Sonora Drenched By 2.45 Inches of Rain

Funeral Sunday For G. W. Stephenson, Here Many Years

Known By Many As Raiser of Pure Bred Angora Goats; Once Deputy Sheriff

Death shortly after midnight Saturday claimed G. W. Stephenson, 77, another of the fast thinning group of ranchmen who knew Sutton county and this section in the days before there were fences and conveniences of living which have become common in the last quarter of a century.

Mr. Stephenson's death came after an illness of about six months. At several times during that period he had been well enough to be downtown. His condition became critical Saturday morning about five at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rose Thorp, at whose home he died. He was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Besides Mrs. Thorp he is survived by a son, Guinard, Sonora business man and ranchman, and a son, Wirt, also a ranchman. A daughter, Mrs. R. H. Chalk of Del Rio, died in September, 1913.

Services were conducted at Mrs. Thorp's home Sunday afternoon by the Rev. W. S. Ezell, assisted by the Rev. Frank Nixon. Burial was in Sonora cemetery in a grave which he had ordered dug and concrete lining built shortly after his wife's death in April, 1924. Pallbearers were: R. D. Trainer, J. D. Lowrey, Tom Sandherr, B. W. Hutcherson, Jack Wardlaw, J. W. Trainer, Ed Mayfield, Stanley Patton.

Ancestors From Louisiana

Mr. Stephenson's grandfather was a native of Louisiana and came to Texas in the days when it was a republic. Mr. Stephenson told of how his grandfather used to tell him of being a gunsmith with whom the peaceable Cherokee Indians dealt frequently.

It was in Chambers county on Texas' coastal plains, where his grandfather from Louisiana had settled, that Mr. Stephenson was born Aug. 8, 1857. He was educated there and lived in that section until he was thirty-nine when he moved to Bell county of which Belton is the county seat.

Two years later, in 1898, he came to Sutton and settled on a 16-section ranch eight miles northwest of Sonora around which he built his ranch holdings which at one time amounted to thirty-two sections, lying in Sutton and Schleicher counties.

Specialized in Goats

Dealing chiefly in cattle at first Mr. Stephenson's interests in later years were shifted to a large extent to the raising of sheep and pure bred Angora goats. His breeding stock was in demand by livestock men in many parts of the United States. He has been said to have been the first man to import South African billies as well as having been among the first to have erected wolf-proof, woven wire fences in this section. The first telephone line from Sonora to a ranch was strung by Mr. Stephenson along the fence between here and his place.

The bay Shetland pony owned by the children of Guinard Stephenson has a new home.

Tuesday it was taken by Emmet Maddox to the Stephenson Ranch where it will live in the future.

Born early this month the bay is handicapped to the extent of having been born blind. Perfectly formed in other ways the colt is "doing well" and is expected to have the normal life ordinarily enjoyed by a Shetland.

First Eastern Star School Here Success

Five Grand Officers Take Part in Wednesday Instruction

One hundred and nineteen registered at the Order of the Eastern Star School of Instruction held Wednesday at the courthouse.

Twelve chapters represented were:

Eldorado, Christoval, Mertzon, San Angelo, Dallas, San Antonio, Fort McKavett, Junction, Ozona, Coshoma, Austin and Big Lake.

Mrs. Poer of Eldorado gave the invocation. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Jessie Johnson with the response by Mrs. Marie Hoggett of Mertzon.

The five grand officers attending the session were:

Mrs. Anne Canze, district deputy grand matron; Mrs. Mae Simms, grand examiner; Mrs. Gussie Edens, deputy grand matron; Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Texas; Mrs. Florence Read, grand conductress. Each was presented with a gift at the close of the school.

The decorations of evergreens, cut flowers, potted plants and a lighted star in the east provided an attractive setting for the program presented. A song, "My Task," was sung by Mrs. Estelle McConnell.

Initiates were Mrs. Winnie Fields and W. P. McConnell, Jr.

The Sonora chapter received sixteen B certificates and five A certificates.

The members of Woman's Club held open house from four until six for those attending the school.

The grand officers accompanied by Mrs. Tommie Weatherby of San Angelo left Thursday for Del Rio to attend a school there.

This is the first school held here.

MRS. ARDENNA SPEED AGAIN IN LAUNDRY BUSINESS

Again in business under her own name and management Mrs. Ardena Speed has opened a laundry in the old Orange Cross Drug Store building.

Mrs. Speed operated a laundry in the Craddock Building until a short time ago when she formed a partnership with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis for operation of the Ideal Laundry in the Morris Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are continuing their business in their location.

Trail was routed—was located the old Wall Well, known in early days as the only water between the Llano and the Pecos rivers. Travelers through the country stopped there for water for themselves and their livestock. Arrowheads and other articles found near the well indicate that it was at one time a favorite meeting place of the Indians.

Served Sutton County

In 1924 and 1925 all of his land except six sections was divided by Mr. Stephenson among his children.

During all of his years Mr. Stephenson was actively interested in the ranching and livestock industry. He was a member of the Angora Goat Raisers' Association. From 1903 to 1907 he served Sutton county as deputy sheriff and from 1900 to 1902 was a county commissioner, aiding in directing the affairs of Sutton county citizens.

A decision made at a meeting of committee members Saturday afternoon determined that net profits, if any, of the Race Meet and Rodeo set for June 27 and 28 will be divided among three Sonora organizations.

Plans are being made for calf roping, wild horse and steer riding as well as the six-event race meet which is to be conducted each afternoon.

Arrangements were completed with R. Walter Davis, through his sons, Haynie and W. L., that no rental fee would be required for the use of the park if profits are used in community work.

This was the generous offer of Mr. Davis and his sons who are interested in establishing an annual celebration here which will be worth while and yet will be handled on a business-like basis which will not work a hardship on business firms or any individual citizen.

Seventy-two years old March 15 Mrs. J. W. Mayfield, pioneer Sutton county citizen, posed for this picture in the backyard of her home recently. Mrs. Mayfield, the mother of Ed C. Mayfield, prominent ranchman, came to this section with her husband when she was only twenty-four. First they lived on the Llano where they herded their sheep. Then they moved to the Fort McKavett country and a few years later settled in Sutton county on what is now the R. A. Halbert Ranch, eight miles from town on the Menard Road.

Judge Praises Nine Pupils Who Finish High School Work

Class of 1935 Gives Fish Pond As Parting Gift To Sonora High School

Nine seniors of Sonora High School were commended Friday night by the Honorable O. S. Lattimore, Texas jurist, as he told of their "passion for finishing," a course which many had tried but which only a small number was completing.

All of the members of the graduating class were presented their diplomas by R. S. Covey, superintendent, who also presented Joseph Logan, valedictorian, and Viba Holland, salutatorian, with scholarship awards given by Texas educational institutions. Logan was also given a scholarship key.

Those who were graduated were: Viba Holland, Joseph Logan, Raymond Morgan, Lem Eriel Johnson, Alvis Johnson, Jr., Marvin Smith, Dorothy Penick, V. J. Glasscock, Winnie Mae Trimble.

Fish Pond Given School

A fish pond to be erected in front of the school building was presented by Dorothy Penick as the class gift. It was dedicated to the late Miss Vivian Ball, former elementary school instructor. The instruction Miss Ball gave those who are now alumni of the "Class of '35" was her first in Sonora.

Valedictory and salutatorian addresses were made by Joseph Logan and Viba Holland. The invocation and benediction were by the Rev. W. S. Ezell and the Rev. Frank Nixon.

The graduates were urged by Judge Lattimore to set high goals for themselves and to strive toward their respective goals as they tried to be what their parents and friends hoped they would be.

"You have incurred debts to your parents, to your school district, to your state," Judge Lattimore declared. "The world admires the one who tries to pay his debts. Make up your minds to repay all of these debts that you possibly can. Make a little payment along if you can't pay it all."

Sober Thinking Needed

"I urge you to think soberly as you select your course through life. Don't drift into something you are not fitted for. Get hold of the right, the honorable thing and stick to it."

"You have one main chance. Get on the right road to wherever you want to go and stick to it. Don't treat your big chance carelessly for there is a big award out there. (Continued on page 3)

AMARILLO MAN LOCATES DISTANT RELATIVE HERE

A second cousin whom he had never seen, Oscar Randal, Amarillo druggist, visited W. C. Mabray last week while on his way to Houston.

Mr. Randal knew that his grandfather, Jasper N. Mabray, had died here but he did not know that any relatives of the gentleman were living here. Mr. Mabray died in 1905. Upon inquiring here he found that his mother's cousin was a Sonora resident, he called on Mr. Mabray and the two "worked out" their relationship.

RESTAURANT BUSINESS NOW OWNED BY MRS. BARTON

The restaurant business, known as Gabe's Lunch Room, which has been operated by Gabe Smith who moved to Menard last week is being carried on under the direction of Mrs. Totsie Barton.

Mrs. Barton opened the place for business Wednesday of last week under the name of "Riverside Cafe." Employed with her are her son, James T., George Trainer and Miss Gladys Neill formerly of Hamilton, Texas.

Edgar Glasscock spent Wednesday and Thursday with his parents returning to Kerrville Friday where he is in school.

Nearly All of Sutton Section Gets Rain Wednesday

TRAFFIC DELAYED

Lowrey Draw Quickly Rises Soon After Downpour

What the most pessimistic of observers would grudgingly be obliged to admit was a "general" rain over Sutton county fell in an hour early Wednesday evening and by midnight had caused Lowrey Draw to rise to a point traffic was not possible over the detour being used while the concrete bridge is being erected.

The fall in Sonora was 2.45 inches and reports Thursday noon from many sections of the county indicated that nearly all ranches had received half an inch and some as much as two inches.

By eleven Wednesday night the volume of water coming down Lowrey Draw was sufficient to be within four or five feet of the foot bridge flooring which could be felt to quiver as the powerful stream

Navigators sailed the "bounding main" of Lowrey Draw Thursday afternoon where only twenty-four hours before Buckner Bros., bridge contractors, finished pouring two concrete expansion footings each 9 1/2 by 52.

Among those enjoying "yachting" ("the sport of millionaires") on the murky waters were: Sam Merck Odom, "Peck" Kring, Glendon Westbrook, Harold Briscoe and Billie Bricker. None wore a white cap or double-breasted blue coat.

S. A. Kimbrell, general foreman, said yesterday afternoon that he did not believe the footings had been damaged and that work would be resumed Saturday or Monday. Three more footing slabs are to rest on the two in place, with tar paper between to provide for possible expansion.

struck the timbers. On the Ozona highway the water came nearly to the Dry Devil's River bridge level and just beyond the structure the water flowed over the highway and made crossing unsafe.

Traffic South Delayed

Travelers were unable to get through to Del Rio Thursday morning on account of the water flowing across the road at Meckel Draw, thirteen miles south of town, where it was flowing over the flood gauge.

A highway wrecker was dispatched to the scene at noon Thursday by H. L. Taylor, section foreman, to assist travelers in getting through the dip. George Potter was in charge of the crane, mounted on a Liberty army truck.

A NEWS representative early Thursday morning went some thirty miles out on the Junction highway. At a section about twenty-three miles from Sonora the rainfall seemed to have been considerably lighter.

Half Inch Near Well

An amusing paradox of the rain was that at the Harold Evans well, where water is being pumped by highway employees for use in shaping the highway being topped, it was necessary to wait for the half a mile of road to dry out before hauling could be resumed. Jess Barton, George Potter, Pedro Crowell and R. E. Barfoot of the highway department said half an inch fell at their camp near the well.

Reports Thursday morning and at noon indicated the following amounts of rain at various sections of the county and adjacent territory.

Lions To Work On Scout Hut Project

Highway Plans of Ozona Lions Club Described

Discussion of plans under way during recent months for securing a Scout home for Troop 19, Sonora, engaged the attention of Lions Club members Tuesday.

J. M. Puckett is chairman of a committee working on the project. He announced Tuesday that John Eaton and R. D. Trainer had been selected to work with him.

Mr. Eaton, president-elect, presiding in the absence of R. S. Covey, president, explained that there were two proposals being made.

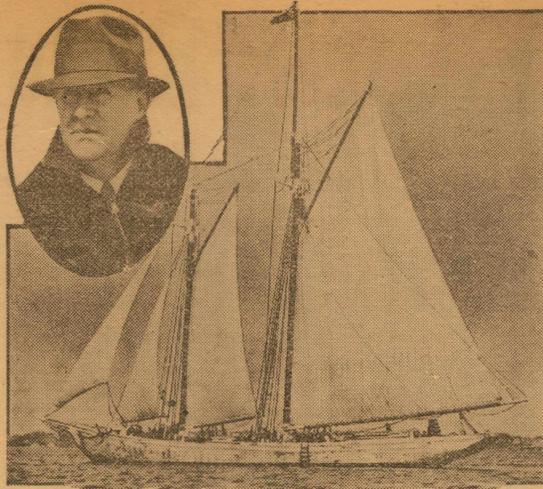

One of these would provide for a new meeting place for troop and patrols, built somewhere other than where the present building is located. The other plan is to secure the present frame structure, erect a foundation and rock veneer the building.

Mr. Eaton said that the latter plan was considered more feasible. Title clearance is necessary and the removal of a lien against the building must be removed before purchase can be accomplished.

H. V. Stokes, explained in detail plans for the celebration which has been set for June 27 and 28.

Another letter was read which told of plans of the Ozona Lions Club to erect large signs urging travel over the Old Spanish Trail. The signs would be built near Van Horn and San Antonio. The letter was turned over to the committee recently appointed for the purpose of cooperation with the Ozona group in the work they propose.

Here are John Hays Hammond, Jr., and the Diamantina, converted rum-runner which he has refitted and on which he proposes to sail around the world. Hammond will try to discover the locality and cause of certain dead spots at sea where radio waves are inactive, and also will promote the development of faster and more efficient sailing craft to compete with power vessels.

MARTINEZ CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF LIQUOR

Most any traveler will agree that it's bad to run out of gasoline for it has been found that automobiles just will not run without that volatile fluid.

But it's especially bad, Daniel Martinez might tell you, if one runs out of gasoline when the deputy sheriff happens along.

Martinez and two companions, Roul Castillo and Alfred Cepeda, were arrested Sunday afternoon by Cashes Taylor, deputy sheriff, on the San Angelo highway near Sonora, when he found twenty-two pints of alleged intoxicating liquor in the car. A charge of possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor was filed against Martinez Wednesday and bond set at $1000.

Mr. Taylor said that three or four half gallon jars containing liquid were broken when the trio sighted him coming down the highway.

Attends Bankers' Meeting Mr. and Mrs. George H. Neill and children left Sunday for Galveston where he attended the Texas Bankers' Convention. They also visited Mrs. Neill's mother, Mrs. W. F. Harris, of Cuero.

BLOCK DEATHS AT UNSAFE CROSSINGS

Reduction of Road Hazards Is Most Pressing Need.

Washington.—Extensive elimination of railway grade crossings as part of the public works program will meet pressing needs for reduction of highway hazards, facilitation of traffic and prompt provision of widespread employment, according to a statement issued by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

"There are at present approximately 237,000 rail-highway grade crossings in the United States, of which 4,700 are protected by gates, 6,200 by watchmen and 20,000 by signals. The remainder are protected only by fixed warning signs," the statement declared.

"During the past ten years accidents at rail-highway crossings have caused more than 20,000 deaths, nearly 60,000 injuries and extensive property damage. While for several recent years there were reductions, the record for 1934 shows a pronounced increase over 1933.

"Besides the losses due to accidents, there is a continuing cost to highway users from delays experienced at grade crossings, amounting in the aggregate to many millions of dollars annually.

"There is a sufficient number of crossings where established accident records justify elimination of the hazard, and for which plans are ready or could be completed promptly, to assure a large program of unemployment relief that can quickly be put into operation. In addition, an effective organization already exists in the bureau of public roads and the state highway departments to carry out such a program without delay."

Health Measures Wipe Out Smallpox in Mexico

Mexico City, Mex.—So successful has been the campaign of the federal health authorities in Mexico against the ravages of smallpox, a plague that cost the lives of 17,405 persons in that country in 1920, that it is well on the way toward being wiped out, according to a report recently given out in Mexico, D. F., by Dr. Miguel E. Bustamante, chief of the federal sanitary service in the states. It is stated that there are no fewer than 68 important cities and towns in the republic without a single case of smallpox, while in eight other cities there are only from one to three cases.

Doctor Bustamante explains that as fast as his agents clean up a neighborhood and vaccinate the population they move on into fresh territory, so that it is merely a matter of time when the whole country will be practically immunized. He estimates the deaths in the whole country from smallpox this year as much less than a quarter of the 1920 figure.

Vacation Weather Policy Is Popular in Britain

London.—Having a little "futter" on the weather when people go on holidays is a gamble that is spreading among all classes. There is a branch of the city insurance market which encourages such futters.

Premiums vary, but for one pound for a week's "cover" you can get seven pounds if a fifth of an inch of rain is recorded at a holiday resort on three days. In September the amount is eight pounds.

One class of policy covers 24-hour days. In other words, if rain should fall in the night, compensation would be paid just the same.

Many weather insurances have been taken out against shortage of rainfall this season, as well as excessive rain. Policies have been taken out by farmers to cover losses should no rain at all fall for certain periods.

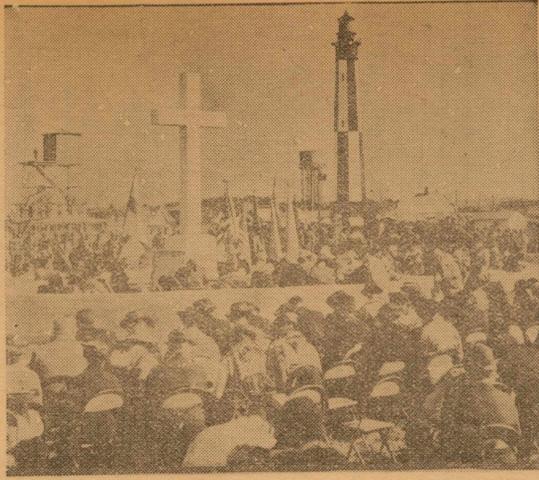

Most Curious People of All Europe Are "Wends"

Berlin.—Just 60 miles from here, at Vetschau, live one of the most curious folk of all Europe, a small colony of Wends, who still speak the language of their ancestors rather than German and wear the costumes of centuries ago. On Sundays the women dress in elaborate headgear, an enormous lace apron over their skirts, and ride solemnly off to church on their bicycles. Village lasses are also good boatmen, propelling the flat-bottomed punts of the country expertly along canals. Late in summer many visitors come to Vetschau for the great folk and costume festival.

Without a Country; He Lives on Vessel

Haifa, Palestine.—Herman Zevi Nibam, carpenter, is a man without a country, living on a ship, the S. S. Dacia, in Haifa harbor. Nibam, a resident of Palestine since 1925, says that some months ago his wife left him and in his hurry to overtake her he boarded a ship for Rumania and forgot to take his passport. Now the Palestine authorities refuse to let him come ashore.

Cowboy Reunion To Have Better Grounds

Coleman July Affair Attracting More and More People

Stamford, Tex., May 23.—Seating capacity at the rodeo arena on the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds is being increased to 10,000 by the rebuilding and enlarging of one of the present grandstands to provide 2000 additional seats. The improvement will be completed in ample time for the sixth annual Texas Cowboy Reunion July 2, 3, 4.

Enlargement of the stand will give a total of approximately 8000 grandstand seats in addition to the bleacher seats accommodating about 2000 persons. Plenty of standing room and a small amount of space for automobiles is also available on one side of the arena.

The improvements are being made to take care of the increasing crowds which flock here each year for the cowboys' meeting. A guest cabin at which distinguished reunion visitors will be entertained is another improvement being made on the grounds this year.

A new fence has been built around the chuck wagon or camp area on the grounds to provide more privacy. A number of ranch outfits each year bring their chuck wagons to Stamford and the cowboys here while taking in the reunion and competing in the rodeo. Some new pens at the arena are also included in the improvements.

Judge Lattimore decried the passing of the old fashioned home with its family group gathered in the evening for games and conversation. He believes that this decadence of American life can be blamed for the increasingly large number of young people who come before his court of criminal appeals in Austin. About 1000 cases each year are considered by his court—the supreme one in the state for criminal cases.

Thirty Million Miles of Ford Economy

Actual Figures Show The Ford V-8 is 12% More economical than the Model A. and 31% More economical than the famous Model T.

MORE MILES. Faster miles. Greater economy . . . that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which have run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 599 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 80 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,886 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles. . . . For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles. . . . And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8.

Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate.

WE HAVE ENDURED

From St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

We're a hardy people, we Americans. Consider what we have endured. When mah jong swept the country, the national fiber held firm, and the Chinese invasion at last was banished to the ash bin.

Pogo sticks hopped in and hopped right out again; put-and-take tops twirled themselves into oblivion; America marched on. Its stomach survived the home-brew recipes of the prohibition era; its endurance met the test of the tree-sitting and flagpole-sitting epidemic; it wobbled through the wearying rounds of the late marathon dance.

Cross-word puzzles, once a mass mania, have been stabilized as a mild and dignified institution. Softball and ping-pong similarly have been modified into minor sports. The stock market was for a span the great national craze, and we are now industriously walking back, shaken but not shattered, from that ride.

Again the nation finds itself in the grip of a gargantuan popular hysteria, but need we despair! The send-a-dime chain letter is following the ancient pattern. It is denounced by press, pulpit and post-office. It interferes with business and displaces other topics of conversation. It enriches the early-bird promoters, provides a few jobs and gives its participants a jolly good time.

America has endured war, pestilence and periodic crazes. Let us have faith in the national stamina, while we speculate on the next great manifestation after the last chain letter is delivered by a tottering postman.

MONSTER MAMMAL IS RECONSTRUCTED

Museum Shows Largest Animal That Ever Lived.

New York.—The largest land mammal that ever lived was taller than a giraffe—twice as long as a full-grown elephant—tipped the scales at the combined weight of 100 average men—and needed about 500 pounds of food per day to keep from starving.

It is the Baluchitherium, a super-giant prehistoric rhinoceros that lived in Asia about 25,000,000 years ago when the Gobi desert was a paradise of woods and waters—75,000,000 years after the dinosaurs had laid their last eggs and long before the coming of man.

This information was made public by the American Museum of Natural History and is based upon data collected over a long period of exploration by Dr. Walter Granger and of research by him and Prof. William K. Gregory of the museum's scientific staff.

In preparing the restoration of this animal, Doctors Granger and Gregory studied some 200 Baluchitherium bones which represented about twenty animals of varying sizes. In no case, however, were there enough bones to make a complete skeleton. This disappointment was largely offset by the presence of enough material to furnish an accurate yardstick which, after months of research, provided a picture of this super-beast of the past.

The restoration now completed at the museum visualizes an animal that was 17 feet, 9 inches tall at the shoulders and almost 30 feet long and weighing in the neighborhood of 20,000 pounds, that looked like a rhinoceros that lacked the horns of the present-day rhino. It had long legs, a small head, a large neck, and doubtless a tough hide. Its teeth were unusual in that it had two great incisor teeth in each jaw, which the animal probably used in tearing leaves and branches from bushes. Its name, the Baluchitherium, is derived from the fact that the first fossils were found in Baluchistan.

New Device Will Keep Pictorial Flight Log

Baltimore, Md.—A new device designed to keep a "pictorial log" of an airplane flight has been tested here on a Glenn L. Martin airliner.

Two small cameras, attached to tripod brackets fastened to the ceiling, took several pictures of the ship's instrument panels. In less than a second, the cameras had completed a permanent record of the reading on all instruments.

The cameras eventually will be operated by clockwork so that the panels may be photographed every five minutes, or at any other period desired.

Developed films will reveal a pictorial log of the plane's altitude, speed, weight of fuel, heat of engines and other data as indicated by the instruments at a particular moment.

It is believed impossible for a pilot or co-pilot to keep as complete a log in writing.

Sees Trouble for Radio in Sun Spots Activity

Kansas City, Mo.—Sun spots are giving indication of activity, according to George C. Blakslee, photographer for the Yerkes observatory, and that, he believes, spells trouble for radio. The spots, any one many times larger than the earth, have been more or less dormant for several years, but past records, over a long period of years, show they are due for a period of exceptional activity.

Hunters "Get Best" of Mountain Lions

Sacramento, Calif.—Predatory animal hunters are "getting the best" of mountain lions in California.

Only 215 lion scalps were turned in for bounty last year, compared with a previous average of 270.

Instead of believing hunters were losing their aim, officials of the state fish and game division said here that there was reason to believe that in nearly all parts of the lion country, hunters were winning out in their long battle to rid the ranges of the stock killers.

"The best evidence is the increased percentage of females turned in for bounty," one official said. "Last year female lions constituted 57 per cent of the kill."

DETERMINE SOURCES OF NIGHT SKY LIFE

Chicago and Texas College Professors Make Study.

Chicago.—Although the huge 82-inch telescope of the McDonald observatory, joint project of the University of Texas and the University of Chicago, on Mt. Locke, Texas, is not yet completed, an investigation is already under way near the new observatory to determine the sources of light in the night sky.

Using an old 12-inch refracting telescope which was presented some years ago to the Yerkes observatory of the University of Chicago by Dr. G. E. Hale, assistant Professor C. T. Elvey of the Yerkes staff and Dr. F. E. Roach of the McDonald observatory have been recording the light of the night sky with a recording photo-electric photometer designed by Doctor Elvey.

The light of the night sky is made up of direct starlight; starlight which is scattered both by the earth's atmosphere and the matter in interstellar space; zodiacal light which is concentrated in the ecliptic but which may extend over the entire sky; and of the light originating within the atmosphere of the earth; the permanent aurora. This aurora is not the polar aurora, or northern lights, although it is related to it.

Many Study Problem. Many investigators have studied the problem of the composition of light, and a general investigation by the Dutch astronomer, Van Rhijn has shown the following percentage composition: Direct starlight, 18 per cent; starlight scattered by the earth's atmosphere, 5 per cent; zodiacal light, 43 per cent; aurora, 15 per cent, and scattered earthlight, 19 per cent.

It is well known to astronomers that there are large fluctuations in some of the sources of light, particularly of the zodiacal light and the aurora. Lord Rayleigh found that the light of the night sky undergoes large variations, with a range of eight-fold between the smallest and largest.

The variations are sometimes fairly rapid, Doctor Elvey having found in his work at Yerkes as much as a 25 per cent change in brightness of the sky within a period of two hours. There also are daily variations in the intensity of the auroral light in the night sky, which in some parts of the world reaches a maximum about 2 a. m., and in other parts is at its maximum just after twilight has ended.

These large variations have made detailed analysis of the light difficult, because during the several hours required to cover the sky, there are many changes in the light.

To make possible observations in a brief space of time Doctor Elvey devised the recording photo-electric photometer. It consists of a very sensitive galvanometer, which measures the output of the amplifier. The recording is achieved by shining a lamp on the galvanometer mirror, which reflects the light to a slit behind which is a moving sheet of bromide paper.

Deflections Recorded. The deflections of the galvanometer are then recorded on the bromide paper, which is directly connected to the photometer so that it moves past the slit as the instrument is rotated around the vertical axis. With this instrument a complete record of the brightness of the sky on a circle parallel with the horizon can be made in approximately five minutes, and the entire sky can be observed in about an hour. A check of the variations in light during this time can be made by observing a given region of the sky several times.

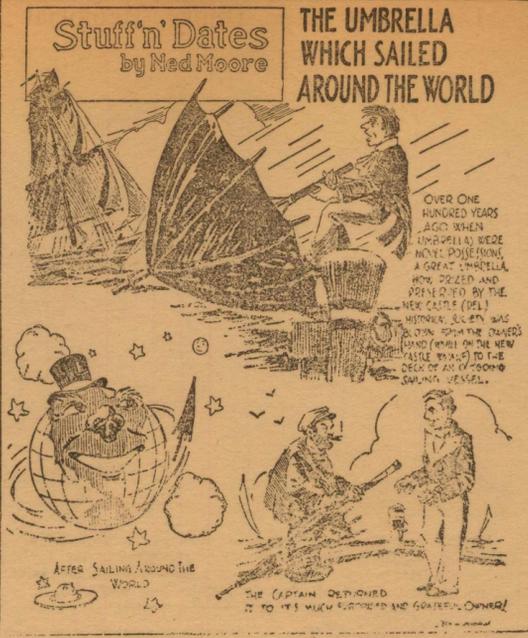

Doctor Roach already has obtained over a hundred tracings with the instrument, from which he and Professor Elvey have determined the axis of the zodiacal light, the cone of light that can be seen rising from the horizon after sunset and before sunrise.

Contrary to general belief, the axis does not coincide with the plane of the earth—the ecliptic. Observations show the morning zodiacal light is displaced to the north of the ecliptic by as much as five degrees. A series of evening observations indicate that in part of the ecliptic the zodiacal light was near the ecliptic, apparently crossing it.

The astronomers expect that a detailed analysis of the tracings will give the relative amount and the distribution of the light from various sources contributing to the total light from the night sky.

Girl General Manager of Airport in Alaska

McGrath, Alaska.—General Manager of the McGrath airport is Miss Helen Koenig, eighteen, dark, slender, part Eskimo girl. In winter she is out to the field in early dawn, clad in blazer and riding breeches, tending firepots that warm the motors from the 30 to 40 degrees below zero temperature. She handles all freight moved by the planes, hauling it to the airport by dog sled in winter. In summer, when ships land on the river, she uses a small motor boat. National Housing
Day Set For June

Ground Breaking on Model Homes To Start in Mid-June

Washington, May 22.—With definite arrangements already made in twenty-six states to break ground on model homes projects as a part of the observance of National Housing Day, June 15, scores of additional projects in other localities are being reported daily to the Federal Housing Administration. It is hoped that on June 15 approximately 2000 new dwellings will be started.

National Better Housing Day has for its purpose the focusing of public attention on home building and home ownership.

Construction of these homes will get under way simultaneously and, when completed, they will be open for public inspection for a stipulated period. A great majority will be eligible for financing under terms of the mutual mortgage insurance plan established under the authority of the National Housing Act.

Local better housing committees are sponsoring the movement in various localities in co-operation with banks, lumber companies, building material dealers, newspapers, radio stations, industrial concerns and others. In connection with the ground breaking ceremonies in many localities, elaborate programs are being planned with the help of the better housing committees which are in operation in over 7400 communities.

Planning of Menus
in Spring Not So Great A Problem

Both Seasonable and Staple Foods
Should Have Place in the Family's Meals

Staff Member
Department of Home Economics
CIA, Denton

Denton, May 23.—There is such an insistent call to the out-of-doors during the month of May that we may agree when we hear someone say that spring is the easiest time of the year to plan menus.

It is true that there is an abundance of fresh vegetables on the market just begging to be purchased; yet we feel the call of the out-of-doors and want to forget menus and menu-planning, but with a few suggestions we can picture delicious dishes, and we are back to the task of the home-maker.

In planning menus for May we should make use of fresh vegetables and fruits, but in planning I have tried not only to keep in mind our seasonable foods but also to use staple foods as in the case of rice and tomatoes.

Menu
Breakfast—Fresh berries, whole wheat cereal, cream and sugar, coddled eggs, buttered toast, coffee.

Dinner—Breaded veal chops, potatoes, turnip greens, buttered carrots, pineapple and date salad, bread, buttered oatmeal cookies, apricots.

Supper—Rice and tomatoes, squash, combination vegetable salad, bread, butter, tea.

Breakfast—Grapefruit, bran, cream, sugar, whole wheat muffins, butter, honey, coffee.

Dinner—Roast beef, browned potatoes, buttered asparagus, Waldorf salad, hot rolls, hermits, frozen custard.

Supper—Omelet, beet greens, bread, butter, fresh strawberries, tea.

Recipes

Coddled Eggs: Butter individual molds or cups, which may then be powdered with chopped parsley.

Slip an egg into cup, sprinkle with salt; put a few drops of cream over each yolk. Set molds in vessels or hot water and cook on top of stove or in a slow oven until eggs can be turned out.

Serve on toast. White sauce or tomato sauce may be used. Eggs may be cooked together in a plate and served without being removed from the plate.

Breaded Veal Chops: Select loin chops, or cut a steak from the round into individual pieces. Remove extra fat and dip meat in crumbs, egg, and crumbs again. Cook by pan-frying. Cook 25 to 30 minutes in a small amount of fat in frying pan, browning first on one side then turning, seasoning with salt and pepper, and browning on the other.

Oatmeal Cookies: 1 1/2 cup fat, 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons sour milk, 1 1/2 cup rolled oats, 1 cup chopped raisins or nuts, 1 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon soda and 1 pinch salt.

Mix ingredients as for butter cakes, adding rolled oats to dry ingredients, and adding raisins or nuts last. Drop by spoon on greased pans or baking sheets. Bake in a moderate oven for 12 to 15 minutes.

Whole Wheat Muffins: One cup whole wheat flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 egg and 4 teaspoons baking powder. Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk gradually then the well-beaten egg and the melted butter. Bake in a hot oven in a buttered pan for 25 minutes.

Hermits: One-third cup butter, 1 3/4 cup flour, 1-3 cup raisins, 1/4 teaspoon clove, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 2-3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons milk, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 tablespoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon mace.

Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, then raisins, egg well-beaten and milk. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add to first mixture. Roll mixture a little thicker than for vanilla wafers.

Station A Team Defeated By Score of 2 to 0 Sunday; Play in Ballinger Sunday

The slight lead in league standing enjoyed by the Ellis Parts team was lengthened Sunday in Sonora when the Station A Sonora team was defeated by a score of 2 to 0.

The San Angelo entry now has a percentage of .833 with five games won and one lost and Sonora is second with a percentage of .600 and three games won, two lost.

Eight scattered hits and the fanning of three San Angelo players was accomplished by Lefty White, ace hurler for the Station A nine Sunday. His work was excellent, however, by McKinney, new timber being used by the San Angelo team. McKinney allowed Sonora only three hits.

Big Lake Rodeo Have Novel Features

West Texas Rodeo Performers Will Enter Various Events

Big Lake, May 23.—"Rodeo" C. S. Phillips, in charge of the two-day rodeo and barbecue here June 20 and 21, has announced his program which carries about $750 in purses and prizes for the best rodeo performers who will be here from all over West Texas and several of the states.

A chuck wagon dinner will be served the first day, Mr. Phillips said.

A well known dance orchestra will be here to furnish music for platform dancing on the nights of the 19, 20 and 21.

Mr. Phillips expects the best ropers and riders throughout the western states to be present and they will include some of the annual performers at the Fort Worth fat stock show. Charlie Jones of Van Horn has already written that he will be here.

The first event will be a series of cowpony races for Reagan county horses only.

A feature of the first day's program will be a basket ball game played on horseback. Stiles has a team that will oppose one from Big Lake. This is the first game of this kind ever to be played in West Texas, and will be worth seeing, Phillips declared.

The third event will be a goat roping for boys fifteen years old and younger. First prize for the best two-day average will be shop-made roping spurs, and second prize will be shop-made riding spurs.

Other events include: free-for-all goat roping; bronc or steer riding; free-for-all calf roping; goat roping for Reagan county boys; belled calf roping; Reagan county calf roping.
