South Plains Ventures Set

Wildcat sites have been staked in Garza and Scurry counties. Kerr-McGee Corp., operating from Amarillo, has filed application to drill No. 1 Beggs, a 7,900-foot prospector in Northeast Garza, 1 1/2 mile southwest of the Barron Ranch (Strawn and Ellenburger) field, but separated by a 7,837-foot failure.

It spots 1,300 feet from north and 1,900 feet from west lines of section 67, block 2, T&NO survey, 15 miles northeast of Post.

Scurry Prospector

The Scurry try is Texas American Oil Corp. No. 1 Herring, a scheduled 3,550-foot Clearfork test, three miles northwest of Dermott.

Drill site is 660 feet from north and 1,900 feet from east lines of section 457, block 97, H&TC survey, on the east side of the Revilo (Glorieta) field, in which the Clearfork opener, six miles to the south, has become depleted.

J. M. Palmer Finals Crane Crude Strike

J. M. Palmer of Midland has completed No. 1 Jack Bell as a Devonian oil discovery in Crane County, 1 1/4 mile southeast of the depleted Devonian discovery in the Dawson field.

On the 24-hour potential test, it pumped 15 barrels of 40-gravity oil and 135 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio of 200-1. Production was through perforations at 5,385-5,388 feet, which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons.

Drilled to 5,650 feet, it has 5 1/2-inch casing set on bottom, and is plugged back to 5,615 feet. Ground elevation is 2,400 feet, tops not reported.

The strike is 660 feet from northwest and southwest lines of section 1, TMRR survey, 10 miles southwest of Crane.

Probe Sites Slated In Four WT Areas

Exploratory tests have been planned in Stonewall, Fisher, Nolan and Kimble counties.

Bridwell Oil Co. of Abilene, will drill No. 1 Hilda Anna Neumann as a 6,100-foot wildcat in Stonewall, three miles east of Old Glory.

Location is 467 feet from south and 2,900 feet from west lines of section 27, BBB&C survey, 3/4 mile west of the depleted Helen Glory and 3/4 mile south of the Baiz field, both of which produced oil from the Bend conglomerate.

Fisher Venture

R. L. Burns Corp., Dallas, accounted for a 6,000-foot test in Fisher, in an attempt to re-open Ellenburger production in the Eskota, West (Canyon) field. It is No. 5 R. B. Johnston.

Location is 1,540 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 24, block 20, T&P survey, one mile northeast of Eskota.

It is 3/4 mile southeast of the depleted Ellenburger re-opener, completed by Burns in 1971, and (Continued On Page 14B)

Nixon To Get Tape Transcripts

Mrs. Jimmy Millican ... a late sleeper

Ticked-Off By Time Change? Naw

Remember the ruckus raised back last winter when innocent children suddenly were forced to march off to school in darkness, roosters crowed later and West Texas seemed for a while like the land of the midnight sun?

People had to drive to work in darkness, slower than before so they could watch carefully for those schoolward-bound youngsters.

The neighbor lady came over for coffee and it wasn't even sunup yet!

All of that and more was supposed to contribute toward saving 150,000 barrels of oil per day in the United States. That's what Congress had in mind when it imposed Daylight Saving Time Jan. 6.

For 10 straight months Americans have been living in DST. Sunday, at 2 a.m., most of the nation (including Texas) will revert to standard time. Clocks will be set back one hour.

And is the citizenry aroused? Are folks upset about having their schedules monkeyed with again?

Not in Midland. At least that was the indication of a number interviewed at random downtown. Their reactions ranged from approval to indifference.

W. E. Stribling of 4408 Erie St. had a practical reason for welcoming the return of early morning sunlight. He runs a parking lot, and "now customers will be better able to see how to put their money into the correct slots," he said.

Stribling said he believes DST actually hindered energy conservation efforts because people seemed to use more electricity and gas.

Jimmy Sutton, 622 Berkeley Dr., favored the return to standard time, reasoning that he will get an extra hour of sleep Sunday.

No Other Records Available

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica today granted a request by Richard M. Nixon's lawyers that the former president be supplied with transcripts of White House tape recordings so he can prepare to testify at the Watergate cover-up trial.

Meanwhile, former White House counsel John W. Dean III was on the witness stand today for his eighth, and possibly last, day of testimony.

Nixon's attorney, Herbert J. Miller, requested the transcripts recently, pointing out that Nixon had no other records available to him and could not come to Washington to prepare adequately because of his illness.

Rains Soak Texas

Rain soaked a broad area across the middle of Texas from the Red River to the Rio Grande today as a weak cold front crawled slowly toward the east.

At least another inch of rainfall left streets awash in San Antonio, where more than two inches fell the day before. Thursday's downpours also dumped more than five inches near Barnhart, blocking Texas 163 in that vicinity, and close to four inches at Coleman.

A mixture of showers and occasionally heavy thunderstorms was set off in other areas.

Only a trace of precipitation, however, was recorded by forecasters with the National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal who predicted clearing skies and a sunny Saturday.

High this afternoon and Saturday should range near 70, with tonight's low in the middle 40s. The overnight low dropped to 53 at 5 a.m. today. Thursday's high was 70 degrees.

25TH ANNIVERSARY — Mrs. Charles Green plants a kiss on her husband's cheek and Frances Etheredge presents him a gold watch marking his 25th year as Midland County agricultural agent. Mrs. Green, the former Betty Chamberlin, was a 4-H Club member when Green took the post here. The presentation was made at the annual 4-H Club Awards Program Thursday night. (See Story Page 5A.)

Soviets Given Concrete U.S. Arms Proposals

MOSCOW (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger conveyed concrete U.S. proposals on nuclear arms limitations to Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev today at the Kremlin, hoping they could break the negotiating logjam on a new 10-year treaty.

The 2-hour and 20-minute discussion, described by U.S. sources as being in a "very friendly and very cordial atmosphere" was aimed at agreement on guidelines that Brezhnev and President Ford could endorse around Thanksgiving at a meeting, probably in Vladivostok.

At their first meeting Thursday, Kissinger and Brezhnev surveyed trade relations between their two countries and their conflicting approaches to the Arab-Israeli dispute.

Kissinger said they made "a very good beginning" but gave no details. Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said both sides were encouraged and Brezhnev was pleased.

Both Gromyko and Kissinger renewed their governments' commitment to Soviet-American détente in luncheon toasts, and Kissinger emphasized that this American policy was unchanged by the change in the U.S. presidency.

"Further and big successes require efforts and vigorous efforts on both sides," said the Russian. "We are prepared to make those efforts."

Kissinger replied that "it has been a firm and continuing principle of American policy that the U.S. and the Soviet Union have a very special responsibility for preserving the peace in the world and for contributing to the positive aspirations of mankind.

"This positive peace responsibility will be fostered with great energy by our administration."

A get-acquainted meeting between Brezhnev and President Ford late next month in the Far East appears in the offing. It was learned that a special communications network has been set up between Moscow and Vladivostok, the most likely site for the meeting.

Many Offices Closing Here For Holiday

Midland's banks and savings and loan institutions will be closed Monday as will state and federal offices in observance of Veterans Day.

The Driver's License Division of the Department of Public Safety will join other state offices in observing the holiday.

Offices for the Midland County and the City of Midland will remain open.

There will be no regular residential or business deliveries by the U.S. Postal Service Monday, however, lockbox service will be available and special deliveries will be made, Postmaster David Holster said.

Arabs Still Divided

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The leaders of the Arab world began gathering here today for another summit conference, but their foreign ministers were reported still split on the key issue of negotiations with Israel.

A Syrian proposal called for a pledge from all the Arab governments not to negotiate separately with Israel but to take the negotiations back to the dormant Geneva conference, which would bring the Soviet Union back into the peace-making process.

Delegation sources said Egyptian President Anwar Sadat and King Faisal of Saudi Arabia were "extremely reluctant" to return to Geneva. Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, during his recent visit to the Middle East, won Sadat's support for a gradual movement toward a peace settlement. The next step would be separate negotiations between Israel and Egypt, Jordan and Syria on further territorial withdrawals by Israel.

Two Unenthusiastic

Sadat and Faisal were also reported unenthusiastic about another Syrian proposal to revive the use of the so-called oil weapon and to pool Arab oil billions for a new mobilization against Israel.

The other key issue before the summit conference opening Saturday is the bitter contest between the Palestine Liberation Organization headed by guerrilla chief Yasser Arafat and King Hussein of Jordan for recognition as the representative of the Palestinian people on the West Bank of the Jordan River.

Arafat's chief spokesman, Said Kamal, called a news conference late Thursday night and indicated that the foreign ministers were about to recommend that Hussein negotiate for a partial Israeli withdrawal from the West Bank without consulting the PLO.

Charge Made

Though Syria and Algeria argued in favor of the PLO in the foreign ministers' debates this week preparing the agenda for the summit, Kamal accused all of the Arab governments of "failing to live up to their obligations to the Palestine revolution."

Heavy security precautions were being taken to prevent attempts to assassinate Hussein or other leaders. Hundreds of Palestinians and Moroccan leftists were transported from Rabat to Tangier to be held there until after the meeting. Thousands of armed troops and police patrolled Rabat and surrounding areas and searched all traffic going in and out of the city. The airport was closed to commercial traffic until after the summit.

New Bomber Prototype Will Roll Out Saturday; Costs Endanger Production

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP) — The prototype of the newest U.S. bomber, the swing-wing B1, rolls out amid ceremonies and speech-making Saturday. But the plane may be sidelined because of soaring costs.

Advocates say the B1 will be superfast and hard to destroy and that armed with a potent load of missiles it will help deter World War III. Critics say it will be a flying dinosaur not worth its ever-rising price tag.

The long-nosed test plane, coated with a special white paint to reflect nuclear radiation and powered by four jet engines tucked close to its fuselage, will emerge Saturday from a hangar at the Rockwell International plant here 50 miles north of Los Angeles.

Speakers Named

Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger and Air Force Secretary John L. McLucas will speak.

The four-year-old B1 program has so far cost $1.6 billion. By 1983 — two years before the last of 247 planes, including three prototypes, are scheduled to be built — the cost is expected to reach $1.6 billion, or about $76 million per plane. That's $7.4 billion higher than estimated in 1970.

Congressional critics, stunned by the dramatic hike which the Air Force attributes mostly to inflation, will be watching the flight tests in December with a "this had better be good" attitude.

Decision Due In 1976

The Pentagon will make a decision by November 1976 on whether to put the B1 into production.

"The flight tests will be absolutely crucial to the fate of the program, and very quickly," says a high Air Force official.

Air Force officials bewail the escalating costs. "Inflation I have no control over," Maj. Gen. Abner B. Martin, B1 (See BOMBER Page 2A)

But pointing out that Hunt cooperated with the investigation "only grudgingly and, we believe, incompletely," the government asked that the court — rather than the prosecution — adopt Hunt as its witness.

In such a case neither the prosecution nor defense vouches for a witness' credibility and both sides can ask leading questions.

The trial of H. R. Haldeman, John D. Ehrlichman, John N. Mitchell, Robert C. Mardian and Kenneth W. Parkinson, all charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice, was in its 19th day today. Dean was the first witness called.

The arguments and objections had increased in frequency the last few days, involving at times the judge and one or another of the defense lawyers, prosecution and defense, and (See NIXON Page 2A)

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu's government is firing 377 officers for corruption, the defense ministry announced today.

It was Thieu's second action this week to quiet criticism of his regime in the United States Congress and at home. Thursday, he fired four members of his cabinet, including Information Minister Hoang Duc Nha, a relative of the president and his closest confidant.

A defense ministry spokesman said the officers to be dismissed had been "corrupt and dishonest." It said they included 20 colonels, 101 lieutenant colonels and 256 majors.

A number of junior officers also will be dismissed for corruption, the spokesman said, but it did not say how many.

It said the dismissals would begin Nov. 1 and would be completed by the end of December.

There was no immediate reaction to today's announcement, but initial reaction from anti-Thieu political leaders to the firing of the four cabinet

Bank Cuts Prime Rate Back To 11 Per Cent

NEW YORK (AP) — First National City Bank, the nation's second-largest commercial bank, today became the first major bank to cut the prime lending rate to 11 per cent.

The prime rate is considered a bellwether of other short-term money market rates. While it is not a direct influence on consumer loan rates, the prime often foreshadows future trends in the lending market.

Citibank's quarter-point reduction in the rate it charges on loans to top-rated business borrowers is effective Monday.

It was the fourth consecutive week that Citibank has sliced the key short-term rate because of a moderation in business loan demand and similar recent declines in other short-term rates like commercial paper.

Most other major banks' primes stand at either 11.5 per cent or 11.25 per cent.

Thieu 'Cleaning House'

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu's government is firing 377 officers for corruption, the defense ministry announced today.

It was Thieu's second action this week to quiet criticism of his regime in the United States Congress and at home. Thursday, he fired four members of his cabinet, including Information Minister Hoang Duc Nha, a relative of the president and his closest confidant.

A defense ministry spokesman said the officers to be dismissed had been "corrupt and dishonest." It said they included 20 colonels, 101 lieutenant colonels and 256 majors.

A number of junior officers also will be dismissed for corruption, the spokesman said, but it did not say how many.

It said the dismissals would begin Nov. 1 and would be completed by the end of December.

There was no immediate reaction to today's announcement, but initial reaction from anti-Thieu political leaders to the firing of the four cabinet ministers indicated it would not end public demonstrations charging the president with corruption and mismanagement and demanding his own resignation.

The demonstrations, the most serious Thieu has faced in three years, are an outgrowth of disenchantment with the continued fighting, the lowered standard of living, inflation, unemployment, and the failure of the government to provide promised social reform and restore civil liberties.

Miller Says Outlook For Avoiding Coal Strike Better

WASHINGTON (AP) — United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller says the outlook for avoiding a nationwide coal strike next month has improved with tentative agreement on some key contract issues.

"I think there's a possibility that we can wrap up the contract in time for ratification," said Miller. "It depends on how they (the coal operators) want to bargain, how much good faith they want to put into it."

Two weeks ago, the talks were deadlocked over five major noneconomic issues and Miller said a strike appeared likely unless the industry was willing to make concessions.

In an interview Thursday, Miller said considerable progress has been made in these areas with tentative agreement on some issues, and indicated that the talks would shift to wages in a few days.

The union's contract with the Bituminous Coal Operators Association expires Nov. 12 and Miller said a tentative settlement would have to be reached by Nov. 4 if it is to be ratified in time by the membership. He said, however, he is shooting for a Nov. 1 settlement date.

Clearer Understanding

"There is a much clearer understanding as I see it now on what the real problems are," he said. "Safety is our highest priority and it's my opinion that we can have a good safety program in coal mining at no prohibitive costs."

Miller is negotiating his first contract as head of the 120,000-member union. A former miner disabled by black lung disease, he took office nearly two years ago after sweeping out the entrenched regime of W.A. "Tony" Boyle with a campaign to turn the union back to the rank-and-file.

UMW members get to vote on their contract for the first time and industry officials have expressed concern that they will strike no matter how rich the package in order to win more concessions.

But Miller asserted "that's not the feeling I get from the membership. 'If we get a contract that addressed itself to the problems we have and is consistent with the views of the membership, they'll ratify it.'"

The union has insisted that five major noneconomic issues be disposed of before the negotiations move on to economic proposals. Miller declined to specify what tentative agreements had been reached but said progress has been in safety, manpower training and seniority.

Although the UMW hasn't spelled out its wage demands and benefit demands, Miller said he would seek a pay increase large enough to catch up

Nixon Reportedly No Longer In Pain

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Hospital sources say former President Richard M. Nixon is no longer in pain as doctors consider whether he will need surgery for his phlebitis.

A relatively simple and safe operation could be performed if anticoagulant drugs given by mouth and by injection fail to prevent formation of clots in Nixon's swollen left leg, his physician, Dr. John C. Lungren, said Thursday.

The former president was admitted to Memorial Hospital Medical Center here Wednesday night because oral anticoagulation therapy at his San Clemente home was not thinning his blood sufficiently, Lungren said.

He said tests were being conducted to determine if Nixon is "in the small group of paradoxical cases, i.e., people for whom anticoagulation cannot be maintained by drugs."

Lungren did not say when a decision on surgery would be made.

If surgery is not necessary, the doctor said Nixon might be able to go home late today or Saturday.

A hospital spokesman said medical personnel who saw Nixon Thursday said he was resting comfortably and was not in pain.

"If anticoagulant therapy cannot be adequately established and controlled, then surgical intervention is a real possibility," Lungren said.

In most cases of this sort, the surgeon ties off the main blood vessel carrying blood from the lower body to the heart. This prevents clots from breaking loose in the legs and traveling to the heart or lungs, where they can cause death. Other veins fake over the function of the vein closed off by surgery.

It was the second hospitalization here this month for Nixon, who was discharged Oct. 14 after 12 days of tests and anticoagulant therapy. He was reported doing well after his return to San Clemente until Lungren found the oral drugs were not doing the job.

It was not immediately known what effect Nixon's hospitalization would have on the Watergate cover-up trial in Washington. Lungren said after Nixon's first hospital stay that it would be at least a month and possibly three months before he could travel safely.

Last week Herbert J. Miller Jr., Nixon's chief counsel in Washington, told the court that Nixon would probably be healthy enough to testify at the trial within the next several weeks.

Consumer Groups Oppose Proposed Beef Grade Changes

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Some consumer advocates don't like the proposed changes in beef grading, but a researcher says your taste buds won't be able to tell the difference.

The U.S. Agriculture Department is now holding hearings around the nation on its plans to permit younger, leaner beef to be graded as prime or choice meat.

Agriculture officials expect the new standards to be in effect before mid-1975.

Ken Ellis, now heading the University of California Agriculture Extension Service in Fresno County, says a two-year study he directed at the University of California at Berkeley sought to prove younger cattle with less fat could be just as good as older beef fed longer to make them fatter.

Better Breeding Cited

The study played a key role in the proposed changes, he says.

"What happened is that with improvements in breeding, cattle now gain weight faster than they used to," Ellis said. "So you have a younger animal reaching a slaughter weight of 1,000 to 1,200 pounds."

"The new standards are not a lowering of beef quality. A taste panel of eight judges included in the research, who were chosen for their ability to detect small changes in flavor, show in most cases consumers can't tell the difference."

"In addition, the less fat per pound, the more protein we have available," Ellis added. "And less cholesterol may be present in leaner meat."

Advocates Unconvinced

Consumer advocates aren't warm to the change, however.

"Consumers are going to be very angry if they find lesser quality beef at the same prices," says Ruth Yannatta, chairwoman of Fight Inflation Together, a Los Angeles-based group involved in the meat boycott in the spring of 1973.

"We don't want changes just to insure that the cattle industry gets its profit at the expense of the consumer's shrinking dollar."

She says the UC study is not enough. "The Agriculture Department should find a few key markets in various cities and sell beef graded under the new standards, then ask consumers for their opinions on the difference."

Hearings on the proposed change are scheduled in Chicago Wednesday; Dallas, Thursday; Atlanta, Friday, and San Francisco Nov. 11.

Current USDA grading standards call for a certain amount of marbling, or fat in muscle tissue, before beef earns the prime or choice rankings.

Marbling Takes Time

"But it takes time to develop marbling, and more than twice as much feed to create fat as muscle," Ellis said. "You have to continue feeding the newer breeds of cattle past the point where they are ready for market from a weight standpoint."

The new standards will permit leaner meat to be graded higher than under current rules.

Why not just continue to feed the cattle until they develop the required marbling?

For one thing, Ellis says, feed grain prices have soared, and with this year's drought and early frost in the Midwest, grain costs promise to climb even higher.

Dear Abby

—By Abigail van Buren

She Has 13 Kids And Is Proud Of It

DEAR ABBY: I am a good Catholic woman. God gave me 13 children and I am proud of it. When people find out how many kids I have, they look at me like I committed some kind of crime. I am not on welfare, and I am not asking anybody else to help me raise them.

Some people ask me if I ever heard of birth control. I have, but the only method permitted by the Catholic Church is called the "rhythm system."

Why can't people mind their own business?

PROUD MOTHER

DEAR PROUD: One reason may be that they are concerned about a very real problem, which cannot be ignored. It's over population.

At present, the world population is increasing at the rate of about 68 million a year — much more than the total population of Great Britain, France, Italy or West Germany! Every day there are 185,000 more mouths to feed. This means that the present world population of 3.632 billion will double by the year 2010!

But criticizing parents of large families after the fact strikes me as not only irrelevant to future solutions, but as meddlesome and unkind.

DEAR ABBY: Our son, who will be 16 his next birthday, is fast-talking, persuasive and attractive. Jeff can charm the birds out of the trees when he wants to. He keeps making remarks like: "I can't wait until my next birthday so I can drive." He's all set to sign up for driver's ed in school.

He doesn't have a car to drive, and we hadn't planned on buying him one, but he's been buttering up his grandparents lately, hoping they will buy him a car for his 16th birthday. (I have news for him. He still needs OUR permission to drive.)

Jeff's grades are just so-so, and he doesn't always keep his word, and he has to show a lot more maturity and responsibility before we'll let him drive.

He has a summer job and didn't save a dime. How do we get it across to this boy that just because the law says he's old enough to drive doesn't necessarily mean he's going to?

MOM AND POP

DEAR M. AND P.: You seem articulate enough. Why don't you just TELL him?

DEAR ABBY: I would like to just walk away from home and husband, and start a new life somewhere where nobody knows me.

I hate being married. I've been married for 25 years. I have no children at home. I didn't really want to get married and I didn't have to, but in those days, social pressures made a girl feel like if she wasn't married there must be something the matter with her.

Abby, could this feeling I have be the "change of life" blues?

RESTLESS

DEAR RESTLESS: Could be. Women in their middle years (men, too) sometimes become depressed and dissatisfied with their lot. That "let-down" feeling could be caused by a hormonal change. Get a thorough physical checkup without delay, and tell your doctor what's on your mind. I promise you, he's heard that tune before. There IS help for you.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclosed is a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Western District President Speaks To Midland Federated Club Women

Mrs. B. Frank Sandel Jr. of Big Lake, president of the Western District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker Tuesday when the Twentieth Century Study Club was hostess to the federated clubs of Midland for a guest day luncheon at Midland Woman's Club.

Mrs. Robert L. Noah, Twentieth Century Club president, presided. Mrs. Charles East gave the invocation.

The speaker, introduced by Mrs. Noah, mentioned from her theme, "Involvement — Key to Unity," the many facets of the meaning of federation and reminded all there are now 100,000 federated club members, and clubs active in 36 foreign countries. She explained how federated women of all ages have three important purposes to fulfill: To improve self, serve man and glorify God.

Federated clubs, Mrs. Sandel said, have been instrumental in supporting and passing many laws including the pure food law and child labor law. They have endorsed highway safety features and seat belt use, were a forerunner of the Parent-Teacher Association and continue to push for the "Big Thicket" preservation, she added.

Mrs. Sandel reminded club members that "We cannot rest on our laurels — We must go on. We must learn to understand our fellowman and take advantage of all opportunities."

She illustrated in stages how the federation crest was created. It began with a circle for eternity, then the darkened world in the center, followed by enlightenment. Color was then added, with white for Purity, red for Courage and blue for Constancy. In the original circle at the top are the letters G.F.W.C. and the words Unity in Diversity across the bottom of the circle. She stressed how unity in federation encourages new contacts, and broadens viewpoints, understanding, leadership, and offers many avenues for service.

Mrs. Joseph Mims, arts chairman, led the group in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," with Mrs. R. L. Denton at the piano.

Before adjournment, Mrs. Noah complimented Mrs. J. R. Wright and Mrs. Robert Rike on the table arrangements, which were in the theme of "The Master Key," in which golden keys were used with fall leaves and golden branches. Twenty nine club members guests attended.

Wednesday, Mrs. Thrift will be the luncheon guest of officers of Chapter BS in the home of Mrs. John Brooks Campbell, president, 3204 Stanolind St. Later, she will be a guest speaker for Chapter BS in the home of Mrs. A. N. Sharrick, 1610 Stanolind St.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Fouled Up Mail Gets Her Goat

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — I am especially fond of a round lace tablecloth but it is not round any more. I do not want to discard this cloth. I hope someone can tell me of a simple way to get it back to its original round shape. — BENNIE.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with the mail service. We live in a mobile home park and the mail is delivered any time from 11 in the morning to late afternoon and by a different carrier almost every day. Mail is left at wrong addresses and at homes where the people have returned North for the summer and have left a forwarding address with the post office. The other day there were four letters in our box all plainly addressed to people elsewhere. It seems that with postage rates so high we could get better service. After every delivery the neighbors are out taking mail to the right places. — MRS. J. S.

DEAR POLLY — I have help for Yvonne who cannot copy recipes as fast as they are given on television. I keep a cassette player and blank tape ready by my tv. When someone gives a recipe I get it all down on the tape and then play it back as I copy it on recipe card. It can be stopped and played back any time I am not sure about something and I have built up quite a recipe card file by using this method. — CATHY.

DEAR POLLY — When cutting out a garment to be made and you are not too sure about the fit of the pattern, cut the notches for matching seams OUT rather than in as the pattern indicates. This will allow for a larger seam in case the garment needs letting out. — LORENE.

DEAR POLLY — I bought a large styrofoam cooler on sale for little more than a dollar and use it for a picnic basket. I keep baked beans, scalloped potatoes, etc., hot by putting them in the bottom and then laying my tablecloth over them and then other things are put on top of that. The food that should stay cold is put in another cooler with the drinks so I have a "Hot Cooler" and a "Cold Cooler." — MRS. L.S.

DEAR POLLY — When my baby no longer needed her liquid filled teething ring I started keeping it in the freezer. It works like a small ice pack when baby gets a bump. She even holds on to it herself since it is a familiar object to her.

I use a nut cracker for opening bottles of catsup, salad dressing, etc.

My children always want to help when I bake bread but would wind up covered with flour. Now I put one of their father's old tee-shirts on each. They come to the boys' knees and their clothes are kept flour free. — BONNIE.

SEC Continuing Probe Of Coastal States

HOUSTON (AP) — A Securities and Exchange Commission official has indicated the agency requested and received certain documents from Coastal States Gas Corp. in an apparently continuing investigation of the company's activities prior to 1973.

James Sims, head of the Houston SEC office, said Thursday he was not at liberty to state how the commission learned about the documents. He said the commission was unaware "until three or four weeks ago" that they existed.

Delay Requested

Coastal States requested a delay in trading of the company's stock Thursday pending a news release concerning the new information in SEC possession.

1973 had been furnished to the SEC in its review, which is in progress. The company said it was not possible at this time to determine whether any of these materials might give rise to any contingent liabilities of the company.

Company Cooperating

"The company and its officers are cooperating in every way with the SEC to effect a prompt resolution of the matter," Sims said.

Davis, a San Antonio lawyer, declined comment.

The SEC filed suit against Coastal States last year, claiming the company had failed to disclose to its shareholders or to the SEC facts concerning deliverability of its gas reserves by a subsidiary, Lo-Vaca Gathering Co.

The suit alleged violations of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and SEC regulations by not disclosing transactions in 1971 and 1972 that affected the company's capability to deliver gas.

Order Handed Down

U.S. District Court Judge Carl O. Bue of Houston handed down an agreed order Sept. 11, 1973, which made major changes in the company's board of directors and enjoined the firm from violations of the act or commission regulations.

Commission officials suspended trading in the company's securities June 5, 1973, because of what one SEC official described as widespread rumors concerning the company's gas reserves.

The suspension was continued for several months.

MOST OUTSTANDING 4-H'ers — Nancy McDaniel and Ronnie Lynch were named Midland County 4-H Gold Star Boy and Girl Thursday night during the annual Achievement Awards Program held at Alamo Junior High School. The pins were put on by Theresa Gallagher and Mike Collier, not shown, last year's recipients of the honor.

Gold Star Pins Awarded At 4-H Event

The highlights of the annual Midland County 4-H Achievement Awards Program Thursday night at Alamo Junior High School was the awarding of the Gold Star Boy and Girl pins to Nancy McDaniel and Ronnie Lynch by last year's recipients, Theresa Gallagher and Mike Collier.

Also honored for their outstanding work in 4-H during the year were 69 county 4-H members and a number of adult leaders.

A special surprise presentation of a watch was made to Charles Green, Midland County Agricultural Extension Agent, by members and leaders, marking Green's 25th Anniversary as county agent for Midland County.

The Gold Star Award is the highest honor a 4-H club member can receive in the county. To be eligible, a 4-H member must be 14 years of age, have completed three years in 4-H work, be outstanding in leadership and achievement.

Plane Wreckage, Bodies Of Three Found In Woods

HENDERSON, Tex. (AP) — Wreckage of a light plane that disappeared Oct. 8 on a flight from Henderson to Houston has been found in a Rusk County pasture three miles south of the Henderson airport.

Authorities said the pilot and two passengers were dead.

They were identified as Everett Harris, the pilot, and his wife, both in their 60s, and James Lloyd Roman, 35. All three were from Houston.

Authorities said the plane was found in a heavily wooded area by a caretaker and probably could not be spotted by air.

Arthritis Foundation Officers Here Will Attend Conference

David Wood, new executive director of the West Texas chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, will be among an area delegation to attend the Governor's Conference on Arthritis Oct. 31 to Nov. 1 in Austin.

Other members of the Midland delegation are Mrs. Charles Lohan, Mrs. Hosni Nabi and Ms. Penny Adams. Dr. William A. Riley of Big Spring will also attend.

The conference, to be held in the Sheraton-Crest Inn, is under sponsorship of Gov. and Ms. Dolph Briscoe and is cosponsored by the six Arthritis Foundation chapters in Texas.

Pursuit Of Presidency Has Become Disease, Sissy Says

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Frances Farenthold, chairperson of the National Women's Political Caucus, says the pursuit of the presidency has become "a disease."

The Texas Democrat, who gained national prominence as a contender for the party's vice presidential nomination in 1972, was in New Hampshire Thursday to campaign for local Democrats.

She disavowed any intention to run in this state's first-in-the-nation presidential primary in 1976.

Mrs. Farenthold did have some comment about politicians already running to be President two years before the election.

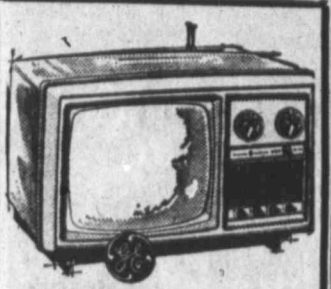

"We've got to get some sense of proportion back into it," she said. "The pursuit of the presidency is a disease."

A fellow Texan, Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, visited the state the day before to sound out his prospects for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Comment on the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), which still must be ratified by five states before becoming part of the Constitution, Ms. Farenthold said. "It's very important for women to have the ERA ratified before the 1978 national political conventions.

"If we don't have it ratified by then, it shows we don't have a strong political base or political know how."

She is "not losing any sleep," she said, because Nebraska and Tennessee rescinded their earlier ratification of the amendment.

GRAMMER-MURPHY

First Lady, Outstanding Citizen Named At Crane

CRANE — Mrs. Hubert (Pearl) Mills and W. "Bill" Allman have been chosen Crane's first lady and outstanding citizen, respectively.

The two were honored at the annual Crane County Chamber of Commerce banquet, held Thursday night in the school cafeteria.

The chamber also installed officers for 1974-75 and five directors for three-year terms and heard an address by Dr. Rex P. Kyker, professor and chairman of the department of communications at Abilene Christian College.

Mrs. Mills, a resident of Crane since 1945, is a graduate of Midland High School. She is active in the First United Methodist Church, Rainbow, Eastern Star and Girl Scout.

She is a past director of the Crane chamber and the Crane County Memorial Hospital Board. She has been a high school teacher and is currently manager of the Crane County Abstract Co.

She has received many civic and professional awards and honors. Chamber member Doug Damron presented the first lady award.

Allman, called "Mr. Scouter of Crane," has been active in scouting since it first was organized in Crane in 1932. Ted Hogan, who presented the award, noted Allman had held the practically every volunteer office in Crane and area scouting and had received scouting's highest award — the Silver Beaver — in 1946.

He was mayor of Crane from 1947-53 and 1958-62, a city councilman for five years, on the school board for seven years, on the board of equalization for the schools for 13 years and a member of the hospital board. He is a former chamber director and a 4-H Club sponsor.

Allman, 75, is still active in scouting. He is a troop committee member and a member of the executive board. Married for 52 years, he moved to West Texas in 1926.

Kyker, who is also a Church of Christ minister, told the 175 persons in attendance "how to be successful at being a failure."

"It's traditional at chamber banquets to talk about how to be a success," he said, "but I've been a failure all my life, and I'm going to tell you how to succeed at failing."

The first rule for the successful failure is to "have some fun out of it and never accept failure as being final or fatal."

He cited Thomas Alva Edison as an example of a person who refused to quit despite thousands of failures. Edison's tenacity finally resulted in the electric light bulb because he "had a dream and wouldn't accept failure as being final."

Kyker's second rule is "to set more stringent standards for yourself than society demands. Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Allman weren't honored tonight simply because they paid their taxes and didn't break any laws. They were honored because they did more than was required of them."

His last rule is to "be kind to your critics but don't pay attention to what they say, because none of 'em never put no beans on your table."

"The reason Crane has so many good things is that the good people have kept on trying, no matter what critics have said."

He concluded with an anecdote about actress Shirley Booth, who had been unsuccessful for years until she won both the Tony and Oscar for her stage and film portrayal in "Come Back, Little Sheba."

"If you will do your best and continue to try in the face of failure, you will be able to say of life — as Miss Booth did in accepting her Oscar — 'It's been a long climb to the summit, but the view has been beautiful all the way.'"

Officers installed at the banquet included Royce Fox, president; T. J. Barton, president elect; Larry Sheppard, second vice president, and Wayne Negley, treasurer.

Retiring president Roy Moore was presented with a plaque honoring his year in office. Moore, Lewis Overton, Len Maxwell and Gayle You retired as directors. Overton the only other retiring director to attend — was presented with a plaque.

Incoming directors are T. Allen, A. T. Carroll, L. O. Boyce and J. O. Coffey. Holdover directors are Mrs. Faye Parr, Mrs. Glenda Bland, John Busby, James Freeman, Ned Gulleddge, Ray Pahl, Negley, F. McGlothlin, Barton and J. Gothard.

Associate directors are Williams, Leo Lowery and Boyce Langford. William a new Crane resident, serves as master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Chairmen for the chamber's projects were named. They include Billie Irl Butler, H. Livestock and Exposition; Allen, membership; Coffey, clean-campaign; and and Sheppard, annual Freeze

Off; Gary Edmiston, Fly-Inn Break; Mrs. Peggy Cunningham, teachers reception; Negley, West Texas Junior Rodeo; Glenn Stephens, Retail

Committee; Arlen Carroll, Medical Committee; Barton, Bicenial Celebration; Moore, Ambassadors; Negley, Industrial Committee, and Burr and Gothard, publicity.

The meal was prepared by the school cafeteria staff and served by members of the Crane Future Homemakers of America. The Rev. Carl Treat, pastor of the Crane First United Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

Highest Ranking Woman In Soviet Circles Dies

MOSCOW (AP) — Minister of Culture Yekaterina Furtseva, the highest ranking woman in the Soviet government, died unexpectedly this morning in Moscow, a spokesman for her office announced.

Mrs. Furtseva, 63, rose higher in the Soviet government and Communist party than any woman ever had. But her career suffered a setback last spring when she was accused of using her position to buy materials at wholesale prices for construction of a $170,000 country house, or dacha.

Although she retained her post on the Council of Ministers and her seat on the Communist party central committee, she was dropped from the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet parliament, in June.

She was also a member of the Politburo, the presidium of the central committee and the most powerful body in the Soviet Union, from 1967 to 1961.

The spokesman for the ministry of culture said Mrs. Furtseva died during the night of a heart attack.

Defeat Will Eliminate Loser From Contention

By BOB DILLON

Coach John Reddell's Midland Bulldogs plan to pull out all stops as they tangle with the big and tough San Angelo Central Bobcats in Memorial Stadium tonight in a big District 5-4A football game.

The loser will fall from contention in the 5-4A race, depending on how the Odessa Permian-Abilene Cooper game comes out.

"We need to win the rest of our games and hope somebody knocks off Permian," said Reddell. Bulldog fans will be listening closely to the Cooper-Permian outcome as will Bobcat fans since both the Pack and Angelo already have one loop loss. In fact, Midland, San Angelo, Cooper and Midland Lee are 2-1 while Permian is on top 3-0.

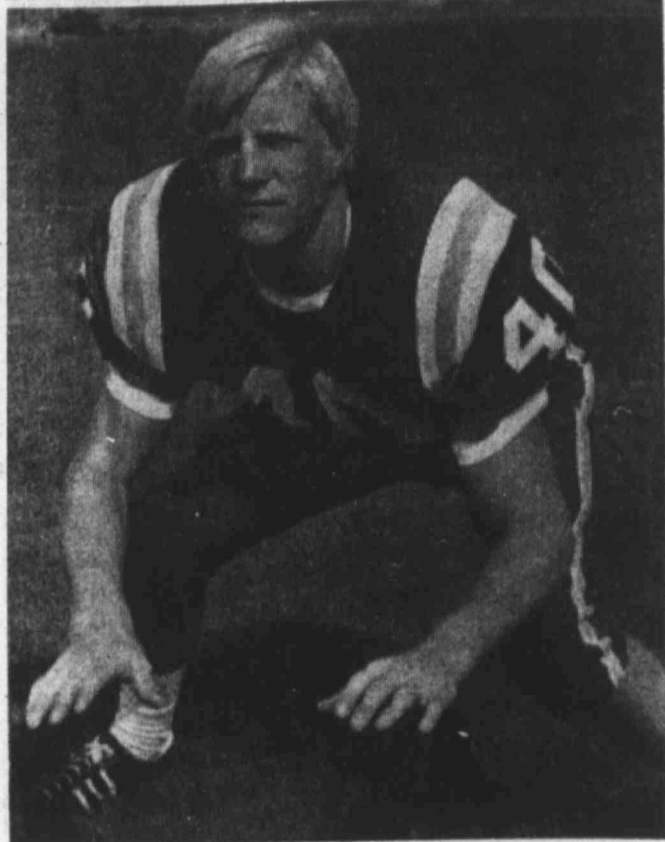

Coach Smitty Hill's Bobcats are explosive to say the least. They proved that last week when in blasting Odessa High, 35-0, and without starting quarterback Rudy Izzard. Izzard, most likely will play tonight, but senior Ricky Crain will also see duty as the man under.

Rebels Scan High-Grass At Big Spring

Upset-Anxious Steers Seek 1st 5-4A Victory

BIG SPRING — Everybody says Abilene Cooper and Midland High face the big tasks of getting ready for the likes of Odessa Permian and San Angelo tonight, but the kind of job that faces Lee at Big Spring is the one that turns hair a shade grayer.

Coaches don't have to worry about a San Angelo or a Permian. If they don't win, it isn't because they weren't ready or didn't try.

However, a Big Spring lurks in the high grass, loose and ready to spring an upset, if they find a foe looking a week ahead, say to Odessa Permian.

Form says Lee should win by a couple of touchdowns, but Coach Jim Acree worries that a couple of TD passes could destroy form in a hurry.

"And Big Spring has been known to throw the ball, you know."

Lee is 5-1 on the season and 2-1 in District 5-4A while Big Spring is 2-3 and 0-3. Both teams are coming off defeats. Lee lost to Abilene Cooper, 7-6, last week while Big Spring suffered a 24-0 defeat at the hands of Odessa Permian.

One psychological advantage the Rebels do have is the desire for revenge. Last year the Steers whopped the Rebs, 24-6.

Manpower has been Coach Bob Burris' problem. The last few weeks his short-handed troops have spent so much time on defense that they have no energy left for offense. He hopes to rectify that by using two complete platoons, although he'll suit up only 28 players.

Danny Ferrell, who gained 110 yards against Abilene, but has played mostly on defense the last two weeks, moves back to tailback and offers a running threat to win with (Continued On Page 11A)

Battle Scene

By Ted Battles

What is developing into the most interesting Southwest Conference race in years is beginning to show up at the turnstiles, proving that a few victories can cure many of the attendance ills. The lone exception seems to be Southern Methodist University. The Mustangs are 5-1 for the season, yet their gates for home games this fall would seem to reflect a 1-5 year. Virginia Tech drew 13,000 and Oregon 16,000, which perhaps shows the fans are more discerning in shelling out for tickets in economically troubled times.

However, when only 16,000 showed up for the Rice game, there was legitimate cause for concern. By this time, SMU had established a winning pattern and Rice, while victorious, should have been attractive to the same discerning fan who had stayed away from the VPI and Oregon games. The Owls had played ably and nobly against some of the best in the land.

Of course, those crowds wouldn't have been had in on-campus Ownby Stadium, but they were played in the 72,000 seat Cotton Bowl.

However, with Texas Tech coming to Dallas Saturday, some 30,000 are hoped for.

Baylor expects its first 50,000 Waco crowd ever for the first place showdown with Texas A&M Saturday night. The Aggies, of course, have been packing them in at College Station.

Last week Texas and Arkansas played before some empty seats in Austin, a game which usually is Standing Room Only, but both had lost a couple and it had lost some of its lure of recent years.

This week's SWC forecast . . .

Texas Tech 21, SMU 20 — Providing Tommy Duniven is ready.

Texas A&M 25, Baylor 15 — Bears have won three in a row, but Aggies were awesome against Tech and should win.

Texas 28, Rice 7 — Longhorns improving and how many heartbreaks can an Owl survive?

Alabama 28, TCU 6 — Frogs catch Tide at a good spot in the schedule, right after traditional Tennessee, but just don't have the troops to swing an upset.

The others . . .

Oklahoma 35, Kansas State 7 — Sooner varsity may be in civvies by halftime.

Ohio State 50, Northwestern 0 — Buckeyes keep a step ahead of Sooners in the polls.

Michigan 21, Minnesota 7 — Wolverines don't crunch as many bones as the Buckeyes, but they win just as regularly.

Tulane 10, Georgia Tech 7 — This is bucking the odds . . . Green Wave is unbeaten, but hasn't won at Atlanta in 41 years. Why doesn't someone tell me these things, before I pick 'em.

South Carolina 17, North Carolina 14 — I wish I hadn't said that.

In District 5-A . . .

Midland 14, San Angelo 7 — Bulldogs' defense will have to repeat its Permian performance.

Midland Lee 21, Big Spring 7 — Rebels monopolize control of the ball.

Odessa Permian 7, Abilene Cooper 3 — Defense, anyone?

Abilene 28, Odessa 20 — Offense, anyone?

AREA HEADLINER— Crane, McCamey Clash

District 7-AA, 5-A and 6-A begin second week of loop play tonight with McCamey visiting Crane and Stanton traveling to Seagraves in the highlight games.

The McCamey-Crane contest is the feature bout in 7-AA while the Stanton-Seagraves affair tops action in 5-A.

The other 7-AA contest includes league-leading Sonora at Ozona while Shallwater is at Plains in the other 5-A contest.

In District 6-A, Rankin's undefeated Red Devils travel to Balmorhea while Clint hosts Estacado hosts Sweetwater.

Martin Sees Bright Future For Texas

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Controversial Billy Martin, who slapped near-championship life into baseball's worst team, is The Associated Press American League Manager of the Year.

"It's a wonderful honor," said Martin. "The thanks go to the players and the organization. We wanted to win it all but we were a little short. However, our future is very bright."

The Texas Rangers finished just five games behind world champion Oakland in the AL West and actually had the edge in head-to-head meetings, 10-8.

In 1973, the Rangers were 37 games behind Oakland with a 57-105 record. The 1974 record was 84-76.

Fired by Martin's enthusiasm, the Rangers drew 1.2 million fans and major league baseball — instead of just football — was the talk of Dallas-Fort Worth.

"I knew if we gave the area a winner the fans would come out," Martin said. "Look at Baltimore and Oakland. They don't draw even with winners. I always thought baseball would go here."

Martin, when hired by former owner Bob Short last winter, bravely predicted a pennant, and a million in attendance. He was one for two and didn't miss the pennant by much.

"If we had just had a left-handed reliever in the bullpen and another starter, we could have made it," Martin said.

Martin put in the lineup such unknowns as rookies Mike Har- grove and Jim Sundberg. Har- grove finished second among

Billy Martin ... honored by AP vote

AL batters and Sundberg, a off by both former Ranger managers Ted Williams and Whitey Herzog, was a .300 hit- ter.

Ferguson Jenkins, obtained in an off-season trade with the Chicago Cubs, was a 25-game winner.

Texas even had a season edge over the AL Eastern Division winner, Baltimore, by an 8-4 count.

The 46-year-old Martin, noted for his run-ins with management, had a few flareups during the season. He had a disagreement with club president Dr. Bobby Brown over whether pitcher David Clyde should be sent to the minors.

Martin also slapped traveling secretary Burt Hawkins during an argument but later apologized.

AWKWARD, STUMBLE-FOOTED BUM—

Ali 'Praises' Foreman

KINSHASA, Zaire (AP) — Muhammad Ali called George Foreman an awkward, slow-footed bum Thursday, and the world's heavyweight champion responded with a benign smile and a forgiving heart.

"Ali is like a parrot — he keeps saying the same thing over and over again," Foreman said quietly. "But you can't get mad unless somebody says something about you intelligently."

"Personally, I like the fellow. He has made a great contribution to boxing, his family and his religion. He doesn't drink or smoke. He is a fine example for the kids."

Thus the scenario was fixed for what Zairians have tabbed "le super combat du siècle" or "the greatest fight of the century," scheduled in Zaire's soccer stadium at 8 p.m. CDT Oct. 29.

As the two fighters entered the final week of training, the sleek, finely-tuned Ali was full of vim and vinegar and Foreman continued to be as withdrawn as a monk.

The sharp contrast in their approach to the $10 million battle was accentuated in Thursday's workouts.

Ali punched the small and big bags to the accompaniment of three bongo drums, violently beaten by an old friend "Big Black," from Los Angeles. Foreman tuned up the strains of Donna Hathaway's "I Love the Lord" and Aretha Franklin's "You Got a Friend in Jesus."

With the heavy influx of the international press, Ali was at his bombastic best. After whipping through his routines impressively and almost spraining an ankle in a leap from the five-foot ring, the challenger propped himself on the ring's apron and proceeded to let fly.

"Foreman is a big, bad, bulky. He's got the whole world fooled," he said, "especially you white folks. He can't fight. He is awkward and slow and he can't punch."

Ali expressed scorn at Las Vegas odds which have made Foreman anywhere from 3-1 to 2-1 favorite.

"The boxing public are fools," he blurted. "You writers are fools. You don't know nothing about boxing."

Foreman, making one of his rare public appearances in recent weeks, played patty-cake with two sparring partners and appeared to be working well within himself.

"I have a purpose in everything I do," he explained. "I never go into a fight unless I feel I am 100 per cent ready. I feel ready now."

He said he had experienced no trouble with the gash over his left eye which forced a month's postponement of the bout. He added that he didn't think Ali would concentrate on the wound.

Someone asked if he felt he might knock out the challenger. "I would like to," he replied.

Goddard Captures Fifth Straight

Alamo Scarlet, Goddard Red and San Jacinto White took seventh grade football victories Thursday on wet, muddy fields.

Goddard Red won its fifth straight game, 20-0 over San Jacinto Green to keep its record in tact of not having anyone cross its goal line.

Alamo Scarlet took a 12-8 win over Goddard White and San Jacinto White rolled to a 26-0 triumph over Alamo Grey.

BRAVES RIP KNICKS—

Colonels Discipline Spurs

By The Associated Press

You really have to hand it to the Kentucky Colonels. The San Antonio Spurs did Thursday night by not being able to handle the rebounds.

The Colonels controlled the offensive boards and thus controlled the game, beating the Spurs 113-103 in the American Basketball Association.

Due largely to the efforts of Artis Gilmore, the Colonels out-rebounded the Spurs 58-41 and won the battle of rebounds.

In the only other ABA game Thursday night, the Memphis Sounds defeated the Virginia Squires 99-95. In the National Basketball Association, the Philadelphia 76ers defeated the New Orleans Jazz 102-89; the Cleveland Cavaliers downed the Atlanta Hawks 116-97, and the Buffalo Braves ripped the New York Knicks 111-91.

Gilmore, Louis Dampier and Bird Averitt scored 20 points apiece to lead Kentucky's victory, giving the Eastern Division-leading Colonels their fourth straight success this season. San Antonio, leader in the West, dropped to 3-1.

Fred Boyd poured in 35 points and led a second-half surge to bring the 76ers their victory. The game was played in New Orleans before a crowd of 6,450 and was the first home game for the new NBA entry.

Austin Carr scored 25 points and Bobby Smith 22 to lead Cleveland over Atlanta. The Cavs led all the way after the opening moments, usually by margins of 10 or more points.

SAFETY DECIDES IT—

Reb JV Edges Steers

By BOB DILLON

Coach Ernie Johnson's Midland Lee Rebel junior varsity football team pulled out a narrow 8-7 victory over the Big Spring JV Thursday afternoon at the Lee practice field with the difference in the game being a safety in the third period.

Trailing 7-6 in the third quarter, Don Salinas got off a long punt which was fielded at the goal line, but the Lee tacklers dumped the Big Spring player inside his own one to set up the safety on the next play.

James Lundy and Dempsey Stover stormed in to dump the Steer quarterback in his end zone for the safety and the victory.

The game was played on a soggy field with both defensive units standing out in the game.

Lee took a first period lead of 6-0 when Curtis Cormack scored from the five after a 27-yard punt return moved the ball down to the Steer 23. Four plays later, Lee was in business with Cormack gaining eight and four yards and Stover one more. An offside penalty on Big Spring moved the ball to the Steer five where Cormack scored, but a busted play saw Lee miss on the point after.

Big Spring got the ball and with the Steers owning the pigskin at their own 25, tailback Junior Mathews fired a halfback pass down field to Mike Harris for a 75-yard pass and run TD. Harris also booted the PAT to give Big Spring a 7-6 lead.

Just before the end of the first half, Lee had a touchdown called back on a 15-yard penalty. Quarterback Brad Wright hit end John Lowrey with a perfect 12-yard TD strike, but it was wiped out by the penalty for holding.

Billy Skinner, Salinas and Robert Ochsner recovered fumbles for the Rebs in the second half, but Lee was unable to take advantage of the miscues.

Late in the game, Lee moved down to the Steer 24, but a fumble turned the hosts away from the goal line. Wright hit Ochsner with a 16-yard strike and Lowrey made a circus catch of aerial from Wright, but Lee didn't cash in.

Big Spring drew some anxious moments from the Lee fans on the sidelines when the quarterback hit Harris with a 33-yard pass. Harris took a chapter from Lowrey's book with a great catch off the hip and almost got loose down the Eastern sideline.

With 10 seconds left in the game, the Steers tried a long desperation pass which was picked off by Lee's Cormack as the game ended.

Lee is now 4-3 on the year and faces the Odessa Permian junior varsity at 7 p.m. next Thursday at the Permian field in its next outing.

Big Spring, meanwhile, is 1-4 on the year after the loss.

Sedgman Rules Tennis Choice

Top-Seeded Frank Sedgman, well on his way to sacking up the first Grand Masters Tour title, faces Gardner Mulloy today in one of four first-round singles matches scheduled for the Racquet Club in the Midland chapter of the Grand Masters.

Play was scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. and other matches sent Tom Brown against Sven Davidson, Hugh Stewart against Vic Seixas and Frank Parker met Torben Ulrich, the No. 2 seed.

Singles and doubles matches are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday with play to begin at 1:30 p.m. A free-of-charge tennis instruction clinic will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Racquet Club.

Sedgman, 45, is the current United States Senior Clay Court champion and his past credits include the U.S. singles title in 1951-52, Wimbledon 1952, Australian singles title in 1949-50 plus 14 major doubles titles. He also was a member of three winning Australian Davis Cup teams.

In Mulloy, Sedgman will be facing a National Hall of Famer, who at 59 is considered by many as the finest athlete of his age in the world. Mulloy has won eight senior championships.

Parker, 57, ranked in the top 10 of the U.S. during one consecutive 17-year stretch, meets Ulrich, 45, who has defeated virtually every top player in tennis, including Arthur Ashe, Rod Laver and John Newcombe.

Davidson, 45, was voted the "best player ever" in Sweden and meets Tom Brown, 51, a San Francisco attorney. Brown has always been one of the hardest hitters in tennis and plays from the back court. He is noted for his great running forehand.

Hugh Stewart, 45, is considered a better player now than he was in his youth, in many respects. His achievements include the 1952 Intercollegiate singles and doubles titles, Irish and Monte Carlo singles and doubles titles and Berlin singles and doubles titles. His opponent, is Seixas, a 50-year-old stock broker from Villanova, Pa., who has won the Wimbledon and U.S. Davis Cup team twice and earned a niche in the National Lawn Tennis Hall of Fame.

Britton Captures City Golf Crown

Susan Britton broke tradition in the City Women's Golf Championship at Hogan Park Thursday by defeating Georgia Bray, the defending city champ for the past three years.

Mrs. Britton became the first medalist to win championship honors, and she did it with some pretty hot putting. Mrs. Britton posted birdies on six and seven and a par on eight but her six-up at the turn. Three consecutive pars by Mrs. Britton finished the match.

In the battle for consolation honors, Midland College's Donna Avery defeated Marion Spears in the first hole of a sudden death playoff. The match had been even since the 17th hole when Mrs. Spears won the hole with a pressure putt. On the first hole of sudden death, Miss Avery put a chip shot to within three feet of the pin and birdied the hole to win the match.

In the first flight, Retha Peterson defeated Midland College's Ann Wheeler for championship honors while Ella Heath won the consolation prize by defeating Nina Colter, 3-2.

Velma Price defeated Mattie Chenoweth, 1-up, to win the second flight while Jane Long took the consolation with a 1-up victory over Jane Wyant.

Edith Stahl won the third flight with a 2-1 margin over March Davis and Alice Bullard took consolation honors with a 5-4 victory over Jane Wagner.

The fourth flight went to Carol Walker with a 4-3 win over Thelma Johnston while Meria Ketner defeated Dorothy Melzer for the consolation trophy.

In the fifth flight, Margaret McCleskey defeated Wanda Wieland, 2-1, to take top honors while the consolation went to Lynn Nicholas with a 19-hole win over Nell Kimball.

Earline Wright, March Davis and Donna Avery were awarded golf balls for winning the longest matches of the three days.

In the Jimmy Gamewell flight, Mary Mims took top honors by shooting a net 32 on the damp back nine at Hogan.

FOR BRUINS— Sixth Skater Magic Works

The Boston Bruins are doing weird things in a wacky, struggling start in the National Hockey League.

What are the odds on a team pulling a goalie in favor of a sixth skater in the final minute and getting a tie? What about twice in a season? Make that, what about twice within 24 hours?

With a four-game unbeaten string, but only a 2-2-3 record, the Bruins have pulled off hockey's version of an "impossible dream" with ties on sixth skater advantage twice in a row.

With a four-game unbeaten string, but only a 2-2-3 record, the Bruins have pulled off hockey's version of an "impossible dream" with ties on sixth skater advantage twice in a row.

Boston, which earned a 5-5 deadlock in Pittsburgh on Carol Vadnais' goal with 32 seconds remaining Wednesday, did it again Thursday night, gaining a 4-4 tie with the frustrated St. Louis Blues on Bobby Orr's tally with 34 seconds left.

In the only other NHL game Thursday night, Los Angeles best Buffalo 7-2. In the only World Hockey Association game, Minnesota downed Indianapolis 3-2 and San Diego defeated Phoenix 2-1.

"I'm going to be old before my time," said Boston's first-year coach Don Cherry, only 40, after Orr's 35-foot backhander spoiled a brilliant effort by St. Louis goalie John Davidson.

The Bruins had a 47-24 advantage in shots on goal, but had to rally from a 2-0 first period deficit. And two Boston goals, by Ken Hodge and Phil Esposito, were on power plays.

"There's nothing wrong with the system," Cherry said. "We had 89 shots in two nights, but we didn't put it in. Two nights in a row we've pulled the goalie and scored. Wow! How many times do you see that?"

In the highest scoring game of the season for Los Angeles, Don Kozak tallied three goals and assisted on two others for the Kings while teammate Whitley Widing chipped in another pair of goals.

The Kings, 4-1-3, in first place in the NHL's Division 3, held off Buffalo, 3-3-1, the Division 4 leader, while the Sabres fired 55 shots on goal against 31 for the winners.

Swimmers Pick Six Directors

The City of Midland Swim Team elected six members to its board of directors Thursday night.

Elected to three-year terms are John Seay, John Lauderdale, John Tyler and Dr. Charles Lambeth.

New two-year members are Mrs. Deen Williams and Al Beatty.

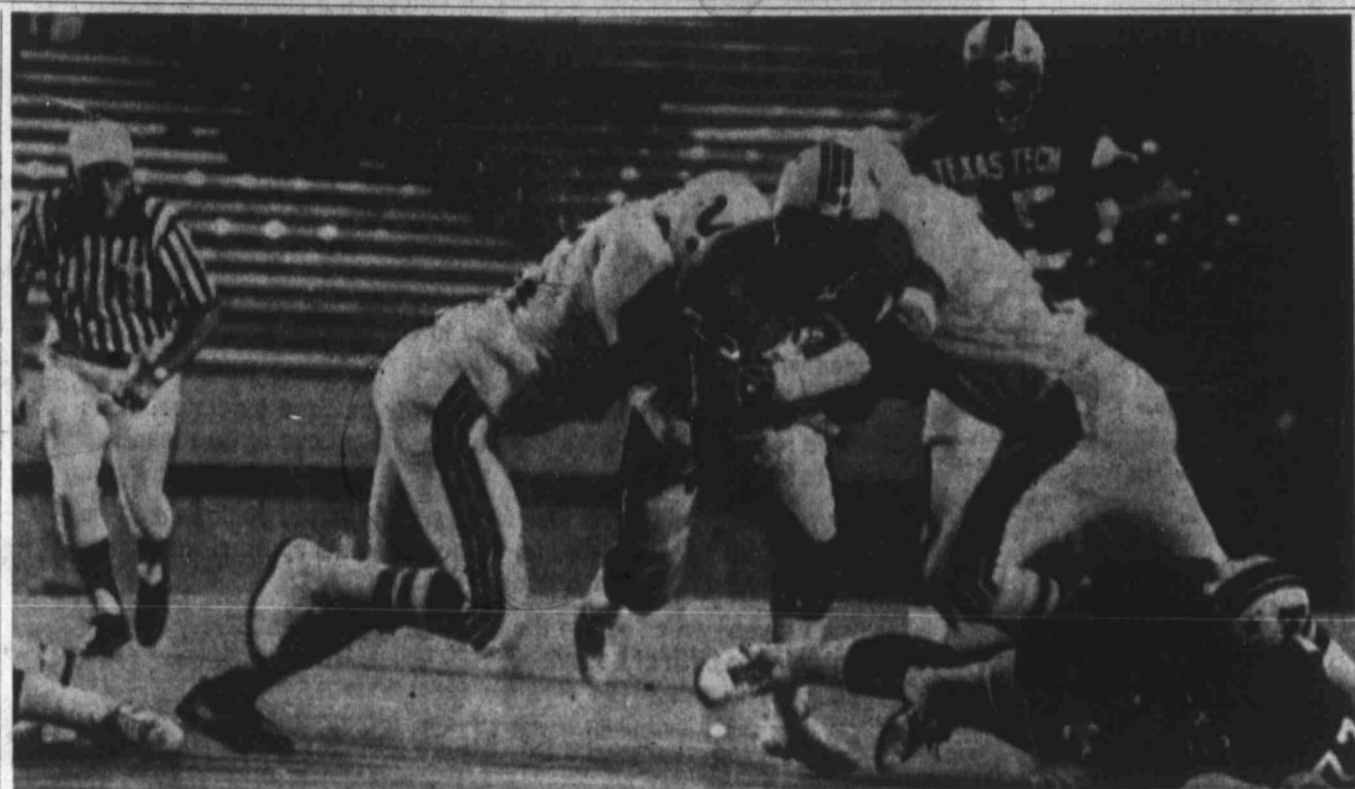

Hold-over directors include Charles Cook, board president; Bob Carrens, Jim Imber, Dave Rathjen, Joe Solari and Wayne Evitt.

Mrs. Bill Murrah, recently elected president of the City of Midland Swim Team Mothers Club, also will serve as a member of the board.

Other Mothers Club officers include Mrs. Al Beatty, first vice president; Mrs. Josie Birdwell, second vice president and Mrs. Sharon Seay, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Merf Cerf and Mrs. Jo Stewart will head the hospitality committee, Mrs. Pat Snook the Telephone Committee and Mrs. Carol Harvard, publicity.

Other committee chairmen include Mrs. Helen Imber and Mrs. Ann Swendig, welcome; Mrs. Judy Hubbard, courtesy; Mrs. Shirley Mayes and Mrs. Jerry Cappadona, transportation, and Mrs. Barbara Evitt, stamps and coupons.

YE OLDE SQUEEZE PLAY— Texas Tech's Rufus Myers, 32, has just taken a handoff from quarterback Tommy Duniven and took off for wide open spaces when two Arizona players closed the gap in a hurry. Crummy Games Mark Slate

No Tests For Poll Leaders

NEW YORK (AP)—The game is called football. Say it over and over again. The game is called football. Memorize it.

And remember it Saturday when: —No. 1 Ohio State meets Northwestern. —No. 2 Oklahoma meets Kansas State. —No. 3 Michigan meets Minnesota.

—No. 4 Alabama meets Texas Christian.

And if it doesn't look like football when it's all over, also remember that it would be an understatement to say the first four teams in the Top Ten are heavily favored.

Ohio State, 6-0 and nursing a 17-game unbeaten string, is led by Archie Griffin, who probably will match a national college rushing record by gaining more than 100 yards in his 17th consecutive game against the 15 Wildcats.

Complementing even rivaling, Griffin is Buckeye quarterback Cornelius Greene, who leads the Big Ten in passing, total offense and scoring.

In the Big Eight, Oklahoma, 5-0, is a five-touchdown favorite over Kansas State, and Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer hasn't even bothered to examine Wildcat game films. That's how worried he is.

The Michigan-Minnesota game is a rivalry that dates back to 1909 when the battle for the Little Brown Jug began. Michigan has won the past six meetings in the Big Ten series and will be protecting a 32-game unbeaten streak at home.

The Wolverines, 6-0, lead the conference in defense and will have the job of containing Gopher fullback Rick Upchurch, who anchors a Minnesota team that's second in conference rushing behind Ohio State.

Alabama, 6-0, is an overwhelming favorite over TCU, despite some quarterback problems. Robert Fraley and Jack O'Rear filled in for Gary Rutledge and Richard Todd, both injured, in last week's 28-6 victory over Tennessee. Todd may see some action this week.

In other contests involving ranked teams it's Oklahoma State at No. 9 Nebraska, Florida State at No. 5 Auburn; Oregon State at No. 6 Southern Cal, Miami of Florida at No. 7 Notre Dame, No. 10 Penn State at West Virginia, No. 11 Texas Tech at Southern Methodist, Duke at No. 12 Florida, No. 17 North Carolina State at No. 15 Maryland, Brigham Young at No. 16 Arizona, No. 18 Tulane at Georgia Tech, and No. 19 Miami of Ohio at Toledo.

In night games, No. 8 Texas A&M is at Baylor, No. 13 Texas plays Rice, and New Mexico is at No. 14 Arizona State.

Oklahoma State Coach Jim Stanley says his Cowboys "will have to give a super effort to have a chance to win," but Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne rates the two teams as very even.

Auburn, 6-0, meets a Seminole team that has lost 18 straight, but Tigers' Coach Shug Jordan says, "We certainly can recognize that Florida State has improved."

Pastors Sometimes Get Involved With 'Other Woman'

By GEORGE CORNELL
NEW YORK (AP) — Protestant pastors, most of whom are married, in some instances get entangled in an age-old, personal predicament — the problem of the "other woman."

It is "a major problem that confronts pastors in every denomination," says the Rev. Andrew Bustanoby, a former Baptist pastor and now a marriage counselor in Bowie, Md.

Church authorities cite a special potentiality for such situations in the ministry, with its duties of visiting, counseling and encouraging members at deeply felt, private levels.

Also, in most congregations there are women, lonely and wanting companionship, who seek the pastor's personal advice and guidance. Sometimes, often unintentionally and almost by accident, his efforts to sympathize and be helpful develop into an affair.

The subject, its hazards and ways to avoid them, generally is included to varying extents in seminary training.

"Every pastoral ministry course in seminary includes a lecture on the pastor's relations with women in the church," the Rev. Mr. Bustanoby writes in the evangelical fortnightly, Christianity Today.

However, he says an aspect of the problem not dealt with adequately is "the pastor's need for what the other woman has to offer. Men are attracted to the ministry not only for spiritual reasons, but also for the emotional fulfillment it offers."

He maintains that ministers most likely to get involved with women in their churches are what psychologists have classified as "maladaptive 'top-dog' personalities." To screen them out, he proposed greater use of psychological testing in seminars.

He says the "minister who errs sexually does not start out with sexual encounter on his mind" but to "build his ego on the admiration of all people in his congregation — men, women and children."

"The women of the congregation provide ego satisfaction for his doubts about his masculinity. These doubts are allayed by messages from the women that he is an attractive male. He then finds himself with the opportunity to check out these messages more fully."

However, "the bait is not sex," the Rev. Mr. Bustanoby says. "The bait is ego satisfaction, a normal human need; this leads to an opportunity for sexual involvement."

Winter Youth Meetings To Be Held Dec. 28-31

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The annual Winter Youth Celebrations for high school sophomores, juniors and seniors this year will be held Dec. 28-31 at Baptist conference centers at Glorieta, N.M., and Ridgecrest, N.C.

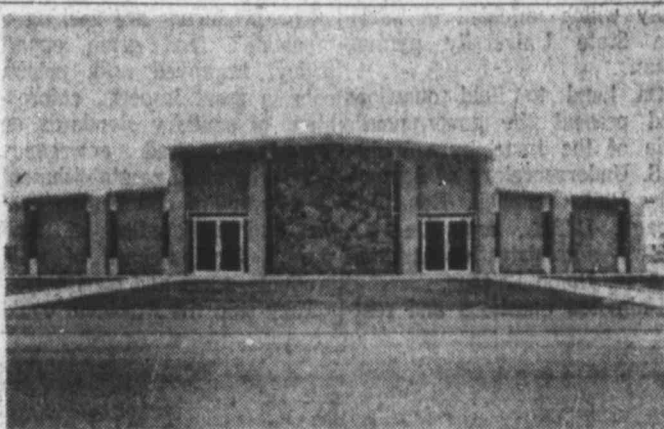

"Bright New Wings" is the 1974 theme for the celebrations, held during the Christmas holidays each year.

Registration will be limited to 1,000 students at Glorieta and 900 at Ridgecrest.

Individual conferences to be offered are titled "Sharing Faith Expectantly," "Considering Christian Vocations," "Creative Writing" and "Drama, Music and Art Workshops." In addition, a leadership conference will be offered adults who attend as youth counselors. One adult counselor of the same sex must accompany each eight students.

A $40 fee covers registration, program expenses, insurance, lodging, meals and a packet of celebrative materials. To register, persons should send $40 for each student to: Winter Youth Celebrations, Ridgecrest Baptist Conference Center, P.O. Box 126, Ridgecrest, N.C. 28770; or Winter Youth Celebrations, Glorieta Baptist Conference Center, P.O. Box 8, Glorieta, N.M. 87535.

Church Of God Sets Dedication Sunday

The Midland Church of God will dedicate its new building at 5300 Thomason Drive in special services at 2:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Rev. Gene Rice, Texas superintendent of the Churches of God, will be guest speaker for a dedicatory service during the regular 11 a.m. worship hour.

The Church of God conducted its first services here in a tent, shortly before moving into a building at 200 S. Dallas St. in April 1947. The congregation moved to 1508 S. Main St. after its original church was destroyed by fire in 1964. The Main Street church was sold last year and construction began at the new site.

The new church structure consists of a 200-seat auditorium, classrooms, a fellowship hall, church nursery, pastor's study and a secretary's office. The entire structure is equipped with refrigerated air conditioning and central heat.

A youth hall is planned in the future.

The Rev. Don Stovall, pastor, said the public is invited to the services Sunday.

Searchlighters To Sing In Two Midland Churches

The Searchlighters, outstanding gospel singing trio, will present concerts in two Midland churches Sunday.

The ensemble will be heard in concert Sunday morning at the Northside Baptist Church, 303 E. Shandon St., and Sunday evening at the Gardens Assembly of God, 2901 W. Kansas St. at the Andrews Highway. Both events will be open to the public.

The Sunday morning concert at Northside Church is scheduled for 11 o'clock, while the evening program at Gardens Assembly will begin at 7 p.m.

Wherever they go, the Searchlighters share the excitement of knowing Jesus Christ. Members of the ensemble sing gospel music from the heart because they sing it from personal experience.

Singer Dennis Bankston, started working in nightclubs in Hawaii while in the U.S. Marines. He met Patti, another nightclub entertainer, in Hawaii. The two were married and there followed several years of alcoholism and drug addiction, and their marriage deteriorated to the point where the couple remaining together only because of their children. Skydiver Fred Heyenbruch

Champion Skydiver Sets Demonstration

Champion skydiver Fred Heyenbruch will demonstrate his free-fall and parachute techniques Sunday morning at Kelview Heights Baptist Church, 407 W. Alta St.

Heyenbruch has demonstrated the prowess as a skydiver which has won him national championships at many churches across the nation since his conversion to Christ in 1966. He is also a free-fall photographer, having filmed dramatic mid-air sequences. He has appeared on such nationally-televized shows as "First Tuesday" and "Wide World of Sports."

Heyenbruch's parachutes carry the message, "Jesus Saves, Yes Even You."

The Rev. Frank Johnson, pastor of Kelview Heights Church, has invited the public to attend the 10 a.m. Sunday service to hear the parachutist and witness his skydiving demonstration. Kelview Heights Church is located just west of North Big Spring Street near Scharbauer Drive.

Nazarene Youth Staging Paper Pickup Tonight

Young people of Midland's First Church of the Nazarene will be staging a paper pickup tonight.

The youths have been engaged in a campaign to collect newspapers, magazines and other waste paper as a fund-raising project for the last several weeks. Persons with paper to donate to the drive are invited to telephone Mrs. Fisher at 694-2625 or Mrs. Baxter at 694-3359, to arrange to have their addresses listed on the collection route tonight. The collection will be made between 6:30 and 9:30 p.m., it was announced.

Midland Area Nazarene Pastors To Attend Meeting

SAN ANTONIO — Nazarene pastors from the Midland area are scheduled to participate in an annual preachers' conference of the San Antonio district of the Church of the Nazarene, beginning Monday and continuing until Wednesday. The conference will be held in the Quality Inn at Laredo.

Most of the 61 Nazarene churches on the district will be represented, said District Superintendent C. Marselle Knight of San Antonio.

Guests speaker for the conference will be Dr. John L. Knight. The conference will combine the spiritual values of a retreat with necessary organizational planning.

Revival Begins Here Next Week With Polluck Fete

Preparations are under way at West Kentucky Avenue Baptist Chapel for a New Life Crusade which will begin a week from today.

The Rev. B. A. "Buck" Rogers, pastor, will be the evangelist for the revival which will be initiated with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. next Friday. Another highlight of the crusade will be three special showings of the motion picture, "The Cross and the Switchblade," on Saturday night, Nov. 2. Mr. Rogers said the screenings will be presented at 7, 8:15 and 9:30 p.m. that day to accommodate the expected crowds.

Mr. Rogers will be in the pulpit this Sunday for services which begin at 10:35 a.m. and 7 p.m. Transportation to the services is available to persons who need it; they may telephone 694-6237 or 682-4672 before 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday to arrange for rides.

In addition to sermons by Mr. Rogers, the New Life Crusade will have Raymond Waugh as song leader and director of music. Waugh recently moved to Midland from San Antonio. He is a member of the professional staff of the Texas Department of Public Welfare here.

Revival Services Scheduled Here

South Memorial Baptist Church, 1700 W. Carter St., will hold revival services all next week.

Midland-based evangelist Dave Craddock, who has conducted revivals and crusades throughout the Southwest and abroad, will be the preacher for the special services. Jimmy Stovall Jr. will be the music director.

Services on Sunday will begin at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., while weekday events are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. The church nursery will be open during all services and the public is invited to attend, said the Rev. J. W. Stovall, host pastor.

Form Of Flag

The town of Lyallpur, West Pakistan, former province of Great Britain, is laid out in the form of the British flag, the Union Jack.

Dave Craddock

Mrs. Hinds To Speak At Unitarian Service

Mrs. Artis Hinds will be a guest of the Unitarian Church of Midland Sunday morning when she presents a program on "Literature of the Supernatural." The 10:45 a.m.

Foster To Lead Series Of Gospel Services In City

Evangelist Ben Foster of Terrell will be the preacher in a series of gospel services next week at the Fort Worth and Jax Streets Church of Christ.

The revival emphasis will begin Sunday and continue through Wednesday, said Bryan Bost, minister of the congregation. The initial services will be at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday, followed by services at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The public has been invited by Mr. Bost to attend any or all the events.

The guest speaker, a native of Arkansas, was educated at the University of Arkansas, Southwestern Christian College at Terrell and Abilene Christian College. Currently, he is working toward a doctorate at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. He has served three years as an instructor of Bible and religious education at Southwestern Christian College and also is minister of the Eastside Church of Christ at Hawkins.

Riddle To Be Installed At First Presbyterian

Dr. F. Ray Riddle, who moved here recently from Memphis, Tenn., will be installed as minister of pastoral care and family life of the First Presbyterian Church in a special service at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the church's sanctuary.

A commission representing the Presbytery of Tres Rios will be in charge of the service.

The Rev. Frank Seaman, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Odessa, will preach the sermon, on the subject, "Churchless Christianity."

Henry Meadows, a ruling elder of the host church, will charge the minister, and Dr. Shirley Guthrie Sr. of Big Spring, a retired minister, will charge the congregation.

The Rev. Robert Boynton Smith, pastor of First Church, will preside and propound the constitutional questions to both the minister-elect and the congregation.

Dr. Joe Brown, pastor of Odessa's First Church, will voice the installation prayer.

Mrs. Mable Franz of Midland, immediate past moderator of the presbytery, will introduce Dr. Riddle.

H. L. Hagler, a ruling elder of Midland's Trinity Presbyterian Church, will read the Scripture.

Following the service, Dr. and Mrs. Riddle will be honored at a reception to be held in the church fellowship hall.

'Sunday Evening Academy' To End

The series of "Sunday Evening Academy" sessions underway here during the past month will conclude with a session this coming Sunday night at St. Luke's United Methodist Church, 3011 W. Kansas St. It will be open to the public.

Participating with St. Luke's in the sessions are Covenant Presbyterian and St. Nicholas' Episcopal churches.

The current series has dealt with death and the Christian attitude toward it, with each Sunday session devoted to some aspect or implication of death. Topic for the final session at 7 p.m. Sunday will be "Health and Physical Maintenance." Included in the study and discussion will be the matter of gifts of the body for research and for prolonging life for others.

Panelists for the session will include Midland physicians Dr. Robert E. Johnston and Dr. Arnold Meckley, and attorney James Boldrick. C. C. Dakil of Midland College will be the moderator. Ministers of the three participating churches

President Sets Meeting With Cattlemen, Dairy Farmers Next Week

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — President Gerald Ford will meet with cattlemen and dairy farmers next week to discuss their problems and seek possible solutions, according to U.S. Rep. Bob Price, R-Tex. Price, of Pampa, made the announcement Thursday in Amarillo when he said he had been told by Ford to draw up a list of about one dozen cattlemen from several states to meet with Ford at the White House next Wednesday. Price He added that Ford has indicated he wants a cross-section of livestock feeders and ranchers for the meeting.

about the problems of the cattlemen." He said the food producers "don't want a handout, but they want a hand in what affects their livelihood."

Demos In Congress Villains In Economic Woes, Ford Says

CHICAGO (AP) — President Ford has finally come right out and said it: big spenders are responsible for the country's inflation woes and the "villains" are the Democrats in Congress.

In a string of campaign appearances Thursday on behalf of struggling Republican candidates, the President accused Democrats of ruining the economy with four decades of reckless spending and of now threatening foreign policy.

Many Villains
"There are many villains," Ford told a $250 per plate fund of a bipartisan foreign policy raising dinner here. "But the biggest burden of guilt lies on the shoulders of the biggest spenders."

"And the fact is that one political party has run the Congress — and held open the nation's purse strings — for 38 of the last 42 years, and for the past straight 20 years."

"That party is the Democratic party, and we cannot allow it to drive the budget deeper into the red and the rate of inflation higher into the blue."

Man, 70, Fighting To Keep Post With Social Security

MIAMI (AP) — "When I turned 70 I didn't go out looking for a rocking chair," says Judge Nathan Wernick. And he says he won't let the government put one under him without a fight.

Wernick, who turned 70 Sept. 25, has filed suit in U.S. District Court to keep his job as a Social Security administrative law judge.

The outcome could have widespread effect because he's challenging the constitutionality of a federal law that requires mandatory retirement of almost all federal employees at age 70. Supreme Court justices are exempted.

"I want to get up in the morning and know I have a job," said Wernick, who balks at being called elderly. "I want to live a long time without getting old. As long as there's people older than I am, I'm young."

He has obtained a temporary restraining order allowing him to stay on the bench, but no hearing date on his suit has yet been set.

Wernick works eight hours a day, five days a week, presiding over Social Security hearings.

"I don't see any slow down in my productivity," he said. "Frankly, I think I'm far better now with all my experience. I don't feel a day older than I did 20 years ago."

Wernick's immediate superior, Judge Morris Jacobson, described Wernick as "alert, judicious and a man who makes good decisions."

"He is probably one of the better administrative law judges in the country. I base that on the quantity of his caseload and the quality of his decisions."

Wernick earned his law degree in New York. He has been an administrative law judge since 1966 in Puerto Rico, Tampa and Miami.

"It's a good job," he said. "I enjoy contact with people, making decisions, reasoning them out, writing them."

"I think I'm doing something worthwhile. And I think I have a chance to keep being a judge."

Mexicans Hit Echeverria's Tax Proposal

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A tax and the government won't be affected. All of the burden will be passed on to consumers," a door-to-door salesman, Ramon Arellano, said.

"I'm afraid I'll have to cut down on surplus spending from now on. No more clothes, no more movies, no more good food, no more expensive things," sadly commented Maria Antonietta Garcia, 23, an executive secretary in a downtown Mexico City airline office.

Plan Unveiled
Mexican Finance Minister Jose Lopez Portillo unveiled the bill at a news conference. He said the tax revenues would be used to further develop Mexico's new oil finds in the southern states of Tabasco and Chiapas, where reserves reportedly exceed 20 billion barrels.

New Tariffs Proposed
The taxes also included stiff new tariffs on water and the sale of homes and cars and a new income tax for persons making more than $40,000 a year.

"All of this means higher prices for the little people, because big business companies

Complaints Aired
Meanwhile Central Texas cattlemen met here Thursday and aired their complaints before government officials and congressmen.

Rally Unfolded
Some 2,000 of them turned out for that purpose Thursday, ignoring a downpour to hear and be heard in an afternoon rally which unfolded in Tarleton State University gymnasium.

On hand to field questions and present the government's side of the issue were White, U.S. Undersecretary of Agriculture Phil Campbell, Rep. Bob Poage, D-Tex., and Regan Brown, administrative assistant to Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Plan Announced
James Traweck, president of the sponsoring Cross Timbers Milk and Beef Producers Association, led off the session by announcing a seven-point plan which he intends to deliver personally to President Ford.

The producers are seeking a "feasible" feed grain export policy, improved milk prices, cuts in meat imports, enforcement of sanitary standards on imports, revised emergency loan programs, reestablishment of commodity distribution center and designation of food stamps for purchase of milk products, meat and eggs only.

Racial Fighting Erupts At Carolina High School

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Racial fighting erupted at a high school here about four hours before Boston pupils observing school desegregation were to start home.

Principal H. L. Hawkins said he did not know what caused the fighting Thursday at Independence High School but he was checking a report from a teacher that some drugs were stolen from a pupil the day before.

It was the first racial fighting this year at Independence. Similar violence broke out last week at Olympic High.

The Olympic incident caused an official of the Boston School Committee to say Charlotte was not a good model for studying desegregation. Symbolically, the committee recalled the delegation of two white and two black pupils and their adult chaperone. It told them to come home Thursday, although they were to have done so anyway after a visit of two and one-half days at the invitation of West Charlotte High pupils.

West Charlotte, a formerly all-black school, is now 60 per cent white.

The fighting at Independence High broke out before classes were to start. A white youth was taken to a hospital with an eye injury. Four other pupils suffered injuries not requiring hospital treatment. Authorities said a teacher was assaulted but not injured.

Nine black pupils and one white were arrested. Police said charges against them included carrying concealed weapons, assault and disorderly conduct.

Independence High has 2,200 pupils, 30 per cent of them black.

Hawkins said, "We had only 20 to 25 students at the most involved in the fighting. Most of the others quickly congregated in the mall areas, where the fighting started, and in the parking lot. But they were dispersed as the police arrived."

Former Wheelchair Patient Gives Birth To Girl Quads

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Sheila Hansen, who made frequent childhood appearances for the March of Dimes, gave birth to identical quadruplet daughters Thursday night.

Attendants reported there were no complications and mother and babies, all four placed in incubators, were doing well today.

Mrs. Hansen, 28, went to the delivery room at Southwest Texas Methodist Hospital at 11 p.m. and the first infant was born 21 minutes later. The last arrived at 11:37 p.m.

The quadruplets, in order of arrival, were four pounds, 12½ ounces in weight and 18 inches long; four pounds, two ounces and 17½ inches, four pounds 10 ounces and 17 inches, and three pounds, 10 ounces and 17¼ inches.

Mrs. Hansen and her husband Alton, 30, have two other daughters, 5 and 7.

Attendants said the infants were delivered after eight months and one day of gestation.

Mrs. Hansen was unable to walk as a child at Denison, Tex., for about 10 years but now gets around without trouble.

Her husband, a wholesale liquor salesman, smiled expansively in telling about the new additions to his family. He held up four fingers and beamed, "Four broads!"

Building Slowdown To Increase Rents

HOUSTON (AP) — A housing industry official says a virtual standstill in building will cause apartment rents to increase 25 per cent in the next 12 to 18 months.

Allen Narmore, executive vice president of the Houston Apartment Association, said Thursday this will bring about a severe shortage in housing units.

As current leases expire, Narmore said he expects current average rental rates of 22 to 23 cents a square foot in the Houston area to jump to 28 to 29 cents.

For an average one-bedroom apartment, this would mean a rent increase from around $170 a month to $215 a month.

Kent State Trial In Long Recess

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A jury of four women and eight men has been seated for the trial of the former Ohio National Guardsmen charged in the 1970 Kent State shootings.

U.S. District Court Judge Frank J. Battisti recessed the trial Thursday after six alternate jurors were seated. Because of the Veteran's Day holiday, the trial will not resume until Tuesday.

Order Of Arrow Meel Set Sunday

The Buffalo Trail Council's annual Order of The Arrow meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Midland Lutheran Church.

Lodge officer candidates for 1975 will be selected, and plans will be made for the annual Order of The Arrow Banquet which will be held in November.

The Chaparral District of the council, with headquarters in Midland, will host the Sunday meeting.

Major Oil Firms Continue Reports Of Higher Profits

NEW YORK (AP) — Two more major oil firms have posted hefty profit increases in the third quarter and the first nine months of 1974. Tenneco Co. says its earnings already exceed last year's net income.

Tenneco Chairman N. W. Freeman said in Houston Thursday that "right now, we are in our strongest financial position ever."

In comparisons of the recently ended third quarter with the same period a year ago, Texaco Inc. reported an approximate profit increase of 23 per cent. Atlantic Richfield Co. said sales rose 140.8 per cent.

Analysts say this week's reports from major oil firms of increased earnings reflect high crude oil prices and strong profit margins for petrochemical sales.

Profits went up during the third quarter for: Conoco, 122 per cent; Sohio, 107 per cent; Phillips Petroleum, 103 per cent; Pennzoil, 80 per cent; Cities Service Co., 75 per cent; and Exxon, 25 per cent.

4-H's Postpone Closed Horse Show

GM Plans Layoffs Of 6,000 Workers

DETROIT (AP) — About 6,000 workers at four General Motors plants are being laid off because of decreasing auto sales, according to a company spokesman.

The spokesman said Thursday that GM is dropping second-shift production at three plants and is slowing the assembly line at a fourth.

It is the first time in recent history that layoffs have come so early in the model year.

GM revised its 1975 model year industry sales estimate down from 10 million to 9.5 million cars and is adjusting production accordingly, the spokesman said.

He said on Nov. 11 GM will lay off indefinitely 1,500 workers at Leeds, Mo.; 2,000 at Tarrytown, N.Y.; and 1,650 at Van Nuys, Calif. On Dec. 2, 700 employ layoffs at Willow Run, Mich., will slow down assembly lines from 70 to 60 cars per hour on each of the two shifts.

A GM spokesman said poor auto sales forced the cutbacks, citing large unsold inventories of compact model cars affected in the production cutbacks.

Chrysler Corp., which said earlier this week it lost $8 million in the third quarter of this year, is considering closing its Jefferson Avenue plant in Detroit because of lagging sales. The move would affect about 5,000 workers.

Ford Motor Co. also said it is assessing its situation in light of the industrywide sales slowdown.

Area Toastmasters To Meet Saturday

Toastmasters from Midland and Big Spring will meet Saturday in two sessions for the group's fall area conference, marking an end to this week's 50th anniversary of Toastmasters.

The conference theme is "Tools Available to Shape My Individual Toastmaster Career."

The morning session, scheduled from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the community room of Commercial Bank and Trust Co., will include an educational session and evaluation contest.

The group's second meeting will be a covered dish supper beginning at 7 p.m. at St. Nicholas' Episcopal Church. A humorous speech contest is planned, and trophies will be awarded for that event and the morning's evaluation contest.

Former Gangster Helping Hunt For Patricia Hearst

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former gangster Mickey Cohen, enlisted by Randolph A. and Catherine Hearst to find their kidnaped daughter, says he knew where she was 19 days ago but doesn't know where she is now.

In separate interviews Thursday with NBC-TV and San Francisco television reporter Marilyn Baker, Cohen said he used his own money and various contacts — some of them members or sympathizers of the Symbionese Liberation Army — to trace SLA members William and Emily Harris and 20-year-old Patty Hearst.

Cohen, who said he began the quest as a personal favor to the Hearst family, refused to say where Miss Hearst was when he located her except that she was not in California.

He added that he never saw the girl himself. "I couldn't my parole board won't let me go anywhere," he said.

He also said she has since moved and that he didn't tell anyone where she was. Broad-cast reports that Miss Hearst might be in Canada did not come from him, he said. The FBI and the Canadian Mounted Police said they had information on reports that she had been located in Canada or near force.

She was later charged with violating the federal firearms laws and bank robbery and by the State of California with kidnapping.

The Chicago Tribune reported that Cohen offered to try to kidnap Miss Hearst and return her to her parents.

In the KPIX-TV interview with Marilyn Baker, Cohen said it might take violence to free anyone where she was.

"The people I had been in contact with related to me that Patty Hearst may have to be brought out the same way that she was brought in. She may have to be brought out by force."

He will lead the nationwide Committee on College Science Teaching for the current academic year and remain on the committee for the 1975-76 year. He also was invited to serve on the Committee on International Activities for 1974-75.

Kurtz will attend a meeting on national NSTA committees Nov. 14-16 in Washington, D.C.

Kurtz is professor and chairman of life science at UTPB.

Lee High Teacher To Preside At Meet

A Lee High School biology and physiology teacher has been named by fellow Texas Science teachers to chair a session at the 21st annual conference for advancement of science teaching.

Billy G. Gilbreath will be present for the conference, scheduled Nov. 7-9 on the Texas A&M University campus. The purpose of the meet is to improve science teaching in Texas.

Young Beef Slated For School Lunches

WASHINGTON (AP) — Meat from young beef animals weighing generally 250 to 500 pounds each will be allowed in hamburger bought for donation to school cafeterias under a new specification announced by the Agriculture Department.

The change is to enable so-called young beef from calves 3 to 9 months old to move into school lunch purchases and help take up some of the current surplus of those animals now moving to market.

Secretary Of State Calls For Caution In Texas Spending

FORT WORTH (AP) — Secretary of State Mark White says legislators should "exercise extreme caution" in spending the state's anticipated fiscal surplus.

White, speaking Thursday at the 52nd annual conference of the Texas Manufacturers Association, said the surplus for the biennium ending in 1977 is predicted to exceed $1.5 billion.

While saying the "finances of Texas are in better shape than any state government in the nation," White added that the surplus could turn into "an illusion if we do not exercise extreme caution in how it is used."

Sales Tax Collections
The surplus is due primarily to an increase in sales tax collections brought about by higher consumer prices, he said.

Budget Requests Higher
White also said if the legislature were to meet all the spending requests submitted for the next two years, "the biennial budget for the next fiscal year would be $12.0 billion compared with $9.3 billion for the present biennium."

He said, however, that "as time goes on, priorities will be established and some of the requests will fall by the wayside."

"But it is not easy to keep a tight fist on the purse strings when everyone knows a lot of money is available," he said.

"If we are not careful, we can move to a new plateau of state spending and then find a few years from now that we do not have the revenues to sustain what we have begun."

RETURNING TO JUNGLE — Felicitas Barreto, 64, looks at one of the books she wrote about Indian dances in Brazil. Felicitas, who lived for 30 years in the jungles of Brazil and other parts of Latin America, plans to return to the Wayana tribe in northern Brazil and marry its chief, who proposed to her more than two years ago. (AP Wirephoto.)

Artist, Former Dancer Plans Return To Brazilian Jungles

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Felicitas Barreto, 64 and still a blonde, says she is going back to live in the jungle and marry an Indian chief who proposed to her more than two years ago.

"Permanently, I'm going to dive into that lost world," she said in an interview.

An artist and former dancer, Felicitas has been there before — for 30 years in the jungles of Brazil and other parts of Latin America.

She was born near Rio and studied at a fine arts school here. Her early career in classical and folk dancing served as background for writing

"Dances of Brazil," a book published in 1959.

Felicitas said she lived for two years with the Wayana tribe in northern Para State, near the Paru River and the Surinam border. She said the Wayana chief, Aparabe, asked her to marry him and join his other two wives.

But Felicitas returned to Rio nearly two years ago to care for her ailing mother. Her mother died, and Felicitas says she now plans to return and marry Aparabe.

She said marriage among the Wayanas is more to her liking than in the outside world.

"No one gives orders," she said. "Having a wife is not for lust or for work. They are companions, to not be alone. They are friends."

Felicitas said she was married in Rio de Janeiro in 1931 but she couldn't tolerate matrimony and the city with its "lack of air, too much stone."

She said the Wayanas fish and hunt, spending "months and months" outside their villages, traveling in canoes and roaming the forests.

"It is hard, but here it is more disagreeable," she said. "Life is difficult there, but it is preferable."

"It is too monotonous here. It is only for making money, money, money."

Probers Link Telephone Executive's Suicide To Company Irregularities

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Soft-spoken T. O. Gravitt had his future ahead of him as general manager of the Texas operations of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. when he unexpectedly decided to end his life earlier this month.

Now his death and irregularities uncovered in the operation of the giant company in the state are being linked by investigators.

Gravitt, 51, was found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning before disclosure of an internal investigation centered in Southwestern Bell's San Antonio offices, where Gravitt was before he assumed control of state-wide phone operations in Dallas.

Associates here say the phone company was his life. He left San Antonio for Dallas May 1, 1973, quickly when Bell called. Here, he was a Southwestern Bell vice president and general manager of the San Antonio region, which geographically comprises about two-thirds of Texas.

From Dallas, he could have become a vice president at Southwestern Bell headquarters in St. Louis. He might have

Leadership Of Briscoe Draws Fire

By The Associated Press
Republican gubernatorial candidate Jim Granberry says that Gov. Dolph Briscoe is deceiving Texas voters by claiming to offer strong leadership in his re-election campaign.

Speaking at a San Antonio luncheon Thursday, Granberry asserted Briscoe could not provide the leadership to win the needed two-thirds approval vote on any type of Texas Constitution.

"After the convention failed by only three votes, Mr. Briscoe was asked during a news conference if he could have swayed three votes and he replied that he could not ... Mr. Briscoe's advertising campaign is deceptive by claiming leadership in areas where he was an absolute failure," Granberry said.

'New Face, New Energy'
"I'm a new face, a new energy, not a part of the 100-year buddy system we've had."

Briscoe continued to carry out his official duties from his home town of Uvalde, where he is staying during the illness of his mother, Mrs. Dolph Briscoe Sr.

In Fort Worth, Secretary of State Mark White replaced the governor as a speaker before the Texas Manufacturers Association. White told the group that the finances of the state were in better shape than any other state government in the nation because of an anticipated $1.5 billion surplus.

Muniz At Abilene
The Raza Unida Party candidate for governor, Ramsey Muniz, addressed delegates to the Missionary Baptist Church convention at Abilene.

"We want to elect our own politicians and we want to determine our own destinies," Muniz said.

He said his election "will not solve all your problems but the greatest power we have is the voting power."

The office of American Party candidate for governor, Sam McDonnell, announced Thursday that Elizabeth Hardin, a free lance writer from Hillsboro, has been named his state press coordinator.

Fisher Blasts White
Zack Fisher, Republican candidate for agriculture commissioner, said that incumbent Agriculture Commissioner John White, a Democrat, spends too much time criticizing U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz and President Ford instead of dealing with state's agricultural problems.

"Rather than blame Washington, why doesn't Mr. White use the power of his office to get something done in the Lone Star State," Fisher asked.

"Rather than running off to a proposed cattle slaughter to get his picture on tv, why not go to Washington to discuss the problems?"

Retired Frito-Lay Executive Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Funeral services were pending today for William B. Oliver, retired board chairman of Frito-Lay Inc. who died here Thursday.

Oliver, 63, joined the company in 1939 as vice president in charge of sales in Atlanta. In 1961 he moved to Dallas and later was named executive vice president. He was named president of Frito-Lay in 1966 and then board chairman.

Maryland Governor Considered Ahead Of Republican foe

By DAVID GOELLER
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Maryland has been rocked by major kickback scandals in recent years and now investigators are looking at a group of businessmen close to Democratic Gov. Marvin Mandel.

But the 54-year-old Democrat, a career politician who was speaker of the House of Delegates before he became governor, is considered far ahead of Republican Louise Gore in what looms as a good year for incumbents in Maryland elections.

In the state's Senate race, liberal Republican Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr. also is headed for re-election against a woman opponent, Baltimore Councilwoman Barbara A. Mikulski.

Seven congressmen also are favored for new terms. The eighth, Rep. Lawrence W. Hogan, lost the GOP gubernatorial primary after becoming the first Republican on the House Judiciary Committee to call publicly for former President Richard M. Nixon's impeachment.

The election comes a little more than a year after two major Maryland political figures, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew and Baltimore County Executive Dale Anderson, ran afoul of a still-continuing political corruption probe directed by U.S. Atty. George Beall of Baltimore.

First, Anderson, a symbol of suburban machine politics, was indicted on charges of extorting kickbacks from consultants doing business with the county. He was subsequently convicted.

Then, Agnew, Anderson's Republican predecessor, was accused of receiving kickbacks while governor and vice president. He resigned his office and pleaded no contest to a single tax evasion count as the prosecutors released a 40-page account of accusations against him.

Now Beall's office is looking into the activities of long-time Mandel associates and fundraisers Harry W. Rodgers III and W. Dale Hess.

Miss Gore has made little effort to criticize the governor's relationship with them, though volunteers phoned voters saying her election is needed "to clean up corruption in state government."

Nor has she tried to make campaign capital out of Mandel's much-publicized divorce and remarriage.

Instead, the wealthy, 49-year-old national committeewoman and former state senator, credited with introducing Agnew to Nixon, is concentrating on low-key campaigning before coffee klatches and Republican groups.

Credit Union Formed To Cater To Women

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Expanding women's consciousness about money," she said.

Using words like "agony" and "agony" to describe women and their finances, feminist Susan Osborne has set out to lend women money and teach them how to use it, rather than to be intimidated by it.

She and Karen Wynn, both from New Haven, are co-managers of the Connecticut Feminist Federal Credit Union, a cooperative effort.

"Our loan policies are dictated by feminist priorities," Ms. Osborne said in an interview.

'Well-Known Fact'

"Women do not have the same accessibility to money, to credit in the state and the nation," as do men, she said. She agreed that it has never been documented extensively but "it's such a well-known fact among women."

For example, she explained, there was the 54-year-old woman who — with 15 years of employment behind her and an annual gross of about $6,500 — was denied an automobile loan unless her father signed for it. He was 84 years old.

Another Connecticut case, said the 26-year-old money manager who prefers the title Ms., was that of the 26-year-old woman working for a Bridgeport bank. She had completed the bank's management training program and asked to take out a car loan. She was asked to get her father as a cosigner, Ms. Osborne said.

'Got Tiger By Tail'

When she and her coworkers first considered the idea for the project, which she said is the first feminist credit union in the Northeast and the fourth in the country, they surveyed 150 New Haven women.

"Half of them have been turned down for loans or had problems getting loans. Just over 50 said they believed it was because of sex or marital status discrimination," Ms. Osborne said.

"We were agast. It's kind of really apparent that we've got a tiger by the tail. We're referring people to the state Human Rights and Opportunities Commission" but the credit union workers feel "we have to come up with some way to work with this and focus on it."

Although loans will be available to individuals for traditional purposes — like education, cars, homes — "we are trying to make money accessible to women's projects that have difficulty getting money."

Besides the savings and lending operations, Ms. Osborne predicts that the credit union will enter areas like counseling, bill counseling and bill consolidation.

"Most women are agog when given large sums of money. We're really interested also in

Carbohydrates Stimulate Brain

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Chances are, if you have a sweet tooth, you're not so dumb! Researchers at Massachusetts Institute of Technology here have discovered that carbohydrates stimulate brain activity and that an intake of protein blocks chemicals that activate the brain.

Dr. Richard J. Wurtman and John D. Fernstrom, Ph.D., say the key is a chemical called serotonin that acts as a messenger between neurons, or information transmitter cells in the brain.

These scientists say the brain can sense metabolism and blood chemistry changes. The researchers found a high-carbohydrate diet increases the secretion of insulin from the pancreas and results in raising the level of tryptophan, an amino acid in the blood. (Tryptophan stimulates the production of serotonin which in turn stimulates the activity of the brain's neurons. Proteins contain very little tryptophan.) It's the first evidence of a hormone's controlling the quantity of the brain's neurotransmitters.

Tenth Of Virginia Used For Recreation

RICHMOND (AP) — About one-tenth of the state of Virginia (two million acres) is devoted to public recreation areas, according to "Virginia Facts and Figures."

There are 20 state parks, two national forests, a national park, a national recreational area, four scenic parkways, a national seashore, an interstate parks, many wild life and waterfowl management areas and many historic landmarks.

There also are 180 golf courses, thousands of miles of hiking trails, ski areas, skating rinks, 1,500 miles of shoreline, 450 public fishing streams, 1,500 miles of trout streams, 200 campgrounds and 19,000 individual campsites.

Soviet Leadership Nagged By Doubts

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
(An AP News Analysis)
The Americans and Russians are preparing for another round of summitry at a time when Moscow's leadership seems nagged by doubts and division over such matters as detente with the United States and international Communist policy.

Lately there have been vague hints not only of differences of opinion but also suggestions of possible important changes to come in the top leadership.

One hint came in a curious oratorical performance earlier this week by Mikhail A. Suslov, an unreconstructed dogmatist of the Stalin school. While supporting the detente policy, the Politburo member's speech could be read as damning it with faint praise.

Another hint was contained in a long article on Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in Sunday's Pravda, displayed in the space customarily used for more than ordinarily weighty party pronouncements.

The Kosygin article disclosed that his "works" have been published. In the U.S.S.R., "works" are speeches and articles collected in book form, a process intended to increase a politician's prestige.

Leonid Brezhnev, the party chief, has published "works," and in his case it seemed part of a personality cult buildup to rank him with Marxist classics.

However, much has been said, guardedly, in the Soviet press about a need to protect collectivity of leadership. The leaders are supposed to be equal and Brezhnev has palpably been a good deal more equal than the others, but perhaps too much domination may have its drawbacks.

The Pravda article on Kosygin showered generous praise on him for his contributions to the economy and even to foreign policy, a field Brezhnev has pre-empted in the last few years.

This raises speculation that perhaps the time is near for Kosygin's retirement. He was 70 in February and hasn't been in the most robust health.

The Suslov speech dutifully said the detente with the United States should be "irreversible," the obligatory line these days.

But he made it clear that what he called "the historic lack of prospects of imperialism" right now, meaning the capitalist world's acute economic pains, pose golden opportunities for spreading the Soviet brand of socialism.

The implication might be that if detente inhibits taking advantage too obviously, the cost of detente may be too high.

Brezhnev seems to feel the Soviet Union badly needs the economic fruits of lessened tensions, but Suslov might like to have them at little or no cost.

None of this means Brezhnev is in imminent danger of losing his job. But it does indicate the Soviet party has problems, one of which is the advanced age of its leadership, an average 65 at the Politburo level.

Brezhnev will be 68 in December. Communist regimes make no arrangements for orderly succession. Thus the aging of the Politburo can be a worry.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Friday, Oct. 25, the 288th day of 1974. There are 67 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1938, Germany and Italy formed the Rome-Berlin Axis, pledging mutual assistance in case of war.

On this date - In 1701, a city charter was granted to Philadelphia.

In 1838, the French composer, Georges Bizet, was born in Paris.

In 1854, Britain's heroic Charge of the Light Brigade took place near Sevastopol, Russia during the Crimean War.

In 1874, Britain annexed the Fiji Islands.

In 1938, the Chinese government, fleeing Japanese invaders, established itself at Chungking.

In 1944, the second Battle of the Philippine Sea was being fought in the Pacific War.

Ten years ago: Former President Herbert Hoover was buried at his birthplace, West Branch, Iowa near the two-room cottage where he was born.

Five years ago: The United States and the Soviet Union announced they would open talks on strategic arms limitation in Helsinki in mid-November.

One year ago: The United States ordered its military forces on a worldwide precautionary alert because of overnight concern that the Soviet Union was planning to send troops to the tense Middle East.

Today's birthdays: Ex-King Michael of Romania is 53 years old. Entertainer Minnie Pearl is 62.

Recession May Become No. 1 Economic Problem

By JOHN CUNIFF
NEW YORK (AP) - More quickly than many people realize, the nation's No. 1 economic problem, inflation, so declared by various officials from the President on down, might be slipping into second place behind recession.

While food price inflation is likely to continue for many months and even years, declines are beginning to appear in some commodity prices, indicative of retail price declines in months to come.

Shortages in some product areas, such as lumber, are being eliminated, and price negotiating rather than price dictatorship has been resumed.

Consumer buying resistance is mounting. Joblessness is rising. Manufacturers, while still planning price increases, are beginning to complain about declining sales.

Union leaders continue to talk about wage increases while gradually becoming more concerned with job security.

Such changes are inherent in a free economy, which has a tendency to over-react to the marketplace. Suppliers rush in where a shortage of goods exists, soon over-supply the market, and then back out, leaving it undersupplied again.

This economic cycle has been the bane of all modern political administrations, which seek to flatten the curve and eliminate the excesses. But as often as not, it seems, government intervention makes the curve even more pronounced.

Some businessmen believe, in fact, that President Ford's recent home economics speech will have that impact. Still, maintaining that inflation is the primary problem, Ford tried to talk down economic activity.

Save your money, balance your budget, avoid waste, economize, the President told Americans. And Lynn Townsend, who believes recession is the big problem, immediately blamed the President for a dip in sales at Chrysler Corp., which Townsend heads.

While distressed that so many Americans apparently agree with Ford that a conservative posture is the correct one, Townsend himself goes about economizing, eliminating waste, attempting to balance his own company's budget.

In the opinion of many economists, the two attitudes demonstrate the changing nature of the nation's economic problem. The kaleidoscope has been shaken, and suddenly the perceptive viewers discover a brand-new scene.

That a critical turning point may have been reached, or at least is being approached, is seen also in the insistence of some administration personnel, including the President himself, to deny the likelihood of recession while others are crying out their fears.

Paul McCracken, the University of Michigan economist who helped formulate some of the Ford program but who seems not to believe enthusiastically in all of it, feels a recession is just ahead.

The consumer makes up his own mind. It is he, in a mass consumption economy, who dictates the course of events. And the survey readings of consumer confidence and expectations are at their lowest in years, and in some instances, decades.

HOROSCOPE
by Carroll Richter
(Oct. 26)
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Daytime worries but you can really afford to be cheerful because of planetary influences, but try evening all is less again. Entertain. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Make your home more charming, even though you may be off and away to some far place. Put off recreation to p.m. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Recreation that you can really afford will be doubly pleasurable. Use talents. You can consider something very profitable in p.m. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't be blunt at home or you can get into unnecessary arguments. Entertain in p.m. Improve the appearance of your abode. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Stop for whatever will make your daily operations more efficient at home or in business. Fun with congenials in p.m. Avoid a troublemaker. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Devotion is best for handling financial and other practical affairs with fine results. Not a good day to get advice from a business model. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You don't feel like yourself and are tempted to do things that are not really yours. Improve health, then be sociable in p.m. (C) 1974, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.
