Seven Die In Terrorist Raid

Israeli Troops Storm Building, Gun Down Arabs

By The Associated Press

Israeli troops stormed an apartment today and gunned down four Arab terrorists holding 75 hostages. Enraged townspeople threw the guerrilla bodies out a window, doused them with gasoline and set them ablaze. Two Israeli housewives and a man were killed in the incident at the town of Beit Shean and Information Minister Aharon Yariv said all three were shot by the terrorists, two as they tried to escape down a stairway. Twenty people were injured leaping from windows.

Arab students in east Jerusalem and occupied West Jordan staged violent anti-Israeli demonstrations for the fourth straight day. Israeli security forces detained 40 Arab youths after the students began pelting police with stones, police reported.

Police and soldiers watched helplessly in Beit Shean as a body went up in flames and people screamed "Another one! Another one! Death to the terrorists!"

The terrorists struck before dawn in the town of 20,000 near the Sea of Galilee and the Jordan border and held the building for three hours until Israeli troops attacked.

The injured were taken to a hospital in Afula, 15 miles away. Many of them were children, and all had sprains and fractures suffered when they leaped from the besieged four-story building.

"Our people are very emotional about terrorists and I don't think they are responsible for their actions today," said Mayor Yitzhak Kenan. "We have a long account to settle with the terrorists."

Kenan said the guerrillas came dressed like laborers carrying sacks on their backs. "They sprayed every doorway in the building with bullets from their Kalashnikovs and broke into a third-floor flat and killed Mrs. Bibas," said a stunned survivor, Mrs. Zohara Bibas, a 50-year-old mother of three, was the first victim.

"Then they kept firing and throwing grenades from the window. A wrecked living room in one of the building's 12 apartments showed where the terrorists made their last stand. Bullet holes scarred the blood-stained walls and broken plaster covered a shelf.

Security forces said they found 12 pounds of explosives and 14 hand grenades in the room. "This morning's attack has strengthened Israel's resolve never to deal with the PLO," said an aide to Premier Yitzhak Rabin. "The casualties of Beit Shean are an example of the peace and harmony projected for this country by Arafat and his band of killers."

He was referring to Yasir Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization, which Arab leaders have recognized as the leader of Arabs living under Israeli occupation.

The Popular Democratic Front, a splinter Marxist Palestinian guerrilla group at odds with Arafat, announced in Damascus that the raiders were members of the front. It (See TERRORISTS Page 6A)

Ford Begins Talks With Japanese

FIRST U.S. PRESIDENT TO SEE COUNTRY

TOKYO (AP) — President Ford began the first American presidential visit to Japan today by meeting with Emperor Hirohito and assuring Prime Minister Kakuei Tanaka that Japan can count on "a stable supply of agricultural imports from the United States."

Ford invited the emperor to visit the United States next year, renewing an invitation first extended three years ago, and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger told a news conference the invitation was accepted.

Nuclear Question Ford's talk with Tanaka and other high-ranking Japanese officials also dealt with the local, touchy question of nuclear weapons aboard U.S. Navy ships visiting Japanese ports, the global oil situation and U.S. relations with China and the Soviet Union.

Kissinger said Ford expressed his desire to maintain a steady flow of U.S. agricultural shipments to Japan. The flow was disturbed last year when President Nixon temporarily imposed an embargo on soybean exports, a major source of protein in the Japanese diet.

The secretary of State said the President also "expressed his understanding for the special sensitivities" of the Japanese about nuclear weapons. Nuclear weapons are barred from Japanese territory, and Tanaka's government was acutely embarrassed when a retired American admiral told a U.S. congressional committee earlier this year that American Navy ships visiting foreign ports did not unload their nuclear weapons.

Kissinger said any special questions arising in the nuclear area would be handled by him and Foreign Minister Toshio Kimura. Meeting Previewed Ford also gave Tanaka and his colleagues a preview of his meeting in Vladivostok next weekend with Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev. Kissinger, who will go to Peking from Vladivostok, said he would stop in Tokyo next week to tell the Japanese leaders about the meeting with Brezhnev and his talks with the Chinese.

The meeting between Ford and the emperor — to the strains of the University of Michigan fight song — was the first between a Japanese ruler and an American president on Japanese soil. Though entirely symbolic, Kissinger said it was the part of Ford's visit that "has meaning to the Japanese people," an indication that it was considered the most significant part of the visit.

Looks Uncomfortable Ford, looking uncomfortable in cutaway and striped trousers that were a bit too short for him, received the emperor at the Akasaka state guest palace where the President is staying. After the two stood at attention for the playing of their national anthems, they met the Tokyo diplomatic corps and reviewed an honor guard in the cobblestoned palace courtyard.

It was then that the Japanese military band struck up Michigan's "Hail to the Victors," which the former Michigan football star often has played instead of "Hail to the Chief" during his appearances in the United States. The stooped, bespectacled emperor, who is 73, then took Ford for a 10-minute drive to the Imperial Palace where the President met Empress Nagako and had a private chat with the couple.

At the same time stiff southwest winds raked West Texas from the Panhandle southward into areas west of the Pecos while a weak new cold front pushed down from the north west with a promise of another freeze for some sections tonight. Skies were generally clear to partly cloudy early in the day over roughly the west half of the state and cloudy elsewhere.

Fog cloaked areas around Del Rio, Cotulla, San Antonio, Austin, Beaumont-Port Arthur and Texarkana, prompting travel advisories in several areas. Drizzle compounded the situation around San Antonio and Cotulla. There also were occasional thundershowers in East Texas. The Associated Press reported.

Temperatures near Dahn ranged from 38 degrees at Dahnhart in the Panhandle up to 74 at Brownsville and Victoria on the coast. Wednesday's forecast is for continuing fair and mild fall weather with highs predicted for the middle 60s.

Dense fog dropped visibility to zero in places and made travel hazardous in a number of localities from Southwest Texas through the middle of the state and into East Texas.

Philippine Envoy Released

WASHINGTON (AP) — A father seeking the release of his son from the Philippines held the Philippine ambassador and a wounded aide hostage for almost 12 hours before throwing down his gun and surrendering. Napoleon Lechoco tossed the weapon from a second floor window of the Philippine chancery about 2 a.m. today and surrendered peacefully after receiving word that his son, who he claimed had been prevented from joining the rest of the family here, had left the Philippines by airliner.

"Mr. Lechoco felt he had accomplished what he set out to do," said embassy spokesman R. V. Cruz. Taken Into Custody Lechoco was taken into custody by FBI agents, and an official said he would be arraigned today on charges of assaulting a diplomatic officer. Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos had sent his personal assurances to the embassy here that Napoleon Lechoco Jr., 24, would be allowed to leave if his father would free the hostages.

The father said he would release Eduardo Z. Romualdez and his economic attache two hours after his son was airborne, and on the appointed hour the surrender took place. Philippine diplomat Jose Naldo said. En Route to U.S. In Manila, authorities said the son was en route to the United States. They said he was picked up early today from the home of his grandfather in neighboring Quezon City.

Gary R. Alexander, Lechoco's lawyer, said Marcos had assured that young Lechoco would "receive immediate and safe release and conduct to the United States on the first available flight." Romualdez was released unharmed, but the attache, Mario Lagdameo, had a deep flesh wound which doctors at George Washington University Hospital said was caused by a gunshot. Naldo said Lagdameo, who holds a black belt in karate, was wounded when he tried to wrestle with Lechoco. He said (See PHILIPPINE Page 6A)

Oil Allowable Set Full For 33rd Straight Month

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission set the statewide oil allowable today at 100 per cent for December, the 33rd consecutive month for all-out production.

Major purchasers of Texas crude oil asked for 4,041,289 barrels a day in December, a decrease of 33,912 from this month. Twelve of the 14 major buyers asked for the same amount in December as in November.

Atlantic Richfield Co. raised its nomination 10,000 barrels a day to 180,000, but a spokesman said he did not know why. Gulf Oil Corp. dropped its nomination 3,500 barrels to 175,000, and a spokesman said the new figure indicated a general decline in production.

As usual the allowable for the mammoth East Texas field was restricted to 86 per cent of potential. Nominations by major purchasers of Texas crude oil for December, in barrels per day, with changes from November in parentheses:

Amoco 350,000
Atlantic Richfield 180,000 (up 10,000)
Chevron 77,800
Cities Service 118,000
Continental 54,500
Diamond Shamrock 36,000
Exxon 805,000
Gulf 175,000 (down 3,500)
Mobil 345,000
Phillips 115,000
Shell 300,500
Sui 225,000
Texaco 223,000
Union of California 95,000

Cooler Weather Due Tonight

The Tall City forecast calls for sunny and warmer temperatures this afternoon following Monday's high of 70 degrees recorded by the National Weather Service at Midland Regional Air Terminal.

High today is expected to near the 80-degree mark with temperatures forecast to drop into the upper 30s tonight. The weather station at Air Terminal recorded a trace of moisture this morning which brings the monthly total for November to 72 inch. Total rainfall recorded for the year at Air Terminal is at the 20.25-inch mark.

Wednesday's forecast is for continuing fair and mild fall weather with highs predicted for the middle 60s. Dense fog dropped visibility to zero in places and made travel hazardous in a number of localities from Southwest Texas through the middle of the state and into East Texas.

Supermarket Chain Official Says Firm's Profits Nonexistent Two Years Ago

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the nation's largest supermarket chains today disclosed its markups on the retail price of meat to support its contention that the difference between what a farmer receives and a consumer pays "is not attributable to profiteering by supermarket chains."

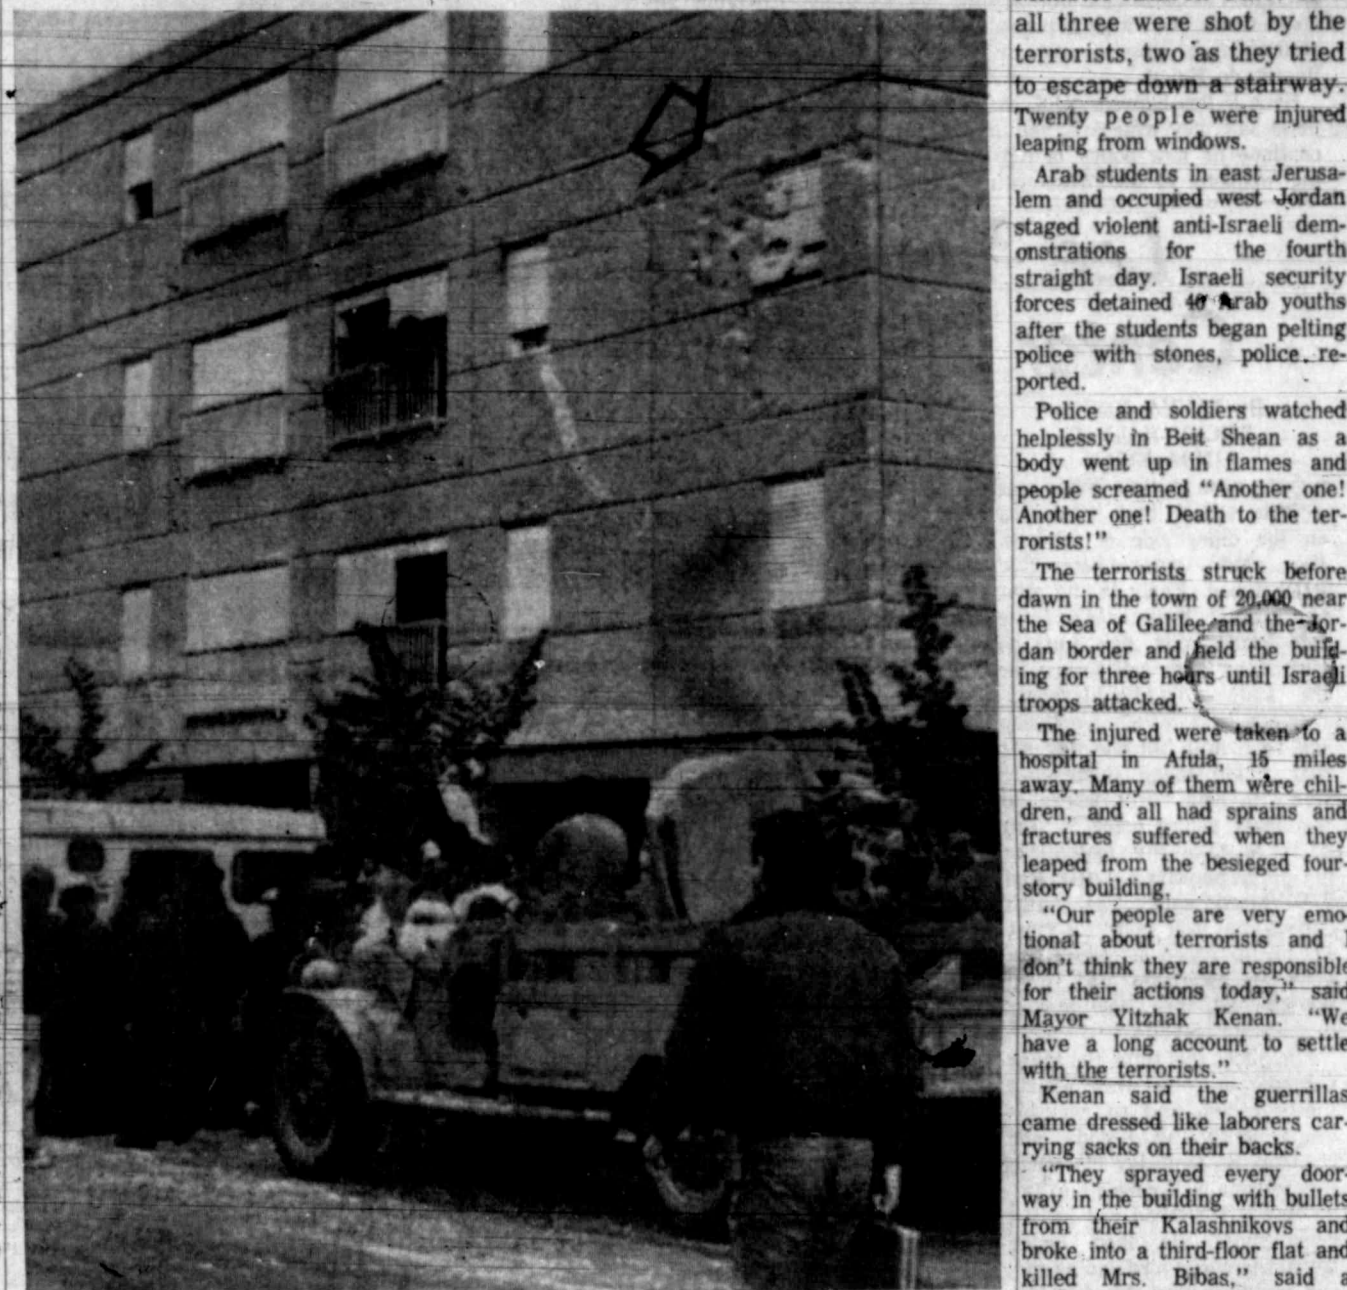

John J. Cairns Jr., vice president for merchandising of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. Inc., told a House subcommittee that his corporation's profits, no matter how they are calculated, are among the lowest in the retail food industry and were nonexistent two years ago.

Strike Idles Bus Line

By GINNY PITT Associated Press Writer Greyhound buses which usually carry about 190,000 passengers daily on scheduled routes were strike-bound today at terminals throughout the country. The line's chartered coaches were still operating.

There were isolated reports of stranded travelers after drivers and other employees walked off their jobs. But most Greyhound passengers were transferred to trains or buses of other lines.

Negotiations between the firm and the Amalgamated Transit Union broke off an hour after the strike began at 2 p.m. EST Monday, when a contract extension expired.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Energy Administration, battling a challenge against its crude oil allocation program, has sought a court injunction to make Texaco Inc. sell oil to two small independent refiners. The action was filed Monday by the Justice Department on behalf of FEA in the Federal District Court in Wilmington, Del., the FEA said.

JERUSALEM (AP) — An Israeli official says his government's forces will take quick, rapid action against Palestinian guerrillas wherever they are — in Israel, the Arab states and all over the world. ## Dorchester Finals Lea Gas Strike

Dorchester Exploration, Inc., operating from Midland, has announced the completion of a Morrow gas-condensate discovery in Lea County, N.M., 11 miles south of Buckeye.

No. 1 Henry Record gauged a calculated, absolute open flow of 3.846 million cubic feet of gas per day, plus 133 barrels of 50.8-gravity condensate per million cubic feet of gas.

Production was through perforations at 12,529-12,536 feet. Drilled to 12,780 feet, it has 5 1/2-inch casing seated on the bottom.

Well site is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 26-19s-35e, three miles southeast of the Quail Ridge (Morrow) gas field.

Eddy Test Flows Gas From Morrow

Mesa Petroleum Co., Midland, was drilling below 13,501 feet in lime, shale and sand on a 13,700-foot Morrow contract at No. 1 Nash Unit, Eddy County, N.M., wildcat, 18 miles southeast of Carlsbad, after taking a drillstem test, probably in the Morrow.

Tool was open three hours on the test taken from 13,324-13,485 feet, using a 2,500-foot water blanket.

Water blanket surfaced in 24 1/2 minutes and gas surfaced in 45 minutes. Gas flowed on a 3/4-inch choke at the rate of 3 million cubic feet per day, and increasing on a 1/2-inch choke to a stabilized daily rate of 4 million cubic feet in two hours. The sample chamber yielded 8.125 cubic feet of gas with a trace of drilling fluid.

Flowing pressure was 1,348-2,260 pounds; two-hour initial and four-hour final shut-in pressures were 5,901 and 5,821 pounds, respectively.

Earlier, it flowed gas on a drillstem test in the Strawn from 12,010-12,173 feet; on a drillstem test in the Wolfcamp from 11,343-11,535 feet, and recovered condensate-cut drilling fluid and flowed a small amount of gas on a drillstem test from 10,549-10,677 feet. Also, a test from 4,702-4,760 feet flowed a small amount of gas.

It spots 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 13-23s-29e, 1 1/2 mile north of the Remuda (Wolfcamp) oil field and three miles west of the Fortyniner Ridge (Morrow) gas area.

Gaines, Crockett, Kent Tests Slated

Wildcats have been scheduled in Gaines, Kent and Crockett counties.

Western Reserves Oil Co., Midland, plans to drill No. 1 Wolfe Estate as a 10,000-foot venture in Gaines, 24 miles southwest of Seminole and one mile northeast of Wichita-Albany production in the Block A-28 field, in Andrews County.

France Delivering Planes To Egypt

WASHINGTON (AP) — France has started delivering Mirage fighter bombers to Egypt, a step regarded as first-hand evidence that Egypt is turning to France for new weapons in an effort to broaden its sources of arms.

Meanwhile, Pentagon sources said that they have detected no dramatic increase in the level of Soviet arms shipments to Syria. Israeli officials claimed last week that 20 Russian vessels were unloading weapons in the Syrian port of Latakia.

Egypt has received no new military equipment from the Soviet Union and only two shiploads of Soviet spare parts since last April, administration sources say. The Soviet shipments arrived shortly before Egyptian President Anwar Sadat announced his country was ending its nearly 20-year dependence on Russia for arms.

Shipments May Resume

However, U.S. analysts believe that a visit by Soviet Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev to Cairo next January could result in at least a partial resumption of Russian arms deliveries to Egypt.

Even if this happens, U.S. experts say they expect Egypt to continue its new policy of buying weapons in the West with the aid of money put up by oil-rich Arab states.

Reports that France would become a major supplier to Egypt began circulating in August after France ended its seven-year embargo on arms sales to Israel and neighboring Arab nations.

Jets Returned

Cancellation of the embargo was prompted by Egypt's public acknowledgement that Libya had sent 26 French-supplied Mirages to Egypt secretly during the Mideast war last fall.

Egypt since has returned the Mirages to Libya.

Administration sources say that French pilots have flown three Mirage V fighter bombers to Egypt, the first deliveries on an order expected to total 36 planes. The Mirages are being paid for by Saudi Arabia, the sources say.

To Join Air Units

Egypt has a group of pilots with experience in flying Libya's Mirages, so the newly-acquired planes can be expected to join front-line Egyptian air units with little or no delay.

While Egypt has been cut off from new Soviet weapons, U.S. intelligence sources have reported a steady stream of arms from Russia to Syria since the October 1973 war.

If it's worth 3 weeks to pick out that gift, it's worth 3 minutes to wrap it right.

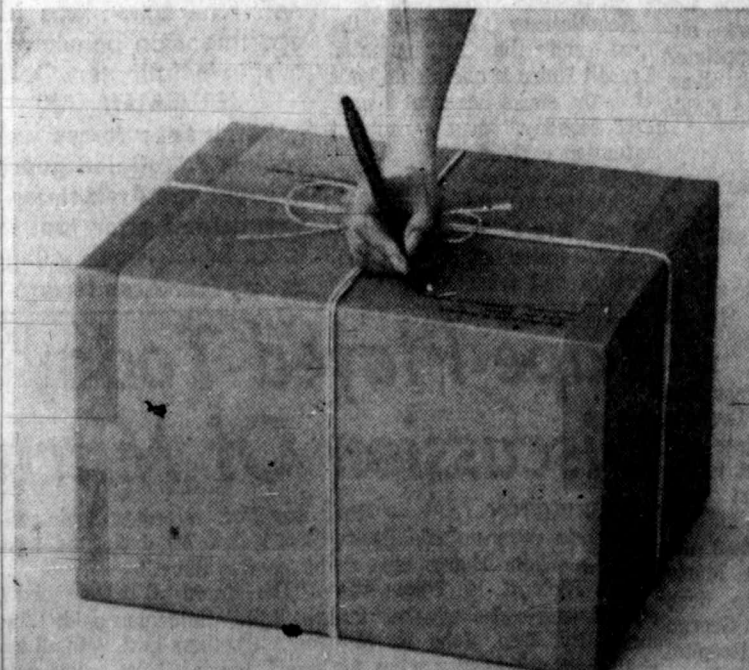

Wrap with enough padding to prevent damage.

Place in corrugated box.

Seal with tape and tie with twine.

Address on one side only.

When you send someone a present, you want them to receive it looking like a present. So they'll know you not only cared enough to take the trouble to pick out a gift. You also cared enough to make sure it arrived in the condition a gift should arrive.

Follow these steps:

1. First, make sure whatever you're mailing is well-cushioned, so nothing is loose inside. (Yesterday's newspaper makes a good padding.)
2. Even if your gift is in a gift box, put it inside a sturdy corrugated box. (Make sure this is well-cushioned, too. More newspaper will do that.)
3. Put a slip of paper with the full address and your return address inside the corrugated box. Seal with tape and tie with twine. (That address inside the box is worth remembering because if the outside becomes unreadable, the Post Office will still know where to deliver the package.)
4. Write or print the destination address and your return address (both with Zip Codes) on the side of the package you put the postage.

In a real hurry?

When you need to send your gift in a real hurry, then send it Priority Mail—that's Parcel Post by air. That will get it anywhere in the country in just 2 or 3 days. And if the gift is valuable, be sure to have it insured.

You'll find that when you take a few minutes to wrap it securely, your gift should get where it's going still looking the way it did when you bought it at the store.

Lee Youth Center Chatter

By TANYA JONES, BECKY HALL & LINDA EWAN

Once upon a time there was a little school that lived way on the other side of Abilene. Her name was Little Red RIDERhood. Early in the year her student body said, "Little Red RIDERhood, you must go across the state and search for the state football championship." So, off she went. She did very well 'till one day she met a big tough Confederate wolf. He said "Just where do you think you're going?" "I'm going to take my football to the state playoffs," Little Red RIDERhood said. The tough Confederate wolf said "I'll meet you on the green astro-turf this Saturday afternoon and we'll see who will take their goodies to the state playoffs."

And about this time, the tough Confederate wolf was feeling pretty proud, and so was his whole family, his friends, and his fans. So Saturday the tough Confederate wolf gobbled up Little Red RIDERhood and he felt very good! He then began devouring every bird and animal and anything that dared get in his way of the state football championship. He went all the way to state! Come on men, hitch your wagon to a star!

Once upon a week ago, the Maroon Platoon made a dream of 14 generations of Rebs come true. This was made true by a 7-7 (this is it) tie against Midland High — end result was the 5-4A district co-championship and the right to represent the district in the state playoffs. The Stonewall Brigade started the whole story when they whipped the pups 39-13. With a combination like that, we had to win! The moral of this tale is, don't ruffle the Rebels! All the way to state!

Early Bird Catches . . .

Our legendary basketball team has been practicing long and hard. Last Friday, it won a scrimmage against Fort Stockton, preparing for the many scrimmages before the Tall City Tournament Nov. 29-30. We will be hosting several teams during the Thanksgiving holidays. To get a hint of another fantastic basketball season, be sure and come to the tournament and support our Rebs. All the way to state!

High school days don't last forever. Be sure to attend the College Forum next Monday night. A lot of colleges will have representatives here to tell you of their respective schools. Besides being informative, it's fun. All the way to state!

Hard Work Pays

The Band knows what work is, but the end result makes all of the work worth it. Our band received a 1 rating in Region 6, UIL Marching Band Contest held in Odessa last Saturday. To go to bigger and better things, the band members are selling candy for their spring trip. They need everyone's support. When a Rebel Bandster comes knocking at your door, buy a bargain and support the Rebs. All the way to state!

With The Strongest

We're gonna get the bell to prove it. The District 5-4A Championship Bell will prove that the Permian Dynasty officially is dead. Thursday, at 2:30 p.m. we will have a rip-roaring pep rally to send our guys to Wichita Falls. During this time, representatives of Permian High School will present the Bell to the Mighty Maroon Platoon. It'll be a full house, so hurry to the boys' gym Thursday, Friday morning at 7:30 a.m. a send-off pep rally will be held at the field house. Everyone will be there to see our Mighty Maroon Platoon off to a win over Wichita Falls Rider. Remember men, Little Red RIDERhood was just a fable. All the way to state!

And we'll live happily ever after!

Coronary By-Pass Surgery Can Lead To Over-Exercising, Death In Some

By PAUL RECER
DALLAS (AP) — A surgical technique to increase blood flow to the heart restores such a feeling of health in some patients that they are lured to their death through over-exercise, a doctor said Monday.

Dr. Ara G. Tilikian of the Palo Alto, Calif., Veterans' Administration Hospital said some patients receiving the surgery lose the chest pains which once limited their activity.

Without the pain, he said, they can sometimes exercise themselves into new problems. Exercise which is too severe can cause them to develop arrhythmias, or irregular heart beats.

"In our studies, one man got a lethal level of arrhythmias," said Dr. Tilikian.

Factor Removed
The absence of the chest pain removes a natural limiting factor, he said, and creates the need for doctors to establish a maximum exercise level for the patients.

Dr. Tilikian's statements were based on study of a group of patients who received a coronary by-pass. This is a procedure to establish a new path for blood to flow to the heart in patients with blocked arteries. The procedure involves grafting a vein, usually from the patient's leg, onto the diseased artery. The graft is attached upstream and downstream of the artery block to establish a clear blood flow.

Exercise More
In a comparison with a group of heart patients treated without the surgery, he said, "it was clear that the patients assigned to the surgical group were able to exercise more, and much fewer of this group developed chest pains."

The surgical group, however, had "a tendency to develop more severe arrhythmias," Dr. Tilikian said such surgical patients should be evaluated on a treadmill to establish their precise level of safe exercise.

"We should not be complacent after the surgery," he said. "We should determine the few who will push themselves too far and set limits for them."

Dr. Tilikian presented a paper on his findings at the opening day of a week-long meeting of the American Heart Association.

Reports On Surgery
A panel of doctors at the meeting reported on the coronary by-pass surgery. They said it is relieving patients of the severe chest pains called angina pectoris and that evidence is developing that the procedure will prolong life.

But the doctors noted that even such surgery is "not solving any basic problems" for the patients. They continue to develop artery blockages, a condition that may be associated with diet and smoking.

Dr. Frank E. Johnson, a Minneapolis, Minn. surgeon, said he has seen even grafted veins become occluded as early as 14 months after surgery, a result he blamed on the patient.

"It is very discouraging to me to see a patient go home and put on another 20 or 30 pounds because they feel so great (from the surgery)," he said.

More than 9,000 doctors are attending the heart-association meeting.

Space Could Become Haven For Healing, Doctor Says

DALLAS (AP) — If engineers can figure out an easy way to get patients up and down, space may become a haven for healing, a doctor said here Monday.

Dr. Charles Berry, a former space agency doctor, said the lack of gravity in space may be an ideal environment for patients recovering from heart attack or cardiac surgery.

The problem is the stress of getting the patients into and out of space, he said.

With current technology, astronauts must endure stress of up to four times the force of gravity during launch and re-entry, he said.

"There are ways to lessen the G (gravity) loads," said Berry, "enabling patients to be taken to and from space."

Weightlessness, he said, "would have certain advantages in treating burns and fractures."

It would also have the advantage for the cardiac patient of "off-loading the heart," that is, removing the stress caused by the tug of gravity. The heart, in effect, would not have to battle gravity to pump blood through the body.

"There are a lot of things to overcome before we can use space as a treatment device," he said, "but I wouldn't be surprised to see that happen."

Briscoe Admits He Received Manges Money

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe admits he received—but says he did not accept or use—a $15,000 cash contribution from a prominent South Texas rancher-banker during his 1972 gubernatorial campaign.

The contribution from Clinton Manges was never reported because it was never really accepted, Briscoe said in a deposition taken last week and made available to The Associated Press.

The Democratic chief executive of Texas insisted that he did nothing wrong and that he tried numerous times to return the money to Manges.

Money In Safe
The cash, most of it in $100 bills, according to Briscoe, is in a safe in his lawyer's office in Houston. The lawyer, Joe Reynolds, says he has the original bills.

District Court Judge Herman Jones has ordered Briscoe to appear by 9 a.m. Nov. 25 and show why he should not be ordered to protect the cash and preserve it from any alteration.

Jones issued the order Monday after accepting an affidavit from counsel for Frances Farenthold, who was defeated by Briscoe in the Democratic primaries in 1972 and again this year.

The affidavit, filed in 53rd District Court by Terence O'Rourke and Raymond Needham, contained the first indications of what Briscoe had sworn in the deposition taken last Thursday.

$15,000 Protected
O'Rourke told Judge Jones in the affidavit that information in the deposition warranted protection of the $15,000 which reportedly is in the safe of Briscoe's lawyer.

Mrs. Farenthold is seeking $2.5 million in damages from Briscoe under the new campaign finance disclosure law.

She alleged Briscoe received contributions for his 1974 election campaign before appointing a campaign manager as required by the new law.

Her lawyers, O'Rourke and Needham, seek to make the 1972 Manges contribution a part of the suit, according to Reynolds.

Reynolds told The AP Monday night, "There is no violation of the law... none whatever. Briscoe never accepted the money and the guy (Manges) said he'd take it back. Manges was supposed to have picked it up."

In an interview from his Uvalde ranch Monday night, Briscoe told The AP: "I want to make this point. If I had it to do again, I would do the same thing.

"I'm convinced I was right in not accepting the money. It has not been utilized in any campaign or for any other purpose and I'm convinced I did the right thing."

Details Given
In the deposition, Briscoe detailed how he received the money and how it ended up in Reynolds' safe in Houston.

Manges has a long association with Duval County political bosses George and Archer Parr.

The governor said Manges delivered the $15,000 to his Uvalde ranch after the May 1972 Democratic primary. Briscoe was away campaigning at the time, but his ranch manager, Edwin King, accepted the money and gave Manges a receipt. Briscoe said Manges asked for the receipt, although the governor said he does not have a copy.

When Briscoe returned to the ranch, King informed him about the contribution.

"I told Ed we could not accept it. It was more than I could accept from one individual, whom I had not known long and did not know well, and that I would get in touch with Mr. Manges and ask him to pick up the money," Briscoe said in an interview which closely followed his deposition.

"I did get in touch with him (Manges), had a nice conversation, said he would come by and pick up the money. This went on for some time and he did not come by," Briscoe said.

Original Money
In the meantime, Briscoe said the money was kept, in its original condition inside a packet, at his ranch office.

The governor said he talked personally "about four times" with Manges and on numerous occasions, on the telephone, each time asking him to come get the money.

Briscoe said the last time he talked with Manges, "we agreed to turn it over to our attorneys and let them work out returning the money. It was at that time I turned the money over to Mr. Reynolds."

Reynolds received the money in late September or early October, Briscoe said.

Even after Reynolds had the money, he said, he continued to seek its return to Manges.

"I felt I should not accept, and I did not accept it. And he said that he would pick it up."

Acquitted Deputy To Return To Job
HOUSTON (AP) — A deputy sheriff found innocent of a murder charge will return to work Wednesday, Sheriff Jack Heard said Monday.

Charles Edward Gendrett, 43, was cleared by a jury Friday in the fatal shooting last Dec. 13 of Guadalupe Lopez, 19. Gendrett said he shot the youth after a car chase when Lopez slashed at him with a knife.

because it was not accepted, nor utilized, nor used in the campaign.

"None of it was ever used, ever mingled or co-mingled with any of the money, other money, and the Manges money remains intact (in Reynolds' safe)."

Briscoe acknowledged that some campaign contributions were returned, mainly those from corporations.

He said no one, to his knowledge, had recorded the serial numbers on the Manges cash.

Needham, one of Mrs. Farenthold's lawyers, said Briscoe's sworn deposition "partially confirms similar information obtained independently by my office through the work of our own investigators, as well as from other sources."

Briscoe does not have to appear personally in Judge Jones' court. He can be represented by his lawyer at the proceeding.

Pioneer To Face Radiation Danger In Jupiter Sweep

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pioneer 11 will face a greater radiation danger than any previous spacecraft when it sweeps within 26,600 miles of Jupiter on Dec. 3, project officials report.

The robot explorer could be damaged so severely that it would be unable to carry out the second phase of its long interplanetary journey, a dash across the solar system to a 1979 rendezvous with Saturn.

Radiation To Soar
"The radiation counts will probably soar at a pace that will scare us half to death just before closest approach," said B. J. O'Brien, Pioneer project manager at TRW Inc., which built the satellite for NASA.

Launched 20 months ago, Pioneer 11 is following a path blazed by its twin, Pioneer 10, a year ago. Pioneer 10 zipped 82,000 miles above Jupiter and its cameras and instruments provided science with startling new facts about the colossus of planets.

The newest probe will scout a different region of the planet, including the north and south poles.

Going Closer
"The experimenters measured a lot of intense radiation last year with Pioneer 10," said O'Brien. "This time the spacecraft is going three times closer. The closer you get to the planet, the more a given particle's energy climbs."

Fortunately, much of Pioneer 11's photographic and other investigative work will be completed by the time it hits the heavy portion of the Jovian radiation belt.

"If we hear nothing after it passes through, sure we'll be disappointed; we'll have missed the bonus," O'Brien said. "But we will have achieved our basic objectives — to see new faces of Jupiter, get a different cut through the radiation belts. We'll know more about how to design the next spacecraft so it can survive a passage that close to the planet."

The bonus he referred to is Saturn. That originally was not part of the flight plan. But scientists since have discovered a unique way to use the gravity of field of Jupiter to hurl Pioneer 11, slingshot fashion, on to Saturn.

'Deep Throat' Declared Obscene

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — "Deep Throat" was declared obscene Monday when the man who brought the film to San Antonio was found guilty of the misdemeanor offense of exhibiting commercial obscenity.

Richard C. Dexter, 27, of San Antonio, faces a $1,000 fine and six months in jail following his conviction on County Court at Law No. 3.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Nov. 19, the 333rd day of 1974. There are 42 days left in the year.
Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1863, President Abraham Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg Address.

On this date:
In 1497, the navigator, Vasco da Gama sailed through the passage to India around Africa's Cape of Good Hope.
In 1794, the United States and Britain signed the Jay Treaty, adjusting issues that had not been settled in the Revolutionary War.

In 1831, the 20th American president, James Garfield, was born on a farm near Mentor, Ohio.

In 1874, the National Women's Christian Temperance Union was organized in Cleveland, Ohio, to work for prohibition.

In 1919, the U.S. Senate rejected the World War I Treaty of Versailles.

In 1954, it was announced that the United States would build a radar warning network across arctic Canada.

Ten years ago: Premier Alexei Kosygin was reported to have told visiting U.S. businessmen the Soviet Union might be willing to make a token payments on its wartime lendlease debt.

Five years ago: Apollo 12 astronauts Charles Conrad and Alan Bean achieved man's second landing on the moon.

One year ago: Prices on the New York stock market made their sharpest drop in more than eleven years as investors worried about the energy crisis.

Today's birthdays: India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi is 57. Television personality Dick Cavett is 38.

Thought for today: There will never be a generation of free men until there has been a generation of free women — of free mothers. — Robert G. Ingersoll, American lawyer and statesman, 1833-1899

Two Charged In Shootings Near Fabens

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — A Carefree, Ariz., couple remained in critical condition early today after they were dragged from their motor home, robbed and each shot in the head near Fabens in West Texas.

Police charged Donald Hungerford Plourde, 20, of Stanford Springs, Conn., and Sonny Lyman, 20, of Price, Utah, with two counts each of attempted murder and two counts each of aggravated robbery. $210,000 Bond Each

They were held in El Paso County Jail in lieu of $210,000 bond each, Justice of the Peace James Aycock said.

The victims of the Sunday shooting were identified as Andrew "Scotty" Wardrop, 66, and his wife Chloe, 62. They underwent surgery Monday at Eastwood Hospital.

Wardrop was a vice president of the Ford Motor Co. Glass Chemical Division before his retirement, police said.

The robbery-shooting occurred as the couple prepared for an evening meal at a roadside park about a mile east of Fabens on Interstate 10.

Wardrop told police two men appeared at the door of the motor home and one robbed them at gunpoint. The Wardrops then were forced to disrobe completely and walk to a spot in the desert about 100 yards from the park.

Both Shot In Head
The couple then was forced to lie on the ground and each was shot in the head. One assailant roared off in the motor home.

Both victims crawled back to the park, where a passing motorist saw them and went for help. Wardrop gave officers a description of the assailants and of his motor home.

Police surrounded the motor home at a truck stop, where it was stopped next to another car. Police said Lyman was driving the car. The car attempted to drive off but was stopped at a roadblock. Plourde was the driver of the motor home, police said.

Origin In China
Italian spaghetti had its origin in China. In the 13th century, traders brought Chinese noodles to Italy that resembled spaghetti.

Prison Job Plan Draws Union Fire

HOUSTON (AP) — The Texas Legislature was urged Monday to take a close look at a program which places convicts in jobs in private industry.

Don Horn, secretary-treasurer of the Harris County AFL-CIO, said the legislature should consider amending the law to provide greater supervision to stop prison inmate-workers from taking part in union elections.

Earn Regular Wages
Under the work-release program, convicts nearing the end of their sentences are taken by bus to work every day where they earn regular wages and then back to prison at night.

Horn complained that inmates are sometimes hired when civilian workers are looking for jobs. He also said that, in one case, inmate-workers at a plant in New Waverly provided the margin in a certification effort to defeat an attempt to unionize the workers.

School Bus Crash Injuries Not Serious

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — Two pupils remained in a hospital today with slight injuries suffered as their school bus collided with a tractor-trailer rig north of here.

Authorities said the bus overturned on impact, injuring slightly 41 pupils.

Cindy Barrett, 11, and Michael McCallum, 13, were listed in satisfactory condition early today at Good Shepherd Hospital, where they were admitted for observation—Cindy with a possible head injury and Michael a possible back injury.

The pupils were released to their parents at the hospital. The accident occurred on U.S. 259 about 8:30 a.m. as the bus tried to make a left turn onto a farm road. Investigators said the tractor-trailer rig was attempting to pass at the time.

LULAC Files Suit Naming Bell, City Of San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) has brought a $100 million damage suit against Southwestern Bell and the city of San Antonio.

The class action suit filed Monday in state district court alleges that granting of the various telephone rate increases was not justified, beginning in 1966.

LULAC alleges in the suit that rate increases have been "unlawful and illegal" without sanction, and subject to rescission or revaluation by the present elected officials of the city.

Telephone rate hikes are approved by the city council. The suit states as a result of these hikes, LULAC claims, at least $50 million in "unwarranted profits" have been taken in by Bell.

A spokesman for Bell declined comment. He said company lawyers had not looked at the suit yet.

Strike Ties Up Greyhound Buses

cities. In some, such as Boston, which also serve local commuter and other bus lines, pickets were stationed in driveways but not at passenger entrances. Greyhound's chartered buses continued to operate with union permission. One union official said some charter buses may be operating for another week. Supervisory personnel staffed terminals in many areas, handling telephone inquiries, refunding tickets, referring passengers to Amtrak trains and Continental Trailways buses and checking out baggage.

Tickets Honored
Both Amtrak and Trailways agreed to honor Greyhound tickets. Amtrak spokesmen said Greyhound was making up any cost differences between train and bus fares.

Many passengers said they were not inconvenienced by the strike. Trailways terminals were more crowded than usual Monday night, but not overflowing.

Negotiations began Sept. 16 in Phoenix, Ariz., where Greyhound's national headquarters are located. At that time, the union demanded an across-the-board pay hike of 60 cents an hour, according to William Brummitt, president of the union's Phoenix local. Bus drivers also asked for a one-cent-a-mile increase, he said.

The old contract called for an average wage of $5.76 an hour or 21.8 cents a mile, whichever was greater.

Union officials blamed the strike partly on disagreement over the length of a new contract and difficulty in bargaining for the first time as a nationwide unit. Previous contracts had been negotiated separately for drivers on either side of the Mississippi River.

Supervisors Man Texas Bus Depots

DALLAS (AP) — Operations of Greyhound Bus Lines in Texas have been halted by a nationwide strike, Greyhound regional manager Roy McDaniel confirmed today.

He said the 1,300 contract employees in the state were not working. McDaniel said supervisory staff members are manning the company's Texas terminals and handling ticket refunds and reissues.

Philippine Envoy Freed

the three men spent most of the siege lying on the floor of Romualdez's office because Lechoco feared the possibility of sniper shots through the windows.

Negotiations prior to the surrender had been going on since shortly after Lechoco took the two men hostages around 3 p.m. EST Monday. Police quickly made telephone contact with Lechoco, and FBI agents entered the talks.

Lechoco's wife was taken to the embassy to relay the Philippine offer directly to her husband, including news that the son would be freed when the hostages were released.

Lechoco walked into the Philippine chancery Monday afternoon after requesting an appointment with Romualdez last week to meet with leaders of the Filipino community here.

Naldo identified Lechoco as head of the Filipino Political Action Committee in Washington. Lechoco, about 43 years old, was described by neighbors as a civic leader in suburban Oxon Hill, Md., where he resided.

Lechoco was accompanied to Romualdez's office by Lagdameo, Naldo said.

"The next thing we knew, three shots were fired," Naldo said. "Mario fell and we all had to go out."

Ringed Building

Washington Police, FBI agents and uniformed officers of the Secret Service's Executive Protective Service, which guards embassies here, quickly ringed the four-story brick building.

Naldo said when Lechoco took his hostages he was complaining about the detention of his children in the Philippines and of the martial law that country has been under since September 1972.

Philippine officials said Lechoco's oldest son was being investigated in connection with an unspecified transaction in the Philippines but denied there was any undue delay in the processing of his travel papers.

Cruz had said the Philippine government would not press charges against Lechoco in U.S. courts. But he was taken into custody immediately when he finally gave up.

Naldo said both Lechoco and his wife are lawyers. He said Lechoco was a law clerk at a Washington law firm. Lechoco and his wife reportedly moved to the United States several years ago and gained permanent resident status. Six of their children joined them about a month ago.

Mills Talks Of Windfall Oil Profits Tax In Quickie Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress will pass major tax revisions this year, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills says next year's new Congress probably will take up such a bill as a first order of business.

The House Ways and Means Committee, chaired by Mills, resumed work Monday on legislation to increase taxes on oil companies and lower them for average taxpayers.

The committee is expected to approve some type of slimmed-down bill in a bid to have something to show for several months of work on tax revision proposals. But congressional sources said there was virtually no chance such legislation could be cleared by both House and Senate this year.

Mills originally wanted the committee to produce a streamlined package of tax changes to offer for House action next week. But he said Monday there is no hope of gaining a House decision that quickly on the complex matter.

Mills suggested ending the oil depletion allowance on Jan. 1, 1975, instead of phasing it out by 1979, as the committee decided previously. The allowance saves oilmen between $2 billion and $3 billion a year in federal taxes.

The panel's staff experts suggested these features could be put into a slimmed-down bill: a temporary excise tax on windfall profits of petroleum producers, the end of the depletion allowance, a boost in the investment credit for some public utilities, a series of changes in foreign income features of U.S. tax law, and some tax cuts for average Americans.

The tax cuts would include increasing the maximum standard deduction, used by taxpayers who do not itemize on their return, from $2,000 to $2,500 and boosting the minimum standard deduction that benefits low-income persons from $1,300 to $1,600 for singles and to $1,900 for couples.

Clayton Held In Shooting

CRANE — Bennie Joe Clayton, 33, of Crane was being held in Crane County Jail today in connection with the Sunday shooting of Pete Burdette.

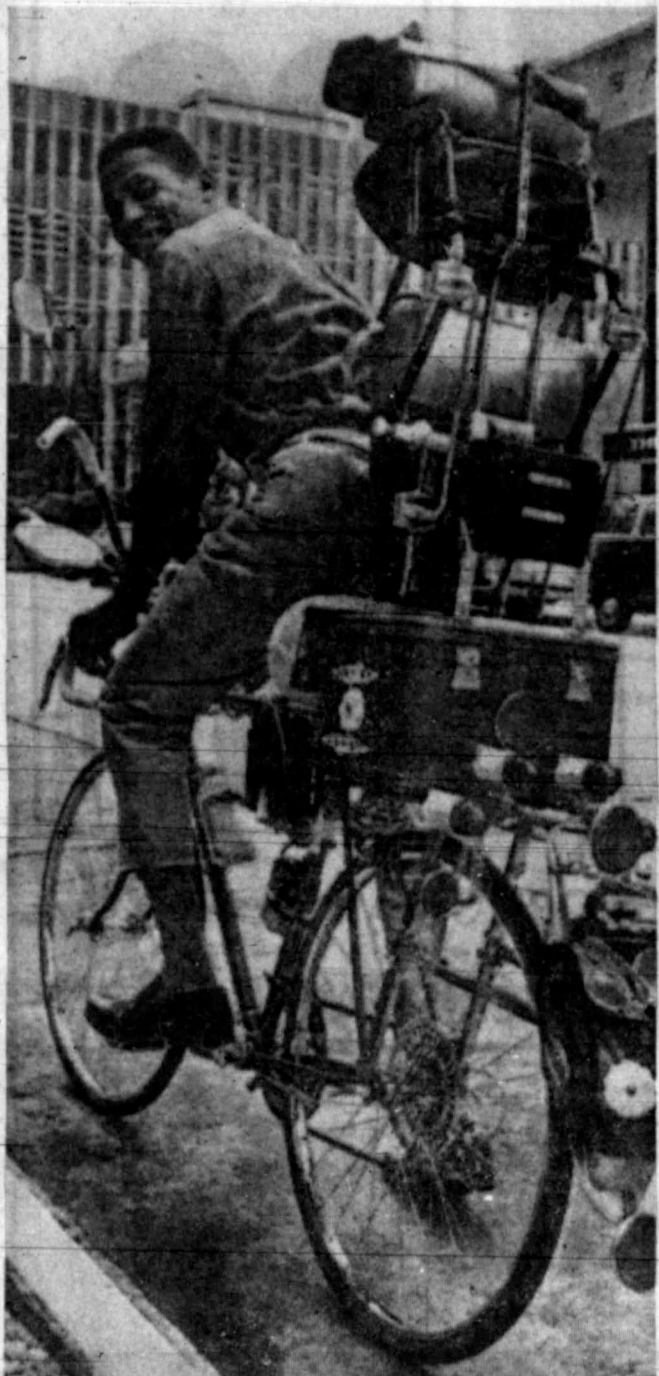

Clayton is charged with involuntary manslaughter and Justice of the Peace Mrs. Clara Comer set a bond of $50,000.

The shooting occurred at Burdette's house and Burdette was shot once in the chest. A 22 caliber weapon has been recovered in the shooting.

Clayton was arrested at the Burdette house two miles northwest of Crane shortly after the shooting.

said their purpose was to force Israel to release 13 guerrillas and Archbishop Hilarion Capudji of Jerusalem, a Greek Catholic prelate charged with smuggling arms to Arab terrorists.

The guerrilla announcement said the raiders were members of the Popular Democratic Front's "Tiberias unit," a claim that they came from within Israel and not from Lebanon, Syria or Jordan.

Townsppeople said the terrorists seized the apartment house about 5 a.m., throwing hand grenades and shooting bursts of submachine-gun fire as they broke in. Troops and police units rushed to the scene, sealed off the area but did not attack for more than three hours.

Meanwhile, shooting and explosions were heard inside the building. Residents of the town, which once was a frequent target for artillery fire from Jordan, took cover in air raid shelters.

After the soldiers shot their way into the building and killed the Arabs, hundreds of furious townspeople swarmed in and grabbed the four corpses.

MH-MR Center Adds Eight New Staff Employees

Eight new employees were hired for the Permian Basin Mental Health-Mental Retardation Center at the Monday noon meeting in the offices of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission.

In addition to expanding personnel, directors approved resubmitting a grant application to the Hoggie Foundation for Mental Health for a human potential center to be jointly operated by MH-MR and The University of Texas at the Permian Basin.

The application had been returned earlier with proposed changes, and will be reviewed in December.

During the meeting, H. W. Hise, chairman, pointed out to directors the area MH-MR facilities are seeing 24 persons each hour and opening a new case every two hours.

The new employees hired at the session include Mrs. Andrea Mead, evaluator in the Odessa training facility; Maria Boyd, bilingual case worker in Odessa clinic; Willie J. Ross, trainer in the Midland training facility; Allan Edson, production supervisor at Midland training facility; John Eatwell, educational diagnostician at Odessa clinic; Mrs. Tommie Lee, alcoholism counselor in Odessa clinic; Joe Bell, alcoholism counselor at Midland clinic, and Charlene Bomer, part-time nurse at Odessa clinic.

Supreme Court Curbs States' Business Regulatory Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today curbed the power of states to regulate out-of-state firms doing business within their borders.

In an 8-to-1 decision, the court said Mississippi could not prevent out-of-state companies without Mississippi business licenses from suing in state courts for breach of contract.

In another decision, the court ruled unanimously that former employees of a bankrupt firm have the same priority in collecting back wages as the government does in collecting income-tax withholdings. Government attorneys had argued that the tax-withholding claims should be given a higher priority.

The justices also issued an unsigned opinion requiring a federal district court to hear a Virginia man's challenge of his conviction under a state narcotics law later declared unconstitutional.

Later this term, the court will take another look at the ground rules for intervention by federal courts in state prosecutions.

The court agreed Monday to hear arguments that federal judges should have stayed out of a California obscenity dispute and a New Jersey conspiracy case involving a former state judge.

The cases were among five which the court agreed to review.

The others involve: —A decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals in New York that minimum commission schedules set by stock exchanges are immune from anti-trust regulation because they are governed by Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

—A federal district court decision that a century-old admiralty rule requires each party to pay for half the damages in maritime damage cases, no matter how the blame is distributed.

—A ruling by the Mississippi Supreme Court that a state may impose sales tax on federal gasoline taxes collected and held by a service station.

In the California obscenity case, Orange County authorities seized copies of the films "Deep Throat" and "The Devil in Miss Jones" from the Pussycat Theater in Buena Park. The three-judge federal court invalidated the seizures, saying California's anti-obscenity law was unconstitutional under standards laid down by the Supreme Court last year.

Attorneys for Orange County argue that federal intervention in this case "can only tend to encourage disrespect for the authority of a sister court — and of all courts."

meat department expenses increased by about 5 per cent while the gross margin declined about 1 per cent.

The chart he supplied also showed that, at 21.89 per cent of the retail price, the chain's meat margin was the highest since at least 1968 and its expenses the highest since a 1971 peak. For the second quarter of this year, the chart showed, meat expenses equaled 19.09 per cent of the retail price.

Broken down by month, A&P's reported margin shows a decline from 22.01 per cent in January and then a gradual rise to 22.76 in June and then another decline to 21.77 per cent in September. Expenses fluctuated more, going from 18.22 per cent in January to a peak of 19.38 per cent in August, before declining, according to the figures.

Other supermarket executives were expected to provide similar details about their meat departments.

Lee High Bumper Sticker Sale To Kick Off Tonight

Nowadays nothing's quite official until it's sanctioned by a bumper sticker.

So Lee High School band members have now seen to it the Rebel football players have the official laurels they are due.

The bumper sticker reads:

Midland Lee Rebels — 5-4A District Champions. Beneath the message is a further proclamation: "West Texas' Finest Band."

The stickers go on sale tonight at the Rebel Football Club meeting, with sales to students scheduled Wednesday at school. Persons interested in obtaining one may contact a member of the Lee band.

Sticker sales, however, are only a part of the preparation going into the overall mood of the high school which began today rolling full steam in a spirit drive toward victory over the Wichita Falls Raider Raiders at 2 p.m. Saturday in a bi-district game.

A week of spirited activities is in store for LHS students who Wednesday at 10:15 a.m. will witness a Raider funeral.

Giving the deceased Raider his final farewell will be cheerleaders Janet Moore, Jerry Willis, Polly Hance, Scott Standerfer, Nancy Angevine and Michael Byrd.

LHS Rebelettes are already involved in their traditional pre-game preparations — and then some.

The cheering squad hopes to attend the game despite a sudden loss of transportation when the Greyhound bus drivers went on strike Monday afternoon. At noon today, school officials still were attempting to find a means of transporting the Rebelettes to Wichita Falls.

The Rebel band has run across the same hard luck as the pep squad, but band director Ike Nail said this morning, "We'll be there one way or another!"

The accident occurred at 3:35 p.m. Sunday on the parking lot of the 7-Eleven Store at 3208 N. Midkiff St.

The girl was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital and released.

Police said witnesses told them the operator of the vehicle was wearing a red jacket and a helmet with stars and stripes on it. He is believed to be approximately 15 years old.

He was last seen headed east on Wadley Street.

Several baggies of marijuana and a gram of cocaine were found early today in a raid on the John Walker Buntin residence, 1203 Burchill St.

Arrested in the raid by state narcotics agents were Mr. and Mrs. John Walker Buntin. Each was charged with the possession of a controlled substance.

Bond for the pair had not been set late today.

A color television set was reported missing in the Tuesday night burglary of Mrs. Diane Thomas' residence, 515 E. Montgomery St.

Joe Keggler, owner, told police one of the statues was of a small girl and the other one was of a mother who was standing up.

Haldeman said that Ronald L. Ziegler, then presidential press secretary, believed that the targets of Watergate investigators were Colson. "They think he's the highest guy they can get on criminal in the White House and Mitchell on the outside," Haldeman said.

structure the investigation of the Watergate break-in.

The grand jury that indicted Nixon on March 1, 1974, named Nixon, who then was president, an undicted co-conspirator.

During the March 27 meeting, Haldeman gave Nixon a detailed account of how O'Brien and then-White House counsel John W. Dean III thought the political intelligence plan that led to the break-in had been approved.

business. We'll have Buckley write a column and say, you know, that he, that he, that he should have clemency, if you've given 18 years of service... That's it. It's on the merits."

Columnist William F. Buckley is a long-time friend of Hunt's and at one time served in the CIA with him.

Buckley said Monday in an interview, "I don't need to be reminded to write a column urging clemency even for... as Mr. Nixon should know from personal experience."

During that same discussion Haldeman and Nixon expressed concern that Jeb Stuart Magruder, former deputy director of the Committee to Re-elect the President, would break under pressure. On the other hand, said Haldeman, he wouldn't worry about Gordon Strachan, one of his aides in the White House.

"A hell of a guy," said Nixon.

They discussed Dean's theory that they try to protect the White House staff from Watergate disclosures, "draw the wagons around the White House."

"Who do you let down the tube?" asked Nixon. "Do you let Magruder down?" "You don't intentionally," replied Haldeman. "You leave Magruder — what you do is, you see, we're, we're doing stuff now. We're keeping quiet, and, uh, a, that... just try and cover — and, and putting up this money and, and everything else. We're trying to keep — when you get right down to it, as Dean says — the only White House guilt, culpability, is in the cover-up."

"Yeah," Nixon responded. "And what, what's the purpose of the cover-up, to protect the White House?" continued Haldeman. "No. It protects some individuals of the (re-election) committee."

"Mitchell, Magruder," said Nixon.

"If they get to Mitchell," said Haldeman, moments later. "Uh, he's awfully close to you." "Yeah," said Nixon. "He's not as close to you as Ehrlichman and I guess, that Dean and Haldeman now... Mitchell will find a way out," Haldeman said.

him, I think," he added. "But, Dean's thought, I think what convinced him to put the wagons around the White House is that it forced Mitchell to take the responsibility rather than allowing Mitchell to hide under the blanket of the White House."

Nixon's response is unintelligible.

"Mitchell, Magruder," said Nixon.

"If they get to Mitchell," said Haldeman, moments later. "Uh, he's awfully close to you." "Yeah," said Nixon. "He's not as close to you as Ehrlichman and I guess, that Dean and Haldeman now... Mitchell will find a way out," Haldeman said.

Dear Abby

—By Abigail van Buren

There Were 'Dats'— In Newspaper, Anyway

DEAR ABBY: Your correspondent was not crazy. There was an article in the newspaper stating that a dog and cat had been mated, and the result was a "dat."

In 1970, a London pet shop owner, Roy Tutt, claimed that he had accomplished that which zoologists declared was impossible. He bred "dats" from a black cat and a Scottish terrier. Tutt said they had heads like dogs, but they had fur, whiskers and claws like cats. And he even sent along some "pictures" of the newborn "dats."

Later he was forced to admit that it was all a hoax. I am a proofreader at the Daily News in Port Angeles, Washington, and am herewith enclosing the article and picture. DONNA GREIER

DEAR DONNA: Thanks. Your letter was the first I received to document the item. Subsequently, however, it rained cats, dogs and "dats."

DEAR ABBY: I've been married to a professional gambler for 14 years. We used to live in Nevada where gambling was legal, then we moved to a state where gambling is illegal. My husband operates a respectable cocktail lounge—but he makes his big money running a high-stakes poker game in the back.

Last week the police raided his place. The whole story was in the newspapers, and he showed up on television looking like a common criminal with his jacket in front of his face.

The next day he was back in the gambling business. (He said there had been a "mix-up in the payoff.")

Our two daughters (11 and 12) came home from school crying. They said the kids made fun of them because their father had been arrested. Now they don't want to face their friends at school.

I begged my husband to cut out the gambling business for our daughters' sake. He reminded me that the girls and I had enjoyed lots of luxuries because of his gambling business so we shouldn't complain.

I'd rather have less, and have my husband in a legitimate business. How can I get through to him?

HAD IT IN HOUSTON

DEAR HAD IT: Your husband has a point as far as you're concerned. It's something else with the daughters. You could have settled for less long ago. The girls had no choice. For their sake you should use every means at your disposal to persuade your husband to pocket his deck and go straight.

DEAR ABBY: In answer to the mother who is still nagging her tall 36-year-old daughter to "sit straight." I think I know the problem. The world is made to accommodate 5'3" to 5'5" women.

That tall daughter should raise her sinks, stove and counter area enough to accommodate her height, and then watch her shoulders move back! It worked for my daughter, and it took only a hike of three inches to do it. I have a snarlt husband.

DEAR 5'9": A husband who can raise a sink, stove and counter area—and is willing to do it in order to accommodate the tall woman in his home is indeed 9 feet tall himself.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this newspaper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Suicide Note Paints Picture Of Bell Corporate Political Entanglement

Existence of the note written by T. O. Gravitt of Dallas was confirmed Monday by an attorney for Gravitt's family and a former business associate.

"Watergate is a gnat compared to the Bell system," Gravitt said in the handwritten note found at his home in Dallas Oct. 17 by carbon monoxide poisoning.

Until his death, Gravitt was Southwestern Bell vice president for Texas. His career with the telephone company began in 1947 in Oklahoma as a rural equipment salesman.

San Antonio attorney Pat Malone, who represents the Gravitt family, first confirmed the existence of the letter and its author. Contacted by The Associated Press, James H. Ashley, a dismissed Bell executive and friend of Gravitt's, confirmed the contents.

Gravitt was under investigation by his company at the time of his death. Ashley subsequently was fired in the same investigation. Now, Ashley and Gravitt's family have filed a $25 million damage suit against Southwestern Bell.

The suit accuses the telephone company of conspiracy

Land Development Firms Enjoined

HOUSTON (AP)—Two land development companies and an individual developer agreed Monday not to make misrepresentations about developments in northern Harris and southern Montgomery counties.

An order signed by District Court Judge Paul Pressler also requires the companies—Cape Conroe Ltd. and Ves-Tex Land Development, Inc.—to refund money paid for land by five individuals.

The order enjoins the companies and James H. Wilkerson, president of American Land Co., from making false representations about the utilities and recreation facilities at two developments, Spanish Cove and Cape Conroe.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Kathleen Durckel said prospective buyers were told tennis courts, an Olympic-size pool, a marina and small lake were being built at the development sites when such was not the case.

which resulted in Gravitt's death. Ashley said Monday the Gravitt family brought him the letter, which he has turned over to attorneys in the suit.

Contents Published

The following contents of the letter were published locally and were confirmed by Ashley. Although this account does not mention names, the letter contained the identities of the persons to whom Gravitt referred.

The letter tells the following:—How utility commissioners in one midwestern state were flown to Florida on a pleasure junket aboard the company jet.

—How politicians are given Southwestern Bell credit cards enabling them to make toll calls without charge to themselves.

Humphrey Visits Israeli War Front

JERUSALEM (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey has visited Israel's front line with Syria and said he wanted to see how American weapons were being used and if consignments were arriving on schedule.

The Minnesota Democrat said he found Israeli troops on the chilly mountain plateau in high spirits, and he spent several hours Monday at the Ein Zivan kibbutz before flying back here for a meeting with Finance Minister Yehoshua Rabinowitz,

—How, when Gravitt first was transferred to San Antonio to be an area general manager, he was ordered to "get acquainted" with all politicians first—city councilmen, legislators and other VIPs, and to "use the A-C aircraft as needed."

—That all existing tapes in Southwestern Bell "security rooms" should be subpoenaed because of the massive monitoring equipment which Bell possesses.

—How politicians are given Southwestern Bell credit cards enabling them to make toll calls without charge to themselves.

—How politicians are given Southwestern Bell credit cards enabling them to make toll calls without charge to themselves.

Newborn Dairy Calves Slaughtered

MOUNT VERNON, Wash. (AP)—Newborn dairy bull calves in at least one Washington county are being slaughtered at the rate of about 100 a week because there is no market for them, farmers say.

Though less publicized than recent beef cattle protests, dairy farmers say they face the same sort of price squeeze. Farmers say they barely cover feed costs when they sell the animals.

the note referred to $1,000 salary hikes granted Bell executives with the clear understanding that each would give $50 a month to "a political slush fund."

Gravitt's suicide note also dealt with his personal problems, Ashley said.

He quoted the letter as saying: "Ever since last Thursday, I have not been able to keep my head from spinning. It hurts and I feel bad. I am afraid of brain damage. My right arm has started to go to sleep."

Employees Questioned

"This coupled with the fact the Bell system has permitted some of our people to question over 150 employees and in doing so has caused irreparable damage to my reputation. Questions like:

"1. Have you bought him gifts at his request? 2. Have you fixed him up with women? 3. Have you gone to bed with him? 4. Has he made a pass at you?"

"This is unfair for a company to do without letting me be present. They have accused me of being partners with contractors. This is totally untrue. "I did try to get reimbursed for using my airplane. It was used for company business and local politicians."

The company has made general denial of allegations in the suit filed by Ashley and the Gravitt family. One such allegation was that Bell deceitfully solicited rates in Texas city councils, since Texas has no state utilities commission.

Gravitt Implicated

In its denial, Bell for the first time said Gravitt was implicated in the company investigation in the use of personal expenses and handling of Bell supplies and purchases. The company said loss of company funds "was not significant."

In the suit, the plaintiffs deny Gravitt or Ashley were ever dishonest in their phone company dealings.

A Bell spokesman in San Antonio said the company had no comment on Gravitt's letter or its contents.

Religious Group Protests Showing Of 'Godfather'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A religious group has burned a television set to protest the television showing of the film "The Godfather."

About eight members of the National Youth Moratorium on Indecency assembled Monday night outside the local NBC affiliate, Station WOAI-TV, poured lighter fluid on the old television set and ignited it. Police and firemen were summoned and the blaze was extinguished. There were no arrests. The same group previously has held book burnings to protest the spread of pornography and obscenity.

Building Slump To Worsen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government figures have signaled a deeper slump ahead for the home building industry, and auto and steelmakers warn of production cutbacks that will trigger more unemployment.

The Commerce Department reported Monday that the number of new houses started by builders dropped for the fourth consecutive month during October to a total of 1,124 million units at an annual rate. The rate was off by seven-tenths of 1 per cent from September and marked the latest in what has been a steady home building decline from 1972.

Permits Decrease

At the same time, the number of building permits issued during the month totaled the equivalent of 802,000 units, the lowest since December, 1966, when 743,000 permits were handed out. Permit issuances usually anticipate new starts by from three to six months, indicating a further deterioration in the home building industry.

Meanwhile, plans for "substantial plant closing" in December were announced by the Chrysler Corp. Its chairman, Lynn Townsend, blamed the cutback on poor car sales, but said there will be no "company-wide shutdown."

More Layoffs

Townsend said there would be many additional layoffs in the coming two months as Chrysler trims 50,000 cars from its fourth-quarter production schedule. Some 26,600 Chrysler workers were on layoffs this week from a blue-collar workforce of about 100,000.

In the steel industry, the nation's two largest producers announced steps to cut production in anticipation of the coal miners' strike lasting at least three weeks.

U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's largest steelmaker, said it would start shutting down entire plants if miners do not return to work by Dec. 1.

Production Down

It reduced raw steel production by 25 per cent last week and curtailed hot metal production by 30 per cent, banking 17 blast furnaces and furloughing 13,700 workers.

The United Mine Workers bargaining council resumes talks on a proposed contract today, but there were indications that negotiations between the union and industry may be reopened because of reported dissatisfaction among union officials over the tentative settlement.

Banking Batteries

Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer, said it is banking four coke batteries at its Sparrows Point, Md., plant and is laying off 175 of its 22,000 workers there.

In another economic development, the Federal Reserve Board confirmed it began easing restraints on the nation's money supply in August. A report showed that the Fed then targeted money supply growth at from 4.75 per cent to 6.75 per cent. The figure represented an increase from the previous month's target growth of from 2 to 6 per cent.

5-4A Foes Give Support To Rebs

By TED BATTLES

On the surface it may have seemed like just another football Monday for the Midland Lee Rebels, but the jag of District 5-4A champion and the electric air of anticipatory excitement for Saturday afternoon's bi-district football game at Wichita Falls against the state's No. 1 ranked state AAAA eleven made it something special.

It was an historic Monday, in that it marked the first time a Lee team had been called

The Midland Reporter-Telegram

SPORTS

1B—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1974

upon to prepare for an 11th game and it is the first time in 22 years of AAAA competition that a Tall City squad has ever advanced this far.

In view of 5-4A's proud tradition in post-season play, there

Monday, they wished the Rebels success and pledged their support to the Lee team and Acree promised his Maroon Marauders would do their best to uphold the league's reputation.

It won't be easy. State pollsters claim the Rebels will be biting off the toughest first round assignment of all against the 10-0 Rider club.

However, playing top-ranked football teams is nothing new to Lee. San Angelo was No. 5 when it played Lee and the Rebels won 21-7. Odessa Per-man was No. 3 going into the game with Lee and when it was over, the Panthers Venti, Vidi Vici victims, 34-7.

During the regular season, no one seriously challenged the District 4-4A champions. L. D. Hurst Bell played the Raiders their toughest game, losing 28-14. Wichita Falls Hirschi held the Raiders to a 14-0 victory in the rain while the closest thing Lee has to a comparison, Rider beat Lubbock Monterey, 24-6. Midland High scored a touchdown in the last 10 seconds to beat Monterey 14-7 and, of course, Lee and Midland battled to a 7-7 tie only last week.

Some of Rider's victories have been awesome. One of its toughest tests was supposed to be the season's opener against an Iowa Park team that went into the season ranked as the state's top AAA team. When the carnage had cleared, Rider was a 54-0 winner.

After that came Monterey and Hirschi and then they began to fall like tenpins. Mineral Wells, 48-3, Haltom City 36-6, Eulus Trinity, 49-14, Hurst Bell, 28-14, Richland, 26-7, Castleberry, 51-8, and Wichita Falls 27-0.

While the scores are impressive, it's not quite like surviving a schedule of San Angelo, Odessas, Permians, Coopers and Midlands. And while Rider has its lofty ranking, Lee's hopes lie in the fact that it has successfully come through what is generally conceded to be the strongest AAAA district in the state.

So the excitement mounts as pep and spirit groups cook up new gimmicks and revive old ones and thousands of fans prepare for the hiatus to Wichita Falls for Saturday's 2 p.m. kickoff.

Some 3,800 general admission tickets and another 2,000 student tickets go on sale today, which should be sufficient.

"I checked with Permian officials," Athletic Director Thurman (Tugboat) Jones said, "and the last time they went up to Wichita Falls they sold something like 2,800 general admission and 700 reserved.

NEW CAGE SEASON FOR CAGLE'S CREW—

Andrews Hosts Bulldogs

ANDREWS — Coach James Cagle sends his Midland Bulldog basketball team into action in the season opener today against the Class AAA Andrews Mustangs at 8 p.m.

The Bulldogs will be without the services of 6-5 senior Michael Cobb who has been ill and it is feared that it may be pneumonia. "Michael has really been sick and I don't know how long it will be before we get him into the lineup," said Cagle. Cobb was a second team choice in District 5-4A last season and will be counted upon for this scoring and rebounding when he does return to the starting lineup.

Cagle's Purple Pack chalked up a 20-12 record last season and a third place finish in the loop after winning it three straight years previous to last year.

Midland scrimmaged Lamesa and Artesia, N.M. last Saturday and Cagle was pleased with his defensive play. "Our defense looked as good as it has in five years in pre-season drills, but I was disappointed in our offense," said Cagle. He quickly added that he feels that Cobb will make a big difference in the scoring output, however.

Cagle runs a double post offense and will start Donnie

Roberts, 6-5 senior and either Ernest Modkins, 6-4 junior, or 6-3 junior Mike Wiley at the two post slots. Greg Smith and Bobby Chinn, a pair of 6-2 seniors, will man the wing positions with either 5-8 Terry Nelson or 5-9 Tim Johnson at the point.

A preliminary junior varsity game is set for 6:15 p.m.

Midland's sophomore team waits until next Monday to open its season at 6:30 p.m.

Montreal Slams Minnesota

MONTREAL (AP) — Doug Risebrough didn't enjoy being sent down to the minor leagues earlier this year, but the 20-year-old rookie center of the Montreal Canadiens says his recent stint with the Nova Scotia Voyageurs of the American Hockey League helped him a great deal.

"I'm glad I went down," said Risebrough after scoring his first National Hockey League goal and assisting on two others Monday night as Montreal slammed the Minnesota North Stars 9-4 in the only NHL game scheduled.

In the lone World Hockey Association contest, the Edmonton Oilers beat the Winnipeg Jets 3-1.

Risebrough was one of nine different players who scored for the Canadiens, who broke the game open with five goals in the second period.

"This was a wide-open game," said Risebrough. "I think I'm skating much better than I was before I went down.

Two goals by rookie Mike Rogers—his first scores as a pro—helped Edmonton beat Winnipeg in the WHA. It was the seventh straight triumph for the Oilers, who fired 50 shots at Winnipeg goalie Joe Daley and Ernie Wakely.

Bobby Hull scored twice for the losers.

Chiefs Win, 42-34

Denver's Playoff Hopes Wrecked

DENVER (AP) — A seemingly harmless safety ballooned into a 19-point third quarter for Kansas City, boosting the Chiefs to a National Football League victory over the Broncos' playoff hopes.

The Chiefs' 42-34 triumph Monday night enabled Oakland to back into the American Conference West Division title and also spoiled a brilliant passing display by quarterback Charley Johnson of the Broncos. He completed 26 of 42 passes for a whopping 445 yards and two touchdowns.

It all started innocently enough on the second-half kickoff of the nationally televised game.

Denver's Oliver Ross fumbled the boot, giving the Chiefs the ball at the Broncos' 12-yard line. Kansas City's Woody Green coughed it up at the one, but two plays later Chiefs' middle linebacker Willie Lanier tackled Otis Armstrong in the end zone for the safety.

Denver still led 21-19 but Kansas City got good field position on the required free kick. The Chiefs promptly drove 49 yards in five plays, climaxed by Len Dawson's scrambling 35-yard TD pass to Otis Taylor. As if that wasn't enough, Ed Podolak returned a punt 54 yards to the Broncos' 17 and Green ran it in for a 33-21 Chiefs' lead with less than five minutes gone in the period.

Jan Stenerud kicked a 35-yard field goal on the Chiefs' next possession to complete the scoring in the period.

"Losing momentum at the start of the second half is what really hurt us," Broncos' Coach John Ralston said. "We lost the ball, got it back, but then couldn't get it out of the end zone."

Ralston said the safety occurred on an off-tackle play in which Denver used a pulling guard. "Lanier filled the hole and got Otis for the safety," he added.

Johnson sparked the Broncos to a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns that pulled Denver within eight points, but they got no closer. Rookie running back Jon Keyworth, making his first start, scored his third short-yardage touchdown of the game on the opening play of the final quarter.

Following a Kansas City touchdown, Johnson went to work again, completing a 65-yard, eight-play drive with a four-yard strike to Otto Stowell with 7:50 left in the game.

The Broncos drove to the Chiefs' 14 on their next possession, but Johnson was sacked and fumbled, and Kansas City's Jim Lynch recovered with 4:27 left, ending the threat.

Johnson, who said he thought his arm was in passing motion on the crucial turnover, said the Broncos "felt like we had to throw to win. I knew we could eat 'em up with our passing game." Johnson's yardage figure was the most in his 14-year pro career.

The loss dropped Denver to 4-5-1 for the season, making 9-1 Oakland uncatchable in the division. The Chiefs raised their mark to 4-6.

Baylor Bear Success No Surprise... Smith

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist football Coach Dave Smith said Monday the success of the Baylor Bears was no surprise to him.

"They got the right man for the job and the fruits of his labor are starting to show," said Smith of Baylor Coach Grant Teaff.

Baylor travels to Dallas to meet SMU Saturday in a crucial Southwest Conference football game. Should the Bears win and Texas A&M lose to Texas the day after Thanksgiving, Baylor's first appearance in the Cotton Bowl would be assured.

"Baylor has improved its facilities. Grant has a private plane for recruitings, they've got an excellent organization in the Bear Club—the proper steps have been made to upgrade the program," Smith added.

Smith said it took at least three years to get any program off the ground.

"This is his (Teaff's) third year and he has some of his own people playing," Smith said. "You get more loyalty when you have your own people playing."

Smith said Baylor should be even tougher in 1975 although the Bears have an awesome non-conference schedule which includes Missouri, Auburn and Michigan.

"Baylor has a lot of young people coming back," Smith said. "Of course, they lose (quarterback) Neal Jeffrey and (tailback) Steve Beard but Mark Jackson has impressed me as Jeffrey's backup at quarterback. He (Jackson) could start for a lot of teams."

Smith said the upcoming recruiting season was "very critical" for SMU.

"We've got to get some defensive help—we have a lot of our offensive players returning," Smith said.

Tulsa Leads Stats In Missouri Valley

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Missouri Valley Conference football champion Tulsa took a firm grip on leads in team statistics last week, trading places in one category with New Mexico State.

With the season nearly over, Tulsa leads in passing offense, passing defense, total offense, total defense and scoring.

New Mexico State leads in rushing offense and rushing defense, and West Texas State leads in scoring defense.

Tulsa piled up the biggest offensive total of the season Saturday against Drake for a total offense record of 354.5 yards per game. The Hurricane's passing offense average is 229.5 yards and scoring offense average is 25.5 points per game.

Tulsa's total defense average is 265.9 yards and passing defense is 110.7.

New Mexico State holds the team rushing defense record with 152.1 yards per game, taking that spot from Tulsa.

Tulsa took the Valley lead in total offense from New Mexico State.

New Mexico State's rushing offense average is 227.1 yards and rushing defense record is 152.1 yards.

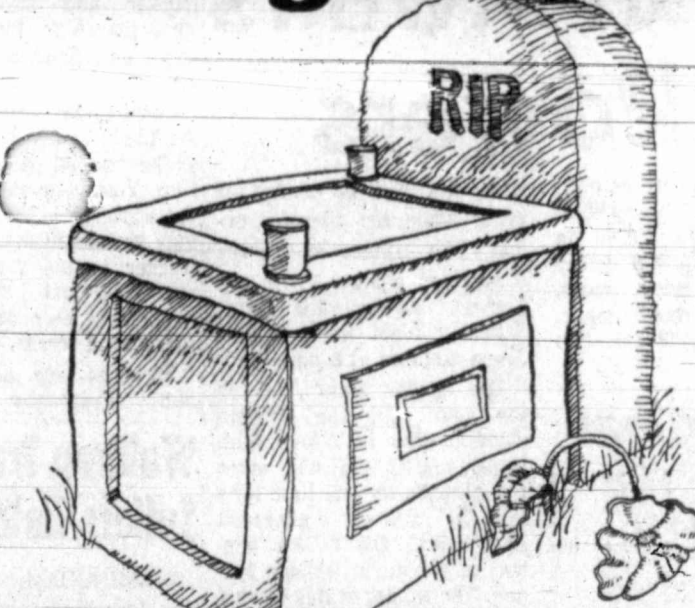

West Texas has held opponents to an average of 13.8 points per game.

How to Tell If Your Car's Battery is Going Dead.

Part One

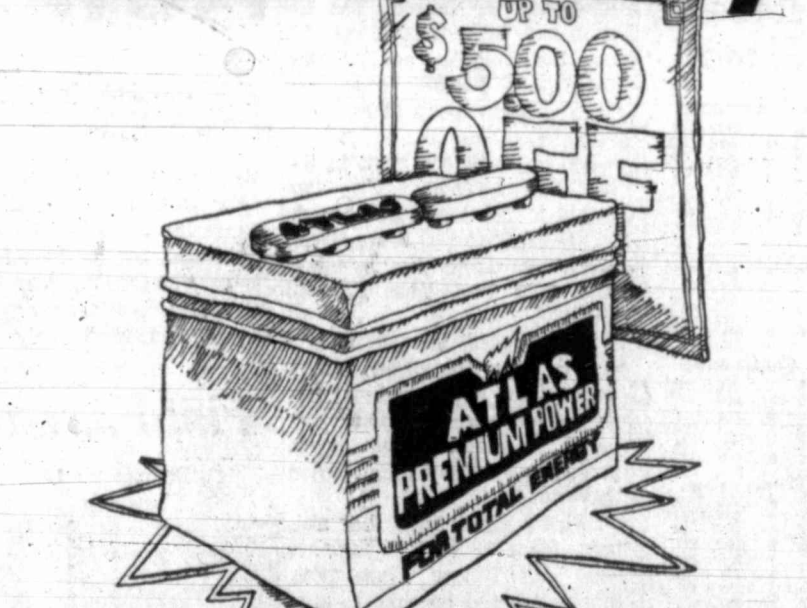

There may be no warning. In the days of the old six-volt batteries, there usually was some warning. A grinding starter, slower than usual turnover, then... frustration. But in today's systems you can turn the key anytime and... nothing. No warning. No power. No nothing.

Your Chevron Dealer will test it. For free. Unfortunately, testing the life in your car's battery isn't a do-it-yourself sort of job. It takes special equipment. Equipment your Chevron Dealer's got that you probably haven't. So, let him do the work. For free. It only takes a few minutes to see how much life there is left in your car's battery and charging system, and knowing will save you both time and frustration.

Get a Free Battery Test at Most Chevron Dealers.

How to Save Up to $5.00 on a New Atlas Battery.

Part Two

Now, a special deal at most Chevron Dealers. If your battery checks out fine, fine. But if it's replacement time, the time to buy is now. Your participating Chevron Dealer will give up to $5.00 off of his regular station price on a new, high-quality Atlas Battery—the battery of such assured quality that it's backed by Chevron at more than 15,000 stations across the country.

Don't wait for the last gasp. Tomorrow may be—literally—too late. You'll never know 'til you find out. Why not check it out at your participating Chevron Dealers today? Remember, it doesn't cost a thing to have it tested, and if you do need a new battery, now's the time to buy. And save. Naturally, budget terms are available with your Chevron National Travel Card, too.

Several of the real giants of the petroleum industry are in Midland today . . . and residents of the Tall City are both delighted and proud to have them as special guests.

They are the top officials of Texaco Inc., from the firm's New York and Houston offices.

Maurice F. Granville, chairman of the board; John K. McKinley, president, and James W. Kennear and Richard B. Palmer, senior vice presidents, are from New York.

Vice Presidents L. Weldon Calahan and R. Earle Wright are the Houston office representatives.

This group of distinguished Texaco officials, plus executives from the firm's Midland office, are the guests at a reception being given in their honor this afternoon by The Midland Wildcat Committee at the Midland Country Club.

These gentlemen not only will have the opportunity of seeing this Headquarters City of the Permian Basin Empire, where Texaco long has maintained division offices, but they will witness the vastly increased activity brought about by the petroleum industry which is going all-out in its efforts to find and produce more oil and gas to help overcome the energy shortage. This is where the action is.

A most cordial welcome is beamed to the Texaco officials. May their stay in Midland be enjoyable and beneficial from every standpoint.

It's 'Definite' Now

It shouldn't come as very much of a surprise to anyone, but President Ford, just in case you didn't know, has decided to seek a full four-year term in the White House in the 1976 election.

In other words, Ford has switched from a "probable" candidate to a "definite" candidate.

This is perfectly in order and, barring unforeseen happenings or difficulties between now and election time, he will be hard to beat.

Ron Nessen, White House press secretary, is quoted as saying that he (Ford) enjoys being president.

The enjoyment part is a new and fresh approach to what generally has been considered by many as a killing job. Enjoying the assignment, with its tremendous duties and responsibilities, certainly would be a big help in holding up to the burdens of office.

Anyway, Mr. Ford takes the lead in getting his hat in the ring for '76, curbing a lot of speculation.

'We'll Have A Nip After The First Of The Year!'

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By JACK ANDERSON

President Ford's associate counsel, Dudley Chapman, allegedly tried to conceal the fact that a secret White House fund was used to pay government aides to serve as "advance men" during the 1972 campaign.

Chapman informed government auditors that the fund belonged not to the White House but to the Republican National Committee and the Nixon campaign committee.

This has been disputed by the General Accounting Office, which has just concluded a secret investigation. "Contrary to Mr. Chapman's statement," the GAO found, the fund "was a White House account."

The failure to disclose the existence of such a political fund in the White House until two years after the campaign period, charged the GAO, "appears to constitute a violation of the act."

The case has been referred to Attorney General William French Smith for action.

The secret fund, listed on the books as "The White House Subsidiary Account," was opened in October 1970. Since 1971, its treasurer has been Wilbur Jenkins, the chief White House administrative officer, a career employee, who confessed to GAO accountants that he "made bank deposits for the subsidiary account and signed the checks."

But Jenkins apparently was the fall guy for Nixon aides who really controlled the fund. He told the GAO auditors that Bruce Kehrli, then the White House staff secretary and later a minor Watergate figure, "approved and directed all such transactions."

Exactly how the fund was manipulated is still a mystery. It was used to pay the political expenses of Nixon "advance men," including luncheons and cocktail parties that they arranged for political purposes.

We have learned that at least $10,000 in cash was slipped into the fund by Nixon campaign treasurer Hugh Sloan, who delivered the money secretly to Kehrli.

But this didn't cover all the political expenditures, so some of the taxpayers' money apparently was spent on the campaign. After the Watergate case broke, a second secret $5,000 was siphoned from campaign coffers into the fund as "reimbursement to White House Campaign Expenses."

The existence of the White House fund remained a secret until March 1974, when a cryptic reference to it turned up in the liquidation papers of the Nixon finance committee.

This aroused the interest of the GAO, which got the runaround for months before its auditors finally gained access to the records. They found that the fund, in violation of federal law, had failed to file any campaign statement for more than two years. This forced the White House to submit a belated filing. But even after President Ford's takeover, his associate counsel continued to deny to the GAO that the White House had run the mysterious fund committee.

FOOTNOTE: Chapman disputed the coverup charges, saying, "I don't think the GAO knows what they're talking about." There was no delay in 1969, Rauh had warned Brennan's predecessor, George Shultz, to take action to prevent bloodshed.

But Shultz did nothing. Later, dissident candidate Jack Yablonski, his wife and daughter were murdered in their beds by allies of incumbent Tony Boyle.

Any violence in the Steel Workers election, warned Rauh, "will be on your conscience just as Shultz's failure to act will always be on his."

FOOTNOTE: United Steel Workers official Elmer Chatak, now on leave to manage Evett's campaign, denied that the "minor infractions" in the last election affected its outcome. He called Rauh's charges of new campaign irregularities "completely unfounded." The Labor Dept. told us they are working hard to ensure fair elections and are favoring neither candidate.

WATCH ON WASTE: The National Science Foundation has just given out a $28,000 grant titled, "Techniques and Language Development for Human-Computer Interaction in Music Composition and Research." Stripped of the fancy language, the grant will teach computers to read musical notes. Presumably another grant would be needed to teach the computers to play an instrument or sing in a barber shop quartet.

No one could tell that anything was wrong from South's manner. He took the first trick with dummy's ace of diamonds; discarded the jack of hearts on the diamond king and continued with the queen. East hurried to ruff with the four of spades. He wasn't going to stand for another heart discard. South overruffed; uicked up trumps; conceded a trick to the ace of clubs and chalked up the slam amid what might be described as thundering silence.

RAY CROMLEY Inflation? You Haven't Seen Anything Yet!

WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Ford and Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur Burns finally have done it. They've tightened the cinches so tightly that capital goods orders—the last prop for the economy and the one hope for easing shortages and putting a damper on prices—appear to be in for a setback. It is clear we are in a recession likely to get considerably worse before it gets better.

Some of Mr. Ford's advisers are known to believe that a recession is preferable to inflation. But the policy they are promoting, it appears, will give us the worst of both worlds.

Economists predict 7 per cent unemployment and a rough row to hoe for most of us in the months just ahead. The situation is expected to be so bad by January that pressure will be great for Congress to vote major sums for emergency public service jobs, extended unemployment payments and for a variety of programs aimed at providing jobs and getting housing and other lagging industries going again.

If analysts have the election winners pegged correctly, the Congress which takes office in January will have more men and women sold on the necessity of heavier domestic government spending and even more leery of tax boosts and cuts in the federal budget. But whether they are big-government spenders or cut-the-spending conservatives by nature, the temptation to spend us out of the recession will be great indeed.

Though the worsening recession will likely pull inflation down a few percentage points, the relief will not be great and probably will not last for long if my economist contacts are correct.

The expected slug of congressional spending bills — a shattering $310 billion budget and a staggering deficit — all calculated to get the country moving, will most assuredly drive inflation up again as industry competes for the scarce materials needed to meet rising demand.

Because of the tight reins Messrs. Ford, Nixon and Burns have put on the economy these past months, the shortages will be greater and the inflationary pressures thus more compelling than if the producers and processors of the basic raw materials and components had been permitted to expand as they had planned.

The renewed vigor of this inflation will bring strong pressure in the Senate and House of Representatives for price controls. Of course, past experience would seem to indicate controls work only for short periods and are accompanied by distortions in production which drive prices to even greater heights when the controls are lifted.

An inflation caused by scarcities can be cured in the long run only by upping production in key industries and on the farms. But controls, if successful, usually hold down production in the essentials and encourage increased output of offbeat and specialty items, where profit margins are greater. Shortages are thereby intensified and the upward pressure on prices increased.

Recessions mercifully have a way of curing themselves eventually — though sometimes at terrible cost, a cost sometimes magnified by the curious solutions governments sometimes attempt. The possibility seen by some economists here is that the tide will turn before the end of 1975. That recovery, when it comes, will be accompanied by a resurgent inflation greater than we have today. In fact, there are men in the economic community who are convinced we are not likely in this decade to see inflation drop below 5 to 6 per cent a year at best.

Now a fifth Arab-Israeli war looms. Syria, next to the Palestinian terrorists, the most implacable foe of Israel, has been massively rearmbed by the Soviet Union which remains seemingly immune from world opinion.

In a significant defeat for the moderate King Hussein of Jordan, the Palestine Liberation Organization, whose goal is nothing less than the total obliteration of Israel, was recognized as the official spokesman for all Palestinians at the recent Arab summit conference in Morocco.

On top of this, the Arabs have discovered the immense leverage they possess against Western capitals in the use of oil as a weapon.

The current diplomatic consensus seems to be that unless Israel makes immediate and sweeping concessions to the Arabs — withdraws from the Sinai Peninsula and the Golan Heights, relinquishes control of Jerusalem and agrees to the setting up of a separate Palestinian state on the west bank of the Jordan — there will be another war, probably next year.

The Israelis know, however, that to do all that in the absence of an iron-clad, internationally guaranteed agreement stipulating their right to national existence would be to sign their own death warrant.

It was control of the strategic Golan Heights and the Sinai, won in the 1967 Six-Day War, that saved Israel from being overrun in the October War of 1973. To retreat to the pre-1967 borders would be to lose these vital buffer areas and place every city in Israel within short-range rocket reach of the Arabs.

But though Israel could win the next war, and the next, the sheer statistics of population and resources dictate that sooner or later it will be overwhelmed if lasting peace is not somehow arrived at with the Arabs.

To many in the West, the Arab demands seem reasonable. The territory seized by Israel since 1948 was never intended to be part of that country. There must eventually be a solution to the festering problem of the dispossessed Palestinians.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — For Israel, nothing has failed like success.

In the four wars it has fought in the 25 years of its brief modern history, the little nation has thwarted the combined military might of its Arab neighbors. But each costly victory has only set the stage for renewed conflict and in the long run has left the Arabs stronger and more united than they were before.

620 Indians Due $49 Million Cash On Final 'Payday'

By JOE FRAZIER
 KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) — The "last payday" is near for the remaining members of the Klamath Indian tribe.

When it comes, probably in December, $49 million in federal funds will be passed out to about 620 Klamaths.

What will happen to the money is cause for some speculation in this Southern Oregon lumber and farming town.

Reservation Dissolved

The Klamath reservation was among several dissolved by Congress in 1964, and most of the Indians opted then to turn over their lands and Indian status for individual payments of about $43,000 each. Those who will be paid in December left their lands in trust.

When the Indians who sold earlier were finally paid in 1961 it triggered a spending spree they still talk about in Klamath County.

Indian Stories Galore

In bars and barber shops, everybody who remembers has an Indian story to tell.

Ted Conn, a Lakeview lawyer who has practiced in the area for 40 years, remembers it well.

"Before the lands were sold, per capita payments from timber sales were made quarterly to the Indians. Many of the Indians felt the payments were like the buffalo: they'd always be there."

But with the lump sum, the quarterly payments stopped.

Conn recalled months of drunken brawls and of auto dealers getting plump from Klamaths who would buy new cars, wreck them and pay cash for replacements.

"The Indians were reckless with their money because they never had any before," said J. M. "Red" Britton, who has been sheriff of Klamath County 23 years. "I think the remaining members will be more careful."

Within a few months the money was gone and so were the benefit checks the Indians had been getting all their lives. They returned to poverty, where most remain. A few did well with their money, investing in ranches or stocks. Those who did generally moved out of Klamath County, away from conservative Southern Oregon.

The Klamaths who voted to leave their land in trust continued to receive per capita payments, but voted in 1969 to dissolve the trust and sell the lands. The 135,000 acres will be added to the Winema National Forest.

There are 473 shares in the trust, each worth about $120,000. Some of the shares have been divided among survivors of the original owners.

Different This Time

The money, probably tax free, will be distributed by the trust holder, the U.S. National Bank of Oregon, in a lump sum. But the white community, and the Indians, too, say things will be different this time.

Most Klamaths who took the first payment were older and had lived on the reservation all their lives. They lacked the financial sophistication needed to deal with a huge chunk of money.

The remaining members have more experience with money. Most have jobs in addition to their timber payments, although good jobs for Indians are hard to find in Klamath County.

The school dropout rate for Klamaths, at a high for decades, is improving since special education programs were added and more Indian teachers and counselors were hired.

MORTAR PRACTICE—Two members of an "orphan platoon" practice with a mortar. The "orphan platoons" are made up of boys 10 to 14 years of age most of whose families have been killed in the 4½-year war between Cambodian government forces and Communist-led insurgents. (AP Wirephoto.)

123 Cambodian Children Make Up Fighting 'Orphan Platoons'

KOMPONG SPEU, Cambodia (AP) — The "orphan platoons" defend three mud walled forts and guard a three-quarter mile long section of the defense perimeter of this provincial town, 30 miles west of Phnom Penh, the capital.

The 123 boys range in age from 10 to 14. Their families have been killed in the 4½-year war between government forces and Communist-led insurgents or remain in Cambodian rebel territory. They are in a volunteer unit supported by the government commander, Brig. Gen. Chantarangsei, a prince and cousin of deposed leader Prince Norodom Sihanouk.

Four Boys Killed Recently

Armed with a varied assortment of vintage World War II weapons and captured insurgent arms, the boy soldiers have repulsed seven insurgent attacks in the past year.

Four of the boys were killed last month when they triggered a mine while going out on an ambush patrol. These have been the only casualties reported.

The company of troops is split into three 40-man platoons based in triangular mud walled defensive posts that measure 50 yards on a side.

Recently outlying patrols of one of the camps has fought skirmishes with insurgent troops whose main line is only a half-mile away.

The crackle of gunfire broke out and a few bullets stung the air overhead. The boys, many dressed in dirty shorts, took their bunkerline holes behind machine guns or rifles.

One patrol had run into a rebel squad only 500 yards from one post. The firing died down after a few minutes.

The unit is watched over by 23 older soldiers and three officers. The commander is called "papa" and he calls the troops "my sons."

One boy said, "We don't mind living like this. We have no families and no place to go. The general is the only one who cares for us."

The boys are paid two dollars a month each out of the general's pocket but they are provided a normal soldier's rice and ammunition ration.

General Chantarangsei is attempting to get the troops on the regular army roll so they will be able to draw normal pay. They are defensive forces, not assault troops.

As the war drags on in Cambodia, more young boys are found in line units on both sides. Their fathers and older brothers have already been killed.

As family and society breaks down young boys move into the army which at least provides them with security—identity—a place to belong to—home.

Fanne 'Bombshell' Foxe Says Boston Debut Didn't Go Well

BOSTON (AP) — Fanne Foxe says she was nervous when she came down off the stage in a G-string, giving lollipops to some of the 200 men in the burlesque theater who had watched her dance for 20 minutes.

She was flushed and trembling after her first stage appearance Monday since an Oct. 7 incident when she jumped into the Jefferson Memorial Tidal Basin. That occurred when police stopped a car she occupied with Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., three other women and a second man.

"It didn't go well," Miss Foxe, 38, said after her first show in a year. "I forgot what song was coming next. But I'll get better."

She'll have a chance to improve during four shows a day, seven days a week, for the next three months or so, as she earned about $3,000 per week at the Pilgrim Theatre as the "Washington Tidal Basin Bombshell."

Travel advisories were in effect for parts of Wyoming, Colorado and Utah because of locally heavy snow with blowing and drifting.

Rainfall generally was light during the night, but isolated heavy showers soaked parts of Florida. West Palm Beach was washed by 2½ inches of rain in the 24 hours ending Monday evening. An inch drenched Cape Hatteras, N.C.

Nation Has Rain, Snow

By The Associated Press

Rain, fog and drizzle dampened a large part of the nation from the Pacific Northwest to the south Atlantic Coast today, and snow piled up in the central Rockies.

Travel advisories were in effect for parts of Wyoming, Colorado and Utah because of locally heavy snow with blowing and drifting.

feathered plumes in her dressing room after the show, Miss Foxe said Mills thinks she made a mistake when she abandoned her plans to study pre-medicine at the University of Maryland.

Pressure from agents and the lure of high salary—she averaged $700 a week in the past—brought her back to the stage, Miss Foxe said.

She said the money she earns could assure her three children and her college education, but Mills "thinks the money is not all that important."

The recently divorced Miss Foxe has two daughters, 15 and 17, a son, 16, and a 19-year-old adopted daughter.

News coverage of the Mills incident amused her children at first, she said, but "when it started getting a little bit out of hand, they got upset."

Mills' Face Bleeding

Police said Mills was bleeding from face scratches and seemingly was intoxicated when his car was stopped Oct. 7. Miss Foxe had to be pulled from the Tidal Basin by a policeman.

Mills said he was embarrassed by the incident, which came during his toughest reelection battle—in years. His wife was recovering from a fractured foot and thus could not join him that night, Mills said.

Many Florida Oldsters Learning To Read, Write

MIAMI (AP) — "I didn't get no education in my younger days," explained Eugene Sumner. "And if there was one thing I wanted to learn when I grew older, it was how to write my name."

At age 75, he has.

Sumner and 20 other persons aged 61-85 have been learning how to read and write under the tutelage of community college professor Peggy Hirtz.

Learning Support Center

Mrs. Hirtz heads a learning support center run by Miami-Dade Community College. She teaches reading, writing and vocabulary development.

But to her, Sumner and his classmates are special. They are 21 foster grandparents at a local children's home who this year asked the school to tutor them. Mrs. Hirtz agreed, working with the senior students each Friday.

"When I came home one day and showed my children I could sign my own name they said it was the most wonderful thing that they ever seen," said Sumner.

Joe Murrell, 61, says learning to read has opened a new world, "has made me want to live."

Susan McPhee attended first grade for one day before her father decided she was needed more picking beans.

"I was worried about reading and writing all my days because I was going to have to be beholden to somebody to teach me," she recalled.

Now those years of worry are over.

Mrs. Hirtz says she, too, has been given an education.

"It's like talking to a Florida history book, speaking to my students," she says. "They were field workers. They worked hard as maids and farmers, and pickers in the fields."

"I think the thing that keeps them young is that they are interested in changing their lives. It's when we give up wanting to make ourselves different, that's when we get old."

TALL, FAIR, HANDSOME— Woman Writer Travels With Wanted Criminal

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Sandy Fawkes, a journalist with the London Daily Express, has been traveling in the United States. Twelve days ago she met Paul John Knowles in Atlanta and traveled with him to Florida without knowing that he was wanted for questioning in up to 12 slayings. She wrote the following account for The Atlanta Constitution.)

By SANDY FAWKES

For The Constitution

ATLANTA (AP) — He was tall, fair and handsome, with the immaculate manner of the comfortably rich American.

We had met in a bar in Atlanta and he had offered to show me the city. After a romantic evening he suggested we drive down to Miami, where he was going to see his lawyer and I was to visit friends.

Strange, Tender Hands

It seemed like a good way of spending a few days and seeing a bit of America, so I invited him to pick me up at my hotel the following day.

How could I have possibly known that those strange hands, the hands that would carry my suitcases, fasten my seatbelt, catch a mosquito hawk (dragon fly) in my room and carry it tenderly to freedom, had only three days before strangled and trussed a 15-year-old girl, police said, and reportedly stabbed her father to death, plunging scissors into him 27 times?

The man I knew as Darrel Golden was really a wanted criminal.

Spine Cramps With Fear

My spine still cramps with fear when I remember the jokes I made about what a risk I was taking, setting off on a journey with a stranger. Now I feel it was those jokes and my sense of humor that kept me alive.

We drove through the autumn countryside of Georgia keeping a careful eye out for traffic cops.

As we neared Jacksonville, he said he was tired and asked me to drive. While I did so he put his head on my lap and went fast asleep. Only later did I discover that he had jumped parole from this section of Florida, and that the car that I was so thrilled to be driving had been reported stolen four months previously and that the owner has never been seen since.

He stayed at West Palm Beach when we arrived near Miami, but not at my hotel. He met me at my hotel's bar for several days. He even drove

Canada Shifting Top Tax Burden To Luxury Items

OTTAWA (AP) — Canadians will pay less taxes on their incomes but more on alcohol, tobacco and big cars according to the budget announced by Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau's Liberal government.

Corporation taxes also will be increased, but taxes on construction materials are being lowered.

The budget announced Monday night is virtually the same one that failed to pass last May, bringing down Trudeau's government and forcing new elections. The Liberals didn't have a majority then, but they won one in the July election, so adoption of the budget is assured.

The budget also lowers taxes on bicycles and gives a tax rate break for exploration for natural resources. But strip oil and natural gas companies will no longer be able to write off royalty payments to the provinces against federal taxes.

Stock Mart Adds To Losses, Seems To Be Leveling Off

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market added to its recent losses today but seemed to have leveled off by midday. The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, down more than 6 points in the early going, showed 3.66 deficit at 621.32, at noon. Losers maintained a 3-to-1 lead over gainers on the New York Stock Exchange.

Brokers said it appeared the market was still trying to assess how long the gathering economic slump might last and how deep it might go. They also noted lingering uncertainty over chances for ratification of a tentative coal industry labor contract.

The Southern Co. was the Big Board's most-active issue, up 1/4 at 10 1/2. A 150,000-share block trade at 10.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index lost 1.39 to 65.84.

LUXURY SEDAN—The four-door 164, above, tops-Volvo's improved product line for 1975, now on display at A-1 Import Auto, 2701 W. Wall St., Midland. The 164, with electronic ignition, features air conditioning, a choice of automatic or manual transmission with overdrive, power-assisted steering, power disc brakes, steel-belted radial tires and front power windows as standard equipment.

Saxbe, FBI Split On 'Dirty Tricks'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe has refused to go along with an FBI request for legislation authorizing emergency "dirty tricks" against domestic political organizations.

The split between Saxbe and FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley surfaced at a news conference Monday as the attorney general denounced the disruptive tactics employed in FBI counterintelligence operations for 15 years ending in 1971.

Saxbe said he has taken steps to prevent a repetition of such tactics. But he indicated that he leans against any legislation forbidding them outright.

Monitoring Urged

Instead, Saxbe urged Congress to create a joint House-Senate committee to monitor the daily operations of the FBI. "I think this is one of the greatest safeguards that we could have in this country," he asserted.

Emphasizing a different objective, Kelley asked for legislation to permit the FBI "under emergency situations, to do some things which counteract the effectiveness" of militant groups at the extremes of the political spectrum.

Kelley has been pushing the proposal for almost a year but the Justice Department has refused to adopt it.

Different Appraisals

Saxbe and Kelley also differed in their appraisal of the tactics launched by the late FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover against the Communist Party U.S.A., the Socialist Workers party, "black extremist" groups, "white hate" groups and the New Left.

Saxbe said he considers it improper for the FBI to engage in "positive disruptive activities" against domestic organizations in any circumstances.

The counterintelligence program "in my mind, is not something that we in a free society should condone," he continued. "I'm not here to try to justify the activities that went on under this."

Operation Defended

But Kelley gave a resounding defense of the operation. He said he is convinced that FBI employees "acted entirely in good faith and within the bounds of what was expected of them by the President, the attorney general, the Congress and the American people."

On the other hand, Saxbe and Assistant Atty. Gen. Henry E. Petersen said FBI officials may have violated the law with some of the disruptive tactics.

But he said the matter has been referred to the department's civil rights division to determine whether there were criminal violations of individual rights.

"If we missed something, we certainly are not closing the door" to criminal prosecutions, he continued.

Targets Listed

The department disclosed for the first time the full list of counterintelligence targets. They included such moderate civil rights groups as the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Congress on Racial Equality and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee as well as the more militant Black Panthers, Weathermen and Students for a Democratic Society.

Saxbe said he has found no evidence that any counterintelligence operations have been conducted since Hoover terminated the program on April 28, 1971.

He said he has told the FBI to undertake no such operations in the future without his personal approval.

Also recommended the revision of the IF-2 zoning ordinance in light of the proposed trailer addition to the IF-3 zoning. The commission noted that with the present zoning requirements, anything allowed in IF-3 zone could also be allowed in a IF-2 zone. With that in mind, the commission voted to recommend IF-2 zoning be held to its present requirements and limitations and not be allowed to carry the additional trailer and mobile home use.

Walter Ashby, urban planner, told the commission that within the next 12 months there will be a need for "500 additional housing units" in Midland. He said that population growth figures compiled by his department "show a possible increase of approximately 1,500 persons in the city during the next year."

Members of the commission agreed that a housing shortage exists in Midland, but several of the planning commissioners expressed serious doubts about

Proposal To Allow Usage Of Mobile Homes, Trailers Eyed By City Council

An addition to Midland's IF-3 zoning ordinance has been recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission to allow the use of trailers and mobile homes in designated areas of the city.

The planning commission took action on the special IF-3 trailer and mobile home usage Monday, but did not include specific site recommendations in its proposal which will now go back to the city council for further study.

City Councilmen Martin Neil proposed the Northeast sector of Midland as a primary target area for the new trailer zoning before the trailer usage study was undertaken by the zoning commission.

Neil recommended the trailer zoning study because of what the council and the Midland Planning Department has termed "a critical housing shortage" here.

George Wolf, planning director, said he had received several favorable telephone calls from residents from the northeast and southeast sectors of the city on the proposed IF-3 zoning for trailers.

Wolf said many residents and renters had expressed "interest" in the possible use of trailers and mobile homes on single residential lots.

Under the current IF-3 zoning ordinance, area requirements call for 5,000-square-foot lots with a single residential structure on them. The recommended addition to the IF-3 zoning would allow that single residential structure to be a trailer or mobile home, placed permanently on the lot.

Members of the commission also recommended the revision of the IF-2 zoning ordinance in light of the proposed trailer addition to the IF-3 zoning. The commission noted that with the present zoning requirements, anything allowed in IF-3 zone could also be allowed in a IF-2 zone. With that in mind, the commission voted to recommend IF-2 zoning be held to its present requirements and limitations and not be allowed to carry the additional trailer and mobile home use.

He said that population growth figures compiled by his department "show a possible increase of approximately 1,500 persons in the city during the next year."

Members of the commission agreed that a housing shortage exists in Midland, but several of the planning commissioners expressed serious doubts about the use of single lots with trailers as the "right answer to the housing problem."

Carroll Thomas, commission chairman, said "We want to maintain the integrity of all existing neighborhoods and avoid opening the door to having a single vacant lot in a residential area occupied by a trailer."

Wolf told the commission inquiries to the planning office came in seven and eight times per week by persons wanting to know if single lots in the city could be used for mobile homes. He said, "At present, all I can tell these people is no, the city doesn't allow trailers on individual lots within the city."

Wolf told the commission that because of the inflationary trend in construction and high interest rates, "Young couples can no longer afford single family homes." He said, "These young people are turning to the mobile home until they can gain more financial stability."

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Democratic governors, after taking a step they hope will prevent another clash between regular and reform factions in the party, turned their attention today to the economic headaches of inflation, unemployment and energy.

Several resolutions were expected to be introduced during this final day of the Democratic governors meeting, urging Congress to take immediate steps rather than waiting until next year.

The governors unanimously endorsed on Monday compromise language in a key provision of a proposed party charter that would govern most aspects of party procedure beginning in 1977. The move was the first concrete indication that they will use their increased numbers to expand their role in party affairs.

The disputed language centers on the selection of delegates to the national nominating conventions. The move taken by the governors would encourage participation by women, racial minorities and youth but eliminate the so-called quota system. The wording would also make it more difficult to change the party constitution in future years.

The action came at a private luncheon after several governors had warned that the party's image could suffer if there were a bloodbath at the Kansas City mini-convention next month.

Chairman Robert Strauss said the agreement by the governors "breaks the logjam." Strauss said he believed racial minorities and organized labor would accept the proposed wording.

Coal Talks May Reopen

WASHINGTON (AP) — United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller may have to reopen negotiations with coal industry representatives before he can sell a proposed new contract to his striking union.

Little progress was reported Monday in the UMW's efforts to achieve ratification of the tentative agreement reached last week. A union source said Miller might have to return to the bargaining table with the coal industry to win some modifications in the proposal before it can receive approval of the union's bargaining council.

Industry spokesmen have indicated that such bargaining would only be to consider a possible redistribution of benefits, not a fattening of the overall contract.

Meanwhile, the strike by the 120,000 UMW members, affecting mines producing 70 per cent of the nation's soft coal, entered its second week today.

Discussion of the proposed three-year contract by the bargaining council was scheduled to resume today after a three-day recess because of the apparently unrelated slaying last Friday of a UMW official.

The bargaining council must approve the contract proposal before it can be submitted to the union members. But union officials indicated there is serious disagreement among the council over some sections.

It seemed virtually certain the strike would extend another two weeks, since UMW officials say it will take another eight to 10 days to get the contract ratified once it is approved by the bargaining council.

The strike already has idled more than 15,000 workers in the railroad and steel industries. And government economists claim it lasts as long as four weeks, it will cause major disruptions to the nation's economy, resulting in as many as 400,000 layoffs.

The nation's two largest steel producers announced steps Monday to cut production.

U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's largest steelmaker, said it would start shutting down entire plants if miners do not return to work by Dec. 1. Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer, said it is banking four coke batteries at its Sparrows Point, Md., plant and laying off 175 of its employees there.

Two sections that may have to be renegotiated by Miller concern wages and vacations, union sources said.

The proposed contract would provide wage increases totaling 15 per cent over three years as well as cost-of-living increases. However, some union officials were reportedly unhappy with the formula that would give miners a 9 per cent increase the first year and 3 per cent each succeeding year.

Sources said many council members also balked at a proposal to require miners to take one week's vacation in the summer and the other at Christmas time. These officials feel that miners should have the right to take both weeks back-to-back, the sources said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight of the nine members of the Senate Rules Committee have indicated they intend to recommend that the Senate confirm Nelson A. Rockefeller as vice president.

The committee ended its hearings Monday and is expected to vote by the end of the week.

Chairman Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., said the panel will meet in executive session Wednesday to discuss its recommendation. The House Judiciary Committee begins its hearings on the nomination on Thursday.

Of the Senate committee's four Republicans and five Democrats, only Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., said he had not made up his mind how to vote.

Allen said his indecision was based on philosophical questions rather than any qualms about Rockefeller's ethics.

"The only thing holding me back is my disapproval of his big government philosophy: Tax and spend," Allen said.

Cannon and Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., said they expect to give Rockefeller the benefit of any doubts they have and will vote to recommend confirmation.

Cannon said the committee probably would not be able to issue its written report before next Tuesday. That timing probably would make it almost impossible for the full Senate to act before leaving on its brief Thanksgiving recess.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield had said he would try to get a vote in the Senate next week if the committee reported the nomination this week.

Rockefeller again will be the leadoff witness when the House Judiciary Committee opens its hearings.

Workmen's Compensation Raise Urged

AUSTIN (AP) — State Insurance Board actuaries today recommended an average increase of four-tenths of 1 per cent in workmen's compensation rates, effective Jan. 1.

The final decision on the rates will be made by the three-man board.

Separate industry recommendations were:

Manufacturing, an eight-tenths of 1 per cent increase.

Contractors, a 3.3 per cent decrease.

Oil, a one half of 1 per cent increase.

All other groups, a 2.3 per cent increase.

The staff report said that insurance companies collected $471,176,967 in workmen's compensation premiums and paid out $365,294,432 in benefits and other expenses for adjusting losses.

Workmen's compensation provides living expenses and other cash benefits for employees who are injured in on-the-job accidents, or for their families if they are killed.
