Lions Convention City for 1935 Is Thing of Beauty

F. J. Wood Tells Civic Club Members of Glories of Neighbor on the South

Mexico is enjoying more peace and a more stable government than ever before, according to F. J. Wood who spoke at the Lions Club Tuesday noon. Mr. Wood recently returned from a trip to Mexico City, 750 miles from Nuevo Laredo.

The Lions Club convention, there next year, Mr. Wood believes, will give members of the civic club an opportunity of visiting, economically, a city which cannot be surpassed in beauty and grandeur. The trip by train from the border city takes twenty-seven to thirty hours. Within three months the improved highway will be completed and it will be possible to motor easily from this country.

Mr. Wood's talk was illustrated with views of temples, cathedrals, pyramids, parks and mountains. He described the typical home, built around a patio and with flowers that grow luxuriously because of the naturally favorable conditions. At this time of the year it rains daily.

Taxes for the many improvements the country can boast and the beauty that has been created are raised by a daily lottery. Tickets are sold many places for fifty centavos each. Ten thousand pesos are given away daily and a grand prize once each month. At this time a peso is about twenty-eight cents in American money.

The exchange rate now is three pesos, fifty centavos for $1 of American money. Visitors are advised to exchange their American money for Mexican money before going into the country.

The new-appearing automobiles and the talking motion pictures, Mr. Wood said, impressed him. There seem to be no old automobiles. Talking pictures are in English with Spanish text at the lower edge of the screen just before the scene is shifted.

W. C. Warren Elected to Office

Before Mr. Wood's talk a report was read of a meeting of the board of directors a few minutes previously. It was accepted by the club. W. C. Warren was selected as treasurer of the club. The directors will meet each month according to a decision reached at the morning meeting.

Pat Cooper was a guest of the club at the luncheon.

Station A Defeats Ellis Parts Team by 9 to 3 Score

Mertzson-Station A Game May Be Played Here This Month, Ohlenburg Reports

A communication to the NEWS from "Dutch" Ohlenburg of Station A gives this report of the game Sunday when the Station A Oilers swamped the strong Ellis Parts team of San Angelo by a score of 9 to 3.

"Jeetie Archer's single scored Hudson to put the Oilers in the ball game when two were out. W. McLeod hit a long triple to tie the score.

Archer, and Paul and Wilford McLeod led the day's batting attack with two hits each, delivered in the pinches. Busy Bud Smith relieved Ratliff in the third and pitched masterful ball, allowing one hit in six innings.

Sunday Station A takes on Eola for a conference game in the Concho Basin League of which it is a member.

Hamp Hampton is trying to give Sonora a chance to see a real ball game this month by having the Mertzson-Station A game played in Sonora rather than Eldorado. These teams have met twice—Station A winning 7 to 6 and the other game ending in a 3 to 3 tie."

The condensed, inning-by-inning score of the Sunday game was:
Station A ..... 02 033 001 9
Ellis Parts ..... 110 000 001 3

Famished Cattle Find Water and Grass

Western cattle branded with the letters of the Emergency Relief administration, after they had been bought by the government from farmers whose farms are now almost waterless, are driven to an island in the middle of the Savannah river, near Augusta, Ga., where there are 300 acres of pasture land. It must feel great to them to get back to water and real green grass again.

South Says He Is Not Sectional In Public Service

Candidate for Congress Outlines Political Views in Sonora Address Saturday

"If you vote against me because of the political ballyhoo of another candidate you have sold your political birthright for less than the proverbial 'mess of pottage'."

That is the opinion expressed Saturday afternoon in Sonora by Charles L. South, candidate for congress, who declared that he was the only one of the four in the primary race who did not declare openly that he was certain to be elected.

Mr. South reviewed his political career in Coleman county since he left the field of education for public service. He commented that many were urging him to "whip up" in his month-campaign following the primary election two weeks ago.

Considerable attention was given by Mr. South to the criticism that he expressed as "South comes from Coleman county and Coleman county is a farming county." He admitted the truth of the statement and outlined the county's cattle and sheep production. More cattle were raised there in 1933, he said, than in Tom Green county. In the same year his county produced more sheep than Mason county.

"There are many thousands of acres in my county devoted to ranches," Mr. South stated. "You should not vote against me because I am from a farming county. My (Continued on page 4)

Equalization Board Named by City Com.

Bids for New Municipal Building to Be Opened Today

Joe Berger, E. S. Long and G. W. Stephenson were named at the meeting of the city commission Monday night as a board of equalization to study and fix valuations of taxable property in Sonora.

At a later date which will be announced the board will meet to hear and consider complaints from those who do not feel that the valuation placed upon their property is correct.

Ordinances required for the going ahead of work on the city hall fire station building were passed. Bids are to be opened today for the general contract for the building.

Rams Sold by Experiment Station
Twenty-four head of registered, yearling rams were sold recently by the Ranch Experiment Station to E. K. Fawcett of Del Rio, according to W. H. Dameron, superintendent of the station. They brought $25 and sheared 15 pounds as yearlings.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adkins announce the birth of a son, Frank Milton, July 27.

VANDER STUCKENS MAKE IMPROVEMENTS ON HOME

Remodeling work totaling $5000 was started last week on the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Vander Stucken. The work will take about six weeks.

Steam heating facilities will be provided, an oil furnace installed and the entire house stuccoed. The house will be papered and will be refinished and painted. J. T. McClelland has the contract for the work.

LOCAL PASTOR HOLDING MEETING IN ARKANSAS

Only Sunday school services will be held at the Baptist Church Sunday. The Rev. Frank Nixon, pastor, is conducting a revival meeting in Locksburg, Ark., where his uncle C. C. Mund, resides.

The Rev. Mr. Nixon, Mrs. Nixon and their children left Tuesday for Locksburg. They expect to return about July 23. A supply pastor will preach at the church Sunday, July 19.

TOWN'S MOST ARDENT FAN SENDS PLAYERS MESSAGE

"Tell the baseball boys to fight a clean game—win or lose—and enjoy the sport."

That's Frank Knapton's message on a card to the NEWS. Mr. Knapton is scorekeeper for the softball league and has been ill for several weeks. The card which was mailed in San Antonio and received here Thursday read:

"Just a line to let you know that I am down here taking treatment. Mrs. Knapton and Mrs. Fred Berger brought me here Friday. The doctor says I will be down here for two or three weeks, until I get strong again—Only wish I could be with the baseball boys and keep scores for them. But the doctor says just to forget baseball a while."

Dr. Blanton Ever Eager to Serve His Fellow Man

A friend of the late Dr. A. G. Blanton has taken the words of the Rev. E. P. Neal and combined them with her own expression of regard as a tribute to all. The result is a tribute which the NEWS is printing in honor of the memory of the physician who served Sonora and Sutton county for fifteen years.

If Sonora people had been selecting the person in Sonora who was rendering the most unselfish service, meeting the greatest need and doing most to relieve human suffering Dr. Blanton surely would have been chosen.

His was one of the greatest and most noble of professions. Saint Luke, one of the twelve apostles of

Junior Roberts Ill

POSTAL RECEIPTS GAIN STEADILY IN 7 MONTHS

Another month of increased volume of business was reported here this week by T. C. Murray, postmaster, when he stated that gross business of the postoffice in July was $448.56, approximately $95 more than the same month last year.

The total for the first seven months is $3425.65. Last year it was $3095.41. The increased volume of the local office is indicative, to a certain extent, of improved business conditions.

BOYS IN CAR CAUGHT AFTER SHERIFF'S CHASE

Two young men driving a Ford coach were captured in Sonora Monday by B. W. Hutcherson, Sheriff, and deputy, Cashes Taylor, after a chase through town. The boys failed to make the turn on to the Del Rio highway and the chase was ended.

The boys said their names were Ray Sherman of Fulton, Ark., and Sam Johnson of Ohio. Sherman says he is 19 and Johnson is 18. The car was said to have been stolen in Colorado, Texas. A charge of possession of a stolen automobile was filed and at examining trial pleas of guilty were entered and they were held for action of the grand jury.

Mineral Experiment Work Discussed at A&M Short Course

W. H. Dameron and Dr. I. B. Boughton Attend Meeting; Boughton Finishes Bulletin

A review of mineral feeding experiments conducted during the last few years was a highlight of the tenth annual short course at Texas A. & M. college last week, according to W. H. Dameron, superintendent Ranch Experiment Station who, with Dr. I. B. Boughton of the station, returned Saturday night.

About 4300 county agents, home demonstration agents, farmers, ranchmen and sub-station workers attended the meetings. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Mr. Dameron and Dr. Boughton attended meetings arranged especially for workers of the state's experiment stations.

The mineral feeding experiments have been carried on intensively for the last three years. The research work that has been done concerns mineral supplements under range and feed lot conditions with particular attention to the determination of how many of livestock troubles are caused by lack of minerals.

Bulletin Manuscript Completed

While there a manuscript prepared by Dr. Boughton and Dr. W. T. Hardy, veterinarians at the station, was completed and made ready for the printer. Its title will be, "Chronic Copper Poisoning in Sheep." It is believed it will be ready for distribution within the next few months.

Since June 20 mineral feeding experiments have been under way at the station, according to Mr. Dameron, with 40 head of cows and 200 head of sheep. Half of the cattle were given a 50-50 ration of bone meal and salt and the remainder salt only. Pastures are altered. (Continued on page 4)

Bonds for Mexican School Carry by Large Plurality

Schools to Open September 3; Tax Rates Unchanged for New Tax Year

Official canvass of the votes cast in the election Saturday to authorize the issuance of school district obligation bonds as security for a government loan of $21,000 for a Mexican school building showed that 107 favored issuance and 19 were opposed.

The canvass was made Monday night at a meeting of the school board. Only eighty-four "aye" votes were required. R. S. Covey, superintendent of schools, said Tuesday that the bond order was passed at the meeting and sent to Public Works Administration officials in Fort Worth for approval.

The $21,000 loan is to be supplemented by an outright grant of about $7000 from the administration.

School Opening Date Set

School pupils of the district will be called back to their desks Monday, September 3. The board adopted the following calendar as the official one for the year's activities:

Thanksgiving vacation, Nov. 29 and 30; Christmas holidays, Dec. 21 to Jan. 2; Washington's Birthday, February 22; end of school year, May 17. The earlier closing of the schools is a result of fewer holidays, Armistice Day falling on a Sunday and a shorter Christmas vacation period.

The calendar as approved by the board provides for 175 teaching (Continued on page 4)

174 Stock Raisers in County Have Sold Cattle

$99,449.00 PAID OUT

No Time Limit Set on Goat-Sheep Buying Program

With only 750 head of cattle owned by 15 Sutton county producers listed for appraisal officials of the drouth relief program office are looking forward to the beginning, about August 20, of the sheep and goat buying program.

One hundred and seventy-four people in Sutton county have had 10,401 animals appraised by the government since the work started July 4. Of this number 2,857 were condemned as unfit and 7,544 accepted for use.

"Benefit payments," or money received by the producers, totals $62,244. Money received by lien holders, known as "purchase payments," amounts to $37,205. These two figures represent the actual amount of money distributed so far through the local office. A total of $116,455 has been authorized for payment for the animals bought. The balance has not been received.

The division of the total money received or yet to be received for cattle bought in the county is as follows: to producers, $50,711; for "purchase payments," $65,744.

It was explained Wednesday by Fred Simmons, office manager for the work in Sutton county being directed by W. R. Nibet, that all of the money actually received or approved for payment did not necessarily go into trade channels. However, much of it did so. In many cases the producer has applied his funds in reducing further his obligation on the animals. The "purchase payments" were made direct to the lien holders.

Congestion Causes Delay

A temporary halt in the work of completing the cattle program, as far as animals listed for appraisal is concerned, was in effect Wednesday morning as a result of a telegram from Adam R. Johnson of the state headquarters. Resumption of activities was expected at any time. Congestion at stockyards was the cause of the delay.

Dr. J. L. Skiles, veterinarian who has been inspecting the cattle, was transferred this week to Fort (Continued on page 4)

Condition of Girl Unchanged

The condition of Mary Sue Blanton at noon Thursday was little changed from that of the last few days. In a telephone conversation with Mary Sue's sister, Mrs. Ber Martin, Mrs. Earl Duncan was told that although she had had a very bad night she was resting easier at that time, 11:30.

CITY MANAGER URGES MORE CARE BY DRIVERS

Livestock owners are being asked by George E. Smith, city manager, to be more careful. Many complaints are being received of animals damaging or destroying shrubbery and flowers in their eagerness to secure green stuff. Drouth conditions have made the problem more acute than usual.

Car owners, too, Mr. Smith declared, are being thoughtless when driving their cars to the softball games on the school campus. Lawns and improvements there have been secured at considerable expense in money and effort and Mr. Smith urges that more care be used by automobile drivers in seeing that they do not unintentionally destroy or damage them.

All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two (2) years.

Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the right of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the County Auditor, to fix the number of assistants, deputies, and clerical personnel which said officers may employ; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to particular and total tax levies for any or all county purposes; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations on counties to incur public debts.

(e) In any and all cases where provisions of the Constitution of this State are in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment the provisions of this Amendment (Section 2-A, Article IX) shall control; provided, however, should any county adopt a Home Rule Charter under authority of any provisions of the State Constitution or Amendment thereto, this Amendment shall not be applicable to such county."

Termites Are Builders; Queen Big Egg Producer

The African termite builds a conical hill 10 feet high with a circumference of anything up to 30 feet, but these are dwarfed by some Australian species, which build mounds 24 feet high. Each of these mounds, writes a correspondent in Tit-Bits Magazine, is constructed by the worker termites and built of minute particles of matter. The majority are oblong in shape, with the small ends invariably pointing north and south. The material consists of earth and wood, but before being used it is eaten by the workers. This gives them nourishment and a uniform building substance.

Somewhere in a well-guarded place in the heart of the termites' home we find the royal counterpart of the queen. She is a remarkable creature, for after mating with the king her body swells to an enormous size, and for the remainder of her life she is an egg machine, attaining a length of 3 inches and laying 60,000 eggs a day.

With such a prolific mother the colony increases to such an extent that there may be millions of workers and soldiers, yet all their operations are carried out in darkness, and hundreds of human beings have lived all their lives within a few yards of a colony without seeing a single termite.

If a queen should die, the colony is thrown into confusion, but the workers take some of the eggs and treat them in some mysterious manner to produce queens. So far as we can tell all eggs laid by the queen are similar, but the workers can produce queens, kings, soldiers or workers.

Difference Between the Scotch, English Collies

Modern dog breeders recognize three main types of collies, of which only two are really collies, says the Montreal Herald. The Old English sheep dog, which has no tail, is a big, rough-coated mastiff type of dog which has not been used to herd sheep for at least a century.

The true collie is a medium-sized wolfhound type of dog which in northern England and Scotland has been bred and trained to a high point of intelligence in the herding of cattle and sheep, particularly the latter. On this continent what is known as the Scotch collie has been developed more as a show dog and household pet, has become larger, with a longer face and head, more than in a heavier coat, than their old North British forbears. This type of dog has considerable sagacity, but is just as difficult to train as a cattle or sheep dog as the average mongrel. But here and there a few of the North British collies or their progeny can be found, and these, though smaller and possibly not so good looking, are to be preferred to the so-called Scotch collie.

PRINTER'S ERROR ENLIVEN'S TOPIC FOR CLERGYMAN

St. Petersburg, Fla.—A printer's error might have caused the newspaper embarrassment if Rev. James A. McClure had not been the sort who sees the funny side of things.

As pastor of the First Presbyterian church, he sent to the paper the announcement that his sermon topic the following Sunday would be "The Secret of Power."

The typesetter hit the wrong letter, the proof reader failed to catch it—and so it was chronicled that Rev. Mr. McClure would preach about "The Secret of Poker."

"Oh, that's all right," laughed the clergyman. "Perhaps I'll have the church overflowing."

CORRECTION is the true basis of the CHIROPRACTIC system of health service. It should be realized that the mechanical structure of the body is the foundation of health. If there is a "bulge" in the wall of a building and the floors sag, the competent builder doesn't waste time straightening walls and raising the floor until he has made the foundation right.

So it is in HEALTH matters. The spine is the foundation of the body. It must be right or the body cannot be. The CHIROPRACTOR, by correcting misalignment of the spine, removes the cause of dis-ease. This is

PROPAGATION METHOD MAY INCREASE PECANS

Anahuac, Aug. 9.—Paper shell pecans should be more plentiful in Chambers county in the next few years if the farm demonstration agent, R. H. Mathis, is successful in his attempt to convert native seedling pecans into the more desirable thin shell varieties.

By means of a simple knife operation known as the "patch bud method," Mr. Mathis is removing dormant buds from paper shell pecan trees and transplanting them into the bark of young native pecan seedlings. From these inserted pecan buds new limbs are expected to come forth that will be of the paper shell variety. As these new limbs get larger the old native limbs are to be cut back until the tree has an entirely new top that will bear only paper shell pecans instead of the small native ones for which there is very little market demand. To date a total of 125 native pecan seedlings have been successfully budded with paper shell pecan buds.

If it's printing, see 'he NEWS.

BE GLAD YOU ARE A CITIZEN OF THE U. S.

Whether or not one believes in the government's most recent method of aiding people in drought-stricken areas he must admit that it is seemingly a truly sincere effort to relieve a tense situation.

The buying of cattle recently and the purchase of sheep and goats in the near future should be of worth-while benefit to this section. True, not all of the money received will go into retail trade channels. But a certain portion of it will and by so doing will be of benefit in a general way rather than just to the livestock producer.

Citizens everywhere should breathe a prayer of thanksgiving that they are living in a country where distressing conditions are met, not by revolution, strife and turbulent situations of many kinds, but by genuinely sincere efforts at an immediate solution which possibly may pave the way for permanent plans of economic betterment.

Statesmen, yes and even politicians, may come and go but way down deep the fundamentals on which the United States of America has developed remain steadfast. "Isms," technocracy furor, strikes, unrest of various sorts, they too, come and go—none, however, affect the United States as they very likely would many other countries.

South Says—

opponent is interested in a Mason hotel. Both of us know something of farming."

Tells of Newspaper's Policy

Mr. South told that three days before the election the editor of the Brownwood Bulletin had told him he was undecided as to his support.

"He told me," Mr. South stated, "that he wanted to be for the man who would do the most for Brown county. I told him that if I were elected I would know no county line, that I would not be a sectional candidate but would treat all counties fairly. The Bulletin in a few days came out for my opponent and published three editorially supporting him."

Brown county citizens, Mr. South stated, cast 4,177 votes for him. He carried every voting box in the city and county. In his home county, Coleman, he received 75 per cent of the votes. Only a two-minute speech was made there during the campaign.

A well-coordinated corps of peace officers made up of federal, state and county men who need not observe state and county lines when pursuing criminals is Mr. South's suggestion for a means of curbing crime. "Ox-cart poisoning machinery" is his description of the way in which we are "plodding along" today in our efforts to do something about crime, according to Mr. South. His belief in state rights, he said, was not endangered by his plan. State rights, it was stated, should be observed, but not when those rights tend to protect a criminal who has escaped into a sister state.

"Restricted Incomes Needed"

The need for a fairer distribution of wealth was stressed. One per cent of the people own 59 per cent of the wealth of the country, Mr. South stated. Denying that he had any tendencies toward socialism, he explained his ideas on the distribution of wealth. A restriction on extremely large incomes is his suggestion. For instance, he pointed out, a man with an income of a million would be little affected if his income was restricted to that each year. Mr. South termed as dangerous the "concentration of too much money in the hands of a few."

The proposition of wealth, its control and the means of exercising that control should be discussed, Mr. South believes.

In conclusion Mr. South declared: "When you vote the next time, if you believe I could and would represent the district impartially and fairly I hope that you will vote for me."

Organizing for Sheep and Goats.

Buying of sheep and goats for a flat price of $2 for sheep and $1.40 for goats will begin, it is believed, about August 20, a week from Monday. Organization work and study of the plan is under way now.

It is estimated that ten to fifteen million dollars will be used by the government for purchase of the animals in 1,400 counties of twenty-four drouth-stricken states. In general, the program will be similar to that of cattle purchasing. A veterinarian will not inspect. An experienced sheep man, working under O. B. Martin, state drouth relief director, and his assistant, G. W. Barnes, will be in charge.

Owners and lien-holders will share in the proceeds of the sheep and goats on a 50-50 basis it was stated in San Angelo Tuesday when Dr. Sheets, federal drouth relief director, visited there to explain the plan, review cattle work and speak to West Texas ranchmen about the new program which is to be on an indefinite basis as to the time for the work. It is possible that state allotments may be set. This has not been done yet but if it is done, Dr. Sheets stated, it will be the only restriction. Range conditions are such that rain at this time in many places would not solve the producers' problem.

Roy Aldwell and Fred Earwood attended the San Angelo meeting which was held at the Tom Green county courthouse.

Further announcement concerning the method of procedure for ranchmen of this sector will be announced next week by the local office.

Students Publish Paper in Historic City of Quebec

Miss Allison, Sonora Teacher, One of Group Securing Credits "A La Omnibus"

A five-column, tabloid size newspaper, known as "The Omnibus," has been received by the NEWS from Miss Johnnie Allison, Sonora school instructor, who has been touring the United States and Canada this summer as a member of the group which receives college credit for their work on the tour.

The publication was printed by the Quebec, Canada, Chronicle-Telegraph, only English newspaper in that city. The papers plant is believed by historians to be over the unlocated tomb of Champlain, founder of the city.

The party's personnel is divided into three "autocades," each with its deans and directors in charge. Many of the usual activities of college students are carried on as the group travels across the country. Quebec was its northern destination. A few weeks previously it had been in Pensacola, Fla.

News, amusing incidents that happen to various students and persons make up the "newspaper" An amusing bit in the recent issue concerned the girl "Omnibus" who viewed New York City from the top of the Empire State building. The story concerns one Miss Helen Jacobsen.

"Please, Mister will you take our picture?" said Helen Jacobsen of the third autocade as she thrust her camera into the hands of a strange man at the top of the Empire State building.

All of the Omnibusters gasped in astonishment as Helen hustled them into place and stood pleasantly waiting.

The amazed man took off his cap, wiped his brow, muttered something about the small camera, and then snapped the picture.

"Thanks a lot ..." and then did Helen blush, for standing behind the man was a camera on a tripod and on his cap was written "Photographer." Well, the picture is good, and the expressions priceless.

His service to this community was very valuable as well as broad in its extent. He will long be remembered by his many friends. These three verses seem particularly appropriate as a tribute to his memory:

Now the Laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore,
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

There the tears of earth are dried;
There the hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster judge than here.
Father, in thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

Now we lift our tear-dimmed eyes
To the smiling skies above,
And we know our dear one lies
In the Bosom of thy love.
Father, in thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.

In Early Days Short Letters Were on Left Side of Sheet

Austin, Aug. 9.—Records of a land agency which has operated in Texas since 1847 have come to the attention of Mrs. M. A. Hatcher, archivist at the University of Texas, and already a bloc of these documents covering the decade of the "seventies" has been deposited in the university library.

The papers are the property of the Lawrence family, and consist of letters and documents relating to lands owned and handled by the late J. W. Lawrence, who, with his son, was in the land business at Austin for many years. The agency had business connections not only with Texas and the United States, but also with Canada, Europe and South American countries. The complete set of records, now in the possession of Mr. Lawrence's son, extends from 1847 to 1934.

The collection of land records was presented to the university through the courtesy of Mrs. Stuart McGregor of Dallas, granddaughter of J. W. Lawrence. Both Mr. and Mrs. McGregor are graduates of the university.

The records were of course kept in handwriting, done with a fine

WHIFFLETREE DEFEATED

Ed. Note: Col. Whiffletree in a pensive mood heads this column this week.)

The last issue of the Torchlight carried on its front page a life-size photo of the Colonel Esaias Izadiaz Whiffletree, defeated candidate for the office of county chairman of the Sukor Party.

The worthy editor of the Torchlight was unanimously snowed under in the ratio of 16 to 1. There were 17 votes cast as follows:

- Buzzy Stokes ..... 16
- Col. Whiffletree ..... 1

The editor is very grateful to his friend for his loyal support of the cause of the great Sukor Party. The colonel declares that if, and when, he is ever elected gov. his true friend shall never lack for employment—if road overseer jobs hold out.

DOG DAYS

Recently the big dailies carried a dispatch to the effect that a prominent dog had passed away and was buried with honors. Now comes a story from Grand Rapids, Mich., that a police dog was hailed into court, tried and acquitted of slaying a pedigreed Pomeranian. Verdict: "justifiable dogicide." (sic!) Next atrocious crime we read about will likely be of some Sutton county ewe being sheepicided or a Rambouillet goat being goatified.

MORNING AND EVENING

I saw the morning, with purple quiver and burnished brow, stand tip-toe on the horizon, and shoot sunbeams at the vanishing darkness of night, then reach up and gather the stars and hide them in her bosom, and then bend down and tickle the slumbering world with laughter and song. A thousand bugle calls from the rosy fires of the east heralded her coming; a thousand laughing gardens unfurled their flower flags to greet her. The heart of the deep forest throbbed a tribute of birdsong, and the bright waters rippled a melody of welcome. Young life and love, radiant with hope and sparkling with dew drops of exultant joy, came hand in hand, tipping and dancing in her shining train, and I wished that the heaven of the morning might last forever.

I saw the evening hang her silver crescent on the sky and rival the splendor of the dawn with the glory of the twilight. I saw her wrap the shadows around her, and with a lullaby on her lips, rock the weary world to rest; then I saw her with her dipper full of dew drops and her basket full of dreams slip back to the horizon of the morning and steal the stars again. The gardens furled their flags of flowers and the meadows fell asleep; the song of the forest fell into silence and the melancholy waters whispered a pensive good-night to the drowsy birds and sleepy hollows. Life and love, with halo of parting day upon their brows and the starlight tangled in their hair, walked arm and arm among the gathering shadows and wove all the sweet memories of the morning into their happy evening that it might never end.

Thus life steals up from the dust. We wake to think and sleep to dream. We love and laugh, and weep and sing, and sigh, until death steals us back to dust again. —Robert Love Taylor.

MISSES CHANCE TO GRAB EASTER ISLE

World Passes Up "No Man's Land" in Pacific.

Buenos Aires.—For the last 45 years a sizeable No Man's Land in the Pacific ocean has awaited some nation to formally take possession of it.

This No Man's Land is known as Easter Island, and is situated 2,000 miles off the Chilean coast. It was discovered in 1722 by the Dutch navigator Roggeveen, but excited so little interest that it was left for Peru to occupy it in 1770. Peru later abandoned it, and it apparently lay at the mercy of the first comer until 1888, when Chilean expeditionaries took possession. It has remained nominally a Chilean possession ever since.

In January of this year, however, a diligent searcher in the Chilean foreign office archives made the startling discovery that the island had never been formally incorporated in the Chilean dominion—in effect, that it had been occupied by Chileans but not by Chile. Proceeding with the greatest secrecy, President Alessandri's government promptly remedied this oversight, with the result that Easter Island is a No Man's Land no longer. It is definitely Chilean.

It is now too late for the "imperialists" of any nation to feel anything beyond regret that they knew nothing about this matter.

Easter Island at one time was the seat of a civilization of which the modern world knows little or nothing. It is to gather information on this head that a French scientific mission is on its way to the island aboard the French scoutship Aires on its voyage to the island.

Easter Island is remarkable for the possession of more than 500 stone idols, some of them 36 feet high. Little so far has been learned of the religion professed by the builders of these idols or of the life they lived. Their descendants are a dying race. In 1870 they numbered approximately 3,000, but today their numbers have been reduced to a few hundred. They have a language of their own (of Polynesian derivation), and they live isolated from the world except for the yearly visit of a vessel which brings them their few wants unobtainable in their own land.

The French mission is headed by Professor Wathelin and Dr. Alfred Metraux, and the outcome of their researches will be awaited with interest by students of bygone civilizations.

100-Year-Old Quilt Is Made of 71,820 Pieces

Lancaster, Pa.—A hundred-year-old quilt made from 71,820 pieces of material is in the possession of Mrs. Richard Van Ripper.

Very little is known about the history of the quilt, except that it was made about 1834 by Elizabeth Zell, who lived in Little Britain township, near here.

By inheritance, the quilt went into the hands of Mrs. Arthur Bickham, who provided that her sister-in-law, the present owner, should have it upon her death.

It has been estimated that the work on the quilt required at least ten years. There is some dispute as to whether most of the material used is old chintz, or oil chalice. The pattern is made up of 7,920 diamonds, each with nine tiny rosettes. Each rosette is made of a tiny circle of cloth, apparently cut around a dime. Half the diamonds have eight rosettes, with a red one in the center. This color scheme is reversed in the remaining half of the diamonds. Seen from different angles, the quilt shows hundreds of geometric designs of larger diamonds, pyramids and cubes. Held to the light, the quilt looks like old lace.

The quilt is 7 feet 11 inches long by 7 feet 2 inches wide. So fine is the needlework that the stitches scarcely can be seen with the naked eye.

Depression Gives Horse Miraculous Comeback

Des Moines.—Old Dobbin, who has been staging a miraculous comeback on the farm, aided substantially by the depression, also is returning to favor in the large cities, according to W. L. Elder, operator of one of the largest horse markets in the United States.

Elder said that sales for the first four months of 1934 gained 150 per cent over the corresponding period of 1933. These sales, he added, were made for the most part to dairy companies in large eastern cities, where the horse has not been supplanted by trucks as motive power for milk wagons.

Rabbit Builds Its Home in Nebraska's Capitol

Lincoln, Neb.—A Nebraska cottontail rabbit, possibly with political aspirations, chose the steps of Nebraska's $10,000,000 state house as a place to rear its young.

Surprised yard men, watering clumps of low shrubs on the first landing of the steps leading to the main entrance of the huge building, found a nest of the new-born rabbits. The nest was located only a foot from the walk over which hundreds of capitol visitors pass.

Clear the Track! The Soap Box Derby Is On, the Backyard "Specials" Are Coming!

Detroit, Aug. 9. — Convincing proof that "Young America" is becoming more and more conscious of the mechanical construction and functioning of the modern automobile, is being furnished to Chevrolet Motor Company officials here by photographs and drawings of cars being built for the first annual All-American Soap Box Derby, an amateur racing event for boys, which it sponsors nationally.

The Soap Box Derby is now underway in 40 leading cities. Local winners—those who negotiate a three-eighths mile hill in the fastest time—will be sent to Dayton, Ohio, for the national event—August 19.

A typical example of unusual mechanical ability among boys 7 to 15 years of age is the racer constructed by 12-year-old Jack Nicholas of Indianapolis. With the aid of his father, Jack built his Derby entry with knee-action.

The entire car was built at a total cost of 15 cents for materials not available from the cellar and backyard of the Nicholas home. The 15 cents, Jack reported, was for a piece of cold-rolled steel, out of which they made the roller bearings.

Specifications of the car are as follows:

- Make—1934 Nicholas.
- Model—Broad-Ripple Special.
- Passengers—One.
- Wheelbase—67 inches.
- Power—Gravity.
- Lubrication—By squirt-can to all bearings.
- Springs—Porch-swing, coil; individual wheel suspension front and rear.
- Wheels—Ply wood, 19 inches.
- Wheel Bearings—Roller; best grade 1/4-inch cold-rolled scrap iron.
- Tires—19.5x1, low-pressure garden hose; tack-on type.
- Steering—Transverse drag-link to single cross-rod.
- Steering Wheel—Salvage.
- Brake—Mechanical, hand-operated to drag on pavement.
- Hood—Combination 5-gallon can and fly-screen.
- Frame—Plank.
- Bumper—Oak.
- Shock Absorbers—Personal.
- Upholstery—Home-tanned rabbit skin with integral tails.
- Ventilation—All-draft type.

Jack's car created so much interest in Indianapolis that he was officially received by Gov. Paul V. McNutt, on the steps of Indiana's capitol. Jack and his father visited Detroit and were luncheon guests of M. E. Coyle, president of Chevrolet, and General Motors officials. The knee-action Derby car was exhibited for two days in the lobby of the General Motors building.

Southern Building Far Ahead of 1933

Sixteen States Report Gain of More Than 100 Per Cent

Baltimore, Aug. 9.—Construction contracts awarded in 16 southern states in the first six months of 1934 increased 111 per cent over the value of contracts awarded in the like period of 1933, according to announcement by the Manufacturers' Record.

Building, engineering and construction valuations totaled $261,979,000 for the first half of the year, compared with $128,488,000 for the first half of last year. Road, paving and bridge work amounted to $111,446,000; industrial, engineering projects, $77,860,000; industrial plant construction, $35,634,000, with chemical plants being built by nationally known firms featuring the latter group.

Public-building contracts account for only $55,889,000 during the past 6 months, but the publication said the government's new program calls for 640 new buildings throughout the country, many of which will be contracted for in the south during the third quarter.

Beauty and Enchantment Combine for Mexico Appeal

When F. J. Wood went to Mexico City recently he was asked to jot down notes about his trip. The following "jottings" give the reader some idea of the beauty and charm that visitors attribute to Mexico.

What's this—a fall size band bids us "feliz viage" at the Nuevo Laredo railway station...that's something—the feeling of assurance created by the two squads of soldiers the railway company provides for each train... "just a custom," we are told... First, second and third class coaches... the third has benches instead of standing room for the horses... Beggars swarm at each station... many lose their limps and leers as the train disappears...

Thousands of valleys, rich and fertile, with mountains towering majestically above... a horse-drawn street car on its way to town, a half mile from the station... men in the fields plowing with a crooked stick attached to a burro... Undeveloped resources beyond belief, awaiting development... Mexico!

Mexico City—the exhilaration of the 8000-foot altitude... the "air conditioned" atmosphere day and night... automobiles everywhere and all look new... where are the model T's?... the people are hospitable, yes, but also both polite and intelligent.

Where is the depression in this country?... New buildings going up... new residential property being built... one might liken it to Chicago's "Gold Coast"... A great deal of beautiful tiling and wrought iron work... the bathroom in our apartment looks like a marble fountain...

Millions of birds and trees... Nature at its best... Mexico!... Vast pyramids, millions of hours of human toil represented there... temples and churches everywhere... evidence here of human bondage and slavery... Chapultepec... most beautiful spot in North America... extravagant nature, yes, but see it and agree... a beautiful setting for all of the intrigue, romance, death, birth, sacrifice which is linked with it... so startlingly beautiful people sometimes commit suicide there... better, they believe, to die in such beauty than to live...

The Indian isn't a friend of mass production... a few of this, a few of that and he's through... if he made more he might offend the gods by making a beautiful thing too common... so un-American... Night clubs... and with singers who sound like nightingales... the plaintive wail of male singers... what contrast!... Swimming... surely... but bring along your health certificate for it is required at each tile and marble masterpiece...

Check your romantic inclinations here... floating gardens where your canoe glides through little lanes in the crystal clear water... flowers, flowers, flowers, a caressing moon and an exquisitely perfumed air... your heart, too, should be left behind... it is said to be fatal... Soldiers patrol the road... not because of Dillingers, they hasten to explain, but just to make the tourist feel safer... so many interesting things one can't relate them... sadness and regret upon leaving... the band bids us "bien Venida" as our train pulls out... Mexico!

able sentiment as has been crystallized in the last few weeks. Everybody wants to help. Everybody wants a part. It will be the job, as I understand it, of the publicity committee to give these folks a job. The service of every loyal Texan is needed. The personal interest of all is wanted because this exhibition must be all-Texan and for all its citizens.

Accurate History Proposed
"It now is generally recognized that the Centennial will benefit all Texas. There isn't a hamlet but that will benefit. We want the people to understand this, but at the same time to know that the historical, the cultural, the artistic and the religious life of Texas through the last stirring century will be paramount."

Mr. Mayes in connection with the historical side of the exhibition pointed out that the plan committee in its Corsicana report provided that an authentic and comprehensive history of Texas be written and that it "assemble data for an unbiased chronicle of the events, forces and influences, not only military and political, but in every field of human endeavor."

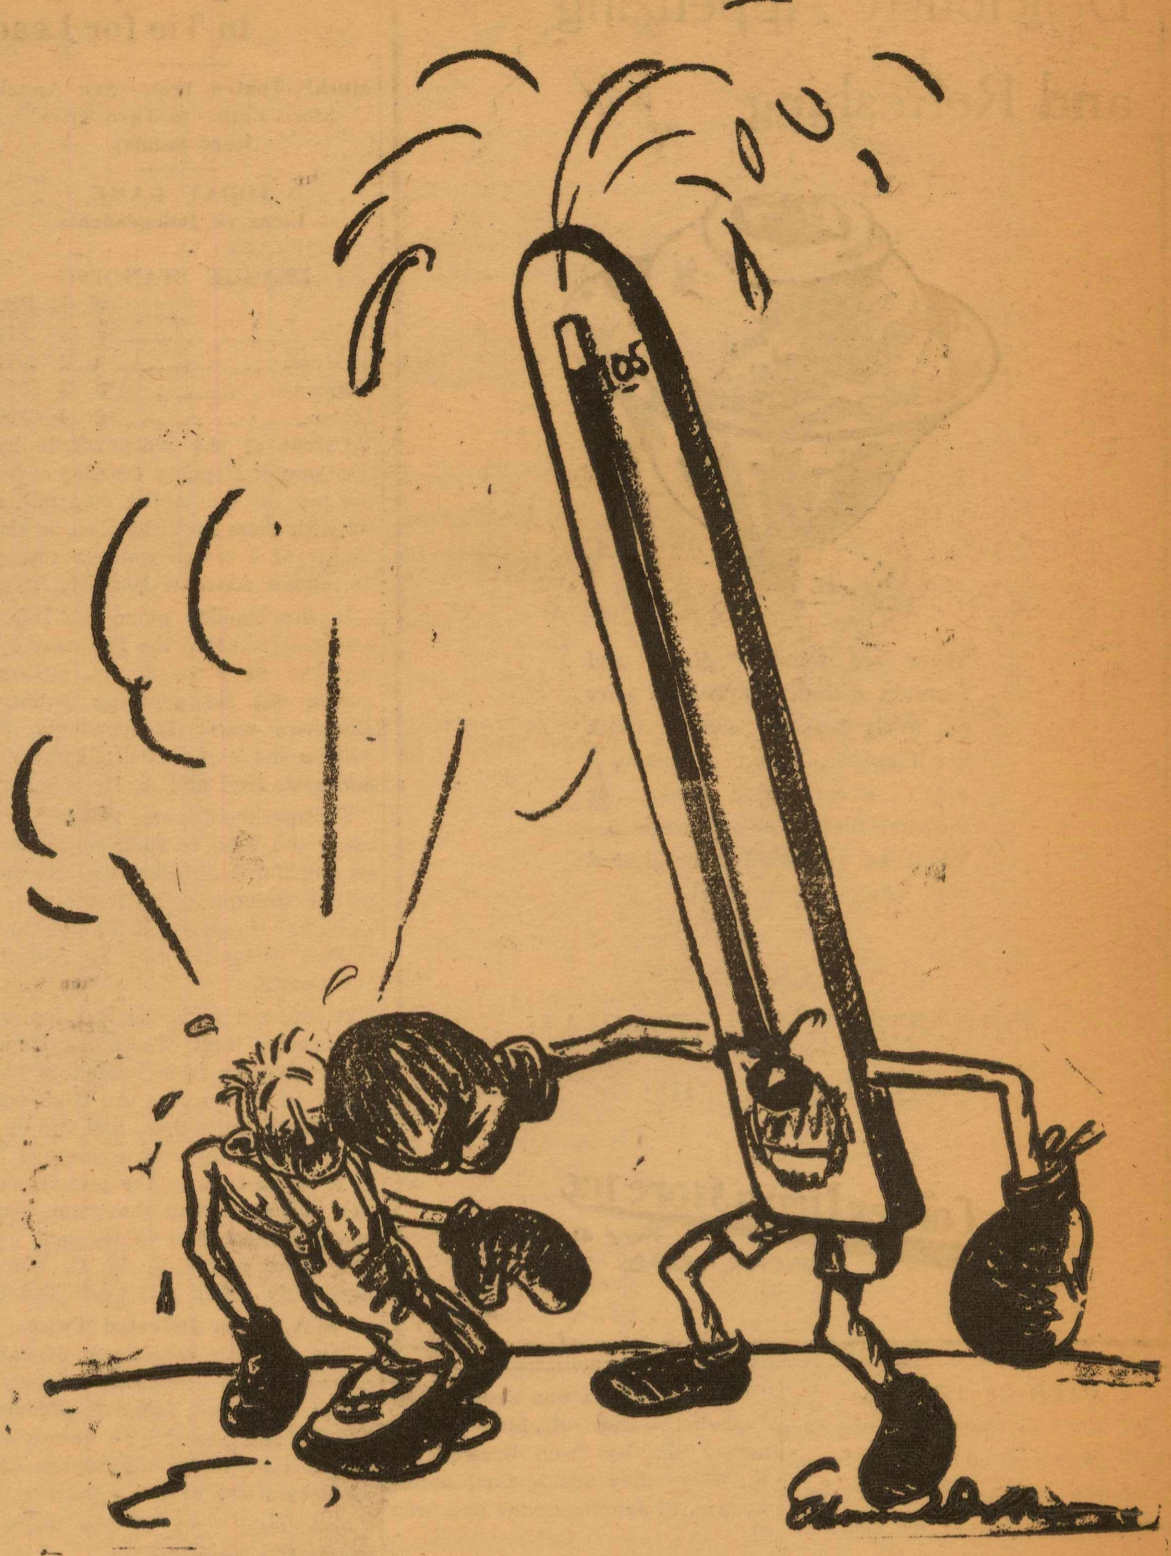

It provided for a number of worthy celebrations during Centennial year in those places famous in Texas history by reason of military, political or cultural events. It also provided that the main exhibition be all-Texas in its proportions; that the participation of all these nations under whom Texas has lived be asked to participate. Thus it is expected that the glorious history of the state will be paramount at all times in every phase of the great exhibition, plans for which now are actively under way in all sections.

A pledge, insignia and the seal of the state are being publicized by the Centennial Commission in its efforts to make all Texans "Centennial-conscious" in the months of July and August. The three are reproduced below.

LA VISTA PICTURES TO PRESENT POPULAR STARS

"An extravagantly funny film" is the description used by one writer in telling of "Twentieth Century," a broad farce with a veneer of satire which will be shown Sunday and Monday at La Vista Theater. John Barrymore and Carole Lombard are featured.

The week will be concluded with "Success at Any Price," starring Douglas Fairbanks, jr., Colleen Moore and Genevieve Tobin. It will be the major spot of the Wednesday and Thursday programs.

Texas Centennial Assured, According to Will H. Mayes

Executive Secretary of Commission States That Texas History Will Be Written

If there was ever a question in the mind of any Texan as to whether or not a giant exhibition would be held in 1936, that doubt has been dispelled.

This is the opinion of Will H. Mayes, Austin, executive secretary of the Texas Centennial Commission.

Cullen F. Thomas, Dallas, president of the Texas Centennial Commission, has left Dallas on an extended vacation trip, taking him to Chattanooga, N. Y., and other points. He will be absent through the month of September.

In his absence Lowry Martin of Corsicana, vice-president, automatically becomes president of the Texas Centennial Commission. He will act in an executive capacity in all matters concerning the commission until Mr. Thomas returns.

Mr. Mayes Says:
"Prior to the organization meeting of the commission in Austin on June 6 my mail indicated that a considerable portion of the public had grave doubt as to whether the state would be able to stage the exhibition. Following that meeting there has been a radical change in the viewpoint. Now all the mail is optimistic. All are making suggestions. Those towns having historical shrines near them are indicating active preparation to participate."

Mr. Mayes for more than a quarter of a century was himself an active newspaper editor and publisher, and a former president of the Texas Press Association. His ability to gauge public sentiment is recognized in all sections.

Centennial Not Just Ballyhoo
"There was a gradual change in the public viewpoint," Mr. Mayes said, "from the day the legislature made its appropriation for the preliminary work of the commission. The people then began to realize that the Centennial idea was not ballyhoo, but the presentation of a great plan which had gotten so far along as to command legislative approval."

"Now with the commission having announced a definite working plan for those cities desiring to secure the central exhibition, with it having been made plain what cities having historic shrines are expected to do to have their share in the Centennial, everybody has a job, a definite goal, and can go to work. "In no movement have I ever witnessed this early as much favor-

Methodists Plan to Relate Story of Service to Texas

September Meetig in San Antonio Will Attract Church Leaders from All Over U. S.

A review of Texas Methodism as it is written on the pages of time during the last century will be a feature of the Methodist centennial observance in San Antonio September 4 to 6.

More than 10,000 are expected to attend. Notable Methodists from many parts of the United States will attend, according to the Rev. H. Bascom Watts, pastor of the Laurel Heights Methodist Church, San Antonio, who was recently quoted in the San Antonio Light.

Sessions will be held in the municipal auditorium and in the open air theater of Brackenridge Park.

Pageant to Be Feature
The San Antonio newspaper story told of the pageant in this manner:

The three-day celebration will be climaxed by a historical pageant to be staged at the municipal auditorium under the direction of Miss Jeston Dickey.

More than six thousand players will enact the story of John Wesley and his council of nine; the ordination of Coke and Ashbury, and the first general conference.

The pageant will follow the varying fortunes of the church in the wild Texas frontier, revealing its achievements in churches, colleges, press, missions and orphanages.

One of the high spots in the pageant will concern the founding of McMahan's chapel, 12 miles east of San Augustine, in July, 1834. It was the first protestant church established on Texas soil.

Four Founded First Church
This church, which still stands, was founded through the efforts of William and James P. Stevenson, Henry Stephenson and Colonel Samuel Doak McMahan.

Colonel McMahan, a native of Tennessee, moved to Texas in 1831 and was converted the following year. He was the first man licensed to preach in the state.

Sharing honors with Colonel McMahan as Pioneers in Texas Methodism were the first three Texas missionaries, Robert Alexander, Littleton Fowler and Martin Ruter. During the session of the first general conference of the church at Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1836, news of
