DRILLING OF WELLS MAY BE REGULATED BY GAS COMMITTEE

FIRST COMMISSION MEETING TALKS RESTRICTION ON INDUSTRIAL USE, REDUCTION OF WASTE AND ENFORCING PUBLIC CONSERVATION.

SUPPLY FAST VANISHING

Intensive and Widely Planned Publicity Campaign to Carry Out Plans; Committee Divided Into Sub-Committees To Meet Next on March 27.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Classifying all problems of natural gas conservation under production, transmission and utilization, the special committee on conservation appointed by Secretary Lane following the natural gas conference in January holding its first meeting here today, resolved itself into three sub-committees to carry on an exhaustive study of these phases of the industry with a view of recommending drastic measures of economy.

Discussions of the committee of which Van H. Manning, director of the bureau of mines, is chairman, emphasized the prodigious waste in present methods of production and utilization of natural gas and the need of stringent measures to conserve the fast vanishing gas deposits of the country.

May Regulate Drilling

Questions referred to the several committees included restriction of the use of natural gas by industries; regulation of the drilling of wells; waste transmission and distribution systems and means of impressing upon the consuming public its responsibility in the matter of conservation. The latter problem, it was planned, will be dealt with by an intensive publicity campaign conducted by the industries and backed by the government.

Palmer Says Living Costs Are Reduced

Eds Democratic Club of Topeka That "There Has Been a Marked" Lower Level Tendency in Cases.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 23.—The campaign against the high cost of living has not been unsuccessful and although there has been no general lower level of prices to the consumer reached, there has been a marked tendency in many lines toward such a level, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer declared in an address before the Kansas democratic club here tonight.

"That no more pronounced results have been realized in coping with the living cost problem as well as many others confronting the country as a result of the war, Mr. Palmer attributed to what he considered a lack of co-operation between the legislative and executive branches of the government.

The attorney general cited the recommendations of President Wilson last summer concerning living costs and taxes and declared that all of them had been ignored.

DENIES WASTE CHARGE

Representatives of Muscle Shoals Nitrate Plant Contradict Statements Made to Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Charges of wholesale waste in the construction of the Muscle Shoals nitrate plant were denied today by representatives of the Air Nitrate corporation, the builders, before the house war expenditures committee, more than a score of witnesses having been assembled to support the corporation's contentions.

J. L. Andrews of Sheffield, counsel for the corporation, declared that the corporation lost money in building and operating the plant, explaining that the company received $1,500,000 from the government for the work, but that considerable amount of the expenses of the corporation had not been paid and that after deducting for tax payments, the net results would be a substantial deficit.

The plant, estimated to cost $30,000,000, he said, actually cost $61,804,000, it being explained that this increase was due to the advancing costs of labor and materials amounting to approximately $9,500,000 and additions, not included in the estimates totalled more than $20,000,000.

Crack of Doom For Knockers To Sound in Meeting Tonight

After tonight it is all off for the confirmed knocker for cumulative forces are to be added to the strength of the elements now at work building Cisco on a lasting foundation and the Young Men's Business League is to come into existence.

In an advertising campaign that has lasted more than a week the backers of the new civic force that is to function in co-operation with the city government and along the lines generally followed by a junior league of commerce have stated that they intend to make things hum when they get going.

As a matter of fact, only boosters are wanted at the meeting tonight at which time the organization will become a reality. Officers are to be elected, a plan of action is to be mapped out and the decks will be cleared for action. This, say the promoters, is the chance for Young Cisco.

"If you are a booster come out and blow your horn."

SENATORS MAY QUIT PRESIDENT'S STAND FOR G. O. P. TREATY

REPUBLICANS ASSERT TWENTY-TWO DEMOCRATS HAVE SIGNIFIED WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT RESERVATION PROGRAM NOW CONSIDERED.

WILSON MAY ACT AGAIN

Sixty-Four Votes Needed for Ratification; Covenant Expected to Come Before Senate Today; Senators Admit Politics is Mixed in Issues.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Possibilities of a substantial break in the democratic peace treaty ranks in the senate impelled influential democratic senators to move today for a caucus to discuss a possible change in party policy, and revived the hopes of the republicans that the treaty might yet be ratified with the republican reservations adopted at the last session of congress.

On the republican side it was asserted that the 22 democrats, only a few short of the number required to insure ratification, had signified a willingness to quit the lead of President Wilson and take the republican reservation program as it is. This total, the administration chiefs declared, exaggerated, but they contended that were a vote taken tomorrow on the republican reservation ratification, it would command more than the seven democratic votes it got last November.

Want A Caucus. A movement for a democratic caucus may bring into the open its sponsors believe, the dissatisfaction that has smoldered in some democratic quarters since the president sent his memorable letter to the caucus of November 23, asking that the senators of his party vote against ratification on the basis of the republican reservations. The seven senators who disregarded his advice have been active constantly in their stand taken, and it has been an open secret that their move, coupled with current political developments, has met with some success.

Need 64 Votes. But among both democrats and republicans, it is realized that the assistance still has a long way to go if it is to succeed. Sixty-four votes are required to ratify the treaty and although thirty-four republicans voted for ratification in November, the party leaders are sure now of the support of only thirty. That leaves thirty-four to be delivered by the democrats; a dozen more than the figure which represented the peak of republican claims today.

In the belief that time is fighting on their side, the plan of the republican leaders is to test their way out of the collateral issues of the treaty disagreement when the subject comes

ADRIATIC NOTE READY

President Approves Final Draft That Will Be Forwarded to Allies—May Publish Entire Series Soon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—President Wilson gave his final approval today to the draft of his latest reply to the entente premiers on the Adriatic question. While official confirmation was lacking, it was understood that the communication tonight either was being coded for transmission or actually was going forward to Ambassador Davies at London for presentation.

Delivery of the reply to the entente premiers is expected to be followed by the making public of the entire series of notes. The foreign governments are understood to have consented to publication of the correspondence.

MICHIGAN COUNTY DEFIES UNCLE SAM

Sheriff's Force Overpowers Federal Men and Re-Captures Supply of Contraband Liquor.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Major A. V. Dalrymple, federal prohibition director for the central states, left Chicago today with a party of prohibition agents for Iron county, Michigan, where county officials are said to have overpowered government agents and taken contraband liquor which had been seized by the government men.

"We are not starting a wild west show and we do not expect any armed resistance," he said before leaving. "If we do meet resistance, however, we shall be prepared to cope with the situation. I intend to arrest Prosecutor McDonough of Iron county, two deputy sheriffs and the police officials of Iron River and place them in jail charged with conspiracy to interfere with the carrying out of prohibition laws.

"We shall ask United States Commissioner Hatch at Marquette to issue federal warrants, but we shall make the arrests regardless of whether he acts. I have been advised by Commissioner Kramer at Washington, and Assistant Commissioner Gaylord, that I have ample authority to make the arrests.

Mr. Dalrymple was in communication with the headquarters of the Michigan state constabulary at Lansing today and said he had been promised the help of the troops of state police stationed at Negaunee, Mich., in the upper Leet's Grove, prohibition supervisor for the upper peninsula, who reported to Dalrymple that he had been overpowered by Iron county officials, accompanied the party from Chicago.

Major Dalrymple's plan of campaign involves a general "clean up" of Iron county in addition to the arrest of county officials, he said today. His men hold search warrants for ten suspected moonshine makers.

RAILROAD UNIONS' GATHERED CHIEFS TALKED OF WALKOUT

RAILROAD LABOR NOT SATISFIED WITH TEND OF AFFAIRS IN REGARD TO ITS WAGE DEMAND; SENATE ACTION ADDS BITTERNESS.

WILL APPEAL TO WILSON

Fear Expressed That All Accomplished May Be Lost; "Have Reason to Assert Struggle in Field Blame Shoppers For Action—Weakens Cause.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Railroad labor is not satisfied with the way things are going with respect to its wage demands. That was indicated in unmistakable manner in conferences here today of union officials and general committeemen, called to pass on the president's settlement proposal. Passage of the railroad bill by the senate tonight only served to add more bitterness to the talk of the union workers.

Talk A Strike. Arrival of scores of committee chairmen—the union leaders closest to the rank and file of their membership—brought out strike talk. The higher officers were inclined to discount evidence of the workers' feeling but hotel lobbies where the delegates were quartered buzzed with the possibilities of the situation there were indications that the union heads who had dealt with Director General Hines in the controversy, were not without hope that an accomplished might be wrecked. Committee chairmen spoke frankly of the sentiment in the local groups describing it thus: "Their temper is not such as to warrant us being optimistic."

Union spokesmen believed there was no way to avoid a direct appeal to the president to veto the Cummins-Each measure. They declared it must be done to satisfy the workers who have not had a "close up" of the situation. But they felt that the legislation might yet be kicked overboard, there was little expression. Heated discussions marked all of the conferences of the fifteen organizations which met separately. "None was able to finish examination of the bill," said one of the speakers, "between the union officials, the director general and the White House."

Blame Shoppers. The gist of the strike talk as expressed by several influential union officers, was that the railroad organizations have reason to assert that the legislation might yet be kicked overboard, there was little expression. CHURCHMEN SCORE JUDIA AND POLICE IN MASS MEETING

IF POLICE ARE "UNABLE TO KEEP DOWN LAWLESSNESS WE WILL CALL ON RANGERS;" IF THEY FAIL WE WILL TAKE LAW INTO OUR HANDS.

LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED

Campaign Mapped Out, Executive Committee Appointed to See That All Laws in Statute Book are Enforced—Judia "Is Dead Wrong", Patterson.

More than 300 men and women in attendance at the called mass meeting of all denominations of religious faith stood up in the Baptist church here Sunday evening and bowed their heads in prayer for about the same number who were over at the Judia theater enjoying J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Lord Loves the Irish."

The outcome of the church mass meeting was the organization of a law-enforcement league, with an executive committee composed of seven local citizens upon whom will devolve the responsibility of seeing that "all of the laws on the statute books are enforced" in particular in the laws against Sabbath desecration and most especially the laws against opening, running and exhibiting moving picture shows on the Sabbath day.

The outcome of the motion picture show at the Judia was that those who attended saw the theory of democracy exemplified when a handsome Irish policeman finally won the rich banker's daughter, and the majority apparently went home with the satisfaction of having fulfilled a simple desire and probably the anticipation of something like that happening to them some time if they display the noble traits of character the Irish policeman did.

J. F. Patterson acted in the capacity of chairman at the mass meeting. "We ought to obey God rather than men," was his opening text taken from the Bible.

A Warning to Harrell. "Let us hope and pray that Tom Harrell will see the error of Judia's ways and will not force us to take action against him," said Attorney E. W. Patterson, chief speaker of the evening, in referring to the recent sale of the Judia theater by G. H. Judia to Tom Harrell of Eastland.

Extracts from his speech in which he made strong remarks concerning Judia and the police force are as follows: "We are called here tonight on the sole account of just one man in this community—a man who has lived in Cisco since childhood—a man who has been here in the days when we had law and order enforcement and who knows how good those days were. And this man now stands up openly and defiantly and says, 'Yes, I violate the law and expect to continue to do so.' He is the man who has caused you to as-

JUDIA BACK IN GAME

Enters Partnership Deal With Thomas Harrell of Eastland and Takes Broadway for Vaudeville.

The Broadway theater changed hands Monday when G. H. Judia of this city and Tom Harrell of Eastland bought it from Joseph Yeager for a consideration of $60,000.

Harrell is now running the Judia theater on Main. Judia will be the manager of the Broadway theater.

"I intend to bring all the first-class road shows and vaudeville acts to the Broadway theater that can be induced to put this city on their circuit," said Judia yesterday. "We will also run the highest class of films obtainable and give our patrons more than they will expect for their money."

The Broadway theater will be a vaudeville house and for that reason will not be open on Sunday, according to Judia.

"It's not because I am too good to give the people what they want on Sunday that the Broadway will not be open on that day," said Judia, "but because it is customary for vaudeville troops to travel on Sunday rather than play."

LACK OF INTEREST ENDANGERS CENSUS

That Cisco is in danger of becoming the victim of a census enumeration that will fall far short of what the city is entitled to is the statement for which city officials are authority.

It is firmly believed by those familiar with growth of the city that Cisco is entitled to an official population, vouchered for by the government, at close to 15,000.

But folks are not "coming in." Neglect and lack of interest has induced those who have not been counted to refrain from reporting at the city hall, where city officials will notify the enumerators. Not only that but lack of workers has prolonged the census work here and has proved a great handicap.

If Cisco actually tallies only 9999 persons, even if there were 30,000 entitled to classification, the city would be listed as a 3000 town.

"It's up to the people now," said Mayor Williamson. "The last day for our census is Saturday."

CISCO PIONEER DEAD

J. W. Hartman, Resident and City Builder Since 1881, Succumbs After Series of Operations.

To his numerous friends and business acquaintances here the news of the death of J. W. Hartman, aged 65 years, a Cisco pioneer, who passed away at 7:30 Monday morning at a hospital in Fort Worth, came as a distinct shock. Late last week Mr. Hartman was reported as recovering rapidly from the effects of a series of operations and was at that time expected to regain his health in a short time.

Mr. Hartman was recognized in Cisco as one of the foremost citizens, was highly respected and was said to have always been deeply interested in any enterprise for the good of Cisco. He has resided here since 1881 and until recently has been actively engaged as a merchant. Only recently he retired from active life to supervise the management of his hotel and extensive property holdings.

As a tribute to their deceased associate the majority of Cisco's business men will close their doors this afternoon between 1:30 and 2:30 to attend the funeral services.

Mr. Hartman is survived by his wife, Mrs. J. W. Hartman, and three children who reside here, Mrs. John Erwin, Mrs. J. A. McCall and Charlie Hartman. Funeral services will be held this afternoon from the Hartman residence, Fifth and Avenue E, and interment will be made in the Cisco cemetery.

Olden Dignity Saved By Music Box; Played Air at Flag Raising

OLDEN, Feb. 23. (Special)—Sunday morning the citizens of Olden made preparations to raise the Stars and Stripes over the two-story post office building which is in course of construction, when it was discovered that no band was available to properly perform the rites.

Be it known the citizens of Olden are patriotic. To them a flag raising such as this, without martial music was a calamity, nothing less. But on this occasion as in many others the ingenuity of the citizens came into play, and as Old Glory slowly rose to the top of the flag pole, "The Star Spangled Banner" rang out on the morning air "a la victrola."

NO MORE INFLUENZA

Physicians Gathered at Chicago Do Not Believe Diseases Will Again Lay Waste Through U. S.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—That America will never experience another influenza epidemic that will take a death toll as heavy as that in 1918-1919, was the opinion of many physicians who gathered in Chicago today for the meeting of the American congress of internal medicine.

The fight against the disease was not won alone by medical science, they said, but through the co-operation of the public.

Reports on the progress made by medical science in treating influenza during the last year and data on the isolation of the influenza germ will be presented during the six-day session of the body.

HINES PREPARES FOR RETURN OF RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Director General Hines today issued orders which provide for the formal transfer of authority exercised by the railroad administration officials to the corporations which resume control of the lines March 1. In a telegram to regional directors, Mr. Hines directed that the names of corporate officers be ascertained to whom department heads will report after federal operation ends and appropriate instructions issued to employees.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—By a vote of nearly three to one the senate tonight passed and sent to the president the modified railroad re-organization bill under which the carriers of the country will attempt to adjust themselves to conditions arising with the end of government control.

Thirty-two republicans joined with 15 democrats in voting for adoption of the conference report, while three republicans and 14 democrats comprised the 17 voting against it. There was never any doubt as what the senate would do, in view of the wide margin by which the Cummins bill, more drastic than the compromise measure, was passed. The bill will go immediately to President Wilson, and the general opinion at the capitol was that he would sign it, although labor leaders will urge its veto.

SOUTHSIDE RIGGAN FOR DALLAS.

Stan Patterson Reports Several Deals for Players Wanting Deals.

From the Dallas News.

A good time, a complete line of rubber and several big deals...

"Stan, who played with Oklahoma City in the Western League last year, will make a good star, I think," said Pat.

"I have three out for two, one of whom would be a big help to our club. And there are other deals for players hanging fire."

"But at this time, big league clubs are not prepared to take these calls of players we know can make good in as fast a league as the Texas circuit."

Consequently, the purchases we do make must be carefully chosen. Later on, when the spring trading is under way, they will be letting them go who will be a big help to us, probably."

Stan Patterson expects to put in some hard links this week at the ball park, and hopes to have everything in readiness on the playing field by the end of the month. If not then, everything will be completed by mid-March, when the exhibition games begin to give it impetus.

- 1—A municipal auditorium or convention hall.
- 2—Removal of unsightly awnings, and erection of uniform marquis on Avenue D.
- 3—Development of the public schools.
- 4—Truthful publication of oil news.
- 5—Better rural schools.
- 6—Development of every foot of Eastland county soil into productive acres.

SOONER or later we'll get in on this profiteering game ourselves. Have you an automobile you want to trade in on subscription?

WE favor reforms. If we're to have truck growing in Eastland county, why not plant some sweet potatoes along with the yams?

FLOUR AND ADVERTISING.

CAN you beat it? The United States Grain corporation is in the flour business, and actually offering to sell flour at retail at $1.50 for the quantity now retailing at $2.00. And the magazines are being used to advertise the fact over the signature of Julius H. Barnes, the United States wheat director.

Large quantities of flour made for export for the United States army remains in the hands of the wheat director, and he wants the consumer to have it at bargain-day prices. Hence the advertising.

MEDDLING WITH THE CALENDAR.

A LOT of folks have been complaining about the calendar. It is all out of kilter, and doesn't suit 'em. Since reform is everywhere these days, it has struck at one of the oldest institutions, congress has been asked to pass a law fixing up some of the work of Pope Gregory that has been running things in the calendar line for several hundred years.

There are some who think it impossible to change the calendar, but we're not so certain about that. We've seen some of our oldest institutions decay and fade away during the past few years. Who knows but what the proposed 13-month year may not shortly become effective?

The proposed calendar will contain 13 months of 228 days each—exactly four weeks, with two independent holidays—New Year and Correction day, the latter only to take care of Leap year. Neither of these holidays is included in any month.

Every month is to commence on Monday and end on Sunday. Sunday, under the new calendar, would be the last day of the week, instead of the first.

Legal holidays, and church days, like Easter and Good Friday, would always come on the same date of each year. Advantages of such a system are apparent. A promissory note would always come due on the same day of the week given.

Of course, one would be called on to pay an additional month's house rent, which might be serious these days of ascending rent rates.

We've exploded the theory of planting potatoes according to the moon, and a lot of bunk like that—and if enough work is done by the fathers of the thought, it might result in abandoning the moon calendar.

You never can tell these days. Pope Gregory or no pope, once a thing gets under way in these United States, it's mighty hard to stop.

THERE seems to be a difference of opinion in Cisco over Sunday closing. And it's a difference of opinion that makes horse races. The Morning News pages are open at all times for the discussion of any public question. The anti-openers seem to have the best of the argument and the law on their side. Any discussion of the subject will be gladly published in The News. Let the people have their say.

OF AMERICANS, BY AMERICANS.

WHEN making your political decisions during 1920, and seeking a man for president, why not ask yourself if he measures up to the standard outlined by Nicholas Roosevelt, in his article "1860-1920" in Collier's Weekly, as follows:

"Today America faces another ordeal. It needs another great man to lead it through the trials of the coming years—a man unafraid and honest, and above all a man with Lincoln's faith in the unity and soundness of the American people, and in a government that shall be not for any group or 'class,' but of Americans by Americans, and for Americans, whatever their origin or their occupation."

SILK SOX.

THE news page of a recent issue of the Cisco Round-Up carried a story of a street beggar wearing silk stockings. The reporter had in mind that this was an innovation. An innovation—the new and novel—is what it takes to make a real newspaper story.

But as a matter of fact, we're all wearing silk sox these days. The old cotton-sox days seem to have left us. The rich man, poor man, beggar man, thief—all spurn the lowly cotton and turn to silk. In the first place, a pair of average cotton sox for men cost 50 cents, and for women, even higher. Higher, probably because they are higher. So the average man concludes he'll spend a little more and wear the garment of the aristocrat. And he buys silk sox. He buys 'em whether he can afford 'em or not.

As a matter of fact, this is the silk-socking period.

FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL INVOLVED IN WILL TANGLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—George W. Wickersham, former attorney general of the United States, testifying under cross examination today at the contest over the will of Mrs. Rosa F. Spang, widow of the millionaire Pittsburgh steel manufacturer, under one clause of which he would have been one of the three beneficiaries, admitted that when he drew the instrument he knew some of its provisions were in conflict with the laws of New York and Pennsylvania, and that under certain circumstances one-third of the $2,000,000 fund intended for charity would have reverted to his personal estate.

That admission was made under questioning by Edgar T. Brackett, former state senator, counsel for Mrs. Mabel Spang Ancker of Copenhagen, Denmark, the only child who was left an annuity of $10,000 by her mother in addition to another of $20,000 left her by her father, Charles Spang, whose estate was valued at $8,000,000. Mrs. Spang died within 48 hours after the will was executed, the testator providing an annuity for her daughter she left the bulk of her fortune to establish the Rosa F. Spang foundation for young children on her estate at Peekskill, N. Y. The will contained the provision that should this be in conflict with state laws, then the residue should go to Mr. Wickersham, Colonel Michael Friedman and Dr. Dwight Chapin, the testator, relying upon them to carry out her wishes.

WILL ASSIST INDIVIDUALS MAKE INCOME TAX RETURNS

T. E. Graham, deputy collector, United States internal revenue office, Austin, Tex., will be in Cisco on March 9 for the purpose of assisting individuals in making their income tax returns. He will be located at the First Guaranty State bank on the above date.

Other Eastland county towns to be visited by Mr. Graham, are as follows: Gorman, February 25 and 26, at First National bank; Desdemona, February 27 and 28; Ranger, March 1, 2, 3 and 4, at Farmers and Merchants bank; Eastland, March 5, 6 and 8.

MARSHALL WARNS AGAINST SEEKING GOVERNMENT AID

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 23.—Associations and individuals seeking to enlist the government in aid of their activities were warned tonight by Vice President Marshall, speaking before the chamber of commerce here, that they should take care not to claim privileges which would create grievances for others.

EX-TEXAS U. STUDENTS PLAN BANQUET AND SOCIETY

At a meeting and banquet of all ex-students of the University of Texas for the district surrounding Cisco, to be held at the Daniel hotel on the evening of March 2, an ex-Texas U. students' organization will be formed, according to S. L. Williams, one of the Ciscoans promoting the movement.

Claude C. Wild, local attorney and candidate for county attorney for Eastland county, is in charge of arrangements for the banquet. He has received applications for plates from a number of surrounding towns, including Ranger, Desdemona, Eastland, Breckenridge, Sipe Springs, Gorman and Moran. Checks to cover cost of individual plate, $2.00, should be mailed to Wild. The plan for an ex-student organization to be formed here was launched by Mrs. J. J. Butts, who was a member of the first University of Texas graduating class in 1883. W. J. Barnes, local attorney, is general chairman of the embryo society.

LENINE NOW RECEIVES HIGHEST RUSSIAN PAY

Red Army Well Disciplined, Says Correspondent on Tour—Airs Up to 35 Years Must Fight.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 23.—A tour of soviet Russia has been made by a staff correspondent of the Handelsblad who is writing a series of articles describing conditions throughout the country and in the army as coming under his personal observation. He deals with the morale of the soviet armies, the compulsory military system, the ridicule of atrocities reported in the foreign press, divisions in the red army as well as the poor in the soviet regime.

"Russia has been completely mobilized," he says, "with all the able-bodied men of the country from the minimum fighting age up to 35 years, and with officers regardless of age. There is no alternative and they are obliged to fight under the general administration of the commissaries who are bolshevists to the backbone. This operates very effectively. A soldier who deserts, betrays the cause or otherwise falls in his duty, is shot; or, if he succeeds in escaping, his family is held accountable."

The correspondent, who apparently tried to view things from a fair and neutral standpoint, dined with several bolshevik officers and had opportunity to study the red army in detail. "The soldiers," he says, "are polite and there seems to be quiet and agreeable discipline. The pay is 800 rubles a month for a soldier, 3200 for a company leader and 4200 for a regimental leader. The former generals of the czar's army, six of whom are serving on Trotsky's staff, get 6000 rubles a month. Nobody in Russia receives a larger salary with the exception of Lenin, who now gets 8000 rubles a month."

SOONER LEGISLATURE TAKES UP SUFFRAGE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Feb. 23.—The house joint resolution for the ratification of the Susan B. Anthony woman suffrage amendment was introduced in the house of representatives this afternoon by Ben C. Hodges, representative from Oklahoma county, who introduced in the house the bill for woman suffrage in Oklahoma passed by the sixth legislature. The resolution will go to the senate after action has been taken by the house.

Following the organization of the special legislature called by Governor J. B. A. Robertson, this morning and the delivery of the governor's message, democratic members of the house held a caucus at which it was decided on a limited investigation of executive departments during the present session. Only specific charges supported by sworn statements will get a hearing, according to members who attended the caucus. The decision was stated as a clause of a resolution defining the policy of the house during the extra session.

GENERAL WOOD DEFINES UNIVERSAL ARMY TRAINING

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 23.—Major General Leonard Wood, who has been named to have entered his name in the republican presidential preference primary of April 29, discussed universal military training in an address before a Wood-for-president club here today.

"During the closing part of the world war men drafted in July were killed in September without knowing how to handle their rifles, as there had been no time to train them," he said, adding that this was what "we are trying to prevent." He declared the popular conception that universal military training meant compulsory training in militarism was erroneous. It was rather an idea to give physical training and to teach lessons in American citizenship to make better citizens, he asserted.

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 23.—Jack Burke of Minneapolis, Minn., was the winner in the medal play professional tournament here today at the Houston country club with a score of 75 for the afternoon play.

If You Don't Look Out Revenue Men'll Get You Next Month

"There's always somebody taking the joy out of life."

Cesar had his Brutus. Bryan has had several Brutuses. The Texas and Pacific has its wrecks. And modern business has its income tax returns. All of which is an introduction to the advent of Stephen A. Gavin, member of the firm of Gavin & Bruce of Fort Worth, income tax consultants, who is stopping in Cisco today at the Mobley hotel and will consult with clients about income tax returns.

Gavin is an expert on income tax and although his advice is not free, his warnings as to the general requirements of the government in this direction are gratis. "All persons who earn their living," says Gavin, "must make income tax returns by March 15. None under this classification are exempt. Failure to make a return by this date is punishable by fine not to exceed $1000."

"Single men who earned $1000 during 1919 must make a return, as must married men who earned $2000. Regardless of laws that exempt married men for dependents, they must make returns, and although I am not working against the government, I am out to help the public wherever possible. It is the technique of the laws that the general populace is not conversant with."

E. C. Graham, deputy internal revenue man, is to be in Cisco March 6, 7 and 9, according to Gavin, to help the public with returns.

SENATE REQUESTS DATA ON NAVY SHIPS FOR SALE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Secretary Daniels was requested by the senate today to furnish all data concerning vessels the navy department has for sale, whether any bids have been received for them, and whether the department will exact in any contemplated sales the pledge that the vessels be kept in American hands and sailed under the American flag.

PERSHING URGES NEGROES TO JOIN AMERICAN LEGION

HAMPTON, Va., Feb. 23.—General Pershing told the students of Hampton institute here today that the people of the south were becoming more and more interested in the education of the negro population.

"This center of education is the greatest encouragement to the colored race throughout the south," General Pershing said. "I have been struck with the activities of educated colored people in the south. I have met many colored people of high character and ability."

LINCOLN LORE STUDENTS DENY ALEXANDER'S WORD

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Students of Lincoln lore took exception today to the statement of Lucien High Alexander of Philadelphia on Saturday that he had brought to light a tribute to Lincoln to Washington which had been lost sight of since its delivery in Springfield, Ill., in 1842. Mr. Alexander said Nicolay and Hay and all the other biographers of Lincoln as far as he had discovered, had overlooked this tribute.

GOVERNOR PREVENTS PLANNED COCK FIGHT

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 23.—Announcement was made tonight at the governor's office that the governor, with Adjutant General Hunter, personally prevented an international cock fight at Opelousas, St. Landry parish, after reports had been made by detectives that men from all parts of the United States, Canada, Mexico and Central America were gathering there to stage the event on Washington's birthday.

Churchmen Score In Mass Meeting

semble here tonight. Police Scored. "Why is it that the police will raid crap games among the poor, high-working Mexicans and yet let the man at the Judia continue to run his theater in open violation of the law? In a recent gambling raid by the police in the Mexican quarter, the constable who crawled through a window and found a large number of these foreigners engaged in shooting craps did not say, 'Gentlemen, give me a bond that you will appear in court tomorrow and then continue your game as long as you desire.' No! He broke up the game and handed the players to the justice of the peace court in droves. Why isn't it the same way in the case of the violators of the Sunday theater law? When the police see a theater running open on Sunday, why don't they close its doors and take its proprietors immediately to jail instead of permitting him to merely sign a bond for appearance and continue with his illicit business for the remainder of the Sabbath day?"

"Every man who violates the law is a convict. There is some excuse for the man who in a heat of passion kills another man; there is some excuse for the thief whose hunger impels him to steal; there is some excuse for the misadvised hijacker who robs railroad trains and holds people up—but there is no excuse for the man who deliberately and premeditatedly and persistently stands in open violation and defiance of the law and declares that he expects to continue to do so. 'Judia Dead Wrong.'"

"Personally I like Judia, but as far as his policy is concerned he is dead wrong. "But the running of motion picture shows on Sunday is not the only flagrant violation of the law that is going on in this city. It is a sorry fact that flavoring extracts are being sold here in case quantities in violation of both the state and the federal law. If something is not done about this shortly I intend to refer it to the federal authorities and have the stores making a practice of sales of this kind put out of business."

Forget Business Awhile.

"The time has come when the business men of this city must forget business for a while and look after the welfare of their community. Cisco's gates are open to the world. We welcome both the good and the bad here. If they are bad we will try to reform them, but they must understand that no violation of the law here will go unnoticed."

Two Alternatives.

"If the police here are unable to keep down lawlessness we will call upon the state rangers, and if they fail we will take the law into our own hands."

The other regular speaker on the program was R. O. Campbell.

"Some people will put the greed for money above religion or the desires of the people around them," said Campbell in amplification of the Biblical quotation, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Suggests Auto Rides.

Campbell expressed himself as being strongly in favor of law enforcement and Sunday closing, citing the moral turpitude of Germany as an example to be avoided. He suggested that instead of going to moving picture shows, people ride around in automobiles on Sunday or enjoy themselves by reading the Bible or some good magazine.

The executive committee of the law enforcement league, which has been empowered to take whatever action it may see fit in the case of law violations, was named as being composed of the following: A. J. Olson, George Keyes, Lenroot, Lodge, McLean, McNary, Nelson, New, Page, Phipps, Polindexter, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Wadsworth, Warren and Watson. Total republicans for 22. Democrats—Beckham, Fletcher, Gay, Glass, Meyer, Phelan, Pomerene, Ransdell, Robinson, Shields, Smith (Ga.), Smith (Maryland), Underwood, Walsh (Mont.) and Williams. Total democrats for 15.

Total for adoption 47. Those voting against the report were: Republicans—Borah, France and Gronna. Total republicans against 2. Democrats—Ashurst, Dial, Gere, Harris, Harrison, Johnson (South Dakota), Jones (New Mexico), King, McKellar, Nugent, Overman, Pittman, Sheppard and Trammell. Total democrats against 14.

Total against adoption 17. Those paired follows: Bankhead for with Henderson against, Dillingham for with Swanson against, Fall for with Kendrick against, Simmons for with Kirby against, McCumber for with LaFollette against, Harding for with Walsh (Mass.) against, Edge for with Owen against.

Announcement was made that if Senators Hitchcock (Neb.), Stanley (Ky.) and Chamberlain (Ore.), all democrats, had been present they would have voted in support of the conference report. Fredrick Turnell, Chaos. The bill was opposed by senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, who predicted that "turmoil and chaos" in the industrial world would follow close upon its enactment.

"I think it would be far better," he said, "to return the roads without any legislation than to return them with legislation framed to meet a political expediency. I am opposed to government ownership, and I believe if there is anything that will bring government ownership it is passage of this bill. It throws on the government all the responsibility and liability and at the same time deprives the government of any right of ownership."

Senator Pittman raised against the bill the old issue arising out of the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act.

"This bill perpetuates an evil that has resulted in discrimination against every interior community in the United States," he said.

Senator Polindexter, one of the senate conferees on the bill, in further reply to Senator Pittman, said it was the "only piece of legislation brought up since 1916, which in any fashion met the long and short haul discrimination."

"Railroads will not be allowed to make lower rates for long hauls than they do for short hauls over the same distance on the ground that they have to meet potential water competition at coast lines," he said.

Meaning, it is pointed out, a democratic caucus may have developed the real strength of the movement, among democratic senators to break away from past policy of resistance and put the treaty through. Should a majority of the forty-seven democrats vote in the caucus to make such ago before the senate, probably tomorrow. The next reservation to be considered in the revisita to be undertaken on the senate floor, is the troublesome qualification of article ten, against which the president has directed his principal criticism; but the republicans expect to ask that it be laid aside until all the others have been acted on.

The next reservation to be considered in the revisita to be undertaken on the senate floor, is the troublesome qualification of article ten, against which the president has directed his principal criticism; but the republicans expect to ask that it be laid aside until all the others have been acted on.

Meaning, it is pointed out, a democratic caucus may have developed the real strength of the movement, among democratic senators to break away from past policy of resistance and put the treaty through. Should a majority of the forty-seven democrats vote in the caucus to make such ers yet unnamed. This committee was Winston, Judge Parker, Robert W. Winston, B. W. Patterson and two others selected by J. S. Stockard, William Reagan and J. T. McCarty, who were designated in the resolution adopted as the nominating committee.

The resolution creating the law enforcement league, which was drawn by the Rev. A. E. Eaton and adopted in a standing vote by an overwhelming majority of those present, is couched in strong terms denouncing "law-breakers" and reads as follows:

The Resolution. "Whereas, there seems to be a wave of lawlessness sweeping over our country; and

"Whereas, president and continued violation of the law leads to disrespect and contempt of the law, leading ultimately to bolshevism and anarchy and

"Whereas, Cisco has in the past been known far and wide as a law-abiding city; and

"Whereas, certain interests in our city have been recently openly violating the Sunday laws; and

"Whereas, some have even expressed a determination to continue such lawlessness even in defiance of law; and

"Whereas, certain persons have repeatedly stated and alleged that the majority of the people of Cisco really desire that the Sunday law be violated and that, therefore, law breakers should be permitted to trample these laws over their heads and even that the officers should allow lawlessness to run rampant and without legal restraint;

"Therefore, resolved by this mass meeting of citizens that we resent and repudiate the allegation that a majority of our citizens desire that the law be violated with impunity; that we declare such allegations to be untrue and a slander against the fair name of our city.

"Resolved, that we urge our peace officers to enforce all the laws on the statute books, mentioning in particular the laws against Sabbath desecration and most especially the laws against opening, running and exhibiting moving picture shows on the Sabbath day.

"Resolved, that we promise and pledge our peace officers the most hearty support in their efforts to enforce the law against all crimes and to maintain good order in our city.

"Resolved, that the only appropriate name for any man who persistently violates the law is 'law-breaker.'

"Resolved, that a law and order league be organized; that it function through an executive committee of seven citizens; and that the following named be chosen a committee to nominate the executive committee: J. S. Stockard, William Reagan and J. T. McCarty.

Senator Cummins, with great feeling, denounced widespread claims that in fixing freight and passenger charges calculated to give the roads a return of 5.2 per cent meant taking huge sums of money from the public treasury. The bill, he declared, would not take one dollar in that way. Such reports, he said, were merely a part of the propaganda put forth in an effort to defeat legislation on the eve of return of the railroads to their owners on March 1.

The vote on adoption of the report taken after several hours of debate was 47 to 10.

Those voting for the conference report were: Republicans—Ball, Brandegee, Calder, Capper, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Eldkins, Ferrard, Frelinghuysen, Hale, Jones (Wash.), Kellogg, Kenyon, a move, it is expected by the republicans that the effect would be to bring over the votes needed for ratification.

Wilson May Act

In these calculations, however, neither side loses sight of the possibility that the White House may again use its influence to stiffen the backs of the administration senators or that the president may if an unacceptable ratification impends, withdraw the treaty from senate consideration. He might take the latter course, it is suggested, to express at the same time his displeasure with the senate reservations and his unwillingness to have the nation become a party on any terms in the Adriatic settlement.

Politics Intervene. Neither is it concealed that broad questions of party policy are involved in the problem of ratification, now generally admitted by leaders to have been thrust into the political campaign. Privately, the senators pressing for acceptance of the republican reservations, confess themselves out of accord with the president's Jackson day declaration for a "solemn referendum" and they are seeking to disassociate senate democrats from any appearance of endorsing that proposal.
