Surgeon Says Nixon Doing Well Following Operation

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Former President Richard M. Nixon's surgeon said today that "Mr. Nixon is doing well" following an operation to stop a blood clot in his left leg from traveling any further toward his heart or lungs.

Dr. Eldon Hickman, who performed the hour-long operation, said Nixon's condition was "stable." He said Nixon returned to his room on the top of Memorial Hospital Medical Center of Long Beach for recovery.

Nixon's personal physician had said the operation was required because the clots in Nixon's leg posed a threat to his life.

"With the threat the clot could become a pulmonary embolus, we placed a mild clip ... partially occluding but not completely occluding the vein," Hickman said. He said the clip was permanent.

Death Sentence Case Due Review By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today agreed to review the first death sentence case it has received since it ruled in 1972 that capital punishment as then carried out was unconstitutional.

The court said it will hear arguments later this term on the appeal of a North Carolina man condemned to die for murder.

Depending upon how broadly the court rules, its decision could affect only a limited number of North Carolina cases or the validity of the death penalty itself.

The court ruled 5 to 4 on June 29, 1972, that the decision whether to sentence an individual to death could not be left up to a jury.

RESIGNS—John C. Sawhill today resigned as administrator of the Federal Energy Administration. He will be replaced by Andrew E. Gibson, a former assistant secretary of Commerce, President Ford announced. (AP Wirephoto.)

Gibson To Get Position

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford announced today a major shake-up in the federal energy hierarchy, removing John Sawhill as administrator and replacing him with former Asst. Commerce Secretary Andrew E. Gibson.

Gibson, a resident of Philadelphia, has been president of Interstate Oil Transport Co. since leaving government. The 52-year-old Gibson, before coming to Washington in 1969, was president of John Diebold, Inc. and previously had been an official of Grace Lines Inc.

Ford made the disclosure during an impromptu White House press conference. He also announced that former Air Force secretary and NASA official Robert Seamans would become head of the new Energy Research and Development Agency, and that former astronaut Bill Anders would head the new Nuclear Regulatory Agency.

Dixy Lee Ray, now head of the Atomic Energy Commission will become assistant secretary of State for international environmental and scientific matters, Ford said as the new appointees flanked him at the podium.

The President made clear that Sawhill's resignation was desired by Interior Secretary Rogers C. B. Morton, whom he named three weeks ago to coordinate the federal government's energy policies.

Economic Indicators Take Plunge Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's index of future trends in the economy plunged last month at the steepest rate in 23 years, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department said its index of leading indicators dropped 2.5 per cent in September. It was the second sizeable monthly drop in a row, making the two-month fall 4.1 per cent.

Since inflation tends to make the index appear overly optimistic, the indication apparently is for a serious deterioration in the economy in the months ahead.

Such a deterioration would be in line with the recent projection of a sharp but short recession by economist Paul McCracken. Administration officials have also said they expect little evidence of a recovery until next spring.

The latest projection from the index of leading indicators, which is composed of a dozen separate economic fluctuations, was for sharply higher unemployment, decreased spending on durable goods, lower returns for raw material producers and a sizeable monthly drop in a row, making the two-month fall 4.1 per cent.

Initial claims for unemployment insurance jumped by nine per cent in September to a total of 346,000.

New orders for durable goods dropped by 6.4 per cent to $46.3 billion.

Industrial materials prices shrank by 4.2 per cent, and new building permits issued dropped by 8.4 per cent.

Commerce said the strongest factor pushing down the index of leading indicators, however, was stock prices. They fell for the fourth month in a row, dropping 10.4 per cent in the latest month.

The other components of the index either edged upward slightly, were unchanged, or were not available immediately.

Over-all, the drop in the index was the sharpest since it fell 2.9 per cent in June of 1951.

President Defending Economic Game Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Ford declared today that his present economic programs are sound and should deal with both inflation and recession — but added "I will be open to suggestions" if they don't cure the current economic slump.

Ford, holding his first impromptu news conference in the White House press center, was asked — on a day when the federal government's measure of leading economic indicators showed the sharpest one-month plunge in 23 years — if he still insisted the country was not in a recession.

"Whether it's a recession or not a recession," Ford said, "we have problems."

He indicated he did not want to argue the semantics of the matter.

The President's first questioner pointed to the plunge in leading indicators and asked if this and other economic data might prompt Ford to change the emphasis of his economic policies to fighting recession rather than focusing largely on inflation.

Ford responded that his economic blueprint unveiled earlier this month was "finely tuned" and was designed to "deal with both those problems."

But he added that if new economic data came to light that would indicate a steeper economic setback than anticipated, Bob Boydston for insecticides. (Adv.)

Twisters Lash Southeast Texas

By The Associated Press
Tornadoes took numerous for accurate count killed one person, injured half a dozen others and inflicted extensive damage late Monday near the southeast corner of Texas.

The rash of twisters hit hardest from the Houston area into the heavily industrialized "Golden Triangle" embracing Beaumont, Port Arthur and Orange, snaking down from black thunderstorms which threatened that section far into the night.

One tornado struck at the south end of the Baytown Tunnel between Baytown and La Porte, route of the only major thoroughfare from that vicinity into Houston, just to the west. This was the one which killed Theo Hines, 60, of Houston and left six injured, some seriously.

At least five homes in Baytown suffered damage, state police reported and the writhing winds wrecked guard shacks at opposite ends of the tunnel. A tank truck owned by the Texas Highway Department was rolled over 400 yards south of the tunnel.

Still other funnel clouds slashed into two neighborhoods on the north side of Beaumont and one of the twisters slashed into Lumberton, a bit farther north, to wreck three mobile homes. Debris from one such home was whirled five miles across the countryside.

Ronnie Benoit saw the black storm whirling across Galveston Bay toward his house in Baytown. He said, "It's a sight you won't forget. I was about to eat supper. We just picked up and went to a bathroom."

With his wife and two small sons, Benoit huddled in a bath tub for "some 20 seconds" while the tornado ripped away their roof.

Although authorities often tell people in the path of a tornado a bathroom is one of the safer rooms in a threatened house, Benoit said that "I really don't know why" he herded his family there. "It was just the first thing I thought of," he said.

A "Colonial Eighteenth Century Drawing Room" was the setting recently for the Musicians Club program presented by Mrs. George F. Harley.

Speaking in the home of Mrs. Paul D. Anderson, 1410 Community Lane, Mrs. Harley described musical events in the various sections of colonial America, and contrasted the absence of American composers to the wealth of composition in Europe in the 18th Century.

Performing works by European composers of the period were Mrs. Howard W. Parker, soprano, with "Rugia dose ardore" by Alessandro Scarlatti, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Heckathorne at the piano; Mrs. Wayne Matthews, pianist, with "Gigue—from 5th French Suite," Johann Sebastian Bach; Mrs. Robert F. Ward, mezzo-soprano, singing "Che faro senza Euridice" from "Orfeo Ed Euridice," Christoph Willibald von Gluck, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ray Bristol; and Mrs. Bruce A. Despite Tidal Basin Incident, Embarrassed Mills Expected To Win

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—His trembling hands grip the lectern, his face reddens and perspiration glistens in the blaze of news camera lights, but Wilbur D. Mills still can smile. The 18-term congressman has been intently observed, but only superficially questioned. It appears that he has laughed, joked and apologized his way through whatever political danger may have been posed by the Tidal Basin incident involving a former exotic dancer once billed as "the Argentine Firecracker."

Mills' manner seems akin to that of a youngster caught flipping into the cookie jar, not conceding any crime of consequence, but sheepish about it nonetheless.

High school students at Congress listened politely to economic talks, then applauded Mills, who has been campaigning here for the past two weeks.

Food Stockpiling Urged

By JEFFREY MILLS, Associated Press Writer

The federal government could help insure relatively stable food prices for American consumers by directing that food be stockpiled, the Committee for Economic Development says.

"Such a policy is urgently needed to enable the nation to cope effectively with the short-term consequences of poor harvests here or abroad," the private, non-profit research group said Monday.

The reserves of key commodities also would serve as a buffer against world hunger and depressed prices for U.S. farmers, the committee said.

U.S. grain reserves are at their lowest levels in 26 years, mainly because of huge export sales the past two years. No formal U.S. food reserve policy exists now, although some members of Congress and others have urged that stockpiles be accumulated for use in times of scarcity.

Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has said U.S. food reserves should be left in the hands of farmers and the private trade.

The committee said this could be done, but such reserves need to be initiated and maintained through federal policy direction.

"The trade cannot justifiably carry large enough reserves of wheat, corn, soybeans or milk products to offset unforeseen shortages and stabilized prices.

"Therefore, the government must do so, either directly or through programs that enable farmers and trade to carry larger stocks than would otherwise be possible," said the report prepared by a subcommittee headed by John H. Daniels, chairman of Independent Bancorporation of Minneapolis. Conference slated

The report came as Butz prepared for a United Nations world food conference, which begins in Rome next week. Butz said Monday he would stress the Ford administration's commitment to increased food production at the conference.

Butz said he hoped the conference would result in guidelines for increasing production, managing reserves and providing more equitable distribution of world food relief. America has been shouldering a disproportionate share of the food distribution burden, he said.

But he could give no encouragement to the consumer about prices, suggesting that as long as there was rising inflation, food prices would continue to increase.

Fraternal Congress Elects Mrs. Pavlu

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Benita Pavlu of Austin has been elected to serve as president of the Texas Fraternal Congress during its Diamond Jubilee year.

Mrs. Pavlu, president of the Catholic Women's Fraternal of Texas was elected Monday at the close of the 1974 convention in San Antonio.

The Texas Fraternal Congress is an association in which more than a score of fraternal benefit societies participate. These societies have a total membership of about 400,000 in Texas.

Mrs. Pavlu, who succeeded Emmet A. Bowers of the Abilene Woodmen of the World as TFC president, said the 1975 convention, celebrating the congress' 75th anniversary, will be in Austin.

While the Tidal Basin incident has provided a lot of gossip in Mills' district, most political analysts believe he was hurt more by reports of illegal contributions to his 1972 re-election campaign.

Mills jokingly spoke of the perils of taking out foreign women who like champagne. He said his marriage was untroubled. He apologized. He said he had quaffed bubbly, but done nothing more serious.

As chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, the 65-year-old Democrat also could be hurt by inflation and the tax bite.

Still, he is expected to defeat his Republican opponent, Judy dent of the apartment building where Mills lives. Her husband lives in Argentina.

Mills, Mrs. Battistella and two other women were in the congressman's car, driven by Albert Capaldi, when the police stopped it for operating without lights and for speeding.

Police said Mills smelled of alcohol and bled from face cuts. Mills later said he was aided—they have not been able to get to Mills—how the congressman could be unaware of a number of details about the way he spent the evening of Oct. 6 and the early morning hours of Oct. 7. They said they don't know.

Mrs. Battistella reportedly suffered two black eyes in the incident. Mills said he didn't know how that happened. He said that perhaps it occurred in

Coal Talks Progress Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—Coal industry negotiators report major progress in contract talks with the United Mine Workers and say a tentative settlement is possible by the end of the week.

"We're hoping to make an agreement this week," said Guy Farmer, general counsel for the Bituminous Coal Operators Association. "It's moving and I think we've got a shot at it."

Farmer joined UMW President Arnold Miller in saying that a tentative agreement could be wrapped up quickly.

However, Miller said last week that a contract would have to be agreed on by Nov. 4 to avoid a strike.

The UMW's contract with the soft-coal industry expires Nov. 12, and union officials say ratification will take about 10 days. Even if the negotiators reach a tentative agreement, the question remains whether the union's 120,000 members will approve the first package submitted for ratification.

An indication of progress in the talks came Monday when the negotiations shifted for the first time to a general discussion of economic proposals, including wages, sick pay and pensions.

Since the talks began Sept. 3, the negotiators have concentrated on such issues as work rules and mine safety, which the union says are more important than money.

Carless Days Set In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Employers throughout the city start asking San Francisco's 500,000 commuters today to give up their cars one day each week.

The object: Save fuel by breaking the car-commuting habit.

Thirteen major corporations already have agreed to urge all their employees — from top executives down to clerks — to use public transit instead of private autos once a week.

Mayor Joseph L. Alioto, who announced the carless-day plan Monday, urged employers to ask their workers to go along with the program he said could cut fuel usage 20 per cent and reduce the dependence on Arab oil.

"The only realistic way to beat the sheiks is to get out of our automobiles," Alioto said. San Francisco's streets are fed by only three commute arteries — the Golden Gate Bridge, San Francisco Bay Bridge and highway links to the San Francisco Peninsula on the south. Available mass transit includes the Bay Area Rapid Transit System, buses and trains.

The motto of Alioto's plan is "Once a week to WIN (Whip Inflation Now)." Its prime target is the suburban commuter.

Monday would be carless for employees of banks, stock brokerages and other financial institutions; Tuesday for the corporations; Wednesday for employees in city, state and federal government; Thursday for the city's two major utilities, Pacific Telephone and Pacific Gas and Electric Co.; and Friday for anyone not already covered.

The rotating no-car days would be coordinated with a program of staggered work hours in certain businesses to stretch out the peak commuter periods and avoid overloading public transportation.

The plan was prompted by President Ford's request to ma-

Today In History

By The Associated Press Today is Tuesday, Oct. 29, the 302nd day of 1974. There are 63 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1929, the New York stock market collapsed, setting off the worst financial catastrophe in U.S. history.

On this date — In 1618, Sir Walter Raleigh was executed in London, charged with treason against England's King James I.

In 1682, William Penn landed at Chester, Pennsylvania.

In 1918, German sailors mutinied at the Kiel naval base, demanding prompt peace negotiations with the Allies.

In 1923, the Republic of Turkey was proclaimed. In 1940, numbers were drawn in the first peacetime military draft in the history of the United States.

In 1956, Israel launched an attack against Egypt's Sinai Peninsula.

Ten years ago: Bolivia broke diplomatic relations with Czechoslovakia and accused the Czech embassy in La Paz of inciting anti-government riots.

Five years ago: The U.S. Supreme Court ruled unanimously that school districts must end racial segregation at once.

One year ago: United Nations troops delivered emergency food, water and medicine to Egyptian soldiers surrounded by Israeli forces on the east bank of the Suez Canal.

Today's birthdays: Cartoonist Bill Mauldin is 53 years old. Ex-major league baseball manager Bill Rigney is 55. Thought for today: True friendship is like sound health. The value of it is seldom known until it is lost — C.C. Colton, English clergyman and writer, about 1780-1851.

Tornadoes Pound Southeast Texas town; Gary Bogle, 23, of Baytown; Claude Greenwood, 49, of Pasadena, and Jack Hamilton, 30, of Houston.

Officers said 12 cars were hurled against one another and against a wall at the entrance to the tunnel, which was blocked for more than 2½ hours. The tornado struck there at 4:40 p.m. amid the rush hour for homeward-bound motorists.

The automobile in front of a truck driven by Ernie Wehba, 32, of Pasadena was thrown toward one side.

"Then my truck hit the side of the tunnel, turned over on its roof and wound up on the left side," Wehba related. "All I could see was everything turning and spinning."

David White, 18, of Texas City told of spotting the menacing cloud as it approached across Galveston Bay.

"It rolled over a truck and it injured the two men inside slightly," White said. "It was a thick funnel cloud. It stayed on the ground about 15 minutes.

The man killed at the tunnel was found in a car pulled out the south end there, Deputy Sheriff T. C. Jones said. That vehicle was tossed onto a levee above the tunnel's entrance.

Baytown policeman Michael Jordan was working the rush hour traffic at a point nearby.

"I first saw it (the tornado) coming over the trees," Jones recalled. "It was a twisting wind with debris all around. Just as I've always heard... it sounded like a freight train."

At one point, authorities were notified seven twisters were sighted in the vicinity of Beaumont. They said it could not be determined whether any was counted more than once. As late as 6:30 p.m. three funnel clouds were spotted at the Interstate 10 crossing over the Neches River in Beaumont.

Vicious thunderstorms from which the tornadoes lashed down were set off as a weak cool front moved through the plains near the Upper Texas Coast. Three-inch rains were common over East Texas and the measurement went as high as 4.38 inches at Washington, northwest of Houston.

By this morning the forward edge of the cool front stretched from Toledo Bend Lake in East Texas to the Winter Garden area in South Central Texas. The heavier thunderstorms moved into Louisiana as the front weakened.

While it was still cloudy over East Texas with occasional showers along the Sabine River and there were a few clouds over the trans-Pecos section, skies were clear elsewhere

Second Suspect Held In Record Theft Of Cash

CHICAGO (AP) — A second man has been arrested in connection with the nation's largest cash theft, from a vault of the Armored Express Corp. of Chicago, FBI officials say.

FBI agent John W. Housley said Monday night that Peter J. Gushi, 47, of Oak Lawn, Ill., was charged with bank larceny, bank burglary and the illegal use of explosive devices in connection with the haul of an estimated $4.3 million on Oct. 20.

Ralph Marrera, a security guard at the company, was arraigned on theft charges earlier Monday before U.S. Magistrate Carl B. Sussman. The judge set bond at $400,000.

Louisiana Twisters Hit Several Cities

CROWLEY, La. (AP) — A tornado smashed into Crowley as it slept early today and dragged a path of destruction, practically leveling 10 blocks of homes, police said. One person was killed and 40 injured.

The dead man was killed as he slept in a house still under construction about 10 miles from Crowley. His name was not made public.

Others Reported

Other tornadoes were reported in the New Orleans suburb of Kenner where 10 homes were destroyed and 40 damaged, at Newlino in central Louisiana, where roofs were torn off several homes and businesses, at Leesville where five or six persons were injured, and near Cameron where power lines were felled.

Acadia Sheriff Elton Arceaux. "Then we have another, about a three-to-five block area, in the northwest part of town, a sort of strip."

State police said about 40 houses were torn to the ground in the northeast.

Forty persons were taken to various hospitals. One was in serious condition and was transferred to Lafayette. Thirty were treated for cuts and bruises and were released. Ten were hospitalized.

State police blocked off the city except to residents.

Injured By Flying Glass

Richard Zuschlag of the Acadia Ambulance Service said most of the injuries he handled were from flying glass. Major streets were blocked by uprooted trees.

Power was out in most of Crowley.

The front of the Crowley Post-Signal caved in and the roof fell. Newspaper officials were trying to publish today's editions by using presses in nearby Abbeville.

After leaving Crowley, the twister apparently touched down in Lafayette and caused spotty damage: One building was knocked down, 15 planes were overturned at the airport, and a night watchman was hospitalized.

Convicts Still Hold 14 Hostages; Child Freed

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Four armed convicts holding 14 persons hostage in the Scheveningen penitentiary gave no indication of surrender today despite an appeal to give up by another prisoner they hoped would join them.

One of the convicts, Palestinian hijacker Adnan Ahmad Nuri, made the first threat against the lives of the hostages Monday. But later he and his accomplices — an Algerian and two Dutchmen — released the last of the four children who were in the chapel when the convicts took it over during a Mass Saturday night.

The other three children and a man and a woman were freed Sunday. The wife of one of the two Dutch convicts was allowed to visit the chapel and reported that the 14 men and two women still held captive seemed at ease. But one of the hostages reported by walkie-talkie radio that the two women were under severe strain.

The convict's wife, Gausje de Nie, was the first person to enter the chapel since the siege began. She said the four men wanted time to review the situation.

A Justice Ministry spokesman said he considered the release of the fourth child a hopeful development.

Nuri, who is 23, made the threat to kill the hostages to force prison officials to let him talk with another Palestinian, Sami Houssin Tamimah, who was convicted with him of hijacking a British airliner last March and burning it.

Friend Refuses To Enter

Nuri had demanded earlier that Tamimah be allowed to join them in the chapel. Tamimah, who after his trial was separated from Nuri and is recovering from a hunger strike he staged to get transferred to the chapel. But he talked twice by walkie-talkie with his friend, telling him he was being treated well and "didn't know if the Palestinian cause would best be served by the sort of action Nuri had begun," the Justice Ministry spokesman reported.

Tamimah argued that Nuri should obtain a pledge that they would not be separated again. He said they should then serve out their five-year sentences "and afterward help the Palestinian cause in a better and more useful way."

The 14 men still held hostage include a priest, two prison guards and members of a volunteer choir from outside the prison.

Nixon Undergoes Leg Surgery To Remove Clot; 'Doing Well'

 Dr. Wiley F. Barker, following the venogram, concurred that the new clot threatened to become a pulmonary embolus and thus "endangers Mr. Nixon's life."

The operation was described by Lungren as more serious than usual because of the increased possibility of bleeding resulting from the anticoagulant drugs which Nixon has been taking. The former chief executive bled from his gums earlier.

General anesthesia — total unconsciousness — was ordered for the 61-year-old Nixon, described by a close associate Monday as being in great pain and displeased about his second hospital stay.

Depressed, Upset

"He's still very depressed and upset, and reports that he isn't just aren't true," the source said.

In Washington, Mrs. Eisenhower said, "I know my mother's going to be there." But Mrs. Eisenhower said she and her older sister, Tricia Nixon Cox of New York, would wait until after the operation before coming to California.

Hospital spokesman Norman Nager said Nixon had talked by telephone with his daughters and wife earlier Monday night.

Nixon was readmitted to Memorial Hospital Medical Center after an oral anticoagulant drug proved ineffective in treating the phlebitis. Nixon was hospitalized for 12 days in late September and early October. Phlebitis, an inflammation of the veins, has bothered Nixon since June when he was in the Middle East on a presidential trip.

The doctors' fear was that without an operation Nixon could suffer a fatal pulmonary embolus, an obstruction of a blood vessel in the lung by a blood clot or an air bubble.

But Lungren cautioned that operating also posed a danger to Nixon.

Holt Charges James Costing State 'Millions'

Bob Holt, Amarillo banker vying for the state treasurer's office, today charged incumbent Jesse James is costing the state "millions of dollars" in potential investment returns by clinging to "status quo" methods of running his office.

Holt, in Midland this morning on a final campaign tour around the state prior to the Nov. 5 elections, said this week he had been using James' own words and figures to illustrate his point.

"He's very proud of the fact he's earned for us $1 million on investment of state funds," Holt said of his opponent, noting the figure is 1 per cent of the state's revenue last year.

"The state of New York, for example, earned 4.2 per cent of its total state revenue. If we had earned 4.2 per cent, we would have earned $400 million."

"He said New York is just one of the states which earns 4 to 5 per cent of the state revenue.

Holt said if Texans elect James to his 34th year "we're going to lose $250 million per year and over the next four years it would amount to $1 billion. I think that's too high a price to pay to laugh about having a treasurer named Jesse James," he said.

"James' attitude toward the people of Texas is this: He feels like they are too dumb to have any interest in the office of the treasurer and to understand how much we're losing."

Contending the incumbent has kept himself "completely invisible," Holt quoted James as saying to an Austin newspaper reporter it "wasn't anybody's business what went on in the office of the treasurer."

The Amarillo businessman said also James plans to run his office the way he has for 33 years. "Texas is the lowest in the nation on returns in investments because James likes the status quo," he charged.

Holt, who has traveled the campaign trail every day since February in five swings through the state, believes he has made people conscious of the office. He has won endorsement from the Dallas Times-Herald, San Antonio Express, Texas Women's Political Caucus and some smaller newspapers.

He said "it's not the Democrats' name or the Republicans' name" that concerns him. "It's the Texas name," he said.

In his last campaign thrust before the election, Holt said, "Mainly, we want people to

He said it was time for a new phase in the government's effort to bring "this nation's energy budget into better balance."

Saudi Arabia Disavows Report Of Oil Price Cut

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — Saudi Arabia has told other Arab oil states it wants a "symbolic cut" in world petroleum prices but plans no unilateral action, a Saudi official said today.

His disavowal of a unilateral cut in Saudi Arabia's price of approximately $11.65 per barrel contrasted with a report from Rabat in the New York Times.

The newspaper reported that an informed Arab source said the per-barrel price of Saudi oil would be lowered next week by less than a dollar. As the world's largest oil exporter, Saudi Arabia theoretically could force down all oil prices with a unilateral cut.

The Saudi official said his delegation to the Arab summit conference proposed a cut of "much less than 10 per cent and rather a symbolic reduction in prices" Monday during a closed general review of the world oil situation.

However, other sources said Saudi Arabia indicated it wants to drop prices by as much as 10 per cent. The plan reportedly ran into vigorous opposition from Algeria, which is not a major producer but has held a hard line in opposition to lower prices.

The Saudi official said his government assured the other producers it would accept the decision of OPEC, the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries, and would take no unilateral action.

The New York Times dispatch said its Arab source expected Saudi Arabia to freeze prices at the lower level for about a year.

POINT MADE IN TALK—

U.S. Accepts Nonalignment, Kissinger Says

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger says the United States government has abandoned its Cold War opposition to governments that take neither side in America's rivalry with the Soviet Union.

"The United States accepts nonalignment," Kissinger said Monday in a major address to the Indian Council of Foreign Affairs. "In fact, America sees a world of free, independent, sovereign states as being decidedly in its own national interest."

Kissinger acknowledged that Washington is partly in debt to the late Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first prime minister and one of the pioneer advocates of nonalignment, for "this new American view." He suggested it might have been adopted earlier.

He said that at least now, "support of national independence and of the diversity that goes with it has become a central theme of American foreign policy."

A U.S. official said this was the first high-level U.S. government declaration endorsing nonalignment.

Clearly pleased with his good will visit and his meetings Monday with Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and Foreign Minister Y. B. Chavan, Kissinger said in a dinner toast: "We talked to each other for the first time in a long time free of complexes."

He said when U.S. officials talk to Indians now, they do not seek "moral approbation . . . We now realize that what ties us together is a common perception of the kind of world which leaves both of us secure and in which both can prosper."

In reply, Chavan said he thought Kissinger's visit "will prove to be an important step and marks a landmark in our relationship."

U.S. Ambassador Daniel P. Moynihan told newsmen that President Ford had accepted "in principle" an invitation to visit India but a date has not been set.

Independent Oil Operators Plan Some Bargaining With Congress Members

By MAX B. SKELTON
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Independent oil operators are prepared to do some bargaining of their own with Congress if major oil companies fail to support their fight to retain oil's domestic depletion allowance.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America was expected to give final approval today to a resolution blaming the majors for causing a split with the industry on the subject but expressing hope the international oil companies will join the fight.

The executive committee of the 4,000-member trade group gave unanimous approval to the resolution Monday.

"If the international companies are for depletion, we'll now see some evidence," said John Miller, association president from Allegan, Mich. "The majors can't remain invisible."

Miller had charged that major companies have remained silent in recent months while independents have battled vigorously to prevent Congress from phasing out domestic depletion.

He said the international companies have indicated they were willing to make a "sacrificial lamb" out of the 22 percent depletion allowance in order to escape from other punitive tax measures before Congress.

Miller said silence on the part of the majors continued until last week, when he confronted a group of major company executives in Washington.

He said it was not until after the Washington meeting that the American Petroleum Institute, oil's largest trade group, reaffirmed its support of domestic depletion through a news release.

The resolution also charged that some international companies have been willing to swap percentage depletion for control of oil prices.

It authorized Miller, however, to do a bit of bargaining himself. If necessary, Miller is to explore the "feasibility and acceptability of providing a choice between domestic depletion and foreign tax credits."

Miller said the resolution closes no doors.

"All we are saying now is let's see some action on their part," he said.

As originally proposed at a Sunday meeting of the imports policy committee, the resolution would have condemned the major companies for dividing the industry. That committee, however, asked a drafting committee to change the word, "condemn" to "criticize."

The final version included neither word.

"It is hoped that other large international producers will join with the independent segment in maintaining the historical position on domestic percentage depletion," the resolution said.

Arab Summit Recognizes PLO As Leadership Of Future Palestine State

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — The Arab summit conference has recognized Yasir Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization as the leadership of a future independent Palestinian state to be established after the West Bank of the Jordan River is liberated from Israel.

But the Arab leaders are leaving Egypt, Syria and Jordan a free hand in peace negotiations with Israel.

The endorsement of the Palestine guerrilla movement appeared to doom resumption of the Geneva Middle East peace conference since Israel refuses to deal with the PLO.

Thus, the way appeared open for the individual, bilateral negotiations advocated by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger and President Anwar Sadat of Egypt.

After three days of intensive discussions, the kings and presidents of the Arab nations agreed on a formula Monday that papered over the rival claims of the PLO and Jordan to control of the West Bank territory, which Jordan captured in the 1948 Palestine War and Israel took in the 1967 war.

A spokesman said the leaders unanimously approved a resolution "reaffirming the rights of the Palestinian people to set up an independent national authority, under the leadership of the PLO as the sole legitimate representative of the Palestinian people on any Palestinian land that is liberated."

"Arab countries must support this authority when it is established in all fields and at all levels," the resolution added.

Stock Market Observing Anniversary Of Crash

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street today marked its gloomiest anniversary, 45 years after the stock market began its dizziest fall in history on Oct. 28-29, 1929.

But even with numerous current troubles, including inflation, tight money and a slumping economy, traders can take heart that the bear market of 1974 and the great crash of 1929 are as different as night and day, many analysts agree.

For one thing, speculators in the '20s had free rein, untouched by any sort of governmental regulation. Since 1933, the Federal Reserve and the Securities and Exchange Commission have acted to keep the speculator in bounds, and usually have protected traders from outright market fraud.

The market also enjoys a degree of stability now compared with 1929 just from sheer size. There were about 1.5 million people in the market in 1929. Now there are about 30 million. If nothing else, panic would have further to spread in 1974.

Another difference, though less comforting, is how fast and far stocks fell in 1929 as against 1973-74. The crash of '29 was sudden, almost totally unexpected and horribly severe. In only two weeks, from Oct. 28 to Nov. 13, the Dow Jones industrial average shrank by 50.6 percent, to 198.69.

On Oct. 28, 1929, traders watched the unautomated ticker struggle to keep up with a 12 million share turnover, then unheard of. The Dow fell a still unsurpassed 38.33 points.

The next day, even worse in terms of the spreading panic and the volume figure — a staggering 16 million — the Dow slid another 30.57.

"The market crashed at a time when almost everyone was bullish. It just came out of the blue," recalls analyst Lucien Hooper, then of the firm of Frazier, Jenks & Co. and now of Thomson & McKinnon Auchincloss.

"An awful lot of people were in the market on very thin margin — maybe only 10 or 20 percent. When the market started drifting down around Labor Day, it set off an avalanche of margin calls," Eldon Grimm of Birr, Wilson & Co. says.

The bear market of 1973-74 also has fallen about 50 percent. The Dow, from a high of 1,061 on Jan. 11, 1973, has been as low as 584, on Oct. 4, 1974. The paper value of listed NYSE issues has gone in that period from $871.54 billion to about $450 billion now.

The 50 percent drop the market has suffered since 1973 has taken almost two years. The

HANDING OFF—Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw (12) hands off to running back Franco Harris during fourth quarter action with the Atlanta Falcons in Pittsburgh Monday night. The play was good for a 24-yard gain and Pittsburgh went on to win, 24-17. (AP Wirephoto.)

ATLANTA BURNS AGAIN, 24-17— Bradshaw, Harris Lead Steeler Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Terry Bradshaw predicted it. He's back, so is Franco Harris and so is the Pittsburgh Steelers' running game. "And it feels good, real good," Bradshaw said after he made his first quarterback start this year and Harris rushed for a career high of 141 yards in a 24-17 victory over the Atlanta Falcons in Monday night's nationally televised National Football League game.

TEMPLE RISES—

Ohio State Ranks First

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A winning attitude has helped the Temple Owls topple its first foe this year.

In recent years "we found more ways to lose football games than win them," Temple Coach Wayne Hardin said. "But we have now learned how to win and have a winning attitude."

Foreman Favored Over Ali Tonight

Ali Taunts; George Quiet

KINSHASA, Zaire (AP) — Muhammad Ali continued his taunting tirades and George Foreman remained somber as a monk as the two whiled away the hours leading to their pre-dawn battle Wednesday for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world.

It was a scene that staggered the imagination. Bongo drums beat an unnerving tattoo on the sensitive inner ear. Strident African music — with its heavy jumpy and jive beat — poured out from the buses and shops. Native dancers, part of a carnival, sashayed with their bumps and grinds from the back end of trucks parading the boulevards.

Tension builds to an electric pitch in this humid, sultry capital where two black Americans have come to pay homage to their ancestors and battle 15 rounds or less for the ring's richest prize.

Both Foreman, the titleholder, and Ali, a former champion who had the crown taken from him outside the ring because of his failure to enter the military, have made much of their odyssey to the land of their forefathers but don't shrug off other motivations.

Each is guaranteed a $5 million purse — richest of all time. It is money in the bank. And neither has to be overly concerned whether the strange conglomeration of producers and backers reaches the aim of $30 million to $30 million gross.

The fighters themselves have been overshadowed somewhat by the fanfare and wild trappings surrounding the event but as time for the opening bell approached — 4 a.m. local time, 9 p.m., CST, today — Foreman held firm as the favorite despite escalating Ali sentiment.

"Joe's had the hot hand," Bradshaw said in September. "But the time will come when we have to establish a running threat. My style is ball control and I'll wait until this thing runs its course."

After Gilliam's 5-for-18 passing day in a narrow win last week over Cleveland, Coach Chuck Noll opted for Bradshaw, even though the Steelers were atop the AFC Central Division.

"It was pretty much a return to the bread and butter," Noll said after Pittsburgh climbed to 5-1-1 and Atlanta fell to 2-5 under beleaguered Coach Norm Van Brocklin.

"We battled them. We fought as hard as we could," said Van Brocklin, target of a "Dump the Dutchman" campaign in Atlanta.

The Steelers pounded out a season high of 235 yards rushing against the Falcons, and stumpy Rocky Bleier added 78 yards to Harris' career high total.

"I get a kick out of making the running game go," said Bradshaw, who completed nine of 20 passes for 130 yards with two interceptions.

It was the first 100-yard game of the season for Harris, who had a career high of 28 carries, and he gained all but 29 of his ground yards in the second half. He also ran 29 yards with a swing pass from Bradshaw to set up the winning touchdown.

Harris, who had rushed for 206 yards previously this season, powered seven yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown in the final quarter.

Pittsburgh jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. Bleier plunged one yard for the first touchdown, set up by Lynn Swann's 52-yard punt return, and Bradshaw dove in from the one for the second score to cap a 57-yard march.

Atlanta quarterback Bob Lee sacked seven times by the hard-charging Steeler front, fired a pair of touchdown passes in the second quarter to knot the score at 14-14 by halftime.

With Harris leading the way in the third quarter, Pittsburgh marched to the Atlanta 16-yard line before Roy Gerela booted a tie-breaking 33-yard field goal.

The international press corps, which has had the two boxers under close scrutiny for a week, has swung to Ali by a small majority. Ali has been very impressive in workouts — physically, mentally and vocally. Veteran Ali watchers contend that they have never seen him fitter or sharper. At 216½ pounds, he looks every inch the skilled meticulous assassin who twice stopped the awesome Sonny Liston in 1964 and 1965.

Foreman's advantage appears to lie in his age — 25, seven years younger than Ali — and his brute strength. He has demolished every opponent he has faced in the past two years, none going more than two rounds, and his victims have included such fighters as Joe Frazier and Ken Norton, who scored victories over Ali.

"Foreman didn't knock them out, he pushed them out," argues Ali. "He is a pusher. He is big and strong. But he is slow-footed, awkward, dumb. He has never met anybody like me."

"I am a dancing master. I am the best in the world. I am preparing to score the biggest upset in ring history."

There have been unusual heavyweight title bouts before. But the sport never has seen a spectacle to match this one. At midnight tonight, when even all respectable leopards and zebras are asleep, tens of thousands of Zairians will be winding slowly toward the Stadium of the 20th of May to witness the first heavyweight fight ever staged in this part of the world.

They are expected to fill most, if not all, of the 62,889 seats in the massive soccer stadium, paying between $250 for the choice ringside chairs to $10 in the upper reaches.

Since President Mobutu Sese Seko and his government have paid $1.4 million as a guarantee of the live gate, the portals may be thrown open if all tickets are unsold.

The weirdest hour was picked to conform with prime time in the United States where the bout will be viewed coast-to-coast on theater television screens at a cost of $20 to $30 a seat.

This is the main source of revenue. The 19-foot ring, with its red, white and blue ropes, is set up under a sprawling roof so that the fighters and the press rows will be protected in case of rain. Rain is possible. This is Zaire's monsoon season.

Units of Mobutu's army will be out in large numbers to control the highly demonstrative crowd, which already has shown a strong favoritism for Ali.

The crowd's favorite chant is: "Ali, boma-ye Ali, boma ye." "Kill him, kill him."

The controversial Ali has fed their emotions by terming Foreman an American Uncle Tom and even calling him a Belgian, an ugly word here where the Belgians held the old Conquered under their thumbs for decades. Foreman, a one-time juvenile delinquent in the ghettos of Houston who joined the U.S. Job Corps and became very religious, shrugs off Ali's taunts.

Foreman is a hulking athlete — 6-feet-3 with the shoulders of a bull elephant and hands as big as ham hocks. Although as tall and only 3½ pounds lighter, Ali looks much leaner.

Ali is the master craftsman — a mover, a stickler. He is like a man with a rapier in the ring — cutting, chopping, hurting, rarely knocking anybody out.

"I hope to knock him out," Foreman said. "Nobody gets hurt as much that way."

ANOTHER WFL TEAM BITES DUST?— Fire Almost Out

NEW YORK (AP) — An emergency meeting of World Football League owners today in Chicago may decide the fate of the Chicago Fire, the latest WFL team to face possible extinction, says league executive committee chairman John Bassett.

Bassett, chairman of the committee which screens new franchise holders, said in Toronto Monday night the 1 p.m. EST, meeting had been called to discuss the possible immediate withdrawal of the Chicago franchise. He termed the Fire management "completely irresponsible" for dropping out at this stage of the season.

There has been speculation that the Fire would pull out of the league with just three games remaining because its home schedule has been completed and there would be no possible source of new income.

Don Andersen, WFL vice president in charge of public relations, confirmed from his Newport Beach, Calif., home Monday night that the meeting was to be held — with the Fire situation to be discussed. But he added, "there has been nothing positive to this point as to the status or future of the Chicago club."

Andersen denied the report that the Fire had informed league headquarters it was halting operations.

Fire owner Tom Origer and Coach Jim Spavital were unavailable for comment Monday night, and Chicago publicist Jim Walker, reached at the team's office, said, "There has been no word from Mr. Origer to the ballclub. Everybody has been waiting for the outcome of the meeting. I guess we'll find out then."

Virgil Carter, the club's injured quarterback and player representative, said his contract had not been cancelled nor has he been paid for the remainder of the season.

"There have been rumors all year that the Fire was going to fold," he said.

Those rumors surfaced again Monday when Bassett, owner of the World Hockey Association Toronto Toros, said at the Toros game the Fire had notified the league it would not play its last three games. Chicago is scheduled to play in Philadelphia against the Bell Wednesday night.

If the Fire is finished, it would become the third WFL franchise to go under before the 20-game regular season is completed. The Detroit Wheels and Jacksonville Sharks already have suspended operations and removed their games from the 1974 schedule. The league started its inaugural season with 12 franchises and presently stands at 10.

The Florida Blazers, also suffering severe financial troubles, are the subject of a court battle in their Orlando home, and a number of other teams have battled economic conditions.

Waldrep Remains On Critical List

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Texas Christian football player Kent Waldrep remained in serious condition Monday afternoon at University Hospital after injuries suffered in Saturday's game against Alabama.

Waldrep, a 20-year-old junior from Alvin, Texas, suffered a broken neck and spinal injury in the second quarter of the game and underwent three hour surgery Saturday night.

A hospital spokesman said he "remains in serious condition. His vital signs remain stable and the extent of the permanent paralysis is not fully determined."

Waldrep was moved to a private room late Monday afternoon.

Dr. J. Garber Galbraith, head of neurosurgery for the University of Alabama Medical Center, said, "If anything, Kent is slightly improved. He has more sensation of touch, but no more motor power than before surgery. He has a little flexion in a wrist that is new. He remains in traction, but hopefully will be put in a neck collar in about a week. There has been no evidence of hemorrhage around the spinal cord. In less than eight weeks, he possibly could be moved to a rehabilitation center."

Dr. Galbraith is the physician who attends Alabama Gov. George Wallace, himself a paralysis victim.

Gov. Wallace phoned Waldrep's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Waldrep of New York City, Monday morning.

Loop Races Hot

By TERRY WILLIAMSON

The area high school football races are beginning to fall into line with eight weeks of action by the boards.

Pecos and Rankin remained as the only unbeaten elevens in the area circles after the Eagles polished off Seminole, 17-6, last Friday and the Devils protected their number two Class A state ranking with a 38-12 victory over rival Balmorhea.

The Pecos victory gave the Eagles a 3-0 loop record, but Monahans, who had the open week, keeps the District 2-AAA race a dead heat.

Rankin, Iraan and Marfa all own 2-0 loop marks in District 6-A, but that will change this week when Rankin meets Marfa in a battle for supremacy.

Kermitt also remained alive in District 2-AAA with a 29-7 victory over Odessa Ector Saturday night and will play Monahans this week in an important outing.

District 3-AAA is also listed in the dead heat category with Snyder and Lubbock Dunbar both owning 3-0 loop marks and 6-1 season records. Those two clash Friday in Snyder in a game that will probably see the winner in the playoffs.

Snyder is heavily favored to win its first district championship in 11 years.

Only two weeks of play has elapsed in District 7-AA, but already there appears to be two teams headed for a showdown on the last Friday engagement of the season. Sonora owns a perfect 2-0 record while McCamey is 1-0 after an impressive 42-7 win over Crane. Crane is already 0-2 and is out of the race while Ozona is 1-1 and Reagan County 0-1.

District 5-A may have already seen the district championship contest.

Seagraves, 7-1 on the year, slipped by Stanton's Buffaloes Friday night by a 30-22 count with a fourth quarter march. Seagraves is 2-0 with only two games to go while pre-season favorite Stanton is 0-1.

Plains is also 2-0 thus far, but meets Stanton in a survival battle Friday. Stanton can only hope for a victory over Plains and then a Plains victory over Seagraves for a three-way tie at first.

Shallowater and O'Donnell don't appear to be strong enough to be of any help to the Buffs.

Florida, Memphis Seek Division WFL Titles

By The Associated Press
The Florida Blazers and Memphis Southmen are within one victory of clinching ties for World Football League division titles — but a couple of other teams will have plenty to say Wednesday night whether that big step is taken.

With three games remaining, the Blazers, 12-5, are two games ahead of the Charlotte Hornets in the East and the Southmen, 14-3, hold a two-game Central Division margin over the Birmingham Americans.

And it's the Americans who'll be trying to stay in the Central race by knocking off Florida. Memphis will have its hands full with the revived Hawaiians, 7-10 and still scratching to stay in second place in the West.

In Wednesday night's other games, Western champion Southern California, 12-5, is at Charlotte, 10-7, and Chicago, 7-10, visits Philadelphia, 7-10. On Thursday night, Shreveport hosts Portland in a battle of Western teams tied at 6-10-1.

Birmingham's got plenty of firepower in George Mira's passing to Dennis Homan and Alfred Jenkins — but the Americans, who won their first 10 games but have dropped five of their last seven, are running up against the WFL's top defense. The Blazers have allowed an average of less than two touchdowns per game.

Florida, which has won five of its last six games, knows how to score, too, behind Tommy Reamon, the league's leading rusher with 1,298 yards.

Memphis ran off 11 straight victories before losing to Portland last Thursday night. Now they face the Hawaiians, who equalled the WFL scoring record with their 60-17 swamping of Chicago a week ago.

The power of the Southmen is on the ground, with J.J. Jennings, John Harvey and Willie Spencer all among the top 10 rushers. The Hawaiians will counter with an aerial attack headed by quarterback Randy Johnson passing to WFL receiving leader Tim Deaney.

Charlotte can keep its slim hopes of an Eastern title alive

with a victory over the Sun — but the Hornets will have to do it without quarterback Tom Sherman, out the rest of the season with a dislocated elbow.

Brian Dowling, who has thrown only 20 passes all year, will call the signals. Opposite him, Southern California has the league's leading passer in rookie Tony Adams. He'll be throwing to the WFL's No. 2 receiver, James McAlister.

Chicago has lost eight in a row but the Fire, doused by injuries, is counting on quarterback Bubba Wyche, acquired from the defunct Detroit Wheels, to help turn things around. The Bell, coming off a stunning 45-7 rout of the Sun, has both land and air power — land with John Land, a 1,000-yard gainer, and air with Jim Corcoran, the No. 2 passer.

What! No Umpires!

Can you imagine a baseball game without umpires? We can't, although we must admit that the idea is intriguing.

Just think what a difference it would make without the "men in blue" behind the plate and at other vantage points on the diamond.

The game might—or might not—be faster, but with whom would the team managers argue . . . and who would be the recipients of the verbal darts from the fans?

The game of baseball is bound by tradition . . . it is one of the few things left one has been able to depend upon to be the same today as yesterday—more or less. But it is noted in the news that a sixth-grade inventor would change all this.

Tom Perryman, an 11-year-old Dallas lad, speaks right out for one and all to hear that the role of the game's often disputed umpire could become restricted merely to making judgment calls on the base runners.

Tom has designed a device to call balls and strikes so accurately there just couldn't be any argument. He said he got tired of seeing bad calls and invented a machine which calls them without error. His model even is equipped with a blower to dust-off home plate.

This is all well and good, but, thinking about it, to whom do we scream in protest at the ball and strike calls? It isn't likely that the robot invented by Perryman would pay very much attention to the ribbing from the fans in the stands.

But then, most plate umpires don't pay very much attention to it either, although the fans do have someone human (to a degree) at which to direct their barbs.

Someone questioned the youthful inventor as to what a fiery team manager would do when he wanted to argue about the gadget's call on a strike or a ball.

Tom suggested that "Maybe he could kick the machine."

But in addition to gaining a sore toe, this wouldn't be nearly as much fun as a confrontation with the umpire.

Thinking back to our sportswriting days, today's plate ump's can't see them any better now than they did all those many years ago . . . and the fans get just as worked up today as they did then. The words directed to the umpires are just about the same, with the possible exception of the McCamey, Texon and Crane fans back in the days of the far-famed, semi-pro Permian Basin Baseball League.

Come to think of it, Tom, perhaps we had better stick with the umpires . . . for the good of baseball, not because most fans have any particular affection for umpires.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson says: Taxpayers are railroaded for railroads.

WASHINGTON — Twelve little words, which the White House has slipped into a railroad reform measure, could cost the taxpayers a whopping $250 million a year.

That comes close to $21 million a word. The costly, 12-word clause is buried in an ant bed of print, where congressmen aren't supposed to notice it.

It appears as a simple, 12-word adjustment of government rail freight rates, a seemingly insignificant clause in a massive, highly technical railroad bill.

At present, the Interstate Commerce Act authorizes low rates for government shipments. The cheap rates were worked out years ago to repay the government for giving the railroads perpetual rights-of-way on government land.

The 12 words simply state that the low rates would apply only in time of war. This would cost the taxpayers $242 million a year in Pentagon shipments alone, not to mention well over $7 million for nonmilitary goods.

The Nixon Administration was responsible for snookering this $250 million clause onto page 98 of the 106-page railroad measure.

But President Ford's people have been alerted to the 12-word giveaway by the Pentagon, which is caught in an inflationary squeeze and can't afford to pay $242 million more a year in freight charges.

Still Trying

Yet the White House, despite Ford's appeal to reduce government spending, still is trying to slip the $250 million clause through Congress.

The boondoggle is described in secret official correspondence and confidential General Accounting Office report, which we have uncovered as part of our watch on waste.

The GAO report claims that the rails carried at least 5.3 billion tons of government goods during a seven-month survey. The payout from the U.S. Treasury was $90.8 million under the existing low rates.

As evidence this was no hardship upon the railroads, the GAO alleges it cost the railroads only $37.2 million to deliver the government shipments. Even this figure was jiggered up slightly by the railroads, the GAO suggests.

In other words, even under the low rates, the railroads salted away a generous $43.6 million profit. But if the new White House rates had been used, the same shipments would have cost the taxpayers $186.4 million and the railroads would have wound up with a staggering $149.2 million profit.

The giveaway clause was discovered by cost-conscious Deputy Defense Secretary Bill Clements, who wrote a panicky "Dear Roy" letter to White House budget boss Roy Ash.

Clements said the White House rates would cost the Pentagon $242 million in the first year and would soar to $1 billion during the first five years.

A few weeks later, the General Services Administration (GSA) learned of the hidden rate change. Acting Administrator Dwight Ink also wrote privately to Ash of his "deep concern" at the $7 million or more it would cost other claims the study. Lung cancer alone, it alleges, is up 10 to 20 fold since 1930. Every time air pollution increases 10 per cent, the death rate goes up almost 1 per cent . . .

In its customary style, the Food and Drug Administration announced in a recent recall report the seizure of a large shipment of prophylactics in Kansas, charging that the "product contains holes."

An FDA spokesman explained to us that they were less concerned about the ineffectiveness of the contraception devices than the potential of spreading social diseases . . .

Although federal law prohibits the government from assigning its employees to work for private enterprise, Interior Secretary Rogers Morton seems to be doing just that. We recently reported that Yosemite Park rangers have been used by Universal Studios in connection with a film in the park.

Congressmen Henry Reuss, D-Wis., and John Dingell, D-Mich., now have informed Morton in a private letter that the rangers unwittingly may be violating the law . . .

The General Services Administration's new federal information center already riddled with time-card faking, favoritism on work hours and fraudulent promotions. At last three bosses at the center are under investigation for their unethical practices.

WASHINGTON WHIRL: Heading President Ford's call for a cutback on federal spending, Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Casper Weinberger has been slashing his budget in all the wrong places.

His most recent call for austerity could result in the needless deaths of hundreds of children. He has come out against the Camp Safety bill, which would force safety standards on summer camps . . .

A confidential Federal Energy Administration paper estimates that pollution causes $6 billion damage to health each year. "Air pollution causes cough, throat discomfort, eye irritation, shortness of breath, respiratory disease, asthma attacks, chronic bronchitis, emphysema, cardiorespiratory disorders, excess mortality and lung cancer."

RAY CROMLEY Letting The Fox In The Henhouse

WASHINGTON (NEA)—There is an old saying that where there is power, it inevitably will be used.

That axiom applies just as well to the power of money from the federal government's treasurer as it does to the power of money from corporations, unions or trade associations.

The recently-approved national clean election law ignores this truism and that should disturb every American.

We rightly have been concerned about the corrupting influence of huge donations to political candidates from milk producers, real estate operators, union political action funds — any special interest lobbyist. So the law just enacted restricts the size of private donations and the amount of money which can be spent by national candidates.

The law includes provisions for funds raised previously from private sources with $40 million in government funds to go to presidential candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties.

We ought to be as suspicious of huge amounts of federal money being spent in elections as we are of huge amounts of private money. The federal government is not some objective, disinterested oracle divorced from the frailties of man.

The federal government is controlled by human beings and my experience with them has taught me they will devise ways to use that $40 million in money power to control presidential candidates in ways we will not like.

If history is any teacher, these controls will start out as insignificant restrictions which most of us will believe to be wise. They will be so minor that no one will be able to seriously object. Gradually, the web of controls will grow stronger, weakening the independence of the men running for President.

Before casting that thought aside, think back on the 200 years of this country's history. Recall how the federal government has increasingly taken over power from the states, cities and individuals. This accumulation of power has been accomplished through the reinterpretation of laws. It has been made possible through the control of the purse, by the inability of the states to unite and the failure of many states and localities to deal with pressing social and economic problems.

The powers over interstate commerce granted the federal government by the Constitution have been stretched to cover industries and businesses which by no stretch of the imagination are interstate commerce in the original meaning of that term.

The monies voted education in federal bills and through aid to impacted areas have been used to dictate to colleges and secondary and primary schools what some of their policies should be.

The huge federal purchases by the Defense Department and other agencies have been used to force private companies operating in local states to comply with Washington policy.

Welfare programs of the individual states, heavily aided from Washington, have been required in important respects to follow criteria laid down by federal officials. In some cases the federal rulings have resulted in major improvements. In other cases the results have been disastrous.

We should be thoroughly aware of the fact that we are exchanging one set of pressure groups for another. And it should be made clear we do not know where this change will lead. But some points can be made. The pressures exerted by individual donors tend to balance themselves out to some extent.

RALPH NOVAK Revealing Some Little-Known Factsoids

NEW YORK (NEA) — As everyone knows, the most interesting part of any newspaper (with the possible exception of satirical commentary columns) is the fillers. These are tidy one-paragraph items editors plop into the end of columns when a story doesn't quite run long enough. They are usually something like "Molybdenum, whose atomic number is 42, is mined in the Central African Republic." Or, "The duck-billed platypus is found in southern and eastern Australia, not to mention Tasmania."

These are gems of eternal truth amidst the skittery uncertainty of day-to-day news, obviously. The problem is we don't see enough of them during these days of continuing crises. So here are a few recent fillers you might have missed:

— There are three government officials currently holding office in the United States who have never received gifts or contributions from Nelson Rockefeller; they are the mayors of Muscle Shoals, Ala., and Puxtawney, Pa., and a Vegetarian party city councilperson in Connersville, Ind.

— Steak is an animal-derived food that used to be eaten by wealthy Americans in the early days of the Republic.

— Football was invented in 1969 by Howard Cosell.

— Americans consume enough gasoline every year to provide three Arabian potentates with fuel to drive to and from their banks for a decade.

— For one person to wear a WIN (Whip Inflation Now) button for one day consumes 27 calories and disgusts 37 per cent of the passersby.

— Television industry executives estimate that the average intellectual level of their viewers is that of a 13-year-old child; the average intellectual level of television industry executives is that of a six-year-old.

— Many residents of Boston and other large American cities are thrown into fits of childish frenzy by the sight of a yellow bus.

— Nobody has ever determined how many Democratic presidential candidates can dance on the head of a pin but we may find out soon.

— Connie Stevens became an actress when she was unable to find a job as a car-hop.

— Attila the Hun was not a member of President Nixon's staff.

— President Nixon was not a member of Attila the Hun's staff.

— The Constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press was created to protect the New York Times from criticism when it raises its newsstand prices.

— The entire population of Klamath Falls, Ore., has never heard of Mick Jagger.

— The mixture of inflation and recession is known to economists as "a big mess."

— Some historians say Shakespeare's "Hamlet" was a pieced-together version of a series of newspaper fillers originally written for the "Stratford Sentinel."

— The unpopular interlock system had required motorists to buckle their seat belts before starting their cars. Although he signed the bill repealing the requirement, he said, "I give my strongest recommendation that all Americans follow the sound advice which tells us to buckle up for safety."

He also urged motorists Monday to observe the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit.

The repeal provision was part of a bill requiring establishment of minimum school bus safety standards within 15 months. The act also sets procedures for the remedy and recall of certain defective motor vehicles without any charge to the owner.

The bill was one of 23 that the White House announced Ford had signed.

Among them was a bill repealing laws permitting police to make raids without knocking under some circumstances.

TEXAS POLITICS— Granberry Admits Underdog Status

By The Associated Press Republican Jim Granberry admits he is the underdog in the governor's race but thinks he still has a chance to win in next Tuesday's general election.

"If my grassroots support continues to grow the way it has in the last few weeks, I believe we will win," Granberry told an Austin news conference Monday.

His main opponent, Gov. Dolph Briscoe, remained in Uvalde to be with his critically ill mother. He has canceled his campaign appearance for this week.

McDonnell in Dallas Area The American Party candidate for governor, Sam McDonnell, visited the Vought Systems division plants of LTV Aerospace in Dallas and in Grand Prairie Monday.

Granberry was to speak at those plants today.

Rep. Lindon Williams, D-Houston, pinch hit for Briscoe before a group of Texas war veterans in Houston. Williams told the crowd Briscoe had endorsed and will actively support legislation moving Veterans' Day back to its original date of Nov. 11.

The Democratic candidate for state comptroller, Bob Bullock, told Texas Municipal League delegates in Fort Worth "it's stupidity to charge school buses a state gasoline tax on one hand and worry about better school financing on the other."

"I've heard of robbing Peter to pay Paul but it's ridiculous to put a state gas tax on a county maintainer going out to work a county road," he said in prepared remarks.

Bullock said there is ample precedent for exempting city, school and county-owned vehicles from the state gasoline tax and pointed to the lower motor fuels taxes authorized for private transit systems operating under city franchises.

The Republican candidate for comptroller, Nick Rowe, said in Waco that the state could cut costs and improve efficiency if the comptroller's office would provide fiscal guidance to other state agencies.

Rowe outlined an eight-point program that included creation of a non-partisan committee of leading business experts to study state operations and spending.

"The day of the low profile in the state comptroller's office must come to an end," he said.

Manufacturers Hike Wholesale Cigarette Prices

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale price hikes of 70 cents per 1,000 cigarettes announced by two major tobacco firms could have some smokers paying two cents more per pack.

On Monday the Lorillard Division of Loew's Corp. said its increase will be implemented Nov. 4, and the Philip Morris, U.S.A. firm said its price boost will begin Thursday.

Last Friday, a third major tobacco manufacturer, R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc., said it would raise its wholesale prices 50 cents per 1,000 cigarettes, or ten cents per carton. Liggett & Myers, Inc., another large tobacco producer, said it was studying the increases.

Reynolds said the increase was a result of a 20 per cent rise during the past year in the price of leaf tobacco.

By BECKY HALL, LINDA EWAN and TANYA JONES

Howdy, Rebs! We really had a big week last week and from the looks of the calendar, this week is going to be bigger and better. But before we get into that big schedule for this week, let's look at what happened last week.

Our Stonewall Brigade stomped the Steers 8-7 Thursday. Friday morning, we got off to a great start with a pep rally that lifted spirits and kept them high all day. The spirits peaked Friday night in Big Spring when our Maroon Platoon marched over the Steers, 27-7.

Then Saturday night, MHS joined with Lee in kicking-off Halloween with a carnival and dance. Thanks to the CANO club, the junior class, the sophomore class, and the Bio-Med club for setting up booths and helping to make the event a success! Also thanks to the people who helped decorate and clean-up. We had a great time. Sorry if you had to miss it.

Our debate squad went to its first tournament Saturday at Andrews. LES placed two teams: Kevin Clark, Kent Sutton and Susan Tomlinson, Elizabeth Richardson. Congratulations to these Super Speakers!

The Rebel Choir really has been busy this week getting ready for a genuine Spook House! It is guaranteed to be a night of "thrills." So the place to be is on the corner of Mississippi and Weatherford Streets Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. Besides getting all the vampires, witches and fortune tellers together, the choir also was busy preparing for all-region choir try-outs. Congratulations to all the singers.

Saturday night, the Midland Junior Assembly held its dance at the good 'ole Lee Y. C. Sure hope everyone had fun! Thanks to all the people for decorating and a special thanks to all for cleaning up; Janis Sanders, Jane Kauffman, Barbara Weatherspoon, Sara Alexander, Donna Causby, Carolyn Collins, Jean Ashland, Susan Wallace, Sharon Sides, Deanna Whisnand, Brenda Cary and others.

Hey, Y. C. has a batch of "Maroon Platoon" bumper stickers. They are only 50 cents each. Our batch isn't big, so get your stickers and then buzz on over to Odessa for the J.V. game. The defeat of Permian J. V. is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Fly Field. See Ya There!

Congratulations to the Key Club for its victory over the band last Sunday. The football game was lots of fun, besides being rather funny.

Suicide Verdict Returned In Death Of Bell Executive

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A ruling of suicide has been returned by the Dallas County Medical Examiner in the death Oct. 17 of Southwestern Bell executive T. O. Gravitt.

Dr. Vincent DiMalo, the assistant medical examiner, ruled Monday Gravitt died of "carbon monoxide intoxication." Gravitt, the chief executive of Southwestern Bell's Texas operations, was found in the garage of his home.

He held the title of vice president in charge of operations. Dr. DiMalo had held up his findings in Gravitt's death pending the outcome of an internal investigation currently under way into Southwestern Bell's Texas operations. Auditors are currently checking financial records in San Antonio amid reports of suspected kick-backs in regard to Southwestern Bell purchases of right-of-way and equipment.

Gravitt's body was found in the closed garage of his home and a car was running. A spokesman for Southwestern Bell said Saturday the company would make a full public disclosure concerning the probe when it is completed.

If you can find a better Vacation Value in the whole wide world, We'll return your $99.50

Here's What You Get 3 DAYS & 2 NIGHTS FOR TWO ON BEAUTIFUL PADRE ISLAND INCLUDING

- Round Trip Airfare for Two
• Luxurious Air Conditioned Room for Two at the Red Carpet Inn (or equivalent accommodations).
• $40.00 Scrip Money for Meals at the Restaurants of the Red Carpet Inn and Padre Isles Country Club.
• Fishing
• Tennis
• Greens Fees & Golf Cart
• Boat Tour of Padre Isles
• City Tour of Corpus Christi
• Barbecue Party Friday Evening
• Cocktail Party Saturday Evening

Transfers to and from Corpus Christi Airport and Padre Isles—and, in addition, our glorious beach, delightful Gulf and beautiful Country Club where you and your spouse can sun, swim and enjoy all the fun you can cram into three days.

What is the Actual Retail Value of this $99.50 Vacation for Two?

Let's start off with the airfare. Check any airline flying to Corpus Christi. You'll find that round trip economy airfare for two is more than the entire cost of the vacation. Two nights at the Red Carpet Inn, which by the way is right on the beach, is, at least, $60.00. You already know we're giving you $40.00 to pay for food and beverages at excellent restaurants. Now, let's add the balance of the vacation package which includes all the golf you want to play on our 18 hole golf course and all the tennis you want to play on our six courts, fishing, a refreshing boat tour, a Corpus Christi car tour, barbecue and cocktail parties, free transfers—and you've got a package that would cost you between $400.00 and $500.00. You and your spouse are getting all of the above for $99.50.

The Big Question: WHY?

Padre Island Investment Corporation and Island Homes, Inc. are the joint sponsors of this unprecedented vacation offer. Both companies are subsidiaries of Budget Industries, Inc. listed on the New York Stock Exchange. We want you and your spouse to stay with us in Padre Isles and experience our life style. We're going to host you all week-end and include a 2 1/2 hour escorted tour of Padre Isles, which is one of America's last remaining sports and water oriented shoreline communities. You may see a homesite or a vacation home, a town house or condominium that you may want to purchase and we have mortgage money available. That's why!

Limited Accommodations—Reserve Today

We can only accommodate a limited number of guests on any week-end so we suggest that you phone immediately or send in the coupon today to assure yourself of the week-end of your choice.

and ask for Miss Millie. We will make your reservations subject to receipt of your check. Or, mail the coupon with your check for $99.50 made out to Padre Island Investment Corporation. We will call you to confirm your reservations and mail you your prepaid round trip airfare tickets.

Encouraged Investors Spur Stock Market Prices Gain

NEW YORK (AP) - The stock market advanced sharply in accelerated trading today amid investor encouragement and the market's recent resilience in the face of a steady stream of bad economic news.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial was up 12.75 at 846.59, and gainers led losers by better than 3 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange.

Brokers said the stage was set for the rally Monday, when the Dow recouped most of a large early loss despite a series of gloomy developments relating to the auto industry.

Armstrong Corp was the most active NYSE issue, up 1/4 at

Dear Abby

-By Abigail van Buren

Nothing Helps Popularity Like Winning $100,000

DEAR ABBY: I have had lots of problems but I never had one like this, so here goes my first Dear Abby letter.

I am a 57-year-old working man. I lived with my folks most of my life, but they are both dead now, so I'm living alone.

When I was younger I would ask girls for dates, but I got turned down, mostly because I wasn't very good-looking and didn't have much money. Being alone so much caused me to be kind of shy. I never enjoyed being alone, I just got used to it.

Well, I took a chance on the state lottery, and won $100,000. I had never won anything in my life. I still can't believe it, but it is true. Now I've got so many friends (mostly women). I almost have to hide.

I would like some female companionship, but don't want to end up married to some gold-digger. I don't have any experience at all when it comes to judging women, Abby, so how can I protect myself?
E. B. IN ATTLEBORO, MASS.

DEAR E. B.: Don't go in for anything as permanent as marriage until you know the woman well enough to trust her completely. Then see a lawyer about a pre-nuptial agreement. (He'll explain it to you.) You took a chance on a lottery and won, and marriage is a bit of a gamble, too, but the better you know the candidate, the smaller the risk.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter and her husband (married only a few months) both go to college and live with me. He is a fine young man and I like him, but he has one serious fault. He will not get up in the morning for his classes.

It breaks my heart to see my daughter calling him, going back to their bedroom, shaking him, pleading with him, and wearing herself out trying to get him up in the morning.

He was dropped from his 8 o'clock class because he missed so many classes. Naturally, he lost that credit. Now he is sleeping through his 9 o'clock classes!

I have wanted to tell her to simply pour ice water on him, but I've used remarkable restraint staying out of this daily hassle. Any suggestions?
MOM

DEAR MON: He's your daughter's problem, not yours. If she were wise, she'd wake him once only, set the alarm to give him a five-minute grace period, then go about her business. If he knows he has to get up — he will. And if he doesn't, let him suffer the consequences.

DEAR ABBY: I wonder how many people realize the difference between the way HER mother is treated and the way HIS mother is treated?

So many young husbands are so busy with earning a living that they leave matters entirely to their wives, and consequently on Mother's Day, HER mother will be honored, and when (and if) it's convenient, HIS mother will be honored.

Another thing. Let's have a Grandma's Day for HIS mother. With so many broken marriages these days, the paternal grandmother loses all contact with her grandchildren. It's always HER mother who gets to see the grandchildren, and do for them. HIS mother loses out and is soon forgotten.

My son is married and divorced. His wife has the children, and now it's almost as though I have no grandchildren. Maybe if you print this, it will be seen by mothers who don't realize the hurt some grannies suffer from divorce. Thank you.
MISSING MY GRANDCHILDREN

DEAR MISSING: When marriages break up, there is usually bitterness on the part of the wife. And just or not, she usually get the kids. There are exceptions, but the ex-wife doesn't usually feel too kindly toward her ex-in-laws, and part of the punishment she feels "his family" has coming is depriving them of their grandchildren.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

65, was formally Kenneth Ray Steele. Mrs. Alger, who was divorced from former Dallas Congressman Bruce Alger in 1961, was shot three times in the face and neck with a .25 caliber automatic pistol, and Steele was hit in the shoulder and forehead.

Police said Glenn Miller, a resident in the Steele home, Steele's daughter Theresa, 19, Mrs. Alger and Steele were watching television when Patton, described as a friend of Mrs. Alger, and W. W. Bobo were admitted early Sunday.

Witnesses Tell Of Argument
Witnesses said an argument developed and when Miss Steele went to a neighbor's home to call police, Steele and Mrs. Alger were killed.

Bobo said he disarmed Patton, but Patton left the house and later surrendered to police. Alger who was for many years Texas' only Republican congressman, was elected to the House in 1954 and served until defeated for re-election in 1964 by former Dallas Mayor Earle Cabell, a Democrat.

Mrs. Alger said at the time of her divorce in 1961 that she was a political widow.

Barbara Jordan Says Ford's Tax Proposal Doomed

HOUSTON (AP) — A five percent surcharge proposed by President Ford on individual incomes above $7,500 will not be approved by Congress, U.S. Rep. Barbara Jordan, D-Tex., predicts.

"We don't consider an individual income of $7,500 or a family income of $15,000 as middle or upper income," she said at a meeting of the Houston Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants Monday night.

"I'm not saying there won't be any move to alter the tax structure to help the problem of inflation," she said.

Ribbon-Cutting Rites Slated Wednesday For Gibson Discount Center Expansion

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies for the new 18,000-square-foot expansion to Gibson Discount Center will be held inside the store at 3111 Cuthbert St. at 10 a.m. Wednesday. Officials of the Midland Chamber of Commerce and The City of Midland will be on hand for the event.

The 18,000-square-foot expansion to office, toy and warehouse facilities is also being celebrated with the kickoff of a "remodeling sale" starting today, according to Ray Boulter, store manager.

Boulter said the expansion released an extra 12,000 square feet of selling space by freeing areas of the store previously used for storage.

Boulter noted that every aisle in the store has been expanded to a minimum of 6 feet in width. He said that customer flow and ease in shopping was the primary reason for increasing the aisle width.

Area Builders of Odessa handled the expansion and improvement project that increased the total store area to 108,000 square feet of working space.

Other improvements included in the expansion project include a new employe break room, and the complete remodeling of the pharmacy to allow for more working area.

Boulter said a new purchase lay-away service counter and storage area are included in the remodeling. He pointed out that complete resurfacing of the parking lot facility is planned for the near future.

Gibson Discount Center presently employs 152 persons, but Boulter noted that another 16 part-time employes would be carried during the Christmas shopping season from Nov. 1 to Jan. 1. He said a new electronic cash register system, installed as a part of the expansion and improvement project, would also relieve the heavy Christmas shopping load.

GIBSON'S COMPLETES EXPANSION—The area shown to the right of the sign recently was completed as a major expansion to Gibson's Discount Center. Ribbon-cutting ceremonies at 10 a.m. Wednesday will formally open the store's new area.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS TOYS — The recent 18,000-square-foot expansion to Gibson's Discount Center comes in handy just before the Christmas holiday season. Thousands of toy items are housed in the new area.

PHARMACY IN NEW HOME—Gibson's Discount Center has relocated its pharmacy and shelves for drugs and medicines in the new addition to the store at 3111 Cuthbert St.
