Good Wheat Crop Without Rain Made Here

Today the harvesters are busy ey county gathering the wheat is very good and The wheat is very good and much above the expectations of the most optomistic. Many fields are producing 20 bushels or mere to the acre, and there will probably be as much wheat pass probably be as much wheat pass though the elevators of Bailey county this year as there was in 1926; and this is in face of the fact that we have had practi-cally no rain since last Decem-fact that we have had practically no rain since last December.

There ir no question of this being the best farming country in the world! Where have you ever heard of a country that can go without rain for six months and then produce a wheat crop equal to that of Bailey country. The wheat weare havesting this year—wheat that was grown this dry spell, is testing around 60, and is as good wheat as was 60, and is as good wheat as was ever produced on the Plains, as far as quality is concerned!

Truly, this is the most wonderful country in the world

As dry as it is today, if we get a good rain within the next ten days, there will be a good crop of cotton planted, which will, in all probability, make a good crop. If it rains by the 10th of July, there will be a good wheat crop every year.

It is seldom that we really need irrigation in this country, but irrigation can be profitably used as crop insurance, and to make larger yields on every acre of land in this country; and when irrigstion can be had at a reasonable price for power and equipment for wells, nearly every farmer will have a well to insure his crop in dry weather. One watering from a well along in April, would have made a 25bushel average over the entire shallow water belt; for wheat makes good grain without any water from December to har-vesting time, and would surely make a big crop with water at the proper time.

VHY Chevrolet can offer such marvelously fine cars at such remarkably low prices

Only when you know the facts about the Chevrolet Motor Company is it possible to understand how Chevrolet can offer such marvelously fine cars at such remarkably low prices.

A unit of the General Motors Corporation, the Chevrolet Motor Company is backed by the vast resources and tremendous purchasing power of this mammoth organization. The twelve great Chevrolet factories are equipped with the most modern machinery known to engineering science—while tremendous volume production makes possible conromous savings.

These savings Chevrolet passes on to the purchaser by providing the greatest dollar-for-dollar value in the history of the automotive industry.

Therefore, if readers want a good paper, they should give preference to the firms who advertise in the paper. The business houses who advertise are the ones who make it possible for you to get a newspaper for so small an amount as is now the customary charge. Real estate agents who are trying to sell homes to people these days are at a disadvantage Read the following letter that such an agent received from a lady recently: "You ask me to buy a home; but why should I small this week?

We can answer the question by stating that the paper is as large as the business accorded it justifies. So far as reading matter is concernee, it is as large as usual, but a shortage of several pages of advertising accounts for the shortage of pages contained in the paper. The more advertising, the more advertising, the more advertising, the more paper. If fact, the more justified are we in giving our readers a larger and hatter assets.

There seems to be a hazy idea of people in general about what makes the wheels turn round in a print shop.—Just the same thing that makes the wheels go round in any factory or storemoney. Without an advertising any factory or store— without an advertising from marriage to omega, there round in any factory or store money. Without an advertising patronage, a paper must be reduced in size or lose money. Usually the ones who give the paper the least support are the ones who complain about the size of the paper, the publicity it gives the community, and scare the editor to death by threatening to start another paper. News matter does not bring in any money: it costs the publisher money to handle it. The subscription charged does not make money, for the blank paper costs about what the subscription price amounts to. Therefore, if readers want a good paper, they should give guaranty of stability, some consequences to the firms who ad-

Methodist Church Notes

Sunday school reached its highest point last Sunday. Now, let each of us increase our interest in the work, for at-tendance alone can't make the school all it should be. Attention should be given to well-prepried lessons. Some move should be made along this line in each class. Each member should be able to discuss the lesson, and if necessary, teach the class

The aim of the Sunday schoo is to study the Book and follow its teachings. Others need the help the Sunday school is able to give, and let us not fail to encourage them to come and take courage them to come and take part in the work. I will preach at Y-L next Sun-day, both morning and evening, and your presence will be high-ly appreciated at each of these

Mrs. J. E. Payne was selected June 15 at Mrs. I. W. Harden's.

Wednesday, June 15, the Methodist W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. I. W. Harden at 4

Rev. J. E. Payne conducted the lesson for the afternoon. He gave a review of the book we have recently gone over. There were twenty-one present. Four visitors. A most delicious cake and home-made ice cream were served. We decided that Mrs. Harden was an excellent cook, and we should like to go back again.

Rev. Payne will conduct the lesson Wednesday, June 22, 4 o'clock p. m., in the home of Mrs. Faulkner. Reporter. Mrs. Faulkner.
