of a Palestinian settlement."

Israel contends that Jordan represents Palestinian interests and has vowed never to negotiate with the Palestinian guerrilla groups. Jordan was not a sponsor but supported the resolution, despite its stand that it represents Palestinians within its borders.

Letter Campaign Supports Busing

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — In a Southern city where busing has been a controversial issue for years, a group of both black and white students is writing to a Boston newspaper urging Bostonians to "give integration a chance to work."

About half the 10 students are white and are bused to school under a court-ordered desegregation plan. All attend a previously all-black school.

The letters are being mailed today.

"For the good of our country and the good of our world, we must learn to love our fellow man," wrote Anna Rosser, a 16-year-old white student.

The letter-writing campaign developed after Tina Gouge, 16, a junior at West Charlotte High School, watched recent news reports about the violence in Boston as a result of court-ordered busing.

She said the students decided on the letter-writing campaign because "we really care what's going on up there."

Although Charlotte never experienced the violence of Boston, court-ordered busing has been a controversy in the city as long as some of the young-

Big Spring Woman Bound, Assaulted, Robbed At Home

BIG SPRING — A 59-year-old Big Spring housewife was raped early Monday, police said, after she had been blinded with a flashlight and then blindfolded.

The victim said her assailant climbed through her bedroom window, investigators reported.

The woman was tied to the bed with strips of sheeting. The intruder robbed her of money and some jewelry, then tied her to a living room chair with more strips of sheeting.

According to Detective Avery Falkner, who is heading the investigation, the woman worked her way free and summoned police about 1 a.m.

Testimony Heard In Heroin Trial

A six-man, six-woman jury heard two state witnesses this morning in Judge Perry Pickett's 142nd District Court trial of Felix Hernandez, charged with delivery of heroin.

Hernandez was arrested in May after he allegedly sold four papers containing a substance believed to be heroin to undercover agent Howard.

Hernandez is represented by court-appointed attorney Tom Scott.

Violence - Beset Schools Reopen

BOSTON (AP) — School reopened today after a three-day weekend that ended with an anti-busing motorcade to a hotel where Sen. Edward Kennedy and Democratic gubernatorial nominee Michael S. Dukakis were to speak.

The South Boston Home and School Association, which organized the 1,000-car motorcade, said the aim was to "show the Democratic party that it does not reflect the will of the people with respect to busing."

A white boycott of some schools was expected to continue today although anti-busing leaders in predominantly white South Boston disavowed any connection with it.

"It's no longer organized as it was in the first weeks" of busing to accomplish court-ordered school integration, said Virginia Sheehy, an organizer of the South Boston Information Center.

Nixon Withheld Information, Ehrlichman Lawyer Declares

(Continued From Page 1A) had gone to prosecutors with his story. When that information was brought to the President by Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst, Ben-Veniste said, the discussions turned to how the situation should be handled.

Haldeman, Nixon's chief of staff, and Ehrlichman, his domestic counselor, resigned April 30. Dean, who had issued a public statement April 19 that "he would not become a scapegoat" in the Watergate case, was fired April 30.

Other than disclosures from the tapes, the story Ben-Veniste outlined in his 3-hour, 10-minute statement, was a familiar one. It began with the meetings at which Mitchell, Jeb S. Magruder and G. Gordon Liddy allegedly planned the Watergate break-in, through its execution and the ever more-frantic efforts to bottle up the story.

All five defendants are charged with a conspiracy to obstruct justice, which Ben-Veniste described as "an agreement among two or more persons to violate the laws."

Two Suspects Arrested After Odessa Robbery

ODESSA — Two men were arrested minutes after an armed robbery at the Torch Club here early today. Two masked men had emptied the club's safe and taken money from five customers and the owner of the club.

Arrested were a 20-year-old Odessa man and a 27-year-old San Angelo man. Charges were being prepared against the pair late this morning.

Odessa police said the pair, armed with handguns, entered the club and ordered the patrons to stand against a wall and to put their billfolds on a table.

One of the robbers fired a shot in the direction of a club patron who was slow to respond to the gunmen's orders, Det. Capt. Floyd Hudman said he was told.

The robbers ordered Bill King, owner of the club, to open the safe, from which approximately $600 was taken.

Odessa police said 15 persons were in the club and a description of the get-away car was given by them.

The pair was wearing gloves and masks made from towels. Money was also taken from Mike R. Smith, Robert A. Ares, Johnny Romero, Gary Ramsey and Lee Gilbow, all of Odessa. The other patrons didn't have money in their wallets, police said.

Weather—

Meanwhile, a cold front extended today along Texas' coast from Beaumont to south of Corpus Christi and inland to Laredo but the rain and clouds the front brought to the state were expected to disappear before sundown.

Thundershowers stretched along the frontal zone and light rain dotted parts of Northeast and Southeast Texas. Other showers occurred before dawn as far east as Austin and as far south as College Station.

Bond Law—

Under this system, persons who meet the property ownership requirement put their ballots in one box and other voters put their ballots in another box. Bonds are not issued unless they get the approval of a majority of the taxpaying voters and a majority of all voters.

The court case arose after the Fort Worth City Council, following this law, refused to sell library bonds that had been approved by a majority of all voters but not a majority of the property owners.

Voters challenging the procedure said it "disenfranchises multitudes of persons who are interested in such broad issues as a transportation system or libraries."

Hill, in asking the Supreme Court to review the lower decision, said more than one-fourth of the state in some way qualify for the right to vote on general obligation bonds on the basis of property ownership or taxation.

E. B. Pillows, 45, Dies; Services Set

Earlene "Pete" B. Pillows, 45, of Midkiff died in a Houston hospital Monday after an illness. Services are pending at the Newnie W. Ellis Chapel here.

Pillows was born Jan. 29, 1929, at Apple Springs. He was reared in Trinity County and served in the Navy from 1946 to 1948.

After his discharge from the Navy he moved to West Texas and had lived at Midkiff since May 1961. He was a member of the Baptist Church and Spraberry Masonic Lodge No. 1365.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Judy Pillows of Midkiff; a stepson, Doug West of Mt. Carmel, Ill.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pillows of Midland; four brothers, Burl Pillows and Arnold Pillows, both of Midland, and Gandy Pillows and Clifford Pillows, both of Houston, and a grandchild.

Absentee Voting Slated For November Election

Absentee voting in Midland for the Nov. 5 general election gets under way Wednesday in the Midland County clerk's office.

According to Ruth Moore, chief deputy clerk, the absentee voting will continue through Nov. 1. Mrs. Moore said that absentee votes could be made in the clerk's office during regular office hours 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each Monday through Friday.

The chief clerk noted that any qualified voter who "will be absent from the city on election day" can vote absentee. She said that all persons wanting to vote the absentee ballot should bring their voter registration certificate with them at the time they wish to cast their ballot.

Mrs. Moore said that it is possible to write in to the county clerk's office and have a ballot mailed to a qualified voter for absentee voting from an out-of-town address. She said that an example of this would be the college student or military personnel who is a registered voter in Midland, but currently lives away from the city.

Qualified voters may also vote absentee if they are not able to vote on election day because of a confining sickness, physical

At the same time he has an outstanding ability to extract the necessary experimental findings from well-planned, but often simple, experiments which he carries out with a comparatively small research team," it said.

Flory, at Stanford since 1961, received his doctor's degree from Ohio State University in 1934. In the interim he worked at a number of institutions, both academic and industrial.

The physics and chemistry prizes completed this year's awards of Nobel prizes, which are financed by the estate of Alfred Nobel, the Swede who invented dynamite.

The prize for literature went to two Swedish authors, the prize for medicine to three European-born scientists who did their major work in the United States, and the Alfred Nobel Memorial Prize in Economics was split between a Swede and an Austrian.

In Oslo the peace prize was awarded to Japanese former premier Eisaku Sato and Irishman Sean MacBride.

Three Hurt In Collision

Mrs. Dorothy Bray Montgomery, 301 N. Webster St., was hospitalized following a collision between a pickup truck and an automobile at the intersection of Fairgrounds Road and Front Street.

The accident occurred at 3:16 p.m. Monday.

Mrs. Montgomery was in satisfactory condition this morning in Midland Memorial Hospital.

Treated and released at the hospital were Mrs. Elaine Stephenson, 914 N. Weatherford St., and Floyd Glen Bunch, Rt. 1, Stanton.

Mrs. Stephenson was riding in the car driven by Mrs. Montgomery. The pickup truck was driven by Bunch.

However, it is still doubtful whether enough time remains to avoid a strike. The current three-year contract runs out Nov. 12 and any settlement would have to be submitted to the union rank-and-file at least a week in advance if it is to be ratified in time.

Safety Rules Proposed

The UMW has proposed a number of safety rules that the industry contends would strip it of much of its management rights. Among them are proposals for full-time helpers on heavy mining machinery and a greater union role in the enforcement of safety laws. Some work rules also are in dispute.

Rocky Hearing Decision May Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate Rules Committee decision on reopening its hearings on Nelson A. Rockefeller's nomination as vice president may be delayed until a post-election session of Congress.

A committee aide said it is doubtful that a meeting could be arranged in the short time senators are expected to be here before scattering for a campaign recess.

Allen said that "an exhaustive investigation must be made and all leads pursued" if the Senate committee is to fulfill its responsibility in acting on Rockefeller's nomination.

New Italian Premier, Economics-Trained, Has Aversion For Communism

ROME (AP) — The man who will try to forge Italy's 37th postwar government from the country's squabbling political parties comes equipped with a background in economics, a taste for political warfare and an aversion to communism.

Allen said that "an exhaustive investigation must be made and all leads pursued" if the Senate committee is to fulfill its responsibility in acting on Rockefeller's nomination.

Goldberg said he would welcome an opportunity to testify about a derogatory book published about him in 1970 when he was running against Rockefeller for governor of New York.

Aminore Fanfani also brings a rare expertise to the job of premier: he's been there three times before.

Other Demands Made
Disclosure that Rockefeller's brother, Laurance, put up $60,000 to finance the book also has brought other demands that the hearings be reopened.

Picked Unanimously
The 66-year-old leader of the Christian Democrats was picked unanimously by his party to try to revive the center-left coalition of Premier Mariano Rumor that collapsed Oct. 3. All Italian premiers since 1945 have been members of the Roman Catholic-backed party.

Allen also said that recipients of gifts and major political contributions from Nelson Rockefeller ought to be brought before the committee to testify.

President Giovanni Leone officially asked Fanfani Monday to form a government, and the "little warrior" plunged into negotiations with the Socialists and Social Democrats.

Memphis Residents Asked To Cut Back On Electricity Use

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Memphis residents are being asked to turn thermostats down, wear sweaters and shiver a little now or face the prospect of mandatory power blackouts or brownouts this winter.

The Memphis Light, Gas & Water Division issued the call after its electric supplier, the Tennessee Valley Authority, said the uncertainty of coal supplies pose the possibility that TVA will not be able to meet power demands.

PREPARING FOR CLASS — Mrs. John Yuronka and Dr. Ray Bristol discuss materials in the Parent Effectiveness Training program sponsored by the Pastoral Counseling Center which Dr. Bristol directs. Mrs. Yuronka is instructor for the training.

Parent Effectiveness Training Class Set

The Pastoral Counseling Center is taking reservations for the next class in Parent Effectiveness Training (PET), a program pioneered by California psychologist Dr. Thomas Gordon designed to help parents raise their children to become responsible individuals.

Training," written by Dr. Gordon, and a workbook. The Pastoral Counseling Center of Midland, directed by Dr. Ray Bristol, is offering the PET program.

Mrs. John (Donna) Yuronka is the certified PET instructor for the class which is conducted in eight three-hour sessions.

According to Dr. Bristol, "More and more we are becoming aware of the fact that couples are finding their children to be increasingly difficult to cope with, and that parenthood is turning out to be a burden rather than a joy."

The workshop course helps parents learn practical methods in raising children. Emphasis is on training, coaching and skill development rather than just ideas.

Persons desiring further information about PET may dial the Pastoral Counseling Center, 697-2261. One class is already in progress, and reservations are being taken to start another.

Weekend Violence Kills 27 Persons In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — Twenty-seven persons died in a bloody outburst of violence over the weekend in the Chicago area, and police say the availability of handguns was the major cause of the deaths.

Police said 93 shootings were reported from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday in Chicago alone.

In the city, 17 persons died of gunshot wounds. Three additional fatal shootings in suburban Cook County brought to 20 the number of gun-related deaths in the county.

Seven others died by assorted methods of violence — one was strangled, four were stabbed and two persons were run down by a car. Police charged the driver with murder.

100 Pounds Per Person

Sugar, pound for pound, it is said, traditionally has been one of the cheapest commodities on the supermarket shelf.

This no longer is true, and many consumers have been startled at the recent price increases.

Industrial users and housewives have wondered why the runaway sugar prices.

The experts say that the price hikes have been caused by a spiraling increase in demand for sugar which far exceeds available supply.

Reasons for the escalating demand are: (1) Sharply increased consumption of sugar in the newly emerging countries, which formerly were relatively small consumers of sugar; (2) heavier consumption of sugar in Russia, China and Japan; (3) speculation in the commodity by cash-rich Mideast nations, and (4) weather problems which have put a crimp in sugar crops and further shortened supply.

The United States, as you doubtless already know, consumes far more sugar than it produces. This means that vast quantities of raw sugar must be imported at prices established in worldwide commodity markets to supply the commodity.

The Sugar Association says that one of the stable factors in the situation is that consumption of sugar in the U.S. has remained virtually unchanged over many decades—approximately 100 pounds per person annually, including sugar used in preparation of foods as well as sugar consumed at the table.

But if the price continues to skyrocket . . . who knows???

Prayer In Schools

Another effort to have Congress act to reinstate prayer officially in the nation's public school systems has been introduced in the Senate by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C. A similar bill is expected to be introduced in the House.

The Helms bill, it is reported, seeks "to limit the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States and the district courts to enter any judgment, decree, or order, denying or restricting, as unconstitutional, voluntary prayer in any public school."

It is noteworthy that the bill is sponsored by four distinguished senators—James Eastland, D-Miss.; Strom Thurmond, R-S.C.; Carl Curtis, R-Neb.; and Wallace Bennett, R-Utah.

The measure comes before Congress at each session. There is a great deal of misunderstanding in the matter and it perhaps will require congressional action to gain clarification.

Prayer should be encouraged in public schools and at all public assemblies, moroso today than ever before.

The Welcoming Committee

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson says: Oklahoma's senator Bellmon helped himself to loan.

WASHINGTON—Oklahoma's soft-spoken Sen. Henry Bellmon, a Republican and farmer, in that order, pushed hard to get a federal land bank bill through the Senate. Then he snapped up a whopping $475,000 loan under the legislation which he had helped pass.

On the federal land bank's board of directors is H. C. Hitch, whom the senator supported for his bank job. The bank quickly approved the loan rates lower than Bellmon would have had to pay a commercial lender.

The loan was recommended by an old friend and neighbor, Lin Trueblood, who lives less than six miles from the senator. Trueblood happens to be the tri-country director of the federal land bank.

Bellmon and both his friends, in long talks, insisted that it was all on the up-and-up and that the senator got no more consideration than any other farmer in the Oklahoma cattle and wheat country.

Began in '71
The story began in 1971 in the Senate Agriculture Committee, where Bellmon is a respected member. At issue was a bill to let federal land banks raise the permissible mortgages on farm land from 65 to 85 per cent of the value of the land.

Bellmon not only was one of the sponsors of the bill, but more specifically, he personally helped push it through the committee. "I sure worked for it," he acknowledged candidly.

Subsequently, Bellmon tried to get a private loan on some of his land holdings. But money was tight, so he turned to the federal land bank. Last June 17, the senator and his wife were granted a $475,000 loan, according to records of the federal land bank in Wichita, on 1,319 acres in Oklahoma. The Bellmons are paying a low 8.5 per cent interest, far less than they would be charged by a commercial bank even if such a huge loan were available.

"Nothing Wrong"
Trueblood, who contributed $150 to Bellmon's current Senate campaign, sees nothing wrong with his approving the loan. It got the final approval, he pointed out, of the parent bank in Wichita.

Hitch, who contributed $4,000 to Bellmon's campaign, said Bellmon had little, if anything, to do with his appointment as a land bank director. In any case, Hitch insisted he never knew Bellmon's loan had gone through the land bank. It is the nature of bank employees, of course, to give favorable decisions on loans for the friends of directors.

The senator insisted there was "no connection" between the loan and his friendships. "That's as clean as a loan as you can find," he said.

THE KOJAK CAPER: Top federal drug officials are in an absolute tizzy over a recent episode of the popular "Kojak" tv series.

Kojak is a tough New York cop, played by actor Telly Savalas. In the September 29 episode, entitled "A Very Deadly Game," he was in hot pursuit of a police killer and narcotics dealer. He wanted to move in on

Hospital Is Bargain Compared To Prison

WASHINGTON (NEA)—If the doctors who treated ex-President Nixon's phlebitis were to sock their patient with a bill of some half-million dollars, there would be cries of indignation, and not all of them from taxpayers concerned that the tab eventually would be passed on to Uncle Sam.

No one seems upset by the fact that the legal costs facing a number of former associates of Mr. Nixon are up in that stratospheric range.

The services of a man who saves your life or your health would seem to deserve a greater reward than those of a man who saves you from jail (and sometimes doesn't). Yet for some reason we are more outraged by a high fee charged by a skilled physician than by the much higher fee usually commanded by a member of a prestigious law firm.

Watergate has not only been a blot on the legal profession, with more than two-score of those involved being lawyers, it also has been a financial bonanza.

According to AP writer Harry F. Rosenthal, former Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans' legal bill for his 48-day trial in the Vesco case was $380,793. That of his co-defendant former attorney general John N. Mitchell, was $383,345, plus $79,044 for expenses.

Trust Fund Money
Those tabs are being picked up by a trust fund handling money left over from Richard Nixon's 1972 re-election committee. At latest report, the committee had spent or owed $1.9 million in legal costs.

The just-begun trial of the five highest-ranking figures in the Watergate cover-up, of which Mitchell is one, is expected to rack up legal costs of several million dollars.

Friends of H. R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff, are trying to raise $400,000 for his legal expenses. John Ehrlichman says he'll need $300,000.

Two Watergate figures avoided some of this problem, however. Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez, indicted in both the Watergate break-in and the "plumbers" operation, declared themselves paupers.

True, they were convicted and went to prison but so have most of those who spent tens of thousands of dollars on their defenses and appeals in various other Watergate cases. If a surgeon's scalpel slips, at least you can sue him for malpractice. But if a lawyer fails to win your case, his bill still remains payable in full.

HERE'S A NEW WORLD'S record you won't find in your current Guinness:

According to Oil & Gas Journal, the world's deepest hole, a gas well, has been drilled in Washita County, Okla. Lone Star Producing Co.'s Bertha Rogers bottomed at 31,441 feet. Lone Star also drilled what was formerly the deepest hole at 30,050 feet.

Cost of the record hole is reported to be around $5 million—or a little under $160 a foot. Described as a small gasser.

The Walnut Creek channel carries 10 showings of 10 current motion pictures per month.

John Adams, Andrew Johnson, Grover Cleveland and Franklin D. Roosevelt had two children each.

ELECTION HIGHLIGHTS—In Maryland, The Issue Is Said To Be Women

By NEA/London Economic News Service
BALTIMORE (LENS)—Election time in Maryland, the state often said to be the most corrupt in the country, usually brings a scandal or two to light and provides a number of surprises. This year neither the Senate seat that is being contested nor the governor's mansion is expected to change hands, but the voters may confound the experts on Nov. 5.

Sen. Charles Mathias is expected to win a second term of office even though he is a Republican in a state that is heavily Democratic. The senator has spent the last six years treading the thin and perilous line of a liberal Republican and frequently opposed the Nixon administration.

His challenger is the formidable Barbara Mikulski, an energetic Baltimore city councillor and women's rights activist, and many voters are torn between them.

Ms. Mikulski, who has been acclaimed for her work as chairman of the national Democratic party's committee on delegate selection, braved some criticism and enlisted the support of Gloria Steinem, the editor of "Ms" magazine, to help in her campaign.

Ms. Mikulski is not attacking the incumbent senator's liberal voting record but she is pointing out the inconsistencies in it—such as opposing the Vietnam war yet voting for large defense appropriations—and pressing her own proposals. For the nation these include providing tax relief for the poor by closing tax loopholes elsewhere and for Marylanders overhauling Baltimore's drainage system.

But Mathias is widely supported. He is one of the few Republican senators to have the endorsement of organized labor and in the primary on Sept. 10, he swamped his right-wing challenger, Ross Pierpont.

He was even given a warm welcome when he turned up in Ms. Mikulski's home territory in a Polish part of Baltimore last week. However, he cannot assume that he has the race wrapped up.

Registered Democrats in Maryland outnumber Republicans by three to one and Mathias won in 1968 only because the Democratic vote was split by a maverick politician, George Mahoney, who stood as an independent.

Another incumbent who appears set for a second elected term in office is the Democratic governor, Marvin Mandel. Mandel was once the speaker of the state's house of delegates and took over the governorship when Spiro Agnew became vice president in 1969.

But his challenger, the outspoken former state legislator and staunch

New Book To Tell Churchill Story

NEW YORK (AP)—The hundredth anniversary of Winston Churchill's birth is Nov. 30, and among the books to commemorate the occasion is Rand McNally's new "Winston Churchill: A Pictorial Life History." According to the book, 18 year-old Winston once complained to his mother, "I can never do anything right." Yet on his 90th birthday, greetings poured in addressed simply "To The Greatest Man Alive."

Dear Abby

—By Abigail van Buren

Her Football Fellow's Out Of Bounds

DEAR ABBY: I've been dating this real neat guy who keeps telling me that I don't have to worry about his getting me pregnant because he was injured while playing football. Should I believe him?

NANCY

DEAR NANCY: No. It sounds to me like he's trying to complete a pass. Kick him in the end zone.

DEAR ABBY: Concerning the man who was married for 25 years and wanted his wife to give him one weekend off from his marriage every month: How I wish I were married to him. That's exactly what I want.

I suggested it to my husband once, and he hit the ceiling. Everyone but a wife gets a vacation. I mean a chance to really get away from the same old routine. Why does marriage have to be a prison?

I wish I were younger. I'm 56 — too old to start over, or to go it alone. Besides, I have no special training, so I guess I'll just have to go on as I have even though my husband and I have little in common except our children.

So in order to be supported, and keep the high regard of our children (now married), I'll continue to allow my husband the intimacies I no longer enjoy. Talk about prostitution!

I honestly think that with all the changes taking place today women will eventually get a break, and have the sexual freedom men have. It's too late for me, but not for my daughters.

You can't help me, Abby. Nobody can. But it would be interesting to know if I'm all alone in my outlook. Or are there other women who feel this way?

BORN TOO SOON

DEAR BORN: I'm sure you're not alone. I hear from thousands of women your age who feel trapped in dull, tired marriages, but they ask how to improve those marriages. You didn't ask, so I'll not offer any advice. I can tell you, though, that the answer is not in the "sexual freedom" you wish you had.

DEAR ABBY: My formerly favorite nephew who lives in another state was married last June. I sent him a generous check for a wedding gift. I heard nothing from him, but noticed that when the bank sent my canceled checks, the above-mentioned check was with them.

Isn't it customary for people to write thank-you notes for checks?

I recall how I laughed when I read in your column that a

POLLY'S POINTERS

Card Tricks Welcome Here

By POLLY CRAMER

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—I hope someone can tell me how one could use incomplete decks of playing cards. I prefer a creative way if possible.

SALLY. DEAR POLLY—My big Pet Peeve is with the post office. I do wish they would put the name of the town and its zip code number on letters when stamping them and then we would always know the zip code.

MRS. E.B.K. DEAR POLLY—With very little sewing Sue could make tennis racket covers from the legs cut off her dungarees. Slip the racket into a leg so the seams coincide with the frame of the racket and the bottom hem is about three or four inches from the handle. Cut the upper part of the dungaree leg to parallel the curve of the racket, allowing an inch for a good sturdy seam. Remove the racket and sew this one seam. Attach or sew a cord or lacing to the outside of the cover so that when the racket is in the new cover the lacing will gather around the handle. Sue could even "fancy up" the case as she did her dungarees.

ELIZABETH. DEAR POLLY—I am allergic to metal sewing thimbles and not a store in town had a plastic thimble in my size. I wrote the companies who make them but did not receive a reply so I made my own. I took masking tape and carefully wound that around the top and bottom and over the tip of my finger, slid it on and off several times until there was easy movement and had a tape thimble that is now hard and firm and really works.

JENNIE. DEAR POLLY—Those who are tired of having unsightly vitamin and prescription medicine bottles sitting around can keep them in a spice rack.

I transfer my vitamins to a labeled spice jar. Most prescriptions are taped on the bottles and the tapes can be removed and transferred to spice jars. They look much neater this way and are never noticed as being medicine bottles. If there are little ones around the house the rack should be hung in a place they cannot reach. Mine hangs above the stove where the children cannot get to it.

JUDI. DEAR POLLY—Most of us change purses frequently and they are not easy. There are so many things carried in an average woman's purse. I put all the essential things that always go in my purse in a clear plastic bag. When anything is needed I just lift out the bag and find the item without a lot of searching. When changing bags there is just this one plastic bag to transfer from one purse to the other.

MRS. J.R.W.

Mrs. Coleman Presents Review

Mrs. D. L. Coleman, a guest, reviewed the book, "The Hiding Place" by Corrie ten Boom, when the Preceptor Alpha Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met recently in the home of Mrs. Don DeBerry, 710 Boyd St.

Mrs. Jack Howard presided at the regular business meeting. Mrs. Howard gave the City Council report, including a report on the West Texas Area Convention held in Midland last weekend, and announced the chapter will be responsible for tickets for the Harvest Ball.

Members will bring gift items to the next regularly scheduled meeting to be sent to the girls at Girlstown, U.S.A.

Mrs. Gene Holmes received the hostess gift. City Council will hold a citywide meeting in The Midland National Bank Nov. 4 in lieu of the first regularly scheduled November meeting of the individual chapters.

Today In History

Today is Tuesday, Oct. 17, the 288th day of 1974. There are 77 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1964, it was announced in Moscow that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had been ousted from office.

On this date — In 1522, King Charles the Fifth of Spain named the conqueror, Hernando Cortez, governor of New Spain — what is now Mexico.

In 1851, gold was discovered at Melbourne, Australia.

In 1917, Mata Hari, the German spy, was shot by a firing squad outside Paris.

In 1928, the German dirigible, Graf Zeppelin, landed at Lakehurst, N.J., after the first commercial flight across the Atlantic.

In 1945, former French Premier Laval was executed for betraying his country to Nazi Germany during World War II.

In 1946, Nazi war criminal Hermann Goerring committed suicide by taking poison one day before he was to have been executed.

Ten years ago: Composer Cole Porter died in Santa Monica, California at the age of 72.

Five years ago: President Abdurashid Ali Shermarke of Somalia was assassinated by a member of the police force.

One year ago: Fierce tank battles between Israeli and Egyptian forces were taking place in the Sinai desert, and the Israelis said they were pushing toward the Syrian capital of Damascus.

Today's birthdays: Economist and writer John Galbraith is 66 years old. Broadway director Jose Quintero is 50.

Thought for today: Words will build no walls — Plutarch, Greek biographer, about 46 to 120 A.D.

Bishop Sees More Women In Ministry

OAXTEPEC, Mexico (AP) — An Episcopal bishop, who already stands accused of breaking church law by ordaining women priests, today warned that more women would be ordained in defiance of the church if it fails to clarify its position on the issue by 1976.

Church officials said such a move could cause further dissension among the 3.2 million Episcopalians and their leaders.

Many Bishops Ready

"Many bishops are ready to ordain women," asserted Bishop Jose Antonio Ramos of Costa Rica, one of four bishops who ordained 11 women three months ago.

He claimed in an interview that most bishops are waiting for the church to authorize the ordination of women. But Bishop Ramos predicted that if the church does not clarify its stand at its 1976 general convention in Minneapolis, more unauthorized ordinations would follow.

He did not specify what clarifications he thought were needed.

200 Seeking Ordination

The 11 women were ordained last July in Philadelphia, but their ordination was overruled the next month by the House of Bishops, the denomination's legislative body. Church officials estimate 200 women in the United States are working toward ordination.

The House of Bishops began its annual conference on Monday at this resort 40 miles south of Mexico City, and conference sources said the body has been divided into conservative and liberal factions by the female priests issue. Of the 220 bishops in the House of Bishops, 150 are attending the Oaxtepec conference.

Suspended Head Of Seminary Said Fired By Board

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Rev. Dr. John Tietjen, the suspended president of Concordia Seminary in suburban Clayton, has been fired, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat and radio station KMOX say.

The Globe-Democrat and KMOX said Monday that the Concordia Board of Control had apparently found the Rev. Dr. Tietjen guilty of several charges, including malfeasance in office and heresy.

The Rev. Dr. Tietjen, rallying point for moderates in a bitter controversy that has all but split the 2.8-million-member Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, declined immediate comment.

His suspension last Jan. 20 on charges of allowing the teaching of false doctrine led to the establishment by dissident Concordia students and faculty members of a "Seminary in Exile."

Conservatives who control the church demand literal interpretation of the Bible and believe it is heretical to teach that some of its events may not be historical fact.

Woman Diplomat Ready To Return

MIAMI (AP) — Barbara Hutchison, who was held captive for 12 days by terrorists in the Dominican republic, says she has no qualms about returning to her diplomatic duties.

"Oh, I have no anxiety about going back," said Miss Hutchison, 47, who is on a 10-day Florida vacation. "I get the choices of going back there or somewhere else. But I love the country and there are many things I still plan to do there."

Nixon Reported Better, Cheerful

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon is responding to treatment for phlebitis and is handling his recuperation well, his doctor says.

"He's cheerful," said Dr. John C. Lungren after examining Nixon at the former president's seaside villa in San Clemente on Monday.

Lungren said he found Nixon's left leg "still swollen but not tender. There have been no complications. He is responding to anticoagulation therapy satisfactorily."

Balloon Launch Set

LAS CRUCES, N.M. — A meteorological research balloon flight called Project da Vinci is scheduled for launch Saturday morning at Las Cruces, N.M., according to the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

The flight will leave the Las Cruces Municipal Airport and in a short time it should be over the White Sands Missile Range and continue to drift with the prevailing winds.

The balloon should, if predictions hold, land at approximately 4 p.m. Sunday in the vicinity of Lubbock, Tex.

Path May Vary

However, the Atomic Energy Commission warns that the actual path of the balloon may vary considerably from this prediction. The flight is expected to last about 36 hours.

The da Vinci balloon will float free at altitudes between 4,000 and 14,000 feet above sea level, staying with a single air parcel as long as possible while multiple measurements are taken of such things as temperature, humidity, air pressure, electrical fields, ozone and sulphur dioxide pollution in the atmosphere.

The project is jointly funded by the Atomic Energy Commission, the National Geographic Society and the Department of the Army's Atmospheric Sciences Laboratory. Nearly 15 other organizations are providing experiments, support services and equipment.

The AEC warns aircraft to

Charlie Rich Named Country Music 'Entertainer Of Year'

By CHRISTOPHER CABOT
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Fifteen years of sticking to a dream paid off for Charlie Rich as he won the Country Music Association's most prestigious award, Entertainer of the Year.

Singer-writer-band leader Frank "Pee Wee" King and recording executive Owen Bradley tied in balloting for the Country Music Hall of Fame. It was the first time that two personalities, instead of one, had been chosen.

Ronnie Milsap, a newcomer to country music recognition, was named male vocalist of the year. Milsap has been blind since birth.

Australian Olivia Newton-John, fresh from a string of hits, was named female vocalist of the year.

Rich's honor came after a barrage of hit records and successful road shows during the last two years. His "Very Special Love Song" was named album of year. In 1973, he took the association's top male vocalist, top album and top single awards.

"Tennessee Waltz" Author King's "Tennessee Waltz" is counted among the greatest country and western songs ever written. Bradley's pioneer studio began what has since become Nashville's Music Row. Loretta Lynn and Conway Twitty won vocal duo honors for the third consecutive year. Miss Lynn was the first female entertainer of the year in 1972.

Johnny Cash, entertainer of the year in 1969, hosted the eighth annual awards show, televised nationally from the Grand Ole Opry House.

Cal Smith and writer Don Wayne worked together on the hit single "Country Bumpkin," for which Smith won top single and Wayne won top song.

Danny Davis and The Nashville Brass were named best instrumental group for the sixth consecutive year.

The late Don Rich was named top instrumentalist. A guitarist for Buck Owens' Buckaroos, Rich was killed last spring in a California motorcycle accident.

The four Statler Brothers were selected vocal group of the year.

President Ford's Airmail Special Arrives Too Late

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP) — An airmail special delivery letter of congratulations from President Gerald Ford for the 125th anniversary of the founding of Austin College here was delivered Monday—too late for weekend festivities, even though it was mailed Thursday.

"That might say something about the postal service," a college official quipped.

The congratulatory note from the President was written last Wednesday and was mailed the next day, apparently with the intent of reaching the college in time for the official celebration Sunday.

Austin College is the oldest college in Texas operating under its original charter in 1849. The small liberal arts school is affiliated with the Presbyterian Church.

"I welcome the opportunity to applaud all those who are associated with it (the college) on this significant milestone and I wish sustained achievement to those who will steer its future course," said the note signed by Ford.

Rain, Cold Spread Across East, Dip Into Great Plains

By The Associated Press

Showers and thunderstorms ranged over areas from eastern Texas to the northern Appalachians and eastern Great Lakes region today, and freezing cold dipped deep into the Plains.

Clouds extended from the rain area to the North Atlantic coast and lingered over the western Great Lakes, where a few snow flurries swirled through Upper Michigan.

Skies were mostly clear over Western and central areas except for some clouds in New Mexico and some fog along the Southern California coast.

Freeze warnings were in effect for parts of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri as temperatures dipped into the 20s and 30s from the central and northern Plains to the northern Great Lakes. In contrast, temperatures east of the rain trough remained generally in the 50s and 60s with a few spots along the Gulf Coast in the 70s.

A funnel cloud was sighted aloft late Monday near Somerville, Tenn., but no injuries were reported.

REALTORS - BUILDERS

Courthouse Square Landscaping Plans Presented To Court

By JOE GORDON
Landscaping for the Midland County Courthouse square is due to get under way within the next several weeks, according to plans presented to commissioners' court Monday afternoon.

The square will be moved to the southeast corner when a memorial plaza area is built, Armstrong said. The plaza will include a large, glass enclosed bulletin board.

Midlanders' Kin Dies; Rites Friday

BIG SPRING — Mrs. Samuel (Mollie B.) Clemons, 63, mother of Leroy Clemons and Floyd J. "Buddy" Clemons and sister of Mrs. Qualla Mae Evans, all of Midland, died Saturday in a Big Spring hospital.

The bulletin board will be for the posting of notices of meetings. Several benches also will be placed in this area. Planter boxes are to be placed around the outside of the building and the lawn will be covered with bermuda grass.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Friday in Mount Bethel Baptist Church, with interment in Mount Olive Cemetery directed by Oliver-Welch Funeral Home.

The monthly telephone bill of the state child welfare department, headed by Beverly Acker, will be paid by the county.

Mrs. Acker also told commissioners that the child welfare department is expected to hire three more employees after the first of the year and more office space will probably be needed at that time.

Vandals Damage Unfinished House

Larry Boren, 2001 Hughes St., told Midland police Monday of vandalism at a house under construction at 4 Live Oak Drive.

Blind Masseuse Hurt By New City Ordinance

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Marilyn Kelling, blind since birth, used to make her living giving back massages to men and women at the downtown Milwaukee YWCA.

District Clerk Ruby Murray requested more storage space and files for the clerk's office. She also announced that deputy clerk Mrs. Jackie Johnson has left the clerk's office.

City Atty. James Brennan conceded that the ordinance, which prohibits females from massaging males and males from massaging females, may be unfair to legitimate masseuses such as Miss Kelling.

She said she had been giving massages to members of both sexes for several months, at $2 for 15 minutes, since coming to the YWCA from a health club, until city officials ordered her to stop.

Minutes later a birthday package of candy, gum and caramel-coated popcorn barrels out of the sky at 90 miles per hour.

"I am so intrigued by Josie's acrobatics that I almost forgot to come back, I may do more candy dropping than cropdusting," he said.

Along with the candy, Schoonmaker sends a hand-drawn birthday card with the picture of his plane.

"That started because I was so pressed for time that I didn't have time to go shopping for a card," he said. "Josie keeps the cards year after year for mementoes."

Schoonmaker, a cropduster since 1948, wraps the candy in two grocery bags, one inside the other, and packs it between crumpled up newspapers.

Services were to be at 2 p.m. today in the Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. John Rasco officiating. Interment was to be in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Chairman of the board and president of J. L. Rhoades and Associates, Inc., Key was also a partner in Key-Stegner and Wortham, formerly the Key Insurance Agency.

Banking Connections
He was a former director of the First National Bank and the National Bank of Odessa, and former director of the First National Bank of Andrews and the First National Bank of Big Spring. Key helped organize the First State Bank of Odessa.

J. L. Rhoades and Associates, Inc., a real estate firm which eventually developed more than 2,000 acres of commercial and residential land in northeast Odessa, was formed in 1950 by Key and Rhoades.

THE WINNER IS IN DOUBT—It's not quite clear whether 3-year-old Eric Hogancamp or the punching bag won this match as Eric winds up on the ground after taking a few swings. The action took place in the backyard of the Child Development Center at Murray, Ky. (AP Wirephoto.)

Duster Doubles As Candy Man

By MARIAN FOX
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Each year on her birthday, 16-year-old Jose McNeely races to the yard of her farmhouse.

"I knew little Josie and that she had a birthday coming up, so I told her father to tell her to be out in front of the house a certain time," said Schoonmaker.

Schoonmaker, a cropduster since 1948, wraps the candy in two grocery bags, one inside the other, and packs it between crumpled up newspapers.

The drops are made as he swings off a cotton field adjacent to the farm house at heights of 50 to 500 feet. The package travels up to 110 miles per hour. He has never broken a sack, but he has missed his mark.

"Once the package for Josie hit a stabilizer on my plane and bounced around the yard, but I'm getting pretty good at it," he said. "All the drops this year were good."

Oklahomans Join Cattle Protesters

WILSON, Okla. (AP) — Approximately 75 south central Oklahoma cattle raisers voted here Monday night to join a growing protest movement against declining cattle prices and rising costs of ranching.

Francis Spagna of Stuart, head of Concerned Cattlemen of Oklahoma, said those attending the meeting voted unanimously to form a new chapter of his organization, to be called Concerned Cattlemen of South Central Oklahoma.

Slaughter Decision Delayed
Spagna said a decision on whether to stage a mass cattle slaughter to bring public attention to cattle raisers' woes has been "held in abeyance," pending the outcome of discussions between federal Department of Agriculture officials and a group of Texas ranchers.

Spagna said he understood that a meeting was to be held Wednesday in Stephenville, Tex.

Bill Willis of Wilson was elected chairman of the organization of south central Oklahoma cattlemen at Monday night's meeting.

Spagna's organization mailed letters last weekend to congressmen, to House Speaker Carl Albert and to President Ford asking for help in solving the economic problems of ranchers.

Earlier Monday, in Diamond, Mo., Spagna's co-chairman, Joe Hall, also from near Stuart, won endorsement from a meeting of the newly formed Family Farmers of America for a program of Concerned Cattlemen of Oklahoma.

The program calls for, among other things, banning imports of meats and exports of fertilizer, increasing parity on milk from 80 to 90 per cent; reorganizing the Department of Agriculture into a more farm-oriented office, and making available low-interest, long-term loans for farmers.

There were more than 350 farmers at the Missouri meeting, which in another vote decided to remain independent of the National Farmers Organization.

Stock Market Prices Pushed Into Decline By Profit-Taking

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit-taking pushed stock market prices lower today in a session interrupted shortly before noon by equipment problems at the New York Stock Exchange.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 4.54 at 668.96 when the exchange ticker tape stopped at 11:46 a.m. Losses were gained by slightly more than 2 to 1 in relatively active trading on the Big Board.

The exchange said it planned to resume trading at 12:22 p.m. A similar bit of technical trouble stopped trading for 26 minutes on the exchange last April 10.

Richmond Corp. was the Big Board volume leader, down 1/4 at 11%. A 140,000-share block changed hands at 11%.

Geologist Charges Petroleum Industry Victimized By Media

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The president of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists says the energy crisis might have been headed off except for "the disease of not listening."

Merrill W. Haas of Houston said there was plenty of early warnings but not many people paid attention.

Now there are people who would like to make the oil industry the scapegoat, he told the New Orleans Geological Society Monday in urging association members to speak out against criticism.

Otherwise, said Haas, the political reaction may include laws which would break up big oil companies, raise oil company taxes and "subject the industry to various forms of bureaucratic controls which hamper its efficiency and shackle the competitive process."

Haas said accusations against the oil industry appeared in newspapers, magazines and on television—and that showed reporters suffer from a severe hearing problem, too, because the oil industry said those things weren't true.

Furthermore, he said, the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations hearing last January were billed as a fact-finding session but "became a political sideshow instead."

Haas said news coverage of the hearings emphasized the sensational criticisms and accusations and "replicates that industry representatives made to these charges received only a fraction of the coverage accorded to our accusers."

One result, said Haas, was the creation by the 16,000-member association of a "Strategic Committee on Public Affairs" to try to build better communications with senators.

Haas urged that association

Earlier, after an initial 1,500-gallon acid treatment, it had swabbed and flowed with a show of oil and gas.

Drilled to 5,113 feet, 5 1/2-inch casing is sealed on bottom.

The project, 1,150 feet from the northeast (Colorado River) and 467 feet from northwest lines of C. C. Buvinghausen survey 406, is three miles southeast of the depleted one-well Wil-Mc (Ellenberg) gas field.

Successful completion from the oil pay will make it the first Ellenberg oil producer in Runnels County.

Recovery was through perforations at 10,860-10,901 feet, which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons. It then swabbed five hours, making six barrels of oil and 49 barrels of water.

It is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 24, block 30, ULS, eight miles north of Crane.

Former Milk Group Manager Says Actions Helped Co-Op

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Harold S. Nelson, who admitted conspiring to make illegal campaign contributions for the nation's largest milk cooperative, says his actions "in fact worked for the benefit" of the co-op.

Nelson, former general manager of Associated Milk Producers, Inc., launched his defense in a suit in which AMPI is seeking reimbursement from Nelson of $332,000 in political contributions from corporate funds.

He did not specify how the 40,000-member co-op benefited. AMPI blames Nelson and a handful of other former employees for the illegalities but Nelson, in an answer filed Monday to the AMPI suit, claimed the co-op dairy-farmer board of directors knew what he was doing.

Nelson said in the state court answer that when AMPI entered into a consultant's contract with him in 1972, the plaintiff (AMPI), its officers, directors and stockholders were well aware of all the activities of defendant in which they acquiesced and also participated.

AMPI is seeking a court's approval of its refusal to pay Nelson $100,000 annually as a consultant until 1979 because Nelson allegedly concealed dishonest acts, contrary to the co-op's bylaws.

Removed in 1972 Nelson was removed as general manager in January 1972 after holding that position since the inception of AMPI in 1969. AMPI was created by a series of mergers which brought into the fold Nelson's Milk Producers, Inc.

AMPI pleaded guilty Aug. 1 to illegally contributing to President Nixon's re-election campaign, as well as the Democratic presidential nomination campaigns of Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie and campaigns by others for federal elective office.

In August, AMPI President John Butterbrodt said, "All of those old offenses were committed by a small number of employees or agents, none of whom is now associated with AMPI."

Butterbrodt, who has been AMPI president since it began, continued, "There is no evidence that the membership of the directors were aware of these acts until long after their commission."

Statement Contradicted Anthony Nicholas, Nelson's attorney, said Monday Nelson's suit answer contradicts Butterbrodt's statement in referring to political activities. Nelson said he did not know the activities were unlawful at the time he participated in them.

Nicholas said the defense intends to prove the political activities, including a complicated $100,000 disbursement to Nixon fund raiser Herbert Kalmbach, was aired and approved at board meetings. He added AMPI, "Now all of a sudden they are all clean and they want to lay it off on Harold."

"Harold wouldn't act without the board's consent," said Nicholas.

Countersuit Filed Nicholas has filed in Nelson's behalf a countersuit naming AMPI as defendant and seeking $1 million in actual damages and $3 million in punitive damages.

The countersuit claims AMPI "disseminated false information to the public via communications media in an attempt to destroy" Nelson's reputation.

Nelson, 55, of San Antonio, said in his guilty plea he conspired to bribe former Treasury Secretary John Connally's help in the 1971 milk price support increase by former President Nixon.

AMPI is seeking reimbursement of the $10,000 as a part of the $332,000 which came out of corporate funds between 1968 and 1971.

Nelson has promised to cooperate with prosecutors in the Connally case. Connally, awaiting trial on charges of accepting a bribe, denies the charges.

Nelson, in denying AMPI's suit claim that his actions were injurious, says instead that "any and all actions of" Nelson "were in good faith intended for and in fact worked for the benefit of plaintiff."

AMPI seeks to cancel retirement benefits which Nelson says are more than $300,000 because of Nelson's alleged dishonest acts.

Energy Policy-Making Group May Have Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's new Energy Resources Council is the fourth attempt in ten months to find a Cabinet-level home for energy policy-making.

And even this latest Cabinet group — the first with a congressional mandate — is only temporary, destined to expire in two years or upon creation of a Department of Energy and Natural Resources, whichever comes first.

But even that guarantees a longer life than its immediate predecessor, the National Energy Board, which lasted only three days and didn't even get to hold a meeting.

Proposals for a Department of Energy and Natural Resources would build it around the Interior Department, and President Ford has appointed Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton as chairman of his Cabinet energy council.

Thus, while Congress debates the political entanglements of creating a new department, the Energy Resources Council headed by Morton will serve an interim solution, focusing energy policy where both Congress and the President apparently expect it to end up some day.

Meanwhile, as the White House organized and reorganized energy policy-making over the past ten months, two trends have been established:

—The dominance has shifted from Treasury Secretary William E. Simon, whom former President Richard M. Nixon favored, to Morton, a friend and adviser to President Ford.

—Representation in energy policy-making has expanded to embrace more federal departments and agencies.

Ford has expanded energy council membership to 17.

Since last Dec. 4, when Nixon created his 13-member Energy

Rodeo Announcer Looks Back On 'Good Times'

DALLAS (AP) — The world's greatest rodeo announcer sports a new Cadillac every year, wears a horseshoe-shaped diamond ring, dines with millionaires and says, "The good times don't ever involve money."

Tom Hadley, 47, the premier

Hadley has won and lost fortunes. Back in the '50s, he and his wife, Virginia Regner, one of the country's best trick riders, scraped up $13,000 after one year of grueling saving. They invested the money in cattle and it blew away in an Oklahoma dust cloud that left only a pile of debts.

"I'd told her then, 'We're gonna live it up.'"

The next day he went down to the Woodward, Okla. Cadillac dealer and arranged to buy a new Cadillac in six months with nothing down. In three months, he paid it off.

Last year, Hadley traveled some 80,000 miles in 300 days away from home to reap a five-figure salary that would make an investment broker blush with envy.

"Why go through life and save and save and hate your job," he says.

He keeps up a running commentary on the action in the rodeo arena. Before each rodeo he looks up the names of the contestants, talks with them and makes ample notes.

Behavioral Modification Methods Used In Teaching Children, Couple Says

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — A Longview, Tex., couple said Monday night that behavioral modification methods are being used, "like dripping water" to change the values of school children.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Gabler spoke to a gathering of about 100 at an American Legion post in what they said was an effort to educate parents about dangerous trends in recent textbooks.

The talk was sponsored by the Lynchburg chapter of Citizens for Decent Literature, a group dedicated to fighting "anti-American, anti-family, atheistic, blasphemous, anarchistic, revolutionary and inciting" textbooks in public schools.

Concepts Listed

The Gablers said three basic concepts appear in most of the texts they have reviewed: opened questions that have no correct answers, whereby consensus is treated as truth; failure to stress any basic truths; and repeated emphasis on change for change's sake.

The net effect of this, they said, is to render a child unable to grasp absolute values.

A majority of the texts also are problem-oriented, they said, emphasizing such problems as poverty, racism and pollution while failing to mention any corresponding positive values.

The Gablers said a recent study at the University of Chicago shows that emphasis on problems brings frustration and a tendency toward delinquency in children.

In a grammar text used as an example, assignments included having two students argue about various issues, and complaining about anything they wished.

Other Texts Hit

Other texts included stories emphasizing stealing, fighting, children turning in false fire alarms, and children robbing other children.

In all cases, the Gablers said, stories contained no moral judgements about depicted activities and failed to show negative consequences of lawbreaking and violence.

The Gablers said they had just come from West Virginia, and most of the books they were using as examples were being used in West Virginia schools.

They added that although the example books might not be used in local schools, parents should be aware of what they said were methods widely incorporated in texts for all subjects.

Taste Change

Japanese are losing their taste for whale meat, though it is still commonly eaten in Russia.

A's, Dodgers Enter Third Game Of World Series

OAKLAND (AP) — The tempestuous Oakland A's hope to explode tonight with their bats instead of their tempers in the third game of the 1974 World Series with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I'm expecting us to break out any day now, but I've been expecting that for six weeks... So I don't really know," said Oakland Manager Alvin Dark, whose team has had more notice recently for hitting people than hitting baseballs.

A change in the batting order might be just the thing that the A's need to add some punch to their recent Punch and Judy hitting. Dark, whose team won the World Series opener with an undistinguished 3-2 victory Saturday in Los Angeles and then lost the second game by the same score, is thinking about an adjustment in his hitting alignment.

Noting that the A's face a left-hander in Al Downing, Dark revealed: "I might bat Bill North first instead of second. He has more power as a right-handed hitter. I might also move some of the others around in the lineup, too. We've just got to get some more runs."

The A's may not be hitting well lately, but they've certainly had the pitching. And the best on their staff goes tonight, 25-game winner Catfish Hunter.

The tobacco-chewing Hunter, well rested since he only pitched to one batter on Saturday after working in last week's American League playoffs, has been embroiled in a salary dispute with Oakland owner Charles O. Finley.

Hunter, mad at Finley because he claims the owner renegeged on half of his yearly $100,000 salary, might make the Dodgers pay for it tonight.

The A's fight as well as anybody else, too. The Dodgers, or any other team in baseball, are sedate compared to this flamboyant, aggressive team of odd-balls.

The combative A's started the Series out with a bang when pitchers Rollie Fingers and Blue Moon Odom exchanged blows in the clubhouse last week. And during Monday's off-day workout at the Oakland Coliseum, a sports writer was the target of wrath.

Reggie Jackson, Oakland's star outfielder, verbally challenged Murray Olderman, editor of Newspaper Enterprises Association in San Francisco, because of an article he wrote for a national magazine. Jackson roared out of the batting cage when he saw Olderman and abused him verbally before a crowd of gaping onlookers.

Jackson was unhappy about the general tone of the article, which dealt with his alleged battle with other A's players for leadership of the team.

Meanwhile, back at the World Series, Downing concentrated on keeping the A's in their protracted hitting slump. Despite his modest 5-6 season record, Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston feels that Downing can continue to maintain the Dodgers' masterful pitching of late.

The A's have managed only 12 hits so far off Dodger pitching, and the formidable Los Angeles arms were equally as effective in the National League playoffs against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Alston planned no changes, other than going to his normal lineup for right-handers. In the first two games, the Dodgers faced southpaws but since Hunter is on the mound, Alston will have Willie Crawford in right field instead of Joe Ferguson. Alston will use the right-handed Ferguson behind home plate instead of Steve Yeager.

The Dodgers will need all the hitting edge they can muster against Hunter, the premier right-hander in the American League in 1974. Hunter not only won 25 games during the season but also led the league with a 2.43 earned run average.

The contest at the 50,000-seat Oakland Coliseum, first of three night games here, will start at 7:30 p.m., CDT, a difficult period for the players because of the strange tricks that sunlight plays in this stadium in late afternoon in the fall. The Dodgers had a late workout Monday to get used to the conditions.

AGGIES NO. 8—

Arizona Makes Top Ten Debut

TUCSON, Arizona (AP) — Saying simply that "it will be a real challenge to stay there," head Coach Jim Young and his University of Arizona Wildcats have made their debut in the Associated Press college football Top Ten.

The Wildcats' No. 9 ranking marked the first time in its history Arizona has ever broken into the Top Ten, while Ohio State held down the No. 1 ranking for the fourth week in a row.

Undefeated Ohio State whaloped Wisconsin 52-7 Saturday, its fifth victory of the season, and received 51 first-place votes to open a commanding lead over runner-up Oklahoma. The Buckeyes received 1,160 of a possible 1,800 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters. Oklahoma had only five first-place votes and 1,020 points in the balloting.

Last week, Ohio State led over Oklahoma by a mere 20 points and a margin of 33-24 in first-place votes. Both teams finished 2-3 respectively behind national champion Notre Dame last season.

Michigan climbed from fourth place to third with one first-place ballot following a 21-7 triumph over Michigan State. The Wolverines supplanted Alabama, which dropped from third to fourth with one No. 1 vote and 814 points in the wake of a last-minute 8-7 decision over winless Florida State.

Auburn went from 10th to fifth with an impressive 31-13 trouncing of Kentucky. The Tigers received the other first-place vote and 636 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten are Southern California, Notre Dame, Texas A&M, Arizona and North Carolina State.

In a season of upsets, Young and his Wildcats are undefeated in five games and were 41-8 victors Saturday over Utah.

Last season Young took over essentially the same team that was 4-7 the year before, and came up with a winner — 8-3 for the season — and a tie for the Western Athletic Conference championship.

"We're happy to be in the Top Ten for the recognition our players receive," said Young, who brought a quiet, mild-mannered approach to the gridiron at the Tucson school. "It will be a real challenge to stay there."

Young was referring to Saturday's upcoming game with 16th-ranked Texas Tech, which lost its first game of the season last Saturday, 28-7 to Texas A&M.

The second ten are Penn State, Nebraska, Kansas, Florida, Arizona State, Texas, Texas Tech, Maryland, Miami of Ohio and Tulane.

Box Passes Tennis Test

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An electronic box which tells whether shots are in or out of bounds has passed a big test in the opening of this $100,000 Women's Pro Tennis Tour stop.

"It's really a good idea," said Rosemary Casals of San Francisco Monday night, reflecting the opinion of most of the players, after the device upheld her appeal on a crucial out of bounds call which helped her defeat Karen Krantzcke 6-4, 7-5.

Chris Evert defeated Francoise Durr of France 6-2, 6-2, and Lesley Hunt of Australia got by Marcie Louie 6-4, 6-0 in other matches.

"I think electronic refereeing is where we're heading," Ms. Casals said. "Players have always disputed linesmen and felt they weren't very professional, but you can't argue with a machine. You can, but you'll probably lose."

The box is hooked to a plastic grid underneath the court surface. The grid is sensitive to tennis balls but not to the feet of the players.

Tournament officials said they would continue to use the monitoring machine tonight as the top players on the tour battle for $32,000 first prize money.

It was the first time the device had been used to monitor all lines of the court in a tournament. Earlier it was used experimentally to monitor serving lines in a championship match in Dallas.

Lions Rip 49ers, 17-13

DETROIT (AP) — No longer will the cynics chide: "Detroit's got the best O4 team in football."

Now it's got the best 1-4 team in football.

The one victory may not enhance the looks of the record much, but "it beats getting hit in the eye with a sharp stick," Coach Rick Forzano said after Monday's 17-13 key victory over San Francisco.

"The Lions used a disputed pass interference penalty and a key goal line stand to notch their first triumph under Forzano."

The nationally televised game, played before a Tiger Stadium crowd of 45,199, had plenty of exciting plays to keep the viewers happy.

Among them: —A 32-yard pass interference penalty which set up Steve Owens' one-yard touchdown plunge for Detroit in the second quarter.

—Four interceptions. One was returned 44 yards by Lion cornerback Levi Johnson and led to an Errol Mann field goal.

—A 45-yard punt return by Dick Jaaron of the Lions to set up another TD.

—A 64-yard run by 49er

rookie Wilbur Jackson to the Detroit one.

—The Lions' goal line stand after that run.

"We won by a few points... We would have made it more but we didn't want to run up the score," Forzano said, grinning.

San Francisco Coach Dick Nolan rushed off without saying much but quarterback Dennis Morrison, making his first NFL start, didn't mind talking about the loss, the 49ers' third straight in a 2-3 record.

"I was nervous in the afternoon, but when we opened with the passing attack it calmed me," the left-hander said. "But in the third quarter I got more excited than I should have."

Detroit picked off three Morrison aerials. One, by linebacker Charlie Weaver in the first period, ended a scoring threat. Then there was Johnson's interception in the second quarter, and linebacker Jim Laslavic grabbed another in the final four minutes to thwart a drive at the Lion 10.

Morrison finished with 17 completions in 40 attempts for 171 yards, including an 11-yard pass to Jackson with 33 seconds

Detroit's Bill Munson hit on 15 of 32 passes for 130 yards, including a 13-yard scoring shot to Larry Walton 15 seconds into the final quarter to clinch the victory.

Jackson Nails Writer

OAKLAND (AP) — "You'd better not get around me alone — if you do, you're in trouble." The speaker was Oakland A's outfielder Reggie Jackson; the object of his wrath, sports writer Murray Olderman.

Jackson and Oakland pitcher Vida Blue were angered by a magazine article written by Olderman, general editor of Newspaper Enterprise Association in San Francisco, and they vented their wrath at Olderman during an A's workout Monday.

Olderman walked onto the field to watch batting practice and Blue said to Jackson, "Hey, here's Olderman."

Jackson then left the batting cage, waved a finger at the 52-year-old Olderman and gave the writer a 10-minute, explosive-filled dressing down in front of several dozen sports writers and photographers.

"I want to embarrass you," Jackson said. "I invite you to my home and you had to write that trash."

"I didn't call you a liar," Olderman said to Jackson.

"That's not the point," Jackson said. "I'm calling you one."

Finally Joe Reichler, special assistant to baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn, stepped in and attempted to quiet Jackson down.

Blue then took over, but in a somewhat more subdued tone. He told Olderman that although he had been quoted in the article, "You never talked to me."

Jackson was apparently mad about the general tone of the article, which dealt with his alleged battle with other A's players for leadership of the team.

Olderman said he was surprised at the outburst. "I just returned from a trip to Russia and had come out to get my World Series credentials," he said.

What about his personal feelings toward Jackson? "I have no personal feelings toward him," Olderman said.

A's Manager Alvin Dark, asked for his comment on the incident, replied: "What else is new?"

Aaron, Brewers To Deal

OAKLAND (AP) — The Atlanta Braves have given Hank Aaron permission to talk with the Milwaukee Brewers, possibly opening the door for baseball's most successful home run slugger to become the first black general manager in the major leagues.

The announcement Monday by Dan Donohue, president of the Braves, was made just one day before Aaron was to hold a news conference here reportedly to disclose his future plans.

The news conference apparently was arranged by Magnavox, an electrical firm with which Aaron has a $1 million contract.

If Aaron, who will be 41 next February, does sign with the Brewers and finish his major league career where it began — in Milwaukee — he probably would spend next season as a designated hitter, before taking a general manager's position.

All along, Aaron had made it known he planned to retire after this season... until Sunday, Sept. 29, when he announced that his future still remained in doubt.

Aaron's problems at Atlanta apparently stem from a financial squabble with the Braves, who have offered Hank a front office job for next year at substantially less than his $200,000 player's contract.

"Titles," Aaron once snapped. "Can you spend titles at a grocery store? Executive vice president, assistant to the executive vice president, what does it mean if it doesn't pay good money? I might become a janitor for big money."

It is believed that the Braves offered Aaron as much as $75,000 to serve in the front office, and he still has four more years to run on the Magnavox contract, for which he receives $50,000 quarterly.

There also has been speculation that his contract with the television firm would limit him to a player role with the Braves.

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas County District Judge DeLoach ruled Sunday that the Dallas Police Department is not a member of the National Association of Police Officers. The decision to play for week.

SMU would appear to be in good standing since SMU is a member of the National Association of Police Officers.

Judge DeLoach's ruling was a victory for the Dallas Police Department, which has been fighting a long battle to keep the Dallas Police Department out of the Dallas Police Association.

Portland Storm This Time— Players Miss Pay Check

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Despite delinquent paychecks, there'll be no player boycott by the Portland Storm this week.

"We're just in a short-term cash crunch," General Manager Ron Mix of the World Football League team said Monday.

"We have no long-term problems," Mix told a news conference.

"The players were not paid for the last game," he said. "It's the only pay period we've missed this year. We don't consider our players have missed a pay period if they are paid between the end of one game and the start of another."

"We hope the problem will be solved by this weekend. I sincerely feel that it will," Mix said.

Mix called the news conference to refute published reports that Storm players had not been paid for two weeks and were considering boycotting Wednesday's game against the Hawaiians.

Bob Harris, the Canadian millionaire who owns the club, said he planned to have the money for last week's game with him when he arrived in Portland for the Wednesday night game.

Harris "was just caught short after injecting what he considered adequate financing to carry the club through the season," Mix said of the London, Ont., developer. "Bob's selling off some of his holdings in Canada to raise the additional cash and feels very strongly that something good will happen soon."

Mix, after a meeting with the team Monday, said the players "understood there is no certainty" the checks will be available Wednesday. "The morale is good," he said, "and they consider it a temporary inconvenience."

Mix cited three reasons for the short-term financial problem: —Home attendance is averaging about 16,000 compared with a break-even figure of 28,000.

—The league did away with revenue sharing, which Mix said "hurt us to the tune of approximately $100,000."

—Poor original projection of operating capital.

Portland is the fifth WFL team reported to have missed a payroll. Two of the others, Detroit and Jacksonville, since have ceased operation.

Bueno, Newcombe Win Japan Open

TOKYO (AP) — Maria Bueno of Brazil has begun her tennis comeback at the age of 35 with a victory in the $100,000 Japan Open.

She and John Newcombe of Australia picked up first-place money Monday with victories in the rain-soaked tournament. Miss Bueno defeated top-seeded Kataja Ebbinghaus of West Germany and Newcombe beat compatriot Ken Rosewall.

Miss Bueno went to three sets against Miss Ebbinghaus, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, to collect the $6,000 women's first prize, and Newcombe won $15,000 for his 3-6, 6-2, 6-3 victory over the defending champion Rosewall.

Kazuko Sawamatsu of Japan and Ann Kiyomura of the United States defeated Kimiyu Yagawara of Japan and Janet Young of Australia to take first in women's doubles. The men's doubles were canceled because of rain.

Seminole's Win Skein Ends In 17-13 Loss To Monahans

By TERRY WILLIAMSON. The Seminole Indians dropped from the undefeated ranks Friday, leaving only tenth-ranked AAA Pecos and third-ranked A Rankin as the only area elevens left with unblemished marks after six weeks of high school football action.

Monahans' Wayne Petties, the area's leading rusher with over 800 yards in six games, scored on a 27-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter to lead the Lobos over the Indians by a 17-13 count in an important District 2-AAA battle.

Seminole fell to a 5-1 record for the season and a 1-1 mark in loop play while Monahans soared to a 2-0 district reading and a 4-2 season standing. The Lobos own sole possession of first place in 2-AAA with two victories.

The Pecos Eagles, running their unbeaten mark to 5-0, had to score 15 points in the fourth period to down the stubborn Andrews Mustangs in what was the opening loop game for the Eagles. Pecos pulled out a narrow 22-21 victory with the last quarter surge, leaving Andrews still among the area's four winless squads.

Rankin's awesome Red Devils had little trouble in gaining a 5-0 record Friday in a homecoming contest against Robert Lee, winning big, 35-7. It was Rankin's 11th straight regular season victory, and the Red Devils are the heavy favorites in District 6-A play, which opens this week.

Their amazing rebound after two early defeats with a 40-20 win over District 5-A favorite Stanton. Fullback Clifton Pettis rushed for 177 yards and scored three touchdowns to ignite McCamey's third straight victory.

Crane's Golden Cranes also got into the win column for the second straight time with a hard fought 21-7 victory over Van Horn, while Sonora topped its record to 5-1 with a big 30-7 win over Llano. Ozona and Reagan County both got beat last Friday with the Lions losing big to Brady, 28-0, and the Owls dropping a 34-6 no contest bid against powerful Alpine.

Seagraves captured an important 28-0 whitewash over Class B's fifth-ranked Sundown to move the Eagle record to an impressive 5-1 standing. Seagraves may be the team to beat in 5-A after Stanton and Plains were given the early season nod.

Plains whipped Farwell 21-13 while O'Donnell dropped its fifth straight in a 27-0 blanking from Bovina.

In other District 6-A action, Balmorhea blanked Socorro, 20-0; Iraan beat Menard, 21-0, and Wink lost its fifth straight to Sanderson by a narrow 20-19 margin.

A's, Dodgers Enter Third Game Of World Series

OAKLAND (AP) — The tempestuous Oakland A's hope to explode tonight with their bats instead of their tempers in the third game of the 1974 World Series with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I'm expecting us to break out any day now, but I've been expecting that for six weeks ... So I don't really know," said Oakland Manager Alvin Dark, whose team has had more notice recently for hitting people than hitting baseballs.

A change in the batting order might be just the thing that the A's need to add some punch to their recent Punch and Judy hitting. Dark, whose team won the World Series opener with an undistinguished 3-2 victory Saturday in Los Angeles and then lost the second game by the same score, is thinking about an adjustment in his hitting alignment.

Noting that the A's face a left-hander in Al Downing, Dark revealed: "I might bat Bill North first instead of second. He has more power as a right-handed hitter. I might also move some of the others around in the lineup, too. We've just got to get some more runs."

The A's may not be hitting well lately, but they've certainly had the pitching. And the best on their staff goes tonight, 25-game winner Catfish Hunter.

The tobacco-chewing Hunter, well rested since he only pitched to one batter on Saturday after working in last week's American League playoffs, has been embroiled in a salary dispute with Oakland owner Charles O. Finley.

Hunter, mad at Finley because he claims the owner renegeed on half of his yearly $100,000 salary, might make the Dodgers pay for it tonight.

The A's fight as well as anybody else, too. The Dodgers, or any other team in baseball, are sedate compared to this flamboyant, aggressive team of odd-balls.

The combative A's started the Series out with a bang when pitchers Rollie Fingers and Blue Moon Odom exchanged blows in the clubhouse last week. And during Monday's off-day workout at the Oakland Coliseum, a sports writer was the target of wrath.

Reggie Jackson, Oakland's star outfielder, verbally challenged Murray Olderman, editor of Newspaper Enterprises Association in San Francisco, because of an article he wrote for a national magazine. Jackson roared out of the batting cage when he saw Olderman and abused him verbally before a crowd of gaping onlookers.

Jackson was unhappy about the general tone of the article, which dealt with his alleged battle with other A's players for leadership of the team.

Meanwhile, back at the World Series, Downing concentrated on keeping the A's in their protracted hitting slump. Despite his modest 5-6 season record, Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston feels that Downing can continue to maintain the Dodgers' masterful pitching of late.

The A's have managed only 12 hits so far off Dodger pitching, and the formidable Los Angeles arms were equally as effective in the National League playoffs against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Alston planned no changes, other than going to his normal lineup for right-handers. In the first two games, the Dodgers faced southpaws but since Hunter is on the mound, Alston will have Willie Crawford in right field instead of Joe Ferguson. Alston will use the right-handed Ferguson behind home plate instead of Steve Yeager.

The Dodgers will need all the hitting edge they can muster against Hunter, the premier right-hander in the American League in 1974. Hunter not only won 25 games during the season but also led the league with a 2.43 earned run average.

The contest at the 50,000-seat Oakland Coliseum, first of three night games here, will start at 7:30 p.m., CDT, a difficult period for the players because of the strange tricks that sunlight plays in this stadium in late afternoon in the fall.

The Dodgers had a late workout Monday to get used to the conditions.

AGGIES NO. 8— Arizona Makes Top Ten Debut

TUCSON, Arizona (AP) — Sounding simply that "it will be a real challenge to stay there," head Coach Jim Young and his University of Arizona Wildcats have made their debut in The Associated Press college football Top Ten.

The Wildcats' No. 9 ranking marked the first time in its history Arizona has ever broken into the Top Ten, while Ohio State held down the No. 1 ranking for the fourth week in a row.

Undefeated Ohio State whaloped Wisconsin 52-7 Saturday, its fifth victory of the season, and received 51 first-place votes to open a commanding lead over runner-up Oklahoma. The Buckeyes received 1,160 of a possible 1,180 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters. Oklahoma had only five first-place votes and 1,020 points in the balloting.

Last week, Ohio State led over Oklahoma by a mere 20 points and a margin of 33-24 in first-place votes. Both teams finished 2-3 respectively behind national champion Notre Dame last season.

Michigan climbed from fourth place to third with one first-place ballot following a 21-7 triumph over Michigan State. The Wolverines supplanted Alabama, which dropped from third to fourth with one No. 1 vote and 814 points in the wake of a last-minute 8-7 decision over winless Florida State.

Auburn went from 10th to fifth with an impressive 31-13 trouncing of Kentucky. The Tigers received the other first-place vote and 636 points.

Rounding out the Top Ten are Southern California, Notre Dame, Texas A&M, Arizona and North Carolina State.

In a season of upsets, Young and his Wildcats are undefeated in five games and were 41-8 victors Saturday over Utah.

Last season Young took over essentially the same team that was 4-7 the year before, and came up with a winner — 8-3 for the season — and a tie for the Western Athletic Conference championship.

"We're happy to be in the Top Ten for the recognition our players receive," said Young, who brought a quiet, mild-mannered approach to the gridiron at the Tucson school. "It will be a real challenge to stay there."

Young was referring to Saturday's upcoming game with 16th-ranked Texas Tech, which lost its first game of the season last Saturday, 28-7 to Texas A&M.

The second ten are Penn State, Nebraska, Kansas, Florida, Arizona State, Texas, Texas Tech, Maryland, Miami of Ohio and Tulane.

Box Passes Tennis Test

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An electronic box which tells whether shots are in or out of bounds has passed a big test in the opening of this $100,000 Women's Pro Tennis Tour stop.

"It's really a good idea," said Rosemary Casals of San Francisco Monday night, reflecting the opinion of most of the players, after the device upheld her appeal on a crucial out of bounds call which helped her defeat Karen Krantzcke 6-4, 7-5.

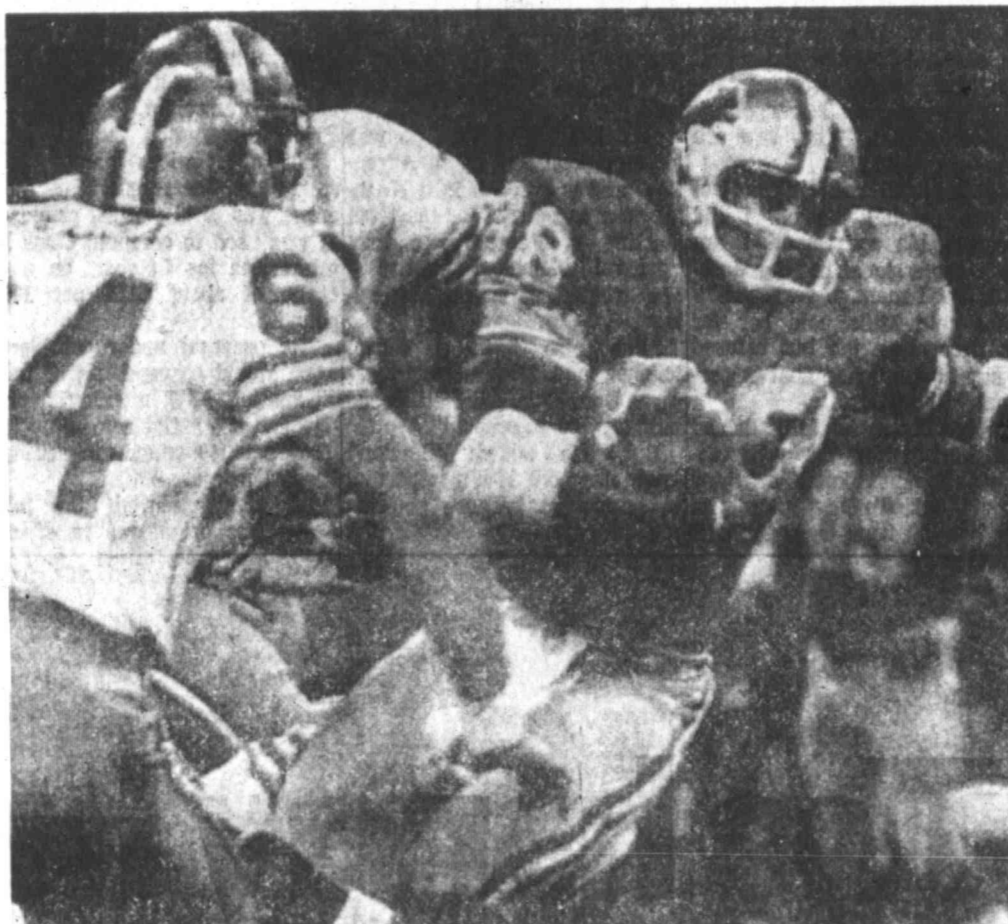

Chris Evert defeated Françoise Durr of France 6-2, 6-2, and Lesley Hunt of Australia got by Marcie Louie 6-4, 6-0 in other matches.

"I think electronic refereeing is where we're heading," Ms. Casals said. "Players have always disputed linemen and felt they weren't very professional, but you can't argue with a machine. You can, but you'll probably lose."

The box is hooked to a plastic grid underneath the court surface. The grid is sensitive to tennis balls but not to the feet of the players.

Tournament officials said they would continue to use the monitoring machine tonight as the top players on the tour battle for $32,000 first prize money.

It was the first time the device had been used to monitor all lines of the court in a tournament. Earlier it was used experimentally to monitor serving lines in a championship match in Dallas.

Lions Rip 49ers, 17-13

DETROIT (AP) — No longer will the cynics chide: "Detroit's got the best 0-4 team in football."

Now it's got the best 1-4 team in football.

The one victory may not enhance the looks of the record much, but "it beats getting hit in the eye with a sharp stick," Coach Rick Forzano said after Monday's 17-13 key victory over San Francisco.

The Lions used a disputed pass interference penalty and a key goal line stand to notch their first triumph under Forzano.

The nationally televised game, played before a Tiger Stadium crowd of 45,199, had plenty of exciting plays to keep the viewers happy.

Among them:

- A 32-yard pass interference penalty which set up Steve Owens' one-yard touchdown plunge for Detroit in the second quarter.
- Four interceptions. One was returned 44 yards by Lion Laslavic grabbed another in the corner back Levi Johnson and final four minutes to thwart a led to an Errol Mann field goal drive at the Lion 10.
- A 45-yard punt return by Dick Jauron of the Lions to set up another TD.
- A 64-yard run by 49er pass to Jackson with 33 seconds

Detroit's Bill Munson hit on 15 of 32 passes for 130 yards, including a 13-yard scoring shot to Larry Walton 15 seconds into the final quarter to clinch the victory.

Blue then took over, but in a somewhat more subdued tone. He told Olderman that although he had been quoted in the article, "You never talked to me," Jackson was apparently mad

Jackson Nails Writer

OAKLAND (AP) — "You'd better not get around me alone — if you do, you're in trouble."

The speaker was Oakland A's outfielder Reggie Jackson; the object of his wrath, sports writer Murray Olderman.

Jackson and Oakland pitcher Vida Blue were angered by a magazine article written by Olderman, general editor of Newspaper Enterprise Association in San Francisco, and they vented their wrath at Olderman during an A's workout Monday.

Olderman walked onto the field to watch batting practice and Blue said to Jackson, "Hey, here's Olderman."

Jackson then left the batting cage, waved a finger at the 52-year-old Olderman and gave the writer a 10-minute, explosive-filled dressing down in front of several dozen sports writers and photographers.

"I want to embarrass you," Jackson said. "I invite you to my home and you had to write that trash."

"I didn't call you a liar," Olderman said to Jackson.

"That's not the point," Jackson said. "I'm calling you one."

Finally Joe Reichler, special assistant to baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn, stepped in and attempted to quiet Jackson down.

about the general tone of the article, which dealt with his alleged battle with other A's players for leadership of the team.

Olderman said he was surprised at the outburst. "I just returned from a trip to Russia and had come out to get my World Series credentials," he said.

"What about his personal feelings toward Jackson?" "I have no personal feelings toward him," Olderman said.

A's Manager Alvin Dark, asked for his comment on the incident, replied: "What else is new?"

Aaron, Brewers To Deal

OAKLAND (AP) — The Atlanta Braves have given Hank Aaron permission to talk with the Milwaukee Brewers, possibly opening the door for baseball's most successful home run slugger to become the first black general manager in the major leagues.

The announcement Monday by Dan Donohue, president of the Braves, was made just one day before Aaron was to hold a news conference here reportedly to disclose his future plans.

The news conference apparently was arranged by Magnavox, an electrical firm with which Aaron has a $1 million contract.

If Aaron, who will be 41 next February, does sign with the Brewers and finish his major league career where it began — in Milwaukee — he probably would spend next season as a designated hitter before taking a general manager's position.

All along, Aaron had made it known he planned to retire after this season ... until Sunday, Sept. 29, when he announced that his future still remained in doubt.

Aaron's problems at Atlanta apparently stem from a financial squabble with the Braves, who have offered Hank a front office job for next year at substantially less than his $200,000 player's contract.

"Titles," Aaron once snapped. "Can you spend titles at a grocery store? Executive vice president, assistant to the executive vice president, what does it mean if it doesn't pay good money? I might become a janitor for big money."

It is believed that the Braves offered Aaron as much as $75,000 to serve in the front office, and he still has four more years to run on the Magnavox contract, for which he receives $50,000 quarterly.

There also has been speculation that his contract with the television firm would limit him to a player role with the Braves.

PORTLAND STORM THIS TIME— Players Miss Pay Check

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Despite delinquent paychecks, there'll be no player boycott by the Portland Storm this week.

"We're just in a short-term cash crunch," General Manager Ron Mix of the World Football League team said Monday.

"We have no long-term problems," Mix told a news conference.

"The players were not paid for the last game," he said. "It's the only pay-period we've missed this year. We don't consider our players have missed a pay period if they are paid between the end of one game and the start of another."

"We hope the problem will be solved by this weekend. I sincerely feel that it will," Mix said.

Mix called the news conference to refute published reports that Storm players had not been paid for two weeks and were considering boycotting Wednesday's game against the Hawaiians.

Bob Harris, the Canadian millionaire who owns the club, said he planned to have the money for last week's game doubles were canceled because of rain.

Bueno, Newcombe Win Japan Open

TOKYO (AP) — Maria Bueno of Brazil has begun her tennis comeback at the age of 35 with a victory in the $100,000 Japan Open.

She and John Newcombe of Australia picked up first-place money Monday with victories in the rain-soaked tournament.

Miss Bueno defeated top-seeded Kataja Ebbinghaus of West Germany and Newcombe beat compatriot Ken Rosewall.

Miss Bueno went to three sets against Miss Ebbinghaus, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3, to collect the $6,000 women's first prize, and Newcombe won $15,000 for his 3-6, 6-2, 6-3 victory over the defending champion Rosewall.

Kazuko Sawamatsu of Japan and Ann Kiyomura of the United States defeated Kimiyu Yagawara of Japan and Janet Young of Australia to take first money in women's doubles. The men's doubles were canceled because of rain.

after injecting what he considered adequate financing to carry the club through the season," Mix said of the London, Ont., developer. "Bob's selling off some of his holdings in Canada to raise the additional cash and feels very strongly that something good will happen soon."

Mix, after a meeting with the team Monday, said the players "understood there is no certainty" the checks will be available Wednesday. "The morale is good," he said, "and they consider it a temporary inconvenience."

Mix cited three reasons for the short-term financial problem:

- Home attendance is averaging about 16,000 compared with a break-even figure of 28,000.
- The league did away with revenue sharing, which Mix said "hurt us in the time of approximately $100,000."
- Poor original projection of operating capital.

Portland is the 8th WFL team reported to have missed a payroll. Two of the others, Detroit and Jacksonville, since have ceased operation.

RANKIN, PECOS KEEP UNBEATEN MARKS ALIVE—

Seminole's Win Skein Ends In 17-13 Loss To Monahans

By TERRY WILLIAMSON

The Seminole Indians dropped in a homecoming contest Friday, leaving only tenth-ranked AAA Pecos and third-ranked A Rankin as the only area eleven left with unblemished marks after six weeks of high school football action.

Monahans' Wayne Petties, the area's leading rusher with over 800 yards in six games, scored on a 27-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter to lead the Lobos over the Indians by a 17-13 count in an important District 2-AAA battle.

Seminole fell to a 5-1 record for the season and a 1-1 mark in loop play while Monahans soared to a 2-0 district reading and a 4-2 season standing. The Lobos own sole possession of first place in 2-AAA with two victories.

The Pecos Eagles, running their unbeaten mark to 5-0, had to score 15 points in the fourth period to down the stubborn Andrews Mustangs in what was the opening loop game for the Eagles. Pecos pulled out a narrow 22-21 victory with the last quarter surge, leaving Andrews still among the area's four winless squads.

Rankin's awesome Red Devils had little trouble in gaining a 5-0 record Friday in a homecoming contest against Robert Lee, winning big, 35-7. It was Rankin's 11th straight regular season victory, and the Red Devils are the heavy favorites in District 6-A play, which opens this week.

their amazing rebound after two early defeats with a 40-20 win over District 5-A favorite Stanton. Fullback Clifton Pettis rushed for 177 yards and scored three touchdowns to ignite McCamey's third straight victory.

Area Grid Standings

District 2-AAA Season					District 7-AA Season
Team	W	L	T	Pts.	Team	W	L	T	Pts.
Pecos	5	0	0	85	Sonora	5	1	0	85
Seminole	4	2	0	189	McCamey	4	2	1	103
Monahans	4	2	0	131	Ozona	3	3	0	103
Kermit	4	2	0	101	Crane	3	3	0	91
Fort Stockton	3	4	0	37	Reagan County	1	3	0	70
Ector	0	4	1	59
Andrews	0	6	0	89

The big upset of the week came at Fort Stockton where the Panthers knocked off heavily favored Kermit by a heart stopping 7-2 margin. The victory dropped Fort Stockton from the all-beaten ranks and leaves only Andrews, Odessa Ector, O'Donnell and Wink with winless records. Ector has a tie to its credit, however.

District 3-AAA also entered second week action last week with Snyder and Lake View posting their second straight wins in loop play for a 2-0 mark. Lake View, very surprising this year with a 5-1 reading, drubbed faltering Lamesa, 16-6. Lamesa is the defending district champion, but now own an 0-2 record against the top two district squads.

Snyder defeated loop co-favorite Lubbock Estacado 14-6 while Lubbock Dunbar made its district debut with an easy 21-10 victory over hapless Sweetwater.

District 5-A ended non-conference action last Friday and all three loops will play for keeps this week. In 7-AA, McCamey's powerful Badgers continued

Seagraves captured an important 28-0 whitewash over Class B's fifth-ranked Sonora to move the Eagle record to an impressive 5-1 standing. Seagraves may be the team to beat in 5-A after Stanton and Plains were given the early season nod.

In other District 6-A action, Balmorhea blanked Socorro, 20-0; Iran beat Menard, 21-0, and Wink lost its fifth straight to Sanderson by a narrow 20-19 margin.

Marshall Could Tie Knowles' Record

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland A's Darold Knowles, inactive so far in the World Series, owns a pitching record that busy Mike Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers can't break.

"But if this thing goes seven games, I'm sure he'll tie it," said the Oakland left-hander who appeared in all seven games of the 1973 World Series to establish a record.

Marshall, who set a major league record with 106 appearances during the 1974 National League season, was the Dodgers' finishing pitcher in the first two World Series games at Los Angeles and was ready to back up starter Al Downing here tonight in game No. 3.

Smith Given More Time

DALLAS (AP) — A state district judge here Monday ordered Southern Methodist University not to suspend football team center and captain Mike Smith for alleged violations of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) rules.

Marshall, a sturdy little right-hander with mutton chop sideburns and a buttoned-down mouth, isn't about to let any rival pitchers know the secret behind his durability.

Fingers has appeared in 13 of the A's 16 World Series games, going into tonight's contest, since 1972.

Lee Boosters Meet

The Midland Lee Rebel Booster Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Lee Cafeteria to view the films of the 21-7 victory over San Angelo.

Coach Jim Acree will give a scouting report on Abilene Cooper, who the Rebs play in Abilene Friday night.

The last pitcher to throw a complete game in the World Series was Pittsburgh's Steve Blass in the Pirates' 2-1 final game victory over Baltimore in the 1971 World Series.

Jeffrey, Jackson Share Top SWC Player Award

By The Associated Press It's not easy to call signals in the huddle when you stutter, cotton is stuffed in your nose, the breathing comes hard and thousand of Arkansas fans are shouting for your hide.

Jeffrey had the lights turned out on him Saturday in the first quarter of the Baylor-Arkansas game when injured by an overzealous Arkansas Razorback. The analysis along the sidelines was a broken nose. X-Rays later proved negative.

Teaff called on Jeffrey, who had cleared away the cobwebs. "It was kind of tough," said Jeffrey, who has a speech impediment but doesn't mind talking about it. The impediment does not bother him when he calls the snap count.

Tourney Deadline

Entry deadline for the Women's City Golf Championship Tournament is noon Wednesday. Qualifying rounds for the Oct. 22-24 tourney is Thursday. Those interested in playing in the tournament should sign up at the Hogan Park pro shop before the deadline.

Walker also said that Smith was denied due process because the NCAA did not grant him a proper hearing. He said Smith would be done irreparable harm if he was not allowed to play in his final year at SMU. He noted the Southwest Conference of which SMU is a member, had not imposed any sanctions on SMU or Smith.

Jeffrey said "I didn't mind Neal being in there. He has more experience than I do. I really wasn't scared though—just a little worried."

Judge Orders Halt To Waste Dumping

HOUSTON (AP) — A temporary restraining order has been issued by a state judge halting further alleged illegal disposal of Houston area industrial wastes on a Karnes County ranch.

The order, granted at the request of the state by District Court Judge Thomas J. Stovall Monday, named former state representative George H. Cook.

In suits filed last week by the attorney general's office, the state asked judges in Houston and Corpus Christi to shut down the alleged illegal operations of Cook and Gerald D. Butler, also a one-time state representative.

Cook, Butler Named

The suit alleged that Butler, of Karnes County, was using his ranch as a dumping ground for toxic chemical wastes.

The suit said Cook runs trucking companies which hauled the wastes to the Karnes County dumping site.

Cook and Butler are two of the chief partners in South Texas Industrial Services, Inc., a disposal company embroiled in a controversial plan to dump industrial wastes near Corpus Christi.

Stovall denied a restraining order last week when the state filed the suit against Cook but he set the injunction hearing. However, the injunction hearing could not proceed because Cook had not been found and served with legal papers. The hearing was reset for Oct. 24.

A Corpus Christi judge issued a restraining order against Butler last week. A hearing is scheduled there Friday on a temporary injunction.

Texas Asst. Atty. Gen. Philip Maxwell told Stovall that process servers also had been unable to find Butler.

Stovall granted the restraining order after hearing testimony from William Cannon, a Corpus Christi truck driver.

Cannon said during September he picked up four tank-truck loads of chemical wastes from Lowe Chemical Co. near Houston and drove them to the Karnes County ranch.

Told To Divert Them

He said the bills of lading called for delivery of the wastes to a licensed dump site in Oklahoma but he was told to divert them to Karnes County. He said he "just opened a valve and let them run down the bank" of an old caliche pit.

Hugh C. Yantis Jr., executive director of the Texas Water Quality Board, said the wastes came from the Exxon refinery in Baytown, the Crown Central refinery in Pasadena and the Lowe Chemical Co. but he had no evidence that any of the three firms knew the waste was headed for illegal dumping sites.

Cook, believed now to live in the Austin area, served in the legislature from Odessa in the early 1960s. Butler lived in Kennedy when he served in the legislature also in the early 1960s.

CARPET TALK

By Edd Tucker

ALLERGIES seem to plague more people more often today than ever, possibly because of increasing impurities in the air. Whatever the reason, those who are bothered with allergic reactions certainly don't want to invite them.

The right carpet, and routine carpet care, can help cut down some allergy problems in the home. For instance, dust is allergenic, so it will pay you to vacuum your carpets regularly, picking up surface and deep-down dust.

Bare floors allow dust to stir around and "fly" more, increasing the irritation to humans, young or old. Carpets tend to "catch" dust, so regular vacuuming keeps the whole room cleaner, fresher.

Also, you should choose a non-allergenic carpet where family allergy problems are known to exist. Many of the newer man-made fibers, like polyesters and acrylics, are non-allergenic. But remember, too, that natural fibers like wool, are often treated to make them non-allergenic. They'll be labeled if they're treated, so take a look... or ask us.

We'll be glad to answer all your carpet questions, and delighted to show you the great array of values we're showing right now... carpets you'll be proud to show off, at low prices to surprise you. Come in and take a good look around!

Lee Youth Center Chatter

By BECKY HALL, LINDA EWAN & TANYA JONES

Our mighty Rebs ran like a RIVER and flooded out San Angelo 21-7 Friday night. This makes it 5 and 0!!

We are glad to see Keith Bishop back in PEAK condition, and we hope that Lance Posey and Terry Nelson are back in the swing of things soon!

The Rebelettes, cheerleaders, and band led us in a MOUNTAIN of spirit at the pep rally and the game Friday. We would like to thank the best bunch of parents in District 5-4A for all their support at all the games. We also commend the band for its spirit of victory as well as its spirit of friendship and hospitality toward visiting bands.

The junior varsity really was PLAIN good even though they ran into a few LEDGES and came up short on the scoreboard. Good Luck this week, guys.
